There is need of a much closer study of the word of God; especially should Daniel and the Revelation have attention as never before in the history of our work. . . . The light that Daniel received from God was given especially for these last days. . . The book of Revelation opens with an injunction to us to understand the instruction that it contains. "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy," God declares, "and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand." When we as a people understand what this book means to us, there will be seen among us a great revival. . . . When the books of Daniel and Revelation are better understood, believers will have an entirely different religious experience. They will be given such glimpses of the open gates of heaven that heart and mind will be impressed with the character that all must develop in order to realize the blessedness which is to be the reward of the pure in heart. . . The Lord will bless all who will seek humbly and meekly to understand that which is revealed in the Revelation. . . We are standing on the threshold of great and solemn events. Many of the prophecies are about to be fulfilled in quick succession. . . Study Revelation in connection with Daniel, for history will be repeated. . . . We, with all our religious advantages, ought to know far more today than we do know. As we near the close of this world's history, the prophecies relating to the last days especially demand our study. . . . A message that will arouse the churches is to be proclaimed. Every effort is to be made to give the light, not only to our people, but to the world. . . Our own people need to have the light placed before them in clearer lines. . . If our people were half awake, if they realized the nearness of the events portrayed in the Revelation, a reformation would be wrought in our churches, and many more would believe the message. Testimonies to Ministers 112-118 Let the church commence the work of purification before God by repentance, humiliation, deep heart searching, for we are in the antitypical day of atonement --solemn hour fraught with eternal results. Selected Messeges, book 2, page 278 The judgments of God are in the earth, and, under the influence of the Holy Spirit, we must give the message of warning that He has entrusted to us. We must give this message quickly, line upon line, precept upon precept. Men will soon be forced to great decisions, and it is our duty to see that they are given an opportunity to understand the truth, that they may take their stand intelligently on the right side. The Lord calls upon His people to labor--labor earnestly and wisely--while probation lingers. Testimonies, vol 9, page 126
