And they are talking about it in Congress. That is just what we have been saying with this message. Okay? There is a power that comes into it.

The scoffers in the audience at meetings like this, on this Message, they are not going to be scoffing when they come to the meeting that day and the headline on the front page says that the Senate is taking up a measure about whether or not we should enforce Sunday observance in the United States. Those scoffers are going to be silent at that point.

But the preachers of this Message, they are going to be empowered—right?—just by the historical circumstances. There is a power that comes into the Movement that heretofore could not have been recognized.

THE STORM APPROACHES

The Great Controversy, page 608:

"As the storm approaches,"—

What is the storm? The Sunday Law, but it is not here yet.

—"As the storm approaches,"—

A small class or a large class?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A large class.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"a large class who have professed faith in the third angel's message, but have not been sanctified through obedience to the truth, abandon their position and join the ranks of the opposition." The Great Controversy, 608.

A brother from the United Kingdom has emailed me a question about a week ago, about something we did in worship on the board. And I intend to answer his question, the Lord willing, at some point in time; but, I could not get to it because we were doing this, and I knew that I would get to his question at some point in time in the email dialogue.

So, yesterday he emailed me back and said, "Did you get my question?"

And he had some other stuff, but his opening question was, "Did you get my question?"

And I emailed him back and I said, "Yes, I got your question but we are really busy here with having weekly meetings," and with this, and that, and the other.

And then this morning I got up and he had emailed me back and he said, "That's fine. I'll wait."

But I had noticed that the heading on his last email and on this one was "Disfellowshipping."

So, I went back in and I read yesterday's email entirely, instead of just the opening line, which was, "Did you get my previous question?" And the following paragraphs were that they are bringing him to disfellowship him—and this is in the United Kingdom—over this Message. They told him, they were going to give him one hour and they want him to address this."

And he is saying, "One hour is not enough. And if this is where I am going to be disfellowshipped, I want to say what I want to say."

But the point is, is that this is happening all over the world now. I mean, I know what country in the United Kingdom it is, but I am just not saying it because he does not need that kind of pressure.

Okay. So,

> "As the storm approaches, a large class who have professed faith in the third angel's message, but have not been sanctified through obedience to the truth, abandon their position and join the ranks of the opposition." The Great Controversy, 608.

Part of the sanctification process that is accomplished with this Message is accomplished by dealing with a church that is fighting against this Message. That is why Jeremiah and Ezekiel are told to, "Eat this Little Book and take this message to the rebels of modern Israel, and I will give you a forehead like a diamond, because you are going to need it, because they are going to fight against you."

But, if you do not go into this process and allow your forehead to become a diamond, then you are not allowing the work that is represented on your forehead to take place; and, the work that is represented upon your forehead is the Seal of God. So, when you are being brought into these situations, it is part of the sealing process; but, there is a large group, a large class in Adventism that have refused the sanctification process of the Third Angel's Message.

And I have met many, many people that you can tell by what they are saying that they understand this Message, but the reason that they do not take it up and run with it is they know it is going to cost them their position in the church or their influence among friends. That is one of the main reasons people do not take this up, is just peer pressure. But, that is the sanctification process that is associated with the Third Angel's Message. If you cannot deal with the persecution in Adventism, you certainly will not be able to deal with the persecution that comes with The Sunday Law when every earthly support is cut off.

So, these people here are a large class. They profess the Third Angel's Message, but they did not take the Third Angel's Message up and let it work in their own experience. So, when they see what is happening, and they understand it, they see it, "This is The Sunday Law. This is it," they know what that means, and they get out of town because they do not want to go through that process.

A SOUND APPEARANCE

Anyway, they look like genuine Christians.

Evangelism, page 360:

> "In the absence of the persecution there have drifted into our ranks men who appear sound and their Christianity unquestionable, but who, if persecution should arise, would go out from us." Evangelism, 360.

So, I guess that is in agreement with what Jesus said, "You can't tell the wheat from the tares until the harvest time, and then you can tell."

THE SHAKING

Testimonies, volume 4, page 89:

> "I was pointed to the providence of God among His people and was shown that every trial made by the refining, purifying process upon professed Christians proves some to be dross. The fine gold does not always appear. In every religious crisis some fall under temptation. The shaking of God blows away multitudes like dry leaves."—

What is the shaking of God? We dealt with that a few presentations back.

What causes the shaking? The introduction of the straight testimony. And it is those people that oppose the straight testimony that cause the shaking.

And,

> —"The shaking of God blows away multitudes like dry leaves."—

The people that are fighting against the message, they are going to get blown away like dry leaves.

> —"Prosperity multiplies a mass of professors. Adversity purges them out of the church. As a class, their spirits are not steadfast with God. They go out from us because they are not of us; for when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, many are offended." Testimonies, volume 4, 89.

What is the verbiage Sister White is using there? John 6, where the Disciples go out at 6:66, at The Sunday Law.

And, "They go out from us because they are not of us." This is one of the tricks in Adventism. You know, you have people that do not have their heads on straight, that they see the problems in the Adventist Church and they say, "We need to separate?" You know? "The Church is Babylon. Come out of the Seventh-day Adventist Church," in spite of the fact that it is plain and in the Spirit of Prophecy that this is not so. The Adventist Church is symbolized in the Book of Revelation, and so is Babylon symbolized in the Book of Revelation. They are two different symbols, and you do not have the prophetic authority to mix the symbols just because you have been offended by what is going on in the Adventist Church.

And Sister White plainly says the Seventh-day Adventist Church is not Babylon, and there is not going to be a message that identifies her as such.

But, when the condition of the Church is as it is in many places today, it seems like you need to withdraw from this Adventist Church; but, what we forget is the prophetic testimony is, is those people that are in the Church that are not genuinely Adventists, they are the ones that are going to go out; and, what takes them out is the approaching Sunday Law and The Sunday Law. This is where they go out.

Now, some faithful people may get disfellowshipped before that time. Sobeit. That is part of the process. But, we are not supposed to separate because we do not like what is going on. We let the Lord accomplish this work, because He can tell who is the wheat and who is the tare and we cannot.

A LARGER PORTION

Selected Messages, book 2, page 368:

> "When the law of God is made void"—

Now, we have just been reading passages about The Sunday Law approaching; but, now,

> —"When the law of God is made void the church will be sifted"—

What is sifted? Wheat and tares separated.

> —"by fiery trials, and a larger portion than we now anticipate, will give heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils." Selected Messages, book 2, 368.

And, of course, I have never—I know the logic that is used to suggest that on October 22, 1844, there were 50,000 believers and they went down to 50 overnight. You can show Sister White referencing the 50,000, but I do not know that there is really any hardcore—I am pretty sure there is not—historical evidence that there were only 50 believers left on October 23rd. No one did a head count. But, still, from the historians, nobody really fights that.

So, what you have there is a 1,000:1 ratio. And this is not a Biblical rule that you can say, "It was 1,000:1, no matter what!" But, the Bible does reference the 1,000:1, also. So, it is pretty close.

So, what is a 1,000:1?

How many Adventists are there in the world today? 15 million?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 16 million.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 16 million, what is that?

Divide 16,000,000 by 1,000. That is 16,000[13] that remain, and 15,984,000 go out from among us?

Is that the right math?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, that is not what she says. She says "a larger portion than we now anticipate, will give heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils."

The only thing I can anticipate is 1,000:1. You know, I have got some rough inference there.

What is going to happen to Adventism? Man, it is going to go down to nothing!

Praise the Lord! He is raising up a sanctified ministry!

THE WORLD CAN ONLY BE WARNED

We have already used this next quote often, Bible Training School, December 1, 1903. This here is a truth that the men that fight this Message are unwilling to wrap their mind around it.

Right here, if you take this quote—and I mean there are all kinds of . . . —two or three worships ago, we did this quote with several Biblical references that are in agreement with this following quote. But, if a person would take this quote and use the simple grammar and allow the Holy Spirit to—and the Holy Spirit does not really have to wreak their mind too mind; it is not complicated—but allow the Holy Spirit to open their eyes to what this quote is saying, then it proves that probation closes for Seventh-day Adventists at The Sunday Law. And this, of course, is one of the truths that many of these men fight against.

And it says,

> "The work of the Holy Spirit is to convince the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. The world can only be warned by seeing those who believe the truth sanctified through the truth, acting upon high and holy principles, showing in a high, elevated sense, the line of demarcation between those who keep the commandments of God, and those who trample them under their feet."—

And we have read two quotes today and yesterday, two different quotes—and you may not know it, but if you went to your notes they are there—where Sister White says the Sabbath is the dividing line. Okay? So, she is building on that here.

> —"the line of demarcation between those who keep the commandments of God, and those who trample them under their feet."—

The line of demarcation is The Sunday Law.

> —"The sanctification of the Spirit signalizes the difference between those who have the seal of God, and those who keep a spurious rest-day. When the test comes, it will be clearly shown what the mark of the beast is."— [13] Correcting math on DVD from 160,000 remaining and 15,840,000 going out from among us to 16,000 remaining and 15,984,000 going out from among us.

What is the test?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Sunday Law.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Sunday Law.

> —"it will be clearly shown what the mark of the beast is. It is the keeping of Sunday. Those who after having heard the truth, continue to regard this day as holy, bear the signature of the man of sin, who thought to change times and laws." Bible Training School, December 1, 1903.

She is saying now the Protestants are going to be tested, but at The Sunday Law it will be revealed who has the Seal of God and who has the mark of the beast, and it will produce a ministry that is the Church Triumphant, not the Church Militant. The Sunday Law will bring it to life: This church will be born in a day. The Bible talks about it being born in a day. What day? The Sunday Law.

A SANCTIFIED MINISTRY

Selected Messages, book 3, page 385:

> "The great issue near at hand will weed out those"—

What does it mean "weed out"? Separating the wheat and tares.

And several times in this worship service we have read a quote where Sister White says the work of the Third Angel is to what? Separate the wheat and tares. That is The Sunday Law.

> —"The great issue near at hand will weed out those whom God has not appointed and He will have a pure, true, sanctified ministry prepared for the latter rain." Selected Messages, book 3, 385.

Praise the Lord! It is a different story now, a different story. Now it is not the issue of the struggle in Adventism. Now the ensign, the Church Triumphant, is lifted up; Satan appears to personate Christ; the world is thrown into the greatest crisis of all time; and, now the Lord has an army in His hands as He demonstrates His character for the final time, in the sense of giving men opportunity to receive it.

A GREAT CRISIS

These past two quotes have had references to great crises, one not the same crisis but you need to understand The Sunday Law is the great crisis, if you are going to understand the principle that it is in a crisis that character is demonstrated but never developed. So, we are going to look at the great crisis.

Testimonies, volume 5, page 463:

> "The work which the church has failed to do in a time of peace and prosperity she will have to do in a terrible crisis under most discouraging, forbidding circumstances. The warnings that worldly conformity has silenced or withheld must be given under the fiercest opposition from enemies of the faith. And at that time the superficial, conservative class,"—"

And I would challenge anyone listening to this DVD or LiveStream to run the word conservative in the writings of Ellen White; because, we have a class of Adventism today that call themselves "conservative Adventists," calls themselves conservative historic Adventists. And when Sister White talks about the conservative class among us, it is always in negative terms, and as she defines what the conservative class is, it is the definition of this very class in Adventism today that says, "We are the conservative Adventists." Institutions like Hartland will tell you that they are the conservative Adventists and they fulfill all the characteristics of the conservative class that Sister White speaks about, because they fight the very message of the hour.

And you just have the track record of Hartland, of identifying itself as the conservative historic leader in self-supporting ministry; yet, fighting the message of the hour.

> —"The work which the church has failed to do in a time of peace and prosperity she will have to do in a terrible crisis under most discouraging, forbidding circumstances."—

And for those of you that really get heartburn when I mention a place like Hartland, I know people there. I have friends there. I have people that I love there from personal experience, and you may think it is unnecessary to even mention that.

And some of you get offended because Hartland is the place that you think that you need to support and it is a wonderful place; but, I tell you what, those of you that are sending your children to that institution, you are not only going to have your own blood on your soul, you are going to have the blood of your children on your soul, for allowing them to go to an institution like that and get their head trained where they reject the final warning message.

And it is about time for Seventh-day Adventist moms and dads to start taking seriously their responsibility of training up their children for this time. And institutions like Hartland are training up their children to fight this Message.

You need to figure out what this Message is, and then see if the Spirit of Prophecy and the Bible endorses parents placing their children under the influence of institutions that are fighting the Third Angel's Message. That is a no-brainer, I think!

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

> —"The warnings that worldly conformity has silenced or withheld must be given under the fiercest opposition from enemies of the faith. And at that time the superficial, conservative class, whose influence has steadily retarded the progress of the work, will renounce the faith and take their stand with its avowed enemies, toward whom their sympathies have long been tending." Testimonies, volume 5, 463.

You go back into the history of Hartland. The ministry of Hartland is designed to expose the apostasies in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. They have always been at odds with the General Conference, because they are always explaining what the General Conference has done incorrectly in their publications and in their books and in their sermons.

But now that this Message is becoming active and alive, well, they are seeing some bridges with the General Conference, because the General Conference opposes this Message and so do these. So, suddenly—that institution and others. I am just using them as an example—they are finding little connections. They are becoming united to oppose one thing. All right?

And I tell you what: that is a characteristic of someone whose religion is pretty superficial. That is what Sister White says.

THE LAST GREAT CRISIS

Testimonies, volume 9, page 11:

> "The agencies of evil are combining their forces and consolidating. They are strengthening for the last great crisis."—

The Sunday Law is the last great crisis. It is a progressive history. It is not a single point in time. It is a progressive history, and the last great crisis begins at The Sunday Law.

> —"Great changes are soon to take place in our world, and the final movements will be rapid ones." Testimonies, volume 9, 11.

THE FINAL CRISIS

Review and Herald, July 16, 1901:

> "As God's people approach the final crisis, they must with increasing power proclaim the message He has given them. The warning must be given to the churches. God's requirements must be laid before those who are transgressing His law. They must be made to understand that this is a life and death question."—

Do you ever go to the websites that fight this message?

They will say, "Well, one of the problems that shows that this message isn't of the Lord right away is that these people actually claim what they are teaching are life or death."

Yeah, it is! This is a life or death question. If you reject your opportunity to awaken and prepare for the Seal of God, you are going to receive the mark of the beast, and you are going to be dead for eternity. It is a life or death question.

> —"God's remnant people are to fill the earth with the cry of the third angel." Review and Herald, July 16, 1901.

THE SOON-COMING CRISIS

Sketches from the Life of Paul, page 252, still dealing with crisis.

> "God would have his people prepared for the soon-coming crisis."—

Prepared or unprepared? This is one of those memorizers. Okay? There are some passages, come paragraphs, some verses that you need to memorize. I like this paragraph. It is one of those memorizers.

—"God would have his people prepared for the soon-coming crisis. Prepared or unprepared, we must all meet it. Only those whose characters are thoroughly disciplined to meet the divine standard will be able to stand firm in that testing time."—

How is your character going to be disciplined to stand in that testing time. How is it going to get that kind of discipline?

It gets that type of discipline, because anyone that takes up this Message—and you see it over and over again—they come across this Message from a variety of ways. They start studying this Message and, if they are of that class that says, "Wow! This is really the message," then the first thing they do is they go out to their close friends and family in the church where they are attending and they start sharing it.

And suddenly they realize, "Well, I never thought that Sister Betty or Brother Harry would have a problem with that. I have been in church with them for 20 years. I thought I understood how they related to the Truth; but, they are angry about this. What are they angry about? Why are they calling this a delusion?"

You have to understand this Message, and then you have to begin sharing it. And as you share it, you are going to find out there are very few people that are open to receive it, and it is going to cause you some distress if you have any tenderness or sympathy in your heart. And, that stress is the discipline that you must have if you are going to stand in The Sunday Law testing time.

—"Only those whose characters are thoroughly disciplined to meet the divine standard will be able to stand firm in that testing time. But when enemies shall be on every side, watching them for evil, the God of Heaven will be watching his precious jewels for good."—

Remember William Miller's dream? That is what we are dealing with here, is William Miller's dream. And we are saying that the precious jewels of William Miller's dream are the Foundational Truths [refers to the 1843 and 1850 Charts] that get covered up.

And do you remember what we shared when the Dirt Brush Man comes in and He sweeps those counterfeit doctrines out the window? Remember what we shared about Ephraim?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Those doctrines, those counterfeit doctrines, are idols; and, Ephraim is joined to his idols. So, when those jewels are swept out of the windows, the foolish virgins go out the window with them.

But, it is the same with the wise virgins. The genuine jewels become part of their experience when those jewels are lifted up as an ensign. It is because they have been changed into His image through the power of His Word that was conveyed to them through these truths that they were led back to and spent the appropriate time making those truths part of their experience.

God is watching over His jewels for good.

—"When secular rulers unite with the ministers of religion to come between God and our conscience,"—THERE IS THE SUNDAY LAW—"then those who cherish the fear of God will"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Be revealed.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"be revealed."—

What does that mean? In the Old Testament, how would that be expressed?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: An ensign.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are lifted up as an ensign. They will be revealed.

> —"When the darkness is deepest, then the light of a noble, Godlike character will shine the brightest. When every other trust fails, then it will be seen who have an abiding trust in God." Sketches from the Life of Paul, 252.

When the Decree Goes Forth

Signs of the Times, November 8, 1899:—

Did you like that paragraph, by the way [Sketches from the Life of Paul, 252]? I like that paragraph.

I kind of broke it up where you probably could not think it through. Read it. It is a nice paragraph. There are a lot of wonderful thoughts.

> "None are condemned until they have had the light and have seen the obligation of the fourth commandment."—

But, how many Seventh-day Adventists are going to be held accountable for the light of the fourth commandment?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: All of them.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Every single one of them.

> —"But when the decree shall go forth enforcing the counterfeit sabbath, and the loud cry of 'the third angel' shall warn men against the worship of the beast and his image, the line"—THERE IT IS AGAIN—"will be clearly drawn between the false and the true. Then those who still continue in transgression will receive the mark of the beast." Signs of the Times, November 8, 1899.

Who is that? Seventh-day Adventists. That is those that are overthrown in verse 41 of Daniel.

At the same time in verse 41, although it is not specifically marked in verse 41, those that are overthrown are contrasted with those that are not overthrown.

And it says in Testimonies, volume 5, page 216:

> "When the decree goes forth and the stamp is impressed, their character will remain pure and spotless for eternity." Testimonies, volume 5, 216.

What is the stamp that is impressed? The Seal of God. It is impressed upon one class when the decree goes forth, and the mark of the beast on another class when the decree goes forth. And the people that receive the mark of the beast are the people that are overthrown in Daniel 11, verse 41.

Manuscript Releases, volume 13, page 71:

> "When the law of God is being made void, when His name is dishonored, when it is considered disloyal to the laws of the land to keep the seventh day as the Sabbath, when wolves in sheep's clothing, through blindness of mind and hardness of heart, are seeking to compel the conscience, shall we give up our loyalty to God? No, no. The wrongdoer is filled with a satanic hatred against those who are loyal to the commandments of God, but the value of God's law as a rule of conduct must be made manifest. The zeal of those who obey the Lord will be increased as the world and the church unite in making void the law. They will say with the Psalmist, 'I love thy commandments above gold; yea above fine gold' [Psalm 119:127]. This is what will be sure to occur when the law of God is made void by a national act."—

What will be sure to occur when the Law of God is made law by a national act? That those people that are walking with the Lord are going to be more careful about the Law of God, and it is going to be revealed to the world.

Continuing on, it says:

> —"When Sunday is exalted and sustained by law, then the principle that actuates the people of God will be made manifest,"—

One class or both classes?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Both classes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Both classes.

It will be made manifest.

Why will it be made manifest? Because, it is in a crisis where character is demonstrated.

Now, the first time that I publically tried to teach this particular principle was in Portland, Oregon, many, many years ago. Well, maybe it was not the first time, but when I was first understanding—yeah, I think it was the first time. I know it was the first time.

The first time I intended to go to a meeting and present the principle that in a crisis character is demonstrated, I have a nice story for me. It is a story that I like that tells this story, and that is the story of the airplane crash at Tenerife. Back then it was the worst airplane crash of all times. It may still be, Tenerife being a resort island [of the Canary Islands]. And it got fogged in. It was at the end of the holiday season. All the tourists, it was the day when everyone went home, so the airport was full; but, none of the airplanes could leave because it was all fogged in. The fog starts lifting, so the full jumbo jets start taxiing on the runway to get ready to start take-off once the fog lifts, and one of these planes is taking off and it runs into another one that is taxiing. So, you have two full jumbo jets that are all full up on airplane fuel, and right there on the airport everyone burns.

Now, very few people got out, and there was a Pentecostal Christian that was in one of these planes, and he was obese by his own testimony; and, he tells a story about how he miraculously got out of this plane.

He said, "There was a hole blown above me, and I somehow jumped up through that hole," and got out on the wing and jumped off the wing and broke his leg and crawled away.

And on Time Magazine, they have a picture of this very guy crawling away from this airplane as both of these airplanes are going up in flames.

And he tells the story that when it happened, suddenly it was a ball of fire everywhere, he said. He said he was watching people instantaneously being turned into dust. He said he was watching people burn to death. And the only thing was happening was either people were praying to the Lord or cursing the Lord. He said there was nothing else.

He said, "I was amazed! That is what was going on around me. They were either cursing the Lord or praying to the Lord."

And afterwards when they listened to the black boxes on both airplanes, the crew of both airplanes were either praying or cursing the Lord.

So, I always use that story to try to demonstrate that it is in a crisis where character is demonstrated.

But, the first time, the first time that I was going to present this down in Portland is we were going down there on Friday, or whatever. It was right before the meeting started, maybe a Thursday. We were listening to the radio and some guy in a semi-truck had a CB, talking either to the guy that was in charge of all the trucks, who coordinates the trucking company he was working for, and they were telling on this radio program just how that day, or the day before, that they got a recording of this guy talking to the other guy at the office and telling him, "Oh, man, I'm running across the railroad tracks and here comes a train," and he starts praying to the Lord, and that is all she wrote.

Character is demonstrated in a crisis, and the crisis for Adventism is The Sunday Law; and, your character will be set in place before the crisis, because the crisis is where you are going to demonstrate the character that you have prepared in your previous hours of probation.

For those in Adventism that have a problem with the messengers of this Message, teaching that probation for Seventh-day Adventists closes at The Sunday Law, I tell you what, it does not close at The Sunday Law. It closes before The Sunday Law. Your character is set before The Sunday Law. The Sunday Law is simply the crisis where you are going to demonstrate what character you have.

> —"When Sunday is exalted and sustained by law, then the principle that actuates the people of God will be made manifest, as the principle of the three Hebrews was made manifest when Nebuchadnezzar commanded them to worship the golden image in the plain of Dura. We can see what our duty is when the truth is overborne by falsehood." Manuscript Releases, volume 13, 71.

THE PRINCIPLE THAT ACTUATES

The next quote, remember The Great Controversy, 393, says the parable of the Ten Virgins of Matthew 25 illustrates the experience of the Adventist people. We are the Ten Virgins.

Review and Herald, October 17, 1895:

> "Character is revealed by a crisis. When the earnest voice proclaimed at midnight, 'Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him,' the sleeping virgins roused from their slumbers, and it was seen who had made preparation for the event."—

What event are we making preparation for, Brothers and Sisters?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Sunday Law.

Why is that? Because, we are the messengers of the Third Angel's Message.

What is the Third Angel's Message? It is a warning about The Sunday Law. This is the event of Adventism!

> —"When the earnest voice proclaimed at midnight, 'Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him,' the sleeping virgins roused from their slumbers, and it was seen who had made preparation for the event. Both parties were taken unawares, but one was prepared for the emergency, and the other was found without preparation. Character is revealed by circumstances. Emergencies bring out the true metal of character. Some sudden and unlooked-for calamity, bereavement, or crisis, some unexpected sickness or anguish, something that brings the soul face to face with death, will bring out the true inwardness of the character. It will be made manifest whether or not there is any real faith in the promises of the word of God. It will be made manifest whether or not the soul is sustained by grace, whether there is oil in the vessel with the lamp.
> "Testing times come to all. How do we conduct ourselves under the test and proving of God? Do our lamps go out? or do we still keep them burning? Are we prepared for every emergency by our connection with Him who is full of grace and truth? The five wise virgins could not impart their character to the five foolish virgins. Character must be formed by us as individuals." Review and Herald, October 17, 1895.

The oil is character, and our character will be demonstrated at the crisis. And the crisis for Adventism is The Sunday Law. We have to have a character prepared for the Seal of God before The Sunday Law; but, we are sleeping Laodiceans, so we are never going to have that character prepared before The Sunday Law unless the Lord wakes us up. And the promise in God's Word is the "Lord will do nothing, except He reveal it through his servants, the prophets," so we know that because Christ is who He is, before He closes probation on Seventh-day Adventism, He is going to tell them that probation is about to close. And, the way that He speaks to us is through His prophetic Word; therefore, there has to be a prophecy in the Bible that forewarns God's people that probation is about to close at The Sunday Law, and that prophecy is Daniel 11, verses 40 and 41. It is the way that the Lion of the tribe of Judah attempts to awaken His people to the fact that the crisis is about to hit, and you better get the oil in your vessel or you are going to be lost for eternity.

IS IT SAFE TO WAIT?

Yout 's I str u tor, January 16, 1896.

> "We are now living in a most perilous time, and not one of us should be tardy in seeking a preparation for the coming of Christ. Let none follow the example of the foolish virgins, and think that it will be safe to wait until the crisis comes before gaining a preparation of character to stand in that time."—

Brothers and Sisters, this is not just a mild inference. There are at least three other passages in the Spirit of Prophecy where Sister White is speaking about the Jews and the reason that they participated in the crucifixion of Christ. And she explains the primary reason why they participated in the crucifixion of their Messiah is because they had a misunderstanding of prophecy; and, their misunderstanding of prophecy was primarily to do with that dispensation. They believed that when the Messiah would come, He was going to set up an earthly kingdom; and, that preconceived falsehood prevented them from recognizing what was going on.

And in those three places where Sister White is commenting on that history (and there may be more), she places that as a warning to us at the end of the world.

And our preconceived fallacy that is setting us up to receive the mark of the beast, our preconceived prophetic interpretation about the dispensational change does not have to do with Christ setting up His earthly or heavenly kingdom; it has to do with the Dispensation of the Holy Spirit.

We think we can wait until the Latter Rain, and then the Latter Rain is going to change us into Christ's image. That is the same thought that thinking that Jesus is going to come and set up an earthly kingdom. If you think that, then you are going to participate in the crucifixion of Christ when it is repeated in the persecution of the 144,000. You are going to choose Barabbas, instead of Christ, if you think that you can wait until the Latter Rain to overcome sin.

So, okay, this is a big theme here.

> —"Let none follow the example of the foolish virgins, and think that it will be safe to wait until the crisis comes before gaining a preparation of character to stand in that time. It will be too late to seek for the righteousness of Christ when the guests are called in and examined. Now is the time to put on the righteousness of Christ,—the wedding garment that will fit you to enter into the marriage supper of the Lamb. In the parable, the foolish virgins are represented as begging for oil, and failing to receive it at their request. This is symbolic of those who have not prepared themselves by developing a character to stand in a time of crisis. It is as if they should go to their neighbors and say, Give me your character, or I shall be lost. Those that were wise could not impart their oil to the flickering lamps of the foolish virgins. Character is not transferable. It is not to be bought or sold; it is to be acquired. The Lord has given to every individual an opportunity to obtain a righteous character through the hours of probation; but he has not provided a way by which one human agent may impart to another the character which he has developed by going through hard experiences,"—

How do you develop that character? By going through hard experiences.

> —"by learning lessons from the great Teacher, so that he can manifest patience under trial, and exercise faith so that he can remove mountains of impossibility. It > is impossible to impart the fragrance of love,—to give to another gentleness, tact, and perseverance. It is impossible for one human heart to pour into another the love of God and humanity.

