16th verse Then I heard, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wrath, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men. Rev 12:3 4th verses. And there appeared another wonder in heaven, and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the least which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth, as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule the earth, and she fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, where she shall be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time. And the dragon was wroth with the woman, because she had borne a man child, and he went to war with her, to devour her child, and he fought with her, and he stood before her, for to devour her child, as soon as it was born. And she fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, where she shall be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time.

THE TEN KINGDOMS.

These three kingdoms were taken by Justinian, in Greek Emperor of Constantinople, whose decree made the Bishop of Rome, supreme head of the Churches, in 538.

These are the ten horns or kingdoms, into which Rome was first divided, they are now mingled with the seed of men and do not, cleave one to another. Daniel 2:43.

44th verse. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heavens set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed, and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. 45th verse. For as much as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the Great God hath made known, to the king what shall come to pass hereafter. And the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof is sure.

1st chap 8th verse. I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them, another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up, by the roots, and behold in that horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. 25th Interpretation. And he shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall wear out the Saints of the Most High, and think to change times and laws, and they shall give him into his hands, until a time, and times, and the dividing of time. 21st verse. I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them, until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the Kingdom. 13-14 verses of 7th chap. I saw in the night visions, and behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him, and there was given him Dominion, and Glory, and a Kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his Dominion is an Everlasting Dominion, which shall not pass away, and his Kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.
