Where is she deriving that statement from? Habakkuk 2.

> —"that the earth and the fullness thereof is the Lord's, and that necessary means should not be spared to make it plain."—

Engraved on these Tables.

> —"I saw that the old chart was directed by the Lord, and that not a figure of it should be altered except by inspiration."—

There is going to be a figure on the 1843 Chart that is altered by Inspiration: right up here, 1843 and 1843 [indicating the upper right-hand corner of the Chart]. It is going to be altered on this 1850 Chart, to 1844.

> —"I saw that the figures of the chart were as God would have them, and that His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none should see it till His hand was removed." Spalding and Magan, 1.

> Manuscript Releases, volume, pages 201 – 203:
> "On our return to Brother Nichol's, the Lord gave me a vision and showed me that the truth must be made plain upon tables,"—HABAKKUK 2—"and it would cause many to decide for the truth by the third angel's message with the two former being made plain upon tables." Manuscript Releases, volume 5, 201–203.

Manuscript Releases, volume 15, page 213:

> "The [1850] chart is being executed in Boston. God is in it. Brother Nichols has the charge of it." Manuscript Releases, volume 15, 213.

God is in it. God is in this 1850 Chart.

You do not see any endorsement like that with the 1863 chart, Brothers and Sisters. You do not see any connection with Habakkuk.

THE CHARTS ORDERED BY GOD

Manuscript Releases, volume 13, page 359.

You have got to ask yourself why you find all these things in Manuscript Releases, when you understand that Manuscript Releases were not released until the 1980s or so. It means that these statements were hidden, concealed, until the 1980s—concealed: the Old Paths!

> "I saw that God was in the publishment of the chart by Brother Nichols. I saw that there was a prophecy of this chart in the Bible,"—

Where does she say there is a prophecy of the 1863 chart in the Bible? She does not say it, but there is. There is definitely a prophecy of the 1863 chart in the Bible. We will deal with that as we progress.

We have already discussed it here: The golden calf, Aaron's counterfeit to the Law of God, is prefiguring the counterfeit of the Two Tables at the end, and that is why Aaron's golden calf is only one. Okay? But, we will deal with that later.

> —"I saw that God was in the publishment of the chart by Brother Nichols. I saw that there was a prophecy of this chart in the Bible, and if this chart is designed for God's people, if it [is] sufficient for one it is for another, and if one needed a new chart painted on a larger scale, all need it just as much. . . .
> "I saw that the charts [the 1843 and the 1850]"—THE TABLES, PLURAL—"ordered by God struck the mind favorably,"—

These two Charts, these Two Tables, were ordered by God; and, the message on them was gravened by the hand of God. Upon the testimony of two a thing is established.

So, how do you explain the foundations? By bringing line upon line; that is how you raise up the foundations of many generations. This is how you repair the breach in the Wall, restore the paths of righteousness to walk in and return to the former desolations, opening up the truth about the Daily.

> —"I saw that the charts [the 1843 and the 1850] ordered by God struck the mind favorably, even without an explanation. There is something light, lovely, and heavenly in the representation of the angels on the charts. The mind is almost imperceptibly led to God and heaven. But the other charts that have been gotten up disgust the mind, and cause the mind to dwell more on earth than heaven." Manuscript Releases, volume 13, 359.

There is one more waymark that we want to put in place, or I want to put in place here, as we close.

I am emphasizing things, of course, for future presentations. I mean, we have publicly in the past, in a very shallow way, shown that Daniel, chapter 1, is the First Angel's Message; Daniel, chapter 2, is the Second Angel's Message; Daniel, chapter 3, is the Third Angel's Message. We are going to begin to do that tomorrow in detail. And we are going to show that Daniel, chapter 4, Nebuchadnezzar's dream, is William Miller's dream; and that Daniel, chapter 5, is the time that we are living in right now; and that Daniel, chapter 6, is The Sunday Law crisis.

So, some of these things that we are putting in place here are for that purpose. And as we go through those histories, we will be dealing with what has been typified on these Two Tables [the 1843 and 1850 Charts].

So, as we are moving away from the three falls of Babylon, with Nimrod, Belshazzar, and Nebuchadnezzar, I am just wanting to make sure that we understand that one of the most important waymarks is this Falling Away.

THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY

So, this will not do much for those of you who do not have notes in your hand, but earlier in a presentation we went through the Mystery of Iniquity very carefully, last Sunday. And all I did was go and cut and paste just expressions that are symbols of the Mystery of Iniquity.

I know that by now, this audience here, I have been testing whether you have got it in your head, and you do. You know what the Mystery of Iniquity is, but I want to really cement it home.

What I cut and pasted were expressions from last Sunday's presentation on symbols of the Mystery of Iniquity. I am just going to read them very quickly.

One of the words used was AMALGAMATE, which means to mix:

> AMALGAMATE, v.i. To mix or unite in an amalgam; to blend. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.

- The message for these last days is not to become amalgamated with human devising
- They turn from heaven's light to human wisdom
- Solomon mingled error with truth
- Incorporated light with darkness, Christ with Belial, purity with impurity
- Teachers mingle the sentiments of infidel authors
- Man's teaching put in the place of God's teaching
- They reject divine truth for the wisdom of this world

This is the symbol, the definition of the Mystery of Iniquity.

But, perhaps the premier symbol is the expressions that follow:

- Sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair
- Intermarriage of those who feared God and those who feared Him not
- Called mixed multitude, because the Hebrews had intermarried with the Egyptians
- The Israel of God mingled in marriage with Phoenicia, Egypt, Edom, Moab, and Ammon
- Intermarriage with idolaters
- The holy seed have mingled themselves with the peoples of heathen lands
- Mingled with the depraved
- Mingled with the nations who had no fear of God
- Israel's apostasy was largely traceable to their mingling with heathen nations

- Mingled with the sons of Belial
- Alliances with pagan kingdoms

So, one of if not the primary symbol of the Mystery of Iniquity is this unholy marriage.

Okay. And what we are saying now is the Mystery of Iniquity in each of these histories [see Figure No. 45], it reaches maturity, and this is marked as the "Falling Away First." It is followed by Judgment when the man of sin is revealed.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, the perfection, the maturity, the climax of the Mystery of Iniquity is the "Falling Away" first, and then comes the man of sin.

I'm going to give you an example that you should be able to see now, without even thinking about it, and it is from Daniel. It is from Daniel 2, a commentary on Daniel 2. See if you do not see the Mystery of Iniquity in Sister White's comments. This is from The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, page 1168.

> "We have come to a time when God's sacred work is represented by the feet of the image in which the iron was mixed with the miry clay."—

What is that?

Is iron supposed to be mingled with clay? Can you mingle iron with clay?

This is something that is the Mystery of Iniquity.

> —"God has a people, a chosen people, whose discernment must be sanctified, who must not become unholy by laying upon the foundation wood, hay, and stubble."—

What are you suppose to lay on the foundation? Gold, First Angel's Message; Silver, Second Angels Message; Precious Stones, Third Angel's Message. The counterfeit is wood, hay, and stubble.

> —"Every soul who is loyal to the commandments of God will see that the distinguishing feature of our faith is the seventh-day Sabbath. If the government would honor the Sabbath as God has commanded, it would stand in the strength of God and in defense of the faith once delivered to the saints. But statesmen will uphold the spurious sabbath, and will mingle their religious faith with the observance of this child of the papacy, placing it above the Sabbath which the Lord has sanctified and blessed, setting it apart for man to keep holy, as a sign between Him and His people to a thousand generations. The mingling of churchcraft and statecraft is represented by the iron and the clay."—

What is the mingling of churchcraft and statecraft?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Mystery of Iniquity.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Mystery of Iniquity.

And when the world does that—this is at the end of the world in the time of the ten toes—that is the Falling Away.

What comes? The man of sin is going to be revealed and judgment is going to take place. Right? Do you see that sequence?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the image of the beast, Brothers and Sisters. The combination of church and state; the mingling of churchcraft and statecraft is the image of the beast.

> —"The mingling of churchcraft and statecraft is represented by the iron and the clay. This union is weakening all the power of the churches. This investing the church with the power of the state will bring evil results. Men have almost passed the point of God's forbearance. They have invested their strength in politics, and have united with the papacy. But the time will come when God will punish those who have made void His law, and their evil work will recoil upon themselves." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, 1168.

> "The 'image to the beast' represents that form of apostate Protestantism which will be developed when the Protestant churches shall seek the aid of the civil power for the enforcement of their dogmas. The 'mark of the beast' still remains to be defined." The Great Controversy, 445.

Many Adventists do not get this one. They think the mark of the beast and the image of the beast are the same thing; and, Sister White here plainly says, "Even if you do not understand what they represent, I just defined the image of the beast. The mark of the beast I will define later." That is what she just said. They are not the same thing.

She says the image of the beast is the combination of church and state: churchcraft, statecraft. It is an unholy alliance. It is the Mystery of Iniquity. And it happens at The Sunday Law in the United States, the full development.

Revelation 13:11:

> "[11]And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." Revelation 13:11 (KJV).

Who is this? This is the United States.

When does the United States speak as a dragon? At The Sunday Law.

> "The 'speaking' of the nation is the action of its legislative and judicial authorities." The Great Controversy, 442.

When they speak, they are going to pass a Sunday Law.

What has to happen before The Sunday Law?

The mark of the beast is one thing. What has to happen before? Church and state have to come together. The Mystery of Iniquity has to be accomplished first, in order for the man of sin to be revealed. It has to come first.

> "But what is the 'image to the beast'? and how is it to be formed? The image is made by the two-horned beast, and is an image to the beast. It is also called an image of the beast. Then to learn what the image is like and how it is to be formed we must study the characteristics of the beast itself—the papacy.
> "When the early church became corrupted by departing from the simplicity of the gospel and accepting heathen rites and customs,"—

What is that? The early church accepting heathen rites and customs, that is the Mystery of Iniquity.

> —"she lost the Spirit and power of God; and in order to control the consciences of the people, she sought the support of the secular power. The result was the papacy, a church that controlled the power of the state and employed it to further her own ends, especially for the punishment of 'heresy.' In order for the United States to form an image of the beast, the religious power must so control the civil government that the authority of the state will also be employed by the church to accomplish her own ends." The Great Controversy, 443.

Before it can pass The Sunday Law, the church has to take control of the civil government. All right?

When it speaks as a dragon in Revelation 13:11, that is the mark of the beast. Before that time, the Protestants of the United States have to hijack the government of the United States. And when they do, that is the image of the beast, and it is the unholy relationship that is the Mystery of Iniquity.

The Great Controversy, pages 448 – 449:

> "The enforcement of Sundaykeeping on the part of Protestant churches is an enforcement of the worship of the papacy—of the beast. Those who, understanding the claims of the fourth commandment, choose to observe the false instead of the true Sabbath are thereby paying homage to that power by which alone it is commanded. But in the very act of enforcing a religious duty by secular power, the churches would themselves form an image to the beast; hence the enforcement of Sundaykeeping in the United States would be an enforcement of the worship of the beast and his image." The Great Controversy, 448–449.

Okay. Now, Sister White was dealing with a false prophetess in her day and age who was teaching several erroneous ideas, and one of them had to do with the image of the beast. And in response to her (this was not to the false prophetess; it was to the promoter of the false prophetess), here is what Sister White says, Manuscript Releases, volume 15, page 15:

> "Several times during our conversation, in which you become very much in earnest, you repeated the sentence, 'O consistency, thou art a jewel!' I repeat the same with decided force to you. You say that Anna's visions place the > forming of the image of the beast after probation closes. This is not so. You claim to believe the testimonies; let them set you right on this point. The Lord has shown me clearly that the image of the beast will be formed before probation closes; for it is to be the great test for the people of God,"—

What is to be the great test for the people of God? The image of the beast.

> —"by which their eternal destiny will be decided."—

The image of the beast is not the mark of the beast. The mark of the beast is The Sunday Law, and we have a test of the image of the beast that comes before The Sunday Law, and the image of the beast is a symbol of—what?—the Mystery of Iniquity reaching its climax, its conclusion. And it is the "Falling Away" first in order for the man to be revealed.

> —"The Lord has shown me clearly that the image of the beast will be formed before probation closes; for it is to be the great test for the people of God, by which their eternal destiny will be decided. Your position is such a jumble of inconsistencies that but few will be deceived.
> "In Revelation 13 this subject is plainly presented; [Revelation 13:11–17, quoted].
> "This is the test that the people of God must have before they are sealed."—

When are we sealed? The Sunday Law.

There is a test by which our eternal destiny is decided, the image of the beast test that we must pass before The Sunday Law; because, that is where we are sealed.

> —"This is the test that the people of God must have before they are sealed. All who proved their loyalty to God by observing His law, and refusing to accept a spurious sabbath, will rank under the banner of the Lord God Jehovah, and will receive the seal of the living God. Those who yield the truth of heavenly origin and accept the Sunday sabbath, will receive the mark of the beast" Manuscript Releases, volume 15, 15.

SUMMARY

Now, I am putting some things in place for our studies; but, do you remember where we just read, where Sister White was talking about Daniel, chapter 2, the iron and clay that are in the toes of the image?

And what did she say that was? It was churchcraft and statecraft.

What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is church and state.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is church and state. It is the Mystery of Iniquity.

So, if you take Daniel 2 and you lay it over this line here [Nebuchadnezzar's Fall of Figure No. 45], Daniel 2, the iron and the clay, is right here [at the Falling Away first]. This is churchcraft and statecraft. This is the image of the beast. This is the climax of the Mystery of Iniquity.

What comes next?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The man of sin is revealed.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Judgment in the man of sin.

Is that what Daniel 2 says? First you have the iron and clay in the toes, churchcraft and statecraft; and, then what happens? A Rock comes and delivers judgment thereafter.

The image of the beast is the Falling Away that precedes the marking of judgment in the man of sin.

So, in reality, our probation closes before The Sunday Law, Brothers and Sisters.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we know that the Mystery of Iniquity doth already work, and as Laodiceans we all have been impacted by this amalgamation of the holy with unholy in several different spheres of our experience. We ask that you give us the discernment to recognize these inroads that Satan has made with us individually, that we might through the power of your Word, the power of your Holy Spirit separate from these ideas, these habits. We pray as this message continues to go forth in DVDs and in the LiveStreaming that you would bless it, that you would give discernment to those that are considering these things, for it is clear that the Mystery of Iniquity has almost finished its work in Adventism and that Belshazzar is about to call a feast just prior to The Sunday Law. We want those in Adventism that are willing to be awakened, to be awakened. And if this can be part of the work to do that, we ask that you would bless in that direction. As we break now for each of our individual day's work, we would ask that you would bless us and protect us; and, we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #27

Part Four: DANIEL

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for giving us a good night's rest, and we thank you for bringing some rain to this part of the country that we so desperately needed. And as we take up our worship this morning, we ask for the Latter Rain that we so desperately need. And we know to receive the Latter Rain the way that we should, we have to have vessels that are fit for it, and we ask that you forgive us of our sins, our transgressions that are preventing us from fully understanding the Word that you are giving to us at this time. We ask for the presence of your Holy Spirit in this presentation, that you would take control. Take the words and thoughts that I attempt to convey and touch them with coals from off your altar that they may be purified and that they might edify and strengthen your people and prepare the hearts and minds of those that hear these things. I ask in Jesus's name, amen.

THE FIRST ANGEL'S MESSAGE

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This study here we have done a couple of times publicly in the past but never in depth; and, I want to go through it kind of slowly here. And I thought I would talk a little bit about Providence before we got into this study.

When I was 25 years old, I was working in a natural park, a nature park in California. It was fairly close to Los Angeles. It is where, if you have ever watched television or the movies, you have seen this park. There have been more movies, more television shows, more commercials filmed in this park than any other place in the world by far, no question about it. It is outside Los Angeles, but even though it is just outside Los Angeles, it is out in the wilderness. It is a very distinctive rock formation.

Since the beginning of movies, since Hop-A-Long Cassidy, which was before my time, was getting filmed out there in those rocks; and, they are still out there doing it today.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inquiry as to the name of the rock formation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is called Vasquez's Rocks, named after a Mexican bandito in the beginning of California. When Los Angeles was a little town, he would rob Los Angeles and then he would escape to Vasquez's Rocks. I forget his first name.

Anyway, when I was 25 years old and totally in the world, I had all the keys to the buildings in that place because I was the one of a team that maintained it. And I came across a Bible.

I started reading the Bible and, for the first time in my life, came to understand the voice of the Lord. It was not an audible voice, but I knew the influence that was in this Bible I was reading at work (because I was hiding up in the rocks) was a genuine influence. And I knew I had to move from where I lived because no one was teaching me how to be a Christian. I determined that I wanted to be a Christian, whatever that was. And the town I lived in I had lived in all my life and I figured my lifestyle was of such a nature that in order to serve as a Christian, I needed to get out of that lifestyle.

So, I moved up an hour and a half above there, further out in the desert where my dad had a business going and I went to work with my dad.

We found a place to rent, a trailer in a trailer court. My daughter was three years old. She is 37 now. That is how long ago it was.

SISTER PIPPENGER: She was two.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: She was two years old. Okay.

And we are moving into this trailer that we just rented, and these two elderly people that happened to have a trailer right next to that trailer, they came out and asked if we were Christians; and, although I did not know what a Christian was, I said yes.

And they asked if we wanted to study the Bible.

"Sure."

They were in their seventies.

SISTER PIPPENGER: They were almost in their eighties.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I was going to say eighties. They were seventy-something or eighty-something. That is how old they were.

And so we agreed to study the Bible, because we were Christians.

And Luther said, "Well, what do you want to study?"

And I said, "I don't care."

So, he took us through Daniel and Revelation, from beginning to end.

And he did not live in that town. They had moved down there to take some chelation treatments because of their age. He lived in another state. He lived in Nevada and this was in California.

When he got done with those Bible studies, the Lord told him and his wife, "The reason that you came here was to give these people Bible studies, not for these chelation treatments." So, they moved back to Nevada and they sold us their trailer; and, that was the first home that we owned in our young marriage.

But, I am trying to get to a point to tell you something about Providence. I mean, there are three primary ways the Lord speaks to you—right?—through His Word, through an audible voice which never happens to me, and through Providence. And in that time period the Lord was speaking loud and clear through Providence.

One time we were at a Bible study at Luther's, and he began at Daniel 1 and he went all the way through and began at Revelation 1 and went all the way through. And we were in the part of Revelation where he was discussing the Seven Churches. If you have not ever looked at it, each of the Seven Churches has an historical figure associated with them, and he was teaching us that.

And we got to where we were studying the Church of Philadelphia, and for some reason or other I looked up into his bookcase and I saw all these books—White, White, White, White, White, that was on the binder of them.

So, I said, "What is this. Are these books published by White Publishing Company?"

I do not know why I asked that question, and I saw that he was nervous. "What is this guy squirming over this for?" So, I started pursuing what he was trying to keep from me.

By the end of that evening, we found out that these Seventh-day Adventist people, they believed this woman Ellen White was something close to a Biblical prophet. But for me, I was making the connection that probably they thought that this was the personality of Philadelphia. Okay? Because, he taught us enough of that.

So, I asked him when the Bible study was over, "Can I take a look at a couple of those books?" And then at random I took two of the Testimonies for the Church.

I went home. We lived next door. We just walked home. And I sat down with that Testimonies for the Church, and I just opened it up and here is a testimony. It did not say, "J," but it pretty much said, "Dear Brother J," and then it gave a testimony that was speaking directly to me, with the identical influence that I had been receiving from the Bible that I had been studying out in this natural park. I knew right then and there, without any Bible study on the Spirit of Prophecy, that these books written by this woman had the same inspiration as the Bible. And, of course, it was so overwhelming to me that I was in tears; and, I looked over at my wife and she had opened up the other Testimonies we had brought home, and it was, "Dear Sister K," and she was having the identical experience.

The next day, my sister who had lived in Ohio, we lived in California, had heard that I had gotten out of my world lifestyle and became a Christian. So, she remembered years before that she had bought some books and she put them in the mail, and the next day the books arrived. They had to have been sent days before from Ohio to get to our home the next day.

And the next day we get a box of The Conflict of the Ages series, plus Bible Readings for the Home, the big colporteur ones, the big ones. So, providentially, we have this experience with the Testimonies, and the next day we receive our first Spirit of Prophecy books, The Conflict of the Ages series.

So, for me, I never had a Bible study on the Spirit of Prophecy. The Lord told me the Spirit of Prophecy was valid through His Providence; and, I had not read any of it at that point.

And within a day or so, I had a dream; and, I do not ever have spiritual dreams. But, my dream was that I was climbing up this mountain, and it was not a mountain that had any vegetation on it. It was almost a solid rock mountain, and there was this path, a narrow path, and it was going up the edge of this mountain, and it was going up and it was getting narrower, and it was nighttime and you could not see the path. The only time you could really see the path is there was a storm going on, and there was lightning, and occasionally when it was lightning (the light would flash) the path would light up and you would have kind of an idea where the path was; because, it was winding, and it was going up this way [gesturing], and you could see down the side of this gigantic cliff.

But in this dream—and this was at the same time period—there is this elderly woman walking in front of me and she has a walking stick in her hand. And every time I get close to the edge where I am about to go over, she turns around and she taps me on the back.

In that time period the Lord was teaching us things providentially. There were other things going on during that time, like when we determined that we needed to return tithe to the Lord. We never knew what tithe was when we came under conviction while we were studying with these people that we needed to return tithe. So, I would calculate since I had been a Christian what I needed to return to the Lord. And I guess I was very pharisaical about it: I would calculate it down to the very penny.

And I do not remember what it was. It was something like $217.47, and my wife and I discussed it and we both agreed. We wrote out a check, even though we—well, we ultimately both agreed. It took some laboring with my better half, but we ultimately agreed. We wrote out that check that evening, even though we were broke. In those days we were poor. We quit the job we had and moved away. We were poor, so to speak; but, we agreed to do it.

The next day we got an Income Tax Refund from the IRS, on their own initiation, from a couple of years before for the identical amount, to the very penny, for what we had written out on tithe.

So, the Lord was leading us providentially.

And in that time period, as Luther—and I trust if Luther was here, he could understand this message; because Luther's presentation of Daniel and Revelation, it was straight. The only thing I wonder about, because I do not remember anymore, is what he taught about the Daily in the Book of Daniel. I just do not—even if he taught it, I do not remember it any longer, and at that time I was not focused on it.

But, he taught me something early on, and I kept it with me. For 19 years we went into—I guess "worldly" is the most accurate word—a worldly church, and it still is. And when we got there, once we joined that church, an Adventist church, the leaders there asked if I wanted to be the Lay Activities Director.

I did not know what Lay Activities even meant. What is Lay Activities? But, I figured if someone is asking you to do something and you are a Christian, you say yes. So, I took it.

They gave me a box of literally hundreds—not tens but hundreds—of requests from It is Written, Voice of Prophecy, all these various ministries, where people had written in asking for Bible studies and that church had never followed up on them. So, I was given hundreds of names in that local area. It was not a big population there.

So, right from the start, I started giving Bible studies, even though I did not know anything. We were doing two and three Bible studies a week for weeks and weeks and weeks. And you would go out to the address where the Bible study was: "Well, those people haven't lived here for ten years," or "Yeah, this is me. That is my handwriting, but I don't ever remember making this request." They were so old.

So, we worked on cleaning up that file and started doing Bible studies on a regular basis.

And one thing I had learned right from the start from Luther that always stuck with me—and here is where I am going to—is he told us about in Daniel that the prophecies of Daniel tell us what is going to take place at the end of the world; but, the stories of Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, those tell us how we have to live at the end of the world.

So, from that point on, as I was giving Bible studies—and we gave Bible studies to non-Adventists for many years, and then we had studies with our Adventist friends for many years—I always retained, not on purpose but it was just natural because it was the first thing I learned, the concept that the prophecies of Daniel are telling us what happens at the end of the world, but the stories of Daniel and the three worthies are telling us how we are to live at the end of the world.

And most Adventists believe that. In fact, this becomes an argument against the truth. One of the arguments that you hear against the truth is, "Oh, yes, I believe in 1 Corinthians 10:11, 'Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: . . . ,' but what I believe is they are teaching moral lessons that we need to understand before the end of the world; but, I certainly do not believe that history is going to be repeated in those illustrations. We are supposed to understand the moral lessons, but not expect for that history to be repeated."

So, that concept that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego illustrate how we are supposed to live, it is true but it gets perverted; because, the reality of it is, it is that all the ancient prophets spoke more for our times than the days in which they lived. Therefore, those stories are illustrating the end of the world, those stories of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

And that is what this particular study over the next few days is going to focus on, is that. Sure, the prophecies of Daniel 2, 7, 8, 9, and 11 are illustrating the nuts and bolts about what is going to take place at the end of the world; but, so are the stories of 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6. They are not simply teaching us moral lessons; they are actually illustrating the end of the world.

THE PROPHETIC CHAIN

And we will begin now. I am going to go slowly on this. As I was looking at it this morning, I do not think we will get all the way through these notes. We will take them up tomorrow. But, this is an important enough study in my mind to take some time with.

Ellen White tells us that William Miller—William Miller tells us; he says this, too—recognized the chain of truth, beginning in Genesis, going to the Second Coming of Christ. Both Miller and Sister White will tell us that.

And Sister White tells us that William Miller was given the commencement point for the chain of truth, and William Williams tells us the three commencement points that he was given was 677BC, the commencement of the seven times; AD508, the commencement of the 1335 and the 1290; and, 457BC, the commencement of the 2300. Ellen White says he was given the commencement of the chain of truth.

What the Lord has done for Adventism at the end of the world is He has given us the links in the chain of truth.

These are the links in the chain of truth [Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Samuel, Saul, Zedekiah, and Cyrus as depicted in Figure No. 46]. Now, this is not all of them.

When we are dealing with line upon line, we are using The Great Controversy, page 342, I believe, which says that God's dealings with men are ever the same. So, I am giving certain histories here to make a point; but, the histories between these histories, His dealings with those other histories are always the same.

And generally when we look upon the line upon line, if you have been following this worship presentation, generally when we look upon the line upon line, we are looking at how God deals with God's people in a revival and reformation. But we have seen here recently that He deals the same way even with the foolish virgins in that history. Judas went through the same process. Belshazzar went through the same process. God's dealings with men are ever the same. It is how they respond that makes the difference in the outcome.

So, what I am saying is these histories here, they are all links; and, in a chain, every link is the same. And the structure of the link of Bible prophecy is the 3:1 combination. All right? All these are 3:1 combinations, and the 3:1 combination for us is the Three Angels' Messages that came into history in the Millerite History, and the Fourth Angel's Message of Revelation 18. And that is the 3:1 combination.

And there are many characteristics, as we have already looked at, in this worship, of reform lines. But, at its simplest level, it is a 3:1 combination with a disappointment. A disappointment makes it easy to make a break between the 3 and the 1.

So, I want to show you these links that begin in Eden and go all the way to the end of the world, to show you that they are the same, even though they change as they go through history; and, they are the same, even though they change.

That is an oxymoron, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A dichotomy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A dichotomy. Okay.

So, with Adam you have the Father of Mankind. You have Christ, Adam, and Eve, all in the garden; but, then they [Adam and Eve] sin—that is the three: Christ, Adam, and Eve.

And they are all the Father of Mankind, one way or another.

Then Adam and Eve sin and they are driven out of the Garden. There is your disappointment.

And after that you have the fourth, and the fourth is Abel, talking about the Everlasting Gospel.

And in each of these links of the chain that I have up here, you will see a change in dispensation; because, when they leave the Garden here, before that time they were worshipping face to face with God. But, when they are driven out of the Garden, where are they going to worship now?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the gates of Eden.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the gates of the Garden.

And they do that until this history, the history of Noah. In the history of Noah, you have Shem, Japheth, and Ham.

The disappointment is the destruction of the Earth by the Flood.

And Noah is the fourth.

Now, notice, in this link [of Adam]—these people here [Figure No. 46]—the Father of Mankind; in this link [of Noah], the Father of Mankind. You always see some kind of connection between one line and the other link, but the structure of every link is always the same. It is a 3:1 combination, with a disappointment after the third. There are lots of other characteristics, too.

From Noah, we go to the time of Abraham; and, Abraham was visited by three heavenly visitors, was he not? Two angels and Christ; and, the disappointment was the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. Correct?

From Abraham, we go to Moses; and, for Moses we have Moses, Miriam, and Aaron, leadership. The disappointment by the Red Sea, we have looked at in this study. And the fourth is a new leader. The three are all family members, but this new leader is not a family member; it is Joshua.

From Adam, we have the transition from face-to-face worship to worshipping at the gates of the Garden; and, to Moses, it is transitioning to worshipping at altars. When Noah gets off the ark, he initiates altars; and from Moses it is from altars to the earthly sanctuary.

And then from Moses, the earthly sanctuary is moved to Shiloh. We have the story of Moses, Miriam, and Aaron, all family members, with a non-family member being the fourth, Joshua.

In this link of Samuel, we have three family members, Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas; and, the disappointment is the ark being captured by the Philistines; and the non-family member is Samuel. Okay?

So, there is a change of dispensation going on here. The sanctuary has been in Shiloh up to this point, and now it is moving to Jerusalem. The focus of worship is moving from Shiloh to Jerusalem.

And here in the link of Saul, they are not really family members but three leaders.

These all so far as been leaders, leaders, leaders [Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Samuel].

In the history of Saul, when it moved to Jerusalem, we have the first three kings: Saul, David, and Solomon. The disappointment: the kingdom is divided into North and South after Solomon's death. And the fourth is Solomon's son, Rehoboam.

Here in the link of Samuel, in the story of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas, the Lord is setting aside Shiloh where the sanctuary has been, and He is choosing Jerusalem.

But in the history of Saul, now He is choosing Judah in relation to the Northern Kingdom. What did Jeroboam do at the disappointment? He went and started false worship at Bethel and Dan. The Lord was choosing Judah as the place for true worship, and this is the motivation for Jeroboam in raising up those golden calves. He did not want the people from Israel [the Northern Kingdom] going down to Jerusalem [the Southern Kingdom of Judah] to worship.

So, there is a choice. There is a change in dispensation going on here in the history of Saul.

And what the link of Saul is, this is the first king, the second king, and the third king [three kings]; and, here [the fourth] is Rehoboam, the first king of Israel [the Southern Kingdom].

But down, here this next link of Zedekiah, you have the last three kings of Judah. You have Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah. The disappointment is the destruction of Jerusalem.

Jerusalem has been chosen here [during the history of Saul]. It took three kings, and the third king the temple is built.

Did Solomon build the temple?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Here at the end, Zedekiah, the last king, the last of three kings, all three of these kings were attacked by Nebuchadnezzar. The last of these three kings, the temple was destroyed. Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning. The disappointment: carried into captivity. The fourth king is Nebuchadnezzar [a Pagan king].

And what I am saying is—and I am leaving off lots of little details—is that at the beginning of Adventism, the Lord gave us the commencement points for the chain of truth which began in Eden and goes to the Second Coming. And here at the end of Adventism, He has given us the links.

And what are the links? Well, the links are the wheels within the wheels in Ezekiel's vision. If you take time to look at it, that is what they are. Sister White says of those wheels in Ezekiel's vision, they are the complex interplay of human events.

And that is what these reform movements are. They are the complex interplay of human events. They are the wheels within the wheels.

Is a link in a chain hooked to another link? Yes. It is a wheel within a wheel.

These links are Ezekiel's wheel within a wheel. These links are the reform lines that we have been dealing with, line upon line.

So, after Zedekiah is blinded, after he watches his children get executed, they are carried into captivity by Nebuchadnezzar, and they stay in captivity until what? Until three [Pagan] kings, but they are Three Decrees now: Cyrus [issues the First Decree], Darius [issues the Second Decree], and Artaxerxes [issues the Third Decree]. And Artaxerxes gives the Fourth Decree, too.

There, do you see the connection? They are still kings, but they are Decrees.

And this is it up here [referring to the reform line showing the links of Saul, Zedekiah, Cyrus, and Miller in Figure No. 46]. This is the first three kings: Saul; David; and, Solomon, he builds the temple. Kingdom divided [disappointment]; and Rehoboam [the fourth].

[The next link, of Zedekiah]: Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah [last three kings of Judah]. Jerusalem destroyed, temple destroyed [disappointment]; and [the fourth], Nebuchadnezzar [a Pagan king]. There is 70 years of captivity in this history.

And then we come to three more kings [in the link of Cyrus]: Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, with Three Decrees; and, the Three Decrees begin the 2300-year prophecy; and, the 2300-year prophecy ends upon the Third Message.

These Decrees now—is the Decree a Message? See, there is a connection. There is always an inference that allows you to see the connection.

The disappointment we have already studied in this worship series. Ezra is disappointed on how few come out of Babylon.

The disappointment after the Third Angel's Message arrives in 1844 is the Great Disappointment; and, we are now living in the time of the Fourth Angel's Message.

So, once you have these links, once you have identified them, your work as a student of prophecy, according to Isaiah 28, is to bring them together, line upon line.

Because, what is that word line? What is it? It is a cord—actually, it says "cord upon cord." And if you have one piece of string, it is pretty easy to break; but, you mix it with a second piece of string, and a third piece of string, and pretty soon it is a rope. It does not break. Okay? You are to bring them line upon line; because, upon the testimony of two a thing is established. You are going to strengthen your understanding of the illustration of the end of the world.

And once you do that, you realize that all these links are prefiguring each other. They are prefiguring each other.

So, here in the time of Cyrus, we have the First Decree, the Second Decree, and the Third Decree; but, all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, more than the days in which they live. All the prophetic testimony is about the end of the world.

So, what are these three Decrees prefiguring? What are they typifying? The Three Angels' Messages.

Every time [indicating the links of Adam through Cyrus in Figure No. 46], they appear; this is a type of the Three Angels' Messages.

And one of the places that this study really produces light, the kind of light that you need to put sunglasses on if you are going to look it (it is that bright), is when you line them up like this and you tell yourself, "Okay. I'm going to look at the history of all of the fourth waymarks. I am going to just look at them and combine them." Because, if I do, it is going to be telling me the characteristics of the time period of the Latter Rain in a special way, because the Fourth Angel's Message is the Latter Rain Message.

So, when you get to this level of understanding, you can begin to generate truth in a very profound way.

But, what I want you to see here this morning, if you will, is that all these "3" combinations, all the 3's [the first three waymarks before the disappointment] in these links, in these Ezekiel's wheels, are prefiguring the Three Angels' Message, every one of them.

It is okay to call Cyrus the First Angel's Message, because that is what he is prefiguring. It is okay to call king Saul the First Angel's Message, because that is what he is prefiguring.

Some of them might be a little more difficult. I mean, where do you put Shem, Ham, and Japheth [in the link of Noah], in what order do you put them? Some of them may be a little more difficult to say, "This is the First Angel's Message." But, in any case, it can be done correctly with confidence.

So, I want to go to a different level with you.

Go to your notes. Maybe we have prepared the way so you can see this.

This is the First Angel's Message, and this is the Second Angel's Message, and this is the Third Angel's Message, as typified in the links in the chain.

Are you with me?

You will have to test this out, but I guarantee it is valid.

If these last three kings [in the link of Zedekiah], the first waymark is Jehoiakim, the second waymark is Jehoiachin, and the third waymark is Zedekiah. These are the three kings that all suffer the wrath of Nebuchadnezzar that leads to the destruction of Jerusalem, in that order.

And in the Bible, there is only one prophet that is specifically associated with the first king, Jehoiakim. There is only one prophet that is specifically associated with the second king, Jehoiachin. And, there is one prophet that is associated with the third king, Zedekiah.

Now, there may have been prophets living in their time period, but what I am saying is that is marked in God's Word; and, what I am saying is this: The one prophet that is associated with Jehoiakim is Daniel; the one prophet that is associated with Jehoiachin is Ezekiel; the one prophet that is associated with Zedekiah is Jeremiah.

So, what I am saying is, Daniel represents the First Angel's Message; Ezekiel, the Second Angel's Message; and, Jeremiah, the Third Angel's Message.

JEHOIAKIM—DANIEL (ONE VERSE)

Now, notice this in your notes, Daniel 1:1.

> "[1]In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it." Daniel 1:1 (KJV).

Associating Daniel with Jehoiakim takes one verse, because Jehoiakim is the First Angel's Message, and Daniel is the First Angel's Message.

JEHOIACHIN—EZEKIEL (TWO VERSES)

Associating Ezekiel with the Second Angel's Message, with Jehoiachin, it takes two verses, Ezekiel 1:1-2.

> "[1]Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. [2]In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity." Ezekiel 1:1-2 (KJV).

That is Ezekiel.

ZEDEKIAH—JEREMIAH (THREE VERSES) (JEHOAHAZ AND JEHOIACHIN NOT MENTIONED.)

Then in Jeremiah, the first three verses say this:

> "[1]The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: [2]To whom the word of the Lord came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. [3]It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month." Jeremiah 1:1–3 (KJV).

Jeremiah is the only one associated with Zedekiah, specifically. It takes three verses to do it, because Jeremiah represents the Third Angel's Message.

But, Jeremiah, he also references other kings; and, if you are a student of prophecy, you know that Sister White repeatedly says in a variety of ways, when it comes to the Third Angel's Message, all the messages are to be combined. So, one of the characteristics of the Third Angel's Message is a combination of the messages. So, Jeremiah is marked in more than one king, unlike Daniel and Ezekiel.

Am I losing you? Probably?

Okay. This is probably a new thought for some; so, it may be a little bit difficult to follow. But, I am saying Daniel's book, the Book of Daniel, is primarily a revelation of the First Angel's Message, "Fear God. and give glory to him; for the hour of His judgment is come: . . ."

And one of the things that happens in the Second Angel's Message, if you have been studying with us in worship: Does the temple get built in the First Decree or does the temple get built in the Second Decree? It gets built in the history of the Second Decree. The temple is built before the Third Decree.

One of the characteristics of the Second Degree, the second waymark, is the destruction of the temple. Are there any passages in Ezekiel where he talks about the temple?

And one of the characteristics of the second waymark is the manifestation of the power of God. Is that not where it takes place?

Have you ever read Ezekiel's visions of the Most Holy Place? They are so profound about the manifestation of the power of God that is one of the hardest passages in Scripture to wrap your mind around.

So, Ezekiel, his book is about the very characteristics of the second waymark.

Daniel's is about the characteristics of the first waymark.

And Jeremiah, Jeremiah is about Jerusalem being destroyed; and, Jerusalem being destroyed is a symbol of The Sunday Law. It is a symbol of Judgment; and the third waymark is about judgment.

JEHOIAKIM—DANIEL: THE EVERLASTING GOSPEL

DANIEL: Strong's Concordance, H1840—Judge or judgment of God

So, I am saying that Daniel is specifically associated with Jehoiakim. And you can see the definition of the word Daniel. This is my expression of the definitions that you can find for it. Daniel means judge. Dan means judge; El is God. It is the Judgment of God. Okay? Daniel's name means the Judgment of God.

Are you with me?

And what did the First Angel's Message do? It announced the judgment was opening, "Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: . . ." That is the First Angel's Message. That is Daniel.

JEHOIACHIN—EZEKIEL: MANIFESTATION OF GOD'S GLORY

EZEKIEl: Strong's Concordance, H3168—God will strengthen.

Ezekiel means God will strengthen.

It is here [at the second waymark of Figure No. 47] that you get strengthened; because, this three-step process is to convict of sin and of righteousness. This is the manifestation of righteousness. God's people are going to manifest righteousness in the time period of the second waymark through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

And what does the Holy Spirit do for you? It strengthens you to stand.

ZEDEKIAH—JEREMIAH: JUDGMENT

Jeremiah: H3414—God will rise or raise.

Jeremiah means God will raise or God will rise.

And what happens at this third waymark? Well, the Lord is going to lift up an ensign. The third waymark in the time of Christ, Christ is lifted up between Heaven and Earth on a cross.

Jeremiah is identifying the characteristics in his name in the third waymark, just as Ezekiel is identifying the characteristics of the second waymark, just as Daniel is identifying the characteristics of the first waymark.

TESTIMONY OF TWO

Now, the other night we had evening worship here, and I was looking for something; and, this is what I brought up in church.

And you said, "Are you going to tell us about it?"

And he [pointing to a member in the audience] asked me a question.

You can see in your notes, "Testimony of Two." The very last of Daniel, chapter 1, says,

> "[1]In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. . . . [21]And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus." Daniel 1:1, 21 (KJV).

And Austin says, "That is kind of an odd verse. What does that mean?"

And I said, "Well, it means that Daniel was there at the first waymark in his history, and he lived until the first waymark of the history of Cyrus."

Daniel is associated with [the prophetic links of] Cyrus and Zedekiah. That is the testimony of two. He is associated with two first waymarks, Jehoiakim and Cyrus. Do you think that is an accident?

So, what I am saying is, I am trying to prepare the structure where we can see the Book of Daniel is about the First Angel's Message.

THE FIRST ANGEL'S MESSAGE

Here is the First Angel's Message in your notes, Revelation 14:6-7. And, we are at a point where most of us in this room may understand what I am going to say here about these verses; but, some that are watching on LiveStream or on a DVD may not. But, it does not matter if you understand it or not, what we are going to say is correct. Okay?

Let us read the First Angel's Message.

> "[6]And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, [7]Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters." Revelation 14:6–7 (KJV).

Now, that is the First Angel's Message; but, that was fulfilled in Millerite History. And in the First Angel's Message, you have all the messages. You do, whether you understand it or not.

"Fear God," that is the message that came in 1798.

"Give him Glory," that is the Second Angel's Message, where righteousness is manifested.

"For the hour of His judgment is come," that was 1844.

"And worship Him, worship the Creator God"; when was it that James and Ellen White accepted the Sabbath?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1846.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1846.

The First Angel's Message is the history of the Millerites. Okay? So, when you see the First Angel's Message in the Book of Daniel, you should expect to see a similar representation of all three messages in the First Angel's Message; and, you do.

And Sister White is clear. We have studied this already in this worship. She says the Protestant churches in this time period [of the second waymark, Figure No. 48], 1842 to 1844, they suffered a moral fall, but the fall of Babylon was not complete. It was the progressive fall. She said the perfect fulfillment of Revelation 14:8, which is the Second Angel's Message is yet future. This here [the second waymark] was prefiguring the Second Angel's Message at the end of the world.

And we have read a quote a couple of times in here where you cannot have a third message without a first and a second; therefore, if this imperfect fulfillment of the Second Angel's Message took place in 1842, then the First Angel's Message of 1798 was imperfect and the Third Message of 1844 was imperfect, and they are imperfect in the sense that they were typifying the perfect repetition of the Three Angels' Messages at the end of the world.

THE EVERLASTING GOSPEL

TWO CLASSES

So, the First Angel's Message is the Everlasting Gospel. We have studied this in this worship. The Everlasting Gospel is the work of Christ in producing two classes of worshippers, based upon the introduction of a testing prophetic message.

In your notes, Selected Messages, book 2, page 106, says,

> "The message proclaimed by the angel flying in the midst of heaven is the everlasting gospel, the same gospel that was declared in Eden when God said to the serpent, 'I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.'" Selected Messages, book 2, 106.

We are going to look at Daniel, chapter 1, and we are going to say that Daniel, chapter 1, is the First Angel's Message. Then we are going to look at Daniel, chapter 2, and show you that Daniel, chapter 2, is the Second Angel's Message; Daniel, chapter 3, is the Third Angel's Message; Daniel, chapter 4, is William Miller's dream; Daniel, chapter 5, is their rejection of the foundational truths by the leadership of Adventism and most of its members; and, in Daniel, chapter 6, is The Sunday Law crisis.

A PROPHETIC TESTING MESSAGE (TWO TESTS)

We are beginning with Daniel, chapter 1.

The first characteristics of the First Angel's Message are that it is the Everlasting Gospel that produces two classes of worshippers.

Prophets and Kings, page 428, says,

> "When, early in the reign of Jehoiakim, Nebuchadnezzar for the first time besieged and captured Jerusalem, and carried away Daniel and his companions, with others specially chosen for service in the court of Babylon, the faith of the Hebrew captives was tried to the utmost."—

What does tried mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Tested.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are going to Babylon to be tested.

> —"But those who had learned to place their trust in the promises of God found these all-sufficient in every experience through which they were called to pass during their sojourn in a strange land. The Scriptures proved to them a guide and a stay." Prophets and Kings, 428.

Now, I hope I am not giving you too much information; but, you know, sometimes it is just good to die. You know, Hezekiah, he should have just died—maybe! I do not know, you know. Maybe! The Lord might have allowed them to live. I do not want to argue with the Lord.

Why do I say that? One of the reasons I say that is: How long did Hezekiah get to live? Fifteen years.

And 12 years later, who was born? Manasseh. If Hezekiah had died 15 years before, Manasseh would have never been born.

Okay. The Lord would have to fulfill prophecy some other way. I understand that. But, what I want you to see, in the time of Hezekiah there is a prophecy—and we have already studied it here that the Time of the End is a fulfillment of a prophecy. We are dealing with Daniel, chapter 1, here. There is a prophecy that is going to be fulfilled that marks the Time of the End, whenever there is a Time of the End in every reform line—and in the time of Hezekiah there is a prophecy set forth that is going to get fulfilled right here at the beginning of Daniel, chapter 1.

DARKNESS

But, what precedes the Time of the End? Darkness.

So, what I am saying is, back here in the time of Hezekiah, there is a prophecy that will be fulfilled here [at the Time of the End]. And in between here we should see darkness, and we do. The darkness begins with Manasseh, from Manasseh to Jehoiakim.

Manasseh was a wicked king, and he had Amon, his son, who became a wicked king.

And then you had Josiah, who was a righteous king.

Does that break the mold? I am trying to say that from Hezekiah to the Time of the End we have five kings: one, two, three, four, and then the fifth here, Jehoiakim; and, that these five kings represent Darkness.

But this king here [No. 3 king of the 5], Josiah, he is not Darkness. So, is the mold broke?

Let us read on.

After Josiah, you have Jehoahaz (wicked; taken captive to Egypt), and then Jehoiakim (wicked).

> JOSIAH: Strong's Concordance, H2977—From the same root as H803 and H3050. H803—to found; foundation:—foundation. H3050—Jah*, the sacred name.

Okay. Now, Josiah, the righteous king, what does his name mean?

Put this in our memory bank: The foundation of God.

Oh, that is a pretty good name, especially when we are dealing about raising up the foundations of many generations.

Jah is God. Josi is foundation. He is talking about the foundations of God. He is symbolizing that, his name.

LUTHER

Now, notice, we have already read this quote earlier in our studies from Signs of the Times, July 19, 1884. This is talking about Martin Luther, Martin Luther's work.

When does Martin Luther's work take place? In the Dark Ages. There is a light in the Dark Ages, and it is Martin Luther.

But, what was Martin Luther's work?

Here it says, and we have read this in the past:

> "It was his [Luther's] work to build in the temple of the Lord. There were living stones buried from sight amid the papal rubbish of false doctrines, forms, and ceremonies, and he must search them out, and lay them on"—*WHAT?—"the true foundation. The followers of Christ were not then united as a peculiar and holy people separate from the world. They were mingled with the sons of Belial, and must be separated by the power of divine truth." Signs of the Times, July 19, 1883.

So, we have a foundation here, a foundational work with Josiah that is paralleling the foundational work of Martin Luther, in the Dark Ages that preceded 1798.

Do you follow the logic?

From Hezekiah, who gives a prophecy that we are going to look at, until Jehoiakim, there is darkness, but there is a light in there, in Josiah; and, Josiah's work has to do with the foundation.

And from AD538, when the Papacy is placed upon the throne of the Earth, would Manasseh be someone you could use as a symbol of the Papacy? I think so. From AD538 to 1798 in the Dark Ages, you do have a bright spot with the Protestant Reformation, represented by Luther, parallel darknesses if you are willing to see it.

A PROPHECY

Notice 2 Kings 20:17-19. Here is the prophecy from back here.

> "[17]Behold, the days come,"—

Isaiah is speaking to Hezekiah here that has just let the Babylonians see all of his riches.

> —"[17]Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the Lord. [18]And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.
> "[19]Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the Lord which thou hast spoken. And he said, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days?" 2 Kings 20:17–19 (KJV).

This is a prophecy given to Hezekiah that Daniel is going to be carried into captivity by Jehoiakim. This is the prophecy that is fulfilled that marks the Time of the End, in Daniel, chapter 1.

Do you see it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is scary that you see it. It is scary that we can see this; because, 99.9 percent of the people in Adventism would have gotten up and walked out already. But, we are seeing it.

This last phrase, I should not say anything. Sometimes you see something and it is better that you go see if Sister White comments on it before you put your human thoughts on it. But, I think Hezekiah was really out in left field for this last statement. I do not know what Sister White says about it, but he has just been told, "Due to your foolishness, the wealth of Jerusalem is going to be carried to Babylon, and your children are going to be made eunuch slaves in Babylon," and he says, "Good is the word of the Lord which thou hast spoken. . . . Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days?"

All he is worried about is in his days. Okay. That seems a little bit—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yeah. He should have been saying, "Oh, what can I do to reverse this curse that I have brought upon my people? Why don't you lay me to rest and then Manasseh will not be born?" But, he did not do that.

THE TIME OF THE END

Okay. "The Time of the End," Daniel 1, verses 1 and 2:

> "[1]In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. [2]And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god." Daniel 1:1–2 (KJV).

AN INCREASE OF KNOWLEDGE

Now, the purpose of Daniel and the eunuchs was to bring light to Babylon.

Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, page 1169:

> "Through the Hebrew captives the Lord was made known to the heathen in Babylon. This idolatrous nation was given a knowledge"—

What was it given?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A knowledge.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: See, right here, you expect to see an increase of knowledge [see first waymark, Figure No. 48].

> —"was given a knowledge of the kingdom the Lord was to establish, and through His power maintain against all the power and craft of Satan."—

And when it says, through God's power they were to maintain themselves against all the power and craft of Satan, what does that mean? That means that the Mystery of Iniquity doth already work. When they go into Babylon, it is already there waiting for them; the power and the craft of Satan is already there, because the Mystery of Iniquity precedes the Time of the End.

—"Daniel and his fellow-companions, Ezra and Nehemiah, and many others were witnesses for God in their captivity. The Lord scattered them among the kingdoms of the earth that their light might shine brightly amid the black darkness of heathenism and idolatry."—IT WAS DARKNESS—"To Daniel God revealed the light of His purposes,"—

Now, notice this statement.

—"To Daniel God revealed the light of His purposes, which had been hidden for many generations."—

Daniel especially; it is opened up to Daniel, especially, prophetic truths that have been dark to God's people. Okay?

—"He chose that Daniel should see in vision the light of His truth, and reflect this light on the proud kingdom of Babylon. On the despot king was permitted to flash light from the throne of God. Nebuchadnezzar was shown that the God of heaven was ruler over all the monarchs and kings of earth. His name was to go forth as the God over all gods. God desired Nebuchadnezzar to understand that the rulers of earthly kingdoms had a ruler in the heavens. God's faithfulness in rescuing the three captives from the flames and vindicating their course of action showed His wonderful power.

"Great light shone forth from Daniel and his companions. Glorious things were spoken of Zion, the city of the Lord. Thus the Lord designs that spiritual light shall shine from His faithful watchmen in these last days."—

Now Sister White is making a comparison to the work of Daniel with you and me here at the last days.

—"If the saints in the Old Testament bore such a decided testimony of loyalty, how should God's people today, having the accumulated light of centuries, shine forth, when the prophecies of the Old Testament shed their veiled glory into the future!" Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, 1169.

What is the accumulated light that we have that Daniel did not have?

This light right here [referencing the links in the chain of truth displayed in Figures Nos. 46 and 48], this light right here.

Now, notice this next quote; because, what I am saying is this history of Daniel, chapter 1, is the history of the First Angel's Message.

And what is the history of the First Angel's Message? It is the history of the Millerites, is it not?

Then note what she says about William Miller.

"God sent His angel"—

And by definition in the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy, His angel is Gabriel.

—"God sent His angel to move upon the heart of a farmer who had not believed the Bible, to lead him to search the prophecies. Angels of God repeatedly visited that chosen one, to guide his mind and"—WHAT?—"open to his understanding prophecies which had ever been dark to God's people."—

Well, that is exactly what happened for Daniel.

So, Daniel here, who is he prefiguring?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: William Miller?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: William Miller; same history.

—"The commencement of the chain of truth was given to him, and he was led on to search for link after link, until he looked with wonder and admiration upon the Word of God. He saw there a perfect chain of truth. That Word which he had regarded as uninspired now opened before his vision in its beauty and glory. He saw that one portion of Scripture explains another, and when one passage was closed to his understanding, he found in another part of the Word that which explained it. He regarded the sacred Word of God with joy and with the deepest respect and awe." Early Writings, 229.

"To William Miller and his colaborers"—

In that previous quote about Daniel, it says Daniel and his companions shed light.

—"it was given to preach the warning in America. This country became the center of the great advent movement. It was here that the prophecy of the first angel's message had its most direct fulfillment. The writings of Miller and his associates were carried to distant lands. Wherever missionaries had penetrated in all the world, were sent the glad tidings of Christ's speedy return. Far and wide spread the message of the everlasting gospel: 'Fear God, and give glory to Him; for the hour of His judgment is come.'" The Great Controversy, 368.

So, I am hoping that you are seeing the same characteristics in Daniel, chapter 1, as in the Millerite History.

THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY

Daniel: Judge of God—Judgment of God

Daniel means Judge of God, or the Judgment of God; and, the First Angel's Message is "for the hour of His judgment is come."

"To William Miller and his colaborers it was given to . . . the everlasting gospel: 'Fear God, and give glory to Him; for the hour of His judgment is come.'" The Great Controversy, 368.

Hananiah: God has favored.
Mishael: Who is like unto God?
Azariah: God Protects.

And you can go into the various dictionaries and you can get slight variations on this. I am not arguing that this is the absolute, perfect definition of all these.

But, their names get changed, do they not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

Belteshazzar: Beltis protects the king.

Belteshazzar, that is Daniel: Beltis, protects the king; some pagan god protects the king.

Shadrach: Aku's command.

Shadrach, Aku's command; Aku is a pagan god.

Meshach: A Chaldean god.
Abednego: Servant of Nebo.

When their names get changed, what is that telling us? The Mystery of Iniquity is working to destroy them, by combining light and darkness. In this history in Daniel, they are being confronted with kind of like brain-washing. Right?

And at the prophetic level, it is trying to change their character from worshippers of God to worshippers of Satan. So, they are in a testing time. They are in a struggle in Daniel, chapter 1. It is a testing time.

FEAR GOD—NOT MAN (HE WOULD NOT DEFILE HIMSELF)

Daniel 1:3-10.

"Fear God" is the First Message.

Remember, the First Angel's Message has all three messages: "Fear God," the First Angel's Message; "Give Him Glory," the Second Angel's Message; "The Hour of His Judgment is Come," Third Angel's Message; and, that is all the First Angel's Message. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, in Daniel 1, verses 3 through 10, I am suggesting that we are going to see the fear of God, the First Message.

Beginning in verse 3:

"[3]And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes; [4]Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans. [5]And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king. [6]Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: [7]Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego.

"[8]But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat,"—

Why? Why did he do that? Because, he feared God more than he did the king of Babylon.

—"nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. [9]Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. [10]And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king." Daniel 1:3-10 (KJV).

THE FIRST TEST: APPETITE

Okay. The first test in the time of Christ was Appetite. You have it in your notes there, Matthew 4:3-4: ". . . Man shall not live by bread alone, ..."

[3]And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. [4]But he answered and said, It is written, MAN SHALL NOT LIVE BY BREAD ALONE, BUT BY EVERY WORD THAT PROCEEDETH OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD." Matthew 4:3–4 KJV).

The test here for Daniel is appetite, and it is here where he identifies his fear of the Lord. It is more important to be in agreement with the Lord than to accept the food of Babylon. It is about food.

Okay. But, what does this do? This first test creates a problem with the enemies of hat time period. Okay? Although Ashpenaz is a friend of his, he is afraid if he does something that the king finds out about that he is not supposed to do, his head is going to come off.

So, this first test leads to the second test, and what is the second test?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What did you say?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He looked upon their countenance.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Investigate their countenance? The second test is always a visual test. At the end of the test, you are going to look and see what their countenances are like.

What closes the door on the Millerite History? A visual test [pointing to the 1843 Chart].

What preceded the closing of the door on the ark? A visual test.

So, we have got Daniel fearing God, and then the test leads into a testing process, and at the conclusion of that test there is going to be a visual examination.

GIVE HIM GLORY (LET OUR COUNTENANCES BE LOOKED UPON)

Daniel 1:11-15

> "[1] Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, [12]Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. [13]Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. [14]So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. [15]And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat." Daniel 1:11-15 (KJV).

At the end of the tests, does Shadrach's, Meshach's, and Abednego's countenances give God glory?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

1 Corinthians 6:19-20:

> "[19]What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? [20]For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." 1 Corinthians 6:19–20 (KJV).

That is the second test here, in comparing their what? Their diet with the other diet.

What are we seeing here? Two classes being produced by this prophetic testing message.

THE SECOND TEST: PRESUMPTION

The second test for Christ was presumption. Matthew 4:5-7:

> [5]Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, [6]And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, HE SHALL GIVE HIS ANGELS CHARGE CONCERNING THEE: AND IN THEIR HANDS THEY SHALL BEAR THEE UP, LEST AT ANY TIME THOU DASH THY FOOT AGAINST A STONE. [7]Jesus said unto him, It is written again, THOU SHALT NOT TEMPT THE LORD THY GOD."
> Matthew 4: 5-7 (KJV).

Presumption.

So, here you are, here you are—we are going to use Mexico again. Mexico invades the United States. They surround this house. They take all the adults in this house, in front of Autumn, the youngest one here. They execute all of us, and they haul her off to Mexico City.

And when she gets to Mexico City, she determines that she is going to be faithful to God; but, you know, even though she never has liked carnitas—you know, pork tacos—that is all they are serving them, and she has the option of saying, "You know, my family just got killed. They drug me all the way down here to Mexico City. And I have to eat. I need food. The Lord wouldn't mind if I go ahead and eat this food. After all, lots of people eat Mexican carnitas."

Is that what Daniel did?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Negative affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: If he would have done that, what would it have been?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Presumption.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Presumption. It would have been putting his Word over God's Word. The second test there for Daniel was about presumption, and he stood on God's Word, just as Christ did in His second test.

Right? Do you see it?

The Sanctified Life, pages 22-23:

> "At the end of the ten days the result was found to be quite the opposite of Melzar's expectations. Not only in personal appearance,"—A VISUAL TEST—"but in physical activity and mental vigor, those who had been temperate in their habits exhibited a marked superiority over their companions who had indulged appetite."—TWO CLASSES—"As a result of this trial, Daniel and his associates were permitted to continue their simple diet during the whole course of their training for the duties of the kingdom. . . .
> "The life of Daniel is an inspired illustration of what constitutes a sanctified character. . . .
> "God has said, 'Them that honour me I will honour' (1 Samuel 2:30)."—

So, he has passed this second now, and now the Lord is going to honor him.

> —"While Daniel clung to his God with unwavering trust, the Spirit of prophetic power came upon him."—

In the Millerite History, where is the Spirit of Prophecy come in?

Now, Sister White receives her first vision in December of 1844; but, where does the Spirit of Prophecy enter?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Before.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Beforehand, back here with William Foy and Hazen Foss, before the third test; and, that is what is being marked here. Due to Daniel's faithfulness, the Spirit of Prophecy is established.

> —"While he was instructed of man in the duties of court life, he was taught of God to read the mysteries of future ages and to present to coming generations, through figures and similitudes, the wonderful things that would come to pass in the last days." The Sanctified Life, 22–23.

OPENING OF THE SCRIPTURES

Daniel 1:16-17 says,

> "[16]Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse."—A VEGETARIAN DIET—"[17]As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams." Daniel 1:16-17 (KJV).

What does He do right in here to them? He opened their understanding to the Scriptures.

Right here at the Midnight Cry (M/C) was the opening of the Scriptures evident in the Millerite History? That was the Midnight Cry.

Was that paralleled by the opening of the Scriptures to the Disciples, leading to Pentecost? Yes, the Road to Emmaus.

And here He is opening the Scriptures to Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

THE HOUR OF HIS JUDGMENT IS COME (THE END OF THE DAYS)

Daniel 1:18-20.

What is going to happen at verse 18? He is going to go in before Nebuchadnezzar.

And what is Nebuchadnezzar going to do? He is going to judge him: third waymark, judgment.

> "[18]Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. [19]And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. [20]And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm." Daniel 1:18–20 (KJV).

What did Nebuchadnezzar find? They were ten times better.

And what is the number 10? It is a test. They were tested ten days.

The Smyrna church was tested for ten days.

Are The Ten Commandments a test?

The number 10 is a test. It can be other things, but the number 10 is a test.

Here [at the first waymark identified as 1798 in Millerite History] Daniel feared God. He was purified.

Here [at the second waymark identified as 1892 in Millerite History] in this test Daniel was made white.

And here [at the third waymark identified as 1844 in Millerite History] Daniel was tried.

"Fear God, . . . give glory to him; . . . the hour of his judgment is come: . . . ," Nebuchadnezzar is judging him.

Now, we are going to stop here, but I want to put this in the record, Daniel 1:18, "Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar."

As we are looking at this history as topology, right here [at the third waymark] Daniel is at the end of the days; because, in the Millerite History you can show that Daniel is at the end of the days in 1798, in 1844, even 1840 because the Book of Daniel was the book that was in the Angel's hand when He came down out of Heaven. And Daniel stands in his lot at the end of the days; and, Sister White tells us "to stand in your lot" means to fulfill your purpose. The Book of

Daniel fulfilled its purpose at the end of the days, at the end of the 391 years and 15 days [1842], at the end of the 2520 days [1844], at the end of the 1260 days [1798].

And here in this Millerite History, at the end of the days, how long were the days? How long was Daniel being tested for? Three years.

Now, at the end of the days, he is brought in to judgment, the third test; and, we will take this aspect up tomorrow.

What we are saying is, is that Daniel, chapter 1, is typifying the history of the Millerites, to the very letter; and, there is more to say about it before we move into Daniel, chapter 2, which is the Second Angel's Message.

And the Second Angel's Message for us is the image of the beast test. We looked at that yesterday.

Is there an image test in Daniel, chapter 2? Right here [pointing to the feet of the prophetic statue of Nebuchadnezzar's dream depicted on the 1843 Chart] there is an image test.

THE THIRD TEST: WORSHIP

And what is the third chapter of Daniel? According to Sister White, repeatedly, it is The Sunday Law, where judgment takes place.

> "[8]Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; [9]And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. [10]Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, THOU SHALT WORSHIP THE LORD THY GOD, AND HIM ONLY SHALT THOU SERVE." Matthew 4:8–10 (KJV).

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we wish to be Daniels. We wish to be those that determine that we would rather die than to defile ourselves. We need that conviction in our hearts, and our hearts are deceitful. We need you to change our hearts. We ask that you would do whatever it takes to make that a reality in each of our lives. We know that we are repeating the Millerite History, and the Millerite History was repeating Daniel's history, and we want to be in the class represented by these faithful men. We thank you for this worship this morning. We ask your blessing upon the day of service that we will perform. We ask a blessing upon the LiveStreaming and the DVD production. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #28

Part Four: DANIEL

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together for another day that we can study your Word. We ask a blessing upon our study, a blessing upon the day that is before us. We ask a blessing upon the recording of the DVDs and the LiveStreaming. And as we take up your study, we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit and that you forgive our sins and grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would pour your Latter Rain out upon us, make our vessels prepared to receive the light that you wish to impart. We pray that you would guide the words that I convey, that they might be words that glorify and honor you and edify your people. We ask for traveling mercies for those of us that are on the road today. In Jesus's name, amen.

THE EVERLASTING GOSPEL (CONTINUED)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are dealing with Daniel, chapter 1, and identifying that it is a history that parallels the history of the Millerites and is, therefore, illustrating our history at the end of the world, the history of the end of Adventism which has been illustrated by the history of the beginning of Adventism.

In your notes, we want to continue one more line of thought to this, Daniel 1, verse 5. It says,

> "[5]And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king." Daniel 1:5 (KJV).

We are saying that the history of Daniel 1 here [Figure No. 49A] is a parallel to the First Angel's Message of Revelation 14:6-7, and that the First Angel's Message is identified as the Everlasting Gospel, and the Everlasting Gospel is the work of Christ in producing two classes of worshippers by the introduction of a prophetic testing message that comes in three steps in the First Angel's Message, those steps are, "Fear God," Give Him Glory," and "For the Hour of His Judgment Is Come."

So, we went over that yesterday, but we want to add another line of evidence in this "three years." What I am going to suggest is that this time period at the beginning of Daniel, when Nebuchadnezzar appoints them provisions for three years of study, that the three years of study is this history and that, symbolically, these three years represent these three points, these three waymarks. And we want to show that.

Of course, we know from Ezekiel 4:6,

> "[6]And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year." Ezekiel 4:6 (KJV).

So, Nebuchadnezzar appoints them three years, and at the prophetic level—and that is how we are looking at this: three years can be three days—these three days, I just have a few places in Scriptures where I am going to show that these three days represent the history of the Millerites from 1798 to 1844; they represent the Three Angels' Messages. And they are not vaguely addressed in the Scriptures. They are specifically addressed in the Scriptures.

In this history of the Millerites {Figure No. 49B), you have the First Angel's Message arriving in 1798, the Second Angel's Message arriving in June of 1842. And then before you get to the Third Angel's Message on October 22, 1844, you have the Midnight Cry.

The Midnight Cry is prefigured many places in the Scriptures; but, one of the things that the Midnight Cry is identifying is a revival.

And in these histories, there is a revival that takes place in this area before the third waymark in this line [Miller reform line] and it follows the second waymark.

AFTER TWO DAYS

When you go to Hosea 6:1-2, it says,

> "[1]Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. [2]After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." Hosea 6:1–2 (KJV).

So, Hosea is here talking about these three prophetic days. It is after the second waymark, after the second day or, in the expression of Daniel 1, after the second year that the revival is going to take place.

We pointed out yesterday that it is after Daniel has passed the second test that the Spirit of Prophecy is given to him. His first test, if you remember, is he determined in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's meal. That is "Fear God." That is the courtyard; coming to the foot of the cross.

And so, he is put into a test, and it is at the end of the test, at the end of these ten days that his countenance is looked upon. The second test is many times a visual marking of it.

So, now his second test is when Melzar evaluates his countenance, and he passes.

And then, as we read, the Spirit of Prophecy is one of the blessings that the Lord places on Him.

Of course, in the Millerite History, the first manifestation of the Spirit of Prophecy began in January of 1842 with William Foy; and, then in September of 1844, you have Hazen Foss; and, then finally in December of 1844, you have Sister White.

So, it is within this same history that you are seeing the same prophetic waymark. You are seeing that one of the things that is going on here is the manifestation of the Spirit of Prophecy. Maybe you did not realize that this was a subject of the Scriptures, but it is.

Elijah we have looked at before in this worship series. His darkness, the drought of Elijah, parallels the drought of Daniel 1, which is Hezekiah to Manasseh, Manasseh to Amon, Amon to Josiah, Josiah to Jehoahaz, and Jehoahaz to Jehoiakim. Four of these five kings reigning after Hezekiah were wicked and Josiah was righteous, Josiah prefiguring Martin Luther and the darkness of here [of the Millerite History]. The darkness preceding 1798 is the Dark Ages. The darkness for Elijah is three and a half years of drought, paralleling the 1260 years of the Dark Ages, paralleling the sequence of kings from Hezekiah to Daniel.

Hezekiah, Isaiah gives him a prophecy saying, "Some of your seed is going to be carried to Babylon and made eunuchs in the king of Babylon's courts."

So, back here [referring to before the Time of the End of the reform line of Daniel One, Figure No. 49B], Hezekiah puts a prophecy and comes to a conclusion at the Time of the End. Back here Elijah puts a prophecy: it will not rain, except on my word. It comes to a conclusion three and a half years later. In the Millerite History, the prophecy that the Papacy will receive a deadly wound comes to a conclusion in 1798. Time of the End, Time of the End, Time of the End: in this time period before the Time of the End, you have Darkness.

Then you have Appetite, for Daniel.

Appetite, for William Miller, down here; and, in this history we read it (I did not point it out to you and maybe you did not notice it), but we have read a quote where when William Miller in this history [between 1798 and 1842] is going to determine to see if the Bible is valid. What does he do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He studies.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He studies, but what does he do? He sets aside all the Babylonian food and says, "All I am going to take is the Bible and my Concordance. I am just going to eat God's food. I am not going to try to figure it out by mixing it with the king's fare, with Nebuchadnezzar's food. So, he is making a choice, as in the story of Elijah.

With Elijah, the first thing he says to the people is, "Choose this day whom you are going to serve. 'Choose this day what you are going to eat.' Are you going to eat the food of Baal or are you going to eat the food that is called manna."

These waymarks are very similar.

This [Daniel One], of course, we are basing it upon Christ's tests, too. His first test was Appetite and then Presumption.

So, in the story of Elijah, one of the things, for me at least because it seems easier to recognize, is when you get down here [when the True Prophet is Manifested, the second test marking the arrival in the story of Elijah of the prophets of Baal doing their offering; and then finally, after they are done, Elijah sets up the altar and fire comes down out of Heaven. And one of the things that is clearly marked in that particular line of prophecy is a distinction between the true prophet and the false prophet. Elijah has just been identified as the true prophet, in contrast with the prophets of Baal.

And this went on in the Millerite History, because this is where the Protestants of the United States suffer a moral fall and begin to fulfill their role as the False Prophet of Bible prophecy, in contrast with the True Prophet of Bible prophecy, which is Adventism. And in this history, as Adventism is being raised up as the True Prophet, the Spirit of Prophecy is being reinstituted, as it was up here in Daniel One.

So, Hosea says, after two days—after this waymark [the second waymark]—there will be revival; and, that is where you see the revival illustrated in all these timelines.

And you see from The Great Controversy, pages 400 – 401, we have read this before, speaking of the Midnight Cry in the Millerite History—which would be right here [indicating the period of August/September of 1844], after two days, after the second waymark—speaking of the Midnight Cry:

> "It was similar in character to those seasons of humiliation and returning unto the Lord which among ancient Israel followed messages of reproof from His servants. It bore the characteristics that mark the work of God in every age."—

Okay. The characteristics of a revival in every age was the Midnight Cry: "After two days I will revive you." Okay? That is the Midnight Cry. That is the blessing that the Lord is placing upon Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego by giving them—what? An increase of knowledge that parallels the Lord removing His hand from the Chart in the Millerite History, where they could now see the light to produce the 1850 Chart. It parallels the Lord removing His hand from Moses at the rock, from removing His hand from the Disciples on the road to Emmaus: After two days He will revive us.

—"There was little ecstatic joy, but rather deep searching of heart, confession of sin, and forsaking of the world. A preparation to meet the Lord was the burden of agonizing spirits. There was persevering prayer and unreserved consecration to God." The Great Controversy, 400–401.

THE THIRD DAY

Now, go back to Hosea 6:1-2, and we will read this again. It is in your notes.

"[1]Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. [2]After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." Hosea 6:1–2 (KJV).

So, when you get to this waymark [the third waymark], the third day, which I am suggesting is the third year, Nebuchadnezzar appoints a probationary period for Daniel of three years. And I am saying a day is a year in this aspect.

And when you get to this waymark [the third waymark] with Daniel, what is the third test for Daniel? He is brought into Nebuchadnezzar, and Nebuchadnezzar is going to interview him to see what he has done during his three years of probation.

And he was lifted up by not only Nebuchadnezzar but by the Lord; because, Nebuchadnezzar realized that he was ten times above all the other students, and he was that way because the Lord had lifted him up. But, in that regard, you also are seeing another component of the message; because here [at the third waymark] two classes are demonstrated, Daniel representing those that are lifted up and the other students who were in that school for three years there is a distinction between Daniel and them. Because, at the third waymark you are always going to see two classes demonstrated.

It is in this history [of Daniel One] that the Everlasting Gospel develops two classes; but, it is at this [third] waymark where the two classes are demonstrated, and there is a distinction being made between Daniel and the other students when he comes in before Nebuchadnezzar.

It is at the third waymark that there is a lifting up. You notice that in the time of Christ, the third waymark is the cross; and, the third waymark is judgment.

John 12:31-32 says,

"[31]Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. [32]And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." John 12:31–32 (KJV).

So, in the line of Christ, the cross is the judgment (that is the third waymark), and He is lifted up on the cross, while the other class—

Who is the "other class"? Who is He contrasted with?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Satan.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan is being cast out. The two classes are manifested, demonstrated right there at the cross; but, at the third waymark there is a lifting up.

And, of course, we have already dealt with this a few times in this worship series, Zechariah 9:16.

At The Sunday Law, which is judgment, which is the third waymark for Adventism here at the end of the world, Zechariah 9:16 says,

> "[16]And the Lord their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land." Zechariah 9:16 (KJV).

So, at the third waymark, just like Hosea says, there is a lifting up. So, you can see that Hosea 6:1-2, it is not just some obscure couple of verses that have no meaning. It is talking about the very characteristics of the three days of Bible prophecy that represent the prophetic period of time that the Everlasting Gospel is accomplished, beginning at the time of the end, concluding at judgment.

So, when Nebuchadnezzar appointed three years for Daniel's probationary time—I am putting those words in there—that is another aspect of the Everlasting Gospel, of the First Angel's Message. This is another line showing that Daniel One is true. Revelation 14:6-7.

FORTY-SIX YEARS

In John 2:18-20, it says,

> "[18]Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? [19]Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."—

Do all the prophets agree with one another?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, this verse is going to agree with Hosea: "After three days I will raise you up."

And, Jesus is saying, "Destroy this temple, and in the third day I will raise [you] up."

As a student of prophecy, someone who is a historicist that is into higher criticism like we are in Adventism, we could not do this. We would not put a verse from the New Testament together with a verse from the Old Testament, because they are two different languages, and they come from two different countries and two different cultures.

But, if we are following William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation, we are going to see that the Holy Spirit directed the entire Bible from the beginning to the end, and directed the entire manifestation of the Spirit of Prophecy from the beginning to the end; so, we are going to see that here in John 2, when Christ says that He will be lifted up on the third day, He is in agreement with Hosea 6:1-2.

And it goes on to say in verse 20, > —"[20]Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?" John 2:18–20 (KJV).

So, now you have an added component, the three days that Christ was here confirming the covenant with many for one week, those three days; the three days of His crucifixion and resurrection, or the three years that Daniel was given probationary time. But, the Jews point out also the 46 years—and they had a misconception, but the Holy Spirit is putting it in here for us. It is also the 46 years of Herod's remodeling of the temple, and history attests to the facts that Herod's remodeling took 46 years and it ended in the very year that Christ was baptized.

So, when the Jews were saying this here in John 2:20, they were talking about the temple just being finished by Herod. It had just been finished probably a few months before, and they said, "This temple was 46 years in building."

Of course, Jesus was talking about the temple of His Body; but, all the prophets are speaking more about the end of the world than the days in which they are given. So, these three days are representing the 46 years from 1798 to 1844, when the temple of the Millerites was raised up and identified as the True Prophet in contrast with the False Prophet at right here, at the end.

So, there is just abundant evidence that allows you, if you are willing to see, that the three years of probationary time that Nebuchadnezzar gave to Daniel and the worthies is representing the Everlasting Gospel, which is the time period when the Lord produces two classes of worshippers by the introduction of a three-step prophetic testing message.

So, He is going to raise this temple up in three days, and I am saying that in the 46 years of the Millerites that this is the temple of His church, of His people. Okay?

Had it been destroyed?

Revelation 11:2 says,

> "[2]But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months." Revelation 11:2 (KJV).

This Dark Ages here, this 1260 years, this 42 months, the holy city Jerusalem, and therefore the temple, had been destroyed; and, in three days—one, two, three [counting the three waymarks marked on the Millerite History reform line]—the Lord was going to raise it back up. Those three days are 46 years.

And those three days, those 46 years, are the three years [indicating the three waymarks] of Daniel, chapter 1.

STANDING IN HIS LOT

Okay. I tried, I think, in two worships to give an illustration. And I do not know. I knew I was going to use it, before I used it; but, I still do not have a comfort level that it was a good illustration. And what I said was, if the Lord said I was going to be in the Kremlin next week, next Wednesday, and I was totally burned up today in a crematorium where I was just dust, that I am still going to be in the Kremlin next Wednesday.

But, what I am talking about is the power of the Word of God. If God said something, it is going to come to pass, no matter what human beings do. It is going to come to pass.

His Word—that is one of the reasons that God cannot lie. God would never lie. He would not go counter to His Law; but, it is also impossible for Him to lie, for if He said something that was a lie, it would immediately become truth because He spoke it and the creative power of God is in His Word and it can do nothing but produce the results that are in His Word. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, when it comes to the Book of Daniel, what I am going to try to show you here is that when Daniel is standing in his lot, it is a prophetic symbol of something that is accomplished. Okay?

And when Daniel stands in his lot, the lot can correctly be understood as his grave. Daniel is going to stand in his lot at the end of days when he is resurrected.

But, standing in your lot can also represent the judgment. Lots are being cast about your record. Okay? So, Sister White many times takes this Daniel standing in his lot and applies it to the judgment that is going on; but, she also says that standing in a lot also represents fulfilling a purpose. And for me, the primary understanding of Daniel standing in his lot is when he is fulfilling his purpose.

But in Daniel 12:13, where we find Daniel standing in his lot, it is at the end of the days. So, what I am saying is when you see Daniel standing at the end of the days, because it is God's Word you are to automatically understand that because it is at the end of the days, then Daniel is standing in his lot, even if it does not say specifically he is standing in his lot.

When you see Daniel at the end of the days, he is fulfilling his purpose; and, he prophetically is not Daniel the person; it is the Book of Daniel.

So, that is what I am going to try to walk you through here because there are some places where Daniel is directly said to be standing at the end of the days, and in some places where it is identified by prophecy, though it is not specifically stated; and, we want to know what those things are. Maybe as we march through this, you will see.

Daniel 12:13:

> "[13]But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days." Daniel 12:13 (KJV).

For me, what I am saying is that last phrase of that verse, he "stands in his lot at the end of the days," it is one thought; it is one phrase.

Remember, it says in Daniel 1 that at the end of the days Daniel was brought in before Nebuchadnezzar so Nebuchadnezzar can interview him. So, Daniel would be standing in his lot right here. So, Daniel would be standing in his lot in 1844.

Daniel would be standing in his lot at the cross. Does the Book of Daniel say anything about the cross?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

And Daniel would be standing in his lot at The Sunday Law.

Okay. That is the prophetic technique that I am trying to put in place.

JUDGMENT

So, in The Great Controversy, page 488, it says,

> "Every individual has a soul to save or to lose. Each has a case pending at the bar of God. Each must meet the great Judge face to face. How important, then, that every mind contemplate often the solemn scene when the judgment shall sit and the books shall be opened, when, with Daniel, every individual must stand in his lot, at the end of the days." The Great Controversy, 488.

So, what is that talking about? That every man is going to stand at the judgment bar of God. Okay? That is about the Judgment.

Daniel standing in his lot at the end of the days there, it is talking about judgment and every one of us is going to be judged.

TO FULFILL A PURPOSE

But, also Sister White says in Manuscript Releases, volume 6, page 108,

> "When God gives a man a special work to do, he is to stand in his lot and place as did Daniel, ready to answer the call of God, ready to fulfill His purpose." Manuscript Releases, volume 6, 108.

To stand in your lot and place is to fulfill a purpose. Okay?

And to me, that is the one that is the key where you can make some insights on where and when and what it means that Daniel stands in his lot.

EVERY CHURCH MEMBER

Now, in the next quote, Reflecting Christ, page 243, it says,

> "Every church member is to train the intellect, in order that he may gain a clear understanding of the will of God concerning him; everyone is to educate the voice, that he may communicate a knowledge of the Scriptures to those who are in ignorance. May God help us to stand, like Daniel, in our lot and place during the days of probation that remain." Reflecting Christ, 243.

This means every individual will have to stand in their lot and fulfill their purpose to be an evangelist—right?—to fulfill our purpose of sharing the Gospel. That is every man, every church member is to stand in his lot in that regard.

A BOOK

But, also, a book, a book can sand in its lot. Notice this next quote.

And, you know, I have looked at these expressions up before when I am studying the terms on the CD-ROM. I ran through Daniel standing in his lot, and at the end of the days many times, gathered together the quotes and looked at them. But, this time something flashed on me that I had never—maybe I had seen it before, but it did not hit me between the eyes like this one does, and it has nothing to do with what we are studying, really. It probably has something to do with it, but . . .

There came a point in time when Ellen White says, "I ain't sending my donations into the church no more."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: She does not say it like I just said it, but you will see. It kind of blew my mind, "She actually said that?"

> "The scheming and inventions of men"—

And it had to do, evidently, not with her frustration, although that is how it would seem humanly; but, a prophet is not frustrated. A prophet is just stating the facts. But, the facts were, is she knew that they were to be producing and getting out The Great Controversy, and they did not want to do it because they wanted to make books that they could make money off of; and, she was very, very—the human word is frustrated; but, whatever, she had reached the point in that controversy where she is going to say this.

> —"The scheming and inventions of men whose wisdom had departed from them, led to crooked transaction, of which business men should be ashamed. But I will state no more. This is the principle which has controlled again and again in different ways.
> "God commanded that certain warnings and the presentation of events to take place should be placed without delay before the people."—

Now, she is not going to say The Great Controversy here directly, but that is what she is talking about, the book, The Great Controversy.

> —"God commanded that certain warnings and the presentation of events to take place should be placed without delay before the people."—

That is The Great Controversy.

> —"Had the very book God appointed to stand in its lot and place been handled as earnestly as 'Bible Readings,'"—

Because Bible Readings was making them some bucks.

> —"had been handled as earnestly as 'Bible Readings,' men would have co-operated with the angels of God to make the very impression essential for that time. But men not standing in living connection with God could not discern the necessity for the present truth for that time. All my entreaty and urging were of none effect. False statement after false statement was made. And why? The President of the Conference might, if he had been moved by the Spirit of God, have helped to change the whole matter. But I had to press my claims, and should have pressed them still more strongly. The light given me was never to make large donations to any phase of the work, never again to place myself in an embarrassing position, as I had for years." Pamphlets 79, 6.

So, she was pretty frustrated.

But, my point is here—and frustrated is probably the wrong word—my point here is a book. Here she is saying The Great Controversy was to stand in its lot and place. It was to fulfill its purpose. So, it is not a stretch for me to be standing that the Book of Daniel is to fulfill its lot and purpose; because, so, too, with The Great Controversy.

Do you get my point?

What does it mean that she was not going to send money to them no more . . . ?

DANIEL AND REVELATION

Kress Collection, page 105:

> "Those who become confused in their understanding of the word, who fail to see the meaning of antichrist, will surely place themselves on the side of antichrist."—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now, if you are watching it, you have in Adventism a rejection of the last six verses of Daniel 11. The biggest rejection is accomplished by the theologians that make the claim, they say this, "What is being taught about the last six verses of Daniel in this message [the Latter Rain Message by Future for America], it is incorrect; but, I don't know what those verses mean." That is the biggest argument about it.

But, there are other arguments in Adventism against that truth: "There is a man that they are promoting big time with a book, and he is going around traveling and speaking about it; and, he is teaching the King of the South is Islam, and he just has this convoluted idea of the last six verses of Daniel 11. And friends who have gone and listened to his presentations say, 'Well, he really doesn't make a claim that his understanding is perfect. He is not arguing that this is positively correct,' but it is just a counterfeit."

And what they do not understand, what they do not understand is when you are giving a specific false view of the last six verses of Daniel 11, or you are just hiding in behind the claim, "Well, they are wrong but I don't know what it means," in either case you are misunderstanding who the King of the North is, and the King of the North is the antichrist of Bible prophecy.

And this passage says,

> —"Those who become confused in their understanding of the word, who fail to see the meaning of antichrist, will surely place themselves on the side of antichrist. There is no time now for us to assimilate with the world. Daniel is standing in his lot and in his place. The prophecies of Daniel and of John are to be understood."—

Now, here Sister White is saying, in the present tense to her day and age, Daniel is standing in his lot and place. She is not talking about the human being, Daniel the prophet. She is talking about the Book of Daniel was doing a work right then and there, in her day and age.

But, what I want you to see here is she is combining it with Revelation.

> —"Daniel is standing in his lot and in his place. The prophecies of Daniel and John are to be understood. They interpret each other. They give to the world truths which everyone should understand. These prophecies are to be witness in the world."—

Now, the next passage, the next line is profound. Wrap your mind around this final sentence.

> —"By their fulfillment in these last days, they will explain themselves." Kress Collection, 105.

I kind of brought in a lot of things to this one paragraph. I should not have said anything about if you become confused on the King of the North you are going to get the mark of the beast, but that is there.

What I wanted you to see is that she spoke about Daniel standing in his lot and place, in the present tense, and that is the Book of Daniel; but, in so doing, she is wanting us to understand that the Book of Daniel is also the Book of Revelation. They are the same book. They interpret one another.

And she says that in many, many places; but, here you have the argument of saying, if you wish, that Revelation is going to stand in its lot and place, also.

But, this last sentence, she says that the message of the Third Angel that swells into a loud cry—that people are proclaiming to the world in our history right now; this is the Message of the Loud Cry that we are proclaiming here—that it is being fought against by the majority of Adventism. The majority is fighting against it by Laodicean apathy. They could care less; but, then there is a group that is directly fighting this message in a variety of ways.

BY THEIR FULFILLMENT THEY WILL EXPLAIN THEMSELVES

But those that are presenting this message will find that what they are presenting is going to be fulfilled, and God is going to prove that the message that they are proclaiming is true; because, what they are inferring by the message is going to come to pass: "By their fulfillment in these last days, they will explain themselves."

She is going to say this again in a different way in this next quote; but, what we are looking at is the Book of Daniel and the Book of Revelation can stand in its lot and place.

Manuscript Releases, volume 21, pages 436 – 438:

> "The testing time is right upon us."—

What is the testing time?

It is this history here [see Figure 49B}. It is the reform movement. It is the three days; it is the three years. It is the testing time.

> —"The testing time is right upon us. We must build upon the Rock that will stand the storm of test and trial."—

And that word Rock is what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Nope. It is capitalized. So, it is the Rock of Ages.

And what did Sister White say about the truths on this 1843 Chart? They are the Rock of Ages.

> —"The testing time is right upon us. We must build upon the Rock that will stand the storm of test and trial. As we see the fulfillment of prophecy, we know that the end of all things is at hand. Present the eternal principles of truth. Show what the Word of God declares is to take place on this earth. The God who gave Daniel instruction regarding the closing scenes of this earth's history will certainly confirm the testimony of His servants as at the appointed time they give the loud cry."—

So, the people that are giving the Loud Cry Message, the Lord is going to confirm it. You know, it is not going to be left in some vague uncertainty. The Lord is using these people, and He is going to—

What is He going to do? Give me an example of what He is going to do.

Right here [Elijah's reform line] He brought fire down out of Heaven. He is going to confirm the distinction between the False Prophet and the True Prophet. That is part of this story.

How is He going to do it? By the fulfillment of the message that they are proclaiming in these last days.

Continuing on, because we still are dealing with Daniel standing in his lot.

Now, when Sister White says we are to stand on the Rock that will stand storm of test and trial, and we are saying it is the truths on this Chart, notice what the next paragraph is.

> —"All the messages given from 1840–1844 are to be made forcible now, for there are many people who have lost their bearings. The messages are to go to all the churches.
> "Christ said, 'Blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them' [Matthew 13:16, 17]. Blessed are the eyes which saw the things that were seen in 1843 and 1844."—

What were seen in 1843 and 1844?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The first disappointment.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The first disappointment, the Midnight Cry, the second disappointment.

They saw the Midnight Cry, and what is the Midnight Cry? It is the light that is set up behind us on the path that leads to Heaven. They saw that light.

What produced that first disappointment and, therefore, what produced that light? This right here [pointing to the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart] produced it. The Lord had His hand over this.

This 1843 Chart is the Rock. This Chart is what produced the things that were seen in 1843 and 1844; and, that is what we are looking at here in this study, if you have forgotten because of my taking a long time to get around the mountain. We are looking at these Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts] typified in Bible prophecy.

Okay. Moving on.

> —"Blessed are the eyes which saw the things that were seen in 1843 and 1844.
> "The message was given. And there should be no delay in repeating the message,"—

That is the Midnight Cry Message. Right?

> —"for the signs of the times are fulfilling; the closing work must be done. A great work will be done in a short time. A message will soon be given by God's > appointment that will swell into a loud cry. Then Daniel will stand in his lot, to give his testimony."—

Is this Daniel the prophet being resurrected? It is the Book of Daniel that is going to be connected with the Loud Cry, and the Loud Cry has been prefigured by the Midnight Cry.

And this is by God's appointment. Okay? She emphasizes that more than once, "A message will soon be given by God's appointment . . . ."

Next paragraph:

> —"The attention of our churches must be aroused. We are standing upon the borders of the greatest event in the world's history, and Satan must not have power over the people of God, causing them to sleep on."—

What is causing them to sleep? The Mystery of Iniquity puts them to sleep.

> —"The papacy will appear in its power. All must now arouse and search the Scriptures, for God will make known to His faithful ones what shall be in the last time."—

"God will make known to His faithful ones what shall be in the last time." That is what she is saying earlier in this, where she says, "The God who gave Daniel instruction regarding the closing scenes of this earth's history will certainly confirm the testimony of His Spirit as at the appointed time they give the Loud Cry." He is going to make known to the people that are proclaiming the Loud Cry Message certain things in advance; and, when those come to pass they are going to confirm the work they are doing. But the only reason they can do that is because, "God is going to make known to His faithful ones what shall be in the last time."

> —"The word of the Lord is to come to His people in power. . . .
> "This is what has been presented to me—that we are asleep, and do not know"—WHAT?—"the time of our visitation. But if we humble ourselves before God, and seek Him with the whole heart, He will be found of us." Manuscript Releases, volume 21, 436–438.

This is the time of Daniel's visitation [referencing the reform line of Daniel One].

This is the time of the Millerite visitation.

This was the time of Israel's visitation [referencing the reform line of Elijah].

The time of our visitation is when the Lord accomplishes the Everlasting Gospel by introducing a three-step prophetic testing message that produces two classes of worshippers.

And we do not know the time of our visitation, and we do not know that it is an appointed time.

And these people, even some people in this message but primarily these people outside of this message, that say to look back at an historical fulfillment and mark the date is timesetting, their head is just not on straight. Timesetting is to say, "In such-and-such a period of time, this will happen," putting it in the future.

But, if timesetting, which Sister White spoke about often, is to point back in history and say, "This was fulfilled on August 11, 1840," well, Sister White says that. Sister White says

Josiah Litch's prediction of Revelation 9, verses 14 and 15, that the event exactly fulfilled the prediction on August 11, 1840. She is a timesetter, if that is timesetting. To point backwards in history and mark a date is not timesetting.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They are marks along the way.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are marks along the way.

So, there is an appointed time of God's visitation; and, of course, it is marked in prophecy.

THE END OF THE DAYS

Okay. I hope that you see what I wanted you to see there, is that when Daniel is standing in his lot, it can be Daniel at the resurrection, it can be Daniel in Judgment, or it can be the Book of Daniel. It is primarily when the Book of Daniel fulfills its purpose.

But, that expression comes from Daniel 12:13,

> "[13]But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days." Daniel 12:13 (KJV)

And Daniel stands in his lot at the end of the days.

So, I wanted to mark "at the end of the days" in this history.

Daniel 1:5, and 18. It says,

> "[5]And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king. . . ."—

Right here [third waymark in the Daniel One reform line], this is the end of the days. That is 1844: Daniel standing in his lot at The Sunday Law, at the cross of Christ, at the end of that time period.

And then verse 18 says,

> —"[18]Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar." Daniel 1:5, 18 (KJV).

THE TIME OF THE END—1798

In Testimonies to Ministers, beginning at page 114, it says,

> "One thing will certainly be understood from the study of Revelation—that the connection between God and His people is close and decided.
> "A wonderful connection is seen between the universe of heaven and this world. The things revealed to Daniel were afterward complemented by the revelation made to John on the Isle of Patmos. These two books should be carefully studied. Twice Daniel inquired, How long shall it be to the end of time?"—

Now, Brothers and Sisters, when you see a prophet that repeated a question twice, that should make you as a student of prophecy say, "What does it mean that the Holy Spirit him to repeat this same question two times?"

But, when you have another prophet, Ellen White, emphasizing this for you, saying, "You know, Daniel twice repeated this question," then you have got even more motivation from the Lord to figure out what it means. Okay?

We are not there yet, but I am just pointing that out for you.

> —"Twice Daniel inquired, How long shall it be to the end of time?
> "'And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things? And He said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand. And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.'
> "It was the Lion of the tribe of Judah who unsealed the book and gave to John the revelation of what should be in these last days.
> "Daniel stood in his lot to bear his testimony which was sealed until the time of the end, when the first angel's message should be proclaimed to our world."—

So, right here [1798], Daniel is standing in his lot, is he not, the time of the end in 1798?

So, was Daniel standing in his lot right here when he was carried to Babylon? Yes, he was; because, if you go back and read Isaiah's prophecy to Hezekiah, he says, "The days will come that your seed will be carried to Babylon as eunuchs."

Now, that is not a time prophecy but he says, "The days will come."

Right here [Time of the End of the Daniel One reform line] he is standing in his lot when he is carried Babylon, because he is standing in his lot in 1798.

But, I want you to see something else here, and it is important to see this one. So, I am going to back up where it says, quoting from the Book of Daniel, "But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days."

What is the end of the days is she talking about here?

What is the end of the days? What is the date? 1798, right?

Does everyone see that (because we have already further)? We know she is talking about 1798, primarily.

"Thou shalt stand in thy lot at the end of the days." Now, what is the next sentence? "It was the Lion of the tribe of Judah who unsealed the book . . . ."

What book does the Lion of the tribe of Judah unseal? The Book of Daniel.

Okay. So, you need to see that.

Who is the Lion of the tribe of Judah? It is Christ in Revelation, chapters 4 and 5, and onward.

What does the Lion of the tribe of Judah do in Revelation 4 and 5, and onward? He removes the seals, seven seals, from the book that is sealed with Seven Seals.

So, sometimes we will think that the Lion of the tribe of Judah, what He is unsealing is that book with seven seals on it, and it is; but, He is also unsealing the Book of Daniel. Okay?

> —"Daniel stood in his lot to bear his testimony which was sealed until the time of the end, when the first angel's message should be proclaimed to our world. These matters are of —[MINOR IMPORTANCE]—in these last days;"—
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Infinite importance.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"infinite importance"—

The work of the Lion of the tribe of Judah unsealing the Book of Daniel in 1798, how long ago was 1798? Over 200 years ago. That illustration, prophetically, is of infinite importance to you and me at the end of the world. You have got to know what that means.

> —"These matters are of infinite importance in these last days; but while 'many shall be purified, and made white, and tried,'"—

What is "purified, and made white, and tried"? Purified, made white, and tried [indicating the first, second, and third waymarks, respectively, in Figure 49B].

The work of the Holy Spirit is to convict of sin, where you are purified; righteousness, where you are made white (the righteousness of Christ), and tried, the judgment to come.

The work of the Holy Spirit is in agreement with the sanctuary: the courtyard, where the sin offering takes place and you are purified; the Holy Place, where you receive the white raiment of righteousness in the sanctified experience; and, the Most Holy Place, where you are tried at judgment. And this takes place in the three years of Daniel in the Everlasting Gospel.

And it is of infinite importance to understand that if the Lion of the tribe of Judah that unseals this Book in 1798, who unseals this truth here at the Time of the End in the reform line of Daniel 1?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Lion of the tribe of Judah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who unseals it here [at the first waymark of the Elijah reform line]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Lion of the tribe of Judah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And we must know that why?

Why must we know that? Because it is going to get unsealed again in our day. We need to understand what that means.

> —"These matters are of infinite importance in these last days; but while 'many shall be purified, and made white, and tried,' 'the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand.' How true this is! Sin is the transgression of the law of God; and those who will not accept the light in regard to the law of God will not understand the proclamation of the first, second, and third angel's messages. The book of Daniel is unsealed in the revelation to John, and carries us forward to the last scenes of this earth's history.

> "Will our brethren bear in mind that we are living amid the perils of the last days? Read Revelation in connection with Daniel. Teach these things." Testimonies to Ministers, 114–115.

So, Daniel stands in his lot at the time of the end. When else does he stand in his lot? At the end of the days. In 1844 we see Daniel standing in his lot.

THE CLOSING PERIOD OF EARTH'S HISTORY

Prophets and Kings, page 547:

> "Honored by men with the responsibilities of state and with the secrets of kingdoms bearing universal sway, Daniel was honored by God as His ambassador, and was given many revelations of the mysteries of ages to come. His wonderful prophecies, as recorded by him in chapters 7 to 12 of the book bearing his name, were not fully understood even by the prophet himself;"—

Did you get that? There were things that Daniel did not even understand about what he wrote.

I wonder if that is true with Ellen White? Yes, she says it is true.

So, I guess when we insist that Ellen White was omniscient, that it is not really in agreement with what Inspiration teaches us about the inspiration of a prophet, is it?

Okay. So, maybe, maybe the prophetess's husband could do something that was incorrect and the prophetess not even know it, because she was not omniscient. Do you think that is a possibility?

Or maybe the Lord told her, "Hey, that is incorrect; but, you have got to keep silent about this one."

Are those possibilities? Yes, because Daniel did not even understand fully his prophecies.

> —"in chapters 7 to 12 of the book bearing his name, were not fully understood even by the prophet himself, but before his life labors closed, he was given the blessed assurance that 'at the end of the days'—" —

Now she is going to tell us another place, what is the end of the days.

> —"'at the end of the days'—in the closing period of this world's history—he would again be permitted to stand in his lot and place." Prophets and Kings, 547.

So, this history that is illustrated in Daniel's story, that is repeated in the Millerite story, she is telling us that it is going to be repeated in our days, in the closing scenes of this Earth's history Daniel is going to stand in his lot.

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 971, here is another place where he is going to stand in his lot.

I am going to put it up here just so you will get my point [adding to the whiteboard (see Figure 49B).] This is August 11, 1840. I am not putting the "August 11th," but it is. It was when there was a restraint put upon Islam.

The Angel of Revelation 10 came down, and what did He have in his hand?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A little book.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

> "The mighty angel who instructed John was no less a personage than Jesus Christ. Setting His right foot on the sea, and His left upon the dry land, shows the part which He is acting in the closing scenes of the great controversy with Satan. This position denotes His supreme power and authority over the whole earth. The controversy had waxed stronger and more determined from age to age, and will continue to do so, to the concluding scenes when the masterly working of the powers of darkness shall reach their height. Satan, united with evil men, will deceive the whole world and the churches who receive not the love of the truth. But the mighty angel demands attention. He cries with a loud voice. He is to show the power and authority of His voice to those who have united with Satan to oppose the truth.
> "After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction comes to John as to Daniel in regard to the little book: 'Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered.' These relate to future events which will be disclosed in their order. Daniel shall stand in his lot at the end of the days."—

So now she is making sure that we understand that the Seven Thunders relate to future events that will be disclosed in their order; but, she is very purposefully telling us that John was to seal up the Seven Thunders, just the way Daniel was commanded to seal up his book.

And the Seven Thunders, she is also going to tell us in a couple of paragraphs, represent the history of the Millerites, the First and Second Angels' Messages. So, the sealing up of the Seven Thunders is a parallel to the sealing up of the Book of Daniel. And in the Millerite History, in 1798, the Book of Daniel is unsealed; therefore, in our history at the end of the world, when the Seven Thunders is repeated, the Lion of the tribe of Judah is going to unseal what the Seven Thunders represent.

But, what I want you to see here is that when this Angel came down, He had what in His hand?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A little book.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The little book of Daniel.

So, what was Daniel doing here? Standing in his lot and place at the end of what? At the end of the 391 years and 15 days he was standing in his lot, in that history.

Therefore, when the Angel of Revelation 18 comes down, who is going to be standing in his lot and place? Daniel.

And, therefore, at the Time of the End at the end of the world, in 1989, who is going to be standing in his place? Daniel.

And at The Sunday Law, 1844, who is going to be standing in his time and place? Daniel.

Finishing this off,

—"After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction"—THAT IS A COMMAND—"comes to John as to Daniel in regard to the little book: 'Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered.' These relate to future events which will be disclosed in their order. Daniel shall stand in his lot at the end of the days. "John sees the little book unsealed. Then Daniel's prophecies"—

He sees the Little Book unsealed, and it says it is Ezekiel's prophecies. No?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is Daniel's.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is Daniel's prophecies that are his little book. They are the ones that are unsealed.

—"have their proper place in the first, second, and third angels' messages to be given to the world."—

Do you see a close relationship to the First, Second, and Third Angels' Messages, now that you see that Daniel 1 is the First, Second, and Third Angels' Messages?

—"The unsealing of the little book was the message in relation to time.

"The books of Daniel and the Revelation are one. One is a prophecy, the other a revelation; one a book sealed, the other a book opened. John heard the mysteries which the thunders uttered, but he was commanded not to write them.

"The special light given to John which was expressed in the seven thunders"—

She just said it was related to future events. But, here she says,

—"The special light given to John which was expressed in the seven thunders was a delineation of events which would transpire under the first and second angels' messages." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 971.

The Seven Thunders is this history [of the Millerites], but it is our history; and, in our history Daniel will stand in his lot. The Book of Daniel will fulfill its purpose in our history, the same way it did in the Millerite History, the same way that Daniel actually physically stood in his history. He stood at the Time of the End when he was carried to Babylon, and he stood before Nebuchadnezzar for judgment at the end of the days.

THE TIME OF THE END—1798

"[1]In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it." Daniel 1:1 (KJV).

THE JUDGMENT—1844

"[18]Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar." Daniel 1:18 (KJV).

Okay. One closing quote, and it is rather long; but, it is for anyone in this room that is younger than I; and, I guess that is all of you.

Youth Instructor, December 31, 1907:

> "God always honors the right. The most promising youth from all the lands subdued by the great conqueror had been gathered at Babylon; yet among them all, the Hebrew captives were without a rival. The erect form, the elastic step, the fair countenance, the undimmed senses, the untainted breath,—all were so many certificates of good habits, insignia of the nobility with which nature honors those who are obedient to her laws.
> "During the past three years"—

What are "the past three years"? It is the testing time. It is the time of God's visitation, the Three Angels' Messages, the First Angel's Message; it is the Everlasting Gospel.

> —"During the past three years the youthful Hebrews had been gaining other wisdom than the learning of the Chaldeans; God had been giving them a knowledge of himself. They had placed themselves in right relation to God, and he could trust them with a deep knowledge of eternal truths.
> "The habits and understanding of the youth who were not instructed by God were in accord with the knowledge that comes from idolatrous practices, and that leaves God out of its reckoning. Daniel and his companions, from the first of their experience in the king's court, were gaining a clearer comprehension, a sounder and more accurate judgment, than all the wise men of the kingdom of Babylon."—

When did Daniel and his friends begin to receive a clear conception?

What did Sister White just say, though? From their first experience.

Where is their first experience? Right here at the Time of the End, where they are carried to Babylon.

So, from this point on, what are they experiencing? An increase of knowledge; from the very beginning they are representing someone that is increasing in knowledge.

> —"They placed themselves where God could bless them. They followed rules of life that would give them strength of intellect and would gain for them the greatest possible benefit from the study of God's Word.
> "While faithful to his duties in the king's court, Daniel so faithfully maintained his loyalty to God, that God could honor him as his messenger to the Babylonian monarch. It was to Daniel that Nebuchadnezzar, unable to get help from his wise men, turned for an account of his forgotten dream,"—

Nebuchadnezzar's first dream.

> —"and an interpretation of it. Daniel and his companions sought the Lord, and to Daniel was revealed the dream and its meaning. And when he had related to the king the vision God had shown him, Nebuchadnezzar said, 'Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldst reveal this secret.'"—

You know, when you look at William Miller's first dream, it goes all the way to his death. His first dream tells his whole story, tells him about his rejecting the Sabbath. It is there in his first dream. It is his whole story. He was revealing his whole history. The whole history of his ministry is in that first dream, in advance.

He was revealing the history of Miller the same way that the Lord was revealing to Nebuchadnezzar in his first dream, the whole history of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy.

Okay. You may not be familiar with William Miller's first dream, but we just sent out a newsletter, which you can contact us if you do not have it; but, we have both Miller's first and his second dream.

—"The history of Daniel and his companions has been recorded on the pages of the Inspired Word for the benefit of the youth in all succeeding ages. What men have done, men may do. If the youth will make the unreserved surrender of the will that Daniel made, God will help them as he helped Daniel. If they will appreciate the opportunities he gives for growing in understanding of him, he will give them wisdom and knowledge, and will fill their hearts with unselfishness. He will put into their minds thoughts that will inspire them with hope and courage as they seek to bring others under the sway of the Prince of Peace. They will have the co-operation of God and the angels. They will work out with carefulness the sum of their salvation, God working in them to will and to do of his good pleasure.

"As Daniel studied the Word of God, his understanding became ever clearer; and as he comprehended its ennobling principles, he purposed in his heart to form a character that God could approve. He could not foresee the result of his determination to be true to God in the courts of Babylon; but he resolved that even at the loss of all things, he would preserve his integrity."—

There is the First Angel's Message. He purposed not to defile himself with the king's meat.

—"And the Lord fulfilled to him the word that he has pledged, 'Them that honor me I will honor.'"—

He is going to be lifted up as an ensign when he is brought in to be tested by Nebuchadnezzar at the third waymark. God is going to honor him.

—"There is wonderful encouragement in the story of Daniel for the youth who today are striving to gain knowledge. In his Word the Lord has left his children a divine instructor that will never disappoint those who seek its direction with a sincere heart. Its teachings will give a strength of character and mental development that no other book can impart. Let the student make the Word of God the chief book of study, giving all other branches of learning a secondary place. And as the heart is opened to the entrance of the Word, light from the > throne of God will shine into the soul. The Word, cherished in the heart, will yield to the student a treasure of knowledge that is priceless. Its ennobling principles will stamp the character with honesty and truthfulness, temperance and integrity." Youth Instructor, December 31, 1907.

So, tomorrow, the Lord willing, we will take up Daniel 2 and 3 and demonstrate that that is the Second and Third Angels' Messages of Revelation 14.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we wish to achieve that character development that you have just set forth in the example of Daniel, and set forth as an example that any of us could follow and enter into if we choose. We ask that you give us the determination to purpose in our hearts that we will not defile ourselves with the food of Babylon, the Mystery of Iniquity, the influence of Satan that comes from a variety of directions that prevents us from developing and training appetites that only desires your Word, your Truth. Please make that happen in each of our lives. We ask for a continued blessing upon the work that we are attempting here with the LiveStreaming and DVDs, and we set before you once again this day of labor and of service to you and ask that you would help us to be productive and glorify you in the things that we do in our service for you today. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #29

Part Four: DANIEL

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's rest, and we thank you for bringing us together this morning to continue our study of the Book of Daniel, applying specifically to our history. We ask that you would grant us an understanding of these things in such a way that it would have an impact upon us personally and better prepare us to share these truths with the people we come in contact with. We ask that you would forgive us of any transgressions that we may have committed, and cleanse us, free us up that we might be open for the influence of your Holy Spirit which we ask for at this time. And we ask that you pour your Latter Rain out upon us by opening our understanding to your Word. Please take the words and thoughts that I am going to share this morning and touch them with a coal from off your altar that they might be pure and holy. We thank you for getting the Pecks to their destination safely, and we ask that you watch over them on their return. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I do not know if the blue comes through on the LiveStream or the DVD, but this is pretty much the same illustration we had yesterday, except yesterday I was calling this "DANIEL ONE." I removed the "ONE."

Now we are going to look at the waymarks.

The first waymark is Daniel, chapter 1.

What we are going to look at today is Daniel, chapter 2, the second waymark.

And this blue line is what we learned previously about the three falls of Babylon, because we are going to deal with the Second Angel's Message, this second waymark, which is "Babylon is fallen, is fallen"; and, that has been illustrated in the fall of Nimrod, Nebuchadnezzar, and Belshazzar. So, I have this blue line running through there, line upon line.

And I have changed some of the things here [with the reform line of Elijah]. In Elijah, in the confrontation between the prophets of Baal and Elijah, there is a visual manifestation of fire coming down out of Heaven. The fire, we read a quote more than once now that represents the Holy Spirit, and the altar represents Christ. Elijah had built that altar out of 12 stones, thus identifying that the 12 tribes, the 144,000 at the end of the world, are going to be illuminated by the Holy Spirit in this time period [at the last waymark].

And this is consistent with what we are seeing, is that here in the story of Daniel the Spirit of Prophecy is manifested; the True Prophet in Elijah, in contrast with the False Prophet is manifested.

And this is the Spirit of Prophecy (S.O.P.) manifested in this history [of the Millerites].

The visual here [the Millerite reform line], what this is all about is we are going to emphasize that this second waymark has a visual component to it. And the reason I have this line up here is the 1843 Chart was published in May of 1842, and it provided a visual test, until March of 1844, until the first disappointment. After they realized that the Lord was not going to return in 1843 and they believed that on March 22, 1844, and 1843 was gone, from this point on until October 22, 1844, they set aside this 1843 Chart.

And in this history here, they were walking by sight; but, according to Habakkuk 2, one of the lessons in Habakkuk 2 when it tells us ". . . though the vision tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry." Then in verse 4, ". . . the just shall live by his faith."

From here, March 22nd to October 22, 1844, they are walking by faith, in terms of the Chart, rather than sight. So, there are some real specifics about this visual test in the Millerite History.

And you all know that I am not an artist. I have put in here the image on the [1843] Chart, which you see here, for the purpose of reminding us that this image that is the predominate illustration on either Chart [the 1843 and 1850 Charts] is Daniel, chapter 2, which is what we are studying today, which is the image test.

Maybe we will go back up and explain some more. I am sure we will.

One of the things that we want to put in place is that—well, we will do that as we proceed.

THE VOICE OF GOD ECHOES

Let us begin with our first quote. We are dealing now with Daniel, chapter 2, from the perspective that Daniel, chapter 2, is the Second Angel's Message and that in the First Angel's Message of Revelation 14:6-7, we know that in verses 6 and 7 the First Angel's Message was the Everlasting Gospel. We have seen that took place in Daniel, chapter 1: two classes were developed and demonstrated.

And, we know that in the First Angel's Message, in verses 6 and 7 you have all three messages: "Fear God," "Give Him Glory," "For the Hour of His Judgment is Come."

So, I have Daniel 1 here. This is chapter 1. This is the first waymark; this is the First Angel's Message, and it has all three (1, 2, 3 messages) in it. That is what I mean by this representation; but, that was not the perfect fulfillment. The perfect fulfillment is at the end of the world when the First Angel's Message is going to arrive again; then, Daniel 2, the Second Angel's Message. And then tomorrow, the Lord willing, we will deal with the Third Angel's Message.

Youth Instructor, December 2, 1903:

> "When Nebuchadnezzar's dream of the great image was revealed to Daniel in a night vision, his first act was to thank God for this revelation."—

Do you ever stop and think why we have to know that?

Why do we have to know that this came to Daniel in a night vision?

Why do we even have to know that it came in a vision?

Why could not the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy said, "When Nebuchadnezzar's dream of the great image was revealed to Daniel, his first act was to thank God for this revelation"?

Why do we have to know that it was in a night vision?

Okay. Now, she goes on, and she is going to quote. This is what Daniel says once he understands Nebuchadnezzar's dream.

> —"'Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,' he exclaimed; 'for wisdom and might are his: and he changeth the times and the seasons:"—

Where do you find the Lord changing time?

Where do you find the Lord changing seasons, because Daniel just said he does so?

> —"he removeth kings, and setteth up kings:"—

We have several illustrations of that of the Lord.

> —"he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: he revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.'
> "In past ages the Lord God of heaven revealed his secrets to his prophets. The present and the future are equally clear to him. The voice of God echoes down the ages,"—

And you know what an echo is: ECHO, ECHO, Echo, echo, ... What is it? It is the line upon line. It is the same history repeated over and over again. It is the echo.

You know, if you say something in a canyon where you can get an echo, it does not come back another word. It comes back the same thing.

—"The voice of God echoes down the ages telling man what is to take place. Kings and princes take their places at their appointed time. They think they are carrying out their own purposes, but in reality they are fulfilling the word that God has spoken."—

Have you been watching the television? Have you been listening to the radio? Have you been watching the internet? Because, what just the standard news places are saying is that Obama is getting ready to sign this United Nations treaty on guns; and, when he does, the Constitution is destroyed.

And when the President makes a treaty with another country, it supersedes and overrules the Constitution of the United States. That is what the Constitution says.

And when the President signs a treaty with another country, it only has to be ratified by the Senate, not the House of Representatives. The House would not ratify anything that Obama did, because he is outnumbered big time, but he still controls the Senate.

With this book here (Screwed! by Morris and McGann*)* by Dick Morris—and I am not pushing anybody—it speaks about, among other things—and I had this weeks ago—four or five different treaties, world globalist treaties: One is about making the International Criminal Court the court of reference; one is the Offshore Treaty, where all the waters that surround the United States are going to be governed by the laws of the United Nations; another one is gun control; and, another one is littering in space. They are getting ready to sign a treaty about littering in space. They do not want all this space junk there from the different satellites that have been sent up there. But, really, it is just a ploy to take control of the military hardware that the United States has up there. It is all about taking control of the United States. And, another one is about child raising.

And this book goes through and shows that if any of these five treaties gets signed into effect, our Constitution is overturned.

So, to hear now in the past four or five days that Obama is getting ready to sign this gun control treaty tells you that these nations—because, these treaties are speaking about virtually every single country in the world has signed onto them. The only country that has not is the United States. So, when the United States signs onto it, then the Ten Kings are pretty well getting in place. Once they have their kingdom in place, then all they have to do is to agree to give their kingdom unto the Papacy. And when they do, what is that? That is a combination of church and state. That is the image of the beast. That is what we are studying here in Daniel, chapter 2; and, we need to remind ourselves that we are on the verge of this image being set up in the world.

—"Paul declares that the records of God's dealings with mankind in the past 'are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.' Daniel's history is given us for our admonition. 'The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him.' Daniel's God still lives and reigns. He has not closed heaven against his people. As in the Jewish age, so in this age, God reveals his secrets to his servants the prophets.

"The apostle Peter says: 'We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.'

"The unbelieving and godless do not discern the importance of the signs of the times, foretold in the prophetic word. In ignorance they may refuse to accept the inspired record. But when professed Christians speak sneeringly of the ways and means employed by the great I AM to make his purposes known, they show themselves to be ignorant both of the Scriptures and of the power of God. The Creator knows just what elements he has to deal with in human nature. He knows what means to employ to obtain the desired results.

"Man's word fails. He who makes the assertions of men his dependence, may well tremble; for he will someday be as a shipwrecked vessel."—

Of course, a shipwrecked vessel, this is one of the characteristics, if you are a student of prophecy, of the Alpha Apostasy. Okay? There is a ship going to an iceberg, and the command was, "Meet it!"

—"God's word is infallible, and endures forever. Christ declares, 'Verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.' God's word will endure throughout the ceaseless ages of eternity." Youth Instructor, December 1, 1903.

And we are not going to deal with the Alpha Apostasy this morning, but the Alpha is prefiguring our day and age when the Omega takes place.

DANIEL TWO

So, Daniel, chapter 2, what we are saying and Sister White here is saying, is that Daniel, chapter 2, has something to say to us at the end of the world through a prophetic message.

So, Daniel, chapter 2, is the Second Angel's Message, which in Revelation 14:8 says,

"[8]And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication." Revelation 14:8 (KJV).

Now, if you will just analyze this message, and you have spiritual discernment, you can see that this connects with Isaiah 28, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen," is saying that upon the testimony of two a thing is established, line upon line, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line. Those that are going to proclaim the fall of Babylon in fulfillment of the Second Angel's Message are going to do so by identifying the various times that "Babylon is fallen, is fallen." It fell in the time of Nimrod; it fell in the time of Belshazzar." By taking those two histories, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen," you will demonstrate the characteristics of the final fall of modern Babylon at the end of the world.

And, of course, as we have looked in this blue line, at the three falls of Babylon, with Nebuchadnezzar, Nimrod, and Belshazzar, we find that there is a warning message. For Nimrod it was Shem; for Nebuchadnezzar it was his dream interpreted by Daniel; and for Belshazzar it was the warning message of Daniel based upon Nebuchadnezzar's 2520.

Then there comes a Divine Pronouncement as they reject the message, and the Divine Pronouncement corresponds with another theme we have been studying: when the Mystery of Iniquity has reached its full development, there is a falling away that takes place and there is also a Divine Pronouncement saying, "This has happened." And the next thing that is going to happen is the man of sin is going to be revealed.

So, there is a Divine Pronouncement based upon the development of the Mystery of Iniquity in this group of people, and based upon the rejection of a warning message.

And, when it comes to judgment time, with Babylon you have the 2520 three times put in place: the scattering of Nimrod, the seven times of Nebuchadnezzar, and the 2520 of Belshazzar.

And, of course, when it comes to Elijah when you get to this place [the third waymark], how many times did he have to pray for rain?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seven times.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, associated with the outpouring of the rain with Elijah and with the judgment of the prophets of Baal, you have the seven times.

And, of course, we know that in 1844 the 2520 against the Southern Kingdom of Judah reached its conclusion.

So, you see this marked every time.

Was there a fall of Babylon in the history of the Millerites?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. If you really get into the nuts and bolts of the 2520, it is the Second Angel's Messages; because, the Second Angel's Message is the call out of Babylon, and the 2520 is the message that gathers people out of Babylon. It is the gathering message. It is the fall of Babylon there. So, you will see this here in this history repeatedly.

Did Babylon fall in the story of Elijah? Yes, with the prophets of Baal. They fell to the ground dead because they could not demonstrate their god was the true God.

So, the Second Angel's Message has to be understood in connection with the other times that Babylon has fallen.

We have read this before, but we need to move through this one more time. This is The Great Controversy, pages 389-390.

> "The second angel's message of Revelation 14 was first preached in the summer of 1844, and it then had a more direct application to the churches of the United States, where the warning of the judgment had been most widely proclaimed and most generally rejected, and where the declension in the churches had been most rapid. But the message of the second angel did not reach its complete fulfillment in 1844. The churches then experienced a moral fall, in consequence of their refusal of the light of the advent message; but that fall was not complete. As they have continued to reject the special truths for this time they have fallen lower and lower. Not yet, however, can it be said that 'Babylon is fallen, . . . because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.'"—

This here [holding up the book entitled, Screwed! by Morris and McGann], Anyone that studies God's Word know that these globalist treaties that are bringing all the nations together, the one behind the scenes that is pulling these strings is the Pope, the Papacy. This is Babylon that is doing this, bringing it all together.

So, not yet can it be said that she has made all nations drink of her wine; but, you can see it is almost finished.

Now, her wine is definitely her doctrines; but, she puts the structure in place before she enforces her doctrines. Okay? We will deal with that as we proceed.

> —"She has not yet made all nations do this. The spirit of world conforming and indifference to the testing truths for our time exists and has been gaining ground in churches of the Protestant faith in all the countries of Christendom; and these churches are included in the solemn and terrible denunciation of the second angel. But the work of apostasy has not yet reached its culmination.
> "The Bible declares that before the coming of the Lord, Satan will work 'with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness;' and they that 'received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved,' will be left to receive 'strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.' 2 Thessalonians 2:9–11. Not until this condition shall be reached, and the union of the church with the world"—

There are two things. There has to be a strong delusion that has set in, and the world and the church have to come together. Both of those items have to be marked in history before the fall of Babylon is actually in place.

> —"Not until this condition shall be reached, and the union of the church with the world shall be fully accomplished throughout Christendom, will the fall of Babylon be complete. The change is a progressive one, and the perfect fulfillment of Revelation 14:8 is yet future.
> "Notwithstanding the spiritual darkness and alienation from God that exist in the churches which constitute Babylon, the great body of Christ's true followers are still to be found in their communion. There are many of these who have never seen the special truths for this time. Not a few are dissatisfied with their present condition and are longing for clearer light. They look in vain for the image of Christ in the churches with which they are connected."—

Now, they are longing for greater light, and what are they looking for? They are looking for the image of Christ.

And the history that Sister White is putting this all in here is this history right here [referring to the history of Daniel], and this history right here [referring to all three reform lines of Figure No. 50] prophetically, we know this is the time period where it is easy to see in Elijah's line where he is demonstrating who the True Prophet is and who is the False Prophet.

So, understanding this approach to these lines of prophecy, He is demonstrating that whoever has the image of the Beast and who has the image of Christ. And the people that are in Babylon that are desiring light, what they are looking for is the image of Christ.

Okay. And we know that at The Sunday Law, what is the Lord going to do with the 144,000? He is going to lift them up as an ensign while they are in that fiery furnace, and Christ is walking with them, and all the world is going to see them, and they are going to see them perfectly reflecting the image of Christ.

But, at the same time, who is going to be there? Barabbas, the counterfeit Son of God, Satan personating Christ. They have two images to pick from during this history.

So, in this history here [of Elijah] Sister White just said the people that are going to respond to the call of Babylon that are seeking for light, what they are longing for is to see the image of Christ. Right? So, that directly connects with the image of the beast test.

> —"They look in vain for the image of Christ in the churches with which they are connected. As these bodies depart further and further from the truth, and ally themselves more closely with the world, the difference between the two classes will widen, and it will finally result in separation. The time will come when those who love God supremely can no longer remain in connection with such as are 'lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof.'
> "Revelation 18 points to the time when, as the result of rejecting the threefold warning of Revelation 14:6–12, the church will have fully reached the condition foretold by the second angel, and the people of God still in Babylon will be called upon to separate from her communion. This message is the last that will ever be given to the world; and it will accomplish its work. When those that 'believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness' (2 Thessalonians 2:12), shall be left to receive strong delusion and to believe a lie, then"—WHEN? THEN—"then the light of truth will shine upon all whose hearts are open to receive it, and all the children of the Lord that remain in Babylon will heed the call: 'Come out of her, My people' (Revelation 18:4)." The Great Controversy, 389–390.

So, here, this is kind of a, if perfectly true, if perfectly correct but not very often recognized by Adventists, I do not believe, she says that when the church has rejected the threefold warning, we will usually think, "Well, that is the Three Angels' Messages at the end of the world"; but, we will not think that first the Adventist Church is confronted with the threefold testing message, and then the world is also confronted with the threefold testing message. But, once the Adventist Church has been run through the process of this threefold testing message and the two classes are developed, the one class is receiving the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the other class is receiving the strong delusion, then The Sunday Law arrives because the Falling Away has taken place and now the man of sin is going to be revealed at The Sunday Law, in contrast with the Man of God; and, the image of the beast is going to be revealed, in contrast with the image of God; the ensign is going to be lifted up; and, those of God's children that are still in Babylon are going to choose between Barabbas and Christ.

So, we sometimes miss the sequence in here, but we need to have that in place as we consider Daniel, chapter 2, being the Second Angel's Message.

THE LIFE OR DEATH TEST

Now, Daniel, chapter 2, verses 1 through 15, is Nebuchadnezzar's dream.

And which dream is this, by the way?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: His first dream.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is his first dream. Okay? It is Nebuchadnezzar's first dream. He only has two dreams.

But, in this dream we all know this story, and if you do not know this story, shame on you. Okay?

He has this dream and he cannot figure out what it is, but he knows he wants to know what it is and he calls the Chaldeans in to explain and they cannot explain it; and, he realizes that they are just trying to con him. So, he makes a decree to gather up the wise men and execute them.

So, those first 15 verses, tell us that Daniel, chapter 2, is a life or death testing message. It has to do with Nebuchadnezzar's dream.

> "[1]And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him. [2]Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. [3]And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream. [4]Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation. [5]The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. [6]But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof. [7]They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it. [8]The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me. [9]But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.
> [10]The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean. [11]And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. [12]For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. [13]And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.
> [14]Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon: [15]He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel." Daniel 2:1-15 (KJV).

And, you might say, "Well, this is about Nebuchadnezzar's dream. Where do you make the connection with this being the image of the beast test; because the Second Angel's Message is the image of the beast test?

And we make that connection when we get down to the toes; because, the toes is where the image of the beast is identified.

But, what the first 15 verses tell us is that there is a life or death testing process underway.

Okay. So, this is Daniel 2. This is the second waymark. This is the image of the beast test. This is the visual test. This is many things, because there are many lines. Right?

A TARRYING TIME

But, we know that in this time period [second waymark] with the Millerites, what was there right here? What took place on March 22, 1844? What arrived? The Tarrying Time.

So, after Daniel finds out that all the wise men are going to be killed, in verse 16, which is in your notes, it says,

> "[16]Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation." Daniel 2:16 (KJV).

There is a Tarrying Time in this history marked, and this is the history of the Tarrying Time, the Second Angel's Message.

Daniel 2:17-18.

And let us read verses 17 and 18, after the Tarrying Time.

When the Tarrying Time arrives in Millerite History, what does it lead to?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Midnight Cry.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And how is the Midnight Cry accomplished? What is the process that produces Samuel Snow's understanding?

I will give you a hint. [Raising his hand over the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart], the Lord removes His hand from the mistake in the figures on the Chart.

So, what accomplishes the Midnight Cry is a prophetic revelation. Right?

All right. Let us read verses 17 and 18 of Daniel 2—well, let us start in verse 15. We read it once, but let us just put it in context.

> "[15]He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. [16]Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation."—THERE IS YOUR TARRYING TIME—[17]Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:"—

We have something to say about that.

> —"[18]That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon." Daniel 2:17-18 (KJV).

Now, in this history here of Daniel, in the first waymark, one of the predominant truths of the first waymark is that you have to take the Little Book and eat it.

How do you take the Little Book and eat it? By studying God's Word. For us, by studying the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy. That is how we eat it. Right?

But in the second waymark, there is another characteristic that is marked that is not about studying God's word. What is it? We just read it.

In this time period [of Daniel], in the time period that is emphasizing presumption, what does Daniel do with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "Let's pray."

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "Let's pray. It's a time for prayer."

The time for Bible study is back here [at Daniel One] and now is the time for prayer [at Daniel Two].

PRAYER

Now, notice this next quote.

In the second waymark, this is where the revival takes place. Remember Hosea 6:1-2, "After two days I will revive you, and on the third I will raise you up." The revival takes place in the second waymark, does it not?

But, how is the revival going to take place? Well, Daniel just showed us, by bringing together those that are like-minded and seeking the Lord in prayer.

Selected Messages, book 1, pages 121 – 122, says,

> "A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work. There must be earnest effort to obtain the blessing of the Lord, not because God is not willing to bestow His blessing upon us, but because we are unprepared to receive it. Our heavenly Father is more willing to give His Holy Spirit to them that ask Him, than are earthly parents to give good gifts to their children. But it is our work, by confession, humiliation, repentance, and earnest prayer, to fulfill the conditions upon which God has promised to grant us His blessing. A revival"—

When does the revival take place? In the second waymark.

> —"A revival need be expected only in answer to prayer. While the people are so destitute of God's Holy Spirit, they cannot appreciate the preaching of the Word;"—

And I am not being critical, but how many times have I and others presented this message to a group of Adventists and they come up afterwards and say, "You know, I really don't understand it," or "I can follow it to see that it is serious or that it is important. And I am not saying that you are wrong or anything, but I just can't understand it and I don't think I will ever be able to understand it. It's just too much for me." Those kinds of responses are typical.

But what does Sister White say here,

> —"While the people are so destitute of God's Holy Spirit, they cannot appreciate the preaching of the Word;"—

It is not necessarily the messenger's message. It is the listener's lack of the presence of the Holy Spirit.

And how are they going to get the Holy Spirit? They have got to pray. They have got to ask and meet the condition.

> —"they cannot appreciate the preaching of the Word; but when the Spirit's power touches their hearts, then the discourses given will not be without effect. Guided by the teachings of God's Word, with the manifestation of His Spirit,"—

Here are the teachings of God's Word [first waymark of Daniel One]. Here are the manifestations of the Spirit in this waymark [second waymark of Daniel Two] because they are praying for it.

> —"Guided by the teachings of God's Word, with the manifestation of His Spirit, in the exercise of sound discretion, those who attend our meetings will gain a precious experience, and returning home, will be prepared to exert a healthful influence.
> "The old standard bearers knew what it was to wrestle with God in prayer, and to enjoy the outpouring of His Spirit. But these are passing off from the stage of action; and who are coming up to fill their places? How is it with the rising generation?"—

Remember, with the Mystery of Iniquity, one of the characteristics of the Mystery of Iniquity is it waits to makes its move until there is a new generation. Do you remember that?

> —"But these are passing off from the stage of action; and who are coming up to fill their places? How is it with the rising generation? Are they converted to God? Are we awake to the work that is going on in the heavenly sanctuary,"—

Most of Adventism has a problem that we are identifying that the Judgment of the Living is underway. Are they awake to that fact or not?

> —"Are we awake to the work that is going on in the heavenly sanctuary, or are we waiting for some compelling power to come upon the church before we shall arouse? Are we hoping to see the whole church revived? That time will never come.
> "There are persons in the church who are not converted, and who will not unite in earnest, prevailing prayer."—

Did Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego unite in earnest prevailing prayer?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Right here in this history [second waymark of Daniel], they did.

> —"We must enter upon the work individually. We must pray more, and talk less. Iniquity abounds, and the people must be taught not to be satisfied with a form of godliness without the spirit and power. If we are intent upon searching our own hearts, putting away our sins, and correcting our evil tendencies, our souls will not be lifted up unto vanity; we shall be distrustful of ourselves, having an abiding sense that our sufficiency is of God." Selected Messages, book 1, 121–122.

THE MIDNIGHT CRY

Okay. And then in verse 19 of Daniel 2, after Daniel sets forth the principle of revival comes through prayers, it says,

> "[19]Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven." Daniel 2:19 (KJV).

Why do we have to know it is a night vision? Because, in this history [of Daniel], it is paralleling the Midnight Cry. This is where the revival takes place. It is the vision of the night.

What is the vision of the night in these time prophecies? It is the Midnight Cry in Egypt. It is the Midnight Cry in Esther. It is the Midnight Cry in the Millerite History. It is a night vision.

When what? The secret was revealed.

What produced the Midnight Cry? The secret was revealed [pointing to the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart] to Samuel Snow.

HE CHANGETH THE TIMES AND SEASONS

Then Daniel blesses the God of Heaven.

In verses 20 to 24 of Daniel 2, look at verse 20.

In this time period, in the nighttime, when He is revealing the secret to Samuel Snow, verse 20 says,

> "[20]Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:
> [21]And he changeth the times and the seasons:"—

What does that mean? When does God change the times and the seasons?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: From 1843 to 1844.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: From 1843 to 1844. ". . . though the vision tarry, wait for it. It shall not lie."

It does not really lie, but they thought it came in 1843. But, in the Midnight Cry revelation, they realized that He changed the time—He did not really change the time; they were just instructed so they understood the time.

And how did they understand the change of time from 1843 o 1844? How did Samuel Snow arrive at that? He went back to the feasts, and the feasts are based upon the—what?—the seasons.

So, this is a reference to Millerite History.

> —"he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:
> [22]He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

[23]I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

"[24]Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation." Daniel 2:20-24 (KJV).

Daniel 2:28-29, if you can see it:

"[28]But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days."—

And the reason I am putting these two verses in here is to identify that what Daniel says to Nebuchadnezzar is, in Daniel, chapter 2, it is about the end of the world. Okay? We started with a passage from Sister White where she says Daniel, chapter 2, is about the end of the world; but, Daniel himself says, "This is about the end of the world."

—"[28]But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; [29]As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass." Daniel 2:28–29 (KJV).

Daniel, chapter 2, is the secret about what shall come to pass in the latter days, during the history of the Second Angel's Message.

THE KING WAS CONVINCED

Verse 30 of Daniel 2 says,

"[30]But as for me,"—AND THIS IS IMPORTANT TO SEE—But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living,"—

Okay. "This message," Daniel is saying, "it wasn't for me."

—"but for their sakes"—

And you will notice that word there is supplied.

—"but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart." Daniel 2:30 (KJV).

If you go in and look at your Concordance at the last two parts of this verse, he is saying, what it means, "It is not so much about their. It is for Nebuchadnezzar.

What Daniel is saying is, "The Lord gave me an understanding of what your dream was and what it means, not for me but for you, so that when you recognize that the Lord had ability to take your dream and give it to me and also give me the interpretation thereof for you, after you had forgotten it, that no matter what the dream said, you would come under conviction that Daniel was being led of the Lord and that this message was genuinely from God."

Okay. That is what is going on here. It is Daniel here in this verse that is saying, "This is to convict you of the power of God's prophetic Word," and that the Lord is manifesting that power through Daniel.

Now, my point is this, my argument is this on this point: In these histories, this always takes place. In Elijah it is manifested who is the True Prophet and who is the False Prophet.

In Daniel, chapter 1, the Spirit of Prophecy is manifested down here [at the third waymark].

In Millerite History the Spirit of Prophecy is being manifested down here in this history [between March 22, 1844 and October 22, 1844].

And if you do not let this sink in, you do not get a very important truth. All right? And this is a very important truth, or to me, as I see it. It is this: Right now there are people in Adventism that are being disfellowship from the Seventh-day Adventist Church for no other reason than they are studying these things, which were the truths that the Millerites believed. They are being disfellowshipped for believing and teaching and studying the identical truths that the Millerites believed and studied and proclaimed.

So, as the 15-million-member Seventh-day Adventist Church begins to develop the black list, and begins to remove people from the Seventh-day Adventist Church over this message, humanly it is very easy to think, "Poor me!" But, the reality of it is, is in this history God demonstrates who has the message and who does not. And He has to, not because of the Adventist Church or the people that are being persecuted over this message in the Adventist Church, it is not about that. It is about the fact that when you reach The Sunday Law, when you reach this waymark [the third waymark], when the man of sin is going to be manifested and the ensign is going to be lifted up, the Lord is not going to spend a great deal of time convincing the world which group in Adventism has their head on straight. That will already have been manifested and demonstrated in this history [just prior to the third waymark]. Okay, prior. It gets put in place who is the True Prophet and the False Prophet in Adventism before The Sunday Law.

And that is what Daniel is saying here: "This information about your dream wasn't for me; it was for you, so you can know that I, Daniel, am the True Prophet and the Chaldeans and the soothsayers, they are the False Prophet." Okay? And this is demonstrated in these lines every time.

So, those of us that may be getting persecuted over this message in Adventism right now, we should not be acting like "Poor me!" We should praying about these brothers and sisters that are about to suffer the fate of the prophets of Baal.

Prophets and Kings, page 499:

> "The king was convinced of the truth of the interpretation, and in humility and awe he 'fell upon his face, and worshiped,' saying, 'Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.'" Prophets and Kings, 499.

Okay. The secret is revealed in these histories.

PHARAOH'S DREAM

There is another illustration of this that is easy to see. It is once again a heathen king. It is Pharaoh that has a dream. Sister White comments on this in Patriarchs and Prophets, page 221.

> "The interpretation"—JOSEPH'S INTERPRETATION OF PHARAOH'S DREAM—"The interpretation was so reasonable and consistent, and the policy which it recommended was so sound and shrewd, that its correctness could not be doubted. But who was to be entrusted with the execution of the plan?"—

But Pharaoh was so convinced, the same way Nebuchadnezzar. When Nebuchadnezzar was convinced by Daniel, he falls on the floor and worships Daniel's God. When Pharaoh hears Joseph do the same thing over his dream, he says, "I am going to put you in charge of my kingdom."

> —"Upon the wisdom of this choice depended the nation's preservation. The king was troubled. For some time the matter of the appointment was under consideration. Through the chief butler the monarch had learned of the wisdom and prudence displayed by Joseph in the management of the prison; it was evident that he possessed administrative ability in a pre-eminent degree. The cupbearer, now filled with self-reproach, endeavored to atone for his former ingratitude, by the warmest praise of his benefactor; and further inquiry by the king proved the correctness of his report. In all the realm Joseph was the only man gifted with wisdom to point out the danger that threatened the kingdom and the preparation necessary to meet it; and the king was convinced that he was the one best qualified to execute the plans which he had proposed. It was evident that a divine power was with him, and that there were none among the king's officers of state so well qualified to conduct the affairs of the nation at this crisis. The fact that he was a Hebrew and a slave was of little moment when weighed against his evident wisdom and sound judgment. 'Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is?' said the king to his counselors." Patriarchs and Prophets, 221.

I mean, this is being demonstrated in this history here [Figure No. 50]. It is the distinction between the wise and foolish virgins that is taking place, not just they are recognizing it; it is not just the wise and foolish virgins are recognizing who they are and who they are not. The world, Pharaoh, and Nebuchadnezzar are recognizing who they are, in this history.

Do you follow me?

THE MILLERITES

In the Millerite History, from Early Writings, page 237, it says,

> "The believers in this message"—

Okay. Now she is speaking about the time period after the Lord removed His hand but before October 22, 1844. Once they had seen the mistake and were understanding that the same evidence that led them to predict 1843 was then found to identify 1844, they began to carry this message, the message of the 2520 and the 2300 to the churches.

She is commenting on this here:

> —"The believers in this message were oppressed in the churches. For a time, those who would not receive the message were restrained by fear from acting out the sentiments of their hearts;"—

In this history here [between March 22, 1844 and October 22, 1844], when the Millerites are presenting the truth that the prophecies really end in 1844, the churches are oppressing them. But, what has been going on with the churches? They have been restrained. "He who now letteth will continue to let, until he be taken out of the way that the man of sin might be revealed." And here she is marking this. The churches have been restrained, but they are on the verge of losing their restraint; because, the man of sin is going to be manifested in their character.

> —"For a time, those who would not receive the message were restrained by fear from acting out the sentiments of their hearts; but the passing of the time revealed their true feelings. They wished to silence the testimony which the waiting ones felt compelled to bear, that the prophetic periods extended to 1844. With clearness the believers explained their mistake and gave the reasons why they expected their Lord in 1844. Their opposers could bring no arguments against the powerful reasons offered."—

The Millerites here, the people that were persecuting them, they wanted to persecute them before the first disappointment, before the Tarrying Time arrived; but, they had been restrained. "He who now letteth will continue to let, . . ." They had been restrained.

After 1843 falls apart, there is a falling away that takes place. Now they are presenting the reasons it is 1844. But, in this argument, the people that are opposing them cannot refute their message. They see, like Pharaoh and like Nebuchadnezzar, that their message is airtight. And it is.

Go ahead. I am just one example, but I will use me for the example because I am not going to use someone else. Type in "Jeff Pippenger" on a web search. And then go—and I never do this; I have not done this, but I know this without doing it—you go look at all the criticism about what I supposedly present and you will find that there is a good percentage of it that does not really accurately even present what we teach; but, then there is a big body that is about the "Messenger," not the message. Because, the message, the message cannot be taken apart. It is airtight. It is bullet-proof, as it was with the Millerites, as it was when Daniel went in to Nebuchadnezzar and explained the dream and the interpretation thereof, as it was when fire came down out of heaven on Elijah's offering, as it was when Joseph explained Pharaoh's dream. That is a waymark of this history.

> —"Yet the anger of the churches was kindled; they were determined not to listen to evidence, and to shut the testimony out of the churches, so the others could not hear it. Those who dared not withhold from others the light which God had given them, were shut out of the churches; but Jesus was with them, and they were joyful in the light of His countenance. They were prepared to receive the message of the second angel." Early Writings, 237.

THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY (A FALLING AWAY FIRST)

Daniel 2:43-44:

> "[43]And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay,"—DANIEL IS EXPLAINING THIS TO NEBUCHADNEZZAR—"they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men:"—

Now, we did a lot of advance work for this. What is this in these toes that the iron and clay represents? The Mystery of Iniquity reaching climax—right?—at the end of the world.

> —"they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. And in the days of these kings"—

What kings? The kings that are in existence at the end of the world when the Mystery of Iniquity reaches its fulfillment on Planet Earth.

> —"And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever." Daniel 2:43–44.

SETTING UP HIS KINGDOM

When does Christ set up His kingdom?

> "When the four angels let go, Christ will set up His kingdom." Spalding and Magan, 3.

Did the four angels let go on 9/11? No, they were restrained.

When do the four angels let go? When Michael stands up and human probation closes.

And when the four Angels let go, what happens in Daniel, chapter 2? Christ sets up a kingdom, an everlasting kingdom.

HE WHO NOW LETS

Testimonies, volume 6, page 408.

> "The restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world."—IT IS PROGRESSIVE—"Hurricanes, storms, tempests, fire and flood, disasters by sea and land, follow each other in quick succession. Science seeks to explain all these. The signs thickening around us, telling of the near approach of the Son of God, are attributed to any other than the true cause. Men cannot discern the sentinel angels restraining the four winds that they shall not blow until the servants of God are sealed; but when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture." Testimonies, volume 6, 408.

When are the four winds let loose? When the last person is sealed.

When does the sealing process begin? When the four winds are restrained.

From the restraining of the winds on 9/11/2001 until Michael stands up is the sealing of God's people.

Do those people come out of Babylon receive the Seal of God? Yes, they do. The 144,000 are sealed, but everyone that stands with the 144,000, they are sealed, too.

And in order to have a kingdom, what has to be determined? The territory, the subjects, who the king is; and, until Christ finishes the Investigative Judgment, the last citizen has not been registered in the Kingdom.

And in the days of these kings, these are the kings that are standing in the time when human probation closes. That is where these toes are, right down here [indicating the toes on the image representing the kingdoms of the world on the 1843 Chart], when Michael stands up.

IS AT HAND

Notice Education, page 179. There is a bunch of stuff in here, but we will just do some of it.

> "The final overthrow of all earthly dominions is plainly foretold in the word of truth."—

That is down here [the toes], is it not? What is the final overthrow in Daniel 2; how is it explained? The stone.

> —"The final overthrow of all earthly dominions is plainly foretold in the word of truth. In the prophecy uttered when sentence from God was pronounced upon the last king of Israel is given the message:
> "'Thus saith the Lord God; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: . . . , exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until He come whose right it is; and I will give it Him.' Ezekiel 21:26, 27.
> "The crown removed from Israel passed successively to the kingdoms of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome. God says, 'It shall be no more, until He come whose right it is; and I will give it Him.'"—

Who came in the time of Rome?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Shiloh came, and it was His right.

> —"That time is at hand."—

We know that Christ came and fulfilled this prophecy; but, now Sister White is saying the time is at hand as it gets fulfilled at the end of the world.

> —"That time is at hand. Today the signs of the times declare that we are standing on the threshold of great and solemn events. Everything in our world is in agitation. Before our eyes is fulfilling the Saviour's prophecy of the events to precede His coming: 'Ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars. . . . Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.' Matthew 24:6, 7." Education, 179.

In The Desire of Ages, Sister White speaks about this kingdom. She says,

> "'The Lord God will do nothing, but He revealeth His secret unto His servants and prophets.' While 'the secret things belong unto the Lord our God,' 'those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever.' Amos 3:7; Deuteronomy 29:29. God has given these things to us, and His blessing will attend the reverent, prayerful study of the prophetic scriptures.
> "As the message of Christ's first advent announced the kingdom of His grace, so the message of His second advent announces the kingdom of His glory. And the second message, like the first, is based on the prophecies. The words of the angel to Daniel relating to the last days were to be understood in the time of the end. At that time, 'many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.' 'The wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.' Daniel 12:4, 10. The Saviour Himself has given signs of His coming, and He says, 'When ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.' 'And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.' 'Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.' Luke 21:31, 34, 36.
> "We have reached the period foretold in these scriptures."—AND SHE JUST QUOTED SEVERAL SCRIPTURES—"The time of the end is come, the visions of the prophets are unsealed, and their solemn warnings point us to our Lord's coming in glory as near at hand."—

So, He came into His Kingdom in the time of Christ, the Kingdom of Grace, and he comes to His Kingdom at the end, the Kingdom of Glory; and, these two histories are paralleling each other.

And then she comments on His history when He walked among men.

> —"The Jews misinterpreted and misapplied the word of God, and they knew not the time of their visitation."—

When Christ walked among men, it was the time of their visitation.

—"The years of the ministry of Christ and His apostles,—the precious last years of grace to the chosen people,—they spent in plotting the destruction of the Lord's messengers. Earthly ambitions absorbed them, and the offer of the spiritual kingdom came to them in vain. So today the kingdom of this world absorbs men's thoughts, and they take no note of the rapidly fulfilling prophecies and the tokens of the swift-coming kingdom of God.

"'But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.' While we are not to know the hour of our Lord's return, we may know when it is near. 'Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.' 1 Thessalonians 5:4-6.' The Desire of Ages, 234–235.

When is it near? It is near when you see the nations of the world coming together, getting ready to come together with the Catholic Church. When the Mystery of Iniquity is fully developed in the clay and in the iron of the toes. You will know at that time probation is about to close.

WE HAVE COME TO

Notice what Sister White says, The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, page 1168.

"We have come to a time when God's sacred work is represented by the feet of the image in which the iron was mixed with the miry clay. God has a people, a chosen people, whose discernment must be sanctified, who must not become unholy by laying upon the foundation wood, hay, and stubble. Every soul who is loyal to the commandments of God will see that the distinguishing feature of our faith is the seventh-day Sabbath. If the government would honor the Sabbath as God has commanded, it would stand in the strength of God and in defense of the faith once delivered to the saints. But statesmen will uphold the spurious sabbath,"—

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It will what?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: Mingle.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: What does that mean?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Mystery of Iniquity.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Mystery of Iniquity.

— and will mingle their religious faith with the observance of this child of the papacy, placing it above the Sabbath which the Lord has sanctified and blessed, setting it apart for man to keep holy, as a sign between Him and His people to a thousand generations. The mingling of churchcraft and statecraft is represented by the iron and the clay. This union is weakening all the power of the churches. This investing the church with the power of the state will bring evil results. Men have almost passed the point of God's forbearance. They have invested their strength in politics, and have united with the papacy. But the time will come when God will punish those who have made void His law, and their evil work will recoil upon themselves." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, 1168.

This dream given to Nebuchadnezzar was to show him what was to take place in the last days.

And the message of Daniel, chapter 2, about what is to take place in the last days is the message of the image of the beast, the combination of church and state. It is the second message: "Babylon is fallen, is fallen"; because, Babylon falls when the Mystery of Iniquity reaches its full development.

Daniel, chapter 2, is the second waymark. It is the Second Angel's Message; and, it is a warning message to us today because we can see that this process is almost done, if we want to look [holding up the book, Screwed! by Morris and McGann. Even the world, the very rocks are crying out that this is almost done.

THE STONE

Okay. In Daniel 2 we see that this stone comes and what this stone does. We have read this.

> "[34]Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. [35]Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. . . .
> "[45]Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.
> "[46]Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him. [47]The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret. [48]Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon. [49]Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king. Daniel 2:34–35, 45–49.

It is going to break in pieces the iron, clay, brass, silver, and gold; and, they are going to become like the chaff on the summer threshingfloors.

When is the summer? The harvest.

When is the harvest? At the end of the world.

They become the chaff at the end of the world. And what happens to them? The wind carries them away.

And this stone that does this was what? What was it? It was cut out of the mountain. This stone that hits the image on its feet is cut out of the mountain, and it is what is going to break in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold.

And then, of course, Nebuchadnezzar, he falls on his face and worships because of this revelation.

A LIVING STONE

And we want to talk about this stone here in closing. 1 Peter 2:4-10:

> "[4]To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, [5]Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house,"—

Christ is the stone. This is the teaching in Adventism, primarily, that Christ is the stone here. But, we know that Christ is the Cornerstone. He builds upon that Cornerstone, those candidates for the Kingdom. He makes them polished stones and puts them on top. And we also are lively stone.

And what does He build up? A spiritual house.

> —"an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
> "[6]Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, BEHOLD, I LAY IN SION A CHIEF CORNER STONE, ELECT, PRECIOUS: AND HE THAT BELIEVETH ON HIM SHALL NOT BE CONFOUNDED.
> "[7]Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS DISALLOWED, THE SAME IS MADE THE HEAD OF THE CORNER, [8]AND A STONE OF STUMBLING, AND A ROCK OF OFFENCE, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed."—

Please take note that right here, the stone that hits the toes, this is a controversy in Adventism; but, that is what it says here. The message of the stone is going to produce two classes of worshippers.

It is a controversy in Adventism: "Are you saying that this stone is the 144,000? This stone is Jesus. We have always been told it was Jesus." There is a controversy.

And there is a controversy here in Peter when he is talking about the stone. He continues on.

> —"[9]But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: [10]Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy." 1 Peter 2:4–10 (KJV).

AN HOLY NATION

And then in Ephesians 2:21-22, it says,

> "[21]All the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit." Ephesians 2:21–22 (KJV).

This holy temple is built of stones.

LIFTED UP AS AN ENSIGN

And in Micah 4:1-2, it says,

> "[1]But in the last days"—

That would be these days, right here, where the toes are. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"[1]But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills;"—

Where does that stone come from in Daniel 2? It is cut out of the mountain. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: If it is cut out of the mountain, it is part of the mountain. In fact, it is the remnant of the mountain. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

> —"the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. [2]And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,"—

To the what?

> —"and to the house of the God of Jacob;"—

We have just been identified as stones that are built up as the holy temple, as a spiritual house.

> —"and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem." Micah 4:1–2 (KJV).

STONES CUT OUT OF THE MOUNTAIN

Notice what Sister White says in Upward Look, page 373.

Where does this stone come from?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Out of the mountain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Out of the mountain, but how is it taken from the mountain?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is cut out.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is cut out of the mountain.

"The Jewish Temple was built of hewn stones,"—

What is a "hewn stone"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Cut.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Cut, polished, prepared.

—"The Jewish Temple was built of hewn stones, and at great expense of time and money and labor these stones were cut out of the mountain and fitted for their places in the building before they were collected together, so that when the building was completed there was not the sound of an ax or hammer heard in its upbuilding. The stones which are in God's sacred temple are not collected from the mountains of Judea but gathered from the nations, kindreds and tongues and people. They are not lifeless material that must be prepared with hammer and chisel, but living stones which emit light."—

When He builds this spiritual temple at the end of the world, He builds it with living stones. There is Peter, but where do those living stones come from? They were cut out of the mountain.

That living stone that strikes the feet [of the image on the 1843 Chart] is the 144,000. It is God's remnant people that perfectly reflect His character. He is the Cornerstone; they perfectly reflect His character. They are the living stones that are built upon the Cornerstone.

—"The great cleaver of truth has taken them from the quarry of the world and placed them under the hand of the great Master Builder, the Lord of the temple, and He is polishing them in His workshop, which is this world, that all the rough edges and crookedness may be removed and they hammered and chiseled and squared by the truth of God, polished and refined, ready to fill their place in God's spiritual temple, that they may grow up a holy temple for God.

"Now we are in the workshop of God, and the process is going on in these hours of probation to fit us for the glorious temple. We cannot now be indifferent and negligent and careless, and refuse to depart from sin, but we must be dying to our defects of character and expect to become pure and holy and fashioned in character after the similitude of a palace. When Christ shall come, it is then . . . too late to obtain a holy character. Now is the day of preparation; now is the time when we can have our defects removed; now is the time when our sins must go beforehand to judgment, be confessed and repented of and pardon written off against our names." Upward Look, 373.

Testimonies, volume 5, page 455:

> "God has called His church in this day, as He called ancient Israel, to stand as a light in the earth. By the mighty cleaver of truth, the messages of the first, second, and third angels, He has separated them from the churches and from the world to bring them into a sacred nearness to Himself. He has made them the depositaries of His law and has committed to them the great truths of prophecy for this time."—

How does He develop this temple that is made out of stones that are cut out of the mountain? How does He develop them? Through a testing process that we call the Everlasting Gospel, the First, Second, and Third Angels' Messages.

And when you get to this place here [the third waymark], what gets manifested? Who is the True Prophet in contrast with the False Prophet. Who has the Spirit of Prophecy contrasted with the Spirit of Satan. It is always in this history [just prior to the third waymark].

And He brings them out and gives them His Law, and what else? The great truths of prophecy. That is what He gave to Daniel. That is what He gave to Joseph. That is what He gave to the Millerites.

> —"Like the holy oracles committed to ancient Israel, these are a sacred trust to be communicated to the world. The three angels of Revelation 14 represent the people who accept the light of God's messages and go forth as His agents to sound the warning throughout the length and breadth of the earth." Testimonies, volume 5, 455.

And what does He make His people?

Isaiah 41:15-16:

> "[15]Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff. [16]Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel." Isaiah 41:15–16 (KJV).

This is what God's people are going to do at the end. They are a threshing instrument.

Remember here, what happens to these kingdoms [referring to the image on the 1843 Chart]? They get blown away from the threshing floor.

And we are going to ". . . fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, . . ."

What is the threshing floor?

> "[33]For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon"—

What is a daughter in prophecy? It is the remnant. The daughter of the son is the last offspring. This is the final manifestation of Babylon.

—"[33]For thus saith the LORD of Hosts is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come." Jeremiah 51:33 (KJV).

Micah 4:11-13:

"[11]Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion."—

The whole world is going to turn upon Zion.

—"But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor. Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the LORD of the whole earth." Micah 4:11–13 (KJV).

He is going to beat them into pieces.

Jeremiah 51:19-24:

The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name.

Thou art my battle ax"—

He is talking about His people.

—"Thou art my battle ax and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider; With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid; I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers. And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD." Jeremiah 51:19–24 (KJV).

The stone is the 144,000 that are lifted up as an ensign, that are used by the Lord to make a distinction between Christ and Barabbas; and, this controversy, this is what brings probation to a close. This is the manifestation of God's prophetic Word that calls those people that are looking for the image of Christ out of Babylon to come stand with God's people.

And Daniel, chapter 2, it is talking about the characteristics of the Second Angel's Message. That is what it is identifying. I hope you see that.

Tomorrow I hope you see that Daniel, chapter 3, is the Third Angel's Message.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be one of those stones that is cut out of the mountain, that is polished, that glorifies you, that is ultimately lifted up as an ensign to bring this controversy to a conclusion. We give you permission to do what it takes in each of our individual lives to make this work a complete and thorough work. We pray that you would give us open doors to share this message with those that we come in contact with in our own sphere of influence and that when we do so, your Holy Spirit will accompany it and convict their hearts of their need for preparation. We thank you for the prophetic message that is so precise and so specific to the events that are taking place. We ask that your Holy Spirit would allow this clarity to continue to convict us of our need of drawing close to you and entering into the spirit of prayer that is one of the characteristics of the time in which we live. We set before you this day of work and service that we all have to do. We ask that you would bless our hands, keep us safe, and allow us to do something in such a way that it would glorify you. We thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #30

Part Four: DANIEL

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: (The invocation was not recorded on the DVD at the beginning of this presentation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are in the long study of Habakkuk's Two Tables, which are behind me; and we begin by looking at the Spirit Prophecy endorsement of the doctrines that are on these 1843 and 1850 Charts.

And then we took up the study of line upon line, looking at how you teach, how you convey the Latter Rain Message by bringing the various reform lines of prophecy together to illustrate the end of the world.

In conjunction with looking line upon line, we took about a week to look at the role of the Mystery of Iniquity as one of the waymarks in these reform lines, and now we are in probably the fourth section of this, where we are looking at the Book of Daniel. We have been looking at Daniel, chapter 1, as typifying the First Angel's Message with the Everlasting Gospel and the three-step testing process of "Fear God," "Give Him Glory," "For the Hour of His Judgment is Come."

Yesterday we looked at Daniel, chapter 2, and identified that as the Second Angel's Message, "Babylon is fallen," the testing of the image.

And today we are going to look at chapter 3 of Daniel and show that this is the third test here at the end of the world. This is the Third Angel's Message; this is The Sunday Law. And the reason why we are doing that is still because of our study of these Charts. When we get to Daniel, chapter 4, we are going to look at Nebuchadnezzar's dream and demonstrate that this dream is prefiguring William Miller's dream, and William Miller's dream is identifying the covering up of these foundational truths, and then the work of the Lion of the tribe of Judah to lead us back to the Old Paths, to these foundational truths at the end of the world.

So, Daniel, chapter 4, is William Miller's dream; and, it has a direct bearing, it is part of the typifications of these Two Tables in Bible prophecy.

And then, of course, in Daniel, chapter 5, we have already looked at Daniel chapters 4 and 5 together as a component identifying that Nebuchadnezzar was the foundational warning message for Babylon, and that Belshazzar represented the end of Babylon when the leadership of Babylon was rejecting the foundational warning message; and, that is what we will illustrate as we proceed that when the Lion of the tribe of Judah, described as the Dirt Brush Man in William Miller's dream, leads His people back to the foundational truths at the end of the seven scatterings, that the leadership by and large of Adventism will fulfill the role of Belshazzar by rejecting the message on the wall.

So, that is why we are spending time here in Daniel, in connection with these two tables.

THE THIRD ANGEL

We will begin this morning with the Third Angel's Message. We want to show that Daniel 3 is the Third Angel's Message.

And Revelation 14:9-13 says,

> "[9]And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, [10]The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: [11]And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.
> "[12]Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. [13]And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." Revelation 14:9–13 KJV).

Here in the Third Angel's Message you see symbolically represented the Everlasting Gospel, because the Everlasting Gospel is the work of Christ to develop and demonstrate two classes of worshippers. They are both here. The one class is those who have the patience; the other class is those who are going to drink of the wine of God's wrath.

You will notice that the last part of verse 13 says, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: . . . ," and as Seventh-day Adventists we know that with Sister White's commentary on this that all those that died in the faith of the Third Angel since 1844 are blessed, and part of their blessing is that they come up in the Special Resurrection of Daniel 2 and 3, where one class is resurrected to see the Second Coming and receive it with wonder and joy; and, another class, those that pierced Him are also resurrected to see the return of the Lord as a punishment.

So, here at the end of the Third Angel's Message is this blessing that we understand is fulfilled within the history of Adventism to all those that are faithful to the Third Angel's Message; but, that is when the Third Angel's Message arrived in 1844. When the Third Angel's Message arrives as present truth at The Sunday Law in the United States, those people that stand faithful for the Sabbath, some of them are going to die and this blessing applies to them as well, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: . . . .," the persecution that takes place during The Sunday Law crisis. They also will be resurrected in the Special Resurrection.

But, I have put together a whole series of notes to make this point, and then I realized that it was too long for this presentation; so, I am just dealing with it off the top of my head here and moving past it.

This is the same blessing in Daniel 12:13, "But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days," and the lot there can be understood as a grave. There is a blessing pronounced upon Daniel who died in the Lord, and it can be recognized in here as well; because, the Book of Daniel is the literal presentation in Daniel's experience of the Three Angels' Messages.

Anyway, we are looking at Daniel 3 as The Sunday Law, the Third Angel.

HISTORY REPEATS

Youth Instructor, July 12, 1904, says,

> "The vainglory and oppression seen in the course pursued by the heathen king, Nebuchadnezzar, is being and will continue to be manifested in our day. History will repeat itself."—

So, Sister White is very clear that the history of Daniel 3 will be repeated in our day.

> —"In this age the test will be on the point of Sabbath observance. The heavenly universe behold men trampling upon the law of Jehovah, making the memorial of God, the sign between him and his commandment-keeping people, a thing of naught, something to be despised, while a rival sabbath is exalted as was the great golden image in the plain of Dura. Men claiming to be Christians will call upon the world to observe this spurious sabbath that they have made. All who refuse will be placed under oppressive laws. This is the mystery of iniquity, the devising of satanic agencies, carried into effect by the man of sin." The Youth Instructor, July 12, 1904.

So, we know about the Mystery of Iniquity now in this study. This combination of church and state is the Mystery of Iniquity; it is the iron and clay in Daniel, chapter 2. And, she specifically says that this image test on the plain of Dura is The Sunday Law. So, Daniel, chapter 3, it is pretty easy to see is an illustration of the Third Angel's Message, if you are willing to see.

SETTING UP THE IDOL

Okay. Now, in Daniel, chapter 3, the two last two tests, the second test being the image test and the third test being The Sunday Law, they are both marked there. Daniel, chapter 3, is emphasizing the Third Angel's Message, The Sunday Law test; but, in verses 1 and 2, of Daniel 3, it says,

> "[1]Nebuchadnezzar, the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon."—

So, what were its dimensions?

What is threescore?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 60.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 60.

And what was its breadth?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 6.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 66. The other "6" is not there, but this is definitely the number of the man of sin.

> —"he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon."—

How did he set it up? What does it mean, "he set it up"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What had to happen before he set it up?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It had to be built.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It had to be built—right?—however they built it. It first has to be built, and then here it is saying they set it up.

> —"[2]Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up." Daniel 3:1-2 (KJV).

So, the setting up of the image is something that precedes, goes before, the actual enforcement to worship.

And, so, what is the setting up of the image? It is the image of the beast test. I mean, it does not specifically say it in the Book of Daniel, but you can read into it, if you want to exercise your spiritual discernment.

Among other things, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego represent the Hebrews on the plain of Dura that participated in building the image and setting it up, that participated in bringing the band together to practice the music that was going to mark the enforcement of "Sunday" legislation. They had seen these things happening in advance, and they could have known what is coming. And Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego represent those Hebrews, those "Seventh-day Adventists," that were warned by the setting up of the image of the beast. They recognized the image of the beast test to be the warning that probation was about to close in the very near future. Okay?

So, you can see the image of the beast test, the second test, the Second Angel's Message, here in these first two verses.

Review and Herald, March 8, 1898:

> "Satan has taken the world captive. He has introduced an idol sabbath, apparently giving to it great importance. He has stolen the homage of the Christian world away from the Sabbath of the Lord for this idol sabbath. The world bows to a tradition, a man-made commandment. As Nebuchadnezzar set up his golden image on the plain of Dura, and so exalted himself, so Satan exalts himself in this false sabbath, for which he has stolen the livery of heaven." Review and Herald, March 8, 1898.

This setting up of Sunday as the satanic day of worship, it is already here. The Protestant churches have—it has already been set up. The official "setting up" is when the churches of the United States take control of the state of the United States. That is the completion of the setting up, but it is being set up in Ellen White's day and age. She is talking about present tense there.

Manuscript Releases, volume 14, page 91:

> "An idol sabbath has been set up, as the golden image was set up in the plains of Dura."—

So, Sister White is talking about the setting up of it that comes before the music plays; and, when the music plays that is The Sunday Law.

—"And as Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, issued a decree that all who would not bow down and worship this image should be killed, so a proclamation will be made"—WILL BE MADE—"that all who will not reverence the Sunday institution will be punished with imprisonment and death."—

We have read a quote here—and this is Presentation No. 30; so, if you have watched them all and you do not remember this quote, I do not hold it against you. But, we read a quote, maybe two of them because there is more than one where Sister White says this, and I forget exactly how it goes but I could dig it out, that we are going to be scattered. We are going to be scattered.

When does the scattering take place? The Sunday Law. God's people are going to be scattered through persecution at The Sunday Law, are they not?

Okay. Keep that in your mind.

—"Thus the Sabbath of the Lord is trampled underfoot. But the Lord has declared, 'Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and write grievousness which they have prescribed' [Isaiah 10:1]. [Zephaniah 1:14–18; 2:1–3, quoted.]" Manuscript Releases, volume 14, 91.

Here, if you are willing to see it, Sister White not only is saying the image on the plain of Dura is a symbol of The Sunday Law, she is saying that Isaiah 10, verse 1, is The Sunday Law.

GATHER TOGETHER BEFORE THE DECREE

And she also quotes Zephaniah and identifies that as The Sunday Law issue. Let us go to Zephaniah 1, and she references this, also, Zephaniah 1:14. She is applying this to Daniel, chapter 3, which is the Third Angel's Message, which is The Sunday Law. And verse 14 says,

"Zephaniah 1:14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, 16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers. 17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung. 18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath;"—

When is the day of the Lord's wrath? The Seven Last Plagues.

—"but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land." Zephaniah 1:14-18 (KJV).

"Zephaniah 2:1 Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired;"—

You will find at least two, or maybe it is three but I am going to go with two so I do not get criticized, when the Bible speaks about the Lord lifting up an ensign at The Sunday Law, two of those verses identify the people that are lifted up as an ensign as the Outcasts of Israel. This is just another expression of this. These people are the nation that is not desired.

The Seventh-day Adventists that are faithful at The Sunday Law are the nation that is not desired. They are the nation that the whole world is going to turn against, because Satan is going to lead them to believe that it is because of their obedience to the [seventh-day] Sabbath that the whole world is falling apart around them. They are the nation not desired. They are the Outcasts of Israel.

> "Zephaniah 2:1 Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired;"—

When are you supposed to gather to gather?

> —"2 Before the decree bring forth,"—

You are to gather together BEFORE The Sunday Law.

> —"2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you. 3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger." Zephaniah 1:14-18, 2:1-3 (KJV).

So, before The Sunday Law—this being The Sunday Law here [waymark 3 of Figure No. 51A]—the nation not desired (that is us, hopefully) has to gather together. We have to come together.

The Sunday Law is simply where you are going to demonstrate the character that you prepared in the previous hours of probation. You are going to demonstrate it; you are not going to develop it. You have to develop this character before the decree; and, it is by developing this character and consuming, eating this message, that you are brought into unity with your brothers and sisters around the world, that you are gathered together.

But, in this time period there are various gatherings going on; because, we know from our previous study that when He is gathering the Outcasts of Israel together in advance of lifting them up as an ensign, in Adventism He is also gathering together the tares. So, there are those two gatherings going on.

But, The Sunday Law is also where He gathers the nations of the world to battle against Jerusalem; but, we know that when the ensign is lifted up, there are going to be those eleventh-hour workers that are still in Babylon that are going to gather with the ensign. So, in this history, prophetically, there are certain gatherings going on that you need to pay attention to and make a distinction of.

And here, Rule No. 1 perhaps, is that the faithful need to gather together. They need to come into unity. They need to settle into the truth before Nebuchadnezzar's music begins to play.

Early Writings, page 68, we have looked at these things before.

> "As I saw what we must be in order to inherit glory, and then saw how much Jesus had suffered to obtain for us so rich an inheritance, I prayed that we might be baptized into Christ's sufferings, that we might not shrink at trials, but bear them with patience and joy, knowing what Jesus had suffered that we through His poverty and sufferings might be made rich. Said the angel, 'Deny self; ye must step fast.' Some of us have had time to get the truth and to advance step by step, and every step we have taken has given us strength to take the next. But now time is almost finished, and what we have been years learning, they will have to learn in a few months. They will also have much to unlearn and much to learn again. Those who would not receive the mark of the beast and his image when the decree goes forth, must have decision now to say, Nay, we will not regard the institution of the beast." Early Writings, 68.

If you are going to uphold Sabbath at The Sunday Law time period, before The Sunday Law comes, you have to already have it in your mind that there is no way that you are going to bow to the music of Nebuchadnezzar. It has to take place beforehand. You have to gather together beforehand.

And some of the people that gather into this experience, into this truth, will have been preparing for it for years; but, as the issues come to a conclusion there is going to be some people that are going to stand faithful that get onboard right at the last moment, and they are going to have to learn in a few months what it has taken others years to learn.

But, the point I want to derive from here is that you have to determine before the test, you have to determine when they are building the image there at Dura, getting ready to set it up. You have to determine then that when the music plays you are not bowing down.

Okay. And we have looked at this next quote, too, before, Manuscript Releases, volume 15, page 15.

> "The Lord has shown me clearly that the image of the beast will be formed before probation closes;"—

Nebuchadnezzar's image is set up before the music plays.

> —"for it is to be the great test for the people of God, by which their eternal destiny will be decided."—

Okay. You see the image getting prepared. The Holy Spirit says, "Hey, what this means is Nebuchadnezzar is going to force you to bow down to that image, and you know that The Ten Commandments say that you are not suppose to worship idols; so, if you are going to bow down when the music plays, you are going to breaking God's Law. You are going to be lost."

Before the event, the Holy Spirit is speaking to your heart, saying, "You better get your head on straight, because there is a test coming." And how you respond to that influence of the Holy Spirit is what you are basing your eternal destiny upon.

If you say, "Well, you know, everyone else is going to do it; and the classic example works even for me is. I can just bend down and tie my shoes when this is going on and I am not really bowing down to the image. I am just tying my shoes."

If you come up with some kind of conclusion like that, you have just failed the image of the beast test because you have to make that decision before the test. That is why your eternal destiny is based upon the image of the beast test, the setting-up test. It is accomplished before the music plays.

> —"The Lord has shown me clearly that the image of the beast will be formed before probation closes; for it is to be the great test for the people of God, by which their eternal destiny will be decided."—

Your eternal destiny is decided before your probation closes.

> —"Your position"—SPEAKING OF ANNA PHILLIPS AND HER PROMOTERS—"is such a jumble of inconsistencies that but few will be deceived.
> "In Revelation 13 this subject is plainly presented; [Revelation 13:11–17, quoted].
> "This is the test that the people of God must have before they are sealed."—

You are sealed at The Sunday Law.

> —"All who proved their loyalty to God by observing His law, and refusing to accept a spurious sabbath, will rank under the banner of the Lord God Jehovah, and will receive the seal of the living God. Those who yield the truth of heavenly origin and accept the Sunday sabbath, will receive the mark of the beast" Manuscript Releases, volume 15, 15.

But you have to pass the image of the beast test before you are sealed at The Sunday Law.

And we have looked at this one, too, before, Christ's Object Lessons, page 123.

> "Again, these parables teach that there is to be no probation after the judgment. When the work of the gospel is completed, there immediately follows the separation between the good and the evil, and the destiny of each class is forever fixed." Christ's Object Lessons, 123.

It is the third waymark that the characteristic is Judgment. There is no probation after Judgment.

And, at the end of the world, the third waymark is The Sunday Law. It is Nebuchadnezzar playing the music.

Before the third waymark in this image of the beast test, we must have a decision there to say "Nay," when Sunday enforcement comes.

WHEN THE DECREE GOES FORTH

Testimonies, volume 5, page 216, in terms of the close of probation being at The Sunday Law, it says,

> "When the decree goes forth and the stamp is impressed, their character will remain pure and spotless for eternity." Testimonies, volume 5, 216.