> "But the day is coming, and it is close upon us, when every phase of character will be revealed by special temptation. Those who remain true to principle, who exercise faith to the end, will be those who have proved true under test and trial during the previous hours of their probation, and have formed characters after the likeness of Christ."—

Do you see how important it is to take this Message up and present it to people so those people can reject it?

There will be some that will not reject it; but, this period, this shaking, this struggle, the struggle that is represented in Ezekiel 9 as producing men and women that are sighing and crying, you have to have that. You have to learn to sing the Song of Moses and the Lamb. The Song of Moses and the Lamb include verses dealing with Moses and the Lamb struggling with a church that is in apostasy. You have to have that experience.

> —"It will be those who have cultivated close acquaintance with Christ, who, through his wisdom and grace, are partakers of the divine nature. But no human being can give to another, heart-devotion and noble qualities of mind, and supply his deficiencies with moral power. We can each do much for each other by giving to men a Christlike example, thus influencing them to go to Christ for the righteousness without which they cannot stand in the judgment. Men should prayerfully consider the important matter of character-building, and frame their characters after the divine model." T e Yout 's I str u tor, January 16, 1896.

So, in Daniel 11, verses 40 and 41, whether you recognize it—and I am sure you have, because I have pointed it out—we have now dealt with every word in those first two verses. And we are saying that when the Papacy conquers the United States at The Sunday Law, many Seventh-day Adventists are going to be overthrown. And, at that time, the call to come out of Babylon begins to be given by those that are lifted up as an ensign from Adventism, and those that come out of Babylon to stand with those faithful Seventh-day Adventists are represented by Edom, Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. That is where they come from. Not all of Babylon responds, but those who respond are illustrated in verse 41.

And we will close with this quote here from Review and Herald, April 27, 1911, that is just absolutely simple as pie, if you want to see, that you receive the mark of the beast at The Sunday Law, or the Seal of God at The Sunday Law. If you cannot see it in this, then the blindness that is upon you is just unbelievable.

> "If the light of truth has been presented to you, revealing the Sabbath of the fourth commandment, and showing that there is no foundation in the Word of God for Sunday observance, and yet you still cling to the false sabbath, refusing to keep holy the Sabbath which God calls 'my holy day,' you receive the mark of the beast. When does this take place?—When you obey the decree that commands you to cease from labor on Sunday and worship God, while you know that there is not a word in the Bible showing Sunday to be other than a common working-> day, you consent to receive the mark of the beast, and refuse the seal of God. If we receive this mark in our foreheads or in our hands, the judgments pronounced against the disobedient must fall upon us. But the seal of the living God is placed upon those who conscientiously keep the Sabbath of the Lord." Review and Herald, April 27, 1911.

When the King of the North enters the glorious land, a larger number than we now anticipate in Adventism are going to receive the mark of the beast. And a few in Adventism are going to receive the Seal of God and begin to call God's other children out of Babylon.

We shall continue this, the Lord, willing Sunday morning.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be among that class that is not overthrown in the coming crisis; but, we know to be among that class, then we have to finish the work of character development now, for it will be impossible to do so in a crisis. We give permission to you, although you do not need permission, but we give permission to you to use the Holy Spirit and the angels in any way that you see fit to reveal to us the areas in our individual experience that need to be polished, set aside, overcome, that we can be among that group that is lifted up as an ensign. We want to understand this message in such a way that we can share it with our Brothers and Sisters in Adventism, before it is too late. We ask that not only would this message change us into your image but that you would give us the ability to use this message as a tool to pull Brothers and Sisters out of the fire before it is too late. We want more holy oil, and we know that we have to share the oil to receive more oil. So, we ask that you would bring us in contact with those around us that you wish to hear a word of wisdom in due season, and give us these divine appointments that we might not only be about our business of calling others to come stand with you here at the end of the world but that the process of the oil passing through us, as we share with others, would accomplish its work of purification in our hearts and minds, we pray in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #55

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a night's rest and for awaking us for another day of opportunity to serve you, opportunity to share this final warning message with those that you bring into connection with us. We ask you accomplish divine appointments for each of us this day, this week, that we might have opportunity to present this message. As we begin another week, we thank you for the Sabbath that has just passed. We ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit now as we start the day by considering your Word. We want to be filled with your Holy Spirit, and we want the Latter Rain to be poured out upon us; so, we ask that if we have done anything that has broken the connection between we and you that you would forgive us, that you would prepare our vessels to receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at this time as we seek to understand more fully the last six verses of Daniel 11. We thank you that you are doing the work of the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the work of the Dirt Brush Man in opening these truths to us at this time. We ask that these truths would accomplish the transformation in our character. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. We are dealing with 1989 as the end of William Miller's seven scatterings, marking the Time of the End for 144,000. Every Reform Movement has a Time of the End, and the Time of the End is marked by a fulfillment of a prophecy. And when that prophecy is fulfilled, it opens up a prophetic truth that will test that particular generation, and we are saying that in 1989, with the collapse of the Soviet Union in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, that the following verses in connection with verse 40 are the events connected with the close of probation, and this is the message that is designed to test this generation, producing two classes of worshippers and then demonstrating those two classes at The Sunday Law in the United States.

We have several reasons for identifying this message as the message that is unsealed. One of them I will throw in the mix here is that John the Baptist presented a message of the events connected with the close of probation when he asked the question to the Pharisees, "Who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" And the answer to that question of "Who hath warned you?" is the Book of Daniel had warned them. John the Baptist and Christ were operating upon the prophecy of Daniel 9.

The time period of Christ was a fulfillment of Joel. Joel is fulfilled three times. It is fulfilled in the history of Christ; it is fulfilled in the history of the Millerites. And in the Millerites, the first message proclaimed by William Miller, as we have read more than once from The Great Controversy, William Miller's message was to identify the events connected with the close of probation. So, when we are talking about our message being the events connected with the close of probation as the first message for this generation, we are also identifying this as a fulfillment of the Book of Joel, where when Joel is fulfillment in these three sacred histories, the first message is an identification of the events connected with the close of probation.

We also, along that line, have pointed out that in each of these generations, there is a closed-door message, from Noah to the end of the world; therefore, anyone that says they are a messenger to Adventism at the end of the world should be identifying a message that marks the close of probation, which is, of course, what the last six verses of Daniel 11 do.

Daniel 11:41, which we just finished in our last study, marks the close of probation for Seventh-day Adventists in the United States at The Sunday Law.

We are now going to go into the rest of the verses in this sequence. And I want to say what I am going to say here. I did not know exactly where I am going to fit it in, so I am going to fit it in here, and maybe I will repeat it at the end of this presentation, if I think about it.

When we finish this presentation, if we get all the way through the notes, we will have covered the last six verses of Daniel 11. And, it is only at that point, in my mind, that someone that is listening to this presentation has the opportunity to begin to evaluate whether it is true or not. I mean, you just cannot explain every argument in one hour. So, what we have been doing and what we hope to finish here today is set in place our understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11, and we have done that over a period of time. We will bring it to a conclusion.

And at that point in time, Seventh-day Adventists are required to test the validity of that. We are supposed to be willing to investigate passages of Scripture, with one exception.

I would not do this, but I thought about doing this just to make the point: I have probably 20 books over in my library of human authors that people have given to me—not books that I have paid money for—of various authors in Adventism about prophecy. And I do not do much reading of men's books or listening to men's DVDs and audio presentations; but, if I am going to fulfill my responsibility for someone handing me off a book saying, "Would you look at this and see if it is okay?" what I do is I look at the chapter titles and say, "Okay. Here is the chapter where they are probably dealing with the Daily in the Book of Daniel," and I will go back to that chapter and I will see, "Oh, they think the Daily is Christ's sanctuary ministry. 'To the law and to the testimony, if they speak not according to this word there is no light in them,'" and I set the book aside.

There are some truths. If someone comes to you with a prophetic message that is telling you that we are supposed to worship upon Sunday instead of Sabbath, you do not have to spend any time investigating that foolishness. Okay? There are certain keys that would allow someone that has been studying to know that you should not spend your time there.

But, I am suggesting to you that when we get done today, there will not be anything that we are suggesting about these verses that is outside the logic and scope of Adventist understanding of end-time events; and, therefore, you really should investigate whether it is true or not. But, your investigation, in my mind, cannot begin until you hear what we believe, all the way through verse 45.

And in connection with that point, although we have spent a lot time in these verses, what I want you to understand is that it is tomorrow that we are going to start defending these verses, although we have been defending these things, it is the following studies where we are going to go back and look at Daniel 11:40-45 and show some arguments that we have not dealt with yet that put, I believe, these verses beyond challenge. This is the closed-door message that identifies the events that identify the close of probation.

TAKING THE WORLD

EGYPT

Daniel 11:42.

Daniel 11:40 begins with the Papacy receiving the deadly wound; and, in that very verse the Lord begins to tell the story about how the deadly wound is healed. And the beginning of the healing of the deadly wound is the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, brought about by an alliance between the United States and the Vatican.

And verse 41, the next thing to be specifically marked in this passage, is The Sunday Law in the United States where many Seventh-day Adventists will be overthrown as they take the hand of the Papacy; but, at that time, the call will go forth by those Adventists that are lifted up as an ensign, "Come out of her my people," and those people that come out of Babylon are represented as those that escape the hand of the Papacy in verse 41, represented by Edom, Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon, which is typifying the threefold makeup of modern Babylon, and that is where God's people come out of, the eleventh-hour workers in verse 41.

In verse 42: We have noticed that in verse 40 the characteristic of the Papacy conquering the world is he comes as a flood; the Euphrates overflows and it begins sweeping through the world. We have identified that this is the overflowing scourge.

And in verse 41, we can see that it says that he shall enter also, saying that the same flood of verse 40 is now hitting verse 41, The Sunday Law in the United States; and verse 42 is this same conquering process. You need to see this as a conquering that is taking place by the King of the North.

It says,

> "[42]He shall stretch forth his hand"—

The hand, hopefully, is an easy symbol for Seventh-day Adventists.

If he stretches forth his hand upon the countries, what would that mean? As Seventh-day Adventists there are two places where you are going to receive the mark of the beast, either in the forehead or in the hand. If you receive it in the forehead, it is because you believe in Sunday sacredness. If you receive it in the hand, it is because you were forced into submission; so, when he stretches his hand out upon Egypt, and "the countries" represented by Egypt, they are being forced into submission to his authority, to his rule, to The Sunday Law.

> —"[42]He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries:"—

This is plural. This is not an added word as it is in verse 41. This word countries is in here as it is in verse 40; and, in verse 40 "the countries" represent a group of countries that made up what we call the King of the South, the group of countries that were the Soviet Union.

So, whatever Egypt is here, it is a group of countries.

> —"[42]He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape." Daniel 11:42 (KJV).

This, to me, has always been the simplest symbol in all of these six verses, "Egypt." That is what we are going to identify here. And if you start right there with Egypt and identify it correctly, you can go backwards into verse 41 and 40 and, from the understanding of who Egypt is in end-time Bible prophecy, you can put verses 41 and 40 together just by going backwards. And we are not going that, but I am telling you that this symbol here, Egypt, is the easiest one to see if you are willing to see, and it is like a marker in these verses, a good point of reference for the other understandings.

Sister White says in Testimonies, volume 1, page 131,

> "Why is it so hard to lead a self-denying, humble life? Because professed Christians are not dead to the world. It is easy living after we are dead. But many are longing for the leeks and onions of Egypt. They have a disposition to act and dress as much like the world as possible and yet go to heaven. Such climb up some other way. They do not enter through the strait gate and narrow way." Testimonies, volume 1, 131.

The Egypt is a symbol of the world.

Testimonies, volume 5, beginning at page 217,

> "I am filled with sadness when I think of our condition as a people. The Lord has not closed heaven to us, but our own course of continual backsliding has separated us from God. Pride, covetousness, and love of the world have lived in the heart without fear of banishment or condemnation. . . . The church has turned back from following Christ her leader and is steadily retreating toward Egypt. . . . Have we not been seeking the friendship and applause of the world rather than the presence of Christ and a deeper knowledge of His will?" Testimonies, volume 5, 217–218.

> "The plagues of Egypt when God was about to deliver Israel were similar in character to those more terrible and extensive judgments which are to fall upon the world just before the final deliverance of God's people." The Great Controversy, 628.

Egypt is the world.

Signs of the Times, March 6, 1884:

> "Many are not growing strong, because they do not take God at his Word. They are conforming to the world. Every day they pitch their tents nearer to Egypt, when they should encamp a day's march nearer the heavenly Canaan." Signs of the Times, March 6, 1884.

Egypt is the world.

Manuscript Releases, volume 10, page 240:

> "The Lord God of Israel is to execute judgment upon the gods of this world, as upon the gods of Egypt." Manuscript Releases, volume 10, 240.

So, when the King of the North (the Papacy/modern Rome) comes into Egypt, Egypt does not escape, Egypt represents all the countries of the world.

> ESCAPE: Strong's Concordance 6413—deliverance, (that is) escape (-3), remnant. 6412: a refugee: -(that have) escape (-d, -th), fugitive.

In verse 41 the word escape is a different Hebrew word that is translated as escape here in 42. In verse 41 it means escape as if by slipperiness. But this word that is translated as escape in verse 42, you see that the definition of it here is Deliverance, (that is) escape, remnant, refugee: escaped fugitive.

So, in the context of this word, it says "and the land of Egypt shall not escape," there is not going to be a remnant that gets out of Egypt. They are not going to escape. There are going to find no deliverance. This is talking about when the entire world is taken.

But, of course, there is a remnant. I am not denying that. The ensign and the eleventh-hour workers are the remnant; but, all the rest of the world has come under the authority of the One World Government that has for a moral leader the man of sin, the Pope of Rome.

Now, right here is the logic of how you can work backwards through these verses if you wish to. If you know that the King of the North is the Papacy and he is conquering Egypt in verse 42, these next two quotes will allow you to identify who verse 41 is. It is as simple as pie, if you wish to.

Testimonies, volume 6, page 18, says,

> "As America, the land of religious liberty, shall unite with the Papacy in forcing the conscience and compelling men to honor the false sabbath, the people of every country"—*EVERY COUNTRY—"on the globe will be led to follow her example." Testimonies, volume 6, 18.

So, if Egypt is every country on the globe, then that is verse 42; but, if the United States leads out before every country accepts The Sunday Law, who is the glorious land in verse 41?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It has got to be the United States.

Testimonies, volume 6, page 395:

> "Foreign nations will follow the example of the United States. Though she leads out, yet the same crisis will come upon our people in all parts of the world." Testimonies, volume 6, 395.

Revelation 13:11-15

Revelation 13:11-15 we have been looking from time to time as we go through. There are certain things that I have taught through the years that were probably wrong, but there are certain things that I have taught through the years that may be right, that sometimes I do not have the sense that those people that have listened to them where it really clicks on. It is like, yeah, they hear what you say but they do not recognize the significance that I recognize, and maybe I am wrong about the significance. I am not holding myself up as the authority.

But, Revelation 13, there is a very important sequence in here to see.

In verse 11—and we have already gone through this—the United States speaks as a dragon.

It begins as a lamb here in 1798. Is that not when the United States begins as a Lamb?

But, at The Sunday Law, it speaks as a dragon.

So, we have pointed out, we have emphasized here more than once that Daniel 11, verse 40, is the history of 1798 to The Sunday Law; but, Revelation 13:11 is the history of 1798 to The Sunday Law: identical histories.

The history of Tyre in Isaiah 23, the history of the Papacy when she is forgotten, she is forgotten as the days of one king. She is forgotten from 1798 to The Sunday Law: the same histories.

So, here in verse 11 of Revelation 13, the United States speaks as a dragon and passes a Sunday Law; but, by the time you get to verse 14, in here [during the Time of Mercy]—let us read verse 14—the United States is forcing the world to set up an image to the beast.

Verse 14 of Revelation 13 says,

> "[14]And [THE UNITED STATES] deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live." Revelation 13:14 (KJV).

And we have spent time here. What is the only definition of the image of the beast given in Inspiration? It is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship. And we have taken time more than once in the worship series to show that when the United States passes a Sunday law in verse 41 or in Revelation 13:11, The Sunday Law is what identifies that the image of the beast has been fully formed in the United States. The Protestants in the United States have to have enough control over the government of the United States to make them pass a Sunday law, enough control that it shows that church and state have come together. And it is the Protestants that are in control of the relationship, because they are passing a Sunday law.

And if you remember, in The Great Controversy, Sister White defines the image of the beast; and, she says the mark of the beast still needs to be defined. The mark of the beast and the image of the beast are two different things. The image of the beast is the combination of church and state with the church in control of the relationship, and the mark of the beast is Sunday sacredness, Sunday worship.

So, in Revelation 13:11, you have an image of the beast. You do not see it specifically identified, but it is there; because, they pass a Sunday law when they speak as a dragon.

So, now in verse 14 the United States is going out to the entire world and saying, "You need to set up a One World Government with the church in control of this relationship."

And in verse 15, it says,

> "[15]And he [THE UNITED STATES] had power"—

What is the power?

We have defined this.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Military and economics.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Military and economic strength. That is what Clovis gave to the Papacy in AD496, because Clovis is typifying the United States, and the United States began to repeat the history of Clovis in the Ronald Reagan years when we began funneling money (power) into the Soviet Union to bring it down, and building up our military (power).

So, in verse 15 it says the United States still had the power. It says,

> —"[15]And he had power to give life unto [THE ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT] the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak,"—

And what does it mean to speak?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Legislative.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Action of legislative and judicial authority.

Does the United Nations have a judicial branch and a legislative branch?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. New York City, legislative branch; Holland, judicial branch.

Okay. They are going to speak. They are going to pass laws.

Why are they going to pass laws? Because, the United States is going to set them up and force the world to accept it.

> —"and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed."
> Revelation 13:15 (KJV).

So, what I am saying is, in Revelation 13, if you look at it carefully, in verse 11 there is an image of the beast set up in the United States, and then in verses 14 and 15, there is an image of the beast set up in the world.

When the image of the beast is set up in the world, the Papacy has just conquered the world.

So, verses 14 and 15 of Revelation 13 are verses 42 and 43 of Daniel 11; because, this is one of the strongest arguments, is that the history where we are identifying these last six verses is the same history in Revelation 13 and 14, and it is the same history in Revelation 16 through 18: identical histories. But, you will not see it if you are not operating upon the principle of line upon line, because you do not look at prophetic lines and, therefore, you dissect and take parts here and there and you use the Greek thinking to destroy the Word of God.

So, what I am saying here—and I am struggling here—remember what we have shown is that when the United States passes The Sunday Law right here [the fourth waymark of Figure No. 104], that if you remember we have looked at a copy of different quotes. One says that the United States then unites with the Dragon. And in another quote we have looked at is that at The Sunday Law the United States stretches its hand to grasp the hand of the Papacy, and stretches its hand to clasp the hand of the Dragon (Spiritualism).

So, in verse 41, at The Sunday Law—and the final movements are rapid ones; and, the reason it is going so slow from 1989 to here [The Sunday Law] is because this is God's mercy being demonstrated for Seventh-day Adventists. But at The Sunday Law, Seventh-day Adventism is purified. The final movements are rapid ones. Now the subject moves outside of Adventism.

In verse 41 at The Sunday Law in the United States, simultaneously the United States is fully disconnected from righteousness ("fully," being directed by Satan), and it begins to force the world to accept the One World Government; and, that is verse 42.

So, right in here [between the fourth and fifth waymarks of Figure No. 104], you have verses 42 and 43; but, that is also the line of Revelation 14 and 15.

Do you see the parallel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And part of the reason that the United States is successful in allowing the King of the North to conquer Egypt is because at The Sunday Law Satan begins to personate Christ, and Satan is pushing the same buttons at the same time.

Revelation 17:10-18, 1-3, 4-6

Okay. Let us go to Revelation 17 and look at one more line. We are not going to look at this in-depth, because I intend to do that in-depth here in the future. This is just going to be an overview of Revelation 17.

Beginning at verse 10:

> "[10]And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. [11]And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition."—

Who is the eighth that is of the seven in the Scriptures?

We have already dealt with this.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who always comes up eighth?

And somebody said the Papacy, but really it is Rome. Okay? By the context of where you find it, you have to determine which Rome it is. So, you know who the beast that was and is not, just from that argument.

Verse 12:

—"[12]And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet;"—

Ten kings that receive one kingdom: it does not say no kingdoms, in the plural as yet; just one kingdom.

—"which have received no kingdom as yet, but receive power as kings one hour with the beast."—

Okay. This one hour, from The Sunday Law in the United States until Michael stands up, this is the one hour of Bible prophecy that is The Sunday Law crisis. It is the hour when the United Nations comes together with the Papacy, forming a world image of the beast when Egypt is conquered, in verses 42 and 43 of Daniel 11. This is the one hour of prophecy.

Verse 13:

—"[13]These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast."—

What is their power and strength? Military and economic.

—"[14]These shall make war with the Lamb,"—

The Papacy does not do its own dirty work; it always has a civil power to do its dirty work. These Ten Kings are the ones that are going to spill the blood at the direction of the Papacy. They are going to make war with the Lamb by making war with the Lamb's followers. We have quotes along that line as we proceed.

—"[14]These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. [15]And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. [16]And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. [17]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. [18]And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth." Revelation 17:10-18 (KJV).

Okay. So, this story—this is just an overview. We are going to do this in detail later—it is emphasizing the relationship between the Ten Kings and the Papacy, and it is telling us what the Ten Kings are going to do. They are going to come into agreement with the Papacy. They are going to persecute God's people, and they are going to hate the Papacy and ultimately destroy her. So, there are some themes in here that are marked.

And there is a sequence of kingdoms there. "There are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; . . ." (Revelation 17:10 KJV). And we understand that the books in Daniel and Revelation are the same book; so, the kingdoms of Bible prophecy in the Book of Daniel would be the same kingdoms of Bible prophecy in the Book of Revelation; because, those books bring each other to perfection, according to Sister White.

According to Sister White, the same line of prophecy that is taken up by Daniel is taken up by John in the Revelation. So, in Daniel 2, Daniel tells Nebuchadnezzar, "Thou, O king, . . .Thou art this head of gold." (Daniel 2:37-38 KJV.) And the head of gold was Babylon and, therefore, a king is a kingdom. So, there are seven kings; there are seven kingdoms.

And in the Book of Daniel, the first kingdom is Babylon; the second kingdom, Medo-Persia; [the third kingdom], Greece; [the fourth kingdom], Pagan Rome; and [the fifth kingdom], Papal Rome. Five are fallen. When John is placed in the history of this vision, he is placed in 1798. Okay?

When these first five kingdoms have fallen, "one is." What is the kingdom that begins in 1798?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States.

And one is yet to come. He has not arrived in history yet. That is the Ten Kings (that is the United Nations at the end of the world).

But, John is in 1798 when he receives this vision. So, the United Nations is not in existence in 1798, as is the United States: The one is, and one is yet to come.

And when he comes, he will continue how long?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A short space.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: One hour (a short space). Okay. This is one of the things that connect this together.

"And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, . . . (Revelation 17:11 KJV). And the eighth that is of the seven in the Scriptures is Rome; and, in this story [referencing Figure No. 104] it is modern Rome at the end of the world. And being of the seven, if you go back into the previous seven kingdoms, there is only one of those kingdoms that received a deadly wound, and that was the fifth kingdom; that was the Papacy. And the number 8 in the Scriptures represents resurrection. So, this eighth kingdom is marking when the Papacy's deadly would is healed, when it is resurrected.

Okay. This is just an overview. I am saying things that I have not proven yet.

Verses 1-3 of Revelation

Verses 1 through 3 in Revelation 17, it is telling about this is the Judgment. This is an illustration about how the Papacy is going to be judged, the whore of Rome that has committed fornication with the kings of the Earth, in verses 1 and 2.

But in verse 3 John is carried away into the wilderness; and, the wilderness, according to Revelation 12, verses 6 and 14, is the 1260 years. So, John is carried to the 1260 years in order to see a prophecy about the Papacy, which he would have had to do because he received the vision in the Year AD100, and the Papacy was not in history yet. If he is going to see a vision about the Papacy, then he has to be propelled into the future and he is taken into the wilderness, which is the 1260 years.

And then in verses 4 through 6 [of Revelation 17], he sees a woman riding upon the beast. Of course, this woman is the Church of Rome. Sister White says so, and so does the dictionaries in the United States before the Year 2000. If you looked up scarlet woman in the English dictionaries, it would say, "The Roman Catholic Church; an illusion to Revelation 17."

So, he sees the Roman Catholic Church riding upon this beast, and she is drunk with the blood of the saints, identifying that the persecution of the 1260 years has already ended; because, you get drunk after you drink, and she has already drunken, and she is already the mother of harlots. The Protestant churches, some of them have already returned to Rome and became harlots themselves; they become daughters of Rome. She is already a mother when she is riding that beast, a mother of harlots. She has already persecuted. Therefore, from verses 4 through 6 we find that the vision of Revelation 17 it begins in 1798, in agreement with Daniel 11, verse 40, beginning in 1798; in agreement with Revelation 13, beginning in 1798. These three prophecies are line upon line, the same story.

And we have spent quite a bit of time identifying that verse 40 of Daniel 11 is the starting point for the Beast, Dragon, and False Prophet to lead the world to Armageddon. The King of the South in verse 40 is the Dragon; the chariots, horsemen, and ships are the False Prophet; and, the King of the North is the Beast. Verse 40 is the launching pad for the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet leading the world to the place that in Daniel 11 is called "between the seas and the glorious holy mountain" which in other places in geography, and other places in the Scriptures, is what we call Armageddon.

The story of Revelation 16 is the story of the last six verses of Daniel 11, and we see these three players [the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet] in verse 40. But, we see in Daniel and Revelation that each of these three players has a special line of prophecy that emphasizes the role that they play in this history.

Daniel 11, verse 40, is talking about the King of the North (the Beast). Revelation 13 is talking about the False Prophet in the same history (the United States). And Revelation 17 is teaching us about the Dragon power (the Ten Kings) in the same history. It is when we take these three lines of prophecy and lay them over one another that we understand what the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet is doing in these prophetic illustrations.

Daniel 7, Daniel 8; Revelation 13:3-4

You will notice in your notes that I have Daniel 7, Daniel 8; and, Revelation 13 before I get to this quote by Sister White from Education. The reason I have Daniel 7, Daniel 8, and Revelation 13, we have already dealt with this in worship. Okay?

And in Daniel 7 the Roman Empire disintegrates into ten nations; then three horns are plucked up. So, you have seven nations. But, where these three nations are plucked up, what do you have? You have a little horn come up. So, Rome comes up eighth, and is of the seven. And I am just putting that in there for your references.

And then in Daniel 8, you have the story of the horns, where in verse 9 the little horn of Rome comes into this scenario, and he is the eighth horn in Daniel 8.

And then in Revelation 13, John sees seven heads, and one of those heads receives the deadly wound, and then that deadly would is healed. Those seven heads, the Papacy is one of those heads that has a deadly wound, but when it is healed it is prophetically the eighth head. It always comes up as the eighth and is of the seven. I have that in there just for that purpose.

Daniel 7 [Note: The following is provided for reference as it was not read into the record at this time.]

"[1] In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters. [2] Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea. [3] And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. [4] The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. [5] And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. [6] After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. [7] After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. [8] I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

"[9] I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire. [10] A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. [11] I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. [12] As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time. [13] I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. [14] And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

"[15] I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. [16] I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. [17] These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth. [18] But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. [19] Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet; [20] And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. [21] I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; [22] Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. [23] Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. [24] And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. [25] And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time. [26] But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. [27] And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. [28] Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart." Daniel 7 (KJV).

Daniel 8 [Note: The following is provided for reference as it was not read into the record at this time.]

"[1] In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. [2] And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai. [3] Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. [4] I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great. [5] And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. [6] And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power. [7] And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. [8] Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. [9] And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. [10] And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. [11] Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of the sanctuary was cast down. [12] And an host was given him against the daily ~~sacrifice~~ by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

"[13] Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice~~, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? [14] And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

"[15] And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. [16] And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. [17] So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision. [18] Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright. [19] And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be. [20] The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. [21] And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. [22] Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power. [23] And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. [24] And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. [25] And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. [26] And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days. [27] And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it." Daniel 8 (KJV).

Revelation 13:3-4 [Note: The following is provided for reference as it was not read into the record at this time.]

> "[3] And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. [4] And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?" Revelation 13:3-4 (KJV).

ASSYRIA, EGYPT . . .

Now, notice here a quote from Education. I have referred to it before. I want you to see it, if you will. In Education, page 179, it says,

> "The crown removed from Israel passed successively to the kingdoms of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome. God says, 'It shall be no more, until He come whose right it is; and I will give it Him.'" Education, 179.

If you can get straight on this argument, the Lion of the tribe of Judah can start feeding you some honey, if you can get straight on this argument I am going to bring up.

One of the arguments here at the end of the world in Adventism is the true and false way to interpret the Bible. And if you bust out your Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary on Revelation 17, one of the things that they will tell you is that this "five have fallen, and one is not, and one is yet to come" is the kingdoms of history: it is Assyria, Egypt, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Rome, . . . —and I forget what they say. This is long before I understood that we had been high-jacked by Satan when the false interpretation of Biblical study was introduced in the 1930s. Before I knew that, this here was a stumbling block for me; because, I had seen that the Theologians of Adventism, they were willing to identify the kingdoms of history as Assyria, Egypt, Babylon, in spite of the fact that Ellen White says that Israel is one of the kingdoms of history. She says, "The crown removed from Israel passed successively to the kingdoms of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome." And if you are going to use the faulty Protestant rule of prophetic interpretation to approach the Bible, and it is going to contradict the Spirit of Prophecy, you ought to set it aside.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because, your formula for Revelation 17 does not work because there is another country that needs to be in that formula: it is Israel.

Okay. That is outside the scope of this. I just want you to see that in the kingdoms of history, it is Assyria, Egypt, Israel, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome, and out of Pagan Rome comes Papal Rome. So, Rome always comes up eighth, and is of the seven, even in the kingdoms of history.

So, that is why that is in there.

Revelation 17:13, 13:2

Revelation 17:13

> "[13]These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast." Revelation 17:13 (KJV).

Revelation 17:13 says that these Ten Kings will give their power unto the Beast, and this is paralleling Revelation 13:2.

Revelation 13:2

> "[2]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority." Revelation 13:2 (KJV).

In Revelation 13:2, the Dragon gives the leopard-like beast (gives the Papacy) three things: its power, its seat, and its great authority. And here at the end of the world we see the Dragon power of the Ten Kings giving their power to the Beast. So, if you are going to understand what it means that the United Nations and the United States give their power to the Papacy at the end of the world, then you need to go into Revelation 13:2 and find out what it means that Clovis gave his power to the Papacy in AD496, because they are parallel histories, and they are important. Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning.

So, that is why those references are in there. This is an overview at this point.

Speaking of Revelation 17, verses 12, 13, 14, in that area, Sister White says, and this is also in Ellen White's Study Bible, from Maranatha, page 187,

> "'These have one mind.' There will be a universal bond of union,"—

Hartland Institute likes to teach that these kingdoms are the European Common Market, and that that is what is being discussed here in Revelation 17.

And even in Australia the word universal means worldwide. It does not mean Europe.

> —"There will be a universal bond of union, one great harmony, a confederacy of Satan's forces. 'And shall give their power and strength to the beast.' Thus is manifested the same arbitrary, oppressive power against religious liberty, freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience, as was manifested by the Papacy, when in the past it persecuted those who dared to refuse to conform with the religious rites and ceremonies of Romanism." Maranatha, 187.

What am I doing here? What I am doing here is trying to show you that verses 42 and 43 of Daniel 11, when the Papacy conquers Egypt, it is identified also in Revelation 13, verses 14 and 15. It is the same story. And it is identified in Revelation 17, when the Dragon is giving its power to the Papacy. This is when Egypt is being conquered by the King of the North.

Who is the Dragon?

> "Thus while the dragon, primarily, represents Satan, it is, in a secondary sense, a symbol of pagan Rome." The Great Controversy, 439.

Purposely we have spent time identifying that the one of the characteristics of the Dragon is that it moves through history, and it has an earthly representative as it moves through history.

In the time of Christ, the Dragon's earthly representative was Pagan Rome. Pagan Rome has the number 10 attached to it, because that is one of the characteristics of the Dragon as well.

But, at the end of the world, the Dragon has moved again. At the end of the world, the Dragon is in the Soviet Union, until the Soviet Union was swept away in 1989.

And who was the leader when it was swept away?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Gorbachev.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Mikhail Gorbachev.

And what did he immediately do? He took a job at the United Nations. He moved to the United Nations, thus giving the student of prophecy an historical line to follow the Dragon has it moved to its final resting place, the United Nations.

And here, we have referred to this often from Testimonies to Ministers, page 38.

> "Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints—with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus." Testimonies to Ministers, 38.

At the end of the world during The Sunday Law testing time, the Dragon power is a group of kings, governors, and rulers. It is not one king, it is a group. And in Revelation 17, it is Ten Kings. But, we have been showing through here, who as the primary king?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States.

Who is the United States?

In Carmel, in Carmel where is Jezebel in the story of Elijah? She is off. She is off in Samaria. She is out of the picture.

But, in Carmel, who is there? If the Beast is not there, who is in Carmel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The False Prophet.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The False Prophet and the Dragon.

Who is the False Prophet in the story of Elijah?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is the priests of Baal.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the priests of Baal (it is the United States).

But, when you come to the judgment, the third waymark in the story of Elijah, what happens to the priests of Baal?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They are killed.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are killed. That is the end of the False Prophet. The False Prophet ends right there, because he joins the Dragon, he joins the Dragon. He becomes the premier king of the Ten Kings.

Who does he become?

Who does the United States become at this point at The Sunday Law in the United States? By the way, that is where this is. He becomes the United States.

And who is the United States? It is lots of things. It is Tarshish, okay? The premier symbol of economic strength is the ships of Tarshish. It is the United States. It is when the flagship of the economy of the world begins to go down from an East wind.

But, that is a different subject.

STRUCTURE

1798—deadly wound healed—message of the hour—close of probation

I am at "Structure" in your notes.

What I mean by that and what we will show when we get into Revelation 17—and I have not taken the time to prove this yet, but I am going to put it in your head one time, so when we get to the point to prove it, it might settle in easier.

The structure—I mean this [the time line of Figure No. 104 appearing on the whiteboard] is real busy, right? But, the structure of the sequence of events in Daniel 11:40-45, it begins in 1798. And then it begins to tell the story about how the deadly wound is healed.

Okay. The story of how the deadly wound is healed is Daniel 11:40 to 43. Once the Papacy conquers Egypt and takes possession of the economic structure of the world in verse 43 where it has the gold, and silver, and previous things, the deadly wound is healed.

And then verse 44 marks the message of the hour, the tidings of the East and the North. And in that history Michael stands up; because, in Daniel 12:1 it says, "And at that time," somewhere back there in verses 44 and 45, Michael stands up and human probation closes.

So, at one level, the line of prophecy in Daniel 11:40 to Daniel 12:1 is that it begins in 1798. It tells the story of how the deadly wound is healed; and, then it emphases the message of the hour; and, then it marks the close of probation.

And the story of the United States in Revelation 13, it begins in 1798, and it is the story—this is where we get the term from, the deadly wound—it is the story about how the deadly wound is healed. By the time you get to verse 18, the man of sin with the number 666 is implementing the mark of the beast on all the world.

So, the story of Revelation 13 is that it begins in 1798. It tells how the deadly wound is healed, and then the message of the hour is emphasized because you come to Revelation 14. That is the message of the hour, is it not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And the message of the hour takes you down to verse 11 in Revelation 14. And in Revelation 14 (9/11), you see the close of probation.

So, it is the identical sequence in Revelation 13 that it is in the last six verses of Daniel 11.

And, in Revelation 17, it begins in 1798. It describes how the threefold union of the sixth, seventh, and eighth kingdoms come together, how the deadly wound is healed; and, then you have Revelation 18.

And what is Revelation 18? It is the message of the hour, and it leads to the last four verses of Revelation 18, which is the close of probation.

So, the structure that we are suggesting about the last six verses of Daniel 11 is the identical structure as Revelation 13 and Revelation 17. And we will deal more of that in detail, because this is an important argument.

EGYPT: LIBYA AND ETHIOPIA

All right. Verse 43 of Daniel 11:

> "[43]But he [THE KING OF THE NORTH] shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. Daniel 11:43.

I have always, from the start, understood the Libyans and Ethiopians to be the rich and poor. In verses 42 and 43 the subject there is Egypt, and Libya is a country that is connected to Egypt. It borders Egypt, and so does Ethiopia. And throughout the history of Egypt, Libya has always, and still is, been a poor country. It has always desired to conquer Egypt and become rich and wealthy, because Egypt was the symbol of worldliness throughout history for the Libyans.

Even the last leader that they did away with, Kaddafi, Kaddafi had built giant tunnels along the border of Egypt, tunnels big enough to run his tanks and his trucks and his bombs through on the border of Egypt because he had plans of conquering Egypt. It has always been that way through history. The Libyans were the poor, downtrodden masses that wanted to be Egyptians.

Whereas, the Ethiopians, technically they were richer than the Egyptians; because, what made the Egyptians wealthy was all the goods from lower Africa that the Egyptians sold to the rest of the world and got wealthy from. But, before the Egyptians got those goods, they had to come through the Ethiopian traders, and the Ethiopian traders, they made their cut off the wholesale/retail dealings. So, the Ethiopians, they had some money.

So, in relation to Egypt, the Libyans and the Ethiopians: rich and poor. Okay? And that is, no doubt, a truth about this passage, because that is what Revelation 13 says in the same history. It says in Revelation 13:16—it is in your notes:

> "[16]And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads." Revelation 13:16 (KJV).

> "Fearful is the issue to which the world is to be brought. The powers of earth, uniting to war against the commandments of God, will decree that, "all,

> both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond" (Revelation 13:16), shall conform to the customs of the church by observance of the false sabbath. All who refuse compliance will be visited with civil penalties, and it will finally be declared that they are deserving of death." The Great Controversy, 604.

So what am I saying? I am saying, in verse 43 of Daniel 11, that when the Papacy takes control of all of the countries of Egypt, when the Papacy takes control of the entire world, when the United States has forced the world to set up an image of the beast, then the whole world as represented by "rich and poor" is under the authority of the Papacy.

But, there is more to Libya and Ethiopia than that.

And then we have referenced the book, Keys of This Blood, by Malachi Martin, and you see here a passage from Keys of This Blood where Malachi Martin is talking about a pretend map that Pope John Paul II had in terms of how he was going to govern the world.

Now, if you remember what we said about Keys of This Blood, Malachi Martin in that book—and Malachi Martin was very close to Pope John Paul II. He was one of his apologists, if that is the right word—and the beginning of that book sets forth the premise that the world was now in a three-way struggle for who was going to take control of the world, and he names who the three players were. He says it is the Soviet Union (that is the King of the South); the United States (that is the chariots, ships, and horsemen); and the Papacy (that is the King of the North) in verse 40. So, Malachi Martin is talking about Daniel 11, verse 40, even though he did not know it. And he says that all these three powers are struggling to take control of the world, and he predicted that it will be the Papacy that takes control of the world because they have the moral authority to do so and the Soviet Union and the United States do not have that moral authority. But, that is all Catholic rubbish, but it is true at one level.

And in that book, because of the Messages of Fatima—and we talked a little bit about this—Pope John Paul II believed that he was the good Pope, because in the Messages of Fatima there is a good Pope and there is a bad Pope. Okay? And when Jesus returns, He is going to place a blessing upon the good Pope and He is going to judge the bad Pope and He is going to take control of the Catholic Church and lead it—that is the Message of Fatima—and He is going to co-rule with the good Pope.

So, as the good Pope (Pope John Paul II) is thinking about when he is going to take control of the world in this book, this passage here is describing this map of the world, and it says in short, from Keys of This Blood, Malachi Martin, pages 163-164, 171,

> "In short, that contemporary map of shame would be the graphic expression of the atrocity we have come to describe so blandly as the division of the world into North and South, which is to say, in plainer terms, the division of nations, and of populations within nations, into rich and poor. . . .
> "It is just such a map of shame that Pope John Paul does hold up to the world in his moral assessment of the geopolitical arrangements that are setting up our future for us. . . ."—

Now, when we get to this last paragraph, you might hear a little Obama in it; but, the next paragraph says,

—"On the modern map of world shame that is the subject of so much of John Paul's attention, North and South do not figure as precise geographical terms. Instead, they are global frontiers where wealth and poverty divide not only nations, but societies within nations. . . ."—

Now, here is the paragraph. Here is the scary part of it, I guess.

—"Whether it is applied in the confines of the United States, or in the world at large,"—

Do you see what he just did? He just said, first the United States and then Egypt, first the glorious land and then Egypt.

—"Whether it is applied in the confines of the United States [THE GLORIOUS LAND], or in the world [EGYPT] at large, John Paul's moral assessment of North and South [RICH AND POOR] is simple and clear. In a morally adjusted economy, he insists, the rich should not get richer if the poor get poorer." Keys of This Blood, Malachi Martin, 163–164, 171.

Do you hear that principle anywhere?

See, people think that maybe Obama is, you know, whatever they may think, that he is a representative of the Vatican. This is Vatican economics that he is proposing.

So, what I am saying is that Libya and Ethiopia in verse 43 of Daniel 11 are going to be "at his steps." And we defined this earlier in the previous presentation, but we will define it again. To be "at his steps" means to march with him.

Have you ever marched? When I joined the Air Force, they made us march during basic training and we never marched again. Okay. That is the Air Force for you. If you join the Army, you are going to march incessantly; and, if you are going to join the Marines, oh, man, you are really going to march.

But, marching, if you do not want that drill instructor to be in your face, you better be making the same steps that everyone else is, at the same time; because, marching implies that you are all in unity, you are all moving identically the same.

And the Libyans and the Ethiopians, the rich and the poor, are going to be marching with Rome. They are going to be at his steps, because that is what "at his steps" means. That means to march with him.

But, Libya and Ethiopia, they also represent military strength. So, at one level they represent economics, and at another level they represent military; and, those are the characteristics once again of who? The United States. The United States is going to bring all the military and all the economics together for the Pope of Rome, because Ahab loves Jezebel.

MILITARY MIGHT

Jeremiah 46:8-9; Ezekiel 38:5

Jeremiah 46, verses 8 and 9, beginning with verse 8 of Jeremiah 46:

"[8]Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof. [9]Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the blow." Jeremiah 46:8-9 (KJV).

So, when he is marching together with Ethiopia and Libya, it represents economics, rich and poor; but, it also represents that it has the military structure of Planet Earth in its back pocket.

Go to Ezekiel 38:5.

Is it okay for a symbol to have more than one meaning? I hope so; I hope so, since we would be in trouble about the line if it was not.

Verse 5:

"[5]Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet: . . ." Ezekiel 38:5 (KJV).

So, Ethiopia and Libya also represent military might. Military and economic might prophetically are power.

STEPS

Okay. You see the definition of STEPS there. It is self-explanatory.

STEPS: Strong's Concordance 4703—from 6805; a step; fig. companionship:-going, step. 6805: to pace, i.e. step regularly; (upward) to mount; (along) to march; (down and caus.) to hurl: –bring, go, march (through), run over.

It means to march with.

Verse 43 of Daniel 11:

"[43]But he [THE KING OF THE NORTH] shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things [THE ECONOMIC STRUCTURE] of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians [THE RICH AND POOR AND MILITARY OF THE WORLD] shall be at his steps [ARE GOING TO BE MARCHING WITH HIM; THEY ARE GOING TO BE IN UNITY]. Daniel 11:43 (KJV).

When is it that the Egyptians are willing to give away their gold and silver and precious things?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When the Plagues are falling. Right? That is where Daniel draws this story from. When the Plagues are falling on Egypt, the Egyptians are ready, "Here, take our gold and silver and get out of town!" All right?

So, here in verse 43, the King of the North (the Papacy) is taking control over the gold and the silver and precious things of Egypt, thus telling us that back in verse 41 that national apostasy is followed by national ruin, that the destructive judgments of God are in the land, which is the Time of Mercy for the eleventh-hour workers; but, that the judgments are in the land. And in this time period when the judgments are in the land, the Egyptians are willing to turn their financial structure over to the "savior of mankind." And the greatest moral authority on Planet Earth today is the Pope of Rome.

> "[17]And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." Revelation 13:17 (KJV).

And the greatest military and economic strength is the United States. So, when the United States uses its force to lift up this moral authority, that is what is being described here in these verses. But, there really is no unity with them, even though they are marching together, except as they unify to make war with the Lamb (verse 14 of Revelation 17) to persecute God's followers.

Testimonies, volume 5, page 101:

> "With the ungodly there will be a deceptive harmony that but partially conceals a perpetual discord. In their opposition to the will and the truth of God they are united, while on every other point they are rent with hatred, emulation, jealousy, and deadly strife." Testimonies, volume 5, 101.

You have to understand this. It is part of the story; it is part of the story. In Revelation 17 the Ten Kings (the Dragon) they hate the whore. They hate the Papacy, yet they are going to come into a church/state relationship with the Papacy, even though they hate her. They hate her so much that they are going to kill her.

So, this is part of the story. This is part of the dynamics that you have to understand about this threefold union, is it is a marriage of convenience. It is not a marriage of love.

Testimonies, volume 7, page 182:

> "As we approach"—

And I wish this would sink into your heads. There is a phrase in here; because, in Psalm 83 it talks about these Ten Kings lifting up the head, and this here will tell you what the head is that the Ten Kings lift up.

> —"As we approach the last crisis, it is of vital moment that harmony and unity exist among the Lord's instrumentalities. The world is filled with storm and war and variance. Yet under one head—the papal power—the people will unite to oppose God in the person of His witnesses. This union is cemented by the great apostate. While he seeks to unite his agents in warring against the truth he will work to divide and scatter its advocates. Jealousy, evil surmising, evilspeaking, are instigated by him to produce discord and dissension." Testimonies, volume 7, 182.

Okay. This false unity, the head of it is the King of the North (the Papacy).

Review and Herald, December 21, 1897:

> "In this time of prevailing iniquity, the Protestant churches that have rejected a 'Thus saith the Lord,' will reach a strange pass. They will be converted to the world. In their separation from God, they will seek to make falsehood and apostasy from God the law of the nation. They will work upon the rulers of the land to make laws to restore"—

Please underline these two words.

> —"the lost ascendency of the man of sin,"—

We have spent time here showing that one of the prophetic characteristics of Satan is that he wants to ascend to the throne of God. He wants to ascend to the sides of North. He will ascend and be like God. The ascending is a characteristic of Satan; but, we have also shown that it is a characteristic of the Papacy, for in verse 40 of Daniel 11, this mighty sweeping away that is expressed in the Hebrew words that are translated as come against as a whirlwind in Daniel 11, verse 40, the definition of those Hebrew words not only describes the mighty sweeping away but, at the same time, an ascendency begins, suggesting to us, if we are willing to see, that the ascension of the King of the North begins with the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, and it reaches the height when the Ten Kings agree to give their kingdom unto the Beast for one hour (for a short space), when the Beast conquers Egypt in Daniel 11, verse 42, and the United States forces the world to set up an image of the Beast in Revelation 13:14-15.

So, this ascendency is a characteristic to watch, and it is the Protestants of the United States that restore . . .

> —"the lost ascendency of the man of sin, who sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God. The Roman Catholic principles will be taken under the protection of the state. The protest of Bible truth will no longer be tolerated by those who have not made the law of God their rule of life." Review and Herald, December 21, 1897.

Brothers and Sisters, this health care law [referring to the Affordable Care Act a/k/a Obama Care], that is Roman Catholic principles. If you do not know that, you should know that. As a Seventh-day Adventist, you should know that.

There is a book called, Ecclesiastical Megalomania. There may be better books on this subject than that, but it is the one that I read. And Ecclesiastical Megalomania is very clear as it describes the political structure of the Papacy and how this political structure of the Papacy has been duplicated in various political structures around the world: Socialism, Communism; that is Catholicism, with just a little twist.

And so when we see a health care plan introduced into the United States such as this, if you really understand it, that is Catholicism. "And Catholic principles"—how does Sister White say it?—"will be taken under the protection of the state. The protest of Bible truth will no longer be tolerated by those who have not made the law of God their rule of life."

And what is the argument for a national health care system in the United States? Why, I hope it is not the Canadian Health Care System. We just had our Canadian friends go home yesterday, and that national health care system forces the Canadians to save up their money and come down to the United States to get health care if they are in serious trouble. So, we are going into a health care system like that. All right?

But, what is the argument for it? Because, even the poor need health care. Okay? It is the premise of the benefitting of all at the denial of a few; and, that is the argument of The Sunday Law. That is the argument of The Sunday Law: "The only reason we are having these problems is because of this little group that is keeping the Sabbath. And if we can deal with them, then it will benefit everyone." It is the same logic.

We will end right here. Let me wrap this up, and we will take this up tomorrow. We will start in verse 44 of Daniel 11 tomorrow, with tidings out of the East and the North.

SUMMARY

So, what am I saying? Here is what I am saying—I wanted to get through this, but too many words, sometimes.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I need to be focused.

All right. Here is what we are saying. We are dealing with Daniel 11:40-45, which begins at the Time of the End in 1798; but, this is where Revelation 13 begins, is in 1798, too. Because, Sister White says that at the time that the Papacy was robbed of its strength, John beheld a new power rising up out of the Earth. Okay?

And in Revelation 17, John is carried to the wilderness, and he sees the Papacy already drunk. He is not just in the 1260 years; he is at the very end of the 1260 years. Upon the testimony of two a thing is established. If Daniel 11:40-45 begins in 1798 and Revelation 13 begins in 1798, you know Revelation 17 begins in 1798. And they are telling the same story from three different perspectives. One is about the Ten King (the Dragon), and one is about the King of the North (the Papacy, and one is about the False Prophet (the United States). Line upon line brings this story into focus.

The history of 1798 to The Sunday Law is the history of Daniel 11, verse 40. It is the history of Revelation 13:11. It is the history of Isaiah 23.

In the history of verse 40 of Daniel 11, you have the history of the long, drawn-out war between the King of the South and the King of the North. Initially, the King of the South begins the war against the King of the North; but, ultimately, the King of the North returns and retaliates and sweeps away the King of the South. That is the story of Carchemish.

But, initially, Pharaohnecho begins the war (the Battle of Carchemish) against the Assyrians, and then years later—

When did they begin the war against the Assyrians? Who was king? Josiah.

But, when it ends—I forget if it is Jehoiakim or Jehoiachin—I think it is Jehoiakim is the king when the Battle of Carchemish ends. And when the Battle of Carchemish ends, it is the King of the North that is prevailing. So, this Battle of Carchemish, it is Daniel 11, verse 40. It begins with the King of the South initiating the war against the King of the North, and it ends years later when the King of the North sweeps away the King of the South.

And what does it teach us about the history of Daniel 11, verse 40? It teaches us that Josiah (as the leader of the Seventh-day Adventist Church) rejects the warning message of Daniel 11, verse 40, and he ends up dead at Armageddon, between the seas and the glorious holy mountain. It is telling us that verse 40 is a message that you better understand as a Seventh-day Adventist, or you are going to die!

Is that too straight?

Chosroes, this is Revelation, chapter 9. Once again a long drawn-out battle that begins with Persia, Persia being a two-pronged power (the Medes and the Persians).

France being a two-pronged power, France (the King of the South) initiates a war against the King of the North (Rome) in 1798; but, the Persians, they initiate a war against Rome in Revelation 9 and they initially subdue the King of the North (Rome).

But, after a while, what happens? Rome retaliates against Persia.

And what does it do? It sweeps it away.

But, what does Rome also do as it is sweeping away the King of the South (Persia). Its power is dissipated.

And what does that do? It allows Islam to rise into history.

So, in verse 40 of Daniel 11, with the battle of Chosroes, we do not have a lesson about the Seventh-day Adventist Church rejecting the warning of Daniel 11, verse 40; we have the evidence that before The Sunday Law in verse 41 but after 1989 (when Persia is swept away), Islam will come into history. Right?

And we read the quote here [pointing to the Little Time of Trouble designated in Figure No. 104]. This is a little bit different than I was always taught. And I am not going to make a big deal about it, but if you look closely at it, in the passage where Sister White is describing the time of trouble when probation is open, she says, "This time of trouble does not refer to a time when the plagues will be poured out but to a short period of time while salvation is still closing." At that time the nations will be angry, yet held in check, while the work of the Third Angel is accomplished. And then she says, "At that time, the Latter Rain will fall."

Okay. So, when you look at that, she is talking about the Little Time of Trouble; so, you can mark the Little Time of Trouble, beginning right here when the Latter Rain begins to fall, when there is a restraint placed upon Islam when the nations are made angry by the action of Islam, by the action of Islam of putting a hole in the ship of Tarshish and now it is sinking. The nations are angry, but they are held in check because George Bush in the United Nations put a restraint upon them. The Latter Rain begins to fall.

But, the subject of that passage in Early Writings where she is describing that is the time of trouble, but it is the time of trouble that comes before the Plagues. Therefore, this is the Little Time of Trouble.

For years I taught the Little Time of Trouble began at The Sunday Law in the United States. I understand otherwise now. But, this [9/11 and Islam, Figure No. 104] is where the destruction of the cities begins, and you can track this from 9/11, onward. It has begun. The Little Time of Trouble is here.

When The Sunday Law arrives, this is the one hour that the Ten Kings co-rule with the Papacy; and, this is where Satan personates Christ. This is where national apostasy is followed by national ruin; and, this is the time of God's destructive judgments, which is the Time of Mercy for the eleventh-hour workers.

And we will continue on this tomorrow. I am sorry we could not get through the other two verses.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we are amazed at the consistency of your prophetic passages and how specific you are about certain truths; but, we need discernment to recognize these things and we need a willing heart to receive them as truth. We ask that you would give us both of those things. We ask that you would bless the work that we are doing here with the DVDs and the LiveStreaming. And as we are breaking camp from the wonderful meetings that Pastor Sankey provided for us, we know that there are many of us traveling in different directions and we ask for traveling mercies in all these regards. And as we take up a day of service for you here, we ask that you allow us to be safe and that whatever we do we can do for your glory and honor. And according to your will, we ask that you bring us back here tomorrow morning at 7:00 to continue this study. In Jesus's name, amen.

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together for worship this morning. We thank you for a good night's rest. And as we take up this study, we ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit. I would ask that you hide me behind your cross, that you would take control of the thoughts and the ideas that I have, that what is expressed would be truths from the Throne Room on High that have been purified with a coal from off the altar, that the words expressed would do their work of edification of your people, better preparing them with a message to share with those that they come in contact with and giving them more power in their lives that they might finish the work of character development that you have called us into. As we open your Word now, we want to understand the conclusion of the last six verses of Daniel 11. We ask that you would help to do this. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All right. We are looking at 1989 as the conclusion of William Miller's dream, and we are identifying 1989 as the Time of the End for the final Reform Movement. Sister White tells us that every Reform Movement in sacred history parallels each other. She says that in The Great Controversy. And every Reform Movement begins with a Time of the End, and we have identified that the Time of the End is a fulfillment of a prophecy that sheds light upon that particular generation and tests that generation.

And the classic illustration of the Time of the End is 1798. Daniel, chapter 12, the Time of the End, the Papacy received a deadly wound. There is your prophetic fulfillment. At that point the Book of Daniel was unsealed to the Millerites. There was an increase of knowledge, and that increase of knowledge from the fulfilled prophecy tested that generation.