When the decree goes forth, if you are a sabbathkeeping Seventh-day Adventist and you continue to uphold the Sabbath, your character is pure and spotless for eternity.

If you jump ship at that point and keep Sunday, your character is corrupt for eternity. It is in this sense that your probation closes, then and there.

It can actually close before then. What we are emphasizing is it closes before then, but at The Sunday Law probation closes.

Bible Training School, December 1, 1903—we have looked at all of these previously in this series:

> "The work of the Holy Spirit is to convince the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment."—

That, of course, is the Three Angels' Messages: "Fear God," "Give Him Glory," "The Hour of His Judgment is Come." That is Daniel 12:10, "Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; . . ." That is the Sanctuary: Courtyard, Holy Place, the Most Holy Place.

> —"The work of the Holy Spirit is to convince the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. The world can only be warned"—

What is the world? People outside of Adventism.

> —"The world can only be warned by seeing those who believe the truth"—

Who are the ones that believe the truth? Adventism. The world can only be warned by seeing Adventism.

> —"The world can only be warned by seeing those who believe the truth sanctified through the truth, acting upon high and holy principles, showing in a high, elevated sense, the line of demarcation between those who keep the commandments of God, and those who trample them under their feet."—

When are the Commandments trampled under their feet?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At The Sunday Law. Okay? So, she just said here, the only way the world can be warned is by seeing Adventists, those who believe the truth, keeping the Law of God in the time period when The Sunday Law is there, when in the time period when the Law of God is trampled under their feet.

This is not talking about right now. This is talking about the warning of the Third Angel that begins at The Sunday Law. The only way that the world can be warned is by seeing Seventh-day Adventists faithfully keeping the Sabbath when The Sunday Law is being enforced. That is what she is saying there; and, therefore, you are seeing a distinction between the eleventh-hour workers, those people in Babylon, and Adventism in this time period.

But, those people, those Adventists that are sanctified through the truth, that is what the world needs to see, is Adventists that are sanctified through the truth. She is going to define in this very paragraph what "sanctified through the truth" is.

> —"The world can only be warned by seeing those who believe the truth sanctified through the truth, acting upon high and holy principles, showing in a high, elevated sense, the line of demarcation between those who keep the commandments of God, and those who trample them under their feet. The sanctification of the Spirit signalizes the difference between those who have the seal of God, and those who keep a spurious rest-day."—

The only way the world can be warned is by seeing people with the Seal of God; and, those people receive the Seal of God at The Sunday Law and their probation ends there (a little bit before, but that is where they demonstrate their character). Therefore, the warning of the world takes place after The Sunday Law arrives and purifies the Adventist Church, separates the wheat and the tares.

> —"When the test comes, it will be clearly shown what the mark of the beast is. It is the keeping of Sunday. Those who after having heard the truth,"—

This is the eleventh-hour workers. Now they are being confronted with the issue of Sabbath and Sunday.

> —"Those who after having heard the truth, continue to regard this day as holy, bear the signature of the man of sin, who thought to change times and laws." Bible Training School, December 1, 1903.

The only way that the world can be warned is seeing Seventh-day Adventists that receive the Seal of God at The Sunday Law, acting in a—what?—in a high and elevated sense.

What does it mean to be high and elevated?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Lifted up.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Lifted up as an ensign for the whole world to see in The Sunday Law crisis.

BEFORE THE DECREE

THE MILLERITES

Okay. Before the decree; we are still dealing with our work before the decree.

In the history of Miller, before the Judgment waymark, before October 22, 1844, there was a revival; because, after two days He will revive us, and at the third day He will lift us up; and, therefore, in this history that is being marked is the gathering together, the finalizing of character development within Adventism, which will be demonstrated at the third waymark at The Sunday Law.

And in the Millerite History, this finalizing of character development of the two classes was taking place before October 22, 1844, in the revival we call the Midnight Cry.

We have read this before from The Great Controversy, pages 400-401, speaking of the Midnight Cry, Sister White says,

> "It was similar in character to those seasons of humiliation and returning unto the Lord which among ancient Israel followed messages of reproof from His servants."—

The messages of reproof came here in the Millerite History [between 1798 and March 22, 1844] and produced revival here [August 15, 1844] a settling in of the truth, so that they would be prepared for October 22, 1844.

> —"It bore the characteristics that mark the work of God in every age. There was little ecstatic joy, but rather deep searching of heart, confession of sin, and forsaking of the world. A preparation to meet the Lord was the burden of agonizing spirits. There was persevering prayer and unreserved consecration to God." The Great Controversy, 400–401.

SIMILAR CHARACTER

But, Sister White is saying that this revival of the Midnight Cry, it is the same as all the other sacred revivals; and, one of those is, of course, Pentecost.

In Testimonies, volume 7, page 31 and onward, it says,

> "On the Day of Pentecost"—

The reason I am reading this is I am saying this gathering together before the decree, Zephaniah 2:1-3, has to take place in the image of the beast test time when Nebuchadnezzar is setting up the image, before The Sunday Law, and that this revival, this gathering together that was typified in the Millerite History by the Midnight Cry, Sister White tells us it is similar in character to the other revivals, and one of those other revivals was Pentecost.

> —"On the Day of Pentecost the Infinite One revealed Himself in power to the church. By His Holy Spirit He descended from the heights of heaven as a rushing, mighty wind, to the room in which the disciples were assembled. It was as if for ages this influence had been held in restraint, and now heaven rejoiced in being able to pour upon the church the riches of the Spirit's power. And, under the influence of the Spirit, words of penitence and confession were mingled with songs of praise for sins forgiven. Words of thanksgiving and of prophecy were heard. All heaven bent low to behold and to adore the wisdom of matchless, incomprehensible Love. Lost in wonder, the apostles and disciples exclaimed: 'Herein is love.' 1 John 4:10. They grasped the imparted gift. And what followed? Thousands were converted in a day. The sword of the Spirit, newly edged with power and bathed in the lightnings of heaven, cut its way through unbelief."—

This is similar to the Midnight Cry.

And what followed? What followed this revival? Thousands were converted in a day. This is after The Sunday Law when the eleventh-hour workers are looking at the ensign that is lifted up.

> —"The hearts of the disciples were surcharged with a benevolence so full, so deep, so far-reaching, that it impelled them to go to the ends of the earth testifying: God forbid that we should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. They were filled with an intense longing to add to the church of such as should be saved. They called on the believers to arouse and do their part, that all nations might hear the truth and the earth be filled with the glory of the Lord."—

When is the Earth filled with the glory of the Lord? Revelation 18. She is using Pentecost to illustrate what goes on in our day and age. It was the same thing that was typified at the Midnight Cry.

And continuing on:

> —"By the grace of Christ the apostles were made what they were. It was sincere devotion and humble, earnest prayer that brought them into close communion with Him."—

We mentioned that yesterday. In the first test, the thing that is emphasized is that we must eat the Little Book; we must study the Word of God.

But, revival of the second test only comes in answer to prayer. What is being emphasized in Step 2 is prayer.

> —"earnest prayer that brought them into close communion with Him. They sat together with Him in heavenly places. They realized the greatness of their debt to Him. By earnest, persevering prayer they obtained the endowment of the Holy Spirit, and then they went forth, weighted with the burden of saving souls, filled with zeal to extend the triumphs of the cross. And under their labors many souls were brought from darkness to light, and many churches were raised up.

"Shall we be less earnest than were the apostles? Shall we not by living faith claim the promises that moved them to the depths of their being to call upon the Lord Jesus for the fulfillment of His word: 'Ask, and ye shall receive'? John 16:24. Is not the Spirit of God to come today in answer to earnest, persevering prayer, and fill men with power? Is not God saying today to His praying, trusting, believing workers, who are opening the Scriptures to those ignorant of the precious truth they contain: 'Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world'? Matthew 28:20. Why, then, is the church so weak and spiritless?

"As the disciples, filled with the power of the Spirit, went forth to proclaim the gospel, so God's servants are to go forth today. Filled with an unselfish desire to give the message of mercy to those who are in the darkness of error and unbelief, we are to take up the Lord's work. He gives us our part to do in co-operation with Him, and He will also move on the hearts of unbelievers to carry forward His work in the regions beyond. Already many are receiving the Holy Spirit, and no longer will the way be blocked by listless indifference.

"Why has the history of the work of the disciples, as they labored with holy zeal, animated and vitalized by the Holy Spirit, been recorded,"—

Why do we even know about this history? Why did it get placed in God's Word?

—"if it is not that from this record the Lord's people today are to gain an inspiration to work earnestly for Him? What the Lord did for His people in that time, it is just as essential, and more so, that He do for His people today. All that the apostles did, every church member today is to do. And we are to work with as much more fervor, to be accompanied by the Holy Spirit in as much greater measure, as the increase of wickedness demands a more decided call to repentance." Testimonies, volume 7, 31–33.

THE SUNDAY LAW

So, what we have been focusing on is the image of the beast test that is represented in the first couple of verses of Daniel 3, when Nebuchadnezzar sets up the image; but, now we are going to look at The Sunday Law.

If you are still in Zephaniah, if you will, go back to Daniel, chapter 3, verses 3 through 7,

"[3]Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together"—

Okay. Now here is the whole world being gathered together; and, Nebuchadnezzar was the kingdom of the Earth at that time, and all the representatives of the whole world are being gathered together. That is one of the gatherings that goes on at the end.

—"were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. [4]Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages, [5]That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: [6]And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace."—

It is only in the Old Testament, the only place that you are going to find this word hour is in the Book of Daniel. And this word hour connects with the "one hour" that the kings of Revelation 17, the ten kings, agree to give their kingdom unto the Papacy and unto the beast for one hour. This is The Sunday Law testing time. And this hour is a prophetic waymark in prophecy.

When Jesus tells us, as an example, that "In the time period of The Sunday Law crisis,"—He does not say it like that but He says—"they are going to bring you before judges and magistrates. Don't worry about what you are going to say when that happens, because in that hour it will be given you what you are to speak."

That hour of Christ is this hour. It is the hour of Revelation 17.

And verse 6:

—"[6]And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up." Daniel 3:3-7 (KJV).

That is The Sunday Law; that is The Sunday Law.

AN ENSIGN

Manuscript Releases, volume 13, page 71, says,

"When the law of God is being made void, when His name is dishonored, when it is considered disloyal to the laws of the land to keep the seventh day as the Sabbath, when wolves in sheep's clothing, through blindness of mind and hardness of heart, are seeking to compel the conscience, shall we give up our loyalty to God? No, no. The wrongdoer is filled with a Satanic hatred against those who are loyal to the commandments of God, but the value of God's law as a rule of conduct must be made manifest. The zeal of those who obey the Lord will be increased as the world and the church unite in making void the law. They will say with the Psalmist, 'I love thy commandments above gold; yea above fine gold' [Psalms 119:127]. This is what will be sure to occur when the law of God is made void by a national act. When Sunday is exalted and sustained by law, then the principle that actuates the people of God will be made manifest,"—

They are going to be lifted up as an ensign.

—"When Sunday is exalted and sustained by law, then the principle that actuates the people of God will be made manifest, as the principle of the three Hebrews was made manifest when Nebuchadnezzar commanded them to worship the golden image in the plain of Dura. We can see what our duty is when the truth is overborne by falsehood." Manuscript Releases, volume 13, 71.

Isaiah 11:12, it is in your notes:

"[12]And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth." Isaiah 11:12 (KJV).

At The Sunday Law the Outcasts of Israel—who are the Outcasts of Israel? In our story it is Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

Were they? Had they been cast out of Israel and carried to Babylon? Yes, they were the Outcasts of Israel, and when the music played, they were lifted up as an ensign.

And were they? Did all the world see them?

Did all the world go back to their countries and say, "You won't believe what we've seen. Music played and everybody bowed down but these three guys and they threw them in the fiery furnace and a fourth appeared with them and they did not even smell like smoke. They didn't die."

The whole world saw it. The Outcasts of Israel were lifted up as an ensign before the whole world represented there.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: And who are the Outcasts at the end?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The 144,000.

Joel 3:1-2, 9-14:

"[1]For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again [REVERSE]"—

And when you see the two words "bring again" in the Old Testament, and often you see it, it means reverse. In the English it does not really convey that idea; but, it means reverse."

—"[1]For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again [REVERSE] the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,"—

When you say, "I bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem," in the English it sounds like He is going to take them back into captivity, "I am going to bring the captivity again." But, it means reverse. He is going to take them out of captivity. He is going to free them.

When He is reversing their captivity, because prior to The Sunday Law they have been the nation not desired, they have been the Outcasts of Israel, but He is going to reverse that. He is going to take them out of captivity and lift them up as an ensign.

And at that same time, verse 2 says,

—“[2]I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat,”—

At The Sunday Law testing time, the whole world is going to be brought down to the valley of Jehoshaphat.

—“and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land. . . .”—

What happens at The Sunday Law? You are going to get scattered. There is a scattering at the third waymark.

And He is going to plead with all nations. He is going to bring the whole world and say, “Okay. Make a decision about Sabbath or Sunday.” This is where you are making your decision, in the valley of Jehoshaphat.

Verse 9 says,

—“[9]Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up: [10]Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. [11]Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O Lord. [12]Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. [13]Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the vats overflow; for their wickedness is great. [14]Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision.” Joel 3:1–2, 9–14 (KJV).

The valley of Jehoshaphat is the valley of decision, and they are deciding between the two ensigns that have been lifted up. One is the 144,000 and the satanic ensign is Barabbas. One is the Sabbath; the other is Sunday. The whole world at The Sunday Law is brought to Nebuchadnezzar’s celebration. They are in the valley of decision. They are now deciding which way they are going to go.

Micah 4:6-13 says,

“[6]In that day, saith the Lord, will I assemble her that halteth,”—

So, what I am trying to show you here is there is a gathering of God’s people before The Sunday Law, before the decree. At The Sunday Law the whole world is gathered together to make a decision.

—“[6]In that day, saith the Lord, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;”—

Who is the one driven out? It is the Outcasts. Right?

—“[7]And I will make her that halted a remnant,”—

Oh, the remnant is the Outcasts of Israel.

> —"and her that was cast far off a strong nation:"—

The nation not desired is not going to become a strong nation.

> —"and the Lord shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever."—

And this nation is Mt. Zion.

> —"[8]And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem."—

What is a daughter in Bible prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The remnant.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The remnant. It is the remnant; it is a woman; it is a church. But, a daughter or son is the last; it is the offspring.

> —"the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.
> "[9]Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail. [10]Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the Lord shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies."—

They are going to be scattered at The Sunday Law.

> —"[11]Now also many nations are gathered against thee,"—HERE IS ANOTHER GATHERING—"that say, Let her be defiled,"—

Now, there is one sense that all the nations are gathered to the valley of Jehoshaphat because they are going to make a choice between Sabbath and Sunday; but, there is another gathering where the nations come together because they are going to destroy Zion.

> —"[11]Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion. [12]But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor. [13]Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion:"—

Who is going to thresh these heathen? The daughter of Zion, the Church.

Who is the Church? Well, in Daniel, chapter 2, it is the stones that were cut out of the mountain that strike the feet of the image and thresh the heathen.

—"[13]Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth." Micah 4:6–13 (KJV).

So, in this time period there are gatherings going to gather that are represented when Nebuchadnezzar gathered all the nations to his ceremony.

Daniel 3:8-15: Beginning in verse 8 of Daniel 3, it says,

"[8]Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews. [9]They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live for ever. [10]Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image: [11]And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. [12]There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

"[13]Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. [14]Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? [15]Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltry, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?" Daniel 3:8-15 (KJV).

Has he already played the music once?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now he is talking about playing the music one more time.

He does not do it, right? He does not do it because they are going to say, "You don't have to play the music again. We are not going to do it."

But, in here there are two Sunday laws that are marked in Bible prophecy. There is The Sunday Law in the United States that begins this one hour, and then there is the World Sunday Law, the death decree, at the end. Okay? So, there will be many Sunday laws, and it is a process; but, in terms of prophetic waymarks, there are two Sunday laws.

This has been prefigured in the history of Rome. The first Sunday law was by Pagan Rome in AD321; Constantine. The second Sunday law in that time period was AD538. When the Papacy takes control of the world, it enforces a Sunday law in AD538.

So, in ancient history you have two Sunday laws that are the subject of prophecy. The first is enforced by Pagan Rome, Pagan Rome being the power that placed the Papacy on the throne of the Earth; and, the second in AD538 identifies when the Papacy captures the Earth.

And at the end of the world there are two Sunday laws that are marked by prophecy. The first is in the United States, and the United States is the power that places the Papacy on the throne of the Earth, and it is being prefigured by Pagan Rome. The Sunday Law in the United States has been prefigured by Constantine's Sunday law in AD321. The second Sunday law at the end of the world that is a subject of Bible prophecy is the World Sunday Law of the death decree, when the Papacy is placed upon the throne of the Earth at the end of time, and that is prefigured by the Sunday law in AD538 when the Papacy was placed upon the throne of the Earth.

So, you have two Sunday laws that are the focus of Bible prophecy, both at the beginning and at the end. And here in Daniel 3, if you are willing to see, you can see both of them inferred. The first is when the music played, and the second is when Nebuchadnezzar gives them opportunity, "I am going to do it one more time."

Of course, they are going to say, "You don't have to, you don't have to."

Did he do it one more time?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, he did not. Before he did it one more time, before that happened, what is going to happen to them? They are going to be killed. They are going to be thrown in the fiery furnace.

And that is what we know about the second Sunday law at the end of the world. They are going to pass the World Sunday Law death decree. And what have we been told in the Spirit of Prophecy?

The Great Controversy, page 590.

> "And then the great deceiver will persuade men that those who serve God are causing these evils. The class that have provoked the displeasure of Heaven will charge all their troubles upon those whose obedience to God's commandments is a perpetual reproof to transgressors. It will be declared that men are offending God by the violation of the Sunday sabbath; that this sin has brought calamities which will not cease until Sunday observance shall be strictly enforced; and that those who present the claims of the fourth commandment, thus destroying reverence for Sunday, are troublers of the people, preventing their restoration to divine favor and temporal prosperity. Thus the accusation urged of old against the servant of God will be repeated and upon grounds equally well established: 'And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim.' 1 Kings 18:17, 18. As the wrath of the people shall be excited by false charges, they will pursue a course toward God's ambassadors very similar to that which apostate Israel pursued toward Elijah." The Great Controversy, 590.

But, before that time, the blood is going to be spilled. That is all inferred here in Daniel 3, if you are willing to see it.

We have already read this quote from Early Writings, page 68, and that is what Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego are typifying. We must have a determination to say no to The Sunday Law before it happens.

Now, notice verses 16 through 18 of Daniel 3. Nebuchadnezzar says, "If you are ready, then you need to bow down when the music plays."

> "[16]Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter. [17]If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will delivery us out of thine hand, O king. [18]But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up." Daniel 3:16-18 (KJV).

> "Those who would not receive the mark of the beast and his image when the decree goes forth, must have decision now to say, Nay, we will not regard the institution of the beast." Early Writings, 68.

That is Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Daniel 3 is the Third Angel's Message. It is the history of The Sunday Law, and Sister White says so. I mean, the closer you look, the more you see the details are all there.

Daniel 3:19-30:

> "[19]Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated."—

Please know that when it comes to immediately after The Sunday Law, not only do we know that God's people are going to be scattered but we have referenced here a seven times in the sequence of history, which means a scattering.

> —"[20]And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. [21]Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. [22]Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. [23]And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. [24]Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. [25]He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.
> "[26]Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came forth of the midst of the fire. [27]And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. [28]Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. [29]Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill, because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

"[30]Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, in the province of Babylon." Daniel 3:19-30 (KJV).

And we know the story, Nebuchadnezzar is amazed because he sees a fourth in the form of the Son of God, the Son of Man, walking with them. This is a 3:1 combination. The 3:1 combination in Scriptures often appears, and it represents Adventism. The first 3 represents the Millerite History when the Three Angels' Messages came into history; and, the fourth is our history, the Fourth Angel's Message.

And there are so many references to the 3:1 combination in the Scriptures that it is just amazing; and, it is amazing that people do not see it, because it is so often. But, once you see it, then you realize that every time you find a 3:1 combination, God is not being redundant. There is a certain lesson that is connected with every 3:1 combination.

For instance, Christ had 12 Disciples; but, when He went to the Mount of Transfiguration, He only took 3 Disciples with Him, 3 Disciples and Himself.

And one of the lessons, one of the primary lessons of the Mount of Transfiguration is who the redeemed are going to be; because, Christ is transfigured, and who is with Him? Moses and Elijah, Moses representing the Christians at the Second Coming that will have died and are resurrected, and Elijah representing the 144,000 that do not taste death.

So, in this 3:1 combination you have a lesson about the redeemed at the Second Coming.

In Numbers 22, when you see Balaam of the children of the East, he is representing Islam at the end of the world; because, Numbers 22 is right before God's people go into the Promised Land. And Balaam comes into the story, and Balaam is associated with the children of the East and Islam is the children of the East. And one of the characteristics that is identified by the Pioneers is they set forth the truth about Islam in the Fifth and Sixth Trumpets; is that it is both a blessing and a curse.

In Revelation 9:4, Islam is commanded to do its work of destruction, but hurt not those that have the Seal of God.

And in the history of the Fifth Trumpet, when Revelation 9:4 is valid, Abu Bakr gave a command to Islam that, "When you go out and do your warfare against the Roman Church, you are going to find two kinds of Christians, Sabbathkeeping Christians and Sundaykeeping Christians. Don't bother the Sabbathkeepers.

In the story of Islam, one of the characteristics that has been identified by the Pioneers and set forth in the Scriptures is that Islam is both a blessing and a curse. Okay? It is a blessing and a curse. Islam is a curse because it is going to bring warfare against mankind. But, it was the Ishmaelite traders that carried Joseph to safety. There is a blessing. It was the wise men from the East that brought the money that Joseph could flee into Egypt so Jesus would not be murdered by Herod. That was a blessing. So, they are a blessing and a curse.

So, in Numbers 22, Balaam, a symbol of Islam at the end of the world, just before God's people go into the Promised Land, is hired by Balak to curse Israel; but, all Balaam could do is give three blessings [Brother Pippenger holds up three fingers on his left hand], and then king Balak is disappointed and sends him home. But, before Balaam goes home, he does one more blessing [holds up one finger with his right hand—completing the 3:1 combination]. He was hired to proclaim a cursing, but he gave a blessing. So, in that 3:1 combination you are seeing the role of Islam.

In the Mount of Transfiguration, you are seeing who the redeemed are.

And in Daniel, chapter 3, you are seeing how the final warning message is carried to the world. God's people (Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego), the Outcasts of Israel, are going to be thrown into The Sunday Law crisis (the burning fiery furnace), and Christ is going to walk with them, and all the world is going to watch this happen. So, Daniel, chapter 3, is teaching a lesson on how the Loud Cry Message is proclaimed to the world.

When you see these 3:1 combinations, they have a different line of truth to be derived from when you bring them together line upon line.

So, that is what is going on when they are in the burning fiery furnace.

The Great Controversy, page 449, it says this:

> "But Christians of past generations observed the Sunday, supposing that in so doing they were keeping the Bible Sabbath; and there are now true Christians in every church, not excepting the Roman Catholic communion, who honestly believe that Sunday is the Sabbath of divine appointment. God accepts their sincerity of purpose and their integrity before Him. But when Sunday observance shall be enforced by law, and the world shall be"—WHAT?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Enlightened.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Enlightened.

Was the world enlightened when it looked into the furnace and saw Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego walking through the fire?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"and the world shall be enlightened concerning the obligation of the true Sabbath, then whoever shall transgress the command of God, to obey a precept which has no higher authority than that of Rome, will thereby honor popery above God. He is paying homage to Rome and to the power which enforces the institution ordained by Rome. He is worshiping the beast and his image. As men then reject the institution which God has declared to be the sign of His authority, and honor in its stead that which Rome has chosen as the token of her supremacy, they will thereby accept the sign of allegiance to Rome—'the mark of the beast.' And it is not until the issue is thus plainly set before the people, and they are brought to choose between the commandments of God and the commandments of men, that those who continue in transgression will receive 'the mark of the beast.'" The Great Controversy, 449.

When was it brought before the people? When Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were thrown in the fiery furnace; when Nebuchadnezzar made the issue plain, "Either you worship my god or you are going to die," the issue was made plain to the whole world, because everyone was represented there; and, then God lifted up His people as an ensign.

THE MILLERITES

Okay. And the next quote is from Spiritual Gifts, volume 1, beginning on page 163, and it speaks about the Millerite History.

Those Millerites that were faithful and entered into the Most Holy Place [on October 22, 1844], they were lifted up.

> "After Jesus opened the door of the Most Holy the light of the Sabbath was seen, and the people of God were to be tested and proved, as God proved the children of Israel anciently, to see if they would keep his law."—

When were the Millerites tested and proved on this subject?

They were tested and proved all along, but what she is speaking about here, when was the testing and proving of the Millerites?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Do you think the testing was a singular point in time?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

When was the testing time? It was from 1844 to 1846. They began to keep the Sabbath in 1846, did they not? They moved into the Most Holy Place.

And these people who are going to be tested as Ancient Israel was tested to see whether they would keep the Law of God, where did they move to by faith? To the Most Holy Place. They were lifted up into the Most Holy Place to see the Law of God, and then they were tested on how they were going to respond to it.

> —"I saw the third angel pointing upward, showing the disappointed ones the way to the Holiest of the heavenly Sanctuary. They followed Jesus by faith into the Most Holy. Again they have found Jesus, and joy and hope spring up anew. I saw them looking back reviewing the past, from the proclamation of the second advent of Jesus, down through their travels to the passing of the time in 1844. They see their disappointment explained, and joy and certainty again animate them. The third angel has lighted up the past, present and future, and they know that God has indeed led them by his mysterious providence.
> "It was represented to me that the remnant followed Jesus into the Most Holy place, and beheld the ark, and the mercy-seat, and were captivated with their glory. Jesus raised the cover of the ark, and behold! the tables of stone, with the ten commandments written upon them. They trace down the lively oracles; but they start back with trembling when they see the fourth commandment living among the ten holy precepts, while a brighter light shines upon it than upon the other nine, and a halo of glory is all around it. They find nothing there informing them that the Sabbath has been abolished, or changed to the first day of the week. It reads as when spoken by the mouth of God in solemn and awful grandeur upon the mount, while the lightnings flashed and the thunders rolled, and when written with his own holy finger in the tables of stone. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. They are amazed as they behold the care taken of the ten commandments. They see them placed close by Jehovah, overshadowed and protected by his holiness. They see that they have been trampling upon the fourth commandment of the Decalogue, and have observed a day handed down by the heathen and papists, instead of the day sanctified by Jehovah. They humble themselves before God, and mourn over their past transgressions.
> "I saw the incense in the censer smoke as Jesus offered their confessions and prayers to his Father. And as it ascended, a bright light rested upon Jesus, and upon the mercy-seat; and the earnest, praying ones, who were troubled because they had discovered themselves to be transgressors of God's law, were blest, and their countenances lighted up with hope and joy. They joined in the work of the third angel, and raised their voices and proclaimed the solemn warning. But few at first received the message, yet they continued with energy to proclaim the warning. Then I saw many embrace the message of the third angel, and unite their voices with those who had first proclaimed the warning, and they exalted God and magnified him by observing his sanctified Rest-day." Spiritual Gifts, volume 1, 163–165.

So, you see the Millerites being lifted up prophetically here as well in this issue.

And they had to understand the Sanctuary and the Law of God in order to put the Three Angels' Message, the Sanctuary, and the Law of God on this [1850] Chart; because, the Lord was going to remove His hand from this [1843] Chart, and then by Inspiration He was going to make the second Table of Habakkuk and correct that error, and also include on it the Three Angels' Message, and the Sanctuary, the things that we call the "Pillars."

You hear people arguing against this message where they take the passages where Sister White is identifying the Three Angels' Messages, the Sabbath, the Sanctuary, the Law of God, as the Pillars of Adventism, and they are trying to insist that the Pillars of Adventism are the foundations. But, those are two different things. Anyone that has had any kind of [experience in] construction and you do not need to have had any kind of construction [knowledge] to know that the foundation is different than the pillars. You can have nice pillars, but if you put them on the sand, they are not going to hold your house up. In order for your pillars to be effective, you have to have a good foundation.

This [indicating the 1843 Chart] is the foundational truths. These truths [on the 1843 Chart] were understood before 1844; but, these truths [of the Three Angels' Messages, the Sabbath, the Sanctuary, and the Law of God depicted on the 1850 Chart] were understood after 1844, in this history [of the Millerites]. They had to be tested. They had to be lifted up into the Most Holy Place, to be tested there on how they would respond.

And then in 1850, the second Table of Habakkuk is put in place. And that number "50," that is significant. Fifty is Pentecost. It is a covenant number. This is where the Lord has put in place both Tables of the Covenant for modern Israel.

SUMMARY

So, where we are at in this study, what we will begin on Sunday, the Lord willing, is we are going to, the Lord willing, go through and show that Daniel, chapter 1, represents the Millerite History. And in Daniel, chapter 1, we showed that it was the Everlasting Gospel. Two classes were produced, and they went through a three-step testing process. That is the three-step testing process of the Millerites: 1798, "Fear God"; 1842, "Give Him Glory"; 1844, "For the Hour of His Judgment is Come." That is all in Daniel, chapter 1.

Then in Daniel, chapter 2, we have the emphasis on the second test at the end of the world, the Second Angel's Message, "Babylon is fallen," the image of the beast test.

And then we have seen here in Daniel, chapter 3, The Sunday Law, the Third Angel's Message.

But, Daniel, chapters 1, 2, and 3, are the Three Angels' Messages, "in verity."

But, after 1844, after the Lord enters into covenant with them, modern Israel at this point in time, they begin to set aside the foundational truths, just as Ancient Israel did. Ancient Israel's foundational truths took place in the deliverance from Egypt, and they had only been out of Egypt days before they began to forget how the Lord had led them.

So, here [after 1850] they began to set aside the foundational truths that are represented on this [1843] Chart. And William Miller's dream is a dream that describes that aspect of our history; and, William Miller's dream is recorded in Early Writings, and it is the only chapter in Early Writings that Ellen White did not write. William Miller wrote it.

And Daniel, chapter 4, is the only chapter in the Book of Daniel that Daniel did not write. Nebuchadnezzar wrote it; and. Nebuchadnezzar talks about seven times, and William Miller talks about scattering (seven times). And, we are going to show that Daniel, chapter 4, is William Miller's dream that marks that after this history [of the Millerites], there would be a seven times scattering; and, in Daniel, chapter 4, there would be a seven times scattering. And that is where we are going to proceed on Sunday.

So, we will take this study of Daniel and bring it back to these Charts, because William Miller's dream is referencing the truths on these [1843 and 1850] Charts, which are jewels.

We hope to see you back on Sunday morning.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for opening the Book of Daniel to a deeper place. You are allowing us to see that all the ancient prophets are speaking about our day and age and that their testimony is present truth for us. We want this light. We want this understanding, but we also want this understanding to be turned into an experience by the power of your Holy Spirit. We ask that you will accomplish that for us. And we know that if we are going to continue to receive this golden oil that comes down through the golden pipes that we have to empty our vessels by sharing the golden oil. So, we ask that you would prepare divine appointments for each of us that give us opportunity to share the truth that we have been given, that we might have room for more truth. We set this day before you and ask that you would bless us in our service for you. Let us do things that will glorify and honor you. We have some of our group that are traveling this day. We ask that you bring them home safely, and we pray that you give our Brother discernment as he plans to go and take care of serious, solemn business in California, as well. Thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #31

Part Four: DANIEL

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: (The invocation was not recorded on the DVD at the beginning of this presentation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. We are dealing with Habakkuk's Tables, of course; and, right now we are in a section where we are looking at these Tables as typified in Bible prophecy.

And, we have been going through the Book of Daniel.

I will explain what this represents. We are not going to spend a great deal of time on this; but, this is Daniel, chapters 1, 2, and 3.

This is Daniel, chapter 4, where we are beginning to focus in. Daniel, chapter 4, begins here [1863] and ends there [1989].

And then down here in our history, Daniel, chapter 5, Belshazzar is fulfilled.

But, if you remember, we identified that Daniel is the prophet that is associated with the First Angel's Message. He is associated with Jehoiakim, the first of the three kings that were confronted by Nebuchadnezzar as Jerusalem was destroyed; and, he is also identified as living until the first of three kings, Cyrus, that would raise up the temple in Jerusalem.

So, Daniel is associated with the first king in the tragedy of Jerusalem being destroyed, the first king in Jerusalem being rebuilt; and, we are saying that his book is primarily focusing on the First Angel's Message.

So, when we looked at Daniel, chapter 1, that is what this is [1798]. We identified it that just as the First Angel's Message in the Millerite History, the First Angel's Message in the Millerite History of Revelation 14:6-7 had all the waymarks of all Three Messages: "Fear God," First Message; "Give Him Glory," Second Message; "For the Hour of His Judgment is Come," Third Message. That is all in the Everlasting Gospel of the First Angel's Message.

So, too, in Daniel, chapter 1, we identified all of these waymarks. Daniel feared God; he determined he would not defile himself with the king's meat. Then he was tested and his countenance was looked upon, an image test. And then he was brought in before Nebuchadnezzar to be tested at the end of the days, thus marking judgment. So, in Daniel, chapter 1, just like the First Angel's Message, we have all three waymarks.

Then we looked at Daniel, chapter 2, and showed that it was the image of the beast test, the test that precedes The Sunday Law test. And, not only do we have the image of Daniel 2 emphasizing that Daniel, chapter 2, is the image of the beast test, but the bottom line, the punch line of Daniel, chapter 2, is the truth that is in the iron and clay down in the toes [referencing the image in the upper left-hand corner of the 1843 and 1850 Charts] that Sister White says is a combination of churchcraft and statecraft, which is church and state; and, church and state Sister White identifies as the image of the beast.

So, we looked at Daniel 2 as being the second test, which in one way it can be represented as the image of the beast test, it is here; and, the second test, where the two classes will be finalized before they demonstrate what their character is at the third test. And we have dealt quite a bit with that. So, in the second test you will have the proclamation, "Babylon is fallen," marking that one class has developed the character of Judas; the other class, the character of Christ: one class the character of the wise virgins, the other the character of the foolish virgins; wheat and tares; and, so on and so forth.

Then we looked at Daniel, chapter 3, and noted that it is The Sunday Law. Of course, the First and Second Angels' Messages in Millerite History that came in 1798, 1842, and 1844, they were marking the waymarks in the First Angel's Message. There really was not a Sunday Law in 1844; it was prefiguring it. It was not the perfect fulfillment. Babylon had not fully fallen in 1842. The fall of Babylon is a progressive event.

So, the history of the Millerites is typifying the perfect fulfillment of the Three Angels' Messages at the end of the world.

So, in Daniel, chapter 1, you have the First Angel's Message; Daniel, chapter 2, the Second; Daniel, chapter 3, the Third. And now we are getting ready to look at Daniel, chapter 4; and, we have looked at Daniel, chapters 4 and 5, in terms of the 2520 already, and the fall of Babylon; but, we are going to show that Daniel, chapter 4, which I have marked beginning here [1863] and ending here [1989], that this is William Miller's dream. Daniel, chapter 4, the only chapter in the Book of Daniel that he did not write, that Nebuchadnezzar wrote chapter 4, and William Miller's second dream and Nebuchadnezzar's second dream.

William Miller's second dream we find in Early Writings. It is the only chapter in Early Writings that Ellen White did not write. And we are going to show that his dream is identifying when the truths that the Lord used him to assemble, the foundational truths [referencing the 1843 Chart], began to be covered up in 1863 with the introduction of a counterfeit chart. And in 1989, in agreement with his dream, the Dirt Brush Man, who is Christ, comes in and begins to sweep out the rubbish of tradition and custom that has come into Adventism, covering up the truths on this [1843] Chart, from 1863 and onward.

So, usually when you do William Miller's dream, which we are on the verge of doing, you have got to read the dream; you have to give an overview of it, you have to tell what the dream represents; and, you have to bring in some Bible and Spirit of Prophecy to prove what you are suggesting about it.

But, I want to make this a little bit more airtight; so, today we are just going to go through and we are going to establish the symbols that are found in William Miller's dream, and then tomorrow we will go through William Miller's dream, already having identified the symbols. We are going to take a little bit more time with it is what I am saying.

REVELATION FIVE

We will begin with Revelation, chapter 5; but, notice in your notes from Testimonies, volume 9, page 267, it says,

> "The fifth chapter of Revelation needs to be closely studied. It is of great importance to those who shall act a part in the work of God for these last days. There are some who are deceived. They do not realize what is coming on the earth. Those who have permitted their minds to become beclouded in regard to what constitutes sin are fearfully deceived. Unless they make a decided change they will be found wanting when God pronounces judgment upon the children of men. They have transgressed the law and broken the everlasting covenant, and they will receive according to their works." Testimonies, volume 9, 267.

THE LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDAH

What I want to focus on for our purposes today is the first sentence there, "The fifth chapter of Revelation needs to be closely studied." And if you will turn there now, we are going to read the first seven verses.

Chapter 4 of Revelation is the Throne Room scene, where John sees God the Father sitting upon the throne and He has a book in His hand that is sealed with Seven Seals, which we are going to identify as the Bible.

And in chapter 5, John is going to become part of the prophecy; and, we have dealt with this many times in this worship series so far. When a prophet becomes part of the prophecy, he represents God's people at the end of the world. So, we want to look at what happens to John as he sees this book sealed with Seven Seals.

In Revelation 5, beginning in verse 1, it says,

> "[1]And I saw in the right hand of him"—THIS IS GOD THE FATHER—"that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. [2]And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? [3]And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. [4]And I wept much,"—

Now, you want to take note that when John realizes no one can open this book, he begins to weep.

> —"[4]And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. [5]And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. [6]And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain,"—

Who is the Lamb?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jesus.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jesus.

—"having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. [7]And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne." Revelation 5:1-7 (KJV).

So here Jesus is portrayed as two things, the Lamb and the Lion; the Lamb, and the Lion of the tribe of Judah. And we are going to find that when Jesus is represented as the Lion of the tribe of Judah—and I hope you understand that the different ways that Christ is represented in the Scriptures is employed in order to teach us a different lesson about who and what He is. In Daniel 8:13, Christ is called Palmoni, the Wonderful Numberer. And you find that Daniel 8:13 is the very hub of all the time prophecies in the Bible; and, when Jesus is there in Daniel 8:13 as Palmoni, which means the Numberer of Secrets or the Wonderful Numberer, He is emphasizing that this is the point of reference for the time prophecies of the Bible.

When Jesus is represented as Shiloh, it is talking about the Latter Rain Message of the 2520.

When Jesus is represented as the Lamb, it is talking about His sacrificial work.

But, what we want to see today is that when Jesus is represented as the Lion of the tribe of Judah, it is representing both His work in sealing up God's Word and in unsealing God's Word, because He does both.

THE BOOK

So, in Manuscript Releases, volume 20, page 197, it says,

"We ask John what he saw and heard in the vision at Patmos, and he answers: 'And I saw in the right hand of Him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.'

"There in His open hand lay the book,"—

Now, this quote here, I want you to understand that some people—and I am not trying to argue with them—but, some people will take this quote, this paragraph here, and say this book that is in Revelation 4 and 5 is some kind of divine history book. And it is, but they are saying that it is something other than the Bible. What I am saying is, the divine history book is the Bible and that we need to make sure we understand that it is the Bible that is being dealt with here in Revelation 4 and 5, not some kind of secondary book. All right?

So, as we read this paragraph, you will see why people—where they get their arguments that this is some kind of divine history book outside the Bible; but, we are going to resolve that.

—"There in His open hand lay the book, the roll of the history of God's providences, the prophetic history of nations and the church. Herein was contained the divine utterances, His authority, His commandments, His laws, the whole symbolic counsel of the Eternal, and the history of all ruling powers in the nations. In symbolic language was contained in that roll the influence of every nation, tongue, and people from the beginning of earth's history to its close.

"This roll was written within and without. John says: 'I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.' The vision as presented to John made its impression upon his mind. The destiny of every nation was contained in that book. John was distressed at the utter inability of any human being or angelic intelligence to read the words, or even to look thereon. His soul was wrought up to such a point of agony and suspense that one of the strong angels had compassion on him, and laying his hand on him assuringly said, 'Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.'

"John continues: 'I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him that sat upon the throne.'

"As the book was unrolled, all who looked upon it were filled with awe. There were no blanks in the book. There was space for no more writing. [Revelation 5:8–14; 6:8, quoted.]" Manuscript Releases, volume 20, 197.

Okay. This is why, if you understand this is the Bible—and it is. We are going to show you that in a moment—this is why the Book of Revelation says there is a curse on anyone that adds to this book; because, there is no room for anymore words in the Bible; and, there is a curse on anyone who takes from it.

Of course, Seventh-day Adventists do not understand that it is the same authority that is in God's Word that is in the Spirit of Prophecy. So, if you add to or take from the Spirit of Prophecy, you are under the identical curse.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And yesterday, in our Sabbath School, we had introduced this counterfeit Great Controversy called, "The Great Hope," where they took the 42 chapters of The Great Controversy and they turned them into 11, and they went ahead with the 11 chapters they were using and like they threw them into a blender and then put them back together, removing words, removing paragraphs, adding words; and, they do not think they are going to be under a curse.

And I suppose Adventists who are going to use this little publication to do evangelistic work, they probably do not think they are going to be under a curse, either; but, they will be under the curse of Jehoiakim, who took God's Word and chopped it up, like they have done with The Great Hope and threw it in the fire.

But, it did not last, did it? Jeremiah just wrote the book again with more curses in it than before.

But, in any case, when it comes to this Book, there is not any room for any more words, and you better not take the words that are in there out or change them.

Now, what is this divine book that causes John to weep that is taken from the Father by the Lion of the tribe of Judah? It contains divine utterances, we are told.

THE SACRED VOLUMES—THE BOOK OF DIVINE INSTRUCTION

In Spalding and Magan, page 58, it says,

> "When Christ came to this earth, the traditions that had been handed down from generation to generation, and the human interpretation of the Scriptures, hid from men the truth as it is in Jesus. The truth was buried beneath a mass of tradition. The spiritual import of the sacred volumes was lost; for in their unbelief men locked the door of the heavenly treasure. Darkness covered the earth, and gross darkness the people. Truth looked down from heaven to earth; but nowhere was revealed the divine impress. A gloom like the pall of death overspread the earth.
> "But the Lion of the tribe of Judah prevailed. He opened the seal that closed the book of divine instruction."—

So, when the Lion of the tribe of Judah is opening this Book, it is the Book of Divine Instruction.

> —"The world was permitted to gaze upon pure, unadulterated truth. Truth itself descended to roll back the darkness and counteract error. A Teacher was sent from heaven with the light that was to light every man that comes into the world. There were men and women who were eagerly seeking for knowledge,"—

I like this last sentence. That is why I bold-faced this; because, she is going to define what knowledge is.

> —"There were men and women who were eagerly seeking for knowledge, the sure word of prophecy, and when it came, it was as a light shining in a dark place." Spalding and Magan, 58.

Okay. So, if there is going to be an increase of knowledge, there is going to be an increase of prophetic knowledge.

THE BIBLE IS THE BOOK OF DIVINE INSTRUCTION

But, the Book that the Lion of the tribe of Judah opens, unseals, is the Book of Divine Instruction.

In Signs of the Times, July 11, 1906, Sister White says,

> "Let everyone who has been blessed with reasoning faculties take up the Bible and search its pages, that he may understand the will of God concerning him. In this Book divine instruction is given to all."—

So, what is the Book of Divine Instruction? It is the Bible.

> —"The Bible is addressed to every one—to every class of society, to those of every clime and age." Signs of the Times, July 11, 1906.

So, as Jesus, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, takes this Book, because He has prevailed—

How did He prevail; or, maybe I should say, where did He prevail? He prevailed at the cross. That is why He is also the Lamb.

So, He is in the Throne Room scene. He takes the Bible that has been sealed up, and He begins to remove the seals, one at a time which, one of the things that is telling you is, it is a progressive unsealing. Whatever that represents, He did not take all seven of them and remove them simultaneously. He removes them one at a time.

COME AND SEE

And in Revelation 6, I have four verses because I want you to see something that is marked when He removes the seals.

The verse is in your notes, where it says, "Come and See." Every time He removes a seal, He says, "Come and see."

> "[1]And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals,"—THIS IS THE FIRST SEAL—"And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. . . ."—

And in verse 3, it says,

> — "[3]And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. . . . [5]And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see."—

How many times do you have to see something before it is established?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two or three.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Two or three.

So, here we are finding that when Jesus removes the seal, what is pronounced?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "Come and see."

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "Come and see."

So, if you find "Come and see" pronounced, what do you know has happened? A seal has been removed.

Continuing in verse 5:

> —"And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. . . . [7]And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see." Revelation 6:1, 3, 5, 7 (KJV).

So, what are we doing here? What we are doing here is we are identifying that Christ is the Lion of the tribe of Judah. We are identifying that He is the One that unseals the Bible, because the Bible is the Book that is sealed with Seven Seals; and, when He removes a seal, there is a pronouncement of, "Come and see," that is proclaimed.

And we are doing this because tomorrow we are going to look at William Miller's dream, and these are certain characteristics that are in William Miller's dream that we already want to be settled into. Okay?

THE LION UNSEALS THE BOOK

So, let us make sure that we understand that it is the Lion of the tribe of Judah that takes the responsibility for unsealing God's Word.

Manuscript Releases, volume 18, pages 14-15, says,

> "It was the Lion of the tribe of Judah who unsealed the book and gave to John the revelation of what should be in these last days. Daniel stood in his lot to bear his testimony, which was sealed until the time of the end, when the first angel's message should be proclaimed to our world."—

Now, I want you to think about those first two sentences, if you would.

And, let me read the whole thing first.

> —"These matters are of infinite importance"—

This paragraph that she is talking about is of infinite importance; so, there is stuff in here that we need to understand, no doubt.

> —"These matters are of infinite importance in these last days, but while 'many shall be purified, and made white, and tried,' 'the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand.'" Manuscript Releases, volume 18, 14–15.

Who are the many that are purified, made white, and tried? It is the people that go through a three-step testing process. The First Angel's Message, you are purified; the Second Angel's Message, you are given the white garments of righteousness; the Third Angel's Message is judgment: it is where you are tried; it is the courtyard of the sanctuary, the Holy Place, and the Most Holy Place.

Many are going to go through this three-step cleansing process and stand faithfully in the Judgment but the wicked will not understand the increase of knowledge.

And what is the increase of knowledge? It is the sure word of prophecy. There is going to be a prophetic testing message that produces two classes of worshippers. So, Sister White is putting this in place, and she is drawing this out of Daniel 12, which is typically applied to the Millerite History; but, in these first two sentences, she is telling us it is the Lion of the tribe of Judah that unseals the Book and gave to John the revelation of what would be in the last days.

What book did He unseal? The next sentence: "Daniel stood in his lot to bear his testimony, which was sealed until the time of the end, . . ."

So, in Revelation, chapter 5 and onward, when Jesus begins to remove the seals one at a time, that First Seal that He removes, when was it removed? 1798, the Time of the End.

And in Daniel 12 when it is talking about the Book of Daniel being unsealed, it talks about an increase of knowledge, something that increases, escalates. The Books of Daniel and Revelation are the same book. They are telling the same story; they perfect each other. So, when Jesus is illustrating the unsealing of the Book of Daniel in the Book of Revelation in order to convey the increase of knowledge, He does it by showing that He removes Seven Seals. It is an increasing knowledge, seven steps along the way.

And when He removes the seals, what do you hear?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Thunder.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Thunder. Maybe Seven Thunders? Come and see.

IN THE REVELATION

Notice this next quote from Selected Messages, book 2, page 109.

> "All that God has in prophetic history specified to be fulfilled in the past has been, and all that is yet to come in its order will be. Daniel, God's prophet, stands in his place. John stands in his place. In the Revelation the Lion of the tribe of Judah has opened to the students of prophecy the book of Daniel,"—

Where in the Revelation did the Lion of the tribe of Judah open the Book of Daniel? He begins to do it in chapter 5. He takes the Bible and begins to remove the seal from the book in the Bible that has been sealed up until the time of the end: Daniel.

Right? Are you all following that logic?

> —"In the Revelation the Lion of the tribe of Judah has opened to the students of prophecy the book of Daniel and thus is Daniel standing in his place."—

What does it mean that Daniel is standing in his place and lot? He is fulfilling his purposes. In 1798 the Book of Daniel began to fulfill its purpose.

> —"He [DANIEL] bears his testimony, that which the Lord revealed to him in vision of the great and solemn events which we must know as we stand on the very threshold of their fulfillment."—

There are some great and solemn events that we MUST know as we stand on the threshold of their fulfillment. And when you look closely at these great and solemn events, which we must know as we stand on the threshold of their fulfillment, Sister White plainly tells us that the majority of Adventism does not know these events. We will deal with that as we proceed in this worship series.

Continuing on with the quote:

> —"In history and prophecy the Word of God portrays the long continued conflict between truth and error. That conflict is yet in progress. Those things which have been, will be repeated." Selected Messages, book 2, 109.

So, all of this about the Lion of the tribe of Judah opening the Book of Daniel in Revelation 5 and onward is put in the context of a repetition of history.

PIONEER POSITION

Here is the Pioneer understanding expressed by James White, in Review and Herald, November 1, 1853.

> "What Daniel was commanded to seal up and close, (Daniel 12:4) is now, through the all-powerful mediation of the Lion of the tribe of Judah, revealed unto us. Revelation 5:5. Hence 'many run to and fro, and knowledge is increased.'" James White, Review and Herald, November 1, 1853.

So, the Pioneers understood that when the Lion of the tribe of Judah began to remove the Seven Seals from the divine book, the Bible, that He was unsealing the Book of Daniel in 1798 in a progressive fashion. That is why it as an increase of knowledge.

THE LION SEALS

Revelation 10:1-4

But, the Lion also seals up things. Go to Revelation.

The Lion of the tribe of Judah, He is the One that associates Himself with unsealing the Bible, but He is the One that also associates Himself with sealing the Bible.

In Revelation 10, beginning in verse 1, it says,

> "[1]And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven,"—

And we have read this more than once. Sister White says that this Angel is no less a personage than Jesus Christ.

Was this physically? Did Jesus Christ physically come down to Earth on August 11, 1840?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He physically came down? Sister White says these angels represent the work that God's people are going to do.

Did He send down a message that is His message?

And who is "He"? Who is "He"? He is the Word of God. So, this message that He is empowering on August 11, 1840, He is associating it with Himself because He IS the Word of God. He is the message.

But, does this mean that He steps out of His work in the Holy Place at that time, in 1840, and comes down and stands on the shores of the ocean and puts one foot on the sea and one foot upon the land?

It is no less the personage than Jesus Christ because it is an empowerment of a message, and that message is Jesus Christ; and, this aspect of Christ is where most of the Jews that were His disciples turned away from Him. They could not understand what it meant when He said, "You must eat my flesh and drink my blood." They could not separate His literal physical reality from His spiritual reality. They are both there. And for Him to identify Himself as spiritually coming down on August 11, 1840, and thus associating Himself with this message, it needs to be understood correctly. But, that is not what we are dealing with here.

—"[1]And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: [2]And he had in his hand a little book open:"—

And how does Sister White define this "little book"? The Book of Daniel; it is open.

Why would it be open in 1840, because He opened it in 1798? It is a progressive opening.

—"[2]And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth, [3]And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. [4]And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not." Revelation 10:1-4 (KJV).

So, this, Christ coming down here, he cries as a what? As a Lamb? Does He cry as a Lamb? He cries as a Lion.

Who is the Lion? He is the One that unseals and seals God's Word. So, that is one of the keys that we have in here. He cries as a Lion. And John is about to write what the Seven Thunders uttered, but He is commanded to seal it up, "Don't write it."

So, what we are saying here is we are trying to identify the Lion of the tribe of Judah both seals God's Word and unseals God's Word according to His purposes.

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 971, says of these Seven Thunders,

"After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction"—

What is an injunction? It is a command.

—"[THE COMMAND] comes to John as to Daniel in regard to the little book: 'Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered.'"—

Sister White here is telling us that when John was told to seal up the Seven Thunders, it is identical as when Daniel was told to seal up his book until the time of the end. The sealing up of the Seven Thunders, "Do not write what the Seven Thunders uttered," to John, is identical to Daniel's book being sealed up.

—"'Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered.' These relate to future events which will be disclosed in their order."—

Okay. Where is John at in history? Because, John in Revelation 10 has become part of the prophecy; he is representing a people that go take the Little Book from the Angel's hand.

When did the Millerites take the Book of Daniel from the Angel's hand?

When is it sweet in their mouth? On August 11, 1840, it is sweet; because, the year-day principle has been confirmed before the whole world. So, John is here in 1840 and he is told to—what?—seal up what the Seven Thunders uttered. They relate to future events.

So, these Seven Thunders represent events that are going to take place after 1840. Right?

> —"After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction comes to John as to Daniel in regard to the little book. 'Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered.' These relate to future events which will be disclosed in their order. Daniel shall stand in his lot at the end of the days. John sees the little book unsealed."—

When Daniel stands in his lot, what does it mean? He is going to fulfill his purpose at the end of the days.

> — Then Daniel's prophecies have their proper place in the first, second, and third angels' messages to be given to the world. The unsealing of the little book was the message in relation to time.
> "The books of Daniel and the Revelation are one. One is a prophecy, the other a revelation; one a book sealed, the other a book opened. John heard the mysteries which the thunders uttered, but he was commanded not to write them.
> "The special light given to John which was expressed in the seven thunders was a delineation of events which would transpire under the first and second angels' messages."—

Whoa! Sister White just said, two paragraphs back, that the Seven Thunders represent future events that would be disclosed in their order. Now she is saying they represent the events of 1798 to 1844, ". . . a delineation of events which would transpire under the first and second angels' messages." The Seven Thunders represent the Millerite History and the history of the 144,000. This is in agreement with line upon line, that all the Reform Movements are paralleling and typifying the Reform Movement of the Latter Rain. And John was told to seal up this truth about the Seven Thunders, and the truth about the Seven Thunders that he seals up is that the Millerite History is perfectly repeated in the history of the 144,000.

> —"It was not best for the people to know these things, for their faith must necessarily be tested. In the order of God most wonderful and advanced truths would be proclaimed. The first and second angels' messages were to be proclaimed, but no further light was to be revealed before these messages had done their specific work. This is represented by the angel standing with one foot on the sea, proclaiming with a most solemn oath that time should be no longer." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 971.

SEALED UNTIL THE TIME OF THE END

Manuscript Releases, volume 18, pages 14-15, we have already read.

> "Daniel stood in his lot to bear his testimony, which was sealed until the time of the end, when the first angel's message should be proclaimed to our world. These matters are of infinite importance in these last days, but while 'many shall be purified, and made white, and tried,' 'the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand.'" Manuscript Releases, volume 18, 14–15.

When the Book is sealed, whether it is the Book of Daniel or the Seven Thunders, it is sealed until when?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Until the time of the end.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Until the time of the end.

So, when the Book of Daniel is unsealed in 1798, that is the Time of the End; therefore, when the Seven Thunders is unsealed in the future events that it represents, when it is the Seven Thunders are unsealed, paralleling the unsealing of the Book of Daniel, they are unsealed when? At the Time of the End. There is going to be a Time of the End at the end of the world.

JUST BEFORE PROBATION CLOSES

When is that?

Go to Revelation 22.

Now, most of us are familiar with what verse 11 represents in Revelation 22. It says,

"[11]He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." Revelation 22:11 (KJV).

What is that? That is the close of human probation. That is Michael standing up.

Notice the verse before it, verse 10 of Revelation 22.

"[10]And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand." Revelation 22:10 (KJV).

Well, there is only one prophecy that has been sealed up in the Book of Revelation. It is the Seven Thunders. So, we can determine from here that there is a point just before the close of human probation when there is a command saying, "The time is at hand," to unseal the Seven Thunders; and, when that takes place, that will be the Time of the End for the end of the world, and it will take place just before human probation closes.

But, what we are looking at here primarily is that the sealing up of God's Word and the unsealing of God's Word is a work that is accomplished by the Lion of the tribe of Judah.

STANDING IN HIS LOT

"Daniel has been standing in his lot since the seal was removed and the light of truth has been shining upon his visions. He stands in his lot, bearing the testimony which was to be understood at the end of the days." Sermons and Talks, volume 1, 225–226.

Therefore, when the Seven Thunders is unsealed at the Time of the End at the end of the world, who is going to be standing in his lot?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel.

So, when the Seven Thunders are unsealed at the Time of the End at the end of the world, just before probation closes, what message will arrive? A message from the Book of Daniel will mark the Time of the End.

So, now we have put that in place about who unseals, what book they are unsealing, and when the unsealing takes place.

Did you notice when the unsealing takes place?

When does the unsealing take place?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the Time of the End.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is called the Time of the End, but when does the Time of the End arrive?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, those are right but—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the end of the days.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the end of the days. That is right.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various indiscernible responses.)

When the graves will be opened up.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You are all missing it, but you have got to see this one. It is when John weeps. When John weeps, the Book is unsealed.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations of agreement.)

JEWELS

Now we are going to look at what jewels are.

MEN AND WOMEN

Review and Herald, May 5, 1903.

> "The Lord will call young men from the humble walks of life into his service, just as he did when living in person on this earth. He passed by the learned rabbis, to choose as his first disciples humble, unlearned fishermen. He has workers whom he will call forth from poverty and obscurity. Engaged in the common duties of life, and clothed with coarse raiment, they are looked upon by men as of little worth. But they will become precious jewels, to shine brightly for the Lord. 'They shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels.'" Review and Herald, May 5, 1903.

So, human beings are Christ's jewels. In fact, the ensign in Zechariah 9:16 are lifted up as a crown.

> "[16]And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land." Zechariah 9:16 (KJV).

They are jewels upon a crown.

MILLER'S TENTH RULE

But, notice Miller's tenth rule.

> Rule X: "Figures sometimes have two or more different significations, as day is used in a figurative sense to represent three different periods of time." Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation.

A day is a day, a day is a year, and a day is 1000 years in the Scriptures.

The Lion is Babylon; the Lion is the Lion of the tribe of Judah; the Lion is Satan; the Lion is Judah.

So, you have to determine a symbol by context; so, we are acknowledging right off the bat that a jewel can be God's people, but that is not what it is primarily addressed as.

TRUTHS TO SHARE

Manuscript Releases, volume 1, page 40:

> "Mighty truths have been buried beneath the sophistry of error, but they will be found by the diligent searcher."—

What will be found? Mighty truths.

> —"As he finds and opens the treasure house of the precious jewels of truth, it is no robbery; for all who appreciate these jewels may possess them, and then they too have a treasure house to open to others. He who imparts does not deprive himself of the treasure; for as he examines it that he may present it in such a way as to attract others, he finds new treasures." Manuscript Releases, volume 1, 40.

So, what are these jewels now?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Truths.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: These are the great truths of God's Word.

THE CASKET

What is a casket?

Special Testimonies on Education, page 53.

We need to know what a casket is because there is a casket in William Miller's dream. In fact, there are two caskets in William Miller's dream.

> "The Bible is a field where are concealed heavenly treasures, and they will remain hidden treasures until, by diligent mining, they are discovered and brought to light. The Bible is a casket containing jewels of inestimable value, which should be so presented as to be seen in their intrinsic luster. But the beauty and excellence of these diamonds of truth are not discerned by the natural eye. The lovely things of the material world are not seen until the sun, dispelling the darkness, floods them with its light. And so with the treasures of God's word; they are not appreciated until they are revealed by the Sun of Righteousness." Special Testimonies on Education, 53.

So, what is a casket?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Bible.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Bible.

Now, James White, when he was complementing on William Miller's dream, here is what he said in the footnotes, Signs of the Times, September 10, 1894,

> "The 'casket' represents the great truths of the Bible, relative to the second advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, which were given Brother Miller to publish to the world." James White, Brother Miller's Dream, footnotes.

Now, I think James White, he is correct but to be more specific the casket is the Bible. Sister White just said so.

Signs of the Times, September 10, 1894:

> "The word of God abounds in precious jewels of truth, and parents should bring them forth from their casket and present them before their children in their true luster." Signs of the Times, September 10, 1894.

How do you bring these precious jewels forth to your children? You bring them from the Bible, from your casket.

Testimonies, volume 6, page 425:

> "God has given His ministers the message of truth to proclaim. This the churches are to receive and in every possible way to communicate, catching the first rays of light and diffusing them. Here is our great sin. We are years behind. The ministers have been seeking the hidden treasure and have been opening up the casket and letting the jewels of truth shine forth, but the members of the church have not done a hundredth part of that which God requires of them." Testimonies, volume 6, 425.

So, what is the casket? It is the Bible.

What is the Bible? It is the book that is sealed the Seven Seals.

What does it contain? Jewels; great truths.

A CASKET WITH A KEY ATTACHED

And you know what? The Bible has a key attached to it.

Notice Manuscript Releases, volume 17, page 261; because, Miller's dream talks about a casket with a key attached, and so does Sister White. Right here she says,

> "Connected with the Word of God there is a key that unlocks the precious casket, to our satisfaction and delight. I feel thankful"—

Do you think that Sister White is inspired?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. She is inspired.

Did William Miller have his dream before she wrote this? Yes.

And William Miller talks about a casket with a key attached.

So, is she just copying William Miller because she liked the way he said it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: She does not do that. She is inspired. So, her telling us about a casket, which is the Bible with a key attached, is telling us that when William Miller is talking about a casket with a key attached and she goes ahead and puts that dream in her writings, this is not just a human agreement. This is being accurate to the truth.

> —"Connected with the Word of God there is a key that unlocks the precious casket, to our satisfaction and delight. I feel thankful for every ray of light. In the future, experiences now to us very mysterious will be explained. Some experiences we may never fully comprehend until this mortal shall put on immortality." Manuscript Releases, volume 17, 261.

So, she says, connected with the Bible there is a key; but, what is the key?

THE KEY

Testimonies, volume 8, page 157:

> "Faithful teachers should be placed in charge of the Bible classes, teachers who will strive to make the students understand their lessons, not by explaining everything to them, but by requiring them to explain clearly every passage they read. Let these teachers remember that little good will be accomplished by skimming over the surface of the word. Thoughtful investigation and earnest, taxing study are required in order for this word to be understood. There are truths in the word which, like veins of precious ore, are hidden beneath the surface. The hidden treasure is discovered as it is searched for, as a miner searches for gold and silver. The evidence of the truth of God's word is in the word itself. Scripture is the key that unlocks scripture. The deep meaning of the truths of God's word is unfolded to our minds by His Spirit.
> "The Bible is the great lesson book for the students in our schools. It teaches the whole will of God concerning the sons and daughters of Adam. It is the rule of life, teaching us of the character that we must form for the future life. We need not the dim light of tradition to make the Scriptures comprehensible. As well might we suppose that the noonday sun needs the glimmering torchlight of earth to increase its glory. The utterances of priest and minister are not needed to save men from error. Those who consult the divine Oracle will have light. In the Bible every duty is made plain. Every lesson given is comprehensible. Every lesson reveals to us the Father and the Son. The word is able to make all wise unto salvation. In the word the science of salvation is plainly revealed. Search the Scriptures, for they are the voice of God speaking to the soul." Testimonies, volume 8, 157.

Scripture is the key that unlocks Scripture.

MILLER'S FOURTH AND FIFTH RULES

The next comment is two of William Miller's rules, his fourth rule and his fifth rule. William Miller's fourth rule says,

Rule IV: "To understand doctrine, bring all the scriptures together on the subject you wish to know, then let every word have its proper influence, and if you can form your theory without a contradiction, you cannot be in error."

His fifth rule says,

Rule V: "Scripture must be—its own expositor, since it is a rule of itself. If I depend on a teacher to expound it to me and he should, guess at its meaning, or desire to have it so on account of his sectarian creed or to be thought wise, then his guessing, desire, creed or wisdom is my rule, not the Bible."

So, what is the key to understanding the Bible? Proof-texting.
James White, commenting on William Miller's dream says,

> "The 'key attached' was his manner of interpreting the prophetic Word—Comparing scripture with scripture—the Bible its own interpreter. With this key Brother Miller opened the 'casket,' or the great truth of the advent to the world." James White, Brother Miller's Dream, footnotes.

MILLER'S FOURTEENTH RULE

Miller's fourteenth rule is,

Rule XIV: "The most important rule of all is, that you must have faith."

Signs of the Times, September 5, 1906, says,

> "Salvation depends upon our knowledge of God's will as contained in His Word. Never cease asking and searching for truth. It is God's will that you shall know what He has said to you. But you must exercise faith. As you search the Scriptures, you must believe that God is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.
> "Search, O search the Bible with a heart hungry for spiritual food. Dig into the Word as the miner digs into the earth to find the veins of gold. Do not give up your search till you have ascertained your relation to God and His will concerning you.
> "'Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life.' To search means to look diligently for something. Search for the hidden treasures in God's Word. You cannot afford to be without them. Study the difficult passages, comparing verse with verse, and you will find that scripture is the key which unlocks scripture. Those who prayerfully study the Bible go from each search wiser than they were before.

"That which is worth having is not obtained without earnest, persevering effort. In business life, those only who are willing to put forth determined effort see successful results. Without earnest toil we cannot expect to obtain a knowledge of spiritual things. Those who find the jewels of truth must dig for them as the miner digs for the precious ore hidden in the earth." Signs of the Times, September 5, 1906.

Pacific Union Recorder, February 23, 1905, says,

"We are to study the Word of God, comparing one portion with another. Scripture is the key that unlocks scripture. As we read and study and pray, there is beside us a divine Teacher, the Holy Spirit, enlightening our understanding, that we may comprehend the great truths of God's Word.

"We are also to search our hearts carefully, to see if we really desire to understand the teaching of the Word of God.

"We are to listen attentively to the words of the ministers of God, those chosen of Him and precious, whose opportunities for learning of Him have been larger than our own. We are to respect and appreciate those who have a knowledge of His words, and who understand its application better than we do." Pacific Union Recorder, February 23, 1905.

THE SCATTERED JEWELS

Now, the jewels in the Bible are scattered. That is how they are portrayed. We want to mark that.

What have we done so far? We have identified that it is the Lion of the tribe of Judah that unseals and seals the Book; and, when the Book is unsealed, it is unsealed at the Time of the End; and, when it is unsealed at the Time of the End, Daniel is standing there to fulfill his purpose.

We have identified that the book that He unseals is the Bible, sealed with Seven Seals, representing a progressive development of truth.

We have identified that when a seal is removed, we hear the angels say, "Come and see," and the sound of thunder.

We have identified that the Bible is the casket and it has a key attached, and the key that is attached that opens the casket is proof-texting, comparing Scripture with Scripture, verse with verse, Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation.

We have identified that the jewels are the precious truths of God's Word.

Now we want to identify that the words are represented as being scattered.

Review and Herald, December 1, 1891:

"The apostle says, 'All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.' The Bible is its own expositor. One passage will prove to be a key that will unlock other passages, and in this way light will be shed upon the hidden meaning of the word. By comparing different texts treating on the same subject, viewing their bearing on every side, the true meaning of the Scriptures will be made evident."—

Sounds like we are reading William Miller, but we are not. This is Sister White.

She continues on.

—"Many think that they must consult commentaries on the Scriptures in order to understand the meaning of the word of God, and we would not take the position that commentaries should not be studied; but it will take much discernment to discover the truth of God under the mass of the words of men. How little has been done by the church, as a body professing to believe the Bible, to gather up the scattered jewels of God's word into one perfect chain of truth! The jewels of truth do not lie upon the surface, as many suppose. The master mind in the confederacy of evil is ever at work to keep the truth out of sight, and to bring into full view the opinions of great men. The enemy is doing all in his power to obscure heaven's light through"—WHAT?—"educational processes; for he does not mean that men shall hear the voice of the Lord, saying, 'This is the way, walk ye in it.'

"The jewels of truth lie scattered over the field of revelation; but they have been buried beneath human traditions, beneath the sayings and commandments of men, and the wisdom from heaven has been practically ignored; for Satan has succeeded in making the world believe that the words and achievements of men are of great consequence. The Lord God, the Creator of the worlds, at infinite cost has given the gospel to the world. Through this divine agent, glad, refreshing springs of heavenly comfort and abiding consolation have been opened for those who will come to the fountain of life. There are veins of truth yet to be discovered; but spiritual things are spiritually discerned. Minds beclouded with evil cannot appreciate the value of the truth as it is in Jesus." Review and Herald, December 1, 1891.

So, the jewels of truth, they are scattered; and, the Book is sealed.

TRADITIONS, CUSTOMS AND MAXIMS

A SEALED BOOK

We want to know what seals this Book. What really are these seals?

Are they actually literally seven cords around the Bible?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. It is customs and traditions that are handed down from generation to generation that seals the Bible.

Signs of the Times, May 17, 1905:

"The scribes and Pharisees professed to explain the Scriptures, but they explained them in accordance with their own ideas and traditions. Their customs and maxims became more and more exacting. In its spiritual sense, the sacred Word became to the people as a sealed book, closed to their comprehension." Signs of the Times, May 17, 1905.

What seals the Book?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Customs and traditions.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Customs and traditions and maxims of men that escalate. They become more and more exacting as time progresses.

BURIED JEWELS

These jewels are buried.

Review and Herald, August 16, 1898:

> "We have an infinite Redeemer, and how precious are the gems of truth that testify to this in God's word. But these precious jewels have been buried beneath a mass of rubbish, of tradition, of heresies, which Satan himself has originated. His schemes are working with a strange power upon human minds to eclipse the value of Christ to those who believe in him. The enemy of God and man has cast a spell over those who profess to be the followers of Christ, until of many it can be said, They know not the time of their visitation." Review and Herald, August 16, 1898.

THE TIME OF THE SAVIOR

Speaking of the time of Christ, because the time of Christ is repeated in the time of the Millerites, and it is repeated in our time.

Review and Herald, June 4, 1889, says,

> "In the time of the Savior, the Jews had so covered over the precious jewels of truth with the rubbish of tradition and fable, that it was impossible to distinguish the true from the false. The Savior came to clear away the rubbish of superstition and long-cherished errors, and to set the jewels of God's word in the framework of truth."—

Okay. Not only does the Lion of the tribe of Judah, not only does the Savior gather up the jewels, He is going to put them in perfect order, perfect order, the framework of truth.

> —"What would the Savior do if he should come to us now as he did to the Jews? He would have to do a similar work in clearing away the rubbish of tradition and ceremony. The Jews were greatly disturbed when he did this work. They had lost sight of the original truth of God,"—

What did the Jews lose sight of with their traditions and customs? The Old Paths, the foundational truths.

> —"They had lost sight of the original truth of God, but Christ brought it again to view. It is our work to free the precious truths of God from superstition and error. What a work is committed to us in the gospel!" Review and Herald, June 4, 1889.

If you really take some time and read that paragraph, what it is saying is the work of returning to the Old Paths that is accomplished by God's people at the end of the world is the work that Christ was doing in His day and age. He was taking them back to the foundational, the original truths; and, to get there He had to clear away the rubbish and traditions that had been handed down through the history of Ancient Israel.

Counsels on Sabbath School Work, page 47:

> When Christ came into the world to exemplify true religion, and to exalt the principles that should govern the hearts and actions of men, falsehood had taken so deep a hold upon those who had had so great light,"—

Who is it that has so great light?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventh-day Adventists.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But this is talking about Ancient Israel.

> —"who had so great light, that they no longer comprehended the light, and had no inclination to yield up tradition for truth. They rejected the heavenly Teacher, they crucified the Lord of glory, that they might retain their own customs and inventions. The very same spirit is manifested in the world today. Men are averse to investigating truth, lest their traditions should be disturbed,"—

Okay. Their traditions, their customers, they are already established. This paragraph here, this has got some insight in it, too. They are already established.

Now, notice this sentence.

> —"Men are averse to investigating truth, lest their traditions should be disturbed, and a new order of things should be brought in."—

You see, they have an order of things going on right now that is based upon traditions and customs; and, were the truth to come to the surface, there would be a new order of things. So, what it is saying is at the end of the world you are in a particular order, but the Lord is going to put you back into a particular order. That is why when Sister White is talking about the Omega Apostasy, she says books of a new order would be written. It is because when you get to the end of the world, you have an order of things that is based upon tradition and custom, and were you to receive the truth it would bring the true order, the framework of truth into existence.

> —"Men are averse to investigating truth, lest their traditions should be disturbed, and a new order of things should be brought in. There is with humanity a constant liability to err, and men are naturally inclined to highly exalt human ideas and knowledge, while the divine and eternal is not discerned or appreciated." Counsels on Sabbath School Work, 47.

CASTING THE JEWELS INTO THE FRAMEWORK OF TRUTH

Now, notice that Jesus does not just put the jewels into a framework of truth. He does not do that.

What does He do? He casts them in.

All these things that I am emphasizing are components of William Miller's dream. That is why I am emphasizing them. The Dirt Brush Man is going to pick the jewels up from off the floor and the furniture and cast them into the new casket in William Miller's dream.

Manuscript Releases, volume 13, pages 240 – 241:

> "The key of knowledge in Christ's day had been taken away by those who should have held it to unlock the treasure house of wisdom in the Old Testament Scriptures. The rabbis and teachers had virtually shut up the kingdom of heaven from the poor and the afflicted, and left them to perish. In His discourses Christ did not bring many things before them at once, lest He might confuse their minds. He made every point clear and distinct. He did not disdain the repetition of old and familiar truths in prophecies if they would serve His purpose to inculcate ideas.
> "Christ was the originator of all the ancient gems of truth. Through the work of the enemy these truths had been displaced. They had been disconnected from their true position, and"—WHAT?—"placed in the framework of error."—

As contrasted with a framework of truth.

> —"placed in the framework of error. Christ's work was to readjust and establish the precious gems in the framework of truth. The principles of truth which had been given by Himself to bless the world had, through Satan's agency, been buried and had apparently become extinct. Christ rescued them from the rubbish of error, gave them a new, vital force, and commanded them to shine as precious jewels, and stand fast forever.
> "Christ Himself could use any of these old truths without borrowing the smallest particle, for He had originated them all. He had"—WHAT?—"cast them into the minds and thoughts of each generation, and when He came to our world He rearranged and vitalized the truths which had become dead, making them more forcible for the benefit of future generations. It was Jesus Christ who had the power of rescuing the truths from the rubbish, and again giving them to the world with more than their original freshness and power." Manuscript Releases, volume 13, 240–241.

So, Christ comes when truth is covered up with rubbish and tradition, and He gathers up the scattered jewels and He casts them into the minds of men. And what does He do? He makes those truths what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: More forcible.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: More forcible.

That is why when Sister White says all the truths of 1840 to 1844 are to be made forcible now, she is talking about the work of Christ in returning to the Old Paths.

CHRIST READY TO SWEEP AWAY

Christ is going to cast the precious jewels into a framework of truth, but He is going to sweep out the rubbish. Okay? He is the Dirt Brush Man.

> "The Scriptures are given for our benefit that we may have instruction in righteousness. Precious rays of light have been obscured by the clouds of error, but Christ is ready to sweep away the mists of error and superstition, and to reveal to us the brightness of the Father's glory, so that we shall say as did the disciples, 'Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way?'" Publishing Ministry, 68.

". . . clouds of error"? In William Miller's dream the Dirt Brush Man comes in and He sweeps the floor from the rubbish and tradition and the false coins, and they go out the window like—what?—like a cloud: ". . . clouds of error."

TRUTHS WILL BLAZE FORTH

The last quote, Review and Herald, December 15, 1885:

> "The dust and rubbish of error have buried the precious jewels of truth, but the Lord's workers can uncover these treasures, so that thousands will look upon them with delight and awe. Angels of God will be beside the humble worker, giving grace and divine enlightenment, and thousands will be led to pray with David, 'Open thou mine eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.' Truths that have been for ages unseen and unheeded, will blaze forth from the illuminated pages of God's holy word."—

And you will see that when William Miller first saw these original truths [referencing the 1843 Chart], he says it is the brightest light that man had ever seen. But, when the Dirt Brush Man casts these jewels back into the casket at the end of the dream, he says they were ten times brighter.

> —"Truths that have been for ages unseen and unheeded, will blaze forth from the illuminated pages of God's holy word. The churches generally that have heard, refused, and trampled upon the truth, will do more wickedly; but 'the wise,' those who are honest, will understand. The book is open, and the words of God reach the hearts of those who desire to know his will. At the loud cry of the angel from heaven who joins the third angel, thousands will awake from the stupor that has held the world for ages, and will see the beauty and value of the truth." Review and Herald, December 15, 1885.

And William Miller's dream, he is dreaming—right?—in his dream, and the last statement he says about his dream is, when he sees these truths that are ten times brighter, that he shouts out and his shout awakens him.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that we are living in a time when the Dirt Brush Man, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, is recovering the original truths that have been covered up by traditions and customs that have been handed down from generation to generation. We thank you that you have allowed us to live in this time and we ask that you give us the discernment to see the work that you are doing. We ask that you give us the willingness to fulfill our responsibilities as miners, to begin to dig in the mine, in the casket of your Word, that we can become familiar with the work of a miner, that we can be blessed by finding these jewels and sharing those jewels with those that we come in contact with. We ask a blessing upon this day of service that we are all going to perform for you. We ask that you continue to bless the LiveStreaming and the recording that we are doing, and we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #32

Part Four: DANIEL

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together this morning for this worship. We ask as we begin that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit that He might guide and direct our thoughts, our understanding, that He would take control of my thoughts in particular. Let the humanity be overruled that this message might be a message that glorifies and honors you and works to edify your people. We want to understand the prophecy of William Miller's dream and how it applies to us here at the end of the world, and we would ask that you unseal this truth for us at this time. We thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All right. Yesterday we looked at some truths about the jewels of God's Word and the Lion of the tribe of Judah, in advance of going through William Miller's dream.

WILLIAM MILLER'S DREAM

We are going to go through William Miller's dream from the perspective that it is typified by Daniel, chapter 4, and that they are two testimonies of the same history, the history of Adventism from 1863 to 1989.

So, let us just start into the dream. Most of these symbols that are in this dream will have been established yesterday.

This is William Miller's second dream. If you are not familiar with William Miller's two dreams, our last newsletter is online. You can download it and it has both of William Miller's dreams in it.

Early Writings, pages 81 – 83:

"I dreamed that God,—

Who dreamed? William Miller dreamed; so, this is William Miller's dream, and you have every right to assume that it is about himself.

—"I dreamed that God, by an unseen hand, sent me a curiously wrought casket"—

What is a casket in the Word of God? It is the Bible.

And the word curiously is a little bit different in our day and age. If you go back to Webster's underneath this first paragraph, it says, curiously means with nice care.

—"I dreamed that God, by an unseen hand, sent me a curiously wrought casket about ten inches long by six square,"—

For some reason this dream tells us the dimensions of this casket, and it is 10 x 6 x 6; and, when you multiply this out, it is 360, thus representing the year-day principle of Bible prophecy.

—"I dreamed that God, by an unseen hand, sent me a curiously wrought casket about ten inches long by six square, made of ebony and pearls curiously inlaid. To the casket there was a key attached."—

What is the key? It is the Rules of Prophetic Interpretation; it is Scripture exposes Scripture; proof-texting.

—"I immediately took the key and opened the casket, when, to my wonder and surprise, I found it filled with all sorts and sizes of jewels, diamonds, precious stones, and gold and silver coin of every dimension and value, beautifully arranged in their several places in the casket; and thus arranged they reflected a light and glory equaled only to the sun."—

And from yesterday we found that in 1798, at the Time of the End, the Lion of the tribe of Judah began to unseal the Seven Seals, and there was an increase of knowledge. This is 1798 to 1844. And William Miller is having a dream about the Lion of the tribe of Judah unsealing these truths to him, because he is the one that is going to recognize them initially and place them on a table [referencing the 1843 Chart] in the center of his room.

CURIOUSLY: With nice care. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.
SEVERAL: Separate; distinct. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.

And when it talked about there were several places, that word in the time period of William Miller meant separate, distinct places. They all have a particular place in the Word of God.

The next paragraph:

—"I thought it was not my duty to enjoy this wonderful sight alone, although my heart was overjoyed at the brilliancy, beauty, and value of its contents. I therefore placed it on a center table"—

Here are the jewels that he found on this table of Habakkuk [again referencing the 1843 Chart].

—"I therefore placed it on a center table in my room and gave out word that all who had a desire might"—WHAT?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Come and see.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Come and see: What does it mean when you see the phrase, "Come and see"? It is when the truth is unsealed. He takes these truths; they end up here [depicted on the 1843 Chart (the table of Habakkuk)]. They have been unsealed to that generation.

—"come and see the most glorious and brilliant sight ever seen by man in this life.

"The people began to come in, at first few in number, but increasing to a crowd. When they first looked into [THE BIBLE] the casket, they would wonder and shout for joy. [1840 to 1844]"—

"[1840 to 1844]": which was a glorious manifestation of the power of God.

—"But when the spectators increased, everyone would begin to trouble the jewels,"—

And you will notice the definition of trouble. It is pretty much the same in our day and age: to agitate the jewels.

But, notice the first thing they do.

—"But when the spectators increased, everyone would begin to trouble the jewels, taking them out of the casket [1863]"—

This is 1863. The first jewel, according to William Miller that he found, was the 2520; and the first jewel to be taken out of the Bible to be argued, "Well, this really isn't in the Bible," was the 2520 in 1863. This is where these jewels began to get covered up by traditions and customs and human teachings. They are taken out of the Bible.

—"everyone would begin to trouble the jewels, taking them out of the casket and scattering"—

Now, if you count the scatterings from this point [1863] on, he is going to mention scattering of these jewels, the truths of God's Word that are on this table in the center of his room. He is going to mention seven times that they are scattered, until he reaches the point down here [1989] where he weeps.

And, of course, we know right here, right before 1798, who wept? John the Revelator; and, then the Lion of the tribe of Judah began to unseal the truths.

So, when William Miller, after mentioning the jewels are scattered seven times, he then weeps and that takes you to the Time of the End [1989]. Of course, we have not proved that 1989 in this worship is the Time of the End. We know that. Nor have we proved everything that can be proved about 1863. But, you can only prove so many things at one time. We are not going to deny that they are truth before we have opportunity to prove them. We intend to prove them as we proceed.

So, we need to count the times he mentions scattering as we go through here.

> —"But when the spectators increased, everyone would begin to trouble the jewels, taking them out of the casket and scattering [1863] [1] them on the table. I began to think that the owner would require the casket and the jewels again at my hand; and if I suffered them to be scattered [2], I could never place them in their places in the casket again as before; and felt I should never be able to meet the accountability, for it would be immense. I then began to plead with the people not to handle them, nor to take them out of the casket; but the more I pleaded, the more they scattered [3]; and now they seemed to scatter [4] them all over the room, on the floor and on every piece of furniture in the room.
> TROUBLE: Agitate or disturb. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.
> "I then saw that among the genuine jewels and coin they had scattered [5] an innumerable quantity of spurious jewels and counterfeit coin. [post 1888]"—

Okay. Now they are not just taking the jewels out of the Bible; now they are introducing error. They are introducing false teachings.

And I place this after 1888, because after 1888 you are going to see the wrong view of the Daily come in; you are going to start seeing errors of Pantheism introduced. This is different than taking the jewels out of the Bible. This is now the point in Advent History when erroneous teachings actually begin to be introduced into Adventism.

> —"I was [MILLER WAS] highly incensed at their base conduct and ingratitude and reproved and reproached them for it; but the more I reproved, the more they scattered [6] the spurious jewels and false coin among the genuine.
> "I then became vexed in my physical soul and began to use physical force to push them out of the room; but while I was pushing out one, three more would enter and bring in dirt and shavings and sand and all manner of rubbish, until they covered every one of the true jewels, diamonds, and coins, which were all excluded from sight."—

Now, how did the precious jewels of the Bible get covered up, according to yesterday's study? Traditions and customs handed down from generation to generation.

> —"They also tore in pieces my casket [1919]"—

What is the casket?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Bible.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Bible.

Now, Brothers and Sisters, here we are at the end of the world in Adventism and we do not understand our history. We do not understand our beginning history back here [1798 to 1863], nor do we understand the history here [between 1863 and 1989]; but, in the early part of the 20th Century when the errors began to be introduced, the false teachings, there was a controversy raging among those people that were defending the Pioneer views and those people that were introducing the error. And even though as Laodiceans we have not been motivated to go out and check that history, it is still easy to take those historical records and find that the men that were on the right side of the issues that were defending the Pioneer beliefs, that when they dealt with men such as W. W. Prescott that were introducing the false teachings, one of the things that they were saying repeatedly about W. W. Prescott is he was promoting these false teachings by introducing the new bibles, the Catholic bibles. He was turning away from the King James Bible. He was tearing up the casket.

And today, because this is what we were born into, we do not think anything about it, that when we are in a typical Adventist church we are using the New King James Version Bible or the NIV (New International Version).

This is not a study on the two lines of bibles, the Catholic bibles and the Received Text Bible; but, it is just an historical fact, and the fact that we do not understand our history, does not deny that you can go into the history and show that in the early part of the 20th Century, when they began to introduce the Catholic bibles in Adventism to sustain their errors, that the faithful men were fighting against that. It is in the record, the historical record; and, here it is in William Miller's dream.

> —"They also tore in pieces my casket [1919] and scattered [7] it among the rubbish."—

Scattered what? The Bible; they buried up the Bible.

> —"I thought no man regarded my sorrow or my anger."—

He has said scattered now seven times.

And, Brothers and Sisters, for those of you—I know there are a lot in Adventism that would argue about what we are saying about William Miller's dream. Okay? And that is fine. It is like those men that argue against what we teach about the last six verses of Daniel 11. I used to be willing to go into a public forum with those men and share what I understood about the last six verses of Daniel 11; and, then I reached an understanding that I am not going to do that anymore. The only time I am going to go into a public debate, if you want to call it that, or a discussion about the last six verses of Daniel 11 is when the men that are opposing those verses, as we understand them, are willing to say, "Well, this is what I understand about those verses."

I want to be able to critique what they understand about those verses; because, almost every time that I have been in those kind of situations, the other men, what they say is, "Well, I don't understand what the last six verses of Daniel 11 are, but I know he is wrong."

Okay? I will not go into those kinds of situations anymore.

So, for those of you that think what we are saying about William Miller's dream is a bunch of fantasy here, first off, why is it in the book, Early Writings? And if it is in the book, Early Writings, then it is governed by the rules of Inspiration, and the rules of Inspiration tell me then what it must be related to is a prophecy.

So, if you do not think what we are saying is correct, what do you think it represents? I want to hear that before I receive your criticism about what we are teaching, because it is a prophecy.

> —"I thought no man regarded my sorrow or my anger. I became wholly discouraged and disheartened, and sat down and wept."—

We are saying William Miller weeps right down here in 1989; because, when John weeps, you reach the Time of the End; and, in 1989 is the Time of the End for Adventism. I have not proved it, but it is.

> —"While I was thus weeping and mourning for my great loss and accountability, I remembered God, and earnestly prayed that He would send me help. Immediately the door opened, and a man entered the room,"—

Now, we are going to show that this man is Christ. This is the Lion of the tribe of Judah, but here He is portrayed as the Dirt Brush Man.

And I am not going to deal with this, but I am at least going to put it in place: When you see a door opening, it is talking about a change in dispensation. There is a dispensational change going on here. Christ has just arrived here in 1989, and He has begun to unseal the Seven Seals that represent the message of this history. He begins to develop an increase of knowledge during the history that is represented by the Seven Thunders, which Sister White says is the delineation of events of the First and Second Angels' Messages. The Seven Thunders is 1798 to 1844, but she also says the Seven Thunders represent a delineation of future events, from the Time of the End in the future [1989], until the door closes on Adventism [The Sunday Law in the USA], as the door closed into the Holy Place to end this history.

In this history, from 1989 to The Sunday Law in the United States, the Lion of the tribe of Judah (the Dirt Brush Man) is going to produce an increase of knowledge, and He is going to remove Seven Seals. And as He does so, He has changed dispensations. He is beginning a Movement here. He is taking a Movement from a church.

And, of course, the church started in 1863. The Millerite Movement ends in 1863 when the Seventh-day Adventist Church starts, and the Movement begins in 1989.

> —"While I was thus weeping and mourning for my great loss and accountability, I remembered God, and earnestly prayed that He would send me help. Immediately the door opened, and a man entered the room, when the people all left it; and he, having a dirt brush in his hand, opened the windows, and began to brush the dirt and rubbish from the room.
> "I cried to him to forbear, for there were some precious jewels scattered among the rubbish.
> "He told me to 'fear not,' for he would 'take care of them.'
> "Then, while he brushed the dirt and rubbish, false jewels and counterfeit coin, all rose and went out of the window like a cloud, and the wind carried them away. In the bustle I closed my eyes for a moment; when I opened them, the rubbish was all gone. The precious jewels, the diamonds, the gold and silver coins, lay scattered in profusion all over the room.
> "He then placed on the table a casket,"—

What is a casket? It is the Word of God.

How can the Word of God be bigger at the end than it was in Miller's time? Because, it includes the Spirit of Prophecy at the end, in 1989. Now you are dealing with the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy.

> —"he then placed on the table a casket, much larger and more beautiful than the former, and gathered up the jewels, the diamonds, the coins, by the handful, and cast them into the casket,"—

From yesterday's study, who cast the precious jewels into the minds of every generation? The Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Dirt Brush Man.

> —"[HE] cast them into the casket, till not one was left, although some of the diamonds were not bigger than the point of a pin.
> "He then called upon me to"—WHAT?—"'come and see.' [1989]"—

What does it mean when He says, "Come and see"? He is unsealing.

From 1989 onward, He is unsealing these truths.

> —"I looked into the casket, but my eyes were dazzled with the sight. They shone with ten times their former glory."—

What Miller sees on this [1843] Chart, when God takes us back to the Old Paths, these [1843 and 1850] Charts are going to shine ten times brighter. We are going to see things about these truths that the Millerites handled that they did not see; and, we do.

> —"I thought they had been scoured in the sand by the feet of those wicked persons who had scattered and trod them in the dust. They were arranged in beautiful order in the casket, every one in its place, without any visible pains of the man who cast them in. I shouted with very joy, and that shout awoke me." Early Writings, 81–83.

There is your Loud Cry that begins when all the virgins awake.

THE DIRT BRUSH MAN

Okay. Who is the Dirt Brush Man?

GATHERING HIS WHEAT

Matthew 3:11-12, John the Baptist is going to introduce us to Christ.

> "[11]I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:"—

Who is going to baptize them with the Holy Ghost and fire? Jesus. Right?

> —"[12]Whose fan is in his hand,"—

Jesus has a what? He has a fan in his hand.

> —"and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." Matthew 3:11–12 (KJV).

Jesus arrives at His baptism, when the Holy Spirit comes down as a Dove. This is where the purging of His floor begins.

BY THE WORDS OF TRUTH

There is an increase of knowledge from the Time of the End until the door closes; but, when the Divine symbol comes down, now the fan is in His hand. He is going to separate the wheat from the tares.

How does He do that; how does the fan actually separate things?

Desire of Ages, page 392:

> "'Whose fan is in His hand, and He will throughly purge His floor, and gather His wheat into the garner.' Matthew 3:12. This was one of the times of purging. By the words of truth, the chaff was being separated from the wheat."—

What is His fan? It is a message. It is a special message.

> —"Because they were too vain and self-righteous to receive reproof, too world-loving to accept a life of humility, many turned away from Jesus. Many are still doing the same thing. Souls are tested today as were those disciples in the synagogue at Capernaum."—

Okay. We will come back to that in a moment. Sister White is talking about the experience at Capernaum, and she is saying that Jesus was purging His floor with His fan and she is saying that His fan were words of truth. It was a message.

> —"When truth is brought home to the heart, they see that their lives are not in accordance with the will of God. They see the need of an entire change in themselves; but they are not willing to take up the self-denying work. Therefore they are angry when their sins are discovered. They go away offended, even as the disciples left Jesus, murmuring, 'This is an hard saying; who can hear it?'" The Desire of Ages, 392.

And what was the hard saying in this story? "You need to eat my flesh and drink my blood."

So, right here [2001 (1840)], what was He talking about in that story, in the time of Christ? He was saying, "I fed your fathers with the bread of Heaven, with the manna that came down out of Heaven." So, He is marking the beginning of this discussion in Capernaum with the Divine symbol coming down, the manna, and he said, "I am the Bread that came down out of Heaven." So, he is marking the beginning of this discussion that is a testing process in Capernaum with the descent of the Divine symbol.

And He lost more disciples in this presentation than any other place. And where is it that He lost His disciples? In John 6:66.

This history of Capernaum is this same history. It is the Bread of Heaven coming down until 666.

THE THIRD ANGEL

But He purges His floor with words of truth. We have already read these next two quotes more than once in this worship series. Early Writings, page 119, says,

> "I then saw the third angel. Said my accompanying angel, 'Fearful is his work. Awful is his mission. He is the angel that is to select the wheat from the tares,'"—

So, the fan in His hand that separates the wheat and the tares is the Third Angel's Message. Okay?

> —"'and seal, or bind, the wheat for the heavenly garner. These things should engross the whole mind, the whole attention.'" Early Writings, 119.

But next you have the quote that we have looked at several times: Selected Messages, book 2, page 104.

> "There cannot be a third without the first and second." Selected Messages, book 2, 104.

So, the fan in His hand is the Third Angel's Message, but it includes the First and Second Angels' Messages.

So in this history [2001 (1840) to 666, The Sunday Law (1844)], there is a three-step testing process—in all these histories, whether it is Capernaum, Millerite History, our history—and the purging, the sweeping of the floor, begins when the Divine symbol comes down; but, the increase of knowledge begins at the Time of the End when John the Revelator or Miller weep and the Lion of the tribe of Judah, or the Dirt Brush Man, enters the scene and begins to clean up the mess that has been made by the Mystery of Iniquity during the darkness that precedes every Reform Movement.

TWO CLASSES

Review and Herald, November 8, 1892:

> "The Lord is about to reveal the difference between the righteous and the wicked; for his 'fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into his garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.'" Review and Herald, November 8, 1892.

Now, I am going pretty fast and it is early in the morning; so, maybe you are not seeing that I have created a disagreement here. Because, what I am saying is when the Lord comes in and He cleans up the mess, that He is sweeping the false jewels and the false coins out the window like a cloud. Right?

But, I am saying that that is the false doctrine that is coming, the false teachings.

But I have just been showing you that when He cleans up the mess, He is sweeping out the wicked, the false people. Okay? So, the jewels can be people; the jewels can be truths; but, when the Dirt Brush Man comes in and sweeps it out the window, is He sweeping out false teaching, counterfeit teaching, or is He sweeping out the tares of Adventism?

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Both.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: Both? How is that so? We will try to explain that.

Proverbs 23:7:

> "[7]For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee." Proverbs 23:7 (KJV).

As a man thinketh, so he is. Okay?

Education, page 149:

> "The truth that as a man 'thinketh in his heart, so is he' (Proverbs 23:7), finds another illustration in Israel's experience. On the borders of Canaan the spies, returned from searching the country, made their report. The beauty and fruitfulness of the land were lost sight of through fear of the difficulties in the way of its occupation. The cities walled up to heaven, the giant warriors, the iron chariots, daunted their faith. Leaving God out of the question, the multitude echoed the decision of the unbelieving spies, 'We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.' Numbers 13:31. Their words proved true. They were not able to go up, and they wore out their lives in the desert." Education, 149.

As a man thinketh, so is he.

This is why it is good—and I have not said in this worship setting, but we do when we are not recording—when we ask questions, when we are a little less focused on getting through the material and people in the audience throw out answers and they are guessing, the rule of thumb is if you do not know, do not answer; because, when you guess and it is wrong, you are telling yourself something that is wrong, and as a man thinketh, so is he. You are creating a bad habit.

But, if you do not know the answer, do not say it. You become connected with what you believe. As a man thinketh, so is he.

IDOLS

Notice the next quote, Manuscript Releases, volume 9, page 182.

> "The lessons of Christ could give them precious gems and jewels of truth which had been lost sight of. He gathered up these grand, glorious jewels—originated by Himself and given to patriarchs, prophets, and apostles—and replaced them in the framework of the gospel, giving them their own divine brightness. But the Jews were obstinate. Their own ideas and customs and practices were their"—WHAT?—"idols. Would they give up their own misinterpretations, which they had taught the people to regard as sacred doctrines? No; never! They formed a confederacy to stand by the old traditions. Their human interpretations they set in defiance to the lessons and pure truths of practical godliness." Manuscript Releases, volume 9, 182.

So these erroneous coins, these counterfeit coins, the false jewels, they determined that they were going to form a confederacy and hold onto these coins.

And in Hosea 4:17, it says,

> "[17]Ephraim is joined to idols:"—

What were their idols? Their false doctrines.

—"[17]Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone." Hosea 4:17 (KJV).

So, when the Lord is going to sweep out the false doctrines, what goes with them? The idolaters that hold onto those false doctrines.

This is Christ's Object Lessons, page 237:

> "Every time you refuse to listen to the message of mercy, you strengthen yourself in unbelief. Every time you fail to open the door of your heart to Christ, you become more and more unwilling to listen to the voice of Him that speaketh. You diminish your chance of responding to the last appeal of mercy. Let it not be written of you, as of ancient Israel, 'Ephraim is joined to idols; let him alone.' Hosea 4:17. Let not Christ weep over you as He wept over Jerusalem, saying, 'How often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.' Luke 13:34, 35." Christ's Object Lessons, 237.

THEY KNOW IT NOT

Review and Herald, December 23, 1890:

> "The Holy Spirit strives to make apparent the claims of God, but men pay heed only for a moment, and turn their minds to other things: Satan catches away the seeds of truth; the gracious influence of the Spirit of God is effectually resisted. Thus many are grieving away the Holy Spirit for the last time, and they know it not."—

If you disregard a warning message, you do not know but that might have been your last call.

> —"The words spoken by Christ of Jerusalem are, 'Your house is left unto you desolate.' What anguish of soul did Jesus feel when all his appeals, his warnings and reproofs, were resisted! At the time he brought them home to the soul, impressions were made; but self-love, self-sufficiency, love of the world, came in and choked the good seed sown. Pride of heart prevented his hearers from humbling themselves before God, and confessing their sin in resisting his Holy Spirit, and reluctantly it left them. On the crest of Olivet, as he beheld the city, he wept over it, saying, 'If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace!' Here he paused; he was loth to utter the irrevocable sentence. O that Jerusalem would repent! When the fast westering sun should pass out of sight, her day of mercy would be ended. Jesus closed his sentence, 'But now they are hid from thine eyes.' On another occasion he lamented the impenitence of the chosen city: 'O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.' The Lord forbid that this scene should now be repeated in the experience of God's professed people! 'My Spirit,' he says, 'shall not always strive with man.'

The time will come when it must be said of the impenitent, 'Ephraim is joined to his idols; let him alone.'" Review and Herald, December 23, 1890.

A REFINING PROCESS

Testimonies to Ministers, page 373, says,

> "Just how soon this refining process will begin I cannot say, but it will not be long deferred. He whose fan is in His hand will cleanse His temple of its moral defilement. He will thoroughly purge His floor." Testimonies to Ministers, 373.

The purging comes in here when the Divine symbol comes down.

When John and Miller weep, there is an increase of knowledge. Seven Seals begin to be removed.

But here [when He purges the floor], He empowers the message and the testing begins; and, the cloud that He sweeps out the window are these false doctrines, but these false doctrines are the idols that these people are holding onto and they go out the window with their idols.

CAPERNAUM

I went back to this that we mentioned earlier.

Signs of the Times, May 15, 1901:

> "The plainly spoken truth did its work. By it many were offended. They showed by their actions that truth was unpalatable to them. Closing their eyes to the light, and their hearts to rebuke, they chose the praise of men rather than the admonition of God. They willingly misapprehended Christ's words. 'From that time,' we read, 'many of His disciples went back, and walked no more with Him.'
> "With sorrowful heart the Saviour watched the result of His words, and saw that many were departing from Him. His compassion was unappreciated,"—

What was Capernaum, by the way? That was Christ's city. That is where He stayed more often, and that is where He was associated with. When He was in ministry, Capernaum was his town. That is His church; that is His people.

> —"With sorrowful heart the Saviour watched the result of His words, and saw that many were departing from Him. His compassion was unappreciated, His love unrequited, His mercy slighted, His salvation rejected; and He felt this keenly. It was such developments as this that made Him a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief.
> "The news quickly spread that Christ Himself had declared that He was not the Messiah."—

See, they willingly misapprehended His words. They on purpose twisted His words, we would say today. So, they left Him saying, "Oh, He denies being the Messiah."

He never denied being the Messiah.

—"This garbled statement changed the tide of popular feeling,"—

As they twisted His words, some people that were on the borderline of decision, they were driven away from Christ.

> —"This garbled statement changed the tide of popular feeling, and turned many away from Him. But Christ did not enter into controversy with those who had left Him. He did not seek to remove from their minds the impression which had resulted in their leaving. He did not try to explain away His words. Looking upon the twelve who remained, He asked, 'Will ye also go away?' Peter responded by the inquiry, 'Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life. And we believe and are sure that Thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.' 'To whom shall we go?' Separated from Christ, where would they be? Should they leave His lessons of love and mercy for the unbelief and wickedness of the world?
> "Those who were reproved in love were offended, and turned from Christ in disdain, uniting with His enemies. They could not bear the test sent to save them from fatal deception.
> "Today souls are being tested and tried, and many are passing over the same ground trodden by those who forsook Christ. When tested by the Word, they reject the divine Teacher. When rebuked because their lives are not in harmony with truth and righteousness, they turn from the Saviour; and their decision, like that of the offended disciples, is never reversed. They walk no more with Christ. Thus are the words fulfilled, 'Whose fan is in His hand, and He will throughly purge His floor, and gather His wheat into the garner.'" Signs of the Times, May 15, 1901.

666

> "[66]From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him." John 6:66 (KJV).

This Capernaum history is the history of 1840 to 1844; it is the history of 2001 until The Sunday Law: 666. It is the testing process. That is when He is purging His floor.

And who purges His floor?

Who purges His floor? The Dirt Brush Man.

When does the Dirt Brush Man come? When Miller weeps, 1989.

Why is Miller weeping? Because, the jewels on the table in the center of his room [the 1843 Chart] had been covered up.

This is about Jeremiah 6:16, going back to the Old Paths.

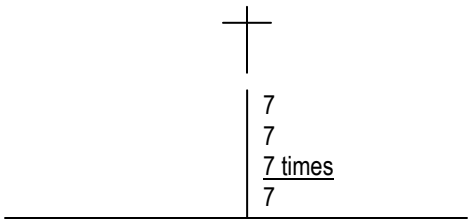
Okay. We are going to switch gears now: one more point to put in place before we close today.

Switching gears.

A SCATTERING AT THE THIRD WAYMARK

THE CROSS

When it comes to the third waymark—all right? We are switching gears here. Okay?—the third waymark is 1844; the third waymark is The Sunday Law; the third waymark is the cross. There are lots of third waymarks. Correct?



THE THIRD WAYMARK

What happens at the third waymark? One of the things that happens is the door closes. Did a door close in the story of Noah? Yes, it did. That was the third waymark in the story of Noah.

And how long was he in the ark after the door closed, before the rain came? Seven days.

The third waymark in the story of Elijah is when the prophets of Baal are judged; and, now Elijah is going to pray for rain.

How many times did he pray for rain? Seven times.

Where did Christ rest after the cross? He rested on the Sabbath [7].

What were the Millerites to understand after 1844? The Sabbath [7].

We found in Daniel, chapter 3, Nebuchadnezzar's fiery furnace that that was The Sunday Law. It is a third waymark. Right? But, before Nebuchadnezzar threw them [Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego] in the fire, what did he do? He heated the furnace seven times [hotter].

So, on and on and on you see this number 7 after the third waymark.

And, one of the things that it [the third waymark] represents is the seven times, the scattering. There is always a scattering after the third waymark. So, we want to look at that, that there is a scattering after the third waymark.

Zechariah 13:6-7, speaking of the cross, it says,

> "[6]And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.
> "[7]Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd,"—

When was the Shepherd smitten? At the cross.

> —"smite the shepherd, and"—WHAT?—"the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones." Zechariah 13:6–7 (KJV).

After the cross, there is a scattering marked, and it is fulfilled in Matthew [26:55-56]. It says,

> "[55]In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me. [56]But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled." Matthew [26:55–56] (KJV).

There is a scattering that goes on right here [at the third waymark] at the cross.

THE SUNDAY LAW

At The Sunday Law in the very near future.

We have read one of these before, so I just have the sentence that I want to focus on; but, I have a secondary quote.

Fundamentals of Christian Education, page 535:

> "We are going to be greatly scattered before long, and what we do must be done quickly." Fundamentals of Christian Education, 535.

Adventism is going to be scattered at The Sunday Law.

So, notice the next quote, Review and Herald, March 25, 1890:

> "The time is coming when we shall be separated and scattered, and each one of us will have to stand without the privilege of communion with those of like precious faith; and how can you stand unless God is by your side, and you know that he is leading and guiding you?" Review and Herald, March 25, 1890.

We dealt with this a little bit. Everyone is going to have to be able to give a testimony all by themselves in The Sunday Law crisis, and you are going to be all by yourself because you are going to be scattered. Okay? There is a scattering that follows the third waymark. That is what we are saying here.

BEFORE THE SUNDAY LAW

There is also a scattering that precedes this history; because, the darkness that precedes these Times of the End, whether it is the 1260 years of Papal rule, or the 70 years of literal Israel in captive in literal Babylon, or the children of Israel in Egypt, or the three and a half years of drought with Elijah, this darkness is also representing a scattering. Okay?

The scattering of the 2520 against the Northern Kingdom came to its end on 1798; therefore, before 1798 there was a scattering.

Before 1989, our Time of the End, there is a scattering represented by William Miller's dream, where he says "scatter" seven times.

And we are marking 1863 to 1989—we have not proved these dates yet, but they are the right dates—which is the 126 years; and, 126 years can be understood, if you want to understand, as 126 shekels, and 126 shekels equals 2520 gerahs, and this connects with Daniel, chapter 5, were a MENE is a 1000, MENE is a 1000, a TEKEL is 20, and UPHARSIN is 500 gerahs, which totals to 2520 gerahs.

But, this 126 years, if it is 126 shekels, it is 2520 gerahs. It is representing, it is giving you two witnesses, for a scattering time.

God's people are scattered before 1989. They are scattered before The Sunday Law. The Dirt Brush Man comes in to dispel the scattering.

And this is a subject of the Bible. I am just going to take one passage from Ezekiel. Ezekiel 20, beginning at verse 33, says,

> "[33]As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you: [34]And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered,"

Do the prophets speak more about the end of the world than the times in which they live?

Okay. God's people are going to be scattered before end-time prophecy is fulfilled. They are going to be taken out of the scattering.

> —"with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out. [35]And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people,"—

A voice crying in the wilderness: There is a wilderness that precedes a Reform Movement.

> —"[35]And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face. [36]Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. [37]And I will cause you to pass under the rod,"—

This is judgment.

> —"[37]And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:"—

Before He enters into covenant with His people, they have been scattered; and, Sister White says the Lord is going to renew His covenant with His commandment-keeping people in the last days; therefore, His commandment-keeping people in the last days, prior to being in covenant with God, have been scattered.

> —"and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant: [38]And I will purge out from among you the rebels,"—

When does He purge them out? When He has His fan in His hand. Okay? He is going to bring you out of the wilderness, out of the scattering. He is going to bring you right here to 1989 to begin to unseal the Seven Seals and enter into a covenant with the people. And when He is entering into covenant with them, it is the time period when He is purging out the rebels.

And how does He purge out the rebels? He pronounces Ephraim is joined to his idols, and He sweeps the idols out of the window and they [Ephraim] go with them.

> —"[38]And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD." Ezekiel 20:33–38 (KJV).

Now I want to show you 1844. After the third waymark there is a scattering. In Testimonies to Ministers, page 24, it says,

> "From the first our work was aggressive. Our numbers were few, and mostly from the poorer class."—

Sister White is talking about the very beginning, 1844 onward.

> —"Our views were almost unknown to the world. We had no houses of worship, but few publications, and very limited facilities for carrying forward our work. The sheep were scattered in the highways and byways, in cities, in towns, in forests. The commandments of God and the faith of Jesus was our message.
> "My husband, with Elders Joseph Bates, Stephen Pierce, Hiram Edson, and others who were keen, noble, and true, was among those who, after the passing of the time in 1844, searched for the truth as for hidden treasure." Testimonies to Ministers, 24.

So, in 1844, after the third waymark, there was a scattering that took place among the Millerites, and it is the scattered Flock.

THE SCATTERED FLOCK (ALPHA AND OMEGA)

THE LITTLE FLOCK

Luke 12:32 says,

> "[32]Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." Luke 12:32 (KJV).

We are His little flock. Adventism is His little flock.

1847—THE REMNANT SCATTERED ABROAD

Now, in A Wor to the 'Little Flock,' the publication, I am just going to take part of the introduction and part of the appendix to A Wor to the 'Little Flock,' just to make the point that the little flock was scattered after 1844. It was scattered after the third waymark. And hopefully when I get through this I can tell you why I am trying to make this point.

From A Wor t o the 'Little Flock,' it says,

"A Word to the 'Little Flock.'

"The following articles were written for The Day-Dawn, which has been published at Canandaigua, New York, by O. R. L. Crosier. But as that paper is not now published, and as we do not know as it will be published again, it is thought best by some of us in Maine, to have them given in this form. I wish to call the attention of the 'little flock'"—THIS IS JAMES WHITE—"I wish to call the attention of the 'little flock' to those things which will very soon take place on this earth. . . . "—

Okay. They are the little flock; 1844.

Now, at the end of A Wor t o the 'Little Flock,' explaining some things that were in A Wor t o the 'Little Flock,' the publication, James White says, —"The reader will have observed that three communications from the pen of Mrs. E. G. White were included in A Wor t o the 'Little Flock.' . . ."—

He is going to explain these three, but I am only going to take one of them.

—"The second communication from Mrs. White, found on pages 14–18, is an account of her first vision"—

Her first vision, her first vision, the first time her first vision was published, they put a title on it.

—"[it] is an account of her first vision under the title, To the Remnant Scattered Abroad."—

Okay. They understood that they had been scattered.

—"This was written December 20, 1845, as a personal letter to Enoch Jacobs, and was first published by the recipient in The Day-Star of January 24, 1846. Then on April 6, 1846, it was reprinted in broadside form by James White and H. S. Gurney. The statement as it appears in A Wor t o the 'Little Flock,' with the exception of minor editorial changes and added scripture references, is identical with the full account of the vision as first printed." James White, A Word to the 'Little Flock,' 1, 25.

MAY, 1850

Then James White says in another article, in 1850,

"DEAR READER—My object in this review has been to expose error by the light of sacred truth. . . ."—

In this article, if you read it, he is making a defense for the Sabbath.

And then further on, he says,

—"In presenting this little work to the scattered flock, I have discharged my duty to them, in this respect, and may God add his blessing. Amen." James White, The Seventh-day Sabbath not Abolished, 2.

In 1850 they were still understanding that they had been scattered. All Right? So, when they are writing in 1850, whether it be James White or Ellen White, they are relating to God's people as the scattered flock.

But, when a prophet writes, it is more about the end of the world than for the time in which they lived.

SEPTEMBER 23, 1850

Now, notice in the passage that we derived the quote from Early Writings, page 74, that, "The Lord showed me that the 1843 Chart was directed by the hand of the Lord." In the original article, which was also in 1850, it says this:

"September 23d, the Lord showed me that he had stretched out his hand the second time to recover the remnant of his people, and that efforts must be redoubled in this gathering time. In the scattering time Israel was smitten and torn; but now in the gathering time God will heal and bind up his people. In the scattering,"—

Now, what I want you to see here, in 1850 Sister White is talking about the Lord stretching out His hand a second time to gather the remnant of His people; and, what she means by that is He gathered them together in 1844, but they were scattered.

—"In the scattering, efforts made to spread the truth had but little effect, accomplished but little or nothing; but in the gathering when God has set his hand to gather his people, efforts to spread the truth will have their designed effect. All should be united and zealous in the work. I saw that it was a shame for any to refer to the scattering for examples to govern us now in the gathering; for if God does no more for us now than he did then, Israel would never be gathered. It is as necessary that the truth should be published in a paper, as preached." Review and Herald, November 1, 1850.

The little flock was scattered and now in 1850 He is re-gathering them. So from 1840 to 1850 is marked the scattering time, and Sister White comments on this.

In the back of Early Writings, she says,

"3. The view that the Lord 'had stretched out His hand the second time to recover the remnant of His people,' on page 74, refers only to the union and strength once existing among those looking for Christ, and to the fact that He had begun to unite and to raise up His people again." Early Writings, 86.

So, what is my point? My point is that it is not really that important to this study here; but, after the third waymark, there is a scattering noted—all right?—and in every third waymark.

And in the Millerite History in 1844 they were in a scattering time. So, James White, Ellen White, and the Pioneers, they knew it. That is how they expressed it. They believed that they were the little flock, that the little flock had been scattered, that the Lord was gathering the little flock again.

So, I want to look at an article where Sister White is writing in that terminology, and it is in the 1850 time period; so, she is thinking in the here and now, but it is not the here and now. When you analyze the article, it is the end of the world. Okay? Because, some of the passages that she refers to from the Scriptures are definitely our day and age at the end of the world.

And the reason I want to do that is this is where she is going to address the Dirt Brush Man. She is addressing Him, if you understand it correctly, in our day and age.

PROVERBS ONE

And she is going to refer to Proverbs 1. And I challenge you to go read Proverbs 1, and read it as present truth for today. Proverbs 1 is about Adventism right now! That is why I have "Proverbs One" in boldface there; but, I realized if we went through it, although it would be fun, it would gobble up all our time. So, we are going to read the article.

This is April 1, 1850, called To the 'Little Flock.'

APRIL 1, 1850 TO THE 'LITTLE FLOCK.'

> "Dear Brethren.—The Lord gave me a view, January 26, which I will relate. I saw that some of the people of God were stupid and dormant; and were but half awake, and did not realize the time we were now living in; and that the 'man' with the 'dirt-brush' had entered,"—

This is the end of the world.

When does the Man with the dirt brush enter? 1989, right here. This is the Lion of the tribe of Judah beginning the work of cleaning up the mess.

> —"that the 'man' with the 'dirt-brush' had entered, and that some were in danger of being swept away."—

Where are they going to get swept? Right out the window.

Why are they going to get swept out the window? Because, they are hanging onto their idols, their false doctrines, their false coins.

> —"I begged of Jesus to save them, to spare them a little longer, and let them see their awful danger, that they might get ready before it should be forever too late. The angel said, 'Destruction is coming like a mighty whirlwind.'"—

Where does she take that from?

Where does destruction "coming like a mighty whirlwind" come from? There is only one place in the Bible you will find this, and that is your homework.

The destruction that comes like the whirlwind is described several places in the Bible, but this particular expression of that thought comes from one place in the Bible. And the destruction that comes like a whirlwind is Daniel 11, verse 40; because, the King of the North comes and sweeps away the King of the South in 1989 as a whirlwind. And that is just where he is starting. He is starting with the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, and then he is going to move to The Sunday Law in the United States, and then he is going to capture the whole world in 1842.

But, that is not where you will find the expression, "Destruction is coming like a mighty whirlwind." Use your Concordance, like Brother Miller would do.

> —"The angel said, 'Destruction is coming like a mighty whirlwind.' I begged of the angel to pity and to save those who loved this world, and were attached to their possessions, and were not willing to cut loose from them, and sacrifice them to speed the messengers on their way to feed the hungry sheep, who were perishing for want of spiritual food."—

Ah, now she is talking about when the Dirt Brush Man comes in, there is a present truth message and there are messengers that are going to take this message in this time period, and you are going to be held accountable if you are not financially supporting those messengers in their work. Whoa! That is kind of a serious thought, is it not?

The next paragraph:

> —"As I viewed poor souls dying for want of the present truth, and some who professed to believe the truth were letting them die, by withholding the necessary means to carry forward the work of God, the sight was too painful, and I begged of the angel to remove it from me."—

Why would it be painful? Because, she just went through an experience where all the faithful sold everything they had because they thought Jesus was returning, and they put it into the Lord's work. And now she was looking at a people who were unwilling to do that very thing. So, it really was painful to her, as a human being; because, she knew what that experience was.

> —"I saw that when the cause of God called for some of their property, like the young man who came to Jesus, [Matthew 19:16–22.] they went away sorrowful; and that soon the overflowing scourge would pass over and sweep their possessions all away, and then it would be too late to sacrifice earthly goods, and lay up a treasure in heaven."—

What is the overflowing scourge? It is The Sunday Law. It is easy to show that.

This is in her day and age. This is not the scattering after 1844 that the Dirt Brush Man has entered and is cleaning up. This is now!

> —"I then saw the glorious Redeemer, beautiful and lovely, that he left the realms of glory, and came to this dark and lonely world, to give his precious life and die, the just for the unjust. He bore the cruel mocking and scourging, and wore the platted crown of thorns, and sweat great drops of blood in the garden; while the burden of the sins of the whole world were upon him. The angel asked, 'What for?' O, I saw and knew that it was for us; for our sins he suffered all this, that by his precious blood he might redeem us unto God.

"Then again was held up before me those who were not willing to dispose of this world's goods to save perishing souls, by sending them the truth, while Jesus stands before the Father, pleading his blood, his sufferings and his death for them; and while God's messengers were waiting, ready to carry them the saving truth that they might be sealed with the seal of the living God."—

Now, is this the end time or not?

This is the sealing time. The Dirt Brush Man comes in during the sealing of the 144,000.

—"It was hard for some who professed to believe the present truth, to even do so little as to hand the messengers God's own money,"—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Tithe.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Tithe.

Where is the tithe supposed to go?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To God's messengers.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To God's messengers.

Are there two kinds of messengers?

—"It was hard for some who professed to believe the present truth, to even do so little as to hand the messengers God's own money, that he had lent them to be stewards over.

"Then the suffering Jesus, his sacrifice and love so deep, as to give his life for them, was again held up before me; and then the lives of those who professed to be his followers, who had this world's goods, and considered it so great a thing to help the cause of salvation. The angel said, 'Can such enter heaven?' Another angel answered, 'No, never, never, never. Those who are not interested in the cause of God on earth, can never sing the song of redeeming love above.'

"I saw that the quick work that God was doing on earth would soon be cut short in righteousness, and that the swift messengers must speed on their way to search out the scattered flock. An angel said, 'Are all messengers? No, no, God's messengers have a message.'

"I saw that the cause of God had been hindered, and dishonored by some travelling who had no message from God. Such will have to give an account to God for every dollar they have used in travelling where it was not their duty to go; for that money might have helped on the cause of God, and for the lack of it, souls have starved and died for the want of spiritual food, that might have been given them by God's called and chosen messengers if they had had the means.

"The mighty shaking has commenced, and will go on, and all will be shaken out who are not willing to take a hold and unyielding stand for the truth, and sacrifice for God and his cause. The angel said, 'Think ye that any will be compelled to sacrifice. No. no. It must be a free-will offering. It will take all to buy the field.'—I cried to God to spare his people, some of whom were fainting and dying.

> "I saw that those who have strength to labor with their hands, and help sustain the cause, were as accountable for that strength, as others were for their property.
> "Then I saw that the judgments of Almighty God were speedily coming. I begged of the angel to speak in his language to the people. Said he, 'All the thunders and lightnings of Mount Sinai would not move those who will not be moved by the plain truths of the word of God; neither would an angel's message awake them.'" Review and Herald, April 1, 1850.

What Angel's Message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Third Angel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Third Angel's Message, the Fourth Angel's Message.

Brothers and Sisters, William Miller's dream is identifying the covering up of the foundational truths of Adventism. We have not proved conclusively 1863 or 1989 in this particular worship series. That is the direction that we are going, though.

And at the end of his dream, when a prophet becomes part of the prophecy—and I know we cause some people a problem for me to imply that William Miller was a prophet. I am not saying that. I am just saying that when his dream is included in the book, Early Writings, and he becomes part of that dream, then he is governed by the same rules as when a prophet becomes a part of the prophecy.

I know that some people do not like me saying that William Miller is a prophet, because he made some prophetic errors, even if he has been compared with Elijah and John the Baptist and Elisha and Moses: "Even if he paralleled their work, we wouldn't want to call him a prophet."

But, that is not the issue here. When he becomes part of the prophecy down here at the end of this seven times, whenever it might be—it is 1989—he weeps, marking the arrival of the Time of the End. The Seven Thunders is then going to be repeated, and the Dirt Brush Man comes in, and He comes in, in the time period when He is going to seal the 144,000 and sweep the idolaters out of Adventism.

Now, that is powerful enough in its own understanding; but, what we are dealing with here is that the First Angel's Message is Daniel, chapter 1; the Second Angel's Message is Daniel, chapter 2; the Third Angel's Message is Daniel, chapter 3; and, the fourth segment we are dealing with is Daniel 4, Nebuchadnezzar's dream. And what I am contending is Nebuchadnezzar's dream is William Miller's dream, and that Nebuchadnezzar's seven times living like a beast is prefiguring this time right here, this "7 Times Scattering" [see Figure No. 53B].

So, we are going to take this study here tomorrow and go back into Daniel and show that Daniel, chapter 4, is describing the time period from 1844, when the Third Angel's Message arrived in Millerite History, until the testing time when William Miller wakes up. And, Daniel, chapter 4, runs right into Daniel, chapter 5; and, Daniel, chapter 5, shows that testing time. It shows Belshazzar as the one that rejects the message of the hour, and it shows Nebuchadnezzar's wife as the church that understands the Book of Daniel in the crisis.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be attached to the truth. We want to be attached to the precious jewels that you cast into our minds, as you cast into every generation, the precious truths of your Word. But as Laodiceans, we no doubt have idols that we are holding on to; and, from this study we can see that if we do not turn loose of those idols very quickly, that when those idols get swept out the window, we will go with them. We ask that you do what it takes in each of our lives to reveal those idols to us, and then give us the courage and strength to enter into the work of removing those idols from our lives. We ask that you give us the conviction that Sister White had, about the necessity, the responsibility we have for supporting this final warning message, that whatever we can do can become involved in finishing this work so that we might go home with you soon. We thank you for the work that we are trying to accomplish this year, that we can be a part of it. We pray that you would continue to bless the LiveStreaming and the DVD recording. And we set before you this day of service that we each have and ask that the work we do can be honorable for you, that it will glorify you and that we can do it safely. We thank you for part of our team that is in California under trying times right now and ask that you watch over them as well. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #33A

Part Four: DANIEL

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's rest. We thank you for bringing us back here this morning to worship before you, to study your Word as we begin our day. As we take up our study we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would take control of the thoughts and the words that I convey, that they would not be human but that they would come from the Throne Room, designed to bless, strengthen, and edify your people. We pray you prepare the hearts and minds of your people that will hear this message, whether live or on a recording that they might understand the light that you are opening up for us at this time. We thank you for doing this. We ask that you continue to pour the Latter Rain out upon us, and we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We have identified that Daniel, chapter 1, is the First Angel's Message; Daniel, chapter 2, is the Second; Daniel, chapter 3, the Third. And now we are suggesting that Daniel, chapter 4, is the scattering of the foundational truths of Adventism that began in 1863 with the introduction of the 1863 Chart and the rejection of the 2520.

We looked at William Miller's dream yesterday and identified that his dream is the prophecy about the covering up of the foundational truths that are represented on this [1843] Chart, and that the Dirt Brush Man comes in and sweeps out the counterfeit jewels, the traditions and customs that has been handed down from generation to generation at the end of seven scatterings that Miller marks in his dream.

We are suggesting here that that was William Miller's second dream, and that Daniel, chapter 4, is Nebuchadnezzar's second dream. Daniel, chapter 4, is the only chapter in Daniel that Daniel did not write; Nebuchadnezzar wrote it. And William Miller's dream in Early Writings is the only chapter that Ellen White did not write; William Miller wrote it.

This [1863 to 1989] is Miller's seven times. And up here is what we dealt with yesterday; Miller mentions scatter seven times, 126 years, 126 shekels. We have not proved 1863 or 1989 as yet. This history here is represented by the iron and brass that is wrapped around the trunk of the tree, and this history here is also representing the 2520 against the Northern Kingdom that begins in 723BC and ends in AD1798 at the Time of the End.

We will deal with this other line [appearing on the whiteboard below the above Figure No. 55 (see Figure No. 56)] a little bit when we get into it.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S AND MILLER'S DREAM

AN ALLEGORY

We want to start with a quote from William Miller [Miller's Works, volume 2, page 261] where he is tying together Daniel, chapter 4, Nebuchadnezzar's seven times with the 2520 of Leviticus 26. It says,

> "1st. 'Seven times,' in Nebuchadnezzar's dream, was fulfilled in seven years. Nebuchadnezzar, for his pride and arrogancy against God, was driven among the beasts of the field, and was made to eat grass as oxen, until seven times passed over him, and until he learned that the Most High ruled in the kingdoms of men, and gave it to whomsoever he would. This being a matter of history, and as an allegory or sample to the people of God for their pride and arrogancy, in refusing to be reformed by God, and claiming the power and will to do these things themselves,—they, too, like Nebuchadnezzar, must be driven among the beasts of the field, (meaning the kingdoms of the world,) until they learn the sovereignty of God, and that he dispenses his favors to whomsoever he will. That, being a matter of history, and a sample only, was fulfilled in seven years; but this, being a prophecy, will only be fulfilled in seven prophetic times, which will be 7 times 360 years, which will make 2520 years; for one half of 7 times, that is, 3 times and a half, is called, in Revelation 12:6, 1260 days (fulfilled in so many years.)" Miller's Works, volume 2, 261.

I just cut a snippet out of there. One of the things he is doing in this passage is he is showing that in the Scriptures we see time, times, and the dividing of time that it is correctly understood as half of the seven times of Leviticus 26.

And most of Adventism will not argue with the time, times, and half a time being the 1260 years of Papal darkness; but, they do not understand that that is simply the second half of the seven times, that the first 1260 years was accomplished by Paganism trampling down the sanctuary and the host, the second 1260 years being the Papacy trampling down the sanctuary and the host.

But, what I want you to see with this quote is that in Daniel, chapter 4, Miller is saying that Daniel, chapter 4, with Nebuchadnezzar—this history right here [234BC to AD1798]—that it is an allegory. It is typifying the seven times of Ancient Israel; and, what we are saying is it is also pointing forward to the scattering of Adventism, the seven scatterings of William Miller. So, you see three of them up there, if you can understand it correctly.

An allegory, from Webster's Dictionary, from Miller's time period:

> ALLEGORY: A figurative sentence or discourse, in which the principal subject is described by another subject resembling it in its properties and circumstances. The principal subject is thus kept out of view, and we are left to collect the intentions of the writer or speaker, by the resemblance of the secondary to the primary subject. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.

So, an allegory, when Miller says Nebuchadnezzar's story is an allegory, he is using it to lay it over the top of the 2520 years that Ancient Israel was scattered, and what we are doing is we are using Daniel 4 as an allegory to lay it over the top of William Miller's dream.

Sister White says in Testimonies, volume 8, beginning at page 126:

> "Study Nebuchadnezzar's dream as recorded in the fourth chapter of Daniel. The king saw a lofty tree planted in the earth. . . ."—

What is a tree? It is a kingdom. So, we are suggesting that Nebuchadnezzar's kingdom was cut down for seven years; so, too, in these lines, the Northern Kingdom of Ephraim (or Israel) was cut down for 2520 years; and, so, too, was the Millerite Movement cut down for 126 years until the Movement was reinitiated. And in the 126 years is when the focus of Adventism is upon the church.

But, Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning, and Adventism begins with a Movement and it ends with a Movement. And if you do not think that that is true, just go into the Ellen White CD-ROM and see what she says about the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 repeatedly. It is a Movement. It is a subject of the Spirit of Prophecy, so much so that when she talks about the mighty Movement of Revelation 18, if you look closely, you will see that she talks about a counterfeit movement that takes place during the same history, the counterfeit movement that we call the Omega Apostasy.

So, if you are unwilling to wrap your mind around the fact that Adventism began with a Movement and will end with a Movement, then you are unwilling to see a great deal of light; because, the Movement that ends Adventism, the Movement of Revelation 18, is such an important subject of prophecy that it includes testimony to a counterfeit movement.

Okay. So, what we are saying is, from 1798 until 1863, the movement that we call the Millerite Movement is in existence; but, in 1863 we form a legal church and, for 126 years until the Time of the End in 1989 we are a church, and then comes a movement. For this 126 years, this Movement, the kingdom of Miller, Miller's kingdom, was chopped down.

> —"Study Nebuchadnezzar's dream as recorded in the fourth chapter of Daniel. The king saw a lofty tree planted in the earth. . . .
> "Let men become lifted up in pride, and the Lord will not sustain them and keep them from falling. Let a church become proud and boastful, not depending on God, not exalting His power, and that church will surely be left by the Lord, to be brought down to the ground. Let a people glory in wealth, intellect, knowledge, or in anything but Christ, and they will soon be brought to confusion." Testimonies, volume 8, 126–127.

So, here she is comparing Nebuchadnezzar's tree with the Seventh-day Adventist Church, because all the prophets are speaking more about the end of the world than the days in which they lived, included Ellen White; so, the church subject here would be the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

So, let us go to Daniel 4, verses 1 through 5.

> "[1]Nebuchadnezzar the king,"—

Who? This is not Daniel; this is Nebuchadnezzar.

> —"[1]Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. [2]I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me."—

Was Nebuchadnezzar inspired?

When his message gets recorded in the Scriptures, it becomes inspired. True? Okay. You can relate to it as inspired.

And what did Nebuchadnezzar think it was good to show us in verse 2?

> —"the signs and wonders that God hath wrought towards [Nebuchadnezzar]— toward me. [3]How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.
> "[4]I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace: [5]I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me." Daniel 4, 1-5 (KJV).

Okay. So, in verse 2 he thought it good to show us the signs and wonders.

> "[2]I thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me." Daniel 4:2 (KJV).

And then we have read this quote before, Prophets and Kings, page 533.

> "To the last ruler of Babylon,"—

Who was the last ruler of Babylon? Belshazzar.

> — as in type to its first, had come the sentence of the divine Watcher: 'O king, . . . to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.' Daniel 4:31." Prophets and Kings, 533.

Here, Sister White is letting us know for sure that Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar typify one another. They are parallel prophecies. And what is being emphasized about Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar is the pronouncement of the judgment against them. With Nebuchadnezzar it was seven times; with Belshazzar it is the MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN that equates to 2520.

So, when it comes to considering what the signs and wonders that Nebuchadnezzar is marking for us, the sign of Nebuchadnezzar and the sign of Belshazzar is the 2520.

What is a sign?

> TYPE: A sign; a symbol; a figure of something to come; as, Abraham's sacrifice and the paschal lamb, were types of Christ. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.

It is a type. Sister White says, "To the last ruler of Babylon, as in type to its first." A sign. A type is a sign.

What is a sign?

> SIGN: Strong's Concordance, H852—a portent:— sign.

What is a portent? Representing something to come.

ASK THEE A SIGN

As Seventh-day Adventists, in our sleepy Laodicean condition, we know about signs in the Bible, but we do not understand that all the prophets spake more about the end of the world than the days in which they lived. So, I just want to review a couple of things without turning to them in the Scriptures.

VIRGIN BIRTH (TIME OF THE END)

Isaiah 7:10-16: Matthew 1:21-23

> "[10]Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying, [11]Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. [12]But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. [13]And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also? [14]Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. [15]Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. [16]For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings." Isaiah 7:10-16 (KJV).

In Isaiah 7:10-16, the sign of Christ's birth is set forth by Isaiah in his interaction with Ahaz.

> "[21]And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. [22]Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, [23]BEHOLD, A VIRGIN SHALL BE WITH CHILD, AND SHALL BRING FORTH A SON, AND THEY SHALL CALL HIS NAME EMMANUEL, which being interpreted is, God with us." Matthew 1:21-23 (KJV).

In Matthew 1:21-23, the birth of Christ is identified as a sign.

But, what the birth of Christ marks for that history is the Time of the End. So, it is a sign that is prefiguring the Time of the End in the time of Christ, but it is also prefiguring 1798, the

Time of the End in the time of the Millerites, and it is also typifying the Time of the End in 1989 in the history of the 144,000.

What I am saying is this: The signs of the Bible always have an application at the end of the world.

THE EASTERN STAR (ISLAM)

Matthew 2; Luke 21:7, 30

Okay. In Matthew, chapter 2 and Luke 21:7 and 30, Islam is a sign.

> "[1]Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, [2]Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. [3]When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. [4]And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. [5]And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet, [6]AND THOU BETHLEHEM, IN THE LAND OF JUDA, ART NOT THE LEAST AMONG THE PRINCES OF JUDA: FOR OUT OF THEE SHALL COME A GOVERNOR, THAT SHALL RULE MY PEOPLE ISRAEL. [7]Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. [8]And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also. [9]When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. [10] When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.
> "[11] And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense and myrrh. [12]And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.
> "[13]And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. [14]When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt: [15]And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, OUT OF EGYPT HAVE I CALLED MY SON.
> "[16]Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men. [17]Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, [18]IN RAMA WAS THERE A VOICE HEARD, LAMENTATION, AND WEEPING, AND GREAT MOURNING, RACHEL WEEPING FOR HER CHILDREN, AND WOULD NOT BE COMFORTED, BECAUSE THEY ARE NOT.

> "[19] But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, [20]Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. [21]And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. [22]But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: [23]And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene." Matthew 2 (KJV).

In Matthew 2, Islam saw a star, the wise men from the East, and the East is Islam in Bible prophecy.

They saw a star, and why were they looking for a star? What brought their interest of the star? The prophecy from the Old Testament.

A prophecy that was proclaimed by whom? By Balaam.

There was a prophecy in the Old Testament by Balaam, who is a symbol of Islam, speaking of a star; and, the wise men from the East, they see this sign and they come to give Christ the financial support that Joseph will need to flee into Egypt.

And, of course, when we think of an earlier Joseph, it was the Ishmaelite traders that took Joseph into Egypt in Genesis.

So, in both cases it was Islam that provided the ways and means to protect Joseph and Christ and take them into Egypt.

Islam is a sign.

> "[7]And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass? . . . [30]When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand." Luke 21:7, 30 (KJV).

And in Luke 21, when the Disciples asked for a sign of the end of the world, ultimately Jesus gets to the end of His discourse and He points them to the budding trees of spring; and, Sister White comments on this in The Great Controversy, that the budding trees of spring are the sign and it can be demonstrated from the Scriptures that what the budding trees of spring represent is the Latter Rain; and, what marks the arrival of the Latter Rain is the restraint of Islam.

So, when it comes to the sign of Islam in Matthew and Luke, it has a specific application here at the end of the world.

THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION (THE SUNDAY LAW)

Matthew 24:15

> "[15]When ye therefore shall see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)" Matthew 24:15 (KJV).

In Matthew 24:15, Jesus sets forth the sign that is the "abomination of desolation . . .(whoso readeth, let him understand:)," the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet. This was fulfilled in the AD66 to 70 time period. Any Christian that did not recognize that sign and stop what he was doing and get out of Jerusalem was lost. But, Sister White takes Matthew 24:15 and the sign of the abomination of desolation and she applies it at the end of the world in connection with The Sunday Law.

What I am trying to show you is that the signs of the New Testament, the signs of the whole Bible have an application at the end of the world, and the point is when Nebuchadnezzar said that he thought it was important to show us the signs of his punishment for seven times and he was typified by Belshazzar with his sign of the 2520, then the 2520 is clearly marked as a sign here at the end of the world.

And, of course, in previous presentations we have already shown this from different directions, but we do want to mark it again.

SHEPHERDS (STARS)

Luke 2:12

> "[12]And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger." Luke 2:12 (KJV).

The shepherds on the hill represent those people that are studying prophecy and understand the increase of knowledge at the Time of the End, at the birth of Christ, when the Book of Daniel is unsealed, as it was when Christ was born. And they represent the stars that shine forever and ever in Daniel 12 that understand the increase of knowledge. The shepherds are prefiguring the Millerite History of 1798 when the Book of Daniel was unsealed and there was an increase of knowledge and many would run to and fro in God's Word, understanding the testing message for that time.

But, more importantly, those shepherds and the sign that they represent is pointing to our day and age in 1989 when the Book of Daniel would once again be unsealed. And this time, unlike the Millerite History which announced the opening of the Judgment, when the Book of Daniel was unsealed in 1989 it was identifying the close of Judgment.

SIMEON (A REJECTED SIGN)

Luke 2:34

> "[34]And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against; . . ." Luke 2:34 (KJV).

In Luke 2:34, Simeon, at the dedication of the Baby Jesus, he identifies that Jesus is a sign that is going to be rejected. It is going to cause some to stand and some to fall. And this is one of the truths about the signs in the Bible, is God's people's attitude towards a sign determines whether they stand or they fall. So, Simeon's pronouncement about the sign of Christ is a pronouncement about how Seventh-day Adventists relate to the prophetic signs that confront their generation.

All these signs have an application here at the end of the world.

JONAH (THREE DAYS AND FORTY-SIX YEARS)

Matthew 16:1-4; John 2:18-20

> "[1]The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven. [2]He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red. [3]And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowering. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times? [4]A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed." Matthew 16:1-4 (KJV).

Jesus spoke of the sign of Jonah more often than any other sign, as He walked among men.

> "[18]Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? [19]Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. [20]Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?" John 2:18-20 (KJV).

And we have already shown in this worship series that the three days, it represents not only the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ but it represents the resurrection of a temple from 1798 to 1844 in 46 years. It represents the Lord raising up a remnant that He will enter into covenant with. The is the sign of Jonah.

And if you take your Ellen White CD-ROM, you will find that she says the disappointment of Jonah when the gourd was killed parallels the disappointment of the Millerites on October 23, 1844; and, therefore, Jonah is definitely connected with the history of the Millerites, and the history of the Millerites are repeated to the very letter at the end of the world. So, Jonah has an application at the end of the world, and Jesus marked Jonah as a sign.

All the signs have an application at the end of the world.

THE BREAD OF HEAVEN (REVELATION 10:8-10)

John 6:30

> "[30]They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? What dost thou work? John 6:30 (KJV).

And then in John 6, in conjunction with Revelation 10, verses 8 through 10, John, chapter 6, told the disciples of His day and age, they must eat his flesh and drink his blood. And in Revelation 10, John was told to take the Little Book and eat it. And today God's people need to eat the Light that has been poured down from Heaven since September 11, 2001, or they will be rejecting the sign of the manna, the Bread of Heaven.

So, what I am saying is, is that based upon several witnesses, a sign in the Scriptures has an application to the end of the world.

And one of the things that Nebuchadnezzar told us about his dream was that it was a sign, the 2520, the seven times; the scattering is a sign, and you reject it at your own peril.

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS (742BC)

Isaiah 7:4-7

Okay. Go to Isaiah 7:4-7, and we will switch gears a little bit here. Isaiah 7:4-7. And what we are going to look at here is the 65-year prophecy of Isaiah 7.

Isaiah 7 takes place in the year 742BC and gives us a 65-year time prophecy, and says that the Northern Kingdom within these 65 years will be carried into captivity; and, sure enough, in 723BC the Northern Kingdom is carried into captivity 19 years into this history. Then 46 years later, the Southern Kingdom is carried into captivity.

And this is a chiastic structure. At the end of this time period you have the first 2520 ending in AD1798. Forty-Six years later the second 2520 ends in 1844. And then 19 years later takes you to 1863, when we do many things in Adventism:

- We introduce an 1863 counterfeit chart; we reject the 2520 officially in the Review and Herald;
- We find ourselves in the middle of a Civil War, just as Ahaz was in the middle of a civil war here [742BC to 723]; and,
- We start a church legally, so that we can have the legal right to keep people out of the draft.

But, anyway, Isaiah 7: 4-7:

The Northern Kingdom of Israel and Syria have formed an alliance. They are coming against the Southern Kingdom of Judah, and the Southern Kingdom of Judah is very scared.

In verse 2, speaking of Ahaz, the king of the Southern Kingdom of Judah, it says,

> "[2]And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind." Isaiah 7:2 (KJV).

Take note of that, because right here [742BC], Ahaz is under severe pressure; and, we are going to find that Ahaz represents James White when in 1863 was under enough severe pressure that Sister White spoke about his mental health being impacted from the severe pressure.

And then we are going to look at several other symbolic representations of this history where, when the first king is tested, he is always under severe pressure.

The first king is an example, although Aaron was not the king. Aaron is the first king prophetically, and when he was tested, he was tested because the people came to his tent and said, "You either build us a golden calf or we are going to kill you." Okay? This is prefiguring Ahaz's situation and James White's situation.

The first king situation is Jeroboam. He just has a brand new kingdom, and he is afraid his citizens are going to go to Judah to worship; so, under that peer pressure, he determines to set up two false worship sites in the Northern Kingdom. We are going to look at that later.

The first king under pressure, Rehoboam. Rehoboam was trying to figure out how to keep all 12 tribes together. Under pressure, Rehoboam asked for counsel from the Old Paths and the new kids on the block. He rejects the Old Paths (the old men) and stands with the new kids on the block.

So, when you see first kings in the Scripture, invariably they are tied together, but they are always under pressure. The first king was king Saul, and he was told by Samuel, "Wait till I come and I am going to make an offering." And king Saul was impatient because the Philistines were surrounding him, and his people, it says, were scattering from him.

And how long did they scatter from him for? Seven days.

And Samuel was supposed to come, and king Saul got impatient. So, instead of waiting for Samuel, what did he do? He combined church and state. He did the offering himself, and that is where he lost his kingdom.

Why did he do so? Because, he was under pressure.

King Saul was under pressure, Aaron was under pressure, Jeroboam was under pressure, Rehoboam was under pressure, Ahaz was under pressure, and James White was under pressure. And all of these are parallel symbols that we will look at as we proceed.

So, in verse 4 of Isaiah 7, it says,

> "[4]And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet;"—

When Isaiah comes to Ahaz, he is going to give him a prophecy of, "Don't worry about this confederacy."

> —"Take heed, and be quiet, fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. [5]Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, [6]Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal: [7]Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass." Isaiah 7:4-7 (KJV).

Isaiah 7:8-9:

> "[8]For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years"—

Within 65 years: the key word there is within, not at the conclusion of.

> —"within threescore and five years shall Ephraim"—THE NORTHERN KINGDOM—"be broken, that it be not a people. [9]And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established." Isaiah 7:8–9 (KJV).

And it says Ephraim is going to be broken where it is not a people.

And yesterday we took a little bit of time to talk about how the jewels are swept out the window. How are the foolish virgins swept out the window? Because, they are joined to their idols, and that was the pronouncement against Ephraim, "Ephraim is joined to his idols; leave him alone." Ephraim is never going to be a people again. Okay? Whereas, Judah is going to return.

All right. So, this [Figure No. 56] is the history of Isaiah 7 that we are considering here.

And in 742BC the prophecy of Isaiah 4:7 is proclaimed. It says within 65 years, which takes you to 677BC, the Northern Kingdom will be broken. It was broken in 723BC, and the Southern Kingdom was broken in 677BC.

ISAIAH AND HIS CHILDREN

But, we are talking about signs here. And in Isaiah 8:18, which is in your notes, it says,

> "[18]Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion." Isaiah 8:18 (KJV).

Now, people who do not want to see the 2520, they do not read Isaiah 7; because, Isaiah 7 is the starting point for both the 2520s.

The duration of the 2520 is set forth by Moses in Leviticus 26; but, the starting point for both these prophecies is right here in Isaiah 7 and the ending point for both prophecies in the Book of Daniel. So, you have Daniel, Moses, and Isaiah giving three witnesses to the validity of the 2520.

And those people that close their eyes to these truths, they do not want to read Isaiah 7; but, Isaiah 7 is, as much as anything else, identifying, as Nebuchadnezzar did, that the 2520 is a sign. Okay? So, Isaiah is letting us know plainly here in this prophecy that his children are signs. And he is going to mention two of his children in this passage of Scripture, and one of them represent the 2520 against the Northern Kingdom, and one of them represent the 2520 against the Southern Kingdom.

In Isaiah 8:1-4, it says,

> "[1]Moreover the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Mahershalalhashbaz. [2]And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. [3]And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son."—

How many witnesses did he take with him to establish this thing? Two.

—"Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Mahershalalhashbaz. [4]For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria"—

Those are the two confederate countries that are coming against Judah.

—"shall be taken away before the king of Assyria." Isaiah 8:1–4 (KJV).

So, here, Isaiah is telling us that his son is a sign.

MAHERSHALALHASHBAZ: H4122—hasting* (as he (the enemy) to the) booty, swift (to the) prey.

And Mahershalalhashbaz means hasting, booty, swift to the prey. He is talking about the Northern Kingdom being conquered. This is emphasizing the beginning of the scattering.

And the beginning of the scattering and the end, the starting point is 46 years; whereas, as you get down to this history and the gathering is going to be marked by Isaiah's other son, and it is from AD1798 to 1844. It is 46 years, too.

So, in these 46 years the scattering begins, beginning in 723BC, with the conquering of the Northern Kingdom as symbolized by Mahershalalhashbaz (swift to the prey, swift to the booty).

677BC

Six years later, the Southern Kingdom is taken into captivity.
And you will notice in Isaiah 7:3, Isaiah's other son is noted.

"[3]Then said the Lord unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field." Isaiah 7:3 (KJV).

SHEARJASHUB: H7610—a *remnant will return.

And Shearjashub, representing this 2520, means, a remnant will return. Of course, he has given this prophecy to Ahaz, to Judah. And Judah would return as spiritual Judah, as spiritual Israel in 1844, at the end of this time prophecy.

Now, you will notice in verse 9 of Isaiah 7 says,

"[9]And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established." Isaiah 7:9 (KJV).

So, if you will not believe what?

Okay. The time prophecy of verse 8 is connected with verse 9. They cannot be separated. Let us read verse 8. It is going to talk about Syria and the Northern Kingdom, Ephraim.

> "[8]For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people." Isaiah 7:8 (KJV).

Now drop down to verse 9:

> "[9]And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established." Isaiah 7:9 (KJV).

So, these two verses are definitely the same thought. You cannot separate them.

And in verse 8 is where you have the 65-year prophecy; and, at the end of verse 9, it says, "If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established."

So, if you will not believe what? If you will not believe that time prophecy. If you will not believe the 2520, you will not be established.

And, anyone that has read their Bible as they should cannot help but see the echo of this thought, "If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established," echoing the statement in 2 Chronicles 20:20. And Sister White is going to tie these two things together for us.

2 Chronicles 20:20 says,

> "[20]And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper." 2 Chronicles 20:20 (KJV).

Okay. Isaiah 7, it continues on in several chapters. Isaiah 7, 8, 9, and onward is about this story, about this history, the beginning of the 2520.

And the promise, or the curse, that is in Isaiah 7:9 is that if you do not believe this 2520, you will not be established. If you do, you will be.

But, in 2 Chronicles 20:20, you have to believe his prophets as well to prosper.

Now, notice what Sister White says.

> "'Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.'"—

That is 2 Chronicles 20:20.

But, then she goes right into Isaiah 8:20. This is the same passage that we are dealing with.

> —"Isaiah 8:20. 'To the law and to the testimony; if they speak not according to this work, it is because there is no light in them.'"—

Now, I do not know why it says work in there. I think it is a typo. In the CD-ROM you find those some time.

But, she just tied these two passages, 2 Chronicles 20:20 and this passage in Isaiah, together. You cannot separate Isaiah 8 from Isaiah 7, unless you are a theologian, practicing with the Biblical histories and the Biblical languages; but, no normal person would do so.

So, she ties them together, and then she is going to comment specifically on them.

> —"Two texts are here set before God's people: two conditions for success. The law spoken by Jehovah himself, and the spirit of prophecy, are the two sources of wisdom to guide His people in every experience. Deuteronomy 4:6. 'This is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, who shall say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.'
> "The law of God and the Spirit of Prophecy go hand in hand to guide and counsel the church, and whenever the church has recognized this by obeying His law, the spirit of prophecy has been sent to guide her in the way of truth.
> "Revelation 12:17. 'And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.' This prophecy points out clearly that the remnant church will acknowledge God in His law and will have the prophetic gift. Obedience to the law of God, and the spirit of prophecy has always distinguished the true people of God, and the test is usually given on present manifestations."—

She is going to explain what that means: ". . . the test is usually given on present manifestations."

Okay. Adventism is being tested not on how they give lip service on Isaiah or to Moses or to John or to Peter. Adventism is being tested on how they give lip service to Ellen White. That is what she is saying. She is going to explain this.

> —"In Jeremiah's day the people had no question about the message of Moses, Elijah, or Elisha, but they did question and put aside the message sent of God to Jeremiah until its force and power was wasted and there was no remedy but for God to carry them away into captivity.
> "Likewise in the days of Christ the people had learned that Jeremiah's message was true, and they persuaded themselves to believe that if they had lived in the days of their fathers they would have accepted his message, but at the same time they were rejecting Christ's message, of whom all the prophets had written.
> "As the third angel's message arose in the world, which is to reveal the law of God to the church in its fullness and power, the prophetic gift was also immediately restored. This gift has acted a very prominent part in the development and carrying forward of this message."—

Right here, if you believe the Spirit of Prophecy, if you believe the Spirit of Prophecy, without arguing with the men about it, this tells you the Church is in apostasy.

She says, whenever the Church is keeping the Law of God, the Spirit of Prophecy was immediately manifested.

Is the Spirit of Prophecy active in the Church today?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, then the Church is not keeping the Law of God; and, therefore, the Church is in apostasy.

You hear these people arguing about, "Well, is the Church in apostasy or is there apostasy in the Church? Well, Brother, it is both: There is apostasy in the Church, and the Church is in apostasy. If it was not, the Spirit of Prophecy would be manifested.

Continuing on:

> —"As differences of opinion have arisen in reference to interpretations of Scriptures and methods of labor, calculated to unsettle the faith of believers in the message and lead to disunion in the work, the spirit of prophecy has always thrown light on the situation."—

Really? I do not know how many times I have had leaders tell me, "Brother, sole scriptura: The Bible and the Bible alone."

That is not what Sister White is saying. She saying in crises, in different situations, it is the Spirit of Prophecy that sheds the light needed for that time.

> —"It has always brought union of thought and harmony of action to the body of believers. In every crisis that has arisen in the development of the message and the growth of the work, those who have stood firmly by the law of God and the light of the Spirit of prophecy have triumphed and the work has prospered in their hands." Loma Linda Messages, 33–34.

Okay. Brothers and Sisters, let us keep it simple. Sister White says that this [1843] Chart was directed by the hand of the Lord and it should not be altered except by Inspiration, and it was altered by Inspiration when they produced this [1850] Chart. She said God was in the publishment of this [1840] Chart, and both of these Charts, both of these Charts, present the 2520.

If you will believe, you will be established. If you believe in His prophets, you will prosper.

LITERAL AND SPIRITUAL FOOD

Back to Nebuchadnezzar's dream: When Nebuchadnezzar, in chapter 4, when His tree is cut down, that tree, what it does, it gives fruit to his whole kingdom. It gives them food to eat.

But, in William Miller's dream, when this tree [referencing the 1843 Chart] is cut down, you are not eating the food anymore that was on that tree. You are not eating the fruit of this tree. You begin to eat the fruit of some corrupt tree.

Daniel 4:13-14, it is in your notes. It says,

> "[13]I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven; [14]He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit::—

The food: the precious jewels of Miller's dream, the food of Nebuchadnezzar's kingdom were scattered.

—"let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches." Daniel 4:13–14 (KJV).

SCATTERED FOUNDATIONAL FRUIT

Now, we have looked at this before; but, let us remind ourselves of it.

This word fruit that was scattered, this fruit that was scattered, it is:

> Fruit: Strong's Concordance H4—fruit.—From an unused root (meaning to be tender); green, that is a young ear of grain; hence the name of the month Abib or Nisan:—Abib, ear, green ears of corn.

This fruit is associated with the month of Abib; and, in Exodus 13:4, it says,

> "[4]This day came ye out in the month Abib." Exodus 13:4 (KJV).

They came out of Egypt in the month of Abib. This is the fruit that is associated with the foundations of Ancient Israel.

Exodus 23:15 says,

> "[15]Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall appear before me empty:)" Exodus 23:15 (KJV).

This fruit that is cut down from Nebuchadnezzar's tree is the fruit that represents the foundational fruit, the beginning food, the food at the beginning. This [indicating the 1850 Chart] is Miller's foundational fruit, the jewels that are scattered when the tree, when Miller's kingdom is cut down.

BRASS AND IRON

Okay. We had spent some time earlier on considering the Mystery of Iniquity. Let us see if we can fit that in.

We have looked at iron and brass before. The stump, there is a brass and an iron band put around the stump once the tree is cut down.

Testimonies, volume 2, page 661, says,

> "The Lord made a covenant with Israel that, if they would obey His commandments, He would give them rain in due season, the land should yield her increase, and the trees of the field should yield their fruit. He promised that their threshing should reach unto the vintage and the vintage unto the sowing time, and that they should eat their bread to the full and dwell in their land safely. He would make their enemies to perish. He would not abhor them, but would walk with them and would be their God, and they should be His people. But if they disregarded His requirements, He would deal with them entirely contrary to all this. His curse should rest upon them in place of His blessing. He would break > their pride of power and would make the heavens over them as iron and the earth as brass. 'Your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits. And if ye walk contrary unto Me,' 'then will I also walk contrary unto you.'" Testimonies, volume 2, 661.

So, this is what happened to Ancient Israel in this history [723BC to AD1798]: iron and brass. And, we looked this up. It was bondage, captivity; but, I want to show you some things.

EGYPT

Signs of the Times, March 10, 1881, in the time of Egypt, in their bondage in Egypt for 430 years, it says,

> "He [Moses] was to present before them the wonderful manifestations of God's power in bringing them forth from the iron furnace, which figure well illustrated their cruel and degrading bondage in Egypt." Signs of the Times, March 10, 1881.

Egypt was the iron furnace. It is the band of iron. Okay?

What do I mean, it is the band of iron? I mean, the time period that the tree is cut down, it has a band of iron and a band of brass upon it, which is representing a time period of captivity, some type of captivity and bondage.

THREE AND A HALF YEARS OF DROUGHT

Three and a half years of drought is the story of Ahab.

Prophets and Kings, page 139:

> "Ahab knew that it was by the word of God that the heavens had become as brass, yet he sought to cast upon the prophet the blame for the heavy judgments resting on the land." Prophets and Kings, 139.

The three and a half years of drought in the story of Elijah was brass.

CAPTIVITY IN BABYLON

Captivity in Babylon for 70 years, speaking of Jeremiah trying to warn Judah about their apostasy, where it was taking them. It says this in Testimonies, volume 4, page 172:

> "God had said that His people should be saved, that the yoke He would lay upon them should be light,"—

If they would just submit to Nebuchadnezzar, not rebel against him, their yoke would be light.

> —"if they submitted uncomplainingly to His plan. Their servitude was represented by a yoke of wood, which was easily borne; but resistance"—

Resistance to Nebuchadnezzar.

—"would be met with corresponding severity, represented by the yoke of iron." Testimonies, volume 4, 172.

Their captivity for 70 years in literal Babylon was iron.

CAPTIVITY IN SPIRITUAL BABYLON

And in Prophets and Kings, page 714, which we have read several times before:

> "God's church on earth was as verily in captivity during this long period"—

These 1260 years of Papal captivity.

> —"this long period of relentless persecution as were the children of Israel held captive in Babylon during the period of the exile." Prophets and Kings, 714.

This also would be iron and brass.

BRASS—GREECE; IRON—ROME: THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY

So, in our history, here is Daniel 4. Here is the iron and brass on the tree during Nebuchadnezzar's seven years. And the iron and brass from 723BC to AD1798, this is being scattered to the nations.

But, in our history up here, from 1863 to 1989, what is the iron and brass that is wrapped around the stump of our tree?

Review and Herald, August 17, 1897:

> "It is not wise to send our youth to universities where they devote their time to gaining a knowledge of Greek and Latin,"—

Greek and Latin? What is Latin? Well, that is Rome.

What is Rome? It is the iron kingdom.

What is Greece? Oh, it is the brass kingdom.

The iron and brass from 1863 to 1989 that is wrapped around William Miller's tree stump is the theology that was introduced to counterfeit proof-texting.

> —"It is not wise to send our youth to universities where they devote their time to gaining a knowledge of Greek and Latin, while their heads and hearts are being filled with the sentiments of the infidel authors whom they study in order to master these languages. They gain a knowledge that is not at all necessary, or in harmony with the lessons of the great Teacher. Generally those educated in this way have much self-esteem."—

I can think back right now, and I am probably missing some, to three people that I labored with not to go to Andrews University. They were following this message, but they went anyway. They had their own reasons to go. None of them followed the message anymore. Who knows why?

> —"Generally those educated in this way have much self-esteem. They think they have reached the height of higher education, and carry themselves proudly, as though they were no longer learners. They are spoiled for the service of God. The time, means, and study that many have expended in gaining a comparatively useless education should have been used in gaining an education that would make them all-round men and women, fitted for practical life. Such an education would be of the highest value to them."—

And this false education, what is it represented as? Greek and Latin.

What are Greek and Latin? Iron and brass.

> —"What do students carry with them when they leave our schools? Where are they going? What are they going to do? Have they the knowledge that will enable them to teach others? Have they been educated to be wise fathers and mothers? Can they stand at the head of a family as wise instructors? In their home life can they so instruct their children that theirs will be a family that God can behold with pleasure, because it is a symbol of the family in heaven? Have they received the only education that can truly be called 'higher education'?
> "What is higher education? No education can be called higher education unless it bears the similitude of heaven, unless it leads young men and young women to be Christlike, and fits them to stand at the head of their families in the place of God. If, during his school life, a young man has failed to gain a knowledge of Greek and Latin and the sentiments contained in the works of infidel authors, he has not sustained much loss."—
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"If Jesus Christ had deemed this kind of education essential, would he not have given it to his disciples, whom he was educating to do the greatest work ever committed to mortals, to represent him in the world? But, instead, he placed sacred truth in their hands, to be given to the world in its simplicity.

"There are times when Greek and Latin scholars are needed. Some must study these languages. This is well. But not all, and not many, should study them. Those who think that a knowledge of Greek and Latin is essential to a higher education, cannot see afar off. Neither is a knowledge of the mysteries of that which the men of the world call science necessary for entrance into the kingdom of God. It is Satan who fills the mind with sophistry and tradition,"—

Now, what did she just call the iron and the brass? Sophistry and tradition.

And what is it that covers up the jewels of William Miller's dream?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Customs and traditions.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Customs and traditions. It is the Greek and the Latin: the iron and the brass.

—"It is Satan who fills the mind with sophistry and tradition, which exclude the true higher education, and which will perish with the learner.

"Those who have received a false education do not look heavenward. They cannot see the One who is the true Light, 'which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.' They look upon eternal realities as phantoms, calling an atom a world, and a world an atom. Of many who have received the so-called higher education, God declares, 'Thou art"—WHAT?

FROM THE AUDIENE: Weighed in the balances.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Where did she pull that quote from? From the seven times of Daniel 4 and 5, the iron and the brass.

—"'Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting,'—wanting in a knowledge of practical business, wanting in a knowledge of how to make the best use of time, wanting in a knowledge of how to labor for Jesus." Review and Herald, August 17, 1897.

So, the iron and brass that is put around William Miller's tree stump here is the false education that was introduced into Adventism early on.

AT THE END OF THE DAYS

Now, in Daniel 4, verses 34 to 37, it says this—it is in your notes:

"[34]And at the end of the days"—

We want to point this out, "at the end of the days"; because, in Daniel 12:13, Daniel is going to stand in his lot at the end of the days. And when we see this phrase, "at the end of the days," it is marking a specific, prophetic waymark: Daniel is going to stand in his lot at the end of the days. We have already identified that as 1798.

He stood in his lot in 1840 when Christ came down with the Little Book of Daniel in his hand. In 1840 he (Daniel) fulfilled his purpose.

"At the end of the days," here is the end of Nebuchadnezzar's seven times; and, at the end of his seven times, this is the Time of the End. Daniel stands in his lot at the Time of the End.

Miller's seven times in Daniel 4 ends here [in the period from 1863]; ours ends here in 1989, and the Northern Kingdom's ends in 1798. All of these are Times of the End.

—"[34]And at the end of the days,"—AT THE END OF THE 2520 FOR NEBUCHADNEZZAR—"I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth forever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation: [35]And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? [36]At the same time my reason returned unto me;"—

Daniel is standing there at the Time of the End in 1798 and 1989, at the end of Nebuchadnezzar's seven times. It is the Time of the End. What happens?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Increase of knowledge.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: There is an increase of knowledge. Nebuchadnezzar is representing those that have an increase of knowledge.

—"[36]At the same time"—WHAT TIME? THE END OF THE DAYS, THE TIME OF THE END—"my reason returned unto and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me;"—

". . . my brightness returned unto me," those people that he is representing now are going to shine as stars forever and ever.

—"and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me;"—

Who was his primary counsellor? Daniel is there waiting for him. Daniel stands in his lot at the end of the days.

In 1798 the Book of Daniel is standing in his lot.

1989, with the collapse of the Soviet Union, a fulfillment of Daniel 11:40, Daniel is standing in his lot at the end of the days.

—"and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me. [37]Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase." Daniel 4:34–37 (KJV).

Daniel 12:13:

> "[13]But go thou thy way till the end *be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days." Daniel 12:13 (KJV).

THE CLOSING PERIOD OF WORLD'S HISTORY

Prophets and Kings, page 547:

> "Honored by men with the responsibilities of state and with the secrets of kingdoms bearing universal sway, Daniel was honored by God as His ambassador, and was given many revelations of the mysteries of ages to come. His wonderful prophecies, as recorded by him in chapters 7 to 12 of the book bearing his name, were not fully understood even by the prophet himself; but before his life labors closed, he was given the blessed assurance that 'at the end of the days'—in the closing period of this world's history—he would again be permitted to stand in his lot and place." Prophets and Kings, 547.

Testimonies to Ministers, page 115:

> "Daniel stood in his lot to bear his testimony which was sealed until the time of the end, when the first angel's message should be proclaimed to our world." Testimonies to Ministers, 115.

Daniel was standing in his lot and place at the end of Nebuchadnezzar's 2520 days. And we know from previous studies that he was standing in his lot and place in 1798. But, here Sister White is telling us that he is going to stand in his lot at the closing period of Earth's history. That is right here [1989]. There has to be a Time of the End down here, because here [1798] these are two "end of the days." It is established: when Daniel stands in his lot at the closing period of Earth's history, he is going to have to do so at the Time of the End.

He is going to do so, based upon these two witnesses, Leviticus 26 [seven times] and Daniel 4 [seven times]. He is going to do so at the end of a 2520, and the 2520 that marks the "end of the days" in the closing period of this Earth's history is Miller's seven scatterings, from 1863 to 1989.

THE DIRT BRUSH MAN

Sermons and Talks, volume 1, beginning at page 225:

> "Daniel has been standing in his lot since the seal was removed"—

Who removes the Seal?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Lion of the tribe of Judah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And does He remove all seven of them simultaneously?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: One at a time.
When does he remove the First Seal?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the Time of the End.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Time of the End.

So, in the Time of the End, 1989, the First Seal is going to be removed for God's people at the end of the world.

> —"Daniel has been standing in his lot since the seal was removed and the light of truth has been shining upon his visions. He stands in his lot, bearing the testimony which was to be understood at the end of the days." Sermons and Talks, volume 1, 225–226.

SUMMARY

So, what we are saying here, Daniel, chapter 1, is the First Angel's Message. It is the Millerite History; Daniel 2, the Second Angel's Message, the image test; Daniel 3, The Sunday Law, where the door closes for the Millerites on October 22, 1844, prefiguring The Sunday Law in our day and age.

Then Daniel 4 arrives and we see the foundational truths, the fruit of Abib, the fruit of the deliverance of Egypt, the fruit of the truths of the foundations of Ancient Israel, the truths of the foundations of modern Israel, the fruit of Nebuchadnezzar's tree is cut down for 2520 days until Daniel stands in his lot at the Time of the End.

Daniel, chapter 4, is identifying the history that Adventism has been wandering in the wilderness of brass and iron.

Daniel, chapter 5, describes where Adventism rejects or accepts the sign of MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN; refuses or accepts to return to the Old Paths, to the old fruit.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we are thankful that you have raised William Miller's tree back up here at the end of the world and that the fruit is once again available through the mediation of the Lion of the tribe of Judah. We ask that we would be faithful as we have been commanded to be as Bereans, rightly dividing the Word of Truth, studying daily if these things are so that we might come to understand and receive and internalize the fruit, the precious jewels that you are opening to our understanding that we might be benefited individually by developing the character represented by Nebuchadnezzar as he came out of that 2520 time period and was fully a converted man. But more than that, we want to also be prepared with a message to share with those that we come in contact with; so, we ask that you would bless our efforts to gather this fruit up and make it our own. We set before you this day of service that we each have. We ask that you bless what we are doing for you today, that we might do it for your honor and glory and that we might do it safely. We ask for a continued blessing upon the work of the LiveStreaming and the DVDs; and, we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #33B
A RECAP AND SUMMARIZATION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for the night of rest that you provided for us. As we begin to study we ask for the Rest of your Latter Rain be poured out upon us. We ask forgiveness of our sins that we might be fit vessels to receive this outpouring. We want our understanding opened that we might be changed more fully into your image and be better prepared to give a convincing and winning message to those we come in contact with. We ask that you would allow us the presence of your Holy Spirit to direct this study, that you would overrule any thoughts of humanity that I might have and that you would prepare the hearts and minds of those listening to these things, to receive them in agreement with your will. We thank you for the work, the message that you are putting into this worship series. We ask for your continued blessing now in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Sometimes this particular worship series is not planned out in terms of me knowing where I am going to go with the studies. I knew what I was going to do. I was going to begin by showing Sister White's support of the doctrines that are represented upon these [1843 and 1850] Charts and we began there; and, then we were going to take time to show these Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts], these doctrines, typified in the Scriptures. This is what we have been doing now for quite a while.

And then ultimately we will go through and we will look at the various doctrines that are controversial as doctrines from God's Word.

But, it seems to me, even though I have notes prepared for this presentation, I am not too sure we will get to the notes. At some times, in a long presentation like this, it is good to take a deep breath and go back and remind yourself about the truths that you have already put in place, or they get—I mean, we are in our second month now—they get left behind in the memory.

What we are dealing with now, at this particular juncture in our study is that the Book of Daniel is illustrating the history of the Millerites and the history of us today, and that Daniel, chapter 1, marks the arrival of the First Angel's Message in verse 1. And in the First Angel's Message in Revelation 14 and in Daniel, chapter 1, you will see all three of the messages represented.

And, then Daniel, chapter 2, is the Second Angel's Message. It is in the history when the First Angel's Message is empowered.

And, Daniel, chapter 3, is the Third Angel's Message, the Judgment.

In Daniel, chapter 1, we show that Daniel was associated with Jehoiakim, the first of the three kings that Nebuchadnezzar brought under subjection; and, he was also associated with Cyrus, the first of the three kings that proclaimed the Decrees necessary to rebuild Jerusalem and the temple. So, we were saying that the Book of Daniel represents the First Angel's Message; and, it does.

And, the prophecy that begins Daniel, chapter 1, was a prophecy connected with Hezekiah; and, it predicted that descendants of Hezekiah would be taken as eunuchs to Babylon. And that prophecy was fulfilled when Daniel was brought here. That was the Time of the End.

And then in Daniel, chapter 1, we have the test of diet that ultimately leads an evaluation by the head of the eunuchs to check Daniel's countenance, a visual test [message empowered].

And then at the end of the chapter Daniel is brought in before Nebuchadnezzar to be judged, in relation to all the other eunuchs that are there; and, he was found ten times better.

So, in Daniel, chapter 1, as in the First Angel's Message in Revelation 14:6 and 7, you can see the Three Angels' Messages structured in the one message.

Daniel, chapter 2, the image test, a combination of church and state, is very clearly demonstrated there.

Daniel, chapter 3, is The Sunday Law.

We began in this series by noting that Sister White endorses the truths on these [1843 and 1850] Charts. We pointed out that she identifies that the Lord removed His hand from this [1843] Chart and then it was seen by the Millerites that the same Biblical evidence that had led them to predict 1843 was then recognized to identify 1844. She says that more than once.

So, she does not say that they were then led to see what they were teaching about the 2520 and the 2300 years was incorrect. She says that they then saw that the same evidence proved 1844 instead of 1843. So, she is placing her endorsement on the 2520, as well as the 2300 there.

If you do not make that initial recognition in her writings, then every other reference to the 2520 you will twist because of your preconceived ideas. But, if you understand that she puts her seal of approval upon that teaching, then you relate to all those other passages correctly.

For instance, when she says all the messages given from 1840 to 1844 are to be made forcible now, if you understand that she has put her seal of approval on the 2520, then it is easy for you to see one of the messages that is to be made forcible now is the 2520; but, if you do not see that, then you fight against even that quote, and there are several passages like that.

In terms of the Daily, Early Writings, page 74, she says that she was shown that those that gave the Judgment Hour Cry have the correct view of the Daily. Then we looked at the history of 1850 when James White published Crosier's wrong view of the Daily in September of 1850; and, then Sister White was given a vision in September of 1850 and said that there had been wrong views of the Daily being introduced and they would bring in confusion. James White immediately reprinted that Review and Herald and removed Crosier's teachings that the Daily represented Christ's Sanctuary ministry. And we also looked at passages where she said that particular doctrine, that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry, came from angels that were expelled from Heaven.

She was given visions where she said they were to reprint a new Chart, because the Lord held His hand over a mistake in some of the figures on this [1843] Table (Chart); and, this Table, she said, should not be changed except by Inspiration. So, in 1850, this Table was corrected by Inspiration.