By the time you get to October 22, 1844, there are two classes of worshippers demonstrated. One class continues to send their prayers to the Holy Place, and Satan answers their prayers. The other class follows Christ by faith into the Most Holy Place and become the beginnings of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

In the Millerite History, from 1798 to 1844, you have the Everlasting Gospel accomplished, and the Everlasting Gospel is the work of Christ in producing two classes of worshippers, based upon the introduction of a prophetic testing message, and that prophetic testing message comes in three steps.

All of this we have already put in place.

So, what we are saying is that for this final generation, because there is a special testing message for every generation, that the Time of the End is 1989 and that the fulfillment of the prophecy that marks the beginning of this generation and that unseals the testing message for this generation was the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40.

If you have your Bibles, if you look at Daniel 11, verse 40, we have already dealt with this in detail but we are going to give an overview of it before we take up verse 44.

Daniel 11, verse 40, says,

"[40]And at the time of the end"—

We showed from the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy that the Time of the End is 1798.

—"[40]And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him:"—

That word push means war against.

The "him" there and is the subject of the prior verses, the King of the North.

The King of the South in Daniel 11 is the power that controls Egypt. The King of the North is the power that controls Babylon. After the cross, you are looking for the power that controls spiritual Egypt and spiritual Babylon; and, in Revelation 11, verse 8, spiritual Egypt is atheistic France; and, in Revelation 17 spiritual Babylon is the Papacy.

So, verse 40 is saying that in 1798 shall atheistic France begin a war against the Papacy, as it did by delivering the deadly wound. 1798 is the mark of the beginning of the Reform Movement for the Millerites.

But the verse continues on and says,

—"and the king of the north shall come against him"—

There shall come a time when the Papacy shall retaliate against the King of the South, and the King of the South is the king of Atheism in this verse. We have spent time showing that. And when the Papacy retaliates against the king of Atheism at the end of the world, it is no longer atheistic France; it is the new king of Atheism. It is the Soviet Union.

It says,

—"and the king of the north [THE PAPACY] shall come against him"—

And if you remember, this "come against," the Hebrew means not only a mighty sweeping away but it means to ascend. This is to restore the lost ascension of the man of sin. One of the characteristics of Satan and of the Papacy in the Bible is that they are the powers that ascend. This is the final ascent of the Papacy to the throne of the Earth, before he comes to his end with none to help here in verse 45.

So, it says,

—"shall come against him [THE KING OF THE SOUTH (THE SOVIET UNION, THE KING OF ATHEISM)] like a whirlwind,"—

And every historian—we looked at the historians' comments on how rapidly the Soviet Union was swept away, like a whirlwind. In fact, one of the magazines gives a chronology of the sweeping away of the Soviet Union. The title of that magazine was "Days of a Whirlwind." It was swept away almost overnight.

And when the Papacy came to sweep away the Soviet Union, it brought with it —"with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships;"—

And chariots and horsemen in Bible prophecy represent military strength, and ships represent economic strength; and, the historical record is that the way that the Soviet Union was swept away was through an alliance between the United States and the Vatican. And the United States supplied the military and economic power to bring down the Soviet Union; therefore, the United States is represented as the chariots and the horsemen and the ships in this passage.

And it says,

—"and he shall enter into the countries,"—

Whoever the King of the South is when it is swept away, it is a confederacy of countries; and, sure enough, in 1989 when the Soviet Union (the king of Atheism) was swept away by an alliance between the United States and the Vatican, the Soviet Union was made up of several countries.

—"and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40 (KJV).

And the power in Bible prophecy that conquers by overflowing is the Papacy. Bible prophecy teaches us that the Papacy conquers as the Euphrates overflows its banks. It is one of the characteristics of the Papacy.

So, Daniel 11, verse 40, is identifying the beginning of the reestablishment of Papal power at the end of the world. And the demise of the Soviet Union in 1989 marks the Time of the End for the final generation.

And as Sister White says in The Great Controversy,

> "The events connected with the close of probation and the work of preparation for the time of trouble, are clearly presented. But multitudes have no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed. Satan watches to catch away every impression that would make them wise unto salvation, and the time of trouble will find them unready." {GC 594.1}

"Satan watches to catch any glimpse that they may have to understand these truths." That is a paraphrase of the last part of this verse, especially.

We have looked at that quote from The Great Controversy, and the events connected with the close of probation are the events in the last six verses of Daniel 11, because they are the events that lead to Michael standing up in Daniel 12:1. And Sister White tells us that when Michael stands up, human probation closes.

So, in the passage where Sister White speaks about the events connected with the close of probation, she has just premised that comment on the fact that the reason that the Disciples in the time of Christ did not understand what was going to happen at the cross was that even though they had been plainly told what was going to happen at the cross, they did not understand because they were holding onto preconceived ideas.

And then she jumps into our generation and says the events connected with the close of probation have been clearly revealed; and, what we have been doing here over the last several presentations is giving a clear revelation of the last six verses of Daniel 11, which are the events that lead to Michael standing up, to the close of probation.

"But multitudes" in Adventism, just like the Disciples in the time of Christ, "have no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed."

This truth, the return to the throne of the Earth by the Papacy, is the very truth that is designed to test Adventists; because, Adventists are the people that are going to give the Three Angels' Messages, and the Third Angel's Message is identifying who the Beast is and what his mark is. And when he returns to enforce that mark, we are the people that are going to stand and identify who and what that is all about. But, if we do not understand the prophetic events that are identifying his return to the throne of the Earth, then we certainly are not the messengers that are going to proclaim the Third Angel's Message.

So, this passage here is part of the prophetic testing message that will produce two classes of worshippers in Adventism. One class will identify the work of the Papacy returning to the throne of the Earth, and the multitudes in Adventism "will have no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed."

Verse 41, the second step in this sequence of events, the Papacy now is going to conquer the glorious land.

> "[41]He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

The word glorious means a sense of prominence. The most prominent country in the world at this time is the United States, and verse 41 is identifying The Sunday Law in the United States.

And it says many countries will be overthrown; but, the word countries in verse 41 is supplied: many people will be overthrown, and we have shown that the many people that will be overthrown at The Sunday Law in the United States are those people in the United States that will be held accountable to the light of Sabbath and Sunday; and, those that are held accountable to the light of Sabbath and Sunday are Seventh-day Adventists.

Those Christians outside of Adventism that have not heard the distinction between Sabbath and Sunday will not be accountable to the light of Sabbath and Sunday when The Sunday Law arrives; therefore, in verse 41, when the King of the North conquers the United States at The Sunday Law, the many that are overthrown are Seventh-day Adventists that have not prepared a character for the Seal of God; and, therefore, they are going to receive the mark of the beast.

But, it goes on and says, "but these shall escape out of his hand," "his" being the Papacy. These are going to escape from the Papacy's hand, and we talked about this word escape. It means escape as if by slipperiness; but, primarily it means whatever it escapes from, it has prior to that escape been under the control of. And what I mean by that, the most essential ingredient of this Hebrew word escape is that it is identifying that there was some kind of control that you escape from when you escape. So, these people that are escaping from the hand of the Papacy, prior to The Sunday Law in the United States, they have been in the hand of the Papacy.

And the Papacy at the end of the world is threefold. Modern Babylon in Revelation 16, verse 19, is divided into three parts; and, in verse 12 those three parts are the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. Modern Babylon is threefold in nature: it is the Vatican [the Beast], the United States [the False Prophet], and the United Nations [the Dragon]; it is Spiritualism [the Dragon], apostate Protestantism [the False Prophet], and Catholicism [the Beast].

And when Daniel represents the threefold nature of modern Babylon, he calls them Edom, Moab, and Ammon. And in verse 41 those that escape the hand of the Papacy at The Sunday Law in the United States are those people that begin to come out of Babylon; because, in Daniel 11:41 at The Sunday Law in the United States, you also are fulfilling Revelation 18:4, and Revelation 18:4 says, "Come out of her my people."

At The Sunday Law in the United States, those Seventh-day Adventists that have prepared their character for the Seal of God, they receive the Seal of God. They receive the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit and begin to say, "Come out of Babylon!" And God's other children that are still in Babylon, represented in a threefold nature and by Daniel in verse 41 as Edom, Moab, and Ammon, they begin to respond to the call, "Come out of Babylon," and they come out and stand with God's people.

When Pagan Rome conquered the world, it had to conquer three geographical areas. Daniel 8, verse 9; and Daniel 11, verses 14 through 16, uphold this truth. It had to overcome Palestine, Egypt, and Syria.

Let us go to Daniel 8:9—let me get it in my head here—the South (Egypt), the East (Syria), and the pleasant land (Israel).

(Clears throat), still sweating this cold out.

When Pagan Rome took control of the world, it had to conquer three geographical areas, and then it ruled the world for how long, supremely? There is a time prophecy on how long Pagan Rome would rule the world in Daniel 11:24. It would rule for 360 years. It conquered those three entities at the Battle of Actium in 31BC, and it was invincible for the next 360 years, until Constantine divided the Empire between East and West in the year AD330 (360 years later right on the nose!).

But Pagan Rome began to rule supremely after it had conquered three geographical areas: Syria, Israel, and Egypt. And then it ruled supremely.

So, too, with the Papacy. Before the Papacy ruled supremely for 1260 years, three geographical areas had to be overcome, the three horns: the Heruli, the Vandals, and the Ostrogoths.

Therefore, in Daniel 11:40-45, we are not speaking about Pagan Rome or Papal Rome. We are speaking about modern Rome, and modern Rome will have three geographical areas that it needs to overcome.

The first of those geographical areas is verse 40 of Daniel 11: it is the Soviet Union.

The second of those three geographical areas is verse 41: it is the United States.

And the third of those three geographical areas is verse 42: Egypt.

> "[42]He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape." Daniel 11:42 (KJV).

And Egypt was a very easy symbol for us. Egypt represents the entire world. Of course, that is what the Spirit of Prophecy says: first, the United States, and every country on the Globe will follow her example. So, the three geographical areas that modern Rome will have to overcome are (1) the Soviet Union, (2) the United States, and (3) the United Nations, the entire world.

Okay. We have been bringing all kinds of lines of prophecy to establish this. And in verse 42 the Papacy (the King of the North) conquers the world, and they find no escape.

And this is a different Hebrew word [escape] than the Hebrew word translated as escape in verse 41. This Hebrew word in verse 42 identifies they will find no escape. The entire world is going to come under the authority of a One World Government that has the Pope of Rome seated on top of it as the moral authority.

And then in verse 43 it continues the story of the conquering of Egypt, and it says,

"[43]But he [THE PAPACY] shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt:"—

This tells us at least two things. It tells us that he is going to come in control of the financial structure.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible inquiry).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We have not started the notes yet. I am just getting prepared to get to the notes.

He is going to have control over the financial structure of the world; and, this, of course, is how Seventh-day Adventists understand it; because, we know that the Pope of Rome is going to forbid you to buy or sell except that you have the mark of the beast. That is the financial structure of the world.

—"and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps." Daniel 11:43 (KJV).

Which means to march with him, which means they are going to be in unity. And, the Libyans and Ethiopians represent the rich and the poor in the world, and they represent the military strength of the world.

So, here in verse 43, the same ally that was given to it in verse 40 with the United States, when the United States gave its chariots, horsemen (its military strength), and ships (its economic strength), here in verse 43 when it conquers the entire world, you see it given the economic strength with the silver and gold and precious things, and the military strength with the Libyans and Ethiopians: the deadly wound is healed.

Once the third geographical obstacle is conquered, it rules supremely: for Pagan Rome, for 360 years; for Papal Rome, for 1260 years. And time is no longer, so there will be no time element to this.

And one other thought: When was it that the Egyptians were willing to give away their gold and silver and precious things? When the plagues were falling [during the time related in the Book of Exodus just prior to Moses leading the children of Israel out of Egypt].

And we know that when The Sunday Law comes to the United States in verse 41, national apostasy will be followed by national ruin. And if there is national ruin in the United States, if the United States sneezes the entire world gets a cold. If there is national ruin in the United States, the whole economic structure of the Planet is going to crash, and it is in that scenario that Daniel illustrates verse 43, when the Papacy is given the gold and silver and precious things of Egypt, thus telling us that the world is willing to seek some divine deliverer from a tremendous crisis that began back in verse 41 at The Sunday Law in the United States. This is just ahead of us.

In verse 44, now, it is going to emphasize the message.

In verse 44, now we will go to our notes.

"[44]But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many."
Daniel 11:44 (KJV).

TIDINGS

Tidings is a message. You can see a nice illustration of tidings in The Acts of the Apostles, page 48.

> "What was the result of the outpouring of the Spirit on the Day of Pentecost? The glad tidings of a risen Saviour were carried to the uttermost parts of the inhabited world." The Acts of the Apostles, 48.

So, there is a message from the East and the North that is going to trouble the Papacy, and he is going to "go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many."

I have not spent the time that I sometimes do with the Hebrew words there about utterly make away many, but that means death. Okay? Not just death but there will be martyrs in this phrase, "he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many."

And why will he do so? Because, there is a message from the East and the North that troubles him. So, the message from the East and the North, now, it is only in two verses where you see Michael standing up. We are in verse 44, and we have verse 45, and then you have Daniel 12:1, and Daniel 12:1 says, "And at that time shall Michael stand up, . . ."

So, in Daniel 12:1, when Michael stands up, it is actually saying, "Somewhere back there in verse 45 or verse 44 that is where human probation closes." So, verse 44 is right at the end of the world, before human probation closes. And some people that fight this Message will tell you the tidings of the East and the North is some obscure message that they really do not know what it is, but it cannot be important because it is not the Third Angel's Message, because the Third Angel's Message is what Adventists are to proclaim.

And those people that make that kind of foolish argument do not understand God's Word. God's Word is line upon line. If you have a message marked in the prophecies that is being proclaimed right before probation closes, the only message that it can be is the Third Angel's Message; because, 1 Corinthians 14:32-33 says, "And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." One prophet is not going to mark the message of the hour just before probation closes and be in disagreement with how John the Revelator marks the message of the hour in Revelation 14, just before probation closes. They are the same message!

EAST AND NORTH

THE MESSAGE OF CHRIST'S RIGHTEOUSNESS—ISAIAH 41:2, 25-27

But, the message of the East and the North is designed to teach different aspects of the Third Angel's Message; and, it is when you look at what the East represents in the Scriptures and what the North represents in the Scriptures that you get a broader view of what the Third Angel's Message really is.

And this is just briefly [an overview]. All we are doing here is putting an understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11, so we can go back on Sunday and onward and start defending that. We are just putting our argument in place.

So, I am telling you what I am saying about East and North here this morning is a brief overview.

Go to Isaiah 41 in your Bibles.

Isaiah 41, we are looking at East and North, because we want to know what the Message of the East and North is that so infuriates the Papacy that it starts to kill people again, for the second time.

Verse 2 of Isaiah 41 says,

"[2]Who raised up the righteous man from the"—

Where?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: East.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And who is the righteous man here?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, but who is it, also? It is Clovis*(stet)*; but, it is Christ.

But, the point being is, what kind of man is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A righteous man.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A righteous man.

So, the righteous man from the East, the East is symbolizing what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: You mean Cyrus, not Clovis, right?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Oh, yes! I'm sorry. I meant Cyrus, not Clovis.

I stand corrected. Good on you!

Who is Clovis?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: King of France.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: King of France, AD496; different guy all together, who does NOT symbolize Christ. Cyrus does.

So, what does the East represent here in verse 2, if you are going to put it in a message in the terminology of Adventism? Righteousness by Faith.

—"[2]Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? He gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow." Isaiah 41:2 (KJV).

Verse 25 through 27:

"[25]I have raised up one from the north,"—

I thought he was raised up from the East?

This is the same Guy, by the way; but, in verse 2 He was raised up from the East and here in verse 25 it says, "I have raised up one from the north."

—"and he shall come: from the rising of the sun"—

And where is "the rising of the sun"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The East.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The East. Christ is the man from the East and the North.

When you are dealing with the righteousness of Christ, you are dealing with the East and the North; so, the message of the East and the North that causes the Papacy such grief is the message of Christ's Righteousness.

—"[25]I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon morter, and as the potter treadeth clay. [26]Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? And beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? Yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that heareth your words, [27]The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Good tidings.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"good tidings." Isaiah 41:25-27 (KJV).

The good tidings is the message of Christ's Righteousness.

And Sister White tells us plainly that the message of Jones and Waggoner was the message of Christ's Righteousness, and she also says that the message of Jones and Waggoner was the Third Angel's Message; she also says it was the Laodicean message; it was the Latter Rain message. The message of the East and the North is a symbol of Christ's righteousness, which is the Third Angel's Message. This is what troubles the Pope of Rome and begins the persecution.

But, it is not simply that. It is the sealing message, also. The East represents the sealing message.

EAST

THE SEALING MESSAGE—REVELATION 7:2-3

Is this Thursday?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes, it is.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. We are going to deal with this a little more in-depth on Sunday, Lord willing, this part that we are dealing with right here, Revelation 7; but, we will put this much into the record here, verses 2 and 3.

"[2]And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea. [3]Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads." Revelation 7:2-3 (KJV).

So, the message that comes from the East is what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The sealing.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the sealing message. It is the message that seals the 144,000. This is the message that enrages the Papacy in Daniel 11, verse 44.

But, you cannot get away from it: only someone that does not want to see it, only someone that has not been studying the Word of God. If you do not study the Word of God, you do not become familiar with the truth, that there are no accidents in the Bible. It is not that the Lord mechanically orchestrated the Bible, but He still controlled the production of the Bible to the very letter.

So, when you see verses 2 and 3, what are these four angels told? What are they told not to do, in verse 3? ". . . Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads."

You cannot get away from the fact that this command not to hurt the trees and the earth is the sealing message, and it comes from the East.

And go to Revelation 9, verse 4. This is what is amazing to me, that God's people think that maybe verse 4 is some kind of an accident. It cannot be an accident. God does not make any accidents.

Verse 4 of Revelation 9 says,

> "[4]And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads." Revelation 9:4 (KJV).

If you cannot see a connection between that verse and Revelation 7, verse 2 and 3, then you are just not willing to see.

Of course, we understand that here in verse 4 of Revelation 9, this is the command of Abu-Bakr, in the history of the Fifth Trumpet, when he told the Islamic military that he sent forth, "When you go forth, you are going to find two kinds of Christians. One kind of Christian keeps the Seventh-day Sabbath, leave them alone. Hurt not those that have the Seal of God. But, these Catholic Christians that keep Sunday, you tell them to submit to Allah; and, if they do not do it, cut their head off." That was the command of Abu-Bakr that is referenced in Daniel 9, verse 4, and you cannot get away from the fact that there is a connection between Revelation 9, verse 4, and the sealing message of Revelation 7, verse 2 and 3.

For those in Adventism that do not understand that the sealing message has to do with Islam, there is a darkness that is upon them that is going to cost them their eternal life, if they do not shake that darkness off.

Back to our notes.

The East, what we are saying, represents the sealing message.

The East and the North, together, represents the Righteousness of Christ.

THE MESSAGE OF THE SECOND COMING

But, the East also represents the Second Coming of Christ.

In The Great Controversy, page 640, Sister White says,

> "Soon there appears in the"—
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: East.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —east a small black cloud, about half the size of a man's hand. It is the cloud which surrounds the Saviour and which seems in the distance to be shrouded in darkness. The people of God know this to be the sign of the Son of man." The Great Controversy, 640.

Okay. So, the East also represents the message of Christ's Second Coming.

1 Kings 18:38-46

And when we see this sign—if we are faithful and alive—when we see this sign, where has this experience been prefigured for us?

1 Kings 18, where we can find the sign of the Second Coming.

1 Kings 18, beginning in verse 38, says,

> "[38]Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. [39]And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God. [40]And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.
> "[41]And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain. [42]So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees, [43]And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times. [44]And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down that the rain stop thee not. [45]And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. [46]And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel." 1 Kings 18:38-46 (KJV).

Of course, we dealt with the illustration of Elijah and placed it down at the end of the world more than once in our studies; but, the sign of the East and the sign of the cloud in the East, that is the sign of Christ's Second Coming.

NORTH

What about the North? What is the message of the North that enrages the Papacy?

And, of course, that also has many lines of truth; but, the primary one is the message of the King of the North, the message that the King of the North in Daniel 11, verse 40 through 45 is the Papacy.

And why would that enrage the Papacy? Because, when this message is opened up, it is going to tell the whole world who the King of the North is.

Here is a passage from The Great Controversy to make this point, if you do not already understand it, beginning at page 605.

> "Heretofore those who presented the truths of the third angel's message have often been regarded as mere alarmists."—

Have you ever been called an alarmist?

I would think that if you have not been called an alarmist, then you are not preaching the right message.

—"Their predictions that religious intolerance would gain control in the United States, that church and state would unite to persecute those who keep the commandments of God, have been pronounced groundless and absurd. It has been confidently declared that this land could never become other than what it has been—the defender of religious freedom. But as the question of enforcing Sunday observance is widely agitated, the event so long doubted and disbelieved is seen to be approaching, and the third message will produce an effect which it could not have had before."—

This is just prior to The Sunday Law.

Continuing on:

—"In every generation God has sent His servants to rebuke sin, both in the world and in the church."—

Does that mean at the end of the world the Lord is going to raise up servants that are going to rebuke the sin in the Seventh-day Adventist Church?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is how I understand the English of this; because, God never changes. Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

——"In every generation God has sent His servants to rebuke sin, both in the world and in the church. But the people desire smooth things spoken to them, and the pure, unvarnished truth is not acceptable. Many reformers, in entering upon their work, determined to exercise great prudence in attacking the sins of the church and the nation. They hoped, by the example of a pure Christian life, to lead the people back to the doctrines of the Bible. But the Spirit of God came upon them as it came upon Elijah, moving him to rebuke the sins of a wicked king and an apostate people; they could not refrain from preaching the plain utterances of the Bible— doctrines which they had been reluctant to present. They were impelled to zealously declare the truth and the danger which threatened souls. The words which the Lord gave them they uttered, fearless of consequences, and the people were compelled to hear the warning.

"Thus the message of the third angel will be proclaimed. As the time comes for it to be given with greatest power, the Lord will work through humble instruments, leading the minds of those who consecrate themselves to His service."—

When is it given with the greatest power?

Just to remind us, I know that most of us may know this but in these histories that are all the same, there is a point where the Divine Symbol comes down, is there not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the history of Moses, this is where the Lord comes down and confronts Moses with circumcision, the test of circumcision.

A test is marked when the Divine Symbol comes down [see Figure No. 105].

And Moses said, "The Lord thy God is going to raise up a prophet like unto myself," and that prophet was Christ. And Christ is here in his story when a Dove comes down; and, the testing of this history begins right after his baptism, and baptism is replacing circumcision, which was Moses's test, and Jesus immediately went into the wilderness to be tested of the Devil.

So, we know that when the Divine Symbol comes down in each of these histories, as did the Angel of Revelation 10 on August 11, 1840; whenever the Divine Symbol is marked as descending, as Michael descended and dealt with Cyrus at this very point in the history of the Three Decrees at the beginning of the 2300 Days, that a testing process begins and a message is empowered.

But, as we look closely at this, if you remember, this begins the sprinkling of the Rain. There is a sprinkling, because what happened when Christ was resurrected? Who did He see first?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Mary.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Mary.

And what did He tell Mary?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "Do not touch me."

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "Do not touch me," why?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He had not yet ascended.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He had not ascended. He had to ascend.

So, He ascended to His Father; and, on that very same day He came back down, did He not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, He descends on that very same day to His Disciples, and He breathes upon them.

And what did Sister White say about that breathing? It was as a few drops before the full outpouring on Pentecost. Pentecost is where the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit takes place.

We have marked that in each of these histories the outpouring of the Holy Spirit comes in two parts, from the sprinkling to the full outpouring.

And Pentecost was the time of Christ, and in Testimonies, volume 5, page 214, Sister White lines up Pentecost with The Sunday Law. So at The Sunday Law in the United States is where the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit is going to begin. We have put that in the record repeatedly.

So, when Sister White says—we are at the second paragraph [of your notes],—

> —"Thus the message of the third angel will be proclaimed. As the time comes for it to be given with greatest power,"—

When is the time is it going to be given with the greatest power? The Sunday Law, The Sunday Law.

The previous paragraphs we are saying "as the events so long doubted and disbelieved is seemed to be approaching," this is on this side [before] The Sunday Law. But, as the time comes for the full outpouring, > —"the Lord will work through humble instruments, leading the minds of those who consecrate themselves to His service."—

> The laborers will be qualified rather by the unction of His Spirit than by the training of literary institutions. Men of faith and prayer will be constrained to go forth with holy zeal, declaring the words which God gives them."—

Now, what words are to be given to them?

> —"The sins of Babylon will be laid open."—

This is the message of the North. This is the message of the King of the North. They are going to explain why the man of sin is corrupt, and why those in confederation with him are corrupt, and this is going to enrage the King of the North and bring about persecution.

> —"The sins of Babylon will be laid open. The fearful results of enforcing the observances of the church by civil authority, the inroads of spiritualism, the stealthy but rapid progress of the papal power—all will be unmasked."—

By whom? By the ensign, by the Seventh-day Adventists that have the Seal of God, that receive that Seal at The Sunday Law. They are going to have the privilege and the responsibility of proclaiming the message that all the prophets longed to proclaim.

> —"By these solemn warnings the people will be stirred. Thousands upon thousands will listen who have never heard words like these. In amazement they hear the testimony that Babylon is the church, fallen because of her errors and sins, because of her rejection of the truth sent to her from heaven. As the people go to their former teachers with the eager inquiry, Are these things so? the ministers present fables, prophesy smooth things, to soothe their fears and quiet the awakened conscience."—

Sounds like the time of Noah: "It's not going to rain. It has never rained! I don't know what those clouds are, but it is not going to rain."

> —"But since many refuse to be satisfied with the mere authority of men and demand a plain 'Thus saith the Lord,' the popular ministry, like the Pharisees of old, filled with anger as their authority is questioned, will denounce the message as of Satan and stir up the sin-loving multitudes to revile and persecute those who proclaim it."—

The message of the East and North is going to trouble him, and "he is going to go forth with fury to destroy, and utterly make away many."

> —"As the controversy extends into new fields and the minds of the people are called to God's downtrodden law, Satan is astir. The power attending the message will only madden those who oppose it. The clergy will put forth almost superhuman efforts to shut away the light lest it should shine upon their flocks. By every means at their command they will endeavor to suppress the discussion of these vital questions. The church appeals to the strong arm of civil power, and, in this work, papists and Protestants unite. As the movement for Sunday enforcement becomes more bold and decided, the law will be invoked against commandment keepers. They will be threatened with fines and imprisonment, and some will be offered positions of influence, and other rewards and advantages, as inducements to renounce their faith. But their steadfast answer is: 'Show us from the word of God our error'—the same plea that was made by Luther under similar circumstances. Those who are arraigned before the courts make a strong vindication of the truth, and some who hear them are led to take their stand to keep all the commandments of God. Thus light will be brought before thousands who otherwise would know nothing of these truths." The Great Controversy, 605–606.

So, the message of the North is the message that exposes who the King of the North is, and this enrages him.

ISAIAH 14:13-14

Go to Isaiah 14:13-14. It is in your notes.

> "[13]For thou hast said in thin heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north. [14]I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High." Isaiah 14:13-14 (KJV).

Satan has desired to be God, and in his attempt to do so he has built the Catholic Church that this may be the worldwide structure that he can take control of when he appears as Christ. He also needs a worldwide civil structure, which is the United Nations. Both of these are in place, and it is through this combination that he is going to persecute those who give this Final Warning Message.

We have read previously from Selected Messages, book 2, page 102:

> "The scenes connected with the working of the man of sin are the last features plainly revealed in this earth's history. The people now have a special message to give to the world, the third angel's message." Selected Messages, book 2, 102.