And on this [1850] Table, this [referring to the center column] is the column of the 2520 on this Table. Up here it says 677BC; down here, AD1844. They corrected the AD1843.

And she says that this [1843 Table (Chart)] is a fulfillment of Habakkuk 2's Tables, and this [1850 Table (Chart)] is a fulfillment of Habakkuk 2's Tables.

And the time period that they were preparing this [1850] Chart, Otis Nichols was preparing this Chart, and the Whites were staying with Otis Nichols in that time period; and, they had some meetings where a Brother Hewett from Dead River came with a bunch of fanatical ideas, and her statement to Brother Hewett on one of these doctrines was that the 1335 was past. So, she identified in this history [reflected on the 1850 Chart] that the 1335 was fulfilled before this history. So, she placed her seal of approval on the Pioneer understanding of that.

Then, her endorsement in The Great Controversy, and a variety of other places, on Josiah Litch's presentation of the Sixth Trumpet, she says the collapse of the Ottoman Empire, the event exactly fulfilled the prediction. So, she places her endorsement on the understanding of Islam.

And today, most of the major personalities, particular out there in the television world of Adventism, they take the 1335 and the 1290 and they put it at the end of the world in a day-for-a-day fashion.

The Biblical Research Institute says the Pioneer understanding of the Trumpets is incorrect, that they are at the end of the world. They say that in writing. They reject the 2520, and of course they teach the understanding of the Daily that Sister White says came from angels that were expelled from Heaven.

So, that is where we started.

Then we began to look at line after line in order to see these truths on these Charts as typified in the Scriptures. This is [presentation[No. 33B. This is getting into a month and a half of worships. So, as I was thinking about this, I thought, "You know, we ought to go through and pull some of these thoughts together before we proceed too much further.

So, here, when the message is empowered, is where we see a Divine Symbol coming down. All right?

And we looked at the story of Judas here, if you remember. And, Judas, one of the things that Judas taught us about this history from the empowerment to the close of the door [at Judgment] is that it is emphasizing a beginning and an end, not just for Judas but it is teaching the student of prophecy that in these histories that are laid in here that many times the histories will teach you something with the beginning and the ending message.

Judas, if you remember, started going in the wrong direction when Christ gave the sermon in John 6 about the Bread coming down out of Heaven. All right? And in John, chapter 6, when He is talking about the Manna, that is coming down out of Heaven right here [referring to the Divine Symbol].

And here, John 6, all by itself without considering Judas, after He gives the Manna over here [at the third waymark in Figure No. 58] he loses most of his disciples in John 6:66, marking The Sunday Law at the end of the world.

But with Judas, after the sermon on the Manna, which he did not like because he had a misconception about Christ's kingdom—we read that. We looked at it closely—he wanted an earthly, literal kingdom; but, he could realize that Jesus was talking about a spiritual kingdom and it was irritating to him.

But, then they end up at a feast at Simon's house, and at the feast at Simon's house, Judas really lost his direction there because of the humility of Mary washing Christ's feet.

So, you see, Judas here at the feast [second waymark], eats his last supper right here [third waymark]. He is at a feast, and what irritates him at that feast is that Christ was washing the Disciples' feet.

So, you see, what is the stumbling block for Judas at the feast is either Mary washing the feet or Christ washing the feet. Okay?

So, the Last Supper, this was Judas's last supper. Jesus ate a supper. He is going to eat a supper after that. We are going to eat, if we are faithful, a supper after that. The Disciples are going to eat a supper after that. This is Judas's last supper. We mark that because we are dealing with Belshazzar now, and Belshazzar goes down during his last supper.

So, the beginning and ending is worth noting.

And in this history [just before the second waymark], Judas's frustration with Mary washing Christ's feet was that, "Look at that perfume that she was wasting on His feet!" It was a lot of money that could go to feed the poor.

And it was in that same history where Jesus confronted the rich young ruler, and He said, "Go sell that you have and you will find eternal life." And Judas, we are told at that point, too, he lost it there: "We should have kept that rich guy with us, because then we would have had the finances to build a new church."

So, Judas here [at the second waymark] is talking about the establishing of an incorrect foundation of the church based upon human need, upon selfishness and not self-sacrificing love.

So, you can see that.

Now, what we are saying is, this history here [between the second and third waymarks of Figure No. 58], this is the history where the Everlasting Gospel was accomplished. Okay? This is where the two classes are going to be demonstrated.

And when you get to the Last Supper, Judas is representing the one class that goes out into darkness at the Midnight Cry.

All right. We looked at Ancient Israel and the year-day principle. Let's put "year/day" [adding to Figure No. 58 on the whiteboard].

And at the beginning of Ancient Israel, they rejected, they were in rebellion, to a rest. At the beginning—this is in agreement with Judas's beginning and ending lesson—they were rebelling against a rest here, and a rest here; Ancient Israel was. And both of these rebellions are marked in the Scriptures as the passages we turn to for the year-day principle.

Now, there are some people, no doubt, that are not familiar with proof-texting, line upon line. They are going to struggle with us taking these applications and applying them here at the end of the world; but, from here [first waymark] in the Millerite History, this is 1798, is it not, the Time of the End?

This is 1844 [third waymark].

One of the things that we learned about 1798 to 1844 was that it was 46 years. Right? And it is in these 46 years that the Lord raises up the temple of the Millerites that He is going to enter into covenant with.

And it was 46 days that Moses is on the Mount receiving instructions for raising up the temple.

But, Jesus in John 2, verses 18 through 19, when He tells the Jews, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up," that is where they said it was 46 years in the making. And, of course, it took Herod in remodeling the sanctuary 46 years. But, what Jesus was teaching us also in there is that these 46 years prophetically represents 3 days.

And how many chromosomes build the human temple? 46 chromosomes.

And the symbol of the covenant is the Two Tables of the Ten Commandments. Right? And one Table has 4 laws; the other has 6 laws = 4 / 6 (2 Tables).

So, the number 46 has to do with the temple, whether it is Herod's temple; Moses's tent sanctuary; the human temple, the temple that was raised up between 1798 and 1844. When you see the number 46 it is talking about the raising up of a temple that the Lord is going to enter into covenant with.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, when you go back to the year-day principle, the rebellion of Ancient Israel at the beginning, this is where we find the year-day principle in both the beginning and at the end of Ancient Israel; but, they are rebelling against the Rest.

The Rest here [at the second waymark] is the rest addressed in Hebrews, the Rest of Grace. They would not enter into the Promised Land. They would not act upon faith, right?

But, the Rest down here [at the third waymark] was just before the destruction of Jerusalem, and that was the Sabbath. Jeremiah said had they kept the Sabbath, Jerusalem would have remained forever; but, they had rejected the Sabbath.

So, at the beginning of Ancient Israel and at the end of Ancient Israel, we have a rebellion against a rest.

And, of course, what we are saying is that at the beginning of modern Israel's accomplishment of the Everlasting Gospel here today, that the 2520 has been identified as the year-day principle by the theologians in Adventism. The first place in the Bible, they say, that the year-day principle is set forth is Leviticus 25 and 26.

So, when we are rejecting the 2520, if it is a true prophecy—and it is, without a doubt—then once again we are in rebellion to a rest; because, this was a resting of the land. And this is the rest that also corresponds with this history of Jeremiah 6:16, "Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest . . . ," because the foundational work begins right here [at the second waymark].

So, in Ancient Israel you are seeing a rebellion against the Rest at the beginning and a rebellion against the Rest at the end; and, those people that continue in their rebellion in Adventism against the 2520, they are going to receive the mark of the beast. They are going to reject the Sabbath at The Sunday Law: parallel histories, parallel histories.

And, it is not an accident that in these histories where you have the year-day principle, in reality the foundation —of the foundation; of the foundation [referring to the 1843 and 1850 Charts]— of William Miller is the year-day principle. If William Miller does not have the year-day principle to work with, you do not see any numbers on this [1843] Chart; you do not see this [1850] Chart; we are not talking about Millerite History.

So, the fact that both of the rebellions of Ancient Israel at the beginning and the end have to do with the two places in the Bible where we find the verses that establish the year-day principle, that is significant, too. It is tying Millerism into Ancient Israel.

Do you follow my logic?

Okay. So, in this rebellion by Ancient Israel, where do we find that? Where is the rebellion that they would not go into the Promised Land?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Numbers.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Numbers.

Numbers what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 14.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me. 14 what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 14:32.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. It is Numbers 14:32 [14:34].

You should all know that. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Do me a favor. Where is it down here [referencing the third waymark]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the rebellion of the Sabbath, right before Jerusalem is destroyed, where do we find that year-day principle?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In Ezekiel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In Ezekiel what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 4:6

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 4:6.

So, down here [at the third waymark] it is Ezekiel 4:6; and down here [at the second waymark] it is Numbers 14:32 [14:34]. And 14 and 32 add up to 46 [14 + 32 = 46].[1] But, some people do not like to see that, because they say, "The translators of the King James Bible, they weren't inspired." But, it is there.

So, in theses lines upon lines that we have been developing, we also got into the fall of Babylon and we found that with Nimrod, Nebuchadnezzar, and Belshazzar that they always reject a warning message. The warning message is coming through history with the fall of Babylon.

Then there is a divine pronouncement, and the divine pronouncement is marking their judgment. So, when you get down to here [right before the third waymark] the divine pronouncement is going to be marked and their judgment is going to be marked.

With Nimrod, what was the divine pronouncement and judgment? It is the scattering.

With Nebuchadnezzar, what was it? Seven times.

And with Belshazzar? MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN; it is the 2520.

Okay. So, for those of Adventism that are fighting against this message, we really are not paying attention to how soundly this message is put in place.

So, we are saying from 1798 to 1844, from 1798 through this history, in the Millerite History we have Daniel 1, 2, and 3: that is Daniel 1. But, it gets repeated here at the end of the world with Daniel 1, Daniel 2, and Daniel 3 with us.

[1] See explanation and correction of error in Presentation #34 for the citing of Numbers 14:32 instead of 14:34, which does not add up to "46"; however, it is Ezekiel 4:6 that represents the number "46."

And we are saying that after here [the third waymark] that Daniel, chapter 4, marks a what? A scattering.

And here—and we have not proved this yet; we are on our way to prove this—in 1863, the first truth that William Miller discovered—

Now, you know, today Vance Ferrell, he has put out an attack against the 2520. It is about as shallow as you are going to find, and he makes the claim that some woman taught the 2520 to William Miller.

And for me, it does not matter if some woman taught that to him, or if William Miller accepted it, understood it, and put it in place; but, I am not willing to go there. Because, William Miller says he came to the 2520. So, you have to determine, are you going to accept William Miller's testimony, who Sister White says angels of God repeatedly visited and directed the mind; or, Vance Ferrell's testimony? But, there are a whole bunch of people accepting Vance Ferrell's testimony.

So, in 1863, Daniel, chapter 4, begins.

This is divine logic, Brothers and Sisters. William Miller says the first truth he found was the 2520; and, the first truth to get set aside in 1863 is the 2520.

And we discussed yesterday that after the third waymark, you will see typified repeatedly a scattering. You have seven times of Elijah praying after the prophets of Baal are judged. You have seven days of Noah in the ark. You have the last part of the First Angel's Message identifying that the Millerites were going to have to understand the Sabbath, which they did in 1846.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When did they accept the Sabbath?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In 1846.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And you have several places, like Nebuchadnezzar here in chapter 3, when he is going to throw Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego into the fiery furnace. What does he do? He heats it "seven times [more]."

You also have Christ crucified, and then what does He do? He rests on the Sabbath; He rested on the seventh day.

And at the end of the seventh day, what does He do? He is resurrected. Right? But, the church cannot touch Him, can she? The church cannot touch him, because He has to go to His Father, and then He comes down [referencing the second waymark] and empowers the message in His history. Remember, we went through that, and we are going to deal with that in these notes when we get to them; so, I will not go there.

So, in this history here [from 1863] we see a scattering begins. It is marked, and this is the scattering of William Miller's dream that has been marked repeatedly.

And that brings us down here to 1989. This is Daniel, chapter 4.

I am trying to dredge up other lines that we have dealt with that would be good to put in there.

I do not know that we are all caught up on where I want to get us caught up on. We dealt with Judas, Ancient Israel, modern Israel—what else did we deal with that I am forgetting?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A lot!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me? A lot? Okay.

So, we will take up these notes tomorrow; but, I am going to take some of these notes and deal with them right now. We have dealt with this before; but, I want to put it back in place and take it just a little bit farther, where we are going next.

All right. When Jesus came down after ascending to His Father, how long did He stay with the Disciples and teach them?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Forty days.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Forty days.

So, right in this history [at the third waymark (see Figure No. 58B)], we have the number 40 marks, 40 days for Christ. And we are saying—I am keeping it simple; we have it in the notes—what we are saying is that the judgment for Adventism at the end, it is The Sunday Law; it is the Sabbath Rest.

And The Sunday Law, that is Daniel 11, verse 41.

Daniel 11:40 begins back here in 1989, when the Dirt Brush Man comes in and begins to sweep out the garbage.

So, from 1989 until The Sunday Law you are in the history of what verse?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Forty.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Verse 40.

Right? Okay.

ZEDEKIAH

So, I hope that we have already set in place that the three kings that lead to the destruction of Jerusalem are representing the Three Angels' Messages: Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah. Upon many witnesses we did that. We went through the prophetic chains. Okay? It is always followed by a disappointment. They were carried to Babylon. There is always a fourth marked, and that would be Nebuchadnezzar.

So, at the top of the page in your notes concerning Zedekiah, it says from Prophets and Kings, page 422,

> "Within a few short years the king of Babylon was to be used as the instrument of God's wrath upon impenitent Judah. Again and again Jerusalem was to be invested and entered by the besieging armies of Nebuchadnezzar.

> Company after company—at first a few only, but later on thousands and tens of thousands—were to be taken captive to the land of Shinar, there to dwell in enforced exile. Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, Zedekiah—all these Jewish kings were in turn to become vassals of the Babylonian ruler, and all in turn were to rebel." Prophets and Kings, 422.

Now, go to Jeremiah 10, verses 1 through 10. What we are saying about this is that this is the three waymarks that lead to The Sunday Law. Okay? This is the First Angel's Message, Jehoiakim; the Second Angel's Message, Jehoiachin; and, the Third Angel's Message, Zedekiah. And we are approaching this from our argument that Daniel is the only prophet that is associated specifically with Jehoiakim alone; and, therefore, Daniel represents the First Angel's Message. We already dealt with that.

But, we said that Ezekiel represents the Second Angel's Message. We have not proved that. We just put it out there.

But, I want you to see that Jeremiah is the prophet that represents the Third Angel's Message.

And you may not have remembered it, but in this worship series we have read quotes from the Spirit of Prophecy where Sister White says, when it comes to the Third Angel's Message—she does not say it like this. She does not say, "When it comes to the Third Angel's Message"—but, when it comes to the Third Angel's Message, all the Messages are to be combined. She uses the word combined. She uses united. She uses the word blended.

So, when you come to the Third Angel's Message she has taught us—and we have read this more than once—that you cannot have a Third without a First and a Second; but, when you arrive at the Third Angel's Message, they all have got to be there.

So, when you go to Jeremiah, chapter 1, beginning at verse 1, it says,

> "[1]The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: [2]To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. [3]It came also in the days of Jehoiakim"—THERE IS THE FIRST ANGEL'S MESSAGE—"the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month."—

So, the three kings that he mentions here are Josiah, Jehoiakim, and Zedekiah; but, there were other kings there in that history. All right? So, what he is doing in that history is he is letting us know that he is the prophet to the three kings that conclude with Zedekiah, the Third Angel's Message. You know, there are more than three kings from Josiah to Zedekiah.

Verse 3:

> —"[3]It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.
> "[4]Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [5]Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations."—

Is that not part of the story of the Third Angel's Message?

Because, it first confronts Adventism, and then it goes to the nations; and, this is what Jeremiah's message is. He is there when Jerusalem is being destroyed, and then he carries the message to all the nations of the world and makes them drink the cup. You read that in Jeremiah, right? So, Jeremiah is the prophet that is dealing with God's flock and then the other sheep that are not of this flock. He is the Third Angel's Message.

Verse 6:

—"[6]Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child."—

What does that mean? Stammering lips; a child has stammering lips. This is not the ordained leadership of Adventism; these are those that are called, with stammering lips.

> —" [7]But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. [8]Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. [9]Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. [10]See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant." Jeremiah 1:1-10 (KJV).

FORTY: FORTY DAYS: VERSE FORTY AND 1840

So, in your next quote from Prophets and Kings concerning Jeremiah as the messenger of the First, Second, and Third Angel's Messages [indicating the first, second, and third waymarks in Figure No. 58B], because they are all blended, Jeremiah is the messenger of all three because he is the messenger of the Third.

> "For forty years"—

It says for how many years did Jeremiah?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Forty years.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Forty years.

> —"For forty years Jeremiah was to stand before the nation as a witness for truth and righteousness. In a time of unparalleled apostasy he was to exemplify in life and character the worship of the only true God. During the terrible sieges of Jerusalem he was to be the mouthpiece of Jehovah. He was to predict the downfall of the house of David and the destruction of the beautiful temple built by Solomon. And when imprisoned because of his fearless utterances,"—

Are God's people going to be imprisoned in the Third Angel's time period?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Why? Because of the message that they are proclaiming.

—"he was still to speak plainly against sin in high places. Despised, hated, rejected of men, he was finally to witness the literal fulfillment of his own prophecies of impending doom,"—

He is going to see The Sunday Law.

—"and share in the sorrow and woe that should follow the destruction of the fated city." Prophets and Kings, 408.

THE PLAIN OF DURA

Okay. Now, just to deal with Zedekiah, the theologians of Adventism, the theologians of the world, are not really willing to claim this but they can see it. They can see the inference of where we are going here. We are switching gears here a little bit.

And I may not claim it, but I think so and I think I just claimed it.

Prophets and Kings, page 447, says speaking of Zedekiah, the last king, the Third Angel's Message, the leadership of who?

Who does Zedekiah represent at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Adventism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The leadership of Adventism.

Okay. Does he represent the stammering lips; does he represent Jeremiah?

Are there two classes in Adventism?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What is going to happen to Zedekiah?

He is going to watch his family murdered in front of him, and then his eyes are going to be put out.

Why? Because, he desecrated the Sabbath. That is the story of Ancient Israel. Right? So, he is going to receive the mark of the beast. He is that guy.

"The unrest caused by the representations of the false prophets brought Zedekiah under suspicion of treason,"—

Zedekiah is giving his message about the doom of Jerusalem. He is telling them. There is a point in time when Jeremiah is telling them, "You just need to be submissive to Nebuchadnezzar. If you submit to his governing you, it will be a yoke of wood." That is why Jeremiah was wearing the wooden yoke, to teach that lesson with an object lesson.

But, he says, "If you rebel against Nebuchadnezzar, he is going to put an iron yoke upon you and carry you away into Babylon."

And there were a bunch of false prophets that were raised up against Jeremiah, saying, "The Lord is going to deliver us."

And it was getting to such a point that Nebuchadnezzar was hearing about it, that "The Jews are actually thinking that they are going to overthrow me?" This is Nebuchadnezzar thinking—okay?—"I am going to deal with them!"

So, it reached a point in time because of the false prophets that Zedekiah, he needed to make peace with Nebuchadnezzar. That is what this paragraph is dealing with, this history.

—"The unrest caused by the representations of the false prophets brought Zedekiah under suspicion of treason, and only by quick and decisive action on his part was he permitted to continue reigning as a vassal. Opportunity for such action was taken advantage of shortly after the return of the ambassadors from Jerusalem to the surrounding nations, when the king of Judah accompanied Seraiah, 'a quiet prince,' on an important mission to Babylon. Jeremiah 51:59."—

Who accompanied him on an important mission to Babylon?

Who accompanied the quiet prince?

The king of Judah.

Who is the king of Judah?

Zedekiah went to Babylon in this history.

—"During this visit to the Chaldean court, Zedekiah renewed his oath of allegiance to Nebuchadnezzar." Prophets and Kings, 447.

How do you renew your oath of allegiance to Nebuchadnezzar?

Well, you bow down to the idol that he has built and called everyone in to see. Okay?

So, what I am saying is—this is the next thing, from The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, volume 8, 1206—they even acknowledge it; but, they are not willing to say it. It says.

" . . . and in his 4th regnal year he [Zedekiah] went to Babylon himself, probably for the same purpose [to reassure Nebuchadnezzar of his loyalty]. It is possible, though purely conjectural, that this visit may have been connected with the dedication of the great image erected in the plain of Dura (Daniel 3)." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, volume 8, 1206.

See, they [theologians] know it; but, they are using the historical-critical method. But, Brothers and Sisters, if you are using line upon line proof-texting, you know that the third king Zedekiah, he is representing those people in Adventism that receive the mark of the beast; and, sure, enough, Zedekiah actually went to Daniel, chapter 3, and bowed down to the image. You can see that with proof-texting.

And you can even see it with your historical-critical method, but you have not got the guts to say it because you do not know how to prove it; because, you do not know how to bring line upon line together to prove it.

All right. Skip over the next long quote and go to "Hezekiah's First Sign—The 2520."

THE 2520

Who is Hezekiah?

In this history we are dealing with the Book of Daniel, typifying the truths on these [1843 and 1850] Charts. We are showing that the Book of Daniel is present truth. It is illustrating the history of Adventism to the very letter; but, when you get to Daniel, chapter 4, then you see William Miller's dream and the covering up of the foundational truths. So, in this sense you have to look at that to see these Charts typified in the Book of Daniel. These are the truths that are covered up in 1863 and that the Dirt Brush Man begins to unseal in 1989.

And that is in the Book of Daniel. We are looking at that from that point of view.

But, we are emphasizing the 2520. So, go to Jeremiah 34, beginning at verse 8—and we will deal with Hezekiah in a minute. We are still dealing with Zedekiah. I need to read my notes.

Verse 8 says,

> "[8]This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people"—

In this history leading to the destruction of Jerusalem, Zedekiah, the third king, the one that represents Adventists that receive the mark of the beast, in this history here, in Jeremiah 34, verse 8, Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people.

> —"which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them; [9]That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother. [10]Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go."—

What is Zedekiah doing? He is saying, "We need to keep the statutes of Leviticus 25 and 26." Zedekiah is upholding the statues where we find the 2520 time prophecy, as he is approaching The Sunday Law. He is upholding it. This is in the record. This is what he is doing.

Verse 11:

> —"[11]But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids."—

They accepted the 2520 and then they rejected it.

Verse 12:

> —"[12]Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, [13]Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying, [14]At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear."—

Okay. This is the statutes. This is called the Year of Release. This is in Deuteronomy.

Some of the theologians right now, if they were watching this, they would be wiggling, saying, "You know, he is talking about Deuteronomy and he is claiming it is Leviticus 25 and 26."

Well, Deuteronomy is talking about the Year of Release, but Sister White says that Leviticus 25 and 26 is dealing with the Year of the Great Release. She ties them together, not me: line upon line.

> —"[15]And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: [16]But ye turned and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids. [17]Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. [18]And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof, [19]The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf; [20]I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth. [21]And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you. [22]Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant." Jeremiah 34:8-22 (KJV).

THE YEAR OF RELEASE

In your notes, from Deuteronomy 15, verses 9 through 12, you will see the statute that they put in place as The Sunday Law was approaching, as Nebuchadnezzar was approaching in the time of Zedekiah. It is called the Year of Release. Every seventh year you are to let the slaves go free.

> "[9]Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the LORD against thee, and it be sin unto thee. [10]Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto. [11]For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.

> "[12]And if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee." Deuteronomy 15:9-12 (KJV).

But, in Leviticus 25, that is expanded. When you get to seven cycles of seven years, you get to the time of the Jubilee. Then you have what is called the Year of the Great Release. You cannot separate them. When you are rejecting the Year of Release, you are rejecting the 2520.

Sister White says in Patriarchs and Prophets, page 533,

> "To the poor, the seventh year was a year of release from debt. The Hebrews were enjoined at all times to assist their needy brethren by lending them money without interest. To take usury from a poor man was expressly forbidden: 'If thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee. Take thou no usury of him, or increase: but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee. Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.' Leviticus 25:35–37. . . .
> "After 'seven sabbaths of years,' 'seven times seven years,'"—this is Leviticus 25—"came that great year of release—the jubilee. 'Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubilee to sound . . . throughout all your land. And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.' Leviticus 25:9, 10." Patriarchs and Prophets, 533.

So, what I want you to see down here [at the third waymark], when we are dealing with Zedekiah, Zedekiah being the third king, it is marked in there that they reject the 2520. Do you see it?

Now we will deal with Hezekiah.

HEZEKIAH'S FIRST SIGN—THE 2520

Hezekiah. Everyone remembers the story about why the Babylonians came to Jerusalem. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Right?

Hezekiah was going to die. Isaiah says, "Prepare to die."

Hezekiah pled with the Lord, "I don't want to die."

He should have died. He lived another 15 years, and when he died Manasseh was 12 years old. If he would have died, there would have been no Manasseh. That says enough right there. Manasseh was a bad guy.

But, when Isaiah comes back in and says, "The Lord has given you another 15 years," he gives him a sign. What is his sign?

The sun goes back so many degrees.

So, we are going to look at Hezekiah here, and Hezekiah is definitely part of the story of Daniel; because, it is Hezekiah's prophecy immediately thereafter that is given to him that "Your offspring are going to be carried to Babylon as eunuchs in the house of the king." It is this experience, connected with this sign, that produces the prophecy that when it is fulfilled marks the Time of the End in Daniel, chapter 1.

Are you with me on that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, how many signs are noted in Hezekiah's life? There are two. There is one at the beginning and one at the end.

Prophets and Kings, page 360, says:

> "The land of Judah had been laid waste by the army of occupation, but God had promised to provide miraculously for the needs of the people. To Hezekiah came the message: 'This shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof. And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of Mount Zion: the zeal of the Lord of hosts shall do this." Prophets and Kings, 360.

So, what was his sign?

2 Kings 19:29

Well, if you go to 2 Kings 19:29, you can see what Sister White just quoted from.

> "[29]And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof." 2 Kings 19:29 (KJV).

Leviticus 25:20-22

But, if you go to Leviticus 25, you can see where this was originally put in place. Leviticus 25, verses 20 – 22 is speaking about the Year of Rest, the land resting. And it says,

> "[20]And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? Behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase: [21]Then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years. [22]And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store." Leviticus 25:20-22 (KJV).

This is the promise of letting the land rest, the promise associated with the 2520.

And so at the beginning of Hezekiah's life, he is given a sign, and his sign is the 2520.

Do you see it?

HEZEKIAH'S SECOND SIGN—THE SUN

And you have already acknowledged what his last sign (his first sign) was.

2 Kings 20:8-11

What was his last sign (his second sign)? It was the Sun.

> "[8]And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day? [9]And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees? [10]And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees. [11]And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the Lord: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz." 2 Kings 20:8-11 (KJV).

Okay. This is a second testimony to Ancient Israel first rejecting the Rest [second waymark] and then rejecting the Rest [third waymark]: the Rest [of Grace] of Hebrews 3 and 4 of entering into the Promised Land for Ancient Israel, the Rest of the Sabbath for Ancient Israel; the Rest for us of the 2520, and the Rest of the Sabbath for us; the Rest of Hezekiah's 2520, the Rest of the Sun for Hezekiah—line upon line.

To think the 2520 is not typified in the Scriptures is to partake of Isaiah, chapter 6. Go to Isaiah, chapter 6, with me for a moment, verse 8. It says,

> "[8]Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I, send me." Isaiah 6:8 (KJV).

Now, go back up to verse 3. It says,

> "[3]And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory." Isaiah 6:3 (KJV).

We are going to deal with that next week, the Lord willing.

Sister White confirms verse 3, that this is the Earth being full of the Lord's glory when the Angel of Revelation 18 descends. It would have to be if you are a proof-texter. Verse 3 is marking the time when the Earth is full of the glory of the Lord. That is Revelation 18.

So, in the Revelation 18 time period, which is the Latter Rain time period, which is the Sealing of the 144,000 time period, Isaiah is representing those people that are given a message.

And where does Isaiah's message begin? Well, it begins in verse 1. It says, "In the year that king Uzziah died . . ."

I saw now that we have just established it, and we will deal with it more next week. This is September 11, 2001; this is Revelation 18. If you are not willing to buy into 9/11 yet, at least it is Revelation 18. We can show that clearly. We will do that next week.

But, when the Angel of Revelation 18 comes down, it is the same time that Uzziah died.

You know, Uzziah is one of only two times where there were two kings reigning simultaneously.

Yeah, you might argue that David and king Saul were both anointed, but they were not reigning simultaneously.

The one time that a king was reigning simultaneously with another king was when [Adonijah] wanted to become king. Right? And they came in and told David, and what did David do? He very quickly anointed Solomon as king.

Was David still alive?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, you had king David and king Solomon reigning simultaneously.

In the time of Uzziah, Uzziah, he reigned for 52 years and he was a good king and he was a prosperous king. If you go into Sister White or the Bible historians, Uzziah was a prosperous good king; and, he decided to combine church and state. He went into the temple and wanted to do an offering, combining church and state. And what happened to him?

He received the mark of the beast. He got leprosy in his forehead and he fled out, and he went into a house and stayed there for the rest of his life and his son Jotham began to reign.

So, there are only two times when there are two kings ruling. And what I am going to suggest to you next week is that the United States is a kingdom that is made up of two powers. Solomon and David is the beginning of the United States, and Uzziah and Jotham is the end of the United States; and, Uzziah represents the prosperity of the United States. And when the Mighty Angel comes down out of Heaven is the year that Uzziah died (9/11). The economic structure of Planet Earth started going down.

And Isaiah, representing us, is given a message. Verse 8:

> "[8]Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I, send me. [9]And he said, Go, and tell this people,"—

This is the message for Adventism.

> —"Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. [10]Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed." Isaiah 6:8-10 (KJV).

If you can see this kind of evidence [referring to Figure No. 58B] and still sit there on your pew or in your chair and say that the 2520 is not typified in the Scriptures, that the Two Tables of Habakkuk are not typified in the Scriptures, then these verses are for you.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be those that are anointed that our eyes may see. We want the wax removed from our ears. We want to hear these things. We want these things to change us. We want to be among those represented by Jeremiah that carry the message not only to Adventism but to the nations of the world. We ask that you would make this a possibility for us. Set before us the things that we need to do individually to be allowed to participate in this sacred work that all the prophets wish to be participants of, and then give us the courage to accomplish those things in our experience that we might be fit vessels to carry this message to your church and to the world. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #34

Part Four: DANIEL

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us here this morning to open your Word, study your Word. We ask for the presence of your Holy Spirit to direct the discussion, to influence our minds. We ask forgiveness of sins that we might be clean vessels to receive what you have for us. I ask that you take control of this presentation, that it not be a human presentation, that it be light and power from on High. We wish the Latter Rain to be poured out upon us. We ask for that now. We ask for the presence of the holy angels that we might have that influence in this room. We ask that you would watch over the work that we are doing with the DVDs and the LiveStreaming. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I suppose I have to stick to my notes. Yesterday I determined not to stick to my notes and I made a couple of mistakes; and, I never heard about any of the mistakes from anyone in this room. But, I did hear about them on the internet.

When David was anointing Solomon king, he was doing so because Adonijah was raising up himself as king, not Absalom[2].

And earlier in the worship series, I had wanted to put a line of thought in, and I did not do it. It slipped my attention; and, yesterday it came back to my attention and I added to the Word of the Lord; but, it is still valid.

I pointed out that at the beginning of Ancient Israel the year-day principle, and at the end of Ancient Israel the year-day principle; but, down here at the end when the rebellion to the rest, the Rest of the Sabbath, and that is Ezekiel 4:6, you have the "46."

And then I pointed to the rebellion against the rest [the Rest of Grace] and said it was in Number 14:32 and all the people answered not a Word, because 14:32 adds up to 46. But, it is in Numbers 14:34 and it adds up to 48.

But, it does not matter. The 46 is still down here [Ezekiel 4:6 at the third waymark] marking the end of this history, which is 46 years, the temple.

Okay. Put that in place. We created ourselves a little dilemma in terms of notes that we are calling yesterday's notes, #33B; and, this is #34.

What we are dealing with is the fact that the Book of Daniel illustrates the history of Adventism.

[2] Correction was made in the transcript of Presentation #33B.

Daniel, chapter 1, is the First Angel's Message that arrived at the Time of the End of the Millerites in 1798. Daniel, chapter 2, the Second Angel's Message, is in the time of the Millerites in 1842, in that history. The Third Angel's Message arrives in 1844 for the Millerites: this is Daniel, chapter 3.

But, the Millerite History is prefiguring our history; so, the Third Angel's Message in our history is The Sunday Law. The testing of the Second Angel's Message takes place when the Lord leads His people back to the foundations. The testing represented by the First Angel's Message in our history, is marking the arrival of The Time of the End in 1989. So, we are looking at Daniel, chapters 1, 2, and 3, as illustrated in the Millerite History, illustrating our history.

From there we went from Daniel, chapter 4, and have been identifying that Nebuchadnezzar's dream of Daniel, chapter 4, is William Miller's dream where there is a scattering mentioned seven times in William Miller's dream, just as there is seven times scattering in Nebuchadnezzar's dream. We are marking the beginning of this in 1863, for it is here that the first of the foundational truths were set aside. It was done so by James White, and it is not something that is accidental. It is noteworthy to go back and look at the logic that James White uses. He set aside the 2520, and he did so based upon the Hebrew. So, he was moving away from proof-texting and placing a dependence upon man's evaluation of the languages of the Bible. Of course, this is going to develop further and further as this history goes on.

You have the first foundational truths set aside in 1863. By the time you get to 1989, you are at the Time of the End for our history, which is paralleling here [at the first waymark of Figure No. 59A]. This is the arrival of the First Angel's Message for our history.

This is also, we have pointed out, the history of Jeremiah; and, Jeremiah was the messenger that represents the Third Angel's Message. So, we have been looking at some of the lines of truth connected with that.

THE SOLEMN EVENTS

Let us begin with something that at first may not seem connected with this, from Education, page 179. It says,

> "That time is at hand. Today the signs of the times declare that we are standing on the threshold of great and solemn events. Everything in our world is in agitation. Before our eyes is fulfilling the Saviour's prophecy of the events to precede His coming: 'Ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars. . . . Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.' Matthew 24:6, 7." Education, 179.

And Adventists have not taken the time by and large to come to grips with what these great and solemn events are, and you are required to understand what these great and solemn events are. And the reason that I am taking some time to focus on these great and solemn events—I am not going to do it in-depth—but we need to identify as we proceed 1863 as the beginning of Miller's scattering, and 1989 as the end of Miller's scattering.

In 1989, among other things, begins the sequence of events that Sister White calls the great and solemn events. All right? So, she has referenced it here. We are going to look at a few places where she references it so you will see that you and I have a responsibility to understand what these events are.

WHICH WE MUST KNOW

In Selected Messages, book 2, page 109, it says,

> "All that God has in prophetic history specified to be fulfilled in the past has been, and all that is yet to come in its order will be. Daniel, God's prophet, stands in his place. John stands in his place. In the Revelation the Lion of the tribe of Judah has opened to the students of prophecy the book of Daniel, and thus is Daniel standing in his place. He bears his testimony, that which the Lord revealed to him in vision of the great and solemn events"—

There you go again.

> —"of the great and solemn events which we must know as we stand on the very threshold of their fulfillment.
> "In history and prophecy the Word of God portrays the long continued conflict between truth and error. That conflict is yet in progress. Those things which have been, will be repeated." Selected Messages, book 2, 109.

We must know what these events are as we stand on the threshold. What does that mean? We have to know in advance. Okay? We have to know what the great and solemn events are, and we have to know about them before they arrive.

THE CLOSING OF PROBATION

In Prophets and Kings, beginning on page 115, it says,

> "Today, in the spirit and power of Elias and of John the Baptist, messengers of God's appointment are calling the attention of a judgment-bound world to the solemn events soon to take place in connection with the > closing hours of probation and the appearance of Christ Jesus as King of kings and Lord of lords. Soon every man is to be judged for the deeds done in the body. The hour of God's judgment has come, and upon the members of His church on earth rests the solemn responsibility of giving warning to those who are standing as it were on the very brink of eternal ruin. To every human being in the wide world who will give heed must be made plain the principles at stake in the great controversy being waged, principles upon which hang the destinies of all mankind." Prophets and Kings, 715–716."

Those people that are given the Judgment Hour Message at the end of the world are identifying to the world the solemn events connected with the close of probation.

Okay. So, the events that we must know as we stand on the threshold of their fulfillment are the events connected with the close of probation.

And, of course, what we are saying is that in 1989 the Reform Movement where the Lord is going to produce the 144,000, that in 1989 that is the Time of the End for that Reform Movement, and that we will be paralleling the Millerite History, along with several other histories. And the Millerites are going to announce the opening of the Judgment, but we are raised up to announce the close of the Judgment. But, nevertheless, as we are doing this, we are paralleling Miller.

THE OPENING OF THE JUDGMENT

And in The Great Controversy, and I do not have the full context of this message, but in this next quote is identifying the work of William Miller, a work which we will parallel.

In The Great Controversy, page 310, speaking of Miller, it says,

> "It was needful that men should be awakened to their danger; that they should be roused to prepare for the solemn events connected with the close of probation." The Great Controversy, 310.

So, in 1798, the Lord raises up William Miller to present to the world the events connected with the close of probation; and, what we are saying is the events connected with the close of probation, these are the solemn events which we must know as we stand on the threshold of their fulfillment. The Millerites are announcing the opening of the Judgment, where probation comes to a conclusion. We are announcing the close of the Judgment.

THE JUDGMENT OF AD70

And often in this series we have lined up the Millerite History that begins in 1798 with the history of John the Baptist and Christ, and that is what John the Baptist was doing as well. In Matthew 3:7, John the Baptist was also presenting his generation with the events connected with the close of probation.

Matthew 3:7 says,

> "[7]But when he [JOHN THE BAPTIST] saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" Matthew 3:7 (KJV).

And, if you mark this as the message of John the Baptist, this waymark [the first waymark of Figure No. 59A], this here [the third waymark] being the cross, AD31, the wrath to come for that history is down here [the fourth waymark] in AD66 to 70 when Jerusalem is being destroyed. And John was announcing to that generation the events connected with the close of their probation that was going to close in AD34 at the stoning of Stephen. Although it was a progressive close, they were closing it all along the way. They closed it at the cross. They closed it at the stoning of Stephen. They even began to close it when Jesus was in the temple when he was 12 years old.

THE CLOSE OF PROBATION

So, John the Baptist is raised up to present to his generation the events connected with the close of probation, and the symbol of that probation is the destruction of Jerusalem, which Sister White uses as a symbol of the close of probation at the end of the world, the Seven Last Plagues.

William Miller was raised up to present to his generation the events connected with the close of probation, and our work is to present to the world the events connected with the close of probation. And by and large Seventh-day Adventists do not know what these events are.

The close of probation is identified by Sister White in The Great Controversy, page 613. She quotes from Daniel 12:1, you will see in your notes, when Michael stands up. That is the close of probation.

Did probation close for the Jews when Michael stood up at the stoning of Stephen? Yes, it did.

Sister White quotes from Daniel 12:1:

> "'At that time shall Michael stand up, the great Prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, everyone that shall be found written in the book.' Daniel 12:1."—

And then she says,

> —"When the third angel's message closes, mercy no longer pleads for the guilty inhabitants of the earth. The people of God have accomplished their work. They have received 'the latter rain,' 'the refreshing from the presence of the Lord,' and they are prepared for the trying hour before them. Angels are hastening to and fro in heaven. An angel returning from the earth announces that his work is done; the final test has been brought upon the world, and all who have proved themselves loyal to the divine precepts have received 'the seal of the living God.' Then Jesus ceases His intercession in the sanctuary above. He lifts His hands and with a loud voice says, 'It is done;' and all the angelic host lay off their crowns as He makes the solemn announcement: 'He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.' Revelation 22:11. Every case has been decided for life or death." The Great Controversy, 613.

So, she begins this with Daniel 12:1. She speaks about Him standing up. Daniel 12:1, Michael stands up, and the pronouncement He gives: the close of probation. That is Daniel 12:1.

So, when Sister White talks about the events connected with the close of probation, the events that lead to the close of probation are the events that are represented in Daniel 11:40, 41, 42, 43, 44, and 45. And then in Daniel 12:1, Michael stands up

THE EVENTS

Daniel 11:40 – 12:1

VERSE FORTY

Because Adventism has been in its sleepy Laodicean condition, it has not paid attention to the events connected with the close of probation; so, there is a wealth of truth connected to these verses that are unnoticed and they need to be dealt with in detail in this worship; but, sometimes down the road. But, we are at least putting the emphasis on these verses in order to give a little bit of a justification for marking 1989 as the Time of the End. We have not got time to take every point in this worship and defend it fully, right when it first comes up; so, we are just going to make a brief defense of our reasoning for identifying 1989 as the Time of the End. And part of that reasoning is, is that when verse 40 of Daniel 11 is fulfilled, that was in 1989, and it marks the beginning of the events connected with the close of probation.

The fact that you as a Seventh-day Adventist have not taken the time to understand that truth in Daniel 11, verse 40, does not make that truth error.

1798 AND 1989

Okay. In Daniel 11, verse 40, it says,

> "[40]And at the time of the end"—

And in The Great Controversy, page 356, Sister White tells us the Time of the End is 1798.

It says,

> —"[40]And at the time of the end shall the king of the south"—

And the king of the south, the word that is translated as south there is negeb. Many times it is translated as Egypt. The king of the South is the king of Egypt. And in Revelation 11, verse 8, it talks about atheistic France and the time period of the French Revolution. This kingdom that is represented by Egypt and Sodom, it is spiritual Egypt in the 1798 time period. The French Revolution takes place in the 1798 time period.

So, verse 40 says,

> —"[40]And at the time of the end [IN 1798] shall the king of the south [OF EGYPT]"—

Egypt is a symbol of atheism.

> —SHALL THE KING OF ATHEISM, SHALL ATHEISTIC FRANCE—"push at him:"—

Push means war against. In 1798 atheistic France will begin a war against the king of the North, and the king of the North here is the Papacy. And, sure enough, in 1798 atheistic France delivered the deadly wound to the Papacy.

But, there is a colon in the verse, and it says,

—"and the king of the north [THE PAPACY] shall come against him [AGAINST THE KING OF ATHEISM] like a whirlwind,"—

And here, this second part of the verse, projects us to the end of the world (1989) when the Soviet Union, the new king of atheism in the history of the world, is swept away by an alliance between the Papacy, the king of the North, and the United States. And the United States is represented in the verse as,

> —"with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40 (KJV).

Ships in Bible prophecy, representing economic strength; chariots and horsemen, military strength; and, there is an abundant historical evidence that it was an alliance between the United States and the Vatican that brought down the Soviet Union in 1989; and, it was in fulfillment of Daniel 11:40. There are all kinds of evidence to this.

And in Poland this last week, they just set up a monument to Ronald Reagan and Pope John Paul, commemorating their work in sweeping away the Soviet Union. But, we do not even need that because there is so much evidence of this.

So, what we are saying is, that in 1989 Daniel 11:40 was fulfilled, and that is the first of the verses that lead to the close of probation; therefore, these are the events connected with the close of probation; therefore, this is God's people message at the end of the world that parallels Miller's message, that parallels John the Baptist's message. And Sister White tells us that by and large we do not know what those events are.

I am going to drop down to where it says "Verse Forty" in your notes, and then it says "Forty Days," "1840," and "9/11." I am going to come back to those three references. Drop down to where it says, "The Events Connected with the Close of Probation" where you can see my point I have been making about Sister White.

THE EVENTS CONNECTED WITH THE CLOSE OF PROBATION

A lot of people argue this passage, how we apply this passage here in The Great Controversy. And I left off the introduction. The verses that lead to this paragraph are talking about the Jews misunderstanding prophecy in the time of Christ. After she explains it is their misunderstanding of prophecy that allowed them to participate in the crucifixion of the Messiah, then she says this about us. She says,

> "The events connected with the close of probation and the work of preparation for the time of trouble, are clearly presented."

Where are they presented? The last six verses of Daniel 11.

> —"But multitudes"

Multitudes in Adventism, by context, she is just talking about Ancient Israel and comparing it to modern Israel.

> —"But multitudes [IN ADVENTISM] have no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed."—

These are the great and solemn events that we must know as we stand on the threshold of their fulfillment, and we do not know them.

> —"But multitudes [IN ADVENTISM] has no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed. Satan watches to catch away every impression that would make them wise unto salvation, and the time of trouble will find them unready."—

These are salvational. She says every opportunity that you get to understand these verses, Satan is there trying to prevent you from understanding them and, in so doing, he is taking your salvation away from you.

The next paragraph says,

> —"When God sends to men warnings so important that they are represented as proclaimed by holy angels flying in the midst of heaven, He requires every person endowed with reasoning powers to heed the message. The fearful judgments denounced against the worship of the beast and his image (Revelation 14:9–11), should lead all to a diligent study of the prophecies to learn what the mark of the beast is, and how they are to avoid receiving it. But the masses of the people turn away their ears from hearing the truth and are turned unto fables. The apostle Paul declared, looking down to the last days: 'The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine.' 2 Timothy 4:3. That time has fully come. The multitudes do not want Bible truth, because it interferes with the desires of the sinful, world-loving heart; and Satan supplies the deceptions which they love."—

Now, the want-to-be-theologians in Adventism and the theologians in Adventism will comment on what I am saying about these two paragraphs, and they will say, "Look, he took that first paragraph and he is saying it was the last six verses of Daniel 11; but, in the next paragraph, she is clearly talking about the Third Angel's Message of Revelation 14." And because they are not proof-texters, because they are unwilling to be proof-texters and take a passage from the Old Testament of the Hebrew and the New Testament in the Greek and line them up, then they are unwilling to see that when it comes to an illustration of an history that takes place just before the close of probation, when you have an illustration of an history that leads to the close of probation and then you have a message that is marked that God's people are proclaiming, it has to be the same message. Okay?

So, in Daniel 11, verse 44, when it says, "But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many," that is the final warning message that God's people are giving just before probation closes. And in Revelation 14, that Third Angel's Message, that is also the final warning message given just before probation closes. And they are the same message because all the prophets agree with one another.

So, when people are giving you that argument about these two paragraphs, they are doing it based upon the historical-critical method of Biblical interpretation, and they are hiding under falsehood and lies.

The next paragraph says—and the next paragraph is going to explain why the multitudes do not understand this. It says,

> —"But God will have a people upon the earth to maintain the Bible, and the Bible only, as the standard of all doctrines and the basis of all reforms."—

Really, the Bible only? You mean: I do not need a Bible and a theologian? I do not need a Bible and my pastor, or my Bible and my elder, just the Bible alone?

> —"The opinions of learned men, the deductions of science, the creeds or decisions of ecclesiastical councils, as numerous and discordant as are the churches which they represent, the voice of the majority—not one nor all of these should be regarded as evidence for or against any point of religious faith."—

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"Before accepting any doctrine or precept, we should demand a plain 'Thus saith the Lord' in its support.
> "Satan is constantly endeavoring to attract attention to man in the place of God. He leads the people to look to bishops, to pastors, to professors of theology, as their guides, instead of searching the Scriptures to learn their duty for themselves. Then, by controlling the minds of these leaders, he can influence the multitudes according to his will." The Great Controversy, 594–595.

So, what we are saying is, yes, we have not made a thorough proof that Daniel 11, verse 40, was fulfilled in 1989 and that that is the beginning of the events connected with the close of probation, and that these are events, are the great and solemn events that we must know as we stand on the threshold of their fulfillment. But, 1989 was the Time of the End. That is when the Reform Movement here at the end begins.

You can go back to your notes now. I want to put one more thing in place.

FORTY DAYS

We touched on this yesterday. We will do it again.

When you become weaned, detached from human interpretations of Scriptures and you approach the Word of God and the Spirit of Prophecy from the perspective that this is the Word of God and that everything in it has been governed by His Holy Spirit, then you begin to see little nuances, little markings in His Word that are virtually impossible to see when you are using the historical-critical method of Scripture [interpretation].

But, one of the things you see in Daniel 11, verse 40, Daniel 11, verse 40, has both the Time of the End for the Millerites marked and the Time of the End for the 144,000 marked. And this history [indicating from the first waymark through the third waymark] is both of those histories. It is Daniel 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6; it is Millerite History; it is our history.

And this history that begins in 1989, it goes until The Sunday Law, right here [the third waymark]; and, The Sunday Law is verse 41. So this history from the Time of the End in 1989 until The Sunday Law—or this history from 1798, the Time of the End for the Millerites, until 1844 and judgment for the Millerites—this history for us takes place in verse 40 of Daniel 11; but, the empowerment to the Millerite History took place on August 11, 1840. And when the Divine Symbol comes down on August 11, 1840, it is paralleling when Jesus came down after His ascension and He spent 40 days teaching the Disciples what they needed to know as they approached Pentecost [the third waymark as reflected in Figure No. 59A].

> "While they were relating their experience, the Saviour himself stood in the midst of them, and said, 'Peace be unto you.' But the disciples were 'terrified and affrighted.' 'And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? And why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself.' Then he began to teach them of all that was written in the Old Testament Scriptures concerning himself; and for forty days he instructed them in the way of life." Review and Herald, October 9, 1888.

So, this number 40 is in here repeatedly.

And we noted yesterday that Jeremiah is the prophet of the Third Angel's Message, and the Third Angel's Message is the combination of all three messages. This [referring to the first three waymarks in Figure No. 59A] is the First, Second, and Third Messages. So, this history is represented by the prophet Jeremiah, and Jeremiah, he had a ministry that was carried out for 40 years. This is the ministry of Jeremiah. This history, on at least four testimonies, is represented by 40 years.

> "The mighty angel who instructed John was no less a personage than Jesus Christ. Setting His right foot on the sea, and His left upon the dry land, shows the part which He is acting in the closing scenes of the great controversy with Satan." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 971.

And, therefore, when we see the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descend on September 11, 2001, beginning the testing time for Adventism, what causes that Mighty Angel to descend is the same thing that caused that Mighty Angel to descend on August 11, 1840. It is the restraint of Islam in the Millerite History and our history.

9/11

> "And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory."

When we see that Angel descends, then we realize that 2001 is after 1989 but before The Sunday Law. So, 9/11 is part of verse 40.

THE SEVEN THUNDERS

On page 3 of your notes where it says "The Seven Thunders," the Millerites here—this is review—the history of the Millerites Sister White says the Seven Thunders represent a delineation of events that would transpire under the First and Second Angels' Messages.

> "After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction comes to John as to Daniel in regard to the little book: 'Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered.' These relate to future events which will be disclosed in their order. Daniel shall stand in his lot at the end of the days. John sees the little book unsealed. Then Daniel's prophecies have their proper place in the first, second, and third angels' messages to be given to the world. The unsealing of the little book was the message in relation to time." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 971.

You could say that the Seven Thunders represented the delineation of events that would transpire under Daniel 1 and Daniel 2, and would reach their conclusion in Daniel 3.

The Seven Thunders represented delineation of events that would transpire under the First and Second Angels' Messages. They represent the history of 1798 to 1844; but, she also said they relate to future events that will be disclosed in their order. This history, the history of Daniel 1, 2, and 3; and, the history of the Millerites from 1798 to 1844, is the history that we are living today.

THE SEVEN THUNDERS UNSEALED

And Sister White tells us in this passage where she deals with the Seven Thunders that the injunction was given to John, as to Daniel, to seal up those things which the Seven Thunders uttered. Ellen White is the one that teaches us that the sealing up of the Seven Thunders is a parallel to the sealing up of the Book of Daniel; because, these histories, the Millerite History in 1798, it is going to begin when the Book of Daniel is unsealed; but, this history at the end of the world in 1989, it is going to begin when the Seven Thunders are unsealed.

And when are the Seven Thunders unsealed? We have looked at this before, no doubt; but, go to Revelation 22, verses 10 and 11. The only thing that is sealed up in the Bible, in the Book of Revelation, is the Seven Thunders.

You might say, "Well, the book that was sealed with the Seven Seals in chapters 4 and 5, it was sealed up." But, Jesus unsealed those seals. That does not qualify.

In Revelation 22, verse 10, it says,

> [10]And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book:"—

The only thing that has been sealed up is the Seven Thunders.

> —"for the time is at hand. [11]He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." Revelation 22:10-11 (KJV).

Just before probation closes [at the third waymark, The Sunday Law], the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Dirt Brush Man, he unseals the truth about the Seven Thunders; and, the truth about the Seven Thunders is that the Seven Thunders represents the delineation of events that transpire under the First and Second Angels' Messages, and it also represents future events that will be disclosed in their order.

The truth that the Lion of the tribe of Judah unseals just before probation closes is that the Millerite History is repeated to the very letter in our history, and this truth begins the increase of knowledge.

And this truth is unsealed by whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Lion of the tribe of Judah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Lion of the tribe of Judah; is that who unseals it? The Dirt Brush Man. And the Dirt Brush Man, he begins to sweep out the garbage at the Time of the End in 1989; and, because the Lion of the tribe of Judah began to sweep out the garbage in 1798.

So, this scattering, this seven times of Nebuchadnezzar's dream, Daniel, chapter 4—William Miller's dream—it leads us to the Time of the End, 1989. And it takes us just before verse 11 of Revelation 22, just before probation closes. And what are we to understand? The great and solemn events of the events connected with the close of probation. We must know them as we stand on the threshold of their fulfillment.

And just before probation closes in verse 11 of Revelation 22, in verse 10 it says, "the time is at hand" to unseal the prophecy in Revelation that has been sealed up, the Seven Thunders. The time is at hand for the Dirt Brush Man to begin to sweep out the traditions and customs that has been handed down from generation to generation covering up the foundational truths of Adventism.

THE OLD PATHS

We have put so many things in place in this worship study that it may sound a little redundant to keep going back to these passages, some of them; but, review is good.

Jeremiah 6:16-17 says,

> "[16]Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. [17]Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken." Jeremiah 6:16-17 (KJV).

We have seen on multiple testimonies that one of the works that the 144,000 do according to Isaiah 58:12 is they raise up the foundations of many generations. And we looked at many generations and marked that the foundational work always begins right here [at the second waymark] when the Divine Symbol comes down, whether it is Noah, or Moses, or Elijah, or Christ, or in the history of the First Decree. The foundational work is going on right here.

So, when all those histories are pointing forward to our history, we know that when Islam is restrained and the Angel descends that there is going to be a foundational work that takes place.

And this foundational work for us is in connection with Daniel, chapter 4, Nebuchadnezzar's dream; because, now that the seven times is over, and the reason is restored to Nebuchadnezzar, there is an increase of knowledge down here [at the first waymark]. Daniel is standing there at the end of the days to present to Nebuchadnezzar, to William Miller, the events connected with the close of probation. He opens these things up to God's people.

And when you get here [at the second waymark], you realize that the Angel has come down. It has come down because Islam is restrained and you have to defend Islam in Bible prophecy; and, in order to do so, you have to go back to the foundations of Adventism that began to be covered up right here in Miller's dream in 1863.

And that is why verse 17 says at this point, "I put watchmen over them," saying what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Harken!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "Harken to the sound of the trumpet."

There are three woes. It is the Fifth, the Sixth, and the Seventh Trumpets: [referencing the 1843 Chart], the Fifth Trumpet, Islam; the Sixth Trumpet, Islam, are prefiguring the arrival of the Third Woe, right here [at the third waymark, 2001]. Right at the point where you get led back to the foundations, the watchmen with the trumpet in their hands are marked because they are the ones that go back to the foundations in order to identify the Seventh Trumpet, the Third Woe, is the restraint of Islam on September 11, 2001.

THE FOUNDATIONS

So, on page 1 of your notes, you have Sister White quoting from Jeremiah 6:16. We have read this quote several times. It is in the record, Testimonies, volume 8, pages 296 – 297.

> "The enemy is seeking to divert the minds of our brethren and sisters from the work of preparing a people to stand in these last days. His sophistries are designed to lead minds away from the perils and duties of the hour. They estimate as of little value the light that Christ came from heaven to give to John for His people. They teach that the scenes just before us are not of sufficient importance to receive special attention. They make of no effect the truth of heavenly origin, and rob the people of God of their past experience, giving them instead a false science. 'Thus saith the Lord: Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein.' [Jeremiah 6:16.]"
> "Let none seek to tear away the foundations of our faith,—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work, by prayerful study of the Word and by revelation. Upon these foundations we have been building for more than fifty years. Men may suppose that they have found a new way, that they can lay a stronger foundation than that which has been laid; but this is a great deception. 'Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid.' [1 Corinthians 3:11.] In the past, many have undertaken to build a new faith, to establish new principles; but how long did their building stand? It soon fell; for it was not founded upon the Rock." Testimonies, volume 8, 296–297.

After she quotes the old paths of Jeremiah 6:16, she says, "Let none see to tear away the foundations of our faith,—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work, . . . ," one of the many places where she is identifying that these are the foundational truths [as reflected on the 1843 Chart].

Here [the second waymark and the Divine Symbol coming down] is where we are going back to the foundations.

The Dirt Brush Man, at the end of Miller's seven times, begins to sweep out the traditions and customs in 1989. But, here in 2001, the message is empowered; He leads His people back to the Old Paths, to the foundational truths, and the testing process is underway.

Right here [beginning at the second waymark], from here to The Sunday Law [the third waymark] two classes in Adventism are going to be developed and then demonstrated.

THE OLD PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

So, we are now in the middle of your notes to deal with chapter 5 of Daniel.

Chapter 5 of Daniel, it is going to take place right in here [between the second and third waymarks of Figure No. 59B]. This is where Belshazzar is going to demonstrate the foolish virgins of Adventism.

And we have gone over this a few times already, so we do not have to do a lot of study on this. What does Belshazzar reject here? He rejects the warning message of Nebuchadnezzar.

And what is the warning message of Nebuchadnezzar? It is the 2520.

But, who is Nebuchadnezzar? It is Belshazzar's father—well, grandfather; but, in the understanding of the Bible, it is his father.

What is he rejecting? He is rejecting the Old Paths. He is rejecting the foundational message of Babylon.

Okay. Let us read a couple of things here.

Signs of the Times, July 20, 1891:

> "In the history of Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar, God speaks to nations of today. We are to take to heart the lessons he sought to teach these rebellious kings; for if Belshazzar had pursued a course in harmony with the instruction given to his grandfather, he would have retained not only his kingdom but his life. He disregarded the lessons,"—THE LESSONS OF HIS GRANDFATHER—"and went on in rebellion against God, committing the very sins for which his grandfather had been reproved and punished. He, too, lifted himself up in pride and exaltation, and the final judgment of God fell upon him and his house. His great sin was that, notwithstanding God had given him light, he refused to walk in the paths of righteousness." Signs of the Times, July 20, 1891.

He refused to walk in the what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In the paths of righteousness.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the Old Paths, the paths of righteousness.

THE WATCHMEN IN THE PALACE

Now we have looked at Daniel, chapter 1, being the First Angel's Message; Daniel, chapter 2, being the Second; Daniel, chapter 3, the Third; Nebuchadnezzar, chapter 4, is William Miller's dream, the covering up of foundational truths of Adventism.

But, now the Dirt Brush Man comes in at 1989 and begins to remove the traditions and customs. We are in a repeat of the reform lines, and there comes a point in time where the message of 1989 is going to be empowered; and, when it is empowered, the Lord leads us back to the foundational truths. Now the testing process that is going to test Belshazzar is underway. And what Belshazzar represents is someone that is rejecting the Old Paths.

But, the story of Belshazzar, it is basically just about one night. It is the Last Supper for Belshazzar, just like it was the Last Supper for Judas. So, in this one night we are seeing his judgment represented as MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN (the 2520). This is his judgment because he rejected the message of the seven times of Nebuchadnezzar. Correct?

But in that night, which begins here [at the first waymark]. This picture of Belshazzar encompasses the empowerment of the message to the judgment.

What is it that he did that night to mark the falling away that he had totally rejected? What is it that he did at his last supper?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

He brings in the sacred vessels.

Right here [at the first waymark] he brings in the sacred vessels, and what does he begin to do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He drinks wine out of them.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Before he drinks wine out of them, what does he do?

He fills the vessels with wine. Okay?

So, we have dealt with this in this worship. What are the vessels? What are the vessels?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: People.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: People, okay. What people would be the vessels that came out of the sanctuary?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: God's people.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: God's people.

So, what Belshazzar is doing is, right here [at the first waymark] when it all begins—when are we saying this all begins? 9/11.

Belshazzar begins to take the sacred vessels. Who are the sacred vessels?

Seventh-day Adventists.

And fill them with what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The wine of Babylon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The wine of Babylon.

Okay. There are lots of lines that we have not brought into this; but, in this history there are two kinds of wines that are getting drunk. Those that are drinking the wine of Babylon are called the drunkards of Ephraim, and then there is a group that are drinking the new wine of the Latter Rain. One class is making a covenant with death, and another class a covenant with life.

So, in this history, this is going on; but, right here at 9/11, Belshazzar brings in the sacred vessels and begins to fill them with wine.

And this here, this is The Handbook of Seventh-day Adventist Ministerial and Theological Education. And it is here; it is here, Brothers and Sisters, where the ruling was passed by Adventism that if you are going to be an ordained Seventh-day Adventist pastor, then you must study the spiritualistic techniques of Ignatius Loyola. You need to study how to go into the hypnotic trance that is the trademark of the Jesuit church.

And when did this manual come out of the General Conference? Right there [indicating on the manual cover], September 2001 they began to fill the vessels with the wine of Babylon.

So, this is the story of Belshazzar here, bringing in the sacred vessels at the same point in time when Islam was restrained and the watchmen were raised up to say, "Harken to the sound of the trumpet." At that same time Belshazzar is bringing in the sacred vessels and filling them with wine.

So, in this history Belshazzar is in rebellion, but his rebellion is not going to go unresponded to.

Notice the next quote—we have read this before, but I like this one. I like this one—Youth Instructor, May 26, 1898.

> "There was in the palace a woman who was wiser than them all,"—

What is a woman in Bible prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In this history there is a church that is wiser than Belshazzar. Okay?

> —"—the queen of Belshazzar's grandfather."—

Who is Belshazzar's grandfather?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Nebuchadnezzar.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Nebuchadnezzar.

Nebuchadnezzar's wife, who witnessed all these things.

And what is Nebuchadnezzar a symbol of? Ultimately, what is Nebuchadnezzar a symbol of?

Someone who has been redeemed by the Third Angel's Message. Justification by faith is the work of Christ in laying the glory of man in the dust, and Nebuchadnezzar is the symbol of that. His wife is the church that has that experience, and they are here in this history with Belshazzar.

Belshazzar does not know what is going on when the handwriting on the wall comes into the history. What is the handwriting on the wall?

Right here on this wall [referring to the 1850 Chart]. This is the handwriting on the wall. It comes into this history; but, Belshazzar, he does not know what it is.

Why? Because, he has been chained up with the two bands of brass and iron through this history.

And what is that? False education: the study of Latin and the study of Greek. The Mystery of Iniquity doth already work.

Belshazzar cannot understand this [the handwriting on the wall represented by the 1843 Chart] because he has been chained by the iron and brass. He does not know what proof-texting is, but he can tell he has got a problem going on. He can tell there is a problem going on.

So, anyway,

—"There was in the palace a woman who was wiser than them all,—the queen of Belshazzar's grandfather. In this emergency she addressed the king in language that sent a ray of light into the darkness. 'O king, live forever,' she said; 'let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: there is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers: . . . now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.' . . ."—

The Book of Daniel, the message of Daniel, is the message that gets presented to these apostates that are filling these vessels with the wine of Babylon at this time, by the church that is represented by Nebuchadnezzar's wife.

And it is just amazing. I do not know if any of you did it, when I suggested that you do it. What she just said there, you go look at the little phrases that are used to make up her commentary to Belshazzar, and she draws them from the previous books of Daniel. She is someone that is fluent in the language of the Book of Daniel.

—"Daniel did not swerve from his duty. He held the king's sin before him, showing him the lessons he might have learned, but did not. Belshazzar had not heeded the events so significant to him. He had not read his grandfather's history correctly. The responsibility of knowing truth had been laid upon him, but the practical lessons he might have learned and acted upon had not been taken to heart; and his course of action brought the sure result.

"This was the last feast"—

This was Belshazzar Last Supper, just like it was Judas's Last Supper, if you remember that presentation.

—"This was the last feast of boasting held by the Chaldean king; for he who bears long with man's perversity had passed the irrevocable sentence. Belshazzar had greatly dishonored the One who had exalted him as king, and his probation was taken from him." Youth Instructor, May 26, 1898.

AS VIVIDLY AS THE HANDWRITING ON THE WALL

Bible Echo, April 25, 1898, says,

"Belshazzar had been given many opportunities for knowing and doing the will of God. He had seen his grandfather Nebuchadnezzar banished from the society of men."—

He did not just hear about it. He was there.

—"He had seen the intellect in which the proud monarch gloried taken away by the One who gave it. He had seen the king driven from his kingdom, and made the companion of the beasts of the field. But Belshazzar's love of amusement and self-glorification effaced the lessons he should never have forgotten; and he committed sins similar to those that brought signal judgments on Nebuchadnezzar."—

What kind of judgments?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Signal judgments.

SIGNAL: noun—A sign that gives or is intended to give notice; or the notice given. Adjective—Eminent; remarkable; memorable; distinguished from what is ordinary. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Signal is a sign. The judgments of Nebuchadnezzar is a sign.

And what was Nebuchadnezzar's judgment? The 2520. And we put it in place that all the signs in the Bible apply to the end of the world, because the prophets are speaking more about the end of the world than the days in which they lived.

So, what was the sign in this history that Belshazzar was supposed to recognize? The signal judgment, it is the 2520.

—"He wasted the opportunities graciously granted him, neglecting to use the opportunities within his reach for becoming acquainted with truth. 'What must I do to be saved?' was a question that the great but foolish king passed by indifferently."—

He was a foolish king.

"This is the danger of heedless, reckless youth today. The hand of God will awaken the sinner as it did Belshazzar, but with many it will be too late to repent.

"The ruler of Babylon had riches and honour, and in his haughty self-indulgence he had lifted himself up against the God of heaven and earth. He had trusted in his own arm, not supposing that any would dare to say, 'Why doest thou this?' But as the mysterious hand traced letters on the wall of his palace, Belshazzar was awed and silenced. In a moment he was completely shorn of his strength and humbled as a child. He realized that he was at the mercy of One greater than Belshazzar. He had been making sport of sacred things. Now his conscience was awakened. He realized that he had had the privilege of knowing and doing the will of God. The history of his grandfather stood out as vividly before him as the writing on the wall." Bible Echo, April 25, 1898.

The handwriting on the wall was the foundational Old Paths. The Old Paths of Adventism stand out in Adventism today as vividly as the handwriting on the wall [gesturing toward the 1843 and 1850 Charts hanging behind the podium].

THE BEGINNING AND THE ENDING OF ADVENTISM

Okay. I have a rather long passage here from Prophets and Kings, page 450 – 451, and I am not going to read it at this time. [The following notes, however, are provided in transcript.]

> "Through Jeremiah the Lord had declared of the wicked men who presumptuously dared to stand before the people in His name: 'Both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in My house have I found their wickedness.' Jeremiah 23:11. In the terrible arraignment of Judah as recorded in the closing narrative of the chronicler of Zedekiah's reign, this charge of violating the sanctity of the temple was repeated. 'Moreover,' the sacred writer declared, 'all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the Lord which He had hallowed in Jerusalem.' 2 Chronicles 36:14.
> "The day of doom for the kingdom of Judah was fast approaching. No longer could the Lord set before them the hope of averting the severest of His judgments. 'Should ye be utterly unpunished?' He inquired. 'Ye shall not be unpunished.' Jeremiah 25:29.
> "Even these words were received with mocking derision. 'The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth,' declared the impenitent. But through Ezekiel this denial of the sure word of prophecy was sternly rebuked. 'Tell them,' the Lord declared, 'I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision. For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. For I am the Lord: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.'"—

She is talking about Jeremiah here, and the history of Jeremiah is the history of the First, Second, and Third Angels' Messages. He is the prophet of the Third Angel's Message.

And if you see the fourth paragraph, when she is talking about the history of Jeremiah dealing with the final three kings (Jehoiachin, Jehoiakim, and Zedekiah), she is going to speak about in that contemporary history the work of Ezekiel, and she says,

> —"'Again,' testifies Ezekiel, 'the word of the Lord came to me, saying, Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off. Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; There shall none of My words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God.' Ezekiel 12:22–28."—

In this history of Jeremiah, which is also this history [see Figure No. 59], Sister White references the prophecy of Ezekiel that is saying that these false prophets that are contemporaries with Ezekiel and Jeremiah that are saying The Sunday Law is not coming and that probation does not close for Adventists at The Sunday Law, these false prophets, that the Lord makes His pronouncement in Ezekiel 12 that the time is at hand that every vision is going to be fulfilled.

> —"Foremost among those who were rapidly leading the nation to ruin was Zedekiah their king. Forsaking utterly the counsels of the Lord as given through the prophets, forgetting the debt of gratitude he owed Nebuchadnezzar, violating his solemn oath of allegiance taken in the name of the Lord God of Israel, Judah's king rebelled against the prophets, against his benefactor, and against his God. In the vanity of his own wisdom he turned for help to the ancient enemy of Israel's prosperity, 'sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people.'

"'Shall he prosper?' the Lord inquired concerning the one who had thus basely betrayed every sacred trust; 'shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? As I live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war: . . . seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.' Ezekiel 17:15–18." Prophets and Kings, 450-451.

Now, the reason why I am putting that in place is that this particular prophecy in Ezekiel, in this history, that is one of the prophecies that Sister White points to as the fulfillment of this [1843] Chart. You have that right below. It says, "The Beginning." She is quoting from Ezekiel at the same place.

THE BEGINNING

"As early as 1842 the direction given in this prophecy to 'write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it,' had suggested to Charles Fitch the preparation of a prophetic chart to illustrate the visions of Daniel and the Revelation. . . .

"A portion of Ezekiel's prophecy also was a source of strength and comfort to believers: Ezekiel 12:21–25, 27, 28 quoted." The Great Controversy, 393.

So, what I am saying is, this passage of Ezekiel in this history, when Jerusalem was being destroyed, also had a present truth application in the time of the Millerites.

And in Ezekiel, in Prophets and Kings, pages 450 – 451, the last paragraph there, she says,

"To the 'profane wicked prince'"—

Who is the "profane wicked prince"? Zedekiah.

Zedekiah is the one. You have to remember, yesterday Zedekiah is the one that went to Babylon for the image to bow down—okay?—representing the leadership of who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Adventism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is going to accept the what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The mark of the beast.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. That is Zedekiah. He is the "profane wicked prince."

—"To the 'profane wicked prince' had come the day of final reckoning. 'Remove the diadem,' the Lord decreed, 'and take off the crown.' Not until Christ Himself should set up His kingdom was Judah again to be permitted to have a king. 'I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it,' was the divine edict concerning the throne of the house of David; 'and it shall be no more, until He come whose right it is; and I will give it Him.' Ezekiel 21:25-27." Prophets and Kings, 450–451.

Okay. So, what I am saying is, these prophecies of Ezekiel and Jeremiah were present truth in their histories; but, they were also present truth in the Millerite History; and. sure enough, they are present truth here at the end.

THE ENDING

Notice from Testimonies to Ministers, pages 372-373, where it says,

> "Page after page might be written in regard to these things. Whole conferences are becoming leavened with the same perverted principles."—

What are the "perverted principles" they are being leavened with? The principles of the iron and the brass bands that have been wrapped around the stump of the tree: Higher Education.

> —"Whole conferences are becoming leavened with the same perverted principles."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: From where are you reading?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the bottom of page 6 of your notes. I am going to show that she is going to apply this passage from Ezekiel to our day and age.

> —"'For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.' The Lord will work to purify His church."—

When does the Lord work to purify His church? Beginning right here [second waymark of 9/11] when the Divine Symbol comes down. This is the purification process [9/11 to 1844]. This is the climax of the Everlasting Gospel.

> —"'The Lord will work to purify His church."—

This is the time period of whom? Belshazzar. Today we are studying Belshazzar, illustrated by several.

> —"I tell you in truth, the Lord is about to turn and overturn"—

That is Ezekiel there. That is his history.

> "— in the institutions called by His name.
> "Just how soon this refining process will begin I cannot say, but it will not be long deferred. He whose fan is in His hand will cleanse His temple of its moral defilement."—

Who has got the fan in His hand?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Dirt Brush Man.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Dirt Brush Man right here, in the time of Belshazzar; because, it is Belshazzar who brought the sacred vessels in, poured the wine of Babylon into them, marking the close of his probation, producing the handwriting on the wall.

—"He will thoroughly purge His floor. God has a controversy with all who practice the least injustice; for in so doing they reject the authority of God and imperil their interest in the atonement, the redemption which Christ has undertaken for every son and daughter of Adam. Will it pay to take a course abhorrent to God? Will it pay to put upon your censers strange fire to offer before God, and say it makes no difference?" Testimonies to Ministers, 372–373.

THE LAST DECEPTION OF SATAN

Okay. Where it says, "The Last Deception of Satan," it is still dealing with Jeremiah's history. From Prophets and Kings, page 428, it says,

"As an interpreter of the meaning of the judgments beginning to fall upon Judah, Jeremiah stood nobly in defense of the justice of God and of His merciful designs even in the severest chastisements. Untiringly the prophet labored. Desirous of reaching all classes, he extended the sphere of his influence beyond Jerusalem to the surrounding districts by frequent visits to various parts of the kingdom.

"In his testimonies to the church,"—

Have you ever heard of Testimonies to the Church?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In Jeremiah's testimonies to the church,

—"Jeremiah constantly referred to the teachings of the book of the law that had been so greatly honored and exalted during Josiah's reign. He emphasized anew the importance of maintaining a covenant relationship with the all-merciful and compassionate Being who upon the heights of Sinai had spoken the precepts of the Decalogue. Jeremiah's words of warning and entreaty reached every part of the kingdom, and all had opportunity to know the will of God concerning the nation." Prophets and Kings, 428.

So, everyone knew about the testimonies of the church. All of Adventism knows about The Testimonies to the Church. Did they receive Jeremiah's testimonies to the church?

Selected Messages, volume 2, page 78:

"The very last deception of Satan will be to make of none effect [JEREMIAH'S TESTIMONY TO THE CHURCH]."—"The very last deception of Satan will be to make of none effect the testimony of the Spirit of God. 'Where there is no vision, the people perish' (Proverbs 29:18)."—

What is the vision? The vision is the events connected with the close of probation that we must know as we stand on the threshold of their fulfillment that multitudes in Adventism has no more understanding of these great truths as if they have never been revealed. "Where there is no vision, the people perish."

—"Satan will work ingeniously, in different ways and through different agencies, to unsettle the confidence of God's remnant people in the true testimony. He will bring in spurious visions to mislead, and will mingle the false with the true, and so disgust people that they will regard everything that bears the name of visions as a species of fanaticism; but honest souls, by contrasting false and true, will be enabled to distinguish between them." Selected Messages, volume 2, 78.

So, in this history [between the second and third waymarks in Figure No. 59], what I am saying is it is marked that this is where the Spirit of Prophecy is rejected.

And, of course, we have made the case already that when the Lord leads His people back to the foundational truths, they are connected with the Spirit of Prophecy. That is where we started in this worship series, is that Sister White puts her seal of approval on these foundational truths [reflected on the 1843 Chart]. You reject the foundational truths, you are rejecting the Spirit of Prophecy simultaneously, and vice versa.

And in this history they rejected the testimonies of the church, the testimonies of Jeremiah. And so, "The King of the North, The Sunday Law, is coming. Nebuchadnezzar is coming to kill Zedekiah's children and then put out his eyes." Right?

9/11—JERUSALEM DESTROYED

So, in Jeremiah 52:4-5, what does it say about that? It says,

"[4]And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign,"—

Whose reign? Zedekiah's.

—"[4]And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about. [5]So the city was besieged"—UNTIL WHAT?—"unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah." Jeremiah 52:4–5 (KJV).

So, the besiegement of Jerusalem and Zedekiah takes place on 9/11 (the 9th and the 11th years).

And this history here, one of the things that we started with was that in this history in the time of Christ, the John the Baptist presented the events that connected with the close of probation, did he not?

And John the Baptist was basing his message on what? On what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 9.

And Miller came and presented the events connected with the close of probation, and his message was Daniel 8; but, Daniel 8 is meaningless without Daniel 9. You have to have Daniel 9 to give you a starting point for Daniel 8. So, Miller's message was Daniel 9, also.

John the Baptist's message was Daniel 9. Miller's message was Daniel 9. And, Sister White says so. Sister White talks about they were preaching different portions of the same prophecy.

So, in the Millerite History, the events connected with the close of probation are based upon Daniel 9, and they announce the opening of the Judgment. But, in our history, we are dealing with the same thing, the events connected with the close of probation, but our message comes from Daniel 11, just like the capture of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar began in the 9th year and ended in the 11th. But, you cannot see that if you do not do proof-texting and you do not want to see.

In that very night Belshazzar was slain; and, when Belshazzar is slain, it is demonstrated who the wise and foolish virgins are in Adventism. Okay?

This is the Sunday Law. This is the Sunday Law. And in our next presentation we will bring this consideration of the first six verses of Daniel to a close; because, Daniel, chapter 6, it is The Sunday Law. It is right on time. It follows Daniel, chapter 5.

Daniel, chapter 5, is showing the rebellion that takes place after the scattering of Daniel, chapter 4 has happened, which follows the history of the Millerites from 1798 to 1844, which is Daniel, chapters 1, 2, and 3.

So, on Sunday, the Lord willing, we will end this by looking at Daniel, chapter 3, and the ensuing Sunday Law.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that you as the Dirt Brush Man, as the Lion of the tribe of Judah are willing to open these wonderful truths to us. But, we know that just as certain as the first six chapters are an illustration of Adventism at the end, so is the ninth chapter of Daniel. And in the ninth chapter, Daniel confesses his sins as we do here this morning, and the sins of our fathers as we do here this morning. And we admit that we have walked contrary to you and you have walked contrary to us. We want to understand these things, and we know that it was only when Daniel entered into this repentance set forth in Daniel 9 that the Angel Gabriel was sent to him to open these wonderful truths to his mind. And we would ask that you send us now the Latter Rain, as you sent Daniel Gabriel, as we meet the conditions of this reception. Please forgive us of our sins. Forgive our fathers' sins in the history of Adventism that set aside these wonderful truths and began wandering in the wilderness of Laodicea. We are seeing from the Books of Prophecy as Daniel saw from Jeremiah and the writings of Moses that the scattering was underway, that William Miller's dream was being fulfilled. And now that we have reached the end of the scattering and we are recognizing that the 70 years of captivity in Babylon has reached its conclusion and that it is time to come out of Babylon and go rebuild the City of Jerusalem, we want to participate in that work. So, help us to meet the conditions that Daniel so clearly represents in Daniel, chapter 9, that we might understand these things fully, we pray in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #35

Part Four: DANIEL

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we ask that as we take up this study this morning that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit. Enlighten our hearts and minds. We want to receive the Latter Rain. We ask that you would forgive us our sins that our vessels might be prepared to understand what you have for us at this time. We want to bring our consideration of the first six chapters of Daniel to a close at this time. We ask that you give us discernment to see these things as they apply to the here and now. We ask that you take control of our thoughts that we might understand things as you see fit, that I will be conveying truths that are from you and not from a human being. We ask your blessing upon the work that we are doing with the DVD production and the LiveStreaming. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What we have been dealing with here is the Book of Daniel over the past period of time.

We are dealing with Habakkuk's Two tables. We started by considering Sister White's endorsement of the truths on these Tables, and then we have been spending a long time looking at these Two Tables [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts] typified in Bible prophecy.

In this recent segment of what we are doing, we have shown that Daniel, chapter 1, represents the First Angel's Message; Daniel, chapter 2, represents the Second Angel's Message; Daniel, chapter 3, represents The Sunday Law and the Third Angel's Message.

Then we showed that Daniel, chapter 4, Nebuchadnezzar's seven times that that was William Miller's dream of seven times. And Daniel, chapter 4, begins in our history in 1863, when the foundational truths that are in William Miller's dream begin to be covered up; and, the seven times extends until the end of 1989, at which time the message to return to the foundational truths, at least in 2001, it comes into history.

And that brings us to Daniel, chapter 5, where Belshazzar represents those in Adventism that reject the warning message of their foundation. They reject the message of Nebuchadnezzar.

This is Daniel, chapter 5, in here; the rejection by Belshazzar of Nebuchadnezzar's foundational message.

And now we are going to look at Daniel, chapter 6. And Daniel, chapter 6 down here is The Sunday Law.

So, we have been looking at lots of lines. We have been looking at a general line up here [Figure No. 60A], that there is a Time of the End in each Reform Movement; and, the Mystery of Iniquity precedes the Time of the End. Paul says the Mystery of Iniquity doth already work. Before a Reform Movement begins, the Mystery of Iniquity is already active. We have looked at that from several points of view.

At the Time of the End there is a message unsealed that ultimately is empowered when a Divine Symbol comes down; and, this is where the testing process of this reform line begins. And in this testing process there is generally a Visual Test marked, a Divine Pronouncement, and then the Falling Away marks the point in time where those people that have succumbed to the influence of the Mystery of Iniquity: they are totally settled into a rejection of the message of that time. And then follows Judgment; because, there is a falling away first that the man of sin might be revealed.

And we looked at several lines in prophecy that establish this sequence of events.

And then when we looked at the Millerite History [Figure No. 60B], the Time of the End, 1798, an increase of knowledge; First Angel's Message empowered here in 1840, the Visual Test at this time is the 1843 Chart that leads to the process in 1842 with the Protestants closing their doors against the First Angel's Message, against the message on the Chart. And the Divine Pronouncement in this history is the Second Angel's Message, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen," marking when the Protestants have fully fallen away from the First Angel's Message that the man of sin [1844], that apostate Protestantism, becomes the false prophet of Bible Prophecy and is identified right here in contrast with the true prophet of Bible Prophecy, Millerite Adventism.

What we are saying here [Figure No. 60C, History of 144,000] is in 1989, paralleling Millerite History because Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning and this is the history of Adventism, the Millerites being the beginning and here, today, being 1989, the Time of the End arrives for us. The Mystery of Iniquity doth already work. We have identified the Mystery of Iniquity in Adventism as the bands of brass and iron, the educational processes often directly marked by Sister White as the Mystery of Iniquity. And from 1863 onward we see the production of an educational process that is a counterfeit in Adventism that prepares Adventism to reject this message down here [marked with the visual tests of the 1843 and 1850 Charts].

The brass represents Greece, or Greek; the iron represents Rome, or Latin; and, Greek and Latin are the symbols that Sister White uses of the false education that we are sent to learn in the schools of theology. This is the iron and brass in the time of William Miller's scattering; the Mystery of Iniquity that is already working in 1989, when a message is unsealed that is empowered on 9/11/2001.

And at this waymark there is always a foundational work. This was the foundational work in the Millerite History, the 1843 Chart; and, the foundational work here in our time period are both of these Tables. They are visual tests. They lead to Seventh-day Adventists beginning to close their doors against this message here [third waymark of Figure No. 60C]. The symbol of this is represented in Revelation 18, verse 2, as "Babylon is fallen." It does not mean the Adventist Church is Babylon; it means the Adventist Church is repeating the history of Nimrod, Nebuchadnezzar, and Belshazzar, who all had a warning message that they rejected and, as they rejected it, they fell and their punishment was always the 2520. With Nimrod, he was scattered; with Nebuchadnezzar, he lived as a beast for seven times; and with Belshazzar, he had MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN, marking the 2520.

So, those three lines of prophecy from the story of the fall of Babylon, marked Revelation 18, verse 2, which says, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen," saying that Adventism is rejecting the warning message, the foundational message.

And the next thing to happen is Revelation 18, verse 3, where the kings of the Earth commit fornication with the whore and this amalgamation between man and beast is one of the symbols of the Mystery of Iniquity. So, in verse 3 of Revelation 18, we see that there is a falling away in Adventism that is complete, just prior to The Sunday Law; because, there is a falling away first that the man of sin might be revealed. And at The Sunday Law, you are going to see Barabbas lifted up, and you are going to see an ensign lifted up. The man of sin, Barabbas, is going to be identified and his counterpart in prophecy, the 144,000, will be identified.

Anyway, that is the premise that we are working on in terms of identifying Daniel, chapter 6, as we bring this to a conclusion. The reason that we are identifying the first six chapters of Daniel 6 as present truth for us today is because Nebuchadnezzar in Daniel, chapter 4, is representing William Miller's dream. And William Miller's dream is about the covering up of the truth on these 1843 and 1850 Charts. The Charts are a subject of prophecy. The truths on these Charts are a subject of prophecy. The truths on these Charts are the jewels of William Miller's dream that get covered. They are the food, the fruit of Nebuchadnezzar's tree.

And if you remember, the fruit when Nebuchadnezzar's tree was cut down, that fruit comes from the word that is used to mark the Month of Abib, the Month of Abib being the month that they came out of Egypt. So, the food, the fruit on William Miller's tree or Nebuchadnezzar's tree is the fruit identifying the foundational message of both Ancient Israel and modern Israel.

So, let us go to our notes.

DANIEL SIX

REVELATION EIGHTEEN AND THE FIRST TEMPLE CLEANSING

> "[3]And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory." Revelation 18:3 (KJV).

When an angel comes down, it is identifying the empowerment of a message.

This Angel here, He is also coming down right here [9/11/2001 in Figure No. 60C]—you have a couple of lines going here; do not stumble over this. This Angel that comes down here, Revelation 18, verse 1, is paralleling the Angel that came down on August 11, 1840. They both come down with the restraint of Islam.

In Millerite History, now you are heading towards the Triumphal Entry which takes place down here at the Midnight Cry. And we know that in the history of Christ on the Triumphal Entry, what He rode into Jerusalem in the Triumphal Entry was an ass, which is the symbol of Islam. Islam is what carries the marriage of Christ's righteousness in each of these histories.

So, we are here, looking at Daniel 1 through 6 [Figure No. 60D].

In the next passage, it says, Review and Herald, July 5, 1906:

> "Now comes the word that I have declared that New York is to be swept away by a tidal wave? This I have never said. I have said, as I looked at the great buildings going up there, story after story, 'What terrible scenes will take place when the Lord shall arise to shake terribly the earth!'"—

Now, remember, in this history the testing process begins, the testing process begins. So, you are going to have one class here that is going to fight this message. And just on this particular quote there are certain fights that are fought in Adventism. One of them is the Lord is going to arise to shake terribly the Earth. The people that fight this message, they go to passages in the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy where it is commented upon about the Lord shaking Heaven and Earth. Okay? But, it does not say He is going to shake Heaven here. It says He is going to shake the Earth, and Sister White tells us that the shaking of the Earth is different than the shaking of Heaven. She says that specifically, and she says the powers on Earth that are shaken are the powers that rule the Earth. So, for those that want to argue against this and say that "The Lord shakes Heaven and Earth in the Seven Last Plagues; this can't be 9/11 because probation is still open now," well, you are not marking this carefully as a Berean would, about shaking the Earth. Sister White says it shakes the powers of the Earth, those that rule in the Earth. And 9/11 shook all the rulers of the Earth.

> —"'What terrible scenes will take place when the Lord shall arise to shake terribly the earth!'"—

If you look at that sentence and you go into the Scriptures and find when the Lord arises, when the Lord arises, when He stands up, it is marking a change in dispensation. When the Lord arose on October 22, 1844, and moved from the Holy Place to the Most Holy Place, He was changing from one dispensation to the dispensation of the Judgment.

The Bible talks about when Michael stands up, He arises, and now the dispensation of God's wrath begins. When the Lord is changing dispensations, He arises.

So, in this sentence, it says, "'What terrible scenes will take place when the Lord shall arise to shake terribly the earth!'" and, of course, all the prophetic information is that on 9/11 the Judgment of the Living began. He has changed dispensation from the Judgment of the Dead to the Judgment of the Living. So, this sentence is very accurate to the prophetic message.

—"Then the words of Revelation 18:1–3 will be fulfilled.' The whole of the eighteenth chapter of Revelation is a warning of what is coming on the earth. But I have no light in particular in regard to what is coming on New York, only that I know that one day the great buildings there will be thrown down by the turning and overturning of God's power. From the light given me, I know that destruction is in the world. One word from the Lord, one touch of his mighty power, and these massive structures will fall. Scenes will take place the fearfulness of which we cannot imagine." Review and Herald, July 5, 1906.

So, we are saying the great buildings that she is dealing with are the Twin Towers in New York City, and the biggest majority of Adventists that will even get interested in this discussion will say, "Well, don't you know that was George Bush and the Globalists and the CIA that brought those buildings down? And you are saying it is Islam?"

And I say, "Well, I may be saying it is Islam, but that is not the point. The point is, is when Islam is restrained, the Mighty Angel comes down. And no matter who brought down those Twin Towers, George Bush immediately thereafter went to the United Nations and placed a restraint on Islam. It is not the issue of who brought the Twin Towers down; it was Islam restrained on September 11, 2001." And it was, immediately thereafter.

For those that are in a position that they are unwilling to see, they do not see some of the larger implications of this in the Prophetic Word. This is a judgment against the United States of America; and, Revelation 13 says the United States of America has two horns and that it is the beast that comes out of the Earth. And the two horns, as Seventh-day Adventists understand it to be the two strengths of Republicanism and Protestantism.

But, we also understand that in Revelation 13, the United States is the power that changes. Not all powers in Bible prophecy change. The Catholic Church never changes. The beast, the Catholic Church of itself says it never changes; and, God's Prophetic Word says it never changes. But, the United States is the power that changes.

And at the beginning of the United States, its two strengths were Republicanism and Protestantism; but, at the end of the United States, its two strengths are no longer Republicanism and Protestantism because Protestantism is going to be set aside at The Sunday Law, and we have changed from a Republic that focuses on defending individual rights to a democracy where the majority rules and destroys individual rights. And anyone living in the United States or in the world today can see, by what is going on in the Government of the United States, that individual rights are being destroyed. So, we are at that point where you are at the end of the history of the United States and the two horns are no longer Republicanism and Protestantism. They are the last part of Revelation 13.

The two strengths of the United States at the end of the world is it is going to force the entire world to receive the mark of the beast upon the premise that if you do not have that mark you cannot buy or sell. One of the strengths of the United States at the end is economic strength; and, if you do not have the mark of the beast and you refuse to take it, then you are going to be put to death.

The other horn of the United States at the end of the world is military strength. The United States is the earth beast. Its two strengths at the end are economic and military. And on 9/11 the symbol of its economic strength, the Twin Towers, were both struck. The symbol of its military power was struck when the Pentagon was hit; and, that fourth plane went into the earth.

So, on 9/11 you can see a sign form the Lord, a prophetic sign, that this is a judgment upon the earth beast of Revelation 13; and, all the history that goes along with it says this is so.

So, we are saying that on 9/11, the testing process is initiated for Adventism; and that here you have an argument about return to the foundations, these two Charts [1843 and 1850 Charts].

But, there will be a group in Adventism that does not want to return to these Charts. They have been represented by Belshazzar. If you will recall, Belshazzar refused to be warned by the foundational message of Nebuchadnezzar.

And what was the foundational warning message of Nebuchadnezzar? Seven times.

And what was the pronouncement against Belshazzar? MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN, which I am just going to write down as 2520.

So, in our history it is not an accident that when the Lord brings the foundational test to Adventism that part of the argument is the 2520 that is on both of these 1843 and 1850 Charts.

And Belshazzar reaches a point where he is at his Last Supper.

Remember, we looked at Judas. Judas was at his Last Supper when he finally fully betrayed Christ; and, Belshazzar is at his Last Supper and here is the complete falling away of Belshazzar, the complete falling away of Judas, the complete falling away of the foolish virgins in Adventism.

The Divine Pronouncement is here. The Divine Pronouncement is, "Go back to the history of Babylon and see how Nimrod, Belshazzar, and Nebuchadnezzar rejected the warning message, because then you will understand the history that you are repeating." But, there comes a point in time where the falling away that comes first is complete and it leads to Judgment; and, the Judgment for Adventism is The Sunday Law in the United States.

THE FIRST TEST

So, in your notes, "The First Test":

> "One thing is certain: Those Seventh-day Adventists who take their stand under Satan's banner"—

And you can show in the writings of Ellen White that Adventists that take their stand under Satan's banner do so at The Sunday Law. She uses those terms to identify The Sunday Law.

> —"One thing is certain: Those Seventh-day Adventists who take their stand under Satan's banner will first give up their faith in the warnings and reproofs contained in the Testimonies of God's Spirit." Selected Messages, book 3, 84.

And the Testimonies of God's Spirit is the Spirit of Prophecy, and that is where we started in this presentation, is that the Spirit of Prophecy upholds the truths on these 1843 and 1850 Charts. If you reject the truths on these Charts, you are rejecting the Spirit of Prophecy. If you reject the Spirit of Prophecy, you are rejecting the truths on these Charts. They cannot be separated. The Spirit of Prophecy is part of the foundational test, the first test. And there are three: The first test for Adventism is the Spirit of Prophecy.

Spalding and Magan, page 1, says,

"I saw that the truth should be made plain upon tables, that the earth and the fullness thereof is the Lord's, and that necessary means should not be spared to make it plain. I saw that the old chart was directed by the Lord, and that not a figure of it should be altered except by inspiration. I saw that the figures of the chart were as God would have them, and that His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none should see it till His hand was removed." Spalding and Magan, 1.

Manuscript Releases, volume 13, page 539:

"I saw that God was in the publishment of the chart by Brother Nichols."—

[Pointing to the 1850 Chart]

This Chart [pointing to the 1843 Chart] was directed by the hand of the Lord and it should not be altered.

God was in the publishment of this chart [indicating the 1850 Chart once more], according to the Spirit of Prophecy.

—" I saw that there was a prophecy of this chart in the Bible, and if this chart is designed for God's people, if it [is] sufficient for one it is for another, and if one needed a new chart painted on a larger scale, all need it just as much. . . .

"I saw that the charts [the 1843 and the 1850] ordered by God struck the mind favorably, even without an explanation. There is something light, lovely, and heavenly in the representation of the angels on the charts. The mind is almost imperceptibly led to God and heaven. But the other charts that have been gotten up disgust the mind, and cause the mind to dwell more on earth than heaven." Manuscript Releases, volume 13, 359.

You reject these truths [indicating the truths reflected on the 1843 and 1850 Charts], you are rejecting the Spirit of Prophecy. You are failing the first test.

Early Writings, page 249, says,

"Those who rejected and opposed the light of the first angel's message,"—Those that rejected and opposed the first test—"lost the light of the second, and could not be benefited by the power and glory which attended the message, 'Behold, the Bridegroom cometh.'" Early Writings, 249.

THE SECOND TEST

THE DIVINE PRONOUNCEMENT—THE 2520 ON THE SACRED TABLES (VISUAL)

"[2]And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird." Revelation 18:2 (KJV).

THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY AND THE FALLING AWAY

"[3]For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies." Revelation 18:3 (KJV).

VISUAL

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 976:

"The Lord has shown me clearly that the image of the beast will be formed before probation closes; for it is to be the great test for the people of God, by which their eternal destiny will be decided.

"This is the test that the people of God must have before they are sealed. All who proved their loyalty to God by observing His law, and refusing to accept a spurious sabbath, will rank under the banner of the Lord God Jehovah, and will receive the seal of the living God. Those who yield the truth of heavenly origin and accept the Sunday sabbath, will receive the mark of the beast" The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 976.

THE THIRD TEST

"[4]And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Revelation 18:4 (KJV).

Review and Herald, December 18, 1888:

"A time is coming when the law of God is, in a special sense, to be made void in our land. The rulers of our nation will, by legislative enactments, enforce the Sunday law, and thus God's people be brought into great peril. When our nation, in its legislative councils, shall enact laws to bind the consciences of men in regard to their religious privileges, enforcing Sunday observance, and bringing oppressive power to bear against those who keep the seventh-day Sabbath, the law of God will, to all intents and purposes, be made void in our land; and national apostasy will be followed by national ruin." Review and Herald, December 18, 1888.

Review and Herald, April 27, 1911:

"If the light of truth has been presented to you, revealing the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, and showing that there is no foundation in the Word of God for Sunday observance, and yet you still cling to the false sabbath, refusing to keep holy the Sabbath which God calls 'my holy day,' you receive the mark of the beast. When does this take place?—When you obey the decree that commands you to cease from labor on Sunday and worship God, while you know that there is not a word in the Bible showing Sunday to be other than a common working-day, you consent to receive the mark of the beast, and refuse the seal of God. If we receive this mark in our foreheads or in our hands, the judgments pronounced against the disobedient must fall upon us. But the seal of the living God is placed upon those who conscientiously keep the Sabbath of the Lord." Review and Herald, April 27, 1911.

So, right in here, right in here [referencing 2001, Figure No. 60D], right in here, in the foundational argument of Adventism, you reject that one, you are not going to recognize the second test; and, the second test is the visual image of the beast test which marks the end of the line, the falling away first. But, you have to be on this foundation to even participate in the second test.

LIFTING UP AN ENSIGN

Daniel 6:1-3; Isaiah 5:26; 18:3; Zechariah 9:16

And now let us go to Daniel 6. We are finally where we can incorporate Daniel 6 into this scenario.

Most of these concepts we have already put in place in this worship series.

In Daniel 6:1-3, we have pointed out that at The Sunday Law, God's people are going to be lifted up as an ensign. But, we have pointed out the lifting up has to begin before The Sunday Law. It is not suddenly The Sunday Law comes and then the Lord starts evaluating who is going to be the ensign. The character that qualifies to be the ensign is settled into before The Sunday Law, and the character that qualifies as Barabbas is settled into before The Sunday Law. So, the lifting up begins back here, just in advance of The Sunday Law.

And in Daniel 6, beginning in verse 1, it says,

> "[1]It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom; [2]And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage. [3]Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him"—WHAT?—"over the whole realm." Daniel 6:1-3 (KJV).

Right here, the lifting up of Daniel is beginning [see Figure No. 60D, just before the Judgment waymark]. In contrast with the 120 other rulers, Daniel is getting set above them all.

And what does this do? This produces jealousy among that other group.

Now, let us go back and remind ourselves—Isaiah 5:26—that there is an ensign that is lifted up. We will just look at a couple of verses that deal with the ensign. There are several.

Verse 26 says,

> "[26]And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: . . ." Isaiah 5:26 (KJV).

The ensign that is lifted up at The Sunday Law is what draws the eleventh-hour workers to come stand on the right side of the issue during The Sunday Law crisis.

Look at chapter 18 of Isaiah, verse 3. It is an ensign lifted up to the nations. Isaiah 18:3 says,

> "[3]All ye inhabitants of the world,"—

All the inhabitants of the world are represented there in Daniel 6. The 120 rulers of which Daniel was lifted up above represents rulership over the whole kingdom, over the whole world.

> —"[3]All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye." Isaiah 18:3 (KJV).

So, there is a lifting up that takes place that brings the whole world into this issue. Zechariah 9:16:

> "[16]And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people:"—

How many flocks are there? There are two flocks. This is the flock of His people, but Jesus says, "Other sheep I have that are not of this fold, and they will come when I call." The first fold He deals with, the first flock, is His people. This is Adventism.

> —"[16]And the LORD their God shall save them in that day"—

What day? The Sunday Law.

> —"as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land." Zechariah 9:16 (KJV).

The first flock is lifted up to draw the second flock unto it.

Daniel is being lifted up, just in advance of the Decree. The lifting up process has begun.

THE LAW OF GOD

Daniel 6:4-5

Okay. What is the issue over? Back to Daniel 6, verses 4 and 5.
With The Sunday Law crisis we know the issue is the Law of God. Verse 4 says,

> "[4]Then the presidents"—the jealous presidents—"and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. [5]Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God." Daniel 6:4-5 (KJV).

So, the issue with Daniel 6 [referencing the final waymark of Judgment] is the same issue for us at the end of the world. It is the Law of God. Daniel 6 is describing The Sunday Law crisis.

THE EVENT IS SEEN TO BE APPROACHING

In The Great Controversy, beginning at page 605, it says this:

> "Heretofore those who presented the truths of the third angel's message have often been regarded as mere alarmists. Their predictions that religious intolerance would gain control in the United States, that church and state would unite to persecute those who keep the commandments of God, have been pronounced groundless and absurd. It has been confidently declared that this land could never become other than what it has been"—

Now, you realize that with the Supreme Court ratifying Obama's Health Care package that the basic premise for doing so is the common good, the common good; and, this is the same basic premise that will be used to pass The Sunday Law. So, the principles that are going to be used to pass The Sunday Law, they are active and alive in the United States today.

—"have been pronounced groundless and absurd. It has been confidently declared that this land could never become other than what it has been—the defender of religious freedom. But as the question of enforcing Sunday observance is widely agitated,"—

So, right now Sister White is speaking during The Sunday Law, after The Sunday Law, or before? Before; this is before The Sunday Law.

—"But as the question of enforcing Sunday observance is widely agitated, the event so long doubted and disbelieved is seen to be approaching, and the third message will produce an effect which it could not have had before."—

Just before The Sunday Law there is something going on; there is an empowerment of the message. And, those people that are faithful at that time period, they are going to begin to be lifted up; because, they are going to start raising their voices and they are going to be in conflict with the direction of this country.

—"In every generation God has sent His servants to rebuke sin, both in the world and in the church. But the people desire smooth things spoken to them, and the pure, unvarnished truth is not acceptable. Many reformers, in entering upon their work, determined to exercise great prudence in attacking the sins of the church and the nation. They hoped, by the example of a pure Christian life, to lead the people back to the doctrines of the Bible. But the Spirit of God came upon them as it came upon Elijah, moving him to rebuke the sins of a wicked king and an apostate people; they could not refrain from preaching the plain utterances of the Bible— doctrines which they had been reluctant to present. They were impelled to zealously declare the truth and the danger which threatened souls. The words which the Lord gave them they uttered, fearless of consequences, and the people were compelled to hear the warning."—

This is taking place just before The Sunday Law.

—"Thus the message of the third angel will be proclaimed."—

Who is it being proclaimed by? By those people that are being lifted up in advance of The Sunday Law.

—"As the time comes for it to be given with greatest power, the Lord will work through humble instruments, leading the minds of those who consecrate themselves to His service. The laborers will be qualified rather by the unction of His Spirit than by the training of"—BRASS AND IRON—"by the training of literary institutions."—

There is a separation that takes place. The Mystery of Iniquity has captured one class of Adventism through the brass and iron, and they have fallen away. There is a falling away in this time period: Belshazzar, Judas.

—"Men of faith and prayer will be constrained to go forth with holy zeal, declaring the words which God gives them. The sins of Babylon will be laid open. The fearful results of enforcing the observances of the church by civil authority, the inroads of spiritualism,"—

So, when they are given this message just before The Sunday Law, what is the message? It is the message about the combination of church and state, about why it is wrong. Okay? That is Revelation 18, verse 3.

—"The sins of Babylon will be laid open. The fearful results of enforcing the observances of the church by civil authority, the inroads of spiritualism, the stealthy but rapid progress of the papal power—all will be unmasked. By these solemn warnings the people will be stirred. Thousands upon thousands will listen who have never heard words like these. In amazement they hear the testimony that Babylon is the church, fallen because of her errors and sins, because of her rejection of the truth sent to her from heaven. As the people go to their former teachers with the eager inquiry, Are these things so? the ministers present fables, prophesy smooth things, to soothe their fears and quiet the awakened conscience. But since many refuse to be satisfied with the mere authority of men and demand a plain 'Thus saith the Lord,' the popular ministry, like the Pharisees of old, filled with anger as their authority is questioned, will denounce the message as of Satan and stir up the sin-loving multitudes to revile and persecute those who proclaim it.

"As the controversy extends into new fields"—

Please note this: At The Sunday Law, you are entering into new fields.

Before The Sunday Law, you are in a field, you are in a field here, and we will deal with that later; but, I want you to see that this is marked [see Figure No. 60C].

—"As the controversy extends into new fields and the minds of the people are called to God's downtrodden law, Satan is astir. The power attending the message will only madden those who oppose it. The clergy will put forth almost superhuman efforts to shut away the light lest it should shine upon their flocks. By every means at their command they will endeavor to suppress the discussion of these vital questions. The church appeals to the strong arm of civil power, and, in this work, papists and Protestants unite. As the movement for Sunday enforcement becomes more bold and decided, the law will be invoked against commandment keepers."—

What is that? The Sunday Law; that is Daniel.

—"They will be threatened with fines and imprisonment, and some will be offered positions of influence, and other rewards and advantages, as inducements to renounce their faith. But their steadfast answer is: 'Show us from the word of God our error'—the same plea that was made by Luther under similar circumstances. Those who are arraigned before the courts make a strong vindication of the truth, and some who hear them are led to take their stand to keep all the commandments of God. Thus light will be brought before thousands who otherwise would know nothing of these truths." The Great Controversy, 605–606.

THE SUNDAY LAW DECREE

Daniel 6:6-9

Okay. Daniel 6, beginning at verse 6, says,

"[6]Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever. [7]All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains,"—THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES—"have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. [8]Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the"—ROMANS.

Is that what it says?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The law of the Medes and the Persians: This decree is passed by a nation that has two nations in it, the Medes and the Persians. The Medes and the Persians, there are only a few powers in Bible prophecy that have two nations in them. One of them is the Medes and the Persians. Another one is France. France consisted of two powers, Egypt and Sodom (Revelation 11:8). Another kingdom that had two powers was Israel. Israel was the Northern Kingdom and the Southern Kingdom. Another kingdom in Bible prophecy that has two powers is the United States, two horns: Republicanism and Protestantism.

So, when we see that this law here in Daniel 6 is being passed, it is the law of the Medes and the Persians, it is The Sunday Law in the United States

—"the Medes and Persians, which altereth not."—

And it is not just a coincidence on these two powers. This is a prophetic truth that has many ramifications beyond just noting that this is typifying the United States.

Verse 9:

—"[9]Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree." Daniel 6:6-9 (KJV).

Manuscript Releases, volume 14, page 91, says,

"An idol sabbath has been set up, as the golden image was set up in the plains of Dura. And as Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, issued a decree that all who would not bow down and worship this image should be killed, so a proclamation will be made that all who will not reverence the Sunday institution > will be punished with imprisonment and death. Thus the Sabbath of the Lord is trampled underfoot. But the Lord has declared, 'Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and write grievousness which they have prescribed' [Isaiah 10:1]."—

And then Sister White quotes:

> —"[Zephaniah 1:14–18; 2:1–3, quoted.]" Manuscript Releases, volume 14, 91.

And in Zephaniah 2:1-3, it says, "Gather yourselves together, . . . Before the decree . . . ." And the point is here, is that Sister White has just marked Daniel, chapter 3, Nebuchadnezzar's decree and has said it is The Sunday Law Decree; and, she says the unrighteous decree of Isaiah 10:1 is also The Sunday Law Decree; and, the decree of Zephaniah, chapter 2, verses 1 through 3, is also The Sunday Law Decree.

So, in Daniel 3, Isaiah 10, and Zephaniah 2, the decree of Bible prophecy is The Sunday Law. Upon the testimony of two or three a thing is established; therefore, when we see a decree of this nature in God's Word, it is The Sunday Law Decree.

Therefore, the decree of Daniel 6, based upon two or three witnesses, is The Sunday Law Decree. All the prophets agree with one another.

Prophets and Kings, page 605, says,

> "The decree that will finally go forth against the remnant people of God will be very similar to that issued by Ahasuerus against the Jews. Today the enemies of the true church see in the little company keeping the Sabbath commandment, a Mordecai at the gate. The reverence of God's people for His law is a constant rebuke to those who have cast off the fear of the Lord and are trampling on His Sabbath." Prophets and Kings, 605.

The point here is that throughout the Scriptures these unrighteous decrees are prefiguring The Sunday Law Decree, and the prophets all agree with one another; therefore, this decree in Daniel 6, verses 6 through 9, is The Sunday Law Decree. The prophets do not disagree with one another.

AS HE DID AFORETIME

Daniel 6:10

Early on somewhere in this worship presentation, we read a quote that 'those that will'—and this is a bad paraphrase—'those that will not receive the mark of the beast must have the decision now to say no, when the mark of the beast is enforced.' And I know we touched on it a little bit. You have to be settled in the truth both intellectually and spiritually before The Sunday Law arrives in order to be able to stand during The Sunday Law. It is something you have to settle into in advance.

So, Daniel 6, verse 10 is identifying this. It says,

> "[10]Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime." Daniel 6:10 (KJV).

He did not change a thing. His character was already set for The Sunday Law, before The Sunday Law arrived, and he did not change a thing. You have to be settled into the truth before The Sunday Law arrives.

Testimonies, volume 5, page 216:

> "When the decree goes forth"—

Is Ellen White a prophet?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Therefore, when she is identifying the decree, it is the same decree as all the other prophets.

> —"When the [Sunday Law] decree goes forth and the stamp is impressed, their character will remain pure and spotless for eternity." Testimonies, volume 5, 216.

Daniel's character was not going to change there. People who receive the Seal of God, they are set for eternity. They may die before the Lord returns, but they are saved; and, likewise, those people that receive the mark of the beast at that time, there is no turning around for them.

NOMINAL ADVENTISTS, LIKE JUDAS

Verses 11 through 14 of Daniel 6:

> "[11]Then these men assembled, and found Daniel"—

So, The Sunday Law has been passed. Daniel is not changing a thing. Now they are going to come and put him on trial.

> —"[11]Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. [12]Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O King, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. [13]Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. [14]Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he labored till the going down of the sun to deliver him." Daniel 6:11-14 (KJV).

Notice this next quote from Spalding and Magan, pages 1-2.

Who is it that is going to come and point their fingers at Adventists once The Sunday Law arrives?

> "I saw that the two-horned beast had a dragon's mouth, and that his power was in his head, and that the decree would go out of his mouth. Then I saw the Mother of Harlots; that the mother was not the daughters, but separate and distinct from them. She has had her day, and it is past, and her daughters, the Protestant sects, were the next to come on the stage and act out the same mind that the mother had when she persecuted the saints. I saw that as the mother has been declining in power, the daughters had been growing, and soon they will exercise the power once exercised by the mother.
> "I saw the nominal church and nominal Adventists, like Judas, would betray us to the Catholics to obtain their influence"—

Now, if you remember our study of Judas, Judas goes out and betrays Christ right here, marking the Falling Away [the waymark of Belshazzar in Figure No. 60C]. But the falling away in 2 Thessalonians comes before—what?—the man of sin could be revealed.

And in the story of Judas, Judas dies before the man of sin is revealed. Who is the man of sin in Judas's story? Barabbas, the counterfeit Christ; Barabbas meaning Son of God, but he is a counterfeit Christ.

So, the nominal Adventists are going to betray us as did Judas. So, as you approach The Sunday Law and the two classes are settled into the direction that they are going, the nominal Adventists, they are eating their Last Supper.

> —"I saw the nominal church and nominal Adventists, like Judas, would betray us to the Catholics to obtain their influence to come against the truth. The saints then will be an obscure people, little known to the Catholics; but the churches and nominal Adventists who know of our faith and customs (for they hated us on account of the Sabbath, for they could not refute it) will betray the saints and report them to the Catholics as those who disregard the institutions of the people; that is, that they keep the Sabbath and disregard Sunday.

What is this? What has taken place in this history?

Judas, the nominal Adventists, is paralleling these 120 leaders, presidents, and governors that have gone to Darius and said, "He is the one. He is not keeping your law. Deal with him."

Right? You see that there?

So, what has happened? The decree has already been passed. In this history, in this paragraph, The Sunday Law is already here. Okay? But, there are two Sunday laws in Bible prophecy. I want you to see that.

Notice the next paragraph.

> "Then the Catholics bid the Protestants to go forward, and issue a decree that all who will not observe the first day of the week, instead of the seventh day, shall be slain."—

Here is a second decree. This is the Death Decree. This is down here [see Figure No. 60D, after the waymark of Judgment]. You have the first decree, The Sunday Law in the United States [at the waymark of Judgment] and then you have the Death Decree in the world.

> —"And the Catholics, whose numbers are large, will stand by the Protestants. The Catholics will give their power to the image of the beast. And the Protestants will work as their mother worked before them to destroy the saints. But before their decree bring or bear fruit, the saints will be delivered by the Voice of God." Spalding and Magan, 1–2.

Two Sunday Law decrees, but that is not what we are dealing with.

THE SEALING IS AT THE LAW OF THE MEDES AND PERSIANS

We are dealing with Daniel, chapter 6. Let us read verses 15 through 17.

> "[15]Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. [16]Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. [17]And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king"—what?
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Sealed it.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is where God's people receive the Seal of God.
> —"and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel." Daniel 6:15-17 (KJV).

The Seal is delivered right here at The Sunday Law.

THE FINAL DELIVERANCE

Daniel 6:18-23, beginning at verse 18:

> "[18]Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him; and his sleep went from him. [19]Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. [20]And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions? [21]Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever. [22]My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. [23]Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God." Daniel 6:18-23 (KJV).

That is the deliverance, the final deliverance down here of God's people.

THE SEVEN LAST PLAGUES

Daniel 6:24

And, the final deliverance of God's people takes place when the wicked are being dealt with, verse 24.

> "[24]And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den." Daniel 6:24 (KJV).

Before they hit the floor, they were in the lions' mouths.

> "As the decree issued by the various rulers of Christendom against commandment keepers shall withdraw the protection of government and abandon them to those who desire their destruction, the people of God will flee from the cities and villages and associate together in companies, dwelling in the most desolate and solitary places. Many will find refuge in the strongholds of the mountains. Like the Christians of the Piedmont valleys, they will make the high places of the earth their sanctuaries and will thank God for 'the munitions of rocks.' Isaiah 33:16. But many of all nations and of all classes, high and low, rich and poor, black and white, will be cast into the most unjust and cruel bondage. The beloved of God pass weary days, bound in chains, shut in by prison bars, sentenced to be slain, some apparently left to die of starvation in dark and loathsome dungeons. No human ear is open to hear their moans; no human hand is ready to lend them help.
> "Will the Lord forget His people in this trying hour? Did He forget faithful Noah when judgments were visited upon the antediluvian world? Did He forget Lot when the fire came down from heaven to consume the cities of the plain? Did He forget Joseph surrounded by idolaters in Egypt? Did He forget Elijah when the oath of Jezebel threatened him with the fate of the prophets of Baal? Did He forget Jeremiah in the dark and dismal pit of his prison house? Did He forget the three worthies in the fiery furnace? or Daniel in the den of lions?" The Great Controversy, 626.

SUMMARY

So, what we are saying is, Daniel [see Figure No. 60D], chapter 6, is illustrating The Sunday Law time period for Adventism.

Therefore, what we are saying is, Millerite History (Daniel, chapter 1), in Daniel, chapter 1, we demonstrated that it has all three messages in Daniel, chapter 1: First Test: Fear God – Daniel purposed in his heart not to be defiled with the king's meat; Second Test: An Image Test – He was judged that his countenance was better than all the others; and, then, the Third Test: He was brought in to be judged by Nebuchadnezzar. That is Daniel, chapter 1.

Daniel, chapter 2, the Image Test; and, the Image Test in Daniel, chapter 2, takes place down in the toes where the iron and clay are mixed; and, Sister White says the iron and clay in the toes represent the combination of church and state at the end of the world. The Image of the Beast Test is the test of the combination of church and state at the end of the world. That is Daniel, chapter 2.

And, Daniel, chapter 3, Sister White repeatedly says is The Sunday Law.

Daniel, chapter 4, is the only chapter in Daniel that Daniel did not write. Nebuchadnezzar wrote Daniel, chapter 4. It is Nebuchadnezzar's second dream.

William Miller had two dreams. His second dream is recorded in Early Writings. That chapter where is William Miller's dream is the only chapter in Early Writings that Ellen White did not write. William Miller wrote it.

Both Nebuchadnezzar's and William Miller's dreams deal with a scattering for seven times; at the end, a restoration of the kingdom.

This is Daniel, chapter 4 [indicating Figure No. 60D, 1863]. This is William Miller's dream. The restoration comes at the Time of the End, 1989, when the Foundational Message is going to test Adventism; and, the story of Belshazzar in Daniel, chapter 5, is going to be acted out by the foolish virgins of Adventism.

And when you reach the climax of this testing process, you arrive at The Sunday Law, where God's faithful people are going to be lifted up as an ensign; and, Daniel, chapter 6, is going to be fulfilled.

The first six chapters of Daniel are illustrating Adventism at the end of the world, as is Daniel, chapter 9; Daniel, chapter 10; and, Daniel, chapter 12. We are not going there at this time. But, we did do the first six chapters because we want to show that in Daniel, chapter 4, you have William Miller's dream, and William Miller's dream is about the foundational truths on this [1843] Chart.

We will switch gears tomorrow, the Lord willing, and we will begin to put in place 1863 as a waymark of prophetic history.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have given us a good night's rest, that you have awakened us this morning that we could study your Word. We wish to be benefited by the revelation that the Book of Daniel is present truth for the history of Adventism today. We wish to see the foundational work accomplished by the Millerites that is represented upon these Tables. We wish to see them in their proper perspective here at the end of the world. We thank you for the evidence that you are bringing forth in this regard. And as we close this worship, we ask that you would be with each of us this day as we serve you in whatever capacity, that you would let us glorify you in doing so, and that you would keep us safe in whatever we do. And we ask for a continued blessing upon the DVDs and LiveStreaming that is going on here. Thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #36

Part Five: 1863

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's rest, and we ask as we take up the study of your Word this morning that you would allow us to have the experience that Isaiah had in chapter 6, where he recognized who he was and who you were and was changed into your image. We want the Holy Spirit to guide and direct our study this morning. We ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit; that you would forgive us of anything that we have done that would be preventing us from understanding this message in the way that you want it understood. We ask that you pour the Latter Rain out upon us and bless the work we are doing with the DVDs and the Live Streaming. We ask in Jesus's name, amen.

ISAIAH SIX

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. We are beginning a new section in our study in Habakkuk's Tables. We want to put 1863 in place as a waymark in history, as the time when the 2520 comes to its complete conclusion. We will deal with that in chapter 7 of Isaiah.

THE EARTH WAS LIGHTENED WITH HIS GLORY

Isaiah 6:1-3

But, before we get to Isaiah 7 and really focus in on 1863, we need to deal with Isaiah 6, because that is what puts Isaiah 7 in context. So, we will begin in Isaiah 6, verse 1, which says,

> "[1]In the year that king Uzziah died"—

I wonder why we have to know that it is in the year a king died.

> —"[1]In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the LORD sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. [2] Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. [3] And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory." Isaiah 6:1-3 (KJV).

And in verse 3 we can see that if "the whole earth is full of his glory," understanding that all the prophets are speaking more about the end of the world than the days in which they live, that verse 3 is carrying us forward to Revelation 18, when the Mighty Angel comes down and the Earth is lightened with His glory.

And in your notes you have a passage from Review and Herald, December 22, 1896, in where it says "[the angels]" in there, I inserted that. It says,

> "As they [the angels] see the future, when the whole earth shall be filled with His glory,"—

That is Revelation 18.

> —"As they [the angels] see the future, when the whole earth shall be filled with His glory, the triumphant song of praise is echoed from one to another in melodious chant, 'Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of Hosts.' They are fully satisfied to glorify God; and in His presence, beneath His smile of approbation, they wish for nothing more. In bearing His image, in doing His service and worshiping Him, their highest ambition is fully reached." Review and Herald, December 22, 1896.

So, Sister White is tying Isaiah 6, verse 3, in with Revelation 18.

Therefore, Isaiah 6 is put in the history of the Mighty Angel descending at the end of the world; and, of course, that is September 11, 2001.

THE YEAR UZZIAH DIED

A KING IS A KINGDOM

Daniel 2:37-39

But, why do we know that it is in the year that king Uzziah died?

Daniel 2, verses 37 through 39, this is probably fairly familiar, but we will go there just to make a point here. We are going to deal with Uzziah here before we move forward.

Daniel 2:37-39, when Daniel is giving the interpretation to Nebuchadnezzar of his first dream, he says,

> "[37]Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. [38]And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold. [39]And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth." Daniel 2:37-39 (KJV).

Therefore, Nebuchadnezzar is a kingdom. He is a king. A king is a kingdom; and, in Bible prophecy this is consistent: A king is a kingdom. So, Uzziah, the king, would represent a kingdom.

UZZIAH AND JOTHAM

TWO NATIONS

Genesis 25:23; Ezekiel 37:21-22; Daniel 8:20-21; Revelation 11:8; Daniel 7:24; 13:11

Genesis 25:23:

> "[23]And the LORD said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger." Genesis 25:23 (KJV).

In Ezekiel 37:21-22 we find a promise that at the end of the world that God was going to join the two sticks together, the one stick representing the Northern Kingdom, the other stick representing the Southern Kingdom. And in Ezekiel 37, in this parable, in verse 21, dealing with the two sticks, it says,

> "[21]And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: [22]And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all: . . ." Ezekiel 37:21-22 (KJV).

A kingdom is a nation: a king, a nation, interchangeable terms in prophecy.

In Daniel 8:20-21 says,

> "[20] The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. [21]And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king." Daniel 8:20-21 (KJV).

So, you also have the fact that a horn is a kingdom, a king.

In Revelation 11:8, we have France during the French Revolution time period; and, France has two kingdoms that make up one nation. Revelation 11, verse 8, speaking of France, it says,

> "[8]And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified." Revelation 11:8 (KJV).

Sodom and Egypt, representing the two nations that were illustrating the one nation of France.

And then in Daniel 7:24, we have the ten horns of Pagan Rome, where three horns are removed and one horn comes up. A horn is a king, is a kingdom.

Then, in Revelation 13:11, you have the United States; and, verse 11 says,

> "[11]And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." Revelation 13:11 (KJV).

A horn is a king, as a king is a nation.

A horn is a power of strength, a kingdom, a king, a nation.

DAVID AND SOLOMON

So, in studying the kings in the Old Testament, and taking those stories and applying them to the end of the world, it is a very profound study.

How many months did the Papacy rule the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Forty-two.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Forty-two, did someone say 42? Who said that?

Did you say that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: How many generations from Adam to Christ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Forty-two.

How many kings were there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: I guess 42.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: (Laughter) It is a guess, but it is right: 42.

So, when you start getting into the kings, there are all kinds of things that start popping out.

You have the Northern Kingdom and the Southern Kingdom. In the Northern Kingdom, it began with Jeroboam. You had 19 kings.

How many of them were good kings? Cero is the way they say it in Spanish.

Zero in the Northern Kingdom, and then there were 20 kings in the Southern Kingdom, and then the first 3 in the United Kingdom. Anyway, there are all kinds of stuff to look at in the kings.

But, of the kings, how many times were there when there were two kings that were kings living at the same time?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Twice.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I am not going to talk to you in advance any more.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Twice.

Okay. Who were they?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Who were they?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Go ahead.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "Go ahead," okay. Well, David was alive when Solomon was anointed king, was he not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, right at the beginning of the story of the kings, you have a kingdom where two kings are alive at the same time.

And here in our story, Uzziah, Uzziah is alive while his son Jotham begins to rule. Those are the only two places.

And what I am going to suggest is that David and Solomon are the beginning of this particular line of truth and Uzziah and Jotham are the end; therefore, we need to know what Uzziah represents; because, even though we can see that Isaiah 6 is set at 9/11 when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends, there is something in the story about Uzziah dying at that time.

And in your notes, concerning David and Solomon, from Education, page 48, it says,

> "The principles taught in the schools of the prophets were the same that molded David's character and shaped his life. The word of God was his instructor. . . .
> "In the early life of Solomon also are seen the results of God's method of education. Solomon in his youth made David's choice his own. Above every earthly good he asked of God a wise and understanding heart. And the Lord gave him not only that which he sought, but that also for which he had not sought—both riches and honor."—

The Lord gave Solomon what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Riches and honor.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"riches and honor. The power of his understanding, the extent of his knowledge, the glory of his reign, became the wonder of the world."—

Solomon's reign was the wonder of the world.

—"In the reigns of David and Solomon, Israel reached the height of her greatness." Education, 48.

So, what I am saying as a student of prophecy, in Solomon's reign, there is a time where you have two kings that are alive simultaneously. So, you have two kings, you have two nations in that nation. If you are going to apply that at the end of the world, which nation is the wonder of the world that is the most prosperous nation of the world that has two nations in it at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States. So, I would suggest that David and Solomon is emphasizing the beginning of the United States; because, we have one other place where two kings rule simultaneously, and it is Uzziah and Jotham, and I would say that is the end of the United States.

Notice what Sister White says about the United States in Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, page 398:

"The greatest and most favored nation upon the earth is the United States. A gracious Providence has shielded this country, and poured upon her the choicest of Heaven's blessings."—

Is that not just what is just taught about Solomon?

—"Here the persecuted and oppressed have found refuge. Here the Christian faith in its purity has been taught. This people have been the recipients of great light and unrivaled mercies. But these gifts have been repaid by ingratitude and forgetfulness of God. The Infinite One keeps a reckoning with the nations, and their guilt is proportioned to the light rejected. A fearful record now stands in the register of Heaven against our land; but the crime which shall fill up the measure of her iniquity is that of making void the law of God." Spirit of Prophecy volume 4, 398.

Did Solomon begin good and end bad?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. The United States, two nations (David and Solomon), begins good, blessed by Heaven, prosperous, ends on the wrong side of the issue.

ALSO KNOWN AS AZARIAH

But, Uzziah, what happened to Uzziah?

Okay. In here you will see brackets in this quote that we are going to read from Prophets and Kings, pages 303 - 304. You will see brackets where it says, "[also known as Azariah]" in that first sentence. That is Sister White; I did not put that in there.

> "[17]And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the Lord, that were valiant men." 2 Chronicles 26:17 (KJV).

Okay. It says,

> "The long reign of Uzziah [also known as Azariah]"—

Can you say "Azariah"? Say "Azariah."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Complies.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what is Uzziah's name? Azariah and Uzziah, either way; but, I want you to know the king's name was Azariah because we are going to find that the king's name was Azariah and, at the same time, there was a high priest named . . . ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Azariah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Azariah.

So, in that kingdom you have both the symbol of church, the high priest, and the symbol of state, the king, with the same name. Okay? The horns were the same, the same name.

> —"The long reign of Uzziah [also known as Azariah] in the land of Judah and Benjamin was characterized by a prosperity"—

Ah, that is what characterized Solomon and David.

> —"a prosperity greater than that of any other ruler since the death of Solomon, nearly two centuries before."—

Here we are a little bit over two centuries into the United States, and we are starting to parallel what Solomon did when he lost his way.

> —"For many years the king ruled with discretion. Under the blessing of Heaven his armies regained some of the territory that had been lost in former years. Cities were rebuilt and fortified, and the position of the nation among the surrounding peoples was greatly strengthened. Commerce revived, and the riches of the nations flowed into Jerusalem."—

Sounds like the United States to me.

—"Uzziah's name 'spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.' 2 Chronicles 26:15."—

Till he was strong: What happened till he was strong?

—"This outward prosperity, however, was not accompanied by a corresponding revival of spiritual power."—

That is the story of the United States.

—"The temple services were continued as in former years, and multitudes assembled to worship the living God; but pride and formality gradually took the place of humility and sincerity. Of Uzziah himself it is written: 'When he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God.' Verse 16.

"The sin that resulted so disastrously to Uzziah was one of presumption. In violation of a plain command of Jehovah, that none but the descendants of Aaron should officiate as priests, the king entered the sanctuary 'to burn incense upon the altar.'"—

What is he doing? What is he doing?

He is mixing church and states. Okay? The state is not supposed to start meddling with the church.

Is that part of the story of the United States?

—"Azariah the high priest"—

These two horns, they are identical—Azariah and Uzziah (church and state). There are two horns on this 'animal.'

—"Azariah the high priest and his associates remonstrated, and pleaded with him to turn from his purpose. 'Thou hast trespassed,' they urged; 'neither shall it be for thine honor.' Verses 16, 18.

"Uzziah was filled with wrath that he, the king, should be thus rebuked. But he was not permitted to profane the sanctuary against the united protest of those in authority. While standing there, in wrathful rebellion, he was suddenly smitten with a divine judgment. Leprosy appeared"—

Appeared on what, on his knee?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: On his forehead.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: On his foot? No! He got a mark on his forehead.

Well, that sounds pretty much like the mark of the beast to me, at The Sunday Law in the United States.

—"Leprosy appeared on his forehead. In dismay he fled, never again to enter the temple courts. Unto the day of his death, some years later, Uzziah remained a leper—a living example of the folly of departing from a plain 'Thus saith the Lord.' Neither his exalted position nor his long life of service could be pleaded as an excuse for the presumptuous sin by which he marred the closing years of his reign, and brought upon himself the judgment of Heaven.

"God is no respecter of persons. 'The soul that doeth aught presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the Lord; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.' Numbers 15:30." Prophets and Kings, 303–304.

So, what I am saying is, Uzziah, who now his son is going to reign while he is still alive. Jotham is going to begin reigning. This is a symbol of the end of the United States. And the presumptuous sin of Uzziah is The Sunday Law, which brings the mark of the beast in the forehead.

But, nevertheless, Uzziah is a symbol of prosperity; the United States, a symbol of prosperity, a two horned nation; church and state, Republicanism and Protestantism; Azariah and Uzziah. Do you see the connection?

Are you willing to take the stories of the Old Testament and bring them down to the end of the world?

Okay. Next quote, from Review and Herald, August 14, 1900, it says,

"The case of Uzziah the king reveals how God will punish the sin of presumption. . . ."—

A couple of paragraphs later, she is going to tell us how this sin of presumption manifests itself. She says, —"Through successive generations iniquity has increased, until we are nearing the time when God shall say, The cup of their iniquity is full. In David's day the contempt placed upon the law of God led him to exclaim, 'It is time for thee, Lord, to work: for they have made void thy law.' The disrespect shown to the law did not lessen its value in the sight of the psalmist. Instead, he saw all the more need of standing in its defense; and as he saw it trampled under unholy feet, he exclaimed: 'Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold.' In this age men have gone to great lengths in arrogance and in blasphemous denunciation of God's law. They have accepted a false sabbath in the place of the day that God sanctified and gave to man as a memorial of creation. Their disobedience is great, and well may the prayer go forth from unfeigned lips, 'It is time for thee, Lord, to work: for they have made void thy law.' The boundary line will soon be reached. The crisis will soon come, and then God will interfere. When mercy's limits are passed, God will work, and show that he is God. The Judge of all the earth will vindicate his honor, and punish the rebellious inhabitants of the earth." Review and Herald, August 14, 1900.

The presumption sin of Uzziah is here identified with The Sunday Law.

Okay. So, what am I saying? I am saying that Uzziah represents the prosperity of the United States.

In verse 1 of Isaiah 6, it says, "In the year that Uzziah died"; and, in verse 3, it says, "Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory." It is saying that on September 11, 2001, the prosperity of the United States began to go down.

Can you demonstrate that from the historical record? Oh, most certainly!

So, you not only have verse 3 tying it in to 9/11, but you have the story of Uzziah.

Go to verses 4 and 5 now of Isaiah 6. We are going through Isaiah 6, in order to prepare the way for Isaiah 7; because Isaiah 7 is where we are going to put in place 1863 as the year that the foundational truths that are on the 1843 Chart began to be covered up in fulfillment of Nebuchadnezzar's and William Miller's dreams.

> "[4]And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke."—

What house? The Sanctuary.

> —"[5]Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts." Isaiah 6:4-5 (KJV).

LAODICEA

Sister White tells us here, from Review and Herald, December 22, 1896, that "Isaiah had denounced the sin of others." Isaiah had been functioning as a prophet for the first five chapters of Isaiah; but, then he sees the glory of the Lord and he realizes that he is just as much a sinner as any of these people that he has been giving the prophetic message to.

She says,

> —"Isaiah had denounced the sin of others; but now he sees himself exposed to the same condemnation he had pronounced upon them. He had been satisfied with a cold, lifeless ceremony in his worship of God. He had not known this until the vision was given him of the Lord. How little now appeared his wisdom and talents as he looked upon the sacredness and majesty of the sanctuary. How unworthy he was! how unfitted for sacred service! His view of himself might be expressed in the language of the apostle Paul, 'O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?'
> "But relief was sent to Isaiah in his distress. [Isaiah 6:6, 7 quoted.] . . .
>
> "The vision given to Isaiah represents the condition of God's people"—

Where?

> —"in the last days."—

Isaiah is symbolizing us in these last days.

> —"They are privileged to see by faith the work that is going forward in the heavenly sanctuary. 'And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament.' As they look by faith into the holy of holies, and see the work of Christ in the heavenly sanctuary, they perceive that they are a people of unclean lips,—a people whose lips have often spoken vanity, and whose talents have not been sanctified and employed to the glory of God. Well may they despair as they contrast their own weakness and unworthiness with the purity and loveliness of the glorious character of Christ. But if they, like Isaiah, will receive the impression the Lord designs shall be made upon the heart, if they will humble their souls before God, there is hope for them. The bow of promise is above the throne, and the work done for Isaiah will be performed in them. God will respond to the petitions coming from the contrite heart." Review and Herald, December 22, 1896.

So, in verses 4 and 5, when Isaiah sees the glory of the Lord, he recognizes that he is a certified Laodicean Seventh-day Adventist living at the end of the world and, if he does not get it right with God, he is going to be lost.

9/11—A CHANGE OF DISPENSATION

Isaiah 6:3-4

"[3]And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. [4] And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke." Isaiah 6:3-4 (KJV).

But, in that experience, the Temple is filled with smoke.

Exodus 40:34-35; 1 Kings 8:10-11; Ezekiel 10:1-4; Revelation 1:5-8

And if you go to Exodus—and you do not have to. They are in your notes. You can test me and see if I am reflecting these correctly.

In Exodus 40:34-35—let us go there, just so you can see my point, Exodus 40:34-35. When they are inaugurating the Tabernacle Sanctuary, verse 34 says,

"[34]Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. [35]And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle." Exodus 40:34-35 (KJV).

They are beginning the work in the Sanctuary. They are changing dispensations, and one of the things that marks a change of dispensations is when the Tabernacle is filled with smoke.

If you go to 1 Kings 8:10-11, when they are inaugurating Solomon's permanent temple, it is filled with smoke, marking a change of dispensation from the tent sanctuary to the permanent sanctuary.

"[10]And it same to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the Lord, [11]So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD." 1 Kings 8:10-11 (KJV).

Let us go to Ezekiel 10:1-4. This is definitely present truth.

Now, Ezekiel 10, it is part of the vision that begins in chapter 8, and in chapter 8 there are four escalating abominations in Jerusalem. In Testimonies, volume 5, page 215, commenting on Ezekiel 8, Sister White tells us that Jerusalem in Ezekiel 8, 9, and 10 is the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

In Ezekiel 8 you see four abominations escalating, and the fourth one is 25 men, the leadership of Adventism, bowing down to the sun. So, prophecy is based upon the principle of repeat and enlarge; so, then in chapter 9, you are going to see the other classes of worshippers in Jerusalem, in Adventism at the end of the world, and they are the ones that are sighing and crying for the abominations that are done in the land, and then an Angel goes through and puts a mark upon them. And anyone that does not have a mark, in chapter 9, when the Destroying Angel comes through, they are destroyed.

And this sealing in chapter 9, Ellen White tells us plainly, is the same sealing as Revelation 7. It is the sealing of the 144,000.

So, in Ezekiel 8, you have an illustration of those in Adventism that are going to receive the mark of the beast at The Sunday Law; and, in Ezekiel 9 you see those that are going to receive the Seal of God at The Sunday Law.

Then in Ezekiel, chapter 10, verse 1, repeating and enlarging the same story, it says,

> "[1]Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. [2]And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight. [3]Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. [4]Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory." Ezekiel 10:1-4 (KJV).

Sister White, commenting on this, says these coals represent purification. Ezekiel 10 is telling us that the story of Ezekiel 8 and Ezekiel 9 is the story of the purification of Adventism, the purification of Jerusalem, the purification of God's church at the end of the world at The Sunday Law crisis. It is purified by the providential circumstances of The Sunday Law. One class receives the mark of the beast; the other receives the Seal of God. When that happens at The Sunday Law, Ezekiel sees the Sanctuary filled with smoke because it is a change of dispensation: the end of probationary time has just come for Adventism at The Sunday Law, and now the subject is the eleventh-hour workers.

> "[5]And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: [6]And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles. [7]And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. [8]And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled." Revelation 15:5-8 (KJV).

So, what I am saying is when we see the Temple filled with smoke, as we do in Revelation 15:5-8, when human probation closes in Revelation 15:5-8 and no man can enter the Temple because it is filled with smoke, that the filling of the Temple with smoke is marking a change of dispensation.

So, what we are saying here, is when Uzziah died, it marks a time in Earth's history when the prosperity of the United States starts to go down; and, in verse 3 it is identified as the time when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends, which is 9/11; and, here we find that based upon the Sanctuary being filled with smoke that there is some type of change of dispensation that takes place at that time. And I mean, of course, the change of dispensation on 9/11 is that Christ has finished judging the dead and he is now beginning to judge the living.

THE SHEKINAH GLORY

Okay. Isaiah was a Laodicean when he saw this. What did Isaiah see when he saw this?
The Seventh-day Adventist Commentary, volume 4, page 1139:

"Christ Himself was the Lord of the temple. When He should leave it, its glory would depart—that glory once visible in the holy of holies over the mercy seat, where the high priest entered only once a year, on the great day of atonement, with the blood of the slain victim (typical of the blood of the Son of God shed for the sins of the world), and sprinkled it upon the altar. This was the Shekinah, the visible pavilion of Jehovah.

"It was this glory that was revealed to Isaiah, when he says, 'In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple' [Isaiah 6:1–8 quoted]." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, 1139.

What did Isaiah see? The Shekinah.

Where was Isaiah when he saw it?
Prophets and Kings, page 314:

"In the vision that came to Isaiah in the temple court, he was given a clear view of the character of the God of Israel." Prophets and Kings, 314.

So, when Isaiah sees this vision in the Most Holy Place, is Isaiah physically in the Most Holy Place? No, he is physically in the Temple Court; but, he is representing you and me at the end of the world.

Are we going to be physically in the Most Holy Place? No. We are going to be in the Temple Court. We have to enter the Most Holy Place by faith, the same way that Isaiah is typifying that we must do.

"Now Christ is in the heavenly sanctuary. And what is He doing? Making atonement for us, cleansing the sanctuary from the sins of the people. Then we must enter by faith into the sanctuary with Him, we must commence the work in the sanctuary of our souls. We are to cleanse ourselves from all defilement. We must 'cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.' Satan will come and tempt you and you will give way to his temptations. What then? Why,"—"WHAT THEN? WHY, . . ." SHE IS SAYING THIS IS WHAT YOU NEED TO DO—"come and humble your hearts in confession, and by faith grasp the arm of Christ in the heavenly sanctuary. Believe that Christ will take your confession and hold up His hands before the Father—hands that have been bruised and wounded in our behalf— and He will make an atonement for all who will come with confession. What if you cannot understand about this matter? He says, 'He that lacketh these things is blind,"—

There are people that do not understand this. They are blind.

Who is blind?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Laodiceans.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Laodiceans.

—"'He that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins' (2 Peter 1:19)." The 1888 Materials, 127.

THE MANIFESTATION OF GOD'S POWER

Okay. What also did Isaiah see? Review and Herald, June 4, 1889:

"Isaiah had a wonderful view of God's glory. He saw the manifestation of God's power, and after beholding His majesty, a message came to him to go and do a certain work."—

Remember that. He sees God's glory, and as he is seeing God's glory, he sees the manifestation of God's power and then a message comes to him; because, that is what we are dealing with in Isaiah 7.

What was Isaiah's message? It was the 2520. We will deal with that later.

—"He felt wholly unworthy for the work. What made him esteem himself unworthy? Did he think himself unworthy before he had a view of God's glory?—No; he imagined himself in a righteous state before God;"—

There is a Laodicean for you: Everything is all right when everything is really all wrong.

—"but when the glory of the Lord of hosts was revealed to him, when he beheld the inexpressible majesty of God, he said, 'I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a living coal in his hands, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar, and he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.' This is the work that as individuals we need to have done for us. We want the living coal from off the altar placed upon our lips. We want to hear the word spoken, 'Thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged'" Review and Herald, June 4, 1889.

What is the work that we want done for us?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To be purged from our sins.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We want to be purged from our sins, but we want to enter by faith into the Most Holy Place and have a confrontation with the glory of the Lord that humbles us into the dust, so that we can have that coal placed upon our lips.

THE GLORIOUS MANIFESTATIONS OF THE POWER OF GOD

But, Isaiah saw the glorious manifestation of the power of God; and, we have read a few times in this worship study already The Great Controversy, page 611. This is the same Angel that we are dealing with in Isaiah 6. This is the Angel of Revelation 18.

—"The angel who unites in the proclamation of the third angel's message is to lighten the whole earth with his glory. A work of world-wide extent and unwonted power is here foretold. The advent movement of 1840–44 was a glorious manifestation of the power of God;"—

What did Isaiah see in the Most Holy Place? He saw the reform lines that all prefigure the Latter Rain. That is the glorious manifestation of the power of God. He is representing Laodiceans at the end of the world that have a recognition of Christ's character that humbles them into the dust; but, in that experience, they come to understand line upon line that is illustrating the time period of the Latter Rain in which we are living, when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends.

—"the first angel's message was carried to every missionary station in the world, and in some countries there was the greatest religious interest which has been witnessed in any land since the Reformation of the sixteenth century; but these are to be exceeded by the mighty movement under the last warning of the third angel.

"The work will be similar to that of the Day of Pentecost. As the 'former rain' was given, in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at the opening of the gospel, to cause the upspringing of the precious seed, so the 'latter rain' will be given at its close for the ripening of the harvest." The Great Controversy, 611.

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 984, says,

"We must not wait for the latter rain. It is coming upon all who will recognize and appropriate the dew and showers of grace that fall upon us."—

We have to recognize, we have to move into the Most Holy Place, as Isaiah did, and see a glorious manifestation of the power of God. We need to see these reform lines upon lines, from here a little and there a little, and understand they are illustrating the Latter Rain.

—"When we gather up the fragments of light, when we appreciate the sure mercies of God, who loves to have us trust Him, then every promise will be fulfilled. [Isaiah 61:11 quoted.] The whole earth is to be filled with the glory of God." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 984.

We have a definition of RECOGNIZE:

RECOGNIZE: 1. To recollect or recover the knowledge of, either with an avowal of that knowledge or not. We recognize a person at a distance, when we recollect that we have seen him before, or that we have formerly known him. We recognize his features or his voice. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.

In order to see the Latter Rain, you have to recognize it. To recognize it means that you have seen it in the past. The Latter Rain today has been illustrated in the past history of the reform lines of the Bible. They are all illustrating the Latter Rain. You have to be a student of prophecy that is using the technique of Biblical study endorsed by Ellen White that was employed by William Miller, called proof-texting: line upon line.

Isaiah 6:6-7, moving through Isaiah 6 as quickly as possible in advance of getting to Isaiah 7 in order to mark 1863 in Bible prophetic history, beginning at verse 6:

"[6]Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: [7]And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged." Isaiah 6:6-7 (KJV).

PURGE, you have the definition there.

PURGE: Strong's Concordance H3722—A primitive root; to cover (specifically with bitumen); figuratively to expiate or condone, to placate or cancel: - appease, make (an) atonement, cleanse, disannul, forgive, be merciful, pacify, pardon, to pitch, purge (away), put off, (make) reconcile (-liation).

When your sins are purged, it is connecting with the Day of Atonement.

Okay. You have in your notes there:

1 Samuel 3:12-14; Psalm 65:3; Isaiah 22:12-14; Isaiah 27:8-9

Other places where this same word purge of verse 7 is marked in the Scriptures, and it has to do with having your sins removed in the Investigative Judgment in the Day of Atonement.

In the Scriptures, we will close that thought with Matthew 3:11-12.

"[11]I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire: [12]Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." Matthew 3:11–12 (KJV).

We have thoroughly dealt with this a few times already.

What is His fan?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He is the Dirt Brush Man.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is the Dirt Brush Man that has the fan, but what is His fan? Sister White defines it as the message. It is a message that purges His floor; and, it sweeps out the counterfeit coin.

But, what did the counterfeit coin take with them? Well, the counterfeit coin are idols, and everyone who refuses to be detached from their idols goes out the window with the counterfeit coin; because, "Ephraim is joined to his idols. Leave him alone."

So, this purging process is what takes place in the climax of the Everlasting Gospel in the Investigative Judgment, in the Judgment of the Living, during the time period of the Latter Rain and the sealing of the 144,000 that begins when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends.

PURIFICATION

Sister White says in Review and Herald, October 16, 1888:

> "The live coal is symbolical of purification. If it touches the lips, no impure word will fall from them. The live coal also symbolizes the potency of the efforts of the servants of the Lord." Review and Herald, October 16, 1888.

Isaiah 6:8-10

"[8]Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying,"—

After Isaiah is purified, after the Laodiceans have entered by faith into the Most Holy Place and seen a vision of the Lord's character and have recognized the reform lines, after that experience has taken place and their lips are purified, then in verse 8 it says,

—"[9]Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. [9]And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. [10]Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed." Isaiah 6:8-10 (KJV).

SEND ME

So, what is Isaiah representing there? In Youth Instructor, June 21, 1900, it says,

> "Not one of the angels could have become surety for the human race: their life is God's; they could not surrender it. The angels all wear the yoke of obedience. They are the appointed messengers of Him who is the commander of all heaven. But Christ is equal with God, infinite and omnipotent. He could pay the ransom for man's freedom. He is the eternal, self-existing Son, on whom no yoke had come; and when God asked, 'Whom shall I send?' he could reply, 'Here am I; send me.' He could pledge himself to become man's surety; for he could say that which the highest angel could not say,—I have power over my own life, 'power to lay it down, and . . . power to take it again.'" Youth Instructor, June 21, 1900.

When Isaiah hears the question, "Whom shall I send?" and he responds, "Here am I; send me," he is demonstrating someone who has perfected the character of Christ in the Judgment of the Living in the Latter Rain time period when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 comes down.

And he is given a message; but, before he is given the message, he is informed that, "When you take this message, you are going to take it to a people that won't see it, that won't hear it." This is his commission. This is the pre-warning he has.

THE COMMISSION

Jeremiah 15:16-21; Ezekiel 2:1 – 3:9

"Jeremiah chapter 15:16 Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts. 17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation. 18 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail?

"19 Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them. 20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD. 21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible." Jeremiah 15:16-21 (KJV).

"Ezekiel chapter 2:1 And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee. 2 And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me. 3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day. 4 For they are impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD. 5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

"6 And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. 7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious. 8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.

"[9]And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein; [10] And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

"Ezekiel chapter 3:[1]Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel. [2]So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll. [3]And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

"[4]And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. [5]For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel; [6]Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee. [7]But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hardhearted. [8]Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads. [9]As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house." Ezekiel 2:1 – 3:9 (KJV).

And you will see this paralleled in Jeremiah 15:16-21; and, Ezekiel 2:1 through chapter 3:9, where both Ezekiel and Jeremiah eat the Little Book, just as John does in Revelation 10 and they are given a message to carry to God's people, and they are forewarned that God's people are a rebellious house (they will not hear).

And the promise given to both of them, Ezekiel and Jeremiah, is that He would give them a forehead of a diamond, a forehead of a flint, because they were going to need it because they were going against a rebellious people. And that is what Isaiah is being told, and all the prophets agree with one another. They are all telling the same story: When the Angel comes down, He has a Little Book opened in His hand where you have to eat. Isaiah has to eat this Little Book, this message, just as Ezekiel, John, and Jeremiah did; and, he has to carry a message to God's people (to Seventh-day Adventists, Laodiceans) that they are going to refuse to hear and refuse to see, they are going to persecute them, throw them in a pit, and reject His message.

Isaiah 6:11-13

So, verses 11 through 13 of Isaiah 6, after Isaiah is forewarned—and you see this when people come into this message. They get excited about this message. And then shortly thereafter, they are communicating with you, one way or another, saying, "I can't believe it. I shared this with my church family, I shared this with friends that I have been close to in Adventism for years, and as soon as I shared it with them, our friendship is over. Family members, blood family members, they started talking about fanaticism and delusion."

Hey, that is part of the story.

"My pastor, my elder, my conference president."

That is part of the story.

And how do you suppose that you are going to have the strength to stand in The Sunday Law crisis when every human support is cut off, if you have not developed the spiritual muscles beforehand to stand during that time period?

In order to stand there in The Sunday Law crisis, the Lord provides an experience for you that allows you to toughen up from the rejection that comes.

And where does the worse persecution come from?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: From the church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I do not know how this comment that Sister White makes sense, but I believe it.

I mean, I think when [in] The Sunday Law crisis, when they finally get to the point to where they are cutting your heads off or shooting you, whatever they are going to do when you are spilling blood, I do not know how that type of persecution can be less than what goes on in Adventism before any blood is spilled; but, that is what she says: "The worse persecution comes from within."

But, that worse persecution comes in advance of The Sunday Law, and it is to prepare the spiritual muscles to stand whenever human support is cut off.

So, if you are understanding this message and you are not suffering from some of this rejection, then it is just evidence that even though you are understanding this message, you are not sharing it. You are not sharing it!

And if you are not sharing it, YOU DON'T GET ANY MORE! In order to get the Holy Oil, you have to give out the Holy Oil. You have to keep the flow going.

But, I am getting off target here.

So, when Isaiah realizes that he has this message to take to a Laodicean church, he asks a question in verses 11 through 13—and we have arrived at the fun part.

> "[11]Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, [12]And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land. [13]But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof." Isaiah 6:11-13 (KJV).

Now, if you have been following this worship along, you know that we have spent time dealing with the Everlasting Gospel. The Everlasting Gospel is the work of Christ in producing two classes of worshippers, based upon the introduction of a three-step testing message. The classic illustration of the Everlasting Gospel is the Millerite History, which is the history of the First and Second Angels' Messages; and, the First Angel's Message of Revelation 14 is specifically identified as the Everlasting Gospel.

And Sister White informs us in Selected Messages that the Everlasting Gospel of the First Angel of Revelation 14 is the same gospel that was preached in Eden, when God said He would put enmity between the seed of Satan and the seed of Christ. It is about two seeds. The Everlasting Gospel is the work of Christ in producing two classes of worshippers. One is the seed of Christ and one is the seed of Satan.

On October 22, 1844, the seed of Christ [the wise virgins] followed Christ by faith into the Most Holy Place, where the foolish virgins of that history continued to direct their prayers to the Holy Place. And who was it that was answering their prayers?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Satan.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan.

The seed of Christ; the seed of Satan: The Everlasting Gospel had been accomplished in the history of the Millerites; but, the history of the Millerites is the beginning of Adventism and we are living in the end of Adventism. And at the end of Adventism, the Everlasting Gospel is going to be accomplished once again, and it is going to produce two classes of worshippers.

And here, Isaiah asked, "How long do I have to carry this message"?

Well, when do you begin carrying the message, Isaiah?

Well, you begin carrying when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends; because, in verse 3 the angels are saying, "The whole Earth is full of His glory." So, you begin carrying the message on 9/11, and you continue to carry this message until the cities are wasted; and, the destruction of the cities, the destruction of Jerusalem in Bible prophecy is prefiguring The Sunday Law.

So, the period of time here in Isaiah 6 that is being dealt with is from September 11th, from Revelation 18 when the Angel descends, until The Sunday Law. In that history two classes of worshippers are going to be produced. The one class who refuses to see and who refuses to hear, and then the other class here who we are told that have the holy seed in them. That holy seed, that is the seed of Christ.

So, what does the other class have in them? The unholy seed.

HOW LONG?

Psalm 74:1-10; 79:5-10; Zechariah 1:12; Daniel 8:13; Revelation 6:9-11

So, what is being described here in this question about "How long? What is the duration of the proclamation of this message?" is from the descent of the Angel until The Sunday Law. It is saying until the Everlasting Gospel is accomplished in Adventism.

Now, this question "How long?" is an important question. You may not realize it, but the theologians in Adventism, they are having trouble with this question; because, this question, this is an eternal question. You will find it throughout the Scriptures. And when you pull this question "How long?" from various points in the Scriptures, you will find that it is the same question but it is line upon line and it is giving a broader picture of what the question "How long?" is.

For instance, in Daniel 8:13 it says, "How long shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice,~~ and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" That "How long . . . ?" is Isaiah's "How long?"

And in the Fifth Seal under the altar, we see those that were slain during the 1260 years of Papal rule, and those people that were slain, they asked the question, "How long until you judge the Papacy from murdering us during this time period?" It is the same question.

This eternal question, when they are brought together, they are the same question.

And in your notes you can see several places where this question is raised in the Scriptures: Psalm 74:1-10—let us go there just so you will get my point. I am not going to deal with all these Scriptures I have cited. I am going to put them in the notes for you to check out on your own; but, let us go to Psalm 74 so you can see, perhaps, the logic that I am implying.

Isaiah wants to know how long he has to carry this message to Adventism, and he is told that he is going to have to carry it to The Sunday Law, because at The Sunday Law the holy seed is going to be manifested and the unholy seed is going to be manifested. But, the question we are looking for is "How long?"

Beginning at verse 1 of Psalm 74 it says,

> "[1]O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?"—

So, He is talking about Adventism, because Adventism is the sheep of His pasture. There is another flock of sheep, but those are the eleventh-hour workers.

Verse 2,

> —"[2]Remember thy congregation,"—

Is His congregation Adventism?

> —"[2]Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt. [3]Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations;"—

See, there is something going on here, is there not? Something is being trampled down. There has been a scattering.

Where is this scattering in Adventism that fulfills this commentary in Psalm? If we take this commentary in Psalm and bring it to the end of the world, how can the psalmist be saying in Adventism, at the end of the world, there has been a desolation that took place in Adventism? Where can we see that illustrated? William Miller's dream.

> —"[3]Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations, even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary."—

Something has gone on in Adventism, and it is wicked!

> —"[4]Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs."—

Okay. This is where Jesus was referring to in Matthew 24:15. The enemy set up their ensigns for signs: "When ye therefore shall see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place," let him flee out of the city! It is a sign.

Their ensigns, the enemy, Pagan Rome, set their ensigns up where? In the sanctuary for a sign.

> —"[4]Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs. [5]A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees."—

Who was the man that was famous for lifting up his axes upon the thick trees? Hiram.

Hiram produced the materials that Solomon used to build the sanctuary, and he is talking about the sanctuary here. Hiram was famous for contributing to the raising up the sanctuary. Hiram here is being illustrated as the one that built the sanctuary. Hiram here is representing William Miller; but, we will not go there. We are not dealing with William Miller at this time period.

> Verse 6; and now here at the end of Adventism, in contrast with Hiram, the beginning of Adventism:
> —"[6]But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers."—

Now they are taking apart the foundations, instead of building them up.

> —"[7]They have cast fire into thy sanctuary,"—

And Sister White says that many will stand in the pulpits with the torch of false prophecy.

> —"[7]They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. [8]They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land. [9]We see not our signs:"—

What are our signs? Well, definitely the 2520 is a sign. We do not see our waymarks. We do not see our prophetic history. Those are our signs. They have been covered up.

> —"[9]We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet:"—

You throw out the Foundations, you throw out the Spirit of Prophecy.

> —"neither is there among us any that knoweth how long. [10] O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?" Psalm 74:1-10 (KJV).

And the answer in Isaiah 6 is, "Until The Sunday Law."

And it is the same answer here.

When you take this word "How long?"—I will show you one more. Upon the testimony of two or three a thing is established.

> Go to the Fifth Seal in Revelation 6. We are looking at the question, "How long?" And beginning in verse 9 of Revelation 6 says,
> "[9]And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held. [10]And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? [11]And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled." Revelation 6:9-11 (KJV).

Those people that were killed by the Papacy in the 1260 years, they are to rest in their graves until there is another group of martyrs that the Papacy produces at the end of the world during The Sunday Law crisis.

So, what was the question?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "How long?"

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "How long till you deal with the Papacy?"

The answer is, "Until The Sunday Law," same answer.

TYPO

Notice Sister White's comments here from Manuscript Releases, volume 20, page 14; and, you are going to see a typo. She is going to quote from the Fifth Seal, which we just read. Manuscript Releases, volume 20, 197, she says,

> "'And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: and they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, Holy and true, doest Thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And white robes were given unto every one of them"—

And this is Sister White's comments that she inserts here.

> —"[They were pronounced pure and holy]; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled' [Revelation 6:9–11]. Here were scenes presented to John that were not in reality but that which would be in a period of time in the future."—
> —"Revelation 8:1–4 quoted." Manuscript Releases, volume 20, 197.

That is a typo. That should be Revelation 18:1-4.

Notice the next quote, Manuscript Releases, volume 20, page 14:

> "When the fifth seal was opened, John the Revelator in vision saw beneath the altar the company that were slain for the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. After this came the scenes described in the eighteenth of Revelation, when those who are faithful and true are called out from Babylon. [Revelation 18:1–5, quoted.]" Manuscript Releases, volume 20, 14.

So, what is the point? The point is this: The question "How Long?" its answer is until The Sunday Law. It is an eternal question. It is throughout the Scriptures.

When Isaiah says, "Oh, my! I've got a message and I've got to carry it to a people who will not see it and a people who will not hear it," he says to the Lord, "How long do I have to do this?"

And the Lord says, "Until The Sunday Law, until the cities are wiped out: until The Sunday Law."

Because, at The Sunday Law, what will happen? The Everlasting Gospel will reach its climax and the two classes will be demonstrated. They are developed from 9/11 through that history, but they are demonstrated at The Sunday Law.

A TENTH, A SUBSTANCE AND A HOLY SEED

Isaiah 6:11-13

> "[11]Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, [12]And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land. [13]But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof." Isaiah 6:11-13 (KJV).

Okay. It says in Isaiah 6 that when The Sunday Law arrives, there would be a tenth. It says in verse 13: "But yet in it shall be a tenth, . . ." And what is a tenth?

> TENTH: Strong's Concordance H6224—From H6235; tenth. H6235—From H6237; ten. H6237—A primitive root; to accumulate; to tithe, that is, take or give a tenth.

It is from H6235 in the Stron ' s Concor anc e, and H6235 is from H6237. And H6237 is "A primitive root; to accumulate, to tithe."

Okay. In it will be a tithe. From Adventism there is going to be a remnant; only here, Isaiah is labeling the remnant as a tithe.

And what is the tithe? What is the tithe?

You know, you oftentimes hear it—and sometimes I slip up and say, but I try not to—but you often hear people say, "I returned my tithe to the Lord."

And if I am in a good enough relationship with them, I will say, "No, Brother, no, Sister, you do not return your tithe to the Lord. That is the Lord's tithe."

Okay? It is not ours. The tithe is the Lord's portion. Right? The tithe is the Lord's portion.

So, what remains in the Everlasting Gospel in Isaiah 6 is the Lord's portion of Adventism. It is His tithe. It is His remnant.

THE LORD'S PORTION

Education, page 138, says,

> "He who gives men power to get wealth has with the gift bound up an obligation. Of all that we acquire He claims a specified portion."—

That is His portion.

—"The tithe is the Lord's. 'All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree,' 'the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, . . . shall be holy unto the Lord.' Leviticus 27:30, 32. The pledge made by Jacob at Bethel shows the extent of the obligation. 'Of all that Thou shalt give me,' he said, 'I will surely give the tenth unto Thee.' Genesis 28:22." Education, 138.

And then in Deuteronomy 32:8-9, it says,

"[8]When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. [9]For the LORD's portion"—THE LORD'S TITHE—"is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance." Deuteronomy 32:8–9 (KJV).

So, this tithe that remains in Isaiah 6, it is His people that come out of the Everlasting Gospel. They are the remnant. They are the tenth. They are the Lord's portion.

And what do they have in them? Well, they have the holy seed in them.

But, it says in verse 13 of Isaiah 6, "But yet in it shall be a tenth," a tithe, "and it shall return, . . ." This tenth, this remnant is going to return.

And this word return is the same word translated as restorer in Isaiah 58:12; and, of course, you can find it in other places in the Bible.

RETURN: Strong's Concordance H7725—to turn back [RESTORER, ISAIAH 58:12].

"[12]And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in." Isaiah 58:12 (KJV).

But, this tenth, this remnant that returns, it is those that are "the restorers of the paths to dwell in." That is what it means to return. They return to the Old Paths.

This tenth is the group in Adventism that return to the Old Paths in the time period of September 11, 2001 (9/11), to The Sunday Law.

And it says it is going to be eaten? It shall be eaten. When the Angel comes down and He has the Little Book open in His hand and it is time to go return to the Old Paths, then what are we supposed to do? We are to take that Little Book and eat it. We are supposed to eat this message about the Old Paths. Right?

And what is it going to be? Sweet as honey.

But, it ends with what? Bitterness at The Sunday Law crisis and the Seven Last Plagues.

Okay. And it says it is going to be as a teil tree.

What produces the remnant, what produces the Lord's portion, what identifies the holy seed from the unholy seed? Let us read it.

"[13]But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof." Isaiah 6:13 (KJV).

It is going to be eaten as a teil tree and an oak.

> TEIL TREE: Strong's Concordance H424—Feminine of H352; an oak or other strong tree. H352—properly strength; hence anything strong; specifically a chief (politically); also a ram (from his strength); a pilaster (as a strong support); an oak or other strong tree:—mighty (man), lintel, oak, post, ram, tree.

A TEIL TREE is an oak or other strong tree, strength; hence anything strong; specifically a chief (politically); also a ram; a pilaster; an oak or other strong tree: a mighty (man).

What they are going to eat, what they are going to eat, is a tree that represents a kingdom. They are going to return to the Old Paths and, in so doing, they are going to find a message about a tree that was a kingdom. I wonder what message what that is inferring there.

And the substance of this message is going to be in them. They are going to eat it. The substance is going to be in them. So, what is the substance of what they eat?

> SUBSTANCE: Strong's Concordance H4678—something stationary, that is, a monumental *stone; also the stock of a tree:—pillar, substance.

The word SUBSTANCE is something stationary*, a* monumental stone; the stock of a tree. So, it is not just a message about a tree—it is about the message that is the foundational message, the monumental stone, the cornerstone, the Rock of Ages—but it is about the stump of the tree. I wonder what message that is.

And "when they cast their leaves," what does it mean to cast their leaves?

> CAST: Strong's Concordance H7995—a felling (of trees).

It means the felling of a tree. This story is about the cutting down of a tree and the stump and the message that is there contained.

". . . when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof."

> HOLY: Strong's Concordance H6944—a sacred place or thing; sanctuary.

And this word HOLY is kodesh; it is not miqdesh.

> SEED: Strong's Concordance H2233—seed*.

And the seed is Christ.

Patriarchs and Prophets, page 370, it says,

> "This same covenant was renewed to Abraham in the promise, 'In thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.' Genesis 22:18. This promise pointed to Christ. So Abraham understood it (see Galatians 3:8, 16), and he trusted in Christ for the forgiveness of sins. It was this faith that was accounted unto him for righteousness." Patriarchs and Prophets, 370.

Revelation 12:17 says, "And the dragon was wroth with the woman," with the remnant, with the tenth, with the Lord's portion.

> "[17]And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed,"—THIS TENTH, THIS PORTION—"which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." Revelation 12:17 (KJV).

They are the seed. They are the holy seed. And at 9/11 they are prepared to give a message to a people that will not hear. And what identifies this remnant, this portion, this tenth, this tithe as the holy seed is that they eat a message about a mighty tree that is a kingdom that is cut down as they return to the Old Paths.

I wonder what message that is. That is the message of William Miller's dream, which is the message of Nebuchadnezzar's dream, which is the message of the 2520.

And in chapter 7 of Isaiah, we will find that the message of the 2520 is the message that marks 1863 as a waymark in Advent history; and, we will begin to take that up tomorrow.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we wish to be among those that enter by faith into the Most Holy Place and see a revelation of your character, and understand the manifestation of your power as you produce a holy seed, a portion, a tenth in accomplishment of the Everlasting Gospel. We want to be those that are on the right side of this testing process. And we ask that you forgive us for the areas that we have surrendered opportunities to have victories in this process. Give us discernment to see that time is running out, that The Sunday Law is approaching, it is on the horizon, and that what we do, we must now do quickly. Give us confidence from the understanding of your Word that you are calling us, encouraging us to follow the footsteps of Isaiah into that experience. We ask a blessing upon the work that we are doing here with the DVDs and the LiveStreaming, and we set before you this day and ask that as we take up our individual tasks that we can do it in a way that glorifies and honor you. We ask that you keep us safe in this endeavors in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #37

Part Five: 1863

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's rest and for awaking us to serve you another day. And as we take up the study of your Word this morning, we ask that you would take control of this meeting, grant us your Holy Spirit in each of our hearts and minds, and that you overrule my humanity that I might be a vessel that you use to convey a message that will produce an effect that will glorify and honor you among us. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us; so, we ask that you would forgive our sins so that the vessels that we are can receive the Rain that you have for us. Please send the Holy Oil down through the golden pipes that we will have a supply of Oil to share with those that we come in contact with. Please bless this study. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. We are going to have to move quickly here this morning because there are a lot of pages of notes.

ISAIAH 7

We are beginning to identify 1863 as a waymark in sacred history, and there are some points that we want to put in place before we move into a detail study in Isaiah 7.

Yesterday we looked at Isaiah 6, where Isaiah, representing Laodicean Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world, is purified and prepared to carry a message to God's church. Isaiah 7 is the message that he is to carry to God's church, and the message of Isaiah 7 is the 2520.

The duration of the 2520 time prophecy is set forth in Leviticus 26 by Moses. The starting points for both 2520s are noted in Isaiah 7. The conclusion of both 2520s is found in the Book of Daniel.

We are going to deal with the 2520 as a doctrine, after we finish looking at the Two Tables of Habakkuk typified in Bible prophecy; so, I am not going to spend a great deal of time here in Isaiah 7 defending the application of the two 2520s in Isaiah 7. I want to look at 1863 as typified.

Isaiah 7:3-9

> "[3]Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field; [4]And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. [5]Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, [6]Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal: [7]Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass. [8]For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people. [9]And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established." Isaiah 7:3-9 (KJV).

But, in Isaiah 7, verse 8, in the time period the Northern Tribe of Ephraim has formed an alliance with Syria and is on its way to attack Judah, the Southern Kingdom, Isaiah is commissioned by the Lord to go tell Ahaz not to be worried about this confederacy that is coming against him.

And in the midst of this prophetic announcement to Ahaz by Isaiah, in verse 8, there is a time prophecy that says, "For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years"—how many is threescore and five years?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Sixty-five.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Sixty-five—"sixty-five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people. [9]And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established."

So, we find that this time prophecy of Isaiah 7 was given in the year 742BC, and the promise was that in 65 years, which takes you out to 677BC, the Northern Kingdom of Ephraim would be broken. And it was carried away in 677BC, thus beginning the scattering of the Northern Kingdom that concludes in AD1798.

And although it is not specifically addressed, it is there in black and white. At the end of these 65 years you come to 677BC, which marks the beginning of the 2520 against the Southern Kingdom of Judah that ended in AD1844.

But the Lord speaks through what the theologians call chiastic structures, and we have these 19 years here at the beginning that takes us to the beginning point of the first 2520, that ends in AD1798. The second 2520 ends in AD1844. And if you extend 19 years farther you come to several things that took place in AD1863 that are identical to what took place in 742BC. So, we are going to start building a case that the characteristics of 742BC are fulfilled again in Adventism in AD1863. And, of course, this is one of the battle grounds over this message, even though it is not being battled yet; because, those people that are rejecting the 2520 have not heard a real complete argument about 1863.

But, I would suggest to you that even though this will be a battle point in this message, the real battle point of 1863 is illustrating the beginning of Adventism, and therefore 1863 is identifying the end of Adventism; and, the characteristics that are in 742BC that are repeated in AD1863 are going to be repeated in the time of The Sunday Law in Adventism at the end of the world. So, there is even a more present truth application than simply the argument of 1863.

But, if you go back into the Millerite History, you will find that William Miller and most of the Millerites mark the beginning of this time prophecy in 722BC. Hiram Edson in AD1856, when he wrote his articles about the 2520, he marked 723BC; so, there were some historical differences. When they looked into history they were seeing 722BC and 723BC. And even with those people presenting this message, there are still some people that cling to 722BC.

That is why I have this up here [referring to the calculation in the bottom right of Figure No. 61A.] Without dealing with historical evidence, just keeping it at a simple mathematical level, if you have 46 years from 1798 to 1844—1798 subtracted from 1844 equals 46—and both of these points in time [1798 and 1844] are the conclusions of identical time prophecies of 2520, then mathematically when you go back to the beginnings, the beginnings have to do the same thing for you.

You subtract 677BC from 723, you come to 46. If it was 722BC, you would come to 45, and it does not—just mathematically you know right there it has to be 723BC, if you want to know. This idea of the 45 years becomes something that the Millerites struggled with. You will see that the 45 years on these 1843 and 1850 Charts, this was part of what they were dealing with, was with the two 2520s, with the belief that one started in 722BC. That is not a big point in our study here today, so we will move beyond that.

THE NORTHERN 2520 (THREE YEARS)

2 Kings 17:20-22

In your notes, you will see 2 Kings 17, where the Northern Tribe is carried into captivity.

> "[20]And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight. [21]For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin. [22]For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; . . ." 2 Kings 17:20-22 (KJV).

The Beginning—723BC

And Jesus illustrates the end with the beginning; and, in 723BC, the history that surrounds 723BC is one of the reasons that some people say 722 is the starting point for this 2520 is a process that covers at least three years. Some people will argue that it covers four years. There is a sequence of events that takes place between 724BC and 722BC. And when this prophecy ends down here [at the end of the timeline in Figure No. 61A], you will be the same sequence of events. So, it is up to the student of prophecy to go select how he wants to apply it.

But, first, Hoshea was besieged. He was captured, surrounded; but, he was not defeated. Then he was defeated, and then he was carried away into captivity over a period of time.

Review and Herald, February 12, 1914:

> "About two years later, 'in the seventh year of Hoshea,' 'Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes: because they obeyed not the voice of the Lord their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded.' 2 Kings 18:9–12.
> "The destruction that came upon the northern kingdom was directly from God himself. The Assyrians were merely the instruments that he used to carry out his purpose. Through Isaiah, who began to prophesy before the fall of Samaria, the Lord referred to the Assyrian hosts as the 'rod of mine anger.' 'The staff in their hand,' he said, 'is mine indignation.' Isaiah 10:5." Review and Herald, February 12, 1914.

THE END—1798

And the story of the Papacy receiving its deadly wound here [AD1798].
Encyclopedia Britannica, 1913 Edition:

> "In 1796 Napoleon invaded Italy, defeated the papal troops and occupied Ancona and Loreto. Pius sued for peace, which was granted at Tolentino on the 19th of February1797; but on the 28th of December of that year, in a riot created by some Italian and French revolutionists, General Duphot of the French embassy was killed and a new pretext furnished for invasion. General Berthier marched to Rome, entered it unopposed on the 13th of February 1798, and, proclaiming a republic, demanded of the pope the renunciation of his temporal authority. Upon refusal he was taken prisoner, and on the 20th of February was escorted from the Vatican to Siena, and thence to the Certisa near Florence. The French declaration of war against Tuscany led to his removal by way of Prama, Piacceza, Turin and Grenoble to the citadel of Valance, where he died six weeks later, on the 29th of August 1799." Encyclopedia Britannica, 1913 Edition.

A. T. Jones, Signs of the Times, October 24, 1900:

> "Thus 'those days' are the twelve hundred and sixty years of papal supremacy, which began in A.D. 538, at the rooting up of the last of the 'three' kingdoms mentioned in Daniel 7:8, 20, 24, and ended in A.D. 1798, when the papal government was abolished in Rome, when a Roman republic was again declared there, and 'the old foundations of the capital were made again to resound with the cries, if not the spirit, of freedom; and the venerable ensign, S.P.Q.R., after the lapse of fourteen hundred years, again floated in the winds,' and when the pope was made a prisoner and was carried into captivity in France, where he died at Valence, August 29, 1799." A. T. Jones, Signs of the Times, October 24, 1900.

First in AD1797, Berthier subdues Italy but the Pope is still in the Vatican; and, in then 1798 he [Berthier] takes him [the Pope] and then in 1799 in captivity he [the Pope] dies.

So, Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning.

And at the beginning of this time prophecy, you have got a three- or four-year history that gets paralleled down here at 1798. It is very interesting to look at it. And we are not dealing with it in detail here, because there is more about this 2520 that is very profound.

THE SOUTHERN 2520 (PROGRESSIVE)

THE FIRST: MANASSEH—677BC

2 Chronicles 33:11

> "[11]Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon." 2 Chronicles 33:11 (KJV).

And in this history [beginning at 677BC], one of the arguments is that Manasseh, though carried away in captivity in 677, he repents and he returns home. Okay? Therefore, that cannot be the beginning of the scattering is the argument. But, that is not the Millerite logic.

Prophets and Kings, page 382:

> "Faithfully the prophets continued their warnings and their exhortations; fearlessly they spoke to Manasseh and to his people; but the messages were scorned; backsliding Judah would not heed. As an earnest of what would befall the people should they continue impenitent, the Lord permitted their king to be captured by a band of Assyrian soldiers, who 'bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon,' their temporary capital. This affliction brought the king to his senses; 'he besought the Lord his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, and prayed unto Him: and He was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord He was God.' 2 Chronicles 33:11–13. But this repentance, remarkable though it was, came too late to save the kingdom from the corrupting influence of years of idolatrous practices. Many had stumbled and fallen, never again to rise." Prophets and Kings, 382.

> EARNEST: First fruits; that which is in advance, and gives promise of something to come. Hence earnest or earnest-money is a first payment or deposit giving promise or assurance of full payment. Hence the practice of giving an earnest to ratify a bargain. This sense of the word is primary, denoting that which goes before, or in advance. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.

The Millerite logic is is that the 2520 begins when the pride of God's people's power is broken, and the pride of their power is they wanted a king. They wanted to be like the other nations. And here [723BC], the king of the Northern Tribe is taken away, and here [677BC] Manasseh is carried away. And from this point on, they are always in subjection to other kings, even if they are still ruling in their own little domain they are in subjection to other kings. This [677BC] is where their pride of their power is taken away.

And more importantly, there are five or six kings after Manasseh that takes you to Zedekiah, when Jerusalem is destroyed and they are carried into Babylon captive.

THE LAST: UNITED STATES—1844

> "The Bible declares that before the coming of the Lord, Satan will work 'with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness;' and they that 'received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved,' will be left to receive 'strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.' 2 Thessalonians 2:9-11. Not until this condition shall be reached, and the union of the church with the world shall be fully accomplished throughout Christendom, will the fall of Babylon be complete. The change is a progressive one, and the perfect fulfillment of Revelation 14:8 is yet future." The Great Controversy, 389.

But, Manasseh here is illustrating 1844; and, in 1844 what Manasseh is illustrating is the United States. And the United States, when Sister White talks about the First Angel's Message being rejected down here in 1842, 1843, 1844, she says the Protestants of the United States suffered a moral fall, but it was not complete. The complete fall of the United States is down here at The Sunday Law.

So, this prophecy with Manasseh is describing a progressive fall; and, when it is fulfilled in the 1844 time period, it is marking the beginning of a progressive fall.

So, if you do not understand that Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning, and you do not look carefully at this, there are lots of hooks to hang your doubts on and reject the warning message that is designed to prepare you for the Seal of God.

And the name MANASSEH here, I will add one nice little thought here. We are passing over some things that we have dealt with before.

MANASSEH: Strong's Concordance H4519—causing to forget.

The name MANASSEH means causing to forget.

And when you get down here to the Protestants of the United States, they have forgotten that they had escaped from Roman Catholicism. So, when the message came to them saying, "You need to continue to separate further and further from the Roman Church here in the 1840s because now the complete light of the Reformation has come," the Protestants have forgotten that they have come out of Roman Catholicism and they determined they were going to stay under the influence of Catholicism, holding on to the two primary pillars of Catholicism, that being the immortality of the soul and Sunday sacredness.

And, of course, when you get down to the end of the world, the reason that the United States places the Papacy on the throne of the Earth is they forgot who she is.

The Great Controversy, page 581:

> "And let it be remembered, it is the boast of Rome that she never changes. The principles of Gregory VII and Innocent III are still the principles of the Roman Catholic Church. And had she but the power, she would put them in practice with as much vigor now as in past centuries. Protestants little know what they are doing when they propose to accept the aid of Rome in the work of Sunday exaltation. While they are bent upon the accomplishment of their purpose, Rome is aiming to re-establish her power, to recover her lost supremacy. Let the principle once be established in the United States that the church may employ or control the power of the state; that religious observances may be enforced by secular laws; in short, that the authority of church and state is to dominate the conscience, and the triumph of Rome in this country is assured.

"God's word has given warning of the impending danger; let this be unheeded, and the Protestant world will learn what the purposes of Rome really are, only when it is too late to escape the snare. She is silently growing into power. Her doctrines are exerting their influence in legislative halls, in the churches, and in the hearts of men. She is piling up her lofty and massive structures in the secret recesses of which her former persecutions will be repeated. Stealthily and unsuspectedly she is strengthening her forces to further her own ends when the time shall come for her to strike. All that she desires is vantage ground, and this is already being given her. We shall soon see and shall feel what the purpose of the Roman element is. Whoever shall believe and obey the word of God will thereby incur reproach and persecution." The Great Controversy, 581.

So Manasseh, meaning causing to forget, he is illustrating the United States from a lot of different directions; and, you have these quotes that show the United States forgets where they came from.

You have some quotes in there that show the United States forgets where they came from.

AHAZ—742BC (THE BEGINNING)

Isaiah 7:1-2

"[1]And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. [2]And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind." Isaiah 7:1-2 (KJV).

JAMES WHITE—1863 (THE END)

Okay. Now, what we want to deal with today a little bit—and this is why I am moving quickly; I have a lot of reading—is here in 1863, James White, the leader of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, he sets aside the 2520 on this [1843] Chart and, in so doing, he is setting aside this Chart. And in the same year he introduces a new chart without the 2520. And those of us that are teaching the importance of Habakkuk's Tables out in the public arena today, one of the quotes that we use—I do not have it in these notes, but it is in the worship notes—one of the quotes that we use is from James White; and, James White said, before 1863, "Anyone that denies that the 1843 Chart is the fulfillment of Habakkuk II has left the original faith. So, James White is the one that is noted as being so specific about the significance of this [1843] Chart, of which the [vertical] center line is the 2520; and, yet, he is the one in 1863 that sets it aside.

And what James White was, he was the first leader of Adventism. So, what we are going to do this morning is deal with James White, but deal with him line upon line, proof-texting, by looking at some first leaders. We want to put in the record here about James White as we begin.

Like I said this morning, we have to move quickly because there is some reading to do.

This is from Pamphlets 159, beginning on page 14, speaking of James White.

"I will here copy from another testimony written June 6, 1863:"—

So, this is a testimony from 1863, the very year that we are dealing with, the conclusion of the 19 years.

> "'I was shown that our testimony was still needed in the church,"—HERS [ELLEN'S] AND JAMES'S TESTIMONY—"and that we should labor to save ourselves trials and cares, and that we should preserve a devotional frame of mind. It is duty for those in the Office to tax their brains more, and my husband tax his less. Much time is spent by him upon various matters which confuse and weary his mind, and unfit him for study, or for writing, and hinder his light from shining in the Review as it should."—

So, we are taking note here that in 1863 James White is under—I am going to call it "peer pressure," and you will see why I call it peer pressure. I do not mean it specifically as peer pressure, necessarily; but, all the first leaders are under mental strain and they are tested. You will find that every first leader is placed under mental strain and then they are tested. And that is where James is.

And when is he? He is that way in 1863.

Continuing on:

> —"I saw that my husband's mind should not be crowded and overtaxed. His mind must have rest, and he be left free to write and attend to matters which others cannot do. Those engaged in the Office can lift from him a great weight of care if they would dedicate themselves to God, and feel a deep interest in the work. No selfish feelings should exist among those who labor in the Office. It is the work of God in which they are engaged, and they are accountable to God for the motives and manner in which this branch of his work is performed. They are required to discipline their minds, and to bring their minds to task. Forgetfulness is sin. Many feel that no blame should be attached to forgetfulness. There is a great mistake here; and this leads to many blunders, and much disorder, and many wrongs. The mind must be tasked. Things that should be done should not be forgotten. The mind must be disciplined until it will remember."—

Dropping down to the next paragraph:

> "My husband has had much care, and he has done many things which others ought to have done, fearing they would, in their heedlessness, make mistakes which would involve losses not easily remedied. This has been a great perplexity to his mind. Those who labor in the Office should learn. They should study, and practice, and exercise their own brains; for they have this branch of business alone, while my husband has the responsibility of many departments of the work. If the workmen make a failure, they should feel that it rests upon them to repair damages from their own purses, and not allow the Office to suffer loss through their carelessness. They should not cease to bear responsibilities, but should try again, avoiding their former mistakes. In this way they would learn to take that care which the word of God ever requires, and then they will do no more than their duty."—

So, she is talking about Jams White having a personal connection to every branch of the work, working with people that did not seem to have that personal connection with it; so, his mind is getting worn out from worry.

The next paragraph:

> —"I was shown that my husband should take time to do those things which his judgment tells him would preserve his health. He has thought that he must throw off the burdens and responsibilities which were upon him, and leave the Office, or his mind would become a wreck."—

He knew it. He thought, "I need to set these things aside, because I can tell my mind is getting worn out." So, he even knew it.

And when did he know it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In 1863.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In 1863.

> —"I was shown that when the Lord released him from his position, he would give him just as clear evidence of his release as he gave him when he laid the burden of the work upon him. But he has borne too many burdens, and those laboring with him at the Office, and his ministering brethren also, have been too willing that he should bear them. They have, as a general thing, stood back from bearing burdens and have sympathized with those that were murmuring against him, and left my husband to stand alone while he was bowed down beneath censure until God has vindicated his own cause. If they had taken their share of the burdens, he would have been relieved." Pamphlets 159, 14–15.

So, I am putting into the record here, in this argument that I am making, that James White in 1863, he was going to be tested at a time period when he was mentally worn out.

PEER PRESSURE

REHOBOAM—THE FIRST KING OF JUDAH (REJECTING THE OLD PATHS)

So, I want to go to the first king of Judah, [indicating the name of Rehoboam on the whiteboard].

The first king of the united Israel of the 12 tribes is king Saul; but, when the kingdom split, the first king of Judah is Rehoboam, the first king of Israel is Jeroboam—we are going to look at Jeroboam.

The first leader of God's people when they came out of Egypt is Aaron. I know you might claim Moses, but I am pointing to Aaron the same way I am pointing to James White. Aaron's brother was the prophet; James White's wife was the prophetess. As far as a human leader, Aaron was the first leader when they came out of Egypt; and, then king Saul—this is not Paul; this is king Saul—the first leader of Ancient Israel united.

So, let us look at Rehoboam.

And what I am saying is, is that in every first leader they are tested. You will see that they are tested, and part of their test is mental strain, peer pressure, of one way or another.

So, this is Rehoboam. And we want to look at what their [these first leaders'] tests are and what they do with their tests, and see that it is a parallel to James White's test, and also a parallel to Ahaz's test; but, we will deal with that more later.

This is Rehoboam, the first king of Judah, reading from Prophets and Kings, pages 87 – 91.

> "'Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.' 1 Kings 11:43.
> "Soon after his accession to the throne, Rehoboam went to Shechem, where he expected to receive formal recognition from all the tribes. 'To Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.' 2 Chronicles 10:1.
> "Among those present was Jeroboam the son of Nebat—the same Jeroboam who during Solomon's reign had been known as 'a mighty man of valor,' and to whom the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite had delivered the startling message, 'Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee.' 1 Kings 11:28, 31.
> "The Lord through His messenger had spoken plainly to Jeroboam regarding the necessity of dividing the kingdom. This division must take place, He had declared, 'because that they have forsaken Me, and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in My ways, to do that which is right in Mine eyes, and to keep My statutes and My judgments, as did David.' Verse 33.
> "Jeroboam had been further instructed that the kingdom was not to be divided before the close of Solomon's reign. 'I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand,' the Lord had declared; 'but I will make him prince all the days of his life for David My servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept My commandments and My statutes: but I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.' Verses 34, 35.
> "Although Solomon had longed to prepare the mind of Rehoboam, his chosen successor, to meet with wisdom the crisis foretold by the prophet of God, he had never been able to exert a strong molding influence for good over the mind of his son,"—IT IS ABOUT HIS MIND—"whose early training had been so grossly neglected. Rehoboam had received from his mother, an Ammonitess, the stamp of a vacillating character. At times he endeavored to serve God and was granted a measure of prosperity; but he was not steadfast, and at last he yielded to the influences for evil that had surrounded him from infancy. In the mistakes of Rehoboam's life and in his final apostasy is revealed the fearful result of Solomon's union with idolatrous women."—

What is that? The Mystery of Iniquity.

> —"The tribes had long suffered grievous wrongs under the oppressive measures of their former ruler."—SOLOMON—"The extravagance of Solomon's reign during his apostasy had led him to tax the people heavily and to require of them much menial service. Before going forward with the coronation of a new ruler, the leading men from among the tribes determined to ascertain whether or not it was the purpose of Solomon's son to lessen these burdens. 'So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying, Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.'

"Desirous of taking counsel with his advisers before outlining his policy, Rehoboam answered, 'Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed."—

Now, in these worship series, we have already determined that these three days, prophetically, is 46 years. So, his decision takes place after 1844, if you can understand that at a prophetic level.

Is 1863 after 1844?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPINGER: Yes. Okay.

—"'And King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people? And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants forever.' 2 Chronicles 10:3–7."—

So, who did he turn to? He turned to the Pioneers. He turned to the founding fathers. He turned to the old men, and the old men gave him counsel.

But, now he is going to turn to the young men.

—"Dissatisfied,"—

Dissatisfied with what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: With their answer.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: With the Old Paths, with the Pioneer message, he was dissatisfied with it.

—"Dissatisfied, Rehoboam turned to the younger men with whom he had associated during his youth and early manhood, and inquired of them, 'What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?' 1 Kings 12:9. The young men suggested that he deal sternly with the subjects of his kingdom and make plain to them that from the very beginning he would brook no interference with his personal wishes.

"Flattered by the prospect of exercising supreme authority, Rehoboam determined to disregard the counsel of the older men"—

"Set aside the foundational message."

—"the older men of his realm, and to make the younger men his advisers. Thus it came to pass that on the day appointed, when 'Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam' for a statement concerning the policy he intended to pursue,"—

When they came together after the three days, when they came together after 1844.

—"Rehoboam 'answered the people roughly, . . . saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.' Verses 12–14.

"Had Rehoboam and his inexperienced counselors understood the divine will concerning Israel, they would have listened to the request of the people for decided reforms in the administration of the government. But in the hour of opportunity that came to them during the meeting in Shechem, they failed to reason from cause to effect, and thus forever weakened their influence over a large number of the people. Their expressed determination to perpetuate and add to the oppression introduced during Solomon's reign was in direct conflict with God's plan for Israel, and gave the people ample occasion to doubt the sincerity of their motives. In this unwise and unfeeling attempt to exercise power, the king and his chosen counselors revealed the pride of position and authority."—

Now, you can take these first leaders and compare them to James White. And for me, an important reason why I start with Rehoboam—and we are about at this important reason, so I want you to get it—because, when we are talking about James White in 1863 setting aside the [1843 and 1850] Charts, the foundational truths, many people, you know, get offended, "Oh, he is attacking James White."

But, in the story of Rehoboam, it is clear that what Rehoboam did—I mean, it mattered but it really did not matter what Rehoboam did because it was going to happen. It was a fulfillment of prophecy; and, the Bible plainly says that.

So, what James White was going to do, he was going to fulfill prophecy, one way or the other. It is not about James White being a lost person or a saved person or being a good person or a bad person, it is about prophetic fulfillment.

And Frank Sutter, how many of you know of Frank Sutter, the Pioneer Frank Sutter?

Had Frank Sutter been the one that set aside the 2520 in 1863, nobody would have known it because you do not even know who Frank Sutter is, do you?

Neither do I. I doubt that there was a Pioneer named Frank Sutter. But, the point is, in order to mark this point in prophecy, the covering up of William Miller's jewels, it had to be done by someone in authority to put it into the historical record. Had Frank Sutter did it, it would not have meant anything. It had to be accomplished; this prophecy has to be fulfilled by someone in authority and leadership position. So, this is not about James White being a lost soul or a bad guy; this is about the fulfillment of prophecy. And this argument is sustained in the first leader, Rehoboam.

Notice the next paragraph. It says,

—"The Lord did not allow Rehoboam to carry out the policy he had outlined. Among the tribes were many thousands who had become thoroughly aroused over the oppressive measures of Solomon's reign, and these now felt that they could not do otherwise than rebel against the house of David. 'When all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.' Verse 16.

"The breach created by the rash speech of Rehoboam proved irreparable. Thenceforth the twelve tribes of Israel were divided, the tribes of Judah and Benjamin composing the lower or southern kingdom of Judah, under the rulership of Rehoboam; while the ten northern tribes formed and maintained a separate government, known as the kingdom of Israel, with Jeroboam as their ruler. Thus was fulfilled the prediction of the prophet concerning the rending of the kingdom. 'The cause was from the Lord.' Verse 15." Prophets and Kings, 87–91.

Okay. This 1863, the cause is from the Lord. This is not about the salvational status of James White. It was not about the salvational status of Rehoboam. It was the prophecy was going to be fulfilled, one way or another.

Nevertheless, this first king [Rehoboam] was suffering under peer pressure. All Israel came together. They wanted an answer, and he was being tested right there at the beginning of his reign as a leader. And what he did is he rejected the Old Paths; he rejected the Pioneer counsel, if you can see it.

And in so doing, as a first leader, Rehoboam is prefiguring the first leader James White who, in 1863, set aside the Old Paths.

AARON—THE FIRST HIGH PRIEST (ONLY A FEW DAYS)

Exodus 32:1

Aaron, the first leader when they came out of Egypt.

Exodus 32:1 says,

"And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him." Exodus 32:1 (KJV).

And Sister White tells us, they were threatening to kill Aaron, if he did not do as they said. So, is that peer pressure?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Is he under a mental strain here?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. And he is the first leader.

There is a whole lot in this, but let us read this passage from Patriarchs and Prophets, beginning at page 316.

> "In the absence of Moses, the judicial authority had been delegated to Aaron, and a vast crowd gathered about his tent, with the demand, 'Make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.' The cloud, they said, that had heretofore led them, now rested permanently upon the mount; it would no longer direct their travels. They must have an image in its place; and if, as had been suggested, they should decide to return to Egypt, they would find favor with the Egyptians by bearing this image before them and acknowledging it as their god.
> "Such a crisis demanded a man of firmness, decision, and unflinching courage; one who held the honor of God above popular favor, personal safety, or life itself. But the present leader of Israel was not of this character."—IT IS ABOUT HIS MENTAL STRENGTH—"Aaron feebly remonstrated with the people, but his wavering and timidity at the critical moment only rendered them the more determined. The tumult increased. A blind, unreasoning frenzy seemed to take possession of the multitude. There were some who remained true to their covenant with God, but the greater part of the people joined in the apostasy. A few who ventured to denounce the proposed image making as idolatry, were set upon and roughly treated, and in the confusion and excitement they finally lost their lives."—

Did you notice that? They actually killed some people over this, to get him to build this calf.

> —"Aaron feared for his own safety;"—

This is mental stress, like Rehoboam, like James White.

> —"and instead of nobly standing up for the honor of God, he yielded to the demands of the multitude. His first act was to direct that the golden earrings be collected from all the people and brought to him, hoping that pride would lead them to refuse such a sacrifice. But they willingly yielded up their ornaments; and from these he made a molten calf, in imitation of the gods of Egypt. The people proclaimed, 'These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.' And Aaron basely permitted this insult to Jehovah. He did more."—

And pay attention to this; because, "He did more."

> —"He did more. Seeing with what satisfaction the golden god was received, he built an altar before it,"—

He did not just build a golden calf; he built an altar before it.

> —"and made proclamation, 'Tomorrow is a feast to the Lord.'"—

Now, I want you to see here—I will throw it in here real quickly—is the first thing is self in this story. Okay? Aaron determines that he is going to preserve himself, and his first 'trying to defend God,' his first thing is to appeal to the pride of self to the people around him. The first issue in this sequence of events is self.

The second issue is the image of the beast, the golden calf.

And, the third issue is the altar. And we have already read in this worship service that the true altar is Christ.

So, what you have in this sequence is self-exaltation, the image test, and a false Christ. In our history that would be the Daily, self-exaltation; Pantheism; and, a false Christ.

All right. Anyway, we are going to deal with that as we proceed; but, we have put it in the record.

> —"'Tomorrow is a feast to the Lord.' The announcement was heralded by trumpeters from company to company throughout the camp. 'And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink and rose up to play.' Under the pretense of holding 'a feast to the Lord,' they gave themselves up to gluttony and licentious reveling.
> "How often, in our own day, is the love of pleasure disguised by a 'form of godliness'! A religion that permits men, while observing the rites of worship, to devote themselves to selfish or sensual gratification, is as pleasing to the multitudes now as in the days of Israel. And there are still pliant Aarons, who, while holding positions of authority in the church, will yield to the desires of the unconsecrated, and thus encourage them in sin.
> "Only a few days had passed since the Hebrews had made a solemn covenant with God to obey His voice."—

Please note that time is not the factor. You know, when some people point to 1863 and they argue, "Well, James White had to have a grasp of that history. It was right there in that very same history. He was giving the accurate understanding of what should be done with the 2520, because he was right there with it. He could not have made a mistake that early on."

Well, Aaron is making a mistake within days. The time is not the argument against James White being typified by these first leaders.

> —"Only a few days had passed since the Hebrews had made a solemn covenant with God to obey His voice."—A FEW DAYS!—"They had stood trembling with terror before the mount, listening to the words of the Lord, 'Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.' The glory of God still hovered above Sinai in the sight of the congregation; but they turned away, and asked for other gods. 'They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped the molten image. Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox.' Psalm 106:19, 20. How could greater ingratitude have been shown, or more daring insult offered, to Him who had revealed Himself to them as a tender father and an all-powerful king!" Patriarchs and Prophets, 316–317.

So, if you have looked at this story before closely, you know that what Aaron assembled was the image of the beast; because, when Moses is going to punish those for making and worshipping the image of the beast, he grinds it up in powder and forces them to drink it. He mixes it with water and forces them to drink it; and, this is the punishment of the Third Angel in Revelation 14, when the wrath of God is poured out without measure from the cup of His indignation.

So, here we see Aaron not only making an image to the beast but making an altar, a false Christ, in this history. And at the same time that he is doing it, Moses is up doing what? Receiving the Two Tables.

So, Aaron, at the time that the Two Tables are being given to Ancient Israel, Aaron is making a counterfeit table, and the counterfeit table is the gods of Egypt.

And what are the primary gods of Egypt? What is the primary god of Egypt that is represented by that golden calf? It is the worship of the sun.

So, Aaron is making a counterfeit table. Aaron is being tested as a first leader. He is under extreme peer pressure, as was James White. And what Aaron does is he introduces a false table, a counterfeit table, in place of Moses's Two Tables. And what we are saying is James White was under peer pressure and was being tested as the first leader and he introduces a false table in place of Habakkuk's Two Tables [referencing the 1843 and 1850 Charts displayed behind the podium], paralleling Rehoboam rejecting the Old Paths.

JEROBOAM—THE FIRST KING OF EPHRAIM

1 Kings 12:25-33

> "[25]Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel. [26]And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David: [27]If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah. [28]Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. [29]And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan. [30]And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan. [31]And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi. [32]And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bethel, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. [33]So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense." 1 Kings 12:25-33 (KJV).

Jeroboam, the first leader of the Northern Tribe, the ten kings; Prophets and Kings, pages 99 – 101:

> "Placed on the throne by the ten tribes of Israel who had rebelled against the house of David, Jeroboam, the former servant of Solomon, was in a position to bring about wise reforms in both civil and religious affairs. Under the rulership of Solomon he had shown aptitude and sound judgment; and the knowledge he had gained during years of faithful service fitted him to rule with discretion. But Jeroboam failed to make God his trust.

"Jeroboam's greatest fear"—

Now, Sister White is going to introduce Jeroboam's first test, and she is going to let us know that he was afraid. He is under mental pressure.

—"Jeroboam's greatest fear was that at some future time the hearts of his subjects might be won over by the ruler occupying the throne of David."—OF JUDAH—"He reasoned that if the ten tribes should be permitted to visit often the ancient seat of the Jewish monarchy, where the services of the temple were still conducted as in the years of Solomon's reign, many might feel inclined to renew their allegiance to the government centering at Jerusalem. Taking counsel with His advisers, Jeroboam determined by one bold stroke to lessen, so far as possible, the probability of a revolt from his rule. He would bring this about by creating within the borders of his newly formed kingdom two centers of worship, one at Bethel"—

What does BETHEL mean? The House of God.

—"and the other at Dan."—

And DAN, what does DAN mean? Judge.

Okay. So, these two cities, this is church the House of God; judgment, state: church and state.

He is going to outdo Aaron twofold.

—"In these [TWO] places the ten tribes should be invited to assemble, instead of at Jerusalem, to worship God.

"In arranging this transfer, Jeroboam thought to appeal to the imagination of the Israelites by setting before them some visible representation to symbolize the presence of the invisible God. Accordingly he caused to be made two calves of gold, and these were placed within shrines at the appointed centers of worship. In this effort to represent the Deity, Jeroboam violated the plain command of Jehovah: 'Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image. . . . Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them.' Exodus 20:4, 5.

"So strong was Jeroboam's desire to keep the ten tribes away from Jerusalem that he lost sight of the fundamental weakness of his plan. He failed to take into consideration the great peril to which he was exposing the Israelites by setting before them the idolatrous symbol of the deity with which their ancestors had been so familiar during the centuries of Egyptian bondage. Jeroboam's recent residence in Egypt should have taught him the folly of placing before the people such heathen representations. But his set purpose of inducing the northern tribes to discontinue their annual visits to the Holy City led him to adopt the most imprudent of measures. 'It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem,' he urged;

> 'behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.' 1 Kings 12:28."—

Word for word from the story of Aaron.

> —"Thus they were invited to bow down before the golden images and adopt strange forms of worship.
>
> "The king tried to persuade the Levites,"—

Now, he tried to persuade the Levites of the ten Northern Tribes.

> —"some of whom were living within his realm, to serve as priests in the newly erected shrines at Bethel and Dan; but in this effort he met with failure. He was therefore compelled to elevate to the priesthood men from 'the lowest of the people.' Verse 31. Alarmed over the prospect, many of the faithful, including a great number of the Levites, fled to Jerusalem, where they might worship in harmony with the divine requirements." Prophets and Kings, 99–101.

In the story of Aaron, who were the heroes?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Levites.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Levites. They refused to participate.

So, the story of Aaron and the story of Rehoboam, they are the same stories. Aaron had just come out of Egypt, but Jeroboam had just come out of Egypt. Those that refused to participate in the golden calf in both stories are the Levites.

And in the story of Aaron and in the story of Jeroboam it is emphasized more clearly that the golden calf represents the image of the beast. Aaron built an image of this calf, an image of the beast, and they were to worship it.

At the end of the world, the image of the best test, Sister White defines the image of the beast is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship. And in Jeroboam's time, you see more clearly the church and state, because one of the idols is in Bethel (the church) and one is in Dan (the state). So, in both of these stories you see the church and state. In both of these stories you see the first leaders under pressure. They just came out of Egypt; they are under pressure, and they introduce a counterfeit worship.

And in 1863, due to the Civil War, the Seventh-day Adventist Church was formed; but, in order to be formed, it had to become legally represented, legally associated with the Government of the United States. So, in 1863 the Adventist Church and the United States became connected. In this history [of the first leaders] the combination of church and state is marking that in 1863 the Adventist Church becomes connected with the Government of the United States; so, in this story we are seeing a parallel with this.

But with Jeroboam, with Jeroboam there is something even more significant. Jeroboam is the first of 19 kings in the Northern Kingdom. There are going to be 19 kings in all; Jeroboam is the first; and, every one of these was bad kings.

And ultimately, the final king, Hoshea, he gets carried away into captivity, and it begins this scattering of Israel. And it does not matter which of those 19 kings that you look at in the Northern Kingdom in the Scriptures, all of their wickedness is traced back to Jeroboam. They are always associated with the sin of Jeroboam. They would not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam.

Therefore, who is it that produced the scattering? Jeroboam. This sin here, this is what caused the scattering.

And what we are saying is that in 1863 the scattering of William Miller's dream began as the first foundational truths were set aside and covered up. So, Jeroboam is associated with the scattering: first king, under pressure, gives us an illustration of James White.

Of course, James White, the "first king," the first leader of Adventism, what is he doing? He is giving us an illustration of the last leader of Adventism, whoever that might be.

SAUL—THE FIRST KING

The first king, Saul.

In 1 Samuel 13:1-14, you can read this story.

> "[1]Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel, [2]Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in mount Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent. [3]And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear. [4]And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal. [5]And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Bethaven. [6]When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits. [7]And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. [8]And he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him. [9]And Saul said, Bring hither a burnt offering to me, and peace offerings. And he offered the burnt offering. [10]And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him. [11]And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash; [12]Therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt offering. [13]And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever. [14]But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee." 1 Samuel 13:1-14 (KJV).

But, Samuel had given Saul a prophecy right when he was anointed king. It was a prophecy—all right?—that "I am going to meet you." But, you can read it real quickly and you can think that He is going to meet him right away. But, it was not. It was a prophecy when he was first anointed king that was not going to be fulfilled for two years. We are going to read about this.

So, when it was fulfilled, when Saul reached this city, he was supposed to wait for Samuel to come to do an offering; but, he was under pressure because the Philistines were rallying their troops and his men were scared, and it says that his men were scattered. Okay? And it says his men were scattered for seven days. And under pressure, Saul, in the scattering of seven times, he goes ahead and he makes the offering that Samuel was supposed to make, thus rejecting the Spirit of Prophecy and setting forth an example of church and state when the king takes it upon himself to do the offering.

So, there are lots of tie-ins with these first kings.

But, let us read this from Samuel. In 1 Samuel 13:1-14 is where this story, and we are going to read verse 8:

"[8]And he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: . . ."—

What is a day?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A year.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A year; seven years.

How many days in a year? He tarried 2520 days. Okay?

—"but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him."

Now, here is Sister White on this, Signs of the Times, May 11, 1888.

> "After Saul had been anointed king of Israel, Samuel the prophet gave him minute directions as to what course he should pursue. He prophesied that the Lord would work a change in his heart to prepare him for the solemn responsibilities of his new office. He declared to the king, 'Thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they shall prophesy; and the Spirit of the Lord will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man. . . . And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal;"—

Now, you can read this passage and think, "Well, right after he prophesizes, he is going to Gilgal; but, the reality of it is, he does not end up in Gilgal for a couple of years; but, he is supposed to remember the prophecy about Gilgal. Okay?

> —"And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt-offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings. Seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and show thee what thou shalt do.' As Saul journeyed on his way, the change of which the prophet had spoken was wrought in him, and God gave him another heart; and all that Samuel had said came to pass. The heart of Saul was turned to the Lord, his mind was enlarged, and he had the blessing of spiritual understanding. He felt that the strength of Israel was the Lord God, even Jehovah, and in him he could have courage, fortitude, and resolution to govern wisely. It now depended upon Saul to work out the salvation that God had wrought within him.

"It was not until the second year of his reign that the presence of Saul was required at Gilgal. At that time the Philistines were encamped against the Israelites."—

He is going to be tested, as all these first leaders are tested.

—"At that time the Philistines were encamped against the Israelites. Saul and his followers could see the vast host that were arrayed against them, and the Israelites were appalled at the sight of the mighty forces they would have to encounter in battle. They were not prepared to meet the enemy, for they were undisciplined and poorly armed." Signs of the Times, May 11, 1888.

You are a king. You are getting surrounded by the Philistines. Your army is undisciplined, and they are poorly armed, and they are starting to run away. Is that mental pressure or what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

Patriarchs and Prophets, pages 617 – 261:

"Day after day Saul tarried,"—

How many days is he tarrying? Seven days.

—"Day after day Saul tarried, but without making decided efforts toward encouraging the people and inspiring confidence in God. Before the time appointed by the prophet had fully expired, he became impatient at the delay and allowed himself to be discouraged"—

Now, if you remember way back when in this worship series, who is it that becomes impatient with a delay? The foolish virgins become impatient with a delay.

He is a foolish virgin here.

—"he became impatient at the delay and allowed himself to be discouraged by the trying circumstances that surrounded him."—

This is mental pressure.

—"Instead of faithfully seeking to prepare the people for the service that Samuel was coming to perform, he indulged in unbelief and foreboding. The work of seeking God by sacrifice was a most solemn and important work; and God required that His people should search their hearts and repent of their sins, that the offering might be made with acceptance before Him, and that His blessing might attend their efforts to conquer the enemy. But Saul had grown restless; and the people, instead of trusting in God for help, were looking to the king whom they had chosen, to lead and direct them.

"Yet the Lord still cared for them and did not give them up to the disasters that would have come upon them if the frail arm of flesh had become their only support. He brought them into close places,"—

He is going to test them.

—"that they might be convicted of the folly of depending on man, and that they might turn to Him as their only help. The time for the proving of Saul had come."—

Every first leader gets tested. Every first leader gets tested. James White was a first leader; he got tested.

—"He was now to show whether or not he would depend on God and patiently wait according to His command, thus revealing himself as one whom God could trust in trying places as the ruler of His people, or whether he would be vacillating and unworthy of the sacred responsibility that had devolved upon him. Would the king whom Israel had chosen, listen to the Ruler of all kings? Would he turn the attention of his fainthearted soldiers to the One in whom is everlasting strength and deliverance?

"With growing impatience he awaited the arrival of Samuel and attributed the confusion and distress and desertion of his army to the absence of the prophet. The appointed time came, but the man of God did not immediately appear. God's providence had detained His servant. But Saul's restless, impulsive spirit would no longer be restrained. Feeling that something must be done to calm the fears of the people, he determined to summon an assembly for religious service, and by sacrifice entreat the divine aid. God had directed that only those consecrated to the office should present sacrifices before Him. But Saul commanded, 'Bring hither a burnt offering;' and, equipped as he was with armor and weapons of war, he approached the altar and offered sacrifice before God."—

This is a combination of church and state, just like Jeroboam, just like Aaron, marking that in 1863, for noble purposes, the Seventh-day Adventist Church is going to be legally established so that its members have a legal right not to be drafted into the Civil War. But, nevertheless, the Millerite Movement became a church in 1863, and to do so, became connected legally with the Government of the United States.

—"'And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.' Samuel saw at once that Saul had gone contrary to the express directions that had been given him. The Lord had spoken by His prophet that at this time He would reveal what Israel must do in this crisis. If Saul had fulfilled the conditions upon which divine help was promised, the Lord would have wrought a marvelous deliverance for Israel, with the few who were loyal to the king. But Saul was so well satisfied with himself and his work that he went out to meet the prophet as one who should be commended rather than disapproved.

"Samuel's countenance was full of anxiety and trouble; but to his inquiry, 'What hast thou done?' Saul offered excuses for his presumptuous act."—

We noted yesterday that the presumptuous act of Uzziah parallels the presumptuous act of The Sunday Law by the United States.

—"He said: 'I saw that the people were"—WHAT?—"scattered from me,"—

This test produced a scattering.

—"and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash; therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the Lord: I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt offering.

"'And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly:"—

There is a foolish virgin.

—"thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which He commanded thee: for now would the Lord have established thy kingdom upon Israel forever. But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath sought Him a man after His own heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be captain over His people. . . . And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto Gibeah of Benjamin.'

"Either Israel must cease to be the people of God, or the principle upon which the monarchy was founded must be maintained, and the nation must be governed by a divine power. If Israel would be wholly the Lord's, if the will of the human and earthly were held in subjection to the will of God, He would continue to be the Ruler of Israel. So long as the king and the people would conduct themselves as subordinate to God, so long He could be their defense. But in Israel no monarchy could prosper that did not in all things acknowledge the supreme authority of God.

"If Saul had shown a regard for the requirements of God in this time of trial, God could have worked His will through him. His failure now proved him unfit to be the vicegerent of God to His people. He would mislead Israel. His will, rather than the will of God, would be the controlling power. If Saul had been faithful, his kingdom would have been established forever; but since he had failed, the purpose of God must be accomplished by another. The government of Israel must be committed to one who would rule the people according to the will of Heaven." Patriarchs and Prophets, 617–621.

So, what are we saying? We are saying, as we are looking at the conclusion of the 2520s in 1863, that this is the point where James White set aside this [1843] Chart and introduced a counterfeit Chart, the 1863 Chart. And in so doing, he covered up the first truth that William Miller had been led to recognize, the 2520. James White rejected it. He was under mental pressure, according to the testimony of the Spirit of Prophecy. And as the first leader of modern Israel, he has been prefigured by Rehoboam, who under mental pressure set aside the Old Paths, the counsel of the Pioneers; he was prefigured by Aaron, who introduced under mental pressure a counterfeit table in the place of the Two Tables of the Ten Commandments and thus represented the combination of church and state, identifying that the Seventh-day Adventist Church would be formed as a legal church in 1863. And he paralleled Jeroboam who did the same thing with Bethel and Dan (church and state); but, Jeroboam is the one that is attributed with causing the scattering, which parallels the scattering of William Miller's dream begins in 1863. And Saul, also an illustration of church and state as he takes it upon himself to make an offering that the priests were supposed to make, did so in a time when his armies were being scattered for seven days, causing him great mental anguish.

So, when it comes to first leaders, upon the testimony of several, we see that a first leader is tested. And so far, we see that they always failed the test.

And then in the middle of the night I realized something. This here [indicating the 1843 Chart], we have already established this. I realized this last night, so there is no way that it is in your notes. Okay? But, I like it.

We have already established in this worship series, you can go back and check your notes, that the truths on this [1843] Chart, Sister White says, are the foundational truths of Adventism; and, she says so in the context of at least in one passage that there is no other foundation that can be laid except Christ Jesus. So, she is saying that the doctrines on these [1843 and 1850] Charts—and doctrines are truths—the truths on these Charts are the truths of the Word of God, and Jesus is the Word of God. So, at a level that it is really impossible for human beings to fully understand, the Bible, the truths in the Bible, are Jesus. We can understand it to a certain extent, but I do not think we can understand it fully.

And Sister White says that the truths on this [1843] Chart are Christ. They are the foundation. She also says that this is the Rock of Ages. So, she gives you two testimonies about who Christ is, connected with this [1843] Chart.

So, in 1863, there was another leader that denied the Rock of Ages, another first leader, Peter. And he denied Him right there at the beginning.

Was Peter under stress when he realized that they were going to take Christ into the Judgment Hall and He was actually going to be crucified?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now, what had James White said?

What had James White said? James White said if you denied that this [1843] Chart is a fulfillment of Habakkuk, then you have left the original faith.

What did Peter say? "There is no way they are going to crucify you!" And he meant it. He cut off a man's ear.

But then he was confronted with the reality, and what did he do? He denied the Rock of Ages. He denied the foundations, right there in the crucifixion scene.

And what happened at the crucifixion scene? All the disciples were scattered.

So, you have a scattering here [indicating Peter]. You have a scattering here [indicating Saul]. You have a scattering here [indicating Jeroboam]. Upon the testimony of three, under pressure James White rejected the Pioneers' position and began the scattering of William Miller's dream, of Nebuchadnezzar's dream, in 1863; thus prefiguring the scattering the Adventism at The Sunday Law when the last leader of Adventism repeats the history of not only James White but of Ahaz. And we will look at that tomorrow.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be benefited from these sacred histories, and we know that in the future we are going to come under great mental pressure as we are separated from one another and have to give a reason of why we believe what we believe. And we want to take a lesson from these men. At that time we must depend fully upon you and stand upon the Foundation. But, we know that in a crisis is only where character is demonstrated, and at a crisis it is too late to develop character. We need to have that experience now if we are going to stand firm on the Rock when the test comes. Help us to learn from these first leaders, and help us to understand that these first leaders are prefiguring what took place in 1863, and that it has nothing to do with the salvation status of James White, that it was simply the prophecy had to be fulfilled, the prophecy of William Miller's dream. We thank you for bringing us together to open your Word this morning. We ask a blessing upon our day of service to you. Please keep us safe. Let us do things that are glorifying to you. We ask for a continued blessing upon the DVDs and the LiveStreaming. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #38

Part Five: 1863

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for giving us a good night's rest, and now we ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit as we consider these truths that you have for us this morning. We ask that you forgive our sins that we might be fit vessels to receive the light that you have for us. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us, and we ask that you would accomplish this. We ask that you would take control of this presentation and overrule the human element that the message might be from the Throne from on high. Please bless the work that we are doing here beyond the simple worship. We thank you for these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are still dealing with Isaiah 7; 1863, the beginning of James White setting aside the foundational truths, with the beginning of William Miller's dream.

PROOF-TEXTING (LINE UPON LINE)

THE FOURTH GENERATION

But, before we get back into Isaiah 7, we are going to add a line of truth to it about the fourth generation.

You see in your notes Exodus 34:7, saying,

> "Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation." Exodus 34:7 (KJV).

And then you have listed in your notes also Exodus 20:5-6; Numbers 14:17-18; and Deuteronomy 5:9-10, which emphasize this same truth, that the Lord deals with men in probationary terms under four generations.

When you get to the time period when the Lord is accomplishing the Everlasting Gospel in the generation that He is addressing, it is prophetically the fourth generation.

PROBATIONARY TIME

Genesis 15:12-16

If you go to Genesis 15, beginning at verse 12, it says,

> "[12]And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him. [13]And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not their's , and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years; [14]And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

"[15]And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age. [16]But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full." Genesis 15:12-16 (KJV).

So, if you look closely, Egypt is getting judged there; therefore, prophetically it would be the fourth generation of Egypt.

Israel is going to come out of Egypt in their fourth generation, and when they come out the Amorites are going to be judged in their fourth generation. So, you have three illustrations there, simultaneously. So, we want to understand that when we get down to The Sunday Law time period, we are in the fourth generation of Adventism, and we want to understand that in the Millerite History, prophetically it was the fourth generation of the Protestant churches. They were the ones that were under the gun there. William Miller was presenting the First Angel's Message to the Protestants of that generation.

In speaking of the iniquity of the Amorites, in Testimonies, volume 5, page 207, Sister White places it in the context of Ezekiel 8. She quotes from Ezekiel 8 and then she comments. She says,

"'And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side; and the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at My sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.'

"Jesus is about to leave the mercy seat of the heavenly sanctuary to put on garments of vengeance and pour out His wrath in judgments upon those who have not responded to the light God has given them. 'Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.' Instead of being softened by the patience and long forbearance that the Lord has exercised toward them, those who fear not God and love not the truth strengthen their hearts in their evil course. But there are limits even to the forbearance of God, and many are exceeding these boundaries. They have overrun the limits of grace, and therefore God must interfere and vindicate His own honor.

"Of the Amorites the Lord said: 'In the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.' Although this nation was conspicuous because of its idolatry and corruption, it had not yet filled up the cup of its iniquity, and God would not give command for its utter destruction. The people were to see the divine power manifested in a marked manner, that they might be left without excuse. The compassionate Creator was willing to bear with their iniquity until the fourth generation. Then, if no change was seen for the better, His judgments were to fall upon them.

"With unerring accuracy the Infinite One still keeps an account with all nations. While His mercy is tendered with calls to repentance, this account will remain open; but when the figures reach a certain amount which God has fixed, the ministry of His wrath commences. The account is closed. Divine patience ceases. There is no more pleading of mercy in their behalf.

"The prophet, looking down the ages, had this time presented before his vision. The nations of this age have been the recipients of unprecedented mercies. The choicest of heaven's blessings have been given them, but increased pride, covetousness, idolatry, contempt of God, and base ingratitude are written against them. They are fast closing up their account with God.

"But that which causes me to tremble is the fact that those who have had the greatest light and privileges have become contaminated by the prevailing iniquity. Influenced by the unrighteous around them, many, even of those who profess the truth, have grown cold and are borne down by the strong current of evil. The universal scorn thrown upon true piety and holiness leads those who do not connect closely with God to lose their reverence for His law. If they were following the light and obeying the truth from the heart, this holy law would seem even more precious to them when thus despised and set aside. As the disrespect for God's law becomes more manifest, the line of demarcation between its observers and the world becomes more distinct. Love for the divine precepts increases with one class according as contempt for them increases with another class.

"The crisis is fast approaching. The rapidly swelling figures show that the time for God's visitation has about come. Although loath to punish, nevertheless He will punish, and that speedily. Those who walk in the light will see signs of the approaching peril; but they are not to sit in quiet, unconcerned expectancy of the ruin, comforting themselves with the belief that God will shelter His people in the day of visitation. Far from it. They should realize that it is their duty to labor diligently to save others, looking with strong faith to God for help. 'The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.'

"The leaven of godliness has not entirely lost its power. At the time when the danger and depression of the church are greatest, the little company who are standing in the light will be sighing and crying for the abominations that are done in the land. But more especially will their prayers arise in behalf of the church because its members are doing after the manner of the world.

"The earnest prayers of this faithful few will not be in vain. When the Lord comes forth as an avenger, He will also come as a protector of all those who have preserved the faith in its purity and kept themselves unspotted from the world. It is at this time that God has promised to avenge His own elect which cry day and night unto Him, though He bear long with them.

"The command is: 'Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.' These sighing, crying ones had been holding forth the words of life; they had reproved, counseled, and entreated. Some who had been dishonoring God repented and humbled their hearts before Him. But the glory of the Lord had departed from Israel; although many still continued the forms of religion, His power and presence were lacking." Testimonies, volume 5, 207–210.

EZEKIEL EIGHT

THE IMAGE OF JEALOUSY—EZEKIEL 8:1, 3-4

Now, earlier in this worship series we pointed out that in these reform lines it is when the Divine Symbol descends that the time of visitation begins. The time of visitation for Ancient Israel began at Christ's baptism. So, 1840, this was the time of visitation for the Protestants in that generation. This is the fourth generation. This is where the Lord was going to separate the wise and the foolish, those who are sighing and crying, and those that are careless.

And, God's dealings with men are ever the same. He never changes.

So, when we get to the end of the world where the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends, it will be the time of God's visitation for Adventism.

And, of course, all of the prophets are speaking about the end of the world; so, when Sister White deals with the fourth generation of the Amorites and she references Ezekiel 8 to explain it, then we know that Ezekiel 8 is present truth at the end of the world.

Let us go to Ezekiel 8 and look at a couple of things.

In Ezekiel 8, there are four escalating abominations. In Ezekiel 8, verse 1 says,

> "[1]And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month,"—

And the fifth day of the month comes just before the sixth day of the month; so, here in verse 1 you are in the sixth year, in the sixth month just before the sixth day, just on the verge of 666.

—"[1]And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me." Ezekiel 8:1 (KJV).

Verse 3:

"[3]And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate, that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy. [4]And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain." Ezekiel 8:3-4 (KJV).

The first abomination that Ezekiel is shone—and at one level I am suggesting that these four abominations represent the four generations of Adventism—the first one he is shone is the image of jealousy. In your notes, from Pamphlets 150, page 21, speaking about the jealousy between two publishing institutions in Adventism, Sister White says,

"Warnings have been given me that the publishing house upon the Pacific coast should not, in thought, word, or deed, depreciate the office at Battle Creek, neither should the publishing house at Battle Creek look with envy and jealousy upon the instrumentalities the Lord has established upon the Pacific Coast. Plans should be carefully considered in Battle Creek, that they may in no case militate against the work in Oakland. But the image of jealousy was long ago set up, and has provoked to jealousy, which has grieved the Spirit of God." Pamphlets 150, 21.

The image of jealousy is self-exaltation. When you are jealous over what someone else is doing, you lift yourself above them in any way that you can.

This is where Lucifer began. Story of Redemption, page 14:

"Lucifer was envious and jealous of Jesus Christ. Yet when all the angels bowed to Jesus to acknowledge His supremacy and high authority and rightful rule, he bowed with them; but his heart was filled with envy and hatred." Story of Redemption, 14.

Of course, what I am suggesting here, what I am going to suggest here very briefly as we move through this passage, is that the Daily in the Book of Daniel is the symbol of at least at one level of self-exaltation. Daniel 8 is about al . You see al mentioned throughout Daniel 8. Each power that is represented in Daniel 8 waxes greater than the previous power, and that word great in Daniel 8 is al .

And the height of al in Daniel 8, al being self-exaltation, is the Daily; because, the Daily is the Hebrew word continual, and it is identifying the continual battle, the continual war of self-exaltation that began right back here in Heaven with Lucifer and it only escalates as history goes through. So, the Daily at one level is the symbol of self-exaltation, and it is therefore also a symbol of the image of jealousy in Ezekiel 8.

THE SECRET CHAMBER—EZEKIEL 8:10-12

The next place that Ezekiel is taken in chapter 8, verses 10 through 12, says,

> "[10]So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about. [11]And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up. [12]Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? For they say, The Lord seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth." Ezekiel 8:10-12 (KJV).

So, when they are using their censers, what does that represent? Worship; they are worshipping idols. It is idol worship.

In The Desire of Ages, page 631, it says,

> "As one of the signs of Jerusalem's destruction, Christ had said, 'Many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.' False prophets did rise, deceiving the people, and leading great numbers into the desert. Magicians and sorcerers, claiming miraculous power, drew the people after them into the mountain solitudes. But this prophecy was spoken also for the last days. This sign is given as a sign of the Second Advent. Even now false christs and false prophets are showing signs and wonders to seduce His disciples. Do we not hear the cry, 'Behold, He is in the desert'? Have not thousands gone forth into the desert, hoping to find Christ? And from thousands of gatherings where men profess to hold communion with departed spirits is not the call now heard, 'Behold, He is in the secret chambers'?"

The warning about the secret chambers that Christ gives is spiritualism.

> —"And from thousands of gatherings where men profess to hold communion with departed spirits is not the call now heard, 'Behold, He is in the secret chambers'? This is the very claim that spiritism puts forth. But what says Christ? 'Believe it not. For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.'" The Desire of Ages, 631.

So, when they are going into their secret chambers to worship their images on the wall, the second point that they are doing is they are entering into spiritualism: First step – self-exaltation; second step – the worship of spiritualism.

WEEPING FOR TAMMUZ—EZEKIEL 8:14
SUNDAY WORSHIP—EZEKIEL 8:16

SELF-EXALTATION, SPIRITUALISM, A FALSE CHRIST AND SUNDAY WORSHIP

Verse 14, the third abomination, says,

> "[14]Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz." Ezekiel 8:14 (KJV).

Now, who is Tammuz? Tammuz is a false christ. The sequence is self-exaltation, the religion of spiritualism and the placing of a false christ.

And after those three steps, it leads to verse 16, the fourth abomination.

> "[16]And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east." Ezekiel 8:16 (KJV).

So, these four abominations at one level represent the four generations of Adventism; but, where Sister White is applying them is here at the end of the world during the time of God's visitation; and, they are describing an increasing apostasy that goes on in Adventism.

But, they are also describing the step-by-step process that leads to Sunday worship. The first, the image of jealousy is self-exaltation; then follows spiritualism; then a false christ; and, then Sunday worship.

What I am showing up here [see Figure No. 62, first reform line], this is the line of Christ, a very brief line of Christ.

And in this history, right after the cross, Paul informed us that "the Mystery of Iniquity doth already work," and the Mystery of Iniquity that Paul was identifying in this history was the Mystery of Iniquity that was going to impact this generation [AD508, 533, and 538]; because, there was going to have to be a falling away before the man of sin would be revealed in AD538.

So, when you take the prophetic record, if you uphold the Pioneer view of the prophetic record where you have historical points of reference that can teach you some prophetic lessons; when you look at Paul's Mystery of Iniquity and you get down to here where in 538 the man of sin is going to be revealed after there is a falling away first, then you have waymarks that will describe this process of exposing who the man of sin is. And we have dealt with this process in earlier studies in this worship.

But, in AD508, the Daily (Paganism) is taken away.

Was it taken away? Not really, its political resistance to the rise of the Papacy was removed, but actually all it was doing was taking off its pagan garments and putting on Christian garments. It was still there.

Then, to mark the full manifestation, the climax of this work of the Mystery of Iniquity in AD533, you have Justinian making his decree, identifying the Pope of Rome as the Corrector of Heretics and the head of the church, at which point in 533 the emperor of the Roman Empire has surrendered his civil authority to the Pope of Rome. Church and state are fully in place here, legally, in 533. Now, the third horn still had to be removed in order for the Papacy to exercise that civil authority, but in 533 the prophetic record marks the climax, the conclusion of the Mystery of Iniquity.

And one of the most often used symbols of the Mystery of Iniquity is this joining of church and state, the mixing of the unholy with the holy, the unlawful relationship, which leads to the manifestation of the false christ, the man of sin; and, thereafter, follows Sunday worship.

So, we are saying here in Millerite History that repeats this [Figure No. 62, second reform line], immediately after 1844 you have the false view of the Daily introduced with Crossier. And in this time period, I am not denying that immediately thereafter in this time period Sister White begins to be confronted with the very teachings that are later on in our history labeled as Pantheism. She marks it right from the beginning. She is dealing with the Pantheistic views that John Harvey Kellogg is going to become the symbol of promoting.

But the Mystery of Iniquity, immediately after 1844, the Daily is introduced; and, this work begins.

I would not argue if someone would put better dates on this, but what I am saying here is that in AD1901 is a classic point in our history where the false view of the Daily is introduced—it is not fully received at that point, but that is the turning point.

1901 parallels 508 because in 508 the Daily was taken away, and in 1901 the true view of the Daily was taken away.

But, the Daily, that represents the image of jealousy. That is self-exaltation.

Now, certainly John Harvey Kellogg is already promotion Pantheism in the 1880s. You can look at Testimonies volume 5, and Ellen White is already dealing with Kellogg for Pantheism in the 1880s. But, it is in this history, the Alpha Apostasy history, where it becomes a crisis issue.

And what is Pantheism? We can define it in a lot of ways, but it is the idea that God is in everything; and, that is amalgamation. That is mixing the holy with the unholy; and, it is spiritualism. It is the secret chambers. All right? And it leads to 1919 with the publishing of the book by W. W. Prescott, and then his promotion of it all around the world of The Doctrine of Christ, which is a false christ.

And I have worked with men that are the modern counterpart of W. W. Prescott's false christ. They can tell lots of wonderful stories from the Bible about who Jesus is and what He is, and those stories, they are all correct as they may be but they cut the prophetic words out of that christ where he is powerless. He is a false christ.

And this [Figure No. 62, third reform line] leads to false worship.

But this Alpha Apostasy, the reason that it is important to note this in relation to this [AD508 through 538], and what we are saying is: the Daily is taken away in 508, the Daily is taken away in 1901; Justinian's decree, the amalgamation [in 533] and Kellogg's Pantheism, amalgamation [in 1908]; the false christ revealed here [538], the man of sin; the false christ revealed in the book The Doctrine of Christ [1919]. And we are saying that the Alpha Apostasy is going to be repeated down here at the end of the world in the Omega Apostasy.

So, he who is unwilling to be benefitted by history is destined to repeat it.

JOEL

Joel 1:1-4; 2:25

So, we are dealing with the fourth generation. We are dealing with why it is important to understand what the fourth generation represents in prophetic terms.

Go to Joel, chapter 1. Joel is a present truth prophecy, because Joel was fulfilled in the time of Christ. In the Book of Acts Peter plainly says that Pentecost is a fulfillment of Joel. If you do not understand that, read Acts, chapters 2 and 3. But, Joel, the signs that are set forth in Joel, in the falling of the stars and the other signs that precede and introduce the Millerite History, that is based upon the Book of Joel. But, Joel's primary application is at the end of the world. So, Joel is present truth. Joel is the prophecy that is the point of reference for the three histories that Sister White repeatedly refers to: the history of Christ, the history of the Millerites, and our history.

And in Joel, chapter 1, you will see the four generations identified, if you are willing to see.

Beginning at verse 1:

> "[1]The word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel. [2]Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? [3]Tell ye your children of it,"—

Who is to tell their children of it? The old men.

> —"[3]Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children,"—

That is your grandchildren.

> —"and their children another generation."—

That is your great grandchildren. There are four generations marked there.

Joel is going to give us a second witness to that. In the next verse he says, > —"[4]That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpiller eaten." Joel 1:1-4 (KJV).

And I am saying those four insects are those four generations. If you are wondering why someone would say that, go to chapter 2 of Joel. In verse 25 it says,

> "[5]And I will restore to you the years"—

". . . the years," the years are certainly something that can represent generations.

> "[5]And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you." Joel 2:25 (KJV).

These four insects represent the four generations that lead to our history here at the end of the world; and, there is a promise that the Lord is going to restore the beginnings of Adventism at the end, in the story of Joel.

JOB

JOB: H347—From H340; hated (that is, persecuted); Job, the patriarch famous for his patience. H340—to hate (as one of an opposite tribe or party); hence to be hostile:—be an enemy.

THE UPRIGHT MAN

Job 1:1-2; Job 42:10-17

Job, if you go to Job, is an illustration of how the righteous fare in this story of the four generations in God's Word. And you will notice in Job, chapter 1, verses 1 and 2, it says,

> "[1]There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil. [2]And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters." Job 1:1-2 (KJV).

Now, he is a perfect man—right?—s that not what it says?

What does his name mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hated.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Hated; that is, persecuted; to hate; to be hostile; an enemy.

So, this perfect man, he is a perfect man in God's eyes; but, he is going to be a hated man.

And how many sons does he have?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seven.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Seven.

How many daughters?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Three.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Three.

And what is going to happen to them? He is going to go through the experience of the 144,000 when every earthly support is cut off. Is that not what the story of Job is all about?

Now, go to Job, chapter 42. At the end of his story, in verse 10, it says this:

> "[10]And the LORD turned"—THAT IS, REVERSED—"the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. [11]Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold. [12]So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning:"—

Okay. The beginning of Adventism is what the Book of Joel promises to restore; but, here, taking this line of the four generations—and we will show you why it is four generations in a moment—on top of Joel, you will see that the end of Adventism is going to be more blessed than the beginning.

—"[12]So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses. [13]He had also seven sons and three daughters."—

The seven sons representing the 144,000, and the three daughters representing the eleventh-hour workers, but that is another story.

—"[14]And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Kerenhappuch. [15]And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren. [16]After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. [1] So Job died, being old and full of days." Job 42:10-17 (KJV).

Job represents four generations, and Job's latter end is better than his beginning end and he is a hated man, though he is perfect in the eyes of the Lord. Job is a representation of the four generations of Adventism and the testing process that they go through.

JEHU

NOT SO UPRIGHT

2 Kings 10:28-30

And we also have in the Scriptures—and if you check four generations, we are about covering all the places in the Scriptures where the four generations are mentioned. I called the subtitle for Job, "The Upright Man." But, this next person I am going to call "Not So Upright." His name is Jehu.

2 Kings 10:28-30: Jehu, he does the Lord's will, sure enough; but, he was more than zealous. Verse 28 of chapter 10 of 2 Kings, verse 28:

"[28]Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel."—

And Jehu becomes the king of what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Israel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Israel.

So, once again, Jehu is going to do the will of the Lord here, but there were not any kings from Israel from the Northern Tribes that were not wicked and they all perpetuated the sins of Jeroboam; and, the sins of Jeroboam is what brought about the scattering.

—"[28]Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. [29]Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan. [30]And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." 2 Kings 10:28-30 (KJV).

Right there, that tells you if you want to go look at the four generations that followed Jehu, and the Bible marks when the fourth generation fulfilled that prophecy, what will you see? You can see an illustration of the four generations of Adventism.

But, I just want you to see that Jehu, in contrast with Job, is also an illustration of the four generations; and, Jehu accomplished the Lord's will, but he followed after Jeroboam, the son of Nebat.

Notice what Sister White says Jehu represents, The 1888 Materials, page 1630.

"There are men at the heart of the work who do not realize their responsibilities. They do not realize how many there are who are in positions of trust who have not a correct knowledge of God, whom to know aright is life eternal. They know not what it means to sanctify the Lord God in their hearts. They do not know what it means to make God their fear and their dread. Had they known this, they would now be humble men, fearing God, the living God. But like Jehu, they have been driving furiously forward, to assume burdens which they cannot carry. It is because men know so little of true godliness, because they have so little genuine experience in the building up, little by little, of the work and cause of God, that they make long strides without God to lead the way." The 1888 Materials, 1630.

Manuscript Releases, volume 17, page 209:

"Morning after morning I awake at 2 a.m., and often at 12 p.m. [midnight]. During the night season has been presented before me the unfaithfulness of men who have occupied positions of responsibility at the great heart of the work. The councils at this great center, if kept pure and uncorrupted, would have been as the voice of God; but men have worked upon principles that are condemned by the word of God, and they have not heard nor obeyed the voice of God. Like Jehu, they have driven furiously in a course to uproot the confidence of God's people in men who are true to the Master's cause. They have sought to establish their own authority, while betraying the cause of God. While making decisions, and devising and planning, they have tried to make their oppressive human orders as the voice of God to His people." Manuscript Releases, volume 17, 209.

Signs of the Times, November 20, 1884:

"There are many whose religion consists in activities. They want to be engaged in, and have the credit of doing, some great work while the little graces that go to make up a lovely Christian character are entirely overlooked. The busy, bustling service, which gives the impression that one is doing some wonderful work, is not acceptable to God. It is a Jehu spirit, which says, 'Come, see my zeal for the Lord.' It is gratifying to self; it feeds a self-complacent feeling; but all the while the soul may be defiled with the plague-spot of unsubdued, uncontrolled selfishness." Signs of the Times, November 20, 1884.

So, what I am saying is, when you look at the fourth generations in Bible prophecy, it is in this history when the Lord is raising up the 144,000 that you are in the fourth generation. And, the Bible gives us two classes: one is represented by Job, and one is represented by Jehu.

2 Kings 15:11-12

2 Kings 15:11-12, it says,

"[11]And the rest of the acts of Zachariah,"—

This is the fourth generation of Jehu.

—"behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. [12]This was the word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass." 2 Kings 15:11-12 (KJV).

So, whenever we are looking at applying Bible prophecy at the end of the world, one of the themes or one of the principles that needs to be factored into it is that we are in the fourth generation, and in the fourth generation we have two classes of worshippers. They are represented in a variety of ways in the Scriptures. But, in terms of looking at it from the fourth generation, the two classes are either Job or Jehu.

And, Jehu, I did not pull all the passages out where Sister White speaks of Jehu; but, primarily it is representing the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in her terminology.

It is worth noting that when Jehu was anointed, Elijah was commanded to go and anoint three persons: Elisha, Jehu, and one other person that is skipping my mind. In any case—and we have dealt with this already in this worship service. This is what happens when I get out of the notes.

But, when you look at the three people that were anointed, Elisha represents those people that receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and Jehu represents the Pharisees in Adventism—oh, man, this is a bad mental block!—and the third person represents the liberals in Adventism, the Sadducees in Christ's time period.

I want to go back now to Ahaz and Isaiah 7.

We will dig out that third person here for us tomorrow; but, it is going to bug me all the rest—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hazael?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Hazael! There you go: Hazael. All right. There is the Sadducees, the liberals in Adventism. Those are the disciples of Desmond Ford. Okay? Because, the Sadducees, they did not believe in angels; they did not believe in miracles; they did not believe in the resurrection from the dead. And those Desmond Fordites that are almost the majority of Adventism anymore, they do not believe you can be resurrected from your sinful experience and be prepared to meet Jesus Christ without sin in your life. That is Hazael.

Those are the influences in God's church at the end. Those people that are receiving the outpouring of the Holy Spirit: Elisha, a leadership that is attempting to defend what they believe to be the foundations by the policies that they are applying; there is Jehu and, Hazael, leading people in Adventism to believe, "Hey, you do not have any participation in overcoming sin. It is impossible for you to do. Just trust that the Lord is going to magically change you when He gets here."

THE DAYS OF UZZIAH, JOTHAM AND AHAZ

THREE ANGELS

Isaiah 7:1

So, when we go back to Isaiah 7 and we are looking at Ahaz, I want to put another line of thought; but, I want you to understand that in the context of Ahaz representing the fourth generation. And perhaps you will be able to do that right now.

Isaiah 7, verse 1:

> "[1]And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it." Isaiah 7:1 (KJV).

And what I am wanting you to see there is that there are three kings' name: Uzziah, Jotham, and Ahaz. They are mentioned in reverse order because he was dealing with the time period when Ahaz was king; but, he references that Jotham was his father, and Uzziah was the father of Jotham. And what I am wanting you to see, and two presentations ago, I believe, we pointed out that Uzziah and Jotham represent the end of the United States, just as David and Solomon represent the beginning; and that in Isaiah 6:1, where it says, "In the days that Uzziah died," that that was marking the end of the prosperity of the United States, and it is understood in connection with Isaiah 6:3, which is marked as when the Angel of Revelation 18 descends; and, the Angel of Revelation 18 descends when Islam is restrained, just as the Angel of Revelation 10 descended when Islam was restrained in 1840.

And Islam was restrained by the United States and the world immediately after September 11, 2001; and, immediately after September 11, 2001, Uzziah had died and the economic prosperity of the United States and the world began to take a nosedive. And anyone who wants to argue with that, just go ahead and look at your stock market over the past couple of weeks. Look at what Spain is doing. Look at what Italy is doing. There is city after city in Italy this week that is going bankrupt, not going to be able to run its schools. Look at what Portugal is doing and look at what Greece is doing in the news this week and see how it is impacting the economy of the United States, represented by Uzziah who died on September 11, 2001.

So, what I am saying is, is these three kings, Uzziah, Jotham, and Ahaz, represent the Three Angels' Messages at the end of the world.

(UZZIAH) THE FIRST ANGEL ARRIVES

2 Chronicles 26:3

In 2 Chronicles 26:3—and you may not remember it now, even if you have been in every worship service, but long, long ago in this series we made a point of identifying that all the Angels arrive at a point in time and they are thereafter empowered. The First Angel's Message arrived in 1798, but it was empowered in 1840. The Second Angel's Message arrived in 1842, but it was empowered at the Midnight Cry in 1844. The Third Angel's Message arrived in 1844, and it is empowered when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 joins with it later. So, each of the Angels arrive and then they are thereafter empowered.

And what I am saying to you is that Uzziah represents the First Angel's Message. In 2 Chronicles 26, verse 3, it says,

> "[3]Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem." 2 Chronicles 26:3 (KJV).

So, he arrives, he is going to reign for 52 years. That is his arrival time, at the Time of the End [1798], the First Angel arrives. But when he dies, when he dies, in the same passage in Isaiah 6:1, in the year that Uzziah died, verse 1 of Isaiah 6,

(UZZIAH) THE FIRST ANGEL IS EMPOWERED

Then in verse 3 of Isaiah 6 we know that it is the empowerment of the First Angel's Message because it is when the Mighty Angel comes down.

Remember this, from Review and Herald, December 22, 1896. We have read this previously.

> "As they [the angels] see the future, when the whole earth shall be filled with His glory, the triumphant song of praise is echoed from one to another in melodious chant, 'Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of Hosts.'"—

That is Isaiah 6, verse 3.

> —"They are fully satisfied to glorify God; and in His presence, beneath His smile of approbation, they wish for nothing more. In bearing His image, in doing His service and worshiping Him, their highest ambition is fully reached." Review and Herald, December 22, 1896.

So, what I am saying is, Uzziah arrives at the beginning in 2 Chronicles 25, and his message is empowered on 9/11,

(JOTHAM) THE SECOND ANGEL

2 Chronicles 27:1

JOTHAM AND THE IMAGE OF THE BEAST TEST

And he [Uzziah] is followed by whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jotham.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jotham. Jotham, the king that follows him [Uzziah], his son, is the Second Angel's Message.

And one of the primary characteristics of the Second Angel's Message when you are studying the characteristics of the Angels in these three waymarks is there is a test in the Second Angel's Message. It is called the image of the beast test. It is a test illustrated in a variety of ways.

And Jotham, he arrives in 2 Chronicles 27, verse 1. It says,

> "[1]Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok." 2 Chronicles 27:1 (KJV).

But if you go to chapter 15 of 2 Kings, 2 Kings, chapter 15, it says something about the time of Jotham's reign, the second king, the Second Angel's Message. In 2 Kings 15, in verses 36 and 37, it says,

> [36]Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [37]In those days the LORD began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah." 2 Kings 15:36-37 (KJV).[3]

Who is Pekah? He is the king of Israel. Right? The son of Remaliah.
And who is Israel? He is the ten Northern Tribes.
How many remember long ago when we illustrated the history of Elijah?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Show of hands.)

HISTORY OF ELIJAH

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Elijah was preceded by 1260 days of drought. Right?

And then Elijah comes into the history and there is going to be a testing process that goes on here. The Lord goes down on the way to Carmel and meets with Elijah. Then the prophets of Baal do their dance of deception. Then fire comes down out of Heaven, paralleling the Midnight Cry. Then the prophets of Baal are judged. Does everyone remember this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Then Elijah prays seven times, marking the scattering, marking the disappointment.

[3] Corrected typo quoted in Notes from 2 Kings 25:36-37 to 2 Kings 15:36-37.

And we lined this [the History of Elijah] up with Millerite History—1844, the Midnight Cry, 1842, 1840, 1798, 1260.

And one of the things that we taught about here is that in this history, one of the things that took place in the Millerite History is the True Prophet was demonstrated, in contrast with the false prophet. It is here where the Protestant churches began to fulfill their role as the False Prophet of Bible Prophecy.

Well, these three Messages here [Figure No. 63A contrasting Figure No. 63C], this is king Saul, king David, and king Solomon. And when you get to king Solomon, then you see the two classes demonstrated. You see the ten Northern Tribes contrasted with Judah, the two Southern Tribes. The Lord has chosen Judah. Judah is the True Prophet. You are to worship in Jerusalem at the sanctuary.

But, Jeroboam, what does he do? He goes up and sets up two golden calves in Bethel and Dan (church and state).

So, Israel, the ten Northern Tribes, is apostate Protestantism. Israel, the ten tribes, Jeroboam, that is apostate Protestantism.

Judah is Adventism.

Okay. Now, that was a real quick overview to give us a point of reference.

When Jotham is king, in his days the alliance between Syria and Israel took place. Syria is a king, a kingdom. It is a state. Pekah, Israel, it is a church. In the days of Jotham, the second king, you have the threat of the image of the beast. You have church/state represented by the confederacy of Syria and Israel.

Jotham is the Second Angel's Message, and in the Second Angel's Message you will see the image of the beast test.

(AHAZ) THE THIRD ANGEL—DOOR CLOSES; WORSHIP THE KING OF THE NORTH

Ahaz—and this is where we are heading to, Ahaz in 742 and 1863—Ahaz is the Third Angel's Message. So, one of the characteristics of the Third Angel's Message is that there is a door that closes.

Are you with me? Are you following the logic?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What I am saying is that Ahaz is representing the end of the world and he is representing the Millerite History; and, his history is taking place in the fourth generation, in the time period when the Everlasting Gospel is reaching its climax, and two classes of worshippers are going to be demonstrated. And in the story of Ahaz, the two classes of worshippers are Ahaz the Rebel and Isaiah the True Prophet. Okay? There are the two classes.

But, in that history of the fourth generation, you have the Three Angels' Messages marked by Uzziah. He came into history. At 9/11 he is empowered. The First Angel's Message is empowered. But, he Uzziah is followed by Jotham, and Jotham is threatened by the combination of church and state, the alliance between Syria and Israel. But, Ahaz, Ahaz, he is going to start a new church.

Notice what Sister White says in Prophets and Kings, page 330.

> "'The Lord brought Judah low' because of continued transgression. In this time of chastisement Ahaz,"—THE THIRD KING, THE THIRD ANGEL'S MESSAGE—"instead of repenting, trespassed 'yet more against the Lord: . . . for he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus.' 'Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them,' he said, 'therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me.' 2 Chronicles 28:19, 22, 23."—

Instead of turning to God, he turns to Syria.

> —"As the apostate king neared the end of his reign, he caused the doors of the temple to be closed."—

Why did he close the sanctuary doors? Because he had seen the temple of the Syrians in Damascus, and he brought a priest up and says, "Make a blueprint for this, because you are going to go back to Jerusalem and you are going to build this altar in the courtyard of the sanctuary." And he did that. He stopped worship and he built a new church right there in the courtyard.

> —"As the apostate king neared the end of his reign, he caused the doors of the temple to be closed. The sacred services were interrupted. No longer were the candlesticks kept burning before the altar. No longer were offerings made for the sins of the people. No longer did sweet incense ascend on high at the time of the morning and the evening sacrifice. Deserting the courts of the house of God and locking fast its doors, the inhabitants of the godless city boldly set up altars for the worship of heathen deities on the street corners throughout Jerusalem. Heathenism had seemingly triumphed; the powers of darkness had well-nigh prevailed.

> "But in Judah there dwelt some who maintained their allegiance to Jehovah, steadfastly refusing to be led into idolatry. It was to these that Isaiah and Micah and their associates looked in hope as they surveyed the ruin wrought during the last years of Ahaz. Their sanctuary was closed, but the faithful ones were assured: 'God is with us.' 'Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. And He shall be for a sanctuary.' Isaiah 8:10, 13, 14." Prophets and Kings, 330.

And if you go to Isaiah 8 and take note of the passage that she is referring to when Ahaz closed the doors of the sanctuary and started a new church, she is referencing Isaiah 8:10, 13, and 14. Beginning at verse 10, it says,

> "[10]Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us." Isaiah 8:10 (KJV).

And at verse 13, it says,

> "[13]Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. [14]And he shall be for a sanctuary;"—

And the sanctuary is closed. Now you are going to have a personal experience with Jesus Christ all on your own.

> —"but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [15]And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken." Isaiah 8:13-15 (KJV).

One class is going to fall; but, what does the next verse say?

> "[16]Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples." Isaiah 8:16 (KJV).

This history is demonstrating the sealing process at The Sunday Law. It is illustrating the two classes, those that stumble and those that receive the Seal of God.

And when does it take place? When Ahaz closes the sanctuary and sets up a new church, sets up a new church.

So, what I am saying is,—

—in 742BC Ahaz, he starts a new church; but, Ahaz, he is prefiguring among other things James White and the Adventist Church. And in 1863 the Adventist Church starts.

Okay. You may have not realized it that we are still tying this in with yesterday's presentation; but, we are. One of the points in the story of Ahaz in 742BC, 19 years after this the first 2520 begins against the Northern Kingdom and it ends in AD1798. Forty-six years after that in 677BC the second 2520 starts and ends here in AD1844. Nineteen years later brings us to 1863. 1863 has been prefigured by 742BC, and in 742BC Ahaz closed the doors. He started a new church, and in 1863 the Seventh-day Adventist Church began.

A NEW CHURCH (AD34)

A PROPHECY SEALED UP—DANIEL 9:24

SEAL: H2856—A primitive root; to close up; especially to seal. Same as Daniel 12:4.

A SCATTERING BEGINS

Now, if you go to Daniel 9:24, we want a second witness for this. A second witness for what? For what happens when a new church starts.

Daniel 9:24:

> "[24]Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy." Daniel 9:24 (KJV).

In the time period of Christ, the 70 weeks ends down here at the stoning of Stephen (AD34). Right? So, this Daniel 9:24 is identifying the end of the 70 weeks right here, and here is where the Gospel goes full speed ahead to the Gentiles. This is where the Protestant Church begins, is right here in AD34. This is the beginning of a church.

But what happened, according to Daniel 9:24? At the beginning of this church, the prophecy is sealed up. Maybe you did not see it. Let us read it one more time.

Daniel 9:24:

> "[24]Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy." Daniel 9:24 (KJV).

Back here at the birth of Christ—and I do not have a date for it; I am just going to put His birth [as "Birth"], the Time of the End for this generation—the prophecy was unsealed.

What prophecy? That Christ, the Messiah, was here [His birth]. It was unsealed. And it was sealed back up here [AD34] at the stoning of Stephen when a new church starts.

So, when a new church starts, one of the characteristics is that the prophecy is sealed up.

Another characteristic, from The Desire of Ages, page 233—and you will see in your notes that this word SEAL in Daniel 9:24 is the same word that He used in Daniel 12 when Daniel was told to seal up His visions and prophecies.

In The Desire of Ages, page 233, it says,

> "The one week—seven years—ended in A. D. 34. Then by the stoning of Stephen the Jews finally sealed their rejection of the gospel; the disciples who were scattered"—

The disciples were what?

> —"scattered abroad"—

So, a scattering begins here [AD34], too.

> —"the disciples who were scattered by persecution 'went everywhere preaching the word' (Acts 8:4); and shortly after, Saul the persecutor was converted, and became Paul, the apostle to the Gentiles." The Desire of Ages, 233.

Spirit of Prophecy, volume 3, page 301:

> "Closely following the death of Stephen, and the consequent scattering of the believers throughout Palestine, Samaria was greatly stirred." Spirit of Prophecy, volume 3, 301.

MAY 1863, THE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH WAS LEGALLY ORGANIZED

ANCIENT ISRAEL BEGINS THE SCATTERING OF LEVITICUS 26 & MODERN ISRAEL BEGINS THE SCATTERING OF MILLER'S DREAM

So, what we are saying here, that in 742BC Ahaz, fulfilling the characteristics of the third of Three Angels, he closes the door because at the third waymark the door closes; and, he closes the door on the sanctuary and he sets up a new sanctuary right in the courtyard of God's sanctuary. He starts a new church.

So, in 742BC Ahaz is putting in the record that when this chiastic structure comes to end, you should see a new church started; and, in 1863 you see a new church started.

But, you have this secondary witness that when a new church starts [1863 (See Figure No. 64)] that the prophecy is sealed up. This is William Miller's dream being sealed up. This is when it starts: when a new church comes in, the prophecy gets sealed up. And this prophecy is William Miller's seven times what? Scattering.

And sure enough, at the stoning of Stephen, we see a scattering marked.
So, we took a long time to get to those two points; but, that is part of the story of Isaiah 7.
We will take up some more tomorrow.
Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that you are demonstrating this truth line upon line and upon the testimony of two or more that we can have confidence that what you are showing us is being established in your Word, not by human beings. And from this confidence we can understand that your dealing with human beings is always the same and that if we are willing to approach you, to approach you in the Most Holy Place that you are willing to finish the work which you have begun in us. We ask that you would give us that motivation, that mindset that we are willing to set aside whatever is holding us back and enter into that experience at this time; because, it is obvious that you are closing up shop on Planet Earth. The two classes are being developed and you are about to come and take your people home. We want to be among that people. We ask that you would accomplish that for us. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #39

Part Five: 1863

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for another day of life and a good night's rest; and, we ask for your continued blessing as we go further into Isaiah, chapter 7. We want to understand the implications of Isaiah 7 here at the end of the world. Therefore, we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit to take control of my thoughts, my words, and prepare the hearts and minds of those that are hearing these things, to receive them in the way that you see fit. We know that we are to pray for the Latter Rain in the time of the Latter Rain, and we ask that you pour it out upon us at this time by opening our understanding to your Word. We thank you for being allowed to participate in such a sacred and holy work. Please bless this time we spend with you this morning. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are dealing with the Two Tables of Habakkuk as they are typified in Bible prophecy.

We have spent a great deal of time identifying that William Miller's dream marks the point in time when the foundational truths of Adventism begin to be sealed up; and, we are putting in place that the sealing up began to take place in 1863.

We intend to finish this section on Sunday morning—we invite you to listen in at that time—and then we are going to take up the end point of the scattering of William Miller's dream, 1989.

So, we began this consideration with Isaiah 6, identifying that Isaiah represents Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world that are in a Laodicean condition that get taken in by faith into the Most Holy Place and see a revelation of God's character and a manifestation of His power, and are humbled into the dust and then purified and willing to carry a message to a people that will refuse to hear and that will refuse to see, that will take place from the point in time when the Mighty Angel descends, September 11, 2001, unto The Sunday Law in the United States.

From there we went into Isaiah 7; and, yes, we are proof-texters. We are not using the historical critical method. Those that would use the historical critical method would say, "There is no way to connect Isaiah 6 with Isaiah 7. Isaiah 6 is in the history of Jotham; Isaiah 7 is in the history of Ahaz: two different kings. There is much period of time between Isaiah 6 and Isaiah 7."

But, we as failing human beings must just trust upon the Lord that He designed the Bible from beginning to end, and He thoroughly designed it and that there are no mistakes. Isaiah 7 follows Isaiah 6, thus identifying the message that Isaiah was to carry to God's people.

When he carried the message to Ahaz, it is the starting point of both the 2520s. The message was given in 742BC, and within 65 years the Northern Kingdom in 723BC would be carried into captivity; and, then in 677BC the Southern Kingdom would be carried into captivity.

So, at a very simple level, Isaiah 7 is identifying the 2520. And Ahaz, the king at that time, rejects the warning message of the 2520; thus, prefiguring James White who rejects the 2520 at the end of this chiastic structure.

We put in place that James White's actions have been typified first leaders throughout the Scriptures. Jeroboam, the first leader of the Northern Kingdom, he rejected the worship at Jerusalem and set up two altars in Bethel and Dan, thus combining church and state, marking that in this time period of 1863, when James White was going to set aside the 2520, the Millerite Movement would cease to be a Movement and begin to be a legal church, which it did in 1863.

Jeroboam's counterpart, Rehoboam, under mental stress, as was Jeroboam, as was James White, he rejected the Pioneer counsel. He rejected the counsel of the ancient men and set that aside for the counsel of the younger men, as James White set aside the counsel of the Pioneers in 1863.

Aaron created a counterfeit table right after he came out of Egypt.

Why do you say the golden calf is a counterfeit table? At the very time that Moses was getting the two tables of the Ten Commandments that prefigure these Two Tables of Habakkuk [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts], Aaron is preparing a calf to worship. That calf is the representation of the image of the beast; and, the mark of the beast which that calf primarily symbolizes is Sunday worship, thus showing the counterfeit day of worship as in opposition to the counterfeit day of worship on the Two Tables. Aaron is making a counterfeit table as he prefigures James White introducing the 1863 chart where the 2520 is set aside.

Also, king Saul joined church and state when he took upon himself as the political leader to offer sacrifices, once again showing the combination of church and state, typifying when the Millerite Movement would cease and become a legal entity on being combined with the United States Government legally.

Now, we looked at Peter, Peter who was the disciple who was so bold to say, "I will not deny you." Shortly thereafter he is denying Christ.

And the boldest statement perhaps that we find about the 1843 Chart is from James White who says, "If you deny that this Chart is the fulfillment of Habakkuk 2, you have left the original faith." And just as Peter, in 1863 it is James White who denies this very Chart.

So, when we look at first leaders, we noted that they were all under mental stress. James White, according to Ellen White in 1863, was under mental stress. And all of these first leaders, and I hope I did not leave one out, typify the actions of James White.

And one that we emphasized purposely part of his story was Rehoboam; because, it says in his story that even though he caused division by rejecting the Pioneer counsel, it was of the Lord. It was fulfilling the prophecy. We are holding that up to say that we are not saying that James White becomes a lost man at this point in time; he was fulfilling prophecy.

A CIVIL WAR BETWEEN NORTH AND SOUTH

Isaiah 7:1-9

So, now we want to go a little further into Isaiah 7, and in Isaiah 7:1-9 is where we find this time prophecy. It is where we find a civil war between the North and the South, between the Northern Kingdom of Israel and the Southern Kingdom of Israel. And sure enough, in 1863 when this chiastic structure is coming to an end, we have a civil war between the North and the South here in the United States.

Isaiah 7, beginning at verse 1, says,

> "[1]And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. [2]And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind."—

So, what do we see for Ahaz here? He is under mental stress, just like all the other first leaders. He has the ten Northern Tribes; and, he consists of two tribes, Judah and Benjamin, and Benjamin is the smallest tribe. So, he really consists of about one and a half tribes and he has ten tribes coming at him with Syria. He is under mental stress.

Verse 3,

> —"[3]Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field;"—

The Lord's willing on Sunday we will deal with verse 3.

> —"[4]And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. [5]Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, [6]Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal: [7]Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass. [8]For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people. [9]And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established." Isaiah 7:1-9 (KJV).

So, what we see here in these verses is a civil war between North and South and Ahaz is under pressure, prefiguring a civil war between the North and the South when Sister White tells us that James White was under pressure; these two leaders.

742BC AND AD1863 WAS THE TURNING POINT IN CIVIL WAR

And in this time period we see the time prophecy of the 2520s, both set forth, beginning in this history from 742BC and ending in this history at AD1863, and it is the turning point. Ahaz is thinking that he is going to get attacked by Syria and Israel, and suddenly the prophet of the Lord appears and says, "Don't worry about it. Okay? The Lord is going to take care of you." That is the turning point in that crisis. All right?

This is a turning point here at 1863, and there is a turning point down here at The Sunday Law, the beginning of Adventism in this history of 1863 here, illustrating the end of Adventism. And the turning point is what we are going to focus on here for a moment.

Notice this quote from Bible Echo, August 26, 1895:

> "There are lessons to be learned from the history of the past; and attention is called to these, that all may understand that God works on the same lines now that He ever has done. His hand is seen in His work and among the nations now, just the same as it has been ever since the gospel was first proclaimed to Adam in Eden.
> "There are periods which are turning points in the history of nations and of the church."—

Okay. This [742BC] was a turning point in the history of Ahaz, his nation. It was also the turning point in the history of his church, as we looked at yesterday. What did he do with his church in yesterday's study? He closed the sanctuary and raised up a Pagan sanctuary in the courtyard. It was a turning point in the history of the church and the nation for Ahaz.

And earlier in this worship service, I meant to ask before we started—but it is not important. We have already put it in the record—March or April or May, early in—in April of this year, National Geographic came out with a magazine that was just focusing on the Civil War, and they point out that 1863 was the turning point in the Civil War.

And afterwards, I went in and typed in on Google "1863, turning point, Civil War," and you can get all kinds of witnesses. This is not just National Geographic. This is the historical position, and they tell you all the reasons why.

1863 was the turning point in the history of this nation, but it was also a turning point in the history of this church [the Seventh-day Adventist Church]; because, up until late 1863 we were a Movement. We were the Millerite Movement. But, we stopped being a Movement in 1863 and became a church.

So, on both of these histories we have turning points in the histories of the nation and of the church.

And what I am saying down here [the third waymark labeled "Now" of Figure No. 66], so you can understand what I mean by "Now." I mean The Sunday Law. The Sunday Law, Sister White says concerning the United States, "National apostasy will be followed by national ruin." That seems like a turning point.

But, at The Sunday Law, the church is purified. The wheat and tares are separated. That seems like a turning point for the church as well. Okay?

So, let us continue with our quote.

> —"There are periods which are turning points in the history of nations and of the church. In the providence of God, when these different crises arrive, the light for that time is given. If it is received, there is spiritual progress; if it is > rejected, spiritual declension and shipwreck follow. The Lord in His word has opened up the aggressive work of the gospel as it has been carried on in the past, and will be in the future, even to the closing conflict, when Satanic agencies will make their last wonderful movement." Bible Echo, August 26, 1895.

The [Satanic] counterfeit movement to the Movement of God's people in Revelation 18.

So, the light that was given to Ahaz we will see is represented in the Waters of Shiloah; because, when Isaiah is dealing with his [Ahaz's] attitude, he pronounces, "because you have rejected the Waters of Shiloah." And what the Waters of Shiloah represent is a symbol of the light that Ahaz rejects and, by the rejection of that light, Ancient Israel is going to go into captivity. They are going to make shipwreck of faith.

The light that came in 1863 is an historical fact. It was the Health Message. And as we look at the word SHILOAH, we will find that Shiloah is a symbol of the Health Message; and, we find that the Health Message early on gets separated between those in the health work and those in the pastoral work, because the pastors did not want to receive the message. They did not want to receive the principle that a Seventh-day Adventist pastor is also supposed to be a health reformer that practices health reform and teaches health reform. You cannot separate health reform from pastoral work, but they did.

And in this time the Lord raises up the Lord's physician, John Harvey Kellogg, who is destined to be the symbol of the Mystery of Iniquity, of Pantheism; and, part of his alienation is due to the fact that the pastors refused to accept the light of health reform that came right here in the turning point [1863] of the histories of the United States and the church. So, John Harvey Kellogg, he becomes many things; but, the Mystery of Iniquity is what he primarily symbolizes.

And one of the classic illustrations of the Mystery of Iniquity is when God's men would marry heathen wives. Right?

And who is John Harvey Kellogg married to? Oh, he was married to a Baptist woman, and she is the one that invited a famous Baptist preacher to come spend some time with them, and it was from him that John Harvey Kellogg got fine-tuned on Pantheism; because, he was a well-known Baptist preacher teaching Pantheism. So, you see in his life the symbol of the Mystery of Iniquity all the way through.

There is a whole history of development, but it begins back here when the message of Health Reform was given in 1863: "At these different crises the light for that time is given." If it is received, there is a blessing; but, if it is rejected, what happens? Shipwreck of faith.

And when you get to the time period when the Pantheistic Kellogg crisis is blowing up in the early part of the 20th Century, the symbol of that disaster is the Titanic shipwreck. So, Sister White is being real accurate about things here.

And the light that is given here at The Sunday Law is the light that we call the Loud Cry Message, and it is given to those outside of Adventism at this point. There is definitely a crisis in the church and in the nation. But, what happens to those eleventh-hour workers that do not receive the light? They make shipwreck of faith.

So, that is what we are dealing with here.

AHAZ'S SIGN OF REBELLION

Isaiah 7:10-12

Isaiah 7:10-12 says,

> "[10]Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying, [11]Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. [12]But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD." Isaiah 7:10-12 (KJV).

Now, Ahaz here is representing someone that rejects the sign. And if you have been following these worships, Brothers and Sisters, the 2520 is a sign. We have shown it over and over again from a variety of ways that the 2520 is a sign. And here [the second waymark in Figure No. 66] James White rejects the sign, the same sign that is representing Isaiah 7, the 2520.

AHAZ'S REJECTED LIGHT (THE WATERS OF SHILOAH)

Isaiah 8:5-6; John 9:1-14

Now, in Isaiah 8:5-6 we see Ahaz's rejection summarized.

> "[5]The LORD spake also unto me again, saying, [6]Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; [7]Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, . . ." Isaiah 8:5-6, in part (KJV).

They are rejecting the Waters of Shiloah, whatever that may be, and they are going to get the waters of Babylon. The Assyrians are going to come and conquer them because they rejected the soft running Waters of Shiloah.

And Shiloah is simply the Hebrew way of saying Siloam in the Greek in the New Testament. The pool of Siloam is the Waters of Shiloah.

We want to look at SILOAM, but I have a reference here. Go to John 9 before we get there to see SILOAM, John 9, verses 1 through 14.

All the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, even John.

> "[1]And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth."—

Who is the blind man at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A Laodicean.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A Laodicean.

If we are Laodiceans, why are we blind from our birth? Because we are in the fourth generation of Adventism. We are born into a church that barely remembers the third generation, let alone the second. It has no idea what the first generation was.

> —"[1]And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. [2]And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? [3]Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. [4]I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work."—

What does that mean, that "the night cometh, when no man can work"? That is the close of probation. He is placing this in the context of a work that is accomplished just prior to the close of probation.

—"[5]As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."—

When does He come into the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: September 11, 2001.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 9/11, when the Mighty Angel comes down, is no less than the personage of Jesus Christ. So, He has just put the context of the history of the pool of Siloam in place for us: the close of probation at The Sunday Law; He comes in the world at 9/11. This is the time of God's visitation.

—"[6]When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, [7]And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

[8]The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? [9]Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he. [10]Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened? [11]He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight. [12]Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

[13]They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. [14]And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes." John 9:1-14 (KJV).

It is the Sabbath day. We have not got time to deal with this right now, but this history that we are dealing with from 9/11 to The Sunday Law is the time period of the opening of the Seventh Seal—all right?—which in one sense the Sabbath day; but, we are not going there.

SILOAM

So, what is it that Siloam and Shiloah mean?

SHILOAH: H7975—rill; a fountain of Jerusalem:—Shiloah, Siloah. From H7971. H7971—a missile of attack, that is, spear; also (figuratively) a shoot of growth, that is, branch:—dart, plant, X put off, sword, weapon. SILOAM: G4611— Of Hebrew origin [H7975].

It means, a rill, a fountain of Jerusalem:—Shiloah, Siloah; a missile of attack, that is, a spear; figuratively a shoot of growth—A shoot of growth? Hmm—that is, a branch:—a dart, a plant, put off, a sword, a weapon.

SILOAM is the same word; so, let us consider these meanings of Shiloah and Siloam.

SENT

Verse 7 of John 9 means sent.

> "[9]And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.: John 9:7 (KJV).

The Pool represents the one that is sent.

THE SENT OF GOD

And Jesus is called the Sent of God in The Desire of Ages, page 145.

So, if Ahaz is rejecting the Sent of God, he is rejecting Jesus.

And who is Jesus? Well, Jesus, there are so many correct answers to that, but the one I am looking for is the one that Sister White often says: "Jesus was the foundation of the entire Jewish economy." If you reject Jesus, you are rejecting the foundation, which, of course, is a part of our story.

The Desire of Ages, page 145:

> "From the day when she heard the angel's announcement in the home at Nazareth Mary"—JESUS'S MOTHER—"had treasured every evidence that Jesus was the Messiah. His sweet, unselfish life assured her that He could be no other than the Sent of God." The Desire of Ages, 145.

He was Siloam. He was Shiloah. You reject those soft waters, you get The Sunday Law, the King of the North.

But, there is another "sent," Acts of the Apostles, page 38:

> "The Pentecostal outpouring was Heaven's communication that the Redeemer's inauguration was accomplished. According to His promise He had sent the Holy Spirit from heaven to His followers as a token that He had, as priest and king, received all authority in heaven and on earth, and was the Anointed One over His people." Acts of the Apostles, 38.

So, if you are going to reject the Sent, the Pool of Siloam, you are rejecting the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. By receiving the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, you receive Jesus. It cannot be separated. But Ahaz is symbolizing someone here that is rejecting the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

A SHOOT OF GROWTH

And what is a shoot of growth? Because, that is one of the definitions of Shiloah, a shoot of growth.

Would it be okay to say that is when a plant buds out?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. The Great Controversy, page 308, it says,

> "Christ had bidden His people watch for the signs of His advent and rejoice as they should behold the tokens of their coming King. 'When these things begin to come to pass,' He said, 'then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.' He pointed His followers to the budding trees of spring, and said: 'When they now shoot forth,"—

When they now Siloam, when they now Shiloah,

> —"ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.' Luke 21:28, 30, 31." The Great Controversy, 308.

And here Sister White is commenting on Luke 21, "What are these budding trees of Spring?" They are a sign. They are a sign that Ahaz was rejecting, as James White rejected the sign of the 2520, prefiguring the rejection down here [at The Sunday Law] of the sign of Siloam/Shiloah. Because, you have to see the Latter Rain to receive it.

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 984, says,

> "We must not wait for the latter rain. It is coming upon all who will recognize and appropriate the dew and showers of grace that fall upon us. When we gather up the fragments of light, when we appreciate the sure mercies of God, who loves to have us trust Him, then every promise will be fulfilled. [Isaiah 61:11 quoted.] The whole earth is to be filled with the glory of God." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 984.

So, you have to recognize the Latter Rain when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 comes down out of Heaven. And if you reject that light, you are doing the same thing that Ahaz did, you are rejecting the Waters of Shiloah, you are rejecting the sign of the 2520.

> "[7]And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing." John 9:7 (KJV).

BLINDNESS AND THE LAODICEAN MESSAGE—REVELATION 3:18

So, in the story of Siloam, Jesus is healing a blind man.

Verses 5 and 6 we have read, but it says,

> "[5]As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. [6]When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay." John 9:5–6 (KJV).

What is the anointing for the blind man?

Review and Herald, October 26, 1905:

> "We need, O so greatly, keen discernment, clear spiritual eyesight. Our eyes need to be anointed with the heavenly eyesalve, that we may see all things clearly." Review and Herald, October 26, 1905.

The eyesalve is the remedy for the Laodiceans. The blind man by the Pool of Siloam was a Seventh-day Adventist living at the end of the world.

THE HEALTH MESSAGE

Who represents Seventh-day Adventists living at the end of the world that receive the message at the Pool of Siloam in this history [of Ahaz in Figure No. 66]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ahaz?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. Ahaz represents those who have rejected.

Who represents those that receive it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Isaiah?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Isaiah. That is chapter 6, remember? He saw himself under the same condemnation as those that he had been condemning prior to chapter 6. He was a Laodicean, certified.

But, this Pool of Siloam in giving sight to the blind, it is a symbol of the Health Message. The Desire of Ages, page 824:

> "In the Saviour's manner of healing there were lessons for His disciples. On one occasion He anointed the eyes of a blind man with clay, and bade him, 'Go, wash in the pool of Siloam. . . . He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.' John 9:7. The cure could be wrought only by the power of the Great Healer, yet Christ made use of the simple agencies of nature. While He did not give countenance to drug medication, He sanctioned the use of simple and natural remedies.
> "To many of the afflicted ones who received healing, Christ said, 'Sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.' John 5:14. Thus He taught that disease is the result of violating God's laws, both natural and spiritual. The great misery in the world would not exist did men but live in harmony with the Creator's plan." The Desire of Ages, 824.

So, when Ahaz is rejecting the light of Shiloah/Siloam, one of the things that is getting rejected is the light that comes at the end of this prophecy, which was the vision of Health Reform in 1863. And this rejection here leads to what we call the Alpha Apostasy that is going to culminate in the Omega Apostasy [referencing the waymark in Figure No. 66 of "Now"].

ENOCH, METHUSELAH AND NOAH

The next quote: Methuselah; I like this one. Because, the word that is translated as Shiloah and Siloam, that is the root word from Methuselah. Wow! Is that not interesting?

Note, Testimonies, volume 6, page 392. And what we are going to say here is Enoch is the First Angel's Message; his son, Methuselah, is the Second Angel's Message; and, Noah is the Third Angel's Message.

Did the door close with Noah?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.
Did Enoch present the Judgment Hour message?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.
Okay. So, that is why we are approaching this.

> "The power of Christ, the crucified Saviour, to give eternal life, should be presented to the people. We should show them that the Old Testament is as verily the gospel in types and shadows as the New Testament is in its unfolding power. The New Testament does not present a new religion; the Old Testament does not present a religion to be superseded by the New. The New Testament is only the advancement and unfolding of the Old. Abel was a believer in Christ, and was as verily saved by His power as was Peter or Paul. Enoch was a representative of Christ as surely as was the beloved disciple John. Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him. To him was committed the message of the second coming of Christ."—

That is almost the identical words to what Sister White says about William Miller, "To him was committed the message of the second coming of Christ."

> —"'And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of His saints, to execute judgment upon all.' Jude 14, 15."—

Enoch was giving the Judgment Hour message, just as was William Miller.

> —"Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of His saints, to execute, judgment upon all.' Jude 14, 15. The message preached by Enoch and his translation to heaven were a convincing argument to all who lived in his time."—

How was the First Angel's Message empowered in that history? He was taken to Heaven. Usually we see the Divine Symbol coming down, but here we see Enoch going to Heaven. But, let us face it, the Lord had to come down and take him with Him. That is where it was empowered in that history. All the reform lines are the same.

> —"These things were an argument"—

His translation to Heaven, the empowerment of the First Message in his time, the empowerment of that message, the confirmation; just like the year-day principle was confirmed for the Millerites, the confirmation of Enoch's message.

> —"These things were an argument that Methuselah and Noah could use with power to show that the righteous could be translated." Testimonies, volume 6, 392.

Okay. So, you have Enoch, Methuselah, and Noah. The door shuts with Noah. Enoch is the First. It is a no-brainer to know who Methuselah is, right?

You can read the notes there, METHUSELAH:

> METHUSELAH: Man of the dart/spear, or alternatively "his death shall bring"[1] Wickapedia.
> [1] Cornwall and Stelman Smith, The Exhaustive Dictionary of Bible Names.
> METHUSELAH: H4968—From H4962 and H7973; man of a dart. H4962— From the same as H4970; properly an adult (as of full length). H4970—From an unused root meaning to extend; properly extent (of time); but used only adverbially (especially with other particles prefixed), when (either relative or interrogative):— long, when. H7973—From H7971; a missile of attack, that is, spear; also (figuratively) a shoot of growth, that is, branch—dart, plant, X put off, sword, weapon.

It is from the same word as Siloam: Man of the dart—Remember? Shiloah is a missile or a dart. This is a man of the dart.

From the same as H4970, properly an adult (meaning full of age), because that was part of his story: "When Methuselah dies, it shall come."

From an unused root meaning to extend—There is God's mercy. That is why he was the longest living person that ever died. It is demonstrating God's mercy. He extended his life to the last possible opportunity—From an unused root meaning to extend; properly extent (of time); but used only adverbially.

From H7971; a missile of attack, that is, a spear; also a shoot of growth, that is, a branch—a dart, a plant. It is the same word. Okay?

And above that is the definition: A Man of the dart/spear, or alternatively "his death shall bring."

So, Methuselah—and here is Enoch [the first waymark in Figure No. 67]—Methuselah's death brings what? Judgment brings the closed door.

In fact, if you go in and you look at Methuselah, the Hebrew legend, which does not mean anything but it is the Hebrew legend, is that the reason that the rain did not begin until seven days after the door of the ark was shut is because when Methuselah died, they got in the ark and the Lord allowed Noah and his family seven days of mourning before He began the rain. But, that is just their—that ain't true. All right? That is just their traditional thought about Methuselah and the ark. But, it tells you in the Hebrew that they understood that the year that he died, the Flood came, Judgment came.

Methuselah's message goes until Judgment. All right? That is what I want you to see, if you will:

HIS DEATH SHALL BRING JUDGMENT

Genesis 5:21-27

Genesis 5, verses 21 through 27:

> "[21]And Enoch"—

Enoch lived what?

> —"lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah: "[22]And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters: [23]And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years: [24]And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him. [25]And Methuselah lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech. [26]And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters: [27]And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years: and he died." Genesis 5:21-27 (KJV).

65—904—JUDGMENT (DOOR CLOSES)

Sixty-five years; and then there is a prophecy that ends when Judgment ends. Do you see it [Figure No. 67]?

Do you get it without me explaining it to you?

Here is a prophecy of much more than 2520, because it is dealing with God's mercy. But, what introduces this 2520 that leads to Judgment is this 65-year period.

65 (742BC)—677BC - AD1844)—JUDGMENT (DOOR CLOSES)

What introduces this 2520 [742BC to 677BC, see Figure No. 66] that leads to Judgment in 1844? Sixty-five years.

And when do these 65 years begin? In the year that Uzziah had died, the first king.

This is the first king [Enoch as the first waymark in Figure No. 67].

So, you can see that.

AFTER SEVEN DAYS

Then they go into the ark here at Judgment for how long?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seven days.

AFTER MILLER'S SCATTERING IT RAINS FOR FORTY DAYS

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Thus, teaching many things: disappointment, scattering [points to the Scattering noted in Figure No. 66 in 1863].

I like that Methuselah story.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This here [see Figure No. 67], this seven days leads to what? Forty days of rain.

Forty days of rain, I guess that connects with what we shared a few times ago, a couple of different times, that this history we are dealing with, it takes in the Millerite History. August 11, 1840, is the point of reference. In our history, it is identifying the history of Daniel 11:40. In the history of Christ, it is identifying the 40 days that Christ was with the disciples.

And here we have 40 days of rain.

And it is in this history, in all these histories, where the manifestation of the power of God is taking place. Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

A REMNANT SHALL RETURN

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, in Isaiah 7:3, when Isaiah brings the message to Ahaz, he brings with him his son. And his son's name, Shearjashub means, a remnant shall return. Isaiah is bringing Ahaz the message, a promise, that a remnant is going to be produced out of this crisis that they are about to be launched into, because they are scattered for 2520 years. He is giving them the promise, although he is warning them of Judgment.

> "[3]Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field." Isaiah 7:3 (KJV).

AHAZ'S SHIPWRECK (THE KING OF THE NORTH)

Isaiah 8, verses 7 and 8, here is the Judgment: a promise of a remnant, couched with identifying the Judgment.

Beginning at verse 7, it says,

> "[7]Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks: [8]And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck, and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel."

Reject the Waters of Shiloah; get the waters of Assyria. Receive the Waters of Shiloah, or receive the waters of Assyria.

So, what are the waters of Assyria? Well, for us here at the end of the world, it is The Sunday Law; but, what else is it?

What precedes the truth? The counterfeit.

Is there going to be a counterfeit latter rain? According to Inspiration, there is; and, the waters of Assyria is representing the counterfeit latter rain. And the counterfeit latter rain is the Omega Apostasy. Sister White says, "Nothing will be allowed to stand in the way of this Movement." And this is a counterfeit Movement to the Reform Movement of Revelation 18.

And the Reform Movement of Revelation 18 is receiving the Latter Rain; and, the Movement of the Omega Apostasy is receiving the latter rain that is premised upon the wine of Babylon, the king of Assyria; because, it is both about a revelation of doctrine: true doctrine/false doctrine.

ADVENTISM'S REJECTED SIGN—THE 2520

ADVENTISM'S REJECTED LIGHT (HEALTH REFORM)

So, it brings it down to here into our time.

We set aside our sign here [Now], the 2520.

In this crisis [1863] in the nation and in the church, the light for that time that is given is the Health Message.

Testimonies, volume 9, page 158:

> "Seventh-day Adventists are handling momentous truths. More than forty years ago [in 1863] the Lord gave us special light on health reform, but how are we walking in that light? How many have refused to live in harmony with the counsels of God! As a people, we should make advancement proportionate to the light received. It is our duty to understand and respect the principles of health reform. On the subject of temperance we should be in advance of all other people; and yet there are among us well-instructed members of the church, and even ministers of the gospel, who have little respect for the light that God has given upon this subject. They eat as they please and work as they please." Testimonies, volume 9, 158.

Who works as they please in contradiction to the Health Message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: James White did.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: James White did.

When? In 1863.

What happens if you reject the light? Shipwreck of faith.

James White is a symbol. I know the enemies of this message are going to twist this around that I am on the bandwagon against James White. It is not about being against James White. It is about reading the prophetic symbols correctly.

ADVENTISM'S SHIPWRECK (THE ALPHA AND OMEGA APOSTASY)

Special Testimonies for Ministers and Workers, beginning at page 18:

> "What is the message that we are to give?—'Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. . . .'
> "To my ministering brethren I would say, Prosecute this work with tact and ability. Set to work the young men and the young women in our churches. Combine the medical missionary work with the proclamation of the third angel's message. Make regular, organized effort to lift the churches out of the dead level into which they have fallen, and have remained for years. Send into the churches workers who will set the principles of health reform in their connection with the third angel's message, before every family and individual. Encourage all to take a part in work for their fellow men, and see if the breath of life will not quickly return to these churches. . . .
> "The indifference which has existed among our ministers in regard to health reform and medical missionary work is surprising. Some who do not profess to be Christians treat these matters with greater reverence than do some of our own people, and unless we arouse, they will go in advance of us." Special Testimonies for Ministers and Workers, 18–19.

THE LORD'S PHYSICIAN

I passed over the very first quote. So, let me finish off this on Health Reform. This is from Arthur White. This is not Ellen White. This is a quote from her, but this is from Arthur White out of the EGW Biography, volume 5, page 53.

> "The answer came in a very forceful way. Friday evening, February 15, as Ellen White met with her family in the sitting room for worship, she was deeply burdened with a decision about Dr. Kellogg's invitation. She began to pray about it."—

She was going to Battle Creek, and John Harvey Kellogg asked her and her group to stay at his home. So, she was going to pray about that.

> —"In reporting the experience, she says, 'I was asking the Lord where I should go and what I should do. I was for backing out. . . . Well, while I was praying and was sending up my petition, there was, as has been a hundred times or more, a soft light circling around in the room, and a fragrance like the fragrance of flowers, of a beautiful scent of flowers.'—MS 43a, 1901. And a voice said, 'Respect the courtesy of My servant, John Kellogg, the physician by My appointment. He needs encouragement that you can give him. Let him put his trust in Me. My arm is strong to uphold and sustain. He may safely lean upon My strength. I have a work for him to do. He must not fail nor be discouraged.'" Arthur White, EGW Biography, volume 5, 53.

So, what I am saying here with this is that the light of Health Reform came in AD1863 in a crisis of the nation and of the church, paralleling the crisis here [at 742BC], a turning point in this civil war, and a turning point in this civil war [AD1863]. And the light of Health Reform was prefigured by the Pools of Siloam and Shiloah. And at this point [1863] we began to reject the light of Health Reform. And the Lord had intended to accomplish a wonderful work, and He even raised up a man that He identified as His physician, John Harvey Kellogg. But, for a variety of reasons, he loses his way; and, as the leader of the health work, because there is a leader of the health work because the ministers never made it part of their responsibility where it was a united front on the health work, a leader rises up and ultimately takes that branch of Adventism off into the world.

But, I want to close with something with the very first quote that I passed over.

This history [of 742BC] begins in a civil war. This history [of AD1863] begins in a civil war; and, it is pointing to the end of the world where there is going to be a civil war.

Manuscript Releases, volume 5, page 305:

> "God does not design that men shall appropriate all that the earth produces for their own selfish purposes. He calls upon them to bring their tithes and offerings into His storehouse, that there may be meat in His house.
>
> "In India, China, Russia, and the cities of America,"—

What are the fastest growing economies in the world today? China and India.

Russia is really rising out of the dust, too. Since the pipeline got to where they could flood the market with oil, Russia is on the rise as well.

> —"In India, China, Russia, and the cities of America, thousands of men and women are dying of starvation. The monied men, because they have the power, control the market."—

It is like Sister White was writing from Time Magazine today. All right?

> —"They purchase at low rates all they can obtain,"—

There was a Rock 'N Roll star—what is his name? A Rock 'N Roll star from England. Everyone knows him. We may not know him, but his first name is Bono? What is his first name?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Bono.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, Bono.

Okay. When they opened up—was it Google? It was one of these internets here within the past—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Was it Facebook?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Facebook; it was Facebook.

When they opened it up to the stock market within about the past two months, Bono got in on the ground floor; and, then when it opened up they thought it was going to do wonderful stuff and it took a nose dive. But, before it was all said and done, Bono made millions and millions and millions of dollars, just for a real quick transaction.

And I am not attacking Bono. I am talking about the state of the economic market in the world today. It is designed for the rich to get richer and the poor get poorer.

> —"They purchase at low rates all they can obtain,"—THAT IS WHAT BONO DID—
> "and then sell at greatly increased prices."—

As it was rising at its opening, Bono sold it and made a killing.

> —"This means starvation to the poorer classes, and will result in a civil war. There will be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation. 'And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation, even to that same time; and at that time thy people shall be delivered, everyone that shall be found written in the book. . . . Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly, and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.'" Manuscript Releases, volume 5, 305.

Where to place the civil war is up to each student of prophecy to assess for themselves. I place it right here at The Sunday Law [in Figure No. 68, at "Now"]. Sister White is connecting her statement about the civil war with the close of probation, and we know that at The Sunday Law in the United States, national apostasy is followed by national ruin. What is being started now in the politics and in the economy of the United States, it is developing the rich and poor; and, as we approach The Sunday Law, there is going to be more animosity between these two groups. And when the Sunday Law arrives, and national ruin arrives—

Well, I mean, just take here in Arkansas, take here in Arkansas. How many houses in Arkansas do you think do not have weapons?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In Arkansas, on the first day of hunting season, they close the public schools so the boys can go hunting with their fathers. Okay? This state, like most of the Southern states, is what you would call "armed to the hilt."

And if I have no influence of the Holy Spirit and I see that rich guy over there has got a bunch of food, and I see my children and my wife are starving, do you think I am going to take some of that food?

So, what I am saying is, this civil war [742BC], is prefiguring this civil war [AD1863], is prefiguring this civil war [at The Sunday Law, "Now"].

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for the Light that you have given us and we know that that Light arrived on September 11, 2001, when Islam was restrained. And we know that at this time if we reject that Light, as Ahaz did, that there is nothing ahead for us but shipwreck of faith. We do not want this to happen. We ask that you give us the discernment to recognize the Light for what it is and take that Light out of your hand and eat it and let it become part of our very experience, our very understanding, that we might be raised up to reflect you at a time period when a world is looking for the image of Christ; and, that we might be prepared with a message to share to those that we come in contact with. We thank you for this worship series so far. We thank you for the DVD production that has gone well so far. And the LiveStreaming, we ask for your continued blessing upon it. We ask that you bring us back Sunday morning to finish out this segment of 1863. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #40A

Part Five: 1863

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, I want to thank you for waking us this morning and giving us another day of life that we might serve you and that we might study your Word. And, Heavenly Father, as we take up this study, we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit to bring this consideration of 1863 to a conclusion. We ask that you give us insight and discernment into the truths that are represented in Isaiah 7 that we are going to touch upon, that you would take control of our humanity, that you overrule my humanity that I might be a fit vessel to convey this message and that you would overrule the humanity of my brothers and sisters that are hearing these things, that they might receive the message as you see fit. We want the Latter Rain. We would ask that you would pour it out upon us and that you would fill our vessels that we might have oil to share with those that we come in contact with. And we thank you for these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGINER: We are bringing to a conclusion our consideration of the beginning of William Miller's dream as 1863. We are looking at Isaiah 7, where the beginning of both 2520s is marked, and we are looking at it as a chiastic structure that reaches its conclusion in 1798, 1844, and then in 1863.

We have studied that in Isaiah 6, in connection with this, that verse 3 marks Isaiah 6 as beginning when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends. We are identifying that as September 11, 2001, in conjunction with that waymark that it begins in the year that Uzziah died, Uzziah representing the prosperity of the United States and the beginning of the end for the economics of the world structure.

In verses 11 through 13 of Isaiah 6, Isaiah asked how long he has to carry this message to a Laodicean people that will not see and will not hear, and he is told until the cities are destroyed, representing The Sunday Law. We took time with that.

So, we see in Isaiah 6 the history of when the Mighty Angel descends, until the door closes.

Earlier on in this worship series we have identified that there are two temple cleansings in this history, and the first temple cleansing begins in earnest when the Mighty Angel descends. It is a three-step testing process. It ends when the door closes at The Sunday Law for Adventists.

And then there is a three-step testing process for the eleventh-hour workers.

But, this here [the Isaiah 6 reform line] is the climax of the Everlasting Gospel in Adventism. The two classes will be developed and then demonstrated when the door closes at The Sunday Law. And in Isaiah 6, Isaiah is prepared with a message; and, in Isaiah 7, we are saying that this is the message.

We are also not denying that Isaiah 7 continues on into chapters 8, 9, and 10. But, we are just taking Isaiah 7 here.

In our last presentation we identified that the two classes, when you take Isaiah 7 as a line and run it under Isaiah 6, the two classes are represented by Ahaz, who is the foolish king, the foolish virgin, and Isaiah is the wise virgin. And what Ahaz rejects in Isaiah 7, he rejects the sign; and, we have identified several times that one of the signs for this history of the temple cleansings of Adventism at the end of the world is the 2520. But, in rejecting Shiloah, which is Siloam, which means Sent, he is rejecting not only Christ who is the foundation of everything; and, in rejecting Christ, he is also rejecting the Holy Spirit, which was also sent. He is rejecting the Latter Rain, and he is rejecting the Laodicean message. Because, in the Pool of Siloam we have the story of the blind man; and, it is Laodicea that is blind. It is the Laodicean that needs the healing that comes from the Pool of Siloam. So, we have put that in place.

We have another component to put into Isaiah 7. We identified also in our last presentation that Shiloah and Siloam are the root word for Methuselah, and we identified that Enoch represents the First Angel's Message. He gave the Judgment Hour Message, and his Judgment Hour Message was premised upon time, as was William Miller giving a Judgment Hour Message premised upon time.

Enoch's message was 120 years.

Sixty-five years into his life, Enoch opens the Second Angel's Message to us, which is Methuselah, the oldest man that ever died.

And Methuselah reaches his conclusion with the Third Angel's Message, which is Noah and the door is closed here. Judgment takes place.

So, we see in the story of Methuselah, his name, the root is Siloam. It is the same message that Ahaz is representing, the same message when the chiastic structure concludes that James White will set aside. But more importantly, it is the message that Adventism sets aside at the end. It is the message of the Latter Rain, as represented in this long extended period of time that comes to a conclusion here; and, this long extended period of time is Methuselah, and Methuselah is a type of the 2520. By rejecting the 2520, you are rejecting the message of Shiloah or Siloam, which is the root word for Methuselah; you are rejecting the Latter Rain Message.

So, we are saying here [Isaiah 7 timeline, Figure No. 69], Ahaz is rejecting Shiloah, with all that that contains, and he is rejecting the sign of the 2520, the Latter Rain, and the Laodicean Message.

That is what is going on in this history [referencing Figure No. 70], from 9/11 to The Sunday Law. It is paralleling the Millerite History, but it is paralleling the story of Enoch, Methuselah, and Noah; and it is paralleling the history of Ahaz.

A REMNANT SHALL RETURN

But, there is one other component that we want to put in place, and that is where once Isaiah is prepared to give this message of the Everlasting Gospel to Ahaz (to Adventism at the end of the world), where is he?

So, in your notes, Isaiah 7:3:

> "[1]Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field." Isaiah 7:3 (KJV).

Shearjashub, if you go to Isaiah 8:18, it says,

> "[18] Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion." Isaiah 8:18 (KJV).

SHEARJASHUB means a remnant shall return. So, when Isaiah goes to Ahaz, he goes to Ahaz with the message of hope that the Lord is going to raise up a remnant.

THE CONDUIT

And where Ahaz has received this message is very informative. He is by the conduit of the upper pool.

> GIHON: Strong's Concordance H1521—From H1518; stream; a river of Paradise; also a valley (or pool) near Jerusalem:—Gihon. H1518 A primitive root; to gush forth (as water), generally to issue.

> The name (Hebrew i ħôn) may be interpreted as "Bursting Forth, Gushing." Gihon is also the name of the only natural spring of water in the vicinity of Jerusalem (the place where King Solomon was anointed by the priest Zadok and Nathan (prophet)). It feeds the Pool of Siloam. Wikipedia.

And this word conduit, we are going to say the conduit is coming from Gihon. And Gihon is a natural stream that was outside the city walls of Jerusalem, and we will see that it was Hezekiah, when Sennacherib was getting ready to do a siege on Jerusalem, Hezekiah went and he covered up that stream so it could not be seen, and he dug a conduit that led the water into the City of Jerusalem, so that the enemies on the outside of the wall would not have water, and those inside the wall would have water. And this conduit that brought the water of Gihon into Jerusalem, it ended up being used in two pools: in one what they called the upper pool, which is the Pool of Siloam (the Waters of Shiloah); and then there was a lower pool as well.

So, what is GIHON? Gihon, where the spring, the source, it is from H1521 and from H1518 in the Stron ' s. It is a stream. It was a river in Paradise, when we look at the story of the Garden of Eden; also a valley (or a pool) near Jerusalem. It means to gush forth. So, GIHON has the meaning of gushing forth. All right?

The name iħôn may be interpreted as "Bursting Forth, or Gushing." Gihon is also the name of the only natural spring of water in the vicinity of Jerusalem, the place where King Solomon was anointed by the priest Zadok and Nathan the prophet. It feeds the Pool of Siloam, and then there is a transit that takes it to the other side of the city as well.

A WELL OF WATER SPRINGING UP

In John 4:13-14, which is in your notes, it says,

> "[13]Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: [14]But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." John 4:13–14 (KJV).

Gihon is the well of water springing up into Everlasting Life. It is the water that Christ gives. It is the water that comes down from Heaven; but, it comes down here to Earth into the Pool of Siloam.

> SPRINGING UP: Strong's Concordance G242—Middle voice of apparently a primary verb; to jump; figuratively to gush: - leap, spring up.

Springing up in John 4:13-14 means to jump, to gush, to spring up. It means the same thing that Gihon means. The Water of Life is the water of Gihon. It is the water that comes into Jerusalem and forms the Pool of Siloam.

What is the conduit?

> CONDUIT: Strong's Concordance H8585—From H5927; a channel (into which water is raised for irrigation); also a bandage or plaster (as placed upon a wound): - conduit, cured, healing, little river, trench, watercourse. H5927—A primitive root; to ascend.

CONDUIT: H8585, from H5927, is a channel; also a bandage or plaster – conduit, cured, healing, little river, trench, a watercourse; a primitive root; to ascend.

Okay. The conduit is the channel that brings the water from Gihon, the Water from Heaven, down to Earth.

CONSTANT COMMUNICATION

Are there any other symbols of the Water of Life being brought down to Earth; such as, maybe two golden pipes full of golden oil, or a ladder that the angels descend and ascend on?

This Gihon and its relationship to Siloam are talking about the constant communication that Christ keeps with His people.

Acts of the Apostles, page 586, says:

> "Christ is spoken of as walking in the midst of the golden candlesticks. Thus is symbolized His relation to the churches. He is in constant communication with His people." Acts of the Apostles, 586.

HEAVENLY ANGELS

How does He do this?

Christian Education, page 155:

> "The ladder which Jacob saw in the night vision, the base of it resting upon the earth and the topmost round reaching unto the highest heavens; God himself above the ladder, and his glory shining upon every round; angels ascending and descending upon this ladder of shining brightness, is a symbol of constant communication kept up between this world and heavenly places. God accomplishes his will through the instrumentality of heavenly angels in continual intercourse with humanity. This ladder reveals a direct and important channel of communication with the inhabitants of this earth. The ladder represented to Jacob the world's Redeemer, who links earth and heaven together." Christian Education, 155.

What I am saying if you are not following the application is the top of the ladder is Gihon; the bottom of the ladder is Siloam or Shiloah.

And this ladder is represented in a variety of ways.

THE CROSS

> "The cross of Calvary is placed between heaven and earth as a perpetual memorial, calling the attention to a holier world than this."—

It is calling attention to Gihon.

—"It is the medium of a constant communication with the world of light;"—

So, this constant communication is accomplished through the two golden pipes of Zechariah, through Jacob's ladder, through the cross, through the Waters of Gihon.

> —"the mind is constantly drawn away from the earthly to the heavenly, surveying the attractions of Him who ever liveth to make intercession for us; and those who thus keep the heavenly world in view will be uplifted above this in their affections and pursuits." The Medical Missionary, May 1, 1891.

Review and Herald, July 20, 1897, says,

> "The anointed ones standing by the Lord of the whole earth, have the position once given to Satan as covering cherub. By the holy beings surrounding his throne, the Lord keeps up a constant communication with the inhabitants of the earth. The golden oil represents the grace with which God keeps the lamps of believers supplied, that they shall not flicker and go out. Were it not that this holy oil is poured from heaven in the messages of God's Spirit, the agencies of evil would have entire control over men.
> "God is dishonored when we do not receive the communications which he sends us. Thus we refuse the golden oil which he would pour into our souls to be communicated to those in darkness. When the call shall come, 'Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him,' those who have not received the holy oil, who have not cherished the grace of Christ in their hearts, will find, like the foolish virgins, that they are not ready to meet their Lord. They have not, in themselves, the power to obtain the oil, and their lives are wrecked. But if God's Holy Spirit is asked for, if we plead, as did Moses, 'Show me thy glory,' the love of God will be shed abroad in our hearts. Through the golden pipes, the golden oil will be communicated to us. 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts.' By receiving the bright beams of the Sun of Righteousness, God's children shine as lights in the world." Review and Herald, July 20, 1897.

So, what am I saying? I am saying that when Isaiah takes the message to Ahaz, when the wise virgin of Adventism takes the message to the foolish virgins of Adventism in the time period of the visitation of Adventism, when the Lord is accomplishing the Everlasting Gospel, developing two classes and going to demonstrate those two classes at The Sunday Law, that where Isaiah meets Ahaz with this message of promise that the remnant will return, that he is meeting him by the end of the conduit of the upper pool. He is meeting him right where the Latter Rain comes down from Heaven. He is meeting him with the Latter Rain Message.

So, Ahaz represents those in Adventism that are rejecting the Latter Rain Message.

THE HIGHWAY

Isaiah 35; 40:1-5; 62:6-12; Jeremiah 31:21-23

THE FULLER'S FIELD

Isaiah 7:3, Isaiah 36:1-2; Malachi 3:1-4

But, Ahaz is also on the highway; he is also on the highway, to the fuller's field.

Shearjashub, the promise that a remnant shall return. The conduit, these two golden pipes that the Latter Rain is being given to Isaiah to give to Ahaz. They are on the highway (what is the highway?), and it is by the fuller's field (what is the fuller's field?).

Go to Isaiah 35. Isaiah 35 says,

> "[1]The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. [2]It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God."—

Now, in those two verses, it is talking about a certain place. What is the place it is talking about?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is talking about the wilderness. Okay? The people that its dealing with there are in the wilderness.

And the wilderness is one of the symbols for what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Darkness?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Darkness. All right. The darkness that precedes 1798, the 1260 years of Papal darkness in Revelation 12, verses 6 and 14, is identified as the wilderness.

And the message that comes in each of these reform lines is a message of a voice crying in the wilderness.

So, where the Lord initially meets His people is in the wilderness, and who He is meeting here in Isaiah 35 in the wilderness, those people that He is going to meet in the wilderness, what are they going to do? They are going to see the glory of the Lord.

And who is it that sees the glory of the Lord? It is Isaiah, in Isaiah 6. He saw the glory of the Lord.

So, reading on in Isaiah 35:

> —"[3]Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees."—

He meets Adventism in the wilderness of Laodicea with the promise that "If you will enter into the Most Holy Place and recognize the glory of the Lord, I am going to bring you back to life."

Verse 4:

> —"[4]Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you. [5]Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,"—

Who are the blind? Ahaz, he is standing there by the Pool of Siloam refusing to be healed.

In that time period,

—"the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. [6]Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness"—WHERE?—"in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert."—

Do you think they are gushing forth? That is coming from Gihon.

—"[7]And the parched ground shall become a pool,"—

What pool? The Pool of Siloam.

—"and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes. [8]And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein."—

You can be a foolish virgin; but, if you will get on this highway you will make no mistakes because you will become a wise virgin.

—"[9]No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there:"—

This is where the redeemed are going to walk, is in this highway.

—"[10]And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away." Isaiah 35 (KJV).

So, this is where Isaiah is meeting Ahaz. He is meeting him on this highway, where the conduit of Gihon comes down to the Pool of Siloam with the message of the Latter Rain, the Laodicean Message, the Message of the 2520.

Go to Isaiah 40, verses 1 through 5. We are still looking at the highway where Isaiah is standing.

Beginning at Isaiah 40, verse 1, it says,

"[1]Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. [2]Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned:"—

When is Jerusalem's iniquity pardoned? It is in this history [of Isaiah 6 (see Figure No. 69)] when their sins are being blotted out.

—"her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins. "[3] The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."—

So, now here is a people being represented that are emphasizing the truth about the highway, the path that God's people are to walk on, the path that God walks on.

What path is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Old Paths.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Old Paths.

—"[4]Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: [5]And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it." Isaiah 40:1-5 (KJV).

Okay. Where does that place this passage?

When is the whole Earth lightened with the glory of the Lord, because all flesh is going to see it? Right here, Revelation 18, the same history [from 9/11 to The Sunday Law]. It is The Highway of Holiness, this path.

Isaiah 62, verses 6 through 12. This is where Ahaz is being met with the Latter Rain Message of Isaiah.

Beginning in Isaiah 62, verse 6, it says,

"[6]I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, [7]And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth. [8]The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured: [9]But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness."—

What are His corn and wine? It is the Little Book. It is the message of the Latter Rain.

—"[10]Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people."—

If you could in your Stron 's Concor anc e, this is a people that has a message that they are lifting up the message of the Highway, the message of the Path. They are the people, the watchmen, that are emphasizing the return to the Old Paths.

Verse 11:

—"[11]Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion,"—

The daughter is the remnant, the last offspring.

—"Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. [12]And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD:"—

Who are they going to call the holy people? The people that are standing on the Highway with Isaiah. They are the redeemed of the Lord. They have been bought back.

And what are they?

> —"and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken." Isaiah 62:6-12 (KJV).

Because they are going to be lifted up as an ensign and the whole world is going to come to them.

Jeremiah 31, verses 21 through 23, beginning in verse 21:

> "[21] Set thee up waymarks,"—

How do you set up waymarks? Right there [indicating the timelines on the whiteboard], those are the waymarks, what we have been doing in this worship service, line upon line. These historical events on these prophetic lines are the waymarks.

> —"[21]Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again,"—

You have got to turn back to the Old Paths.

> —"O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities."

Return to the old highway.

> —"[22]How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter?"—

You are in the wilderness. Turn back to the Old Paths.

> —"for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man."—

What is a woman?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A church. The Lord here is rebuilding Jerusalem. This is the New Jerusalem in the Earth. It is a spiritual Jerusalem. It is what is going to surround the men that are in Jerusalem that have returned to the Old Paths.

> —"A woman shall compass a man. [23]Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again"—

And what is "bring again"? Nine out of ten times the meaning in the Scriptures: reverse.

—"when I shall [reverse] their captivity;"—

Where have they been? In captivity. They have been in darkness. They have been in the wilderness. They have been in William Miller's dream, scattered for seven times.

> —"when I shall [reverse] their captivity, The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness." Jeremiah 31:21-23 (KJV).

What is The Mountain of Holiness? It is God's church.

So, where is Isaiah when he meets Ahaz? He is on the Old Paths. He is with a message making a promise that a remnant shall return; and, he is by the conduit where the Latter Rain Message comes down out of Heaven to confront God's people with the Laodicean call.

But, what is the fuller's field?

He is by the fuller's field. There are two things I want you to see about the fuller's field is that the fuller's and it is the field.

Because, this here [see Figure No. 71, the timeline of Isaiah 6], this is Adventism from 9/11 to The Sunday Law. This is a field. There is something that happens in this field. But, once The Sunday Law comes, the message goes to other fields.

But, what field is this? It is the fuller's field.

Isaiah 36: verses 1 and 2:

> "[1]Now, it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib, king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them. [2]And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army."—

Now, what is this about? This is the king of Assyria, the King of the North. This is the King of the North, this is The Sunday Law, coming not to Ahaz but to Hezekiah. He is coming to destroy Jerusalem and he is sending his general, his main authority Rabshakeh, to Jerusalem to confront Hezekiah, saying, "We are going to take over your city. You might as well surrender."

All right. This is The Sunday Law. This is an illustration of The Sunday Law; but, where does it take place? The last part of verse 2.

> —"And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field." Isaiah 35:1-2 (KJV).

What I want you to see is that right here [9/11, Figure No. 71] and right here [Verse 3, Figure No. 71], where Isaiah is presenting the Laodicean Message to Ahaz, where the wise virgins are presenting the message of the 2520, the Latter Rain, and the Laodicean Message to the foolish virgins of Adventism, that they are standing in a certain place and they have with them Shearjashub with a message of the promise that the Lord is going to raise up the remnant at this point in time. And, they are emphasizing The Highway of Holiness, the Old Paths: "You need to be on this highway, Ahaz. You need to be where the golden oil is coming down from the pipes and receive the Latter Rain Message, which is the Pool of Shiloah and Siloam, that your eyes may be opened; because, if you don't, you are going to be swept away at The Sunday Law" [Isaiah 6:11-13 and Isaiah 7:1-19] right here, and The Sunday Law message, the close of probation, is given at the identical place, the identical place. It is on the highway at the end of the conduit by the fuller's field. It is the same message.

So, you are seeing here where Isaiah gives this message here at the beginning of the purification of Adventism, the climax of the Everlasting Gospel, he is giving this message here at The Sunday Law in the time period of Hezekiah.

Do you see the logic there?

So, Malachi 3. We are trying to figure out what the fuller's field is. Malachi 3:1-4.

We already know what the fuller's field; because, in our worship series, we have spent time with the fuller's field.

Beginning in verse 1,

> "[1]Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.—

The messenger that prepared the way for the Messenger of the Covenant to come in the time of Christ was John the Baptist. John the Baptist prepared the way for Christ to come to Earth and to the Heavenly Sanctuary.

William Miller prepared the way for Christ to come to the Most Holy Place.

Okay. And in applying these verses here, Sister White identifies that these verses were fulfilled the two times that Christ cleansed the temple, at the beginning and at the end of His ministries. We have looked at this in detail previously and have identified that there were to temple cleansings in the time of the Millerites and that there will be two temple cleansings at the end of the world.

So, when Isaiah is standing by the fuller's field, he is marking the temple cleansing of Adventism [references the first waymark of Isaiah 7 in Figure No. 71] that we have already identified begins when the Mighty Angel comes down [referencing the first waymark of Isaiah 6, Figure No. 71]. It is a three-step testing process, and concludes at The Sunday Law.

So, the fact that He is by the fuller's field here in Isaiah 7:3 is another prophetic identification that what we are suggesting about these histories is accurate.

Verse 2 of Malachi 3:

> —"[2]But who may abide the day of his coming? And who shall stand when he appeareth? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like"—WHAT?
>
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Fullers' sope.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"like fullers sope."—

What is a fuller's sope? It is a type of dye that makes garments clean and bright and white. It is like a dye.

So, what kind of fuller's work is Christ doing in this history? He is taking off the filthy garments of His people and putting on the garments of His righteousness.

Verse 3:

> —"[3]And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify"—WHO?

In this history [of Isaiah 6] I thought He was purifying the 144,000, and the 144,000 is the 12 tribes of Israel.

Is Levi all 12 tribes? No. There are two witnesses to this. Levi is the one that stood faithful with Aaron's image of the beast test.

And Levi, when Jeroboam doubled Aaron's sins by making two calves in Bethel and Dan, it was the Tribe of Levi that refused to be His priests in this. So, he was forced to get the low men to be his priests.

So, in both tests of the image of the beast, Levi stands out as the ones that are faithful; and, both of those histories are pointing forward to The Sunday Law. So, in this history [of Isaiah 6 in Figure No. 71], He is preparing those in Adventism that are going to stand faithful at The Sunday Law when the door closes, and that is why He is purifying the sons of Levi, even if they are made up of all 12 tribes of spiritual Israel.

Verse 3:

> —"[3]And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. [4]Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years." Malachi 3:1-4 (KJV).

When will the offering be pleasant as in former years? Right here [indicating The Sunday Law], after this process [from 9/11 to The Sunday Law].

What is this process? It is the process of the refining that is represented by the fuller's field.

So, when Isaiah meets Ahaz right here [at the first waymark of Isaiah 7 in Figure No. 71] with the message that a remnant shall return in Shearjashub, on the Old Paths, on The Highway of Holiness, by the end of the conduit where the Gihon Water of Life Message comes to the healing Pool of Shiloah and Siloam, the Latter Rain Message, He is identifying that the purification of Adventism, the first temple cleansing of Adventism, begins right here and Ahaz represents those that reject this purification process that are going to dance around that golden calf.

MALACHI AND THE TWO TEMPLE CLEANSINGS

In The Desire of Ages, page 161, it says,

> "In the cleansing of the temple, Jesus was announcing His mission as the Messiah, and entering upon His work."—

This is the temple cleansing [referring to the timeline of Isaiah 6 in Figure No. 71]. All the prophecies in the Old Testament, in the New Testament, and of the Spirit of Prophecy are pointing to the end of the world; and, the two temple cleansings of Christ are pointing to our time, more than anything else.

So,

> "In the cleansing of the temple, Jesus was announcing His mission as the Messiah, and entering upon His work."—TO PURIFY SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS JUST PRIOR TO THE SUNDAY LAW.—"That temple, erected for the abode of the divine Presence, was designed to be an object lesson for Israel and for the world. From eternal ages it was God's purpose that every created being, from the bright and holy seraph to man, should be a temple for the indwelling of the Creator. Because of sin, humanity ceased to be a temple for God. Darkened and defiled by evil, the heart of man no longer revealed the glory of the Divine One. But by the incarnation of the Son of God, the purpose of Heaven is fulfilled. God dwells in humanity, and through saving grace the heart of man becomes again His temple. God designed that the temple at Jerusalem should be a continual witness to the high destiny open to every soul. But the Jews had not understood the significance of the building they regarded with so much pride. They did not yield themselves as holy temples for the Divine Spirit."—

Did Ahaz? Nope!

> —"The courts of the temple at Jerusalem, filled with the tumult of unholy traffic, represented all too truly the temple of the heart, defiled by the presence of sensual passion and unholy thoughts.
> "In cleansing the temple from the world's buyers and sellers, Jesus announced His mission to cleanse the heart from the defilement of sin,—from the earthly desires, the selfish lusts, the evil habits, that corrupt the soul. Malachi 3:1–3 quoted." The Desire of Ages, 161.

So, when Isaiah is standing by the fuller's field, he is standing in the place where Christ does His work as the refiner and purifier of the sons of Levi. That is the message that He is giving to Isaiah.

THREE HISTORIES

In Selected Messages, book 2, page 118, it says,

> "The prophet says, 'I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory."—

That is our history right here [referencing timeline of Isaiah 6 in Figure No. 71],

> —"And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils' (Revelation 18:1, 2). This is the same message that was given by the second angel. Babylon is fallen, 'because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication' (Revelation 14:8). What is that wine?—Her false doctrines. She has given to the world a false sabbath instead of the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, and has repeated the falsehood that Satan first told Eve in Eden—the natural immortality of the soul. Many kindred errors she has spread far and wide, 'teaching for doctrines the commandments of men' (Matthew 15:9)."—

Next paragraph:

> —"When Jesus began His public ministry, He cleansed the Temple from its sacrilegious profanation. Among the last acts of His ministry was the second cleansing of the Temple. So in the last work for the warning of the world, two distinct calls are made to the churches."—

The first call is Revelation 18:1-3, and the second call is verse 4, "And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, . . .": two temple cleansings.

Isaiah [chapter 7] is representing the first temple cleansing.

THE FIELD

NEW FIELDS

Isaiah asked in chapter 6, "How long do I have to give this message to a people that refuse to see and refuse to hear?"

And the answer was, "Until The Sunday Law." Because, at The Sunday Law, then as the purified sons of Levi, you are going to be lifted up as an ensign and you are going to take a new work to new fields.

This is the fuller's field here [referencing Isaiah 7 in Figure No. 71, between the waymarks.]. This is the fuller's field.

This is the new fields, new fields [referencing Isaiah 7 in Figure No. 71, after the second waymark], the new fields being where the eleventh-hour workers are confronted with the temple cleansing.

—"The second angel's message is, 'Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication' (Revelation 14:8). And in the loud cry of the third angel's message a voice is heard from heaven saying, 'Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities' (Revelation 18:4, 5)." Selected Messages, book 2, 118.

Notice the next quote from The Great Controversy, pages 605 – 606.

"Thus the message of the third angel will be proclaimed. As the time comes for it to be given with greatest power, the Lord will work through humble instruments, leading the minds of those who consecrate themselves to His service. The laborers will be qualified rather by the unction of His Spirit than by the training of literary institutions."—

Why? Because, if you have been trained in a literary institution, the Mystery of Iniquity has captured your mind and you are going to have to do a wonderful work through the power of the Holy Spirit to remove that nonsense out of there so you can understand and recognize the voice of the Lord. You have been wrapped with the bands of iron and brass.

—"Men of faith and prayer will be constrained to go forth with holy zeal, declaring the words which God gives them. The sins of Babylon will be laid open. The fearful results of enforcing the observances of the church by civil authority, the inroads of spiritualism, the stealthy but rapid progress of the papal power—all will be unmasked."—

That is talking about here, over here, [immediately at The Sunday Law]. This is The Sunday Law crisis now.

The Sunday Law crisis is not about calling God's people back to the Old Paths of Jeremiah 6:16. It is about identifying the Papacy, the history of the Papacy; what she has done in the past and what she is going to do right now. It is about identifying that the United States is going to place her on the throne of the Earth, that she is going to come into union with the globalists, the United Nations and persecute the entire world and that the premise for allowing this to happen is the escalating crisis of Islam.

Look to Iran. Look to what is going on in Iran. The Third Woe is not slowing down; it is not in neutral. It is heating up.

—"By these solemn warnings the people will be stirred. Thousands upon thousands will listen who have never heard words like these."—

They will listen to what? They will listen to the message that is proclaimed by the sons of Levi, and part of that message at least is about the role of Islam in Bible prophecy. So, if you are rejecting returning to the Old Paths [referencing the 1843 and 1850 Charts behind him at the podium]; if you reject the truths that Islam was restrained on September 11, 2001, and this began the purification process of Adventism; if you have no understanding of the role of Islam in Bible prophecy, you are not going to be there in that time period. You have shut the door on your ability to be one of these people that is clarifying this issue at the end of the world in The Sunday Law crisis.

The return to the Old Paths is to prepare people with the prophetic message for The Sunday Law crisis.

> —"In amazement they hear the testimony that Babylon is the church, fallen because of her errors and sins, because of her rejection of the truth sent to her from heaven. As the people go to their former teachers with the eager inquiry, Are these things so? the ministers present fables, prophesy smooth things, to soothe their fears and quiet the awakened conscience. But since many refuse to be satisfied with the mere authority of men and demand a plain 'Thus saith the Lord,' the popular ministry, like the Pharisees of old, filled with anger as their authority is questioned, will denounce the message as of Satan and stir up the sin-loving multitudes to revile and persecute those who proclaim it.
> "As the controversy extends into new fields"—IT HAS LEFT ADVENTISM NOW—"and the minds of the people are called to God's downtrodden law, Satan is astir. The power attending the message will only madden those who oppose it. The clergy will put forth almost superhuman efforts to shut away the light lest it should shine upon their flocks. By every means at their command they will endeavor to suppress the discussion of these vital questions. The church appeals to the strong arm of civil power, and, in this work, papists and Protestants unite. As the movement for Sunday enforcement becomes more bold and decided, the law will be invoked against commandment keepers. They will be threatened with fines and imprisonment, and some will be offered positions of influence, and other rewards and advantages, as inducements to renounce their faith. But their steadfast answer is: 'Show us from the word of God our error'—the same plea that was made by Luther under similar circumstances. Those who are arraigned before the courts make a strong vindication of the truth, and some who hear them are led to take their stand to keep all the commandments of God. Thus light will be brought before thousands who otherwise would know nothing of these truths." The Great Controversy, 605–606.

And I do not really want to dwell on that at this time. I just want you to see that The Sunday Law crisis is the new fields; and, Isaiah meets Ahaz where the end of the conduit comes in at the upper pool at the highway of the fuller's field. This is the fuller's field. This is where Adventism is being purified.

2 KINGS 18 & 20[4] AND ISAIAH 36 & 37

In 2 Kings 18:17, once again this is where Sennacherib comes to Jerusalem to besiege it, to destroy it. And verse 17 says,

> "[17]And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great host against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the > conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field." 2 Kings 18:17 (KJV).

[4] Corrects typo in notes from chapter 19 to chapter 20.

The Sunday Law is the Latter Rain Message as well.

In 2 Kings 20, verses 19-21, it says,

> "[19]Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the Lord which thou hast spoken. And he said, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days?"—

It was not good.

> —"[19]And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?"—

Hezekiah is the one that made the conduit from Gihon, and covered up Gihon and brought the water to Siloam.

> —"[21]And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead." 2 Kings 20:19–21 (KJV).

Hezekiah did not understand that the Lord is the one that directs kings. Right? Neither did the people of Israel. They think Hezekiah built that pool.

ISAIAH 22

THE VALLEY OF VISION

Okay. Isaiah 22, bringing this to a close. Verse 1 of Isaiah 22, it says,

> "[1]The burden of the valley of vision."—

And usually the word burden means prophecy. Okay? The prophecy of the valley of vision is a prophecy at the end of the world.

And who is the subject of vision at the end of the world? Who has a problem with their vision? This is the prophecy of Laodicea. Okay? Their vision is blind.

And Proverbs 29:18:

> "[18]Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he." Proverbs 29:18.

And this word vision, is ch ôn . It is the vision of prophetic history. If you do not have that history, if you do not have this vision here of prophetic history [see Figure Nos. 70 and 71], you perish.

And the valley of vision in Isaiah 22 is about a people—two classes of people—but one class of people represented by Ahaz, they do not have the vision. They have not washed their eyes in the Water of Siloam.

Isaiah 6:9-10; Revelation 3:17

Isaiah 6:9-10—and keep your finger in Isaiah 22—In Isaiah 6:9 and 10, it says,

> "[9]And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. [10]Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart; and convert, and be healed." Isaiah 6:9-10 (KJV).

Okay. The people that Isaiah are going to are blind. They have no vision. They are Laodiceans. And that is referenced in Revelation 3:17, too.

> "[17]Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: . . ." Revelation 3:17 (KJV).

So, in Isaiah 22 (back to Isaiah 22), this is a prophecy about Laodicea, about Adventism.

> —"[1]The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops?"

A brother yesterday was talking about a special watermelon that he grows called Moon and Stars. It has big spots on it that represents the moon, and little spots that represents the stars.

And I said, "Well, do you go on top of your house to eat it on the housetop?"

And he did understand what I was talking about, and he did not want to answer it because he thought the reference in the Bible of a man going on the housetop is when he is living with a woman that is a dripping faucet and you are going to get on top of the house to get away from her.

And I said, "No, what I am referencing is that when you go up on your housetop with the moon and the stars, you are going up there to worship: spiritualism."

Okay. Isaiah 22:1 says,

> —"[1]The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops?" Isaiah 22:1 (KJV).

Zephaniah 1, verses 5 through 9 says,

> "[5]And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops;"—THE SUN, MOON, AND STARS—"and them that worship and that swear by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham [the king: Molek]; [6]And them that are turned back from the LORD;"—

These are people that have turned away from the Lord. It is in your notes.

—"and those that have not sought the LORD, nor inquired for him. [7]Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests. [8]And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel."—

What is this talking about? The wedding; the Investigative Judgment, to see who has on the correct wedding garment.

—"[9]In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit." Zephaniah 1:5–9 (KJV).

So, those people that go on the housetops to worship the sun, moon, and stars are those people in Adventism that have received the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians, that are wrapped up in spiritualism, that have the wrong wedding garment on for the wedding. They are going to be punished.

And they "leap on the threshold." And if you look at the Hebrew, of "leap on the threshold," it means to leap over the threshold. They leap over the threshold.

Okay. In your notes, 1 Samuel 5:1-5: What does it mean to "leap over the threshold"?

"[1]And the Philistines"—

Because these people in verse 1 of Isaiah 22, that is what they have done. They have gone on the housetop. They are wrapped up in spiritualism, just as king Saul was when he went to the witch of Endor.

And beginning in verse 1 of 1 Samuel 5:

—"[1]And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Ebenezer unto Ashdod. [2]When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

—[3]And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again. [4]And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him. [5]Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day." 1 Samuel 5:1–5 (KJV).

People that are wrapped up in false worship, they jump over the threshold.

Isaiah 22, verses 2 and 3—so, what I am saying, in verse 1, the valley of vision in Isaiah 22, it is about those people that receive the spiritualism represented by the strong delusion in 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, because they receive not the love of the truth that they might be saved. And the love of the truth is presented to them by Isaiah at the end of the conduit at the highway to the fuller's field, with the message that a remnant shall return.

Verses 2 and 3 of Isaiah 22 says,

> "[2] Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city:"—

You are doing celebration service.

> —"[2]Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

The dead in battle in Adventism are spiritually dead. They have not been slain with a physical sword.

> —"[3]All thy rulers"—ALL THY RULERS. 'ALL THY RULERS'?—"are fled together, they are bound by the archers:"—

They are not dead; they are spiritually dead and they have been bound by the archers, whoever the archers are.

> —"all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far." Isaiah 22:2-3 (KJV).

BOUND INTO BUNDLES

Okay. The people represented by Ahaz in our study, they are bound together by the archers. What does it mean to be bound?

Christ's Object Lessons, page 75:

> "The tares are permitted to grow among the wheat, to have all the advantage of sun and shower; but in the time of harvest ye shall 'return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth Him not.' Malachi 3:18. Christ Himself will decide who are worthy to dwell with the family of heaven. He will judge every man according to his words and his works. Profession is as nothing in the scale. It is character that decides destiny.
>
> "The Saviour does not point forward to a time when all the tares become wheat. The wheat and tares grow together until the harvest, the end of the world. Then the tares are bound in bundles"—

How are they bound in bundles? By the archers.

> —"to be burned, and the wheat is gathered into the garner of God. 'Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father.' Then 'the Son of man shall send forth His angels, and they shall gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire; there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.'" Christ's Object Lessons, 75.

Because, they are going to be lifted up as an ensign at that point.

BOUND BY ARCHERS

Okay. What does it mean to be bound by archers?
Isaiah 21, verse 17, says,

> "[17]And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar,"—

The archers in the Bible are the children of Kedar.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Islam.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Someone says, "Islam."

> "[17]And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished:"—

It is not just Islam here. This word diminished, it is talking about when Islam is restrained. It is diminished.

> —"for the Lord God of Israel hath spoken it." Isaiah 21:17 (KJV).

KEDAR

Genesis 25:13:

> "[13]And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, . . ." Genesis 25:13 (KJV).

How is it that the tares are bound by Islam in Adventism?

THE MEN OF THE EAST

Jeremiah 49:28:

> "[28]Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east." Jeremiah 49:28 (KJV).

Kedar is the descendants of Ishmael. They are the children of the East.

And on September 11, 2001, the Third Woe arrived in history when Islam was restrained. You can only see this if you return to the Old Paths and understand that the First Woe is Islam and the Second Woe is Islam; therefore, the Third Woe is Islam. And if you reject this final warning message, you are binding yourself with the tares and you are going to be burned.

Verses 4 and 5 of Isaiah 22:

> "[4]Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people. [5]For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of hosts in the > valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains." Isaiah 22:4-5 (KJV).

It is The Sunday Law. The Law is being broken down. Jerusalem is being captured.

And Isaiah, the righteous, he is sighing and crying for the fact that the Law is disregarded, and the fact that those people that are on the housetop they are crying to the mountains.

God's church is the glorious holy mountain, and the counterfeit churches are the mountains. In this time period they are turned into Babylon. At The Sunday Law crisis they are going to receive the mark of the beast.

THE SUNDAY LAW

Prophets and Kings, page 677.

> "The prophet here describes a people who, in a time of general departure from truth and righteousness, are seeking to restore the principles that are the foundation of the kingdom of God. They are repairers of a breach that has been made in God's law—the wall that He has placed around His chosen ones for their protection, and obedience to whose precepts of justice, truth, and purity is to be their perpetual safeguard." Prophets and Kings, 677.

So, Isaiah 22 is about The Sunday Law crisis. It is about Jerusalem. It is about God's people at The Sunday Law crisis. It is telling us that there is one class represented in Isaiah 7 as Ahaz that are rejecting the Latter Rain Message which includes the restraint of Islam, that are being bound as tares in advance of being burned. It is identifying the accomplishment of the Everlasting Gospel in Adventism.

THE HIDDEN ONES

> Isaiah 22:6 says—and I have the Stron ' s breakdown; because, if you read this at a surface level, you do not quite see what I want you to see here. But, if you get into the Stron ' s a little bit—it says,
> [6]And Elam"—

And Elam is hidden. And what I am saying, the wise virgins of Adventism, they are the hidden ones. Isaiah is presenting the Latter Rain Message; he is the hidden one.

> —"[6]And Elam [hidden] bare"—

And we think of bearing this felt pen, put it on our back and bearing it; but, it means lifted.

> —"[6]Elam [hidden] bare [lifted] the quiver"—

And the quiver, we think of something you put arrows in; but what it means here is it lifted the cover of the quiver so you could see into the quiver. Okay?

Elam, the hidden ones, are lifting something away from a truth to show it.

"[6]And Elam [hidden] bare [lifted] the quiver [the covering]"—

And what did he uncover? What did he show when he lifted this covering out of the way?

—"with chariots"—

And it is a rider.

—"with chariots [rider] of men"—

Bloody men; these are men of war.

—"with chariots [rider] of men [bloody men] and horsemen"—

A rider.

—"and horsemen [rider], and Kir"—

The wall.

> —"and horsemen [rider], and Kir [the wall] uncovered [bared] the shield [the defense]." Isaiah 22:6 (KJV).

What is this representing? The hidden men in this time period, the people represented by Isaiah, they are presenting the message of Islam. They open it up to Ahaz, and he does not want to see it.

Go to Psalm 83, verses 2 and 3, to make sure we understand who the hidden ones are, because that is Elam. Psalm 83:2-3 says,

> "[2]For, lo, thing enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head. [3]They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones." Psalm 83:2-3 (KJV).

God's people are the hidden ones in the Scripture, because they are hidden under the Shadow of the Most High.

Back to Isaiah 22, beginning at verse 7:

> "[7]And it shall come to pass,"—THIS IS THE SUNDAY LAW—"that thy choicest valleys"—IN JERUSALEM—"shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.
> "[8]And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest."—LOOKING TO HUMAN STRENGTH—"[9]Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool."—TRYING TO SAVE YOURSELF—"[10]And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall."—THIS IS SELF-PRESERVATION—"[11]Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago." Isaiah 22:7–11 (KJV).

Hezekiah built that conduit, built that pool, but who really built it was God. They are looking at a human savior, a human point of reference in the crisis time. They are looking to spiritualism, to a false christ.

Isaiah 22, 12-14, says,

"[12]And in that day"—IN THE SUNDAY LAW CRISIS—"did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness,"—

And when does the Lord call for weeping and mourning? The Day of Atonement; and, this is the climax of the Day of Atonement. This is when the sins are being blotted out.

—"and to girding with sackcloth: [13]And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die."—THE CELEBRATION SERVICE—"[14]And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged"—

And that word purged means final atonement.

—"Surely this iniquity"—

This celebrating, the rejecting the message of Islam and trying to save yourself, instead of coming to the Maker of the Old Pool and receiving the healing that is represented by Siloam. Surely this rejecting of truth will find no atonement in the climax of the Investigative Judgment.

—"Surely this iniquity will not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

LAODICEANS

Isaiah 22:15-19:

"[15]Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna,"—

Which means to grow—to grow, to get big; to get famous; exalt yourself—to grow.

—"which is over the house, and say,"—

And, of course I have said this before. I do not know how important it is, but treasurer as in the Bible: bad job description, whether it is Judas or Shebna! Okay?

Go to Shebna: He is Ahaz in Isaiah 22. He is about to be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord because he is serving himself in a crisis.

—"[16]What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock? [17]Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee. [18]He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country:"—

And when Christ spews the Laodicean out of His mouth, what does this word spew mean? Generally we answer "vomit." But, actually, it means projectile vomit. It is when you spew it out of your mouth. He is going to cast Shebna as a ball into a large field. This is Laodicea.

—"[18]He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house. [19]And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down." Isaiah 22:15-19 (KJV).

Shebna, the leader, is going to be replaced.

Isaiah 22:20-25:

"[20]And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim"—

And Eliakim means God of raising. Eliakim is the people that are going to be lifted up by God as an ensign.

—"the son of Hilkiah:"—

Hilkiah is the Lor 's portion. The remnant of the Lord's portion is going to be lifted up as an ensign.

—'[21]And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand:"—

So, there is a changeover in Adventism in The Sunday Law crisis, a change of leadership. The leadership that is there now gets spewed out of the mouth of the Lord, or tossed as a ball into a far country; and, the Lord is going to raise up Isaiah. He is going to reject Ahaz the king and raise up Isaiah. He is going to make Eliakim be the governor.

—"I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. [22]And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. [23]And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house. [24]And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons. [25]In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it." Isaiah 20-25 (KJV).

THE SURE PLACE

"Fastened," because He is going to fasten Eliakim as a nail into a sure place. Okay. Eliakim is going to be in a sure place, fastened there.

> FASTEN: Strong's Concordance H8628—A primitive root; to clatter, that is, slap (the hands together), clang (an instrument); by analogy to drive (a nail or tent pin, a dart, etc.); by implication to become bondsman (by handclasping): - blow ([a trumpet]), cast, clap, fasten, pitch [tent], smite, sound, strike, X suretiship, thrust.

FASTEN means to clatter, that is, to slap, to clang; by analogy to drive; by implication to become a bondsman: - blow, cast, clap, fasten, pitch [tent], smite, sound, strike, suretiship. Okay. He is going to be redeemed. He is going to be fastened by the bondsman.

> BURDEN: Strong's Concordance H4853—From H5375; a burden; specifically tribute, or (abstractly) porterage; figuratively an utterance, chiefly a doom, especially singing; mental, desire: - burden, carry away, prophecy, X they set, song, tribute. H5375—A primitive root; to *lift, in a great variety of applications, literally and figuratively, absolutely and relatively: - accept, advance, arise, (able to, [armour], suffer to) bear (-er, up), bring (forth), burn, carry (away), cast, contain, desire, ease, exact, exalt (self), extol, fetch, forgive, furnish, further, give, go on, help, high, hold up, honourable (+ man), lade, lay, lift (self) up, lofty, marry, magnify, X needs, obtain, pardon, raise (up), receive, regard, respect, set (up), spare, stir up, + swear, take (away, up), X utterly, wear, yield.

There is a burden on it. What is a BURDEN? A tribute, utterance, chiefly a doom, singing. It is from H5375, which means to lift, in a great variety of applications. Dropping down to the boldface, it is to forgive. The burden is going to be forgiven. It is pardoned; to spare, to take away.

Eliakim is going to be fastened in the Most Holy Place, where the Lord is going to remove His sin and purify Him fully.

> REMOVED: Strong's Concordance H4185—A primitive root (perhaps rather the same as H4184 through the idea of receding by contact); to withdraw (both literally and figuratively, whether intransitively or transitively): - cease, depart, go back, remove, take away. H4184—A primitive root; to touch:—feel, handle.

REMOVED: A primitive root; to withdraw: - cease, depart, go back, remove, take away.

The burden that was upon it is that probation is about to close. Probation is going to close. Eliakim is fastened in the Most Holy Place.

Revelation 3:7-22

"[7] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God. [8] And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive; [9] I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. [10] Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days; be thou faithful unto death, and I will give them a crown of life. [11] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death. [12] And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges; [13] I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth. [14] But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. [15] So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate. [16] Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. [17] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it. [18] And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass; [19] I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first. [20] Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols. [21] And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. [22] Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds." Revelation 3:7-23 (KJV).

Notice where I passed over where it says [in your notes], "The Sure Place," Ezra 9:8.

"[8]And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage." Ezra 9:8 (KJV).

The nail that is fastened in the sure place is the nail that is fastened in the Most Holy Place. It is Eliakim in the Most Holy Place, entering into covenant with the Lord, and the Lord is fully removing his sins; whereas, Shebna, he does not enter in there.

THE ORNAMENTS OF THE SANCTUARY

All the ornaments of the Sanctuary are hung upon this nail, upon the work of Christ, His sacrificial work, His work of mediation. All the ornaments of the Sanctuary are hung upon this nail, Christ's work as the bondsman, as the Redeemer.

And who is it that are the vessels in the Sanctuary?

When Belshazzar brought the sacred vessels in and started filling this wine, what was he doing? He was illustrating God's people being fed the wine of Babylon. We are the sacred vessels of the Sanctuary that are hung upon that nail.

But, that nail is going to be cut down because probation is going to closed right here [for Adventists, pointing to The Sunday Law in the timeline of Isaiah 6; see Figure No. 71].

Testimonies, volume 5, page 81:

> "The time is not far distant when the test will come to every soul. The mark of the beast will be urged upon us. Those who have step by step yielded to worldly demands and conformed to worldly customs will not find it a hard matter to yield to the powers that be, rather than subject themselves to derision, insult, threatened imprisonment, and death. The contest is between the commandments of God and the commandments of men. In this time the gold will be separated from the dross in the church. True godliness will be clearly distinguished from the appearance and tinsel of it. Many a star that we have admired for its brilliancy will then go out in darkness. Chaff like a cloud will be borne away on the wind,"—

Who does that? The Dirt Brush Man.

> —"even from places where we see only floors of rich wheat. All who assume the ornaments of the sanctuary, but are not clothed with Christ's righteousness, will appear in the shame of their own nakedness." Testimonies, volume 5, 81.

If you are a Seventh-day Adventist, you have assumed the ornaments of the Sanctuary. And if you have moved into the Most Holy Place, you have attached yourself to that nail; but, that nail is going to be cut off. Probation is going to close and you are going to have to stand in a time period where there is no longer any mediation for sin. You have to go get attached to that nail in the Most Holy Place, in that sure place, before it is cut off.

THE JUDGMENT OF THE LIVING

The Great Controversy, pages 430 – 431:

> "Now was seen the application of those words of Christ in the Revelation, addressed to the church at this very time: 'These things saith He that is holy, He that is true, He that hath the key of David, He that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it.' Revelation 3:7, 8.
> "It is those who by faith follow Jesus in the great work of the atonement who receive the benefits of His mediation in their behalf, while those who reject the light which brings to view this work of ministration are not benefited thereby. The Jews who rejected the light given at Christ's first advent, and refused to believe on Him as the Saviour of the world, could not receive pardon through Him. When Jesus at His ascension entered by His own blood into the heavenly sanctuary to shed upon His disciples the blessings of His mediation, the Jews were left in total darkness to continue their useless sacrifices and offerings. The > ministration of types and shadows had ceased. That door by which men had formerly found access to God was no longer open."—

The nail is going to be cut off.

> —"The Jews had refused to seek Him in the only way whereby He could then be found, through the ministration in the sanctuary in heaven. Therefore they found no communion with God. To them the door was shut. They had no knowledge of Christ as the true sacrifice and the only mediator before God; hence they could not receive the benefits of His mediation.
>
> "The condition of the unbelieving Jews illustrates the condition of the careless and unbelieving among professed Christians, who are willingly ignorant of the work of our merciful High Priest."—

They are willingly ignorant. This is Ahaz.

> —"In the typical service, when the high priest entered the most holy place, all Israel were required to gather about the sanctuary and in the most solemn manner humble their souls before God, that they might receive the pardon of their sins and not be cut off from the congregation. How much more essential in this antitypical Day of Atonement that we understand the work of our High Priest and know what duties are required of us." The Great Controversy, 430–431.

SUMMARY

So, what I am saying is, Isaiah 22, in connection with Isaiah 7 and Isaiah 6, Isaiah is representing those that are giving the final Latter Rain Laodicean Message to Ahaz. They are telling him that, "You better get connected to that nail in the Most Holy Place, because at The Sunday Law that nail is going to be cut off and there is not going to be anymore pardon. It is a close of probation message.

But, these people represented here by Ahaz, they are going to reject the message of Siloam, the message of Shiloah, the message of the Latter Rain, unfortunately.

And all this was to show that these two chapters, Isaiah 6 and 7, are the beginning of the 2520s that come to a conclusion here in 1798, 1844, and 1863; and, that 1863 is the beginning of William Miller's dream when these foundational truths are covered up.

And probably tomorrow morning we are going to recap our 40-plus presentations, and then the next morning we are going to take up the terminal point of William Miller's dream, which is 1989. Once we have done that, we will be done for a while with William Miller's dream.

And why are we dealing with William Miller's dream? We are dealing with William Miller's dream because we are showing that these truths on these [1843 and 1850] Charts and these Charts are typified in Bible prophecy, and William Miller's dream is identifying when these foundational truths were covered up and promising that the Dirt Brush Man at the Time of the End would come in and reestablish these foundational truths.

I know there is something that I wanted to say that has left my mind; but, perhaps tomorrow.

Shall we close with a word of prayer?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we wish to be represented by Isaiah, by Eliakim. We do not want to be Ahaz and Shebna that stand in the crisis of Adventism, the crisis that takes place on the highway to the fuller's field, where the conduit comes down, and reject the final warning message. We ask that you would make these truths sink deep into our hearts, deep into our minds, that the Holy Spirit can use them throughout the day to continue to convict us of our need of preparation, our need of making sure that we have entered into that Most Holy Place with you, and that we are hanging there on that nail with you in a covenant relationship so when the time comes and probation closes we can be among that group that are lifted up, as Eliakim was raised up as an ensign. We set before you this day's work. We ask that you would give us safety throughout this day and that what we do will be for your glory and honor. And we would ask a continued blessing upon the DVDs and the LiveStreaming of what we are doing here. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #40B

Recap #2

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, I want to thank you for waking us this morning and giving us another day of life that we might serve you and that we might study your Word. And, Heavenly Father, as we take up this study, we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit in our hearts and our minds, that you would take control of this presentation, that my words and my thoughts will be overruled and that my words and thoughts be touched with a coal from off the altar. We want you to prepare the hearts and minds of those that receive these messages, that they will understand them as you see fit and that they will accomplish exactly what you have designed for us as individuals and as your people. We want the Latter Rain to be poured out upon us. So, turn our vessels upward and fill us up, we ask in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. This is a review, a recap. This is the 42nd presentation.

I would like to recap presentations when I am doing a series. It is something that I try to do regularly; but, this beast is getting beyond my ability to go back and cover all the points. So, this is a simple overview.

There are so many. When I went back yesterday and was looking through all the wonderful truths that we have touched on, there is no way that you can do justice.

PART ONE: THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY (LESSONS 1 # 5)

But, where we started long ago was upon the principle on the top of your notes:

> "We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teaching in our past history." Life Sketches, 196.

And we took time early on in this series to show that the teaching that is under discussion here is the teaching that the 2520 and the 2300 would end in 1843. Those are the teachings that we should fear to forget; because, this teaching is what produced the experience that we should not forget. "We have nothing to fear for the future, except we forget how the Lord led us." Well, the Lord led us into the first disappointment in March of 1844; and, that first disappointment was designed to prepare the way for the Midnight Cry.

THE LORD'S LEADING

And in Ellen White's first vision, which you have in your next set of notes, the Midnight Cry is identified as a bright light that is set up at the beginning of the path, that shines light all the way along to the way to Heaven.

But, also in that vision it identifies that some people would deny the Midnight Cry, deny the truth of that history; and, for doing so, they would fall off the path.

So, when it comes to this first statement about forgetting how the Lord has led us in His teaching in our past history, if we forget that this teaching here, the 2520 and the 2300 years, is what produced the first disappointment, then we are denying the way the Lord has taught us. And then if we deny that we do not have the correct understanding of the dynamics that went into producing the Midnight Cry among the Millerites, which prepared a group of people to move into the Most Holy Place with Christ on October 22, 1844.

You can see the vision that we are referring to there, a passage of it. It says, from Christian Experience and Teachings of Ellen G. White, page 57:

> "They had a bright light set up behind them at the beginning of the path, which an angel told me was the 'midnight cry.' This light shone all along the path, and gave light for their feet, so that they might not stumble. "If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the city, they were safe. But soon some grew weary, and said the city was a great way off, and they expected to have entered it before. Then Jesus would encourage them by raising His glorious right arm, and from His arm came a light which waved over the advent band, and they shouted 'Alleluia!' Others"—AND THIS IS WHAT IS GOING ON IN ADVENTISM TODAY—"Others rashly denied the light behind them,"—

And what does it mean to rashly deny it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Several indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They deny it without even thinking about it, without even investigating it. It is just, "Oh, this can't be so. My pastor didn't say it was so. So, from this point on, I am opposed to it."

Is that not what rashly is? It is an immediate response without any thought.

> —"Others rashly denied the light behind them, and said that it was not God that had led them out so far. The light behind them went out, leaving their feet in perfect darkness, and they stumbled and lost sight of the mark and of Jesus, and fell off the path down into the dark and wicked world below." Christian Experience and Teachings of Ellen G. White, 57.