The last six verses of Daniel 11 are the last scenes of Earth's history; because, in Daniel 12:1 Michael stands up. Human probation closes. The last six verses of Daniel 11 are the story of the man of sin, the final story of the man of sin; and, the Third Angel's Message is given in this time, but in the last six verses of Daniel 11 the Third Angel's Message is represented by Daniel as the East and the North in order to identify a broader understanding of what the Third Angel's Message is.

JUDGMENT

Jeremiah 6:22; Ezekiel 29:18-21; Isaiah 10:5-6

The message of the North is also the message of Judgment.

Jeremiah 6:22

If you will go to Jeremiah 6:22, the North is not simply the King of the North. God's Word is infinite; it is not human.

In chapter 6, verse 22, it says,

> "[22]Thus saith the LORD, Behold a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth." Jeremiah 6:22 (KJV).

Okay. These people from the North country is being raised up by God.

Ezekiel 29:18-21

In Ezekiel 29, what are they being raised up for? They are being raised up to accomplish judgment upon God's people. Ezekiel 29, verses 18 through 21:

> "[18]Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages,"—

The Lord is going to pay Babylon for doing His work. He is the tool in God's hand in order to judge His people.

> —"every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it: [19]Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her > spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. [20]I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD. [21]In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD." Ezekiel 29:18-21 (KJV).

What I am wanting you to see here is that the King of the North is the Papacy; but, the Papacy accomplishes judgment. So, the North also represents judgment.

And, of course, we know that the Third Angel's Message is the Judgment Hour Message. But, here in this passage, please notice: What was the payment for the Papacy; what does the Lord give the Papacy for doing the Papacy's dirty work, which was the Lord's will? What is his payment?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Egypt.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Egypt; that is verses 42 and 43 [of Daniel 11]. The King of the North conquers Egypt.

And when does he do so? He tells you in these verses when this takes place. In verse 22, it says, "In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, . . ."

What causes the budding out, in the Scriptures?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Latter Rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Latter Rain.

". . . and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; . . ." He is going to give who an "opening of the mouth"? Those people that are receiving the Latter Rain.

And what is their open mouth going to say? It is going to say the message of the East and the North (the Third Angel's Message).

And what is that message going to do? It is going to enrage the Papacy, and the Papacy is going "to go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many." (Daniel 11:44, KJV).

DESTROY

To destroy; what does it mean to destroy? That is pretty simple, really; but, we will give a couple of witnesses to it.

Review and Herald, August 22, 1893:

> "The whole world is to be stirred with enmity against Seventh-day Adventists, because they will not yield homage to the Papacy, by honoring Sunday, the institution of this anti-Christian power. It is the purpose of Satan to cause them to be blotted from the earth, in order that his supremacy of the world may not be disputed." Review and Herald, August 22, 1893.

Maranatha, page 199:

> "When this grand work is to take place in the battle, prior to the last closing conflict, many will be imprisoned, many will flee for their lives from cities and towns, and many will be martyrs for Christ's sake in standing in defense of the truth." Maranatha, 199.

He is going to go forth and utterly make away many.

Early Writings, page 279:

> "I was pointed down to the time when the third angel's message was closing. The power of God had rested upon His people; they had accomplished their work and were prepared for the trying hour before them. They had received the latter rain, or refreshing from the presence of the Lord, and the living testimony had been revived. The last great warning had sounded everywhere, and it had stirred up and enraged the inhabitants of the earth who would not receive the message." Early Writings, 279.

Who does it enrage? Well, it enrages the inhabitants of the Earth.

Who else does it enrage in verse 44 [of Daniel 11]? It enrages the King of the North, the Papacy. It troubles him; so, he goes forth to utterly destroy and make away many.

The Great Controversy, beginning at page 621:

> "The season of distress and anguish before us will require a faith that can endure weariness, delay, and hunger—a faith that will not faint though severely tried. . . . The "time of trouble, such as never was," is soon to open upon us; and we shall need an experience which we do not now possess and which many are too indolent to obtain. It is often the case that trouble is greater in anticipation than in reality; but this is not true of the crisis before us. The most vivid presentations cannot reach the magnitude of the ordeal." The Great Controversy, 621–622.

I would like to tell you how bad it is going to get, but a human being does not have that ability.

Verse 45 [of Daniel 11], and what I am arguing here, my understanding of what I am suggesting is that verses 44, 45, and Daniel 12:1 (the first part) are one thought.

In verse 44 a message enrages the King of the North. That message is symbolically represented as the Message of the East and the North. It is Daniel's way of identifying the Third Angel's Message that is swelling to a loud cry, and we are told that that Message enrages the King of the North (the Papacy) and he goes forth to begin persecution.

And continuing on in this thought in verse 45, Daniel says,

> "[45]And he [the King of the North] shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas ~~in~~ [and] the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him." Daniel 11:45 (KJV).

Now, we have spent time describing the seas and the glorious holy mountain previously when we looked at Armageddon.

I am going to keep it a little bit simpler.

There is more than one sea in the area.

That is the "glorious holy mountain [indicating the drawing on the whiteboard]. And, once again, I am not an artist.

And these are the seas.

And this is the Pope of Rome. He is planting the tabernacles of his palace between the Church (the glorious holy mountain) and the seas.

And Revelation 17:15 tells us what are the seas?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The people.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The people of the world.

But, in verse 44, what has the Church been doing? It has been given a message from the East and the North.

Who is the message for?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The people.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The people in the world.

So, the Church has been sending a message, the Message of the East and the North, to these receivers [the people of the world].

But, the Pope here, he is blocking the message. He is putting himself between the seas and the Glorious Holy Mountain; because, when you consider verses 44 and 45 together, his work is trying to prevent the people of the world from hearing the Final Warning Message.

Let us consider a couple of components of verse 45.

PLANT: Strong's Concordance 5193—to strike in, i.e. fix; spec. to plant (lit. or fig.):—fasten, plant (-er).

TABERNACLES: Strong's Concordance 168—from 166; a tent (as clearly; conspicuous from a distance): –covering, (dwelling) (place), home, tabernacle, tent 166: to be clear: –shine.

PALACE: Strong's Concordance 643—a pavilion or palace-tent:—palace.

TO PLANT: He says he will plant the tabernacles of his palace [See Figure No. 106]. To plant means to fix. He is going to place: this is the tabernacles of his palace. That is my way of representing it.

What is a TABERNACLE?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is a tent.

And what is a tent?

Why do you say a tabernacle or a tent is the church? What Biblical support do you have for making that claim?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The sanctuary that Moses raised up was a tabernacle. A tabernacle is a church.

But, this tabernacle that he [the Papacy] is going to place in the midst of this situation here, what are the tabernacles of? It is of his palace.

And what is a PALACE?

Who owns a palace?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A king.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A king.

What is a king?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A ruler.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is a kingdom. Okay? So, when he is going to plant the tabernacles of his palace, the tabernacle is a church, the palace is a state. The issue? The issue here is the combination of church and state. It is the image of the beast. That is what he uses to try to block the Message, and he puts it in between those that are giving the Message and the intended the receivers of the Message.

And it is not an accident that this way of blocking the Message is illustrated in here. The way it is typified in here is typified repeatedly in the Spirit of Prophecy.

SEAS

But, in any case, next in your notes, on Revelation 17:15, we all know this.

> "[15]And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues." Revelation 17:15 (KJV).

So, we are saying he has placed himself between the seas, between the people of the world that need to hear this Final Warning Message of the East and the North. The Papacy places himself between the people of the world and the Church (the people that are giving this Message).

MOUNTAIN

Isaiah 2:2-3; Daniel 9:20

The Glorious Holy Mountain, we have already referenced this more than once; but, in Isaiah 2:2-3—how many times do you have to see something in the Scriptures before it to be established?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two or three.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Upon the testimony of two or three a thing shall be established.

So, in Isaiah 2:2 and the reason why I particular like Isaiah 2:2, it tells you it takes place at the end of the world. And it says,

> "[2]And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD'S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. [3]And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem." Isaiah 2:2-3 (KJV).

So, what is the Glorious Holy Mountain? It is Zion; it is Jerusalem; it is Jacob's house.

And who is modern Israel at the end of the world? Seventh-day Adventists. This is Adventism at the end of the world, Adventism that has been purified at The Sunday Law; because, at The Sunday Law you are going to demonstrate whether you have a character prepared for the mark of the beast or the Seal of God, and there is a separation that takes place, and there is a change that takes place in Adventism as it changes from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant. And the Church Triumphant, right here [indicating Figure No. 106], this is the Glorious Holy Mountain, and it is proclaiming the Final Warning Message, the Third Angel's Message that Daniel symbolizes by East and North.

BETWEEN—BLOCKING THE MESSAGE

And the Pope of Rome, his issue over combination of church and state, is blocking the Final Warning Message from its intended receivers.

Notice how many times Sister White uses this same type of scenario.

Manuscript Releases, volume 7, page 215:

> "Though being unable to expel God from His throne, Satan has charged God with satanic attributes and has claimed the attributes of God as his own. He is a deceiver, and through his serpentine sharpness, through his crooked practices he has drawn to himself the homage which man should have given to God,"—

And what has he done? What is she talking about now?

She is talking about Satan wanting to be like Christ. But, notice now what she is going to say:

> —"has drawn to himself the homage which man should have given to God, and has planted his satanic throne between the human worshiper and the divine Father." Manuscript Releases, volume 7, 215.

Here [The Papacy in Figure No. 106] Satan is planting a throne between the Father [the Church] and the worshippers [the people of the world]. The same scenario as Daniel 11, verse 45. It is identical, and it is telling the same story. It is telling about the method that Satan uses to block the Message.

Notice this next quote, Manuscript Releases, volume 6, page 7.

> "Just prior to the coming of the Son of man, there is—and has been for years—a determination on the part of the enemy to cast his hellish shadow right between man and his Saviour." Manuscript Releases, volume 6, 7.

Hellish shadow [indicates the Papacy in Figure No. 106], the Savior [the Church], man [the people of the world]. This is the mode of operation that Satan uses to prevent the Message.

Testimonies, volume 7, page 35:

> "Satan will try to interpose himself"—

What is "interpose himself"? Put himself in the middle.

> —"and discourage the workers, so as to prevent them from giving the message of light and warning." Testimonies, volume 7, 35.

He is going to stand here and get us discouraged where we do not give the message.

Signs of the Times, March 20, 1901:

> "He, the great Teacher, was in the world; He was the light of the world; but Satan interposed his hellish shadow between Him and the souls whom Christ came to save." Signs of the Times, March 20, 1901.

Do you see it? It is always the same.

But, it is not just Satan or the Pope.

Selected Messages, book 2, page 19:

> "Formality, worldly wisdom, worldly caution, worldly policy, will appear to many to be the very power of God, but when accepted, it stands as an obstacle to prevent God's light in warnings, reproof, and counsel from coming to the world." Selected Messages, book 2, 19.

So, here is God's light in warnings, reproof, and counsel coming from the Church to the world; but, now it is not the Pope of Rome that is blocking it in this message: it is concepts, "Formality, worldly wisdom, worldly caution, worldly policy." It is the traditions and customs that have been inculcated into Adventism while it has been wandering in the Wilderness of Laodicea that makes them think that it is wrong to do the work of the Lord.

Testimonies, volume 5, page 456:

> "The things of the world are their idols. These interpose between the soul and Christ, and the solemn and awful realities that are crowding upon us are but dimly seen and faintly realized." Testimonies, volume 5, 456.

When Christ here [referencing Figure No. 106] is giving me a message, and this is me [the people of the world], the people that are supposed to get the Message, it does not have to be Satan; it does not have to be the King of the North; it does not have to be formality and worldly ideas. It can be my own personal idols that stop this Message from coming.

But, it is still the same literary structure of Inspiration that Sister White over and over uses that is found in Daniel 11, verse 45.

Counsels to Writers and Editors, page 38:

> "Let no one run the risk of interposing himself between the people and the message of heaven. The message of God will come to the people; and if there were no voice among men to give it, the very stones would cry out." Counsels to Writers and Editors, 38.

So, it is possible for us to get the idea that we can interpose ourselves between this Message and the world.

Testimonies, volume 9, page 280:

> "But when one man allows another to step in between him and the duty that God has pointed out to him, . . . such a man, instead of growing and developing, will lose his spirituality." Testimonies, volume 9, 280.

Selected Messages, book 3, page 386:

> "We entreat of you who oppose the light of truth, to stand out of the way of God's people."—

Get out of the way!

> —"Let Heaven-sent light shine forth upon them in clear and steady rays." Review and Herald, May 27, 1890.

> "Stand out of the way, Brethren."—

Brethren? That usually means the Leadership. Could it be that Leadership could actually stand in the way of the Third Angel's Message?

> —"Stand out of the way, Brethren. Do not interpose yourselves between God and His work." Selected Messages, book 3, 386.

It seems to me that the Brethren might take the same position that the King of the North takes there, that Satan takes.

Testimonies, volume 9, page 234:

> "The Sabbath is the Lord's test, and no man, be he king, priest, or ruler, is authorized to come between God and man." Testimonies, volume 9, 234.

Testimonies, volume 8, page 94:

> "God means just what He says. Man has interposed between God and the people, and the Lord has sent forth the third angel with the message." Testimonies, volume 8, 94.

The Lord is sending forth the Third Angel's Message, but Daniel represents this message as the Message of the East and the North; and, man has interposed himself between the Message and the intended receivers. And the man that does it is the man of sin (the King of the North).

And it is here that he comes to his end with none to help.

SUMMARY

So, all that we have done here over the past probably eight presentations is given the overview of the last six verses of Daniel 11. We have done this to demonstrate that the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989 marks the beginning of the events connected with the Close of Probation and that it marks the Time of the End for the 144,000; because, the Reform Movement of the 144,000 has been prefigured by every Reformatory Movement in God's Sacred Word, and all of them began with the fulfillment of a prophecy, which is the Time of the End.

Seventh-day Adventists do not understand this. I agree. They think the only Time of the End there is, is 1798; but, we have clearly put that in place.

So, what we are saying is, is that the message that was unsealed in 1989 connected with these last six verses [of Daniel 11] are the most profound truths in God's Word, and that they are now testing Seventh-day Adventists, and that they are now doing a work of producing two classes of worshippers in Adventism. And at The Sunday Law, those two classes will be demonstrated: one of those classes will receive the mark of the beast, the other will receive the Seal of God; and, therefore, this message is a life or death message.

And on Sunday we will begin our work of demonstrating how sound what we have set forth these last seven or eight worships is, in order to understand that 1989 was the point in time when the Dirt Brush Man began to sweep out the counterfeit rubbish.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we do not want to be among those that interpose ourselves between your message and its intended receivers. We want to understand this message and be part of the Glorious Holy Mountain that proclaims it. We can see that the world is giving evidence that probation is about to close, that The Sunday Law is drawing closer and closer moment by moment; and, we can see evidence that your people are still sleeping on. We ask that you do want it takes to awaken and arouse your people that they might come to grips with this message that you have opened up in 1989 and be prepared to receive the Seal and participate in that work and not be spewed out of your mouth. We thank you for being with this LiveStreaming and this recording so far. We ask for a continued blessing on it, and we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #57

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we begin the study this morning, we ask that you would watch over the work that we are doing with the LiveStreaming and the recording. We ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit to guide and direct in this study, that you would overrule my humanity and take control of my words and my thoughts that the message conveyed would be one that will glorify and honor you and edify your people. We want to receive your Latter Rain. We want increased understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11, and we ask that you accomplish that for us now. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This presentation, we have just finished covering the last six verses of Daniel 11, and now we want to begin to make a defense of it.

And some of the ways that we defend it, we are going to go through.

THE BEGINNING AND THE END
EVERY WORD DEPTH
THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY
ELIJAH
THEME
REPETITION OF HISTORY
CONNECTION WITH REVELATION
STRUCTURE

One of them is the beginning and the ending. We find in Daniel 11, verse 40, the beginning of the Beast's, the Dragon's, and the False Prophet's march to Armageddon that ends there in verses 44 and 45, between the seas and the Glorious Holy Mountain.

We see the beginning of the Book of Daniel in chapter 1, verses 1 and 2, with the King of the North attacking Jerusalem; and, in these verses we see the end of that story. And that story, of course, in Daniel's last vision is the story of Michael, which is the story of the Great Controversy. When we see Michael, His name means, Who is like unto God?

So, in Daniel 11, verse 40, we have the end of the Great Controversy in terms of human probation still being open. Of those that profess to have an understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11, we are the only ones in Adventism. This message is the only message in Adventism that addresses every single word in the verses and shows an interconnected relationship to all those words, in agreement with the meaning of the passage.

What we are going to deal with here today—it will take a couple of presentations. It will take this morning and tomorrow—is the depth. And by that I mean, if you are familiar with a computer, in the Windows program you go to a menu, you touch one of the things and it takes you to that place in the Windows, and there you will find another menu where you can hit one of those items on that menu and it will take you further and further. And this is also the way that the last six verses of Daniel 11 works, the way the whole Bible works.

But, each of these symbols in these verses not only takes you to a deeper understanding of God's Word but they tie together the whole passage. We have dealt with the Time of the End being 1798; the King of the South being the Dragon; the King of the North being the Papacy; the chariots, ships, and horsemen being the United States—that being the beginning of the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet leading to Armageddon.

We have identified the "countries"[14] in verse 40 as the many countries of the Soviet Union; and, the overflowing of the Papacy is in agreement with a symbol of the Papacy, the overflowing of the Euphrates.

"He also enters into the glorious land." We have also identified the "glorious land" as the United States, the word glorious in the sense of prominence. The most prominent land in the world is the United States.

We have identified that "many" not " ou tr ies" in verse 41: many Seventh-day Adventists will be overthrown at The Sunday Law.

Every word in here we have identified, and every word allows you, if you want to focus on those words to go deeper, when it comes to those that escape out of the hand of the Papacy in verse 41 (Edom, Moab, and Ammon), this is an illustration of modern Babylon (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet). Only Edom, Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon are representing those that escape from modern Babylon in this verse. And when you understand that all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, and that when they are describing the end of the world and God's enemy is illustrated in a threefold fashion, suddenly you find these three enemies represented in a variety of ways throughout the Scriptures.

So, we are talking about depth here. One of the arguments that this is valid is that the truths that we are suggesting are identified in these verses are truths that are deep and profound. When the Papacy conquers the third obstacle, Egypt, in verses 42 and 43, it takes control of the financial structure of the world by taking control of the gold and silver and the precious things. But at the same time that it is talking about taking over the financial structure, it is inferring the time in ancient Egypt when the Egyptians were willing to give up their gold and silver and precious things, thus identifying in agreement with the truth of The Sunday Law in the United States in verse 41 that in verse 41 national apostasy is followed by national ruin, and the destructive judgments of God have begun. So, in verses 42 and 43, the Egyptians are willing to turn loose of their financial structure in order to end the plagues that are falling upon them.

The message of the East and the North, it is very hard for the theologians in Adventism to understand that all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world; and, therefore, a passage such as verse 44 that takes place right before Michael stands up (two verses later in Daniel 12:1), that this particular message has to agree with all the other prophets. It has to be a representation of the Third Angel's Message that is swelling to a Loud Cry. They do not get that. They are using apostate Protestantism's theological style instead of the Rules adopted by William Miller, which are set forth also in Isaiah 28, line upon line, what we call "proof-texting."

But, in verse 44 the message, the tidings of the East and the North, a twofold message, the twofold message of Islam and the Papacy, it will trouble the Papacy. And the word East that we are going to focus on today is to try and emphasize the depth of this passage in Scripture.

[14] Correction to delete the word many, as tied via the DVD to the word "countries," as it does not appear in that context in Daniel 11:40.

THE BEGINNING AND THE END, EVERY WORD, AND THE DEPTH

EAST

In your notes, in 1 Corinthians 14:32-33, it says,

> "[32]And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. [33]For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." 1 Corinthians 14:32-33 (KJV).

All the prophets agree with one another. They are all speaking about the end of the world.

FOUR WINDS

And we are going to look at two references to begin with, where the Four Winds are noted and, therefore, in agreement with the fact that all the prophets are subject to the other prophets; and, they are all speaking about the end of the world. These Four Winds have to be the Four Winds of Strife that are restrained when the sealing of the 144,000 begins.

Revelation 7, verses 1-3, says,

> "[1]And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. [2]And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, [3]Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads." Revelation 7:1–3 (KJV).

In Ezekiel 37:9, which is in your notes, it says,

> "[9]Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." Ezekiel 37:9 (KJV).

So, there is a breath that comes from these Four Winds that are restrained. And, of course, "the breath" is the same word as Spirit. It is the message that comes from the Four Winds that marks the arrival of the Latter Rain, of the outpouring of the Spirit.

And we want to look at how this relates to the word East in Revelation 7:1-3. There is an angel ascending from the East in connection with restraining these Four Winds.

STRIFE

What do these four winds represent? Strife.

In The Great Controversy, page 439:

> "In Revelation 17 an angel explained that waters represent 'peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.' Revelation 17:15. Winds are a symbol of strife. The four winds of heaven striving upon the great sea represent the terrible scenes of conquest and revolution by which kingdoms have attained to power." The Great Controversy, 439.

So, these Four Winds that are restrained represent strife, and there is a message that comes from these Four Winds that breathes the Spirit upon God's people.

PROGRESSIVE—EVEN NOW

This strife is a progressive escalation. Notice the next quote from Testimonies, volume 6, page 408.

Everything in end-time Bible prophecy is progressive.

> "The restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world."—

What is "the restraining Spirit of God"? It is the Spirit of God that is restraining the Four Winds.

But, the restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world. So, there is a restraint that was taking place in Ellen White's day, but it was being lessened. It was being withdrawn.

Continuing on:

> —"Hurricanes, storms, tempests, fire and flood, disasters by sea and land, follow each other in quick succession. Science seeks to explain all these. The signs thickening around us, telling of the near approach of the Son of God, are attributed to any other than the true cause. Men cannot discern the sentinel angels restraining the four winds that they shall not blow until the servants of God are sealed; but when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture." Testimonies, volume 6, 408.

She in other places tells us that when Michael stands up, human probation closes and then the Four Winds are fully released; but, the Winds are slipping through the Angels' fingers, so to speak, even after there is a restraint put upon these Four Winds of Strife.

THE MIGHTIEST ANGEL

Testimonies to Ministers, page 445, speaking of who this angel is that ascends from the East because we are dealing with East, we are trying to show some of the depth in the symbols that are found in the last six verses of Daniel 11. And we are dealing with the message of the tidings out of the East and the North, focusing on the word East.

> "If such scenes as this are to come, such tremendous judgments on a guilty world, where will be the refuge for God's people? How will they be sheltered until the indignation be overpast? John sees the elements of nature--earthquake, tempest, and political strife—represented as being held by four angels."—

Would you have thought that the elements of nature are political strife?

> —"the elements of nature—earthquake, tempest, and political strife—represented as being held by four angels. These winds are under control until God gives the word to let them go. There is the safety of God's church. The angels of God do His bidding, holding back the winds of the earth, that the winds should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree, until the servants of God should be sealed in their foreheads. The mighty angel is seen ascending from the east (or sunrising). This mightiest of angels"—

Who is the mightiest of angels? It is Michael, is it not, Michael the Archangel.

—"This mightiest of angels has in his hand the seal of the living God,"—

So, who is the sealing angel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Michael.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Michael.

—"or of Him who alone can give life, who can inscribe upon the foreheads the mark or inscription, to whom shall be granted immortality, eternal life. It is the voice of this highest angel that had authority to command the four angels to keep in check the four winds until this work was performed, and until he should give the summons to let them loose.

"Those that overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil, will be the favored ones who shall receive the seal of the living God. Those whose hands are not clean, whose hearts are not pure, will not have the seal of the living God. Those who are planning sin and acting it will be passed by. Only those who, in their attitude before God, are filling the position of those who are repenting and confessing their sins in the great anti-typical Day of Atonement, will be recognized and marked as worthy of God's protection. The names of those who are steadfastly looking and waiting and watching for the appearing of their Saviour—more earnestly and wishfully than they who wait for the morning—will be numbered with those who are sealed. Those who, while having all the light of truth flashing upon their souls, should have works corresponding to their avowed faith, but are allured by sin, setting up idols in their hearts, corrupting their souls before God, and polluting those who unite with them in sin, will have their names blotted out of the book of life, and be left in midnight darkness, having no oil in their vessels with their lamps. 'Unto you that fear My name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in His wings.'"—

Who is the Sun of Righteousness? He is the one who arises from the sun rising; He is the Sealing Angel. He is the Highest Angel. He is Michael; He is Christ.

—"This sealing of the servants of God is the same that was shown to Ezekiel in vision."—

So, the sealing of Revelation 7 is the sealing of Ezekiel 9.

—"John also had been a witness of this most startling revelation. He saw the sea and the waves roaring, and men's hearts failing them for fear."—

John saw, she says here, the sealing of God's people.

Where did he see the sealing of God's people? In Revelation 7; and, it is the same as the sealing in Ezekiel 9. He saw the same thing.

But, then she goes a step further, and this is often missed.

> —"John also had been a witness of this most startling revelation. He saw the sea and the waves roaring, and men's hearts failing them for fear. He beheld the earth moved, and the mountains carried into the midst of the sea (which is literally taking place), the water thereof roaring and troubled, and the mountains shaking with the swelling thereof. He was shown plagues, pestilence, famine, and death performing their terrible mission." Testimonies to Ministers, 445.

So, what else did John see in connection with the sealing? ". . . the sea and the waves roaring, and men's hearts failing them for fear."

So, what did he see in connection with the sealing? Luke 21.

Luke 21:25-26 says this:

> "[25]And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars;"—

When were there signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars? To introduce the Millerite History.

> —"and upon the earth distress of nations,"—

What was the distress of nations in the Millerite History? It was Islam in 1838, is when Uriah Smith notes them.

So, in Luke 21 we have introduced the signs that lead to the beginning of Adventism, to the Millerite History, and then it continues on. It says, > —"and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; [26]Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken." Luke 21:25–26 (KJV).

Ellen White has just tied together here Luke 21 with the sealing of God's people in Ezekiel 9 and Revelation 7.

The Lord willing, we will deal with that later on.

Review and Herald, December 7, 1897, says,

> "The retribution to come upon Jerusalem could be delayed only a short time; and as Christ's eye rested upon the doomed city, he saw not merely its destruction, but the destruction of a world. He saw that as Jerusalem was given up to destruction, so the world will be given up to its doom. He saw the retribution that will be visited on the adversaries of God. The scenes that were transacted at the destruction of Jerusalem will be repeated at the great and terrible day of the Lord, but in a more fearful manner."—

Was there a warning message in the destruction of Jerusalem that was represented by 2520?

Was there a message of doom from the East and the North and from the Four Winds?

Yes, Sister White says there was, and there was a man that went around Jerusalem for how long? Seven years, saying, "Woe, woe."

—"A world is represented in the destruction of Jerusalem, and the warning given then comes sounding down along the line to our time: 'And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring.' Yes, the sea shall pass its borders, and destruction will be in its track. It will engulf the ships that sail upon its broad waters; and with the burden of their living freight, these will be hurled into eternity.

"There will be calamities by land and by sea, 'men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth; for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.' In just the same manner that he ascended, will he come the second time to our world. 'And when these things begin to come to pass,'"—

What things? The signs, the signs; when the signs "begin to come to pass, . . .".

—"'And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.'

"In this perilous time, who will be found traitors? Who will choose the friendship of the enemies of Christ? Who will accept the bribery of the world, at the expense of the principles of righteousness? Of such it will be said, 'If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! But now they are hid from thine eyes.' O, if men would only hear the last call of mercy that God has sent to our world, warning them of temperance, righteousness, and judgment to come, truth and light and grace would be given them, to be given to the world.

"But ministers and teachers have resisted the light, refused the grace which God has richly provided for them, and abused the opportunities he has graciously presented to them. He looks from his throne, and sees warnings despised, convictions set aside, and the truth buried beneath the rubbish of tradition. A 'Thus saith the Lord' is counted as an idle tale. Fables are chosen before the truth of heavenly origin. Invitations to repentance and the convictions of the Spirit of God are slighted." Review and Herald, December 7, 1897.

So, what I wanted you to see here is that Sister White ties in Luke 21 with the sealing of Ezekiel 9 and the sealing of Revelation 7. And the angel that seals God's people in Revelation 7 where the four winds are restrained, He ascends from the East.

Ezekiel 37:9, once again says,

> "[9]Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." Ezekiel 37:9 (KJV).

In the next presentation we are going to deal with the connection of the winds and the breath, and the children of the East. But here, I just want to point out to you without defending it that this wind in this passage, and breath, are the same [Hebrew] word identifying the outpouring of the Spirit.

When Jesus, after He had ascended, came, and met with the Disciples, He breathed upon them His Holy Spirit. And Sister White commenting on that in John 20 says the act of Christ breathing upon His Disciples was as a few drops before the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

The Latter Rain comes in two phases: the sprinkling, and the full outpouring; but, the breathing in the Scriptures is marking the outpouring of the Spirit.

And, so, when Ezekiel is saying in verse 9, ". . . Thus saith the Lord God; Come from the four winds, ..." There is a message that comes from the four winds, ". . . O breath, and breathe upon these slain, . . ." And that message of the four winds is the Latter Rain Message.

We want to show you that it is the Latter Rain Message. We want to show you this because there are so many of these "would-be theologians" and theologians in Adventism that they dissect, they use Greek (Greek education). And I do not know exactly the words to define how Greek education works; but, one of the principles that Greek education does is that it will take a sentence and, instead of defining the sentence, it will take the five words in the sentence and it will take it apart into five words, and then it will define the five words instead of defining the sentence. That is the Greek approach to education, and that is what the modern theologians in the various institutions in Adventism do. They use Greek thinking, instead of line-upon-line proof-texting.

So, when they come to the tidings of the East and the North in Daniel 11:44, that comes right before the close of human probation, they cannot figure out that this is Daniel's representation of the Third Angel's Message swelling to a Loud Cry. It is just, "East and North can't be the Loud Cry, the Third Angel." They cannot conceptualize that, because they are so steeped in Greek philosophy.

But, the message that comes when the Four Winds are restrained is the Latter Rain Message. It is when the Lord breathes upon His people, and we want to consider the Latter Rain Message here from the context of line-upon-line proof-texting.

THE VALLEY OF DRY BONES

Speaking of A. T. Jones in The 1888 Materials, page 189—and A. T. Jones is one of the messengers of the Latter Rain Message of 1888:

> "This church in Battle Creek is like the valley of dry bones."—

Where is the valley of dry bones? That is Ezekiel 37.

What is the Battle Creek Church? It is the premier church of Adventism. This is a statement about Adventism in that day and age.

—"This church in Battle Creek is like the valley of dry bones. They need to be stirred with some power to give them life. Why we have had to work and pray and work even to have Brother Jones obtain a hearing in Battle Creek,"—

They had to twist arms to get a place for Brother Jones to present the message of the Latter Rain in Battle Creek.

—"Why we have had to work and pray and work even to have Brother Jones obtain a hearing in Battle Creek, and many of our leading men were provoked after they heard him talk to think that there were those in responsible positions who would close the door to light and to knowledge, keeping out just what they needed. But I have not time to write more." The 1888 Materials, 189.

Some of the men after they had heard A. T. Jones were irritated that the leadership had been preventing him from presenting his message.

But, his message, most of us will agree, was the Latter Rain Message, and it was being presented to the valley of dry bones; therefore, it was the message of Ezekiel 37, the Message of the Four Winds.

WAGGONER AND JONES

Speaking of Jones and Waggoner in Testimonies to Ministers, page 91, it says,

"The Lord in His great mercy sent a most precious message to His people through Elders Waggoner and Jones. This message was to bring more prominently before the world the uplifted Saviour, the sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. It presented justification through faith in the Surety; it invited the people to receive the righteousness of Christ, which is made manifest in obedience to all the commandments of God."—

Where do you receive the Righteousness of Christ? At the foot of the cross.

—"Many had lost sight of Jesus. They needed to have their eyes directed to His divine person, His merits, and His changeless love for the human family. All power is given into His hands, that He may dispense rich gifts unto men, imparting the priceless gift of His own righteousness to the helpless human agent. This is the message that God commanded to be given to the world. It is the third angel's message, which is to be proclaimed with a loud voice, and attended with the outpouring of His Spirit in a large measure." Testimonies to Ministers, 91.

So, the Third Angel's Message is the Loud Cry Message. It is with a loud voice. ". . . and attended with the outpouring of His Spirit, ..." The Third Angel's Message is the Loud Cry. It is the Latter Rain Message.

And many people are very confused over the message of Jones and Waggoner. Ministries have been raised up. People cannot see the truth, because they have some misguided idea that in order for the Latter Rain Message to be repeated, we have to repeat the message of Jones and Waggoner; but, the message of Jones and Waggoner was the Third Angel's Message.

The Third Angel's Message is the Everlasting Gospel; and. the Everlasting Gospel, every time it is illustrated in the Scriptures is a three-step testing message. We have gone through this in this worship series.

The Everlasting Gospel, when Jesus went into the wilderness to be tested, He was tested with three tests. In John 16:8 the work of the Holy Spirit is to convict of sin, righteousness, and judgment.

So, people think that because Sister White put so much emphasis on Jones's and Waggoner's messages being "the message," the Latter Rain Message, that that is all there is; but, if you read carefully what she just said, the message of Jones and Waggoner was to present before men and women the uplifted Savior that they might come to the foot of the cross and confess their sins and receive His Righteousness. That was the first step of a three-step testing process.

Did God's people take the first step in 1888? NO!!! They did not. They rejected the call to come to the foot of the cross.

Therefore, to say the first step of the message which Jones and Waggoner presented, the uplifted Savior, is the Latter Rain Message is to not understand that the Latter Rain Message has three parts. Not only do you have to (1) come to the foot of the cross, confess your sins, and receive His Righteousness, but (2) you have to walk in Righteousness in order to be prepared for (3) the Judgment. 1888 never reached this phase, and it is a counterfeit to suggest that all we have to do to bring in the Latter Rain is to repeat the message of Jones and Waggoner, particularly with all the passages in Inspiration that says that every generation has a new message.

The Third Angel's Message in our day and age will be different than the Third Angel's Message was in [the day of] Jones and Waggoner, although it will possess this three-step testing process, the first test of which is to come to the foot of the cross and shake off your Laodicean experience.

The Loud Cry, The 1888 Materials, page 1710:

> "The truth for this time, the third angel's message, is to be proclaimed with a loud voice, meaning with increasing power,"—

Everyone should underline that. The Loud Cry does not mean a specific point in time; it means a progressive period of time, > —"meaning with increasing power, as we approach the great final test." The 1888 Materials, 1710.

So, when did the Loud Cry of the Third Angel's Message begin? Well, Sister White says that the message of Jones and Waggoner is the beginning of the light of the Third Angel that is going to lighten the whole world with His glory. So, some people can say that in 1888 the Loud Cry of the Third Angel's Message began; but, in reality, the increasing light of the Third Angel is what is represented by the Loud Cry; and, the light of the Third Angel arrived on October 22, 1844, and the light connected with the Third Angel has been increasing ever since October 22, 1844. So, the Third Angel's Message, arriving on October 22, 1844, the Loud Cry of the Third Angel actually began there.

And if you do not understand that is what it means, you come up with some crazy ideas sometimes in the application of trying to pinpoint what the Loud Cry message is.

THE LAODICEAN MESSAGE

The 1888 Materials, page 1053:

> "The message given us by A. T. Jones, and E. J. Waggoner is the message of God to the Laodicean church,"—

"Oh, I thought it was the Third Angel's Message."

"Oh, I thought it was the Loud Cry Message."

"Oh, I thought it was the Latter Rain Message, and now you are telling me it is the Laodicean Message."

No. What I am telling you is if you use the Rules of Prophetic Interpretation adopted by William Miller, called "proof-texting," you will understand that all the prophets are telling the same story; and they are all talking about the end of the world; and that one prophet may express the message of the hour at the end of the world in a different way than another prophet, but it is the same message. The Laodicean Message is the Third Angel's Message; it is the Loud Cry Message; it is the Fourth Angel's Message; it is the Latter Rain Message; it is the Message of the East and the North in Daniel 11:44.

> —"and woe be unto anyone who professes to believe the truth and yet does not reflect to others the God-given rays." The 1888 Materials, 1053.

REVELATION 18

Selected Messages, book 1, page 362, says,

> "The time of test is just upon us, for the loud cry of the third angel has already begun in the revelation of the righteousness of Christ, the sin-pardoning Redeemer. This is the beginning of the light of the angel whose glory shall fill the whole earth." Selected Messages, book 1, 362.

The first thing when the Angel comes down is He convicts of sin at the beginning of the light that is going to fill the whole Earth.

THE LATTER RAIN MESSAGE

Review and Herald, April 21, 1891:

> "The latter rain is to fall upon the people of God. A mighty angel is to come down from heaven, and the whole earth is to be lighted with his glory." Review and Herald, April 21, 1891.

When the Mighty Angel comes down, this is the Latter Rain Message.

Selected Messages, book 1, page 111, says this:

> "Before the work is closed up"—

And we have mentioned this here a few times in this worship series: What is the closing work of Christ in the Sanctuary above? It is the work of blotting out. He is either blotting out your sins, or He is blotting your name out of the Book of Life in the time period of the Judgment of the Living. The Judgment of the Living is the closing work. It is the work of the blotting out.

> —"Before the work is closed up and the sealing of God's people is finished, we shall receive the outpouring of the Spirit of God."—

So, does the Spirit of God begin to be poured out before probation closes? Yes! It comes in advance of The Sunday Law. The Sunday Law is where probation closes for Seventh-day Adventists.

> —"Before the work is closed up and the sealing of God's people is finished, we shall receive the outpouring of the Spirit of God. Angels from heaven will be in our midst. The present is a fitting-up time for heaven when we must walk in full obedience to all the commands of God." Selected Messages, book 1, 111.

Selected Messages, book 1, page 235, what are we doing here? We are showing that all these messages in the Scriptures—the Latter Rain Message, the Loud Cry Message, the Third Angel's Message—are the same message, just expressed in a different way to teach a different component of that truth; and, to not understand this is to provide yourself with the ridiculous excuse to not understand what the Message of the East and the North is in Daniel 11:44.

> "An unwillingness to yield up preconceived opinions, and to accept this truth, lay at the foundation of a large share of the opposition manifested at Minneapolis against the Lord's message through Brethren Waggoner and Jones. By exciting that opposition Satan succeeded in shutting away from our people, in a great measure, the special power of the Holy Spirit that God longed to impart to them."—

If you want to come here [referencing Step 1 of the three-step process of the Everlasting Gospel in Figure No. 107], if you do not look at the uplifted Savior and come to the foot of the cross, you do not get the power of the Holy Spirit.

Why not? Because, you are holding on to preconceived ideas about how the Latter Rain arrives.

> —"The enemy prevented them from obtaining that efficiency which might have been theirs in carrying the truth to the world, as the apostles proclaimed it after the day of Pentecost. The light that is to lighten the whole earth with its glory was resisted, and by the action of our own brethren has been in a great degree kept away from the world." Selected Messages, book 1, 235.

Who resists the light of the Latter Rain? Our own brethren. That is what happened in 1888, "nothing new under the sun." It is the leadership, our brethren, that are going to fight the Latter Rain Message, and they are going to do it armed with preconceived customs and traditions that they have received from previous generations.

Manuscript Releases, volume 12, page 205, says,

> "What power must we have from God that icy hearts, having only a legal religion, should see the better things provided for them—Christ and His righteousness! A life-giving message was needed to give life to the dry bones." Manuscript Releases, volume 12, 205.

The message of Ezekiel 37:9 that gives life to the dry bones is the Message of Christ's Righteousness.

ADVENTISM

General Conference Bulletin, February 4, 1893:

> "I lay down my pen and lift up my soul in prayer, that the Lord would breathe upon his backslidden people, which are as dry bones, that they may live." General Conference Bulletin, February 4, 1893.

Okay. We are the dry bones that need the outpouring of the Holy Spirit that we might come to light.

Review and Herald, November 18, 1902:

> "'A straight testimony must be borne to our churches and institutions, to arouse the sleeping ones.'
> "When the word of the Lord is believed and obeyed, steady advancement will be made. Let us now see our great need. The Lord cannot use us until he breathes life into the dry bones. I heard the words spoken: 'Without the deep moving of the Spirit of God upon the heart, without its life-giving influence, truth becomes a dead letter.'" Review and Herald, November 18, 1902.

So, what is the straight testimony? The straight testimony to the Laodiceans is what causes the shaking among God's people. Okay? It is the Laodicean Message; it is the message to the dead dry bones that brings them to life.

Review and Herald, January 17, 1893:

> "But not only does this simile of the dry bones apply to the world, but also to those who have been blessed with great light;"—

And we have identified this in this worship series, that those who are blessed with great light and opportunities are Seventh-day Adventists.

> —"for they also are like the skeletons of the valley. They have the form of men, the framework of the body; but they have not spiritual life. But the parable does not leave the dry bones merely knit together into the forms of men; for it is not enough that there is symmetry of limb and feature. The breath of life must vivify the bodies, that they may stand upright, and spring into activity. These bones represent the house of Israel, the church of God, and the hope of the church is the vivifying influence of the Holy Spirit. The Lord must breathe upon the dry bones, that they may live."—

And when He breathes upon the dry bones, where does the message that is the breath come from? It comes from the Four Winds; and, the Message of the Four Winds begins when they are restrained. And when the Four Winds are restrained, the sealing of the 144,000 begin.

And, the sealing is accomplished by the Angel that ascends from where? The East: the Message of the East and the North, a deep message.

Continuing on:

> —"The Spirit of God, with its vivifying power, must be in every human agent, that every spiritual muscle and sinew may be in exercise. Without the Holy Spirit, without the breath of God, there is torpidity of conscience, loss of spiritual life. Many who are without spiritual life have their names on the church records, but they are not written in the Lamb's book of life. They may be joined to the church, but they are not united to the Lord. They may be diligent in the performance of a certain set of duties, and may be regarded as living men; but many are among those who have 'a name that thou livest, and art dead.'
> "Unless there is genuine conversion of the soul to God; unless the vital breath of God quickens the soul to spiritual life; unless the professors of truth are actuated by heaven-born principle, they are not born of the incorruptible seed which liveth and abideth forever. Unless they trust in the righteousness of Christ as their only security; unless they copy His character, labor in His spirit, they are naked, they have not on the robe of His righteousness. The dead are often made to pass for the living; for those who are working out what they term salvation after their own ideas, have not God working in them to will and to do of His good pleasure.
> "This class is well represented by the valley of dry bones Ezekiel saw in vision." Review and Herald, January 17, 1893.

Okay. If you are working out your own salvation on your own ideas, you are the valley of dead dry bones.

FOUR WINDS AND THE DAY OF THE EAST WIND

> "[9]Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." Ezekiel 37:9 (KJV).

In Ezekiel 37:9, there is a message. The Latter Rain Message, the Laodicean Message, the Loud Cry, the Third Angel's Message comes from the Four Winds in Ezekiel 37:9 to bring the bodies to life.

In Revelation 7:1-3, these Four Winds are restrained when the sealing begins, and the sealing begins to be accomplished by the Angel that ascends from the East.

And we are looking at the word East.

> "[1]And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. [2]And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, [3]Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads." Revelation 7:1–3 (KJV).

And in Revelation 7, verses 1 through 3, let us begin in verse 2. It says, "And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads."

Only two chapters later, chapter 9, verse 4, speaking of Islam, speaking of the command by Abu-Bakr not to hurt the Sabbathkeeping Christians in the period of the First Woe, the Fifth Trumpet, verse 4 of Revelation 9 says,

> "[9]And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads." Revelation 9:4 (KJV).

To not see this connection between Revelation 9:4 and Revelation 7:1-3 is pretty much blindness. You have a command to not hurt the earth and the sea in Revelation 7. The winds of strife are commanded to not do so until God's people are sealed; and, here in chapter 9, verse 4, there is a power that is told to go ahead and hurt everything except those people with the Seal of God. It is the same line of thought. So, whatever the power is that is going to hurt those that have not the Seal of God in Revelation 9:4, it would be the same power that is in Revelation 7, verses 1 through 3, that is restrained from hurting those with the Seal of God.

And God's helping hand, Uriah Smith, comments on Revelation 9:4, in Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, beginning at page 500. He says this (Uriah Smith):

"After the death of Mohammed, he was succeeded in the command by Abubekr, A.D. 632, who, as soon as he had fairly established his authority and government, dispatched a circular letter to the Arabian tribes, from which the following is an extract:—'When you fight the battles of the Lord, acquit yourselves like men, without turning your backs; but let not your victory be stained with the blood of women and children. Destroy no palm-trees, nor burn any fields of corn. Cut down no fruit-trees, nor do any mischief to cattle, only such as you kill to eat. When you make any covenant or article, stand to it, and be as good as your word. And as you go, you will find some religious persons who live retired in monasteries, and propose to themselves to serve God that way; let them alone, and neither kill them nor destroy their monasteries. And you will find another sort of people that belong to the synagogue of Satan, who have shaven crowns; be sure you cleave their skulls, and give them no quarter till they either turn Mohammedans or pay tribute.'

"'It is not said in prophecy or in history that the more humane injunctions were as scrupulously obeyed as the ferocious mandate; but it was so commanded them.'"—

Do you know what he is saying here? He is just saying, "We can't prove in history that they actually followed the command."

But, in Revelation 9:4 they are given a command. Abu-Bakr gave a command; so, his command fulfills Revelation 9:4, even if those people that were commanded were not perfect in fulfilling the command. There is the historical commandment that fulfills Revelation 9:4.

Continuing on, Uriah Smith says,

—"And the preceding are the only instructions recorded by Gibbon, as given by Abubekr to the chiefs whose duty it was to issue the commands to all the Saracen hosts. 'The commands are alike discriminating with the prediction, as if the caliph himself had been acting in known as well as direct obedience to a higher mandate than that of mortal man; and in the very act of going forth to fight against the religion of Jesus, and to propagate Mohammedanism in its stead, he repeated the words which it was foretold in the Revelation of Jesus Christ that he would say.'"—

And then this is a heading in his chapter.

—"The Seal of God in their Foreheads—In remarks upon chapter 7:1–3, we have shown that the seal of God is the Sabbath of the fourth commandment; and history is not silent upon the fact that there have been observers of the true Sabbath all through the present dispensation. But the question has here arisen with many, Who were those men who at this time had the seal of God in their foreheads,"—IN THE TIME OF ABU-BAKR— "and who thereby became exempt from Mohammedan [THE ISLAMIC] oppression? Let the reader bear in mind the fact, already alluded to, that there have been those all through this dispensation who have had the seal of God in their foreheads, or have been intelligent observers of > the true Sabbath; and let them consider further that what the prophecy asserts is that the attacks of this desolating Turkish power are not directed against them, but against another class. The subject is thus freed from all difficulty; for this is all that the prophecy really asserts. Only one class of persons is directly brought to view in the text; namely, those who have not the seal of God in their foreheads; and the preservation of those who have the seal of God is brought in only by implication. Accordingly, we do not learn from history that any of these were involved in any of the calamities inflicted by the Saracens upon the objects of their hate."—

And if you read Wilkerson's Truth Triumphant, you will see more incidents of this. When they went out and attacked Christianity, the Islamic power only attacked the Christianity that kept Sunday and left alone the Sabbathkeeping Christians.

> —"They were commissioned against another class of men. And the destruction to come upon this class of men is not put in contract with the preservation of other men, but only with that of the fruits and verdure of the earth; thus, Hurt not the grass, trees, nor any green thing, but only a certain class of men. And in fulfillment, we have the strange spectacle of an army of invaders sparing those things which such armies usually destroy,"—

Usually, if an army is invading a country, it wipes out all its agriculture; because, when it passes through, it does not want the people to have the ability to regain their strength quickly. Typically, an army wipes out all the agriculture; but, they did not do so in this time period, because Revelation 9:4 said, "Hurt not the grass or trees." That is what he is talking about here.

> —"And in fulfillment, we have the strange spectacle of an army of invaders sparing those things which such armies usually destroy, namely, the face and productions of nature; and, in pursuance of their permission to hurt those men who had not the seal of God in their foreheads, cleaving the skulls of a class of religionists with shaven crowns, who belonged to the synagogue of Satan.
> "These were doubtless a class of monks, or some other division of the Roman Catholic Church. Against these the arms of the Mohammedans were directed. And it seems to us that there is a peculiar fitness, if not design, in describing them as those who had not the seal of God in their foreheads; inasmuch as that is the very church which has robbed the law of God of its seal, by tearing away the true Sabbath, and erecting a counterfeit in its place." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 500–502.

THE WINDS—EZEKIEL 37:9; REVELATION 7:1-3

So, what we are saying here is that the connection between Revelation 7:1-3, the command to "hurt not the trees or the Earth or any green thing, until we have sealed the servants of God in their foreheads," and Revelation 9:4, to "hurt only those that have not the Seal of God," tells us that the winds that are going to be the strife that causes the destruction is Islam. Okay?

HIS ROUGH WIND

Because all the prophets are speaking about the same thing, we have been dealing with Revelation 7:1-3, the four winds, and with Ezekiel 37:9, the four winds. Another connection is found in Isaiah 27:8-9; but, in this connection we are going to see another connection with the word East, and that is what we are dealing with here, is the depth of the last six verses of Daniel 11 and just how deep just one word, East, can go in the Scriptures.

The tidings out of the East and out of the North—and in the next presentation we will explain why the tidings out of the East troubled the Papacy—but, here in Isaiah 27:8-9, and a third witness to these four winds, it says,

> "[8]In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind."—

What does it mean to "stayeth"? To restraineth, to hold.

And what is His "rough wind"? Well, all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world and are telling the same story. This is the Four Winds of Strife. He restraineth the Four Winds.

"He stayeth his rough wind," when does He restraineth it? ". . . in the day of the east Wind."

Okay. And "the day of the east wind" is telling us that there is an Angel ascending from the East, the Sealing Angel, in the day of the East wind, when the Four Winds of Strife are restrained.

It goes on to say in verse 9,

> —"By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up. Isaiah 27:8–9.

You have websites all over the world that are teaching this Message, and you have websites all over the world that are fighting against this Message. You have leadership in the Adventist Church, you have leadership in the self-supporting ministries that are fighting this Message. And this is a fulfillment of prophecy; because, it says, "In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it." This is the debate. This is the shaking of Adventism.

When does the debate begin? It begins in the day of the East wind, the day when the Four Winds are restrained.

> ROUGH: Strong's Concordance H7186—From H7185; severe (in various applications):—churlish, cruel, grievous, hard ([-hearted], thing), heavy, + impudent, obstinate, prevailed, rough (-ly), sore, sorrowful, stiff ([-necked]), stubborn, + in trouble. H7185: A primitive root; properly to be dense, that is, tough or severe (in various applications): - be cruel, be fiercer, make grievous, be ([ask a], be in, have, seem, would) hard (-en, [labour], -ly, thing), be sore, (be, make) stiff (-en, [-necked]).

What does the word ROUGH mean, the day of the rough wind?

H7186 means, churlish, cruel, grievous, hard, severe, fierce. This is the Four Winds of Strife.

And tomorrow in the next presentation, we will begin to show you that the East wind has to do with the children of the East, and the children of the East are Islam, the same power that in Revelation 9:4 was told to hurt not those that have the Seal of God, but only those that do not have the Seal of God. This is the power that is represented by the Four Winds, and they also have a connection with East, because they are the children of the East.

The children of the East, the Sealing Angel of the East, the day of the East wind are all connected with "the tidings out of the East and the North that troubleth him."

And as we go through it, we will show you that in the day of the East wind, Islam begins to collapse the financial structure of Planet Earth, and most certainly this will trouble the King of the North.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that you are revealing these truths to your people at this time that they might be forewarned and awakened and prepared and provided with a message to share with those in Adventism that they come in contact with. We have a day of work before us. We ask that as we break now and take up our tasks, we will do what we do in according to your will, in a way that will glorify and honor you. We would ask that you would keep us safe. We ask that you will bring us back here for the LiveStreaming again on Sunday morning, and we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #58

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we approach your throne this morning, we ask that you would forgive us our sins, make us right with you that we might understand the Word that you have for us this morning, this day. Thank you for a good night's sleep. We ask that as we look at the depth of the last six verses of Daniel 11 that you will help us to understand the significance of one symbol in the word East, that we might understand these verses have been designed by you to produce an effect among your people, of bringing them awake and then preparing them for the Seal of God, lifting them up as an ensign. We want to understand that the role of this passage of Scripture. We ask that you would help us do it at this time. We need your Holy Spirit. We would ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit and pour your Latter Rain out upon us by opening our understanding to your Word at this time. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are making an argument in defense of what we teach about the last six verses of Daniel 11, and one of those arguments is that what we suggest about these verses opens doors of understanding in the Scriptures that are beyond the ability of human beings to be inventing. The last six verses of Daniel 11 are what opens the Word of God to God's people here at the end of time.

Yesterday we spent some time looking at the Four Winds.

EAST

Daniel 11:44—Tidings from the East—shall trouble him
Revelation 7:1-3—Ascending from the East
Ezekiel 37:9—From the Four Winds
Isaiah 27:8—The Day of the East Wind

We are saying that there are tidings from the East and out of the North in Daniel 11, verse 44; and, all we are looking at is the word East.

And in Revelation 7, verses 1 through 3, we have the Sealing Angel (the Highest Angel) ascending from the East; and, in this passage the Four Winds are being restrained.

And in Ezekiel 37, verse 9, the same Four Winds are mentioned, because all the prophets are going to agree with one another. And in Ezekiel 37, verse 9, it is not so much about the Four Winds being restrained as that Ezekiel is commanded to call for a message from the Four Winds, essentially.

And then when Isaiah in chapter 27, verse 8, speaks about the rough wind being restrained "in the day of the east wind," we once again have a tie-in with the word East and these three references (Daniel 11:44, Revelation 7:1-3, and Ezekiel 37:9) of the Four Winds of Strife because the rough winds of Isaiah are going to be the Four Winds of Strife for John in Revelation, and they are going to be the point of reference that the breath comes from in Ezekiel 37, verse 9. And one of the prophetic symbols that ties them together is the word East.

That is what we are dealing with here, is East.

THE CHILDREN OF THE EAST

Genesis 25:5-6

In Genesis 25:5-6 it says,

> "[5]And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac. [6]But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country." Genesis 25:5-6 (KJV).

So, when Isaac is being separated out from Abraham's other offspring, those offspring were sent to the East. And from this point on, Ishmael and those other children become the "children of the east" in the Scriptures. And, of course, we are marking this as its connection with East.

Okay. The "children of the east" in the Scriptures are the descendants of Ishmael.

And if you ask an Islamist today who is their patriarch, they will either tell you Abraham or Ishmael. They point to both of them.

And Ishmael, his lineage in the Bible becomes the "children of the east."

THAT WHICH GOD HAS PREPARED FOR US

And in Manuscript Releases, volume 20, page 217, it says this—and this is a place where Inspiration ties many truths together, this particular passage, because Ellen White is going to be definitely referencing Ezekiel 37, the part in Ezekiel 37 where the breath is breathed upon the dead bones to bring them to life—and she says this:

> ""Just as long as those who profess the truth are serving Satan, his hellish shadow will cut off their views of God and heaven. They will be as those who have lost their first love. They cannot view eternal realities. That which God has prepared for us"—

God has something prepared for us.

> —"That which God has prepared for us is represented in Zechariah, chapters 3 and 4, and 4:12–14: 'And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my Lord. Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.'"—

So, what is it that the Lord has prepared for us?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: His Word.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: His Word.