THE LORD'S TEACHING

Early Writings, page 74:

> "I have seen that the 1843 chart was directed by the hand of the Lord, and that it should not be altered; that the figures were as He wanted them; that His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none could see it, until His hand was removed." Early Writings, 74.

EARLY WRITINGS:

> "His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures," "His hand covered a mistake in the reckoning of the prophetic periods." Ibid., 74, 236.

THE MISTAKE EXPLAINED

What did they deny? They denied the Midnight Cry.

What produced the Midnight Cry was when the Lord removed His hand from here [referencing the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart]. Most Adventists understand that at a surface level. They know that when the Lord removed His hand from here, the Midnight Cry Message was when Samuel Snow came to identify the conclusion of the 2300 days as October 22, 1844. But, because they have forgotten the history involved, they do not realize that the Lord also was removing His hand from the 2520.

And you have Early Writings, pages 235 – 237, where Sister White speaks about the Lord removing His hand from this [1843] Chart.

And I am at "The Mistake Explained" in your notes. And she says,

> "I saw the people of God joyful in expectation, looking for their Lord. But God designed to prove them. His hand covered a mistake in the reckoning of the"—WHAT?—"of the prophetic periods."—

Two prophetic periods [the 2520 and the 2300], right there [again referencing the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart].

> —"Those who were looking for their Lord did not discover this mistake,"—A SINGULAR MISTAKE, A FULLNESS OF THE YEAR MISTAKE—"and the most learned men who opposed the time also failed to see it. God designed that His people should meet with a disappointment—

The first disappointment was of God's design. It was a test. He was going to prove them.

We should not forget that. If we forget it, we need to fear.

> —"The time passed, and those who had looked with joyful expectation for their Saviour were sad and disheartened, while those who had not loved the appearing of Jesus, but embraced the message through fear, were pleased that He did not come at the time of expectation. Their profession had not affected the heart and purified the life. The passing of the time was well calculated to reveal such hearts. . . . "—

There was a purpose in this disappointment.

> —"Those faithful, disappointed ones, who could not understand why their Lord did not come, were not left in darkness. Again they were led to their Bibles to search the prophetic periods. The hand of the Lord was removed from the figures,"—

These figures, these figures up here [again referencing the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart]; those figures.

> —"and the mistake was explained. They saw that the prophetic periods reached to 1844, and that the same evidence which they had presented to show that the prophetic periods closed in 1843, proved that they would terminate in 1844." Early Writings, 235–237.

And the 2520, which they thought ended in 1843, on this [1850] Chart which was produced to correct the error in that [1843] Chart, 677 is in the same place, dead center on the top; 677 [now referring to 1850 Chart].

[Referring to the 1843 Chart] This is the column of the 2520 that they believed ended in 1843.

[Referring to the 1850 Chart] This is the same column of the 2520, but they have corrected the error. It is 1844.

So, they are correcting the error of this [the 2520], and on this [the 2300] on this [1850] Chart, because the Lord removed His hand. And we have nothing to fear, except we forget that experience, that testing process that was designed by God and the teachings that were connected to that testing process. And the teachings that were connected to that testing process were the 2300 and the 2520.

THE CHARTS

1843

So, we have in your notes—I do not intend to read all these things, but they are in your notes in terms of point of reference in the different sections that we have dealt with in this worship series.

[Note: All unread notes have been inserted into these transcripts.]

From Spalding and Magan, page 2, we see here, she is putting her seal of approval on this [1850] Chart.

"I saw that the truth should be made plain upon tables,"—

She is referencing this [the 1850 Chart]She is writing this in 1850, before this 1850 Chart is produced; but, she is saying the second Table of Habakkuk needs to be together in this particular quote.

—"I saw that that the truth should be made plain upon tables,"—

And that expression comes from Habakkuk 2.

—"that the earth and the fullness thereof is the Lord's, and that necessary means should not be spared to make it plain."—

Make this truth [referencing the 1850 Chart] plain upon this table.

—"I saw that the old chart"—

And in Early Writings this statement is written down as the 1843 Chart.

—"I saw that the old chart was directed by the Lord, and that not a figure of it should be altered except by inspiration. I saw that the figures of the chart were as God would have them, and that His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none should see it till His hand was removed." Spalding and Magan, 2.

And what was altered from this [1843] Chart to this [1850] Chart was based upon dreams and visions that she received to give direction to her husband to have this 1850 Chart produced, which it was by Otis Nichols.

And then concerning this 1850 Chart, from Manuscript Releases, volume 13, page 359,

"I saw that God was in the publishment of the chart by Brother Nichols. I saw that there was a prophecy of this chart in the Bible, and if this chart is designed for God's people, if it [is] sufficient for one it is for another, and if one needed a new chart painted on a larger scale, all need it just as much." Manuscript Releases, volume 13, 359.

And I would challenge those that say that the 1863 Chart represents the foundations of Adventism to show a Spirit of Prophecy passage where she says the 1863 Chart is in the Bible prophetically.

It is, as we showed in our previous presentation of the year 1863. The rejection of the foundations by James White is definitely marked in the Bible; but, that is a different sort of prophetic marking. Here, what we are saying is that Ellen White is putting her seal of approval on these [the 1843 and 1850 Charts] being the Two Tables of Habakkuk, which parallel the two tables of the Ten Commandments.

NO NEW MESSAGE

So, there are a few quotes that follows where Sister White places her endorsement upon the messages that were presented in the history of the Millerites from these [1843 and 1850] Charts.

Review and Herald, January 19, 1905:

"God is not giving us a new message. We are to proclaim the message that in 1843 and 1844 brought us out of the other churches." Review and Herald, January 19, 1905.

There is no new message. We are to be proclaiming the same message that was proclaimed in 1843.

Manuscript Releases, volume 12, page 437:

> "All the messages given from 1840–1844 are to be made forcible now, for there are many people who have lost their bearings. The messages are to go to all the churches." Manuscript Releases, volume 21, 437.

Some people say that word all should read both, the First and Second Angels' Messages; but, that is not what Ellen White wrote. If you are "steeped in the techniques of higher criticism," then you "have the authority" to go in and change the Bible; therefore, you have the same attitude toward the Spirit of Prophecy and you are willing to change the word all to both. But, it says, "All the messages given from 1840-1844 are to be made forcible now.

The next quote, from Manuscript Releases, volume 15, page 371, says,

> "The truths that we received in 1841, '42, '43, and '44 are now to be studied and proclaimed." Manuscript Releases, volume 15, 371.

How can you proclaim them if you believe that they were erroneous? I guess you could, but proclaim that they are erroneous.

From Review and Herald, April 14, 1903,

> "The warning has come: Nothing is to be allowed to come in that will disturb the foundation of the faith upon which we have been building ever since the message came in 1842, 1843, and 1844. I was in this message, and ever since I have been standing before the world, true to the light that God has given us. We do not propose to take our feet off the platform on which they were placed as day by day we sought the Lord with earnest prayer, seeking for light. Do you think that I could give up the light that God has given me? It is to be as the Rock of Ages. It has been guiding me ever since it was given." Review and Herald, April 14, 1903.

The light she is speaking about is the messages that came in 1842, 1843, and 1844, which she called "the Foundation." And then she says that this light "is to be as the Rock of Ages," and that is with a capital "R" and capital "A."

So, she is saying that these truths [as reflected on the 1843 Chart] are the foundations of Adventism, and that these truths on this Chart are the Rock of Ages.

So, that was the first section.

PART TWO: Line Upon Line (Lessons 6 # 20)

And then we took time to show that not only did Sister White place her seal of approval upon the 2520 but she did so on the Pioneer teaching of Islam, the First and Second Woes. She did so on the Pioneer teaching of the Daily. She says that the teaching that Adventism presents on the Daily, that the Daily represents Christ's sanctuary ministry, came from angels that were expelled from Heaven.

She rebuked Brother Hewett from Dead River, saying that the 1335 had already been fulfilled. She did that in 1850.

So, we took in our first section time to identify that Ellen White places her seal of approval upon the foundational truths represented on this 1843 Chart, no matter what the modern theologians say.

PARALLEL MOVEMENTS

Then we moved into a study of line upon line, upon the fact that every Reform Movement parallels all the other Reform Movements, and you have these men who oppose this message that say their understanding of prophecy is The Great Controversy understanding. They base their approach to prophecy from The Great Controversy, and "Pippenger and these other men are just inventing things up out of thin air." But, the point of reference for this part of the study we use from The Great Controversy, page 343. It says,

> "The work of God in the earth presents, from age to age, a striking similarity in every great reformation or religious movement. The principles of God's dealing with men are ever the same. The important movements of the present"—WHICH IS THE LATTER RAIN MOVEMENT OF REVELATION 18—The important movements of the present have their parallel in those of the past, and the experience of the church in former ages has lessons of great value for our own time." The Great Controversy, 343.

A SPECIFIC ORDER

So, we went through and we showed that the Reform Movements have a specific order. You will see one of several quotes where Sister White emphasizes the order, Selected Messages, book 2, pages 104 – 105:

> "The first and second messages were given in 1843 and 1844, and we are now under the proclamation of the third; but all three of the messages are still to be proclaimed. It is just as essential now as ever before that they shall be repeated to those who are seeking for the truth. By pen and voice we are to sound the proclamation, showing their order, and the application of the prophecies that bring us to the third angel's message. There cannot be a third without the first and second. These messages we are to give to the world in publications, in discourses, showing in the line of prophetic history the things that have been and the things that will be." Selected Messages, book 2, 104–105.

And the order that we have been identifying is that there is first a period of Darkness. We have taken time with these waymarks, some of them more than others; but, this period of Darkness is also the Wilderness. And when you put together the various symbolic representations of what these waymarks represent, you develop more light about what they are. It is in this history of Darkness that the Mystery of Iniquity works, because the Mystery of Iniquity precedes every Reform Movement. It is active before the Reform Movement comes into history.

And then you will have a Time of the End.

And then you have an Increase of Knowledge when the Book is unsealed.

Then you will have the Message Formalized. And the formalization of this message is the Voice that comes out of the Wilderness. This message will have a bearing to this history [referring to the time period of the Wilderness].

The message that arrives here, the First Message that arrives here and goes through this history, is thereafter Empowered by the confirmation of said message, and that empowerment is marked when a Divine Symbol descends.

At this point, there is a Foundational Work that is done in every history; and, it is as you go through these Reform Movements and place them together line upon line in agreement with Isaiah 28 that you raise up the foundations of many generations, because the Lord wants us to make sure what the foundational work for Adventism is at the end of the world.

Once this message is empowered, and begins to test this generation, then the Second Message arrives as this generation begins to close the door against that warning message.

And then you see a manifestation of the power of God in this history that leads to the Third Message, which is Judgment.

And I, of course, am leaving many characteristics off, as we are summarizing over 40 hours of material.

This waymark [of Judgment] is followed by a Disappointment. You will see a number 7 here that has a connection, evidently, to the Disappointment; but, it is also representing the scattering.

And then ultimately the Fourth Message will arrive.

So, where we read from The Great Controversy, Sister White says that each of the great Reformatory Movements paralleled the final Reformatory Movement of the Latter Rain; so, we put together those lines upon lines to establish this fact.

HISTORY WILL REPEAT

The second quote on page 3 of your notes, one of the primary premises of this line-upon-line application is that history will repeat. Sister White, in Publishing Ministry, page 175, says,

> "Again and again I have been shown that the past experiences of God's people are not to be counted as dead facts. We are not to treat the record of these experiences as we would treat a last year's almanac. The record is to be kept in mind, for history will repeat itself." Publishing Ministry, 175.

This repetition of history, it is amazing to me.

There used to be a personality that lived in this area. He has moved on to bigger fields of labor and his opposition to this message; but, while he was here working at a local school in the area, there was a brother that did not agree with his resistance to this work, and he knew full well that the teaching of this person is that 1 Corinthians 10:11 is correct.

Go to 1 Corinthians 10:11.

This brother does not argue that 1 Corinthians 10:11 is correct; because, this is the Biblical point of reference for the repetition of history. Verse 11 says,

> "[11]Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come." 1 Corinthians 10:11 (KJV).

And his argument is, "I believe in 1 Corinthians 10:11 and that all those histories in the Bible provide moral lessons that we must understand at the end of the world; but, I do not believe that history repeats."

So, when this brother, a friend of ours, was struggling with this person that is fighting this message, there was a time where I was going to help from behind the scenes, where I started gathering together the quotes where Sister White says history will repeat. And I never finished it. I never handed it off. I still have it on file, and it is like five or six pages of various quotes, like the one we just read: "The record is to be kept in mind, for history will repeat itself."

I wonder how you can take that sentence and say that "moral lessons" are what is being emphasized by the Spirit of Prophecy. History is going to repeat itself; and, these people that are fighting this message, one of their primary resistances is the idea that history repeats itself.

So, this here [as in Figure No. 72], line upon line is premised upon the very principle that history repeats itself.

Now, I am not denying that there are moral lessons that we need to understand in each of these histories; but, I want the whole enchilada, so to speak. All right?

There was a pastor here not too long ago that was arguing with this message and he said, "What do we need the 2520 for? We have the 2300. The 2300 years points to October 22, 1844; so, what do we need the 2520 for?"

Well, because Jesus said, "Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God." We want it all. We want to know about the moral lessons from that history, but we want to be instructed about what it means that that history is going to be repeated. We do not have the right to pick and choose; and, if we do so, it is spiritualism. When we put our word over God's Word, we are involved in spiritualism.

THE PARABLE OF THE TEN VIRGINS

So, when we were looking at the reform lines, this [Figure No. 72] being a basic breakdown of every reform line, we pointed to the parable of the Ten Virgins, which in The Great Controversy, page 393, says,

> "The parable of the ten virgins of Matthew 25 also illustrates the experience of the Adventist people." The Great Controversy, 393.

We pointed out in these reform lines that they are all paralleled to one another; but, they are sometimes, particularly when a reform line has a beginning and an end, that the beginning of the reform line and the end of the reform line will have characteristics that are more specific to themselves.

What do I mean by that? I mean that when Ancient Israel came out of Egypt, that was the beginning of Ancient Israel; and, when Christ walked among men, that was the end of Ancient Israel.

And at the beginning of Ancient Israel and the end of Ancient Israel, you can see specific lessons of those histories that are more specific to those reform lines than other reform lines; such as, that the feasts that they were to keep throughout their history, they are established right there when they are coming out of Egypt: Passover, Pentecost. And in the time of Christ, those feasts have a specific impact to that history as well.

But, we are modern Israel, and at the beginning of modern Israel and the end of modern Israel is the story of Adventism. The Millerites are the beginning of Adventism; we are the end of Adventism.

And one of the truths that is more specific to us in these repetitions of reform lines is that at the beginning of Adventism and at the end of Adventism, the parable of the Ten Virgins is illustrating both of our histories.

That is why Sister White says, in Review and Herald, August 19, 1890,

> "I am often referred to the parable of the ten virgins, five of whom were wise, and five foolish. This parable has been and will be fulfilled to the very letter, for it has a special application to this time, and, like the third angel's message, has been fulfilled and will continue to be present truth till the close of time." Review and Herald, August 19, 1890.

So, not only do these reform lines repeat throughout sacred history, but when you have one that is illustrating the beginning and the ending, then there will be truths in the beginning and the ending that are more germane to those particular reform lines, and you are to watch for those. If you do not watch for those, if you do not understand that, if you are not willing to accept that, then you have a hard time accepting the premise that the Angel of Revelation 10 descended in the Millerite History when Islam was restrained; and, therefore, the Angel of Revelation 18 descends in our history when Islam is restrained. Those two characteristics are specific to the beginning and the ending of Adventism, although they are inferred when Christ is coming into the Triumphal Entry. There is an ass that has been restrained that is loosed by the Disciples so that the Message of Islam can carry Christ into Jerusalem. I mean, they [these characteristics] are still there but they are specifically noted in the beginning and the end of Adventism; and, there are other reform lines that possess that thought, too.

THE SEVEN THUNDERS

We looked at arguments that show that the history of the Millerites is repeated in our history in connection with the line upon line, and another one is the Seven Thunders.

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 971:

> "The special light given to John which was expressed in the seven thunders was a delineation of events which would transpire under the first and second angels' messages. . . ."—

If we mark this reform line as the history of the Millerites, the Time of the End was 1798; the Judgment came in 1844. Therefore, this history is the history of the First and Second Angels' Messages, and this history is the history of the Seven Thunders.

But, when Sister White is talking about the Seven Thunders in this same passage, she also says,

> —"After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction comes to John as to Daniel in regard to the little book: 'Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered.' These relate to future events which will be disclosed in their order." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 971.

So, the Seven Thunders represent a delineation of events that would transpire under the First and Second Angels' Messages in this history; but, they are also illustrating events that will take place when this history is repeated at the end of the world [marking in Figure No. 73 on the whiteboard the 2AM as 1842]. And that history of the Millerites is a history of the fulfillment of the parable of the Ten Virgins, and our history is a history of the parable of the Ten Virgins.

LINE UPON LINE

Okay. We were doing this study in this section line upon line, based upon Isaiah 28. And one of the quotes from the Spirit of Prophecy that we used in this regard from Selected Messages, book 2, page 114, was,

> "Prophecy has been fulfilling, line upon line. The more firmly we stand under the banner of the third angel's message, the more clearly shall we understand the prophecy of Daniel; for the Revelation is the supplement of Daniel." Selected Messages, book 2, 114.

The banner of the Third Angel's Message very simply is the 3:1 combination.

In this passage where she says this, she says, ". . . the more firmly we stand under the banner of the third angel's message, the more clearly shall we understand the prophecy of Daniel," if you will go into the complete passage,—I did not put it all into this quote [but is provided below in this transcript]—she continues on in the next sentence saying, ". . . the more firmly we will understand the ancient truths of Bible prophecy":

> "The more fully we accept the light presented by the Holy Spirit through the consecrated servants of God, the deeper and surer, even as the eternal throne, will appear the truths of ancient prophecy; we shall be assured that men of God spake as they were moved upon by the Holy Ghost." Selected Messages, book 2, 114.2

There is a way to stand underneath the Three Angels' Messages, the banner of the Third Angel that allows you to open up Bible prophecy, the history of Bible prophecy; and, it is this 3:1 combination. This 3:1 combination is marked throughout God's Word; and, what it does when you see the 3:1 combination, it is informing the student of prophecy that this is a history that has a direct repetition at the end of the world; such as, the three Hebrews being thrown in the flaming fiery furnace in Daniel, chapter 3, and then a fourth appears. That 3:1 combination is teaching us how the message is carried to the world; because, all the world was there at Nebuchadnezzar's presentation, and they saw God's people thrown in the fiery furnace and they saw God's people being supported by the fourth Angel of Revelation 18, none other than Christ Himself.

Each of these 3:1 combinations teaches a different story about the end of the world.

Balaam, a symbol of Islam, is called by king Balak, just before the children of Israel go into the Promised Land in Numbers 22, and he is hired to curse Israel; but, all Balaam can do is bless Israel, and he pronounces three blessings, and then king Balak is greatly disappointed and fires him and sends him home. But, before Balaam goes home, he pronounces a fourth blessing. There is your 3:1 combination.

And this 3:1 combination is not telling you about how the message is carried to the world. It is explaining the role of Islam in Adventism, and it is telling us that Islam is both a blessing and a curse: hired to be a curse, but it can only produce a blessing. Of course, this is also marked in Revelation 9, verse 4, that Islam is a blessing and a curse. It is going to carry a warfare on against Rome in Revelation 9, verse 4, but it is commanded to hurt not those that have the Seal of God. It is a blessing.

It was Islam that wrapped itself around Europe, preventing Catholicism from spreading to the world. It was the scholars of Islam that preserved the text that is used to produce the King James Bible [the Textus Receptus]. Islam has both been a blessing and a curse. The story of Balaam marks that, and it marks it with a 3:1 combination.

So, just over and over again, the banner of the Third Angel's Message is the 3:1 combination. And when you use that line, that banner, you do so by putting forth these reform lines: (1), (2), (3), and down here, (4) the Fourth Angel's Message. This allows you to bring line upon line together in fulfillment of Isaiah 28:9-13.

THE REFRESHING

Isaiah 28:9-13

Let us go to Isaiah 28:9-13; because, this teaching technique is the Latter Rain. Isaiah 28, starting at verse 9, it says,

> "[9]Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. [10]For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little: [11]For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people. [12]To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear."—

THE LATTER RAIN

This technique of line upon line, here a little, there a little, is the rest and the refreshing, which in The Great Controversy, page 611, which is your next quote, Sister White tells us that the refreshing is the Latter Rain.

Verse 13 of Isaiah 28 says,

—"[13]But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken." Isaiah 28:9-13 (KJV).

In verse 12 it said that they refused to hear it. This Latter Rain Message is a message because it is something that the rebels in the camp refuse to hear, and, it is a testing message that causes them to lose their salvation; because, as they reject the Latter Rain Message, they go and fall backward and are broken and are snared and are taken. So, the Latter Rain is a message; it is a testing message. It is the Everlasting Gospel. It is what the Lord uses to produce two classes of worshippers in Adventism. And the way the Latter Rain Message is taught and presented to God's people is by bringing reform line upon reform line; because, as you bring all the reform lines together, you are illustrating the history of the Latter Rain at the end of the world.

The Great Controversy, pages 611 – 612:

"The great work of the gospel is not to close with less manifestation of the power of God than marked its opening. The prophecies which were fulfilled in the outpouring of the former rain at the opening of the gospel are again to be fulfilled in the latter rain at its close. Here are 'the times of refreshing' to which the apostle Peter looked forward when he said: 'Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; and He shall send Jesus.' Acts 3:19–20." The Great Controversy, 611–612.

A TWO-STEP MESSAGE

In connection with these reform lines, we identified that they are structured upon a two-step message. The First and Second Angels' Messages are these two steps. In this history it reaches its conclusion when the door is shut at the Third Angel's Message; but, still, it is the history of the First and Second Angels' Messages.

In your notes you have some references that we looked at to see that the Latter Rain Message is two steps. The Latter Rain Message, most of us in Adventism do not realize that the Latter Rain is two parts: it is the Early Rain and the Latter Rain; it is the Spring Rain and the Summer Rain; it is the Former Rain and the Latter Rain. It is always described as two parts; but, for some reason, it does not sink in with Adventists.

And these two parts are also representing the two-step message that exists in all these reform lines.

Spirit of Prophecy, volume 3, page 243:

"The act of Christ in breathing upon his disciples the Holy Ghost, and in imparting his peace to them, was as a few drops before the plentiful shower to be given on the day of Pentecost." Spirit of Prophecy, volume 3, 243.

Genesis 2:7; Ezekiel 37:1-14

The two-step message in these reform lines is the message of Elijah and Elisha; it is the message of Genesis 2:7—go to Genesis 2:7.

Genesis 2:7 says,

"[7]And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground,"—STEP NO. 1—"and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life;"—STEP NO. 2—"and man became a living soul." Genesis 2:7 (KJV).

And Genesis 2:7 is prefiguring Ezekiel 37, verses 1 through 14, where Ezekiel illustrates two prophetic messages.

The first message brings the valley of dead, dry bones, which Sister White says repeatedly is the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of the world. The first message of Ezekiel brings the bones and the flesh and the sinew together, but they are not a living soul yet. They have just been formed out of the dust of the ground. That is all.

And then the second message of Ezekiel 37 is when the breath is breathed into them and they stand upon their feet, a mighty army (and Adam became a living soul).

"[1]The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, [2]And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. [3]And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest. [4]Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. [5]Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: [6]And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. [7]So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. [8]And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. [9]Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. [10]So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. [11]Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts. [12]Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. [13]And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, [14]And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD." Ezekiel 37:1-14 (KJV).

THE FIRST AND SECOND ANGELS' MESSAGES

So, in the creation of Adam, and the raising up of the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of the world, it is a two-step message. It is the First and Second Angels' Messages. It is the message of Elijah, the First: John the Baptist was Elijah; William Miller was Elijah. That is the First Angel's Message.

The 1888 Materials, pages 803 – 804:

> "God has given the messages of Revelation 14 their place in the line of prophecy, and their work is not to cease till the close of this earth's history. The first and second angel's messages are still truth for this time, and are to run parallel with this which follows." The 1888 Materials, 803–804.

But, Elisha followed John the Baptist and William Miller and Elijah; and, Christ is Elisha in relationship to John the Baptist.

In Revelation 10, on August 11, 1840, the Mighty Angel that descended, who followed Miller (Elijah), was no less the personage than Jesus Christ (Elisha).

And in our history, the first message that arrives in 1989, the message of events connected with the close of probation, is the Elijah message. And on 9/11 the Angel of Revelation 18 descends and, once again, that is no less the personage than Jesus Christ. It is Elisha. It is a two-step message.

TWO CALLS

In the center of the page of your notes, "Two Calls"—I passed over some [quotes that were not read into the record but provided in transcript]—speaking of Revelation 18, from Review and Herald, December 6, 1892, it says,

> "So in the last work for the warning of the world, two distinct calls are made to the churches. The second angel's message is, 'Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.' And in the loud cry of the third angel's message a voice is heard from heaven saying, 'Come out of her, my people.'" Review and Herald, December 6, 1892.

And in Revelation 18 you have this two-step message.

TWO TEMPLE CLEANSINGS

Okay. As we looked at these histories, what we said was that every reform line parallels the other reform lines: a message formalized, a message empowered, activity of the enemies as they fight the message, and then Judgment. So, we bring the history of the Millerites and we line it up with the other reform lines in order to give two witnesses or more to these things.

And once we had shown that, then we identified that in the history of Christ and in the history of the Millerites and in our history, there are two temple cleansings.

And we looked at the history of Christ. The ways and means, the mode of operation that Christ cleansed the temple at the beginning and the end of His ministry is that Divinity flashed through humanity. It was not so much that He was kicking the tables over. It was that Divinity flashed through humanity.

And we noted that in these histories, when the Divine symbol comes down that Divinity is flashing through humanity, and this begins the first temple cleansing.

For the Millerites up here, this begins the first temple cleansing on August 11, 1840, when no less the personage than Jesus Christ came down out of Heaven and Divinity flashed through humanity. And this temple cleansing began in the Millerite History, and it is marked as concluding in June of 1842 when the Protestant churches are closing their doors against this message. This was the first temple cleansing.

Then, in the summer of 1844, you have the Midnight Cry; and, once again Divinity flashes through humanity and it cleanses this temple until the door closes on October 22, 1844.

But we noted that in all of these temple cleansings, they still are all the same. They consist of a three-step testing process. We took time to where the third test arrives for Adventism here at the end of the world; the first test for the world begins. There is always a three-step testing process; but, there are two temple cleansings in each of these histories. Christ cleanses the temple twice.

In 1840 Divinity flashed through humanity. That was the first test in this history for the Protestant churches.

And one of the characteristics of the second test, as identified in God's prophetic Word, is that it is a visual test; and, right in here, the visual test came for the Protestants with the introduction of the 1843 Chart.

And there is a nice quote in the writings of the Pioneers. I think it is Joseph Bates. After they had printed 300 of these Charts and the messengers all had these Charts, he went to a camp meeting that they were holding. And it is interesting if you really want to get into the detail of this history, they had a meeting where they determined that they were going to print these 300 Charts; they took a vote, a group of them. And in the same meeting they were led to start camp meetings. They had never held camp meetings before; but, the Lord led them to produce these Charts, but in the very identical meeting He led them to start camp meetings because the Lord knew that this Chart was going to be produced in May of 1842, and in June of 1842 their ability to get into the churches was going to end. So, He was planning the camp meetings right at the same time.

There is a passage where shortly thereafter they had a camp meeting and Joseph Bates got off the train and went to the camp meeting, and he says all over the trees, where they were having this camp meeting, they had these Charts hanging, and there were these groups of people in front of these Charts looking at them and discussing them. It was a visual test for Protestantism right here.

And then the door closes [at the third test in June of 1842]. So, in the Millerite History you have this three-step test.

And then, of course, the Midnight Cry, Divinity flashes through humanity; then the message is being carried across the United States "like a tidal wave." And those people that are participating in that are required to recognize and see that, and it ends in Judgment.

And in our history, there are two temple cleansings. On 9/11 the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends, right where this Angel [of 1840] descends, with the restraint of Islam. And the first test for us is underway. But, in order for you and me to explain 9/11 and the role of Islam, we have to return to these [1843 and 1850] Charts. We have to return to the logic of the Pioneers, which explains why the First Woe was Islam and the Second Woe is Islam, in order to have the Biblical logic to identify that the Third Woe begins here at 9/11. So, suddenly these Charts in our history produce a visual test. They are the handwriting on the all.

They produce a visual test that leads to the closing of the door at The Sunday Law. And at the closing of the door at The Sunday Law, this is the first test for the eleventh-hour workers outside of Adventism; because, here Divinity is going to flash through humanity as an ensign is lifted up, as Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego are thrown into the fiery furnace and all the world is watching. This ensign becomes the visual test and leads to Judgment.

So, when we were looking at the lines upon lines, we made this distinction that as you look at this history, you have to mark two temple cleansings in this history; whereas, at a different approach, if you are simply looking at these histories at the beginning of Judgment in 1844 and the end of Judgment when Michael stands up in Daniel 12:1, then you can simply see three primary waymarks: the First Angel's Message empowered in 1840; the Second Angel's Message arrives in June of 1842; and, the Third Angel's Message marks the beginning of Judgment.

The Second Angel's Message in 1842 is an activity of the Protestants of the United States.

So, if you are just looking at the line as a symbol of the opening and closing of Judgment, then when you get down here at 9/11, the first test is empowered, Revelation 18 when this Angel comes down; the second waymark here, activity of the Protestants in the United States once again as they close the door to pass The Sunday Law; and, then the third test is when Michael stands up and Judgment ends.

So, you have to be careful about the line upon line, to define them by the context; and, that is what you have to be careful with all of Bible prophecy.

THE YEAR-DAY PRINCIPLE

We also identified in these histories some things that are identified through the recognition that Jesus is the First and the Last, the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the Ending.

This, being the beginning and the end of Ancient Israel; and, Ancient Israel is illustrating modern Israel, so we looked at the year-day principle. And we found that in the beginning of the history of Ancient Israel, in Numbers 14:34, that you had a rebellion against a rest that was taking place, the Rest of Grace for Ancient Israel entering into the Promised Land right here at the beginning.

And then down here in connection with the year-day principle of Ezekiel 4:6, you have a rebellion against the Rest of the Sabbath. And we used that beginning and ending to mark the beginning of the testing process of Adventism when the Mighty Angel comes down on 9/11, as Adventism rebels against the Rest represented by the 2520. And in so doing, they are preparing themselves to reject the Rest of the Sabbath down here at The Sunday Law.

So, the beginning of Ancient Israel and the end of Ancient Israel is illustrating the beginning of the testing process of spiritual modern Israel, and the end of the testing process of spiritual modern Israel; and, it has to do with the very foundational principle of the Millerites, which is the year-day principle.

And William Shea, someone that would have, no doubt, no sympathy with this message, has identified that the first day of the year-day principle as noted in Scriptures is Leviticus 25. And Leviticus 25 being the year-day principle requires that when you analyze the curse connected with Leviticus 25 in allowing the land to rest, that you do it under the premise of the year-day principle; and, this is what allows you to see that the seven times in Leviticus 26 is 2520 years.

And, of course, I am leaving much out of this.

TABLES OF THE COVENANT

Changing gears now, we also noted that at the beginning of Ancient Israel, the Lord gave Ancient Israel Two Tables to mark the covenant.

And what are those tables?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Ten Commandments.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Ten Commandments. And there are four on this table, and 6 on this table.

And at the beginning of modern Israel, us, He gave us these Two Tables [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts], to mark the covenant with the people that He had raised up from 1798 to 1844 in 46 years. So, these Two Tables are prefigured by the Ten Commandments, and there are all kinds of light.

You get to this level of understanding, and you need to put on sunglasses.

When the Bible talks about the man of sin seeking to change the Ten Commandments, [at one level] it is speaking about Adventism attempting to change these Tables [the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. And what spirit is it? In either case, it is the spirit of antichrist.

PART THREE: THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY (LESSONS 21 # 23)

Then we went into Part Three. In Part Three we focused in on the Mystery of Iniquity.

Most of these waymarks we have been emphasizing for many years—the people presenting this message being the we I am speaking about—but, in this presentation we took a few presentations to really mark the Mystery of Iniquity as one of the waymarks on this prophetic line. And in agreement with what Paul teaches, we say that the Mystery of Iniquity is something that precedes the Reform Movement, "The Mystery of Iniquity doth already work." But it will impact this generation.

This here [Figure No. 76] is the Everlasting Gospel. The Everlasting Gospel is the work of Christ in producing two classes of worshippers, based upon the introduction of a three-step testing message. And when you get to the conclusion of the third test where judgment is illustrated, you will see two classes develop. And the class that is lost, the class that receives the mark of the beast, the class in the Millerite History that is praying to Satan in the Holy Place, the Jews that were left in perfect darkness in the time of Christ, the class that is on the wrong side of the issue when the Everlasting Gospel has accomplished its work, they can trace their rejection to the message back to the activity of the Mystery of Iniquity.

It was the Greek teaching that prevented those that rejected Christ from seeing that He was the Messiah, the Greek teaching that had been active for years and years before the birth of John the Baptist and of Christ.

It was the unwillingness of the Protestants in the Millerite History to come fully out of Babylon, to come fully out of Roman Catholicism, to come fully out of the darkness of the 1260 years that prevented them from accepting the First and Second Angels' Messages. They were carrying—and I mean this has a specific and direct truth connected with it—they continued to carry the Papacy. Okay? In Revelation 17, this woman that is the religion of Paganism, it moves from head to head down through history. And the Protestants that lost their way in the Millerite History continued to carry the doctrines of Rome. They would not turn loose of their understanding of the immortality of the soul or Sunday sacredness. So, it is the Mystery of Iniquity during the 1260 years that impacted them.

And, of course we have identified that in our particular history, this wilderness time period began in 1863 when the foundational truths began to be covered up, and that this is Nebuchadnezzar's Dream. It is William Miller's dream, but it is Nebuchadnezzar's dream.

And when Nebuchadnezzar's tree is cut down right here, the stump of the tree is wrapped with iron and brass. And it is iron and brass in this history that represents the Mystery of Iniquity from 1863 to 1989, this iron representing the Roman Kingdom, representing Latin; brass representing the Greek Kingdom, representing Greek, Latin and Greek being the symbols of what is taught in the schools of theology. And it is this false education from 1863 to 1989 that is the Mystery of Iniquity that prevents Seventh-day Adventists from understanding the Everlasting Gospel here in our history.

So, we took time to show that, and we used Judas as the symbol of this.

JUDAS'S LAST SUPPER

And Judas had a beginning and an ending lesson for us.

Judas's rebellion, his rejection, was all the way through; but, it was manifested in Jesus's sermon on the manna, the Bread of Heaven that came down out of Heaven. That is where Sister White says Judas understood what Jesus was saying, but Judas wanted Him to have an earthly kingdom. So, his rebellion is beginning to be manifested there.

And then the next thing you see is Judas is at the feast, the feast at Simon's house. So, at the beginning of the rebellion represented by Judas, you have a feast at Simon's house and then the Last Supper. And, in both cases what infuriates Judas is the washing of feet, humility. Here at the feast at Simon's house it is Mary washing Jesus's feet with tears and perfume.

Here at the Last Supper it is Jesus washing the Disciples' feet.

And so we looked at Judas as a type of the Mystery of Iniquity, where he falls away right here fully. The Mystery of Iniquity has fully worked in him; therefore, he is receiving the strong delusion here as he goes out to betray his Lord.

And how many times did he covenant to betray his Lord in that history?

How many times did he talk to the Sanhedrin?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Three.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Three. The third is here [at the End]; and, here the man of sin is revealed.

And who is the man of sin? It was not Judas because he went out and committed suicide.

Who was the man of sin that was revealed? Barabbas, which is a false christ: BAR meaning son; ABBA meaning father.

We noted that in the Last Supper of Christ that Judas was in, it was not the last supper for anyone but Judas. It was his last supper. He went out and committed suicide. But, the Disciples and Christ, they are going to eat again.

PART FOUR: DANIEL (LESSONS 24 # 35 + 35B)

BABYLON'S FALL

In Part Four, we talked about Babylon's fall.

And then we went into the Book of Daniel and showed that the Book of Daniel is the history that we are living right now. The First Angel's Message is Daniel, chapter 1; the Second Angel's Message is Daniel, chapter 2; and, the Third Angel's Message is Daniel, chapter 3.

And then we have a scattering time period of William Miller's dream, which is Daniel, chapter 4; and, then we come into our history now where Belshazzar is bringing, since 9/11, where they have introduced the Spiritual Formations techniques of the Jesuits into Adventism, and passed a ruling that since September of 2001, if you are going to be an ordained Seventh-day Adventist pastor, you have to be taught in these methods. This is Belshazzar bringing the sacred vessels of Adventism into his last supper to fill them with the wine of Babylon.

We showed that this story of Daniel, chapter 5, is what is being played out in Adventism today.

And then Daniel, chapter 6, is The Sunday Law crisis.

But, in connection with Daniel, we looked at the three falls of Babylon: Nimrod, Nebuchadnezzar, and Belshazzar. And we found that the same dynamics are in each of these histories.

THE THREE FALLS OF BABYLON: NIMROD, NEBUCHADNEZZAR, AND BELSHAZZAR

There is a warning message. With Nimrod the warning message was given by Shem and Noah. The message is rejected, and then the Divine Pronouncement and the Judgment for Nimrod was the Scattering.

And then there was a warning message for Nebuchadnezzar in chapter 4. It was a dream but it was interpreted by the prophet Daniel. And when Nebuchadnezzar one year later rejects that warning message from the Book of Daniel, the Judgment, the Divine Pronouncement comes and the Judgment is the seven times.

And then we looked at Belshazzar. The warning message from the Book of Daniel, according to the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy, was the story of Nebuchadnezzar in chapter 4; and, Belshazzar rejected that warning message, and his warning message and Divine Pronouncement is represented in MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN, which adds up to 2520.

So, we see that with Nimrod, Nebuchadnezzar, and Belshazzar, the Divine Pronouncement and the Judgment has to do with the 2520. It is the handwriting on the wall.

It [referring to the 1843 and 1850 Charts hanging on the wall behind the podium] is the handwriting on the wall for Adventism.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S DREAM

And then we identified that Nebuchadnezzar's dream was William Miller's dream, and that William Miller's dream, when the jewels that he had been employed by the Lord to gather together and put on His table—this Table [pointing to the 1843 Chart]—and called for everyone to come and see, that they began to be covered up in 1863 by the one, by the one that had been the most zealous—well, I do not know if he was the most zealous, but his statement is pretty zealous: "If you reject that this 1843 Chart was a fulfillment of Habakkuk 2, you leave the original faith." That is James White. He had been the most zealous to say that he would defend this Chart, and he began to set it aside in 1863, just paralleling Peter, who had been most zealous saying, "I'll never deny you, Lord," and immediately thereafter denied his Lord.

And we looked at this dream in detail, how once William Miller weeps; he is paralleling John in Revelation 5 weeping. Once the weeping takes place, then in Revelation 5 the Lion of the tribe of Judah, in William Miller's dream the Dirt Brush Man, comes in and begins to sweep out the counterfeit coins and the counterfeit jewels; and, we have pointed out that He is simultaneously sweeping out the foolish virgins, because the foolish virgins have become connected to their idols, these false doctrines: "Ephraim is joined to his idols. Leave him alone." So, when these false doctrines are swept out, the people that are holding them, they go out the window with them.

And we pointed out that the sweeping out begins when the Divine symbol comes down at 9/11. He arrives and begins to clean up house in 1989; but the separation, the accomplishment of the Everlasting Gospel, 9/11 to The Sunday Law for Adventism.

PART FIVE: 1863 (Lessons 36 # 40 + 40B)

FIRST LEADERS

When we talked about James White, we talked about first leaders, that every first leader was tested, whether it was Aaron with the calf, or Rehoboam who rejects the Pioneer position for the new men, or Jeroboam, or king Saul. James White was prefigured by all these first leaders. We went through that.

SHILOAH AND METHUSELAH

We noted that in Isaiah 7—I like this—that Enoch is the First Angel's Message; Methuselah is the Second Angel's Message; Noah was the Third Angel's Message; and that when Ahaz was rejecting Siloam, when he was rejecting the Waters of Shiloah in the Hebrew, in Isaiah 7, that the root word for METHUSELAH is this root word, Siloam: when he dies, it will come.

When Methuselah died here [at the third waymark], the Flood came in the time of Noah.

So, Enoch's message, when Enoch gives his message in this time period, one of the things that Enoch is teaching us is God's longsuffering and mercy. That is why he is the oldest man that never died.

But Methuselah represents a message that reaches its climax when the door closes on the ark; and, the message that reaches its climax when the door closes on October 22, 1844, is the 2520. And in Isaiah 7, the starting point of both 2520s is 742BC—[the beginning of the 19-year civil war, after which the Northern Kingdom of Israel was taken into captivity 723BC], and 677BC [at which time the Southern Kingdom of Judah was taken into captivity, 65 years from 742BC [and 46 years after the Northern Kingdom was taken into captivity]. And Enoch was 65 years old when Methuselah was born. Methuselah represents the 2520, and his name represents Siloam and Shiloah. It represents for us the Latter Rain Message, which Ahaz rejected, and which in 1863 James White began to set aside.

SUMMARY

So, what we are saying is, in closing—and we left so much out!—what we are dealing with at this point in our studies, at the first part of our studies was that Ellen White endorses these truths [referring to the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. The Spirit of Prophecy endorses these truths.

Then we began looking at these truths as typified in God's Word, where they have been represented in God's prophetic Word.

And one of the primary places that they have been represented is in William Miller's dream, and William Miller's dream marks the covering up of the jewels beginning in 1863; and, we took a great deal of time to show why 1863 is marked at that point in time.

Now we are going to begin to show why 1989 is the end of William Miller's dream, and for me. I do not know about anyone else.

There are certain verses in the Bible—and I am sure if we are faithful and are allowed to spend eternity with Christ, we will find that every verse in the Bible possesses what I am going to say. Every verse in the Bible will have a depth to it that is beyond our ability to see at this time. But, some verses in the Bible are verses in the Bible, and some verses in the Bible they possess depth: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16 (KJV).

John 3:16, you can take that verse and you can go just very deep.

Genesis 3:15, "I will put enmity between thee and thy seed."

But for me, the verse that has the greatest depth, the most profound verse in God's Word is Daniel 11:40, which marks 1989, the end of William Miller's dream. So, for a while here now, we are going to begin to look at 1989 and Daniel 11, verse 40.

And I realize that Adventism basically says, "We don't understand the last part of Daniel 11," and therefore they do not understand much about Daniel 11, verse 40. But, I am telling you, in Daniel 11, verse 40, there are 51 words, and those 51 words open the entire Bible up.

And that is our claim—one of our claims—is that 1989 is the Time of the End for the 144,000; and, at the Time of the End a prophecy is unsealed that produces an increase of knowledge. It is this verse right here [Daniel 11:40]—if we are correct, and we are—that produces the increase of knowledge; and, the knowledge that comes from Daniel 11, verse 40, it is deep; it is broad. It is certainly beyond any human being to do justice. And that is what we will begin to take up now in connection with 1989, the end of William Miller's dream.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing this far along in this worship series. We know that as human beings we are incapable of rightly representing the glory and depth, the power, the seriousness of your Word; but, we see little glimpses of this profound truth that you have been opening to your people since 1989, since you opened up the understanding of Daniel 11, verse 40. And we thank you for allowing us to be among those that are those students of prophecy that are running to and fro in your Word, understanding this increase of knowledge. And as we continue on in this series, we would ask that you would bless us with increased light. As we break for our individual tasks this day, we would ask that you would keep us safe, protect us, and let us do what we do for your honor and your glory. We thank you for the work that you are doing with the DVDs and the LiveStreaming, and we ask for your continued blessing upon that as well. We thank you for bringing our brother home safely, and his wife. We ask this in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #41

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a night's rest and another day of life. And as we begin the next section in this study of Habakkuk's Tables, we ask that you would grant us your wisdom and your understanding that we might discern these truths as you would have us discern them. I ask that you take control of my thoughts this morning, my words that they may be words designed to edify your people and glorify and honor you. And I ask that you prepare those that are hearing these things, their minds and their hearts, to receive them as you see fit. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. We ask you to accomplish that for us at this time by opening our understanding to Daniel 11, verse 40, its significance and its purpose in the Scriptures. And we thank you for these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are dealing with Habakkuk's Two Tables as typified in the Scriptures. And years ago, the first time we ever organized our own meeting in this ministry in 2004, we organized a meeting in order to get the presentation of the last six verses of Daniel 11 recorded where they would be available. And we, our ministry, haven't ever gone back and addressed the last six verses Daniel 11 specifically since then. So, that is eight years ago, and much new information about those last six verses has just come to light. So, even though one aspect of those last six verses of Daniel 11, 1989, and verse 40, is connected with William Miller's and Nebuchadnezzar's dream as far as the terminal point, when the Dirt Brush Man comes in and begins to sweep out the traditions and customs that have been handed down from generation to generation in Adventism, in order to do it justice we are going to take some time on the last six verses of Daniel 11. In 2004 that presentation was 40 hours. So, we are not going to take 40 hours, Lord willing; but, we are going to spend a great deal of time and not be directly referencing Habakkuk's Tables until we get to the conclusion, probably, and then move beyond this subject.

So, if you have not ever studied the last six verses of Daniel 11 for yourself in depth, this will be your opportunity.

In this little room, I know some of you are newer in this message than 2004. So, put your thinking caps on and get your pen so you can take some notes and ask some question in between if you need to.

So, we are going to go around a lot of mountains before we get to where we want to be.

REPEAT AND ENLARGE

Daniel 8:1-2

In Daniel 8, verses 1 and 2, it says,

"[1]In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. [2]And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai." Daniel 8:1-2 (KJV).

What I want you to see, if you will, in the first verse, verse 1, it says "first." And in your notes it defines that word first.

> FIRST: Strong's Concordance H8462—in the sense of opening; a *commencement; relatively original (adverbially originally):—begin (-ning), first (time).

It is in the sense of opening; a commencement; the original.

So, in verse 1, you have two options; either works. It says,

> "[1]In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision"—

And in Daniel 8 there are two visions. There is the mareh vision and the [pronounced khaw-so e'] vision; but, in verse 1 it is the vision. It says, > —"[1]In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a [H N] vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first."—

At the commencement.

So, you can either determine that Daniel is referencing the commencement of Belshazzar reign as king, or the commencement of this vision.

Daniel 7:1-2

But, in either case, if you go back to Daniel 7, verses 1 and 2, you will see the commencement of one or the other, either the commencement of Belshazzar as king or the commencement of this vision. It does not matter. It all works out the same in the wash.

Verse 1 of Daniel 7 says,

> "[1]In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon"—

And in Daniel 8 it is the third year of Belshazzar.

> "[1]In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters. [2]Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea." Daniel 7:1-2 (KJV).

So, what I want you to see here at the beginning is Daniel, in chapter 8, verses 1 and 2, he purposely ties together Daniel 7 and Daniel 8. They are operating upon the principle of repeat and enlarge.

And in Daniel 7 you have the kingdoms of Bible prophecy, and in Daniel 8 you have the kingdoms of Bible prophecy.

And in Daniel 7 you have the political manifestation of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy; therefore, those kingdoms are represented by beasts. And in Daniel 8 you have the spiritual manifestation of those kingdoms of Bible prophecy; therefore, the beasts are represented in sanctuary animals and terms throughout Daniel 8.

One of the primary themes in Bible prophecy is the combination of church and state; and, in Daniel 7 and 8, you see the church and state manifestations of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy.

TWO VISIONS

So, in Daniel 8, the vision that Daniel sees here in the opening is the vision; and, we want to look at the vision in contrast with the mareh vision in Daniel 8 so we can draw some conclusions about it.

In verses 1 and 2 in Daniel 8, he introduces us to the fact that he has a vision that is connected with his first vision in Daniel 7.

And then in verse 3—let us go to verse 3 just to put it in context—it says,

"[3]Then I lifted up mine eyes,"—

Chapter 8, verse 3, here is where the vision begins.

"[3]Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram . . ." Daniel 8:3 (KJV).

So from this point on, Daniel is telling us about the vision; and, it is a sequence of historical events.

And when you get to verse 12 of this vision, it is still going on, and you can argue that verse 13 is still the vision. But, instead of seeing an illustration of symbolic history as he sees verses 3 through 12, when he gets to verse 13 he hears a heavenly dialogue.

In verse 13 it says,

> "[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice~~ and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? [14]And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." Daniel 8:13-14 (KJV).

So, this vision is symbolic history, then two verses of a heavenly dialogue which is the foundation of Adventism, as we know.

THE CHÂZÔN

Daniel 8:15, 16-19, 26-27; 1-2

Then in verse 15 it says,

"[15]And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision,"—

This is the vision. When he had seen the vision—which in the Hebrew means complete—when he had seen the vision, > —"and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man." Daniel 8:15 (KJV).

And it is worth noting, what Daniel is seeking to understand, here is the vision.

> —"[16]And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision."—

Who is the man between the banks of the river? Who is it in the Scriptures that walks on the water? This is Palmoni, Christ.

And Daniel hears this Man's voice telling the angel that replaced Lucifer, Gabriel the Light Bearer, to make this man understand the vision. In verse 15 Daniel is wanting to understand the ch z n vision; but, Christ tells Gabriel, "Make Daniel understand the mareh vision."

So, if you do not see that, if you do not understand the job description that has been assigned to Gabriel, you will miss some of the details of this passage of Scriptures.

Verse 17,

> "[17]So he [GABRIEL] came near where I [DANIEL] stood: and when he came, I was afraid and fell upon my face; but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the [H N] vision."—

This is going to take place at the Time of the End.

Okay. That is worth noting because of where we are heading is Daniel 11, verse 40, which is at the Time of the End.

Verse 18 says,

> "[18]Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright. [19]And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be." Daniel 8:16-19 (KJV).

In verse 19, Gabriel tells Daniel, "Now, I'm going to make you know what's going to be in the last end of the indignation." There are two indignations that are referenced and the last one ends in 1844, and there is a reason that Gabriel tells him that; but, we are just looking at the word vision at this point.

Drop down to verses 26 and 27. In verse 26 you will see both visions. It says,

"[26]And the vision"—THE MAREH VISION; THIS IS THE MAREH VISION—"of the evening and the morning which was told is true; wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days."—

The vision that is shut up is the vision.

H : Complete—Time of the End; shut up

Okay. That is what happens to the vision in Daniel 12. Daniel is told to seal it up. And here in Daniel 8, the same characteristics are associated with the vision.

THE MAREH

Daniel 8:26, 14, 16

—"[26]And the vision of the evening and the morning"—THE MAREH VISION OF THE EVENING AND THE MORNING—"which was told is true; wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days. [27]And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it." Daniel 8:26-27 (KJV).

MAREH: Daniel 8:14
EREB and BÔQERS: Of the evening and of the morning.

Okay. In verse 26 the vision of the evening and of the morning, this expression, "evening and morning" in the Hebrew is repeatedly used in the Scriptures: "And the evening and the morning were the first day. . . . And the evening and the morning were the second day."

And here in verse 26, it says, ". . . the vision"—the mareh vision—"of the evening and the morning is true; . . ." And the only place this Hebrew ereb and bôqers is found in the Scriptures where it is not translated as "evening and morning," is Daniel 8:14, the foundation of Adventism.

If you look at verse 14, it says, "And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days." That days is ereb and bôqers. It would have been correct to translate verse 14 as "unto 2300 evenings and mornings, then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." This is the only place this expression in the Bible is not translated as evenings and mornings; it is translated as simply days. And what it does is that it puts an emphasis on the fact that verse 26 says, "And the [MAREH] vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true; . . . ," so, you know that Daniel 8:14, the foundation of Adventism, is the mareh vision.

And if you will go back to verse 16, Gabriel has been told to explain the mareh vision to Daniel, even though Daniel wanted to understand the vision; and, the vision is this complete vision of prophetic history from verse 3 to verse 14.

THE TIME APPOINTED AND THE TIME OF THE END

In Daniel 8:17, we have already noted that this vision is shut up till the Time of the End.

1798

> "[17]So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the [CHÂZÔN] vision." Daniel 8:17 (KJV).

We want to put that characteristic in place.

And now we want to deal with the indignation; because, in verse 19, Gabriel is going to make Daniel know what will be at "the last end of the indignation."

> "And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be." Daniel 8:19 (KJV).

There are two indignations of God in the Bible. We will look at both of them quickly,

> Isaiah 26:20-21; 30:27-33; Zephaniah 3:8; Revelation 14:9-11

> Isaiah 26:20-21 says,

> > "[20]Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast. [21]For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain." Isaiah 26:20-21 (KJV).

There is an indignation of God against the wicked of the world, and we understand this to take place during the Seven Last Plagues.

Isaiah 30:27-33, it says,

> > "[27]Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire: [28]And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. [29]Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel. [30]And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. [31]For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian"—

That is the King of the North that we are going to deal with in Daniel 11. It is the Papacy.

> —"[31]For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod. [32]And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which > the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it. [33]For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it." Isaiah 30:27-33 (KJV).

This is the punishment of the wicked at the end of the world.

Zephaniah 3:8. We are looking at the two indignations in the Scriptures. One is against the wicked at the end of the world, the other is against God's people. We need to understand this; because, Gabriel told Daniel he was going to make him understand what was the last end of the indignation.

In Zephaniah 3:8, it says,

> "[8]Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy." Zephaniah 3:8 (KJV).

Go to Revelation 14:9-11, as we finish up with four witnesses that there is an indignation against the wicked at the end of the world. Revelation 14:9-11 says,

> "[9]And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, [10]The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: [11]And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." Revelation 14:9-11 (KJV).

So, there is an indignation against the wicked, and there is also an indignation against God's people for breaking the covenant.

Deuteronomy 29:25-29; Isaiah 10:5-6; Lamentations 2:1-9; Ezekiel 22:23-31; Daniel 11:36; Zechariah 1:12

Go to Deuteronomy 29, verses 25 through 29.

> "[25]Then men shall say,"—

Men will ask why this happened to God's people.

> —"[25]Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt: [26]For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he had not given unto them: [27]And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book: [28]And the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day. [29]The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law." Deuteronomy 29:25-29 (KJV).

There are no accidents in the Word of God. This is the indignation against God's people for breaking the covenant, speaking about them being scattered to the other nations; and, it is emphasized that this truth is a secret thing that has been revealed to us and our children forever, thus implying that there will be some of us that recognize it and some of us do not.

Isaiah 10:5-6. We are now looking at the indignation against God's people.

We have already looked at the indignation against the wicked. And, in one of those passages in Isaiah, God is referencing that He is going to punish the Assyrian, the Papacy, the King of the North; but, the Assyrian does a work for the Lord. He is the rod of His indignation. It is The Sunday Law that is going to be used to produce the two classes on Planet Earth, and the Lord uses the Papacy to accomplish this work. That is why he is called the rod of God's anger.

Beginning at verse 5 of Isaiah 10:

"[5]O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation. [6]I will send him"—

He will send the Papacy.

—"against an hypocritical nation,"—

Against the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

—"and against the people of my wrath"—

The people that receive the mark of the beast.

—"will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets." Isaiah 10:5-6 (KJV).

There is an indignation against God's people.

Lamentations, who wrote Lamentations?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jeremiah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Where do you find the book, Lamentations?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: After Jeremiah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Right after Jeremiah.

Lamentations 2, verses 1 through 9:

"[1]How hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger! [2]The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof. [3]He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about. [4]He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire. [5]The LORD was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. [6]And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest. [7]The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast. [8]The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together. [9]Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD." Lamentations 2:1-9 (KJV).

That is the indignation of God against His people.

Ezekiel 22:23-31. All the prophets speak about the end of the world; so, this indignation that was accomplished against Ancient Israel is prefiguring the indignation that is accomplished against the Seventh-day Adventist Church in the very near future at The Sunday Law.

Ezekiel 22:23-31:

> "[23]And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [24]Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation. [25]There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof."—

The conspiracy came into Adventism in the early part of the 20th Century.

> —[6]Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. [27]Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. [28]And her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken. [29]The people of the land have used oppression, and > exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully. [30]And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. [31]Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD." Ezekiel 22:23-31 (KJV).

Daniel 11:36: This is a very controversial verse in Advent history. This is where Uriah Smith made the wrong turn in Thoughts on Daniel and Revelation that negatively impacted Adventism from that point on to this very day. Verse 36 of Daniel 11 says,

> "[36]And the king"—

This is the Papacy. It is the king in the previous passage. Uriah Smith says at this point, "If we could say 'a king,' we could see a new power introduced into the verse." But, it does not say "a king." It says, "the king."

And "the king," the same king that is in verse 35, the King of the North, the Papacy, the one that has persecuted God's people since it was placed on the throne in AD538 in verse 31.

> —"[36]And the king shall do according to his will;"—"the [PAPACY] shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished:"—THERE IS AN INDIGNATION—"for that that is determined shall be done." Daniel 11:36 (KJV).

How long did the Papacy prosper for? Until AD1798. There is an indignation that comes to a conclusion in AD1798. Of course, that is the first 2520 that began in 723BC; it concludes in AD1798.

Zechariah 1:12:

> "[12]Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O Lord of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?" Zechariah 1:12 (KJV).

His indignation was demonstrated when He carried them to Babylon for 70 years. Sister White compares those 70 years with the 1260 years of Papal bondage to spiritual Israel that ended in 1798, at the end of the first indignation, at the point where the Papacy's prospering ended in 1798.

So, when it comes to Gabriel coming to Daniel in Daniel 8:19, and says, "I will show thee what shall be in the last end of the indignation," it is telling us that there is a first end of the indignation, 1798, and a last end of the indignation, 1844.

And Gabriel's command was to make Daniel understand the mareh vision of Daniel 8:14. So, in verse 19, Gabriel comes and says, "Okay. I am going to give you a second witness to 1844. I am going to make you understand what shall be in the last end of the indignation, which ends in 1844." He is giving him a second witness to the year 1844, but he is also answering Daniel 8:13, because the indignation that ends in 1844 is talking about the reestablishment of the host. Daniel 8:14 is talking about the reestablishment of the sanctuary.

And, Daniel 8:13 asked the question, "How long shall be the vision concerning Paganism and Papalism trampling down the sanctuary and the host?"

And the 2520 that ends in 1844 is answering when the host will be restored, and Daniel 8:14 that ended in 1844 is telling when the sanctuary will be restored.

We are not dealing with that, but we just cannot pass by it.

What I am wanting you to see, even though you do not know it at this point, is that in Daniel 8:17, which is still in your notes, it says that the time of the end shall be the vision. And what we are trying to do here this morning is work our way through to show that Daniel defines what the Time of the End is.

The vision in Daniel 8:17, it is shut up. It is going to take place at the Time of the End. We want to show you that the Time of the End is a term that Daniel uses to mark the conclusion of a time prophecy.

You have in your notes Daniel 11:24. It says,

> "[24]He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time." Daniel 11:24 (KJV).

Okay. He will "forecast his devices against his strongholds, even for a time." We are going to find that this is talking about how long Pagan Rome would rule the world, and it is going to last for a time—a time being a year—360 years. And Pagan Rome ruled the world supremely, beginning with the Battle of Actium in 31BC, and ending in the year AD330 when Constantine divided the kingdom in half.

> TIME: Strong's Concordance H6256—From H5703; time. H5703—From H5710; properly a (peremptory) terminus, that is, (by implication) duration, in the sense of perpetuity (substantially as a noun, either with or without a preposition).

This word TIME here is what you get the 360 years out of. A time is a year, and a year in Bible prophecy is 360 days, and a day is a year.

This word TIME means time; and, it also means terminus, or duration, perpetuity. It is talking about a time prophecy.

GOD'S HELPING HAND

Let me put in the record here what Sister White says about Uriah Smith's book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation: Manuscript Releases, volume 21, page 444.

Within the past couple of weeks we had a Bible study and were confronted with a common argument that you know: "I thought that there is so much error by Uriah Smith, and I thought that Uriah Smith rejected the message of Righteousness by Faith by Jones and Waggoner; therefore, I thought that we should not use his book at all."

And I referred the person to this quote here. And if you really understand this book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, then you see that there has been an orchestrated attack against this book for almost 120 years, to keep it out of the hands and the minds of God's people.

This is what Sister White says about Uriah Smith's book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, in spite of the humanity that is in that book. There are some mistakes in it. He was not a prophet; he was a human being.

> "The Lord calls for workers to enter the canvassing field that the books containing the light of present truth may be circulated. The people in the world need to know that the signs of the times are fulfilling. Take to them the books that will enlighten them. Daniel and Revelation, The Great Controversy, Patriarchs and Prophets, and The Desire of Ages should now go to the world. The grand instruction contained in Daniel and Revelation has been eagerly perused by many in Australia. This book has been the means of bringing many precious souls to a knowledge of the truth. Everything that can be done should be done to circulate Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation. I know of no other book that can take the place of this one. It is God's helping hand.
> "Those who have been long in the truth are asleep. They need to be sanctified by the Holy Spirit. The third angel's message is to be proclaimed with a loud voice. Tremendous issues are before us. We have no time to lose. God forbid that we should allow minor matters to eclipse the light which should be given to the world." Manuscript Releases, volume 21, 444.

So, I am going to read some from Uriah Smith now concerning Daniel 11:24, where he is going to tell us that Daniel 11:24 that we are dealing with here is Pagan Rome, and that it is the time prophecy on how long Pagan Rome would rule the world supremely, from the Battle of Actium in 31BC, until Constantine divided the Roman Empire into East and West in the year AD330.

Most Seventh-day Adventists did not know there was a time prophecy for Pagan Rome. They know about Papal Rome, barely; but, Pagan Rome they did not know. But, right here in "God's helping hand," this is Uriah Smith.

> "The usual manner in which nations had, before the days of Rome, entered upon valuable provinces and rich territory, was by war and conquest. Rome was now to do what had not been done by the fathers or the fathers' fathers;"—

It is going to conquer differently.

> —"namely, receive these acquisitions through peaceful means. The custom, before unheard of, was now inaugurated, of kings' leaving by legacy their kingdoms to the Romans. Rome came into possession of large provinces in this manner.

"And those who thus came under the dominion of Rome derived no small advantage therefrom. They were treated with kindness and leniency. It was like having the prey and spoil distributed among them. They were protected from their enemies, and rested in peace and safety under the aegis of the Roman power.

"To the latter portion of this verse, Bishop Newton gives the idea of forecasting devices from strongholds, instead of against them. This the Romans did from the strong fortress of their seven-hilled city. 'Even for a time;' doubtless a prophetic time, 360 years. From what point are these years to be dated? Probably from the event brought to view in the following verse.

"'VERSE 25. And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.'

"By verses 23 and 24 we are brought down this side of the league between the Jews and the Romans, B.C. 161, to the time when Rome had acquired universal dominion. The verse now before us brings to view a vigorous campaign against the king of the south, Egypt, and the occurrence of a notable battle between great and mighty armies. Did such events as these transpire in the history of Rome about this time?—They did. This was the war between Egypt and Rome; and the battle was the battle of Actium. . . .

"The battle was fought September 2, B.C.31, at the mouth of the gulf of Ambracia, near the city of Actium. The world was the stake for which these stern warriors, Antony and Caesar, now played. The contest, long doubtful, was at length decided by the course which Cleopatra pursued; for she, frightened at the din of battle, took to flight when there was no danger, and drew after her the whole Egyptian fleet."—

—"Antony, beholding this movement, and lost to everything but his blind passion for her, precipitately followed, and yielded a victory to Caesar, which, had his Egyptian forces proved true to him, and had he proved true to his own manhood, he might have gained.

"This battle doubtless marks the commencement of the 'time' mentioned in verse 24. And as during this 'time' devices were to be forecast from the stronghold, or Rome, we should conclude that at the end of that period western supremacy would cease, or such a change take place in the empire that the city would no longer be considered the seat of government. From B.C.31, a prophetic time, or 360 years, would bring us to A.D.330. And it hence becomes a noteworthy fact that the seat of empire was removed from Rome to Constantinople by Constantine the Great in that very year. (See Encyclopedia Americana, art. Constantinople.) . . .

"'VERSE 29. At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.'" —

And here is where I am wanting to get to.

Verse 24 gives us a time prophecy of 360 years; but, verse 27 and verse 29 talk about a time appointed, the time appointed being when this prophecy is going to be fulfilled. And this is what I want to put in the record here.

This is still Uriah Smith.

> —"The time appointed is probably the prophetic time of verse 24, which has been previously mentioned. It closed, as already shown, in A.D.330, at which time this power was to return and come again toward the south, but not as on the former occasion, when it went to Egypt, nor as the latter, when it went to Judea. Those were expeditions which resulted in conquest and glory. This one led to demoralization and ruin. The removal of the seat of empire to Constantinople was the signal for the downfall of the empire. Rome then lost its prestige. The western division was exposed to the incursions of foreign enemies. On the death of Constantine, the Roman empire was divided into three parts, between his three sons, Constantius, Constantine II, and Constans."—

Constantine was really good at picking names for his children, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"Constantine II and Constans quarreled, and Constans, being victor, gained the supremacy of the whole West. He was soon slain by one of his commanders, who, in turn, was shortly after defeated by the surviving emperor, and in despair ended his own days, A.D.353. The barbarians of the North now began their incursions, and extended their conquests till the imperial power of the West expired in A.D.476."—

When he says the Barbarians of the North now began their incursions, what is that? That is the Trumpets of Revelation.

> —"This was indeed different from the two former movements brought to view in the prophecy; and to this the fatal step of removing the seat of empire from Rome to Constantinople directly led." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 273, 275, 279–280.

THE TIME APPOINTED

Now, I have verses 27 and 29 in your notes. I want you to see something, and this is this history that we just went over, the history of this 360 years.

And verse 27 says,

> "[27]And both these kings'"—ANTONY AND CAESAR—"hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed."—

AD330 is called by Daniel in this verse two things: the end and the time appointed.

That word END there, is the same word that you will find in the expression "time of the end."

The "time of the end," that expression is found five times in God's Word, all in Daniel; but, this END, the same word.

The Hebrew word for time appointed is [pronounced mo-ade'], and it means in an appointed time. That is verse 27.

Verse 29 says [beginning at verse 28],

> —"[28]Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land. [29]At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter." Daniel 11:27–29 (KJV).

What is the time appointed? AD330, this is the time appointed.

> END: Strong's Concordance H7093—Contracted from H7112; an extremity; adverbially (with prepositional prefix) after:— + after, (utmost) border, end, [in-] finite, X process.

The END there, you can see the definition of it.

> APPOINTED: Strong's Concordance H4150—properly an appointment, that is, a fixed time or season.

You can see the definition of TIME APPOINTED: an appointment, or a fixed time or season.

> THE TIME OF THE END:
> TIME: Strong's Concordance H6256—From H5703; time. H5703—From H5710; properly a (peremptory) terminus, that is, (by implication).
> END: H7093—Contracted from H7112; an extremity; adverbially (with prepositional prefix) after:— + after, (utmost) border, end, [in-] finite, X process.

The Time of the End, the expression "time of the end," it is the same word for END that we have already looked at. And it means the conclusion of a time prophecy.

So, what am I saying? Go back to Daniel 8:17, and I will try to pull this together for us. Daniel 8:17 says,

> "[17]So he [GABRIEL] came near where I [DANIEL] stood: and when he came, I was afraid and fell upon my face; but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the [H N] vision." Daniel 8:17 (KJV).

This expression, "time of the end," is marking the end of a time prophecy.

The end of the vision was going to be AD1798. And this vision here, it is shut up until 1798; and, you have more than one witness of this in the Book of Daniel. Daniel 12 gives you two more witnesses to this.

And Daniel 8:26 says, ". . . shut thou up the vision; . . ."

The end of this time prophecy of 1260 years [AD538 to AD1798] is marked as the time of the end. The end of this time prophecy of 360 years [31BC to AD330] is identified as the time appointed. But, these are two different time prophecies.

So, what I am saying is that when Daniel marks the end of a time prophecy, he calls it either "the time appointed" or "the time of the end" or "the end." There is nothing real profound about that, but it is worth taking note how Daniel identifies the end of a time prophecy is with those expressions: It is the end; it is the time of the end; it is the time appointed.

But, for the student of prophecy, if you are going to determine what the Time of the End is, then what do you have to determine? Which time prophecy is being discussed.

This time prophecy, 360 years, is different from this time prophecy of 1260 years. So, you have to determine, when he says "the time of the end" which time prophecy is under discussion.

DANIEL 11:31

Now, Uriah Smith is going to comment on Daniel 11:31. At some point we will go through Daniel 11:31 in detail, and Uriah Smith comments on Daniel 11:31 at great length; but, I just simply want to take his last point. Look at Daniel 11:31.

Daniel 11:31 says,

> "[31]And arms shall stand on his part,"—

This is Pagan Rome standing up for the Papacy.

> —"and they [PAGAN ROME] shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,"—

Uriah Smith just let us know the sanctuary of strength for Pagan Rome was the City of Rome. When they ruled from the City of Rome, they were invincible. When they left for Constantinople, they began to fall apart.

"Arms," Pagan Rome shall stand up for the Papacy, verse 31, and those arms will pollute the City of Rome, as the warfare that takes place in that history destroys it over and over again.

> —"and [THEY, PAGAN ROME] shall take away the daily ~~sacrifice~~, [PAGANISM] and they [THE ARMS] shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

Pagan Rome is going to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth in AD538.

And here is just that last thought about that abomination of desolation is what Uriah Smith is commenting on from Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, page 289. He says,

> "Thus the Gothic horn, the last of the three, was plucked up before the little horn of Daniel 7. Nothing now stood in the way of the pope to prevent his exercising the power conferred upon him by Justinian five years before. The saints, times, and laws were now in his hands, not in purpose only, but in fact. And this must therefore be taken as the year [538] when this abomination was placed, or set up, and as the point from which to date the predicted 1260 years of its supremacy." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 289.

So, the very last phrase of Daniel 11:31 is marked the year AD538, and its supremacy would go to there [1798], and we know that this is 1260 years.

DANIEL 11:35

In Daniel 11:35, after the Papacy is placed on the throne of the Earth in AD538, verses 32, 33, 34, and 35 are telling us the history that follows once the Papacy takes control of the world.

And in verse 35 it says,

> "[35]And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed." Daniel 11:35 (KJV).

So, now you have got Daniel using both of these terms: the time of the end and a time appointed.

And what is the subject now? Is he just discussing Pagan Rome here in verse 35?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Negative responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is discussing Papal Rome.

So, what is the time of the end and a time appointed for Papal Rome?

Well, it has got to be the end of a time prophecy. Daniel has already put that in place. So, there has to be a time prophecy associated with Papal Rome, and that time prophecy is mentioned specifically seven times in the Scriptures; not specifically many, many more times than that. And it ends in 1798. So, the time appointed in this passage, the Time of the End in this passage is 1798.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmative responses.)

1260 YEARS

Daniel 7:25; (11:33); 12:7, (11); Revelation 11:2, 3; 12:6, 14; 13:5

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Underneath in your notes you will see that this 1260 years is specifically addressed in Daniel 7:25.

And the reason I have Daniel 11:33 in parentheses there is that it is not specifically addressed in verse 33. Notice verse 33 in Daniel 11.

> "[33]And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days." Daniel 11:35 (KJV).

This "many days" here is a reference to the 1260 years of Papal persecution. The Papacy is placed on the throne of the Earth in AD538; and, at the very last phrase of Daniel 11:31. And here in verse 33 it is describing the persecution of this time period, and it is called "many days." So, in verse 33, it is inferred.

Now, in Daniel 7:25, the 1260 years is definitely marked.

> "[25]And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time." Daniel 7:25 (KJV).

Daniel 12:7, definitely marked the 1260 years:

> "[7]And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished." Daniel 12:7 (KJV).

In verse 11 of Daniel 12, you have the 1260 years inferred. The reason I have that in parentheses is because it is the 1290, which begins in AD508, but also ends in 1798.

> "[11]And from the time that the daily ~~sacrifice~~ shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days." Daniel 12:11 (KJV).

Revelation 11, verse 2 and verse 3 both reference the 1260.

> "[2]But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. [3]And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth." Revelation 11:2-3 (KJV).

And Revelation 12, verses 6 and 14, specifically reference the 1260, and Revelation 13:5.

> "[6]And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days. . . .
> "[14]And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent." Revelation 12:6, 14 (KJV).

"[5]And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months." Revelation 13:5 (KJV).

So, what you have there is seven direct references to this 1260-year time period.

And in verse 35 of Daniel 8, Daniel tells us that the end of this time period is the time appointed; it is the Time of the End.

DANIEL 11:40

"[40] And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40 (KJV).

Then in Daniel 11:40, there is no change. It does not matter what Uriah Smith says; there is no historical or grammatical change from verse 31, all the way to verse 40. The subject of these verses is the King of the North, and the King of the North from verse 31, all the way to the end of the chapter, is the Papacy.

So, when you get to Daniel 11, verse 40—and this is what we are dealing with this morning—it says, "And at the time of the end." You have to determine what time prophecy is being associated with the Papacy there.

What time prophecy is associated with the Papacy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The 1260.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The 1260.

So, when verse 40 says, "And at the time of the end," where does verse 40 begin?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1798.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1798; verse 40 begins in 1798.

And what is 1798?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Time of the End.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Time of the End. It is the time appointed.

THE TIME OF THE END

In The Great Controversy, page 356, Sister White says this:

"But at the time of the end, says the prophet, 'Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.' Daniel 12:4. . . . Since 1798 the book of Daniel has been unsealed, knowledge of the prophecies has increased, and many have proclaimed the solemn message of the judgment near." The Great Controversy, 356.

Daniel 8:17; 11:35, 40; 12:4, 9

In your notes you have Daniel 8:17, which is referencing the Time of the End that is shut up. Daniel 8:17 is referencing this 1260 years.

"[17]So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face; but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision." Daniel 8:17 (KJV).

The vision is shut up until 1798.
Daniel 11:35, the time appointed, the time of the end; that is 1798.

"[35]And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed." Daniel 11:35 (KJV).

Daniel 11:40, at the time of the end, the King of the South pushes against him. That is 1798.

"[40] And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40 (KJV).

And in Daniel 12:4 and 9, you have the time of the end in both of those verses, identifying when the Book of Daniel would be unsealed. It was going to be sealed up until the Time of the End.

"[4]But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased. . . .
"[9]And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end." Daniel 12:4, 9 (KJV).

Those are the five places in God's Word that you will find the expression, "time of the end," referenced.

Okay. What I said yesterday you may not remember. It is not that important that you remember everything that I say. But what I said was that Daniel 11:40 is the most—I personally have never found a verse that has this much truth in it. There is no verse.

Now, I acknowledge that if we are faithful and we get to live for eternity that every verse is going to have that kind of depth; but, Daniel 11, verse 40, we are going to show you, the Lord willing, over the next couple of weeks that this verse has such depth that it is just overwhelming. Okay?

WOUNDED TO DEATH?

And you have in your notes, "Wounded to Death?" In Revelation 13:3, it says,

"[3]And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast." Revelation 13:3 (KJV).

What do we understand this to be?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the Papacy receiving the deadly wound in 1798. Right? And that is correct. We are not arguing that. That is the only place that you are going to find that referenced though, the Papacy receives a deadly wound.

But, where is it in the Bible where the actual deadly wound that the Papacy receives is identified? There is only one place.

Here it is mentioned that the Papacy, one of the heads, would receive a deadly wound; and, through prophetic study you determined that that head is the Papacy, and at some point in time it is going to receive a deadly wound; but, there is only one verse that tells you how the Papacy receives a deadly wound.

What verse is that? Daniel 11:40.

DANIEL 11:40

> "[40]And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40 (KJV).

You see, if you do not understand that 1798 is the Time of the End in verse 40, and it says "And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him," if you think, as some people do, that the King of the North and the King of the South is some foolish idea that does not square with God's Word, if you do not think the King of the North is the Papacy receiving a deadly wound in 1798, then you cannot understand that the King of the South is atheistic France that delivers this deadly wound.

And if you cannot understand where the deadly wound is delivered in God's Word, how can you be the one that stands before the world and explains who the beast is? You do not even know where he got his deadly wound.

And Daniel 11:40 is where he gets his deadly wound.

You go look it up. You go look in the places where it is mentioned that he is going to rule for 1260 years, and there is no Scripture other than Daniel 11, verse 40, that tells you that the Papacy receives its deadly wound from atheistic France in 1798. This is the verse: Daniel 11:40.

So, it seems worthwhile as Seventh-day Adventists, those that are going to give the Loud Cry, the Third Angel's Message, that are going to tell the world who the beast is, so the world does not receive the mark of the beast, it seems important to understand what the Time of the End in verse 40 is, along with who the King of the North is and who the King of the South is.

At that point I am just trying to give some of the significance of verse 40.

THE EVENTS CONNECTED WITH THE CLOSE OF PROBATION

Notice this next quote. Usually, I quote this quote often, often; and, others do, too. And maybe mine is a bad example, but we generally cut this paragraph in half and we start in the middle, which is good; but we are going to start the whole paragraph here.

From The Great Controversy, page 595, it says,

> "Before His crucifixion the Saviour explained to His disciples that He was to be put to death and to rise again from the tomb, and angels were present to impress His words on minds and hearts."—

All the prophecies are speaking about the end of the world; so, who are His disciples in this passage?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventh-day Adventists.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Seventh-day Adventists. We are His disciples at the end of the world. And, He explained the prophetic message to them in advance, but the Disciples do not know the prophetic message when it arrives.

> —"But the disciples were looking for temporal deliverance from the Roman yoke, and they could not tolerate the thought that He in whom all their hopes centered should suffer an ignominious death."—

Huh. They had preconceived ideas from false education. They were holding onto the Mystery of Iniquity, so they could not understand the prophecies.

> —"The words which they needed to remember were banished from their minds; and when the time of trial came, it found them unprepared. The death of Jesus as fully destroyed their hopes as if He had not forewarned them."—

Now notice what it says.

> —"So in the prophecies the future is opened before us as plainly as it was opened to the disciples by the words of Christ. The events connected with the close of probation and the work of preparation for the time of trouble, are clearly presented. But multitudes"—

Who are the multitudes? The disciples: Seventh-day Adventists.

> —"But multitudes [OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS] have no more understanding of these important truths"—

What important truths? The events connected with the close of probation.

> —"But multitudes have no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed."—

But, they have been revealed.

> —"Satan watches to catch away every impression that would make them wise unto salvation,"—

Wow! These events connected with the close of probation are salvational! That is what she just said. You have an opportunity to understand these events, and Satan is there trying to snatch that truth from you; because, that truth would make you wise unto salvation. The events connected with the close of probation are salvational!

> —"Satan watches to catch away every impression that would make them wise unto salvation, and the time of trouble will find them unready." The Great Controversy, 595.

They are lost!

So, where is the close of probation? Well, it is Daniel 12:1, when Michael stands up. Notice what Sister White says about Daniel 12:1 in The Great Controversy, page 613.

> "'At that time shall Michael stand up, the great Prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, everyone that shall be found written in the book.' Daniel 12:1.
> "When the third angel's message closes, mercy no longer pleads for the guilty inhabitants of the earth. The people of God have accomplished their work. They have received 'the latter rain,' 'the refreshing from the presence of the Lord,' and they are prepared for the trying hour before them. Angels are hastening to and fro in heaven. An angel returning from the earth announces that his work is done; the final test has been brought upon the world, and all who have proved themselves loyal to the divine precepts have received 'the seal of the living God.' Then Jesus ceases His intercession in the sanctuary above. He lifts His hands and with a loud voice says, 'It is done;' and all the angelic host lay off their crowns as He makes the solemn announcement: 'He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.' Revelation 22:11. Every case has been decided for life or death." The Great Controversy, 613.

When Michael stands up, He makes this pronouncement. Daniel 12:1 is the close of probation.

The events connected with the close of probation are the verses that lead up to Daniel 12:1, and these verses have been clearly revealed. The multitudes in Adventism have no more understanding of these verses as if they had never been revealed. And this is salvational.

WARNINGS

Now, you have these people that fight against this message, and they say, "Oh, Brother Pippenger and the others are putting the wrong emphasis on this passage from The Great Controversy about the events connected with the close of probation." And they go to the very next paragraph which says, right here,

> "When God sends to men warnings so important that they are represented as proclaimed by holy angels flying in the midst of heaven, He requires every person endowed with reasoning powers to heed the message. The fearful judgments denounced against the worship of the beast and his image (Revelation 14:9–11), should lead all to a diligent study of the prophecies to learn what the mark of the beast is, and how they are to avoid receiving it."—

One of the champions of this argument that I am going to explain to you here is a guy by the name of Eugene Pruitt. He says here, where it says "events connected with the close of probation," the very next paragraph is saying that these events are the Three Angels' Messages of Revelation 14, and that these people that are emphasizing that these events are the last six verses of Daniel 11, they are wresting the meaning of this passage in The Great Controversy.

Well, not so. Sister White says in that previous paragraph, "the events connected with the close of probation." But, in this paragraph she is talking about warnings. Revelation 14 is not portraying a sequence of events. It is giving us three Angels that are identifying warning messages.

The events connected with the close of probation are illustrated in the last six verses of Daniel 11.

And because these men do not understand that Daniel 11:44, tidings out of the East and the North, is Daniel's representation of the Three Angels' Messages, they separate these truths from one another. Satan has just taken those impressions out of their minds that would make them wise unto salvation, and they lead others to do the very same thing.

Continuing on:

> —"But the masses of the people turn away their ears from hearing the truth and are turned unto fables."—

The very thing that is done with this paragraph is what gets accomplished by those that twist this paragraph. They lead their listeners to fables.

> —"The apostle Paul declared, looking down to the last days: 'The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine.' 2 Timothy 4:3. That time has fully come. The multitudes do not want Bible truth, because it interferes with the desires of the sinful, world-loving heart; and Satan supplies the deceptions which they love.
> "But God will have a people upon the earth to maintain the Bible, and the Bible only, as the standard of all doctrines and the basis of all reforms. The opinions of learned men, the deductions of science, the creeds or decisions of ecclesiastical councils, as numerous and discordant as are the churches which they represent, the voice of the majority—not one nor all of these should be regarded as evidence for or against any point of religious faith. Before accepting any doctrine or precept, we should demand a plain 'Thus saith the Lord' in its support.
> "Satan is constantly endeavoring to attract attention to man in the place of God. He leads the people to look to bishops, to pastors, to professors of theology, as their guides, instead of searching the Scriptures to learn their duty for themselves. Then, by controlling the minds of these leaders, he can influence the multitudes according to his will." The Great Controversy, 594–595.

What is my point? My point here is this: Daniel 11, verse 40, begins in 1798, and it leads into Daniel 12:1, where Michael stands up; therefore, where we consider the last six verses of Daniel 11, we are considering the history that begins in 1798 and goes all the way until human probation closes. And those verses are describing the events that lead to the close of probation; whereas, Revelation 14, the Three Angels' Messages, they are warning messages. They are not events.

But, when you see the King of the North capturing the King of the South; and the King of the North capturing the glorious land; and Edom, Moab and [the chief children of] Ammon escaping the hand of the King of the North; and, then the King of the North captures Egypt, these are events connected, leading to the close of probation; and, they are salvational.

So, this message, it is the message of the events connected with the close of probation.

MILLER AND JOHN THE BAPTIST

I am going to change gears a little bit here. We have looked at this in this worship series, what we are going to look now, previously.

In Early Writings, beginning at page 229, it says,

> With trembling, William Miller began to unfold to the people the mysteries of the kingdom of God, carrying his hearers down through the prophecies to the second advent of Christ. With every effort he gained strength. As John the Baptist heralded the first advent of Jesus and prepared the way for His coming, so William Miller and those who joined with him proclaimed the second advent of the Son of God." Early Writings, 229–230.

What I want you to see here, this is one of several places where Sister White compares William Miller with who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: John the Baptist.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: John the Baptist. Okay.

MILLER

So, what was William Miller's message? Because, William Miller's was the message of the First Angel. All right? He is the messenger of the First Angel.

And Sister White tells us in The Great Controversy, page 310, speaking of Miller,

> "It was needful that men should be awakened to their danger; that they should be roused to prepare for the solemn events connected with the close of probation. The Great Controversy, 310.

Whoa! That is what the last six verses of Daniel 11 are. That is what multitudes in Adventism do not understand.

William Miller presented a message identifying the events connected with the close of probation.

JOHN THE BAPTIST

What about John the Baptist?

Matthew 3:7 says,

> "[7]But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" Matthew 3:7 (KJV).

What is the wrath to come? The destruction of Jerusalem.

Who warned the Jews to flee from the wrath to come?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: John the Baptist.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. John the Baptist asked the question. It is John the Baptist saying, "Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Who warned them to flee from the wrath to come?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel. Daniel 9, "490 years are given to you, and then the wrath is coming": The stoning of Stephen.

So, was Miller's message identifying the events connected with the close of probation?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

What book was it based upon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel.

Was John the Baptist identifying the events connected with the close of probation? Yes.

What book was it based upon? Daniel.

The same message, the same messengers.

Of course, William Miller's message we would say is Daniel 8, the 2300 years; but, really, if you do not have Daniel 9 to explain the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14, then you do not have anything in Daniel 8:14.

Daniel 9 says, "From the going forth of the command to restore and rebuild Jerusalem." If you do not have the starting point for that 2300 days, as noted in Daniel 9, then you do not have anything. Right?

So, you can say that Miller's message was based upon Daniel 9, and John's message was based upon Daniel 9. John's message was based upon the 70 weeks of Daniel 9.

But, our message is based upon Daniel 11.

The beginning of Adventism is Daniel 9; the end of Adventism is Daniel 11. The message of Adventism is Daniel 9 and 11.

In The Great Controversy, page 22:

> "Christ saw in Jerusalem a symbol of the world hardened in unbelief and rebellion, and hastening on to meet the retributive judgments of God. The woes of a fallen race, pressing upon His soul, forced from His lips that exceeding bitter cry. He saw the record of sin traced in human misery, tears, and blood; His heart was moved with infinite pity for the afflicted and suffering ones of earth; He yearned to relieve them all. But even His hand might not turn back the tide of human woe; few would seek their only Source of help. He was willing to pour out His soul unto death, to bring salvation within their reach; but few would come to Him that they might have life.

The next paragraph:

> "The Majesty of heaven in tears! the Son of the infinite God troubled in spirit, bowed down with anguish! The scene filled all heaven with wonder. That scene reveals to us the exceeding sinfulness of sin; it shows how hard a task it is, even for Infinite Power, to save the guilty from the consequences of transgressing the law of God. Jesus, looking down to the last generation, saw the world involved in a deception similar to that which caused the destruction of Jerusalem. The great sin of the Jews was their rejection of Christ; the great sin of the Christian world would be their rejection of the law of God, the foundation of His government in heaven and earth. The precepts of Jehovah would be despised and set at nought. Millions in bondage to sin, slaves of Satan, doomed to suffer the second death, would refuse to listen to the words of truth in their day of visitation. Terrible blindness! strange infatuation!" The Great Controversy, 22.

AD70 is an illustration of the end of the world. It is the events connected with the close of probation.

THE JUDGMENT MESSAGE OF DANIEL

The Great Controversy, page 353, you see Sister White comparing the Millerite message with the message of the Disciples, both based upon Daniel 9. We have just explained that.

> "Those who proclaimed this warning gave the right message at the right time. But as the early disciples declared, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand,' based on the prophecy of Daniel 9, while they failed to perceive that the death of the Messiah was foretold in the same scripture, so Miller and his associates preached the message based on Daniel 8:14 and Revelation 14:7, and failed to see that there were still other messages brought to view in Revelation 14, which were also to be given before the advent of the Lord. As the disciples were mistaken in regard to the kingdom to be set up at the end of the seventy weeks, so Adventists were mistaken in regard to the event to take place at the expiration of the 2300 days. In both cases there was an acceptance of, or rather an adherence to, popular errors that blinded the mind to the truth. Both classes fulfilled the will of God in delivering the message which He desired to be given, and both, through their own misapprehension of their message, suffered disappointment." The Great Controversy, 353.

Okay. I want to put one more thing in the record, and then we will close.

Manuscript Releases, number 13, page 394—The Lord willing, we will spend a great deal of time on this quote; but, we are just going to take one point out of here in closing—Sister White says,

> "We have no time to lose. Troublous times are before us. The world is stirred with the spirit of war. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place. The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel"—THE PROPHECY IN THE ELEVENTH OF DANIEL—"has nearly reached its complete fulfillment."—

She does not say the prophecy in Revelation 13. She does not say the prophecy in Revelation 17. She does not say the prophecy in Daniel 8.

> —"The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. . . ."—

So, what verses is Sister White speaking of?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The last six verses of Daniel 11.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: How do you know that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1 Corinthians 14:32, "[32]And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. [33]For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." (KJV)

The prophets have to agree with one another.

Do they have to agree with themselves?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In The Great Controversy, page 356, Sister White says the Time of the End is 1798, and she said that in the middle of the 19th Century, long after 1798. So, Sister White knows that verse 40 of Daniel 11 begins in 1798; so, Sister White knows that the first 39 verses of Daniel 11 are past history. Right?

So, when she references the future fulfillment of Daniel 11, what verses is she identifying? Verses 40 through 45.

See, there are some principles in this passage that we will deal with in depth, the Lord willing; but, I am going to bring this to a close here, and this is where I wanted to close.

Daniel 11, verse 40, is going to be fulfilled with the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, and this will mark the end of Nebuchadnezzar's and Miller's dreams. The Dirt Brush Man arrives in 1989, because it is the Time of the End for the 144,000, when the book of Daniel is going to be unsealed and the Dirt Brush Man is going to begin sweeping the rubbish out the window; and, there is going to be an increase of knowledge and God's people are going to run to and fro in God's Word and begin to understand the increase of light.

And this increase of light comes from where?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel 11.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 11, verse 40. Okay?

So, as we begin to look at Daniel 11:40, what we have done here today is identified from the Book of Daniel what the Time of the End is [1798] from the Book of Daniel; and, we put Sister White on top of it: The Great Controversy, page 356.

> —"We have no time to lose. Troublous times are before us. The world is stirred with the spirit of war. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place. The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated. In the thirtieth verse a power is spoken of that 'shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.' Daniel 11:30–36.

"Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place. We see evidence that Satan is fast obtaining the control of human minds who have not the fear of God before them. Let all read and understand the prophecies of this book, for we are now entering upon the time of trouble spoken of:

"'And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.' Daniel 12:1–4." Manuscript Releases, number 13, 394.

Verse 40 of Daniel 11 begins in 1798, but it goes all the way to Daniel 12:1, until Michael stands up and human probation closes. We have just identified the history that we are going to be looking at, and we have just seen Sister White referencing that very history of verses 40 through 45. We have identified those verses as events connected with the close of probation that parallel the message of the cross that was given to the Disciples, but the Disciples did not remember the message of the cross because they had been infected by bad education.

And we have been instructed that these events are salvational: the last six verses of Daniel 11 are salvational.

We have identified the first message in the time of Christ was the message that identified the events connected with the close of probation, and that the First Angel's Message in the history of the Millerites was the message that identified the events connected with the close of probation; and, therefore, we are saying that the last is verses of Daniel 11 is the First Angel's Message for God's people at the end of the world, because it is the message that identifies the events connected with the close of probation.

We are initially in our study of Daniel 11, verse 40, and 1989. We are going to spend some time just trying to emphasize the significance of this verse, before we proceed with a point-by-point description of the last six verses. But, we will do that, Lord willing.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be benefitted by the increase of knowledge that you as the Dirt Brush Man and the Lion of the tribe of Judah have been opening to us, as you remove the Seals one at a time. But we know that we are bound that preconceived ideas, false education, by the Mystery of Iniquity, and that we need to be freed up from those influences in our personal experience that prevent us from correctly recognizing this light. We ask that through the power of your Holy Spirit and the work of your Angels, and our own diligent efforts, in this regard that you would remove these things that are prohibiting us from understanding this truth as we should. We thank you for allowing us to come together and start the day studying your Word. We set this day before you and ask that you would bless our service for you, and whatever we take up that you would make it safe for us today and that what we do will be something that glorifies you and honors you. We thank you for the work that is being accomplished. We ask a blessing upon that as well. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #42

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Before we have our opening prayer, you will notice two sets of notes this morning. This [holding up a document from the podium] is taken from Stephen Haskell's Bible Handbook, and it gives a brief overview of the Seven Churches of Revelation. I will give this a brief point of reference for the time periods of these Seven Churches which we are going to consider this morning.

This is on the website for those that are following this on LiveStream.

Also, we have put on the website for those that are following it LiveStream, we have referenced somewhere in there in this worship series that in September 2001 the Seventh-day Church implemented a policy that if you are going to be an ordained Seventh-day Adventist pastor that you are required to take a course on the Jesuit's techniques of Spiritual Formations. So, that document is now—or should be; I emailed it to my grandson this morning—it should be on the website today, if not already. You can download that document if you need that.

All of this is from Haskell, except for page 4. And we will talk about page 4 once we begin.

Shall we begin with a word of prayer.

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together once again this morning for a time that we can consider your Word as we start a day of service for you. We ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit to take us through this study and to open our hearts and our minds to what you have for us. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us, so we ask that you would accomplish that at this time. And we know that we need to be prepared for the Latter Rain, so we ask that you forgive us our sins that our vessels are qualified to receive the outpouring that you have for us. We thank you for the presence in this series so far. We ask or a continued blessing in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are launching into a long study of 1989. We are going to eventually identify 1989 as the Time of the End for the Reform Movement of the 144,000.

And let me remind you, when I say "the 144,000," I am saying that in a very general, generic way. The 144,000 are those that have the Seal of God that are still alive when Michael stands up, and I am using this term "144,000" to represent the wise virgins in Adventism that receive the Seal of God at The Sunday Law. But if an Adventist receives the Seal of God at The Sunday Law in the United States, there is no guarantee that he is not going to get laid to rest before human probation closes. We know that.

So, when I am talking about the Reform Movement of the 144,000, it is in a generic way.

THE SEVEN CHURCHES

HISTORY OF THE SEVEN CHURCHES

Ephesus	Smyrna	Pergamos	Thyatira	Sardis	Philadelphia	Laodicea

We are going to look at the Seven Churches of Revelation, in connection with identifying Daniel 11, verse 40, as the Time of the End in 1989.

And I took from Stephen Haskell's Bible Handbook a brief summary of the Seven Churches of Revelation that will give us the times, Ephesus being the first church. Smyrna, he has marked from the year 100 to 323; Pergamos, 323 to 538, all the way to the beginning of the Papacy—I am not going to go through these in detail. This is just for your own reference if you want it—Thyatira, 538 to 1798; Sardis, 1798 to 1833; Philadelphia, 1833 to 1844; and, then he has Laodicea, 1844, onward.

Now, there are some—I personally do not adhere completely to these dates. I mean, they may be accurate, but there are some overlaps and that is what I want to show you here.

On page 4 of your notes, it says, "I will give him the 'morning star'." {SpTB07 62.1} This is speaking of Thyatira, and I know that Jesus is the Bright and Morning Star. Okay?

But, in Revelation 2:28, in the time period of Thyatira, which is the Papacy, from AD538 to 1798, there is a promise of giving the morning star; and, in The Great Controversy, page 80, Sister White says, "In the fourteenth century arose in England the 'morning star of the Reformation.'" So, for me, in this history of Thyatira you have the beginning of the Reformation marked, and John Wycliffe can be identified as the morning star of the Reformation; and, therefore, it could be also marked as the morning star in this history.

And at this point, God's people begin to wake up, even though still a few hundred years before 1798. But, those people that are waking up are the Sardisians (or whatever you would call them). So, you can trace the roots of Sardis farther back into Thyatira.

That is what I am, saying. There are some overlaps in these churches, from my perspective.

And Wycliffe, it says here, was born in 1320; some people say 1330. That is Wycliffe, the "morning star of the Reformation'."

And who is the symbol of the Reformation?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Luther.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Luther, Martin Luther.

You will see for Martin Luther that he was born in 1483. There are some historians who argue that he was born in 1484. That is not a problem, really; but, what I want you to see—just briefly; we are not going to deal with this—but, the seven times of Leviticus 26 is premised upon the land resting in Leviticus 25. They were to let the land rest every seventh year.

And over a seven-year cycle, six years they would work the land; the seventh year they would let the land rest. And then they were to repeat that cycle for 49 years, until they reached the [Great] Jubilee.

So, in a cycle of 49 years of the land working and resting, how many days would the land rest if they would have kept that statute?

Well, in a Jubilee cycle, the land would have rested 2520 days. That is in Leviticus 25; therefore, when you get to Leviticus 26, and the curse for not keeping that statute is understood to be 2520 years, that is in agreement with the principle that was identified by William Shea, Adventist theologian, that Leviticus 25 was the first reference of the year-day principle in God's Word. They were to let the land rest in a Jubilee cycle for 2520 days. Because, they did not keep that statute, their punishment was 2520 years, the year-day principle.

But all of this 2520 is based upon land resting in every seventh year. So, I just want you to see something—we are not at this point in our study: There are two 2520s, and the one that concludes in 1844, the one that is represented by Isaiah's son Shearjashub (a remnant shall return), in 1844 the Lord is going to raise up modern Israel. He is going to gather them at the end of the scattering time.

Well, that 2520-year period is seven 360-year periods: $7 \times 360 = 2520$. But, this whole thing is premised upon letting the land rest every seventh year.

So, if you go back 360 years from 1844—bam!—you come to the birth of Martin Luther; thus marking that this last 360-year period is the time when the Lord is going to begin to develop the remnant. And, of course, you can identify the Millerites in this history, leading up to 1844, what that was, was the climax of the Protestant Reformation.

So, when you go back 360 years from 1844, you come to the birth of these reformers that are going to initiate the Reformation.

And, of course, if you go back 360 years form 1798, you come to—what is that? In 1428—and we will dig this out for you at some other time—in 1428 the nation of France passed the first law that put a restriction upon the Papacy. So, that 360 years marks the beginning of the delivery of the deadly wound in 1798 at the end of that 2520.

So, I am wanting you to see that we are using Haskell. We are not arguing with him. But, these dates that we have, there is a little bit of wiggle room because there is more than one thing going on in these histories. Okay? There is more than one line.

Do you follow me?

And then at the bottom, you have a statement from Sister White that says, "The state of the Church represented by the foolish virgins, is also spoken of as the Laodicean state." {RH August 19, 1890, par. 10} The Laodicean Church here at the end, the experience represented by Laodicea is the foolish virgins. So, the experience represented by the wise virgins is what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Philadelphia.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Philadelphia.

So, do the wise virgins and the foolish virgins live together until the separation?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, Philadelphia and Laodicea, they can be overlaid upon one another. So, there is more than one thing going on with the Seven Churches of Revelation.

We just wanted to put that in place, because we are starting—and what does this have to do with 1989 and Daniel 11, verse 40?

But, go to your notes now of Habakkuk's Tables, #42.

THE GOSPEL OF REVELATION

We are going to deal with the Seven Churches of Revelation, of which all of us in this room and everyone watching LiveStream—I mean, as Seventh-day Adventists—are totally familiar with Revelation 2 and 3. We know this passage like the back of our hand; because, this is the milk of becoming a Seventh-day Adventist student of prophecy.

Sister says in Signs of the Times, July 4, 1906,

> "As we near the close of this world's history, the prophecies relating to the last days especially demand our study. The last book of the New Testament is full of truth that we need to understand. Satan has blinded the minds of many, so that they have been glad of any excuse for not making the Revelation their study.
> "The book of Revelation, in connection with the book of Daniel, demands close study. Let every God-fearing teacher consider how most clearly to comprehend and present the Gospel that our Saviour came in person to make known to His servant John,—""—

Sister White does not quite understand the mentality of Seventh-day Adventists today. If she did, she would not have said what she just said; because, in Adventism today, we think the Gospel and Prophecy are two different things, and evidently she thinks they are the same thing because she just said that Revelation is the Gospel of Christ.

> —"'The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto Him, to show unto His servants things which must shortly come to pass.' None should become discouraged in their study of Revelation because of its apparently mystical symbols. 'If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not.' 'Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein; for the time is at hand.' We are to proclaim to the world the great and solemn truths contained in the book of Revelation."—

This phrase, "great and solemn," is a key phrase in the writings of the Spirit of Prophecy.

> —"We are to proclaim to the world the great and solemn truths contained in the book of Revelation." Into the very designs and principles of the church of God these truths are to enter. There should be a closer and more diligent study of this book, a more earnest presentation of the truths it contains, truths which concern all who are living in these last days. All who are preparing to meet their Lord should make this book the subject of earnest study and prayer. It is just what its name signifies,—a revelation of the most important events that are to take place in the last days of this earth's history. John, because of his faithful trust in the word of God, and the testimony of Christ, was banished to the Isle of Patmos. But his banishment did not separate him from Christ. The Lord visited His faithful servant in his banishment, and gave him instruction regarding what was to come upon the world.
> "This instruction is of the greatest importance to us; for we are living in the last days of this earth's history. Soon we shall enter upon the fulfilment of the events which Christ showed John were to take place. As the messengers of the Lord present these solemn truths, they must realize that they are handling subjects of eternal interest, and they should seek for the baptism of the Holy Spirit, that they may speak, not their own words, but the words given them by God.

"The book of Revelation must be opened to the people. Many have been taught that it is a sealed book, but it is sealed to those only who reject truth and light."—

But, it is sealed only to those who reject light and truth.

—"The truths that it contains must be proclaimed, that people may have an opportunity to prepare for the events which are so soon to take place. The Third Angel's Message must be presented as the only hope for the salvation of a perishing world.

"The perils of the last days are upon us, and in our work we are to warn the people of the danger they are in. Let not the solemn scenes that prophecy has revealed are soon to take place be left untouched. We are God's messengers, and we have no time to lose. Those who would be co-workers with our Lord Jesus Christ will show a deep interest in the truths found in this book. With pen and voice they will strive to make plain the wonderful things that Christ came from heaven to reveal." Signs of the Times, July 4, 1906.

So, we have been commanded to study the Book of Revelation, teach the Book of Revelation. And if we will study it, we will be blessed.

THE SOLEMN EVENTS

The solemn events that Sister White emphasizes often in her writings, she says,

"That time is at hand. Today the signs of the times declare that we are standing on the threshold of great and solemn events." Education, 179.

We have gone through this previously in this worship. We are just emphasizing it once again: ". . . we are standing on the threshold of great and solemn events."

WHICH WE MUST KNOW

Selected Messages, book 2, page 109, she says,

"In the Revelation the Lion of the tribe of Judah has opened to the students of prophecy the book of Daniel, and thus is Daniel standing in his place. He bears his testimony, that which the Lord revealed to him in vision of the great and solemn events which we must know as we stand on the very threshold of their fulfillment." Selected Messages, book 2, 109.

We have to understand what these great and solemn events are in advance of these great and solemn events taking place.

THE CLOSING OF PROBATION

Prophets and Kings, pages 715 – 716:

> "Today, in the spirit and power of Elias and of John the Baptist, messengers of God's appointment are calling the attention of a judgment-bound world to the solemn events soon to take place in connection with the closing hours of probation and the appearance of Christ Jesus as King of kings and Lord of lords. Soon every man is to be judged for the deeds done in the body. The hour of God's judgment has come, and upon the members of His church on earth rests the solemn responsibility of giving warning to those who are standing as it were on the very brink of eternal ruin." Prophets and Kings, 715–716.

And what did we deal with yesterday; what was the quote? The events connected with the close of probation in the need of preparation for the time of trouble have been clearly revealed, but multitudes [in Adventism] have no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed because they have been listening to the pastors and the theologians, and the famous guys in Adventism that tell them that these events in the last six verses of Daniel 11 are not significant. We cannot understand them. That is what we looked at yesterday; and, those solemn events are the events connected with the close of probation that a judgment-bound world needs to understand.

NOTHING ELSE

Testimonies, volume 8, beginning on page 301:

> "The solemn messages that have been given in their order in the Revelation are to occupy"—THE SECONDARY PLACE?
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: The first place.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"the first place in the minds of God's people. Nothing else is to be allowed to engross our attention." Testimonies, volume 8, 301–302.

Okay. So, there are solemn messages in the Book of Revelation that are to have first place in our study.

SEVEN CHURCHES

So, we are going to look at some of the truths in Revelation, in the Seven Churches, Acts of the Apostles, starting at page 585:

> "The names of the seven churches are symbolic of the church in different periods of the Christian Era. The number 7 indicates completeness, and is symbolic of the fact that the messages extend to the end of time, while the symbols used reveal the condition of the church at different periods in the history of the world.
> "Christ is spoken of as walking in the midst of the golden candlesticks. Thus is symbolized His relation to the churches. He is in constant communication with His people."—

How is He in constant communication?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Through the angels.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Through the angels, through that ladder, through the two golden pipes, He is in constant communication.

And where is He at when He sends that Golden Oil down? He is walking in the candlesticks.

What are the candlesticks: it is a seven-branch candlestick? He is pouring that oil down that is feeding those candlesticks.

> —"He is in constant communication with His people. He knows their true state. He observes their order, their piety, their devotion. Although He is high priest and mediator in the sanctuary above, yet He is represented as walking up and down in the midst of His churches on the earth." Acts of the Apostles, 585–586.

Now, I am not prepared to argue this; but, I do want to put this in place, at least here. At this next point we can at least put it here.

What am I saying? I am going to mark 1856 as the beginning of Laodicea, and I am not trying to mark that because I know there are people that have evidence that it arrives before 1856. Okay? But, my point is, is that I just want to keep it simple and clean for this presentation, that this particular testimony that we are going to read was written in 1856. So, at least by 1856 Seventh-day Adventists had become Laodicea.

And I know that there are some of you out here in LiveStream Land that will give me the evidence that it arrived before 1856. But, we are not making that issue now.

Testimonies, volume 1, page 144, Sister White says,

> "Some, I saw, would gladly return. Others will not let this message to the Laodicean church have its weight upon them. They will glide along, much after the same manner as before, and will be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord. Those only who zealously repent will have favor with God." Testimonies, volume 1, 144.

Now, it is obvious by the context here that the Laodicean message has already been presented to Adventism, because she is commenting on fact that there are some that are not going to let it impact them; but, she made this statement in 1856.

So, in this flow of events of these Seven Churches, because these Seven Churches represent the history of the Christian Church from the time of the Apostles to the end of the world; and, at minimum we can start Laodicea in 1856.

Does everyone see that?

Is everybody with me on that?

And when do the Laodiceans get spewed out of the mouth of the Lord?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Sunday Law.

MILLER'S RULES

Sister White says in Review and Herald, November 25, 1884:

> "Those who are engaged in proclaiming the third angel's message are searching the Scriptures upon the same plan that Father Miller adopted." Review and Herald, November 25, 1884.

They are not searching the Scriptures upon apostate Protestantism's Biblical interpretation that was brought into Adventism in the 1930s. They are searching the Scriptures based upon the method adopted by William Miller. If you are not using William Miller's approach to the study of the Scriptures, then based upon this quote you are not giving the Third Angel's Message.

But, that is not what we are dealing with here.

Early Writings, page 231:

> "Preachers and people have looked upon the book of Revelation as mysterious and of less importance than other portions of the Sacred Scriptures. But I saw that this book is indeed a revelation given for the especial benefit of those who should live in the last days, to guide them in ascertaining their true position and their duty. God directed the mind of William Miller to the prophecies and gave him great light upon the book of Revelation." Early Writings, 231.

Sister White here says that William Miller was given great light upon the Book of Revelation, and then William Miller taught the first beast of Revelation 13 was Pagan Rome. But, we know the first beast of Revelation 13 was Papal Rome.

And William Miller taught that the second beast of Revelation 13 was Papal Rome, and we know that the second beast of Revelation 13 is the United States.

So, the great light that was given to William Miller, evidently, was not Revelation 13. Right?

Have you ever looked at what William Miller and the Millerites understood about Revelation 17? Sorry, but it does not square with end-time Bible prophecy. Okay. It just does not.

And, Miller was thinking that Revelation 14 was identifying the end of the world. There is not really great light there, is there?

And, I am not trying to be derogatory about William Miller. I am trying to focus in; because, even in looking at William Miller's analysis of Revelation 13, 14, and 17, there is wonderful principles to be gleaned. The way that he identified the first beast of Revelation 13 as Pagan Rome and the second beast as Papal Rome is still worth understanding. Okay? Because, Papal Rome is an image of Pagan Rome, just as the United States is going to form an image to Papal Rome. So, I am not being derogatory in that sense; but, what I am saying is, where the great light was given to William Miller is on the Churches, the Seals, and the Trumpets. There are no problems there. That is where he was given great light: Churches, Seals, and Trumpets.

So, we are going to look at a brief statement of the Churches by William Miller here.

This is William Miller, Miller's Le tures, volume 2, lecture 12, page 178.

> "The seven churches of Asia is a history of the church of Christ in her seven forms, in all her windings and turnings, in all her prosperity and adversity, from the days of the apostles down to the end of the world.'"

The Seven Churches of Asia is a history of the Church, from the Apostles to the end of the world. That is what Miller taught, and Miller was correct.

—"The seven seals"—

Now, I hope you realize there are Seven Churches, followed by Seven Seals, followed by Seven Trumpets.

> —"The seven seals are a history of the transactions of the powers and kings of the earth over the church, and God's protection of his people during the same time."

So, William Miller is saying that the Seals are repeating and enlarging the Churches. He is identifying it without saying it as we say it today, the principle of repeat and enlarge.

Do you follow me?

> —"The seven trumpets are a history of seven peculiar and heavy judgments sent upon the earth, or Roman kingdom."—

So, now he is going to tell us that the Trumpets and repeating and enlarging upon the history of the Seals and the Churches.

—"And the seven vials"—

And this is the Seven Last Plagues.

—"are the seven last plagues sent upon Papal Rome."—

And, of course, Miller did not understand the Seven Vials correctly, because he understood that the Seven Last Plagues were going to come in 1844; but, the Seven Last Plagues are going to come here in the near future. But, nevertheless, he was operating upon the principle of repeat and enlarge with the Churches, the Seals, and the Trumpets.

Continuing on:

> —"Mixed with these are many other events, woven in like tributary streams, and filling up the grand river of prophecy, until the whole ends us in the ocean of eternity.
> "This, to me, is the plan of John's prophecy in the book of Revelation. And the man who wishes to understand this book, must have a thorough knowledge of other parts of the word of God. The figures and metaphors used in this prophecy,"—

In the Book of Revelation. And the scholars tell us that two out of three words in the Book of Revelation are derived from the Old Testament; and, this is what Miller is saying here.

> —"And the man who wishes to understand this book, must have a thorough knowledge of other parts of the word of God. The figures and metaphors used in this prophecy are not all explained in the same, but must be found in other prophets, and explained in other passages of Scripture. Therefore it is evident that God has designed the study of the whole, even to obtain a clear knowledge of any part." William Miller, Miller's Le tures, volume 2, lecture 12, 178.

INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL

Okay. Uriah Smith comments on the Churches and the Seals, and I include this here because I like the way he expresses a thought here.

Uriah Smith, The Biblical Institute, page 253:

> "The seals are introduced to our notice in the 4th, 5th, and 6th chapters of Revelation. The scenes presented under these seals are brought to view in Revelation 6, and the first verse of Revelation 8. They evidently cover events with which the church is connected from the opening of this dispensation to the coming of Christ.
> "While the seven churches present the internal history of the church, the seven seals bring to view the great events of its external history." Uriah Smith, The Biblical Institute, 253.

Okay. This is a nice way to explain the repeat and enlarge. The Seven Churches are the internal history of the Church, what is going on between you and me as church members; the Seven Seals, what is happening to us from the outside: internal/external; repeat and enlarge.

It is the same history, though, right? Except that there is a break in the last three. The Seven Churches are structured upon 4:3, the Seven Seals are structured upon 4:3, and the Seven Trumpets are structured upon 4:3. Okay? But, nevertheless, it is repeated and enlarged, and the first four Seals are going to follow the first four Churches, point by point.

THE SAME PERIOD OF TIME

James White said in Review and Herald, February 12, 1857:

> "We have now traced the churches, the seals, and the beasts, or living beings, as far as they will compare as covering the same periods of time."—

He has just been discussing how the first four Seals covers the history of the first four Churches.

> —"The seals are seven in number, the beasts but four."—

What does he mean by that?

With the first four Seals you have a beast that is associated with each of the Seals; but, when you get to the fifth, sixth, and seventh Seals there is no beast. James White is now going to give us a little bit of insight about this 4:3 breakdown in the Churches, the Seals, and the Trumpets.

What are the last three Trumpets?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Woes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are Three Woes. Okay?

But, the first four Seals have a beast associated with them, and there is a comment made in the first four Seals, "Come and see." Okay? The last three Seals, no beast, no "Come and see."

Back to James White:

> —"The seals are seven in number, the beasts but four. And it may be well here to notice, that at the opening of the first, second, third and fourth seals the first, second, third and fourth beasts are heard to say 'Come and see;' but when the fifth, sixth and seventh seals are opened, there is no such voice heard. Neither do the last three churches, and the last three seals, compare, as covering the same periods of time, as the first four churches, and the first four seals do. But, as we have shown, the churches, seals and beasts do agree, as covering the same periods of time for the space of nearly 1800 years, till we come down to a little more than half a century of the present time." James White, Review and Herald, February 12, 1857.

He is saying, until you get to 1798.

PERGAMOS AND THYATIRA, REVELATION 2:12-29

THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY

Okay. So, now with that in mind, I am going to look a little bit in the Scriptures at the relationship between Pergamos and Thyatira. All right? Because, in the Scriptures—and that is what Miller said. If you are going to understand these Scriptures, where do you have to go? You have to go to the rest of the Bible.

In the Scriptures, Pergamos and Thyatira are connected like "soup and sandwich" or "a hand and a glove."

Okay. 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, verses 5 through 8, is the history of Pergamos and Thyatira. It says,

> "[5]Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? [6]And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time."

Pagan Rome is withholding the rise of the Papacy.

Okay. Pagan Rome is Pergamos. The Papacy is Thyatira.

—"[7]For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth"—

Pagan Rome is the one that is restraining. This word letteth is restraining.

—"only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way."

Paganism will restrain the Papacy until it is taken away in AD508, when the Daily is taken away in 508.

> —"[8]And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming." 2 Thessalonians 2:5–8 (KJV).

After Pagan Rome, Papal Rome.

After Pergamos, Thyatira.

What am I doing here? I am showing you that in the Scriptures these two Churches are connected by cause and effect, cause and effect, and that they are referenced many times in the Scriptures.

POWER (AD496), SEAT (330), AND AUTHORITY (533)

Look at Revelation 13:2.

> "[2]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard,"—

And the beast that we see in Revelation 13:2 that is like unto a leopard is the Papal beast, the Papacy.

> —"[2]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon"—

And who is the dragon? Pagan Rome. Sister White says the dragon in Revelation 12 is Satan, but in a secondary sense it is Pagan Rome.

Pagan Rome (Pergamos) is going to give three things to the leopard beast, to the Papacy. It says, > —"and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority." Revelation 13:2 (KJV).

He gave him is power in AD496, when Clovis formed a church/state relationship with the Papacy. He gave him his seat in 330 when Constantine moved the capital to Constantinople, and Justinian gave him his civil authority in the year 533.

But, this is the relationship between Pergamos and Thyatira that is here being marked.

A HOST WAS GIVEN HIM—AD31, 508, 330, 496, 538 - 1260

Daniel 8:11-12 says,

> "[11]Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host,"—

Pagan Rome, this is the masculine little horn in Daniel 8. This is Pagan Rome; magnified himself to Christ, who is the Prince of the Host, at His birth when they tried to kill him and at His death when they did kill Him.

> —"[11]Yea, he [PAGAN ROME] magnified himself even to the prince of the host [CHRIST], and by him [BY PAGAN ROME] the daily ~~sacrifice~~ [PAGANISM] was [LIFTED UP AND EXALTED] taken away [RUM], and the place of his [PAGAN ROME'S] sanctuary"—

And Pagan Rome's sanctuary was the Pantheon Temple. It was located in the City of Rome.

—"and the place of his sanctuary [THE CITY OF ROME] was cast down [BY CONSTANTINE AS THE CAPITAL IN THE YEAR 330]. [12]And an host [MILITARY STRENGTH] was given him"—

This is the feminine little horn.

—"[MILITARY STRENGTH] was given him [THE PAPAL POWER IN 496] against [FROM]"—

Against [from]; we looked at that yesterday, this word against, did we not? It can be understood to mean from.

—"[FROM] the daily ~~sacrifice~~"—

The former Pagan powers provided the military strength that removed the three horns, allowing the Papacy to be placed upon the throne of the Earth,

—"by reason of transgression,"—

And the transgression that allowed this to happen was the combination of church and state between Clovis and the Papacy in AD496.

—*"*and it [THE PAPACY] cast down the truth to the ground; and it practiced, and prospered [FOR 1260 YEARS, FROM 538 TO 1798]." Daniel 8:11–12 (KJV).

So, here again we are seeing the relationship in prophecy of Pergamos and Thyatira.

Sister White has an interesting quote. Sometimes I remember it word for word, sometimes I do not, where it says, "The Lord does not repeat things that are of no great consequence. {Ms107-1897 (September 15, 1897) par. 2}" When you see something repeated in the Scriptures often, it is because the Lord is emphasizing it; and, you see this relationship between Pergamos and Thyatira often mentioned.

THE DAILY TAKEN AWAY (AD508) (538)

Daniel 12:11:

"[11]And from the time [AD508] that the daily ~~sacrifice~~ [PAGANISM] shall be taken away [SHALL BE REMOVED], and the abomination that maketh desolate [THE PAPACY] set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days [1290 DAYS]." Daniel 12:11 (KJV).

Once again, this is about Paganism (Pergamos) being set aside in order to place the Papacy [Thyatira] for 1260 years.

THEY PLACE THE ABOMINATION THAT MAKETH DESOLATE—AD496, 395-538, 508, 538

Daniel 11:30-31:

> "[30]For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return,"—

This is Pagan Rome. We have read this in Uriah Smith.

> —"therefore he [PAGAN ROME] shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he [PAGAN ROME] do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant."—

And those that forsake the holy covenant is the Papacy. Pagan Rome is going to now have intelligence with the Papacy. This is Pergamos and Thyatira.

> —"[31]And arms [PAGAN ROME] shall stand on his part [ON THE PAPACY'S PART], and they [THOSE ARMS] shall pollute the sanctuary of strength [THE CITY OF ROME],"—

And the warfare that takes place prior to the Papacy being placed upon the throne of the Earth.

> —"and [THOSE ARMS, PAGAN ROME] shall take away the daily ~~sacrifice~~ [PAGANISM AND THEY WILL SET IT ASIDE], and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate [TO PREPARE THE WAY FOR THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION BEING PLACED ON THE THRONE OF THE EARTH IN AD538]." Daniel 11:30–31 (KJV).

Once again, this is the history of Pergamos and Thyatira.

DANIEL 11:40-45

We closed yesterday with reading of just a part of a passage from Sister White that we will spend probably a great deal of time on. We are going to take one little snippet out of this again.

Manuscript Releases, number 13, page 394:

> "We have no time to lose. Troublous times are before us. The world is stirred with the spirit of war. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place. The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment."—

And what we were doing yesterday is showing that Sister White understood that the part of Daniel 11 that was still to be fulfilled was verses 40 through 45. That is all we were doing with that quote yesterday.

But here, I want you to see that she is talking about Daniel 11; but, then she is going to mark a specific principle that is to be recognized in your study of Daniel 11 in the next sentence. She says, —"Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated."—

When you are studying Daniel 11, Sister White is saying the future fulfillment of it is verses 40 through 45, but there are histories in verses 1 through 39 that will be repeated when verses 40 through 45 are fulfilled. So, therefore, as a student of prophecy, she is saying, "You need to understand those histories in the first 39 verses so that you have a point of reference for identifying verses 40 through 45."

And after she emphasizes that principle, then she really marks the history that you need to wrap your mind around. She says, —"In the thirtieth verse a power is spoken of that 'verses 30 through thirty-six quoted.'"—

And then she quotes verses 30 to 36 of Daniel 11; and, as soon as she finishes quoting those verses, she says, —"Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place." Manuscript Releases, number 13, 394.

So, Sister White just now in this passage tells us that the histories of verses 30 to 36 of Daniel 11 will be repeated in the last six verses of Daniel 11. And what I want you to see is that verses 30 to 36 include verses 30 and 31; and, verses 30 and 31 are the history of Pergamos and Thyatira.

So, what Sister White is saying, what Sister White is saying, what she is saying here, is that the history of Pergamos and Thyatira, it is repeated in the history of Laodicea.

Did you get that?

You should get that; because, she is saying that this history here [of Pergamos and Thyatira] that will be repeated in the history of Laodicea[5], that it is going to be fulfilled in the history represented by Daniel 11:40 to 45 [Laodicea]. Check that out. Do not let me misguide you on that one.

THE THIRD AND FOURTH SEALS

Okay. The third and fourth Seals are the third and fourth Churches, and the third and fourth Churches are Pergamos and Thyatira.

Pergamos and Thyatira are the internal history of the Church; but, the third and fourth Seals are the external history of that time. And you will find the third and fourth Seals in Revelation 6:6-8.

> "[6]And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine. [7]And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. [8]And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth." Revelation 6:6-8 (KJV).

But, I just want to show you something here from Manuscript Releases, volume 9, page 7. Sister White says,

> "The same spirit is seen today that is represented in Revelation 6:6-8."—

That is the history of the third and fourth Seals. She is saying the same spirit is represented today as was represented in the history of the third and fourth Seals; and, then she says this:

> —"History is to be repeated. That which has been will be again." Manuscript Releases, volume 9, 7.

She just said that the history of the third and fourth Seals is repeated in Laodicea, and the history of the third and fourth Seals is the history of Pergamos and Thyatira, which she just said is going to be repeated in the history of Laodicea.

Did you get that?

EPHESUS AND SMYRNA

Ephesus and Smyrna.

Okay. This here, Pergamos and Thyatira, Brothers and Sisters, this is cause and effect. Okay? There had to be a falling away first in the time of Pergamos in order to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth. Pagan Rome was restraining the Papacy, and Pagan Rome had to be set aside for the Papacy to be established. This is a cause-and-effect relationship.

[5] Corrected misstatement of "Thyatira," while pointing to Laodicea, (ref DVD 00:38:54) on the timeline of Laodicea.

And in Ephesus and Smyrna, a cause-and-effect relationship.
2 Timothy 3:12:

> "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." 2 Timothy 3:12 (KJV).

Was the Ephesus Church living godly in Christ Jesus?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. They carried the Gospel to the world.

So, because they were living godly in Christ Jesus, what do we know is going to happen to them?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Persecution.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Smyrna, cause and effect: righteous living – persecution. Ephesus and Smyrna, cause and effect.

Sister White says, in Selected Messages, book 3, page 397,

> "Many will be imprisoned, many will flee for their lives from cities and towns, and many will be martyrs for Christ's sake in standing in defense of the truth." Selected Messages, book 3, 397.

What is Smyrna, what does it represent? The persecution of Pagan Rome against the Christian Church.

Maybe you have not settled into this, but it is: What is the primary symbol of the dragon power in the Scriptures? We will deal with this, the Lord willing, as we proceed: the number 10. Okay?

In Smyrna it was Pagan Rome. And in Daniel 7 how many nations does Pagan Rome disintegrate into? Ten.

Okay. And Pagan Rome accomplished a persecution in this history [of Smyrna] for how many days?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ten.

And what does history tell us about this history? It tells us that in this history, Pagan Rome actually carried out ten different periods of persecution; but, there was one that was worse than all of them, and that was the persecution of Diocletian that lasted how long?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten years.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ten years.

So, when it comes to the dragon, Pagan Rome, the number 10 is a symbol.

And at the end of the world down here in the Laodicea time period with us, in Revelation 17 there are Ten Kings that are going to make war against the Lamb. Okay?

So, this warfare of the Ten Kings, this blood spilling that we just read about that there will be many martyrs, that is Smyrna being repeated in Laodicea.

And why is it being repeated in Laodicea? Because the Lord is going to lift up an ensign at The Sunday Law, an ensign that has been made up of the wise virgins of Adventism; and, when they are lifted up, all that lived godly in Christ Jesus are what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They are persecuted.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are going to suffer Smyrna.

See, Ephesus and Smyrna, it is repeated in Laodicea. And if it is repeated in Laodicea, it is repeated in the last six verses of Daniel 11.

EPHESUS AND LAODICEA

Early Writings, 259-260[6]; The Great Controversy, 611; Joel

Now, you can see a relationship between Ephesus and Philadelphia and Laodicea often, often marked by Ellen White.

And we have read these next two references more than once in this worship series.

In Early Writings, page 259 and onward, Sister White gives a warning to Laodicea, that there was going to be an attack made upon the foundations. That is the first paragraph.

The next paragraph in Early Writings, page 259, she talks about a progressive testing process in the time of Christ. She says, "All those that would not receive the message of John the Baptist could not be benefitted by the teachings of Jesus"; and, it concludes with the Jews being left in perfect darkness.

And the third paragraph, she goes to the history of the Millerites, and she says, "All those that would not receive the First Angel's Message could not be benefitted by the Second Angel's Message."

And what she is doing here, the first paragraph is our history, a warning that the foundations are going to come under attack. The second paragraph is Ephesus; the third paragraph is Philadelphia. These three histories, in The Great Controversy, page 611, she says, the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 is going to come down and the Earth is going to be lightened with His glory, and it will be a work similar to what took place in 1840 and 1844 in Philadelphia. And then she says it will be similar as to Pentecost [pointing to the Church of Ephesus on the whiteboard], these three histories.

Okay. In the history of Laodicea, you have repeated the history of Ephesus and also Philadelphia.

Now, I did not put those references in, because if you do not understand this, this far in this worship series, if you do not understand that the Millerite history is repeated in the history of our day and age, if you do not understand that the Seven Thunders represented the delineation of events that transpired under the First and Second Angels' Messages and that they also represent future events that will be disclosed in their order, if you have not already settled into the fact that the history of Philadelphia is repeated in the history of Laodicea, then go back to the beginning of this worship study. There is plenty of evidence of this.

So, what I am saying is, Ephesus, Philadelphia, Smyrna, Pergamos, and Thyatira are all repeated in the time period of Laodicea.

Notice ris t's Obje t Lesso s , page 170.

> "'Judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off; for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey.' Isaiah 59:14, 15. This was fulfilled in the life of Christ on earth."—

[6] Correcting typo in cite of Early Writings, 258-260, to pages 259-260.

This was fulfilled in Ephesus. Okay? Right? Sort of?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"He was loyal to God's commandments, setting aside the human traditions and requirements which had been exalted in their place. Because of this He was hated and persecuted. This history is repeated." ris t's Obje t Lesso s , 170.

Ephesus is repeated in Laodicea.

Southern Watchman, March 21, 1905:

"The work of John the Baptist, and the work of those who in the last days go forth in the spirit and power of Elijah to arouse the people from their apathy, are in many respects the same. His work is a type of the work that must be done in this age. Christ is to come the second time to judge the world in righteousness. The messengers of God who bear the last message of warning to be given to the world, are to prepare the way for Christ's second advent, as John prepared the way for his first advent. In this preparatory work, 'every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain'"—

John the Baptist: Ephesus, Laodicea. Right?

And towards the end of the paragraph she says,

—"for history is to be repeated, and once again 'the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.'" Southern Watchman, March 21, 1905.

She says the history of John the Baptist is to be repeated.

Selected Messages, book 2, page 111:

"Satan is working that the history of the Jewish nation may be repeated in the experience of those who claim to believe present truth." Selected Messages, book 2, 111.

Hmm. We will deal with this tomorrow; but, let us make note that here she says the history of the Jewish Nation will be repeated.

SARDIS, PHILADELPHIA AND LAODICEA

Manuscript Releases, volume 18, page 193:

"Oh, what a description! How many there are in this fearful condition. I earnestly entreat every minister to study diligently the third chapter of Revelation,"—

Now, Brothers and Sisters, I was being a bit facetious earlier on when I was saying that every Seventh-day Adventist knows the Seven Churches; this is basic for us. What churches are in Revelation, chapter 3?

We should know this; but, which churches are represented in Revelation, chapter 3. We should know this without thinking.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Responses in unison.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea; that is what Sister White is talking about, are those three Churches, if you are going to take her simply at her word; His Word, which is faith.

> —"I earnestly entreat every minister to study diligently the third chapter of Revelation, for in it is portrayed the condition of things existing in the last days."—

That says that in the last days you also have Sardis. We have already noted Philadelphia and Laodicea. Sardis takes place in the time of Laodicea.

So, we have just put into the record that the history represented by all Seven Churches is repeated in our history.

> —"Study carefully every verse in this chapter, for through these words Jesus is speaking to you." Manuscript Releases, volume 18, 193.

PIONEER UNDERSTANDING

Okay. The Pioneer understanding, as expressed by Joseph Bates—you may not know this. We are going to read this in a second—the Pioneers believed that in their history, which was the history of what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Philadelphia.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Philadelphia. They believed that in their history of Philadelphia that all three of these Churches [Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea] were there contemporaneously. And that is what Sister White just said, "Read chapter 3 and study it carefully, because this history is going to be repeated, the history of Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

The Millerites believed (the Millerites that were truly following the Lord) that they were Philadelphians; but, they believed that those involved with the Millerite Movement that were rejecting the message of the Millerites, they were Laodicean. But, they believed that their audience, those that they were taking the message to outside of the Millerites, was Sardis. That is why the Millerites saw all three of these Churches at the same time.

Here is Joseph Bates, Review and Herald, volume 1, November 1850.

> "'In all the land saith the Lord; TWO PARTS therein shall be cut off, and die;"—SARDIS AND LAODICEA—"but the THIRD shall be left therein. God says he will bring the THIRD PART through the fire, and refine them. They shall call upon him, and he will hear them. He will say IT IS MY PEOPLE; and they shall say the LORD IS MY GOD.' First part, SARDIS, the nominal church or Babylon. Second part, Laodicea, the nominal Adventist. Third part, Philadelphia, the only true church of God on earth, for they ask to be translated to the city of God.

> Revelation 3:12; Hebrews 12:22–24. In the name of Jesus, I exhort you again to flee from the Laodiceans, as from Sodom and Gomorrah. Their teachings are false and delusive; and lead to utter destruction. Death! DEATH!!* eternal DEATH!!! is on their track. Remember Lot's wife." Joseph Bates, Review and Herald, volume 1, November 1850.

I just want you to see that the Millerites understood that all three of these Churches were in Philadelphia; so, when Sister White says all three of these Churches are in Laodicea, it is simply saying that the Millerite history is repeated to the very letter at the end of the world.

SARDIS

It is interesting to note that Taylor Bunch in his book on Revelation, The Seven Epistles of Christ, page 186, says this about Sardis—I like this—it says,

> "Sardis not only represents 'those escaping' or 'that which remains' after the great apostasy and terrible persecutions of the Middle Ages, but some authorities believe that the word ardis means 'remnant' of 'an escaped few,' and therefore represent Protestantism after what was vital in it had evaporated so that there are only a few faithful ones remaining. There would be a 'remnant' who would continue the work of reform even after the Reformation had waned and Protestantism in general was dead. There would be 'a few names,' or 'a few souls' (Moffatt), in Sardis who had 'not defiled their garments.'" Taylor Bunch, The Seven Epistles of Christ, 186.

What I read that for is he is identifying from the Greek that Sardis means those that escape.

And in Daniel 11:41 says,

> "[41]He"—

And this is the Papacy. We have not explained this yet, but I am going to just give you an overview so you can see Sardis in it.

> —"He [THE PAPACY] shall enter also into the glorious land [THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AT THE SUNDAY LAW], and many countries shall be overthrown:"—

And many Seventh-day Adventists will be overthrown because they are going to be held accountable to the light of Sabbath and Sunday.

> —"but these shall escape out of his hand,"—

And there is the definition of Sardis, "those that escape."

And according to Taylor Bunch, that is Babylon. Okay? "These shall escape from His hand, . . ."—

> —"even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

That is the threefold makeup of modern Babylon. They are those that escape at The Sunday Law when the message goes forth, Revelation 18, verse 4, "Come out of her my people."

HASKELL

Okay. Now, if you think that the idea that all of these Churches, that all Seven Churches are repeated in our day and age, in the history of Laodicea, I want you to understand that this is an old Adventist understanding. Stephen Haskell puts it in his book on the Book of Revelation.

Notice what Haskell says on page 69 from the Story of the Seer of Patmos. He says,

> "It should be remembered that, as the experience of Ephesus, Smyrna, and Pergamos, will be repeated in the last church before the second coming of Christ, so the history of Thyatira will have its counterpart in the last generation." Stephen N. Haskell, Story of the Seer of Patmos, 69.

He has been developing this through several paragraphs, of course. I am just snipping out his conclusion. He says that Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, and Thyatira are repeated in Laodicea.

Then on page 75, speaking of William Miller, he says,

> "He applied the test, but all pointed forward to the year 1843 as the time when the world must welcome its Saviour. The condition of the people at the first advent of Christ was now repeated." Stephen N. Haskell, Story of the Seer of Patmos, 75.

What was the condition of the people at the first advent of Christ? Well, that is Ephesus, and he was saying it was repeated in Philadelphia, in the history of the Millerites. So, he has already said that Ephesus is repeated in the history of Laodicea in the previous quote on page 69; and, now he is saying that Ephesus is repeated in Philadelphia. So, he is saying that Philadelphia is repeated in Laodicea.

Do you understand the logic?

Pages 75 and 76 of the Story of the Seer of Patmos, Haskell says,

> "There was a time in the history of Pergamos, when Christianity thought Paganism was dead; but in reality, the religion which was apparently vanquished, had conquered. Paganism baptized, stepped into the church. In the days of Sardis this history was repeated." Stephen N. Haskell, Story of the Seer of Patmos, 75, 76.

Okay. What history? Well, the history of Pergamos. He just said that Sardis is a repetition of Pergamos, and he has already said that Pergamos is repeated in Laodicea.

So, Haskell is saying that all these Churches are repeated in Laodicea.

And then, of course, on Page 69, he says,

> "Upon this last church—the remnant,—shine the accumulated rays of all past ages." Stephen N. Haskell, Story of the Seer of Patmos, 69.

Okay?

So,—what? Are you wanting to say a question?

BROTHER FROM THE AUDIENCE: On Page 75, that is the Jewish nation, is it not—

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, that is the Jewish nation.

BROTHR FROM THE AUDIENCE: —like you were saying earlier?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. The Jewish nation we will deal with tomorrow.

The question is, we have already put the Jewish nation up there from the Spirit of Prophecy that it is repeated in our history; and, Haskell says the same thing, that it is repeated in our history.

But, we do not want to deal with that today, because we are going to deal with that tomorrow.

What I am saying is, this history here, this is the history of—and correct me if I am wrong—that is the history of the New Testament, the history of the New Testament and beyond, all the way up through 1798 and Thyatira. But, everything in the New Testament, all the way to our day and age, is repeated right here [underscoring Laodicea on the whiteboard].

But, we know from yesterday's study that Daniel 11:40 begins in 1798, and at least by 1856 Laodicea had arrived.

And Daniel 12:1, Daniel 12:1 says, "At that time shall Michael stand up." And we identified yesterday, when Michael stands up it is the close of human probation; and, those first few words in Daniel 12:1 says, "And at that time," meaning that human probation closes somewhere back here in verse 45. So, this history here is Laodicea.

So, what we are saying, Brothers and Sisters, at minimum today, that all the Biblical history, from the time of the Disciples until our day and age, is repeated in the last six verses of Daniel 11. So, when it comes to studying Daniel 11, verse 40, which opens up the events connected with the close of probation and 1989, this is just one argument that this verse is one of the most profound verses in all of God's Word, because it is the verse that opens the door up for us to understand that all of the Bible is portrayed in the last six verses of Daniel 11.

We just showed you the New Testament today. Tomorrow we will show you the Old Testament.

And what for? Because, if we are going to study Daniel 11, verse 40, that was fulfilled in 1989, and demonstrate that in 1989 the Time of the End for the 144,000 arrived, and at the Time of the End in Daniel 12 is the point in time when the Lion of the tribe of Judah, or the Dirt Brush Man of William Miller's dream, unseals the increase of knowledge that is going to be the Everlasting Gospel that is going to test that generation, then we would expect that Daniel 11, verse 40, and 1989 should produce some type of light that qualifies as an increase of knowledge, that identifies that the Book of Daniel has been unsealed.

And in advance of our studying these verses, I want you to understand that the events connected with the close of probation that the multitudes in Adventism do not understand, in those last six verses of Daniel 11 the entire Bible is illustrated upon those verses. And that is pretty profound!

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be among those that recognize this increase of knowledge, but we know that in order to do so we must run to and fro in your Word. We thank you that you have instructed us in Habakkuk 2, that you would have the vision printed upon Tables that those that wanted to study these things could run to and fro in your Word. We thank you that you have given us a point of reference, a key, to unlock these truths, and we want to stand upon that key, upon this foundational truth, though many wish to set them aside and tear them down. We thank you for our study this morning. We ask that you would bless our day of service to you. Keep us safe. Help us do a work that is honorable for you, and ask a continued blessing on the work that we are attempting with the DVDs and LiveStreaming. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #43

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a night's rest, for bringing us together to consider your Word this morning and taking us through another week of studies. As we open your Word this morning, we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit to direct or thoughts that we might understand these truths connected with Daniel 11— verse 40, 1989, William Miller's dream—that we might understand them in a way to better prepare us to stand faithful in the times that we are living in, and to have a message to share with those we come in contact with. We ask that you take control of our humanity, both mine and the presentation and the brothers and sisters that are listening to these things. And we would ask that you would pour the Latter Rain out upon us at this time by opening our understanding to your Word. We ask for traveling mercies for Kathy, and we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, we are dealing with 1989 in connection with William Miller's dream. We have identified that the seven times that Miller marks the scattering in his dream represent a period of time when these foundational truths of Adventism were covered up. We have taken time to show that that covering up began in 1863, when the first truth that William Miller had discovered was set aside by James White.

And then we have identified but not proven that 1989 is the point where the covering up ceases and the Dirt Brush Man enters in to begin His work of sweeping away the rubbish of error and tradition and custom.

But, in order to do 1989 in a thorough way, we have to look more deeply at Daniel 11, verse 40, which is the verse that marks the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989 and marks the point in time for the Time of the End where the Reform Movement of the 144,000 begins, which is also the end of William Miller's dream.

As we began this two days ago, we identified that the last six verses of Daniel 11, they begin in 1798, verse 40; and, they go on into the close of human probation in Daniel 12:1 when Michael stands up. And Michael stands up in Daniel 12:1 somewhere in verses 44 and 45; because, it begins saying, "And at that time shall Michael stand up."

I am under the conviction that verse 44 and 45 are describing pretty much the same event, verse 44, "tidings out of the east and north trouble him [the King of the North]: therefore he goes forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly make away many, . . . yet he shall come to his end," (Daniel 11:44-45) is describing the last movements of the Papacy, but it is in those last movements where Michael stands up and human probation closes. We will deal with that as we proceed.

So, we identified that we are to understand the great and solemn events that prophecy identifies as we stand on the threshold of their fulfillment. We identified that the great and solemn events are the solemn events connected with the close of probation.

And we identified that repeating the history of Ancient Israel, Seventh-day Adventists today do not understand the events connected with the close of probation by and large, though they have been clearly revealed and that they are salvational. So, we identified that Daniel 11:40-45 are the events connected with the close of probation.

Yesterday we identified not in a dogmatic way but that in 1856, at least by 1856, you can say that Adventism entered into their Laodicean condition.

And from there we went and showed from the Spirit of Prophecy and from Stephen Haskell that all the histories represented in the Seven Churches of Revelation 2 and 3 are repeated in the history of Laodicea.

In the history of Laodicea, the Everlasting Gospel is going to be accomplished in two classes of worshippers in Adventism, and will be developed and then demonstrated.

The one class that is going to be lifted up as an ensign and receive the Seal of God are repeating the history of Ephesus, the history of the First Seal when as a white horse the Church goes forth to carry the final warning message as prefigured by the Apostles when they carried the Gospel to the world in their history. But, we know that they are lifted up as an ensign at The Sunday Law, and at The Sunday Law persecution begins. So, we know that Smyrna is going to be active in this history, too.

But, in order for The Sunday Law to arrive in the United States and begin this process of persecution, Pergamos will be repeated in the history of the United States. Constantine's combination of Paganism with Christianity is prefiguring the work of the United States setting aside Protestantism and coming into agreement with the Papacy. And we know from Bible prophecy that once this compromise in the United States takes place, as represented in Pergamos, that the Papacy is going to be returned to the throne of the Earth. This is Thyatira. This Thyatira marks 1260 years of Papal rule. In this history there will be three classes of worshippers once The Sunday Law arrives. You will have Sardis (those that escape); and, in Daniel 11, verse 41, you will see those that escape the hand of the Papacy when The Sunday Law arrives in the United States, represented by Sardis. At The Sunday Law in the United States in Daniel 11:41, you will have many overthrown that are the Laodiceans in Adventism; and, then you will have the ensign [Philadelphia] that is lifted up, those that will receive the Seal of God. So, these three histories (Pergamos, Sardis, and Philadelphia) are also repeated here at the end of the world.

So, what we showed, for those that are willing to see, is that when the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Dirt Brush Man, unseals the prophecy that is going to test this generation, that prophecy is the last six verses of Daniel 11; and, the unsealing begins with a fulfillment of prophecy; and, the prophecy that is fulfilled is verse 40, identifying the collapse of the Soviet Union.

And in agreement with the concept that once this prophecy is fulfilled, the Lion of the tribe of Judah opens up a prophetic truth. What we are seeing is, is He opens up the entire Bible.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

THE SEVEN SEALS

ANCIENT ISRAEL

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, yesterday, all we showed was at least the history of Christianity. Today, we are going to take it a step further; so, let us go to our notes and show that it is the entire Bible that is repeated within the structure, the history, represented in the last six verses of Daniel 11.

Healthful Living, beginning at page 280, says,

"The trials of the children of Israel, and their attitude just before the first coming of Christ, illustrate the position of the people of God in their experience before the second coming of Christ."—

So, now we are not talking about the history of the Christian Church being repeated in Adventism. We are talking about the history of Ancient Israel being repeated in the history of modern Israel; and, Sister White, of course, identifies this principle often.

—"Satan's snares are laid for us as verily as they were laid for the children of Israel just prior to their entrance into the land of Canaan. We are repeating the history of that people.

"Their history should be a solemn warning to us. We need never expect that when the Lord has light for his people, Satan will stand calmly by and make no effort to prevent them from receiving it. Let us beware that we do not refuse the light God sends, because it does not come in a way to please us. . . . If there are any who do not see and accept the light themselves, let them not stand in the way of others."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "'I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live; that thou mayest love the Lord thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him; for he is thy life, and the length of thy days; that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.'

"This song was not historical but prophetic. While it recounted the wonderful dealings of God with his people in the past, it also foreshadowed the great events of the future, the final victory of the faithful when Christ shall come the second time in power and glory.

"The apostle Paul plainly states that the experience of the Israelites in their travels has been recorded for the benefit of those living in this age of the world, those upon whom the ends of the world are come. We do not consider that our dangers are any less than those of the Hebrews, but greater." Healthful Living, 280−281.

So, the history of Ancient Israel is going to be repeated at the end of the world. And what we are going to show is that the history of Ancient Israel was governed by the Seven Churches; the Seven Churches illustrate the history of Ancient Israel. And, if this is true, then when we see when the Seven Churches are repeated in Laodicea, it means that Ancient Israel's history is repeated in Laodicea as well, which means that the history of Ancient Israel is repeated in the last six verses of Daniel 11, which means when the Lion of the tribe of Judah unsealed the prophecy in 1989, He was unsealing the entire Bible.

But, it can only be seen if you take advantage of the principle of bringing line upon line, from here a little, there a little, the principle that we call "proof-texting," the principle of study that was adopted by William Miller which has been recommended to us by Inspiration.

ALL THE GREAT EVENTS

Selected Messages, book 3, beginning at page 338, it says,

> "The Bible has accumulated and bound up together its treasures for this last generation."—

Now, when Sister White says that, "the Bible," that precedes even Ancient Israel, does it not?

> —"All the great events and solemn transactions of Old Testament history have been, and are, repeating themselves in the church in these last days." Selected Messages, book 3, 338−339.

That takes you all the way back to Adam.

THYATIRA

Okay. We have in our worship studies used this next quote more than once. We have used it to show the 70 years of captivity in literal Babylon for literal Israel prefigured the 1260 years of captivity of spiritual Israel and spiritual Babylon.

Prophets and Kings, page 714:

> "Today the church of God is free to carry forward to completion the divine plan for the salvation of a lost race. For many centuries God's people suffered a restriction of their liberties. The preaching of the gospel in its purity was prohibited, and the severest of penalties were visited upon those who dared disobey the mandates of men. As a consequence, the Lord's great moral vineyard was almost wholly unoccupied. The people were deprived of the light of God's word. The darkness of error and superstition threatened to blot out a knowledge of true religion. God's church on earth was as verily in captivity during this long period of relentless persecution as were the children of Israel held captive in Babylon during the period of the exile." Prophets and Kings, 714.

If you are going to apply that prophetically, it means that Thyatira, which was the 1260 years of Papal rule, is the 70 years of captivity in Babylon; therefore, the 70 years of captivity in Babylon for Ancient Israel was Thyatira for Ancient Israel.

PARALLEL LINES: REPEAT AND ENLARGE

Uriah Smith informed us yesterday,

> "While the seven churches present the internal history of the church, the seven seals bring to view the great events of its external history." Uriah Smith, The Biblical Institute, 253.

We did not take a great deal of time yesterday to mark it, but Ephesus is the First Seal; Smyrna is the Second Seal; Pergamos is the Third Seal; Thyatira is the Fourth Seal.

Now, whether it is the Churches, the Seals, or the Trumpets, the last three, they are conveying another truth. So, this is sequential history [the First Seal through the Fourth Seal]. This, whether it is the last three Churches, the last three Seals, or the last three Trumpets, it is dealing with God's people at the end of the world. It is dealing with modern Israel. It is dealing with the beginning of modern Israel, the Millerites; and, the end of modern Israel, the 144,000. So, when you are dealing with the last three Churches, the last three Seals, or the last three Trumpets, there is a special message for modern Israel. But, the first four Seals are paralleling the first four Churches.

But, what we have said is that these 70 years for Ancient Israel was Thyatira, which if this is true, then you are going to have three periods that precede Thyatira. Okay? The first one would be Ephesus, then Smyrna, and Pergamos.

THE FIRST FIVE SEALS

Revelation 6:1-11

But go to Revelation 6.

Unfortunately in Adventism, the Book of Revelation is not familiar ground. It should be; typically, it is not. Those people that do not like me saying that, sorry. I have asked questions to hundreds of Seventh-day Adventists around the world about basic concepts in Daniel and Revelation, and we do not know them anymore. They are just not there.

So, in Revelation 6, the Lion of the tribe of Judah is going to begin to unseal the Book that is sealed with Seven Seals, that Book being the Bible; and, He began to unseal it for the Millerites in 1798. The unsealing is marking a progressive increase of knowledge, because the Seals are removed one at a time.

And beginning in verse 1, it says,

> "[1]And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. [2]And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer."—

That is the church of the Apostles.

Verse 3,

—"[3]And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. [4]And there went out another horse that was red:"—

Red because it is blood; because, it is representing Smyrna and the persecution.

—"and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.—

Verse 5,

—"[5]And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. [6]And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine."—

The [black] horse of compromise, of Constantine: Pergamos.

Verse 7,

—" [7]And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. [8]And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth"—

The pale horse of death is the Papacy. It is Thyatira.

Verse 9,

—"[9]And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:"—

He saw those people that had been murdered by the Papacy in the 1260 years; and, the Fourth Seal is Thyatira.

In verse 10,

—"[10]And they"—THOSE THAT HAD BEEN MURDERED—"cried with a loud voice, saying, How long,"—

Do all the prophets agree with one another?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All the prophecies have to agree with one another.

Immediately after Thyatira, after the Fourth Seal, there is a question raised, "How long?" The Fifth Seal raises the question, "How long?"

—"[10]And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? [11]And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled." Revelation 6:1-11 (KJV).

And we have looked at two passages where Sister White places the development of this second class of martyrs at The Sunday Law in Revelation 18. Those that were murdered by the Papacy during the Dark Ages are told to rest in their graves until there is another group of martyrs at the end of the world during The Sunday Law crisis that are made up; and, then the Papacy is going to be judged in Revelation 18 double. That is why the Papacy is judged double in Revelation 18; it is for the martyrs for the 1260 and for the martyrs at the end of the world.

But, after the Fourth Seal, after the four Churches, you see the question, "How long?"

You can see these two quotes that I have referenced before, about putting the Sixth Seal in The Sunday Law, in Revelation 18.

Manuscript Releases, volume 20, page 197:

> "'And when he had opened the fifth seal . . . [Revelation 6:9–11]. Here were scenes presented to John that were not in reality but that which would be in a period of time in the future." Manuscript Releases, volume 20, 197.

Manuscript Releases, volume 20, page 14:

> "When the fifth seal was opened, John the Revelator in vision saw beneath the altar the company that were slain for the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. After this came the scenes described in the eighteenth of Revelation, when those who are faithful and true are called out from Babylon. Revelation 18:1–5 quoted." Manuscript Releases, volume 20, 14.

And you can see the reference from James White that we read yesterday, that the first four Churches cover the same history of the first four Seals; but, the last three are teaching a different lesson.

James White, Review and Herald, February 12, 1857:

> "We have now traced the churches, the seals, and the beasts, or living beings, as far as they will compare as covering the same periods of time. . . . Neither do the last three churches, and the last three seals, compare, as covering the same periods of time, as the first four churches, and the first four seals do. But, as we have shown, the churches, seals and beasts do agree, as covering the same periods of time for the space of nearly 1800 years, till we come down to a little more than half a century of the present time." James White, Review and Herald, February 12, 1857.

WALKING TO AND FRO

Zechariah 1:7-11; Zechariah 6:1-8

Now let us go to Zechariah, chapter 1. And the reason we are going to Zechariah is we have seen that the Spirit of Prophecy says that the 70 years of captivity in literal Babylon typified the 1260 years of captivity in spiritual Babylon, and those 1260 years are Thyatira; therefore, the 70 years was Thyatira for Ancient Israel. And after Thyatira for the Christian Church, you have the martyrs under the altar asking the question, "How long until you judge the Papacy for murdering us?"

In Zechariah, chapter 1, beginning in verse 7, it says this,

> "[7]Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, [8]I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse,"—

In the first four Seals we have horses, different colored horses in the first four Seals.

Here we see a horse.

> —"and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white. [9]Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be."—

Okay. He wanted to know what these horses are, right? He asked the question, "What are these horses?"

And the angel said, "I will show you what they are."

What does that mean? For a student of prophecy that means you need to wrap your mind around why Zechariah wanted to understand what those were, so when the angel finally explains to him what they are, you will know what they are.

Verse 10:

> —"[10]And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth."—

So, what are these horses? They are those which the Lord sent to walk to and fro through the Earth.

Verse 11:

> —"[11]And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is"—

Out of control.

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Earth is at rest.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: The earth—

> —"is at rest." Zechariah 1:7-11 (KJV).

Okay. These horses have been sent to and fro in the Earth; and, after they have done their task, the Earth is at rest. Do you see that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: For a second witness, and maybe you do not know what we are witnessing here yet; but, for a first and second witness, let us go there. And maybe after you have seen this second witness, you will know what we are witnessing. All right?

Zechariah 6, beginning in verse 1:

> "[1]And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass."—

How many chariots?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Four.

Where did you get two?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Sorry.

> —"[2]In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses; [3]And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses."—

So, now we have horses of four different colors.

Have we seen that anywhere else? We have seen it in Revelation 6, the first four Seals.

> —"[4]Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?"—

Zechariah is curious.

> —"[5]And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the LORD of all the earth. [6]The black horses which therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country. [7]And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth:"—

These are the same horses, evidently, that we have seen in chapter 1. They are doing the same thing. They are walking to and fro in the Earth. This is the second testimony to chapter 1.

Verse 7 again:

> —"[7]And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. [8]Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country." Zechariah 6:1-8 (KJV).

So, in chapter 1 they make the whole Earth at rest. In chapter 6 they quiet His spirit in the north country. They walk to and fro and, when they are done doing their work walking to and fro, His spirit is quiet.

Go back to Zechariah, chapter 1.

After we see these horses in chapter 1—and what I am suggestion is these horses are the first four Seals. Okay? You can see them real easy in chapter 6: There are four sets of horses. They have a specific work to do, walk to and fro in the Earth. They are going to cause the Earth to be at rest.

But, they are also there in chapter 1. Sometimes it is a little bit more difficult to see in chapter 1. That is why I go to chapter 6 first, to give you a third witness, the first witness being in Revelation 6.

HOW LONG?

Zechariah 1:12-17

But, what happened after the fourth horse in Revelation 6?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Earth was at rest.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Earth was at rest, you can make that application; but, when we read chapter 6 of Revelation, what happened in the Fifth Seal? There is a question raised, marking the Fifth Seal. Right?

So, in chapter 1 of Zechariah, verse 12, it says after verse 11, ". . . all the earth sitteth still and is at rest." Verse 11.

Now, verse 12.

> "[12]Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?"—

What is threescore and ten?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is this right here [indicating the end of 1260//70 years marked at Thyatira in Figure No. 85]. The question is, "How long? You have been punishing Israel for 70 years. How long until you are going to have mercy on them, until you rebuild Jerusalem and bring them out of Babylon?" Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, this 70 years, what is it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The 1260.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, it is the 1260, but what is it?

Well, it is Thyatira, but what is it?

It is the Fourth Seal. Right? It is all these things.

So, verse 13.

> —"[13]And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words. [14]So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy."—

He is going to rebuild Jerusalem—right?—after the 70 years. He is jealous for it. He is going to reestablish Jerusalem.

> —"[15]And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction. [16]Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. [17]Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem." Zechariah 1:12-17 (KJV).

So, after the 70 years He is going to build Jerusalem. We understand that history.

But, go back now. I want you to see something that you saw, but I want to emphasize it now back in verse 12. He has talked about the 70 years of captivity, that they are going to rebuild Jerusalem thereafter; and, in verse 12, "Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, . . ."—WHAT?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "How long?"

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —" . . .How long?"

This is the Fifth Seal for this history, the Fifth Seal for Ancient Israel.

See, Ancient Israel is governed by the Seven Churches of Revelation, just as the Christian Church was governed by the Seven Churches of Revelation.

HOW LONG?

Isaiah 6:11-13; Psalm 74:1-10; 79:5-10; Daniel 8:13; Revelation 6:9-11

Go to Isaiah 6. We have dealt with Isaiah 6 a little in this worship series, but we have dealt with a lot of information in this worship series; so, sometimes I am sure that it does not all click.

Now in Isaiah 6, beginning in verse 11—in Isaiah 6, verse 3, the angels—and Sister White applies verse 3 of Isaiah 6 the same way I am going to apply it—in verse 3 of Isaiah 6 it says,

> "[3]And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory." Isaiah 6:3 (KJV).

This is Revelation 18. Sister White says so. It is in your notes previously.

So, in Isaiah 6, you have Isaiah representing God's people at the end of the world when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends, and we know he is purified and prepared to give a message. And once he realizes that he has to give a message to a church that is in apostasy, because the Lord just told him, "You are going to go to a people that seeing won't see, and hearing won't hear. They are a rebellious people, unless they would turn and be converted," when he realizes that is his job assignment, then in verse 11 he says,

> "[11]Then said I, Lord, how long?"—

"How long?" Right here [see note above end waymark of Thyatira and beginning of Sardis in Figure No. 85]: And the "How long?" for Isaiah is identified as, "You are going to continue to give this message until the desolation of Jerusalem takes place at The Sunday Law."

> —"And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, [12]And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land. [13]But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof." Isaiah 6:11-13 (KJV).

This "How long?" is always the same question throughout Scripture. For Isaiah, "You have to give the final warning message to the Seventh-day Adventist Church until the Church is purified at The Sunday Law."

And when the Church is purified at The Sunday Law, the Lord is going to raise up an ensign, and that ensign is going to be modern Zion that has been rebuilt and reestablished. That is Zechariah.

But, modern Israel, it is in disarray at the end of the world.

Where is it? It is in captivity. It is in the wilderness.

What wilderness? It is in William Miller's wilderness, the seven times scattering.

The Lord is going to raise up a people out of darkness like He does every time. Every Reform Movement is preceded by a time period of Darkness, a wilderness time period, a scattering time period. And from that scattering time period the Lord will raise up Jerusalem. He will build it.

The 70 years, was Jerusalem destroyed?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, for Zechariah, the question is, "How long until you rebuild Jerusalem?"

For Isaiah, "For how long do I have to give this message to Adventism?"

"Until you rebuild Jerusalem at The Sunday Law"; because, at The Sunday Law He is going to lift up a people like a crown, like an ensign. Jerusalem is going to be the City that all nations flow into.

We have looked at Psalm 74 before, and Psalm 79[7] before. Both of those places in Psalm you will find the question, "How long?"

Psalm 74:1-10:

> "[1]O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture? [2]Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt. [3]Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary. [4]Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs. [5]A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees. [6]But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers. [7]They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. [8]They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

[7] Corrects misstatement of Psalm 75 to Psalm 79 in DVD at 00:30:15.

> [9]We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long. [10]O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?" Psalm 74:1-10 (KJV).

Psalm 79:5-10

> "[5]How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?
> [6]Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name. [7]For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place. [8]O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low. [9]Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake. [10]Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed." Psalm 79:5-10 (KJV).

But, Daniel 8:13.

If you cannot grasp the significance that the question "How long?" is the same question every time, then you are not really, probably, believing or understanding that all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world and you have to get that concept in your head. And once it is in your head, you realize that every time you see "How long?" it is the same question; and, therefore, each time the question is raised, it is giving another component to this thought.

And in Daniel 8:13, it says,

> "[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long [HOW LONG] shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice~~, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" Daniel 8:13 (KJV).

Was Adventism trodden underfoot? Yeah, William Miller's dream. It was trodden underfoot. It has been scattered.

And what is Daniel 8 talking about, with the question, "How long?" It is talking about reestablishing Jerusalem, the sanctuary.

And, what else?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Establishing the host.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Reestablishing the host, because they have both been trodden down.

So, when does it get reestablished? At The Sunday Law.

It is always the same question and answer.

Go back to Psalm 74, just to give you one more line, if you are not familiar with this. Psalm 74; we went over this before.

Beginning in verse 1:

> "[1]O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?"—

That is Adventism, right? We are the sheep of His pasture.

—"[2]Remember thy congregation,"—

We are His congregation.

—"which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt."—

We are Mount Zion in Scripture.
Verse 3:

—"[3]Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations;"—

All the prophets are speaking about the end of the world. What was the perpetual desolations in Adventism? It was William Miller's dream.

—"even all that the enemy hath done wickedly"—WHERE?—"in the sanctuary."—

The sanctuary of Adventism gets covered up by those "wicked feet." That is what Miller had in his dream, those wicked feet that trod the precious jewels.

—"[4]Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs. [5]A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees. [6]But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers."—

They are breaking down the sanctuary.

—"[7]They have cast fire into thy sanctuary,"—

Sister White says many will stand with the torch of false prophecy in the pulpits of Adventism.

—"[7]They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. [8]They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land. [9]We see not our signs:"—

The Old Paths, the waymarks are gone.

—"[9]We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet:"—

We pass a resolution in the General Conference Session saying we are only—we cannot use the writings of the Spirit of Prophecy for faith and practice; and, if you cannot use them for faith and practice, what can you use them for? There is no longer any prophet. The Spirit of Prophecy has been removed, and the last deception of Satan is to make of none effect the Spirit of Prophecy.

—"neither is there among us any that knoweth how long."—

Nobody understands the message of "How long?"

And what is the message of "How long?" The message of "How long?" is how long until The Sunday Law. That is what Isaiah wanted to know, how long until The Sunday Law. And where do we find out how long The Sunday Law is? Where do we find that out?

You may not understand it yet, but you find it out in the last six verses of Daniel 11. "But none knoweth that anymore," that is what Sister White says in The Great Controversy: "Multitudes have no more an understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed." No one knows how long until The Sunday Law.

No one understands that we are living in the history of Daniel 11, verse 40; and, the next thing to happen is verse 41, which is The Sunday Law in the United States. And because they do not know that, they do not know that this is the last moment of time to prepare their character for the Seal of God or they are going to receive the mark of the beast. They do not know that.

Why? Because an enemy has come into the sanctuary and burned it with fire and trampled it underfoot and tore it down with axes. That is not me; that is the prophetic word.

So, anyway, the question is "How long?"

> —"[10]O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?" Psalm 74:1-10 (KJV).

Revelation 6:9-11:

> "[9]And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: [10]And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? [11]And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled." Revelation 6:9-11 (KJV).

THE LORD WILL CHOOSE ISRAEL

Zechariah 1:17; Isaiah 14:1-7

In Zechariah that we are dealing with is this question, "How long?" [referring to Figure No. 85 on the whiteboard]. It is marking the arrival of the Fifth Seal for Ancient Israel, which means that now we have got a reference to Sardis and a reference to Thyatira for Ancient Israel.

And why was it that God's people were carried into captivity for 70 years in Babylon? Why was it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They never let the land rest.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It was from Israel participating in the worship of Paganism, right? That is Pergamos. That is Constantine; Constantine is a symbol of mixing the true religion with the false religion. What leads them into Thyatira is Constantine. It is the mingling that took place in this history [of Pergamos].

This here, Smyrna, the persecution, that is the time period of the Judges.

And Ephesus, when they were victorious, that is the time period of coming out of Egypt, bringing down Jericho. This is Ephesus for Ancient Israel.

Go to Zechariah 1:17.

You know, some of us have studied—I mean, as far as I know, those people that are publicly teaching this prophetic message (probably all of them, but at least the majority of them), they teach this very truth that we are teaching here; because, this message sometimes is summarized as the Message of the Little Book. And the Little Book is the Bible; but, the Bible becomes the Little Book because this approach to prophetic application lets you take every passage of the Bible and line it up on the last six verses of Daniel 11, and in this sense it becomes a Little Book.

So, I am sure that everyone that is publicly presenting this message addresses this particular teaching that we are dealing with here this morning and yesterday. So, for those of you in this room, or those of you who are watching LiveStream, once again this may be a redundant presentation. We have been doing some of those along the way.

But, I tell you what, it is unfortunate that if we get to this study that we are doing here and we somehow get so used to this study that we are unable to remember how profound this is the first time you recognized it, that the whole Bible is illustrated on the last six verses of Daniel 11. That is more than amazing! It is more than amazing!

So, if we are going through this and it is kind of like, "Okay. B follows A, which is followed by C and then comes D. All right. If you have studied this before, sobeit." But, if you get to the point that you do not recognize that this understanding is something that only the Dirt Brush Man, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, could open up to the minds of human beings, then you are missing the point: This truth is something that Christ is presenting to His people at this time.

In Zechariah 1:17, it says,

> "[17]Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem." Zechariah 1:17 (KJV).

Jerusalem is going to be chosen for the final time at The Sunday Law. Okay? And then Jerusalem is going to be lifted up and the eleventh-hour laborers are going to come stand in Jerusalem with the ensign. The Lord is going to choose Jerusalem.

But, back here in this history [of Sardis], He was choosing Jerusalem again and He was bringing them out of Babylon to build Jerusalem.

Go to Isaiah 14:1-7. We still have not answered one question that we raised, probably several questions that we raised but we will try to answer this one. Isaiah 14, beginning at verse 1.

Now, notice that Isaiah is talking about choosing Jerusalem, too, just like Zechariah was in verse 17 of Zechariah, chapter 1.

What does it mean "to choose Jerusalem"? That is the city; that is God's city.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The bride.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The bride.

First verse of Isaiah 14:

"[1]For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob."—

What is that? Is that the same story?

He is going to choose Israel. That is Seventh-day Adventists, is it not?

But "strangers," who is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the Gentiles. That is the eleventh-hour workers. Those are the other sheep that He has that when they hear His voice, they shall come.

This is choosing Jerusalem, but it is saying it in a different way. But it is choosing Jerusalem.

Verse 2:

—"[2]And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. [3]And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,"—

This is talking about them being in bondage and captivity [gestures to the Church of Thyatira in Figure No. 85], and the Lord is going to reverse that captivity and make those that were ruling over them in submission to them [those being in bondage and captivity]—this is spiritual submission—when He chooses Jerusalem again, when He chooses Israel.

Verse 4:

—"[4]That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!"—

So now it is being specific. This is about their time period in Babylon. It is about when He is going to end the captivity in Babylon. Right?

Verse 5:

—"[5]The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers. [6]He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth. [7]The whole earth is"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At rest.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing." Isaiah 14:1-7 (KJV).

Ahh, when is the whole earth at rest, and is quiet? Well, it is at the end of the 70 years.

What did those four horses do? They went and walked to and fro into the Earth, and what did they cause to happen? The Earth to be at rest. They came to a conclusion right here [indicating the waymark between Thyatira and Sardis as depicted in Figure No. 85].

These four chariots in Zechariah 6, these horses in Zechariah 1, these horses in Revelation 6 is this history here [indicating the first four of the Seven Churches]; and, when you get to the conclusion of the 70 years, or the 1260 years, or the scattering of William Miller, the Lord is going to choose Jerusalem. At that point the Earth is at rest.

So, I hope you see this. Ancient Israel is governed by the Seven Churches of Revelation, chapters 2 and 3.

THE FOUR SCATTERING HORNS

Zechariah 1:19-20; Jeremiah 50:17-18

Okay. Back to Zechariah, chapter 1, verses 19 and 20, and let us start in verse 18. We are going to need to start in verse 18 to understand what he saw.

> "[18]Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns."—

Zechariah sees four horns.

> —"[19]And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these [FOUR HORNS]? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."— (KJV).

Okay. These are the powers that scattered them in the 70 years; during the 1260 years; during William Miller's dream.

All the other scatterings are typified in the Scriptures as well, because all the prophecies are speaking about the end of the world, telling the same story.

Verse 20:

> "[20]And the LORD shewed me four carpenters. [21]Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the [FOUR] horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them,"—

What are coming to fray thee horns?

What does it mean to fray? Chop down, cut them up.

What is coming to fray these horns that scattered Israel?

> —"but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it." Zechariah 1:18-21

There are four carpenters. What is a carpenter?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: One who builds.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: One who builds, but who is the Carpenter in the Scriptures?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. These are four symbols of Christ that bring back God's people, put them back in Jerusalem; build Jerusalem.

I am passing over Jeremiah 50:17-18.

> "[17]Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones. [18]Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria." Jeremiah 50:17-18 (KJV).

We will go back to that.

THE LORD RESTORING HIS PEOPLE

In the Spirit of Prophecy, Prophets and Kings, pages 580 – 581, it says.

> "Zechariah then saw the powers that had 'scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem,' symbolized by four horns. Immediately afterward he saw four carpenters, representing the agencies used by the Lord in restoring His people and the house of His worship. See verses 18−21."—

What were the agencies that were used to bring them out of Babylon to rebuild Jerusalem and the sanctuary, and the streets and the wall? It was these Pagan kings that passed what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Four decrees.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: [Holding up four fingers]: Four decrees. It is the 3:1 combination.

Continuing on with the Spirit of Prophecy:

> —"'I lifted up mine eyes again,' Zechariah said, 'and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand."—

When He is going to rebuild Jerusalem, you see a man with a measuring line.

Did John in Revelation 11 see a man with a measuring line?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It would be the same man, doing the same thing. The prophets all saw the same vision.

> —"'I lifted up mine eyes again,'"—

Speaking of the carpenters that come to restore Jerusalem.

> —"Zechariah said, 'and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, and said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein: for I, saith the Lord, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.' Zechariah 2:1−5.

"God had commanded that Jerusalem be rebuilt; the vision of the measuring of the city was an assurance that He would give comfort and strength to His afflicted ones, and fulfill to them the promises of His everlasting covenant. His protecting care, He declared, would be like 'a wall of fire round about;' and through them His glory would be revealed to all the sons of men. That which He was accomplishing for His people was to be known in all the earth."—

"In all the Earth," when does that happen?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That would be in Revelation 18.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 18: The Earth is going to be lightened with His glory.

—"'Cry out and shout,'"—

What is this here? The Loud Cry.

—"'thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.' Isaiah 12:6." Prophets and Kings, 580−581.

FOUR CARPENTERS

Zechariah 1:20-21

"[20]And the LORD shewed me four carpenters. [21]Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it." Zechariah 1:20-21 (KJV).

THREE DECREES

But, we are seeing this story about our day and age back here in this history of Sardis for Ancient Israel, the Fifth Seal for Ancient Israel, I their work of rebuilding Jerusalem with the man stretching the line. And the agencies which the Lord used to accomplish that work were the Three Decrees.

And you can see the three Decrees, followed by the fourth Decree of Nehemiah in your notes.

The Great Controversy, page 326:

"In the seventh chapter of Ezra the decree is found. Verses 12−26. In its completest form it was issued by Artaxerxes, king of Persia, 457 B.C. But in Ezra 6:14 the house of the Lord at Jerusalem is said to have been built 'according to the commandment ['decree,' margin] of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.' These three kings, in originating, reaffirming, and completing the decree, brought it to the perfection required by the prophecy to mark the beginning of the 2300 years. Taking 457 B.C., the time when the decree was completed, as the date of the commandment, every specification of the prophecy concerning the seventy weeks was seen to have been fulfilled." The Great Controversy, 326.

So, that is what we are saying, is that these three Decrees are prefiguring the Three Angels' Messages, which are testing God's people at this time. When the third Decree arrives, Judgment arrives. The third Decree, the third test for us today is The Sunday Law, at which point the Law will be lifted up before the world. The streets and walls will be finished even in troublous times.