For Zechariah, it was the Law and the Prophets. For the Millerites, it was the Old and New Testaments. For us, it is the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy. That is what is prepared.

The Oil that He sends down to us through the two golden pipes is to produce a reformation, a revival in our experience that we may be changed into His image and lifted up as an ensign in the coming crisis.

Sister White continues on:

> —"The Lord is full of resources. He has no lack of facilities. It is because of our lack of faith, our earthliness, our cheap talk, our unbelief, manifested in our conversation, that dark shadows gather about us. Christ is not revealed in word or character as the One altogether lovely, and the chiefest among ten thousand. When the soul is content to lift itself up unto vanity, the Spirit of the Lord can do little for it. Our shortsighted vision beholds the shadow, but cannot see the glory beyond. Angels are holding the four winds, represented as an angry horse seeking to break loose and rush over the face of the whole earth, bearing destruction and death in its path."—

Angels are holding the Four Winds, and the "four winds" are represented as an angry horse that is restrained, because it is seeking to break loose. It is a restrained angry horse seeking to break loose. And what it wants to do if it breaks loose is to bring destruction and death upon the whole Earth, not just on part of the Earth. So, the Four Winds are the angry horse of Bible prophecy.

And, if you are unsure what the angry horse of Bible prophecy is, all you have to do is look at these Sacred Tables [referring to the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. Sister White says this 1843 Chart was directed by the hand of the Lord and should not be altered. And here we see the war horses representing the Fifth and Sixth Trumpets (the First and Second Woes) both times as Islam.

Sister White says that God was in the publishment of this Chart (the 1850 Chart). She said that she was shown the prophecy of this Chart that is in the Bible. That would be Habakkuk 2. And on this Sacred Chart, once again, the Fifth Trumpet, this war horse is Islam; the Sixth Trumpet, the war horse is Islam. The angels are holding the four winds represented as an angry horse that is restrained, seeking to break loose and to bring death and destruction in its path.

> —"Shall we sleep on the very verge of the eternal world? Shall we be dull and cold and dead?"—

Now, notice what she does here.

> —"Oh, that we might have in our churches the Spirit and breath of God breathed into His people, that they might stand upon their feet and live. We need to see that the way is narrow, and the gate strait. But as we pass through the strait gate, its wideness is without limit." Manuscript Releases, volume 20, 217.

Go to Ezekiel 37 just to make sure that this connection is in your mind.

In Ezekiel 37, Ezekiel is told to present two prophecies. One prophecy brings the bones together and the flesh together, but they are not alive; and, verse 8 comments on this. It says,

> "[8]And when I beheld"—THIS IS AFTER THE FIRST PROPHECY—"And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them." Ezekiel 37:8 (KJV).

This is Adam born from the dust of the ground, but the Lord has not breathed the Breath of Life into him yet. Step 2 is the breathing in of the Breath of Life.

Verse 9:

> "[9]Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. [10]So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army." Ezekiel 37:9-10 (KJV).

So, in this passage of this last paragraph, the bold-faced where it says, "Oh, that we might have in our churches the Spirit and breath of God breathed into His people, that they might stand upon their feet and live," this is a direct reference to Ezekiel 37:10.

But in verse 9 of Ezekiel 37, Ezekiel is saying he is to "Prophesy unto the wind, . . . Come from the four winds, . . ." And in connection with commenting on verse 10 in the last paragraph, the previous paragraph of Sister White's writing says, "Angels are holding the four winds, . . ." So, she is defining the four winds here in verse 9 for us; and, she says they are ". . . represented as an angry horse seeking to break loose and rush over the face of the whole earth," the whole earth.

THE WARHORSE

Revelation 9:7, 16-17

Now, go to Revelation 9. Let us see the references of Islam as the angry horse of Bible prophecy.

Revelation 9:7

In Bible prophecy, what does a name represent?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Character.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Character.

Okay. So, before we get to verse 7, notice verse 11. We are in chapter 9 of Revelation, and we are going to look at verses 7, 16, and 17 to see that Islam is represented the horse in Bible prophecy; but, first, we want to look at what the character of Islam is.

And in verse 11—now, you need to remember that verse 11 is in the history of the Fifth Trumpet, the First Woe. Okay? And that begins in the time of whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Mohammad.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Mohammad.

And what century is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is in the 7th Century.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The 7th Century.

But, the history of the Fifth Trumpet, it goes all the way until when? AD1449, when the Sixth Trumpet begins.

So, from the 7th Century to AD1449, how many years is that? That is over 700 years.

So, when verse 11 says they had a king over them, it is not talking about a human being that was alive as their king for over 700 years in the Fifth Trumpet. It is talking about a principle that rules over them. In fact, the Koran would be your best choice probably there, but maybe you would think that Mohammad was the one that led out in the Koran.

You know, Mohammad could not read or write. You know that, right? He did not write the Koran. He only spoke it and his followers wrote it.

But, anyway, the influence for this history is the king in verse 11, and it says,

> "[11]And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit,"—

Who is the angel of the bottomless pit? Well, you could even say their king there was Satan. Now, he could have been living in this history, because Satan is associated with the bottomless pit.

> —"whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon." Revelation 9:11 (KJV).

So, what is the name describing his character, the character of this power, of this power [pointing to the Fifth Trumpet (the First Woe) reflected on the 1850 Chart]?

Its character is marked where? In 9:11, Revelation 9:11 is where his character is marked, and it is Abaddon and Apollyon.

And in both cases, what is the definition of Abaddon and Apollyon? Death and Destruction.

So, when Sister White says angels are holding the four winds represented as an angry horse seeking to break loose and bring death and destruction over the whole world, she is connecting with the very character of Islam as identified in 9:11, Revelation 9:11.

And it gives us two languages. What are the two languages to consider?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hebrew and Greek.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Hebrew and the Greek.

Okay. So, what are the Hebrew and the Greek?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Is it the Old and the New Testaments?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Old and the New Testaments. From the beginning in Genesis [in the Old Testament] to Revelation in the end in the New Testament, the character of Islam is the same, from beginning to end, in the Old and New Testaments.

Okay. We will show you that in a moment, but right now we are looking at Revelation 9, verse 7, because we want to see that Islam—we are not studying this in-depth. We are just trusting that if you doubt that this is valid, then you go to Uriah Smith's book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, and you look at what he has to say about Revelation, chapter 9, and you will find that this is the Saracens and the Turks. The Fifth Trumpet is the Saracens, Islam; the Sixth Trumpet is the Turks, Islam.

Verse 7 says,

> "[7] And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle: and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men." Revelation 9:7 (KJV).
> Revelation 9:16-17
> Starting at verse 16:
> "[16]And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them. [17]And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone; and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone." Revelation 9:16-17 (KJV).

At the end of the Scriptures in the Greek, Islam is represented as the horse family.

And if you do not think he is, all you have to do is just use a little bit of common sense. When the Pioneers of Adventism decided to make these Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts], and they were to symbolically represent Islam of the Fifth and Sixth Trumpets, how did they do so on these Charts? Horses. Okay?

THE WILD ASS

But, where is Islam first referenced. You have it in your notes, Genesis 16:12, Ishmael. Ishmael is the first father of Islam. And in Genesis 16:12, it says,

> "[12]And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren." Genesis 16:12 (KJV).

And this here is telling the role of Islam in Bible prophecy. Islam is going to turn against the whole world, and it is going to create a crisis that brings the whole world together into a One World Government to deal with Islam. And, once the One World Government is put in place to deal with radical Islam, then the One World Government and the whole world is going to find out that the Pope of Rome could care less about Islam; it want to deal with Sabbathkeepers; and, this deception is a subject of prophecy. It can be demonstrated from various lines.

The world is being deceived right now. It is getting prepared to deal with the escalating crisis of Islam. The world, and even Seventh-day Adventists, do not realize that this preparation is for Sabbathkeepers.

And it says that he will be "a wild man." And this word wild is the wild Arabian ass.

> WILD: Strong's Concordance H6501*—From H6500 in the secondary sense of running wild; the onager—wild (ass).

From the first reference of Islam in Genesis 16:12, to the last reference of Islam in the Book of Revelation, Islam is a horse—okay?—the wild Arabian ass.

Now, let us talk about Daniel 7. In Daniel 7 there is a beast that is like a leopard. And what does this leopard have on it that a leopard usually does not have, in Daniel 7?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Wings.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Wings.

How many wings?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Four.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Why? Why does the leopard in Daniel 7 have four wings? To represent the speed with which it moved through the world.

So, when we see characteristics on these animals that represent powers, are we supposed to pay attention to the characteristics?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. I want to show you a characteristic that is not widely understood about Islam, because Islam is the wild Arabian ass.

And in Job 24, verse 5, speaking about the wild Arabian ass, it says,

> "[5]Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children."

This is the same [Hebrew] word that is translated as wild man in Genesis 16:12.

In Jeremiah 2:24, it says,

> "[24]A wild ass used to the wilderness, that"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That sniffs at the wind.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"that snuffeth up the wind"—

You see, when it comes to the wild ass of Bible prophecy, one of the characteristics that is noted of the wild ass in prophecy is the snuffing up of the wind, of its exceptional ability to breathe.

In fact, why is it that the Arabs will take a wild Arabian ass with them on their trek across the desert with their camels? Because, they have the ability with this breathing to smell the water through the sand.

Okay. One of the characteristics of the leopard-like beast is that it had four wings, and those four wings, they are teaching us, is emphasizing the speed of the leopard. But, when it comes to the ass, one of the characteristics in Scriptures is this phenomenal ability to breathe, breathe in the wind—okay?—breathe in the wind; the breath.

> "[24]A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her." Jeremiah 2:24 (KJV).

And then in Jeremiah 14:6, it says,

> "[6]And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass." Jeremiah 14:6 (KJV).

Now, most of us as Seventh-day Adventists, we know that this word wind, it gets translated into a variety of ways in the Scriptures: breath, wind—what is another one?—Spirit.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, when it comes to the wild Arabian ass, which is a symbol of Islam, one of the characteristics of the ass is the breath, the wind. Okay? So, in Ezekiel 37:9, when Sister White says the angels are holding the four winds represented as an angry horse, and in Ezekiel 37:9 when Ezekiel is commanded, "Breathe, O wind, upon these dead dry bones," the breath and the wind and the Spirit are a part of the characteristics of the ass.

And who does the ass represent? It represents Islam.

And who is Islam? It is the children of the . . . ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Of the East.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: . . . of the East.

Okay. So, from one word in Daniel 11, verse 44 [points to the word EAST, written on the whiteboard (see Figure No. 108)] you begin to open a whole theme in Bible prophecy.

And, you know, if you really—the reason I have this up here [Daniel 11:44, Tidings from the East—shall trouble him], if you really understood the word EAST correctly, remember in Daniel 11, verse 44, these tidings out of the East and out of the North, what do they do to the Papacy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They trouble him.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They trouble him.

You should be able as a student of prophecy to go into the Scriptures and say, "What is it that troubles the Papacy at the end of the world?" And if you find out what that will be, it will be in one sense the East and in one sense the North. There is something about the East that troubles the Papacy.

THE WIND

But, what we are doing here is dealing with Islam as the children of the East; and, one of the characteristics of Islam is the wind.

And you have the definition of WIND there from the Bible in your notes.

> WIND: Strong's Concordance H7307—From H7306; wind; by resemblance breath, that is, a sensible (or even violent) exhalation; figuratively life, anger, unsubstantiality; by resemblance spirit, but only of a rational being (including its expression and functions). H7306: A primitive root; properly to blow, that is, breathe; only (literally) to smell or (by implication perceive (figuratively to anticipate, enjoy).

It means breath, exhalation, spirit, breathe.

Ezekiel 37:9-10

So, when you are reading Ezekiel 37 and the breath is breathed into the dead dry bones, this is the same [Hebrew] word that the Arabian ass does when it breathes up the wind.

And what is it doing? It is marking the outpouring of the Spirit. Right?

So, go to Ezekiel 37:9-10. Let us look at this one more time. Maybe we do not need to, but it is in the notes.

> "[9]Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind,"—

This is a characteristic of the ass.

> —"Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds,"—

What four winds? The Four Winds that are restrained when the sealing of the 144,000 gets underway and the Sealing Angel ascends from the East.

> —"Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon those slain, that they may live. [10]So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army." Ezekiel 37:9-10 (KJV).

So, the breath, the Spirit is a characteristic of Islam in Bible prophecy.

GENESIS

Adam: man
Seth: appointed
Enos: wretched	Mortal, frail, feeble. Stro g's
Cainan: lamenting	Fixed, a nest, Stro g' s
Mahalaleel: blessed of God	Praise or strength of God. Stro g's
Jared: will come or descend
Enoch: teaching	Train. Stro g 's
Methuselah: his death will bring Lamech: weary
Noah: rest

Now, in your notes you may not understand what these are. But, the next couple of brief studies that we are going to do here are derived from Louise Were, a deceased Australian pastor that has written many things on Bible prophecy through the years. And one of the things that he demonstrated was that if you take the names of the genealogy in Genesis and you define those names—Adam, Seth, Enos, Cainan, Mahalaleel—this is in your notes—Jared, Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, and Noah—if you put the definitions next to those names, and then you combine those definitions into a statement, that statement will tell you what is going on in Genesis, where that genealogy is found.

ADAM means man. SETH means appointed. ENOS means wretched, mortal, frail, and feeble. CAINAN means lamenting, fixed, a nest. MAHALALEEL means blessed of God, praise or strength of God. JARED means will come or descend. ENOCH means teaching, train. METHUSELAH means his death will bring. LAMECH means weary. NOAH means rest.

So, when you take those definitions and you build a statement in order out of those definitions, you will find what Genesis is teaching in the genealogy there. It says,

Man was appointed mortal, frail and wretched, fixed in this world and lamenting his condition. But the blessed of God promised to descend teaching that His death would bring rest to the weary.

So, the names in Genesis are teaching a truth at a different level.

Now, this is the work of Louis Were and not myself.

REVELATION 7

And Louis Were also goes into Revelation and the 144,000. If you ever wondered why some of the tribes are not there in Revelation 7, or why they are not in the order of age, it is probably because there is a statement being made that is secondary to the names.

The 12 tribes in Revelation 7:

Juda: Let God be praised, Celebrated
Reuben: Behold a son
Gad: Good fortune	To press or crowd together. Strong's.
Aser: Happy	To be honest. Stro g 's
Nepthalim: My wrestling
Manassas: Making to forget
Simeon: Answering of prayer	Hearing. Stro g 's.
Levi: Joined	To unite. Stro g' s.
Issachar: A reward
Zebulon: Exalted or habitation
Joseph: To add
Benjamin: Son of my right hand.

JUDA means Let God be praised or celebrated. REUBEN means behold a son. GAD means good fortune, to press together or crowd together. ASER means happy, to be honest. NEPTHALIM means my wrestling. MANASSAS means making to forget. SIMEON means answering of prayer, hearing. LEVI means joined, to unite. ISSACHAR means a reward, ZEBULON means exalted or habitation. JOSEPH means to add. BENJAMIN means son of my right hand.

So, you understand what I am doing, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, once you have the definitions of these 12 tribes, then if you construct a statement out of these definitions, this statement will not be about the genealogy in Genesis; this statement will be about the 144,000. So, when you construct it, it says,

> God will be celebrated and praised by the 144,000 as they behold the Son and press together in honesty. They will wrestle in prayer with God, who will then forget their sins, and they will come into unity and receive the reward of the Holy Spirit living within their habitation while exalting Christ as they are added to the redeemed and sit down with Christ at God's right hand.

So, if you are at the level of understanding that you realize that Jesus speaks to us in more than just the surface way, then you understand that even in the genealogies of the Bible there are truths that are conveyed.

THE CHILDREN OF THE EAST

Genesis 25:12-18

Go to Genesis 25. Genesis 25, beginning in verse 12, is going to give us the genealogy of Islam, of Ishmael.

Beginning with verse 12:

> "[12]Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham: [13]And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, [14]And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa, [15]Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah: [16]These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles;"—

How many princes?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Twelve.

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"twelve princes according to their nations. [17]And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and he gave up the ghost and died; and was gathered unto his people. [18]And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria: and he died in the presence of all his brethren." Genesis 25:12-18 (KJV).

Okay. So, we have not done a study of Islam yet in this worship; but, when we do, there are certain truths about Islam that Bible prophecy and history puts in the record; and, all of these truths are addressed in these 12 names. Okay?

What does the first tribe mean?

> 1. NEBAJOTH: Strong's Concordance H5032—Feminine plural from H5107; fruitfulnesses; Nebajoth, a son of Ishmael, and the country settled by him H5107: A primitive root; to germinate, that is, (figuratively) to (causatively make) flourish; also (of words), to utter: - bring forth (fruit), make cheerful, increase. An Arabian tribe. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 757.

NEBAJOTH: It means fruitfulness, to germinate, to flourish. It is an Arabian tribe.

Has Ishmael's descendants, the Islamic world, been fruitful?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible comments in affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All right.

Genesis 17:20; Genesis 16:10

And it references Genesis 17 in this definition.

Genesis 17:20 says,

> "[20]And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation." Genesis 17:20 (KJV).

Genesis 16:10 says,

> "[10]And the angel of the LORD said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude." Genesis 16:10 (KJV).

So, the fist son of Ishmael, Nebajoth means fruitfulness. And, sure enough, that is part of the story of Islam.

> 2. KEDAR: Strong's Concordance H6938—From H6937; dusky (of the skin or the tent); Kedar, a son of Ishmael; also (collectively) bedawin. H6937: to be ashy, that is, dark colored; by implication to mourn (in sackcloth or sordid garments):— be black (-ish), be (make) dark (-en), X heavily, (cause to) mourn. An Arabian tribe. Famous warriors, Isaiah 21:16, 17. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 620.

The second son, KEDAR means dusky—like dark skin (dusky)—dusky; son of Ishmael; bedawin [Arabic, desert dwellers]; to be ashy, dark colored; to mourn; famous warriors [Isaiah 21:16, 17].

Now we have the nationality being defined of Ishmael's descendants—I do not know if nationality is the right word—but the DNA.

> 3. ADBEEL: Strong's Concordance H110—Probably from H109 (in the sense of chastisement) and H410; disciplined of God; Adbeel, a son of Ishmael. H109: to languish:— grieve. H410: H352; strength; as adjective mighty; especially the Almighty (but used also of any deity): - God (god), X goodly, X great, idol, might (-y one), power, strong. Compare names in "-el." An Arabian tribe. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 17.

The third son, ADBEEL means chastisement, disciplined of God; to languish.

> 4. MIBSAM: Strong's Concordance H4017—From the same as H1314; fragrant; Mibsam, the name of an Ishmaelite and of an Israelite:. H1314: From the same as H1313; fragrance; by implication spicery; also the balsam plant: - smell, spice, sweet (odour). H1313: From an unused root meaning to be fragrant; the balsam plant: - spice. An Arabian tribe. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 712.

MIBSAM, the fourth son, means fragrant—

You know, when you talk about the role of Islam in Bible prophecy, the Lord designed purposely to keep Ishmael's children connected with the Jews.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because, where the Lord took Ishmael's children, to the East, the children of the East where He moved them to, is the only place in the world where the spices are grown that are used in the earthly sanctuary. So, in order to operate the earthly sanctuary, the Jews had to maintain at least a trade relationship with the children of the East so that they could provide for the spices that they needed to operate the sanctuary. And MIBSAM is emphasizing that.

—MIBSAM means fragrance; spicery; balsam plant.

So, one of the characteristics in the prophetic history of Islam is it is the place where the spices are grown.

> 5. MISHMA: Strong's Concordance H4927—The same as H4926; Mishma, the name of a son of Ishmael, and of an Israelite. H4926: From H8085; a report:— hearing. H8085: A primitive root; to hear intelligently (often with implication of attention, obedience, etc.; causatively to tell, etc.): - X attentively, call (gather) together, X carefully, X certainly, consent, consider, be content, declare, X diligently, discern, give ear, (cause to, let, make to) hear (-ken, tell), X indeed, listen, make (a) noise, (be) obedient, obey, perceive, (make a) proclaim (-ation), publish, regard, report, shew (forth), (make a) sound, X surely, tell, understand, whosoever [heareth], witness. An Arabian tribe. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 724.

MISHMA means a report, to hear intelligently, to hear.

MISHMA is a report. What is a report?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A message.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A message.

Okay. It is telling us here that there is a message of Islam in Bible prophecy.

> 6. DUMAH: Strong's Concordance H1746—The same as H1745; a tribe and region of Arabia. H1745: From an unused root meaning to be dumb; silence; figuratively death:— silence. H1820: A primitive root; to be dumb or silent; hence to fail or perish; transitively to destroy:—cease, be cut down (off), destroy, be brought to silence, be undone, X utterly. An Arabian tribe. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 280.

DUMAH, the sixth son, what does DUMAH mean? It means an unused root meaning to be dumb; silence; figuratively death. It means the silence of death—DUMAH is emphasizing that the role of Islam is a deadly role—to be dumb or silent; perish; cease, be cut down, destroy, be brought to silence.

Would anyone argue that one of the characteristics of Islam today is death? Do you know how many people die every day from the activities of Islam?

7. MASSA: Strong's Concordance H4854—The same as H4853; burden; Massa, a son of Ishmael. H4853: From H5375; a burden; specifically tribute, or (abstractly) porterage; figuratively an utterance, chiefly a doom, especially singing; mental, desire: - burden, carry away, prophecy, X they set, song, tribute. An Arabian tribe, KJV translators rendered it "prophecy," a meaning which massa has in the sense of prophecy being a pronouncement or an oracle. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 691.

MASSA, the seventh son: MASSA means a burden—

What is a burden in the Bible?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A vision.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A prophecy: A vision, a dream, but it is a prophecy.

So, now it is telling us that there is a prophecy and a message about Islam in the Bible.

—[Continuing with the definition] a burden; a tribute; an utterance, chiefly a doom—it is not just a prophecy; it is a prophecy of doom—an oracle.

8. HADAR: Strong's Concordance H2316—Another form for H2315; chamber; Chadar, an Ishmaelite H2315: From H2314; an apartment (usually literally):—([bed] inner) chamber, innermost (-ward) part, parlour, + south, X within. H2314: A primitive root; properly to inclose (as a room), that is, (by analogy) to beset (as in a siege):—enter a privy chamber. Sharp or pointed. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 429.

The eighth son, HADAR. HADAR means a chamber; an apartment; to beset (as in a siege).

Okay. Now, if you get to the last part of this definition where it says to beset (as in a siege), what it is saying about an apartment in the meaning of HADAR, it means when you surround someone, you put them in an apartment. You put them in an area, and you bring about a siege.

And history will tell us very clearly that what Islam did when it came into history is that it wrapped itelf around Europe and prevented the Catholic Church from spreading Catholicism around the world. It put a siege upon Europe. It went down through Northern Africa and up into Southern Europe. It went up into Northern Europe, and it wrapped itself around Europe, and it put Europe in an apartment and accomplished a siege.

9. TEMA: Strong's Concordance H8485—a son of Ishmael, and the region settled by him: A locality in Arabia. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 1068.

TEMA, the eighth son, the meaning is just an area settled by one of the sons of Ishmael.

10. JETUR: Strong's Concordance H3195—Probably from the same as H2905; encircled (that is, inclosed); Jetur, a son of Ishmael. H2905: From an unused root meaning to range in a regular manner; a row; hence a wall:—row. An ancestor of an Ishmaelite tribe. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 575.

JETUR means to enclose, once again; a row; hence a wall:—a row.

The history of Islam shows that they put a wall around the Europeans and thus prevented Catholicism from spreading around the world. Praise the Lord!

> 11. NAPHISH: Strong's Concordance H5305—From H5314; refreshed; Naphish, a son of Ishmael, and his posterity. H5314: A primitive root; to breathe; passively, to be breathed upon, that is, (figuratively) refreshed (as if by a current of air): - (be) refresh selves (-ed). Wealth. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 753.

I like this next one, NAPHISH. Naphish means refreshed (as if by a current of air).

What is the Refreshing?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Latter Rain. Islam is associated with the Refreshing.

It means to breathe.

Where do we hear about breathing? Ezekiel breathing on the bones, and that wild horse, it snuffs up the wind. This is one of the characteristics of the children of the East, of the wild Arabian ass.

Are we supposed to understand what the four wings on the leopard are? We are supposed to understand the role of the ass breathing the wind; because, that is one of Islam's characteristics, is that it marks the arrival of the Refreshing. It marks the arrival of the Latter Rain (a current of air).

> 12. KEDEMAH: Strong's Concordance H6929—From H6923; precedence; Kedemah, a son of Ishmael. H6923: A primitive root; to project (one self), that is, precede; hence to anticipate, hasten, meet (usually for help): - come (go, [flee]) before, + disappoint, meet, prevent. Toward the east. The children of the east. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 620.

KEDEMAH means precedence; project, precede; anticipate, hasten. But, the last part, I like. It means The children of the East.

So, what am I saying? I am saying, when you take the 12 tribes of Ishmael's sons and you mark their definitions and then you place those definitions into a statement, the statement that you come up with is the identical statement that covers what we teach about Islam, about the Third Woe here at the end of the world.

A message of Islam in Bible prophecy:

> Prophetically the descendants of Ishmael are a fruitful dark-skinned people that are renowned as warriors but are grieved historically and prophetically on August 11, 1840 and thereafter on September 11, 2001. They are called the children of the east in biblical history. They originated from Arabia where the fragrant spices employed in the Hebrew sanctuary services are grown. The word "assassins" is derived from Islamic history and represents death that is brought about in silence—[DUMAH]. In the time of the Crusades Islam enclosed, encircled and besieged Catholic Europe, but their subsequent restraints mark the arrival of the refreshing of 1840 through 1844 and on 9/11 2001 through the Sunday law crisis.

Isaiah 27:8; Psalms 48:1-8; Ezekiel 27; Revelation 18:10, 16, 19; 8:13; James 5:1-8; Isaiah 23:14-17

The children of the East, one of their characteristics is the breath, "Breathe into these bones." There is a message from the Four Winds, and that message brings with it the Seal of God; because, the Sealing Angel is ascending from the East; and, when that message arrives, according to Isaiah 27, verse 8, it is the Day of the East Wind. And when that message arrives, the Refreshing arrives.

Isaiah 27:8

Okay. Go to Isaiah 27, verse 8. Let us walk through this. We are now at a place where we can maybe make some points about this, in connection with Daniel 11, verse 44.

"[8]In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it:"—

In this worship service we have shown repeatedly that the Latter Rain comes in two parts. It is a sprinkling, followed by a full outpouring; and, when the Mighty Angel descended on September 11, 2001, the measuring begins. And this budding out of those in Adventism that are allowing themselves to be revived through the influence of the Holy Spirit begins, but the argument, the shaking, the debate of Adventism begins.

And what is the debate about? It is about these truths [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. It is about, "Well, does Islam really have a role to play in Bible prophecy?" It is about the East Wind.

Notice the rest of the verse.

—"he stayeth his rough wind"—

That is the Four Winds holding the Four Winds of Strife in Revelation 7, verses 1 through 3; because, all the prophets agree with one another. God is not the author of confusion.

—"he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind." Isaiah 27:8 (KJV).

And we know that when He stayeth his rough wind, when He restrains the Four Winds, the sealing of the 144,000 begins; and, the sealing of the 144,000 begins in the Day of the East Wind.

And the Day of the East Wind is emphasizing a point in time: when it begins, when the refreshing begins; and, the point in time, of course, is 9/11.

Psalm 48:1-8

But what about this East wind; why would it trouble the Papacy?

Go to Psalm 48; Psalm 48: Why would the East wind trouble the Papacy and cause him to go forth and utterly make away and destroy many?

Beginning at Psalm 48:1, it says,

> "[1]Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness. [2]Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. [3]God is known in her palaces for a refuge. [4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together."—

What kings would that be? Well, it is more than one king; so, it is a group of kings.