MEASURING JERUSALEM

Zechariah 2:1-13; Revelation 11:1-2

Zechariah 2:1-13:

[Sounding of thunder outside of the meeting hall.]

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Praise the Lord for the thunder. Bring on the rain.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible affirmations).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "[1] I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. [2]Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof."—

Let us drop forward because we just read that from the Spirit of Prophecy, and take it up in verse 6.

— [3]And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, [4]And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein: [5]For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her."—

Sister White did not read verse 6, so we will take it up in verse 6.

—[6]Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD. [7]Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon."—

When does that take place? The Sunday Law: "Come out of her my people."

—"[8]For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. [9]For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

"[10]Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD. [11]And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou > shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee. [12]And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again."—

That is The Sunday Law.

> —"[13]Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation." Zechariah 2:1-13 (KJV).

What happens when the Lord stands up? It is a change of dispensation. We have looked at that before. This is marking the close of probation for Seventh-day Adventists, if we apply it to the end of the world.

But, what we are looking at here more specifically is the measuring of Jerusalem being a symbol of when Jerusalem is rebuilt after their 70 years of captivity, and it is prefiguring the building of Jerusalem that took place in the Millerite History.

In Revelation 11, starting at verse 1, it says:

> "[1]And there was given me a reed"—

Now, who is this? This is John.

And in the previous verses, and there is no chapter distinctions in the original writings of the Book of Revelation. In the previous verses, John has gone and taken the Little Book out of the Angel's hands and he ate it. It was sweet in his mouth and became bitter in his stomach.

And then in verse 11 of chapter 10, it says, "And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings," telling John, as representing the Millerites, that the history of the Millerites will have to be repeated again.

But, then in verse 1 of Revelation 11, it says,

> —"[1]And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. [2]But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months." Revelation 11:1-2 (KJV).

John here in the Millerite History is what? He is building Jerusalem. He is marking that the Lord is once again choosing Jerusalem, entering into covenant with modern Israel. He is told to measure the worshippers therein.

What does the measuring represent? It represents more than one thing. Usually I emphasize something different than I am going to emphasize today.

ALL WILL BE TESTED

Testimonies, volume 7, page 219, says,

> "All who occupy positions in our institutions will be tested. If they will make Christ their pattern, He will give them wisdom and knowledge and understanding; they will grow in grace and aptitude in Christ's way; their characters will be molded after His similitude. If they fail of keeping the way of > the Lord, another spirit will control the mind and judgment, and they will plan without the Lord and will take their own course and leave the positions they have occupied. The light has been given them; if they depart from it, let no man present a bribe to induce them to remain. They will be a hindrance and a snare. The time has come when everything is to be shaken that can be shaken, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain."—

And in Zechariah 2 it was talking about the shaking.

> —"Every case is coming in review before God; He is measuring the temple and the worshipers therein." Testimonies, volume 7, 219.

So, in this sense, when John is measuring the Temple, it is identifying that on October 22, 1844, Judgment began. It means other things, but the measuring has to do with Judgment.

THE PLUMMET OF THE HOUSE OF AHAB

2 Kings 21:10-13

Go to 2 Kings 21, starting at verse 10. We want to look at a place that is a symbol in the Scriptures that has to do with Judgment, with measuring; and, it is only mentioned three times.

Beginning in verse 10 of 2 Kings 21, it says,

> "[10]And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying, [11]Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols: [12]Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle. [13]I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down." 2 Kings 21:10-13 (KJV).

When He is stretching this line over Jerusalem, we have already identified it represents Judgment. He is saying that He is going to judge Judah, the Southern Kingdom, with the line of Ahab, with Samaria, the Northern Kingdom.

What was the judgment that was delivered upon the Northern Kingdom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It was the 2520.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It was the 2520.

He says, "The Northern Kingdom was carried into captivity for seven times; and, now, because of the sins of Manasseh, it is going to happen to the Southern Kingdom."

And what is the symbol of this judgment process, judgment in this passage? You will find it in verse 13. It is the plummet of the house of Ahab, and this plummet is only mentioned three times in the Scriptures; and, it is mentioned in connection with judgment, with the stretching of the line.

Okay. Let us look at the other place where we can see this plummet.

Isaiah 28:14-18

Isaiah 28, verses 14 through 18. This should be familiar ground to us in this worship series by now. We have dealt with this more than once.

But, what I am saying is, when the man is measuring the city, judgment is taking place. And the judgment that was measured upon Judah was the same judgment that was measured upon Samaria; and, the symbol of this judgment is the plummet, the plummet.

And in Isaiah 28, starting at verse 14, it says,

> "[14]Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem."—

And in Testimonies, volume 5, page 211, Sister White tells us that Jerusalem at the end of the world is the Seventh-day Adventist Church. So, verse 14 is talking about the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of the world.

Verse 15 says,

> —"[15]Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through,"—

Now, Brothers and Sisters, do not forget this term, "the overflowing scourge."

The overflowing, does overflowing have something to do with dirt? with flowers? It has to do with water. The overflowing scourge is a symbol that is connected with the River Euphrates. It has to do with the King of the North. The overflowing scourge in the Scriptures is The Sunday Law.

But, I want you to remember overflowing; because, when we start to take apart Daniel 11:40, the King of the North is going to overflow and pass over. It is one of his characteristics.

Okay. Verse 15:

> —"[15]Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: [16]Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste."—

Right here [referring to the 1843 Chart], this is what is going to test them, those scornful men that ruled Jerusalem. It is the cornerstone; it is the Rock of Ages. This is a stumbling stone. You either fall on this and are broken or it is going to fall on you and it is going to crush you.

We have already dealt with this, but notice the next verse.

> —"[17]Judgment also will I lay to the line,"—

What is "laying to the line" represent? Judgment.

> —"[17]Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To the plummet.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The plummet. This is the second time we find the plummet.

The plummet has something to do with the Judgment; but, now we know that the plummet of Judgment that is brought against these scornful men that rule Jerusalem has something to do with the Foundations of Adventism. Do we not? Is that not what it is saying?

> —"[17]Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place."—

There is The Sunday Law.

> —"[18]And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it." Isaiah 28:14-18 (KJV).

Zechariah 4

The plummet is also referenced in Zechariah, chapter 4. Go to Zechariah, chapter 4. This is the last place the plummet is referenced.

We will go through this fairly quickly. We are out of time, and I still have to conclude this [referencing the timeline of the Seven Churches on the whiteboard].

Verse 1:

> "[1]And the angel that talked with me [ZECHARIAH] came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep."—

Zachariah here is representing God's people that wake up at the Midnight Cry.

Verse 2:

> —"[2]And [THE ANGEL] said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof: [3]And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. [4]So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? [5]Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord."—

Zachariah is representing the Millerites here that wake up at the Midnight Cry in the summer of 1844 and then realize they do not know what the Sanctuary is. They do not know what the seven-branch candlestick is.

Zachariah is representing Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world that wake up at the Midnight Cry at the end of the world and do not realize that the seven-branch candlestick represents the Latter Rain. They do not know what the Latter Rain is. They do not know what the work of the Holy Spirit is.

Verse 6:

> —"[6] Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This"—WHAT?—"This [CANDLESTICK] This is the word of the LORD"—

The Latter Rain is a message. It is the Word of the Lord.

> —"unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts."—

The Latter Rain is the Word of the Lord. It is represented by the candlestick. Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world do not know that. The Millerites did not know the furnishing of the heavenly Sanctuary because they thought the Sanctuary was the Earth.

Zachariah is representing the beginning and the ending of Adventism, just like John was in Revelation 10.

ZERUBBABEL, the name means out of Babylon, offspring of Babylon.

The beginning of Adventism was established upon the power of the Midnight Cry, the Second Angel's Message, which is "Come out of Babylon." And the end of Adventism is established in the power of Revelation 18, "Come out of Babylon."

Zerubbabel is the beginning and the end of Adventism. It is the final gathering that was represented by the gathering in 1844.

Verse 7:

> —"[7]Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain:"—

And Sister White tells us thee mountains are the difficulties that will be swept away.

> —"and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it."—

Zerubbabel is going to put the headstone—what is the headstone? That is the final stone [gesturing that the headstone is the last stone placed on top]. And Zerubbabel is going to put the foundation on. Zerubbabel represents the beginning and the end of Adventism.

> —"before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, and grace unto it. [8]Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [9]The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house;"—

Millerite History.

—"his hands shall also finish it;"—

Our history.

> —"and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. [10]For who hath despised the day of small things?"—

There is the day of small things. There is the day of small things [referencing the 1843 Chart].

Who is despised in the Millerite History when all this began? Well, there is a group in Adventism that refused to return to those Old Paths. They despised the day of small things.

> —"for they shall rejoice,"—

The other group is going to rejoice.

> —"and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven;"—

What is the plummet? Well, it is a symbol of Judgment. It is a symbol of measuring. And there is going to be a group that despised the Foundations of Adventism (the day of small things); but, there is going to be another group that is going to rejoice when they see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven.

Wow! That word seven just happens to be the identical Hebrew word that is translated as seven times in Leviticus 26. What is that plummet? They see the 2520.

> —"they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth."—

Who runs to and fro through the whole Earth? It is the work of God. It is the work of God.

> —"[11]Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? [12]And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? [13]And he answered me and said,"—

"You don't know what these are?"

Zechariah is not representing himself. He is representing the Millerites; he is representing us.

> —"Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. [14]Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the LORD of the whole earth." Zechariah 4 (KJV).

Seventh-day Adventists, the Millerites, they do not understand the Heavenly Sanctuary in their day and age. We do not understand.

We do not understand the two anointed ones.

How many times have I had been confronted with these theologians and these pastors, "Sola scriptura, Brother! Sister White says we are not supposed to use her writings."

"Well, Brother, you do not understand that the Spirit that inspired the Spirit of Prophecy is the identical Spirit that inspired the Bible. They are both the anointed ones."

The people that are identified as the remnant in the Book of Revelation, they have the testimony of Jesus Christ. They do not give it lip service; they have it!

These are the two anointed ones that Adventism does not understand: the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy.

So, enough sermonizing. Let us bring this to a conclusion.

SUMMARY

What we are saying is that the history of Ancient Israel is repeated in our history. We read that right off at the beginning. We did not have to do any more. We could have read that and quit early today. Sister White says so.

But, we can show that the history of Ancient Israel is governed—and there is more to do with this study that we are not doing, by the way. Ancient Israel is governed by the history of the Seven Churches.

And we showed yesterday that the history of the Seven Churches is all fulfilled in Laodicea.

So, what we are saying is, the history of Ancient Israel, that is the Old Testament; and the history of the Christian Church is the New Testament. It is all repeated in our history.

And our history, our history is a repetition of the Millerite History, of course.

So, what we are saying is, when the Lion of the tribe of Judah unseals the message of Daniel 11, verse 40, that this history down here to Daniel 12:1 when Michael stands up, that this history is the history of Laodicea. And on these verses the entire Bible is structured.

So, when we are talking about the Dirt Brush Man coming in, in 1989, and unsealing the Book of Daniel (Daniel 11:40), and beginning to sweep out the garbage from Adventism, we are talking about an unsealing that is just profound.

And in the history of verse 40, which begins in 1798, it goes all the way to verse 41, which is The Sunday Law. So, in this history, on 9/11 you had the Mighty Angel come down of Revelation 18, and empowered a message that was taken to the Protestants until they closed their doors in 1842.

In verse 42, the Papacy conquers the world; and, then the world is tested, until probation closes.

Am I getting you confused?

This [verse 40] is 1840.

This is verses 41 and 42: This is 1841 and 1842.

This is the first temple cleansing here [1840 to 1842]; the second temple cleansing goes right down to here [Daniel 12:1]. The second temple cleansing in the history of the Millerites was 1843 and 1844, which is verse 43 and verse 44; because "at that time" in verses 42 and 43 probation closes. Michael stands up [Daniel 12:1] in these histories, just as He stood up in 1844.

Did I lose you?

Brothers and Sisters, this is just one example that the whole Bible is structured on the last six verses of Daniel 11. And this is a study all into itself.

But, what are we doing here? We are trying to emphasize that in 1989 the Dirt Brush Man arrived, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, unsealed the Book of Daniel and an increase of knowledge began to test Seventh-day Adventists. And so far it looks like Seventh-day Adventists are greatly failing the test.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be awakened as was Zechariah, as were the Millerites; but, we want to understand the things that you present to us when we are awakened. We want to understand the increase of knowledge. We want to participate in the work of the Dirt Brush Man. We want to be among those that lead God's people back to the Old Paths, that work to uncover the genuine jewels, the genuine coin. We thank you for allowing us to see a glimpse of this truth that you are opening to the world, and we ask a blessing upon the work that we are attempting to do here with the DVDs and the LiveStreaming. We set before you this day of work that we each have and ask a blessing upon on our service to you and ask for you to keep us safe. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #44

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together this morning. We thank you for resolving the LiveStreaming problem. We ask as we take up our study this morning that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit and that you let us have the discernment to recognize the significance of Daniel 11 and verse 40. We want you to take control of our minds, our hearts that we can understand what you have for us and that the message presented would be from on High and not from a human being. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. We ask that you accomplish that for us at this time. In Jesus's name, amen.

THE KINGS OF THE NORTH AND SOUTH

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Do you know who Malachi Martin is? He is dead, but he is a Jesuit and he was a spokesman for the last Pope; and this is probably his most famous book, The Keys of This Blood.

I have not busted out this book for years now, but it is marked up all the way through. We used to spend a lot of time dealing with what he said. But, I want to start with his introduction here to The Keys of This Blood.

The Keys of This Blood is about a three-way race to take control of the world between the United States, the Soviet Union, and the Papacy; and, his premise is that the Papacy is going to win; and, the United States, the Soviet Union, and the Papacy are the three powers that are in Daniel 11, verse 40. And that is what we are going to look at this morning.

And the Papacy understood this struggle over verse 40.

The "Introduction" to The Keys of This Blood, by Martin Malachi:

> "Willing or not, ready or not, we are all involved in an all-out, no-holds-barred, three-way global competition. Most of us are not competitors, however. We are the stakes. For the competition is about who will establish the first one-world system of government that has ever existed in the society of nations. It is about who will hold and fill the dual power of authority and control over each of us as individuals and over all of us together as a community; over the entire six billion people expected by demographers to inhabit the Earth early in the third millennium.
> "The competition is all out because, now that it has started, there is no way it can be reversed or called off.
> "No holds are barred because, once the competition has been decided, the world and all that's in it—our way of life as individuals and as citizens of the nations; our families and our jobs; our trades and commerce our money; our educational system and our religions and our cultures; even the badges of our national identities, which most of us have always taken for granted—all will have > been powerfully and radically altered forever. No one can be exempted from its effect. No sector of our lives will remain untouched.

> "The competition began and continues as a three-way affair because that is the number of rivals with sufficient resources to establish and maintain a new world order.
> "Nobody who is acquainted with the plans of these three rivals has any doubt but that one of them can win. Each expects the other two to be overwhelmed and swallowed up by the coming maelstrom of change. That being the case, it would appear inescapable that their competition will end up as a confrontation." Malachi Martin, The Keys of This Blood, introductory paragraphs of "The Servant of the Grand Design," p. 15.

So, he goes through and explains why he thinks in this three-way power struggle the Pope of Rome is going to end up in control of the New World Order, that the Pope of Rome is going to defeat the Soviet Union and the United States.

In Daniel 11:40, it is dealing with those same three powers; and, Malachi Martin was viewing verse 40 from the perspective of Catholicism.

Now, you go to Daniel 11, verse 40, we have said already in these worship studies that verse 40 is one of the most profound verses in God's Word. And I am not promoting Christmas or birthday presents. In fact, I read a passage from the Spirit of Prophecy within the past week; and, I do not remember the words; this is just a broad paraphrase. Ellen White said something to the effect that "Those that want to send me," speaking of herself, Ellen White, "birthday presents, you need to understand that I am just going to pass them on to mission work." She was just being out front, "Give me a birthday present, that's fine; but, I am going to put it in the mission work."

And, we certainly do not want to be worshipping Tammuz; but, that being said, we all know about Christmas presents and birthday presents. And the very best present, perhaps, just to make a point, is when you are in the military. When you are in the military and you are overseas and you get a present for Christmas, or whatever, even for your birthday, it is a box and what it is, it has got a present from your Mom, it has got a present from your Dad. It has got several presents in that one box. It has got a present from your niece, a present from your nephew; and, as you open it up, you know, there are the cookies from Mom, and there is the joke gift from your brother, and there is the picture of your little niece; and, you have gotten all these gifts, several of them, all in one box. There is nothing better than that; better than one present.

Daniel 11, verse 40 is like that. There are presents, jewels, gem after gem in this verse. So, I am just telling you that when we deal with verse 40 today, all we are doing is taking the ribbon off the package. We will be in verse 40, the Lord willing, for a long time. And the things that are in verse 40, they are truly amazing. And there is no way that all the things in verse 40 have been recognized yet.

So, verse 40 is talking about a three-way struggle between, as Malachi Martin said, the Papacy, the United States, and the Soviet Union. And the Papacy, and the United States, and the Soviet Union are the beast, the dragon, and the false prophet of Revelation 16 that lead the world to Armageddon. And verse 45 in Daniel 11 is Armageddon.

So, verse 40 of Daniel 11 is opening up the story about how the beast, dragon, and false prophet lead the world to Armageddon; and, that is the kinds of truths that are in there. But, you have to define these symbols in order to see it, and that is where we are going to begin.

In verse 40 of Daniel 11, it says,

> "[40]And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40 (KJV).

We need to define the King of the North and the King of the South.

We have already ready referenced Uriah Smith's book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, is God's helping hand; and, in your notes you will see where Uriah Smith is commenting on verse 5 of Daniel 11. He quotes verse 5 and then he says this—this is from page 249 of his book:

> "'VERSE 5. And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.'
>
> "The king of the north and the king of the south are many times referred to in the remaining portion of this chapter."—CHAPTER 11—"It therefore becomes essential to an understanding of the prophecy clearly to identify these powers. When Alexander's empire was divided, the different portions lay toward the four winds of heaven, west, north, east, and south; these divisions of course to be reckoned from the standpoint of Palestine, the native land of the prophet. That division of the empire lying west of Palestine would thus constitute the kingdom of the west; that lying north, the kingdom of the north; that lying east, the kingdom of the east; and that lying south the kingdom of the south. The divisions of Alexander's kingdom with respect to Palestine were situated as follows: Cassander had Greece and the adjacent countries, which lay to the west; Lysimachus had Thrace, which then included Asia Minor, and the countries lying on the Hellespont and Bosphorus, which lay to the north of Palestine; Seleucus had Syria and Babylon, which lay principally to the east; and Ptolemy had Egypt and the neighboring countries, which lay to the south.
> "During the wars and revolutions which for long ages succeeded, these geographical boundaries were frequently changed or obliterated; old ones were wiped out, and new ones instituted. But whatever changes might occur, these first divisions of the empire must determine the names which these portions of territory should ever afterward bear, or we have no standard by which to test the application of the prophecy: that is, whatever power at any time should occupy the territory which at first constituted the kingdom of the north, that power, so long as it occupied that territory, would be the king of the north; and whatever power should occupy that which at first constituted the kingdom of the south, that power would so long be the king of the south. We speak of only these two, because they are the only ones afterward spoken of in the prophecy, and because, in fact, almost the whole of Alexander's empire finally resolved itself into these two divisions." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 249.

So, what we are saying is—this is the map that we are dealing with—is that the power up here that controls the North is the King of the North, and the power that controls Egypt is the King of the South; and, this will carry on all the way through Daniel 11.

Daniel 11 is the only place you are going to see a war between the King of the North and the King of the South in God's Word. So, the internal rule of definition of who is the King of the North and the King of the South has to be marked, has to be located in Daniel 11. That is what Uriah Smith was saying.

BEFORE AND AFTER THE TIME PERIOD OF THE CROSS

Isaiah 43:9-12; 46:5-10; 44:1-8; 41:4; Galatians 4:22-26; 3:6-9, 26-29; Romans 2:28-29; 1 Corinthians 15:42-47

Now, there is a trick or a rule, something you have to understand if you are going to deal with verse 40. Verse 40 says, "And at the time of the end," and we have already identified that is 1798 in a previous worship; but, 1798, the King of the South and the King of the North must be understood as spiritual entities because there is a rule in Bible prophecy—some people say it is the most important rule—and that rule is that prophecy that is fulfilled before the time period of the cross is to be understood in its literal application, and prophecy that is fulfilled after the time period of the cross is to be understood in its spiritual application. And this rule will show you from God's Word, if you go to Isaiah 43:9-12, it says,

> "[9]Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth. [10]Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. [11]I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour. [12]I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God." Isaiah 43:9-12 (KJV).

So, in this passage of Isaiah, the Lord is saying, "Gather all nations together. We are going to show you who is God, who is the Savior by the demonstration of the former things."

Go to Isaiah 46:5-10.

> "[5]To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? [6]They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship. [7]They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble. [8]Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors. [9]Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me, [10]Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure." Isaiah 46:5-10 (KJV).

The Lord here is contrasting Himself with idolatry, and He is saying what proof that He is God is that He illustrates the end from the beginning. The former things illustrate the end. And this is the biggest argument in God's Word about proving who God is: He is the One that identifies the end of the world by the former things, and He says we are to be witnesses of this very fact.

Isaiah 44:1-8:

> "[1]Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen: [2] Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen. [3] For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring: [4] And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses. [5] One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel. [6] Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

> [7] And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them. [8] Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any." Isaiah 44:1-8 (KJV).

Once again He is identifying that He is God because He declares the end from the beginning, and He says that we are to be witnesses of this principle, of this fact; but, in accomplishing the work of declaring the end of the world from the former things, He says He has appointed the "ancient people."

The ancient people in the Old Testament are what illustrate the end of the world. Isaiah 41:4 says,

> "[4]Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first and with the last; I am he." Isaiah 41:4 (KJV).

So, the proof that God is God, in contrast with idolatry, the thing that we are to witness to at the end of the world is that Jesus is the God that illustrates the end of the world from the beginning of the world; and, the ancient people in the beginning of the world illustrate the people at the end of the world. And once you understand that, then you just have to understand that those literal people at the beginning of the world are prefiguring their spiritual fulfillment at the end; and, that is the rule about before the time period of the cross is literal, and after the time period of the cross is spiritual.

The spokesman for this rule probably is Paul. If you go to Galatians, Galatians, chapter 4, beginning at verse 22, it says,

> "[22]For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. [23]But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. [24]Which things are an allegory: for these are two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. [25]For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. [26]But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all." Galatians 4:22-26 (KJV).

Here Paul is identifying two Jerusalems: literal Jerusalem, which is still there; but, he is living in the time period of the cross and he is identifying spiritual Jerusalem, which is above. He is saying that the true Jerusalem of prophecy in his time period is Jerusalem, which is above, which is free.

Look at Galatians 3, verses 6 through 9:

> "[6]Even as Abraham BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS ACCOUNTED TO HIM FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS. [7]Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham."—

That they which are of faith are the children of Abraham, not those that are blood descendants of Abraham.

Verse 8:

> —"[8]And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. [9]So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham." Galatians 3:6-9 (KJV).

So, here, the seed of Abraham, after the time period of the cross, is based upon a spiritual relationship, not a blood relationship.

Look at verse 26 of the same chapter.

> "[26]For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. [27]For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. [28]There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. [29]And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." Galatians 3:26-29 (KJV).

It is not literal descendants of Abraham. Now it is spiritual descendants of Abraham after the time period of the cross.

Romans 2: 28-29:

> "[28]For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: [29]But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God." Romans 2:28-29 (KJV).

From literal to spiritual, the time period of the cross.

1 Corinthians 15:42-47, says,

> [42]So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: [43]It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: [44]It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. [45]And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. [46]Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. [47]The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven." 1 Corinthians 15:42-47 (KJV).

After the cross, spiritual; before the cross, natural.

So, when you come to 1798, the Time of the End in Daniel 11, verse 40, you are after the time period of the cross and you are not looking for the power that controls literal Egypt or the power that controls literal Babylon to identify the King of the North and the King of the South. You are identifying the powers that control spiritual Babylon and spiritual Egypt.

THE NORTH IS BABYLON

Jeremiah 25:9; Ezekiel 26:7 (a king of kings); Joel 2:15-20 (between the seas); Ezekiel 38:14 – 39:7 (falls upon the mountains)

Jeremiah 25:9: We are now going to try to nail down the King of the North, understanding that all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world more than the days in which they lived; and, all prophets agree with one another. Jeremiah 25:9:

> "[9]Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations." Jeremiah 25:9 (KJV).

The king of Babylon is the King of the North in this passage.

And upon the testimony of two or three a thing is established. Go to Ezekiel 26:7:

> "[7]For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings,"—

Now, please take note that this is adding a layer of truth to the King of the North, the king of Babylon, to Nebuchadrezzar. He is also a king of kings, identifying that the King of the North at the end of the world would be a counterfeit christ, because Christ is the King of Kings. And when Christ is represented in the Bible as a King of Kings, the King is with a capital "K"; and, you notice here that Nebuchadrezzar as a king of kings, it is just a little "k," but representing a counterfeit christ, which is one of the characteristics of the King of the North. And I just want you to note it while we are here, right now all we are showing you is that the King of the North is the king of Babylon.

> —"[7]For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people." Ezekiel 26:7 (KJV).

That is two places where the King of the North is the king of Babylon.

Go to Joel 2:15-20.

Remember that in verse 45 of Daniel 11, the King of the North, whoever he is in the last six verses of Daniel 11, he comes to his end right here, between the Mediterranean Sea and the Dead Sea. He comes to his end with none to help in the Valley of Megiddo.

And in Joel, chapter 2, beginning at verse 15, we are just looking at the King of the North here, but you will see why I added that in there. It says,

> "[15]Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: [16]Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. [17]Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people,

> O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?
> "[18]Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people. [19]Yea, the Lord will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil,"—ALL THREE: THE THREE ANGELS' MESSAGES—"and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen. [20]But I will remove far off from you the northern army,"—THIS IS THE KING OF THE NORTH—"I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things." Joel 2:15-20 (KJV).

He comes to his end between the seas, this northern army, the King of the North. This is Daniel 11, verse 45.

Ezekiel 38:14 through 39:7: The King of the North, this is the king of Babylon. He is a counterfeit christ; he is a king of kings. He comes to his end in between the seas.

> "Ezekiel 38:14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog,"—

There is a lot of false teaching about Gog and Magog.

> —"Ezekiel 38:14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it? [15]And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts,"—

Gog comes from the north parts. Gog is the King of the North.

> —"thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: [16]And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days,"—IT IS GOING TO BE AT THE END OF THE WORLD—"and I will bring thee against my land,"—HIS LAND, PALESTINE—"that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. [17]Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them? [18]And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face. [19]For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; [20]So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. [21]And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains,"—HE IS GOING TO COME TO HIS END ON THE MOUNTAINS OF ISRAEL—"saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother. [22]And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. [23] Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

"Ezekiel 39:1-7 Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: [2] And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel: [3] And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand. [4] Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. [5] Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. [6] And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD. [7] So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel." Ezekiel 38:14 – 39:7 (KJV).

So, Gog that comes against Israel at the end of the world—and that is what the King of the North does in Daniel 11:40-45—he comes out of the north, and he is going to come to his end with none to help.

So, the King of the North is the king of Babylon; but, in verse 40 of Daniel 11 in 1798 has to be spiritual Babylon.

The Great Controversy, page 382, is commenting on Revelation 17.

Please notice, as we identify the King of the North and the King of the South we are going to get our definitions from the Book of Revelation, and we are going to use the Spirit of Prophecy as the second testimony to confirm it. Upon the testimony of two a thing is established. And the testimony of the two witnesses about these spiritual entities will be The Great Controversy and the Book of Revelation.

The Great Controversy, page 382, says,

"The woman (Babylon) of Revelation 17 is described as 'arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness: . . . and upon her forehead was a name written, Mystery, Babylon the Great,"—

This woman is Babylon the Great.

—"the mother of harlots.' Says the prophet: 'I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus.' Babylon is further declared to be 'that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.' Revelation 17:4–6, 18. The power that for so many centuries maintained despotic sway over the monarchs of Christendom is Rome." The Great Controversy, 382.

The King of the North is spiritual Babylon. It is the Papacy.

THE SOUTH IS EGYPT

Verse 40 of Daniel 11 says, "And at the time of the end," in 1798, shall the king of the south begin a war against the Papacy.

> SOUTH: Strong's Concordance 5045—from an unused root mean. To be parched; the south (from its drought); spec. the Negeb or southern district of Judah; occasional, Egypt (as south to Pal).

The word SOUTH in the verse is Negeb. You will see from Stro g's it says, from an unused root meaning to be parched; the south (from its droughts); specifically, the Negeb or the southern district of Judah, occasionally, Egypt.

KING OF THE SOUTH

Daniel 11:5-8; Isaiah 30:1-7; Revelation 11:8

Okay. The King of the South is the King of Egypt.

And if you are just looking at this verse for the first time, you may not catch something that sometimes people stumble over; but, you should not stumble over it because it is actually a clarification; and, it is this: The Papacy is going to conquer the King of the South in verse 40; but, the symbol of the King of the South is Egypt. And in verse 42 the Papacy, the same power, is going to conquer Egypt.

So, is God being redundant? Does He conquer Egypt, the King of the South, in verse 40; and, then, conquer Egypt again in verse 42? You know, is there some kind of miscommunication going on here? And the answer is no. The answer is no, and it is explained very clearly in the Scriptures. But, I want you to at least see it.

What identifies the King of the South is the power that controls Egypt, and south is a word that is sometimes translated as Egypt.

In Daniel 11, beginning at verse 5, it says,

> "[5]And the king of the south shall be strong,"—

And this is the verse that Uriah Smith was commenting on that we read.

> —"[5]And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. [6]And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times."—

So the king of Egypt, he gives a daughter in marriage to the King of the North in this history. And after a little while, the King of the North, he sets aside this wife and takes another wife.

Okay? So, there is going to be a conspiracy to overthrow this king [the King of the North] by his ex-wife, or his set-aside wife. But that is the history that we are talking about here.

Now, I am not too worried about the history here. I want you to see why we are calling the King of the South "Egypt."

So, in verse 7 it says,

> —"[7]But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army,"—

Okay. One of her relatives back here in Egypt, he does not like that she got set aside for another wife; so, he is going to exercise revenge.

> —"[7]But out of a branch of her roots"—THE WIFE THAT GETS SET ASIDE BY THE KING OF THE NORTH—"shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:"—

Okay. The King of the South here, the king of Egypt, he is going to attack in retaliation for this wife being dishonored.

And in verse 8, it says,

> —"[8]And [he] shall also carry captives"—

He is also going to take some captives from Babylon, from the King of the North.

> —"[8]And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north." Daniel 11:5-8 (KJV).

And all I want you to see there is that when he goes and attacks here [indicating on the whiteboard against the King of the North], he carries captives and booties, and he carries it back to where?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Egypt.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To Egypt. Egypt is the King of the South. These verses here are defining the King of the South as Egypt.

Isaiah 30, verses 1-7:

> "[1]Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin: [2]That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! [3]Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. [4]For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes. [5]They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach. [6]The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from > whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them. [7]For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still." Isaiah 30:1-7 (KJV).

They were not supposed to go to Egypt; but, Egypt here is the "burden of the beasts of the south." Egypt is the South, the King of the South. The power that controls Egypt is the King of the South.

Revelation 11:8.

In 1798 we are looking for spiritual Egypt, Revelation 11, verse 8, spiritual Egypt, in the time period of 1798. And Revelation 11 is about the French Revolution, which is the history of 1798.

In verse 8, speaking of France, it says,

> "[8]And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt,"—SPIRITUALLY, SODOM AND EGYPT—"where also our Lord was crucified." Revelation 11:8 (KJV).

In Revelation, spiritual Egypt is France, atheistic France. And as a second witness to this spiritual King of the South, in The Great Controversy, commenting on this verse, The Great Controversy, page 269, says,

> "This is atheism, and the nation represented by Egypt would give voice to a similar denial of the claims of the living God and would manifest a like spirit of unbelief and defiance." The Great Controversy, 269.

Spiritual Egypt in the 1798 time period is atheistic France that "would give voice."

All right. The Great Controversy, page 443, says,

> "The speaking of the nation is the action of its legislative and judicial authorities." The Great Controversy, 443.

And in the French Revolution, France legally enshrined Atheism into their constitution. They gave voice; and this influence continues all the way to the end of the world.

Education, page 228, says,

> "The worldwide dissemination of the same teachings that led to the French Revolution—all are tending to involve the whole world in a struggle similar to that which convulsed France." Education, 228.

And the teachings of the French Revolution are the teachings of the United Nations; but, we are not going there yet. We just want you to see that spiritual Egypt in the 1798 time period was atheistic France. So, verse 40 of Daniel 11 says, "And at the time of the end," in 1798, atheistic France shall push against the Papacy, spiritual Babylon.

PUSH

PUSH: Strong's Concordance 5055—to butt with horns; fig. to war against: gore, push.

And the word PUSH, in your notes, means to butt with horns, to war against.

Daniel 8:4

And if you will go to Daniel 8:4, you will see the same word, only it is translated a little bit differently but it is recognizable. Daniel 8:4 says,

> "[4]I saw the ram pushing"—THE SAME WORD PUSH—"I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great." Daniel 8:4 (KJV).

This is the Medes and Persians, and this is identifying the areas of their conquering the world. They went West, North, and South. The pushed; it was war.

So, in 1798, verse 4 says, at the Time of the End in 1798 shall atheistic France begin a war against the Papacy. And, of course, we know that this is so.

COME AGAINST LIKE A WHIRLWIND

In verse 40 of Daniel 11, once the war has begun in the first part of the verse, and then there is a colon and it says,

> "[40]. . . : and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships: and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40b (KJV).

And you see the Hebrew words COME, AGAINST, and WHIRLWIND in your notes.

> COME: Strong's Concordance 8175—a prim. root; to storm; by impl. to shiver, i.e. fear-:be (horribly) afraid, fear, hurl as a storm, be tempestuous, come like (take away as with) a whirlwind.
> AGAINST: Strong's Concordance 5921—same as 5920. 5920—from 5927. 5927—to ascend, intrans. (be high) or act. (mount)—arise (up). (cause to) ascend up.
> WHIRLWIND: Strong's Concordance 8175—same as 'come' above.

To come against, COME means to storm, to come like (take away as with) a whirlwind.

Against, AGAINST is worth taking note of. AGAINST means to ascend. So, not only is the Papacy, when it retaliates against the king of Atheism, going to sweep away the king of Atheism like a whirlwind, like a tornado, but at the same time he will begin to ascend to the throne of the Earth; because, Satan is the power that wants to ascend to the throne of God, and Satan's representative on Earth is the Pope of Rome. It is characteristic of both Satan and the Papacy. They are the power that ascends.

CHARIOTS AND HORSES

Exodus 14:9; 1 Kings 1:5; 20:1

Satan and the Papacy are going to come with an ally that gives the chariots, horses, and ships.

Exodus 14.

So far all our claims are based upon the testimony of two or three. Exodus 14:9, and according to God's Word if you have two witnesses it is established.

> "[9]But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baalzephon." Exodus 14:9 (KJV).

Chariots and horses represent army/military strength.

1 Kings 1, verse 5:

> "[5]Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him." 1 Kings 1:5 (KJV).

1 Kings 20, verse 1, third witness - chariots, horsemen, and military strength:

> "[1]And Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it." 11 Kings 20:1 (KJV).

Horses, chariots, and military strength in 1798, atheistic France would begin a war against the Papacy; but, as history unfolded, the Papacy would retaliate against the king of Atheism, the King of the South. And when he did so, he would bring an ally that supplied military strength.

In Review and Herald, March 9, 1911, it says,

> "Everything in God's world—men and doctrines, and nature itself—is fulfilling God's sure word of prophecy, and accomplishing his grand and closing work in this world's history. We are to be ready, and waiting for the orders of God. Nations will be stirred to their very center. Support will be withdrawn from those who proclaim God's only standard of righteousness as the only sure test of character. And all who will not bow to the decree of national councils, and obey the national laws to exalt the sabbath instituted by the man of sin to disregard God's holy day, will feel, not the oppressive power of popery alone, but of the Protestant world, the image of the beast." Review and Herald, March 9, 1911.

I am missing page 3. Does anyone have page 3? My notes do not; I do not have pages 3 or 4.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Provides Brother Pippenger with the missing pages.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Great Controversy, beginning on page 615:

> "As the Sabbath has become the special point of controversy throughout Christendom, and religious and secular authorities have combined to enforce the observance of the Sunday, the persistent refusal of a small minority to yield to the popular demand will make them objects of universal execration. It will be urged that the few who stand in opposition to an institution of the church and a law of the state ought not to be tolerated; that it is better for them to suffer than for whole nations to be thrown into confusion and lawlessness. The same argument many centuries ago was brought against Christ by the 'rulers of the people.' 'It is expedient for us,' said the wily Caiaphas, 'that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.' John 11:50. This argument will appear conclusive; and a decree will finally be issued against those who hallow the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, denouncing them as deserving of the severest punishment and giving the people liberty, after a certain time, to put them to death. Romanism in the Old World and apostate Protestantism in the New will pursue a similar course toward those who honor all the divine precepts. —
> "The people of God will then be plunged into those scenes of affliction and distress described by the prophet as the time of Jacob's trouble.—"

So, in the Old World, NATO is going to carry out the persecution, and in the Western World, the armies of the United States are going to carry out the persecution; but, they are going to be doing it in agreement with the directions of the Pope of Rome.

And in this passage here, if you look carefully, it is not talking so much about The Sunday Law in the United States. It is talking about when the Death Decree is passed. Sister White says, "denouncing them as deserving of the severest punishment."—

What is the severest punishment?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Death.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Death.

—"and giving the people liberty, after a certain time, to put them to death."

Okay. This is the Death Decree.

Then in the next paragraph she says, "Then comes the time of Jacob's trouble," and the time of Jacob's trouble takes place after probation is closed. So, she is inferring that the close of human probation, when Michael stands up, is at the Death Decree.

> —'Thus saith the Lord: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. . . . All faces are turned into paleness. Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.' Jeremiah 30:5–7." The Great Controversy, 615–616.

Acts 7:54-60.

And if you go to Acts, chapter 7, verse 54, you will get your Biblical support for that application. Acts 7:54 says,

"[54]When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. [55]But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God."—

Michael just stood up.

"—[56]And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. [57]Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord. [58]And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. [59]And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. [60]And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep." Acts 7:54-60 (KJV).

So, when Michael stands up, it is at the Death Decree.

SHIPS

Psalm 107:23; Proverbs 31:14; Revelation 18:17-19; 2 Chronicles 9:21-22

Ships, what are ships? Because, when the Papacy retaliates against the king of Atheism, he is going to bring not only armies, chariots and horsemen, but also ships.

Psalm 107:23: What are ships?

"[23]They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; . . ." Psalm 107:23 (KJV)

Ships represent economic strength.

Proverbs 31:14:

"[14]She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar." Proverbs 31:14 (KJV).

Merchants' ships, food, and commerce.

Revelation 18:17-19:

"[17]For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off. [18]And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city! [19]And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate." Revelation 18:17-19 (KJV).

Ships represent economic strength.

2 Chronicles 9:21-22.

Of course, ships are important to recognize because Islam is what brings down the ships at the end of the world; and, the primary symbol of economics in terms of the ships are the ships of Tarshish, and this is what the east wind brings down. But, we are not studying Islam at this time.

2 Chronicles, chapter 9, beginning at 21, says,

"[21]For the king's ships"—SOLOMON'S—"went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. [22]And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom." 2 Chronicles 9:21-22 (KJV).

So, when the King of the North retaliates against the King of the South, when the Papacy retaliates against the king of Atheism at the end of the world, he brings an ally with him that supplies military and economic strength; and, it is going to pass over the countries.

Countries

Daniel 11:40, 41, 42

You will notice in your notes Daniel 11:40, 41, and 42.

And as I said, all we are doing is taking the bow off the package of verse 40 here this morning. We are just getting started, but we have to have a point of reference as we take some of these other jewels out in the coming worships.

But, at the end of verse 40, when the King of the North sweeps away the king of Atheism, when the Papacy in conjunction with the United States collapses the Soviet Union in 1989, it passes over the countries. That is what verse 40 says. It shall enter into the countries, in the plural. And that is in there.

But, in verse 41, it says,

"[41][When the king] shall enter into also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown."—

And that word countries is a supplied word [shown as italics in the King James Bible]; because, when the glorious land (the United States of America) is conquered by the Papacy at The Sunday Law—and that is what verse 41 is identifying—many Seventh-day Adventists will be overthrown, but not many "countries."

But, then in verse 42, it says,

"[42]He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape."

This word "countries" is in there, and Egypt here is representing all the countries of the world. So I just want you to see that there is light to be gleaned from marking this word countries/countries in these three verses, and noting that in verse 41 it is a supplied word. But what we are saying is that in 1989 the Soviet Union was swept away by an alliance between the Pope of Rome and Ronald Reagan, and that even though verse 40 begins in 1798, the King of the South, the king of Atheism, was one nation, the nation of France. As history progressed, the new king of Atheism, the Soviet Union, was made up of a confederacy of countries. So for verse 40 to say when he sweeps away the King of the South and he is going to pass over the "countries," this is absolutely accurate.

OVERFLOW AND PASS OVER

OVERFLOW: Strong's Concordance 7857—a prim. root; to gush; by impl. to inundate, cleanse; by anal. to gallop, conquer;- drown, (over-) flow (-whelm), rinse. run. rush. (thoroughly) wash (away).
PASS: Strong's Concordance 5674—a prim. root; to cross over.

This word OVERFLOW [Daniel 11:41], when he going to overflow the countries, it means a primary root; to gush; by implication to inundate, to conquer, to (thoroughly) wash (away).

And PASS means to cross over.

The reason why I am taking time to note some of these more mundane words in the verse is letting the Hebrew define what they mean you will find that the secular reporters of this history of 1989, they would repeatedly use these words that are found in verse 40.

PROPHECY DEFINED

We have a definition of prophecy here. There are two things that I want you to see in this definition. One is the definition of prophecy; the other is what the last scenes of prophecy are.

It says from Selected Messages, book 2, page 102,

"Historical events, showing the direct fulfillment of prophecy, were set before the people,"—

And what we are going to do here in closing out this study is we are going to set before you historical events to substantiate the claim we just made about verse 40; and, the claim we just made about verse 40 is that in 1798 atheistic France began a war against the Papacy by delivering the deadly wound to the Papacy. But at the end of the world, the king of Atheism is no longer France; it is the Soviet Union, and that the Papacy is going to retaliate against the Soviet Union with its end-of-the-world ally, the United States that supplies military and economic strength, and there is going to be a mighty sweeping away of the Soviet Union. It is going to happen almost overnight. All the commentators are amazed on how fast it happened, and that is consistent with the word whirlwind in the verse. And at this point the Papacy is going to once again begin to ascend to the throne of the Earth with this mighty sweeping away, and it is going to pass over the countries. So, historical events were set before the people and prophecy was seen. And the way that you prove the fulfillment of prophecy is with historical events. That is why we are using this quote.

> —"Historical events, showing the direct fulfillment of prophecy, were set before the people, and prophecy was seen to be a figurative delineation of events leading down to the close of this earth's history."—

And that is where these verses are going. They are going right down to the close of this Earth's history.

Then she says,

> —"The scenes connected with the working of the man of sin are the last features plainly revealed in this earth's history." Selected Messages, book 2, 102.

Right there, that sentence there, if you are willing to see, tells you that the King of the North in the last six verses of Daniel 11, it has got to be the man of sin; because, "The scenes connected with the working of the man of sin are the last features plainly revealed in this earth's history." And in Daniel 12:1 human probation closes.

But, we are not using that prooftext. We are just laying that over the top of this presentation.

Education, page 184:

> "From the rise and fall of nations as made plain in the pages of Holy Writ, they need to learn how worthless is mere outward and worldly glory." Education, 184.

We are saying that when the Soviet Union was swept away in 1989 that it was a fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, and that it was the fall of a nation.

PUSH

THE ONGOING WAR

Now, I had to be selective about the visual aids that I brought today.

This is one of my favorites. This is from this history. This is from Time magazine, February 1992. It is called "Holy Alliance." It is talking about the alliance between the Vatican and the United States, Reagan and the Pope, to sweep away the Soviet Union.

And the main article in this magazine was written by Carl Bernstein. Carl Bernstein is the son of a famous conductor. Carl Bernstein got the Pulitzer Prize for the Watergate Scandal, along with another man, that I am not remembering his name [Bob Woodard, with The Washington Post]; but, it does not matter. And when he was asked to do this article, Bernstein, in this Time magazine—and we are going to quote from this magazine about the demise of the Soviet Union in 1989—he says (and we will show you this tomorrow. We will show you the interview that Carl Bernstein has with [talk show host] Larry King). Carl Bernstein says, that he realized that this was the greatest story of his lifetime. So, he collaborated with a man who was an expert on the Vatican and he wrote this book, His Holiness John Paul II and the Hidden History of Our Time, the hidden history being the secret alliance between Ronald Reagan and the Pope of Rome.

And when you read this magazine or you read this book, it is 100 percent in agreement with what we are saying about verse 40. It is about how the United States used its money, for instance, to prop up the Solidarity Union in Poland to keep them in protest mode, and that is where the collapse began, was in Poland.

The CIA smuggled in $50 million to support them, to support that union that was on strike, bringing down Poland. And at that time, what do you suppose those union workers made a week? What was their paycheck? $3.00 a week. So, how much money is $50 million, and how did the United States get $50 million cash into Poland? Through the priests of the Catholic Church.

So, that is the "ships," the economics.

And that is just one minor illustration of the economic struggle that went on there.

The military struggle is the United States took the missiles that were in Western Europe and it turned those nuclear warheads towards the Soviet Union; but, it only did so as the Pope of Rome told them that they could do it. Reagan never pointed one missile towards the Soviet Union, except when he first got permission from the Pope of Rome. And when they did that, the Soviet Union was forced to counter and bring its military to the borders of Western Europe in defense of what they could see what was happening, and it brought about an economic collapse.

Military and economics—chariots, ships, and horsemen—being directed by the Pope of Rome.

We will deal a little bit more with that tomorrow.

Now, through the years, there are people that have been fighting this message. You know, they say, "Well, you know, I think the collapse was really 1991. What are you saying 1989?"

And initially I used to say, "Well, you know, 1989, 1991, you know, big deal. I believe it was 1989."

Some people even went farther than that, down to Year 2000.

But, this is a recent—when was it?—a couple of years ago. I like this one. This is Time magazine, "1989: The Year that Defined Today's World." They marked 1989 as the collapse of the Soviet Union, no matter what these Adventists that are sleeping on want to argue about. 1989. Okay?

1989, and then to William Miller's dream.

The Man of the Century, this book is about the man of the Century because he [Pope John Paul II] brought down the Soviet Union: The man of sin of the Century.

I like this one from Life magazine, once again on the bringing down of the Soviet Union: "Pope John Paul II: A Tribute." The reason why I like this one: with a forward by the Reverend Billy Graham. There is a secret alliance, not with the political but with the religious apostate protestants; Billy Graham praising the Pope, praising the man of sin.

So, what we are going to do here in closing is we are going to take some of the statements from the reporters that were reporting on the collapse of the Soviet Union and demonstrate that the history that was recorded is in agreement with what we are saying about in verse 40.

Time magazine, December 4, 1989, says,

"Until recently, the battalions of Marxism seemed to have the upper hand over the soldiers of the Cross."—

The "soldiers of the Cross" being the Catholic Church; but, what I want you to see here is they are noting a long drawn-out war, a war that began in 1798.

—"In the wake of the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917,"—

And the Bolshevik Revolution, what is another word for the Bolshevik Revolution? It is the Russian Revolution, is it not?

And the Russian Revolution is when Russia becomes the King of the South. It becomes the king of Atheism, and you will see something. It is not an accident.

Who is the first King of the South? France.

And where does France become the King of the South? When? What is the historical event that brings Napoleon into power?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The French Revolution.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the French Revolution.

Wherever the King of the South goes in history, you will find a revolution. As Atheism spread throughout South America or Asia or Africa, the way that the King of the South accomplishes his conquering is he goes into a country and he begins to spread his civil unrest to accomplish a revolution. It is one of the characteristics of the King of the South, is revolution.

The Bolshevik Revolution is marking the beginning of the modern King of the South, just as the French Revolution marked the beginning of the first King of the South.

And in history it is called the Bolshevik Revolution; it is called the Russian Revolution. And what else is it called?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The October Revolution.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The October Revolution.

Why is it important to note that it is the October Revolution? Because, it was in 1917.

In 1917, in October, the most important date for the Soviet Union, that is where they get started. That is their birth. That is like 1776 on July 4th here in the United States, July 4th. Okay? That is the starting point for them.

What else happened in October of 1917?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Fatima.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Miracle of Fatima.

And the most important point of reference for this man [Pope John Paul II] and for the Catholic Church today is Fatima.

I was looking at this, this morning; and I have not looked at this book, The Keys of This Blood, by Malachi Martin, for years. I have it marked up, all over the place; but, these pages here that are folded, they were for when I was going to do presentations on this, it is about and saying that Pope John Paul II was directed by the messages of Fatima. Okay? The Miracle of Fatima took place in October of 1917; same month, same year.

The starting point for the King of the South in verse 40 is the starting point for the modern King of the North in verse 40. And when you understand the Fatima message, you understand more about verse 40; but, we are not going there.

—"Until recently, the battalions of Marxism seemed to have the upper hand over the soldiers of the Cross."—the war began in 1798. He pushed against them—"In the wake of the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917, Lenin had pledged toleration but delivered terror. 'Russia turned crimson with the blood of martyrs,' says Father Gleb Yakunin, Russian Orthodoxy's bravest agitator for religious freedom. In the Bolsheviks' first five years in power, 28 bishops and 1,200 priests were cut down by the red sickle. Stalin greatly accelerated the terror, and by the end of Khrushchev's rule, liquidation of the clergy reached an estimated 50,000. After World War II, fierce but generally less bloody persecution spread into the Ukraine and the new Soviet bloc, affecting millions of Roman Catholics and Protestants as well as Orthodox." Time, December 4, 1989.

What is my point? Verse 40 says the king of Atheism was going to begin a war against the Papacy. He was going to push against him. This was a war. Blood was being spilled.

And notice that this commentary is coming in connection with the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989. It is being drawn from these secular testimonies of this history.

Life magazine, December 1989:

"In 1935 Josef Stalin, absolute ruler of the Soviet Union, was given some unsolicited advice. Make a propitiatory gesture to the Vatican, he was told. Pushed too far, his country's Catholics might become counterrevolutionary."—

Pushed? If the King of the South pushes the King of the North too far, he might have a counterrevolution on his hands, the same words.

—"Stalin's great mustache amplified his sneer. 'The pope. And how many divisions has he?' The answer then was that he has none. The answer now is that he needs none. The structures of Communism are crumbling to the touch." Life, December 1989.

A WHIRLWIND

"Days of the Whirlwind" Title in Newsweek, December 25, 1989.

I have this magazine here. This is another one of my favorite magazines, but I did not locate it yesterday; but, it is over there. It is The Newsweek Magazine from December 1989, and the title of the magazine is "Days of the Whirlwind." He will sweep them away as a whirlwind!

And in this magazine, it gives the chronology of the collapse of the Soviet Union in the Days of the Whirlwind. And what does verse 40 say? "He shall come against him like a"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Whirlwind.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"like a whirlwind."

"Of all the events that have shaken the Soviet bloc in 1989, none is more fraught with history—or more implausible—than the polite encounter to take place this week in Vatican City. There, in the spacious ceremonial library of the 16th century Apostolic Palace, the czar of world atheism, Mikhail Gorbachev, will visit the Vicar of Christ, Pope John Paul II.

"The moment will be electric, not only because John Paul helped inflame the fervor for freedom in his Polish homeland that swept like brush fire across Eastern Europe."—

Go look at these Hebrew words in verse 40. It is a mighty sweeping away.

—"Beyond that, the meeting of the two men symbolizes the end of the 20th century's most dramatic spiritual war, a conflict in which the seemingly irresistible force of Communism battered against the immovable object of Christianity." Time, December 4, 1989.

This was a war between the King of the South and the King of the North.

And after Gorbachev met with him, he went back and finished off the collapse of the Soviet Union. And then what did Gorbachev do?

He stepped down and he moved. He had been the King of the South; but, he stepped and he moved and took a position in Egypt, in the United Nations, and he still works there today. Because, this is the dragon here. The King of the South is the dragon, and the dragon moves through history; but, that is another story.

Time magazine, December 4, 1989:

"While Gorbachev's hands-off policy was the immediate cause of the chain reaction of liberty that has swept through Eastern Europe in the past few months, John Paul deserves much of the longer-range credit." Time, December 4, 1989.

Swept being one of the definitions of a whirlwind.

Rea e r's Digest, March 1990:

"With the Pope's support, Solidarity (Polish Labor Union) was formed, and John Paul II sent word to Moscow that if Soviet forces crushed Solidarity, he would go to Poland and stand with the people."—

Okay. So, they are starting their protest in Poland, and he threatens them, this Pope threatens them, "If you are going to stomp these guys out, I am going to go over there and stand with them."

Why is that a threat? Why is a man in Italy threatening to come to Poland a threat to them?

It has to do with Fatima. It has to do with Fatima.

See, there was a time—the Miracle of Fatima in Portugal was in a little, tiny village and it took place in the part of the village called the Cova da Iria on October 13, 1917; and, because the virgin Mary appeared to these three young children and gave them some messages, the Catholic Church, of course, turns this into a shrine and they built a church there now and it is a gigantic cathedral, Catholic church since 1917.

But, in order to build that church, they had to raise money to build that church. So, they made little Virgin of Fatima dolls and they sold them, and they raised their money by selling little Virgin of Fatima dolls. And there came a point of time in this history of building Fatima that they had a Virgin of Fatima statue, and they sent it around the world to visit certain countries to raise money. The Catholic Church is about raising money. And every country that this statute went to, there were miracles.

It went to Egypt, and as soon as it went to this Catholic Church in Egypt, the virgin Mary started appearing in Egypt.

It went to Brazil, and they put it in a courtyard in Brazil so people could come to see it; and, as soon as it got there, a flock of doves landed on its feet while thousands of people milled around for two weeks. Those doves never ate; they never drank. Do you know how long a bird can go without drinking water? It cannot go two weeks; but, those birds were alive the whole two weeks.

Miracles like this happened everywhere that statue went, and finally it went to Poland. And the communist authorities in Poland said, "We don't want that statue. Send it home." So, they sent it back to Portugal.

And then all these countries where these miracles had happened, they contacted the Polish authorities and they said, "You really ought to receive that statue. It has been a blessing."

So, the Polish Government, they went to Cardinal Wyszyński, who was the head of the Polish Catholic structure at that time, and they said, "We will take your statue."

And Cardinal Wyszyński said, "We don't want your statue here now. What we want to do is build a church."

And the Communists said, "Well, now, we said you could bring the statue."

And he said, "No, we want to build a church."

So, after some interplay, the Polish Government said, "Okay. You can build a church."

It was the first church that was built in the Soviet Union since World War II. Of course, the Catholics understand that that church, the first Catholic Church that was built since World War II, was built because of the intercession of the Virgin Mary of Fatima.

So, they built the church and the Bishop that was in charge of building the first Catholic Church since the Communists took control of the Soviet Union after World War II, he builds the church and then in front of the church he puts a great big cross.

And the Communists came and said, "Hey, we told you that you could build a church; but, we didn't tell you, you could put that cross up there." So, they took a chainsaw and they cut it down.

So, this Bishop, he rebuilds the cross.

The Communists cut it down.

He rebuilds the cross.

The Communists cut it down.

He rebuilds it, and the Communists give up. They give up, and the historians point to that argument right there is what broke the mentality of the Communists in Poland, was this Bishop had the guts to stand up to the Communist authority and he won. And that Bishop ended up being Pope John Paul II. So, when he says, "If you crush this Solidarity Union, I am coming back to Poland," they thought, "Oh, man! We don't need this." And they backed down.

That is the history about this statement, about his threat to come to Poland.

—"The Soviets were so alarmed that they hatched a plot to kill him. . . ."—

When we first started teaching this, there was still an argument, "Oh, the Soviets really didn't hire this Islamic guy to try to assassinate the Pope." But, since we first start teaching this, they have opened up the archives of the Soviet Union and, without a doubt, it is all there in black and white. It was the Soviet Union, the King of the South, that hired Mehmet Ali Ağca to assassinate Pope John Paul II.

But, he did not assassinate him, did he. He just gave him the deadly wound that was healed.

> —"The Pope cautioned Solidarity leaders, particularly his friend Lech Walesa, to proceed slowly. They did. In 1988 General Wojciech Jaruzelski, the Polish communist leader, went to them offering a deal. Solidarity insisted on an election, which it carried with some 80 percent of the vote. When the Communist government fell, the impact on Eastern Europe was electrifying." Rea e r's Digest, March 1990.

Moving on. There is so much history on this verse, and it has been a long time since I have gone through this history. This is kind of fun.

Time magazine, December 11, 1989.

> "When the Holy Roman Emperor Henry IV decided to seek pardon of Pope Gregory VII in 1077, he stood barefoot for three days in the snow outside the papal quarters in Canossa, Italy. Though Gorbachev's concordat with the church was less arduous, it was no less significant in its way." Time, December 11, 1989.

When he went to bow to the Pope, the demise of the Soviet Union was underway.

"GORBY'S BOW TO THE ROMAN LEGIONS" Title in the US News & World Report.

And the title of the US News & World Report from 1989 is, "Gorby's Bow to the Roman Legions": The King of the South bowing to the King of the North.

> "The Soviet president's session Friday with Pope John Paul II is the latest development of a revolution in the Communist world that the pope helped spark and Gorbachev has allowed to happen." USA Today, cover story.

Life magazine, December 1989:

> "In private meetings with heads of state, back room consultations with dissident groups and persistent propagandizing for his crusade against tyranny, he [John Paul II] has helped bring about the greatest policy change since the Russian Revolution." Life, December 1989.

Dropping down to the next paragraph:

Jubilee, April 1990:

> "In Poland the freedom movement was born almost three decades ago when the bishop of Krakow sought approval to build a new church. When Communist authorities denied his application, the bishop had a giant cross erected and celebrated open-air masses. The Communists tore it down. The church members replaced it over and over until finally the Communists gave up." Jubilee, April 1990.

Time magazine, December 4, 1989:

> "His [Pope John Paul II] triumphant tour of Poland in 1979, says Polish bishop, altered the 'mentality of fear, the fear of police and tanks, of losing your job, of not getting promoted, of being thrown out of school, of failing to get a passport. People learned that if they ceased to fear the system, the system was helpless.' Thus was born Solidarity, backed by the church and led by such friends of the pope as Lech Walesa and Tadeusz Mazowieke, who subsequently became the Soviet bloc's first Christian Prime Minister." Time, December 4, 1989.

But, also, "altered the 'mentality of fear . . . ,'" is that the United States pumped $50 million in to be keeping them alive during this protest.

From Life magazine, December 1989:

> "In May, 1981, before a vast audience in St. Peter's Square, Pope John Paul was shot and severely wounded by Mehmet Ali Agea. There was immediate speculation that the gunman had been sent by East bloc plotters from Bulgaria, sponsored by the Soviet secret police. Their aim: to silence the one man capable of shaking the foundations of international Communism." Life, December 1989.

And what is Pope John Paul II's story? And you cannot believe these Catholic stories, but this is the story: He is in the car. The idol that Pope John Paul II worshipped was Mary of Fatima, and he sees a little girl with a Mary of Fatima button on, so he bends down to bless her, right as the guy is shooting. And had he not bent down, he would have been killed; but, he gets wounded. They take him to the hospital and he looks out the window, and the Miracle of Fatima takes place outside his window.

So then he calls for the secret messages of Fatima to be brought to him that none of the Popes had been willing to receive. They were all supposes to receive it. And he realizes that he is the Pope that is suppose to fulfill the message of Fatima.

And the message of Fatima, according to Catholics—and this is satanic prophecy—is that Pope John Paul II was the Good Pope, and that the Good Pope was going to be followed by the Bad Pope. I guess this makes this guy [Pope Benedict/Pope Francis] the Bad Pope.

And in the time of the Bad Pope, the Third World War was going to begin, even with nuclear weapons.

Are you watching what is going on in Iran?

And that this Third World War was going to annihilate some countries, but it is going to be brought immediately to an end very quickly because Jesus is going to return. And in the Miracle of Fatima, they know it is Jesus because, when he returns, what does he do? He calls fire down out of Heaven.

So, the Miracle of Fatima, when you look closely at it, you can see that it has the design and the mentality of Catholicism to receive Satan as Christ; and, it agrees with Adventist understanding of end-time events.

Time magazine, February 24, 1992:

> "A COMMON BRUSH WITH DEATH—At their first meeting, Reagan and John Paul II discussed something else they had in common: both had survived assassination attempts that occurred only six weeks apart in 1981, and both believed God had saved them for a special mission. And both referred to the 'miraculous fact that they had survived.'" Time magazine, February 24, 1992.

CHARIOTS AND HORSEMEN

"HOLY ALLIANCE," Time magazine, February 24, 1992, Cover Title.

> "Only President Ronald Reagan and Pope John Paul II were present in the Vatican Library on Monday, June 7, 1982. It was the first time the two had met, and they talked for 50 minutes. . . .
> "In that meeting, Reagan and the pope agreed to undertake a clandestine campaign to hasten the dissolution of the Communist empire. Declares Richard Allen, Reagan's first National Security Advisor: 'This was one of the great secret alliances of all time.'. . . . "—

And I want you to take note, if you would, that as we go through this worship, that when we are identifying 1989 as the fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, any historian that has any sensibilities about them would tell you that the greatest historical event in the 20th Century was the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989.

And as we proceed on in this worship study and we get to 9/11/2001, with the bringing down of the Twin Towers, once again any historian that is worth his salt would tell you that the greatest historical event of the 21st Century was 9/11.

So, when the Lord says that He confirms the fulfillment of prophecy by historical events, it is not just minor, obscure historical events. The greatest historical event of the 20th Century is Daniel 11, verse 40, the collapse of the Soviet Union.

And you may think that we have got another 88 years in this century, so something else may happen that is more significant than 9/11; but, if you are thinking that, you really need to pinch yourself, because you are asleep. 9/11 is what is guiding the whole direction of Planet Earth right now.

So, we are making a point about the significance of which histories the Lord uses to fulfill prophecy.

1. The U.S. defense buildup, already under way, aimed at making it too costly for the Soviets to compete militarily with the U.S. Reagan's Strategic Defense Initiative-Star Wars became a centerpiece of the strategy.

The reason why Russia right now, today, has some cash flow is because they finally finished a pipeline from Siberia, all the way down to Western Europe; and, they were building that pipeline during this time period, but they did not have any money to build that pipeline. The money came from the United States. What Ronald Reagan did is he quit giving them money to build that pipeline, and they had been getting money from banks under the premise that "When the pipeline is finished, we'll pay you back because we will have a bunch of oil." So, once the United States quit giving them money to build the pipeline and the pipeline stopped, they had no collateral to get money from the banks. Ships, ships—

CHARIOTS

Rea e r's Digest, March 1990:

"In 1981, the Communist bloc got another shock. A new American President, Ronald Reagan,"—

Why did Ronald Reagan say he wanted to bring down the Soviet Union? Because he said he believed it was the antichrist of Bible prophecy, and Ronald Reagan professed to be a Christian. And Sister White says that all those that become confused on the meaning of antichrist will ultimately end up on the side of antichrist, and he ended up in a secret alliance with the man of sin, even though every Protestant church at one point in time identified the Pope of Rome as the man of sin. He became confused in his understanding and he thought the Soviet Union was the antichrist of Bible prophecy, so he formed an alliance with the antichrist of Bible prophecy.

> —"A new American President, Ronald Reagan, began fulfilling his promise to challenge the Soviets, not to placate them. Over the next few years, he accelerated the military buildup and announced the Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI), a space-based system for protecting against missile attack. He backed anti-communist rebels in Nicaragua, Angola, Cambodia, and Afghanistan. And with American troops, he liberated the island of Grenada from Communist thugs.
> "The Soviets' confidence was shaken. . . .
> "The Western Europeans also pressured the Soviets. NATO forged ahead with military modernization. German voters spurned Soviet 'peace overtures' and elected a government that voted to deploy new intermediate-range missiles. . . .
>
> "Military pressure from America and its Western allies had caused the Soviets to flinch." Rea e r's Digest, March 1990.

SHIPS

Time magazine, December 1989:

> "Gorbachev has also grasped the fact that political and economic survival depends upon the goodwill of the Soviet people, among whom Christians have always outnumbered Communists. Gorbachev, moreover, needs the cooperation of the West, observes Father Mark, a reform-minded Orthodox priest in Moscow, who considers Gorbachev's program within the USSR 'a result of foreign policy necessity.' " Time, December 4, 1989.

Gorbachev was realizing that he was going bankrupt.

Rea e r's Digest, March 1990:

> "In the 1980s, Communist economies, always inefficient, went belly up. Before, they had lacked consumer and luxury goods. Now perennial shortages of staples worsened as well. When Soviet miners went on strike in 1989, their demands included soap, toilet paper, and sugar." Rea e r's Digest, March 1990.

And you have evidence of this.

US News and World Report, January 1990:

> "For Gorbachev, the ferment in the Baltics is shaking not just a small corner of the empire built by Lenin and Stalin, but the foundations of the empire itself. The nationalities question is a potent distillation of many other signs, from a crumbling economy to violent ethnic clashes, that the breathtaking disintegration of the Soviet empire in Eastern Europe may not stop at the Soviet border. As the economy deteriorates and shortages grow, public disillusionment with Communism and with Gorbachev himself is rising, and hostile republics, nationalities and interests groups are competing more fiercely for political power and for shares in the shrinking economy. Corruption and crime are rampant; minors and railway workers threaten to cut off fuel supplies during the bitter winter; Azerbaijanis cut the rail line to an Armenian enclave in their midst; farmers hoard food, leaving city shelves bare." US News and World Report, January 15, 1990.

OVERFLOW

From Life magazine, December 1989:

"The rush to freedom in Eastern Europe is a sweet victory for John Paul II." Life, December 1989.

Life magazine, December 1989:

"THE TRIUMPH OF JOHN PAUL II—The tide of freedom washing over Eastern Europe answers his most fervent prayer." Life, December, 1989.

The reason why I am reading these, these are the words from Daniel 11, verse 40.

HE SHALL PASS OVER

You will have evidence that as the Soviet Union collapsed, the political leaders that began to get elected into office were Catholics.

U S News and World Report, May 1990:

"When Tadeusz Mazowiecki took over in August 1989 as Poland's first non-Communist prime minister in 45 years, he was asked if he was a socialist. 'I am a Catholic,' he answered tersely." US News and World Report, May 21, 1990.

Time magazine, December 1989:

"Last year Lithuania's two leading bishops were returned to head dioceses after a combined 53 years of internal exile, and the cathedral in Vilnius, previously used as an art museum, was restored for worship. This year the Belorussian republic got its first bishop in 63 years. That paved the way for Archbishop Angelo Sodano, who oversees the Vatican's foreign relations, to make the arraignments for Gorbachev's historic visit to the Holy See.

"These concessions to Catholicism are only part of Gorbachev's religious liberalization." Time, December 4, 1989.

Life magazine, December 1989:

"Three new Catholic bishops have recently been named in Czechoslovakia. And this month Gorbachev meets Pope John Paul II during a visit to Italy-the first face-to-face encounter between leaders of the Kremlin and the Vatican. The sessions may lead to legalization of the long-banned Ukrainian Catholic Church in the USSR." Life, December, 1989.

US News and World Report, December 1989:

"The revival of religious freedom is expected to include lifting of an official ban on the five-million-member Ukraine Catholic Church, which has survived underground since 1946 when Stalin ordered it absorbed into the Russian Orthodox Church. Winning legalization for the Ukrainian Church has been a primary aim of the pope's. Officials in the Soviet Union say they will clear the way for legalization by permitting Ukrainian Catholics to register, as other religious groups are now required to do under Soviet law." US News and World Report, December 11, 1989.

SUMMARY

So, what are we saying?

Daniel 11, verse 40, begins at the Time of the End in 1798. It is one of the most profound verses in God's Word.

In 1989 this verse was fulfilled with the collapse of the Soviet Union, marking the Time of the End for the 144,000. That is pretty profound in itself, that the Time of the End for the beginning of Adventism and the Time of the End for the end of Adventism is in the very same verse.

But, the history that we are suggesting for this verse, we gave you two or three witnesses for every symbol, and the historians are loud and clear that what we say about that history is accurate.

We have more to say about that tomorrow.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be benefitted by the fact that you as the Lion of the tribe of Judah, as the Dirt Brush Man, began to unseal the testing truth for your people with the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989. We want to be among those that run to and fro in your Word and understand this increase of knowledge and allow this increase of knowledge to perfect your character within us. We know that time is short. We have been sleeping on as Laodicean Adventists, well beyond the fulfillment of verse 40, and we would ask that you would help us be about our business of preparing ourselves for the times that are just ahead, when verse 41 is fulfilled at The Sunday Law. We thank you for another day that we can serve you. We ask that you keep us safe and let us work in a way that we would glorify you this day, and we would ask for your continued blessing upon the work that we are attempting here. We thank you for these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #45

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us here this morning to consider the truth of your Word. We ask that you would resolve the problem that we have with the LiveStreaming today, after we finish here that we can continue on with this work. And as we take up the study of Daniel 11, verse 40, this morning, we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would help us to understand the relevance and significance of the history of this verse, that the Holy Spirit might use it to further perfect our character that we might more fully represent you. I would ask that you take charge of this presentation and overrule my humanity, hide me behind your cross. Forgive me in any way that I have prevented you from speaking through me, and prepare the hearts and minds of those that are listening to these things to receive it as you intend. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We had a rough start yesterday for a few minutes getting the LiveStream going; and, so I was a little bit anxious as we were going through.

And what we were looking at yesterday was the basic rundown of Daniel 11, verse 40, that in 1798, atheistic France began a war against the Papacy, but that the verse then describes when the Papacy will return and sweep away the king of Atheism, who at that in history is the Soviet Union.

And then we looked at a quote where in Selected Messages, book 2, page 102, where we were told historical events showing the direct fulfillment of prophecy were set before the people, and prophecy was seen to be a figurative delineation of events leading down to the close of this Earth's history.

So, we then began to look at the historical record of the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, and that is where I was kind of moving quickly. If you have those notes, one of the things that you want to look at as you go through is how often these secular authors would pull words right out of the 51 words that are in verse 40 to describe this history of verse 40. It is not an accident that this took place.

And to summarize down the relationship of the Papacy and the United States, we said that the United States was represented by the chariots, ships, and horsemen, and that in 1992 Time magazine wanted to go back and cover this history, and they got Carl Bernstein to do an article in here covering the history, just as we describe it, the history of the underground behind the scenes being accomplished by the operatives of the Catholic Church and the Soviet Union, and that the United States was supplying the financial pressure and the military pressure.

And when Bernstein wrote this article, he understood that this was the biggest story that he had ever covered; so, he went ahead and wrote this book, His Holiness John Paul II and the Hidden History of Our Time.

And I have not watched this Larry King interview for quite some time, but in it one of the things that always amazes me is that when he is going to interview Carl Bernstein about this book and tell some of the history that will confirm the history that we are identifying, there is a point—I forget exactly what it is, but we will find out in a moment—where he identifies that when this book was released, it was released in 11 languages, simultaneously. I think it was 11; maybe it was 6. My mind is foggy on that. But, if you have ever worked in publishing a book, to publish a book is one thing but to have it translated simultaneously into several languages and get them all published at the same time, for me that was always significant; because, it is this history that Seventh-day Adventists are going to be held accountable for understanding in terms of the Time of the End, the increase of knowledge, the Dirt Brush Man coming and beginning His work. So, you can see when the historians began to elaborate on this history, this perhaps was one of the most significant books. When it was released, it was released where Adventists in several different languages could get a hold of it.

So, we are going to look at this [video]. We cut it off short, because towards the end of the interview, it gets into areas we do not need to look at.

(At DVD 04:40 the Larry King Live interview of Carl Bernstein is shown to the audience.)

> Announcer: Now from New York, here is Larry King!
> Larry King: Good evening. A good show tonight: Valentino, Marla Maples, and Trump later. We are going to spend the first half hour with one of the best in the business, Carl Bernstein, the award winning journalist who, along with his former partner, Bob Woodward, changed the face of America in journalism, with "All the President's Men" and their coverage of Watergate.
>
> We now have his new book, His Holiness, from Doubleday. There you see its cover. It was co-written with Mr. Politi, an Italian journalist.
>
> How did that come about?
>
> Carl Bernstein: Marco Politi.
> Larry King: Marco Politi.
>
> Carl Bernstein: Well, this is a book that is really a biography, and at the same time it is history, the secret history of the end of the Cold War and the Pope's role in it. And because I do not have a Catholic or widely known Christian background, I thought that I really needed a collaborator who could put context to information that I was getting.
>
> Larry King: So, this was your baby, and you went to him?
>
> Carl Bernstein: Exactly.
>
> Larry King: And the two of you—is that hard? Well, you are used to it—right?— collaborating.
>
> Carl Bernstein: I am used to it. It was a wonderful experience in the sense that Marco brings a dimension to this book, a European sensibility and understanding of the history of the Papacy and the Vatican that I just don't have.
>
> Larry King: Who did what writing? How did that work?
> Carl Bernstein: I ended up sewing it all together, but he drafted some sections. The last part of the book, he is largely responsible for, in which you see the Pope in isolation in the declining years of his life.

Larry King: Well, maybe I am stupid, but is this your first major biography of this Pope?

Carl Bernstein: It is the first biography that really tells you what he has done and how he has been the great leader of our time.

Larry King: How did you, who are associated with other things, come to do a biography of the Pope, which Bob Woodward said on this program that it is one of the best books he has ever read?

Carl Bernstein: Well, First of all, it is about the power, and all of my books and work have been about power and the exercise of power.

I wrote a cover story for Time magazine saying that Pope John Paul II and Ronald Reagan had collaborated secretly to keep Solidarity—the Solidarity Labor Movement alive in Poland after the imposition of martial law, and this was the turning point and the great event at the end of the Cold War.

To my amazement, Gorbachev wrote a response to my piece in the New York Times, saying, "Yes, and without this Pope none of the events in Eastern Europe would have occurred."

And at that point I said that my intuitive sense of this man is one thing, but this is really the great story of our time.

Larry King: But did you attempt an interview?

Carl Bernstein: Yes. I did not get it, but we traveled with him. Marco has traveled with the Pope for 15 years, which is another dimension that Marco brings to this book. But, I really talked to the people closest to him and had access to remarkable secret documents, particularly in Washington, detailing the secret relationship, the visits made by CIA Director Casey to the Pope. Special Ambassador Vernon Walters, the one that took visits every six months that were totally secret, one of the biggest secrets that we had, to see the Pope.

Larry King: You got the cables?

Carl Bernstein: I got the cables.

Larry King: Are they in the book?

Carl Bernstein: Yes. Some of them. It talks about how the Pope examined satellite photos, Soviet troop deployments. We shared all of our most important intelligence with the Pope, particularly about Poland, which was the lynch pin to the end of Communism and the Soviet Union.

Larry King: Maybe Marco may be better to answer this, but I will ask of you: Why don't Popes do interviews?

Carl Bernstein: I think they feel that they are above it. I think that is a good enough reason.

Larry King: They do talk occasionally to a Cardinal—yes?—to do a Q&A.

Carl Bernstein: This Pope is the most media conscious Pope that there has ever been. He has written a book. He puts out a version of events that he wants to be put out.

And he has done interviews. He does interviews in which he has the questions submitted to him, and then he brings it out as a book later.

Larry King; (Laughter).

Carl Bernstein: Which we should all be able to do interviews like that.

Larry King: Like Bob Hope.

Carl Bernstein: Yes, exactly!

Larry King: Not a bad move (laughter).

Carl Bernstein: Yeah.

Larry King: But he is though, is he not, a great study in contradiction, that we can make the case that inside the Church he is one of the most conservative prelates; outside he is a Socialist. He is anti-capitalism. He is against big money. He thinks we should share the wealth, et cetera. Is he two people?

Carl Bernstein: He is more, than anything, a man of contradiction. He feels very close to women, and at the same time he has a tormented relationship, obviously, with all of womankind. He has got huge problems with the women in his church; they are leaving. The nuns are angry at him for not giving them an increased role in the Church. He is a dogmatic conservative and a liberal humanist.

Larry King: We can find very few of them in the United States, very few of them anywhere. How do you explain it? You must go back and explain this.

Carl Bernstein: Well, I think you have to look at his Polishness. He grew up under the Nazi occupation and then under the Communists in Catholic Poland, which was an area of Catholicism that was untouched by Western Catholicism.

But, I think the important thing to understand about this man is that he believes that he is divinely inspired. He is a mystic. That is the other key thing about him. He is a true mystic. He prays six to eight hours a day, lying down on the floor, his arms prone, as if he were on the cross.

Larry King: Hmm.

Carl Bernstein: He believes in apparitions of the Virgin. He believes he is the own life has been saved by the Virgin of Fatima. So, he seeks and acts on what he believes is divine inspiration, and this was particularly true in his struggle with the Communists, and particularly true in deciding that he and Ronald Reagan could work together.

Larry King: That is where the Humanism came from—right?—the struggle against oppressors?

Carl Bernstein: Well, I think the Humanism comes from his interpretation of God's will. I think it is more than just oppressors. He is someone who believes. He is a great champion of human rights and universal values, although there are women who would say that—

Larry King: In the area of human rights, abortion aside, maybe the number one spokesman in the world.

Carl Bernstein: Absolutely, he and Mandela. He and Nelson Mandela are the only great spokesmen in the world for universal principles.

Larry King: Our guest has been Carl Bernstein. The book has been published in about—what?—15 countries, simultaneously.

Carl Bernstein: Twelve countries.

Larry King: Twelve countries; that may be a first.

The book is His Holiness. The publisher in the West is Doubleday.

We will be back with Carl Bernstein on Larry King Live right after this.

(Break in program, and video resumes with President Ronald Reagan speaking)

President Ronald Reagan (presentation in progress, opening with camera shot of Pope John Paul II): In Poland you experienced Nazism and Communism. As Pope you suffered a terrorist attack that nearly claimed your life. Still you proclaim that the central message of our own time, that the central message of all time is not hatred but love.

(Applause)

Larry King: Tonight's show is the Road to Rome. Valentino later.

Our guest is Carl Bernstein. His book, His Holiness, from Doubleday, written with Marco Politi.

Right?

Carl Bernstein: Right.

Larry King: And published in 12 countries, simultaneously.

Carl Bernstein has always been very good at unearthing secrets. He finds a big one in this book, which is . . . ?

Carl Bernstein: Well, the United States' greatest secret of the end of the Cold War was that it spent $50 million for the CIA to keep Solidarity alive underground after martial law had been imposed by the Communists.

And I went to Bob Gates, who had been Bill Casey's Assistant Director and later Director of the CIA, and I said, "How did this secret keep?"

Because, had it been blown, it would have been devastating and the whole Cold War might have turned out differently.

And he looked at me and he said, "Good secrets keep. Bad secrets leak."

And this was our great secret.

Larry King: And the Pope is involved.

Carl Bernstein: The Pope was aware of it. He was told by President Reagan, by Casey during his visits, and by Walters of this support for Solidarity. He gave his own financial support to Solidarity.

But, what really happened, is Casey and the Pope engaged in what Casey called a geostrategic dialogue. He would come to Rome first on his visits when he would go around the world and come to see the Pope, and they would discuss particularly what was happening with the Soviet Union and what was happening with Soviet leadership, what was going on in Central America where the Pope and the Reagan Administration were very much in alliance. In fact, Oliver North gave money illegally to priests in Nicaragua. So, this was an alliance quite unlike anything that had ever happened.

Larry King: Was it a tough story to work?

Carl Bernstein: Yes, because it was an institution that I was unfamiliar with and, at the same time—you know, I believe people tell the truth. People want to tell the truth. And if you are a good listener and you go to see them and they know you have no preconceived notions about what it is that you are going to write, except what you find out to be the truth, you learn great things.

Larry King: What surprised you the most about the Pope?

Carl Bernstein: The greatest—well, the greatest surprise about this secret alliance to me—the greatest surprise about the Pope was his mysticism.

But, the greatest surprise about the secret alliance, I think, was the fact that the Pope was a crucial factor in our introducing cruise missiles into Europe. As a Deputy Secretary of State told me, the American Bishops, the European Bishops were all against the deployment of those missiles, which were the crucial aspect of American strategy in the Reagan defense buildup. And as the Deputy told me, he said if the Pope had gotten up one Sunday and said, "We don't want cruise missiles in one of the Catholic countries in Europe," this would have been the end of the deployment of cruise missiles.

So, what these secret cables from Walters show is almost every visit that Walters made to visit the Pope, you see the reference it says, "I showed the Pope the overhead photography," which means the satellite photos.

And then he says, "I gave him the SS-20 briefing," which is to brief him on American nuclear strategy and why the United States felt that those missiles were so important in Western Europe.

Larry King: Therefore, he is not just one of the more important Popes.

Carl Bernstein: Oh, no.

Larry King: He is one of the more important people.

Carl Bernstein: He is one of the great political figures of this century; and, certainly with Gorbachev and Reagan, these are the three men that have dominated the last part of our century.

Larry King: Why didn't Gorbachev and Reagan discuss this more?

Why didn't they give him credit?

Carl Bernstein: They do.

Larry King: They probably made speeches where—

Carl Bernstein: I went to see Ronald Reagan in 1991 when I first worked on this story. And I said, "Mr. President, how did this happen?"

And he said, "It was easy. I wanted to make them an ally," he said of the Vatican. And that is what he proceeded to do.

Larry King: But we didn't read this daily in our newspapers.

Carl Bernstein: Of course not. It was a great secret. It was our great secret. Here was a strategic super power and a spiritual super power combining their intelligence capabilities.

Remember, this is not a formal signed alliance. This is a convergence of interests, parallel interests.

Larry King: Can one say maybe religion shouldn't have been involved in this kind of story, that another Pope might have said, "Leave me out!"?

Carl Bernstein: Well, I think there are more serious questions about the separation of church and state in America.

Larry King: Yeah, sure.

Carl Bernstein: I mean, we certainly don't show satellite photos to the Dalai Lama; and, the Pope is in great competition—

Larry King: Or to the head of the Greek Orthodox Church?

Carl Bernstein: Well, exactly. And he is in competition with souls with the Protestant Fundamentalist Sects, with the Muslims. And each time the Pope would go to a country that he would visit—and this is the most peripatetic Pope, of course, that has ever been. He has traveled, you know, to a hundred countries in the world. We would brief him on the country he was about to go to. He would receive the CIA briefing materials on that country. So, it raises some serious questions about—

Larry King: Extraordinarily bright?

Carl Bernstein: Very bright, extraordinarily bright. He is a poet. He is a philosopher.

Larry King: A playwright?

Carl Bernstein: He is a playwright, an extraordinary man; one of the great men of our time.

Larry King: More about this fascinating gentleman by this fascinating author, Carl Bernstein. The book, His Holiness, from Doubleday. Don't go away.

(Break in program)

Larry King: Back a little, this book, His Holiness—back a little: How did Pope John Paul II get to be Pope?

Carl Bernstein: Well, his predecessor died after 33 days.

Larry King: He has been Pope for how long now?

Carl Bernstein: He has now been Pope since 1978. So, he has been Pope longer than any other Pope in this century, except one. And although he is very ill and infirm, he wants to be alive for the Millennium. And I wouldn't count him out.

Larry King: You would not?

Carl Bernstein: I would not.

Larry King: He looks so frail.

Carl Bernstein: He is frail. He has got Parkinson's. He may have another tumor. He is undergoing what they say is an appendectomy this week, which I think will also involve some exploratory surgery.

Larry King: He has been shocked.

Carl Bernstein: And he has been shocked.

The assassination is fascinating.

Larry King: Well, how did he get to be Pope?

Carl Bernstein: He got to be Pope because the Cardinals were looking (1) for someone who was tough on doctrine, which he is; (2) who was a humanist, who could be a force at the same time against the trends towards materialism in the West, back towards more spirituality; and (3) above all, his experience with the Communists. They were finally ready for a non-Italian Pope, the first non-Italian Pope in 450 years.

Larry King: And they chose someone that nobody could say, "I totally dislike," or "I totally love."

Carl Bernstein: Exactly.

(End of video interview)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what we are saying is, historical events are set before the people, and prophecy is confirmed. And what we are suggesting is represented in Daniel 11, verse 40, has been confirmed loud and clear by the historians of our time period.

About three weeks ago, four weeks ago, they dedicated a couple of statues in Poland, one of the Pope and one of Reagan. You just cannot get away from the fact that this was the biggest history of the last century, and that this is a fulfillment of the Book of Daniel, and it is from the Book of Daniel that God marks the Time of the End and the increase of knowledge.

So, we are going to switch gears here now, still dealing Daniel 11, verse 40, and we are going to start on page 1 of our notes.

Oh, before, I knew there was something that I wanted to say. Somewhere in the past worship service we have mentioned Daniel 11, verse 30. We dealt with it a little bit. And in verse 30 of Daniel 11 is the end of the story of Pagan Rome and the transition to Papal Rome, and we have looked at what Uriah Smith said about it.

And Pagan Rome is coming to a conclusion in Daniel 11, verse 30. And what marks the end of Pagan Rome being the primary subject in this passage is when it has intelligence with them that forsook the holy covenant, them that forsook the holy covenant being the Papacy.

And I hope you saw that the way this secret alliance was carried out is by the Central Intelligence Agency, and they were having intelligence with the man that has forsook the holy covenant; and, from this point on in the passage, then, the Pope becomes the point of reference, the Papacy.

This is worth noting because as we proceed through this study, Sister White is going to quote verses 30 through 36 of Daniel 11, in connection with the final fulfillment of Daniel 11, and saying, "Similar to those described in these words, verses 30 to 36 will be repeated in verses 40 to 45. So, this confirmation of the intelligence between the United States and the Vatican, it even uses the same word: intelligence, Central Intelligence Agency.

So, now to our notes. We will get to this repetition of history somewhere down the line in the future.

THE RISE OF THE GREAT CONTROVERSY

Education, page 391 says,

> "The Bible is its own expositor. Scripture is to be compared with scripture. The student should learn to view the word as a whole, and to see the relation of its parts. He should gain a knowledge of its grand central theme, of God's original purpose for the world, of the rise of the great controversy,"—

There are people that fight against what we are teaching, and one of the arguments is that their prophetic understanding is based upon the book, The Great Controversy. And if it is not specifically marked in the book, The Great Controversy, then it is just speculation on these men's parts about what they are saying.

But, the book, The Great Controversy, is absolutely the present truth book for the hour. I am not downplaying that; but, the book, The Great Controversy, is based upon the principle that the Great Controversy began in Heaven with Lucifer's rebellion, and it continues until the end of the issue; and, the Great Controversy is much broader than simply the book, The Great Controversy.

> —"He [THE STUDENT] should gain a knowledge of its grand central theme [OF THE BIBLE], of God's original purpose for the world, of the rise of the great > controversy, and of the work of redemption. He should understand the nature of the two principles that are contending for supremacy, and should learn to trace their working through the records of history and prophecy, to the great consummation. He should see how this controversy enters into every phase of human experience; how in every act of life he himself reveals the one or the other of the two antagonistic motives; and how, whether he will or not, he is even now deciding upon which side of the controversy he will be found." Education, 191.

So, we want to add a component to our consideration of Daniel 11, verse 40 to 45, and that being that this is the climax of the Great Controversy. And because this is the climax of the Great Controversy, these verses, at least on Planet Earth; because, when you get to Daniel 12:1, Michael stands up and human probation closes. This is the climax of the Great Controversy in terms of probationary time for human beings.

MICHAEL: "WHO IS LIKE GOD?"

Revelation 12:7-9

Daniel's last vision, chapters 10 through 12, is placed in the context of the Great Controversy; and, it is done so by the term "Michael."

You see in your notes, "Michael," and it means Who is like God? So, when you see Christ represented as Michael, that means Who is like God?, and it is telling you that when Christ is set forth in the Scriptures as Michael, there is a controversy going on about Who is like God?. And you are only going to find "Michael" mentioned three times in the Scriptures; but, upon the testimony of two or three a thing is established. So, every time you see "Michael" in the Scriptures, you see Him in direct confrontation with Satan.

Okay. So, when it comes to the King of the North, the King of the North is the Pope of Rome, but the Pope of Rome is the representative of Satan upon Earth.

And the true King of the North is Christ. And this Great Controversy that is symbolically represented by Michael is giving us another line to understand who the King of the North and what the King of the North in Daniel 11 is all about.

In Revelation 12, verses 7 through 9, it is familiar to all of us. It says,

> "[7]And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, [8]And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. [9]And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him." Revelation 12:7-9 (KJV).

Here we see Michael at the very beginning of the Great Controversy in war with Satan, and Satan is cast out with the angels to Planet Earth.

In Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 973:

> "In so deceptive a way did he [Lucifer] work that the sentiments that he inculcated could not be dealt with until they had developed in the minds of those who received them.

"The influence of mind on mind, so strong a power for good when sanctified, is equally strong for evil in the hands of those opposed to God. This power Satan used in his work of instilling evil into the minds of the angels, and he made it appear that he was seeking the good of the universe. As the anointed cherub, Lucifer had been highly exalted; he was greatly loved by the heavenly beings, and his influence over them was strong. Many of them listened to his suggestions and believed his words. 'And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.'

"Cast out of heaven, Satan set up his kingdom in this world, and ever since, he has been untiringly striving to seduce human beings from their allegiance to God. He uses the same power that he used in heaven—the influence of mind on mind. Men become tempters of their fellow men. The strong, corrupting sentiments of Satan are cherished, and they exert a masterly, compelling power. Under the influence of these sentiments, men bind up with one another in confederacies." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 973.

So, one of the things about the Great Controversy, when you see Michael illustrated, is that the way that Satan works is mind upon mind; and, we need to understand that in our own sphere of influence and interaction, who is it that is going to deceive us? Well, it is going to be another mind, and it is going to be another mind that we have respect for, someone that has been exalted in religious things.

We are not going to be deceived by the drug addict on the street. We are going to be deceived by this wonderful flowery pastor or preacher, and he is going to work upon our mind and give us errors that we do not even realize that we are receiving, until they have already developed their fruit in our own minds. At least, that is sometimes part of the story.

MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

Jude 1:5-9

Jude 1, beginning at verse 5:

"[5]I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. [6]And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. [7]Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. [8]Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. [9]Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee." Jude 1:5-9 (KJV).

So, here we see Michael in confrontation once again with Satan over the resurrection of Moses.

Now, these are the three points in the story of Michael: (1) the war in Heaven; (2) whether Christ has the power and authority to resurrect; and, then, of course, (3) we know in Daniel 12:1 Michael stands up. And now He is demonstrating His power to save a group of people that do not need to be resurrected; because, when He stands up, everyone that has the Seal of God, they are going to live without dying until Christ returns.

So, the story of Michael is the story of the rebellion in Heaven, and the story of Christ's authority to resurrect the righteous, and His authority to save those that we call the 144,000 that do not die.

And, there is more to what went on in that interaction between Satan and Michael at the resurrection of Moses. Sister White says this in The Spirit of Prophecy, volume 1, pages 342 – 343:

> "Satan exulted that he had succeeded in causing Moses to sin against God. For this transgression, Moses came under the dominion of death. If he had continued faithful, and his life had not been marred with that one transgression, in failing to give to God the glory of bringing water from the rock, he would have entered the Promised Land, and would have been translated to Heaven without seeing death. Michael, or Christ, with the angels that buried Moses, came down from Heaven, after he had remained in the grave a short time, and resurrected him, and took him to Heaven."—

I wonder how long he was in the grave. I have no idea. I get criticized for speculation, but I bet you he was resurrected on the third day.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter).

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"As Christ and the angels approached the grave, Satan and his angels appeared at the grave, and were guarding the body of Moses, lest it should be removed. As Christ and his angels drew nigh, Satan resisted their approach, but was compelled, by the glory and power of Christ and his angels, to fall back. Satan claimed the body of Moses, because of his one transgression; but Christ meekly referred him to his Father, saying, 'The Lord rebuke thee.' Christ told Satan that he knew Moses had humbly repented of this one wrong, that no stain rested upon his character, and that his name in the heavenly book of records stood untarnished. Then Christ resurrected the body of Moses, which Satan had claimed." The Spirit of Prophecy, volume 1, 342–343.

So, when we see Michael in the Scriptures—"Michael," meaning Who is like God?—He is always in confrontation with Satan.

DANIEL'S LAST VISION

This is the Great Controversy. It is the issue of Christ or Satan. And the climax of this story is in Daniel's last vision, and Daniel's last vision reaches its climax in the last six verses of Daniel 11. So, this truth about the Great Controversy about Michael, it has to be one of the components that you factor in to your understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11.

> SAR: Strong's Concordance H8269—a head person (of any rank or class):— captain (that had rule), chief (captain), general, governor, keeper, lord, ([-task-]) master, prince (-ipal), ruler, steward.

And Daniel's last vision, which is chapters 10 through 12, you are going to see in chapter 10 a confrontation between "Michael your prince," and "the prince of Persia."

And this word PRINCE is sar. It means a military commander. You see it defined there: a head person, a captain, a chief (captain), a governor, a keeper, lord, master, prince, ruler, steward.

When you see Michael in a confrontation with Satan, it is a war. It is a controversy. It is a struggle.

These princes in Daniel, chapter 10, the prince of Persia and Michael your prince, are representing the warfare that is going on in this time period.

And this word sar, occurs 420 times in the Old Testament, and it refers especially to military commanders.

In Joshua 5:15, it says,

> "[15]And the captain [sar] of the Lord's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so." Joshua 5:15 (KJV).

So, the prince of Persia and Michael your prince in Daniel 10, it is representing this Great Controversy, this argument about Who is like God?, and it is representing a spiritual warfare.

Sister White comments on Daniel 10 in this truth found in The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, page 1173. She quotes verses 12 and 13 of Daniel 10. Let us read that. Daniel 10: 12-13:

> "[Daniel 10:12–13 quoted.] [12]Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. [13]But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia."—

Okay. Gabriel was trying to convince Cyrus to follow through on his willingness to allow the children of Israel to go back and rebuild Jerusalem. Cyrus is the king of Persia.

But, in Gabriel's attempt to direct the mind of Cyrus, Satan is there, the prince of Persia; and, he is having to deal with the prince of Persia, Satan, and he cannot prevail. So, Michael your prince comes in.

But, you will notice in those verses 12 and 13 that you have the prince of Persia and the king of Persia. Sister White quotes those two verses, and then she says this:

> —"By this we see that heavenly agencies have to contend with hindrances before the purpose of God is fulfilled in its time. The king of Persia was controlled by the highest of all evil angels."—

Who is the highest of all evil angels?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Satan.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan.

> —"He refused, as did Pharaoh, to obey the word of the Lord. Gabriel declared, He withstood me twenty-one days by his representations against the Jews. But Michael came to his help, and then he remained with the kings of Persia, holding the powers in check, giving right counsel against evil counsel. Good and evil angels are taking a part in the planning of God in His earthly kingdom. It is God's purpose to carry forward His work in correct lines, in ways that will advance His glory. But Satan is ever trying to counterwork God's purpose. Only by humbling themselves before God can God's servants advance His work. Never are they to depend on their own efforts or on outward display for success.
> "We have before us in the Word of God instances of heavenly agencies working on the minds of kings and rulers, while at the same time satanic agencies were also at work on their minds. No human eloquence, in strongly set forth human opinions, can change the working of satanic agencies. Satan seeks continually to block the way, so that the truth shall be bound about by human devising; and those who have light and knowledge are in the greatest danger unless they constantly consecrate themselves to God, humiliating self, and realizing the peril of the times." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, 1173.

Okay. In our studies here, and this might challenge some people's understanding of what we teach or how you are to teach the message, but we are going to get to the point where we are going to look at Ezekiel 37. In Ezekiel 37 you have two messages. You have the First and Second Angels' Messages marked in Ezekiel 37. And the First Message causes a noise and a shaking. So, we are going to get to a point in time where we look at Ezekiel 37's First Angel's Message, and it causes a noise and a shaking. And this word noise is translated that way, but it can be translated as the voice. Okay. The First Message is the voice crying in the wilderness.

And this voice, this First Message in Ezekiel 37, it causes a shaking, but it also brings the body together, the bones, the sinews, the flesh. It brings them together, but they are not alive until the Second Message comes, the Message of the Four Winds.

So, when we get to that point in our study, we are going to put that into the mix, because the shaking, the shaking, is part of the prophetic message.

Okay. When the First Message comes, in 1989 when the Dirt Brush Man begins to sweep away the rubbish, the customs and traditions in Adventism that are preventing some of God's people from seeing that Daniel 11, verse 40, was fulfilled and that the Lord is now bringing His people together to finish the work, there is a shaking that goes on in Adventism. And the shaking is caused by those people that are resisting this message.

So, once this message came into history, there have been certain personalities in this history that have opposed it and have caused some people grief uf you name those men and say, "This man did this," or "This man did that." But, it is part of the prophetic record and it needs to be addressed; because, there are some of their arguments that were brought against this message that was what the Lord used to further open up light.

Okay. I will give you an example. We will deal with it in detail later, but I will give you an example. There was an argument that the glorious land was the Seventh-day Adventist Church, but the glorious land is the United States of America. So, this argument went on a great deal. And the Lord in seeking to be clear about the glorious land being the United States of America, He opened up the fact that Pagan Rome, when it took control of the world, they had to conquer three geographical areas; and, when Papal Rome took control of the world, they had to remove three geographical areas. Therefore, when modern Rome in Daniel 11:40-45 is taking control of the world, those obstacles have to be geographical areas. This truth would not have been recognized if there had not been anybody saying, "Hey, the glorious land is the Seventh-day Adventist Church." But, there is a whole group of people saying the glorious land is the Seventh-day Adventist Church. This false argument was used by the Lion of the tribe of Judah to lead the students of prophecy deeper into their study of God's Word to recognize one of the arguments against that—that is not the only argument against that false teaching—but, when you recognize that argument, then you recognize something that had not been recognized before. And what is that?

You would think this group would know. What is that? What is it that I just explained to you?

Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The glorious land?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. We were talking about the glorious land, but we are talking about the argument to defend the glorious land was—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The repeat of history?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The repeat of history, close.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Triple application?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Triple application of prophecy: Pagan Rome, Papal Rome, modern Rome. And suddenly you can see Elijah, the first; John the Baptist, Elijah the second; and, Elijah the third at the end of the world.

The triple application of prophecy allows you to see that is the First Woe is Islam and the Second Woe is Islam, then the Third Woe is Islam.

So, the shaking that goes on in this history, represented and marked by Ezekiel 37's First Message, is part of the story. So, we are going to address some of those issues so we can understand how the Lion of the tribe of Judah put these things in place.

So, when it comes to Daniel 11, verse 40 through 45, there were people—not very many, but there have been some—that argued that the King of the North here in these last six verses is not the Papacy.

We have shown that from the Bible the power that opposes God's people at the end of the world that it is the Northern King, and that Northern King is Babylon; and, we have shown that at the end of the world, we are looking for a spiritual Babylon and that Revelation 17 marks the Papacy as spiritual Babylon and, therefore, the Papacy is the King of the North.

We have shown also that the only place that you see the struggle between the King of the North and the King of the South in the Scriptures is in Daniel 11, and that the power that controls Babylon is the King of the North. So, we have been putting some arguments in place to identify that the King of the North is the Papacy.

We have also shown that in verse 31, when the abomination that maketh desolate is placed in AD538 that this is the Papacy and that there is no grammatical change from verse 31 to 40 that allows you to identify different kings than the Papacy.

But, what we want to add to that now is that we read a quote, the first quote we talked about this morning. I left off the last sentence of the quote from Selected Messages, book 2, page 102, I believe. It is on page 3 of your notes from yesterday. The last sentence in that quote says,

> ". . . The scenes connected with the working of the man of sin are the last features plainly revealed in this earth's history." Selected Messages, book 2, 102.

So, when we understand that the last six verses of Daniel 11 are the last scenes of Earth's history, then you expect to see the man of sin portrayed in those scenes; therefore, to identify the King of the North as the Papacy is in agreement with that passage.

But, also, when you understand that the climax of the story of Michael in the Scriptures is in Daniel's last vision, and you understand that Michael is the controversy over Who is like God?, then you see that this controversy should be in these verses that lead to Michael standing up.

And on page 3 of your notes—and I am not going to go all the way through this. I am going to close this with just making a point, and then we are going to take up our notes tomorrow right here on page 3.

THE SIDES OF THE NORTH

Isaiah 14:12-17; Psalm 48

But, in Isaiah 14, beginning in verse 12, it says,

"[12]How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning!"—

When did he fall from Heaven? When there was war in Heaven.

With whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Michael.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Michael.

—"how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! [13]For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven,"—

Remember, the whirlwind in verse 40, the mighty sweeping away, it means to ascend. When the Papacy is sweeping away the Soviet Union in 1989, it is beginning its ascent to the throne of the Earth. And ascending is a characteristic of the Papacy and Satan.

And Sister White tells us that the Protestants of the United States are going to restore the last ascendency of the man of sin.

So, in verse 13, it says,

—"[13]For thou has said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: [14]I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High."—

So, if you are careful in your consideration of these verses, you see that Satan wants to seat himself on two places. He wants to exalt his throne above the stars of God, but he will sit also—"I will sit also"—upon the mount of the congregation. Satan wants to sit upon God's political throne, and he wants to sit upon His religious throne, the Church; and, his Church is the mount of the congregation, which is in the sides of the North.

—"[15]Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. [16]They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; [17]That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?" Isaiah 14:12-17 (KJV).

And if you go to Psalm 48, Psalm 48 tells us what the sides of the North are. Beginning in verse 1, it says,

"[1]Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness. [2]Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on* the sides of the north, the city of the great King. [3]God is known in her palaces for a refuge. [4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. [5]They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away. [6]Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail. [7]Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. [8]As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah. [9]We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple. [10]According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness. [11]Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments. [12]Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof. [13]Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following. [14]For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death." Psalm 48 (KJV).

Okay. The king that sits upon Mount Zion is God; but, who wants to sit there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Satan.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan. Satan wants to counterfeit God.

And what is the counterfeit about in this sense? It is a counterfeit King of the North, the sides of the North.

So, when you understand that Satan is counterfeiting the King of the North, and you come back into Daniel 11:40-45 and you ask yourself who is the King of the North, you have another line of reasoning to identify the King of the North as Satan.

And if you return to your notes now, it says, from Testimonies, volume 9, page 230,

"The determination of antichrist to carry out the rebellion he began in heaven will continue to work in the children of disobedience." Testimonies, volume 9, 230.

Who is the antichrist of Bible prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Everyone just said the Papacy; but, is that what she is saying here: "The determination of antichrist to carry out the rebellion he began in heaven . . ." **?

You see, Satan and the Pope are interchangeable terms. When you see the antichrist, you have to determine by context if it is talking about the Papacy or Satan.

This antichrist here, this is the one that caused the rebellion in Heaven.

But, what does he want to do; what does Lucifer want to do? He wants to be seated on the sides of the North. He wants to be the King of the North. Satan wants to be the King of the North.

How does he accomplish that?

The next quote, The Great Controversy, page 50:

> "To secure worldly gains and honors, the church was led to seek the favor and support of the great men of earth; and having thus rejected Christ, she was induced to yield allegiance to the representative of Satan—the bishop of Rome." The Great Controversy, 50.

So, if the Bishop of Rome is the antichrist, and Satan is the antichrist, and Satan wants to be the counterfeit King of the North, what does the Pope want to be? The counterfeit King of the North. This is another argument to identify who the King of the North is in the last six verses of Daniel 11; but, it should be understood in the context of what Daniel's last vision is all about.

What is Daniel's last vision all about?

From Daniel 10 to Daniel 12, who is there? Michael. It is about Michael. It is about the Great Controversy, Who is like God? Is it Satan or is it Christ? It is about his efforts, Lucifer's efforts, to counterfeit Christ; because, he wants to be King of the North.

Signs of the Times, November 19, 1894:

> "Through the pope of Rome the same work has been carried on here on earth as was carried on in the courts of heaven before the expulsion of the prince of darkness. Satan sought to correct the law of God in heaven, and to supply an amendment of his own. He exalted his own judgment above that of his Creator, and placed his will above the will of Jehovah, and in this way virtually declared God to be fallible. The pope also takes the same course and, claiming infallibility for himself, seeks to adjust the law of God to meet his own ideas, thinking himself able to correct the mistakes he thinks he sees in the statutes and commands of the Lord of heaven and earth. He virtually says to the world, I will give you better laws than those of Jehovah. What an insult is this to the God of heaven!" Signs of the Times, November 19, 1894.

The Great Controversy, page 50:

> "This compromise between paganism and Christianity resulted in the development of 'the man of sin' foretold in prophecy as opposing and exalting himself above God. That gigantic system of false religion"—

What gigantic system of false religion?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Catholicism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Catholic system.

> —"That gigantic system of false religion is a masterpiece of Satan's power—a monument"—

A monument of what?

> —"of his efforts to seat himself upon the throne to rule the earth according to his will." The Great Controversy, 50.

Satan built the Catholic Church so that he would have a throne on the Earth to sit on when he comes and personates Christ. And when he comes to do this, his personation of Christ, his claim that he is Michael, includes his claim that he is the true King of the North; and, his representative on Earth is the Pope of Rome, therefore the Pope of Rome is the counterfeit King of the North.

So, when we are dealing with Daniel 11, we need to be clear about who the King of the North is in this passage. And when we are clear, it opens a wealth of information about what is being illustrated in these verses.

We will return to this point tomorrow in our study.

Shall we close with a word of prayer?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that the history that you have chosen to identify as the fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, is not an obscure or a remote history, that it is the biggest historical event of the 20th Century, and that there is an abundance of information in the secular reports that confirm the history that you have represented in verse 40. As your people, we want to understand this correctly and what it means to us. We ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit that our discernment might be fine-tuned to recognize that in 1989, when the collapse of the Soviet Union took place, that the Dirt Brush Man, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, began to remove the Seals, the customs, the traditions that have been handed down in Adventism. He began to remove those things that his people might understand this final experience, this final message in such a way that it will change them in your image and provide them with a message that they can carry to the world. Help us awaken out of our Laodicean condition, that we can see that we are now twenty-something years after the fact and by-and-large still in this Laodicean state. Forgive us for this. Forgive us for not fulfilling our responsibility to be students of prophecy and awaken us to this responsibility so that we can finish the work and go home with you soon we pray in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #46

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together this morning to continue our study of 1989 and Daniel 11, verse 40. We ask that you take control of this presentation and grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would allow us to enter by faith into the Most Holy Place with you that we can receive the light that you have for us this morning. Please prepare our hearts and minds for that light and take control of the words that I present, that they can be words that will glorify and honor you. And we want the Latter Rain poured out upon us, please. Prepare our vessels for this. We ask you for all these things in the name of Jesus. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are still dealing with 1989 as the ending point for William Miller's dream, as the Time of the End for the 144,000; and, we are showing that 1989 is a fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40.

Yesterday we dealt with a little bit on the fact that the last six verses of Daniel 11 is the climax of the Biblical teaching of Michael, "Michael" meaning Who is like God?, talking about the desire of Satan to take the place of God; and this controversy that has been carried on since the rebellion began in Heaven.

THE SIDES OF THE NORTH (CONTINUED)

Isaiah 14:12-17; Psalm 48

Today in our notes, we had closed out with the first few quotes in this presentation. We looked at Isaiah 14, where Satan wants to stand and sit upon God's throne, and sit upon the sides of the North; and, then we went to Psalm 48 to identify that the sides of the North is Zion, Jerusalem, God's Church. Satan wants to sit upon God's political throne and His religious throne.

And we noted that in the first quote there in Testimonies, volume 9, that Satan is called the antichrist, just like the Pope of Rome is the antichrist.

And then in The Great Controversy, page 50, we showed that the Pope is a representative of Satan on Earth; they are interchangeable, and their prophetic characteristics allow you to see either Satan or the Pope of Rome, and you have to determine who is being discussed in the Scriptures based upon the context.

We read the quote from Signs of the Times, November 19, 1894, that Satan is seeking to carry out the same work here on Earth that he began in Heaven through the Papacy, through the Pope of Rome.

And then we closed with The Great Controversy, page 50, which says,

> "This compromise between paganism and Christianity resulted in the development of 'the man of sin' foretold in prophecy as opposing and exalting himself above God. That gigantic system of false religion is a masterpiece of Satan's power—a monument of his efforts to seat himself upon the throne to rule the earth according to his will." The Great Controversy, 50.

Satan has built the Catholic Church for the purpose of ruling Planet Earth when he comes to personate Christ.

UNITES WITH THE DRAGON

Now, in this presentation, this is kind of a preparatory presentation for tomorrow when we are going to look at Armageddon.

We have said more than once now that Daniel 11, verse 40 is one of the most profound verses in God's Word. And rightly understood, in verse 40 you have the Papacy as the King of the North, and you have the dragon as the King of the South, and you have the United States as the False Prophet, represented in chariots, ships, and horsemen. And these three powers, the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet, they are the three powers that lead the world to Armageddon.

So, Armageddon is noted in Revelation 16; and, therefore, if you are really going to understand how the world gets led to Armageddon, you need to understand that this struggle that takes the world to Armageddon begins in Daniel 11, verse 40, with the King of the North, the King of the South, and the United States—the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. This is one of the truths that is in verse 40 that has opened up in 1989, at the Time of the End; and, these verses are dealing with the interaction of the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet all the way through. So, we want to look at that.

And we want to look at where the Beast (the Papacy, the King of the North) comes to his end in verses 44 and 45, so that we have the context for when we look at Armageddon tomorrow.

So, we are going to look at these three powers: the False Prophet, the United States; the Beast/the King of the North (the Papacy); and, the Dragon.

So, our first quote is from Manuscript Releases, volume 14, page 162. And there are a lot of things in here. We are going to pull certain things out and emphasize them.

> "Satan will work the miracles to deceive those who dwell upon the earth. Spiritualism will do its work by causing the dead to be personated. Those religious bodies who refuse to hear God's messages of warning will be under strong deception, and will unite with the civil power to persecute the saints. The Protestant churches will unite with the papal power in persecuting the commandment-keeping people of God. This is that power which constitutes the great system of persecution which will exercise spiritual tyranny over the consciences of men.
> "'He had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.'"—

Who is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the United States of America

> —"Though professing to be followers of the Lamb of God, men become imbued with the spirit of the dragon. They profess to be meek and humble but they speak and legislate with the spirit of Satan, showing by their actions that they are the > opposite of what they profess to be. This lamb-like power unites with the dragon"—

We are going to show this fact as we proceed in this worship study. We have not proven this yet; but, in Daniel 11, verse 41, you have a Sunday Law in the United States. That is also Revelation 13:11. When the United States speaks as a dragon, that is The Sunday Law in the United States.

And from verse 11 in Revelation 13, then the United States goes out and it forces the world to come under the authority of the United Nations. In verse 14 of Revelation 13, it says it commands the whole Earth to set up an image of the beast, and the only definition of the image of the beast is a combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship. The United States is the one that forces this.

So, one of the tricks to see in this Movement is Revelation 13, Daniel 11, Revelation 16, and Revelation 17. They are talking about the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. But, once the United States passes The Sunday Law, it then goes and commands the world to come under the umbrella of the Ten Kings of Revelation 17, the dragon power. And sometimes it is hard for people to recognize that as it implements, as the United States deceives the world in accepting this One World Government, this One World Government is represented by these Ten Kings in Revelation 17 and they are the Dragon. The Ten Kings are the Dragon; but, the United States unites with them. In fact, if you are going to be technical to the prophetic passage, when the United States is overcome in Daniel 11, verse 41 at The Sunday Law, and then Egypt, which is the world, is conquered in verses 42 and 43, the world there in Revelation 17 is these Ten Kings. But, they receive how many kingdoms according to Revelation 17?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: One.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: One kingdom.

And who is the primary king in those Ten Kings? It is the United States.

And it is technically correct, even today, that half the military strength of the United Nations is supplied by the United States, and over half the financing is already supplied by the United States to the United Nations. It [the United States] already controls it.

And, of course, this is the story of Jezebel; the Papacy, the King of the North; and the prophets of Baal that is the False Prophet, that is the United States. And, it is the story of Ahab (the Ten Kings).

Ahab was the king of how many tribes?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ten.

And the United States is Ahab. It is the one that is going to be directing the Ten Kings. But anyway, in this quote,

> —"This lamb-like power unites with the dragon"—THE DRAGON IS THE TEN KINGS—"in making war upon those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. And Satan unites with Protestants and papists,"—

So, what do you have there? We have what in Adventism we call the threefold union. Satan is the Dragon; Protestants are the False Prophet; papists are the Beast—a threefold union.

—"And Satan unites with Protestants and papists, acting in consort with them as the"—*what?—"the god of this world,"—

Satan is going to act as the god of this world, and our previous quote from The Great Controversy, page 50, he is prepared the Catholic Church so that he can be enthroned over Planet Earth.

—"And Satan unites with Protestants and papists, acting in consort with them as the god of this world, dictating to men as if they were the subjects of his kingdom, to be handled and governed and controlled as he pleases."—

This is not just a metaphor about Satan controlling the world. When he takes control of the world, he is going to govern it, handle it, and control it. He is here. He is here.

Continuing on:

—"If men will not agree to trample underfoot the commandments of God, the spirit of the dragon is revealed. They are imprisoned, brought before councils, and fined. 'He causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads' [Revelation 13:16]. 'He had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed' [verse 15]. Thus Satan usurps the prerogatives of Jehovah. The man of sin sits in the seat of God, proclaiming himself to be God, and acting above God." Manuscript Releases, volume 14, 162.

The man of sin here, by context of this passage, is not the Pope of Rome. It is Satan. And once again he is sitting in the seat of God, proclaiming himself to be God. So, in this history, you are going to have the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet; but, you are going to have the activities of Satan going on as well.

The Great Controversy, beginning at page 624, says,

"Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons."—

Now, if you have studied anything about the Papacy and the last Pope and this Pope, the last Pope and this Pope are like-minded into what their most important idol is. Both of them profess that the idol that directs them is Mary of Fatima. And since 1917 the messages of Fatima have been what have directed the Papacy in their understanding of end time events; and, these messages of Fatima are confirmed in the Catholic mind by apparitions that appear in the Heavens: you know, the Virgin Mary appears in the Heavens. And somewhere we even have recordings where the Virgin Mary was appearing in Georgia about 15 years ago, and there are people from a secular news station were there waiting for the apparitions to take place so they could record it with their news camera, and they did not take place. But what happened, it was a perfectly clear day and out of the sky it started raining rose petals everywhere. And this was recorded by secular people that did not believe it.

So, it depends on whether you believe a "Thus saith the Lord." "Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens," and that is where these miracles that are preparing the Catholic Church to believe the messages of Fatima are taking place.

And if you have paid attention over the past three or four weeks in this same place in Georgia, I am pretty sure, there is now a Catholic person that has come from Medjugorje, which is one of the places in Europe where the apparitions of Mary were taking place. And this person had seen the apparition of Mary way back when and has had dreams and visions, or whatever, since that time, and she is now visiting Georgia and thousands of people are going to this place in Georgia, right now, to be blessed by her.

How many of you have heard of that? Did you know that was going on?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Negative responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Seventh-day Adventists, they are too wrapped up in what they are wrapped up in, in their Laodicea daily activities.

But, when you look at Fatima, you see that Satan has prepared the Catholic Church with an understanding of end time events that allows them to believe that when Satan personates Christ that they are going to turn their Church over to him. Okay? That is what it means that he has taken the time and trouble to prepare the Catholic Church so that he has a throne to rule from; and, he is going to announce a curse against the Bad Pope. And according to the message of Fatima, the Pope that is ruling right now is the Bad Pope and he is going to pronounce a blessing upon the Good Pope, and that is Pope John Paul II that is dead. I would not be surprised to see him resurrected when Satan appears. That is what it says is going to happen, because he is the Good Pope.

> "Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons. The spirits of devils will go forth to the kings of the earth and to the whole world, to fasten them in deception, and urge them on to unite with Satan in his last struggle against the government of heaven. By these agencies, rulers and subjects will be alike deceived. Persons will arise pretending to be Christ Himself, and claiming the title and worship which belong to the world's Redeemer. They will perform wonderful miracles of healing and will profess to have revelations from heaven contradicting the testimony of the Scriptures.
> "As the crowning act in the great drama of deception, Satan himself will personate Christ."—

This is marked in Revelation 13:13. He causes fire to come down out of heaven, and the messages of Fatima, as I have already said, have informed the Catholic Church that when Christ returns they will know that he is "Christ" because he is going to return and call fire down from out of heaven.

> "As the crowning act in the great drama of deception, Satan himself will personate Christ. The church has long professed to look to the Saviour's advent as the consummation of her hopes. Now the great deceiver will make it appear that Christ has come. In different parts of the earth, Satan will manifest himself among men as a majestic being of dazzling brightness, resembling the description of the Son of God given by John in the Revelation. Revelation 1:13–

15. The glory that surrounds him is unsurpassed by anything that mortal eyes have yet beheld. The shout of triumph rings out upon the air: 'Christ has come! Christ has come!' The people prostrate themselves in adoration before him, while he lifts up his hands and pronounces a blessing upon them, as Christ blessed His disciples when He was upon the earth. His voice is soft and subdued, yet full of melody. In gentle, compassionate tones he presents some of the same gracious, heavenly truths which the Saviour uttered; he heals the diseases of the people, and then, in his assumed character of Christ, he claims to have changed the Sabbath to Sunday, and commands all to hallow the day which he has blessed. He declares that those who persist in keeping holy the seventh day are blaspheming his name by refusing to listen to his angels sent to them with light and truth. This is the strong, almost overmastering delusion. Like the Samaritans who were deceived by Simon Magus, the multitudes, from the least to the greatest, give heed to these sorceries, saying: This is 'the great power of God.' Acts 8:10.

"But the people of God will not be misled. The teachings of this false christ are not in accordance with the Scriptures. His blessing is pronounced upon the worshipers of the beast and his image, the very class upon whom the Bible declares that God's unmingled wrath shall be poured out." The Great Controversy, 624–625.

Now, one of the things that we are saying here is, in verse 40 we are preparing the way for tomorrow so we can see Armageddon; we can see that verse 40 is addressing Revelation 16 and the world getting led to Armageddon. But, in verse 40 you have the story of Fatima, if you are willing to see it; because, in verse 40 you have the struggle between the King of the North and the King of the South, and the starting point, the historians tell you the starting point for the modern King of the South, the Soviet Union, was in October of 1917 at the Bolshevik Revolution, a/k/a the Russia Revolution, the October Revolution.

But the starting point for the messages of Fatima was October 1917 as well; and, on the 13th of the month, for five consecutive months leading up to October 13th—or maybe it was six consecutive months—the Virgin Mary would meet with three young children in Portugal. She would appear to them and promise to do a miracle in October of 1917 to prove that she had really been meeting with these children—and I will not go through that history at this time. But, she left some messages with these children that is the point of reference for Catholic prophetic understanding. And one component of the message is that the Pope that was in power at that time was supposed to call a special meeting of all the Cardinals, bring them together, and pray for Russia and dedicate Russia to the Virgin Mary. And if they would have done this, then Russia would have been healed and returned to Mary; but, if they refused to do that, then Russia was going to propagate the errors that it was holding onto and it was going to cause a Second World War. They had just got out of the First World War in that history; and, it even predicts a Third World War.

And with these messages were carried to the Vatican, and every Pope that became a Pope from that point on, 1917 onward, they would all read the messages but none of them would call this special meeting, not even Pope John Paul II. He did not call the special meeting until he was shot. And when he was taken into the hospital, then the Miracle of Fatima that had occurred in October 1917 appeared outside the window of his hospital room—this is Catholic; you can believe what you want to believe. I am not saying that you have to believe this, but this is their story—it appeared outside his window, and then he sent for those messages and realized that he was the man to call this Conclave, and he was the Good Pope. But it was already too late. It was already too late. They had not dedicated Russia to the Virgin Mary, and Russia was going to propagate its errors in the world and the Second World War had already passed.

The point being, those messages of Fatima that were given in October 1917, they were well in advance of the Second World War; and, who could be sure in October 1917 (the very month and year of the Bolshevik Revolution), who was going to know that the Russians were even going to be successful as they went in and killed the Tzar's family and began the Revolution?

Maybe when they kicked down the doors and killed the Tzar and his family, there were men there waiting for them with guns and they would blow them all away and Communism does not even get started. But, the messages of Fatima addressed the fact that the philosophy of Communism was going to be propagated over the years.

So, when you see the purpose of the Fatima miracle, you see it right there in verse 40, because the starting point for the modern King of the North and the starting point for the modern King of the South is the same month, the same year, and it is in the history of verse 40 and it is what is directing the mindset for both of those powers.

And you see in the messages of Fatima the philosophical preparation of Satan to the Catholic Church to prepare the Catholic Church to receive him as Christ when he personates Christ. That is, if you believe that he is going to personate Christ.

The next quote, The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 5, page 1105:

> "As the second appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ draws near, satanic agencies are moved from beneath."—

A power came down from above on 9/11; a power rises from beneath.

> —"Satan will not only appear as a human being, but he will personate Jesus Christ; and the world that has rejected the truth will receive him as the Lord of lords and King of kings. He will exercise his power, and work upon the human imagination. He will corrupt both the minds and the bodies of men, and will work through the children of disobedience, fascinating and charming, as does a serpent. What a spectacle will the world be for heavenly intelligences! What a spectacle for God, the Creator of the world, to behold!" The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 5, 1105.
> PERSONATE: To represent by a fictitious or assumed character so as to pass for the person represented. Webster's 1828 Di tio a ry.

So, what does PERSONATE mean? To represent by a fictitious or assumed character so as to pass for the person represented.

Satan is going to be here in person, pretending to be Christ.

REVELATION 13:11-13

Okay. Let us go to Revelation 13, verses 11 through 13.

Verse 11:

> "[11]And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon."—

Now, we are going to show you here—but I am going to say it in advance so when we finally show it you will have a second or a third testimony so it will sink in—Sister White clearly identifies that Revelation 13 begins in 1798. She says, "When the Papacy was robbed of its strength" —that is 1798—"John beheld a new power coming up out of the earth," and then she speaks about the lamb-like beast of the United States. So, Sister White plainly says that in 1798, when the Papacy was robbed of its strength, that is when John sees the Revelation 13 vision. That is when he sees the United States coming up out of the Earth. So, verse 11 is where the United States is introduced.

And the Spirit of Prophecy is clear that the speaking of a nation is an action of its legislative and judicial authority. So, when this lamb-like beast in verse 11 speaks as a dragon, it is marking The Sunday Law in the United States.

So, what I want you to see is that verse 11 begins in 1798 and it ends at The Sunday Law; and, Daniel 11, verse 40, begins in 1798 at the Time of the End, and it ends in verse 41, which is The Sunday Law. It is not an accident that the history of Daniel 11:40 is the identical history of Revelation 13:11. And Revelation 13:11 ends when the Papacy conquers the glorious land, Daniel 11:40.

And then verse 12 says,

> —"[12]And he [the United States] exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. [13]And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, . . ." Revelation 13:11-13 (KJV).

So, the United States is the power that is the False Prophet.

Two out of three words in the Revelation comes from the Old Testament. Where is John getting verse 13 from? Where is verse 13 of Revelation 13 derived from, what passage in the Old Testament? Elijah.

Elijah calls fire down from out of Heaven. And when Elijah calls fire down out of Heaven, what is happening there? We have studied this in the worship. What is taking place?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The contest between the true and false prophets.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The true and false prophets are being demonstrated.

And who is the true prophet?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Elijah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Elijah.

But, this is not the true Prophet, is it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Negative response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who is it? It is the United States.

This is the proof text that the United States is the False Prophet of Bible prophecy. The United States is the one that is going to force the world to accept the mark of the beast, the image of the beast. It is the False Prophet.

The Great Controversy, page 553, this passage here is one of several but on this theme Seventh-day Adventists need to wrap their minds around.

> "Many endeavor to account for spiritual manifestations by attributing them wholly to fraud and sleight of hand on the part of the medium. But while it is true that the results of trickery have often been palmed off as genuine manifestations, there have been, also, marked exhibitions of supernatural power. The mysterious rapping with which modern spiritualism began was not the result of human trickery or cunning, but was the direct work of evil angels, who thus introduced one of the most successful of soul-destroying delusions. Many will be ensnared through the belief that spiritualism is a merely human imposture; when brought face to face with manifestations which they cannot but regard as supernatural, they will be deceived, and will be led to accept them as the great power of God.
> "These persons overlook the testimony of the Scriptures concerning the wonders wrought by Satan and his agents. It was by satanic aid that Pharaoh's magicians were enabled to counterfeit the work of God. Paul testifies that before the second advent of Christ there will be similar manifestations of satanic power. The coming of the Lord is to be preceded by 'the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness.' 2 Thessalonians 2:9,10. And the apostle John, describing the miracle-working power that will be manifested in the last days, declares: 'He doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, and deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do.' Revelation 13:13, 14. No mere impostures are here foretold. Men are deceived by the miracles which Satan's agents have power to do, not which they pretend to do." The Great Controversy, 553.

So, I know that when I told you that there were rose petals falling from a blue sky, raining on this place in Georgia, you probably thought that it was pretty far-fetched; but, it has been recorded.

PENTECOST

Now, this is a familiar passage in what we have been studying, The Great Controversy, starting at page 611; but, I want to pull something out of this passage. This is where Sister White compares Millerite History with our history of Revelation 18, and then there is a paragraph where she says,

> "The work will be similar to that of the Day of Pentecost. . . .
> "The great work of the gospel is not to close with less manifestation of the power of God than marked its opening. The prophecies which were fulfilled in the outpouring of the former rain at the opening of the gospel are again to be fulfilled in the latter rain at its close. Here are 'the times of refreshing' to which the apostle Peter looked forward when he said: 'Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; and He shall send Jesus.' Acts 3:19, 20.

> "Servants of God, with their faces lighted up and shining with holy consecration, will hasten from place to place to proclaim the message from heaven. By thousands of voices, all over the earth, the warning will be given. Miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and signs and wonders will follow the believers. Satan also works, with lying wonders,"—

Who works?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Satan.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan.

> —"even bringing down fire from heaven in the sight of men. Revelation 13:13. Thus the inhabitants of the earth will be brought to take their stand." The Great Controversy, 611–612.

Satan is going to bring fire from down out of heaven, according to the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy, to prove that he is Christ. The Catholic Church has been prepared by the messages of Fatima, which find their roots in Daniel 11, verse 40, to turn their church over to "Christ" when "Christ" calls fire from down out of heaven.

WHEN

We have put in place here that in the history of these verses, Daniel 11:40-45, one of the things that takes place is that Satan is going to personate Christ. Now we want to mark when this takes place.

Testimonies, volume 5, page 451:

> "By the decree enforcing the institution of the Papacy in violation of the law of God, our nation will disconnect herself fully from righteousness."—

This is The Sunday Law, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation responses.)
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Which Sunday Law? It is The Sunday Law in the United States. Okay?

> —"When Protestantism shall stretch her hand across the gulf to grasp the hand of the Roman power, when she shall reach over the abyss to clasp hands with Spiritualism, when, under the influence of this threefold union, our country shall repudiate every principle of its Constitution as a Protestant and republican government, and shall make provision for the propagation of papal falsehoods and delusions, then we may know that the time has come for the marvelous working of Satan and that the end is near." Testimonies, volume 5, 451.

So, when does Satan begin his marvelous acts?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: At The Sunday Law in the United States.

And there is a principle here just on how the Spirit of Prophecy works that you should pay attention to as a student of prophecy. Often Sister White would say, "When this . . . ,"

"When this," "When this," When this," "When this, then this will happen." And this is one of those paragraphs.

So, what we are saying is—and we have not proved Daniel 11, verse 41, though, at this point—that this is Daniel 11, verse 41.

This is Daniel 11, verse 40 [referring to Figure No. 89].

This is the history of verse 40. And the history of verse 40 ends at verse 41, which is Revelation 13:11, when the United States speaks as the dragon. This is The Sunday Law.

When The Sunday Law comes, Satan personates Christ. This may be something you never thought about; it may be something that you already know; but, there are people that think otherwise. They think Satan comes before The Sunday Law; but, that is not what the Scriptures say.

Satan comes in Revelation 13:13. He calls fire down out of heaven, and verse 13 comes after verse 11; and, in verse 11 the United States speaks as a dragon. And here Sister White says it is at The Sunday Law, the decree in the United States; then, the time has come for the marvelous workings of Satan, and we can know then that the end is near.

Now, maybe you do not understand the necessity of marking when Satan personates Christ, but it is a waymark that we are going to put in place.

The next quote, The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 911:

> "The time is coming when Satan will work miracles right in your sight, claiming that he is Christ; and if your feet are not firmly established upon the truth of God, then you will be led away from your foundation. The only safety for you is to search for truth as for hid treasures. Dig for the truth as you would for treasures in the earth, and present the word of God, the Bible, before your Heavenly Father and say, Enlighten me; teach me what is truth. . . . You should store the mind with the word of God; for you may be separated, and placed where you will not have the privilege of meeting with the children of God.
> "None need be deceived. The law of God is as sacred as His throne, and by it every man who cometh into the world is to be judged. There is no other standard by which to test character. 'If they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.'"—

What is she saying?

They are saying that Sunday is supposed to be sacred. It is Satan.

> —"Now, shall the case be decided according to the Word of God, or shall man's pretensions be credited?

> "Says Christ, 'By their fruits ye shall know them.' If those through whom cures are performed, are disposed, on account of these manifestations, to excuse their neglect of the law of God and continue in disobedience, though they have power to any and every extent, it does not follow that they have the great power of God. On the contrary, it is the miracle-working power of the great deceiver. He is a transgressor of the moral law, and employs every device that he can master to blind men to its true character. We are warned that in the last days he will work with signs and lying wonders. And he will continue these wonders"—AND HE WILL CONTINUE THESE WONDERS—"until the close of probation,"—

This is Daniel 12:1.

Do you see that? You will get arguments from people. They say that Satan is still doing a work of deception in the Seven Last Plagues.

I do not doubt that he is still lying during the time period of the Seven Last Plagues; but, when Michael stands up in Daniel 12:1 and human probation closes, there is not anyone else to deceive. Every case is decided.

> —"And he will continue thee wonders until the close of probation, that he may point to them as evidence that he is an angel of light and not of darkness.
> "Satan will work his miracles to deceive; he will set up his power as supreme. The church may appear as about to fall, but it does not fall. It remains, while the sinners in Zion will be sifted out—the chaff separated from the precious wheat"—

The sinners in the Seventh-day Adventist Church, they go out. They are the ones that go out.

> —"This is a terrible ordeal, but nevertheless it must take place. None but those who have been overcoming by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony will be found with the loyal and true, without spot or stain of sin, without guile in their mouths. . . . The remnant that purify their souls by obeying the truth gather strength from the trying process, exhibiting the beauty of holiness amid the surrounding apostasy." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 911.

When do the sinners in Zion go out?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Right here (indicates The Sunday Law).

So, the righteous in Zion at The Sunday Law, what do they become?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They are without spot.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are without spot, but what are they, prophetically.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The ensign.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The ensign. There is going to be an ensign lifted up.

And who is Satan here? He is personating Christ, but who is he in this story?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The King of the North.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, he is Satan. The King of the North is the Papacy.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Dragon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: ["Writes 'Barabbas' into the history's timeline.] See, the world is choosing again. This is the cross all over again. They are choosing between Christ and Barabbas.

BAR, what does BAR mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Son of.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Son of.

What is ABBA?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Father.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is a false "christ." This is Satan personating Christ.

At this same time that he appears and the world is going to be choosing between Barabbas and the righteous in Zion. The righteous in Zion we have been emphasizing is the ensign. Right? So, the world is choosing between the ensign and Barabbas.

And what is the ensign? It is the 144,000 that are on the cross. Barabbas is not on the cross.

Let that sink home, because it gives you an idea of what is going to happen to the righteous at this time.

NEVER AGAIN

And if you are not sure that the Adventist Church does not fall because you are one of those Adventists that think the Seventh-day Adventist Church is Babylon and that we are supposed to separate from it, upon the testimony of two a thing is established. The next quote, Manuscript Releases, volume 18, page 11, says,

> "'God's people are rising,' said the angel, 'never to fall again.' 'Be careful,' said the angel, 'lest the branches be cut off and others are raised up in their stead.'" Manuscript Releases, volume 18, 11.

So, there are some branches in Adventist that are going to be cut off. Who is that? That is those in the previous passage that go out from among us.

And, those branches are going to be replaced with what? The eleventh-hour workers in this history [between Daniel 11:41 and Daniel 12:1]. So, the Church does not fall; The Sunday Law purifies it.

Now, one of the things that I want to put in place for future reference is that from The Sunday in the United States, Daniel 11:41 to Daniel 12:1, this period of time, this is a special period of time. It is marked in prophecy from a variety of ways. And one of the things that takes place in this period of time is Satan is personating Christ. There are other things. Keep that in your memory bank. We will return to that thought at some point in time, Lord willing.

THE BATTLE OF ZION AND BABYLON (FIRST AND LAST)

Revelation 1:8; Daniel 1:1-2; Daniel 11:44-12:1

Now, we want to close by putting one more thing in place in advance of tomorrow's presentation.

Jesus is the First and the Last, and His signature in the Scriptures is that He illustrates the end from the beginning. And there is another argument that is valid that shows you that the King of the North in the last six verses of Daniel 11 is Babylon, and it is based upon "the First and the Last."

Go to Daniel 1.

You will see in your notes that we have reference there Revelation 1:8, identifying that Christ is the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last.

> "[8]I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty." Revelation 1:8 (KJV).

Daniel 1, verses 1 and 2, says,

> "[1]In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. [2]And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god." Daniel 1:1-2 (KJV).

So, the beginning of the testimony of Daniel is the war between the King of the North and Jerusalem. And because Jesus is the First and the Last, the Alpha and the Omega, the end of Daniel's testimony is talking about this identical war. And if the enemy that is attacking Jerusalem in Daniel 1, verses 1 and 2, is the King of the North (the king of Babylon), then the enemy that is attacking Jerusalem at the end is going to be the King of the North (the king of Babylon); and, spiritual Babylon at the end of the world in Revelation 17 is the Papacy.

So, if you do to Daniel 11, verse 44, we will see the end of this story.

So, based upon the First and the Last in the Book of Daniel, you can see who the King of the North is. It is the king of Babylon.

Beginning at verse 44 of Daniel 11, it says,

> "chapter 11:44But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him:"—SHALL TROUBLE THE KING OF THE NORTH, THE KING OF BABYLON (THE PAPACY)—"therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. [45]And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas ~~in~~ [AND] the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.
> "chapter 12:1 And at that time shall Michael stand up, ..." Daniel 11:44 - 12:1 (KJV).

So, Daniel's story begins with the battle of Jerusalem and Babylon; it ends with the battle of Jerusalem and Babylon. In the first reference, Babylon defeats Jerusalem; but, here at the end, Babylon comes to his end and none shall help.

And where he comes to his end is between the seas and the glorious holy mountain; and, the glorious holy mountain is Jerusalem.

And my brother Noel, he did not get here early. I did not ask him to, so he had no way to know. So, this is my artwork. This is not his artwork.

This is the glorious holy mountain; this is Jerusalem.

And this is the Mediterranean Sea.

This is the Sea of Galilee.

This is the Dead Sea.

And the King of the North in verses 44 and 45 of Daniel 11, he is going to come to his end with none to help, between the seas and the glorious holy mountain, somewhere right in here.

And this right here, this is Esdraelon Valley; and, this is the Esdraelon Ridge; that is what these lines are.

And this is Mount Carmel.

And this (the Mediterranean Sea) is the ocean where Elijah had them go out and get the water.

Mount Carmel, this is the story of Elijah.

But, right here, this is Megiddo. This is Armageddon.

So, when Daniel 11, in verses 44 and 45 is saying the Papacy (Babylon, the King of the North) comes to his end with none to help, and he comes to his end between the seas and the glorious holy mountain, it is right here (x).

How do you know that? You know that because all the prophets agree with one another. They are all telling the same story.

THE DAUGHTER OF ZION

Jeremiah 6:22-23; Micah 4 (verse 11); Psalm 48:1-8; 83:1-5

Now, in this story, in the King James, you can get a little bit side-tracked. Verse 45, again, it says,

> "[45]And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain." Daniel 11:45 (KJV).

So, there are some people saying, "Well, that is saying that he is going to plant the tabernacles of his palace right here in the glorious holy mountain." He is going to plant his banner.

But, other translations, instead of having in, they put and, "between the seas and the glorious holy mountain," and this is the correct translation. But, I want to show it to you from the Scriptures, because the Papacy does not conquer the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of the world.

So, go to Jeremiah 6:22-23.

> "[22]Thus saith the LORD, Behold a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth. [23]They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion." Jeremiah 6:22-23 (KJV).

What is a daughter in the Scriptures?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the offspring. It is the last offspring.

It is a woman, so it is a church; but, it is the remnant church. It is the remnant people of God. It is Jerusalem. It is the daughter of Zion.

There is a people coming from the North that is going to attack them, according to Jeremiah.

Notice Micah. Go to the Book of Micah, chapter 4.

> "[1]But in the last days, it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains,"—

That is this mountain. That is Jerusalem.

Jerusalem has several mountains around it, but the glorious holy mountain is where the temple is.

> —"the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. [2]And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
> "[3]And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. [4]But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. [5]For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

"[6]In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted. [7]And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever. [8]And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem. [9]Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail. [10]Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

"[11]Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion. [12]But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor. [13]Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth." Micah 4 (KJV).

That is Daniel 2. That is what the Lord is going to do with the 144,000. He is going to thresh Babylon.

But, what I want you to see is that in verse 11, many nations are going to be gathered against Jerusalem. And this is not literal Jerusalem; this is spiritual [Jerusalem]. We are after the cross. But, many nations are going to be gathered against Jerusalem.

In verse 11 of Micah, it says, "Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled,"—let who be defiled? God's Church—"and let our eye look upon Zion." They are going to look at it. Okay? They are going to look upon it.

Who is going to look upon it?

Psalm 48, beginning at verse 1:

"[1]Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness. [2]Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. [3]God is known in her palaces for a refuge. [4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together."—

What are they passing by?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Zion.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jerusalem, Zion, the sides of the North.

—"[5]They saw it, and so they marvelled;"—

They are looking at her. This is Micah 4. They are looking at her.

> —"[4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away. [6]Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail. [7]Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. [8]As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah." Psalm 48:1-8 (KJV).

So, the wicked, all nations are going to come against God's people. They are going to look at Zion; but, in that time period, trouble is going to take hold of them as a woman in labor because the East wind of Islam is going to take down the economic structure of Planet Earth. We are not there yet, but they are looking upon Zion to destroy it.

Okay. Go to Psalm 83.

Many nations are going to come against the glorious holy mountain. They are going to look over God's people, and what are they going to wish to do?

Psalm 83, beginning at verse 1:

> "[1]Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God. [2]For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head. [3]They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. [4]They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. [5]For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee:

This is the Ten Kings of Revelation 17. This is the nations of the world coming to destroy God's people at the end of the world.

Okay. So, there is a war at the end of the world. Then, where is the war marked? It is marked in Daniel 11:40-45. This is where the enemy of God's people is going to his end with none to help.

BETWEEN THE SEAS

Joel 2:20.

Look at Joel 2:20.

Now we are going to teach a very subtle but important point. They never get into Jerusalem. They never make it in. They come to their end outside Jerusalem.

In verse 20 of Joel 2, we have looked at this before. It says,

> "[20]But I will remove far off from you the northern army,"—

This is the King of the North.

> —"and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things." Joel 2:20 (KJV).

His hinder parts are going to be pointing this sea [the Sea of Galilee], and his face towards this sea [the Mediterranean Sea]; because, he is going to come to his end between the seas and the glorious holy mountain [see Figure 90]. And he comes to his end right here [Megiddo].

So, if he comes to his end right here [at Megiddo], is he in Jerusalem?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, he is not in Jerusalem.

HE REMAINS AT NOB

Isaiah 10:24-27; 32-34

Go to Isaiah 10. Verses 24 through 27 says,

> "[24]Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian:"—

Where is Assyria? To the North.

> —"be not afraid of the Assyrian [THE KING OF THE NORTH]: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt. [25]For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction. [26]And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt. [27]And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing." Isaiah 10:24-27 (KJV)

Now, in verse 32, speaking of when the Lord destroys the King of the North where his persecution is ended—that is what we just read there—in verse 32, it says,

> "[32]As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem."—

He is going to shake his hand at Jerusalem, but he is going to be at Nob.

> —"[33] Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled. [34] And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one." Isaiah 10:32-34 (KJV).

That tree of Babylon gets cut down, and it gets cut down at Nob.

NOB: Mount Scopus, the northernmost summit of the Mount of Olives, about two miles northeast of Jerusalem.

And in your notes, NOB is the name for Mount Scopus, which is the northern most summit of the Mount of Olives, about two miles northeast of Jerusalem. So, Nob is outside of Jerusalem. Right? It is not in Jerusalem; it is outside of Jerusalem.

When the Bible talks about the King of the North coming to his end, he does not come to his end in the glorious holy mountain. It is outside.

THE ENTRY OF THE EAST GATE

Now, I am not going to read Jeremiah 19 because of time, but Jeremiah 19 talks about Tophet, and Tophet was outside of Jerusalem. That is where Ahas and other wicked people offered their children to Molech. They burnt them alive.

TOPHET: "to burn," "fireplace." Where Israel burned their children to Molech.

"[1]Thus saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests; [2]And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee, [3]And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle. [4]Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents; [5]They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind: [6]Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter. [7]And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. [8]And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof. [9]And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them. [10]Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee, [11]And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury. [12]Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet: [13]And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods. [14]Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD's house; and said to all the people, [15]Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words." Jeremiah 19 (KJV).

TOPHET IS ORDAINED OF OLD

Isaiah 30:31-33

> [31]For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod. [32]And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it. [33]For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it." Isaiah 30:31-33 (KJV).

And Tophet, according to Isaiah 30: 31-33, has been ordained of old; and, it was outside of Jerusalem: Tophet. So, this is another place, if you study these verses in your notes, where the King of the North comes to his end, at Tophet, outside of Jerusalem.

ROUND ABOUT JERUSALEM

Joel 2:28 – 3:21

But, in Joel 2:28, we will look at Joel 2:28.

> ""chapter 2:28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: [29]And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. [30]And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. [31]The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD come. [32]And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call. ""chapter 3:1 For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again"—

And what is "bring again" mean in the Hebrew?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Reverse.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Reverse.

> —"when I shall bring again [REVERSE] the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, [2]I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat,"—

And what are all nations gathered for at this time? To attack Jerusalem; they are coming to attack Jerusalem. This is the King of the North.

> —""[2]I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land. [3]And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink. [4]Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head; [5]Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things: [6]The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border."—

And I hope you are seeing—we have not been mentioning it—that in this time period, what is happening to God's people? They are being persecuted. They are being scattered. They are being taken captive.

Verse 7:

—"[7]Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:"—

And here it is referencing the Valley of Jehoshaphat, but this is happening all around the world to God's people. So, this is not the literal Valley of Jehoshaphat. This is a spiritual war.

Verse 8:

—"[8]And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah,"—

Here are the eleventh-hour workers.

—"and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

"[9]Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up: [10]Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. [11]Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD. [12]Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. [13]Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great. [14]Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision:"—

So, what is the Valley of Jehoshaphat?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The valley of decision.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the valley of decision.

—"for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. [15]The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. [16]The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. [17]So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.

"[18]And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth out of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim. [19]Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land. [20]But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation. [21]For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion." Joel 2:28 – 3:21 (KJV).

JEHOSHAPHAT: "Yaweh judges." The Kidrom valley, between Jerusalem and the mount of Olives.

JEHOSHAPHAT means "Yaweh judges." It is the Kidrom Valley, between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives. It is also outside of Jerusalem.

When the King of the North comes to his end, he comes to his end outside Jerusalem.

MOUNT PERAZIM (1 CHRONICLES 14:9-17; 2 SAMUEL 5:17-20)

Isaiah 28:21-22

You have the references for Perazim there, if you want to look at it more in-depth on your own time, from 1 Chronicles 14:9-17; and 2 Samuel 5:17-20.

But in Isaiah 28, beginning at verse 21, it says,

"[21]For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act. [22]Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth." Isaiah 28:21-22 (KJV).

And "the whole earth" here is represented as Mount Perazim in Gibeon.

GIBEON: six miles northwest of Jerusalem.

And, Gibeon, it is six miles northwest of Jerusalem.

So, the places where the Bible identifies the King of the North coming to his end with none to help is outside Jerusalem. He never makes it into the glorious holy mountain.

And when you are considering Armageddon, which we will do tomorrow, that the Beast; the Dragon; and the False Prophet—the King of the North in verse 40; the King of the South in verse 40; and the chariots, ships, and horsemen in verse 40—the Dragon is the King of the South; the Papacy is the King of the North; and the United States is the chariots, ships, and horsemen. Those three powers lead the world to Armageddon, to Megiddo. They lead the world to Daniel 11, verses 40 through 45. And the work of leading the world to Armageddon, which is a big story, that story begins in Daniel 11, verse 40.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that abundant light has been given that you can illustrate the sequence of events here at the end of the world so that we can know for a certainty what is going to take place and not be unprepared to meet the marvelous working of Satan in the near future. We want to be full of your Word that we can be fortified to stand in that time period; but, we also want to be full of your Word that we have a winning message to share with those that we come in contact with. We ask that you would protect us in our daily service this day, and that you would prepare divine appointments for each of us that we can come in contact with someone that needs the Word in due season; and, we ask a continued blessing upon the work that we are doing here with the DVDs and the LiveStreaming. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #47

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's rest, and we thank you for bringing us together to study your Word this morning. Some of our group are traveling. We ask for traveling mercies this morning. And as we take up the study of the Word, we ask that you grant us the guidance and presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would watch over the work that we are doing here, that you would prepare our hearts and minds for the light that you have for us this morning, that you would take control of my thinking process that it would be used to glorify you and present the truth and not be corrupted with human thoughts. We know that we are living in the time of the Latter Rain, so we ask that you would pour your Latter Rain out upon us so that we can continue to study the implications of Daniel 11, verse 40. In Jesus's name, amen.

ARMAGEDDON

THREE PARTS

Revelation 16:12-19

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We want to begin this morning with Revelation 16. We are going to deal with Armageddon this morning.

Revelation 16, speaking about the Sixth Vial in verse 12. It says,

> "[12]And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. [13]And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. [14]For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. [15]Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. [16]And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. [17]And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. [18]And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. [19]And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath." Revelation 16:12-19 (KJV).

The reason why we went to verse 19 is we are wanting to identify that in verse 19 the great city Babylon, modern Babylon, is divided into three parts. Modern Babylon is not simply Babylon that sits on the Euphrates. Modern Babylon is a city, a kingdom. We have already established that a city in Bible prophecy is a kingdom in this worship series.

And by the way, we have pretty much reached the halfway mark in this worship series, and I intend to do a lot less of defending every little point along the way now. There will be some things that we have already established several times, and there will be some things that we have not established but we have established the technique of prophetic interpretation that we are using as we study these things. So, for the critics, the honest critics, these techniques we have identified early on in this worship series. We have used them more than once to establish truths, so I am not going to perpetually repeat these principles and make the defense. We are going to begin to study this information at a different level.

So, what we are saying is, we have already established that a city in Bible prophecy is a kingdom; and, in verse 19 great Babylon, the modern Babylon at the end of the world—and certainly this is modern Babylon at the end of the world—that is going to enter the Seven Last Plagues. We are told in verse 19 that it is divided into three parts. And the three parts that it is divided into are noted in verse 13 as the Dragon, the Beast, and the False Prophet.

Okay. It is not important to this study, but as you go through the Book of Revelation, you will find that every time that the Dragon, the Beast, and the False Prophet are referenced, they are always referenced in that order. The Dragon was the first that came into history, and then the Beast came into history in AD538, and then the False Prophet (the United States) comes in at the end. And when the Revelator mentions these three powers, however he does it, it is always in this order.

So, what we are saying is, is that 1989 is the end of William Miller's dream, and that is when the Lion of the tribe of Judah unseals the prophetic testing message for the 144,000 at the end of the world.

At the Time of the End, every Reform Movement is a fulfillment of a prophecy. We are saying that verse 40 of Daniel 11, identifying the collapse of the Soviet Union, is that prophecy that is fulfilled, that marks the Time of the End for the 144,000.

And although we have not proven verse 41 is The Sunday Law yet—we will do that in our next presentation, the Lord willing—we are saying that verse 40 of Daniel 11 begins in 1798 at the Time of the End, and it goes until verse 41, which is The Sunday Law; and, therefore, the history that verse 40 covers is from AD1798 to The Sunday Law in the United States.

And we have taken some time in our previous presentations to identify that in verse 40 there are three powers. There is the King of the North (that is the Papacy); there is the United States (represented by the chariots, ships, and horsemen); and, there is the Dragon power (represented as the King of the South).

So, when you are looking at the Beast, and the Dragon, and the False Prophet and their activities, their roles in leading the world to Armageddon, down here in the Seven Last Plagues, where does that story begin? It begins in Daniel 11, verse 40. Those three powers are in verse 40 of Daniel 11. And the whole structure of the last six verses of Daniel 11 is based upon the interaction of the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

So, if you have a desire or are convicted that you need to understand Armageddon, then you need to understand Daniel 11, verse 40.

> ARMAGEDDON: Har: "mountain". Megeddon: "assembly", possibly "congregation", "slaughter". Megiddo: The plain of Esdralon at the foot of the Carmel ridge on the northeastern side.

Okay. ARMAGEDDON you have in your notes. It is made up of two words, Har, meaning "mountain," and Megeddon, meaning "assembly," "congregation," or "slaughter": The mountain of the assembly, the mountain of the slaughter.

Yesterday we illustrated on the board that just below the Carmel ridge is Megiddo, and it is just next to the Mediterranean Sea and just above the Sea of Galilee, and just off to the right of the Dead Sea, at least on our map. Megiddo is between the seas and Jerusalem, the glorious holy mountain; and, this is where the King of the North comes to his end with none to help in Daniel 11:44 through Daniel 12:1.

We have mentioned before the fact that John the Revelator calls Megiddo the Mountain of Megiddo, to make sure that the student of prophecy understands that Armageddon is not a literal place, for there is no mountain in Megiddo. So, John the Revelator purposely uses an inconsistency in the geography of that area to make sure the student understands that this is a spiritual war at the end, not a literal war.

A COMPANY WHO HAVE BEEN DECEIVED

Notice the next quote, Manuscript Releases, number 17, page 18.

> "God has warned His people of the perils before them. John beholds the things which will be in the last days, and he sees a people working counter to God. Read Revelation 12:17; 14:10–13, and chapters 17 and 13."—

Revelation 12:17 talks about Satan being angry with the remnant of her seed.

Revelation 14:10-13 is where the punishment of those that receive the mark of the beast is noted.

Revelation 17 identifies the threefold union of the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet; and, it marks how the Papacy is judged in that history.

And, of course, Revelation 13 describes how the United States is the False Prophet that forces the whole world to accept the image of the beast and receive the mark of the beast.

So, Sister White is focusing in the very message of the Third Angel in this passage.

Back to the beginning, it says,

> —"God has warned His people of the perils before them."—

This is emphasizing a warning message.

—"John beholds the things which will be in the last days, and he sees a people working counter to God. Read Revelation 12:17; 14:10–13, and chapters 17 and 13. John sees the company who have been deceived."—

I would submit to you that this all of mankind that is lost; but, the first company to be deceived we have already noted in this study is Adventism which receives strong delusion just prior to The Sunday Law.

Continuing on:

—"He says, 'I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.'" Manuscript Release, number 17, 18.

What I want you to see in this passage, if you will, is Sister White is using Revelation 16 and the story of the Beast, and the Dragon, and the False Prophet to identify a warning message, and she is giving a second testimony to this warning; because, in Revelation 16, verse 15, it says, "Blessed is he that watcheth and keepeth his garments, . . ." So, Sister White is citing this passage in Revelation 16 in saying this is a warning message; and, here in verse 15, it is saying that it is a warning message. It is saying, "Blessed are you that keep your garments," thus implying that there is a possibility for you to lose your garments. But this cannot be so in the time of the Plagues.

When Michael stands up in Daniel 12:1, human probation closes. The garments I am wearing are either the garments of my self-righteousness or the garments of Christ's righteousness. And when He stands up, "he that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and, he that is just, let him be just still." You do not change garments after Michael stands up. And once Michael stands up, then begins the Seven Last Plagues.

And here in the Sixth Vial, the Sixth Plague, in verse 15 there is a warning, "Blessed is he that keepeth his garments," and Sister White is emphasizing the warning of these three powers. So, how is it that the subject of the Beast, and the Dragon, and the False Prophet is a warning message?

Okay. For me, it is a warning message. It is saying that you need to understand how and who, what are the powers that lead the world to Armageddon! And if you are going to understand those powers and the work that is accomplished by those powers as they lead the world to Armageddon—and leading the world to Armageddon means leading the world to a place where two classes are finalized. And in Daniel's terminology, in verse 45 the two classes: the glorious holy mountain, God's Church; and, the seas, the rest of the world. It is this march to Armageddon that divides the world into two classes, with no third class. There is no one else making any decisions. Every decision has been made.

And it is a warning to Seventh-day Adventists before it happens that you need to understand who the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet are and what are their activities in accomplishing this work.

And if this is so—and it is so!—then you need to understand Daniel 11, verse 40; because, in Daniel 11, verse 40, that is where these three powers begin the work of leading the world to Armageddon.

So, when we are saying that in 1989, the Time of the End for the 144,000 was fulfilled and the Dirt Brush Man comes in and begins to remove the traditions and customs that have been handed down in Adventism, preventing people from understanding where we are in the flow of history, verse 40 is the verse that begins to tell the story about how the world ends up in Armageddon. And if you do not understand the beginning of the story, then how can you understand the story at all? Jesus illustrates the end with the beginning.

So, what am I saying? I am saying that verse 40, which identifies the Time of the End, it has got many, many important truths that God's people have to wrap their minds around. And that is why in The Great Controversy, when she says, "The events connected with the close of probation and the need of preparation in the time of trouble have been clearly revealed, but multitudes—my words: in Adventism—do not understand these truths," they do not understand verse 40 is identifying the beginning of the march to Armageddon, among other things.

So, let us look a little at these three powers.

THE DRAGON, THE BEAST, AND THE FALSE PROPHET

Signs of the Times, November 1, 1899:

> "Under the symbols of a great red dragon, a leopard-like beast, and a beast with lamblike horns,"—

Where do we find these symbols?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Revelation 12 and 13.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 12 and 13.

But, who are these symbols?

Who is the great red dragon? Well, that is easy. It is the Dragon.

Who is the leopard-like beast? That is the Beast.

And, who is the lamb-like beast? That is the False Prophet.

And do you notice what order they are in? Dragon, Beast, and False Prophet.

No matter how they are illustrated in The Revelation, they are always in that order.

> —"Under the symbols of a great red dragon, a leopard-like beast, and a beast with lamblike horns, the earthly governments which would especially engage in trampling upon God's law and persecuting His people, were presented to John."—

What is the great red dragon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Pagan Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is an earthly government. She just said so. The dragon is an earthly government. So is the leopard-like beast, and so is the beast with lamb-like horns.

The dragon is many things; but, I want you to see here that she is identifying it as an earthly government.

—"The war is carried on till the close of time. The people of God, symbolized by a holy woman and her children, were represented as greatly in the minority. In the last days only a remnant still existed. Of these John speaks as they 'which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.'

"Through paganism, and then through the Papacy, Satan exerted his power for many centuries in an effort to blot from the earth God's faithful witnesses. Pagans and papists were actuated by the same dragon spirit. They differed only in that the Papacy, making a pretense of serving God, was the more dangerous and cruel foe."—

Wow! How can the Papacy be the more cruel foe when you remember the activities of men like Nero and Diocletian. You know, the historians say that after the reign of Diocletian there was a meeting of the Christians that came together of whom—I forget the leader there, the Christian leader's name. It is not important to my point—but of all the people, all the Christians that came to this gathering, there were virtually none of them that were whole: this guy's eyes had been put out; this guy's tongue had been cut out; this guy's legs were gone, and this guy's hands were gone. Okay. That was the cruelty of Pagan Rome; but, Sister White says the Papacy was more cruel.

Okay. What does that tell you? That persecution is progressively worse. The persecution that takes place at the end of the world, it is going to be enhanced by modern techniques of persecution.

Starting over at the second paragraph,

—"Through paganism, and then through the Papacy, Satan exerted his power for many centuries in an effort to blot from the earth God's faithful witnesses. Pagans and papists were actuated by the same dragon spirit. They differed only in that the Papacy, making a pretense of serving God, was the more dangerous and cruel foe. Through the agency of Romanism, Satan took the world captive. The professed church of God was swept into the ranks of this delusion, and for more than a thousand years the people of God suffered under the dragon's ire."—

Now, here is the point of this passage.

—"And when the Papacy, robbed of its strength, was forced to desist from persecution,"—

When was the Papacy robbed of its strength? 1798.

—"when the Papacy, robbed of its strength, was forced to desist from persecution, John beheld a new power coming up to echo the dragon's voice, and carry forward the same cruel and blasphemous work. This power, the last that is to wage war against the church and the law of God, was symbolized by a beast with lamblike horns.

> "But the stern tracing of the prophetic pencil reveals a change in this peaceful scene. The beast with lamblike horns speaks with the voice of a dragon, and 'exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him.'"—

What in the world does that mean?

The next sentence:

> —"Prophecy declares that he will say to them that dwell on the earth that they should make an image to the beast, and that "he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads; and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." Thus Protestantism follows in the steps of the Papacy." Signs of the Times, November 1, 1899.

There are a few things that I want you to see here.

Sister White just said that John received the vision of Revelation 13 in 1798, which was when the Papacy was robbed of its strength John beheld a new power coming up out of the Earth.

So, that new power is marked in Revelation 13:11. It is the lamb-like beast. It is the United States. And ultimately in verse 11, the United States speaks as the dragon, and we have already made the point, and we are going to make it again, that the speaking of the United States as a dragon takes place at The Sunday Law; therefore, it is important to see that the same history of verse 40 is the history of Revelation 13:11. It is the identical history.

You know, some of these people that fight this message, they are saying, "There are over 200 years' history in verse 40. How ridiculous is that?"

Well, it is the same amount of time that is in verse 11 of Revelation 13.

And why is this important? It does not matter if you understand why it is important. You can tell it is important just from the fact that the Lord has given us a second witness to this identical history. That has to mean something.

Okay. It says the United States, when it is speaking about the United States, it is going to exercise the same powers of the beast before it. That is verse 12.

Go to Revelation 13. Verse 11 is the United States of Revelation 13. In verse 12 it says, "[12]And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, . . ." What is the power of the first beast before him?

I mean, Sister White is taking this quote and emphasizing this aspect of the United States; therefore, it is being identified in Inspiration as a characteristic of the United States that we are to understand. So, what is the power of the first beast?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Persecution.
FROM THE AUDIENCE: Church and state.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Persecution; church and state? Okay, close.
Go to Revelation 13, verse 2.

"[2]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard,"—

Who is the leopard beast?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy?
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy.

—"and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion; and the dragon"—

Who is the dragon?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: Pagan Rome.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pagan Rome, Pagan Rome.

—"and the dragon gave him power, and his seat, and great authority." Revelation 13:2 (KJV)."

And the dragon gave him three things, his what?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: His power.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Hmm. Can he exercise the same power as the beast before him?
What was the power that was exercised before him?

Well, the dragon, remember, the dragon gives three things to the Papacy; and, it removes three things from the Papacy. It removes three horns, but it gives three things to the Papacy. It gives him his seat. In the year AD330 Constantine moves the capitol of the Roman Empire to Constantinople, leaving a spiritual vacuum in the City of Rome that the Papacy gobbles up. It gives him his seat to rule from. It did that in AD330.

It gave him his civil authority in 533 when the Emperor Justinian wrote a decree identifying the Pope of Rome as the head of the church and the Corrector of Heretics, and legally and technically from that point on the Pope of Rome can turn to the Emperor of Rome and say, "You are a heretic. Off with your head!" The civil authority has been given to the Papacy in 533.

But, when was it that the power was given to the Papacy by the dragon? 496.

And who gave the power to the Papacy; who is the historical figure?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Clovis.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Clovis, king of France, formed a church-state relationship with the Papacy in 496 and began to use his military strength to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth.

So, when it says in verse 12 of Revelation 13 that the United States is going to exercise the power of the beast before it, what is the power?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Military.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Military strength.

So, where is it that we can identify in prophecy that the United States begins to exercise its military power to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In Daniel 11, verse 40.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In verse 40 [see Figure No. 93].

(Interruption of electrical power during presentation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This must be an important point.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes, it is.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I think it is, but I never realized that it was so important that it would infuriate Satan to this extent.

I have seen people fight this truth that I am going to share with you; so, it may very well be that important.

The power of the United States begins to be exercised for the Papacy by Ronald Reagan in his time period; therefore, who typifies Ronald Reagan?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Clovis.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Clovis.

Therefore, who typifies the United States?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: France.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who is France part of?

(Restoration of electrical power during presentation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who is France a part of?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Ten Kingdoms.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Ten Kingdoms of who? Pagan Rome.

France is part of the dragon power that placed the Papacy on the throne of the Earth.

So, what I want you to see when it comes to the United States, they are going to exercise the same power as the beast before it, and that power, if you are going to be a student of prophecy and you are going to give a second testimony to Revelation 13:12 to where the United States begins to exercise the power to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth, what do you need to understand? Daniel 11, verse 40.

Okay. Daniel 11, verse 40, is one of the most profound verses in the Bible. Not only does it begin the march to Armageddon but it is your second witness to the work of the United States in placing the Papacy on the throne of the Earth.

And as the second witness to that work, it identifies the same history as Revelation 13:11, which is the history of the United States.

There are just profound and specific connections here!

CHARIOTS, HORSEMEN, AND SHIPS

THE FALSE PROPHET—REVELATION 13:11-18

Okay. Now go to Revelation 13, if you are not already there.

Speaking of the United States, starting in verse 11 it says,

> "[11]And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon."—

The speaking of the United States is The Sunday Law. Okay? We are going to show that to you. We have already shown that in this worship service.

After The Sunday Law, therefore, in verse 11, there is going to be further development. And it says,

> —"[12]And he [THE UNITED STATES] exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed."—

How is the United States going to force the world to worship the Papacy? It is going to use its military and economic might. It is going to exercise the same power as Clovis, who used his military and economic might.

Verse 13:

> —"[13]And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,"—

Who makes fire come down out of heaven, from yesterday's presentation?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Elijah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan. Elijah did, but Satan here at the end.

But, we also read a quote yesterday, if you noticed it, that his representatives are going to perform these miracles, too. The United States is his representative in this.

What are the miracles of the United States?

How does the United States make fire come down out of heaven? You have got military fire power.

What else?

What is the religion of the United States? It is apostate Protestantism. But, apostate Protestantism, it is going to receive strong delusion. Those people in apostate Protestantism that do not come out of Babylon and be the eleventh-hour workers and stand with God's people, they are going to be just as deluded as anyone else that rejects the truth.

And how does Satan capture apostate Protestantism? The Pentecostal Movement.

What is the symbol of the Pentecostal Movement? Speaking in tongues, fire coming down out of heaven.

So, this verse 13, it has a lot of ways that we can see it; but, this is about the United States.

Verse 14:

—"[14]And deceiveth"—

Who deceiveth? Who deceives here in verse 14? The United States.

—"[14]And [THE UNITED STATES] deceiveth them that dwell on the earth"—

Does that mean them that dwell in England? Does it mean them that dwell in Africa? The Earth! Sister White says every nation will be involved. The United States is going to deceive the entire world.

> —"[14]And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast,"—

Saying to the world, to the world!

> —"that they should make an image to the beast which had the wound by a sword, and did live."—

Now, Brother and Sisters, this means there are two images of the beast in Revelation 13; because, in order for the Protestants of the United States to pass a Sunday Law through the Government of the United States, they first have to form an image of the beast here in the United States because the image of the beast is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship. And until the Protestants have control of the state, the Government of the United States, they cannot pass a Sunday Law.

But, when they pass The Sunday Law, when the United States speaks as a dragon, it is marking that the image of the beast has been fully developed in the United States,

But this image of the beast is not the image of the beast in the United States. This is the image of the beast in the entire world; and, there is only one definition of the image of the beast.

It is the combination of church and state. So, there is going to be a One World Government that is going to consist of church and state.

And in verse 15, it says,

> —"[15]And he [THE UNITED STATES] had power to give life unto the image of the beast,"—TO THIS ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT—"that the image of the beast should both speak,"—

The speaking of a nation is an action of its legislative and judicial authorities. This One World Government that the United States is going to force the world to set up is going to have a legislative branch which is in New York City, and a judicial branch which is in Holland. It is already here.

> —"and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. [16]And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: [17]And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. [18]Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six." Revelation 13:11-18 (KJV).

So, what I am saying is, after The Sunday Law in the United States, it goes out to the entire world. And we have not shown it yet, but in Daniel 11, verses 42 and 43, the world is represented by Egypt. It goes out to the world and tells them that they must set up an image of the beast, which is church and state—right?—and it is going to bring this One World Government to life by its power.

And this story in Revelation 13, it is the identical story in the last six verses of Daniel 11 [referencing Figure No. 94]. It is in the same sequence. It is telling the same story, using different symbols.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE—1776; THE CONSTITUTION—1787; THE BILL OF RIGHTS—1791; NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY RECOGNIZED BY THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD—1798

Okay. Let us remember the United States. I have this in your notes.

- The Declaration of Independence was 1776.
- The Constitution was ratified in 1787.
- The Bill of Rights were ratified in 1791.
- And, the National sovereignty of the United States was recognized by the other nations of the world in 1798. This is when the United States becomes a legal country; and, this is when the United States is marked as the sixth kingdom of Bible prophecy.

Sister White says this, The Great Controversy, pages 440 – 442:

> "What nation of the New World was in 1798 rising into power, giving promise of strength and greatness, and attracting the attention of the world? The application of the symbol admits of no question. One nation, and only one, meets the specifications of this prophecy;"—

And if you are like most Seventh-day Adventists and you have not studied these things because you just did not think you needed to be a student of prophecy, then you probably do not realize that there are all kinds of foolish ideas in Adventism about who the sixth kingdom is in Revelation 17, and it is identified often as other than the United States of America in spite of the fact that in Revelation 13 you have the leopard-like beast of the Papacy followed by the United States. How hard is that one?! But, Sister White here is saying when it comes to the history of 1798, "One nation and one nation only," it seems like to me she is trying to emphasize the fact that you can only mark the United States in 1798.

> —"One nation, and only one, meets the specifications of this prophecy, it points"—vaguely?

Is that what she says?

> —"it points unmistakably to the United States of America. Again and again the thought, almost the exact words, of the sacred writer has been unconsciously employed by the orator and the historian in describing the rise and growth of this nation."—

You will notice that I have the last words of that sentence highlighted. Why do I do that? Why do you think I have that emphasized for you?

Because, you may have not understood it because I never said anything about it. I have said things about it, but not in this regard. The fact that the historians are using the very words from Daniel 11, verse 40, to describe the collapse of the Soviet Union is exactly what Sister White is emphasizing here, that the historians that mark the arrival of the United States in prophecy, they use the same words from Revelation 13 to do so; thus, Sister White is telling us that when the historians record the history that is a fulfillment of prophecy, that even though they may be worldlinga to the fullest extent, the Lord still directs them in choosing words that allows the student of prophecy to make the connection, and that connection is made in the history of the collapse of the Soviet Union as well in the history of the United States.

> —"The beast was seen 'coming up out of the earth;' and, according to the translators, the word here rendered 'coming up' literally signifies 'to grow or spring up as a plant.' And, as we have seen, the nation must arise in territory previously unoccupied. A prominent writer, describing the rise of the United States, speaks of 'the mystery of her coming forth from vacancy,' and says: 'Like a silent seed we grew into empire.'—G. A. Townsend, The New World Compared With the Old, page 462. A European journal in 1850 spoke of the United States as a wonderful empire, which was 'emerging,' and 'amid the silence of the earth daily adding to its power and pride.'—The Dublin Nation. Edward Everett, in an oration on the Pilgrim founders of this nation, said: 'Did they look for a retired spot, inoffensive for its obscurity, and safe in its remoteness, where the little church of Leyden might enjoy the freedom of conscience? Behold the mighty regions over which, in peaceful conquest, . . . they have borne the banners of the cross!'—Speech delivered at Plymouth, Massachusetts, December 22, 1824, page 11. 371
> "'And he had two horns like a lamb.' The lamblike horns indicate youth, innocence, and gentleness, fitly representing the character of the United States when presented to the prophet as 'coming up' in 1798. Among the Christian exiles who first fled to America and sought an asylum from royal oppression and priestly intolerance were many who determined to establish a government upon the broad foundation of civil and religious liberty."—

Often Seventh-day Adventists emphasize that the pilgrims came to the United States to escape the Papal authority, but sometimes we forget that they were also running away from royal authority. They were running away from a corrupt church and a corrupt state. That is what it is all about: church/state corruption.

> —"Their views found place in the Declaration of Independence, which sets forth the great truth that 'all men are created equal' and endowed with the inalienable right to 'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.' And the Constitution guarantees to the people the right of self-government, providing that representatives elected by the popular vote shall enact and administer the laws. Freedom of religious faith was also granted, every man being permitted to worship God according to the dictates of his conscience. Republicanism and Protestantism became the fundamental principles of the nation. These principles are the secret of its power and prosperity."—

What is the secret of the power and prosperity of the United States? Republicanism and Protestantism.

And where is that secret preserved?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In the Constitution.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Constitution; it is the Constitution that preserves the secret that makes the United States what it is; and, at the end of the world, it no longer is. Its powers at the end of the world are not Republicanism and Protestantism. It is changed. It is military and economic strength; it is chariots and horsemen and ships.

> —"The oppressed and downtrodden throughout Christendom have turned to this land with interest and hope. Millions have sought its shores, and the United States has risen to a place among the most powerful nations of the earth.
> "But the beast with lamblike horns 'spake as a dragon. And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed; . . . saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.' Revelation 13:11–14.
> "The lamblike horns and dragon voice of the symbol point to a striking contradiction between the professions and the practice of the nation thus represented. The 'speaking' of the nation is the action of its legislative and judicial authorities. By such action it will give the lie to those liberal and peaceful principles which it has put forth as the foundation of its policy. The prediction that it will speak 'as a dragon' and exercise 'all the power of the first beast' plainly foretells a development of the spirit of intolerance and persecution that was manifested by the nations represented by the dragon and the leopardlike beast. And the statement that the beast with two horns 'causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast' indicates that the authority of this nation is to be exercised in enforcing some observance which shall be an act of homage to the papacy." The Great Controversy, 440–442.

The Great Controversy, pages 448 – 449:

> "The enforcement of Sundaykeeping on the part of Protestant churches is an enforcement of the worship of the papacy—of the beast. Those who, understanding the claims of the fourth commandment, choose to observe the false instead of the true Sabbath are thereby paying homage to that power by which alone it is commanded."—

If you do not understand this, you need to understand these next few thoughts.

> —"But in the very act of enforcing a religious duty by secular power, the churches would themselves form an image to the beast;"—

So, when they pass The Sunday Law, what have they just formed?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The image of the beast.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The image of the beast.

So, there are two images of the beasts in Revelation 13, even if people do not want to acknowledge it. Verse 11, when it speaks as a dragon, it is The Sunday Law; and, the image of the beast has been fully developed in the United States. Then it goes to the world and it tells the world in verse 14, "You need to do the same thing that we've just done."

> —"But in the very act of enforcing a religious duty by secular power, the churches would themselves form an image to the beast; hence the enforcement of Sundaykeeping in the United States would be an enforcement of the worship of the beast and his image." The Great Controversy, 448–449.

Page 445 of The Great Controversy says,

> "The 'image to the beast' represents that form of apostate Protestantism which will be developed when the Protestant churches shall seek the aid of the civil power for the enforcement of their dogmas. The 'mark of the beast' still remains to be defined." The Great Controversy, 445.

Therefore, the mark of the beast and the image of the beast are two different things. The mark of the beast is Sunday observance. The image of the beast is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship.

The Great Controversy, page 443:

> "But what is the 'image to the beast'? and how is it to be formed? The image is made by the two-horned beast, and is an image to the beast. It is also called an image of the beast."—

It is going to operate the same way the Papacy of the past operated; therefore, it is an image of the Papacy, "it is an image of the beast." But, by making this image, it is bowing down to the beast; so, "it is an image to the beast"; it is an offering to the beast. It is an acknowledgement that "We want to be like you are." It is both.

> —"It is also called an image of the beast. Then to learn what the image is like and how it is to be formed we must study the characteristics of the beast itself—the papacy.
> "When the early church became corrupted by departing from the simplicity of the gospel and accepting heathen rites and customs, she lost the Spirit and power of God; and in order to control the consciences of the people, she sought the support of the secular power. The result was the papacy, a church that controlled the power of the state and employed it to further her own ends, especially for the punishment of 'heresy.'"—

". . . especially for the punishment of 'heresy." Especially for the punishment of heresy.

In fact, if you read the Catechism, it lays out the various types of worship that the Catholic Church does; and, the Catholic Church in Vatican II, the buzz word for these rituals is called "Celebration." They celebrate this and they celebrate that; they celebrate this.

But, what is the highest form of Celebration that is marked in the Catechism for the Catholic Church?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The punishment of heretics.

But, is that not the highest form of worship for Paganism, is burning your children at the altar of Molech? It is the highest form of worship, according to the Catechism, is the punishment of heretics.

That is why she says, "especially for the punishment of 'heresy.'"

> —"In order for the United States to form an image of the beast, the religious power must so control the civil government that the authority of the state will also be employed by the church to accomplish her own ends." The Great Controversy, 443.

Okay. I am hoping you are seeing that this history here of verse 11 is the same history of Daniel 11, verse 40. It goes from 1798 to The Sunday Law.

But, this history of verse 40, it is emphasizing the movements of the King of the North, the Papacy. But, this history of Revelation 13:11, it is emphasizing the movements of the False Prophet (the United States). It is a twofold look at the same history.

Then comes The Sunday Law, and the United States is fully disconnected from righteousness, and it is going to go out to the whole world and say, "You need to set up a One World Government that is a combination of church and state with the Pope of Rome in control of the relationship." And that is paralleling verses 42 and 43 of Daniel 11. I have not shown that yet. I cannot show everything at the same time; I do not know how to do it. But, we will get back to that.

Switching gears a little bit here.

ALL THE WORLD

Signs of the Times, May 6, 1897:

> "History will be repeated. False religion will be exalted. The first day of the week, a common working day, possessing no sanctity whatever, will be set up as was the image at Babylon. All nations and tongues and peoples will be commanded to worship this spurious sabbath. This is Satan's plan to make of no account the day instituted by God, and given to the world as a memorial of creation.
> "The decree enforcing the worship of this day is to go forth to all the world."—

Not just to the United States but to all the world.

> —"In a limited degree, it has already gone forth. In several places the civil power is speaking with the voice of a dragon, just as the heathen king spoke to the Hebrew captives." Signs of the Times, May 6, 1897.

So, notice this next couple of quotes.

FIRST THE UNITED STATES

Testimonies, volume 6, page 18:

> "As America, the land of religious liberty, shall unite with the Papacy in forcing the conscience and compelling men to honor the false sabbath, the people of every country on the globe will be led to follow her example." Testimonies, volume 6, 18.

So, where does The Sunday Law begin?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In the United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States.

And how many countries follow the example of the United States?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: All.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Every country on the globe.

The next quote, Testimonies, volume 6, page 395.

> "Foreign nations will follow the example of the United States. Though she leads out, yet the same crisis will come upon our people in all parts of the world." Testimonies, volume 6, 395.

She leads out with The Sunday Law in the United States, and then she goes to the world and says, "You must set up an image of the beast." And that image of the beast is the same test. The image of the beast in the world reaches its climax, the full development of itself, when it has the ability to enforce a Sunday Law on all the countries of the globe; and it will do so.

THE KING OF THE SOUTH

EGYPT IS THE DRAGON

Ezekiel 29:2-3

We have been speaking about the False Prophet. Now we are going to switch gears to the Dragon.

We are doing this because we are saying that in Daniel 11, verse 40, we have the Dragon, the Beast, and the False Prophet beginning their activity that leads the world down here to Armageddon. We want to look at the Dragon now.

Ezekiel 29.

Now, the theologians, this will give them heartburn—okay?—because, I am going to take and say the Dragon in Revelation 12, which was written by John in Greek, is also written about in Ezekiel in Hebrew hundreds and hundreds of years apart: "Doesn't this guy understand that this is a different time in history, John and Ezekiel? And doesn't he understand it's two different languages? How can he be saying that they are the same?"

Because, I acknowledge that I am an uneducated, worthless human being and my only chance of salvation is to accept the Word of God simply as It is set forth and believe it. And the Word of God identifies the Dragon in Revelation 12, and it identifies the Dragon in Ezekiel 29. For me, the simple man that I am, it means that it is the same Dragon in both places.

Ezekiel 29, beginning in verse 2:

> "[2] Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt: [3] Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself." Ezekiel 29:2-3 (KJV).

Egypt is the Dragon in prophecy. Egypt is the Dragon in prophecy.

And maybe you do not think this is important; but, I remember going to this passage in an inquisition that we were involved in, in Germany, where I was presenting the message. And we had the university professors and the well-known pastors, the Germans were there, sitting around in a circle, attempting to reject everything we said. And when you got to here, saying that this is the Dragon, that one professor, man, he just—he was not going to accept that one.

Brother and Sisters, Egypt in Bible prophecy is the Dragon. You may not understand the significance of marking that and believing it; but, the theologians that are fighting this message, they fight this point. So, even if you do not understand it, just duly note that it is something worth fighting for, for those that are on the wrong side of the issue, the Dragon.

The Great Controversy, page 439:

> "Thus while the dragon, primarily, represents Satan, it is, in a secondary sense, a symbol of pagan Rome." The Great Controversy, 439.

The Dragon is Egypt; the Dragon is Satan; the Dragon is Pagan Rome. The Dragon is many things, but Egypt and Pagan Rome?

Did not Pagan Rome, in the time period of Antony and Cleopatra, did not Pagan Rome conquer Egypt? How can they both be the Dragon?

Okay. Do you see my point?

Notice the next quote, Testimonies to Ministers, page 38:

> "Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints—with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus." Testimonies to Ministers, 38.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It moves.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It moves.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Dragon moves through history.

But this here, the Dragon at the end of the world, is it Pagan Rome?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Is it Egypt?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Prophetically it is, but it is not the country of Eqypt. It is kings, governors, and rulers in The Sunday Law crisis, because it says this is The Sunday Law crisis: They go forth to make war with the saints that keep the commandments of God. This is The Sunday Law crisis.

So, the Dragon—and we started with a quote in this study from Signs of the Times, November 1, 1899, where Sister White references the great red dragon, the leopard-like beast, and the beast with lamb-like horns. And what did she say they were? Earthly governments.

The earthly governments that represent the Dragon at the end of the world is the earthly government that is made up of kings and rulers and governors. It is an earthly government that is made up of a group of politicians, which is called the United Nations.

So, what am I saying about the Dragon? I am saying this: When it comes to the Dragon, the characteristics of the Dragon in Bible prophecy is that it moves through history.

And I have a breakdown for you so you can note and where you can mark the Dragon at different points in prophetic history.

HEAVEN - EZEKIEL 28; EDEN - GENESIS 3; SHINAR - GENESIS 11; BABYLON, PERGAMOS - REVELATION 2:13; ROME - DANIEL 8:11; FRANCE - REVELATION 11:8; THE SOVIET UNION - DANIEL 11:40; THE UNITED NATIONS - DANIEL 11:42; THE UNITED NATIONS - REVELATION 20:7–10

- He begins the war in Heaven does he not?
  FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.
  BROTHER PIPPENGER: And in Ezekiel 28, you can find that.

- And then he comes down to bring the war to Planet Earth at Eden in Genesis 3; and, you can see the Dragon there, and you can see a pronouncement against him, which is the Everlasting Gospel, "I am going to put enmity between thee and Me."

- He comes to Shinar in the time of Nimrod. You can find that in Genesis 11.
  And he stays in Babylon all the way through in the time of Belshazzar.

- And when Belshazzar is brought down by the Medes and Persians, the historians testify that the Chaldeans, the religious elite of Babylon that represent the religion of the Dragon, they move to a city in Asia Minor called Pergamos. And you can see Pergamos marked in Revelation 2, verse 13, as the place where Satan's seat is located after Babylon. And who is Satan? He is the Dragon.

So, the Dragon has moved from Heaven to Eden, to Shinar, to Babylon, to Pergamos.

- And then comes Pagan Rome into history, and it conquers Pergamos and it brings the religion of the Chaldeans from Pergamos back to the City of Rome. Now, it has moved to Rome.

- And Pagan Rome divides into ten parts, according to Daniel 7, and one of those ten parts is France, Revelation 11:8. France is the Dragon power, the king of Atheism.

- But, as time progresses the king of Atheism (the Dragon power) moves to the Soviet Union, Daniel 11:40.

- And we read from some of the historical record where Gorbachev, when he bowed to the Pope and went back and took apart the Soviet Union at the Pope's direction that he [Gorbachev] then stepped down from being the leader of the Soviet Union and took a job in the United Nations, which is the kings, governors, and rulers that are represented as the Dragon that goes to make war with those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus.

My point is this, when it comes to the Dragon, he moves through history. He is not in the same geographical location. He moves. If you are unwilling to see this, then you are unwilling to see.

EGYPT IS GIVEN TO BABYLON (THE DRAGON IS GIVEN TO THE BEAST)

Jeremiah 46:1-2, 13, 20; Ezekiel 29:18-21; Daniel 11:42; Revelation 17:17

When it comes to the Dragon—and I know this is hard. This is hard for a lot of people to conceptualize or to buy into, but it is true. The next point we are going to make is hard; because, when you think of the Dragon, you think of Satan, and you think that Satan is the one that is directing the False Prophet of the United States, and Satan is the one that is directing the Beast of the Papacy, and Satan is the one directing the spiritualism of the United Nations; and, he is. But, Satan is the Dragon, and in Bible prophecy the Dragon is given to the Papacy. You have to see that.

To give you a quick example, in the Church of Thyatira in Revelation, what is the symbol of the Papacy in Thyatira, in Revelation? What symbolizes the Papacy in the Church of Thyatira?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jezebel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jezebel. Okay.

And Jezebel is the church.

Who was Jezebel married to?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ahab.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ahab. So, what is Ahab?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He is the king.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is the state.

So, how many states did he have?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ten.

He is the Ten Kings that commit fornication with Jezebel with the Beast at the end of the world. Right?

So, that number 10, how many kingdoms did Pagan Rome disintegrate into?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ten.

The number 10, that is the Dragon power. Ahab is the Dragon power. Ahab is the Dragon power.

Was Jezebel ruling over Ahab, or was Ahab ruling over Jezebel? Okay. The Biblical testimony is that Jezebel is controlling the movements. Egypt is given to (the Dragon is given to) the Papacy.

Now, notice Jeremiah 46. Go to Jeremiah 46.

Why do you need to see this? You need to see this because the King of the North (the Papacy) in Daniel 11, verse 42, is going to conquer Egypt. You want to see that that is always the case in the Scriptures, is that Egypt (the Dragon power) is given into the hands of the Papacy. You want to know that this is so, so that you can be confident in your understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11.

Jeremiah 46:1-2 says,

> "[1]The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles; [2] Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaohnecho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah." Jeremiah 46:1-2 (KJV).

Who is Nebuchadnezzar?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: King of the North.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: King of the North.

Who did he just defeat?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The King of the South.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The King of the South, Egypt.

Okay. Egypt gets defeated by Babylon.

Notice verse 13.

> "[13]The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt." Jeremiah 46:13 (KJV).

Babylon smites Egypt.

Verse 20:

> "[20]Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north." Jeremiah 46:20 (KJV).

Who is Egypt? Ezekiel 29, verses 2 and 3: It is the Dragon. The Papacy takes control of the Dragon. The Dragon is a state. The image of the beast is a combination of church and state with the church, the woman, in control of the relationship. The state is given to the Papacy.

Back to Ezekiel 29, verses 18 through 21. Ezekiel 29, beginning at verse 18, says,

> ". . .[18]Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:"—

What does the Bible say about the laborer?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He is worth his hire.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. He was using Nebuchadnezzar to accomplish a purpose; so, the Lord is saying, "I'm going to pay the King of the North, I am going to pay the Papacy for the work that he is doing for me."

Verse 19,

> —"[19]Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. [20]I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD."—

And in what day does He give Egypt to the Papacy?

Next verse,

> —"[21]In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth,"—

Ah, this happens in the time period of the Latter Rain.

> —"and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD." Ezekiel 29:18-21 (KJV).

Ah, in this very time period, the Lord is going to raise up a people that are receiving the Latter Rain that are going to present this very truth to the world. He is going to give them an opening of the mouth.

And what are they going to talk about? They are going to talk about the fact, among other things, that in Bible prophecy that Egypt is given to the Papacy. The King of the North takes control of the King of the South. That is Daniel 11:42.

> "[42]He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape." Daniel 11:42 (KJV).

Now, Revelation 17:17. We are not dealing with Revelation 17 as of yet; but, just so we can put it in your mind for a future reference, in Daniel 11:42, the King of the North conquers Egypt and the countries. And, in Revelation 17:17, speaking of the Ten Kings—and we are saying the Ten Kings have been represented by the ten toes of Daniel 2—they are represented by Ahab and his ten nations; they are represented by the ten tribes of Psalm 83; they are represented by the ten cities in connection with Nimrod; they are represented by the ten cities in Ezekiel 30 that are the cities of Egypt that are judged by the Lord in Ezekiel 30. These Ten Kings are the Dragon at the end of the world.

And verse 17 says,

> "[17]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom [THE KINGDOM OF THE DRAGON] unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled." Revelation 17:17 (KJV).

Because, the King of the North in verse 42 of Daniel 11 is going to conquer Egypt; it is going to conquer the Dragon.

Okay. We have put that in place. We want to put a couple more things in place as we are closing.

Sorry I got a little bit carried away there, time-wise.

THE LONG WAR

What we are saying—now, this is a different thought. Okay? I have to pull you back away from some of this—what we have been saying is, is that in verse 40 of Daniel 11, the activities of the King of the North (the Beast), the King of the South (the Dragon), and the False Prophet (the chariots, ships, and horsemen), this is where it begins. This is where you see the activities begin.

With the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, the student of prophecy has opened up to them a line of truth that carries them all the way down here [to Armageddon] where the King of the North comes to his end, between the seas and the glorious holy mountain which is Megiddo, Armageddon. That is just one line of truth that is opened up; all kinds of lines of truth are opened up there in verse 40.

THE BATTLE OF CARCHEMISH (EGYPT AND ASSYRIA/BABYLON: SOUTH/NORTH)

But, in this history, one of the truths in this history, is that in 1798 to 1989, you have a long, protracted war.

In the beginning of this war, Egypt, the King of the South, it attacks the King of the North and it is victorious. It delivers the deadly wound. So, this is a long drawn-out war from 1798 to 1989. And initially, the Dragon delivers the first blow and is victorious. But, at the end, the Dragon loses.

That is part of that verse 40.

But, as you remember, we showed that this history of Daniel 11:40 to down here to Daniel 12:1, what history is that? It is the history of Laodicea.

And the history of Laodicea had how many of the churches repeated?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: All of them.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All of them, from Ephesus, all the way through. All those histories are repeated in Laodicea; and not only of the Christian Church, but of who else? Ancient Israel.

So, we have already seen the principle that allows us to see that verses 40 to 45, that is the whole Bible is laid over the top. This is the principle that turns the Bible into the Little Book that is in the Angel's hand.

So, what I am saying is, this long drawn-out history in verse 40, people attack this idea. I have already mentioned one attack: "How can you have over 200 years in one verse?" It is a stupid argument, but they give it. But, connected with that kind of false logic is, "Well, a war that begins here [1798] and ends here [The Sunday Law]?" So, we are going to give you a couple of this long drawn-out war, so upon the testimony of two or three we can establish this long drawn-out war.

2 Kings 23:28-30 (1798)

2 Kings 23.

And, of course, we are going to deal with this, the Lord willing. You never know what you are going to do from one day to another, right? We are going to deal with this king Josiah before we get out of the typifications of Habakkuk's Tables, because king Josiah, he is one of the key stories in these two Tables [the 1843 and 1850 Charts].

But, this is the story of king Josiah, 2 Kings 23:29-30, and if you back up to verse 28, it says,

> "[28]Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [29]In his days Pharaohnecho"—WHO?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: King of Egypt.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"Pharaohnecho king of Egypt [KING OF THE SOUTH] went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates:"—

Who is the king of Assyria?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: King of the North.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: King of the North.

So, the King of the South here is attacking the King of the North. Have you ever seen that anywhere in Scriptures? Right here, right here, 1798.

> —"and king Josiah went against him; and he slew him at Megiddo, when he had seen him. [30]And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead." 2 Kings 23:28-30 (KJV).

Now, you know that when the King of the South [Pharaohnecho] came to begin this war with the King of the North, that he told Josiah something. You know that story, right?

What did he [Pharaohnecho] tell Josiah? He said, "The Lord sent me in this battle. Stay out of it." [2 Chronicles 35:20-21] Okay?

So, what is that? That is a warning message connected with Daniel 11, verse 40. "Stay out of this battle; or . . ."—where do you end up? Dead in Armageddon.

Do all the prophets speak about the end of the world?

Okay. So, Josiah represents a lay person in Adventism—no, he doesn't represent a lay person, does he? Who does Josiah represent at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Leaders.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He is the king that ends up where? Dead at Armageddon.

Why? Because, he rejected the warning of Daniel 11, verse 40.

Do you see it? Well, it is there.

Jeremiah 46:1-2, 13, 20 (1989)

Now, go to Jeremiah 46. We have already looked at this, but not from this perspective.

Keep your finger in there, if it is not already too late, in 2 Kings 23. Keep your finger in there for your own reference, if you need to. But, in Jeremiah 46, which we have already looked at—what we just read in 2 Kings 23 was in the time period of who? Josiah.

And chapter 46 of Jeremiah says,

> "[1]The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles;
> [2]Against Egypt, against the army of"—WHO?
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Pharaohnecho.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pharaohnecho. This is the same king, the king of Egypt.
> —"Pharaohnecho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish,"—

This is the same battle. It was the king of Assyria at the beginning; and, now it is the king of Babylon, Nebuchadrezzar.

> —"which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of"— Josiah? No.

> —"the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah." Jeremiah 46:1-2 (KJV).

So, this is at the end of the battle down here [1989], the fourth year of Jehoiakim.

And who wins there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Nebuchadnezzar.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Nebuchadnezzar wins here in 1989.

See, this is a war that begins when the King of the South pushes against the King of the North, and initially the King of the South wins; but, at the end the King of the North returns and sweeps away the King of the South.

And in this story you have the story of Josiah, the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church that rejects the warning of Daniel 11, verse 40, and ends up at Armageddon a dead man.

One other proof of a long drawn-out war.

2 CHRONICLES 35:19-25

And you can read—I am running out of time, of course, here. I have been too wordy this morning—my bad. We will not read 2 Chronicles 35:19-25 [into the record]; it is in your notes.

> "[19]In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

"[20]After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. [21]But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not. [22]Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. [23]And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. [24]His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. [25]And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations." 2 Chronicles 35:19-25 (KJV).

This tells the story of Pharaohnecho telling Josiah, "Don't go!"

Now, notice. Josiah has been told that because he had done this wonderful revival and reformation that he is going to go to his grave in peace. So, Sister White is going to comment on the fact that he did not go to his grave in peace.

And we have just shown you that he is a symbol of the leadership of Adventism that rejects the message of Daniel 11, verse 40, the message of the war between the King of the South and the King of the North, that it is a long drawn-out war that initially the King of the South wins, but ultimately the King of the North prevails.

And here is what Sister White says about Josiah from The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 2, page 1039:

"Those who will not take God's Word as assurance, need not hope that human wisdom can help them; for human wisdom, aside from God, is like the waves of the sea, driven with the wind, and tossed. The word of Christ is, 'He shall guide you into all truth.' Reject not the light given.

"Read the history of Josiah. He had done a good work. During his reign idolatry was put down, and apparently successfully uprooted. The temple was reopened and the sacrificial offerings re-established. His work was done well.

"But at the last he died in battle. Why?—Because he did not heed the warnings given. . . . [2 Chronicles 34:26–33; 35:20–24 quoted.]

"Because Josiah died in battle, who will charge God with denying His word that Josiah should go to his grave in peace? The Lord did not give orders for Josiah to make war on the king of Egypt. When the Lord gave the king of Egypt orders that the time had come to serve Him by warfare, and the ambassadors told Josiah not to make war on Necho, no doubt Josiah congratulated himself that no word from the Lord had come directly to him. To turn back with his army would have been humiliating, so he went on. And because of this, he was killed in battle, a battle that he should not have had anything to do with. The man who had been so greatly honored by the Lord, did not honor the word of God. The Lord had spoken in his favor, predicted good things for him; and Josiah became self-confident, and failed to heed the warning. He went against the word > of God, choosing to follow his own way, and God could not shield him from the consequences of his act.

> "In this our day men choose to follow their own desires and their own will. Can we be surprised that there is so much spiritual blindness?" The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 2, 1039.

So, what is the story of Josiah about? About rejecting the message, the warning message, of Daniel 11, verse 40.

I am going to end here.

There is another long drawn-out war that is identifying the long drawn-out war of the King of the South and the King of the North in Daniel 11, verse 40, and we will begin with that tomorrow morning. It is the long drawn-out war that marks not that the leadership of Adventism will end up at Armageddon if they reject the message of Daniel 11, verse 40. It marks that immediately after the long drawn-out war, which ended in 1989, that Islam will come into history. So, we will start that tomorrow. And what we are doing is giving two witnesses on top of this history of Daniel 11:40 – 12:1 to show this long drawn-out war is a prophetic waymark.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we are amazed that the amount of information that you can put in one verse; but, we acknowledge that we have but only as human beings scratched the surface in beginning to understand the light that is there. But, nevertheless, the light that is contained in this verse is amazing. We ask that you would allow this truth to change our hearts, change our minds, that we will be about our businesses of running to and fro in your Word that we might fully comprehend this increase of knowledge, that it might work its purpose in us that we can be purified and made white and then tried, and that we might have a message to share with those that we come in contact with. We set before you this day of service and ask for our work to be safely done and that it might be a work that will glorify and honor you. We thank you for the work that you are doing with the LiveStreaming and the DVD recordings. In Jesus's name, amen.

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a night's rest and for awakening us and for bringing us over to continue our study of 1989; Daniel 11, verse 40; William Miller's dream; and, all the various lines of truth that are connected with this passage in Scripture. We know if we are going to understand this correctly, we need the presence of your Holy Spirit. We ask that you would grant that to us now. We know that the Sankeys are on their way out here for next week's meetings. We ask that you give them traveling mercies, and we know that we have friends coming down from Canada to be a part of these meetings. Please protect them as well. We want to be vessels turned upward so that we can receive the Latter Rain that you have for us this morning. So, if there are any sins, any transgressions that we have committed that are preventing us from receiving the blessing of the Latter Rain as you open our understanding to your Word this morning, we ask that you would forgive us of these. We ask that you take control of my humanity and that you would overrule it, that what I say is for your glory and honor, and that you would overrule my brothers and sisters that are hearing these things that they would understand as you wish for them to understand these things. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are trying to give some input on the significance of Daniel 11, verse 40, how many truths are connected to Daniel 11, verse 40. We are doing this to provide an argument that with the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, that this marks the Time of the End for the 144,000 when the Lion of the tribe of Judah begins to unseal the prophetic message for this history one seal at a time, meaning in a progressive fashion. It is an increase of knowledge that is illustrated in Daniel 12.

So, we have been taking a great deal of time here in verse 40 to set some of these themes in place; and, for the purpose of even looking at them even more closely as we proceed. Early on, within the past week of so, we showed that the history of Daniel 11, verse 40, begins in 1798 and it goes all the way to the close of human probation, which means it covers the history of the Millerites, all the way to the end of the world; and, therefore, the majority of that history is the history that we call Laodicea.

And we showed that the history of the first six Churches—Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, and Philadelphia—all are repeated in the history of Laodicea, and then we showed that the Seven Churches, the historical/prophetic representation of the Seven Churches also governs the history of Ancient Israel. So, we made a case that all the history of the Bible is illustrated upon the last six verses of Daniel 11. That is a pretty profound recognition all by itself. We have not dredged some of the depth of what that means. We have just put it in place so that we can expect for it to be true when we bring other lines of prophecy upon the top of Daniel 11:40-45, which we have begun to do a little bit of.

We have identified that the history of Revelation 13:11 begins in 1798 and it ends when the United States speaks as a dragon at The Sunday Law. So, verse 11 of Revelation 13 is 1798 to The Sunday Law; and that the history of Daniel 11, verse 40, is from 1798 to The Sunday Law, therefore making a prophetic connection to anyone who wishes to see the prophetic connection between Daniel 11, verse 40, and Revelation 13:11.

We have made the argument, also if you are willing to see, that verse 40 has the Time of the End for the Millerites, 1798. And with the collapse of the Soviet Union, it has the Time of the End [1989] for the 144,000. So, the Time of the End for the beginning of Adventism and for the End of Adventism is in the very same verse. That is very profound when you think about it, if you think about it.

And then we went through, and not fully—and the reason I am saying "not fully" is because there are still some significant truths that we want to deal with, with the King of the South (the Dragon Power) in verse 40, and also with the United States, represented as the chariots, ships, and horsemen.

But, we have been discussing these three powers in this verse. The King of the North in verse 40 being the Beast of Revelation 16; the horsemen and chariots and ships, representing the twofold nature of military and economic strength, the two horns of the United States at the end of the world when they have lost their way, and, they are there in verse 40; and, the King of the South (being the Dragon) in verse 40 are the three powers that lead the world to Armageddon.

And Armageddon we have shown down here in Daniel 11:44 through Daniel 12:1, where the King of the North comes to his end with none to help, this is Armageddon. And it is these three powers in verse 40, the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet, that lead the world to Armageddon. So, the story of Daniel 11:40-45 is the story of Revelation 16. And there are still more to be said about that.

And we have put a few other thoughts that I am not remembering to bring back up to our attention in play as well that we will probably deal with later.

But, in verse 40 we are saying that there is a long, protracted war between the Papacy and Atheism, Atheism being the King of the South in the verse. And at the beginning, the King of the South attacks the King of the North, pushes at him. But, in 1989, the King of the North retaliates against the King of the South and sweeps it away in a mighty fashion, passing over the countries. Whoever the King of the South is when it is swept away in verse 40, it is a confederacy of countries; because, the verse says that the King of the North passes over the countries. Of course, we are identifying that as the Soviet Union, which was a confederacy of countries.

But, though 1989 marks the fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, the verse itself does not come to an end until The Sunday Law, Daniel 11:41, which we have not proven yet; but, we cannot prove everything at one time.

So, we are seeing in verse 40 a long, protracted war between the King of the South and the King of the North that ends in 1989; and, then we closed out yesterday by showing another illustration of this long, protracted war. All the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, and the history of Ancient Israel and the history of the Christian Church are all repeated in Laodicea; therefore, they are all repeated in the last six verses of Daniel 11.

So, we went into the story of Josiah, who was given a warning message not to get involved with the war that was beginning, and this war was the King of the South: Pharaohnecho, the king of Egypt. The King of the South was pushing against the king of Assyria, the King of the North.

And right from the start, Pharaohnecho told Josiah, "The Lord has sent me against the King of the North. You need to stay out of it"; but, Josiah disregarded that warning message of Daniel 11, verse 40, and he went to war and there is where he died, and he died at Armageddon.

And in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, many years later, Jeremiah 46:1-2, the king of Babylon comes and deals the deadly blow to Pharaohnecho. So, you have here a long, protracted war.

This section here [from 1798 to 1989 (see Figure No. 97)] is this history here [from 1798 to The Sunday Law (see Figure No. 96, Timeline of Daniel)]. I just brought it down here to make a point.

You have a secondary long, protracted war where the King of the South pushes against the King of the North [referring to Figure No. 97], and then many years later the King of the North returns and retaliates against him.

And if you would see it—and maybe it is at a level that you are not prepared to acknowledge—but, here the King of the South pushes against the king of Assyria. But, this war, the Battle of Carchemish the Bible calls it, though it begins against the king of Assyria, when the King of the North returns, it is not the king of Assyria but the king of Babylon. Okay? In 1798 this is the Papacy that receives the deadly would [referring again to Figure No. 96.]

And if you are really going to study Rome prophetically, in Daniel 11:14 it tells us that it is Rome that establishes the vision. So, we need to study Rome carefully.

You have Pagan Rome in history, and then you have Papal Rome; but, Rome at the end of the world is modern Rome.

So, here [see Figure 96] is Papal Rome in 1798 receiving the deadly wound as the King of the South pushes at him; but here, when the King of the North retaliates against the king of Atheism in 1989, this is modern Rome.

In this story [see Figure 96] the King of the South pushes against the King of the North, Assyria; but, when the King of the North returns and retaliates against the King of the South, it is Babylon. If you can see that change there, it is marking the change between Papal Rome and modern Rome; and, it is giving us a lesson that Josiah as the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, by rejecting the warning message of Daniel 11, verse 40, he ends up at Armageddon on the wrong side of the issue.

THE BATTLE OF CONSTANTINOPLE: 1798, AND NINEVEH: 1989 (ROME AND PERSIA: A TWO-HORNED POWER)

Revelation 9:1-3

Okay. Now, another line of a long, protracted war is what we will take up here. I am calling it "The Battle of Constantinople and Nineveh," and you will see why.

We are going to read Revelation 9:1, and then we are going to go into Uriah Smith's commentary on this history. We will read verses 1 through 3 of Revelation 9.

And what we are saying is this is a third history that illustrates a long, protracted war. This is another line that goes over the top of Daniel 11, verse 40, the war between the King of the South and the King of the North.

Beginning at verse 1 of Revelation 9:

> "[1]And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. [2]And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. [3]And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power." Revelation 9:1-3 (KJV).

Now, we want to say some things about here, but I want to say some things outside of what is our point here.

Go up to verse 10 of Revelation 8. Verse 10 says,

> "[10]And the third angel sounded,—

What third angel? What is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is too early in the morning for a question, huh?

It is the Third Trumpet. This is the Seven Trumpets of Revelation. And Miller and the Pioneers understood that the Trumpets were the historical forces that the Lord used to bring judgment upon Rome; and, the first four Trumpets bring judgment upon Western Rome, and Western Rome is disintegrated into the ten kingdoms of Daniel 7 by AD476 because of the activities of the first four Trumpets.

And here in verse 10 you have the Third Trumpet, and it is Attila the Hun. It says,

> "[10]And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters." Revelation 8:10 (KJV).

This illustration of Attila the Hun, what is the symbol that represents him in the verse?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A falling star.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A falling star.

Okay. So, when you get down to Revelation 9, verse 1, it says,

> "[1]And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven . . ." Revelation 9, (KJV).

In Adventism today, because Islam has become an issue in the world that Adventism cannot deny. Even if Adventism does not want to place Islam in prophecy, they cannot deny the activities of Islam are underway. So, you have some teachings about Islam that are a little bit off the Biblical radar, and one of them is found here and it is a premise that this star that fell from heaven here is Mohammad.

And this is in the context of Revelation 9, because Revelation 9 is about Islam of the Fifth and the Sixth Trumpets, the First and the Second Woes. But, what is argued here is Mohammad, when he originally began, he was a prophet of God; but, somewhere in the development of his life story, he falls away from God.

Okay. Now, what this does, it is using the falling star. That is the argument, "Look, it was a star in Heaven. It was in Heaven once. It had to be a good star; but, it fell, so it is a bad star."

So, my argument against that is, "Are you also trying to tell me that Attila the Hun was a prophet of God?" Because, this is the context of the passage: If you are going to make an assumption based upon a symbol of the falling of the star, and there is another falling of the stars in the same passage—and this is all about the Trumpets here—then, you have to be consistent.

And I have actually had a person argue that Attila the Hun was divinely appointed by the Lord. And I am not that familiar with history, but Attila the Hun was not a godly man, as I remember history, at any point along the way. But, that is not my point.

Once you make that assumption about Islam, then you have reason to argue that there are some—there is a possibility, or whatever, that the insights that are found in the Koran that some of them are sanctified and inspired. That leads you the wrong way. All right?

Because, if you go to Genesis, just to put this to bed, Genesis 16:12 where we see Ishmael introduced, Ishmael being the symbol of Islam, verse 11 of Genesis 16 says,

> "[11]And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael; because the LORD hath heard thy affliction. [12]And"—

And Sister White comments on this spirit of Ishmael. You will probably get to that quote at some point in this study, where his spirit is a troublemaker to everyone that he comes in contact with.

So,

> —"he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren." Genesis 16:11-2 (KJV).

The spirit that is associated with all of his brethren, according to Inspiration, is this unholy spirit. So, when you are trying to make a case that there is some component of Islam that is sanctified and holy, it stands against the stated pronouncement of Ishmael and all his descendents.

But, I am not trying to bad-mouth people that are in the religion of Islam anymore than I am bad-mouthing a Catholic person when I am dealing with the Catholic Church or the Papacy. It is not at the personal level, but it is at the prophetic level.

Go back to Revelation 9.

At the prophetic level, we need to know who we are dealing with. And when you take the time—we will not do it here—to look at the term bottomless pit, and Sister White's comments on it, "bottomless pit" appears here in Revelation 9; it appears in Revelation 11 in association with the French Revolution. It is where Satan is put for a thousand years in Revelation 20; and, the Catholic Church in Revelation 17 comes out of the bottomless pit. And whenever Sister White comments on the bottomless pit, she says it is a new manifestation of satanic power. So, when you see Islam coming out of the bottomless pit, the Spirit of Prophecy also says, "satanic power." It does not say anything about Mohammad once being a prophet, or that possibly there is some sanctified insight that we can glean from the Koran.

So, Uriah Smith comments. Who is Uriah Smith? He is God's helping hand. In Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, pages 495 – 497, he comments on this passage of Revelation 9, verses 1 through 3.

And Revelation 9, verses 1 through 3, is talking about a key, something that happens in history; because, what does James White say about prophecy? It is history in advance.

So, this key is a key in history that opens up the bottomless pit in verse 1.

And then in verse 2, when the bottomless pit is opened, there is a smoke that comes out of the pit like locusts and scorpions in verse 3. And this is identifying the historical event that brings Islam into history.

Okay. That is a brief overview.

Now, Uriah Smith is going to tell us the history that is represented in these verses that allows the smoke of Islam to come into history. This is Uriah Smith:

> "'VERSE 1. And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.'
> "For an exposition of this trumpet, we shall again draw from the writings of Mr. Keith. This writer truthfully says: 'There is scarcely"—

Now, notice, Uriah Smith is agreeing with this Keith that he is quoting; and, pay attention to what he is agreeing with, because what he is agreeing with, what he is saying is of all the symbols in the Book of Revelation that are easily established, the one that is the most easily established is the Fifth and Sixth Trumpets identifying Islam. Okay?

> —"This writer truthfully says, 'There is scarcely so uniform an agreement among interpreters concerning any other part of the Apocalypse as respecting the application of the fifth and sixth trumpets, or the first and second woes, to the Saracens and Turks."—

Saracens, Fifth Trumpet; Mohammad and his followers, Turks, Sixth Trumpet, Islam moves to Turkey, the Ottoman Empire.

> —"It is so obvious that it can scarcely be misunderstood. Instead of a verse or two designating each, the whole of the ninth chapter of the Revelation in equal portions, is occupied with a description of both.
> "'The Roman empire declined, as it arose, by conquest; but the Saracens and the Turks were the instruments by which a false religion became the scourge of an apostate church;"—

So, there is one of the definitions of the role of Islam that the Pioneers held to, is that Islam is raised up. It is a false religion, to be a scourge against an apostate church.

> —"and hence, instead of the fifth and sixth trumpets, like the former, being designated by that name alone, they are called woes."—

What does he mean by that?

Because, you can pronounce judgment on a secular person; but, if you pronounce judgment upon a church, then it is a woe because it has a religious connotation. So, now he is going to explain this.

> —"'Constantinople was besieged,"—

What is Constantinople?

What is Constantinople?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is the capitol.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the capitol of the Roman Empire.

Since when?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD330.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Since AD330.

So, in AD330 Constantine divided the kingdom in half—right?—between East and West, and the political branch of the kingdom went to the East.

And when he did that, what did he give to the Papacy? He gave the Papacy its seat in the City of Rome.

And who is the Papacy? It is the church.

So, from this point on, we see Western Rome a symbol of the church, and Eastern Rome a symbol of the state. That is worth keeping in your mind. Eastern Rome is the state, and Western Rome is the church. Right? Constantinople, the new political center.

—"Constantinople was besieged, for the"—

For what, the seventh or eighth time?

—"for the first time after the extinction of the Western empire, by Chosroes, the king of Persia.'"—

Now, we have things to say about Persia that I am going to say here and not defend. Okay? But, I want you to at least put it into your memory bank to when we come back here.

We are required to understand the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. Why?

Why are we required to understand that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because, we are those that have been identified as the ones that are going to call people out of Babylon.

So, what is Babylon?

You ought to know what Babylon is if you are going to call people out of Babylon. In fact, if you are going to be the one that calls people out of Babylon, then you probably need to be the expert on what Babylon is. And what is Babylon at the end of the world?

It is a city that is divided into three parts. One part is the Beast, one part is the Dragon, and one part is the False Prophet. So, if there is light about these three entities or their relationship to one another, as those that are going to call people out of Babylon, we should be the experts on it. And what I want you to see is that each of these powers has their own unique characteristics.

We have dealt a little bit with the Dragon. His primary characteristic is the number 10.

You do not see the number 10 associated with the Papacy. I mean, you do in the sense that the Papacy is counterfeiting Paganism, but it is not a primary symbol of the Papacy.

You do not see the number 10 associated with the False Prophet. And when it comes to the False Prophet, one of the characteristics of the False Prophet is he has two horns.

Okay. When he is the lamb-like beast, it is Republicanism and Protestantism; and when he speaks as a dragon, it is military and economic strength.

And the lamb-like beast, we have already made our first approach to the fact that the lamb-like beast is the power that places the Papacy on the throne of the Earth, and therefore was typified by Clovis; because, the lamb-like beast, we pointed out, is going to exercise all the power of the first beast before it (verse 12 of Revelation 13). And then we went to verse 2 of Revelation 13 and looked at the power, the seat, and the authority, and Clovis represents the power that was given to the Papacy to place it upon the throne of the Earth in AD538; therefore, we have identified that Clovis is typifying the United States, and Clovis is the king of France, and the king of France in Revelation 11, verse 8, has two nations in it, Sodom and Egypt; because France is typifying the United States.

And when it comes to the False Prophet, one of the characteristics of the False Prophet is that it is a dual nation. Okay?

There are only so many nations that are a dual nation. Who brought Babylon to the throne, because Babylon is prefiguring Rome? A twofold nation of France placed Papal Rome on the throne of the Earth, and the twofold nation of the United States is going to put modern Rome on the throne of the Earth. But, who put Babylon on the throne of the Earth? It was Hezekiah, by having the sign of the sun going backwards, which brought the Babylonians.

And then Hezekiah, instead of praising and lifting up the Lord, he said, "Come and look at all the good stuff I have." And this was the motivation for Babylon coming to the throne of the Earth.

And Hezekiah represents Israel, and Israel is a twofold power. It has the Northern Kingdom and the Southern Kingdom, Ephraim and Judah.

So, it is always a twofold power that places the Papacy or Babylon on the throne of the Earth, and it is always a twofold power that takes her down.

And who took Babylon down?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Medo-Persia.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Medo-Persia, a twofold nation, a twofold nation. That twofold nation is representing who at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States. All the prophets are speaking about the end of the word.

So, I want you to see in the story of Revelation 9:1 that the power that is being represented here is Persia.

What is Persia? It is a twofold power. It does not say "Medes and Persians" specifically, but that is who Persia is in prophecy. It is the Medes and the Persians.

And when you look closely at the Medes and the Persians, they are teaching the same thing that is taught in Revelation 13:11; the United States changes.

The Medes and the Persians changed. When they came into history, who was the power? The Medes; but they end up, it was the Persians.

But in any case, in Bible prophecy when you see the Persians, what do you see? A twofold power; and, when you see a twofold power, it could be France, the United States.

> —"Constantinople was besieged, for the first time after the extinction of the Western empire, by Chosroes, the king of Persia."

Who is Constantinople? It is Rome, is it not? It is still Rome.

And who is Rome? It is the King of the North.

And who is Persia? It is the twofold power.

Who is it? It is the King of the South. And this is the first encounter between Persia, the King of the South, pushing against Rome, Constantinople, the King of the North.

All right. Do you follow me?

> —"'A star fell from heaven unto the earth; and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.'
> "'While the Persian monarch contemplated the wonders of his art and power, he received an epistle"—a LETTER—"from an obscure citizen of Mecca, inviting him to acknowledge Mohammed as the apostle of God. He rejected the invitation, and tore the epistle. "It is thus," exclaimed the Arabian prophet, "that > God will tear the kingdom, and reject the supplication of Chosroes." Placed on the verge of these two empires of the East, Mohammed observed with secret joy the progress of mutual destruction; and in the midst of the Persian triumphs he ventured to foretell, that, before many years should elapse, victory would again return to the banners of the Romans. "At the time when this prediction is said to have been delivered, no prophecy could be more distant from its accomplishment (!) since the first twelve years of Heraclius announced the approaching dissolution of the empire."

We have got more to read here, but what it is saying is, is that Persia attacks Constantinople. The King of the South, the two-horned power, the Medes and the Persians, the two-horned power pushes against Constantinople in the East and prevails initially.

But in this line of prophecy [referencing Figure No. 97], it is not about Josiah representing Adventism that rejects the warning message of Daniel 11:40. This line of prophecy we are dealing with here, Revelation 9, it is putting another piece of information into this history. It is going to identify what are the dynamics that take place that brings Islam into prophetic history.

And as we have just read, Mohammad could see that these two powers were going to exhaust their strengths and leave a power vacuum for the rise of Islam, and that is just what happened.

Continuing on,

> "'It was not, like that designative of Attila, on a single spot that the star fell, but UPON THE EARTH.
> "'Chosroes subjugated the Roman possession in Asia and Africa."—

He pushed against the King of the North, and he prevailed.

> "—And "the Roman empire," at that period, "was reduced to the walls of Constantinople, with the remnant of Greece, Italy, and Africa, and some maritime cities, from Tyre to Trebizond, of the Asiatic coast. The experience of six years at length persuaded the Persian monarch to renounce the conquest of Constantinople,"—

See, it is a long, drawn-out war. He is battling to take Constantinople. He is taking the Empire away from the Romans. But, after six years, he says, "Enough." He pushes at him.

> —"and to specify the annual tribute of the ransom of the Roman empire,—"

"Okay. I am not going to continue warring against you, but you are going to pay me a tribute." The two-horned power says this.

> —"a thousand talents of gold, a thousand talents of silver, a thousand silk robes, a thousand horses, and a thousand virgins. Heraclius subscribed to these ignominious terms. But the time and space which he obtained to collect those > treasures from the poverty of the East were industriously employed in the preparation of a bold and desperate attack.'"—

So, he is forced to pay tribute to the two-horned power, Persia; because, he has been delivered a deadly wound, right here [1798]; and, he has a poor kingdom that he is going to raise taxes on in order to pay these tributes to the two-horned power.

But, in the meantime, he has got a secret plan going on. All right? A bold and desperate attack.

And this particular attack, if you are someone that is studying warfare at a college that teaches warfare, you know, the military colleges that do this, this is one of the most famous military campaigns in history. It is studied.

> —"'The king of Persia despised the obscure Saracen,'"—

They despised Islam.

> —"'and derided the message of the pretended prophet of Mecca. Even the overthrow of the Roman empire would not have opened a door for Mohammedanism, or for the progress of the Saracenic armed propagators of an imposture, though the monarch of the Persians and chagan of the Avars (the successor of Attila) had divided between them the remains of the kingdoms of the Caesars. Chosroes himself fell. The Persian and Roman monarchies exhausted each other's strength. And before a sword was put into the hands of the false prophet, it was smitten from the hands of those who would have checked his career and crushed his power."—

So, Chosroes, the Persian, he goes down and—anyway, you can follow Smith.

> —"'Since the days of Scipio and Hannibal, no bolder enterprise has been attempted than that which Heraclius achieved for the deliverance of the empire.'"—

Now he is going to tell us about this long, draw-out war campaign.

> —"'He explored his perilous way through the Black Sea and the mountains of Armenia, penetrated into the heart of Persia, and recalled the armies of the great king to the defense of their bleeding country.'
>
> "'In the battle of Nineveh, which was fiercely fought from daybreak to the eleventh hour, twenty-eight standards, besides those which might be broken or torn, were taken from the Persians; the greatest part of their army was cut in pieces, and the victors, concealing their own loss, passed the night on the field. The cities and palaces of Assyria were opened for the first time to the Romans.'
> "'The Roman emperor was not strengthened by the conquests which he achieved; and a way was prepared at the same time, and by the same means, for the multitudes of Saracens from Arabia, like locusts from the same region, > who, propagating in their course the dark and delusive Mohammedan creed, speedily overspread both the Persian and the Roman empire.'"—

So, what is being described here is the two-horned power, Persia, pushes against Rome at the Battle of Constantinople, and puts Rome in subjection. But, the leader of Rome, this Heraclius, he secretly sends his army all the way around the geography of Persia and comes in behind Persia and attacks down here at the Battle of Nineveh. And he defeats Persia at the Battle of Nineveh. The King of the North defeats the King of the South at the end of the battle.

But as he does so, the King of the South, he is out of the picture now; but, Heraclius, the Roman power, all his strength is gone.

So, the two powers, the Persians and the Romans, that could have prevented the rise of Mohammad and Islam, they have no power.

So what this story is telling us is that right after 1989, you should expect to see the rise of Islam into history.

The key, the key that opens that bottomless pit, the Battle of Nineveh: it is 1989; it is Daniel 11, verse 40; it is the point in history where the Dirt Brush Man enters in order to open God's Word to His people with a testing message.

> —"'More complete illustration of this fact could not be desired than is supplied in the concluding words of the chapter from Gibbon, from which the preceding extracts are taken.' 'Although a victorious army had been formed under the standard of Heraclius, the unnatural effort seems to have exhausted rather than exercised their strength. While the emperor triumphed at Constantinople or Jerusalem, an obscure town on the confines of Syria was pillaged by the Saracens, and they cut in pieces some troops who advanced to its relief,—an ordinary and trifling occurrence, had it not been the prelude of a mighty revolution. These robbers were the apostles of Mohammed; their frantic valor had emerged from the desert; and in the last eight years of his reign, Heraclius lost to the Arabs the same provinces which he had rescued from the Persians.'
> '"The spirit of fraud and enthusiasm, whose abode is not in the heavens,' was let loose on earth. The bottomless pit needed but a key to open it, and that key was the fall of Chosroes. He had contemptuously torn the letter of an obscure citizen of Mecca. But when from his 'blaze of glory' he sunk into"—

And where does Chosroes sink into, to mark the key, according to Uriah Smith?

Now, Sister White was asked about if she thought that Uriah Smith's book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, was inspired, and she was disgusted by that question, it appears to be, if a prophetess can be disgusted; because, she tells her nephew, Frank Belden who asked that question, "I shall not answer that question."

She knew that Uriah Smith was not inspired. She said, "I shall not answer that question. I dare not say that these men," these Pioneer authors, "were not led of God; but, as to inspiration in the fullest sense, they were not." That was her response.

But, she does say they were led of God.

So, what does it mean that you are led of God? Well, maybe it means that the Lord led Uriah Smith right here to say the key, the fall of Chosroes that brings Islam into history, maybe

Uriah Smith was saying that what we want to mark the death of Chosroes with is this statement here:

—"But when from his 'blaze of glory' he sunk into the 'tower of darkness'"—

Then we would find a tower marking the rise of Islam in history.

> —"he sunk into the 'tower of darkness' which no eye could penetrate, the name of Chosroes was suddenly to pass into oblivion before that of Mohammed; and the crescent seemed but to wait its rising till the falling of the star. Chosroes, after his entire discomfiture and loss of empire, was murdered in the year 628; and the year 629 is marked by 'the conquest of Arabia,' and 'the first war of the Mohammedans against the Roman empire.' 'And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth; and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit.' He fell unto the earth. When the strength of the Roman empire was exhausted, and the great king of the East lay dead in his tower of darkness, the pillage of an obscure town on the borders of Syria was 'the prelude of a mighty revolution.' 'The robbers were the apostles of Mohammed, and their frantic valor emerged from the desert.'"
> "The Bottomless Pit.—The meaning of this term may be learned from the Greek, which is defined 'deep, bottomless, profound,' and may refer to any waste, desolate, and uncultivated place. It is applied to the earth in its original state of chaos. Genesis 1:2. In this instance it may appropriately refer to the unknown wastes of the Arabian desert, from the borders of which issued the hordes of Saracens like swarms of locusts. And the fall of Chosroes, the Persian king, may well be represented as the opening of the bottomless pit, inasmuch as it prepared the way for the followers of Mohammed to issue from their obscure country, and propagate their delusive doctrines with fire and sword, till they had spread their darkness over all the Eastern empire." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 495–497.

So, what we are saying here is that in Daniel 11, verse 40, you have a long, drawn-out war between the King of the South and the King of the North. It begins when the King of the South pushes at the King of the North and prevails. It ends when the King of the North returns and retaliates and sweeps around the way of the King of the South.

In the history of verse 40, the King of the South is the king of Atheism, and the King of the North is the Papacy and modern Rome.

In the story of Josiah, Egypt pushes against Assyria, and ultimately Egypt is defeated by Babylon many years later in this Battle of Carchemish.

And this tells us that those in Adventism that reject the warning message of verse 40 are going to end up down here in verses 44 to Daniel 12:1 on the wrong side of the issue in Armageddon.

But, Revelation 9, in this long, drawn-out war, is telling us that when Persia pushed against Rome and initially won the battle, that Rome was going to return and retaliate; and, when Rome retaliated and sweeps away the King of the South (Persia) that this is the key that brings Islam into history. So sometime in verse 40, before verse 41 which is The Sunday Law, if what we are saying is correct, with the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, then sometime before The Sunday Law in the United States, we should expect to see Islam come back into prophetic history.

And if you believe that Uriah Smith was led of the Lord, then maybe the fact that he marks the fall of Chosroes as a fall of a tower to the earth, might ring some bells for you.

Okay. Switching gears now.

A REVIVAL

The purpose of Daniel 11:40-45 is to produce a revival among God's people. This is another thought in connection with the great, deep significance of Daniel 11:40-45, and verse 40 in particular.

In Selected Messages, book 1, page 121, it says,

> "A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work." Selected Messages, book 1, 121.

On page 128 in the same passage, of the same book—this is the same manuscript here. She is going to define what a revival is. She says,

> "A revival and a reformation must take place, under the ministration of the Holy Spirit. Revival and reformation are two different things. Revival signifies a renewal of spiritual life,"—

Therefore, if you go back to the quote right before that, when she says a revival is our greatest need and our first work, and it is a renewal of spiritual life, it means that we are spiritually dead. At the end of the world we are Laodiceans. We are a valley of dead, dry bones. We are sleeping virgins, and our greatest need is to be awakened, to have the Spirit breathed upon these dead, dry bones that they might stand up a mighty army.

> —a quickening of the powers of mind and heart, a resurrection from spiritual death. Reformation signifies a reorganization, a change in ideas and theories, habits and practices. Reformation will not bring forth the good fruit of righteousness unless it is connected with the revival of the Spirit. Revival and reformation are to do their appointed work, and in doing this work they must blend." Selected Messages, book 1, 128.

How does that happen?
Testimonies to Ministers, page 113, says,

> "When we as a people understand what this book means to us, there will be seen among us a great revival." Testimonies to Ministers, 113.

And "this book" here, when you look in the writings of Sister White, she is talking about "the books" of Daniel and Revelation; because, she repeatedly says they are the same book.

"When we as a people understand what this book means to us, there will be seen among us a great revival." Testimonies to Ministers, 113.

Next quote, The Faith I Live By, page 345:

"When the books of Daniel and Revelation are better understood, believers will have an entirely different religious experience. . . One thing will certainly be understood from the study of Revelation—that the connection between God and His people is close and decided." The Faith I Live By, 345.

Our greatest need is for a revival, and Inspiration teaches us that the revival comes from a prophetic message that is found in the book of Daniel and Revelation; and, we are saying that Daniel 11, verses 40 and 41, these two verses, are the verses that have been designed by God to produce the revival of God's people.

Verse 40 has the most, the greatest, the biggest historical event of the 20th Century as its fulfillment, the collapse of the Soviet Union. Verse 40 announces in big, black and white words that the last six verses of Daniel 11 have begun to be fulfilled. God requires Seventh-day Adventists to recognize this. If you recognize that in 1989 Daniel 11, verse 40, was fulfilled in the collapse of the Soviet Union and you wake up and consider what verse 41 represents, verse 41 represents a Sunday Law in the United States. And when you understand what that means, it means that probation is going to close for Seventh-day Adventists at The Sunday Law in the United States. So, the next thing in the prophecies of Daniel 11:40-45 that is specifically marked as happening is the close of probation for Seventh-day Adventists.

If you understand from verse 40 that the next thing to happen is that your probation is going to close and you determine through the power of the Holy Spirit to bring your life into agreement with this fact, what happens to you? You experience a revival in your life, because you know that you are not ready for the Seal of God. You know you are ready for the mark of the beast, and you realize that the mark of the beast and the Seal of God are on their way, so you go to the foot of the cross and you meet the requirements of the Gospel so the Lord can finish the work that He began in you that you can be ready for the Seal of God when verse 41 arrives. And this is the formula that is in Daniel and Revelation that has been designed by God to produce the revival among Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world, the revival that we call the Latter Rain.

Okay. So, when we are dealing with the significance of verse 40 and that it is the Time of the End for the 144,000, and that there is a truth unsealed in agreement with what we are taught in Daniel 12, and that the Lion of the tribe of Judah begins to remove seals one at a time in agreement with Revelation 5, and that the Dirt Brush Man has entered and is sweeping out the false coin in agreement with William Miller's dream, what we are saying is that verse 40 is identifying the very truth that brings God's people to life. And verse 40 is a pretty profound verse.

Okay. So, we have put that in place.

THE ELIJAH MESSAGE

We want to look at what is the message of verse 40: What is the message of verse 40? And we are going to say it is the First Message; because, we are repeating the history of the Millerites, and the history of the Millerites is the history of the First and Second Angels' Messages. The Second Angel's Message concludes with the arrival of the Third Message. But, the basic history of the Millerites from 1798 to 1844 is the history of the First and Second Angels' Messages; and, we will repeat that history. We will have a first message and a second message. In every Reform Movement there is a first and a second message that concludes with the closing of a door. So, we want to mark that the message of Daniel 11, verse 40, it is the First Message.

THE JUDGMENT OF AD70

Matthew 3:7

What is the First Message?

Go to Matthew 3:7. We have been over this before, but we still want to go over it again.

The time of Christ is repeated in our history, and in the time of Christ you had two messages. We have read about it in the worship series, in Early Writings, page 259, "All those that would not receive the message of John the Baptist"—there is your first message—"could not be benefitted by the teachings of Jesus." There is your second message, and the message of Jesus ended at the cross when the door closed, which was followed by the disappointment of the Disciples, prefiguring the disappointment of the Millerites. The cross lines up with October 22, 1844; and before October 22, 1844, you have the First Message of William Miller, and the Second Message that is marked when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 10 descends, and that Angel is no less the personage than Jesus Christ. The First Message for the Millerites is Miller's, and the Second is Jesus Christ; and, the First Message in the time of Christ was John the Baptist, and the Second was Jesus Christ. Okay? The same histories.

And in Matthew 3:7, it says, speaking of John,

> "[7]But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" Matthew 3:7 (KJV).

The reason he calls them the "generation of vipers" is this is the fourth generation, prophetically; and, in the fourth generation is when Christ accomplishes the Everlasting Gospel. And when Christ accomplishes the Everlasting Gospel, he is going to produce two classes of worshippers. One is going to be the seed of Christ, and one is going to be the seed of Satan, and Satan is the serpent. Satan is the viper. That is why John is saying, "You are the generation of vipers. You are the generation that is going to become the seed of Satan." It is not like he is being mean-spirited; he is just being accurate to the generation that he is in.

But, we are not dealing with that. We are dealing with the question that he asked them, who hath warned them to flee from the wrath to come.

What is the wrath to come in the time period of John the Baptist?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The destruction of Jerusalem.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The destruction of Jerusalem in AD70.

And who warned the Jews to flee from the events connected with the close of probation for Ancient Israel? Who had warned them?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel, the prophet. Daniel, the prophet.

Matthew 3:1-3; Isaiah 40:1-5

And in Matthew 3, verses 1 through 3, it says,

> "[1]In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, [2]And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. [3]For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, THE VOICE OF ONE CRYING IN THE WILDERNESS, PREPARE YE THE WAY OF THE LORD, MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT." Matthew 3:1-3 (KJV).

So, John the Baptist, not only does he give the message that is the events connected with the close of probation, he is the voice crying in the wilderness. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible responses.)
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Go to Isaiah 40, verses 1 through 5.

> "[1]Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. [2]Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned:"—

When is Israel's iniquity pardoned?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible responses.)
BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the blotting out of sin.

> —"for she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.
> "[3]The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. [4]Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: [5]And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it." Isaiah 40:1-5 (KJV).

When is the whole world lightened with the glory of the Lord?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Revelation 18.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 18. This is primarily speaking about Revelation 18.

And when are we pardoned in that time period? When the sins are being blotted out; and, in that time period there will be a voice crying in the wilderness that is setting forth the events connected with the close of probation.

Do you follow the logic?

Okay. Sister White in Prophets and Kings, page 119, says,

"Among the mountains of Gilead, east of the Jordan, there dwelt in the days of Ahab a man of faith and prayer whose fearless ministry was destined to check the rapid spread of apostasy in Israel."—

Who is Ahab?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He is Jezebel's husband.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is Jezebel's husband.

Who is Jezebel? She is the Papacy. She is Thyatira during the 1260 years, and she is modern Rome at the end of the world.

And who is ruling in that relationship, Ahab or Jezebel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jezebel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jezebel is ruling in that relationship.

And who is Ahab the head of?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Israel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ten tribes. Okay? There are Ten Kings in Revelation 17 that commit fornication with the whore of Rome in Revelation 17. Those Ten Kings, that is Israel; but, of those Ten Kings there is one king that rules over those Ten Kings. Who is Ahab?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Israel?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States; because, we read a quote yesterday or the day before that says the United States unites with the dragon power. We pointed it out for you. It becomes part of these Ten Kings, and it is the primary part because we have also read a quote that the United States is the last power to make war with Christians.

Okay. So, Ahab is the Ten Kings; Jezebel is the Papacy; but, Ahab, other than the Ten Kings is primarily representing the role of the United States at the end of the world.

—"Far removed from any city of renown, and occupying no high station in life, Elijah the Tishbite nevertheless entered upon his mission confident in God's purpose to prepare the way before him and to give him abundant success. The word of faith and power was upon his lips, and his whole life was devoted to the work of reform. His was the voice of one crying in the wilderness"—

He was the voice of one crying in the wilderness, and Isaiah predicts a voice of one crying in the wilderness long after Elijah is on the scene of history.

MILLER

So, Elijah is prefiguring John the Baptist; but, Elijah and John the Baptist are prefiguring who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: William Miller.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: William Miller, and their voices are a message that comes from the wilderness.

—"His was the voice of one crying in the wilderness to rebuke sin and press back the tide of evil. And while he came to the people as a reprover of sin, his message offered the balm of Gilead to the sin-sick souls of all who desired to be healed." Prophets and Kings, 119.

And, of course, we have read this before, Early Writings, page 233.

> "Thousands were led to embrace the truth preached by William Miller, and servants of God were raised up in the spirit and power of Elijah to proclaim the message. Like John, the forerunner of Jesus, those who preached this solemn message felt compelled to lay the ax at the root of the tree, and call upon men to bring forth fruits meet for repentance. Their testimony was calculated to arouse and powerfully affect the churches and manifest their real character. And as the solemn warning to flee from the wrath to come was sounded, many who were united with the churches received the healing message; they saw their backslidings, and with bitter tears of repentance and deep agony of soul, humbled themselves before God. And as the Spirit of God rested upon them, they helped to sound the cry, 'Fear God, and give glory to Him; for the hour of His judgment is come.'" Early Writings, 233.

So, in the history of the Millerites, there is the First Message, who is William Miller, and it has been prefigured by both John the Baptist and Elijah, who are First Messages.

And Elijah, the real Elijah, is the first of two messages. What is the Second Message in his history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Elisha.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Elisha.

John the Baptist is the First. Who is the Second in his history? Jesus.

And in the Millerite History, Miller is the First, followed by Jesus on 9/11—(pause)—8/11/1840. Okay?

THE OPENING OF THE JUDGMENT

So, what was Miller's message? We have read this before, The Great Controversy, page 310.

> "It was needful that men should be awakened to their danger; that they should be roused to prepare for the solemn events connected with the close of probation." The Great Controversy, 310.

That is John's message: Who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" which comes when Ancient Israel is divorced of God at the stoning of Stephen and probation closes upon this people. John the Baptist was acquainting them with the events connected with the close of probation; and William Miller, prefigured by John the Baptist, is presenting the events connected with the close of probation.

And in Daniel 11, verse 40, is introducing the genuine events that lead to the close of probation. Daniel 11, verse 40, is the First Message. It is the message of Elijah; it is the message of John the Baptist; it is the message of Miller.

THE CLOSE OF PROBATION

In Prophets and Kings, pages 715 – 716, it says,

> "Today, in the spirit and power of Elias and of John the Baptist, messengers of God's appointment are calling the attention of a judgment-bound world to the solemn events soon to take place in connection with the closing hours of probation and the appearance of Christ Jesus as King of kings and Lord of lords." Prophets and Kings, 715–716.

And if you see a spokesman in Adventism that is not now identifying the events connected with the close of probation in their message, then you know that they are a false teacher; because, at this time in history, the message is about the events connected with the close of Judgment and Probation. Any other message is a distraction at best. All right?

And what is that message? It is the First Message.

And what marks the beginning of that Message? Daniel 11, verse 40, identifies that the first verse of the verses that lead to the close of probation has been fulfilled; and, it warns those that will be warned that the next verse [verse 41 of Daniel 11] is the close of probation for Seventh-day Adventists and you better get your life straight or you are going to receive the mark of the beast.

What is our work? Testimonies, volume 8, pages 9-10:

> "What is our work? The same as that given to John the Baptist, of whom we read: 'In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, and saying,"—

So, our work is what? It is the voice of one crying in the wilderness.

> —"Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make His paths straight.' Matthew 3:1–3.
>
> "All who are truly engaged in the work of the Lord for these last days will have a decided message to bear."—

A decided message to bear.

> —"Read the first few verses of the fortieth chapter of Isaiah:"—

We already did read that.

> —"'The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.' Isaiah 40:3–5.
>
> "'The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field: the grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the Spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand forever.' Verses 6–8.
>
> "This chapter is filled with instruction appropriate for us at this time. The word of the Lord to us is: 'Repent ye; prepare the way for a revival of My work.'" Testimonies, volume 8, 9–10.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Elijah's message was based upon the apostasy of Jezebel; and, in response to that, there were three and a half years of drought. And those three and a half years of drought prefigures the 1260 years of Dark Ages when Jezebel (the Papacy) ruled the world.

And in both Elijah and Miller, their messages were in response to what when on in the wilderness time period.

The voice, the message, that comes out of the wilderness has a relationship to the darkness that precedes that history.

John the Baptist had a relationship to the darkness that preceded that history, the darkness that had put preconceived ideas in the minds of Ancient Israel that prevented them from understanding who the Messiah was. Okay?

So, your message is also always going to have some relationship to the wilderness that precedes your time period.

Do you follow that logic?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what is the wilderness that precedes our time period?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: William Miller's dream.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: William Miller's dream.

If you are not understanding William Miller's dream and the darkness that has come into Adventism represented by the band of iron and brass that was placed around the root of the tree, then you are not giving a message from the wilderness. You are not the voice crying in the wilderness.

And if you are not talking about the close of probation, you are not that voice crying in the wilderness.

PARABLES

Now, we have these next quotes here, we have looked at more than once.

The Great Controversy, page 393:

> "The parable of the ten virgins of Matthew 25 also illustrates the experience of the Adventist people." The Great Controversy, 393.

The parable of the Ten Virgins is our parable.

Review and Herald, August 19, 1890:

> "I am often referred to the parable of the ten virgins, five of whom were wise, and five foolish. This parable has been and will be fulfilled to the very letter, for it has a special application to this time, and, like the third angel's message, has been fulfilled and will continue to be present truth till the close of time." Review and Herald, August 19, 1890.

This parable has been and will be fulfilled to the very letter, fulfilled in the Millerite History, fulfilled in our history.

The parable of the Ten Virgins is about the wise and foolish virgins.

Review and Herald, August 19, 1890, Sister White says,

"The state of the Church represented by the foolish virgins, is also spoken of as the Laodicean state." Review and Herald, August 19, 1890.

The foolish virgins are that they are going to find that they have no oil; they are the Laodiceans in Adventism. The wise virgins in Adventism that have oil, those are the Philadelphians; and, the Philadelphians are going to have the privilege and responsibility of carrying the final warning message to the eleventh-hour workers that are in Sardis.

But, these parables all teach that after the Judgment there is no probation.

ris t's Obje t Lesso s , page 123:

"Again, these parables teach that there is to be no probation after the judgment. When the work of the gospel is completed, there immediately follows the separation between the good and the evil, and the destiny of each class is forever fixed."

ris t's Obje t Lesso s , 123.

When The Sunday Law comes, there is no more probationary time for Seventh-day Adventists. When verse 41 comes, probation is closed. You better get ready before probation closes, or you are going to die. This is the way the Lord produces a revival from the books of Daniel and Revelation.

So, what I am saying is, if you are saying that you are a messenger to Adventism today and you are not emphasizing the events that lead to the close of probation and the close of Judgment, then you obviously are not a messenger and you are not paralleling the work of Elijah and John the Baptist or William Miller.

If your message does not have some connection to the wilderness time period that preceded the unsealing of the prophecy in our day and age, then you are not the voice crying in the wilderness.

Why am I making an emphasis on this? Well, why not? The theme that Jesus marked in Matthew 24, more than any other thing, was that in this time period beware because there is going to be false teachers and false prophets. He said that more than any other thing. So, let us be clear, who are the false teachers, who are the false prophets?

Well, one way you could know is that they do not know anything about the wilderness that precedes 1989, and they are unwilling to talk about the events connected with the close of probation that are represented in the last six verses of Daniel 11.

But, there is one other way—there are probably many, but there is one other way that we are going to deal with as we come to a close—the shut door.

THE SHUT-DOOR DOCTRINE

Selected Messages, book 1, pages 62 – 63:

"It is claimed that these expressions prove the shut-door doctrine, and that this is the reason of their omission in later editions."—

Okay. The Sister had written some things in her earlier books. When they are reprinted later on, there are some revisions and people are saying, "Look at this. They are trying to take errors that she early on taught and hide them." Sister White is responding to this.

—"But in fact they teach only that which has been and is still held by us as a people, as I shall show."—

She is saying, "There were no changes that change what we believed then and now."

The next paragraph:

—"For a time after the disappointment in 1844, I did hold, in common with the advent body, that the door of mercy was then forever closed to the world."—

Okay. She believed that! Ellen White believed, before the end of 1844, that on October 22, 1844, probation was closed for everybody. And some people say, "Well, that proves that she is a false prophet."

Well, you know what else she was doing at that same time that she believed that? She was eating pork. Okay? She was keeping Sunday. So, the idea that she held some misconceptions before light came to her has never been an argument against her prophetic office; so, it should not be that she held this doctrine before 1844, either.

—"For a time after the disappointment in 1844, I did hold, in common with the advent body, that the door of mercy was then forever closed to the world. This position was taken before my first vision was given me. It was the light given me of God that corrected our error, and enabled us to see the true position.

"I am still a believer in the shut-door theory, but not in the sense in which we at first employed the term or in which it is employed by my opponents.

"There was a shut door in Noah's day. There was at that time a withdrawal of the Spirit of God from the sinful race that perished in the waters of the Flood. God Himself gave the shut-door message to Noah: 'My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years' (Genesis 6:3)."—

If you can operate on William Miller's proof-texting method and Isaiah's line upon line in Isaiah 28, then as she lists these shut-door histories, you know you can go into these shut-door histories and lay them upon one another, line upon line, and see some very interesting things; because, Noah's teaching is that as we approach this closing of the door, that there is a class that the Spirit is removed from. And what is that class receiving?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Strong delusion.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Strong delusion. This is present truth: Noah.

Then she says,

—"There was a shut door in the days of Abraham. Mercy ceased to plead with the inhabitants of Sodom, and all but Lot, with his wife and two daughters, were consumed by the fire sent down from heaven.

"There was a shut door in Christ's day. The Son of God declared to the unbelieving Jews of that generation, 'Your house is left unto you desolate' (Matthew 23:38).

"Looking down the stream of time to the last days, the same infinite power proclaimed through John: 'These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth' (Revelation 3:7).

"I was shown in vision, and I still believe, that there was a shut door in 1844. All who saw the light of the first and second angels' messages and rejected that light, were left in darkness. And those who accepted it and received the Holy Spirit which attended the proclamation of the message from heaven, and who afterward"—

After the Midnight Cry experience.

—"renounced their faith and pronounced their experience a delusion, thereby rejected the Spirit of God, and it no longer pleaded with them.

"Those who did not see the light, had not the guilt of its rejection. It was only the class who had despised the light from heaven that the Spirit of God could not reach. And this class included, as I have stated, both those who refused to accept the message when it was presented to them, and also those who, having received it, afterward renounced their faith. These might have a form of godliness, and profess to be followers of Christ; but having no living connection with God, they would be taken captive by the delusions of Satan. These two classes are brought to view in the vision—those who declared the light which they had followed a delusion, and the wicked of the world who, having rejected the light, had been rejected of God. No reference is made to those who had not seen the light, and therefore were not guilty of its rejection." Selected Messages, book 1, 62–63.

Now, that is all interesting about "judged by light" and it impacts us; it is important; but, what I want you to see is that in every generation there is a shut-door message.

If you are not preaching a shut-door message, then you are not the voice crying in the wilderness. And what is the shut-door message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is Daniel 11, verse 41. When The Sunday Law arrives, the door is shut on Adventism.

What tells you that the door is about to shut? Verse 40, the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989. The Dirt Brush Man has now arrived. He is telling Adventists, "I'm sweeping the garbage out of the window. If you hold onto those idols, you are going with them."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Uh-huh.

Amen.

A SHUT-DOOR MESSAGE

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Great Controversy, beginning at page 430:

"It is those who by faith follow Jesus in the great work of the atonement who receive the benefits of His mediation in their behalf, while those who reject > the light which brings to view this work of ministration are not benefited thereby."—

You should study that sentence until you get it.

And I do not get it all, but you need to get this part: In the time of Christ, one of the ways to identify the problems for the Jews is by the rejection of light they could not follow Christ from the earthly sanctuary to the Heavenly Sanctuary. They could not understand His ministration there.

In the time of the Millerites, those people that rejected the light, they could not follow Christ from the Holy Place to the Most Holy Place.

But, all these lines of prophecy are speaking about our day and age, and they are saying that the problem for Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world is that if they are rejecting the light of this particular message, they will be unable to recognize that Christ moved from the Judgment of the Dead to the Judgment of the Living on September 11, 2001. And because they do not understand that the ministration of Christ has changed, they are going to reap the same reward that the Jews did that participated in the crucifixion of Christ; and that the Protestants did in the United States when they began to carry the label of Apostate Protestantism.

The second sentence:

> —"The Jews, who rejected the light given at Christ's first advent, and refused to believe on Him as the Saviour of the world, could not receive pardon through Him. When Jesus at His ascension entered by His own blood into the heavenly sanctuary to shed upon His disciples the blessings of His mediation, the Jews were left in total darkness to continue their useless sacrifices and offerings. The ministration of types and shadows had ceased. That door by which men had formerly found access to God was no longer open. The Jews had refused to seek Him in the only way whereby He could then be found, through the ministration in the sanctuary in heaven. Therefore they found no communion with God. To them the door was shut. They had no knowledge of Christ as the true sacrifice and the only mediator before God; hence they could not receive the benefits of His mediation.
> "The condition of the unbelieving Jews illustrates the condition of the careless and unbelieving among professed Christians, who are willingly ignorant of the work of our merciful High Priest. In the typical service, when the high priest entered the most holy place, all Israel were required to gather about the sanctuary and in the most solemn manner humble their souls before God, that they might receive the pardon of their sins and not be cut off from the congregation. How much more essential in this antitypical Day of Atonement that we understand the work of our High Priest and know what duties are required of us."

"Repent ye, therefore, and be converted. Send your sins beforehand into Judgment that they might be blotted out. You now are in the time period where the High Priest is investigating living Seventh-day Adventists and blotting out their sins." You better know that; because, when He finishes, He finishes by closing the door at The Sunday Law.

—"Men cannot with impunity reject the warning which God in mercy sends them. A message was sent from heaven to the world in Noah's day, and their salvation depended upon the manner in which they treated that message. Because they rejected the warning, the Spirit of God was withdrawn from the sinful race, and they perished in the waters of the Flood. In the time of Abraham, mercy ceased to plead with the guilty inhabitants of Sodom, and all but Lot with his wife and two daughters were consumed by the fire sent down from heaven. So in the days of Christ. The Son of God declared to the unbelieving Jews of that generation: 'Your house is left unto you desolate.' Matthew 23:38. Looking down to the last days, the same Infinite Power declares, concerning those who 'received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved': 'For this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.' 2 Thessalonians 2:10-12. As they reject the teachings of His word, God withdraws His Spirit and leaves them to the deceptions which they love." The Great Controversy, 430–431.

SUMMARY

So, what we are saying is, the First Angel's Message in the time of Christ was presented by John the Baptist, and it was the events connected with the close of probation, and it was the voice, the message, of one crying in the wilderness; and, this is repeated in the time of the Millerites.

In our history, verse 40, with its fulfillment in 1989, opens to us the events connected with the close of probation, and it becomes the First Angel's Message for us. It is the First Angel's Message, because it is identifying that in verse 41 the door of probation closes. It is the shut-door message, and it is this message that is designed by God to produce the revival of God's people at the end of the world.

So, when we are saying that Daniel 11, verse 40, is deep and profound, we cannot even find words to express what we mean by that.

And we will continue on, on Sunday morning.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for allowing us to be among the few that have seen these truths of verse 40, at least partially. We know that there are people that have not heard these truths and they are not held accountable for them. We know that there are people that have heard them and have rejected them outright, right when they first heard them, and that they are going to be held accountable for them. And we know there is the possibility that we in this room and on the LiveStream and on the DVD who can hear these truths understand them and then set them aside as well. We do not want to be of that class. We want to be of the class that allows the Holy Spirit, and through your Providential Leading, that these truths become part of us, that they change us into your image, and that they prepare us with a winning message to carry to Adventism and then the world. We ask that you will finish that work in each and every one of us. We set before you this day of labor that we each have and ask for you to watch over us, that we will be safe, and help us to do what we do for your glory and honor. And we ask a continue blessing upon the work that we are attempting here with the DVDs and the LiveStreaming. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #49

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for giving us a good night's rest and bringing us together this morning that we can study your Word. We want the presence of your Holy Spirit in this study. We ask that you grant us that presence. We want the words that are conveyed in this message to be true, honorable, a type that would glorify you. We ask that you would take control of this presentation, overrule my humanity and hide me behind your cross. Forgive me; forgive the listeners of anything that is preventing us from being fully prepared to receive what you have for us. Open the hearts and minds of the listeners, and we ask that you pour your Latter Rain out upon us at this time. We want to understand a little bit of the shaking that goes on as this final warning message proceeds through history. We ask that you grant us that insight at this time. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are dealing with 1989 as the end of William Miller's scattering in William Miller's dream as the point in time of 1989 when the Dirt Brush Man arrives and the Lion from the Tribe of Judah begins to unseal the prophetic message for this generation. So, we are spending time on Daniel 11, verse 40, which marks the arrival of the Time of the End for the 144,000, and marks the end of William Miller's dream.

And we are trying to show that the characteristics of Daniel 11, verse 40, the things that it teaches, the things that it opens up are consistent with the increase of knowledge that comes at the Time of the End when the Book of Daniel is unsealed.

In our last presentation we pointed out that the Millerite History is a two-step history, the First and Second Angels' Messages, and that the First Angel's Message in both the time of Christ and in the time of the Millerites and our time is a message connected with identifying with the events connected with the close of probation; and, that it is through the Books of Daniel and Revelation that the Lord designs to produce a revival among His people. We have read from Sister White who said that very thing, in Testimonies to Ministers, page 113.

We then closed in our last presentation by identifying that every Reform Movement has a closed door message, a shut-door message, beginning with Noah, all the way down through time; and, therefore, we have added to the consideration of Daniel 11, verse 40, that this is the Shut-Door Message. Verse 40 identifies the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, and verse 41 identifies The Sunday Law in the United States where the door closes for Adventism.

So, we are going to continue along that line; but, we are going to deal a little bit with a waymark of prophetic history that sometimes makes people uncomfortable, having to do with the shaking of Adventism.

So, we are going to look at Ezekiel 37, just briefly.

EZEKIEL THIRTY-SEVEN

ADVENTISM

We have referred to Ezekiel 37 more than once in this worship series. In Ezekiel 37 is the First and Second Angels' Messages illustrated, typified by Ezekiel.

In Ezekiel 37, beginning at verse 1, it says,

> "[1]The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones."—

And Sister White clearly says this is the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Verse 2:

> —"[2]And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. [3]And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest."—

Can the Adventist Church be brought back to life? And that is what we are dealing with here, is the revival message for Adventism, which is a shut-door message.

Verse 4:

> —"[4]Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD."—

This is what brings them back to life, is hearing the Word of the Lord.

> —"[5]Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: [6]And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD." Ezekiel 37:1-6 (KJV).

So, that is what the prophetic message is that Ezekiel is supposed to proclaim.

> Ezekiel 37:7-8
>
> And then in verse 7, he says,
> [7]So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. [8]And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them." Ezekiel 37:7-8 (KJV).

All right. That is the First Message. After this Ezekiel is going to prophesy to the wind, and the wind is what brings them to life.

And, of course, this is illustrated in the creation of Adam. First, Adam is created as a body. The bones and sinews and muscles are brought together. And then the second step for Adam is the Lord breathes into him the breath of life and he becomes a living soul.

And in the Second Message here, the second prophecy in Ezekiel in verse 9, it says,

> —"[9]Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. [10]So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. [11]Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

—"[12]Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. [13]And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, [14]And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

"[15]The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, [16]Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and for all the house of Israel his companions: [17]And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand. [18]And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these? [19]Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand. [20]And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

"[21]And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: [22]And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all: [23]Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. [24]And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them. [25]And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever. [26]Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. [27]My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people. [28]And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore." Ezekiel 37:9-28 (KJV).

So, our Second Message is the message from the four winds that brings the body to life. So, we are identifying these two messages by Ezekiel as the First and Second Angels' Messages of Millerite History, the First and Second Messages of our history, the First and Second Messages of the history of Christ. They are the First and Second Messages of all these reform lines.

But, we want to take a component about the First Message; because, in the First Message, when the First Message is presented—and we are saying the First Message arrives for Adventists at the end of the world in 1989, at the conclusion of William Miller's dream, at the collapse of the Soviet Union in fulfillment of verse 40—that this is that First Message that Ezekiel proclaimed here that brings the bones and the flesh together; but, they are not alive yet.

And it says in verse 7 that when he prophesied as he was commanded, there was a noise and a shaking. And we will get to that in a minute. Let me read a couple of quotes from the Spirit of Prophecy, and then we will deal with noise and shaking.

General Conference Bulletin, February 4, 1893:

> "I lay down my pen and lift up my soul in prayer, that the Lord would breathe upon his backslidden people, which are as dry bones, that they may live." General Conference Bulletin, February 4, 1893.

This is one of several places where Sister White says that God's people are the dry bones, and she is praying that the Lord would breathe upon them. She is praying that they would receive the revival that they need.

The next quote:

> "The dry bones need to be breathed upon by the Holy Spirit of God, that they may come into action, as by a resurrection from the dead." Bible Training School, December 1, 1903.

And in our last presentation, we quoted from Selected Messages, book 1, page 128, where she says the revival represents a renewal of spiritual life. So, the revival is the resurrection from the dead, and it is the Second Message in Ezekiel 37 that brings the bones into a mighty army.

But, in the First Message, the one we are dealing with, there is a noise and a shaking.

> NOISE: Strong's Concordance, H6963—From an unused root meaning to call aloud; a voice or *sound:— + aloud, bleating, crackling, cry (+ out), fame, lightness, lowing, noise, + hold peace, [pro-] claim, proclamation, + sing, sound, + spark, thunder (-ing), voice, + yell.

And the definition of NOISE in Stro g's says, from an unused root to call aloud; a voice or a sound.

So, we have already identified that the First Message, whether it be Elijah, John the Baptist, or William Miller, is identified as the voice crying in the wilderness. This noise is a voice. It is the voice crying in the wilderness for this generation.

NOISE: From an unused root meaning to call aloud; a voice or sound:— + aloud, bleating, crackling, fame, lightness, lowing, noise, hold peace, proclaim, proclamation, sing, sound spark, a thundering voice. Okay. This is the voice crying in the wilderness that brings together the bones and flesh, but does not quite bring them to life.

What is the shaking?

> SHAKING: Strong's Concordance, H7494—From H7493; vibration, bounding, uproar:—commotion, confused noise, earthquake, fierceness, quaking, rattling, rushing, shaking. H7493—A primitive root; to undulate (as the earth, the sky, etc.; also a field of grain), particularly through fear; specifically to spring (as a locust):—make afraid, (re-) move, quake, (make to) shake, (make to) tremble.

SHAKING in verse 7 is from H7493; a vibration, a commotion, a confused noise, an earthquake, fierceness, quaking, rattling, rushing, shaking. A primitive root; to undulate (as the earth, the sky, etc.; also a field of grain), particularly through fear, specifically to spring (as a locust):— make afraid, remove, quake, to shake, make to tremble.

The First Message here, the message of the events connected with the close of probation, the closed-door message, the message the Lord uses to produce a revival, the message of the last six verses of Daniel 11, it is the voice of one crying in the wilderness; and, it produces a shaking in Adventism. And this shaking in Adventism is a subject of the Scriptures. All right? You can identify certain characteristics about the Beast. The Beast never changes. The Beast receives a deadly wound, but its deadly wound is healed.

You can identify characteristics about the False Prophet. The False Prophet is the power that changes. It begins as a lamb and ends up speaking as a dragon.

You can identify characteristics about the Dragon, the number 10. He moves through history.

But, when it comes to the prophetic message to this First Message, it is identified in the Scriptures that this message causes a shaking. So, the shaking is a subject of prophecy. And we want to put this in the mix; because, as we consider how the Lion of the tribe of Judah unseals the message for this generation, beginning in 1989, one of the methods that He uses to lead people to find truth is the argument that is brought against the truth. The Lord has allowed men to be raised up that fight this message; and, because of their faulty reasoning, those people that are following this message have been forced to go to areas in God's Word to defend this message that they probably would not have gone to had they not been pushed into that corner.

So, at minimum when you are talking about the shaking, it is worthwhile to look at it so you can see that the Lord's hand was even in control of the opponents that are raised up. Okay?

Ezekiel 37, the First and Second Angels' Messages; and, it identifies the noise, the voice crying in the wilderness, and it identifies the shaking produced from fear.

Acts 2:13-21; Joel 1:5

Go to Acts, chapter 2, verse 13 through 21. This is at Pentecost. Verse 1 of Acts, chapter 2, says,

> "[1]And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place." Acts 2:1 (KJV).

And in verse 13, as the Disciples are speaking in various languages because there are people from all over the world in Jerusalem at that time period that have their own languages, the gift of tongues is opened up to the Disciples; and, those people that are opposing the message are claiming that these people that are speaking in other than Hebrew are drunk.

Verse 13:

> "[13]Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine."—

New wine is a prophetic characteristic of the Latter Rain Message. Okay?

"[13]Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

"[14]But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words. [15]For these [MEN] are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. [16]But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel. [17]AND IT SHALL COME TO PASS IN THE LAST DAYS, SAITH GOD, I WILL POUR OUT OF MY SPIRIT UPON ALL FLESH: AND YOUR SONS AND YOUR DAUGHTERS SHALL PROPHESY, AND YOUR YOUNG MEN SHALL SEE VISIONS, AND YOUR OLD MEN SHALL DREAM DREAMS: [18]AND ON MY SERVANTS AND ON MY HANDMAIDENS I WILL POUR OUT IN THOSE DAYS OF MY SPIRIT; AND THEY SHALL PROPHESY: [19]AND I WILL SHEW WONDERS IN HEAVEN ABOVE, AND SIGNS IN THE EARTH BENEATH; BLOOD, AND FIRE, AND VAPOUR OF SMOKE: [20]THE SUN SHALL BE TURNED INTO DARKNESS, AND THE MOON INTO BLOOD, BEFORE THAT GREAT AND NOTABLE DAY OF THE LORD COME: [21]AND IT SHALL COME TO PASS, THAT WHOSOEVER SHALL CALL ON THE NAME OF THE LORD SHALL BE SAVED." Acts 2:13-21 (KJV).

So, go to Joel, where Peter says Pentecost is the fulfillment of Joel. In Joel, chapter 1, verse 5, it says,

"[5]Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth." Joel 1:5 (KJV).

Okay. The new wine here is what the people on the wrong side of the issue of Pentecost was charging against the Disciples, "And they are drunk here early in the day." But, the new wine is the Latter Rain Message that came in the time of Peter, the Latter Rain Message that came in the time of the Millerites, and the Latter Rain Message that comes primarily here at the end of the world.

And when the new wine comes, when the Latter Rain Message comes, there is a class who rejects the message. The new wine is cut off from their mouth. And that class accuses those that are receiving the Message of being drunk. So, you have two manifestations of drunkenness. You have the class that is receiving the new wine that are being accused of being drunkards, that are being led by the Holy Spirit; and, then you have the drunkards of Ephraim, those that have been drinking the wine of Babylon and are prevented thereby to not recognize the Latter Rain Message.

So, all I am saying is, what I am saying here in terms of our study, is that when Joel was fulfilled in the time of the Disciples, and when Joel was fulfilled in the time of the Millerites, and it is pointing forward to the perfect fulfillment of Joel at the end of the world, one of the components of this prophetic passage is that there is a controversy that takes place, an argument between those who are fighting the Message and those who are accepting the Message.

That gives us two witnesses. That is Ezekiel and Peter and Joel, three witnesses, that the debate that goes on over the Latter Rain Message is a subject of prophecy.

Sister White is speaking about Acts and Peter and Pentecost in Acts of the Apostles, pages 40 – 43. She says,

"'Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. And they were all amazed and marveled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans? and how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?'

"The priests and rulers were greatly enraged at this wonderful manifestation,"—

Okay. This was the mighty manifestation of the power of God.

"The Advent Movement from 1840 to 1844 was a glorious manifestation of the power of God." And when Sister White makes that statement in The Great Controversy, page 611, she is comparing it to the history of Pentecost, which she is dealing with in this passage; and, she is using both Pentecost and the Advent Movement of 1840 to 1844 to illustrate the perfect fulfillment of Joel during our time period, the Latter Rain. So, she is commenting here, and she says, "this wonderful manifestation," that is a tie-in.

—"The priests and rulers were greatly"—

What? Enraged. Okay?

—"enraged at this wonderful manifestation, but they dared not give way to their malice, for fear of exposing themselves to the violence of the people. They had put the Nazarene to death; but here were His servants, unlettered men of Galilee,"—

Who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Unlettered men.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Unlettered men of Galilee; no PhD's behind their names.

—"unlettered men of Galilee, telling in all the languages then spoken, the story of His life and ministry."—

How is that repeated?

How does the story of His life and ministry get told all over the world in everyone's own language here at the end? What is that emphasizing?

It is emphasizing that He is going to open up the prophetic understanding of His Word around the globe. The language is going to be opened up at the end is the language of prophecy.

—"The priests, determined to account for the miraculous power of the disciples in some natural way, declared that they were drunken from partaking largely of the new wine prepared for the feast. Some of the most ignorant of the people present seized upon this suggestion as the truth, but the more intelligent knew it to be false; and those who understood the different languages testified to the accuracy with which these languages were used by the disciples.

"In answer to the accusation of the priests Peter showed that this demonstration was in direct fulfillment of the prophecy of Joel, wherein he foretold that such power would come upon men to fit them for a special work."—AND THEN SHE QUOTES FROM ACTS—"'Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem,' he said, 'be this known unto you, and hearken to my words: for these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel: And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: and on My servants and on My handmaidens I will pour out in those days of My Spirit; and they shall prophesy.'

"With clearness and power Peter bore witness of the death and resurrection of Christ: 'Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by Him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: Him . . . ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain: whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that He should be holden of it.'"—

Next paragraph:

—"Peter did not refer to the teachings of Christ to prove his position, because he knew that the prejudice of his hearers was so great that his words on this subject would be of no effect. Instead, he spoke to them of David, who was regarded by the Jews as one of the patriarchs of their nation. 'David speaketh concerning Him,' he declared: 'I foresaw the Lord always before My face, for He is on My right hand, that I should not be moved: therefore did My heart rejoice, and My tongue was glad; moreover also My flesh shall rest in hope: because Thou wilt not leave My soul in hell, neither wilt Thou suffer Thine Holy One to see corruption. . . .'"—

What is Peter's argument here? Prophecy; he goes to prophecy.

—"'Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulcher is with us unto this day.' 'He . . . spake of the resurrection of Christ, that His soul was not left in hell, neither His flesh did see corruption. This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.'

"The scene is one full of interest. Behold the people coming from all directions to hear the disciples witness to the truth as it is in Jesus. They press in, crowding the temple. Priests and rulers are there, the dark scowl of malignity still on their faces, their hearts still filled with abiding hatred against Christ, their hands uncleansed from the blood shed when they crucified the world's Redeemer. They had thought to find the apostles cowed with fear under the strong hand of oppression and murder, but they find them lifted above all fear and filled with the Spirit, proclaiming with power the divinity of Jesus of Nazareth. They hear them declaring with boldness that the One so recently humiliated, derided, smitten by cruel hands, and crucified, is the Prince of life, now exalted to the right hand of God.

"Some of those who listened to the apostles had taken an active part in the condemnation and death of Christ. Their voices had mingled with the rabble in calling for His crucifixion. When Jesus and Barabbas stood before them in the judgment hall and Pilate asked, 'Whom will ye that I release unto you?' they had shouted, 'Not this Man, but Barabbas!' Matthew 27:17; John 18:40. When Pilate delivered Christ to them, saying, 'Take ye Him, and crucify Him: for I find no fault in Him;' 'I am innocent of the blood of this just Person,' they had cried, 'His blood be on us, and on our children.' John 19:6; Matthew 27:24, 25.

"Now they heard the disciples declaring that it was the Son of God who had been crucified. Priests and rulers trembled. Conviction and anguish seized the people. 'They were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?' Among those who listened to the disciples were devout Jews, who were sincere in their belief."—

So, when you are talking about the debate, the shaking that goes on over this message, there are people that will watch the debate that are sincere that are going to come out on the right side of the issue. This is one of the things that is marked in prophecy, in how people understand the message.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible question is put to Brother Pippenger.)
BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is in Adventism.

—"The power that accompanied the words of the speaker convinced them that Jesus was indeed the Messiah.

"'Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.'

"Peter urged home upon the convicted people the fact that they had rejected Christ because they had"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Been deceived.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Been deceived by what?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: Priests and rulers.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"been deceived by priests and rulers;"—

So, in this history here, which is repeated in our history, there is going to be a class in Adventism that reject the Latter Rain Message because they have been deceived by priests and rulers.

—"and that if they continued to look to these men for counsel, and waited for them to acknowledge Christ before they dared to do so, they would never accept Him. These powerful men, though making a profession of godliness, were ambitious for earthly riches and glory. They were not willing to come to Christ to receive light.

"Under the influence of this heavenly illumination the scriptures that Christ had explained to the disciples stood out before them with the luster of perfect truth. The veil that had prevented them from seeing to the end of that which had been abolished, was now removed, and they comprehended with perfect clearness the object of Christ's mission and the nature of His kingdom.

> They could speak with power of the Saviour; and as they unfolded to their hearers the plan of salvation, many were convicted and convinced. The traditions and superstitions inculcated by the priests were swept away from their minds,"—

What are the traditions and superstitions?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: William Miller's dream.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the counterfeit coins that are brought in to cover up the genuine jewels in William Miller's dream.

And how did those counterfeit coins get removed?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Dirt Brush Man.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Dirt Brush Man—what?—swept them away from their minds.

—"and the teachings of the Saviour were accepted." Acts of the Apostles, 40–43.

History is repeated. The Dirt Brush Man was doing a work there.

And in this history, the message that the Disciples are proclaiming is the present truth testing message for that time. And when that present truth testing message was opened up to their minds, suddenly the entire Bible is opened to them. They can see the message of the hour perfectly and clearly. And this is repeated at the end: Those people that are drinking the new wine that comes on 9/11, the Lion of the tribe of Judah opens the prophetic message for this day and age up to their understanding.

Review and Herald, July 20, 1886, speaking of this very history of Pentecost with Peter, she says,

> "It is with an earnest longing that I look forward to the time when the events of the day of Pentecost shall be repeated"—

So, was there an argument, a debate in the history of Pentecost?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. There is going to be an argument and a debate in this history. It is a subject of prophecy.

> —"shall be repeated with even greater power than on that occasion. John says, 'I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.' Then, as at the Pentecostal season, the people will hear the truth spoken to them, every man in his own tongue.
>
> "God can breathe new life into every soul"—

Where does God breathe new life into every soul?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You are marking the day; but, what I am looking for is Ezekiel 37. This is tying into Ezekiel 37. This is the arrival of the Second Message, when the Church is raised up a mighty army.

—"God can breathe new life into every soul that sincerely desires to serve Him, and can touch the lips with a live coal from off the altar,"—

Where is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: From Isaiah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is Isaiah 6.

Isaiah 6, now, when He is raising up people, breathing His Spirit upon them, raising them up a mighty army, he purifies their lips. Isaiah 6.

—"and cause them to become eloquent with His praise."—

He causes them to become eloquent with His praise, even though in a moment Sister White is going to tell us that before He causes them to be eloquent in His praise, they had stammering lips. They are going to be unloosed from those stammering lips.

—"Thousands of voices will be imbued with the power to speak forth the wonderful truths of God's Word. The stammering tongue will be unloosed,"—

Where is that from?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Isaiah 28.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Isaiah 28.

Okay. Go to Isaiah 28. There is something that you can see, if you are willing to see, in Isaiah 28, verse 11.

—"[11]For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people." Isaiah 28:11 (KJV).

Okay. What is "another tongue"? Different tongues.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Other languages.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. He is going to speak to Adventism with another tongue that is stammering lips.

Verse 12:

"[12]To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear." Isaiah 28:12 (KJV).

Who would not hear? There is a group who would not hear. This here, Isaiah 28, is identifying this same shaking. There is a group that refuses to hear the Latter Rain Message.

But, He is going to raise up another tongue to speak to this people, and the other tongue He raises up to speak to this people is identified as the stammering lips.

So, if you are willing to see it, when are the stammering lips raised up? They are raised up when the new wine is cut off from the mouth of those people that are going to oppose them. Joel 1:5. The new wine is cut off from their mouths, and the stammering lips' mouth is filled with the new wine. Okay? Those are tie-ins there.

Back to our notes,

—"The stammering tongue will be unloosed, and the timid will be made strong to bear courageous testimony to the truth. May the Lord help His people to cleanse the soul temple from every defilement, and to maintain such a close connection with Him that they may be partakers of the latter rain when it shall be poured out." Review and Herald, July 20, 1886.

This is the Latter Rain Message.

Revelation 10:8-10; Jeremiah 15:16-21; Ezekiel 2:1-3:11; Isaiah 6:5-10; Isaiah 27:1-9

Okay. Revelation 10, verses 8 through 10, describe John eating the Little Book, but it is sweet in his mouth and bitter in his stomach.

> "[8]And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. [9]And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. [10]And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter." Revelation 10:8-10 (KJV).

But, when we trace that line through further in the Bible, go to Jeremiah 15. That symbol of eating the Little Book is identifying a shaking among God's people, a controversy, a debate. John eats the Little Book, but all the prophets agree with one another. And in Jeremiah 15, beginning at verse 16, says,

> "[16]Thy words were found, and I did eat them;"—

Who found the Words and ate them?

Well, Jeremiah did here, but John does in Revelation 10. He takes the Little Book out of the Angel's hand and he eats it. Jeremiah and John, this is the same people: it is the Millerites; it is the 144,000.

> —"[18]Thy words were found, and I did eat them, and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts. [17]I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation."—

What does His hand have to do with it?

Why is he sitting alone because of His hand?

Well, in Revelation 10, when the Angel comes down, He has a Little Book open, and where is it at? It is in His hand.

And what does John do? He goes and takes the Little Book out of the hand of Him that came down out of Heaven.

So, this Little Book, this hand that gives the Little Book that John and Jeremiah eat, the fact that they eat this Little Book out of the Angel hand, it causes a what? A separation, a separation.

He says,

—"[17]I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone"—

Okay. This is marking when the Little Book gets eaten, the separation process begins.

Verse 18:

—"[18]Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail?"—

The separation process begins when the Mighty Angel comes down, with the Little Book opened in His hand. And you take the Little Book and you eat it because of the implications of His hand, a separation begins between the mockers and those that are not the mockers, the two classes.

But, there is a disappointment that comes when the waters fail. What is the disappointment? Verse 18.

What is water? It is a message, right? There is the Latter Rain.

And the message, the message fails. When did the message fail?

Well, right here [pointing to the date of 1843 displayed in the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart], the first disappointment.

Was John representing the Millerites?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jeremiah has got to be representing the Millerites, too.

—"[18]Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail?"—

And what does Habakkuk 2 say about this [1843] Chart? "Though the vision tarry, wait for it, for it will not lie."

But, they thought it lied. Okay? And it was discouraging, and you can see Jeremiah here, he is discouraged here.

The message failed.

Verse 19:

"[19]Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them."—

What does Jeremiah have to return to?

He thought the vision ended in 1843. He has got to return. He has got to study that out. "Though the vision tarry, wait for it, because it will not lie."

Okay. From the first disappointment, until October 22, 1844, what were the Millerites doing? They were coming to grips with the starting point of the 2300 Days so that they could calculate out October 22, 1844.

There was a group that—and Sister White talks about it, from the first disappointment. They returned to the study of the prophecies. Jeremiah returned; but, by returning he becomes the Lord's voice, the Lord's messenger, the Lord's mouth.

But, he is told what? "Don't return to them."

Do not return to who? To the Protestants; because, you are now in the time period of the Second Angel's Message, "Babylon is fallen! Come out of her! Don't return to the Protestants."

And this has an impact. This has an impact on the story of Jeroboam and Josiah. It is commanded right here, "Don't return to the Protestants." There is a separation taking place here.

> —"[20]And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD. [21]And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked,"—

These are the wicked.

In Daniel 12, who are the wicked contrasted with? The wise. The wise understand the increase of knowledge, but the wicked do not understand. Daniel 12:10.

Okay. The wicked here, "And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked," what does it mean that you are in someone's hand?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That they are in submission?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, it could be submission if you are bowing down to the Pope, or it could be that you are just in agreement. "Can two walk together unless they be agreed?" There is a separation process being marked here.

> —"and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible." Jeremiah 15:16-21 (KJV).

So, in Jeremiah's story, when he eats the Little Book as John did, you see a separation process begin, a distinction between two classes, the wise and the wicked.

And this is also a part of the story of Ezekiel, Ezekiel, chapter 2.

And what are we doing? We are showing that the controversy over this message is one of the characteristics of this message.

Ezekiel 2,

> "Chapter 2:1And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee."—

When does he stand upon his feet?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: When the breath of life comes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When the breath of life comes, Ezekiel 37.

This is Ezekiel. Ezekiel is going to agree with himself, as much as all the prophets are agreeing with one another; and, they stand up on their feet with the Spirit is breathed upon them.

And when did Jesus breathe the Spirit on the Disciples?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: On the Day of Pentecost.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The answer was "On the Day of Pentecost." Wrong.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It was in the upper room after He had been resurrected.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: After the resurrection. He is resurrected. He said, "Mary, don't touch me. I need to ascend to my Father." That very day He came down out of Heaven, like the Angel of Revelation 10 and the Angel of Revelation 18, and He breathed upon his Disciples the Holy Ghost. He opened their understanding to the prophecies.

Pentecost is still a ways off. This is the sprinkling that precedes the full outpouring. Sister White says that the act of Christ's breathing upon His Disciples was as a few drops before the great outpouring on the Day of Pentecost.

So, when does Ezekiel stand on his feet? When the Mighty Angel comes down, he stands upon his feet. The Lord has breathed upon him.

Verse 2:

> —"[2]And the spirit entered into me"—

And that is just what Ezekiel 37 says, that the Spirit enters into the body.

> —"[2]And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me. [3]And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day. [4]For they are impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD. [5]And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them."—

What is going on here? He has eaten the Little Book, and he is given a message to carry to Adventism; and, the Lord is telling him, "These are a bunch of rebels."

Okay. You need to know that when you carry this message—and that is what it says—they will know that there has been a prophet among them.

What does that mean to us? They will know that there has been a prophetic message marked that is testing them. They will know it; but, they are a rebellious house; because, there is going to be a shaking. There is going to be a controversy. There is going to be an argument. There is going to be a debate.

Verse 6:

> —[6]And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words,"—

So, are they going to say something about this message? "These men are drunk. These men are drunk with new wine." There is going to be an argument.

> —"[6]And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. [7]And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious. [8]But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.

[9]And when I looked, behold, an hand"—AN HAND—"was sent unto me;"—

What does that hand and have in it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Little Book.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Little Book, opened.

—"and, lo, a roll of a book was therein; [10]And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

Chapter 3:1Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel. [2]So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll. [3]And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

[4]And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. [5]For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel; [6]Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee. [7]But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hardhearted. [8]Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads."—

So, in the process of carrying this message to Adventism, what does the Lord promise to do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Strengthen his forehead.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Strengthen your forehead; that is kind of the same place where the Seal of God is applied, is it not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This process of this argument, this shaking, this controversy in Adventism, this debate, is part of the sealing process of the 144,000. Only those that sigh and cry for the abominations done in the land will receive the Seal of God.

But, it is not enough just to sit there and sigh and cry. You have been given a message. You have to give the message. And when you give the message, those that are supposed to hear it, they are not going to sit there silently. They are going to argue with you. They are going to malign your character. They are going to point out that you do not have a PhD behind your name. That is part of the process.

Verse 9—verse 8, again:

—"[8]Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads. [9]As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. [10]Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears. [11]And go, > get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear." Ezekiel 2:1–3:11 (KJV).

So, what we are saying is, the argument, the debate, the shaking in Adventism that is caused, that begins with the arrival of the First Angel's Message for this history, which are the events connected with the close of probation, which are the last six verses of Daniel 11, that message causes a shaking in Adventism.

Go to Isaiah 6, which we have already mentioned this, Isaiah 6. You know you can prove things upon two or three, and move on; but, we are taking time to show this in several places, so that we understand that this is part of the story.

Isaiah 6, beginning with verse 5:

> [5]Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. [6]Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: [7]And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged."—

This takes place in the blotting out of sin. We are purged here, atoned.

Verse 8:

> —"[8]Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me."—

So, Isaiah is now being commissioned to carry a message to Adventism.

And if you remember earlier on, if you back up to verse 3, it says, "And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory." And Sister White ties verse 3 in with Revelation 18. That quote is in your notes.

So, on 9/11 Isaiah just had his lips purified because he is going to carry a message to Adventism.

And in verse 9, it says,

> —"[9]And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. [10]Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed." Isaiah 6:5-10 (KJV).

So, Isaiah also is portrayed as having to take a message to an unconverted people that by and large will not respond to the message. The argument, the shaking, and debate are part of the prophetic record.

Go to Isaiah 27. Isaiah 27, beginning at verse 1 says,

> "[1]In that day"—

And you would have to back up further into Isaiah to understand what day that is, but it is the day of the Latter Rain. It is the day when the globalists, the money men of the world, are seeing the financial structure being swept away by an East wind.

> —"[1]In that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword"—HIS PROPHETIC WORD—"shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent,"—

He is going to punish the dragon.

> —"even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.
> [2]In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine."—

At the time period when the financial structure of Planet Earth is being brought down through the increasing, escalating crisis of Islam, and the punishment of the rich men of the Earth, the dragon power has begun, and in that time period the experience—(because a song is an experience)—the experience of God's people is that they are to present the parable of the vineyards to Adventism. And the parable of the vineyard was and is that the vineyard is going to be taken from Adventism and given to a group of people that bear the fruits thereof.

We have not the time to go into that, but that is verse 2.

> —"[2]In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine. [3]I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day. [4]Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together. [5]Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me."—

The parable of the vineyard is the last call for Adventism. It is the last opportunity for Seventh-day Adventists to awaken out of their Laodicean condition and make peace with Christ, which He is fully willing to do; but, at the same time, He is telling them, "This is the parable of the vineyard. I am closing up shop. We are in the Judgment of the Living. You either come to the foot of the cross now, or you are going to die."

And then in verse 6, it says,

> —"[6]He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud,"—

What causes the blossoming and budding in the Scriptures is the Latter Rain.

> —"Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit."—

The fruit takes place in the harvest of the world. Budding out and blossoming out is in the springtime. The harvest, when the fruit is gathered in is in the summertime. This is identifying both phases of the Latter Rain, the spring and summer Latter Rain. But, at a very simple level, it is just emphasizing the Latter Rain: The parable of the vineyard here, when the dragon power is being judged on Planet Earth. Just turn on your televisions, get your newspapers, if you cannot see that the dragon power, the globalists, the economic structure, is on its way down. You need to start looking at the news. That is very easy to see. That is verse 1. The Lord is bringing judgment upon the globalists as we speak.

And at this time in history, the Lord's last call to Adventism, the parable of the vineyard, is going to be proclaimed by those that are having this experience.

And it is in the time period of the Latter Rain when one of the arguments for Adventism about the Latter Rain is they do not even understand it comes with a sprinkling and a full outpouring, a springtime Rain and a summer Rain. They do not understand the Latter Rain. They are sleeping Laodiceans.

Verse 7:

> —"[7]Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?"—

This is judgment terminology, letting us know that this story is taking place in the Judgment time.

And in verse 8, it says,

> —[8]In measure, when it shooteth forth,"—

This is marking the sprinkling of the Latter Rain when it is being measured, and the buds are just bursting forth.

> —"thou wilt debate with it:"—

Now, here is this debate. There is going to be a debate. There is going to be a debate over the Latter Rain. There is going to be a debate over the two phases of the Latter Rain, the sprinkling of the springtime Rain and the full outpouring of the summer Rain. There is going to be a debate in Adventism.

> —"[8]In measure, when it shooteth forth,"—

When it begins to sprinkle, when the Mighty Angel comes down and breathes upon the dry bones, and the sprinkling of Adventism begins and the parable of the vineyard becomes present truth, then the debate starts. The new wine is cut off from the mouth, and another mouth (the mouth of stammering tongues) is going to be loosed in this controversy in Adventism.

Verse 8:

> —"[8]In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind."—

All of the prophets agree with one another, and this staying of the rough wind, this is the restraining of the rough wind. And the rough wind, according to John in chapter 7 of Revelation, is the Four Winds. This debate begins when the Four Winds of strife are being restrained: "he stayeth his rough wind." He restrains the Four Winds of strife in the day of the East wind.

When the day of the East wind arrives, the debate begins; and, the angels hold the Four Winds of Revelation 7, identifying that the sealing of the 144,000 has now begun.

—"[9]By this therefore"—

By what? By the argument over 9/11, the day of the East wind, and the Latter Rain, and the parable of the vineyard, and the role of the globalists in end-time Bible prophecy, with those subjects in the first eight verses of Isaiah 27.

Then in verse 9, it says,

—"[9]By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged;"—

By what? By this argument in Adventism, by this debate.

Not only is the debate the argument that ensues over the Latter Rain Message beginning in 1989 and then amped up to a new level on 9/11; not only is this a subject of prophecy, it is here identified that this debate has something to do with removing the sins from God's people. That is what it says.

> —"[9]By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged, and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up." Isaiah 27:1-9 (KJV).

So, what I am wanting us to see here, in advance of our following studies, is that these people that have been opposing this message since it first came into history in 1989, their opposition at some time needs to be publicly presented in order that we can see that the Lord has used this opposition to His glory and honor, in forcing His people to come to conclusions about God's Word that they would not have come to had they not been thrown into this debate.

THE SHAKING

Early Writings, beginning on page 269, Sister White comments on this very same topic, and her familiar term for this controversy for this debate, for Jeremiah and Ezekiel carrying this message to the rebellious house, is "the shaking," the shaking of Adventism.

> "I saw some, with strong faith and agonizing cries, pleading with God. Their countenances were pale and marked with deep anxiety, expressive of their internal struggle."—

If you are not having an internal struggle right now, if you are not sighing and crying, then I guarantee you are not making the right moves in order to receive the Seal of God.

> —"Firmness and great earnestness was expressed in their countenances; large drops of perspiration fell from their foreheads. Now and then their faces would light up with the marks of God's approbation, and again the same solemn, earnest, anxious look would settle upon them.

"Evil angels crowded around, pressing darkness upon them to shut out Jesus from their view, that their eyes might be drawn to the darkness that surrounded them, and thus they be led to distrust God and murmur against Him. Their only safety was in keeping their eyes directed upward. Angels of God had charge over His people, and as the poisonous atmosphere of evil angels was pressed around these anxious ones, the heavenly angels were continually wafting their wings over them to scatter the thick darkness.

"As the praying ones continued their earnest cries, at times a ray of light from Jesus came to them, to encourage their hearts and light up their countenances. Some, I saw, did not participate in this work of agonizing and pleading. They seemed indifferent and careless. They were not resisting the darkness around them, and it shut them in like a thick cloud. The angels of God left these and went to the aid of the earnest, praying ones. I saw angels of God hasten to the assistance of all who were struggling with all their power to resist the evil angels and trying to help themselves by calling upon God with perseverance. But His angels left those who made no effort to help themselves, and I lost sight of them.

"I asked the meaning of the shaking I had seen and was shown that it would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans."—

Now, Sister White is clear when she says that the message of Jones and Waggoner in 1888, it was the Laodicean message. So, you can take those and you can show that the Laodicean message is the Latter Rain Message, because Jones and Waggoner's message was the Latter Rain Message. So, this is in reference to the Latter Rain Message being a straight testimony. Okay? The Latter Rain Message is saying, "You think that Jesus is inside you, but He isn't!" Okay? It is a prophetic message.

Who would say that the Seven Churches is not a prophetic message? All of them, It [the Seven Churches] is prophecy: the Laodicean message is a prophetic message that is a straight testimony message that causes the shaking when it is presented.

—"I asked the meaning of the shaking that I had seen and was shown that it would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans. This will have its effect upon the heart of the receiver, and will lead him to exalt the standard and pour forth the straight truth. Some will not bear this straight testimony. They will rise up against it, and this is what will cause a shaking among God's people."—

What causes the shaking among God's people?

Is it the people that are presenting the truth? Nope! It is those people that hear it and do not like it. They are the ones that cause the shaking.

But, are they going to hear the truth?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

And is it going to be the straight truth? Yes.

And are there going to be people that stand up and fight the straight truth? Yes.

This is a subject of prophecy, one of the characteristics of this prophetic message.

—"I saw that the testimony of the True Witness has not been half heeded. The solemn testimony upon which the destiny of the church hangs"—

WOW!! This prophetic message, this Latter Rain Message, is where the destiny of the Church hangs. This is a pretty serious message.

—"has been lightly esteemed, if not entirely disregarded. This testimony must work deep repentance; all who truly receive it will obey it and be purified.

"Said the angel, 'List ye!' Soon I heard a voice like many musical instruments all sounding in perfect strains, sweet and harmonious. It surpassed any music I had ever heard, seeming to be full of mercy, compassion, and elevating, holy joy. It thrilled through my whole being. Said the angel, 'Look ye!' My attention was then turned to the company I had seen, who were mightily shaken. I was shown those whom I had before seen weeping and praying in agony of spirit. The company of guardian angels around them had been doubled, and they were clothed with an armor from their head to their feet. They moved in exact order, like a company of soldiers. Their countenances expressed the severe conflict which they had endured, the agonizing struggle they had passed through. Yet their features, marked with severe internal anguish, now shone with the light and glory of heaven. They had obtained the victory, and it called forth from them the deepest gratitude and holy, sacred joy.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is in agreement with Ezekiel and Jeremiah informing us that He is going to make their forehead as an adamant stone. This experience is what causes them to be settled in and sealed to the truth.

"The numbers of this company had lessened. Some had been shaken out and left by the way. The careless and indifferent, who did not join with those who prized victory and salvation enough to perseveringly plead and agonize for it, did not obtain it, and they were left behind in darkness, and their places were immediately filled by others taking hold of the truth and coming into the ranks. Evil angels still pressed around them, but could have no power over them.

"I heard those clothed with the armor speak forth the truth with great power. It had effect. Many had been bound; some wives by their husbands, and some children by their parents. The honest who had been prevented from hearing the truth now eagerly laid hold upon it."—

Here is the separation process of Jeremiah, even in families.

—"All fear of their relatives was gone, and the truth alone was exalted to them. They had been hungering and thirsting for truth; it was dearer and more precious than life. I asked what had made this great change. An angel answered, 'It is the latter rain, the refreshing from the presence of the Lord, the loud cry of the third angel.'

> "Great power was with these chosen ones. Said the angel, 'Look ye!' My attention was turned to the wicked, or unbelievers. They were all astir. The zeal and power with the people of God had aroused and enraged them. Confusion, confusion, was on every side."—

So, do you think there is not going to be a controversy in Adventism, no shaking?

> —"I saw measures taken against the company who had the light and power of God. Darkness thickened around them; yet they stood firm, approved of God, and trusting in Him. I saw them perplexed; next I heard them crying unto God earnestly. Day and night their cry ceased not: 'Thy will, O God, be done! If it can glorify Thy name, make a way of escape for Thy people! Deliver us from the heathen around about us. They have appointed us unto death; but Thine arm can bring salvation.' These are all the words which I can bring to mind. All seemed to have a deep sense of their unworthiness and manifested entire submission to the will of God; yet, like Jacob, every one, without an exception, was earnestly pleading and wrestling for deliverance.
> "Soon after they had commenced their earnest cry, the angels, in sympathy, desired to go to their deliverance. But a tall, commanding angel suffered them not. He said, 'The will of God is not yet fulfilled. They must drink of the cup. They must be baptized with the baptism.'" Early Writings, 269–272.

We have to have this experience if we are going to receive the Seal of God. We have to have the experience of taking a message to an apostate people.

NOT THE PRESENT TRUTH

The shaking is not the present truth. It is just one component of the present truth. Notice what she says in Manuscript Releases, volume 3, beginning at page 335.

> "Satan is working in many ways, that the very men who ought to preach the message may be occupied with fine-drawn theories which he will cause to appear of such magnitude and importance as to fill the whole mind; and while they think they are making wonderful strides in experience, they are idolizing a few ideas, and their influence is injured, and tells but little on the Lord's side."—

Now, this is a tricky passage. I want you to remember what we have studied this morning.

There is a people that the Lord has selected to give the message, and those people are very clearly marked as another tongue. They are the stammering lips. So, she is going to describe a group here that are on the wrong side of proclaiming the message. This is not a rebuke on those people that are giving the Latter Rain Message; this is about those people that are professing to be the messengers in Adventism, who are not. Okay?

> —"Let every minister make earnest efforts to ascertain what is the mind of Christ. There are those who pick out from the Word of God, and also from the Testimonies, detached paragraphs or sentences that may be interpreted to suit their own ideas, and they dwell upon these, and build themselves up in their own positions, when God is not leading them. Now all this pleases the enemy."—

Do you want to see this technique used? Go to some of the websites in Adventism that are opposing the foundational truths, the 2520, and the Daily, and Islam, and you will see this type of technique: Take a little snippet of the Bible here, and a little snippet of the Spirit of Prophecy here, and tell your listeners, your readers this is what it means, and then build an entire straw man on this false premise. That is what she is talking about here.

—"We should not needlessly take a course that will make differences or cause dissension. We should not give the impression that if our particular ideas are not followed, it is because the ministers are lacking in comprehension. There are in the lessons of Christ subjects in abundance that you can speak upon; and mysteries which neither you nor your hearers can understand or explain might better be left alone. Give the Lord Jesus Christ Himself room to teach; let Him by the influence of His Spirit open to the understanding the wonderful plan of salvation. There is a time of trouble coming to the people of God, but we are not to keep that constantly before the people, and rein them up to have a time of trouble beforehand. There is to be a shaking among God's people;"—

That is what we are studying here today. There is to be a shaking among God's people.

—"but this is not the present truth to carry to the churches; it—THE SHAKING—"will be the result of refusing the truth presented."—

Once again she is saying the shaking is causes by those people that are rejecting the Latter Rain Message; but, she is also saying that even though this controversy, this debate over this message is a component of the prophetic message, this is not supposed to be the all-in-all message, the fact that these apostates are opposing this message.

—"The ministers should not feel that they have some wonderful advanced ideas, and unless all receive these, they will be shaken out, and a people will arise to go forward and upward to the victory. Satan's object is accomplished just as surely when men run ahead of Christ and do the work He has never entrusted to their hands, as when they remain in the Laodicean state, lukewarm, feeling rich and increased with goods, and in need of nothing. The two classes are equally stumbling-blocks.

"Some zealous ones who are aiming and straining every energy for originality have made a grave mistake in trying to get something startling, wonderful, entrancing, before the people, something that they think others do not comprehend; but often they do not themselves know what they are talking about. They speculate upon God's word, advancing ideas that are not a whit of help to themselves or to the churches. For the time being they may excite the imagination; but there is a reaction, and these very ideas become a hindrance. Faith is confounded with fancy, and their views may bias the mind in the wrong direction. Let the plain, simple statements of the word of God be food for the mind; this speculating upon ideas that are not clearly presented there is dangerous business.

"Some are naturally combative. They do not care whether they harmonize with their brethren or not. They would like to enter into controversy, would like to fight for their particular ideas; but they should lay this aside, for it is not developing the Christian graces. Work with all your power to answer the prayer of Christ, that His disciples may be one, as He is one with the Father. Not a soul of us is safe unless we learn of Christ daily His meekness and lowliness. In your labor do not be dictatorial, do not be severe, do not be antagonistic. Preach the love of Christ, and this will melt and subdue hearts. Seek to be of one mind and one judgment with your brethren, and to speak the same things. This talking about divisions because all do not have the same ideas as present themselves to your mind, is not the work of God but of the enemy. Talk the simple truths wherein you can agree. Talk of unity; do not become narrow and conceited; let your mind broaden." Manuscript Releases, volume 3, 33–35.

THEY ARE TO BE MET AND OPPOSED

The next quote, from Review and Herald, September 12, 1893, "They are to be Met and Opposed."

> "God speaks through his appointed agencies, and let no man, or confederacy of men, insult the Spirit of God by refusing to hear the message of God's word from the lips of his chosen messengers. By refusing to hear the message of God, men close themselves in a chamber of darkness."—

And what are the chambers of darkness? Okay. If you follow that one through, it is Matthew 24. Jesus talks about secret chambers, and Sister White identifies these secret chambers of Matthew 24 as spiritualism. You reject this message, you are going into chambers of darkness. You reject this message, you are going to receive the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians. You receive spiritualism; because, spiritualism is placing your word above God's Word. Reject God's Word, you go into chambers of darkness.

> —"They shut their own souls away from vast blessings, and rob Christ of the glory that should come to him, by showing disrespect to his appointed agencies.
> "God is not the author of confusion, but of peace. But Satan is a vigilant, unsleeping foe, ever at work upon human minds, seeking a soil in which he can sow his tares. If he finds any whom he can press into his service, he will suggest ideas and false theories, and make them zealous in advocating error. The truth not only converts, but works the purification of its receiver. Jesus has warned us to beware of false teachers."—

Jesus has warned us to be aware of false teachers. Jesus has warned us to be aware of false teachers.

> —"From the beginning of our work, men have arisen from time to time, advocating theories that were new and startling. But if those who claim to believe the truth, would go to those who have had experience,"—

Who has had an experience?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Pioneers.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Pioneers; if you would, go to the Pioneer writings.

—"But if those who claim to believe the truth, would go to those who have had experience, would go to the word of God in a teachable, humble spirit, and examine their theories in the light of truth, and with the aid of the brethren who have been diligent Bible students, and at the same time make supplication unto God, asking, Is this the way of the Lord, or is it a false path in which Satan would lead me? they would receive light, and would escape out of the net of the fowler.

"Let all our brethren and sisters beware of anyone who would set a time for the Lord to fulfill his word in regard to his coming, or in regard to any other promise he has made of special significance. 'It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.' False teachers may appear to be very zealous for the work of God, and may expend means to bring their theories before the world and the church; but as they mingle error with truth, their message is one of deception, and will lead souls into false paths. They are to be"—

To be what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Met and opposed.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"met, and opposed, not because they are bad men, but because they are teachers of falsehood, and are endeavoring to put upon falsehood the stamp of truth. What a pity it is that men will go to such pains to discover some theory of error, when there is a whole storehouse of precious gems of truth by which the people might be enriched in the most holy faith. Instead of teaching truth, they let their imagination dwell upon that which is new and strange, and throw themselves out of harmony with those whom God is using to bring the people up upon the platform of truth. They cast aside all that has been said in regard to unity of sentiment and feeling, and trample upon the prayer of Christ as though the unity for which he prayed was unessential, that there is no necessity for his followers to be one, even as he is one with the Father. They go off on a tangent, and Jehu- like, call to their brethren to follow their example of zeal for the Lord. If their zeal led them to work in the same lines in which their brethren who have carried the heat and burden of the day, are working; if they were as persevering to overcome discouragements and obstacles as their brethren have been, they might well be imitated, and God would accept them. But men are to be condemned who start out with a proclamation of wonderful light, and yet draw away from the agents whom God is leading. This was the way in which Korah, Dathan, and Abiram did, and their action is recorded as a warning to all others. We are not to do as they have done,—accuse and condemn those upon whom God has laid the burden of the work." Review and Herald, September 12, 1893.

So, from this point in our presentations, from time to time we are going to identify some of the false teachers that are opposing this [Latter Rain] Message, not because they are bad men, not because we just feel like exposing them; but, we will do it in order to understand their false logic and how that false logic created an investigation of the false charge that led to jewels that had not been recognized. We want us to see that the work of the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Dirt Brush Man, includes even this debate, this controversy in Adventism.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for another day of life. We thank you that we are living in a time when you are offering the Little Book that all who would desire to eat of it and be blessed by it, may. We ask that you give us the courage, the spiritual willingness to fulfill our responsibility in taking the Little Book out of your hand and eating it and digesting it. And then we ask that you would grant us the power that comes with that Little Book that we may be about our business of taking a message to a rebellious house. We want to be part of the solution to this problem. We do not want to put stumbling blocks before people, but we know that we have a message to bear; so, we ask that we do it with a style that only glorifies you. We ask for your continued blessing in this worship series that we are doing; and, as we begin a week of LiveStreaming with Pastor Jamal here tomorrow, we would ask for your continued blessing upon the DVD recordings and the LiveStreaming production that we are doing. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #50

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we come before you this morning we want to ask that you would watch over this week of work, of service, of recording, broadcasting that we are doing here, that you would bless it, that you would let all that is done during these days be for your glory and honor. So, taking up our worship this morning, we ask for the presence of your Holy Spirit. Guide and direct our thoughts, our understanding. We ask that you would overrule my humanity, forgive my sins, forgive anything that I have done that is preventing me from being used by you at this time; and, likewise, prepare the hearts and minds of those that are hearing these things to receive what you have for us this morning. We want the Latter Rain. We ask that you pour your Latter Rain out upon us at this time by opening our understanding to the glorious land in Daniel 11, verse 41. In Jesus's name, amen.

OVERFLOW

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yesterday we spent time identifying that the debate, the controversy, the shaking in Adventism is a subject of prophecy and, therefore, it qualifies as something that needs to be addressed.

We are going to start with another quote concerning the shaking from Review and Herald, April 1, 1850. It says,

> "As I viewed poor souls dying for want of the present truth, and some who professed to believe the truth were letting them die, by withholding the necessary means to carry forward the work of God, the sight was too painful, and I begged of the angel to remove it from me. I saw that when the cause of God called for some of their property, like the young man who came to Jesus, [Matthew 19:16–22.] they went away sorrowful; and that soon the overflowing scourge would pass over and sweep their possessions all away, and then it would be too late to sacrifice earthly goods, and lay up a treasure in heaven. . . ."—

Now I am wanting to emphasize "the overflowing scourge" here.

Continuing on.

> —"The mighty shaking has commenced, and will go on, and all will be shaken out who are not willing to take a hold and unyielding stand for the truth, and sacrifice for God and his cause. The angel said, 'Think ye that any will be compelled to sacrifice. No. no. It must be a free-will offering. It will take all to buy the field.'—I cried to God to spare his people, some of whom were fainting and dying. . . .
> "Then I saw that the judgments of Almighty God were speedily coming. I begged of the angel to speak in his language to the people. Said he, 'All the thunders and lightnings of Mount Sinai would not move those who will not be moved by the plain truths of the word of God; neither would an angel's message awake them.'" Review and Herald, April 1, 1850.

What angel's message is to awaken them? The Angel of Revelation 18, the Third Angel's Message.

But, the shaking of Adventism is a subject of prophecy. We dealt with that very thoroughly yesterday, I believe.

But, here, for those that will not come up to the message of the hour, the Latter Rain Message in this time period, what is going to happen to them is they are going to reach the overflowing scourge, and it will be too late to secure salvation, too late to put anything into the Lord's work. So, I want to deal with the overflowing scourge in connection with Daniel 11:40-41.

We are still dealing with the last six verses of Daniel 11, for they are the events connected with the close of probation. And John the Baptist gave a message that was the events connected with the close of probation; and, William Miller gave a message that was the events connected with the close of probation; and, we are showing that the last six verses of Daniel 11 is a parallel to the messages of John the Baptist and William Miller.

And in those histories, the message of John the Baptist and William Miller began at the Time of the End when the Book of Daniel was unsealed. The message of John the Baptist is derived from Daniel 9, and the message of the Millerites was derived from Daniel 9 (it was an explanation of Daniel 8); and, our message is derived from Daniel 11. So, when we bring these three lines of the prophecy together, we see that this message that is the events connected with the close of probation is derived from Daniel 9 and 11.

And at the Time of the End in 1989, when the Soviet Union was swept away in fulfillment of Daniel 11 and verse 40, the Dirt Brush Man from William Miller's dream arrived on the scene and began to unseal the Seven Seals of truth that are the increase of knowledge for God's people here at the end of the world, as He swept out the customs and traditions that have been brought into Adventism, covering up the original truths represented on these two sacred Tables [refers to the 1843 and 1850 Charts].

So, we are dealing with Daniel 11:40-45 from that perspective, 1989, the end of the scattering of William Miller's dream.

And as we look at the shaking of Adventism, here we add a line of thought to it, that if you wait till the overflowing scourge to try to get right with the Lord, you are going to be swept away.

ENTER ALSO

So, what is the overflowing scourge?

In your notes you have Daniel 11:41, which we are going to begin to discuss now. And it says,

"[41]He shall enter also into the glorious land,"—

And what I want you to see there is that in verse 40 the King of the North has just swept away the Soviet Union, and these first few words are saying that the sweeping away that took place in verse 40 continues in verse 41. That is why it says, "He shall enter also . . ."

> —"and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

So, you have to ask yourself how did he enter the King of the South's domain in verse 40, because that is how he is going to enter the glorious land. You need to see these verses as a continual progression of conquering by the King of the North. First he conquers the King of the South. Now he is going to conquer the glorious land; and, thereafter, he will conquer Egypt, and he does so as an overflowing scourge.

SHALL OVERFLOW AND PASS OVER

All right. In your notes you have Daniel 11, verse 40, and the last phrase speaking about how the King of the North conquers. It says,

> "[40]And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40 (KJV).

OVERFLOW

OVERFLOW: Strong's Concordance 7857—to gush; by impl. to inundate, cleanse; by anal. to gallop, conquer;- drown, (over-) flow (-whelm), rinse. run. rush. (thoroughly) wash (away).

And we have looked at this before, but this word OVERFLOW means to gush, to inundate, to gallop, conquer, drown, (over) flow (-whelm), rinse. It is a conquering that is portrayed as a flood.

Okay. Now, if you do not think about these things, and perhaps you have not ever thought about it; but, when it comes to the False Prophet (the United States in Bible prophecy), the characteristics of strength that the United States uses as it forces other nations to do what it wants it to do is economics and military. You see that in Revelation 13, where you cannot buy or sell if you do not have the mark of the beast; and, you are put to death if you do not have the mark of the beast. That is economics; that is military might.

You see it in Daniel 11, verse 40, with the chariots and horsemen being military might, and the ships being economic might.

So, what am I saying? I am saying that when it comes to the False Prophet (the United States), their mode of warfare, their type of power is represented by these two horns: economics and military.

Whereas, when it comes to Islam, another power in Bible prophecy, they are represented as a war horse. And when you look closely at how the Bible identifies the strength or the power of Islam, their mode of warfare is not economics and military; their mode of warfare is the type of warfare where the word assassin is derived from. If you remember, we discussed the word assassin comes from Islam. It comes from their practice hundreds of years ago when they were going to assassinate someone, they would first get high on hashish; and, hashish is the root word for assassin. They would get all high, and then they would go kill people; because, they knew they were going to die in doing so. They were "suicide bombers" before they had bombs. Point being, the mode of warfare for Islam has been described in history and in prophecy. They strike suddenly and unexpectedly. They ride on Arabian horses and cut your head off and keep going; whereas, the United States' mode of warfare is economics and military might. And the United States has been exercising that for many, many years now. If a country does not do what the United States wants, they put an economic embargo on them. If that does not work, they go in with their military.

But, when it comes to the Papacy, their mode of warfare is different. Their mode of warfare is described as a flood. Okay? It is the Euphrates overflowing its banks.

So, when we see these words overflow and pass over in Daniel 11, verse 40, if we are serious students of prophecy, we know that even in this verb, if that is what it is, overflow and pass over, that this is the symbol of the Papacy. This is the symbol of how the Papacy conquers. So, when you get to verse 41 and it says, "He shall also enter into the glorious land," he is entering by an overflowing flood. The Euphrates is overflowing its banks.

Isaiah 28:14-19; 8:5-8

Go to Isaiah 28. We are dealing with this first quote where Sister White says that those people that do not get straight with the Lord in this period of time are going to find out that when the overflowing scourge passes through that it is too late.

Isaiah 28, beginning at verse 14, says,

> "[14]Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. [15]Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: [16]Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. [17]Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. [18]And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it. [19]From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report." Isaiah 28:14-19 (KJV).

So, in the Scriptures, the conquering of the Papacy (the claim I am making) is portrayed as the flood waters of the Euphrates; and, it is a movement that is portrayed in the last six verses of Daniel 11 as this flood that begins in verse 40 and also enters the glorious land, whatever the glorious land may be.

Go to Isaiah 8, verses 5 through 8.

> "[5]The LORD spake also unto me again, saying, [6]Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; [7]Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria,"—

Who is the king of Assyria? Prophetically he is the King of the North.

> —"and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks: [8]And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel." Isaiah 8:5-8 (KJV).

So, when the King of the North conquers, he conquers as a flood, the flood of the Euphrates.

So, when he is overflowing and passing over in Daniel 11, verse 40, and then in verse 41 it says, "He shall also enter into the glorious land," this is the overflowing scourge hitting the glorious land, whatever the glorious land may be.

And, of course, let us remind ourselves that this is No. 50 in this worship series, but we also had two summations; so, this is really No. 52. So, we really have to remind ourselves of things way back when sometimes, and one of them is here in Isaiah 8, verses 5 through 8.

In verse 6, when Isaiah is making this pronouncement, "Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly," what are the waters of Shiloah? The waters of Siloam; the waters that represent the sent of God, whether it be Christ, who is the sent of God or the Holy Spirit. Ahaz is here rejecting the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and in this passage he is rejecting the warning message of the 2520, because this is the starting point for both 2520s; and, he is setting forth a typology in 742BC that plays out in AD1863 with James White, who sets aside the 2520, and sets aside the message of Shiloah for the message of the Euphrates.

Anyway, we have dealt with that; but, I wanted to put that in our memory banks.

And the punishment for Ahaz, or for James White, or for Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world for rejecting the message of Siloam, is that you will not be able to go to the Pool of Siloam and wash your Laodicean blindness away, and you are going to be overflowed by the overflowing scourge of The Sunday Law. All right?

So, one of the characteristics of the Papacy when it conquers is that it is an overflowing movement. It is the Euphrates; but, it is also the scourge. The overflowing scourge is going to pass through the Earth.

THE SCOURGE

Isaiah 10

What is the scourge?

Go to Isaiah 10.

Somewhere early on in this study we pointed out that Sister White says of Zephaniah and Isaiah 10:1—she says it at the same time—that both of these are The Sunday Law decree. It is in the Manuscript Releases. I have that noted in my other Bible, not this Bible; but, it is in the record already.

Verse 1 of Isaiah 10 is The Sunday Law in the United States. It says,

> "[1]Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed; [2]To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless! [3]And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far?"—

What is the desolation that comes from far? It is the overflowing scourge.

> —"to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory? [4]Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. [5]O Assyrian,"—

Who is the Assyrian? That is the King of the North at the end of the world.

> —"[5]O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation."—

Here the Lord is saying that he is using the Papacy, the King of the North, to accomplish a work.

> —"[6]I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets."—

And that was one of the things—keep your finger there [in Isaiah 10]—in Isaiah 28 when it came to the overflowing scourge in Isaiah 28, in verse 18, it says, "And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it." (KJV)

So, if you go back over here to Isaiah 10, that is what this King of the North, the Assyrian, is going to do. He is going to tread them down like the mire of the street. This is the overflowing scourge.

But, here, we are trying to deal with him being the scourge.

Verse 7:

> —"[7]Howbeit he"—

The King of the North, the Assyrian, the one that has just passed The Sunday Law decree in verse 1.

> —"Howbeit he meaneth not so,"—

I know that the United States passes it [The Sunday Law decree], but they are doing the Papacy's bidding.

—"[7]Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few. [8]For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings? [9]Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus? [10]As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria; [11]Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? [12]Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks."—

Here the King of the North is going to get punished at a certain point in time.

What is a certain point in time? When He has finished his work of Mount Zion and Jerusalem.

And what is His work that He is doing with Mount Zion and Jerusalem? He is gathering His two flocks into that church, first Adventism and then the eleventh-hour workers. When He has finished that—

When has He finished that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: When probation closes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When probation closes. Okay?

When He has finished that, He is going to punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria.

Verse 13:

—"[13]For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:"—

What are the bounds of the people? Perhaps many things, but one of the things that "the bounds of the people" certainly represents is that in order to enforce a One World Government, which we are on the verge of doing right now, you have to set aside the national sovereignty of every country. You have to remove their bounds. Those are their boundaries, their protections.

Verse 14:

—"[14]And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped."—

This is when he [the King of the North] is conquering Egypt. He has conquered the whole world right now.

—"[15]Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith?"—

Now the Lord is talking to him, "You are the axe in my hand, and you are going to act like you're something special when I am the One using you?"

—"[15]Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood. [16]Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. [17]And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day; [18]And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth. [19]And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

"[20]And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. [21]The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God. [22]For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness. [23]For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

"[24]Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt. [25]For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction."—

So, what we are saying here is the scourge that the Lord uses against Planet Earth at the end of the world is also the Assyrian (the King of the North). But, the way that the Assyrian (the King of the North) conquers is with the overflowing flood.

—"[26]And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt. [27]And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. [28]He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages: [29]They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled. [30]Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth. [3] Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee. [32]As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. [33]Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled. [34]And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one." Isaiah 10 (KJV).

When you put these thoughts together, it is easy to see that the Papacy is the overflowing scourge. And when he conquers the Soviet Union, the next point of conquest for him is the glorious land.

THE GLORIOUS LAND

Daniel 11:41:

> "[41]He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

All right. Now, we have many lines of thoughts going on here; and, one of the lines of thought that I want to remind you of here is that we are claiming—we are positive—that the formula to produce revival in Adventism is the understanding of Daniel 11, verses 40 and 41. Daniel 11, verse 40, with the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, is identifying for any Seventh-day Adventist that chooses to see is the next thing that happens is The Sunday Law in the United States. And at The Sunday Law in the United States, probation closes for Seventh-day Adventists. And if you understand that your probation is about to close and you bring your life into agreement with that truth, then that produces a revival in your experience. This is the divine formula for producing the revival.

So, the divine formula is the two verses, 40 and 41. So, if there was anything that Satan really wanted to attack, it would be this formula. It would be the understanding that allow Seventh-day Adventists, through the influence of the Holy Spirit, to understand that they either wake up now or they die. So, this is very sacred ground, the correct understanding of the glorious land.

> GLORIOUS: Strong's Concordance 6643—in the sense of prominence; splendor (as conspicuous), beautiful, goodly.

The word GLORIOUS means in the sense of prominence; splendor (as conspicuous), beautiful, goodly.

> LAND: Strong's Concordance H776—From an unused root probably meaning to be firm; the earth (at large, or partitively a land): - X common, country, earth, field, ground, land, X nations, way, + wilderness, world.

LAND means to be firm; the earth.

And, of course, the reason why I spent time yesterday talking about the shaking in Adventism—and I hope you remember the several places that we looked at in the Scriptures where the shaking is noted—because it is noted, because it is a waymark of prophetic history, then it is something that needs to be addressed. So, when it comes to this point on in our study, we will from time to time address some of the foolish arguments that have been raised against this understanding.

One of the foolish arguments is that the glorious land is the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and that argument is loosely based upon the idea that in verse 45 the glorious holy mountain is definitely God's Church at the end of the world: the glorious holy mountain is God's Church. So, for a very shallow student, he can say, "Well, we have the glorious holy mountain in verse 45 that is God's Church; therefore, the glorious land is God's Church," as if a land and a mountain are the same thing. It is a lack of familiarity with God's Word. It is a lack of faith concerning God's Word. It is an unwillingness to believe that the Lord controlled the words that were put down in His Word.

And I am not talking about verbal inspiration, but I am talking about providential leading of the Lord.

And, therefore, you will find as you study the Book of Daniel that one of the common arguments about this message in the Book of Daniel, it boils down to a technique. All right? And I will tell you what the technique is so you can see what I mean, and then I will come back to this glorious land and glorious holy mountain.

There are certain words in the Book of Daniel that you can either say, "Well, Daniel was a little bit careless," or you can say, "Daniel was careful." It depends on how you approach it.

If you want to twist Daniel's word, then you will act as if Daniel was careless. If you want to see what the Lord is teaching us, then you know that Daniel was careful.

So, from that perspective, when Daniel says "glorious land" in verse 41 and "glorious holy mountain" in verse 45, Daniel was being careful to make sure that we understood that a land and a mountain are two different things, even if they have the word "glorious" associated with them. Okay?

In the study of the Daily in the Book of Daniel, you will find that the Daily is taken away. In Daniel 8:11, Daniel 11:31, and Daniel 12:11 the Daily is taken away; but, in Daniel 11:31 and Daniel 12:11, the Hebrew word that is translated as take away is sur; whereas, in Daniel 8:11, the Hebrew word that is translated as take away is rum. And those people that are on the wrong side of the issue, those people that want to teach that the Daily is Christ's sanctuary ministry, they insist that the word rum in Daniel 8:11 means the same thing as the word sur does in Daniel 11:31 and Daniel 12:11. They think Daniel is a little bit careless.

I understand; I just believe that he is very careful! Okay?

Those people that are on the wrong side of the issue, they look at Daniel 8:11 and they see the word sanctuary, and in Daniel 8:13 they see the word sanctuary, and in Daniel 8:14 they see the word sanctuary. In four verses the word sanctuary occurs three times. And they say, "Oh, it is always the same word. That is God's Sanctuary." But in reality, the word that is translated as sanctuary in Daniel 8:11 is i s h; and the word that is translated as sanctuary in Daniel 8:13 and 14 is e s And e s can only mean God's Sanctuary, whereas i s h can be a pagan sanctuary. So, here, you have to determine with these two words is Daniel careless or is he careful.

So, what I am saying is as you go through the different points of controversy in this prophetic message from the Book of Daniel, you will often find the question mark raised—although nobody ever thinks like this. This is just how I describe it—"Was he careful or was he careless?"

For instance, the word that is translated as south in Daniel 11:40 can also be translated as Egypt.

So, in Daniel 11:40, the King of the North is conquering the King of the South; and, then two verses later he is conquering Egypt. Why did not the Bible translators just put the king of Egypt in verse 40?

Why did they put the King of the South, when Egypt and the King of the South are so closely related?

Well, I think it was purposeful. I think Daniel was being careful. You are supposed to understand who the King of the South is and who Egypt is, and they are two different entities though closely related.

So, in the stumbling over this message that goes on in Adventism primarily, many times it is from an unwillingness to let God's Word stand as it is expressed. Okay? This is one of those: "The glorious land is the glorious holy mountain." No, I am sorry. The "land" is a land, and the "mountain" is a mountain.

Now, the institution, without a doubt—no! Hands down, the institution that has fought this message the hardest and the longest is Hartland Institute in Virginia. I mean, when you get to the point to where you are supposedly training students to be pastors, and when you get sympathetic churches to your ministry would allow your students to come and practice their sermons, when they are learning how to give sermons, and you tell those students, "All right. When you go out and preach your sermon on Sabbath at that church over there, I want you to preach that the glorious land in Daniel 11:41 is the Seventh-day Adventist Church." When you are at the point of training supposedly pastors and you are instructing them to go teach error over this issue, that they have been doing for years, they are without a doubt the institution that has opposed this message longer and more specifically for many, many moons.

And they have an associate there, Dorado [Ray] Carlo, that has been the primary personality to try to confuse people on what the glorious land is. All right? He says if you teach the glorious land is the United States that that is a Jesuit teaching.

Why is it a Jesuit teaching? Is that just his trying to throw mud at someone in hopes that it sticks? Perhaps; but, his logic is this: The Jesuits, what the Catholic Church came up with is a counterfeit understanding of prophecy. These counterfeit prophetic rules of interpretation, one of them, takes the symbols of prophecy and applies them literally at the end of the world. Okay? So, Ray's argument is, if you are saying that the glorious land in verse 41 [of Daniel 11] is a literal country, that that is futurism and that is a Jesuit-ism.

What my response to that is, "Well, I think it was 1845 when Loughborough or Andrews"—I forget which—"determined, put in print for the first time, that the lamb-like beast of Revelation 13:11 was the United States; and I am wondering how we can take that symbol there of the lamb-like beast and apply it literally and say it is literally the United States if we are not using Jesuit techniques, because that has the Adventist understanding since 1845."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is not futurism. Prophecy is illustrating genuine powers, but the symbols are going to have a spiritual implication for us here at the end of the world; and, they do, they do. So, some of the arguments in these verses are a little bit subtle; but, when you step back from them and look at them, they are ridiculous.

All right. So, we are dealing with the glorious land.

THE GLORY OF ALL LANDS

Ezekiel 20:6 and 15:

> "[6]In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is"—

The what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The glory of all lands.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"the glory of all lands. . . ."—

Verse 15:

> —"[15]Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands." Ezekiel 20:6, 15 (KJV).

So, when Daniel is talking about the glorious land in verse 41, he is going to be in agreement with Ezekiel; and, the land that was the glory of all the lands was the land of Palestine.

Daniel 11:16

Okay. Daniel 11:16, you have that marked in your notes.

Daniel 11:16, Daniel himself uses the expression "glorious land" for the first time. The second time he uses it, the last time he uses it, is in verse 41. But, in verse 16, he says,

> "[16]But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and none shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed." Daniel 11:16 (KJV).

URIAH SMITH

Now, you have Uriah Smith—remember, Sister White says is God's helping hand—Uriah Smith commenting on verse 16 in your notes.

> "After putting an end to the war, Pompey demolished the walls of Jerusalem, transferred several cities from the jurisdiction of Judea to that of Syria, and imposed tribute on the Jews. For the first time Jerusalem was by conquest placed in the hands of Rome, that power was to hold the 'glorious land' in its iron grasp till it had utterly consumed it." Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 247.

Daniel 11:16 is identifying Palestine as the glorious land, and it is identifying when Rome conquered Palestine (Israel, the land of the literal Israel). So, for Daniel in verse 16, the glorious land is the land of Israel, the land flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all the land, the Promised Land. All right?

So, when you get to verse 41, you would think that Daniel would have the same meaning for it; but, in verse 41 where are you? You are on this side of the cross. So, you are looking for a spiritual application. All right?

But, if I say the glorious land is the United States, is that not a literal application? No, it is a spiritual application; because, the land that was given to Ancient Israel served a specific spiritual purpose for Ancient Israel, and the United States serves a specific spiritual purpose for spiritual Israel. The purpose is the same in either case, whether it is Ancient Israel or modern Israel. It is a spiritual application to identify the United States as the glorious land.

"LAND" AND "MOUNTAIN"

. . . enter also into the glorious land . . . verse forty-one of Daniel 11
. . . between the seas in the glorious holy mountain . . . verse forty-five of Daniel 11

J. N. ANDREWS

After the disappointment of October 22, 1844, it was necessary, logically, for the Millerites at that time period to explain why they had understood that the sanctuary was the Earth instead of the Sanctuary in Heaven.

Who is J. N. Andrews? He is the guy they named Andrews University after. And the flagship of our seminaries is named after Andrews, and Andrews wrote the classic article explaining the mistake of the sanctuary that the Millerites had; and, it is still the classic article to this very day.

And in that article he goes through and he looks at several entities. He looks at the Earth, the church, the land of Canaan, and the sanctuary, to make a distinction on what they are; and, we have a paragraph here where he summarizes these thoughts. It says,

> "We have found that the earth is not the sanctuary, but simply the territory where it will finally be located; that the church is not the sanctuary, but simply the worshipers connected with the sanctuary; and that the land of Canaan is not the sanctuary, but that it is the place where the typical sanctuary was located." J. N. Andrews, The Sanctuary and the 2300 Days, 45.

Now, if you are willing to see, you will see that J. N. Andrews, without knowing any of the controversy over the glorious land and the glorious holy mountain, that he is isolating these entities to make another point, but in so doing he is showing you that the church and the land are two different entities. They cannot be the same. All right? They are just not the same.

Why is it important to be clear about this? It is important to be clear about this because, if Daniel 11, verse 41, is The Sunday Law in the United States, it is identifying when probation is going to close for Seventh-day Adventists. But, if I can get you to believe that, "Nah, it is something else. That is not really the close of probation," then you can fall back into your Laodicean sleepiness and find yourself receiving the mark of the beast when the overflowing scourge hits the United States.

So, the idea to undermine the understanding the glorious land in verse 41, it is a satanic attack. It is trying to kill Seventh-day Adventists.

DESIGNED BY GOD

Okay. What does Sister White say about the United States?
Maranatha, page 193, says,

> "The Lord has done more for the United States than any other country upon which the sun shines."

And if you go to the top of your notes there, the word GLORIOUS means: in sense of prominence, conspicuous. Does that not meet what that first sentence in that quote says?

—"The Lord has done more for the United States than any other country upon which the sun shines.:—

Is that not in sense of prominence? The Lord has done more for this country, in sense of prominence.

—"Here He provided an asylum for His people, where they could worship Him according to the dictates of conscience. Here Christianity has progressed in its purity. The life-giving doctrine of the one Mediator between God and man has been freely taught."—

And I always get struck by these next couple of sentences.

—"God designed"—

He designed the United States. He did not just toss the pilgrims over into a chunk of land. He designed this nation.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is pretty prominent.

How many other nations in the world have we have been told that God "designed"?

—"God designed that this country should ever remain free for all people to worship Him in accordance with the dictates of conscience. He designed that its civil institutions, in their expansive productions, should represent the freedom of gospel privileges." Maranatha, 193.

A PROMISED LAND

In Exodus 32:13, it says,

"[13]Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it forever." Exodus 32:13 (KJV).

So, the Lord gave a specific land to Ancient Israel, and He gave a land to modern Israel. And the land that He gave to modern Israel, He designed; He designed to fulfill a prophetic role during the end of the world.

THIS LAND THAT I HAVE SPOKEN OF

ANCIENT ISRAEL

Prophets and Kings, page 16, says,

"God brought His chosen people out of the land of Egypt. . . . that He might bring them to a good land, a land which in His providence He had prepared for them"—

That sounds like He designed ancient Palestine, too, if he prepared it for them.

—"as a refuge from their enemies.'—

And that is what she said in the previous quote. He designed this country; He made it as an asylum, a refuge from their enemies.

—'He would bring them to Himself and encircle them in His everlasting arms; and in return for His goodness and mercy they were to exalt His name and make it"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Glorious in the earth.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"glorious in the earth." Prophets and Kings, 16.

That was their purpose.

And in order to make His name glorious in the Earth, he gave them a land flowing with milk and honey that would give them the financial ability to carry the message to the Earth. He placed that land at the crossroads of the ancient world; and, it fulfills the same purpose that the United States fulfills, the crossroads of the modern world, flowing with milk and honey, for the purpose of the Lord's name being made glorious in the Earth.

MODERN ISRAEL

Selected Messages, book 1, page 92:

"Is it in vain that the declaration of eternal truth has been given to this nation to be carried to all the nations of the world?"—

To what nation? The United States.

—"God has chosen a people and made them the repositories of truth weighty with eternal results."—

Who did He choose as the people? Who did He choose?

A trick question. Watch out.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He chose the Protestants. The Protestant Reformation brings them out to the United States. He chose the Protestants. He chose this nation; He chose the Protestants; and, then He presented the message of the hour to the Protestants and the Protestants rejected it. So, He set the Protestants aside, and He took the Millerites. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"Is it in vain that the declaration of eternal truth has been given to this nation to be carried to all the nations of the world? God has chosen a people and made them the repositories of truth weighty with eternal results. To them has been given the light that must illuminate the world. Has God made a mistake? Are we indeed His chosen instrumentalities? Are we the men and women who are to bear to the world the messages of Revelation fourteen, to proclaim the message of salvation to those who are standing on the brink of ruin? Do we act as if we were?" Selected Messages, book 1, 92.

Okay. So, what I am saying is the purpose of ancient Palestine (or Ancient Israel) is identical to the purpose of the United States for the Seventh-day Adventist Church. God designed the United States to fulfill a certain role in Bible prophecy, and a characteristic of the United States is that it is "the land," and it is the most prominent land in the world. It is the glorious land in sense of prominence.

THE PROPHETIC ROLE

THE MAN OF SIN

So, let us look at some of the roles that the United States has been identified as fulfilling; because, when we get to closing up our thoughts on Daniel 11:40 and 41, on to 45, we want to see that what we are suggesting about verses 40 to 45, in identifying the United States as the glorious land, we want to see if what we are suggesting these verses represent is in agreement with the testimony of what the role, the prophetic role, of the United States is.

Are our analyses of these verses consistent with what the rest of the prophecies say about the United States?

So, let us look at the prophetic role.

Signs of the Times, June 12, 1893:

"When the land which the Lord provided as an asylum for His people, that they might worship Him according to the dictates of their own consciences, the land over which for long years the shield of Omnipotence has been spread, the land which God has favored by making it the depository of the pure religion of Christ,—when that land shall, through its legislators, abjure the principles of Protestantism, and give countenance to Romish apostasy in tampering with God's law,—it is then that the final work of the man of sin will be revealed." Signs of the Times, June 12, 1893.

So, what is "the finale work of the man of sin"?

We read a quote here a couple of times where Sister White says, "The last scenes plainly revealed in this earth's history have to do with the man of sin." So, here it is saying, at The Sunday Law in the United States, these last movements of the man of sin are going to be revealed, the King of the North (the Papacy).

And what is his last movement? Well, he sets himself upon the throne of the Earth, causes a blood bath, and he comes to his end in Armageddon with none to help.

When does this sequence of events begin? At The Sunday Law. When the land shall pass a Sunday law, then the final work of the man of sin will be revealed.

THE MARVELOUS WORKING OF SATAN

In Testimonies, volume 5, page 451—

So, what I am wanting you to see here is that The Sunday Law in the United States is a prophetic marker in connection with the work of the man of sin. All right?

The next one is a little bit different.

> "By the decree enforcing the institution of the Papacy in violation of the law of God, our nation will disconnect herself fully from righteousness. When Protestantism shall stretch her hand across the gulf to grasp the hand of the Roman power, when she shall reach over the abyss to clasp hands with Spiritualism, when, under the influence of this threefold union, our country shall repudiate every principle of its Constitution as a Protestant and republican government, and shall make provision for the propagation of papal falsehoods and delusions, then we may know that the time has come for the marvelous working of Satan and that the end is near." Testimonies, volume 5, 451.

We have already dealt with this one.

When does Satan begin to personate Christ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At The Sunday Law in the United States.

How long is he allowed to perform these miracles? Until Michael stands up, until human probation closes. We read that.

So, from The Sunday Law, from the overflowing scourge hitting the glorious land in verse 41, then we have the final movements of the man of sin; and, then we have Satan on the scene personating Christ.

So, the prophetic role of the glorious land of the United States, it has several issues that are connected to it.

NATIONAL RUIN

The next one, Review and Herald, May 2, 1893:

> "The people of the United States have been a favored people; but when they restrict religious liberty, surrender Protestantism, and give countenance to popery, the measure of their guilt will be full, and 'national apostasy' will be registered in the books of heaven. The result of this apostasy will be national ruin." Review and Herald, May 2, 1893.

Okay. The Sunday Law in the United States, the final movements of the Papacy; The Sunday Law in the United States, Satan personates Christ; The Sunday Law in the United States, national ruin, all taking place.

TYRANNY

The Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, page 410:

> "Our land is in jeopardy. The time is drawing on when its legislators shall so abjure the principles of Protestantism as to give countenance to Romish apostasy. The people for whom God has so marvelously wrought, strengthening them to throw off the galling yoke of popery, will by a national act give vigor to the corrupt faith of Rome, and thus arouse the tyranny which only waits for a touch to start again into cruelty and despotism. With rapid steps are we already approaching this period." The Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, 410.

So, what else starts at The Sunday Law? Persecution, national ruin, Satan personating Christ, the final movements of the Papacy and persecution, and the greatest darkness.

THE GREATEST PERIL AND DARKNESS

Selected Messages, book 3, page 387:

> "America, . . . where the greatest light from heaven has been shining upon the people, can become the place of greatest peril and darkness because the people do not continue to practice the truth and walk in the light." Selected Messages, book 3, 387.

So, the United States at The Sunday Law goes into a darkness that is the greatest darkness of any nation that has ever existed. This is going to be—it is quotes like this leads people to say, "Well, you know, I need to move to the country, so maybe I will move to the country somewhere in South America or the Caribbean because this is going to be a bad place to live."

Then when you look at The Sunday Law crisis in the time period of Ellen White's day and age and you realize that the state was the most aggressive on Sunday enforcement was Arkansas, it makes people like me say, "Well, not only do I want to escape the darkness of the United States, but if I am going to be in the United States, maybe I should not be in Arkansas."

But, the reality of it is, is that at this point in time we have to have an experience where we know for a certainty that we are where the Lord wants us to be. And if we know that is the case, then we can have peace wherever we are at. But, the United States is going to become a very, very dark place at The Sunday Law.

Why? Well, probably for lots of reasons. But, one of the reasons is that darkness is going to be used as the backdrop for the ensign being lifted up, and it is just going to make the ensign that much brighter.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

THE GLORY OF THE WHOLE EARTH

Review and Herald, May 2, 1893. I have always had a problem with this one here. This quote I have a problem with; but, some people say that I lean too heavily upon the writings of Ellen White. But, that being said, it is because of that leaning so heavily upon the writings of Ellen White that I have a problem with this quote.

People can say that the glorious land of verse 41 [of Daniel] is the Seventh-day Adventist Church, it is not the United States; but, what does Ellen White say?

"The unrivaled mercies and blessings of God have been showered upon our nation,"—

What nation is she talking about?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

—"it has been a land of liberty, and the"—WHAT?!—"the glory of the whole earth."—

All right. For me, that ends the discussion. Ellen White just said that the United States is the glorious land, and she is not really quoting Daniel 41 there. She is quoting Ezekiel, "the glory of all the nations." The United States is the glorious land, according to Ellen White.

It does not matter is someone says it is a Jesuit technique. They do not know what Jesuitism is, obviously.

—"But instead of returning gratitude to God, instead of honoring God and his law, the professed Christians of America have become leavened with pride, covetousness, and self-sufficiency. . . .

"The time has come when judgment is fallen in the streets, and equity cannot enter, and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey. But the Lord's arm is not shortened that it cannot save, and his ear is not heavy that it cannot hear. The people of the United States have been a favored people; but when"—PARDON ME?—"but when they restrict religious liberty, surrender Protestantism, and give countenance to popery, the measure of their guilt will be full, and 'national apostasy' will be registered in the books of heaven. The result of this apostasy will be national ruin.

"The voices of those under the altar who have been slain for the word of God and the testimony of Jesus, are still saying, 'It is time for thee, O Lord, to work: for they have made void thy law.'" Review and Herald, May 2, 1893.

Now, this is outside what we are looking at here today, but do you realize what she was just referencing? Because, if you remember back in our worship service when we dealt with "How long?" and we went through and found the various places in the Scriptures where the expression, "How long?" is marked and we were doing that to show that the history of Ancient Israel is governed by the Seven Churches of Revelation 2 and 3, just as the history of the Seven Churches is all repeated in the history of Laodicea, when we were in that part of our worship study, those under the altar, which she just referenced, in the Fifth Seal that asked, "How long until you deal with the Papacy?" and they were then told, "Rest in your graves for a little while until another group is doing to die as you died," and we brought two quotes in where Sister White places that in Revelation 18, verse 4, here, if you understand that, and what I am saying is, is the martyrs that the Papacy murdered during the 1260 years in the Fifth Seal, they asked the question to the Lord, "How long until you punish the Papacy for murdering us?" And the answer is, "You wait in your graves. There is going to be another group of people that die from Papal persecution." And Sister White places that at Revelation 18, verse 4, which says, "Come out of her, my people," which is The Sunday Law.

And in here, if you can see it, she is going back into that subject and is giving you another argument that this is The Sunday Law; because, when she talks in this final paragraph about the voices under the altar, that is the Sixth Seal asking, "How long until you punish the Papacy?" and here she throws in David's statement about, "It is time for thee, O Lord, to work: for they have made void thy law." They make void the Law at The Sunday Law in Revelation 18, verse 4.

That is not really what we are dealing with here; but, it is what we are dealing with in the worship service.

So, the United States is the glory of the whole Earth, according to the Spirit of Prophecy.

THE GLORY DEFINED

What makes the United States glorious? This is something that needs to be understood.
The Great Controversy, page 352

> "In the seventeenth century thousands of pastors were expelled from their positions. The people were forbidden, on pain of heavy fines, imprisonment, and banishment, to attend any religious meetings except such as were sanctioned by the church. Those faithful souls who could not refrain from gathering to worship God were compelled to meet in dark alleys, in obscure garrets, and at some seasons in the woods at midnight. In the sheltering depths of the forest, a temple of God's own building, those scattered and persecuted children of the Lord assembled to pour out their souls in prayer and praise. But despite all their precautions, many suffered for their faith. The jails were crowded. Families were broken up. Many were banished to foreign lands. Yet God was with His people, and persecution could not prevail to silence their testimony. Many were driven across the ocean to America and here laid the foundations of civil and religious liberty which have been the bulwark and glory of this country." The Great Controversy, 252.

What is the glory of the glorious land?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Religious liberty.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Constitution, the Constitution of the United States.

So, we know that at The Sunday Law the Constitution is overturned, done away with; so, that fits with what we are saying.

Now, in an attempt to undermine the understanding that the glorious land is the United States, the verse that is used to say that the United States cannot be the glorious land, that the glorious land is the Seventh-day Adventist Church, this is Malachi 3:12. It says, "[12]And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts." Malachi 3:12 (KJV): "Now, just right there it is saying that God's people are a delightsome land. There is the glorious land." There is your one verse that is sounded over and over and over again saying that the glorious land is the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Of course, you have got to take things in context, right? The context of this passage does not justify that kind of application.

Let me show you something here real quickly and come back to this. In your notes, I will just point to it.

You see from Webster's Di tio ary , the definition of inherit. And if you read that definition, you will find that to inherit requires two things. And you can take the various words. I have done this before, and in these notes I just have inherit, because I intend just to explain it. But, if you take Webster's Di tio ary of 1828 and you look up inheritor, inherit, or inheritance, you will find that those are legal technical terms. They are legal technical terms. Okay? And the Bible specifically says repeatedly that the Promised Land was the inheritance of those that held the possession of the covenant. And an inheritance is different than the inheritor.

I am the one that is going to inherit this thing; but, what I am going to inherit is a thing. And this is a very technical, legal theme in the Bible that God's people were to inherit the Promised Land. It is an inheritance.

An inheritor cannot be the inheritance. They are two different things. So, we will look at this a little bit tomorrow, and you will see in your notes—because I am already out of time, but we are not done—you will see in your notes that all of the covenant promises are fulfilled upon Ancient Israel, and the three primary covenant promises are that you and I can have the mind of Christ right here, right now, at the foot of the cross, if we will meet the conditions of the Gospel. And if you do not have the mind of Christ this morning, you should do that.

The other covenant promise is if we are faithful we are going to be given a glorified body at the Second Coming of Christ.

The third covenant promise, which is one that is mentioned far more than the other two covenant promises put together in the Bible is that the Lord would give His people a land. And all the covenant promises are fulfilled in spiritual modern Israel; so, there has to be a land that was given to the Seventh-day Adventist Church. So, from that argument, we will probably look at a little bit tomorrow.

That argument came to the surface because of the person that was out there in Adventism using Malachi 3:12, saying, "This proves that God's people are the land." And it was from this argument that students of prophecy were forced to dig deeper into what the glorious land was, to understand the fact that the Bible teaches that the land was the inheritance, that the inheritors were to receive. It cannot be; the people and the land cannot be the same thing Biblically.

But, let us go to Malachi 3 and see if the context justifies the argument that what is being taught here is that this verse is a proof text to prove that the Church is the land.

Okay. So, let us go to Malachi 1. All right?

Is everyone there?

Verse 1:

> ‹‹chapter 1:1›The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi. 2I have loved you, saith the LORD, Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? Saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob."—

What is He saying? He is saying, "I make distinction between people. There are two classes of people." This is what the Lord is saying.

"I have loved you."

"How have you loved us?"

"Well, you know my love is based upon two classes of people."

Verse 3:

—"[3]And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness. [4]Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever."—

Who is going to get called "The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever"? Esau; Edom: Esau is Esau; Edom is his nation. And the Lord is putting them in a category, and the category is that they are the wicked.

And He is contrasting them with whom?

Next verse.

—"[5]And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel."—

So, you have one class that is going to be magnified from the border of Israel, and then you have a class that their border is the border of wickedness, the border of the people that the Lord is going to have indignation forever.

So, what do you have there: with these two borders, what do you have? Two classes of people. Okay?

And this is the Lord's argument about who He loves. He loves one class; He does not love the other class, He hates them. All right?

Verse 6:

"[6]A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honor? And if I be a master, where is my fear? Saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? [7]Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is o te ptible."—

So, Malachi begins by introducing the Everlasting Gospel: "I demonstrate my love my accomplishing the Everlasting Gospel producing two classes of worshippers, one on the border of wickedness, one on the border of Israel."

Now He is going to go in and He is going to talk about the priests of Adventism—all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, right?—the priests of Adventism. And what is the problem with the priests of Adventism? They offer polluted bread.

Okay. What is the polluted bread that they offer? Well, in William Miller's dream, in William Miller's dream you remember we took a great deal of time to show what the casket was. What was the casket?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Bible.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Bible.

And what did they do with this casket in William Miller's dream?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They tore it up.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They tore it up.

So, offering polluted bread may be talking about the fact that at the beginning of the 20th Century that the Seventh-day Adventist Church began introducing these Catholic bibles that are now used commonly in Adventism.

Or, maybe it is the Omega teaching to counter the true prophetic message. That would be bread, too. Right? Bad bread.

And what is the table; what is the table here? In verse 7, "Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible." What is the table of the Lord here where you are going to eat, you know, what is feeding you?

What table are we supposed to be eating from?

But, this is contemptible, the priests say: "This table is contemptible."

Okay. So, they invent their own table, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When did they invent their own table? At the beginning of William Miller's dream. I want you to see that this is about William Miller's dream here, Malachi is.

Verse 8:

> "[8]And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? And if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? Offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? Saith the LORD of hosts. [9]And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? Saith the LORD of hosts. [10]Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? Neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand."—

"Everything that you are doing is for money, is for your own personal gain; and, your offerings are corrupted." And all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world.

Verse 11:

> —"[11]For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of the hosts.
>
> "[12]But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible [Brother Jeff gestures towards the 1843 and 1850 Charts]."—

What is He talking about?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is talking about these Charts!

> —"[13]Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! And ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? Saith the LORD.

[14]But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathens."

"chapter 2:1And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you. [2]If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart."—

What do they not lay to heart; what do they not lay to heart?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: His warning.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: His warning.

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Tables.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Tables.

But, also here, this is a warning that, "You are already cursed. You should have laid this to heart, but you have already rejected it."

What should you have laid to heart? Something about blessings and cursings.

"[3]Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it. [4]And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts."—

What is the covenant of Levi? It is the covenant of the golden calf. It is the covenant of Jeroboam. Remember? Jeroboam makes two golden calves, but the Levites refused to be his priests.

So, this is placing this issue at The Sunday Law time period. This is The Sunday Law time period.

What happens to the false priests in Adventism at The Sunday Law time period? They are going to be punished; because, he is making a covenant with Levi. He is going to corrupt their seed and spread dung on their faces.

Verse 5[8]:

—"[5]My covenant was with him [WITH LEVI] of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name. [6]The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity."—

Who was that? That is the 144,000. That is the ensign that is lifted up at The Sunday Law. That is who Levi is.

"[7]For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. [8]But ye are departed out of the way:"—

[8] Corrects misstatement from verse 6 to verse 5 of Malachi 2.

What way are they departed out of?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Old Paths.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Old Paths.

—"ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. [9]Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law. [10]Have we not all one father? Hath not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?"—

What are they profaning?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The covenant of our fathers.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The covenant of our fathers.

What is the symbol of the covenant for Ancient Israel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Two Tables.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Two Tables [the Ten Commandments]. They were put in the ark of the covenant.

What was the symbol of the covenant with our fathers? The Two Tables [the 1843 and 1850 Charts].

And what did they do to that? They profaned the covenant of our fathers.

—"[11]Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god."—

What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Mystery of Iniquity.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Mystery of Iniquity; they bought into the Mystery of Iniquity.

—"[12]The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts. [13]And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand. [14]Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth,"—

"The Lord saw what you did with the wife of your youth."

—"against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. [15]And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed."—

When is the godly seed produced?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At The Sunday Law. It is produced leading up to The Sunday Law; it is demonstrated at The Sunday Law. But, who is the godly seed contrasted with?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The wicked.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The wicked seed.

What is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Everlasting Gospel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Everlasting Gospel. It is the work of Christ in producing two classes of worshippers, based upon Genesis 3:15, "I will put enmity between Satan's seed and Christ's seed."

So, He is producing the godly seed right here, and one seed in verse 15:

> —"Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth."—

Who is the wife of your youth that you are dealing treacherously with?

Who is the church of your youth that you are dealing treacherously with? "What do you think about the Millerite History?"

Okay. This is all, Malachi is all about the Old Paths and the rejection of the Old Paths.

> —"[16]For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously."—

And the dealing treacherously is breaking the covenant.

> —"[17]Ye have wearied the Lord with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?" Malachi 2 and 3 (KJV).

Brothers and Sisters, this is the teaching symbolically represented by Desmond Ford: "You can't overcome sin. You are going to sin until Jesus comes, and He is going to miraculously change you. Everyone is good, everyone is good," this teaching.

But what else is the other teaching that they are misrepresenting? "Where is the God of Judgment? The Judgment of the Living did not begin on 9/11/2001. God is not a God of Judgment."

Verse 1 of Malachi 3:

> "chapter 3:1Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts."—

Where does He come here at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Judgment.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He comes to Judgment, the previous verse: "Where is the God of Judgment?" He comes to the Judgment of the Living.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And what does He do?

Verse 2:

—"[2]But who may abide the day of his coming? And who shall stand when he appeareth? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' sope:"—

He starts a purification process on 9/11 that is going to conclude at The Sunday Law. Right? That is what He is doing. This is the temple cleansing of Adventism.

Verse 3:

—"[3]And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons"—OF WHO?—"of Levi,"—

Those that are going to stand at the golden calf test at The Sunday Law, and they are going to stand for the Lord and be raised up as ensigns.

—"and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. [4]Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years."—

As in the Millerite History, as in the history of Christ, as in the history of Noah, as in the history of Moses, and as in the history of Elijah when there was a revival accomplished, it will be just like that.

—"[5]And I will come near to you to judgment;"—THIS IS JUDGMENT—"and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and feat not me, saith the LORD of hosts. [6]For I am the LORD, I change not;"—

That is the premise that we have been building on from almost the beginning where Sister White says, "God's dealing with man is ever the same"; and that is why all the reform lines are the same: "I am God. I change not!"

—"therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed."—

This is why we are so hardcore in our Laodicean condition; because, the Lord does not deal with us instantly. When we sin, we think that we can get away with murder and we carry on; therefore, the sons of Jacob are not consumed, because the Lord is long-suffering in our Laodicean condition. But, now you are in the time period when He is closing up shop!

And what tells you that He is closing up shop? Daniel 11:40 and 41.

—"[6]For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

"[7]Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances,"—

How about 1863?

—"and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

"[8]Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. [9]Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation."—

Now, what is He emphasizing here? A curse comes from not returning the Lord His tithe. The next verse—we are almost to the verse [of Malachi 3:12].

—"Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. [11]And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes,"—

If you are faithful to this statute.

—"and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts. [12]And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts."—

That is not a proof-text saying that the church is the land. It is a proof-text saying that when the church walks in obedience, the Lord will bless both them and the land that He has given them; and, it is a misrepresentation and a twisting of the words to say otherwise

Verse 13:

—"[13]Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee? [14]Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts? [15]And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered. [16]Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name. [17]And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels;"—

When does He make up His jewels? The Sunday Law; He is going to lift up an ensign like a crown. Zechariah 9:16.[9]

[9] Zechariah 9:16 is verified.

—"and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. [18]Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

"chapter 4:1"[1]For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

"[2]But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall."—

When does the Sun of Righteousness arise? Revelation 7, is it not?

Go to Revelation 7.

We should have been done a while ago, so I have already gone too long; so, you might as well just really make it a big train wreck, not a little one.

Verse 1:

"[1]And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. [2]And I saw another angel"—WHAT?—"ascending from the east, . . ." Revelation 7:1 (KJV).

Back to Malachi:

—"[2]But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall. [3]And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

"[4]Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statues and judgments. [5]Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: [6]And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse." Malachi 3 and 4 (KJV).

There is no justification by context, whatsoever, to claim that verse 12 of Malachi 3 is identifying that the Seventh-day Adventist Church is the glorious land: it is a wresting of the Scriptures. Malachi is about an entirely different subject. It is about the Everlasting Gospel that is being accomplished in Adventism, based upon how they stand or reject the messages on these Two Tables [gesturing towards the 1843 and 1850 Charts].

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together to start our day by considering your Word. We thank you that you have brought us to this time when we are going to have this special series of meetings that are going to begin here after breakfast. We ask a blessing upon this week of service. We ask a blessing upon those that are listening to these things LiveStream and thereafter on DVDs. We ask that you protect the work that we are doing, the record, the internet services. We thank you for bringing us together to start this day, and now we ask a blessing upon the physical food that we are going to partake of here in the near future. In Jesus's name, amen.

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for awakening us today for another period of time that we can serve you, and thank you for awakening us that we can start by studying your Word this morning. We ask that you would accompany our study, grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit. We ask that you would take control of this presentation, overrule my humanity that the words and thoughts conveyed would be from your Throne Room on High. We ask that you prepare the hearts and minds of those that are hearing these things, that they would receive them in the intended fashion that you have planned for this message. We want to understand more about 1989; Daniel 11, verse 40; and, we would ask that you grant us that now as we open your Word. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We never quite finished the whole study yesterday. There are some parts that I did not address that, the Lord willing, I will address later.

THE PROPHETIC ROLE (CONTINUED)

But, one of the things that we put in the record yesterday is the [first page] of your notes [for this session]. We have read all these quotes already.

But, what these quotes were put together for was to show that there are certain things connected with The Sunday Law in the United States. There are prophetic characteristics to The Sunday Law in the United States; therefore, these prophetic characteristics are connected with the glorious land, which we have identified as the United States.

[Note from Transcriber: All quotes from the provided notes, but not read again into the record, are provided as follows.]

THE MAN OF SIN

> "When the land which the Lord provided as an asylum for His people, that they might worship Him according to the dictates of their own consciences, the land over which for long years the shield of Omnipotence has been spread, the land which God has favored by making it the depository of the pure religion of Christ,—when that land shall, through its legislators, abjure the principles of Protestantism, and give countenance to Romish apostasy in tampering with God's law,—it is then that the final work of the man of sin will be revealed." Signs of the Times, June 12, 1893.

THE MARVELOUS WORKING OF SATAN

> "By the decree enforcing the institution of the Papacy in violation of the law of God, our nation will disconnect herself fully from righteousness. When Protestantism shall stretch her hand across the gulf to grasp the hand of the Roman power, when she shall reach over the abyss to clasp hands with Spiritualism, when, under the influence of this threefold union, our country shall repudiate every principle of its Constitution as a Protestant and republican government, and shall make provision for the propagation of papal falsehoods and delusions, then we may know that the time has come for the marvelous working of Satan and that the end is near." Testimonies, volume 5, 451.

NATIONAL RUIN

"The people of the United States have been a favored people; but when they restrict religious liberty, surrender Protestantism, and give countenance to popery, the measure of their guilt will be full, and 'national apostasy' will be registered in the books of heaven. The result of this apostasy will be national ruin." Review and Herald, May 2, 1893.

TYRANNY

"Our land is in jeopardy. The time is drawing on when its legislators shall so abjure the principles of Protestantism as to give countenance to Romish apostasy. The people for whom God has so marvelously wrought, strengthening them to throw off the galling yoke of popery, will by a national act give vigor to the corrupt faith of Rome, and thus arouse the tyranny which only waits for a touch to start again into cruelty and despotism. With rapid steps are we already approaching this period." The Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, 410.

THE GREATEST PERIL AND DARKNESS

"America, . . . where the greatest light from heaven has been shining upon the people, can become the place of greatest peril and darkness because the people do not continue to practice the truth and walk in the light." Selected Messages, book 3, 387.

I want to spend some time emphasizing these prophetic characteristics, so that we will recognize them easily in the study of the Word.

For instance, when it comes to the Dragon, the Dragon moves through history; whereas, the United States (the False Prophet) and the Papacy, they are always in the same place geographically. The Papacy is always in the City of Rome; and, the United States is always in the United States, whether it is Protestantism or Apostate Protestantism; but, the Dragon moves through history.

So, where I am wanting to look at these powers and make sure that we are familiar with the characteristics associated with the various powers.

So, what these first quotes on the [first page of your notes of this session] that we looked at yesterday are, we identified that when The Sunday Law comes—this being The Sunday Law here—then, the final work of the man of sin begins here [referencing the time period following The Sunday Law in Figure No. 98]. And we are going to address that, the Lord willing, from the story of Elijah today.

You know, this side of the line [indicating to the right of the first waymark of Figure No. 98], in the story of Elijah, and Carmel, and the prophets of Baal, Jezebel is not seen. She is back in Samaria. But, once the prophets of Baal are slain, then Ahab is on his way to Samaria to talk to Jezebel.

Here [to the right of the second waymark of the second waymark of Figure No. 98], Jezebel comes back into view. Okay? This is the final workings of the man of sin.

Also right in here, the next quote says this is where Satan appears and begins to personate Christ in this history.

This is where national apostasy in the United States is followed by national ruin.

This is where persecution begins, at this [second] waymark. These are some of the characteristics associated with the conquering of the glorious land; and, this is also where the United States goes into the greatest darkness of all time.

So, what I am wanting you to see is that we are identifying specific prophetic characteristics with this [second] waymark. We want to do that. We want to emphasize the prophetic characteristics of a variety of waymarks today.

THE FALSE PROPHET

Revelation 13:11-18, 2; Daniel 8:12; 11:30-31; 7:8, 20

So, if you will go to Revelation 13:11 to begin with, this tells us what the United States is going to do.

> "[11]And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." Revelation 13:11 (KJV).

And we have already pointed out here, but we are going to emphasize it again and probably more than once in this worship series that Revelation 13:11 [indicating the first waymark in Figure No. 98], the United States begins as a Lamb, but it ends speaking as a Dragon; therefore, this history from 1798—and we have marked verse 11 as beginning in 1798 based upon Sister White's comment where she says, and it is in your notes, at the time when the Papacy was robbed of its strength (that is 1798), John beheld a new power coming up out of the Earth and he begins to talk about the lamb-like beast.

So, the beginning of the United States in prophetic history is Revelation 13:11, and it is marked in prophetic history as in 1798. That is when the Papacy was robbed of its strength. But, by the time the United States speaks as a Dragon, that is The Sunday Law in the United States; therefore, the history represented by Revelation 13:11 is the history of 1798 until The Sunday Law. And this is the identical history of Daniel 11, verse 40.

Daniel 11, verse 40, begins at the Time of the End in 1798, and it ends in verse 41 at The Sunday Law in the United States.

> "[40] And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. [41] He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown, but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:40-41 (KJV).

So, to this history, the Lord willing today, we are going to put two more histories from God's Word that are specifically this history. We are going to build upon this history.

In Revelation 13:11, the United States speaks as a dragon at The Sunday Law; and then in verse 12, he exercises all the power of the first beast before him. And we have spent time on that.

The power of the first beast before him is represented in verse 2 of Revelation 13. The Dragon gave him his power, seat, and great authority. And the Dragon in Revelation 13:2 is representing Pagan Rome.

> "[2] And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority." Revelation 13:2 (KJV).

Pagan Rome gave three things to the Papacy: power, seat, and authority. And the power is marked in history in AD496 when Clovis came into a church/state relationship with the Papacy. And, therefore, because verse 12 says the United States is going to exercise all the power of the first beast before us, then we determine that Clovis is typifying the United States. The United States is going to give its economic and military strength support to the Papacy, just as Clovis did. Okay?

> "[12] And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed." Revelation 13:12 (KJV).

So, in verse 13, then, which is on this side of The Sunday Law now—we are talking on this side of The Sunday Law [indicating to the right of the second waymark of Figure No. 98]—in verse 13 we see a symbol of Satan calling fire down out of heaven in the time period when he is personating Christ; but, Satan is associated with all of these powers. Okay?

> "[13] And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men." Revelation 13:13 (KJV).

We know from Revelation 13 it says if you worship the Papacy, if you worship the Beast, you are worshipping the Dragon. So, the Dragon is closely related to the Papacy.

And, of course, the Dragon in Revelation 12, Sister White tells us is Satan, but in a secondary sense it is Pagan Rome.

> "[1] And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: [2] And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. [3] And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. [4] And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. [5] And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne. [6] And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days. [7] And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, [8] And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. [9] And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. [10] And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. [11] And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. [12] Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. [13] And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. [14] And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. [15] And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. [16] And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. [17] And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." Revelation 12 (KJV).

So, the Dragon, Satan, he is directly, closely connected with spiritualism, the earthly Dragon power which changes as history proceeds; but, he is also closely connected with the Papacy, because if you are worshipping the Papacy you are worshipping Satan. That is what Revelation 13 says.

But, he is also that directly connected with the United States. So, in verse 13 [of Revelation 13] when Sister White says that Satan is going to call fire down out of heaven, and she is quoting Revelation 13:13, she is referencing the time period when he is going to perform his "marvelous works" when he is going to personate Christ, which begins right after The Sunday Law in the United States.

But, also the United States as the False Prophet, as the one that deceives the world to accept this One World Government, the United States has a type of power that it calls down from out of heaven. Okay? And the United States, like all powers, has two aspects: religious, and political. The fire of the United States' political aspect is its military power, calling fire down out of heaven. The religious side of the United States, they rejected the Truth back in 1842, Protestantism did, and they went into darkness; and, the symbol of Protestantism today is the little flame, the Pentecostal Movement calling fire from down out of heaven. So, these symbols are closely related.

So, in verse 13, you see the deception of the United States; and, we are moving in this direction [to the right of the second waymark], down this path.

And then in verse 14, the United States commands the entire world to set up an image of the Beast, and there is only one definition of the image of the beast, and it is a combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship.

> "[14] And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live." Revelation 13:14 (KJV).

And in verse 14 the whole world is being confronted with a One World Government that is made up of the United Nations, the political arm; and, the Papacy, the church, that is ruling over the relationship.

And then in verse 15, it tells us further that the United States is going to have the power to allow this world image of the beast, this One World Government, to speak; and, we know that the speaking of a nation is an action of its legislative and judicial authorities. This is identifying the implementation of the world's Sunday Laws; and, the Death Decree, ultimately.

> "[15] And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed."—

And then on to verse 18, the United States then is forcing the world to receive the mark of the beast, either to-buy-or-sell economics or put-to-death military. The United States here is exercising these two characteristics that are marked in Daniel 11, verse 40, as chariots, ships, and horsemen.

> —"[16] And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: [17] And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. [18] Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six." Revelation 13:15-18 (KJV).

Okay. So, verse 2 of Revelation 13, we have mentioned. This is the first place we can make a connection between the United States and Clovis. The Dragon gave its power to the Papacy in AD496, thus prefiguring the United States giving its military strength to the Papacy in the Ronald Reagan years.

Go to Daniel 8:12. Of course, we are not dealing with Daniel right now. We are not dealing with the Daily. We are not dealing with anything in-depth; but, we are going to make an application on verse 12 without defending everything we are going to say about it, because that would require a broader study.

Verse 12 says in Daniel 8:

> "[12]And an host [MILITARY STRENGTH] was given him . . ."—

This is the female manifestation of the little horn in verse 12. Verse 10, the little horn is female; in verse 9 and verse 11, it is male. When it is male, it is Pagan Rome; when it is female, it is Papal Rome.

In verse 12, it says,

> —"[12]And an host [MILITARY STRENGTH] was given him [GIVEN THE PAPACY] against"—

Now, just to remind yourself, real quick keep your finger in verse 12. We are just going for a second, and go to Daniel 11:24. Daniel 11:24 is speaking about Pagan Rome, and the last phrase says,

> "[24]. . . yea, and he shall [PAGAN ROME SHALL] forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time." Daniel 11:24 (KJV).

If you bust out your Uriah Smith's Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelatio ," he will show you that this Hebrew word that is translated as against here, ". . . [Pagan Rome] shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, . . . ," that Hebrew word against is better translated from. Pagan Rome is going to broadcast its world decisions from its strongholds, the City of Rome. And this is very specific to this phrase, because it says even for a time—and this time is 360 years—and, when Pagan Rome ruled the world from the City of Rome, it was invincible. It was not until the Year AD330 that Constantine divided the kingdom into East and West it began to crumble.

So, understanding this Hebrew word [against] can be translated as from, allows you to see the truth about Pagan Rome, that when it ruled from its stronghold, the City of Rome, it was invincible.

So, if you go back to Daniel 8:12, this is the identical Hebrew word that is translated against in both verses, Daniel 11:24 and Daniel 8:12, that says,

> —"Daniel 8:12 continued And an host [MILITARY STRENGTH] was given . . . [THE PAPACY] [FROM (NOT "AGAINST"); FROM] the daily . . ."—

From Paganism, the former European kings which were the remnants of Pagan Rome that had descended into ten kingdoms. They were Pagans. They were destined to give their military support to the Papacy; therefore, the military support that came to the Papacy, came from those former Pagan armies. It comes > —"[from] the daily ~~sacrifice~~ by reason of transgression, . . ."— Daniel 8:12 in part (KJV).

And the transgression that allows the Papacy to take control of these armies of Pagan Rome is what we call the combination of church and state; and, you need to understand that for the next verse to understand what the transgression of desolation is in verse 13. But, we are not going there.

What I want you to see is that verse 12 is teaching the same thing that Revelation 13:2 is teaching. It is the second witness, that the military strength represented by Clovis (because he was the first of those European kings to come into a church/state relationship with the Papacy in AD496 and dedicate his money and his armies to placing the Papacy on the throne of the Earth), this is what is being marked also here in Daniel 8:12.

So what?

What does that mean? It means that this role of Clovis is identifying the role of the United States. Okay? So, when you see the chariots, ships, and horsemen in Daniel 11, verse 40, you are seeing AD496, when Clovis is coming to the aid of the Papacy; and, AD496 comes before 538. So, there are things that happened before the Papacy is placed upon the throne of the Earth, and it is very clearly marked in God's Word.

And go to Daniel 11:30-31.

It is by looking at the beginning, the time the Papacy was first placed on the throne of the Earth, that we understand the end, the period when the Papacy is finally placed upon the throne of the Earth and Clovis and France are typifying the role of the United States.

In Daniel 11:30, you have the verse that is the very last verse in Daniel 11 that has Pagan Rome as the subject. In verse 31, the subject is going to switch to Papal Rome. The reason for this is that in verse 31 Pagan Rome has a dialogue, a communication, intelligence with the Papacy; and, whenever you decide to sit down and have a communication with the representative of Satan, he takes the ascendency. And here is where the Papacy takes the ascendency.

And in the last part of verse 30, verse 30 says,

> "[30]For the ships of Chittim shall come against him;"—

This is the Second Trumpet. This is Genseric, the Vandals. It places you in the history when the western part of the Roman Empire, is being taken down by the first four Trumpets of Revelation 8 that ultimately turns Western Rome into ten nations by AD476. So, when the ships of Chittim are coming against him here, they are coming against Pagan Rome (Western Rome), in that time period, before AD538, after 330 and, Pagan Rome is no longer having the ability to prevail in warfare because they have left their sanctuary of strength. They left the City of Rome back in AD330.

> "[30]For the ships of Chittim shall come against him [Pagan Rome]; therefore he [PAGAN ROME] shall be grieved, and return"—BACK TO CONSTANTINOPLE, URIAH SMITH TELLS US—"and have indignation against the holy covenant:"—

They carry out a war against God's Word in this history, Smith tells us.

> —"so shall he [Pagan Rome] do; he shall even return [to Constantinople], and have intelligence with them [the Papacy, those] that forsake the holy covenant."—

Those that fell away in fulfillment of 2 Thessalonians, that says there must be a falling away first, in the transition from Pergamos to Thyatira. Pagan Rome has a dialogue with the Papacy in advance of placing it upon the throne of the Earth.

And, of course, we have already looked at this in Daniel 11, verse 40, when Ronald Reagan, typified by the activities of Pagan Rome in this history, when Reagan began to have a dialogue with the man of sin in the Ronald Reagan years. The means that he did so was with the head of the Central Intelligence Committee, and this verse says that he will have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

So, from verse 30 you go to verse 31. Now the subject has changed from Pagan Rome to Papal Rome, and verse 31 says,

> —"[31]And arms shall stand on his part,"—

Military strength is going to stand up for the Papacy. This is Revelation 13:2; this is Daniel 8:12; this is Clovis, the symbol of Clovis, because he began this work; but, this is the United States standing up for the Papacy at the end of the world.

> —"and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,"—

For Pagan Rome in the warfare of the Trumpet time period with the Goths and the Vandals, the point of their attacks was the City of Rome; and, in that history repeatedly the City of Rome was bombarded, overran, and that was Pagan Rome's sanctuary of strength. So, they polluted the sanctuary of strength in that warfare.

But, that is not the sanctuary of strength for the United States. What is it that makes the United States glorious?

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Constitution.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Constitution; that is the source of its strength.

So, the United States is going to pollute the Constitution of the United States.

When does it do that? In verse 41 at The Sunday Law.

> —"and shall take away the daily ~~sacrifice,~~"—

Pagan Rome set aside its profession of the religion of Paganism and changed to Papalism. It is the same religion, different name; different covering, but same religion. But, they set aside Paganism to accept Papalism. And in this history of the United States is finalizing the setting aside of Protestantism. Okay?

The Protestants of the United States, they went into darkness in the Millerite time period when they rejected the First Angel's Message; but, the United States has two aspects, the religious and the political. And the Protestants of the United States, they rejected the message of the hour in the Millerite History; but, the political aspect of the United States begins to reject it in the Ronald Reagan years and, of course, finalizes it at The Sunday Law, at The Sunday Law of the United States: It is fully apostate Protestantism. And what they have done, they have set aside a religion, Protestantism, to accept Catholicism under the pretext of calling it Protestantism and we know it is apostate Protestantism.

And that is what the Pagans of the Roman Empire did. They set aside their profession of Paganism to accept Catholicism. This history is prefiguring our history.

And it says,

> —"and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:30-31 (KJV).

They will be the ones that place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth.

And it is the United States in Revelation 13, verse 14, that tells the world that they must accept this church/state relationship called the "image of the beast," of which the Papacy is in control of it. It is the United States that places the Papacy on the throne of the Earth.

So, when we see the activities of Pagan Rome in terms of placing the Papacy upon the throne of the Earth, they are prefiguring the role of the United States.

Now, go with me, if you would to Daniel 7:8 and 20, one other thing. Daniel 7, verse 8 says,

> "[8]I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things. . . . [20]And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows." Daniel 7:8, 20 (KJV).

The Pagan Rome gave three things to the Papacy (Revelation 13:2): It gave the Papacy its seat in the year AD330; it gave its power to it in the year 496; and, it gave its civil authority to it in 533 with the decree of Justinian. But, Pagan Rome also removed three things—it gives three things and it removes three things—and here we see Pagan Rome in Daniel 7 removing the Heruli, the Ostrogoths, and the Vandals. And the United States is going to participate in overcoming the King of the South, the glorious land, and Egypt. It is going to be the one that actively removes those three obstacles for modern Rome.

So, when you look closely at Pagan Rome, the symbol of which is Clovis and France, you will see that all of their activities are identifying the movements of the United States.

And where do those movements of the United States begin in end-time history? Daniel 11, verse 40, right in this history [indicating on the board the history between the first and second waymarks of Figure No. 98].

TARSHISH

2 Chronicles 9:21-31; 20:35-37 (Psalm 107:23; Proverbs 31:14)

Okay. Now we are going to switch gears. We want to show you, if we can, another symbol of the United States that impacts this study. Go to 2 Chronicles 9:21.

In speaking about Solomon in verse 20, verse 21 says,

> "[21]For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. [22]And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom."
>
> "[23] And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart. [24] And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.
>
> "[25] And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.
>
> "[26] And he reigned over the kings from the river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. [27] And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made has the sycamore trees that are in the low plains in abundance. [28] And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.
> "[29] Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat? [30] And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. [31] And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead." 2 Chronicles 9:21-31 (KJV).

Already in this study—not for this purpose—but already in this study we have identified Solomon as a symbol of the United States. But here the symbol of Solomon's prosperity are the ships of Tarshish—all right?—that bring in the gold and the silver.

And if you go to chapter 20 of 2 Chronicles, verse 35, not speaking of Solomon now, it says,

> "[35]And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly: [36]And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Eziongaber. [37]Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish." 2 Chronicles 20:35-37 (KJV).

The ships of Tarshish are the symbol of economic prosperity; and, when they are broken, the economic prosperity is broken.

Right? Do you see that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Psalm 107:23; we have already gone through this, and we have dealt with the ships of Daniel 11, verse 40. But, in verse 23 of Psalm 107, it says,

> "[23]They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; . . ." Psalm 107:23, in part (KJV).

So, ships in a general sense represent economics.

Proverbs 31:14: Ships represent economics, Proverbs 31:14. I know that we have already covered this here recently; but, we are going to try to make another point out of it.

> "[14]She is like merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar." Proverbs 31:14 (KJV).

Ships are merchant ships.

But, what I want you to see here now with these is that the symbol of the merchant ships, the premier symbol of the merchant ships, is the ships of Tarshish in the Scriptures. I mean, there are a lot of merchant ships. Tarshish is a place, right? So, there are merchant ships from Tarshish, and then there are ships from Korea and merchant ships from Mexico and merchant ships from Canada; but, the premier symbol of the merchant ships is Tarshish.

And in the world, according to Revelation 13, the world is divided into rich and poor, free and bond. The world is rich and poor. So, the part of the world that has the merchant ships is the rich part of the world, what we would call the western world. All right?

And the symbol of economic prosperity is the ships of Tarshish; therefore, who is the "ships of Tarshish"? The United States of America, the glorious land, is the ships of Tarshish. When the ships of Tarshish are brought down, it is talking about the economics structure in the United States being brought down.

And the Bible teaches about the ships of Tarshish being brought down. They get brought down by an East wind.

PUNISHMENT

Go to Isaiah 2.

Speaking about the ships of Tarshish, we are trying to show that the ships of Tarshish, though they represent economics and they are the premier symbol for economic prosperity in the Bible, they are a symbol of the United States.

In Isaiah, chapter 2, you are going to see an elaboration on the Day of the Lord, when the Lord is going to punish God's people, for all mankind, for their pride and exaltation.

> "[1] The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. [2] And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. [3] And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. [4] And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

In verse 5, let us start there.

> "[5]O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD. [6]Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers."—

God's people here at the end of the world are in very bad shape. They are soothsayers. They are into spiritualism. Spiritualism is placing your word above God's Word.

> —"[7]Their land also is full of silver"—THEY ARE LAODICEANS—"and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:" "[8] Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made: [9] And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.
> "[10] Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty. [11] The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day."—

Okay. So, in this condition the Lord begins to tell us how He is going to punish mankind for this condition, and God's people for this condition.

Verse 12:

> —"[12]For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:"—EVERYONE! —"[13]And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, [14]And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up, [15]And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,"—

And in verse 16, it says,

> —"[16]And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures."—

And what I want you to see here, and maybe you will not follow me on this; but, when it comes to the ships of Tarshish, the punishment of the ships of Tarshish is marked in prophecy. Okay? If the ships of Tarshish do represent the United States—AND THEY DO—the punishment of the United States is marked in prophecy.

Now, you know, do you see the punishment of Brazil marked in prophecy? Only in a generic sense, that the Lord is going to punish all of the rebellious human beings at the end; but, what I want you to see is there are certain powers that are such a subject of Bible prophecy that even their punishment is noted. Okay? And the punishment that is meted out against Tarshish is the punishment that is meted out against the United States.

And their punishment begins right here when they pass The Sunday Law [referencing the second waymark on the whiteboard (Figure No. 98)]. We have already read the quotes. Here they have filled the cup of their iniquity to its full; here national apostasy is followed by national ruin; here they go into the greatest darkness of all time.

> —"[17]And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. [18]And the idols he shall utterly abolish. [19]And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. [20]In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats; [21]To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. [22]Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?" Isaiah 2 (KJV).

Notice this next quote—we have read it before—because I want you to see something here, if you will. Manuscript Releases, volume 14, page 162:

"'He had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.'"—

Who is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Uh-huh. It is Daniel 11, verse 40. He had two horns as a lamb (this is 1798), and he spake as a dragon (that is The Sunday Law). This is verse 40 right here [indicating the time period between the first and second waymarks of Figure No. 98].

—"Though professing to be followers of the Lamb of God, men become imbued with the spirit of the dragon. They profess to be meek and humble but they speak and legislate with the spirit of Satan, showing by their actions that they are the opposite of what they profess to be. This lamb-like power"—

Does what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Unites with the Dragon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Unites with the Dragon.

Who is the Dragon?

Well, in our studies we have read from Testimonies to Ministers, page 38, which says, "Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints—with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus." {TM 38.2} So, the United States is destined—the United States, the False Prophet, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —the United States, the False Prophet (Tarshish), is going to unite with the Dragon.

—"This lamb-like power unites with the dragon in making war upon those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. And Satan unites with Protestants and papists, acting in consort with them as the god of this world, dictating to men as if they were the subjects of his kingdom, to be handled and governed and controlled as he pleases." Manuscript Releases, volume 14, 162.

Revelation 19:19-20

And we want to show you this in Revelation 19; but, before we do, go to Revelation 19. I know that you are familiar with this, verse 19 of Revelation 19.

"[19]And I saw the beast,"—

Who is the Beast? That is the Papacy.

—"and the kings of the earth,"—

Who is that? That is the Dragon: kings, governors, and rulers.

—"[19]And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army."—

In verse 19 do you see the False Prophet? You do not see him directly, but he is there because he is united with the Dragon.

As a matter of fact, the actual truth of it that everyone already knows is the military fire power of the United Nations of the Dragon, it is the United States. Fifty percent of the military might of the United Nations is supplied by the United States at this time. What happens when they unite with the United Nations at The Sunday Law?

So, the fire power of the United Nations at the end of the world is going to be the fire power of the United States. They are going to unite.

Okay. The Dragon power of Revelation 17 is how many kings?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And who is the premier king?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, but who is he?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Clovis.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. That will work; but, it is Ahab.

Is not Ahab the king of the ten Northern Tribes, but the premier king is Ahab.

And what did Ahab do wrong?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He married Jezebel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He married Jezebel.

When did he marry Jezebel? At The Sunday Law. At The Sunday Law he marries Jezebel, and he unites with the Dragon and he becomes the premier king of the Ten Kings. Right? He unites with the Dragon.

And we have already read a quote, whether you remember it or not. We did not read it today,[10] but it is in your notes. It is the second quote.

Sister White says that at The Sunday Law the United States joins hands with the Papacy AND joins hands with whom? With Spiritualism, the Dragon.

So, right here at The Sunday Law—at The Sunday Law right here [referencing the second waymark of Figure No. 98]—the United States becomes part of the Dragon power, but he becomes the premier part of the Dragon power. He becomes Ahab; he becomes Tarshish. He is the premier economic flagship; but, he is also the premier military fire power. Do you see it? That happens right here [at The Sunday Law].

[10] Quote from Testimonies, volume 5, 451, has been inserted into this transcript at the beginning of this presentation.

Verse 20:

> ___"Revelation 19:19-20 continued 20 And the beast [THE PAPACY] was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone." Revelation 19:19-20 (KJV).

So, he was still there.

But, this is their punishment. The False Prophet and the Papacy, they are going to be thrown into the lake of fire. Okay?

So, what I am wanting you to see here is the punishment of the United States (the False Prophet) is a subject of prophecy. And when you see that the United States is Tarshish and you see the ships of Tarshish being broken, it is simply part of this punishment of the United States.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

ELIJAH

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I want to show you another history now that is the history of verse 40.

Maybe this does not seem significant to you—or, perhaps it does. I do not know. Maybe you do not understand why this is worth dwelling on as much as I have. But, verse 40 is the history of 1798 to The Sunday Law.

Revelation 13:11 is the history of 1798 to The Sunday Law.

The story of Elijah and Carmel is the story of 1798.

And when does the story of Carmel begin? Where is the Time of the End in the story of Elijah and Carmel? It is at the end of the three and a half years of drought. Right?

And what are these three and a half years of drought? It is the 1260 years of Papal rule that ended in 1798.

Who was ruling during the drought time period? Who was killing the prophets?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Several responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, Ahab was, but he was doing it at the direction of Jezebel. Correct?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, this is 1798, is it not?

Who appears here in 1798?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Elijah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Elijah.

And Elijah is going to bring Ahab; and, who all comes to Carmel, Ahab and who else? The prophets of Baal.

Is Jezebel there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: She is behind the scene. She is off in Samaria.

So, you have the sprinkling beginning. Elijah announces that this is going to take place, "as sure as the Lord stands before me." And if the Lord is standing before Elijah, that means the Lord came down, empowering his message. And they came to Carmel and there was a measuring that takes place as Elijah sends them to get 12 buckets of water and pouring it upon his offering.

And, finally, fire comes down out of Heaven; and, of course, this is the Midnight Cry in the time period of the Millerites. It is the Triumphal Entry in the time period of Christ.

What is happening right here [referencing just before the second waymark of Figure No. 99]? What is happening when the fire is coming down out of Heaven and illuminating the 12 stones? There is a distinction being made between the true prophet and the false prophet.

So, in our history, what is happening here?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The ensign.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The ensign is beginning to be lifted up and separated from the tares in Adventism, and it will be demonstrated at The Sunday Law.

And what is The Sunday Law in the story of Elijah? What happens at The Sunday Law in the story of Elijah? What do they do that represents Judgment?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They take the prophets of Baal and they kill them.

Who are the prophets of Baal in relation to Elijah?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: False prophets.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are the false prophet. Elijah is the true prophet.

So, where does the False Prophet end? Right here [indicating The Sunday Law in Figure No. 99]. The False Prophet ends.

The False Prophet ends [indicating The Sunday Law in Figure No. 98].

Because, right here the United States is going to unite with the Dragon. Okay?

This is the story of the False Prophet [indicating Figure No. 99]. This is the story of the United States from 1798, when it is the sixth kingdom of Bible prophecy, until it ends [indicating The Sunday Law]; and the seventh kingdom of Bible prophecy, which is the kingdom of the Dragon (the Ten Kings), starts. And the United States is the False Prophet. It ends right there. It dies. The False Prophet is gone: now, it is going to unite with the Dragon power and become who?

Who does the United States become right here [at The Sunday Law], rather than the False Prophet?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ahab.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ahab; he becomes Ahab. He becomes the premier leader of the Ten Kings. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. What I am saying is that this story of Elijah is the story of 1798 until The Sunday Law. The story of Carmel is 1798 until The Sunday Law.

It is the same history as Daniel 11, verse 40, and Revelation 13:11. Do you see it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

THE DRAGON

THE DRAGON MOVES

Revelation 12; The Garden of Eden, the Tower of Babel; Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7 Babylon; Revelation 2:12-13; Daniel 7:7-8, 19-21; Luke 10:18; John 12:12-33; 16:-14; Zechariah 3; Daniel 11:40-42; Revelation 17:10-14; 17; Psalm 83:1-8; 48:1-8

In your notes you have "The Dragon." We are not going to go through these. I am just going to tell you these things. I have told you them before.

But, the Dragon in Bible prophecy . . .

And the reason I am doing this, Brothers and Sisters, is because I want us to see that the three powers that lead the world to Armageddon are the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet; and, when they begin to lead the world to Armageddon, their starting point is marked in the Scriptures. Where they start the work of leading the world to Armageddon is in Daniel 11, verse 40. And you need to be able to see the Dragon in verse 40 (that is the King of the South, both atheistic France and the Soviet Union); you need to be able to see the False Prophet (that is the United States as represented as the chariots and horsemen and the ships: military and economics strength); and, you need to see the King of the North [the Papacy] as the Beast. The Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet are going to lead the whole world between the seas and the glorious holy mountain and then he is going to come to his end and none shall help. They are going to lead the whole world to Armageddon.

And we read a quote in here in worship that says that the Sixth Plague is a warning that we need to understand. But, why do we need to understand a warning in the Sixth Plague: probation has already closed five Plagues earlier? Because, there is a work that is accomplished by the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet that leads the world to Armageddon while probation is still open, and we need to understand that work. And what I am telling you, if you are going to understand it is you need to understand that their movements towards Armageddon begins in Daniel 11, verse 40.

When it comes to the Dragon power, one of the characteristics that is marked in Scripture that needs to be recognized is that he is the one that moves.

So, you see in your notes under "The Dragon Moves," Revelation 12: The dragon is cast out of Heaven, after he initiates the Great Controversy.

Then we find him in the Garden of Eden seducing Adam and Eve.

Then he is there at the Tower of Babel, though he is not specifically marked; but, was Satan the one that was leading Nimrod and his cohorts? He is there at the Tower of Babel. We know that.

Then we have the story of Job. I am not too sure where that actually fits into the history between Nimrod and Nebuchadnezzar; but, we have the story of Job which tells us that Satan has become the leader of the Earth, once he overcame Adam, and has the right to go into these special councils with the sons of God.

And then we see him in Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar is Babylon.

And historians tell us that when Babylon fell, the Chaldeans, the religious elite of Babylon, they fled to Pergamos. And sure enough, in Revelation 2, it tells us that Satan's seat now is in Pergamos. So, he has come from Heaven, to Eden, to Babel, to Babylon, to Pergamos.

And then when Pagan Rome begins to conquer the world, its practice was that if you find a new Pagan religion that is not worshipped already in Rome, then bring it back to Rome. So, when they captured Pergamos, they take the Chaldeans in Pergamos, along with their religious idols and relics, and they bring them back to Rome and they build them their own little room in the Pantheon Temple in the City of Rome. So, now the Dragon has moved from Pergamos to the City of Rome.

But we know what happened to Rome. It disintegrated into ten nations, and all those nations are Dragon nations.

If you want to know why the Europeans have a different mindset about what is going on in the world today with Islam and the financials, it is because their culture, their background, their DNA is that they are Dragons. Okay? The United States are Protestants. And if you do not understand the distinct difference in that, then you are missing something; because, in the—what would it be?—in the 19th Century, the famous authors—you know, the people like Mark Twain and that type of history—when they wrote about Catholicism in those years, they pointed out a distinct difference between Catholicism and Protestantism, so much so that they would say that in towns you could go to the Protestant side of the town and it is clean and it is orderly and prosperous; and, you could cross one street into the Catholic side of town and it is dirty and [there is] poverty and messy. The culture of Catholicism has an impact on those people that are raised in Catholicism, just like the culture of the Dragon has an impact on those people that are raised in that culture. That is Europeans: they are the Dragons.

We are Protestants; we are Protestants here in the United States. We have a different thing. It is an actual fact that people outside of Christianity note. They do not talk so much about the Dragon, but they know the difference between Catholicism and Protestantism.

So, in Daniel 7 we see the Dragon divided into ten parts.

Then in Luke 10 and John you see that at the cross, which is in the time period of Pagan Rome, Satan is totally banished from Heaven. He has closed his door to any access by the crucifixion of Christ.

But, then we see an illustration of Satan right there in the Investigative Judgment, in the Judgment of the Living, in Zachariah 3.

And then we see Satan also in this same fuzzy time period in Daniel 11, verse 40; and, in 1798 he is Egypt; he is atheistic France.

In 1989, in this time period here [between the first and second waymarks of Figure No. 98], the Dragon has moved from atheistic France to the new king of atheism, the Soviet Union. And when Ronald Reagan and the Pope brought down the Soviet Union, they did so by making Gorbachev come and bow before the Pope, which he did, and then he immediately took a job in the United Nations, and he still holds that job to this very day; because, the Dragon moves.

See, here is my point: When it comes to the Dragon power, Scripture is very specific to tell us that he moves. So, for me to suggest to you that the King of the South in verse 40 is the Dragon power, but in the beginning of the verse in 1798 he is atheistic France and then at the end of the verse he is the Soviet Union, that causes some people to think, "Oh, I don't get that. That seems kind of convoluted that they are changing it." But, not really! It is actually an evidence to the strength to what we are saying, because the Dragon power moves in prophecy. The fact that he is moving, slithering, winding through history is one of his characteristics. And the fact that we are saying from the Soviet Union he moves to the United Nations (to Egypt) in verse 42, that should not cause anyone distress; it should show that we are employing the symbol as the symbol has been identified in God's Word.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

1798 UNTIL THE SUNDAY LAW—DANIEL 11:40 & REVELATION 13:11

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, in the next part of your notes, this is what we are dealing with. 1798 to The Sunday Law is verse 40 of Daniel, and it is Revelation 13:11. You have the quote that I referenced earlier, that when the Papacy was robbed of its strength in 1798, the lamb-like beast comes into history.

Signs of the Times, November 1, 1899:

> "And when the Papacy, robbed of its strength, was forced to desist from persecution, John beheld a new power coming up to echo the dragon's voice, and carry forward the same cruel and blasphemous work. This power, the last that is to wage war against the church and the law of God, was symbolized by a beast with lamblike horns." Signs of the Times, November 1, 1899.

So, what am I saying here? What I am saying here now is that we are dealing with verse 40 of Daniel, 1989, which is when the Dirt Brush Man comes in and begins to clean up the mess of the seven scatterings of William Miller's dream.

And I am saying that Daniel 11:40 is the same history as Revelation 13:11; but, I am saying it is the same history as Elijah, and I am going to give you one more history, a fourth history.

ISAIAH 23

Fornication – Revelation 17:1-2
What City? – Isaiah 23 (Revelation 17-18)
The Latter Rain – James 5
Ezekiel 27, 28
Isaiah 27:1-9, (10-13)

The first one of Isaiah 23: "The burden of Tyre . . . ," let us first identify who Tyre is. Drop down to verse 15.

"[15]And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, . . ."—

Okay. This is the line of Tyre. And Tyre is going to be forgotten 70 years. Whoever Tyre is, it is going to be forgotten for 70 years.

> —"[15]And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king:"—

All right. There is your definition of what 70 years is, because this is the end of the world; and, at the end of the world after 1844 there is no more time prophecy. These 70 years is a symbol, and it is defined in the verse that this 70 years represents the days of one king. And Daniel 2 tells us that a king is a kingdom. These 70 years represents the time of one kingdom.

And, of course, what I am saying is that the kingdom that it represents is the kingdom that came into history in 1798, the United States. But, the 70 years represents the days of one kingdom; so, it only goes until that kingdom ends, and that kingdom ends at The Sunday Law. That is what I am saying here, is that this is the 70 years of Tyre, and the one king is the United States (USA); and, this is the time period of the United States, 1798 until The Sunday Law.

Verse 15, to finish it off:

> —"after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot." Isaiah 23:15 (KJV).

What do you have to do to be a harlot? You have to commit fornication.

She has not committed fornication prophetically since 1798; she has been forgotten. But, at the end of this time period, she is going to commit fornication.

Who is she going to commit fornication with?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: With Ahab, right here, the United States. At the end of the 70 years, she is going to commit fornication with the United States, and then she is going to go out to the whole world and say, "I want to commit fornication with you."

Notice verse 16.

> "[16]Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.
> "[17]And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth."—

Who is it that commits fornication with all the kingdoms of the Earth?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the Papacy. That is Revelation 17.

—"[18]And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing." Isaiah 23:16-18 (KJV).

Saying that in this time period [after The Sunday Law], the eleventh-hour workers are going to finance the Gospel.

But, what we are saying is that Tyre is going to be forgotten from 1798 until The Sunday Law. At The Sunday Law she is going to commit fornication with Ahab, with the United States. The United States is going to bow to her. Then she is going to go out and commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the Earth, because the United States is going to unite with the Dragon. It is going to unite with those other kings.

Okay. So, let us go back to verse 1 [of Isaiah].

"[1]The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish:"—

Oh, the burden of Tyre has to do with the ships of Tarshish howling. The story of the Papacy has some connection with the ships of Tarshish.

Who is the ships of Tarshish? It is the United States, and it is the economic structure of the world. Okay? You take the economics from the United States and you throw them away, and the economics of the world go with it.

But, something about the economics causes someone to howl.

—"Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them."—

The destruction of the financial structure of the United States and the world that is part of the story of the harlot Tyre (part of the story of the Papacy) is revealed to us from Chittim.

What is Chittim? That is the Second Trumpet. We have already dealt with that, Daniel 11, verse 30.

Whatever is going to make the ships of Tarshish howl, we will understand what it is if we understand the message of the Trumpets. It is a Trumpet power that makes them howl. It is a Trumpet power that brings down the economics structure of the world.

And of the Trumpet powers, there are six that we are familiar with. We are not so familiar with the final Trumpet of the Third Woe. But of the first six Trumpet powers, which one of them was the champion of the seas?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Number 2.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Number 2: Genseric; he launched his attack from Cyprus which, in the time of the Old Testament was called Chittim.

So, this Trumpet power is the Trumpet power that is going to bring down the ships. Okay? That is the relationship there.

Verse 2:

—"[2]Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. [3]And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations. [4]Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins. [5]As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre. [6]Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle. [7]Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days?"—

What is a city?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A kingdom.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A kingdom.

Is this a joyous kingdom?

—"her own feet"—

This kingdom, what is this kingdom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is a woman.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is a woman. This is the kingdom that is a woman.

—"her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn. [8]Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city,"—

What is the crown? It is identifying who is in charge of this.

Who is in charge of this kingdom? Jezebel (the Papacy; Tyre).

—"[8]Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth [THE GLOBALISTS, THE UNITED NATIONS]? [9]The LORD of hosts has purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth. [10]Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength [ECONOMIC STRUCTURE IS GONE]. [11]He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof. [12]And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest. [13]Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers [CHURCHES] thereof, they raised up the palaces [STATES] thereof;"—

The Assyrians founded church and state.

—"and he brought it to ruin."—

The Lord brought that tower down of Nimrod.

Verse 14:

—"[14]Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

"[15]And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: . . ." Isaiah 23:1-15 (KJV).

In what day?

In this history here [Figure No. 100], in this 70 years, in this time period it shall come to pass that the ships of Tarshish shall begin to sink, before it is over [at The Sunday Law]. It shall come to pass in that day.

Do you follow this line? It is pretty easy to follow this line, is it not?

Okay. So, what are we saying? We are saying that Tarshish represent the economic strength of the world and that the premier example of the economic merchant is the United States; and, that Bible prophecy teaches it is an East wind that brings down the ships of Tarshish, and we understand that to be Islam. But, we are not there at this point.

But, before this 70 years is over, the sinking of the ships of Tarshish begins.

And, if you remember down here [Figure No. 98], we have already brought in two histories to establish the long, drawn-out war between the King of the South and the King of the North in verse 40 of Daniel. For a war that went for 200 years, we went back into the story of Josiah and the Battle of Carchemish that began in the time period of Josiah, when Egypt (the King of the South) pushed against Assyria (the King of the North). But, it was not until three kings later—I believe it was three kings later—when the King of the North (Nebuchadnezzar) came and defeated Pharaohnecho in a long, drawn-out war.

In this story [Figure No. 98], we see that Josiah represents the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church that would not accept the warning message of Daniel 11, verse 40, when Pharaohnecho said, "Don't start getting involved in this battle." And he went and got involved with it anyway.

And where did Josiah die?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He died in Megiddo.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He died in Megiddo, and Megiddo is a subject of Daniel 11, verse 40 to 45. It is the place between the seas and the glorious holy mountain.

So, we have reasons to stick the story of Josiah there in this history of verse 40.

And we had reason to stick into this history Chosroes. You remember that story; a long, drawn-out war between the King of the South and the King of the North is this history. This is a long, drawn-out war that initially the Persians, they push against Rome and they prevailed; but, ultimately, Rome returns and retaliates against the Persians and wipes them out. But, Rome and the Persians, they are both weak at that point. They have used all their capital.

And what does this line (Chosroes) of prophecy tell us? This is what allows Islam to come into history.

And what does Islam do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It attacks the financial structure.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It attacks the ships of Tarshish and begins the sinking of the economic structure of Planet Earth by attacking the United States (Tarshish), leading to The Sunday Law, where the United States (Ahab) will enter into an unlawful relationship with Jezebel and unite with the kings of the Earth; and, the United States becomes Ahab, and the False Prophet dies right here at The Sunday Law [referencing the second waymark of Figure No. 99].

But, you really cannot see this if you are not using the structure of Daniel 11, verse 40, to set it up; because, Daniel 11, verse 40, it is one of the most profound verses in God's Word. It just is for a million different ways that I certainly do not know! And it is just amazing to me that Seventh-day Adventists are unwilling to wrap their minds around these truths; because, this truth, verse 40 of Daniel . . .

What is verse 40 of Daniel telling you, Brothers and Sisters? Probation is about to close, probation is about to close.

Ezekiel 27

Okay. I did not quite get through, but I want to show one more thing just to bring this presentation to an end, to have this part finalized.

Ezekiel 27: When it comes to the ships of Tarshish, I want to put it in the record that it is the East wind that brings them down.

Verse 25 of Ezekiel 27—the Lord willing, we will deal with this chapter more fully, and chapter 28 in connection with it.

But verse 25 says,

> "[25]The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

> "[26]Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas." Ezekiel 27:25-26 (KJV).

What brings the ships of Tarshish down is an East wind; and, we are going to, of course, at some point in time show you that the East wind of Bible prophecy is Islam.

But, go to Psalm 48, so we can put this in the record for those who are not familiar with it, Psalm 48:4. It says,

> "[4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together."—

Who are the kings? All the prophets are speaking about the end of the world. This is the Ten Kings of Revelation 17. This is the Dragon power.

> "[4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. [5]They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away. [6]Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail. [7]Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind." Psalm 48:4-7 (KJV).

There is your second witness that the economic structure of the United States and therefore the world is brought down by an East wind, and that this is what causes the kings of the Earth to weep and howl. And you need to know why they are weeping and howling if you are going to understand why they are weeping and howling in Revelation 18; because, it is the same story.

And when they are weeping and howling in Revelation 18, what do they say three times? They say, "Alas! Alas! Alas!" The ships of Tarshish have been broken by an East wind, but that word that is translated Alas in Revelation 8:13, that same Greek word is translated as Woe, Woe, Woe; and it represents the Woes of the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Trumpets. And if the First Woe was Islam and the Second Woe was Islam, a child can understand that the Third Woe is Islam. It is the East wind, and the East wind arrives before The Sunday Law, based upon Isaiah 23 and the story of Chosroes. Verse 40 includes September 11, 2001.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for opening your Word to our understanding. And we know that there is a church, our church, that is in darkness concerning these things and that it is your will that they be warned. Whether they will accept it or not, they need to hear the message in order to be held accountable for rejecting it, if they choose to reject it. But, we are hoping that they would receive it; but, they cannot receive it unless we give it, so we pray that you would open doors for each of us this day to have a divine appointment with someone, whether Adventist or non-Adventist that we can practice the art of winningly sharing this message with those on Planet Earth that do not understand that Probation is about to close and that the end of the world is coming at us with blinding speed. We thank you for the work that you began yesterday here with presentations by Pastor Sankey. We ask that you continue to bless this week on work both with the recordings and with the LiveStreaming, and we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #52

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we ask that you be with us here as we open your Word this morning. We solicit the presence of your Holy Spirit in each of our hearts and minds. We ask that you take control of this presentation that it might be of such a nature as to honor and glorify you and edify your people. We ask that you would overrule my humanity and the humanity of those that are hearing this that we might be prepared to deliver a message and receive a message that comes from your Throne Room that is purified from a coal out of the altar. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. We ask that you would do that at this time by opening our understanding to the significance of Daniel 11, 1989, and the story of the Dirt Brush Man. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are dealing with Daniel 11, verse 40, in connection with this collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, marking the Time of the End for the 144,000, and also marking the end of William Miller's scattering in his dream when the Dirt Brush Man (the Lion of the tribe of Judah) comes and begins to unseal the prophetic testing message for this final generation.

And we have been spending some time identifying the significance of Daniel 11, verse 40.

Daniel 11:14

If you would, turn to Daniel 11, verse 14. We are going to put some other things in context.

This is an assumption on my part: Most Seventh-day Adventists do not understand that the Millerite History is going to be repeated to the very letter. Many in Adventism that have heard it presented that the Millerite History is going to be repeated to the very letter reject that principle. Then, those of us that believe that the Millerite History is going to be repeated to the very letter, we probably have different degrees of understanding in terms of what the "very letter" is; but, the more closely you look at the Millerite History, the more closely you realize, "to the very letter" means virtually every specific item that was addressed and identified in the historical record of the Millerites is to be repeated.

On these two sacred Charts behind us [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts], you see up here, this "164" [located in the middle of the 1843 Chart], and it is listed over here too—well, it is referenced "158" there [referring to the 1850 Chart);—but, here [going back to the 1843 Chart] where it says "164," it says, "Death of Antiochus Epiphanes, who of course, stood not up against the Prince of Princes as he had been 164 yrs. dead before the prince of princes [stet] was born." So, the point is, on this [1843] Chart here, you have a reference to Antiochus Epiphany, even though the argument of the Millerites of Antiochus Epiphanes is not mentioned in God's Word.

So, why is it, if the Millerites believed it was part of their position that Antiochus Epiphany is not even mentioned in God's Word, do they have him on the Chart? The reason that they have him on the Chart is this was one of the primary arguments of their history. Okay?

This was one of the battlegrounds that they had to deal with, with the Protestants that were rejecting the message; because, the Protestants, through their method of interpreting the Bible concludes that Antiochus Epiphanes is the one in history that represents the antichrist; and, the Millerites knew better. The Millerites knew that the Pope of Rome was the antichrist of Bible prophecy; so, in the areas of Bible prophecy where the antichrist is being identified, the Millerites had to bump heads with the Protestants concerning who the antichrist was, and the argument they always met was that it was Antiochus Epiphanes.

In Daniel 11, verse 14—and, of course, Daniel's last vision is Daniel 10, 11 and 12—and in verse 14 you have a key to understand Daniel's last vision. It says,

> "[14]And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall." Daniel 11:14 (KJV).

Whoever the "robbers" of the vision are, whatever the robbers of the people, God's people, are—"the robbers of thy people" are—they are the prophetic symbol that establishes Daniel's last vision. They establish the vision. And whoever they are, one of their characteristics in prophecy is that they fall and that they are the robbers of Daniel's people.

So, I am going to read here a passage from William Miller. So, he is going to describe how he understands verse 14.

> And, let us get started, William Miller, Willia Miller's Works, volume 2, page 89.
> "Need I, then, tell my hearers that history tells us that Alexander conquered the then known world in about six years, and that he died 323 years B. C. at Babylon; that his kingdom was divided among his greatest generals, from which division arose four great kingdoms, Egypt in the south, Persia in the east, Syria in the north, and Macedonia in the west, which kingdoms lasted until conquered by the Romans? Between the years 190 and 30 B. C. nearly all these kingdoms became Roman provinces. From Daniel 11:5, 13, inclusive, we have a prophecy of the two principal kingdoms out of these four—Egypt and Syria;"—

And we would be calling them the King of the South and the King of the North.

> —"Egypt and Syria; and anyone who may have the curiosity to see the exact agreement between the prophecy and history, can read Rolli's A ie t History, where he has not only given us the history, but applied this prophecy. And as I see no reason to disagree from him in his application of these texts, I shall, therefore, for brevity's sake, pass over these texts, and examine the text, Daniel 11:14, 'And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south;"—

Who is the King of the South?

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible response.)
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: The king of Egypt.

—"'And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south; also, the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.' The king of the south, in this verse, without any doubt, means king of Egypt; but what the robbers of thy people means remains yet a doubt perhaps to some."—

Now, here he goes. There are a lot of disagreements with what William Miller presented; but, in his historical record there are very few of those historical disagreements that he marks. So, the fact that Providentially this part of his history is in the record, if you believe that the Millerite History is going to be repeated to the very letter, then this is identifying that this will be a controversial subject here at the end of the world, just as it was a controversial subject in the time of William Miller.

So,

—"The king of the south, in this verse, without any doubt, means king of Egypt; but what the robbers of thy people means remains yet a doubt perhaps to some. That it cannot mean Antiochus, or any king of Syria, it is plain;—

In our terminology today, when he is talking about the king of Syria, how would we define them?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The kings of Greece. The King of the North, they are controlling Babylon and they are controlling Syria; but, this is the end of Alexander the Great's kingdom—all right?—when you get to the time period of Antiochus.

—"That it cannot mean Antiochus, or any king of Syria, it is plain; for the angel had been talking about that nation for a number of verses previous, and now says, 'also'—ALSO—'the robbers of thy people,' etc., evidently implying some other nation. I will admit that Antiochus did perhaps rob the Jews; but how could this 'establish the vision,' as Antiochus is not spoken of anywhere in the vision as performing any act of that kind; for he belonged to what is called the Grecian kingdom in the vision. Again, 'to establish the vision,' must mean to make sure, complete, or fulfill the same. And if it cannot be shown that the Grecian kingdom was to rob the people of God, I think it must mean some other nation which would do these acts, to which every word will apply. And to this we need not be at a loss; for at this very time of which the angel is speaking, Rome, the least kingdom in Daniel's vision, did exalt itself, and this kingdom did have the very marks in the vision, and in the events following. This kingdom was to have great iron teeth; it was to break in pieces, and stamp the residue with the feet of it. The vision also says, 'He shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and holy people, and that he should magnify himself,' etc., the same as exalt himself, Daniel 7:7, 23; 8:10–12, 24, 25 verses. And it cannot be denied but that the Jews have been robbed of their city and sanctuary by the Romans, and the Christian church has been persecuted and robbed by this dreadful beast, the Roman kingdom. It is evident too that when this kingdom falls, the vision will be completed, fulfilled, established: 'but they shall > fall,' says the angel in the verse under our present examination; 'they shall fall;' that is, the ten horns in this fourth kingdom, when the vision is fulfilled or established, and when the stone cut out of the mountain without hands shall grind them to powder. We will take the 15th, 'So the king of the north' (Rome is now the king of the north, because they had conquered the Macedonian kingdom, and had become masters of the countries north and east before they attacked Egypt) 'shall come up and cast up a mount,'"—

Now, I disagree with William Miller right here on verse 15, but that is okay. All right? We are not dealing with that. We are dealing with "the robbers of thy people" in verse 14.

> —"'shall come up and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities; and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.' This was about fifty years before Christ, when Pompey, a Roman general, conquered Egypt, and made that kingdom tributary to the Romans, and afterwards entered Jerusalem, and made them subjects of the Roman government.'" William Miller, Willia Miller's Works, volume 2, 89.

Okay. What am I saying? I am saying here that because the Millerite History is going to be repeated to the very letter, and because there were just a very few controversies over the prophetic message of the Millerites recorded Providentially in that history, it is of interest that this is one of the controversies that they bumped heads with the Protestants over, and so much so that they actually mark it on this sacred [1843] Chart. This is on the Chart not because of Bible prophecy but because of the controversy that took place in the Millerite History. Okay? So, that seems of significance.

And years ago we had a meeting where a man from the General Conference was selected that he either did his Masters' thesis or his Doctoral thesis on the last six verses of Daniel 11, and he was asked to come and present that thesis in Oklahoma, and he would speak for 45 minutes on the last six verses of Daniel 11, and then he would answer questions for half an hour; and, then I would get up and do what I understood what the last six verses of Daniel 11 to be for 45 minutes, and then answering questions for half of an hour. The audience was there was by invitation only: half of them were General Conference employees; half were self-supporting ministries.

And this guy was wrong. His thesis, whether it was Masters or Doctoral, was wrong; and, under the pressure of investigation, his thesis crumbled in front of everyone that wanted to see it crumble, and he went home early. He gave up; but, that is not the story.

The story is, is that for me the story was that I had never realized this about Antiochus Epiphanes, this part where William Miller comments on him. And about a week or two before that meeting, I had come across this and thought, "Wow, that's interesting. I don't know what it means."

And when this General Conference man was giving his presentation on verse 14, I had just learned this—and his presentation is recorded; you can go listen to it—is he began to tell everybody how verse 14 was Antiochus Epiphanes. And that is when I realized—without even close to fully understanding it, I did not realize that we had switched to the Protestant and Catholic interpretation of the Bible in the 1930s. At that time I did not understand that; but, I did understand in that meeting, without understanding the change that had taken place when we set aside the proof-texting method of William Miller in the 1930s and adopted this apostate Protestant approach to Scriptures, without understanding that history I understood that this guy, whatever Biblical interpretation he was using, he was coming to the identical conclusion that the Protestants came to way back when in the Millerite History.

So, maybe you are not familiar with verse 14; maybe you do not understand that it was such a controversy in the Millerite History that it actually finds a place on the 1843 Chart; and, maybe you are not prepared to think that this is something that is prefiguring a controversy that will take place in Adventism at the end of the world when the Millerite History is repeated; but, it is. Okay? It is a symbol of the two types of prophetic study, of Biblical study that exists here at the end of the world.

And when it comes to Daniel's last vision, this is the vision. This is the vision.

Daniel 10:14

Okay. Go to chapter 10 of Daniel, which is the same vision, verse 14.
It says,

> "Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days." Daniel 10:14 (KJV).

The same vision here.

So, what is this vision? It is the vision about what happens to God's people at the end of the world. Right? That is what Gabriel just told Daniel in verse 14.

And if you want to know what happens to God's people at the end of the world, what does this vision tell you is the primary symbol to understand it? Daniel 11, verse 14: Rome establishes the vision.

If you are going to understand this vision that is explaining what happens to God's people at the end of the world, then what establishes this vision is Rome; and, it is so important that Satan makes sure that every time this subject gets brought up, in the Millerite History and in our history, that he is there, that Satan is there to argue, "Oh, this isn't Rome. This is Antiochus Epiphanes. I don't want you to understand this one. I don't want you to understand that this is Rome that establishes Daniel's last vision."

Okay. That is the kind of controversy we are dealing with.

So, when it comes to rightly understand the last six verses of Daniel 11, we are going to follow William Miller and say that we need to understand Rome to the fullest extent if we are going to understand this vision to the fullest extent.

I am going a certain direction, even if you do not understand yet.

In your notes, Uriah Smith: I want to show you something about Rome, which probably most of you already know but we are going to put it in the record.

In this worship series, we have more than once established that when it comes to the Dragon power, there is a number associated with the Dragon power. What is that number?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay, 10. When you see the number 10, you are seeing the Dragon Power referenced.

And with the Beast (with the Papacy, with the King of the North, the antichrist, with the man of sin) there are certain numbers associated with him as well—okay?—two, the number 2. He is divided: East and West. He is about church and state. He is about the Roman church being in Western Rome, and the political center being in Constantinople. So, in Rome you see it divided in two.

But, you also see Rome divided in three. So, we want to look at this threefold division of Rome; and, we will jump ahead with Uriah Smith into Revelation, chapters 8 and 9, dealing with the Trumpets. And this is from Uriah Smith from Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, page 280.

> "The time appointed is probably the prophetic time of verse 24,"—

We have looked at that.

> —"which has been previously mentioned. It closed, as already shown, in A.D.330, at which time this power was to return and come again toward the south, but not as on the former occasion, when it went to Egypt, nor as the latter, when it went to Judea. Those were expeditions which resulted in conquest and glory. This one led to demoralization and ruin. The removal of the seat of empire to Constantinople was the signal for the downfall of the empire."—

What happened right then? The kingdom was divided into East and West.

> —"Rome then lost its prestige. The western division was exposed to the incursions of foreign enemies. On the death of Constantine, the Roman empire was divided into"—

Into what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Into three parts.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"into three parts,"—

Okay. Rome is divided into three parts. That is what we have been looking at for the past couple of days, is that modern Rome is divided into how many parts?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Three parts.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Three parts: the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. And those three powers are going to lead the world to Armageddon, and those three powers are to begin their march to Armageddon where? In Daniel 11, verse 40.

And all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world; so, when we see Ancient Rome divided into three parts, what are those prophecies of Ancient Rome pointing forward to? The threefold division of spiritual Rome at the end of the world: the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

> —"the Roman empire was divided into three parts, between his three sons, Constantius, Constantine II, and Constans. Constantine II and Constans quarreled, and Constans, being victor, gained the supremacy of the whole West. He was soon slain by one of his commanders, who, in turn, was shortly after defeated by the surviving emperor, and in despair ended his own days, A.D.353. The barbarians of the North now began their incursions, and extended their conquests till the imperial power of the West expired in A.D.476.

"This was indeed different from the two former movements brought to view in the prophecy; and to this the fatal step of removing the seat of empire from Rome to Constantinople directly led." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 280.

Now, commenting on a different aspect, Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, page 487, says, after he quotes verse 12 of Revelation 8:

"'VERSE 12. And the fourth angel wounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.'

"We understand that this trumpet symbolizes the career of Odoacer, the barbarian monarch who was so intimately connected with the downfall of Western Rome. The symbols sun, moon, and stars—for they are undoubtedly here used as symbols—evidently denote the great luminaries of the Roman government,—its emperors, senators, and consuls."—

So, when Constantine moves to the Eastern empire, he divides Rome into three parts with his three sons; but, in the Western empire, there is a division noted in Scriptures connected with the government that Rome sets up. The emperors, the senators, and the consuls are "the sun," "the moon," and "the stars." And then as you watch the description in the Trumpets of the demise of Western Rome, you watch the sun, and the moon, and the stars be extinguished in a specific order.

—"Bishop Newton remarks that the last emperor of Western Rome was Romulus, who in derision was called Augustulus, or the 'diminutive Augustus.' Western Rome fell A.D. 476. Still, however, though the Roman sun was extinguished, its subordinate luminaries shone faintly while the senate and consuls continued. But after many civil reverses and changes of political fortune, at length, A.D. 566, the whole form of the ancient government was subverted, and Rome itself was reduced from being the empress of the world to a poor dukedom tributary to the Exarch of Ravenna." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 487.

So, what am I saying? I am saying that I am just giving you a second argument here that all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world; all the prophecies are speaking about the end of the world; and, at the end of the world Rome is divided into three parts. It was divided into three parts anciently; and, at the end of the world it is divided into three parts in Revelation 16, and we need to understand what these three parts are because they are the parts that lead the world to Armageddon.

We have read this next quote before, Manuscript Release, number 17, page 18.

"God has warned His people of the perils before them. John beholds the things which will be in the last days, and he sees a people working counter to > God. Read Revelation 12:17; 14:10–13, and chapters 17 and 13. John sees the company who have been deceived. He says,"—

And then Ellen White quotes from Revelation 16, mentioning the Dragon, the Beast, and the False Prophet:

> —"'I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty."—

And then she quotes Revelation 16, also, the warning message that is given in the Sixth Plague. After probation has closed, there is a warning messages that says, > —"Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.'" Manuscript Release, number 17, 18.

There is a warning message in the Sixth Plague that you and I need to understand before, long before, the Sixth Plague arrives; because, if you wait until the Sixth Plague to try to get the Righteousness of Christ upon you, it is far too late to do so. You have to have that before the First Plague. You have to have it before Michael stands up. As a Seventh-day Adventist, you have to have it before The Sunday Law in the United States.

So, what is this warning about the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet?

The warning, of course, is to understand the last six verses of Daniel 11, because that is where the beginning of the movements of these three powers start; and, if you are not watching them start, they are going to overtake you as a snare.

This next quote, Bible Training School, December 1, 1902, says,

> "The powers of Satan are mustering for battle. Stern conflicts are before us. Press together, my brethren and sisters, press together. Bind up with Christ. 'Say ye not, A Confederacy;'"—

This confederacy here that Sister White is quoting from is the confederacy of Isaiah 8, and Isaiah 8 is the same vision of Isaiah 7; and, Isaiah 7 is the message that is given to Isaiah once he is confronted with the mareh vision in chapter 6 and humbled in the dust, and then purified and prepared to give a message; and, then Isaiah 7 tells us what the message is, and it moves right on into Isaiah 8. And then Isaiah 8, part of the warning message of the 2520 is to not enter into a confederacy, and this confederacy is the Evil Confederacy of Bible prophecy. Sister White speaks of it often, and you can show very clearly that it is the United Nations. She says that those globalists—she does not use the word globalists—but, it is those globalists that control the world's banking system, that have the religion of Spiritualism, that are Free Masons, and that have the same philosophy that atheistic France did during the French Revolution. It is definitely the United Nations; it is the Evil Confederacy that brings the whole world into its grasp at the end of time.

—"Bind up with Christ. 'Say ye not, A Confederacy,'. . . neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. And he shall be for a sanctuary to his people; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.'

"I am instructed to say to those who know the truth, 'Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples."—

This is in the same passage of Isaiah 8, which marks that this warning message of the 2520 in Isaiah 7, that in Isaiah 6 Isaiah has been purified and prepared to proclaim that this warning message of the 2520 in Isaiah 7 also includes the warning about not being connected with the United Nations at the end of the world, is the warning that takes place during the sealing of the 144,000, "Seal up the Law among my disciples."

—"'Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. And I will wait upon the Lord, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth in Mount Zion. And when they shall say unto you, seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter; should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.'

"'And I saw three unclean spirits"—

And this is why I read so far. Here Sister White is tying the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. She is saying this is the Evil Confederacy. The Evil Confederacy consists of three parts, the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet; but, the political structure is the United Nations.

Drop down two paragraphs,— —"like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked,'—without the robe of Christ's righteousness—'and they see his shame.'

"'Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God. The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.'

—where it says,

"These subjects are of"—MINOR—"importance."—

Is that what it says?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No; the utmost.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"These subjects are of the utmost importance. Urge our people to consider them carefully."—

I will urge our people to consider them carefully. The Evil Confederacy of Isaiah 8 is the United Nations. If it is not the United Nations, then you need to bring some "Thus saith the Lord" to prove that it is not. But, it is, on the testimony of many, many areas of Scripture.

Therefore, the Seventh-day Adventist Church should not be in confederacy with the United Nations, as they are with all of their social work that they do.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They need to break free from that confederacy.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"These subjects are of the utmost importance. Urge our people to consider them carefully. When they do this, their minds will be so fully occupied with matters of eternal consequence that they will lose sight of the little differences that once annoyed them. They will realize that prophecy is even now fulfilling. If the minds of the people of God were not occupied with things of minor consequence, they would see that the signs of the times are fast fulfilling, and that events of the greatest consequence to them are taking place in the world and in the churches pointed out by the words, 'Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.'

"Let us cease the conversation that is so unprofitable, and spend our time learning lessons from the Word of God. Christ has told us that we are to be united in love. This is the lesson we are to learn. We are to close the door to all disparaging of one another and exalting of self." Bible Training School, December 1, 1902.

REVELATION 16:12-13

The Evil Confederacy consists of the threefold enemy of the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

In Daniel 11, verse 40, when these three powers begin to march to Armageddon, they are symbolically represented as the Beast (the King of the North), the Dragon (the King of the South), and the False Prophet (the chariots, horsemen, and ships).

Many, many times in the Scriptures these three enemies of God (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet) are symbolically represented. We want to show you two or three places where the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet are represented in other passages of the Scriptures.

JUDGES 6:3, 7:12

Go to Judges 6. Judges 6 is the story of Gideon, and Gideon is one of the most complete illustrations of the history of Adventism that you will ever find; but, we are just going to show you that in the battle of Gideon, he dealt with three enemies, and because he is illustrating the end of the world, those three enemies are the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

Verse 3, chapter 6 of Judges says,

> "[3]And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them; . . ." Judges 6:3 (KJV).

So, when it comes to placing this at the end of the world, Gideon represents God's people that are going to have a confrontation with the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. But, here in verse 3, the Beast, and the Dragon, and the False Prophet are represented by the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the children of the East. Okay?

When you deal with Millerite History, they had to deal with a threefold enemy. Their enemy was the religions that were opposing their message: (1) the Dragon power in the Millerite History was what they called the Universalists—the Universalist Religion is a professed Christian religion that is into spiritualism; (2) they had to deal with the Catholics—there is your Beast; and, they had to deal with the Protestants that were opposing their message—there is your False Prophet. The Millerites had to deal with a threefold enemy.

We have to deal with a threefold enemy. Who is our threefold enemy? That is the United States [the False Prophet], the Vatican [the Beast], and the United Nations [the Dragon power]—the same three powers that we referenced awhile ago that Malachi Martin writes about in his book, The Keys of This Blood, these three powers in verse 40 that are struggling for world dominion.

Everyone seems a bit subdued here this morning.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A question, all right.

SISTER CANDACE FROM THE AUDIENCE: Midianites, Amalekites, and children of the East: how do you know who is the Dragon power?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Now you are going to start asking those kinds of questions. Let me finish my thought.

Okay. We have a question from the floor that we will touch upon in a moment.

But, what I want you to see is in the Millerite History and in our history we have a threefold enemy, and the Gideon story is illustrating that enemy. Right? But, what we are dealing with here is 1989 as the Time of the End, paralleling the Time of the End for the Millerites, which was 1798. So, when the Millerites come into history in 1798, they have a threefold enemy. Right? And I am saying that Gideon's threefold enemy is symbolically pointing forward to the Millerites' threefold enemy and our threefold enemy.

Are you following the prophetic application?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, when does this threefold enemy come into Gideon's history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When does the threefold enemy come into the history of the Millerites?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1798.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1798.

What ends in 1798?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The 2520.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The 2520 ends in 1798.

What ends in 1989?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The 2520.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Miller's 2520; not 2520 literal years but . . .

So, what does verse 1 of chapter 6 of Judges say?

> "[1]And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian"—

For what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: For seven years.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: For 2520 days.

—"for seven years." Judges 6:1 (KJV).

And he is going to raise up Gideon, and Gideon is going to have to have a battle with the threefold enemy, representing the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

Okay. The question from the floor is, let us read verse 12 of chapter 7 first [of Judges].

> "[12]And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude." Judges 7:12 (KJV).

If you are going to identify the threefold union of the Beast and the Dragon and the False Prophet in the other illustrations of God's Word as a threefold enemy, then you have to have the spiritual characteristics that allows you to say, "Yes, this is a threefold enemy." And one of the things that allows you to do that—

BROTHER PIPPENGER (addressing Sister Candace from the audience that posed the question): And I am beginning to answer your question.

—is that when you see these three enemies, two of them will be in a singular fashion and one of them will be in a plural. There are certain tribes in the Scriptures that are noted to be pluralities. The Arabians are pluralities, the Philistines are pluralities, and the Greeks are pluralities. I mean, they represent nations, groups of people.

> MIDIAN, (singular): strife. Descendant of Abraham from Keturah.
> AMAL, (singular): trouble. Descendant of Esau.
> THE CHILDREN OF THE EAST, (plural). Descendants of Ishmael, associated with Balaam.

But in here with Gideon, you see Midian, a single; Amal, a single; but the children of the East, a plurality. Generally, these three tribes will also be some kind of relative to Israel; and, of course, Midian is a descendant of Abraham through Keturah, Amal is a descendant of Esau, and the children of the east, well, that is Islam, descendants of Abraham through Ishmael.

Okay. Now, once you see that this is repeated over and over again—what is repeated over and over again?—that when you see this threefold enemy in the Scriptures, that two of the enemies will be expressed in a singular fashion and one in a plural. That allows you to say, "Okay. Yes, this is an illustration of the Beast and the Dragon and the False Prophet at the end of the world."

But then, you want to get to the level that Sister Candace is asking about: How do you know who is the Beast, who is the Dragon, and who is the False Prophet in this scenario? And you have to do it by context. It is varied. There is not any perfect rule, when you see the threefold enemy throughout the Scriptures, to say that it will always be the same.

And by that I mean, sometimes the plurality will represent the Dragon power, and sometimes not.

Midian means strife; Amal means trouble; and, of course, those are the two characteristics of the children of the East as well. So, in these threefold enemies in the story of Gideon, he had big problems on his hands.

Let us proceed a little big further, and maybe we can answer that question after you see a couple of lines.

NEHEMIAH 2:19

> "[19]But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heart it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? Will ye rebel against the king?" Nehemiah 2:19 (KJV).

Go to Nehemiah 2, and we will look at another illustration of the threefold enemy. And what I am saying is the threefold enemy represents the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet at the end of the world.

But, in the different illustrations of the threefold enemy, they are not always telling the same story about modern Babylon. Revelation 16 is telling the story about how modern Babylon leads the world to Armageddon; but, in Nehemiah we are told how the influence of modern Babylon impacts the work that is being symbolized by Nehemiah.

Who is Nehemiah? What does Nehemiah do? Who is Nehemiah?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Hard questions this morning?

Who is Nehemiah? What does Nehemiah do?

Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He rebuilds Jerusalem.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He finishes the streets and the wall, even in troublous times.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What did he have to get before he could do that work?

We went through this in this series.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A decree.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A decree.

Which decree was it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Fourth Decree.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Fourth Decree. You had the First Decree of Cyrus, the Second Decree of Darius, the Third Decree of Artaxerxes, and then later on Nehemiah gets another decree from Artaxerxes, but it is the Fourth Decree.

So, what is that? It is the 3:1 combination; because, after that Third Decree, Ezra, who is associated with the Third Decree, he was greatly disappointed about how few people came out of Babylon. This is the 3:1 combination. It is illustrating the Three Angels' Message, which is followed by the Fourth at the end of the world.

Cyrus is Miller. Darius represents the call out of Babylon, the Second Angel's Message. The Third Decree, Artaxerxes, that is the beginning of the judgment message of the 2300 Days. And, Nehemiah is the finishing of the work—that we went through this, by the way—the building of the wall, the Law of God; the streets, the Old Paths; in troublous times, is Islam at the end of the world.

SANBALLAT THE HORONITE, a Moabite, (singular).

TOBIAH. the Ammonite, (singular).

GESHEM, the Arabian: born in the rainy season. Descendant of Ishmael. Arabians are a family of tribes, (plural).

So, in that history the threefold enemy is there. It is Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian: Sanballat, singular; Tobiah, singular; Geshem, he is an Arabian, plural. But, in that story, Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, they are not leading the world to Armageddon. That is not what this story is about.

What is this story about? It is how the influence of modern Babylon works to prevent the work of the Fourth Angel, the work of Nehemiah; the Fourth Decree, the Fourth Angel.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, when you see these various three enemies, these various illustrations of the three enemies in the Scriptures, you not only have as a student of prophecy the responsibility of determining if they genuinely are the symbols of the Beast and the Dragon and the False Prophet but once you determine that, yes, they are that symbol, then you have to dissect what lesson it is contributing to the end of the world. And, you are making a mistake if you think it is always telling the same story, because it is not. Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem are talking about how modern Babylon impacts Adventism at the end of the world and inhibits Adventism from finishing the work; whereas, Revelation 16 (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet), that is the story about how they lead the world to Armageddon.

NUMBERS 22:4-5

> MOAB, king of the Moabites, (singular);
> AHAB, king of Israel, (singular), married to Jezebel, daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Zidonians; and,
> BALAAM of Pethor, which is representing the children of his people, (plural).

Numbers 22. Now, this is a fairly easy one to apply prophetically. This is just before the children of Israel are going into the Promised Land.

So, what is that illustrating? Just before modern Israel is going into the Promised Land. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, in Numbers 22, verses 4 and 5, is the children of Israel are getting ready to go into the Promised Land (into the Earth made new).

In verse 4, it says,

"[4]And Moab said unto the elders of Midian,"—

What is that? That is two enemies.

> —"Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time. [5]He sent messengers therefore unto"—

Unto whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Unto Balaam.

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me: . . ." Numbers 22:4-5 (KJV).

So, who is the threefold enemy? It is Moab.

Who is Moab in this story?

This is what you look for, Sister Candace.

Who is Moab? What is he?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is a king, is he not? He is identified as the king.

And who are the Midianites?

Okay. They are singular, they are singular.

But, the children of the East are plural.

And who are the children of the East represented by?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Balaam.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Balaam; and, what is he in this story?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A false prophet.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A false prophet.

So, you have a king. What is a king?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A kingdom.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A king is a king, yeah; a kingdom.

Who is Ahab? Ahab is a king, is he not? He is the Dragon, and he is married to Jezebel; he is married to Midian. And the prophets of Baal are the prophets of Balaam.

So, that is how you work that out at that level, is you look for those kinds of clues.

But, what is it that Balaam, and Midian, and Moab are doing in this story? Are they leading the world to Armageddon? No. This is a second witness to the fact that modern Babylon is going to work to prevent Seventh-day Adventism from accomplishing their assigned task. This is identifying the infiltration of Adventism.

And how does it come by modern Babylon? How do they infiltrate it? Through women—right?—but, they are going to seduce Adventism through women.

But, of course, this is one of the places where Sister White overrules the prophetic principles. Okay?

The prophetic principles here are that these Moabite women, what do they represent? The false doctrines that are introduced into Adventism from Babylon. Okay? And we have them today all over the place. So, that is the correct application; but, this is one history where Sister White overrules the prophetic application.

And what does she say? That this fornication is going to be an issue in Adventism that is going to lead many astray at the end. She applies this literally, too.

But, what was it that led the Jews to the Moabite women in the first place?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The music.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Partying down: music and food; Appetite, celebration service. This is about modern Babylon (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet) not how they lead the world to Armageddon but how they undermine the Seventh-day Adventist Church, as they have done.

JOHN 19:19-20

And another one is John 19, verses 19 and 20. And there are several; we are just giving you a few.

John 19, beginning at verse 19 says,

> "[19]And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. [20]This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written"—

In what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In Hebrew.

—"in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin." John 19:19-20 (KJV).

So, there are your three enemies in the cross.

> HEBREW: one from the other side, a descendant of Shem, (Abraham's lineage)
> LATIN: Roman: I have exalted, Babylon was founded by Nimrod, a descendant of Ham.
> GREEK: sons of the Ionians, a descendant of Japheth (plural).

And the Hebrew were a descendant of Shem. They are usually close relatives.

The Latin is a descendant of Ham; the Greek a descendant of Japheth.

So, you see the threefold enemies even in the sons of Noah. As you start looking for them, they are from this lineage; the three enemies at the end of the world are identified.

Okay. What establishes Daniel's last vision is Rome, and one of the truths about Rome is that Rome is divided into three parts.

And at the end of the world the threefold division of modern Rome is the Papacy, the United States, and the United Nations (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet). These three enemies are repeatedly illustrated in the Scriptures; and, when they are illustrated, they are teaching different lessons about the prophetic role of modern Babylon (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet). It is up to the student of prophecy to determine what these lessons are.

We are studying now Daniel 11, verse 41, if you did not know it. It is in your notes. It says,

> "[41]He shall enter also into the glorious land,"—

We have already dealt with this, "He" being the Papacy (the King of the North), "shall enter," meaning he conquers it the same way he conquered verse 40; and, the way that he conquered in verse 40 was as an overflowing flood, as the Euphrates overflows its banks. The overflowing, all by itself, tells you this is the Papacy. And he overflows the King of the South in verse 40, and then he overflows the glorious land; and, we have identified the "glorious land" clear enough for anyone to see—we have more to say—but clear enough for anyone to see that the "glorious land" is the United States of America that is conquered by the overflowing scourge at The Sunday Law in the United States.

And the verse says [continuing],

> —"and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

And these are the three enemies of Scripture that represent modern Babylon; but, these three enemies (Edom, Moab, and Ammon) are not telling the story about how the world is led to Armageddon, and they are not telling the story about how modern Babylon infiltrates the Seventh-day Adventist Church and corrupts the work that it is doing. It is not telling that story. It is telling a story about who escapes from the hand of the Papacy at The Sunday Law in the United States, and those that escape from the hand of the Papacy at The Sunday Law in the United States are those that come out of Babylon, ". . . Come out of her, my people, . . . Revelation 18:4."

And Babylon, as the point where people, the eleventh-hour workers, come out of at The Sunday Law is represented in the verse as a threefold fashion, representing modern Babylon (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet).

In that study back in Oklahoma, this General Conference employee was one of these people that you covet their gift. I coveted his gift. He is one of these people that he could turn anywhere in the Old Testament and tell you what it was in the Hebrew, and he could turn anywhere in the New Testament and tell you what it was in the Greek. You could tell; the guy was sharp! What he wanted to do, his personal thing, was to go to some country where the Bible had not been translated yet and translate it into that local dialect. He wanted to work with the Gideon people that do that work. He knew the Bible. He was sharp! Okay?

So, when I get to this point of my presentation on Daniel 11, I always point out that in verse 41 and verse 42 that you will find the word escape in both verses, but that it is two different Hebrew words. And the word that is translated as escape in verse 41 means to escape as by slipperiness. You see that in your notes.

> ESCAPE: Strong's Concordance 4422—to be smooth, i.e., (by impl.) to escape (as if by slipperiness); to release or rescue; to bring forth young, emit sparks: -deliver (self), escape, lay, leap out, let alone, let go, preserve, save.

So, in this discussion we were having in Oklahoma, I mean this brother and myself were cordial but it was obviously a combative situation. He is telling his view of Daniel 11, and I am telling mine, and there are two sides pumping questions to try to expose why the other guy is false. That was the whole dynamics of this. So, I did not say much to him because I did not want to throw any fuel on the fire, and he did not say much to me; but, he is out in the audience when I am presenting, and I am out in the audience when he is presenting. And when I am presenting on this particular subject, and I give my explanation on what this word escape means in verse 41, as soon as I finished—what I am going to tell you right now—he blurts out from the audience, "That's correct!" And this guy is the linguist expert; I am not. And he is in an adversarial position with me in terms of the meeting, but he could not hold back from saying, "I agree."

This word escape is as if you reach into a tub of water and you grab a bar of soap and it slips out of your hand. The most important part of the definition of this word is the aspect that whatever, if this eraser [holding up the eraser as an example] escapes from my hand, whatever escapes from my hand, the most important part of the definition is that it has previously been in my hand. That is the essence of the definition. It has been in my hand, but it escaped by slipperiness, like a bar of soap.

Because, what the verse is saying is that these people that come out of Babylon (Edom, Moab, and Ammon), before this verse, before verse 41, they had been in the hand of the Papacy.

And who is the Papacy at the end of the world? It is modern Babylon. It is the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

There are people that are walking in modern Babylon (that is where they are at, the eleventh-hour workers); but, at The Sunday Law they escape the hand of the Papacy. So, this word escape is one of the most important words in verse 41, in the last six verses of Daniel 11; whereas, the word escape in verse 42 means *finding no deliverance.

Okay. Let us continue on here, Manuscript Releases, volume 12, pages 141 – 142. We want to talk about what happens at The Sunday Law in the United States, because we are saying that verse 41 is The Sunday Law in the United States.

> "The law of God cannot be made void by the law of a nation. When the law is trampled in the dust, the sacredness of the commandments of God will be vindicated by those who are loyal to Him. We are to make no railing accusation against the nations, for this would close our way so that we could not set the light before the people."—

Does this mean that I am not supposed to explain why Mitt Romney and his Mormonism is a problem, or I am not supposed to explain why Obama, and this, that, and the other, is a problem?

Is that what it means? I think that is what it means. I think the message that we have is so far above national politics or world politics that we should not be taking up those arguments.

Anyway, that is what she says.

> —"We are to make no railing accusation against the nations, for this would close our way so that we could not set the light before the people."—

Would it?

I guarantee you, if you would go into a Black Seventh-day Adventist congregation and you are going to say some things about President Obama that you would say in a White Seventh-day Adventist congregation, you are going to have a different response in the Black congregation than you do in the White congregation. So, what benefit would it be for you to say anything, one way or another? It is going to close the door.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Especially publically.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Especially publically.

When we are sitting around in private, it is okay?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No? I do not think so, because part of the problem is the fact that we are all inclined to get drawn into political controversies, and by doing so we are getting drawn into, if nothing more, a waste of time that we should be drawn into a deeper study of the Word of God.

And there are some of us that are more inclined to get wrapped up into controversies and political intrigues. And maybe I am not inclined that way, and for me bringing the subject up in a casual way and it does not mean anything to me may spur my brother here into a direction that leads him into darkness.

But, anyway, we just switched from my study to sermonizing. Let us go back to my study.

—"Every objection raised against the commandments of God will make a way for the advancement of truth and enable its advocates to present its value before men."—

This is one of the premises that about four worships ago we put in place. We went through and we showed that there was going to be a shaking in Adventism and it was described in Scripture repeatedly, and we wanted to be clear before we reached a certain point that as we named some personalities in ministries in Adventism that have fought against this message, that we were doing it not to belittle human beings or to belittle ministries but the fact of the matter is, is that the Lion of the tribe of Judah has used some of the adversaries to this message to open up better, clearer understandings of the Truth.

And maybe you think, "Well, all I need is the better, clearer understanding of the Truth. I don't have to really see how this Truth got put in place by the Lion of the tribe of Judah." But, I think you need to see that the Lord does use the adversaries to lead us to places in our studies that He reveals jewels. It is part of the story. It can be handled wrongly, no doubt.

But, anyway, Sister White is saying that here from a different point of view.

—"Every objection raised against the commandments of God will make a way for the advancement of truth and enable its advocates to present its value before men. There is a beauty and force in the truth that nothing can make so apparent as opposition and persecution. When this is revealed, many will be converted to the truth." Manuscript Releases, volume 12, 141–142.

Okay. So when the Law of God is being made void, this crisis is where the Truth is going to be clarified. Right?

Okay. Who is it going to be clarified for? For the eleventh-hour workers that have not heard this argument up until now.

Now, we have read this a couple of times in our worship before, Bible Training School, December 1, 1903. It says,

"The work of the Holy Spirit is to convince the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. The world can only be warned"—CAN ONLY BE WARNED—"by seeing those who believe the truth sanctified through the truth, acting upon high and holy principles, showing in a high, elevated sense, the line of demarcation between those who keep the commandments of God, and those who trample them under their feet."—

The world can only be warned by seeing people with the Righteousness of Christ upon them at the time period when the Law of God is being trampled in the dust. What time period is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is The Sunday Law crisis, by the context of the statement.

Continuing on:

—"The sanctification of the Spirit signalizes the difference between those who have"—WHAT?—"the seal of God, and those who keep a spurious rest-day.

> When the test comes, it will be clearly shown what the mark of the beast is. It is the keeping of Sunday. Those who after having heard the truth, continue to regard this day as holy, bear the signature of the man of sin, who thought to change times and laws." Bible Training School, December 1, 1903.

Now, remember, this [referring to Figure No. 102] is verse 40, is it not? Do you remember this? This is verse 40, and there are several lines that are parallel to verse 40. We looked at Isaiah 23; that is the history of verse 40. The story of Elijah and Carmel, that is the history of verse 40. Chosroes, that is the history of verse 40. Josiah, that is the history of verse 40. Remember that?

And, of course, we have the Millerites in our history. And just before The Sunday Law, what happens in the story of Elijah, just before the prophets of Baal are killed and judgment is executed, representing The Sunday Law?

What happens? The true prophet is identified, and fire comes down out of Heaven.

So, just before The Sunday Law, there is going to be a group in Adventism that begin to be lifted up as an ensign. It does not happen right at The Sunday Law; it has to happen just before. The distinction has to be seen just before.

And why are they being isolated and lifted up? Because, the only way the world can be warned is by seeing this ensign in The Sunday Law crisis. So, they have to have the Seal of God before the eleventh-hour workers.

> Ezekiel 20:33-42; 28:25-26; 36:22-28; 38:14-23; Isaiah 4:1-4; 44:21-23; 45:25; 46:8-13

> Ezekiel 20:33-42

Now, notice this, Ezekiel 20.

This is not a—people that think that we are taking the quote from Sister White about the only way the world can be warned is by seeing men and women with the Seal of God in The Sunday Law testing time, they think we are kind of taking this one quote and putting too much of our understanding into it. Look at Ezekiel 20, beginning at verse 33.

> "[33]As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you: [34]And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out. [35]And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face. [36]Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. [37]And I will cause you to pass under the rod,"—

What is "to pass under the rod"? Judgment.

> —"and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:"—

So, the Lord is going to enter into covenant with the 144,000, as He entered into covenant with Ancient Israel, as He entered into covenant with the Millerites in their history. Right? That is what is being described here.

But, all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world; so, this is more about us than anyone else. He is going to put us into judgment.

What judgment? The Judgment of the Living, and He is going to enter into covenant with us.

And what does the next verse say He is going to do?

> —"[38]And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. [39]As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols."—

"Your probation is closed."

> —"[40]For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. [41]I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Scattered.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"scattered;"—

The 144,000 are scattered before they are gathered together?

Where do you see that marked? In William Miller's dream; that is the scattering of Adventism.

> —"and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen."—

What does that mean? That God will be sanctified in us before the heathen. "The world can only be warned . . . ."

The next verse:

> —"[42]And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers." Ezekiel 20:33-42 (KJV).

Okay. So, what am I saying? I am saying that at the end of William Miller's scattering time in 1989, the Dirt Brush Man begins to gather together a people that He is going to lift up at The Sunday Law, and He is going to be sanctified in them. That is the only way the world can be warned.

Look at chapter 28 of Ezekiel, verses 25 and 26.

> "[25]Thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob. [26]And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God." Ezekiel 28:25-26 (KJV).

They are lifted up as an ensign for the heathen.

Chapter 36 of Ezekiel, beginning at verse 22:

> "[22]Therefore say unto the house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went. [23]And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. [24]For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. [25]Then will I"—what?—"sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you."—

When is it that we are clean? In the blotting out of sin in the Judgment of the Living, in the sprinkling of the Latter Rain.

Verse 26:

> —"[26]A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. [27]And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them. [28]And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God." Ezekiel 36:22-28 (KJV).

What is the land that He gave to his fathers? It is a reference to rebuilding Jerusalem, to entering into covenant with the ensign (with the 144,000).

Chapter 38 of Ezekiel, verses 14 to 23.

What we are saying here is that when the King of the North comes into the glorious land at The Sunday Law as an overflowing scourge, we are not dealing with many that will be overthrown right now, but we are dealing with that there will be a group of people that will come out of modern Babylon, represented as Edom, Moab, and Ammon. And the reason that they come out is at The Sunday Law, Inspiration tells us that there is an ensign lifted up, and that ensign is the people that receive the Seal of God at The Sunday Law, who the Lord is sanctified in. The sanctification of the Spirit is the signalization of those that have the Seal of God.

And we are in chapter 38, beginning at verse 14:

> "[14]Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog,"—

Brothers and Sisters, Ezekiel 37 and 38, I know there are a lot of ideas about Gog. Gog is the King of the North. Ezekiel 37 and 38 is almost word for word—it is not word for word, but it is the identical sequence of the last six verses of Daniel 11. This is a parallel passage, without a doubt.

> —"[14]Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog [THE KING OF THE NORTH]—"Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it? [15]And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: [16]And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. [17]Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them? [18]And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face. [19]For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; [20]So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. [21]And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother. [22]And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. [23]Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD." Ezekiel 38:14-23 (KJV).

They are not only going to know from the people that they see with the Seal of God, the eleventh-hour workers are not only going to make their decision based upon seeing men and women with the Seal of God, but they are going to see the Lord actively involved in these final movements. He is going to be directing these people. Sister White says so.

Isaiah 4:1-4.

We are almost finished. I know you have more notes, and you are nervous; but, we are not going to go through all these notes until tomorrow, the Lord willing.

Isaiah 4, verses 1 through 4, what are we dealing with here? We are dealing with the concept that the only way the world can be warned is by seeing the character of Christ upon His people in The Sunday Law testing time. And when they see this, they will come out from where they have been; and, where they have been is in the hand of the Papacy, where they have been is in the spiritual communion that we call Babylon. And Babylon at the end of the world is made up of three parts: the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

And Daniel, in verse 41 of chapter 11 when he is illustrating modern Babylon, he does so with Edom, Moab, and Ammon. He is not telling the story about how you go to Armageddon; he is saying this is where the eleventh-hour workers come from. They escape the hand of the Papacy that they have been in prior to verse 41 at that time, and the reason that they escape the hand of the Papacy is at that time at The Sunday Law, according to Inspiration, the Lord lifts up an ensign. He lifts up a group of people that prior to that event have settled fully into the Truth and have the character of Christ upon them.

Isaiah 4:1-4 says,

> "[1]And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach."—

So, "that day," if you have got to know what day it is, you have got to go back to where the vision began, and the vision began in chapter 2, verse 1, and it says, "[1]The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, [2]And it shall come to pass in the last days, . . ."

So, if you go back to verse 4 when it says, "in that day," it is saying that at the end of the world, in our day, seven—

What is "seven"? Complete.

What is a woman? Churches.

At the end of the world all of the churches shall take hold of one man. It is the man of sin, the Papacy. This is the climax of the Ecumenical Movement.

And you know this is not Christ, as some commentaries say; because, what these women say is, "We will eat our own bread,"—and Christ's followers eat His bread—"and we will wear our own apparel"—and Christ's followers wear the Righteousness of Christ. So, this is about all the churches coming together with the man of sin, and they take his name and his name is Catholic, which means universal. This is the universal church.

And they want to take away their reproach, and the reproach that is upon them is that they have not come into agreement with the One World Government/One World Religion Movement. And in order to take away that reproach, they come together with the Pope of Rome.

Verse 2:

> —"[2]In that day"—IN THAT DAY—"shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel."—

Who are those that escaped? It is those Adventists that have been scattered that are gathered. All right? These are the ones that are going to receive the Seal. They have escaped of Israel.

—"[3]And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion,"—

If you escape from Israel at the end of the world, where do you end up? You end up in Zion.

> —"[3]And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem:"—

If you are written among the living in Jerusalem, where is that book? Where is that book at? It is in the Most Holy Place.

Jesus is dealing with it in what? The Investigative Judgment.

And at what period of time is it when there will be men and women that are alive, based upon the work of the judgment books, that are identified as holy? When does that take place? Judgment of the Living, when the sins are being blotted out.

Verse 4:

> —"[4]When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning." Isaiah 4:1-4 (KJV).

What is the "spirit of burning" and the "spirit of judgment"? Well, judgment is of the living.

What is the "spirit of burning"? We have dealt with that. I heard Pastor Sankey deal with that the first day, I think. I heard someone deal with it.

That is Malachi, is it not, where He says He is a refiner and purifier of silver?

Who is He purifying? The sons of Levi, because they are faithful in The Sunday Law crisis.

Go to Isaiah 44. We are almost done here.

Isaiah 44, verses 21 through 23:

> "[21]Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me. [22]I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee. [23]Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Glorified himself in Israel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"glorified himself in Israel." Isaiah 44:21-24 (KJV).

The world can only be warned by seeing Christ glorified in His people in The Sunday Law testing time. That is what Sister White says; that is what the Bible says.

Chapter 45, verse 25, of Isaiah:

> "[25]In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory." Isaiah 45:25 (KJV).

Where are we justified? At the foot of the cross.

What is justification? It is pardon; our sins are pardoned.

Isaiah 46:8-13.

We are closing now. Isaiah 46:8-13. We are going to read this, and then we are going to say something, and then we are going to close. All right? I do not want to mislead you. We are going to wrap this up together.

> "[8]Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors. [9] Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me, [10] Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure: [11] Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country:"—

Now, do you understand that to be one man with two characteristics, or two men; two powers or one power?

Is there a ravenous bird that comes from the East and a man that is going to execute his counsel?

Because, we have read in the past couple of days that the Papacy is what the Lord uses to accomplish His purposes. He is the rod in the Lord's hand.

But, what is the religion, the bird? A bird is a religion, is it not; because, Babylon is a cage full of unclean birds. All right? A bird is a religion.

Is there a religion that comes from the East that the Lord calls?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Islam.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

> —"[11]Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it."—

He is going to bring Islam and the King of the North [the Papacy] back into prophetic history to fulfill their roles.

> "[12] Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness: [13] I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory." Isaiah 46:8-13 (KJV).

And the salvation that He puts in Zion is to glorify Himself and His people at The Sunday Law.

SUMMARY

Okay. We are going to stop here. I thought we could get further, but we will take this up tomorrow.

But, what am I saying? Here is what I am saying, is that Daniel's last vision is established by an understanding of Rome. And one of the characteristics of Rome is that at the end of the world it is divided into three parts. And in Revelation 16, modern Rome leads the world to Armageddon. And if you are going to understand that warning, because it is a warning to keep your garments, then you need to understand where this march to Armageddon begins, and it begins in Daniel 11, verse 40. And you can see all the players in Daniel 11, verse 40, the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

But, we are saying that Daniel 11, verses 40 and 41 is the design of God that produces the revival among God's people.

When you understand that the Soviet Union collapsed in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, in 1989; and, then you understand that the next verse, verse 41, is The Sunday Law in the United States and at that point probation closes for you as a Seventh-day Adventist, the Holy Spirit then has the information available to convict you of your need and of my need to get ready for The Sunday Law or receive the mark of the beast. This is the formula for the revival, are these verses.

So, when you leave verse 40 and the Papacy is moving as an overflowing flood, and he enters into the United States (the glorious land) and conquers it at The Sunday Law, there are many that are going to be overthrown. We have not dealt with that specifically yet; but, at that time there are some that escape the hand of the Papacy.

And what we have dealt with today is that what calls them out of Babylon—we are saying Edom, Moab, and Ammon is modern Babylon, and it is not talking about how you go to Armageddon; it is talking about the eleventh-hour workers that come out of Babylon—what calls them out of Babylon is the 144,000 that are lifted up as an ensign at this point in time [at The Sunday Law]. They have already received the Seal of God. They are the firstfruits of the sealing process.

And this is not an obscure teaching that you find alone in the Spirit of Prophecy; it is a consistent teaching throughout God's Word over and over again.

So, tomorrow, we will finish off our consideration of Edom, Moab, and Ammon. We never got there, really, to discuss them as the threefold union of modern Babylon.

And I think that is all that I need to say to summarize it.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we wish to be among those that are lifted up as an ensign here in the very near future; but, we understand that we have a work to do as individuals. We need to set aside the idols that are still consciously handled by us, and that we also need to set aside the idols that we have not yet recognized. So, we ask that your Holy Spirit would open to our understanding a deep understanding of who and what we are as individuals and what we need to set aside and overcome that we can be about our business of finishing that work through your power. We want to be able to give a winning warning message. We ask that you would use this study that we are doing here as a point of reference that we can go out and pass this oil on, that we might be allowed to receive more. We thank you for the oil that you have been pouring down upon us. We thank you for the work that you are doing here this week with Pastor Sankey. We ask your continued blessing upon that work, upon the recordings, upon the LiveStreaming. And as we break for our physical food now, we ask for a blessing upon that physical food as well, and we thank you for all these things. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #53

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we come before you this morning, we thank you for a good night's rest, and we thank you for this opportunity to serve you another day. As we take up the study of your Word, we are still desiring to understand truths connected with the last six verses of Daniel 11; so, we ask that you grant us the presence and direction of your Holy Spirit that we might understand these things correctly. We ask that you take control of my humanity and overrule it for your glory and your honor, that what I convey will be truths that edify your people, that accomplish what you had intended for them. We ask also that you would open the hearts and minds of your people to understand these things. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. We ask that you prepare our vessels by forgiving us in any area that we are preventing the full reception of the Latter Rain that you are providing as you open our understanding to your Word. We thank you for this day of life. We ask now that you would bless our study. In Jesus's name, amen.

REVIEW TO DATE

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In Part 6 of this series of Habakkuk's Tables, we are dealing with 1989; Daniel 11, verse 40. And this is Study No. 53, but I think there was a recap in there that I may not be counting; but, we began our study of Daniel 11, verse 40, back on Study No. 41. So, we have covered through 12, maybe 13, presentations.

When we began to look at Daniel 11, verse 40, in terms of it being the verse that marks 1989 as the Time of the End for the 144,000 and therefore marks the point in time when the Dirt Brush Man of William Miller's dream arrives and begins to unseal the book that is sealed with seven seals.

When we began this study, we spent some time identifying the end as 1798; and, then we identified that no matter what you understand about the verses of Daniel 11:40-45 that they are obviously events connected with the close of probation; because, in Daniel 12:1 Michael stands up.

And from there we emphasized the parallel that we have been making throughout this series, that being that William Miller, the messenger of the First Angel's Message in the Millerite History, presented a message that was the events connected with the close of probation; and, that William Miller had been prefigured by John the Baptist who presented a message that was the events that were connected with the close of probation, therefore identifying that the message of the last six verses of Daniel 11 is a parallel to John the Baptist's and William Miller's messages, which in each of their respective histories were the First Message. So, Daniel 11:40-45, at the prophetic level, is the First Angel's Message in this history, though it is technically the Third Angel's Message; but, at the level of the fact that every Reform Movement is structured upon two messages, the message that identifies the events connected with the close of probation is the First Message.

From there, because, one, we are trying to do many things here because we are suggesting that Daniel 11, verse 40, marks the Time of the End in 1989, and because the Time of the End in every Reform Movement is the time when there is a prophecy unsealed that is going to accomplish the Everlasting Gospel for that generation, and because this is the generation that all the Bible pointed forward to, then the logic that we apply is that Daniel 11, verse 40, as the marker of the Time of the End would of necessity be one of the most profound verses in God's Word. And so where we started was—one of our starting points—was to show that from the beginning of verse 40, 1798 until Michael stands up down here [see Figure No. 103A]. But, that history is essentially, not perfectly but essentially it is the history of the Laodicean Church, if you start Laodicea in the 1850s. Prior to the 1850s you have Sardis and Philadelphia there, too. But, pretty much, the last six verses of Daniel 11 is the history of Laodicea.

So, we went in and we showed that each of the Seven Churches of Revelation are repeated in the history of Laodicea, and from there and at that same time we showed you that the Seals repeated and enlarged upon the Churches. The First Church is the history of the First Seal. They tell different stories from that same history.

So, we there went and showed that the history of Ancient Israel was governed by the Seven Churches as well. Okay? The time of deliverance from Egypt was the time of Ephesus for Ancient Israel. The time of the Judges was the time of Smyrna for Ancient Israel. The time of the Kings, until the captivity in Babylon, was the time of Pergamos. It was the compromise of both kings that took them into captivity in Babylon, just like it was the compromise of Constantine and the Christian Church in the time of Pergamos that took the Christian Church into captivity for 1260 years.

We noted that the time of the captivity of 70 years in Babylon was the time of Thyatira for Ancient Israel.

And immediately after the 70 years, we noted in Zachariah the question is raised, "How long?" and we lined that question of Zachariah up with "How long?" with the Fifth Seal in Revelation, when the martyrs under the altar asked the question, "How long?"

So, we showed that the history of the Seven Churches is all repeated in the history of Laodicea; therefore, it is all repeated in this history of the last six verses of Daniel 11; and, therefore, the history of Ancient Israel is also repeated in the history represented by the last six verses of Daniel 11. There are a lot of reasons to identify that, but one of them, a simple one, was to show the depth of these verses that were unsealed by the Lion of the tribe of Judah in 1989, to possibly shake awake the Laodiceans that are hearing this to the fact that, yes, the claims we are making about Daniel 11, verse 40, are valid. They are correct that these verses are more than simply an interesting passage in prophecy.

Then we went in to—and I am not touching everything we did, but we began to look at Daniel 11, verse 40, and we identified every word in Daniel 11, verse 40. There were 51 words. You may not have realized that we addressed all of them. And I am saying this on purpose: One of William Miller's Rules is that every word must have its place in the prophetic scenario. And you will find that many of the voices in Adventism that have the wrong view of the last six verses of Daniel 11, invariably there are passages in those verses that they just throw their hands up and say, "I'm not sure about that!" They are sure about two things. They are sure about their erroneous understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11, even though there are some empty spots in their understanding, and they are sure that what we are teaching is incorrect.

But, we have an understanding of every word in the passage, and we went through the history of 1989 and the collapse of the Soviet Union and noted that what we are suggesting about that verse is identical to the history of the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989; and, we also noted that the secular historians from that time period, invariably when they were confirming the history that we are suggesting is represented in those verses, they drew words right out of verse 40 to illustrate what they were teaching.

For instance, you know, the one magazine that gives the chronology of the collapse of the Soviet Union, the title of that particular magazine was, "The Days of the Whirlwind." And then, of course, in Daniel 11, verse 40, the King of the North sweeps away the King of the South as a whirlwind.

So, we took time for that, and then we began to look at some other Biblical themes that are in the last six verses of Daniel 11, and one of those was Michael. Daniel's last vision is chapters 10 through 12; and, right at the beginning Michael is brought into the story because Daniel is fasting for 21 days and Gabriel comes to him after 21 days and said, "I was struggling with the prince and the king of Persia and I wasn't making any headway until Michael came. So, right at the beginning of this last vision, we see Michael; and, at the end, Michael stands up and human probation closes.

So, the last vision of Daniel, chapters 10 through 12, is the climax of the story of Michael. And everywhere we find Michael in the Scriptures, He is in controversy with Satan. It is a direct confrontation with him. In fact, Sister White says that the prince of Persia in Daniel 10 that Michael was dealing and Gabriel was dealing with, the prince of Persia, is Satan; the king of Persia was Cyrus.

And the controversy between Satan and Christ—which we as Adventists know as the Great Controversy—it is symbolically represented in the name Michael, which means who (is) like God? [Stro g's o or a e, H4317]. And, of course, that is what Satan was trying to do is take the place of God.

So, we threw in this [referring to Figure No. 103] these verses—and this is these verses, if you are not understanding this structure because it is too busy for you.

This line here, Daniel 11:40, 11:41, all the way to Daniel 12:1, this line through this history [of 1798 through Michael standing up] is the history of the last six verses of Daniel 11; and, therefore, it is the climax of the Great Controversy when you understand the role of Michael.

And then we went into, in connection with the role of Michael that Satan wants to personate Christ. He wants to seat himself upon the political throne of God, and he wants to seat himself upon the religious throne of God in the sides of the North. And in this sense, God's religious authority is in the sides of the North. In this sense, Satan is seeking to be the counterfeit King of the North. So, when you are considering the Papacy as the King of the North in these verses, we pointed out that the Papacy (the Pope of Rome) is the earthly representative of Satan; and, they are interchangeable many times in the Scriptures. You can find passages where it is clear the Pope of Rome is the antichrist. There are passages in Inspiration where it is clear that Satan is the antichrist.

So, too, with the expression, "the man of sin": The Papacy is the man of sin, but there are places where Satan is the man of sin.

So, as Satan prosecutes his work to try to become "God" on Planet Earth, he uses the Pope of Rome as his earthly representative; but, it is part of his story, of the Great Controversy between him and Michael.

But, in this sense Satan is the counterfeit King of the North, and so is the Pope of Rome the counterfeit King of the North; because, the true King of the North is Christ. So, when you are talking about the last six verses of Daniel 11, you are talking about the King of the North. So, you need to understand that the King of the North is a big theme in Scriptures; whereas, the battle between the King of the South and the King of the North is only found in chapter 11 [of Daniel]. The subject of who is the King of the North, and the true King of the North, is throughout the Scriptures and not just in Daniel 11.

We pointed out that in Satan's effort to seat himself upon the throne of the Earth, immediately after The Sunday Law [see Figure No. 103, Daniel 11:41], Satan begins to personate Christ. And we pointed passages where Sister White says that in connection with developing the Roman Catholic Church, the masterpiece of Satan's efforts to seat himself upon the throne of the Earth and govern as he pleases was the "invention" of the Catholic Church. When Satan comes here [immediately after The Sunday Law] and personates Christ, he wants to be "God" of this world; and, in order to actually do that in advance of him appearing to personate Christ, he develops a religious structure that encompasses the whole world and that religious structure is the Catholic Church.

Satan is going to use that religious structure to execute his religious wishes when he begins to personate Christ; but, in order for him to use that religious structure, he has to prepare that religious structure to accept him to be the leader. And although we have not spent much time on it, the reality of it is, the Messages of Fatima, the messages that were guiding the last Pope and this current Pope [Popes Benedict/Francis] prepare a prophetic scenario for the Catholic Church to believe that we are on the verge of a limited nuclear war, the Third World War; and, they believe that war will end very quickly when Jesus returns in the heavens, and they will know it is Jesus because he is going to call fire down out of heaven in sight of men. Now, that is the Message of Fatima. Therefore, they will then turn the seat of the Pope in Rome over to "Christ."

But, we know as Seventh-day Adventists that when Satan personates Christ in this history [following The Sunday Law], that he is going to call fire down from out of heaven.

So, he wanted a worldwide church in order to—(pause)—he did not want the Mormon Church, because his only influence would be in Utah and the surrounding areas. So, he built a worldwide church.

But, Satan is also wanting to exercise his political control. So, he raises up a worldwide government, and that is the Dragon power that we have been dealing with.

So, anyway, right in this history, here is where Satan personates Christ. And we read a quote that he is allowed to do so until when? It says, until probation closes: he does his marvelous works until probation closes. And there is just logic to that: after every case is decided, how can you be deceived one way or another? It is in this time period where the manifestation of Satan's miracles take place, after The Sunday Law in the United States and until the close of human probation.

Then we pointed out that right down here is Armageddon [the fourth waymark of Figure No. 103B}.

And we pointed out from the Scriptures that where the King of the North comes to his end in the Scriptures, he is never in Jerusalem; he is outside of Jerusalem; and, we pointed to Joel 2:20, Isaiah 10, Jeremiah 19, Isaiah 30, Isaiah 28—we pointed to several places in the Scriptures that show that when the King of the North attacks Jerusalem at the end of the world, because all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, that he never actually makes it into Jerusalem.

And in order to set up our understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11, because in the last six verses of Daniel 11, the King of the North comes to his end between the seas—and we drew the seas out—and the glorious holy mountain. And when you put a map up there and you look at the seas and Jerusalem and the glorious holy mountain, and you put the King of the North coming to his end, between those entities you put him right in the valley that is below the mountain that are the Carmel Mountains.

In fact, every Biblical battle takes place in this valley. Did you hear what I said? They all take place in this valley. They are all connected in that same area. They may be on this side of it [gesturing to his left], this side [gesturing to his right]. They are on the edge, but they are all there. That is where he [the King of the North] comes to his end with none to help, and he does not make it into Jerusalem.

Okay. So we then begin to show that in verse 40 the three powers that lead the world to Armageddon, that lead the world to the same place where the King of the North comes to his end with none to help, those three powers (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet) are all represented in verse 40. The King of the South is the Dragon; the chariots and horsemen and ships are the United States (the False Prophet); and the King of the North is the Papacy. So, we have been emphasizing here that if you are going to understand how the world gets led to Armageddon—and you better understand it because there is a warning in there; it is in Revelation 16 and Sister White comments on it—that you need to keep your garments in connection with these three powers leading the world to Armageddon. But, that is the Sixth Plague. Your garments are already set one way or another by the Sixth Plague; therefore, there is a warning about these three powers that lead the world to Armageddon that we must understand long before it gets to Armageddon.

And the warning that we must understand is Daniel 11, verse 40; because, Daniel 11, verse 40 is the Armageddon warning because that is where the three end-time powers that are going to march the world to Armageddon begin their activity. Therefore, the warning of Armageddon is Daniel 11, verse 40.

This is all review, of course. Is everyone with me so far?

Then in this history we began to identify that the history of Daniel 11, verse 40, is a specific history that is specifically addressed in the Scriptures. So far we have shown four places in the Scriptures where the history of 1798 to The Sunday Law is marked. Okay? That is Daniel 11:40, and it continues to Daniel 11:41 which is The Sunday Law. There is one verse that has this same history.

We looked at Tyre (Isaiah 23), when the Papacy (Tyre) is going to be forgotten for 70 years. She is forgotten when she receives her deadly wound in 1798, and then she commits fornication. Then she begins to sing her song at the end of the 70 years.

And the 70 years is identified in Isaiah 23 as the days of one king, which are the days of one kingdom. The days of the kingdom of the United States begins in 1798 and ends when the United States surrenders its "kingship" to the Pope of Rome by committing fornication with the Pope of Rome—right?—because, the first king that she [Rome] is going to commit fornication with at the end of the world is the United States; because, the United States is the first to lead out, and then every country will follow the example of the United States.

So, right here [at The Sunday Law] the United States is coming into a church-state relationship with the King of the North (the Papacy), just as Clovis did, finalizing this church-state relationship. And what happens here? The United States unites with the Dragon.

Now the United States is going to the world saying, "You need to set up a One World Government, like we have already set up in the United States," that is like the Papacy governed the world during the 1260 years.

So, that is the history of 1798: Tyre is forgotten; the days of one king until The Sunday Law when she [Rome (Jezebel)] commits fornication with Ahab (the United States).

We also looked at the story of Elijah that ends after 1260 years of drought, 1260 days of drought when Jezebel was ruling [(1260 years) when the Catholic Church was ruling]; and, then Elijah comes on the scene and, among other things he identifies that when you get down here to the time of Carmel, the true and false prophets are going to be manifested.

And the true and false prophets in the history of the Millerites had to do with the Protestants rejecting the First Angel's Message and beginning to fulfill their role as a false prophet; and, the Millerites (Millerite Adventism) being identified as the true prophet.

But, down here in our history [at the second waymark of Figure No. 103B, onward], this is where Adventism is being divided into two classes. And one class is receiving the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and is beginning to be lifted up as an ensign, just in advance of The Sunday Law; and the other class is receiving the outpouring of the strong delusion, just prior to The Sunday Law. And that is in the story of Elijah; right in here the true and false prophets of Adventism are demonstrated.

And then we looked at the story of Chosroes, the story of the long, drawn-out battle between these two powers that prefigures the long, drawn-out battle between the King of the North and the King of the South in Daniel 11, verse 40,

And, we found in this story what is being emphasized as after the battle ends in 1989, which is in this history here [see Figure 103C], then you expect to see Islam to come into history, because that is what happened in the history of Revelation 9.

And we looked at the history of the battle of the King of the South up against the King of the North, the Battle of Carchemish, that later ends with the King of the North returning and defeating the King of the South. That is Daniel 11, verse 40. That is the Battle of Carchemish and Josiah, and we identified that Josiah rejects the warning message of Daniel 11, verse 40, and ends up dead at Megiddo (or Armageddon), therefore saying that the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church that rejects the warning message of Daniel 11, verse 40, is leading themselves to Armageddon.

Then I also identified that not only should this message be a message that identifies the events connected with the close of probation, as did John the Baptist's, as did William Miller's, but that in each of these histories the message of the hour is the message of a closed-door message.

And sure enough, that is what we are dealing with here, is at The Sunday Law in the United States, the door closes on Seventh-day Adventists. And this is an important ingredient because we emphasized that the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy teaches us that our greatest need is for a revival. To seek for this is our first work; but, we have been told that when we understand the Books of Daniel and Revelation as we should, there will be seen among us a great revival.

And what portions of Daniel and Revelation are we supposed to understand to receive this great revival? It is a two-step message: the first one is Daniel 11.

The second one?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Revelation 18.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 18? How about Revelation 9; that is where Islam is set forth. It is the message of the East and the North. Right? The children of the East are Islam versus the King of the North. So, it is Daniel 11 and Revelation 9.

When we understand the Books of Daniel and Revelation as we should, we will understand Revelation, chapter 9 and Daniel, chapter 11 as we should, and there will be seen among us a great revival.

But, what produces this revival, the truth that the Holy Spirit uses if He is going to awaken us out of our Laodicean sleep, is the fact that the door closes at The Sunday Law for Seventh-day Adventists. If you realize that from prophecy, if you realize that the next thing to happen is that probation is going to close and you determine to get ready for the close of probation, then what happens in your Laodicean lifestyle is that there is a revival that is produced. So, when we find that in every one of these Reform Movements there was a shut-door message, then this adds to the truth about what we are sharing here; because, this is where people stumble. This message in Adventism is Daniel 11, verse 41; because, Daniel 11, verse 41, is saying probation is about to close for Seventh-day Adventists, and this is where all the people stand up and say, "Aw, man, you are using fear." You know, they say lots of stuff! This is where the argument is: over the shut-door message.

But the reality of it is, if there is a messenger in Adventism and he does not teach a shut-door message, then you know without even thinking about it that he is not a genuine messenger, if you are going to accept the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy as your guide.

Okay. We looked at the fact that in these histories there is always a shaking illustrated. There is going to be a shaking, and the shaking is a subject of prophecy; therefore, we have the right as students of prophecy to discuss the characteristics, the dynamics of the shaking, as long as we do not cross the line and get personal about some of these people that are teaching error.

Okay. We pointed out that the characteristic of flooding the world is a characteristic of the Papacy. It overcomes the world as an overflowing scourge, as an overflowing flood.

We identified that when they [the Papacy] come into the glorious land, they "enter also," meaning that they overflowed the Soviet Union; they are going to overflow also the United States and, that when they do so it will be at The Sunday Law. We spent time showing that the glorious land is a land, and the word glorious means in sense of prominence; and, the most prominent land in the world is the United States of America.

Then we looked at how the United States of America fulfilled the same purpose for modern Israel (the Seventh-day Adventist Church), as did ancient Palestine fulfilled for Ancient Israel. And we added other lines of that.

We are almost done with our recap.

We pointed out many things that are going to happen here at The Sunday Law. Satan is going to personate Christ, the final act of the man of sin; national apostasy is followed by national ruin; the greatest darkness of all time sets in, in the United States; and, persecution begins.

Then we, yesterday, began to look at the three enemies. The three enemies that are in verse 40 (the King of the South; the King of the North; the chariots, ships, and horsemen) are the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. And the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet at the end of the world (modern Babylon) are divided into three parts.

And throughout the Scriptures you will see these three enemies represented, and when you find them they are representing modern Babylon at the end of the world; but, they are teaching different truths about modern Babylon at the end of the world. When it came to the entrance into the Promised Land (Numbers 22), or in the story of Nehemiah, the threefold enemies in both of those histories were emphasizing the negative influence of modern Babylon has upon Seventh-day Adventists as they approach the end of the world; whereas, the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet in Revelation 16 are speaking about leading the world to Armageddon, not so much identifying the influence of modern Babylon in Adventism.

Okay. We are now at the notes, Part 53. Let us begin here.

We are still dealing with Daniel 11, verses 40 and 41.

AMOS 3:7

We are going to start with Amos 3:7. It is a familiar verse.

Let us start in verse 6. Is everyone there?

Amos 3, beginning at verse 6, says,

"[6]Shall a trumpet be blown in the city,"—

A city is a kingdom. This kingdom here is the Seventh-day Adventist Church; and, the trumpet that is blown is the Seventh Trumpet on September 11, 2001.

And, yes, I understand that the Seventh Trumpet began to sound on October 22, 1844; but, the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Trumpets are not only trumpets, they are woes, and the woe aspect of the Seventh Trumpet arrived in history on September 11, 2001, and there was a group of people that began to play that trumpet.

Verse 6:

—"[6]Shall a trumpet be blown in the city,"—SHALL THE THIRD WOE BE ANNOUNCED TO ADVENTISM—"and the people not be afraid?"—

Well, the evidence is that no, they are not afraid. They are carrying on just as they were before.

—"Shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?"—

Does the Lord take responsibility for the negative fruit in Adventism? Yes, He does; but, it is not His fault.

—"[7]Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets."—

And what we are saying, Brothers and Sisters, is there is always a shut-door message, Daniel 11, verse 41. This message is saying to Adventism, "Your probation is about to close." And many people that hear this message, they do not want to hear it, and they say, "Aw, man, you never talk about the love of Jesus, the love of Christ. It is all this prophetic stuff."

And, I am telling you that the love of Christ is demonstrated by the fact that before He closes the door on Adventism, He tells them that He is going to do so through the prophetic Word.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 11, verse 41, is the love of God in action; and, the fact that we as Laodiceans spurn that love does not justify our false understanding of what Christ's love is; because, Christ's love is not human love. It is a type of love that says, "Yes, you are in a sinful, lost condition and you are going to be destroyed for eternity; but, I am letting you know in advance that your probationary time is about over and I am fully willing to take you out of that condition and turn you into a creature that can live for eternity with the redeemed." That is love. That is Daniel 11, verse 41: "Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets."

Verse 8:

"[8]The lion hath roared,"—

And who is the lion in the Scriptures? It is the Lion of the tribe of Judah; and, when Jesus is the Lion of the tribe of Judah in Revelation 4 and 5 and onward, He is the one that unseals the prophecies. He is the Dirt Brush Man and we find him roaring in Revelation, chapter 10, the Seven Thunders that are sealed up until just before the close of probation.

> "[7]Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets."—

How does He reveal his secrets to the servants the prophets?

—"[8]The lion hath roared,—"

He unseals the prophetic record.

—"who will not fear?"—

Oh, he is telling me my probation is going to close in the next verse in Daniel, that my probation is going to close at The Sunday Law. That is a fearful message!

You do not know, Brothers and Sisters. You do not know how many times after meetings that we have dealt with Daniel 11 that I had men and women come to me with tears running down their faces saying, "I get it! I understand it! I'm not ready!!"

And then I have had other people say, "Aw, this can't be God's message, because God doesn't motivate people from fear. All this is, is a bunch of scare tactics."

Brothers and Sisters, this message is the most fearful message that has ever been given to mankind, and if it does not scare you that you are in a Laodicean condition and you are about to be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord, then you are brain dead! This is a fearful message, and this fear is designed to bring you to the foot of the cross that you might get ready for the close of probation.

When the Lion roars and He unseals this message, you should fear; because, part of the message is, is He unseals it to Laodiceans that are dead, as a valley of dead, dry bones. That is fearful; should be fearful! If it is not, you need to pray for discernment.

> —"The lion hath roared, who will not fear? The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?"
>
> "[9]Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the > great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof." Amos 3:8-9 (KJV).

We are to publish this message, and this message is the message that the Lord is going to assemble all nations to the mountains of Israel. He is going to assemble them right here at Armageddon.

Let us go to our notes.

THE CLOSED DOOR

We are still dealing with the three enemies (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet), and Daniel 11, verse 41.

Daniel 11, verse 41, says,

> "[41]He [THE PAPACY] shall enter also [HE IS GOING TO COME AS AN OVERFLOWING SCOURGE, AN OVERFLOWING FLOOD] into [AND PASS OVER] the glorious land [THE UNITED STATES AT THE SUNDAY LAW], and many ~~countries~~" shall be overthrown:"—

That word countries is supplied.

> —and many ~~countries~~" shall be overthrown:"—

That is Seventh-day Adventists that are overthrown.

> —"but these shall escape"—

This word escape means escape as if by slipperiness. It is as when a bar of soap slips out of your hand in the water; but, that bar of soap was in the hand, and the hand that it was in here is the hand of the King of the North (the hand of the Papacy).

> —"but these shall escape out of his [THE KING OF THE NORTH'S] hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

These three represent a symbol of modern Babylon; but, those that "escape out of his hand" represent those that come out of Babylon, beginning at The Sunday Law, which is also Revelation 18, verse 4. And in Revelation 18, verse 4, it says, "Come out of her my people." At The Sunday Law in the United States, the message is now, "Come out of her my people." And the people that are coming out are coming out of Babylon, and Babylon is three parts: the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet; or, as Daniel says, "Edom, and Moab, and . . . Ammon."

So, you have here in verse 41—and this is where some people initially have a struggle—you have Edom, Moab, and Ammon representing modern Babylon, but you also have the people that escape from modern Babylon there; and, sometimes it is hard for people to see the distinction there, but that is what is going on.

And this is in agreement with all the testimony of end-time events in the prophetic Word. But we are not inventing some new scenario: what we are saying about verse 41, this is what was told about The Sunday Law crisis everywhere. This is what happens. Those Seventh-day

Adventists that have not prepared for the Seal of God will receive the mark of the beast. They are overthrown at The Sunday Law. And at that time period, those people that have prepared for the Seal of God are lifted up as an ensign and they begin to call the eleventh-hour workers out of Babylon.

So, what we are suggesting about Daniel 11, verse 41[11], it is Adventists, through and through, period. It just is.

So, in Testimonies, volume 9, page 97, it says,

> "More and more, as the days go by, it is becoming apparent that God's judgments are in the world."—

Do you see that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"In fire and flood and earthquake He is warning the inhabitants of this earth of His near approach. The time is nearing when the great crisis in the history of the world will have come, when every movement in the government of God will be watched with intense interest and inexpressible apprehension. In quick succession the judgments of God will follow one another—fire and flood and earthquake, with war and bloodshed.
> "Oh, that the people might know the time of their visitation!"—

Now, this is No. 53 and we have had two that are not numbered, so this is No. 55; and, we did them one day at a time, so this is way back when, when we started this worship series. But, for those of you that have watched it all the way through, and for those of you that have not, you can go back and check: We have already established when the time of God's visitation begins.

When does the time of God's visitation begin? And the answer is: When did the time of God's visitation begin in the time of Christ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In Mark 1:14-15, it says "The time is fulfilled, . . ."

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, what time was that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel 9.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, what time was it?

Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Several indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, no, no, no. That is not the time of visitation. It is not the birth of Jesus.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He was obscure for 30 years.

When is the time of visitation?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD 27.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD 27.

At what event?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At His baptism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When the dove comes down out of Heaven, that is the beginning of the time of God's visitation.

[11] To correct the misspeak of "verse 40" to "verse 41."

And how long did He visit them for? He confirmed the covenant with many for . . . ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: . . . for one week.

And in the midst of the week, He was what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Cut off.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Cut off.

So, right here [referring to the third waymark in Figure No. 103C] is His baptism.

And right here [referring to the fourth waymark in Figure No. 103C], that is The Sunday Law (the crucifixion).

And right here [referring to the fifth waymark in Figure No. 103C], that is Stephen getting stoned (when Michael stands up).

So, this [beginning at 9/11] is the time of God's visitation. It begins when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 comes down."

> —"Oh, that the people might know the time of their visitation! There are many who have not yet heard the testing truth for this time. There are many with whom the Spirit of God is striving. The time of God's destructive judgments is the time of mercy for those who have had no opportunity to learn what is truth. Tenderly will the Lord look upon them. His heart of mercy is touched; His hand is still stretched out"—

His hand is still stretched out." Notice this: "His hand is still stretched out." I want you to see that.

"His hand is still stretched out," why do I want you to see that? Because, in Daniel 11:41 that is what this is talking about, this passage. Right here at The Sunday Law begins the time of God's destructive judgments, which is a time of mercy for those who have had not opportunity to know the truth.

And who is it that has never had opportunity to know the truth?

Is it Seventh-day Adventists?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. They have had opportunity. They are going to be held accountable for the truth right here at The Sunday Law.

But, at The Sunday Law, what happens at The Sunday Law? National apostasy is followed by . . . ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: National ruin.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: . . . by national ruin.

This is the time of God's destructive judgments, but it is a time of mercy for those that have never known the truth.

And right here [at The Sunday Law], what does the Lord have? He has His hand still stretched out.

Who else has his hand stretched out?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States, right here, is stretching his hand out to take the hand of the Papacy, stretching out his hand to take the hand of Spiritualism.

And then right here [at The Sunday Law], what is happening to those people in Babylon that are coming out? They are escaping the hand of the Papacy.

What for? Because, Jesus has His hand stretched out. They are going from the hand of the Papacy to the Hand of Christ.

You have to watch the hand in this scenario, because it is part of Daniel 11, verse 41.

Christ is stretching out His hand to the eleventh-hour workers at The Sunday Law, because they have just escaped the hand of the Papacy at the very point in time when the United States is taking the hand of the Papacy and Spiritualism.

—"His hand is still stretched out to save, while"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The door is closed.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"the door is closed to those who would not enter."—

Right there [pointing to the fourth waymark of Figure No. 103], closed-door message, Daniel 11, verse 41: The Sunday Law, a closed-door message, "Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets."

—"The mercy of God is shown in His long forbearance."—

His mercy is shown, but what does His long forbearance do to me? That tells me, "Ah, I can continue playing around with this idol, because I have been playing around with this idol for three or four years and the Lord hasn't slapped my hand about it yet. So, I'm okay."

If you are on the wrong side of the issue, you think His mercy is giving you license to continue on in your Laodicean experience; but, that is a misreading of God's love and mercy. That is to be noted, because the Adventists that are on the wrong side of the issue have a misconception about God's love and God's mercy.

And this is part of the story. His mercy, his long-suffering is interpreted by one group as an attribute of who He is, and by the other group it is attributed to the fact that He is letting them continue in their sinful condition because He is not really a God of judgment.

> —"The mercy of God is shown in His long forbearance. He is holding back His judgments, waiting for the message of warning to be sounded to all. Oh, if our people would feel as they should the responsibility resting upon them to give the last message of mercy to the world, what a wonderful work would be done!" Testimonies, volume 9, 97.

INTO THE FOLD

This next quote from Review and Herald, November 22, 1906, is virtually the same, but Sister White rewrote it. It says,

"Probationary time will not continue much longer."—

I like it because she is using the word probation, and Seventh-day Adventists do not like hearing the word probation when it is connected with the word closed.

—"Probationary time will not continue much longer. Now God is withdrawing his restraining hand from the earth. Long has he been speaking to men and women through the agency of his Holy Spirit; but they have not heeded the call. Now he is speaking to his people, and to the world, by his judgments."—

Can you read sign language? That is what it is. The drought we are in, the fires, the floods that are going on around the world, the wars, that is the voice of God.

—"Now he is speaking to his people, and to the world, by his judgments. The time of these judgments is a time of mercy for those who have not yet had opportunity to learn what is truth. Tenderly will the Lord look upon them. His heart of mercy is touched; his hand is still stretched out to save. Large numbers will be admitted to the fold of safety who in these last days will hear the truth for the first time." Review and Herald, November 22, 1906.

"[16]And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd." John 10:16 (KJV).

How many folds are there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: There are two folds. The fold of Adventism is going to have large numbers of the other flock come in.

That happens right here [indicating The Sunday Law]. When the time of God's destructive judgments begin, national apostasy is followed by national ruin; but, it is a time of mercy for the eleventh-hour workers.

OTHERS GATHERED—ISAIAH 56:8

Isaiah 56:8. We have looked at that a few times. We will put it in the record once more, Isaiah 56:8.

"[8]The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him." Isaiah 56:8 (KJV).

On this side of The Sunday Law, right here [indicating between 9/11 and The Sunday Law], the Lord has gathered the outcasts of Israel; because, He is going to lift the outcasts of Israel up as an ensign; but, He is going to gather others. That is the eleventh-hour workers. And He gathers the others in the time period that is called "the time of God's destructive judgments," which is the time of mercy.

THE OUTCASTS OF ISRAEL—ISAIAH 11:12[12]

Isaiah 11, verse 12, to make sure we remember who the outcasts of Israel are:

[12] Correcting a typo in the notes from "Isaiah 11:2" to Isaiah 11:12.

> "[12]And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth." Isaiah 11:12 (KJV).

So He first gathers the outcasts of Israel, He assembles them; and, then He gathers others to them.

That is this history here, Daniel 11:40-41.

VACANCY

Have you ever driven someplace looking for a hotel and there is no vacancy? There is going to be a vacancy in this history.

Testimonies to Southern Africa, pages 50 – 51:

> "There are diligent students of the word of prophecy in all parts of the world, who are obtaining light and still greater light from searching the Scriptures. This is true of all nations, of all tribes, and all peoples. These will come from the grossest error, and will take the places of those who have had opportunities and privileges and have not prized them."—

We, early on in this worship service, identified who it is that has had great light and opportunities. Who is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventh-day Adventists.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Seventh-day Adventists.

And these people that are coming from gross darkness are going to do what? Take the places of Seventh-day Adventists that reject this message.

People do not like it when I say it like that; but, that is the way it is.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: But it does not have to be that way.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It does not have to be that way, but the ball is in your court, as they say. It does not have to be that way.

Continuing on:

> —"These have worked out"—

These people that have become eleventh-hour workers from gross darkness.

> —"These have worked out their own salvation with fear and trembling lest they become deficient in doing the ways and will of God, while those who have great light, have, through perversity of their own natural hearts, turned away from Christ because displeased with the requirements.
> "But God will not be left without witness. The one-hour labourers will be brought in at the eleventh hour, and will consecrate ability and all their entrusted means to advance the work."—

They are going to put all their entrusted means to advance the work.

—"These will receive the reward for their faithfulness, because they are true to principle and shun not their duty to declare the whole counsel of God. When those who have had abundance of light throw off the restraint which the Word of God imposes, and make void His law, others will come in to fill their place, and take their crown. . . .

"Great is the work of the Lord. Men are choosing sides. Even those supposed to be heathen will choose the side of Christ, while those who become offended, as did the disciples, will go away and walk no more with Him. And others will come in and occupy the place they have left vacant. The time is very near when man shall have reached the prescribed limits. . . The record of their works in the books of heaven is 'Weighed in the balances, and found wanting.'" Testimonies to Southern Africa, 50–51.

Please notice that this is taking place with an emphasis of the Judgment, and we know that this is the Judgment of the Living; and, these eleventh-hour workers are going to replace Seventh-day Adventists who have just been typified by Sister White as the disciples that turned and walked no more with Christ.

And we have dealt with that in this worship series. It was when Christ told the story, right here [referring to the third waymark of Figure No. 103C] of the Manna, of the Bread that came down out of Heaven, that they must eat His flesh and drink His blood, that the disciples in that history, more than any other time more disciples turned away from Christ.

Why? Because, they were unwilling to approach God's Word from the prophetic approach; they were unwilling to see that when He was talking about His flesh and His blood that they were to understand it as a spiritual symbol. They thought that He wanted—they did not think it, I do not believe—but they claimed that He was wanting them to be cannibals. They refused to accept the prophetic message.

And when is it that they turned and walked with Him no more? It was in John 6:66.

So, Sister White has been clear about that history of John applying to our day and age, in the transition that takes place between verses 40 and 41 in Daniel 11.

WE KNOW

The next quote, Manuscript Releases, volume 7, page 186:

"We know that unconsecrated Seventh-day Adventists, who have a knowledge of the truth, but who have linked themselves with worldlings will depart entirely from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits. The enemy will gladly hold out inducements to them, to lead them to carry on a warfare against the people of God. But those who are true and steadfast will have a strong and powerful defense in God." Manuscript Releases, volume 7, 186.

Seventh-day Adventists are going out.

THE SABBATH

A Word to the Little Flock, pages 18 – 19:

> "I saw that the holy Sabbath is, and will be, the separating wall between the true Israel of God and unbelievers;"—

What is the separating point? The Sabbath!

Here [at The Sunday Law] is the line in the sand, the Sabbath, all the way through, all the way through. From this point on, what separates the true from the false is the Sabbath issue.

> —"I saw that the holy Sabbath is, and will be, the separating wall between the true Israel of God and unbelievers; and that the Sabbath is the great question, to unite the hearts of God's dear waiting saints. And if one believed,"—

Is this a Seventh-day Adventist that she is going to talk about here?

> —"And if one believed, and kept the Sabbath, and received the blessing attending it, and then gave it up,"—

When do they give it up? At The Sunday Law; or, as they see The Sunday Law approaching, they give it up.

> —"and broke the holy commandment, they would"—WHAT?—"shut the gates of the Holy City against themselves,"—

They are going to close their own probation at The Sunday Law.

> —"as sure as there was a God that rules in heaven above. I saw that God had children, who do not see and keep the Sabbath."—

Here are the eleventh-hour workers.

> —"They had not rejected the light on it. And at the commencement of the time of trouble,"—

Now, I want you to focus in here. In Adventism we understand that the Time of Trouble begins when Michael stands up and human probation closes; but, that is not the time of trouble Sister White is speaking about here. We are going to let her define that in a minute.

> —"They had not rejected the light on it. And at the commencement of the time of trouble, we were filled with the Holy Ghost as we went forth and proclaimed the Sabbath more fully. This enraged the church, and nominal Adventists, as they could not refute the Sabbath truth. And at this time, God's chosen, all saw clearly that we had the truth, and they came out and endured the persecution with us." A Word to the Little Flock, 18–19.

THE LITTLE TIME OF TROUBLE

Sister White explains this time of trouble in Early Writings. She uses this same quote. And in the appendix of Early Writings, she says this:

> "1. On page 33 is given the following: 'I saw that the holy Sabbath is, and will be, the separating wall between the true Israel of God and unbelievers; and that the Sabbath is the great question to unite the hearts of God's dear, waiting saints. I saw that God had children who do not see and keep the Sabbath. They have not rejected the light upon it. And at the commencement of the time of trouble, we were filled with the Holy Ghost as we went forth and proclaimed the Sabbath more fully.'
>
> "This view was given in 1847 when there were but very few of the Advent brethren observing the Sabbath, and of these but few supposed that its observance was of sufficient importance to draw a line between the people of God and unbelievers. Now the fulfillment of that view is beginning to be seen. 'The commencement of that time of trouble,' here mentioned does not refer to the time when the plagues shall begin to be poured out,"—

It does not refer to here [when Michael stands up]. This is the Great Time of Trouble. It does not refer to that.

> —"but to a short period just before they are poured out, while Christ is in the sanctuary."—

It is in what we would call the Judgment of the Living. That is what this time of trouble refers to in this terminology.

> —"but to a short period just before they are poured out, while Christ is in the sanctuary. At that time, while the work of salvation is closing,"—

What is Christ's closing work?

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: The blotting out of sin.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: The blotting out of sins.
> When does the blotting out of sins take place? The Judgment of the Living.

> —"At that time, while the work of salvation is closing, trouble will be coming on the earth, and the nations will be angry, yet held in check"—

The nations became angry on September 11, 2001, and George Bush and the United Nations instantly put a restraint upon Islam. The nations were angered, but then immediately restrained.

> —"At that time, while the work of salvation is closing, trouble will be coming on the earth, and the nations will be angry, yet held in check so as not to prevent the work of the third angel. At that time"—

At what time? At the time when the nations are made angry yet held in check.

> —"At that time the 'latter rain,' or refreshing from the presence of the Lord, will come, to give power to the loud voice of the third angel, and prepare the saints to stand in the period when the seven last plagues shall be poured out." Early Writings, 85.

Hmm, this is the beginning of the Latter Rain [refers to the waymark of 9/11 in Figure No. 103C].

What time is she talking about here? She is talking about a time of trouble. She is saying that it is a time of trouble that takes place during the closing work of salvation, and then she tells us that at that time the nations will be angry yet held in check, and then she tells us that at that time the Latter Rain begins to sprinkle.

This Little Time of Trouble—we just read a quote previously that allows you to mark the beginning of the time of trouble (and this is where I have always marked it) at The Sunday Law. But this here is telling that the Little Time of Trouble, in one sense, begins at 9/11.

And you can track it, Brothers and Sisters, the disasters and wars and tidal waves, earthquakes, that have been hitting since 9/11.

Now, certainly they are going to greatly increase at The Sunday Law because national apostasy is followed by national ruin.

But, right here, these judgments that are the Little Time of Trouble, what are they? They are God's voice; they are God's voice.

To whom? Seventh-day Adventists, saying, "You better wrap your mind around verses 40 and 41, because probation is about to close."

WHEN/THEN

Maranatha, page 173:

> "When those that 'believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness' 2 Thessalonians 2:12, shall be left to receive strong delusion and to believe a lie, then the light of truth will shine upon all whose hearts are open to receive it, and all the children of the Lord that remain in Babylon will heed the call: 'Come out of her, my people.' Revelation 18:4." Maranatha, 173.

Revelation 18:4, this is when they are called out.

LOT'S DESCENDANTS IN SYMBOL

And a symbol of this is the story of Lot. You can see Luke 17:29-30 there in your notes.

> "[29]But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. [30]Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed." Luke 17:29–30 (KJV).

So, Christ is saying that the story of Lot is an illustration of the end of the world when the Son of Man is revealed.

When is the Son of Man revealed?

When is the Son of Man revealed?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible) . . . His glory.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, when is He revealed?

You could make that argument at 9/11, but when is He revealed?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the Second Coming.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the Second Coming, but when is He revealed?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the ensign at The Sunday Law He is revealed, because the ensign is a group of people that perfectly reflect the character of Christ; and, the world then is going to be choosing between the ensign (Christ) and Barabbas (the personation of Christ by Satan). This is when He is revealed.

When was He revealed in the story of Daniel 3? When they were thrown in the fiery furnace, then He appears and the whole world sees Him. He is revealed at The Sunday Law.

And Lot is a symbol of The Sunday Law.

MOAB AND AMMON

And Sister White says this, in Early Writings, pages 278-279:

> "Servants of God, endowed with power from on high, with their faces lighted up, and shining with holy consecration, went forth to proclaim the message from heaven. Souls that were scattered all through the religious bodies answered to the call, and the precious were hurried out of the doomed churches, as Lot was hurried out of Sodom before her destruction." Early Writings, 278–279.

Now, the reason why I am turning the corner here and talking about Lot is because Daniel 11, verse 41, Ammon and Moab are Lot's daughters and his descendants from that incestuous relationship. So, we find that Lot's daughters, that lineage, is a symbol of those that come out of Babylon at The Sunday Law; but, we see that the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy confirms this from other directions.

2 CHRONICLES 20:20-23; ISAIAH 11:10-16; DANIEL 11:41

2 Chronicles 20:20-23

Go to 2 Chronicles 20, beginning at verse 20.
Of course, we probably all can quote this verse. Right?

> "[20]And they rose early in the morning, and went forth"—

Who is this that is rising up? This is Jehoshaphat. Right? This is when he is going to use the military tactic of just going out into battle with the singers leading the way and letting the Lord do the fighting. Everyone knows that story. Right?

> —"[20]And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper."—

Where do we see the echo of that verse?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Isaiah 7?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Isaiah 7, verse 9, is it not?

And what are you supposed to believe in Isaiah 7 when this verse is being echoed? The 2520; but, we are not dealing with that.

> —"Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper. [21]And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.
> "[22]And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against"—

Who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The enemies.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The enemies.

Okay, Brothers and Sisters. Right here [at The Sunday Law], the 144,000, the ensign, what does Revelation say about these people? Do they have a song?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are going to sing the Song of Moses and the Lamb. That is going to be their battle cry. They are going to go out right here singing.

And what are they going to bring down?

> —"the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir,—

Who is mount Seir?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Edom.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is Edom.

The same three enemies that are in Daniel 11, verse 41.

> —"Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten."—

They are coming against Judah. Ah, those three enemies must be the King of the North; they must be modern Babylon that is coming against Jerusalem.

> —"[23]For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another." 2 Chronicles 20:20-23 (KJV).

But, they get smitten, Edom, Moab, and Ammon.

Isaiah 11:10-16

Go to Isaiah 11. We are not looking at Edom, Moab, and Ammon from the perspective that they represent the threefold union of the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. They represent the enemy that comes against Jerusalem, against the glorious holy mountain at the end of the world.

And in Isaiah 11, Isaiah 11 is in connection with Isaiah 10, and Isaiah 10:1 is a pronouncement against those that make unrighteous decrees. And Sister White says that this unrighteous decree in verse 1 of Isaiah 10 is The Sunday Law.

And the narrative just continues on into chapter 11, and even into chapter 12. But, in chapter 11, verse 10 of Isaiah, in the time of The Sunday Law history, it says,

> "[10]And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious."—

Okay. In The Sunday Law time period, the Lord is going to lift up an ensign and His Sabbath and His Latter Rain are going to be glorious and many people are going to respond to this Truth.

Verse 11:

> "[11]And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. [12]And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. [13]The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off:"—

This is from the story of Gideon, and Sister White comments on this verse, this phrase, in Early Writings, and she says it is a symbol of the unity that will come into the work during the Latter Rain.

> —"[13]The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. [14]But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their"—

What?

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hand.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are going to lay their hand who?

> —"they shall lay their hand upon Edom, and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them."—

These are the people that just escaped the hand of the Papacy, because the Lord had His hand stretched out still, and the Lord is going to use his ensign people to put their hands upon Edom, Moab, and Ammon and lead them into an obedience of the Truth. That is what it says, the children shall obey them. They are not going to be their servants. They are going to instruct them into the understanding of the Sabbath that they might obey the warning message of the hour.

And verse 15 says,

—"[15]And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea;"—

What is the tongue of the Egyptian sea? The tongue is what you use to speak. The speaking of a nation is an action of its legislative and judicial authorities. Egypt is the world. The world is going to pass a world Sunday Law, and that is all coming down in flames.

> —"[15]And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dryshod. [16]And there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt." Isaiah 11:10-16 (KJV).

This is the final deliverance of God's people. These are the final people that come out of modern Babylon, represented as Edom, Moab, and Ammon.

But, in Daniel 11, verse 41, we have these same three peoples representing modern Babylon but, also, as Isaiah is doing, using this symbol of modern Babylon to show where the eleventh-hour workers come out from. But, these eleventh-hour workers in Isaiah 11 are the very last ones to come out. They come out just before the final deliverance.

Daniel 11:41

But, if you go to Daniel 11:41, we will show you one thing before we close.
Daniel 11:41:

> "[41]And he [THE PAPACY] shall enter also into the glorious land [THE UNITED STATES], and many ~~countries~~ [SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS] shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand [THE HAND OF THE PAPACY], even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

This is the difference between 2 Chronicles 20 and Isaiah 11. Here these three tribes associated with the chief of the children of Ammon. And this word chief, it means firstfruits; therefore, what is being said here in Daniel 11:41 is, the very first people to come out of Babylon do so in Daniel 11, verse 41, at The Sunday Law in the United States. This is where revelation 18:4 begins, "Come out of her my people," and the first people to come out of Babylon come out in Daniel 11, verse 41; and, they are represented not simply as Edom, Moab, and Ammon but the chief of the children of Ammon. And the word chief means firstfruits. They are the first to come out of Babylon; because, it all starts in verse 41 at The Sunday Law in the United States.

HANDS

Let me read through these next quotes quickly; because, they are important but they are not a primary point that I want to make, and I do not want to have to make them to start the next presentation tomorrow. But, I do want to get them into the record.

Testimonies, volume 5, page 712:

> "When our nation shall so abjure the principles of its government as to enact a Sunday law, Protestantism will in this act join hands with popery." Testimonies, volume 5, 712.

The next quote talks about how the United States prepares to join hands with the Papacy. Review and Herald, June 1, 1886:

> "How the Roman Church can clear herself from the charge of idolatry we cannot see. . . . And this is the religion which Protestants are beginning to look upon with so much favor, and will eventually be united with Protestantism. This union will not, however, be effected by a change in Catholicism; for Rome never changes. She claims infallibility. It is Protestantism that will change. The adoption of liberal ideas on its part will bring it where it can clasp the hand of Catholicism." Review and Herald, June 1, 1886.

The next quote, from Testimonies, volume 5, page 451, is one of those quotes where the United States is stretching its hand to grasp the hand of Spiritualism and also Rome. The point being here is that one of the things you have to watch in Daniel 11:41, once you know it is The Sunday Law, then you have all the other lines—remember, line upon line, here a little, there a little—you have all the other lines of Inspiration to bring in here to realize that the hand is one of the issues here. Here is where the United States is taking the hand of the Dragon, taking the hand of the King of the North. Here is where the eleventh-hour workers, represented as Edom, Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon, escape the hand of the Papacy; and, it is at this point that the ensign, the wise of Adventism, are laying their hands upon those people to lead them into obedience because Christ has His hand stretched out [still] to save.

> "By the decree enforcing the institution of the Papacy in violation of the law of God, our nation will disconnect herself fully from righteousness. When Protestantism shall stretch her hand across the gulf to grasp the hand of the Roman power, when she shall reach over the abyss to clasp hands with Spiritualism, when, under the influence of this threefold union, our country shall repudiate every principle of its Constitution as a Protestant and republican government, and shall make provision for the propagation of papal falsehoods and delusions, then we may know that the time has come for the marvelous working of Satan and that the end is near." Testimonies, volume 5, 451.

So, this "hand" is worth noting in this verse. And you want to know it, because in the next verse he (the King of the North) is going to stretch his hand out upon Egypt as well.

STEPS

In clasping the hand of the Papacy, you are walking in its steps. You can see that here under a couple of quotes about the United States walking in step with the Papacy.

The Great Controversy, page 588:

"The Protestants of the United States will be foremost in stretching their hands across the gulf to grasp the hand of Spiritualism; they will reach over the abyss to clasp hands with the Roman power; and under the influence of this threefold union, this country will follow in the steps of Rome in trampling on the rights of conscience." The Great Controversy, 588.

The Great Controversy, page 573:

"In the movements now in progress in the United States to secure for the institutions and usages of the church the support of the state, Protestants are following in the steps of papists. Nay, more, they are opening the door for the Papacy to regain in Protestant America the supremacy which she has lost in the Old World." The Great Controversy, 573.

And Amos 3:3 says,

"[3]Can two walk together, except they be agreed?" Amos 3:3 (KJV).

So, when they are clasping hands, it means they are in agreement; they are walking together. And we want to know this, because when we get to verse 43, Libya and Ethiopia are going to be in his steps, meaning the whole world is going to come into agreement with the Papacy. They are going to walk with him. That is one of the little themes in these verses that you need to see.

But, when you join hands with the Papacy, you are walking with the Papacy! You are in agreement with the Papacy. When you escape the hands of the Papacy, you are going into the hand of Christ.

THE CHRISTIAN THEATRE

Another argument that is sometimes brought up is, "Well, yeah, maybe the Soviet Union collapsed in 1989, but there are still communists in the world. What about China? What about Vietnam?" so on and so forth.

The Old Testament prophecies are illustrated with the geography of the Middle East. Okay? The Old Testament prophecies are illustrated with the geography of the Middle East.

But, the end-of-the-world prophecies, they are to be applied to Christendom. That is what Sister White says. Run the word Christendom in the Spirit of Prophecy CD-ROM, and you will find that the focus of end-time Bible prophecy is to be illustrated in Christendom.

And Christendom is a word that we do not use here in modern America, but it was a common word in the time of Ellen White; and it has a specific definition. Christendom is the countries in the world that have come under a strong influence of Christianity; such as, Europe and the Americas. Europe and the Americas are Christendom.

You have a few quotes here.

Review and Herald, February 7, 1893:

"In the great conflict between faith and unbelief, the whole Christian world will be involved." Review and Herald, February 7, 1893.

The Great Controversy, page 464:

> "Before the final visitation of God's judgments upon the earth there will be among the people of the Lord such a revival of primitive godliness as has not been witnessed since apostolic times. The Spirit and power of God will be poured out upon His children. At that time many will separate themselves from those churches in which the love of the world has supplanted love for God and His Word. Many, both ministers and people, will gladly accept those great truths which God has caused to be proclaimed at this time to prepare a people for the Lord's second coming. . . . Under a religious guise, Satan will seek to extend his influence over the Christian world." The Great Controversy, 464.

Passing over the big quote [from The Great Controversy, page 464] to Selected Messages, book 3, page 392:

> "The so-called Christian world is to be the theater of great and decisive actions." Selected Messages, book 3, 392.

What is the theater? The theater is the Christian world.

Why am I saying this? I am saying this because Sister White tells us, when it comes to The Sunday Law crisis, every nation in the world is going to be involved, including nations like India and China.

But, when it comes to applying end-time Bible prophecy, you do not worry about India and China. They are outside the geographical scope of Christendom.

Russia is Christendom. Europe is Christendom.

The sweeping away of the King of the South in 1989 [the Soviet Union] is in that region; whereas, China is not.

It is not so much about Communism; it is about the movement of the Dragon from atheistic France to the Soviet Union, to the United Nations. It is about the movement of the Dragon; because the Dragon is one of the powers that is leading you and me to Armageddon. So, it is about Christendom.

The Great Controversy, page 450:

> "All Christendom will be divided into two great classes." The Great Controversy, 450.

The last quote, The Great Controversy, page 615:

> "As the Sabbath has become the special point of controversy throughout Christendom, and religious and secular authorities have combined to enforce the observance of the Sunday, the persistent refusal of a small minority to yield to the popular demand will make them objects of universal execration." The Great Controversy, 615.

What does universal mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Worldwide.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Worldwide.

So, the focus of end-time Bible prophecy is in the geography of Christendom; so, we are not worried about communism in China or Vietnam. The king of Communism in Christendom was swept away in 1989 in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40; and, that was the key to let Seventh-day Adventists understand that the next thing that was going to happen was their probation was going to close. And if they do not prepare for that event, they are going to be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that you are allowing us to see your work in opening these verses of Scripture and confirming their relationship to our history as Seventh-day Adventists, a history that includes a scattering time, when the foundational truths are covered up. We thank you that you are uncovering these truths and leading us to an understanding that our probation is about to close. We ask that you give us the faithfulness and the courage to bring our life into agreement with these truths. We ask that you provide opportunities for us to share these things with individuals that we might give out the oil that you have given to us, in order for us to receive more. We set before you this day of service. The other messages that are coming, we ask that you bless Pastor Sankey's presentation this day. Bless the work that we are doing with the recording and the LiveStreaming, and let us do what we do for you today safely, in a way that will glorify you. We ask in Jesus's name, amen.

OVERTHROWN

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Turn with me to Daniel 11, if you would.

One of the principles in William Miller's Rules is that every word should have its place in any particular passage of prophecy that you are dealing with.

In Daniel 11, verse 40, it says,

> "[40]And at the time of the end"—

And we have identified that the Time of the End as 1798.

> —"shall the king of the south"—

And we have identified the King of the South as the king of Atheism. In the 1798 time period, according to Revelation 11, verse 8, that is atheistic France.

> —"shall the king of the south push at him:"—

This word push means war against. Atheistic France would begin a war against the King of the North.

And we have identified the King of the North as the Papacy. And, sure enough, in 1798 the Papacy received the deadly wound at the hands of atheistic France.

But, there is a colon, and it says,

> —"and the king of the north [MODERN ROME (MODERN PAPACY)] shall come against him"—

". . . shall come against [the king of Atheism]," who at the end of the world has moved from France to the Soviet Union.

> —"the king of the north shall come against him [THE KING OF ATHEISM (THE SOVIET UNION)] like a whirlwind,"—

Which means a mighty sweeping away; and, of course, every historian emphasizes how fast the Soviet Union was swept away, once the process began. It was like a whirlwind.

And when he sweeps away the Soviet Union like a whirlwind, he brings with it his ally, his prophetic ally at the end of the world (the United States), where it says, he comes —"with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships;"—

And the ally of the Papacy at the end of the world, according to Revelation 13, is the United States. And, the two strengths of the United States at the end of the world is economic and military strength; and, the chariots and horsemen represent military strength and the ships represent economic strength.

> —"and he [the King of the North (THE PAPACY/MODERN ROME)] shall enter into the countries,"—

Whoever the King of the South is when this prophecy is fulfilled, it is a confederacy of countries, in the plural; and, sure enough, the Soviet Union was a confederacy of countries.

> —"and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40 (KJV).

And this sweeping across the Soviet Union, the overflowing, is a Biblical term for how the King of the North, how modern Rome conquers: it overflows the banks of the Euphrates.

So, every word in verse 40 we have addressed. Every word in verse 40 has a relation to the other words in verse 40. It is not broken; it is not fractured; it is a consistent thought. And, the thought that we are applying to verse 40, it is in agreement with how we understand end-time Bible prophecy as Seventh-day Adventists. So, it is not some new and strange idea outside the scope of traditional prophetic understanding within Adventism. And when I say traditional, I mean correct traditional understanding.

And then in verse 41, it says,

> "[41]He [THE KING OF THE NORTH (MODERN ROME)] shall enter also into the glorious land,"—

It is this compromise in verse 40 that takes place with the United States and the Papacy that prepares the way for The Sunday Law in the United States. So, the King of the North (the Papacy) is coming into the glorious land (the United States) the same way that he swept over the Soviet Union. He comes as a flood. This is the overflowing symbol of the Papacy.

> —"and many ~~countries~~ shall be overthrown:"—

This word countries is supplied. We are going to show that at The Sunday Law it is many people that are overthrown.

> —"but these shall escape out of his hand,"—

This word escape is identifying that whoever escapes out of his hand at The Sunday Law in the United States has previously been in the hand of the Papacy. And the Papacy is the head of modern Babylon, and modern Babylon is divided into three parts: the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. So, when Daniel, here in verse 41, is describing those that come out of Babylon at The Sunday Law in the United States, when the message becomes, "Come out of her my people," in agreement with Revelation 18:4, He uses Edom, Moab and Ammon to represent modern Babylon, not the role of modern Babylon in leading the world to Armageddon, not the role of modern Babylon that you see in places in the Scriptures that show the influence of modern Babylon upon modern Israel (the Seventh-day Adventist Church). Here Daniel is illustrating those that come out of Babylon at The Sunday Law in the United States.

> —"even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

And when describing them [those that come out of Babylon at The Sunday Law in the United States], Daniel also uses the words, "the chief of the children of Ammon." And, this word chief means firstfruits, therefore identifying that this is where the first eleventh-hour workers begin to come out of Babylon at The Sunday Law in the United States.

Now we are going to look at specifically—although we have referenced this repeatedly—at the word overthrown: "and many shall be overthrown," and the "many" that shall be overthrown are Seventh-day Adventists; and, this truth, the many that shall be overthrown, it is this truth that Seventh-day Adventists are unwilling to accept. This is the truth that the Holy Spirit uses, if you are willing to allow Him to use this truth in your life, He uses this to tell you that you are not ready for the close of probation and to lead you to the foot of the cross that He can accomplish a revival in your life that you might be ready for the Seal of God when The Sunday Law comes. But, Adventism, they do not want to hear this.

So, this, in some sense, is the very heart of this passage. This is the shut-door message. Every generation has a shut-door message. This is the message designed by God to produce a revival among Seventh-day Adventists. I mean, the entire verse [Daniel 11:41] is the message, but the punch line of it is, is that at The Sunday Law in the United States many Seventh-day Adventists are going to be overthrown. So, we are going to deal with that word.

And when have done that today, then we have given a consistent, congruent presentation of these two versus: every word, every thought connected with one another, and in agreement with the Book of Revelation and traditional correct Adventist understanding about end-time Bible prophecy.

So, in your notes, from Bible Training School, February 2, 1913, it says,

> "Roman Catholics acknowledge that the change in the Sabbath was made by their church, and they cite this very change as evidence of the supreme authority of the church. They declare that by observing the first day of the week as the Sabbath, Protestants are recognizing her power to legislate in divine things. The Roman church has not relinquished her claim to infallibility; and when the world and the Protestant churches accept a spurious Sabbath of her creating, while they reject the Sabbath of Jehovah, they virtually acknowledge this claim. They may cite the authority for this change, but the fallacy of their reasoning is easily discerned. The papist is sharp enough to see that Protestants are deceiving themselves, willingly closing their eyes"—

And I have that phrase bold-faced to remind us of Isaiah 23, that the Papacy is forgotten until The Sunday Law in the United States. And the reason she is forgotten is that the Protestants—and why do we call Protestants "Protesta t s"? It is because they are to protest Rome, and they forget who and what they are and who they are supposed to be protesting. They . . .

—"willingly close their eyes to the facts in the case. As the Sunday institution gains favor, he rejoices, feeling assured that it will eventually bring the whole Protestant world under the banner of Rome.

"The change of the Sabbath is the sign or mark of the authority of the Roman church. Those who, understanding the claims of the fourth commandment,"—

But, you do not really have to understand the claims of the fourth commandment to be impacted by what Sister White is going to say. If you have had opportunity to understand the claims of the fourth commandment and rejected your opportunity to understand those claims, then you are going to be held accountable, the same as one who does understand those claims. So, it is even a little bit broader. But the point is, who understands the claims of the fourth commandment before The Sunday Law in the United States?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Adventists.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: One group of people. There are others, you know, the Jews, and there are some other Protestant sects that keep the seventh-day Sabbath; but, by and large, the people that will be held accountable for this are Seventh-day Adventists because this is simply not the Sabbath that they are going to be held accountable to. Seventh-day Adventists are going to be held accountable for understanding the broad implications of the Third Angel's Message in relation to the Sabbath, and there are not any other people that understand that.

—"Those who, understanding the claims of the fourth commandment, choose to observe the false Sabbath in the place of the true, are thereby paying homage to that power by which alone it is commanded. The mark of the beast is the papal Sabbath, which has been accepted by the world in the place of the day of God's appointment.

"But the time to receive the mark of the beast, as designated in prophecy, has not yet come."—

What is the time to receive the mark of the beast? The Sunday Law in the United States; it has not yet come.

—"The testing time has not yet come. There are true Christians in every church, not excepting the Roman Catholic communion. None are condemned until they have had the light and have seen the obligation of the fourth commandment. But when the decree shall go forth enforcing the counterfeit Sabbath, and when the loud cry of the third angel shall warn men against the worship of the beast and his image, the line will be clearly drawn between the false and the true. Then those who still continue in transgression"—

Who would that be?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventh-day Adventists.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Seventh-day Adventists. They are the only ones that are held accountable for that light at The Sunday Law.

And we are talking about The Sunday Law here, ". . . when the decree shall go forth . . . ." Okay?

> —"Then those who still continue in transgression will receive the mark of the beast in their foreheads or in their hands.
> "With rapid steps we are approaching this period. When Protestant churches shall unite with the secular power to sustain a false religion, for opposing which their ancestors endured the fiercest persecution, then will the papal Sabbath be enforced by the combined authority of church and state. There will be a national apostasy, which will end only in national ruin." Bible Training School, February 2, 1913.

So, the point here that we want to put in place is that the only people that are going to be held accountable for the light on the Sabbath when the King of the North conquers the glorious land in Daniel 11, verse 41, are Seventh-day Adventists; therefore, they are the "many" that are overthrown.

LIFTING THE ENSIGN

At the same time, the verse does not specifically address it, but in contrast with those that are overthrown, there is a group that are being at this time lifted up as an ensign; and, the lifting-up process takes place just prior to The Sunday Law.

And it is hard to understand, if you are in this message—I think it is hard to understand—how those that are in this message and are faithful to it are going to be lifted up as an ensign. It is hard to understand how, just before The Sunday Law, that group of people that are the outcasts of Adventism are suddenly going to become the focus that allows them to become publically lifted up; but, they are. That is the story of Elijah. Elijah has come to restore all things.

And where was Elijah located in his illustration of the end of the world at Carmel? Where was he at Carmel? He was in Israel, was he not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He was dealing with Israel, the Northern Kingdom.

How many tribes in the Northern Kingdom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, if he was dealing with Israel with 10 tribes, why did he put 12 stones on the altar?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because he came to restore all things.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And the restoration of Israel is the restoration of all 12, the restoration of the 144,000.

When that fire came down before the prophets of Baal were killed, which is the third waymark, The Sunday Law, when that fire came down, what happened to those rocks, those 12 stones? They were illuminated. Okay?

Who else was illuminated in a similar fashion? Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; the same history. They were illuminated.

The ensign is starting to be lifted up somehow, some way, just before The Sunday Law.

The Great Controversy speaks about just before The Sunday Law. It says,

> "Heretofore those who presented the third angel's message have often been regarded as mere alarmists."—

Brothers and Sisters, we have not taken a great deal of time to make this particularly point, but Sister White says repeatedly in her writings that there are people that are preaching, ministers that are preaching the Third Angel's Message, that do not understand what the Third Angel's Message is. And this message here is the Third Angel's Message, and anyone in Adventism that does not have the spiritual discernment to recognize that this is the Third Angel's Message and is preaching another message in opposition to this, and claiming that their message is the Third Angel's Message, is wrong. There is only one message that is the Third Angel's Message, and to think that there is not going to be a counterfeit Third Angel's Message at the time that the Third Angel's Message is becoming present truth is to really not understand the work of Satan to counterfeit the truth, and the fact that the counterfeit always precedes the Truth.

So, in Adventism, just before The Sunday Law, there is going to be one group of people that are presenting the truth, the Third Angel's Message; and, there are going to be other groups presenting what they claim to be the Third Angel's Message and they are going to be opposing the true Third Angel's Message.

So, why am I saying this? Because, if you understand that, then when she says, "Heretofore those who presented the third angel's message have often been regarded as mere alarmists," she is talking about that group that is preaching the real Three Angels' Messages in Adventism and they have already been labeled as alarmists.

Why are they alarmists? Well, because they say on 9/11 the Judgment of the Living began, the Latter Rain began to sprinkle, and that the judgments of God have now arrived, and that probation is about to close.

"Oh, that is a divisive message! That is an alarmist message, and you are trying to lead the people or bring the people into this message through fear! This isn't the love of God. God wouldn't bring judgment upon His people!"

So, before The Sunday Law, that is what she says:

> —Heretofore those who presented the third angel's message"—

And she is not talking about the counterfeit preachers or the counterfeit Three Angels' Messages. There is a group in Adventism prior to The Sunday Law that is presenting the genuine Three Angels' Messages, and before The Sunday Law they have already been labeled as alarmists.

> —"Their predictions that religious intolerance would gain control in the United States, that church and state would unite to persecute those who keep the commandments of God, have been pronounced groundless and absurd. . . . But as the question of enforcing Sunday observance is widely agitated,"—

So, this is before The Sunday Law, is it not?

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: The question is now being agitated.

—"the event so long doubted and disbelieved is seen to be approaching, and the third message will produce an effect which it could not have had before."—

What does that mean? That means those people that have been truly presenting the Three Angels' Messages are going to now have history screaming out that they are right, they are right! And "the hypocrites in Zion," as the Bible labels them, the hypocrites in Zion are suddenly going to become afraid because they are going to realize that they have been fighting that very group that has been making these predictions, and suddenly there is going to be a division that is even wider than it already is between these two classes in Adventism.

What is happening to the one class? Strong delusion.

And to the other class, they are seeing their message confirmed by the unfolding history.

And how does that history come? The final movements are rapid ones.

—"But as the question of enforcing Sunday observance is widely agitated, the event so long doubted and disbelieved is seen to be approaching, and the third message will produce an effect which it could not have had before." The Great Controversy, 605–606.

Who are going to be the ones that are the alarmists in connection with this passage? It is those people that have been saying that Daniel 11:41 is The Sunday Law in the United States where probation closes as Adventists.