Where do we find a group of kings in end-time Bible prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Revelation 17.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 17. These are the Ten Kings. Okay? Because, all the prophets agree with one another.

—"[4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. [5]They saw it,"—

They saw what? They saw Mount Zion.

What is Mount Zion? That is God's people being lifted up as an ensign. They see God's people.

—"and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away."—

Uh-oh. They are looking at God's people, they are looking at Mount Zion; and, suddenly they are troubled and they haste away.

Now, that is what happens to the King of the North in verse 44 [of Daniel 11], right? Tidings out of the East and the North trouble him. Of course, he does not haste away. What does he do? He goes forth to destroy and utterly make away many.

But, they see something in Mount Zion here, and then they are troubled.

Verse 6:

—"[6]Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail."—

We emphasize this every time: How is a woman in travail? Harder and harder, closer and closer. It is a progressive problem. It is not a singular event; it is a progressive problem that takes hold of them. Fear takes hold of them. They are troubled.

Verse 7:

—"[7]Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with"—

With a what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: East wind.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ah. What is troubling them is that the East Wind breaks the ships of Tarshish.

And what are the ships of Tarshish?

We have defined that already in our study of Daniel 11, verse 40, with chariots, horsemen, and ships. Ships represent economic strength; but, the premier symbol of economic strength in the Bible is the ships of Tarshish, and the ships of Tarshish are the United States. It is the premier economic vessel at the end of the world.

And it says here,

> —"[7]Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. [8]As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah." Psalm 48:1-8 (KJV).

Ah, this is an attack on the economic structure of the world, but primarily upon the United States; and, it is brought about by the East Wind of Bible prophecy.

When does it take place; when would you suppose this takes place? Isaiah 27:8: When the rough wind is stayed: "He stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind."

Okay. What marks the beginning of the sealing of the 144,000 is an attack upon the financial structure of the United States and the world, represented by the ships of Tarshish; and, that attack comes from the East Wind.

Ezekiel 27

Go to Ezekiel 27, beginning at verse 1:

> "[1]The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, [2]Now, thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus; [3]And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty."—

Who is Tyrus? Who thinks they are of perfect beauty? Both Satan and the Papacy. This is the Papacy here.

> —"[4]Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty. [5]They have made all thy ship boards of fir trees of Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee. [6]Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim."—

So, they have made them some really nice ships, and they are taking the various special commodities from these different nations.

Verse 7:

> —"[7]Fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee. [8]The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots. [9]The ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise. [10]They of Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness. [11]The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect. [12]Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches;"—

Who has all kinds of riches? The United States. It is the land flowing with milk and honey, is it not? The bread basket of the world.

—"[12]Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches, with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs."—

It is going to talk about the various merchants.

—"[13]Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market. [14]They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules. [15]The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony. [16]Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate. [17]Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm. [18]Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool. [19]Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market. [20]Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots. [21]Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants. [22]The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. [23]Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants. [24]These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise."—

And go down to verse 25:

—"[25]The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas."—

Now, who is it talking about here? Tyrus.

And who is Tyrus? It is the Papacy.

Verse 26:

—"[26]Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the"—

What?

—"the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas."—

When the East Wind breaks the ships of Tarshish, the kings in Psalm 48, they are fearful and they are caught up with pain. They want to haste away.

But, the breaking of the ships of Tarshish is the punishment, also, of the Papacy.

> —"[27]Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin. [28]The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots."—

Now notice. Let us take up verse 29, identifying the sinking of the economic structure of Planet Earth by the East Wind and what it means to the kings that have committed fornication with the Papacy at the end of the world.

Verse 29:

> —"[29]And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea,"—

All the globalists, economists.

> —"shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land; [30]And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: [31]And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing. [32]And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee,"—

What is a lamentation?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Crying and mourning.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A mourning song? A mourning?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are going to . . .

> —"take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying,"—

What are they going to say; what is the lamentation that these kings take up for the Papacy?

> —*"*What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?"—

How is Tyrus destroyed in the midst of the sea?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, no. It says it in verse 26, ". . . the east wind hath broken thee . . . ." Okay. The East wind breaks Tyrus in the midst of the sea.

And the question that is raised by the Ten Kings is, "What city is like unto Tyrus?"

Verse 33.

> —"[33]When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise. [34]In the time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall. [35]All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid,"—*THERE IS PSALM 48—"*they shall be troubled in their countenance" [PSALM 48]. [36]The merchants among the people shall hiss at thee; thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt be any more." Ezekiel 27 (KJV).

Revelation 18:10, 16, 19

Go to Revelation 18. Revelation 18, two out of three words in The Revelation is derived from the Old Testament; and, Ezekiel 27, it has Revelation 18 all over it.

Verse 10—well, let us start in verse 9.

These are the same kings. All the prophets are speaking about the end of the world. These are the same kings of Psalm 48 that are fearful and afraid as a woman in travail when they see the ships of Tarshish sank by an East Wind.

And in verse 9 of Revelation 18, it says,

"[9]And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, [10]Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour is thy judgment come." Revelation 18:9-10 (KJV).

What is her judgment? She is sank by an East Wind in the midst of the sea. In one hour her judgment is come.

And what do these kings cry out? Alas, alas!

And this word that is translated alas, if you go to Revelation 8, verse 13, you will see that in Revelation 8, verse 13, this same Greek word is NOT translated as alas.

Verse 13 says,

"[13]And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound." Revelation 8:13 (KJV).

Woe [pointing to the First Angel blowing a trumpet on the right-hand side of the 1850 Chart], the Fifth Trumpet; Woe, [pointing to the Second Angel], Sixth Trumpet; Woe, [pointing to the Third Angel], Seventh Trumpet.

But, the word that is translated as woe in Revelation 8:13 is the identical word that is translated as alas in verse 10 of Revelation 18.

Go back to Revelation 18, verse 10.

"Standing afar off," they (these kings of the Earth) are watching the economic structure of Planet Earth get taken down by the escalating crisis of Islam; and, in verse 10 it says, "Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas [WOE, WOE] that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour is thy judgment come."

What is it that brings Babylon down? It is the East Wind. It Is the Woe.

Go to verse 16.

> "[16]And saying, Alas, alas [WOE, WOE] that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!" Revelation 18:16 (KJV).

Verse 19:

> "[19]And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, [WOE, WOE] Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate." Revelation 18:19 (KJV).

Now, back up to verse 18.

Those are the three places where these kings of the Earth are crying out, "Woe, Woe!" That is what is bringing down the economic structure. It is not the Alas; it is the Woe, the Third Woe, the final Woe that is bringing it down.

And in verse 18, in the midst of their wailing and mourning, notice what they say:

> "[18]And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city?" Revelation 18:18 (KJV).

Where do we hear that? That is Ezekiel 27: "What city is like unto Tyrus?"

This is the bringing down of the Papacy at the end of the world, and it is brought down by an East Wind, and the children of the East in Bible prophecy are Islam. And one of the characteristics of the children of the East is that they are the wild Arabian ass; and, one of the characteristics of the ass is its breath, its wind, its spirit. The East wind is Islam. It is the woe that brings down the economic structure of Planet Earth.

James 5:1-8

James, chapter 5, tells us when this is going to take place, from a different direction than we have been using.

James, chapter 5, beginning at verse 1:

> "[1]Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl"—

When do they weep and howl? When they watch the ships of Tarshish, and the Papacy going down in the midst of the sea due to the activities of the East Wind of Bible prophecy.

> —"[1]Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. [2]Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. [3]Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days."—

So, when is this taking place? In the last days.

> —"[4]Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. [5]Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. [6]Ye have condemned and killed the just: and he doth not resist you. [7]Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. [8]Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh." James 5:1-8 (KJV).

This takes place in the time period of the Latter Rain. The sinking of the ships of Tarshish takes place in the time period of the Latter Rain.

Isaiah 23:14-17

Go to Isaiah 23.

What are we doing here? What we are doing here is we are making an argument that these men in Adventism that think that we have an incorrect understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11 should not even be allowed to speak unless they have a position on what the last six verses in Daniel 11 represent: "They haven't the ability to work it out to where they can give you a logical review of what the last six verses of Daniel 11 represent, and they should not even be allowed to even get into the discussion."

But, these men who are saying that what we are suggesting is wrong, not any of them have a consistent teaching from the beginning to the end, nor do their teachings have any depth or substance to them.

And we are making the argument, among other things, that what we are identifying about the last six verses of Daniel 11 opens the Word of God completely up. And just the one word East will take you right into the Bible to a level that you have never been at.

And, therefore, what we are saying is, the last six verses of Daniel 11 is the increase of knowledge that comes at the time of the end in the history of the 144,000. That is the kind of logic that we are trying to exercise here, in opposition to all these foolish ideas about what is truth in Adventism today.

And in Isaiah 23, beginning at verse 1, it says, "The burden of Tyre . . . ," the prophecy of Tyre. Who is Tyre?

Well, drop down to verse 15.

> "[15]And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot."—

Who is it that sings as an harlot at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy.

So, Tyre here is the Papacy, where when we were reading in Ezekiel 27 it was Tyrus;

Tyre, the Papacy.
Verse 16, speaking to the harlot Tyre:

—"[16]Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.
"[17]And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth." Isaiah 23:15-17 (KJV).

Who is it that commits fornication with all the kings of the Earth? Once again, it is the Papacy.
This is Tyre. Okay? Isaiah 23 is talking about the Papacy (Tyre).
FROM THE AUDIENCE: Is Tyre and Tyrus the same?
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.
Is Katherine and Kathy the same?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Verse 14:

[14]Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste." Isaiah 23:14 (KJV).

Verse 1:

"[1]The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them." Isaiah 23:1 (KJV).

Verse 6:

"[6]Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle." Isaiah 23:6 (KJV).

Okay. This is about the pain that is experienced by the Papacy and the kings of the Earth when they see the ships of Tarshish sinking.
And what sinks the ships of Tarshish?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: An East wind.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: An East Wind. The East Wind of Bible prophecy brings down the economic structure of Planet Earth, and it causes of the kings of the Earth who have come into a church/state relationship with the Papacy, who have committed fornication with her at the end of the world; it causes them to howl. It causes the Papacy to weep and howl.
So, you tell me, the East Wind, in Daniel 11, verse 44, when it says "tidings out of the East shall trouble the Papacy," what are the tidings out of the East that troubles the Papacy? It is that the East Wind is destroying the economic structure of Planet Earth and preventing the Papacy from ruling the world according to her will.
If you do not understand this East, then you really cannot understand what troubles the Papacy in verse 44 [of Daniel 11].
But, when you take the time to go into these symbols in Daniel 11:40-45, you will be amazed in how the Bible comes alive.

Now, let us do one thing in closing.

How long was Ancient Israel captive in Babylon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventy years.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

So, how long is Tyre forgotten?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventy years.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, how is it defined in Isaiah 23?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The days of one king.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The days of one king.

The Papacy is forgotten for the days of one king.

In Daniel, chapter 2, Daniel says to Nebuchadnezzar, "Thou, O king, are the head of gold."

What is a king?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A kingdom.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, this 70 years [Figure No. 109A] represents the time of one kingdom; and, during this time, this one kingdom, the Papacy is forgotten.

When was the Papacy forgotten?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1798.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What kingdom of Bible prophecy began in 1798?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The U.S.A.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The U.S.A.

When is the United States conquered?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And when the United States is conquered at The Sunday Law, what will the United States have just done with the Papacy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Committed fornication.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Committed fornication.

The first king of the Earth that the Papacy commits fornication with is the United States.

Because, who is the United States?

The United States immediately unites with the kings of the Earth, right? We have been there in this worship study. At the time of The Sunday Law—we read the quote, and we know this quote as Seventh-day Adventists—At The Sunday Law in the United States, the United States stretches its hand to clasp the hand of whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy.

And stretches across the gulf to . . . ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To Spiritualism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who is Spiritualism?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Dragon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Dragon.

So, at The Sunday Law in the United States, the United States unites with the Dragon.

And who is the Dragon? Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, page 38.2, "Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints—with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus."

So, what we are saying here, in Isaiah 23 the Papacy (Tyre) is forgotten for 70 years, as in the days of one king.

When the children of Israel were in captivity in Babylon, how many kingdoms ruled the world during that 70 years?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: One.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Just one. It is the days of one king. Here, it was Babylon [Figure No. 109A].

In fact, the 70 years comes to an end when?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: When Belshazzar dies.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When Belshazzar loses his life.

Okay. Ancient Israel was captive for 70 years, as is the days of one king; but, in 1844, what stopped? No more time prophecy.

So, Tyre here at the end of the world, it is going to be forgotten as the days of one king. This 70 years is symbolic. It is representing the time period that the United States is the sixth kingdom of Bible prophecy, and that ends when the United States is the first king to commit fornication with the Papacy.

And at that point in time, who does the United States turn into? Ahab, because Ahab is the king of what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Israel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Israel. He is the ruler over the Ten Kings of Revelation 17.

But, in this history here [Figure No. 109B], in this history here when the Papacy is forgotten, what happens that troubles the Papacy? The ships of Tarshish are brought down by an East Wind.

Okay. Now, if you are going to really look at Daniel 11:40-45 closely, you need to put these things in place; because, verse 44 does not follow sequentially verse 43. Okay? Daniel 11, verses 40 to 43, tells the story about how the deadly wound is healed. Okay?

Pagan Rome had to conquer three geographical areas: Daniel 8:9, and Daniel 11:16-17. Pagan Rome, to take control of the world, had to take overcome Syria, Egypt, and Israel.

For Papal Rome to take control of the world, the Heruli, the Ostrogoths, and the Vandals had to be overcome.

For modern Rome to take control of the world, it has to overcome the King of the South (Daniel 11:40), the glorious land (Daniel 11:41), and Egypt (Daniel 11:42-43). When it conquers Egypt, the deadly wound is healed. End of the story.

That is not the end of the story, but it is one of the stories there in Daniel 11, verses 40 to 45, on how the deadly wound is healed.

The deadly wound was not healed in 1929 at the Lateran Treaty. Yes, the civil authority was returned to the Papacy in 1929 at the Lateran Treaty; but, the deadly wound is not healed, according to Inspiration, until the Papacy has the ability to persecute once again; and, it is in verses 41 and 42 that the ability to persecute is returned to the Papacy. The deadly wound is healed when the third obstacle is conquered.

But, then in Daniel 11:40-45 and Daniel 12:1, Daniel is going to tell us about how the Papacy relates to God's people during this very same history; because, the persecution that is referenced in verse 44, where it says he shall go forth and destroy and utterly make away many, where does the persecution begin?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In the United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States. What verse is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 41?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 41.

So, verse 44, actually you need to understand that that persecution begins back in verse 41. It is a different line.

Does prophecy operate upon the principle of repeat and enlarge?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

SUMMARY

So, what are we saying here, so we can bring this to a conclusion?

We are saying that just from one word, just from East in Daniel 11, verse 44, you can open a truth in the Bible that is present truth for today. It is taking place in the world. It is noted on these [1843 and 1850] Charts. It is the debate of Adventism.

And these verses, the way we have set them forth, are the most provocative, profound, deep verses that are confronting Adventism at this present time.

"Tidings out of the East and the North shall trouble him," and they are troubling him right before Daniel 12:1.

What is Daniel 12:1.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The close of probation.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The close of probation.

So, just before the close of probation, we see a message symbolized in the tidings of the East and the North. So, what would that message be?

In Revelation 14 and 15 we see the close of probation. What message is emphasized in Revelation 14?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Three Angels' Messages.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Three Angels' Messages.

So, all the prophets agree with one another. What does the message of the East and the North got to be?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Three Angels' Messages.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, the message of the East and the North is how many messages?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Three.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Three?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Two?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: One.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: One, and what is it? It is the Third Angel's Message swelling to a Loud Cry.

But, how many parts does the Third Angel's Message have?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It has two, does it not? The history of the First and Second Angels' Messages is the history of the Millerites, and "it is to run parallel with that which follows." Remember?

The First Angel's Message, followed by the Second Angel's Message, ends when the Third Angel's Message arrives. The history of the Millerites is the history of the First and Second Angels' Messages.

Who is the messenger of the First Angel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: William Miller.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: William Miller.

Who was he typified by?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: John the Baptist.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: John the Baptist. So, John the Baptist was the First Angel's Message in the time of Christ.

Who was the Second Angel's Message in the time of Christ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jesus.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jesus.

But, John the Baptist and William Miller were who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Elijah.

So, Elijah was the First Message in his history. Who was the second?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Elisha.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Elisha.

So, the Third Angel's Message is a one-two message.

So, what was John the Baptist's message based upon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel 9.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 9.

What was Miller's message based upon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel 9.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 9. We call it Daniel 8, but if you do not have Daniel 9 to explain Daniel 8, forget about it.

John the Baptist's message was Daniel 9. William Miller's message was Daniel 9. So, we have a witness there that these are parallel messages.

So, what is our first message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel 11.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 11.

So, the first message for us is Daniel 11.

What was the second message for the Millerites? August 11, 1840, a Mighty Angel came down out of Heaven and the Earth was lightened with His glory.

And who was that Angel? No less the personage than Jesus Christ. That is our second message [within the Third Angel's Message]: 9/11, no less the personage than Jesus Christ. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, both John the Baptist and the Millerites preached Daniel 9 as the first message, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, our first message is not Daniel 9. Our first message is . . . ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel 11.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 11.

So, when you put the beginning of Adventism together with the ending of Adventism, what is our first message [within the Third Angel's Message]? 9/11.

But, what is our first message about; who is the subject?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy (the King of the North).

What is our second message about, 9/11, when the Angel comes down?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Islam.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Islam.

So, our twofold message is what? It is the message of the East and the North. It is the message of the King of the North (the last six verses of Daniel 11) and the children of the East (9/11).

So, this verse [Daniel 11:44] is unbelievable just with one word [East] where you can go; but, the verse itself is absolutely divine.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that as the Dirt Brush Man and as the Lion of the tribe of Judah that you are continually opening this message to your people. We ask that it would accomplish the work that you have designed in each of us as individuals and as your people that we might finish our personal work of developing a character that represents your character, that we might be lifted up as an ensign in the near future. We pray for those that are in the valley of decision about these truths, that your Holy Spirit would be heavy upon their hearts, opening their understanding, convicting them of their need. As we take up our individual tasks for this day, we ask that you would bless our service for you and that you would keep us safe and healthy. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #59

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for another day of life, another day that we can serve you, another day that we can learn of you. I thank you for a good night's rest and for bringing the Pecks home safely. As we take up this study this morning, we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit to guide and direct our thoughts, our understanding; and that you would take the words that I am going to express, and first touch my lips with the coal off your altar that I might be a fit vessel to convey this message. We want to understand the relationship between the last six verses of Daniel 11 and the Book of Revelation, and we ask that you would help us to do that at this time by pouring your Latter Rain out upon us in preparing our vessels to receive it. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I am making arguments now about why what we teach about the last six verses of Daniel 11 is the correct understanding of these verses, and we have tried to show you some of the depth of these verses.

And I am not really that much of a computer guy, but if you are a computer person you know that with Windows you can go into Windows and you have a menu, and you can touch that part of the menu and it will take you another place; and, at that place you will have a menu, and you can touch that part of the menu and it will take you into another place. And some of these Windows programs just go on and on.

And that is what we are suggesting about the last six verses of Daniel 11. Every symbol in those verses is simply a title for a menu. If you touch that verse, if you touch the word East, it is going to take you deeper and deeper into God's Word. But, because it is God's Word, all of them are tied together very nicely.

Another argument and one of those strongest arguments of what we are teaching about the last six verses of Daniel 11 is the connection between the Books of Daniel and Revelation. Sister White repeatedly says that they are the same book. In one place she says the Book of Revelation complements—and the word she uses is spelled with an "e," not an "i." It is not compliment, like you are telling someone that they look nice today. It is complement, and complement, with an "e," means brings to perfection—she says the Book of Revelation brings to perfection the Book of Daniel.

In one place she says the same line of prophecy that is taken up in the Book of Daniel is taken up in The Revelation; and, then often she will make references that in The Revelation, the Lion of the tribe of Judah has opened to the student of prophecy the Book of Revelation. So, there is a connection here.

And, of course, what we are saying is the last six verses of Daniel 11 is the very final message of the Book of Daniel; because, it is the one that leads to the close of probation, when Michael stands up. So, we should expect to see the illustrations of the end of the world in the Book of Revelation to parallel the last six verses of Daniel 11, if we have the correct understanding of these verses.

So, we have been touching on in our worship Revelation 17. I think I have addressed it twice, but never specifically in detail; and, the reason that I addressed it twice is for the purpose of getting those that are not necessarily familiar with what we teach about Revelation 17 to be semi-familiar with it before we go through it a little bit more carefully over the next couple of days.

REVELATION SEVENTEEN

ONE OF THE ANGELS WHICH HAD A VIAL

So, if you will turn to Revelation 17, what we are going to do here—

And these here [referring to two large books to his right on the podium], I am going to explain these in a minute. These are not that significant, but I like them.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, if you will, turn to Revelation 17.

In verse 1, it says,

"[1]And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials,"—

All right. When it comes to Revelation 17, we are purposely told that one of the angels that poured out the Seven Last Plagues is the angel that brings the message of Revelation 17 to John.

Verse 1:

—"[1]And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials,"—

The seven vials are chapter 16.

—"and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:"—

So, a student of prophecy knows that that is a purposeful connection that is being made there between Revelation 16 and Revelation 17.

And let me jump ahead and come back to that, so I can get rid of these books.

THE JUDGMENT OF THE GREAT WHORE

Revelation 17:1-2

—"[1]And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters."—

Who is the great whore? Well, Sister White is going to tell us it is the Papacy.

And I was raised in California, not as a Christian. I did not become a Christian until I was 25 years old, and immediately became a Seventh-day Adventist Christian. I did not spend a lot of time in any other Protestant denominations. None.

And growing up in California—and California is not a real religious culture—so, up until I was 25, I did not know the difference between a Buddhist or a Catholic or a Protestant or anything. I just did not. I did not grow up that way.

And then for the first 19 years of our experience in Adventism, we were in one of the most liberal dark churches in California; so, they certainly were not going to teach anything about the Pope of Rome and the mark of the beast. So, we did not learn a great deal there about who Rome was.

It really was not until we went early on in that 19-year period that we started going to some camp meetings that were held in Utah, just over the border from us in California, in Provo, Utah. And there used to be an elderly lady there named Mary Walsh, who had written some books—or a book; I think it is books—on the Pope. And it was going to her meetings where I started waking up to, you know, the Catholic Church is a player in Bible prophecy, bigger than I realized.

So, much of what I have learned about the Catholic Church has just been over, you know, a certain period of time; but, my point is this: When we came to Revelation 17, we realized that if you go get an old dictionary before the Year 2000 (and there is even one that was published in 2001), and you crack it open to (and it is in this dictionary) Scarlet Woman: "The woman described in Revelation 17, variously explained as symbolizing Pagan Rome, the Church of Rome."

So, before the 1950s at least, before the 1950s the Protestants of the United States (and this is another dictionary; this [the second dictionary he picks up from the podium] is the Webster's ew Worl Di tio ar y, published first in 1953, the last in 1966—and this one [the first dictionary he picked up from the podium] was the New Century Dictionary)—but, if you look up Scarlet Woman in this dictionary [Webster's ew Worl Di tio ary], it says, "The Roman Catholic Church, an opprobrious term based upon the reference of Revelation 17:1-6."

So, the Protestant world used to know that the "Scarlet Woman" in Revelation 17 was the Roman Catholic Church.

But, we have been studying Isaiah 23 off and on, and what does Isaiah 23 say? That Tyre is forgotten for 70 years, as the days of one king. And Protestantism has forgotten who this woman is.

But, in verse 1 [of Revelation 17] we see that we are told that Revelation 17 is the story of the judgment of the "great whore," of the Roman Catholic Church.

But, we want to deal with that first phrase, now that we have gotten those big books out of the way.

—"[1]And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials,"—

My argument here is that in order to understand Revelation 17 correctly, you have to understand it in connection with Revelation 16; because Inspiration has purposely tied these two chapters together.

Okay. So, what is there about Revelation 16 that needs to be understood in conjunction with Revelation 17?

I mean, there are 21 verses in Revelation 16. What is the punch line in Revelation 16 that needs to be factored in to Revelation 17?

And I think it is verses 12 through 16. And the reason for this—we will read verses 12 through 16 at this point—and then I will tell you why.

> "[12]And the sixth angel"—

There are seven of them. This is the sixth one.

> "[12]And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. [13]And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. [14]For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. [15]Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. [16]And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon." Revelation 16:12-16 (KJV).

To me, this is the passage that is the primary emphasis of Revelation 16 because it is the only place in Revelation 16 where you have a warning about keeping your garments. I mean, Revelation 16 is the history that takes place after Michael stands up, after human probation closes.

The seven vials, the Seven Last Plagues, they are poured out after probation closes; yet, here in verse 15 there is a counsel to keep your garments. And when Michael stands up, the garments you have those are the ones you are going to keep. So, verse 15 is saying that there is something in this particular passage that is a warning message that God's people need to understand before Michael stands up.

So, I am under the conviction that the part of Revelation 16 that is the predominant emphasis of Revelation 16 is verses 12 through 16, where it identifies that modern Babylon is divided into three parts: the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

And, of course, if you are going to approach Revelation 17 from that perspective, then you would be in agreement with Daniel 11, verse 40; because, in Daniel 11, verse 40, you have the King of the South (the Dragon); the chariots, horsemen, and ships (the False Prophet); and, the King of the North (the Beast); and, in verse 40 they are beginning their march to leading the world to Armageddon, between the seas and the glorious holy mountain in verse 45. And Daniel 11:40-45 can be recognized here in verses 12 through 16 of Revelation 16.

And as we go through Revelation 17, we will see that it is a parallel history to Daniel 11:40-45 and that it is telling the story of the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

So, that is the connection we are putting in place as we proceed.

Verse 2 of Revelation 17 says, speaking of the whore that sits upon many waters in verse 1; and, verse 2 says,

> —[2]With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication." Revelation 17:1-2 (KJV).

Sister White says in The Great Controversy, page 382,

> "The woman [Babylon] of Revelation 17 is described as"—AND THEN SHE QUOTES FROM REVELATION 17—"'arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness:...and upon her forehead was a name written, 'Mystery, Babylon the Great, the mother of harlots.' Says the prophet: 'I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus.' Babylon is further declared to be 'that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.' Revelation 17:4–6, 18. The power that for so many centuries maintained despotic sway over the monarchs of Christendom is Rome [THE VATICAN, THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH]." The Great Controversy, 382.

So, the woman here under discussion in Revelation 17 is the Roman Catholic Church; and, she has committed fornication with the kings of the Earth.

And what is fornication? It is an unlawful relationship, and in spiritual terms the fornication of Bible prophecy is the combination of church and state.

BABYLON'S WINE

And what is the first state that the Papacy commits fornication with at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: America.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States, Daniel 11, verse 41.

But, where does the foreplay begin; where is the romance? The engagement began in verse 40 with Ronald Reagan and Pope John Paul II; but, the marriage is consummated at The Sunday Law in the United States. And then she commits fornication with all of the other kings of the Earth thereafter.

Why does she do this, or what is represented as the justification for these kings bowing down to her? It is her wine.

Testimonies to Ministers, page 62:

> "The fallen denominational churches are Babylon. Babylon has been fostering poisonous doctrines, the wine of error. This wine of error is made up of false doctrines." Testimonies to Ministers, 62.

Her false doctrines are what are preparing the political leadership of the Earth to believe that she is God's church on Earth.

The Great Controversy, page 388:

"The great sin charged against Babylon is that she 'made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.' This cup of intoxication which she presents to the world represents the false doctrines that she has accepted as the result of her unlawful connection with the great ones of the earth." The Great Controversy, 388.

Okay. Verses 1 and 2 tell us this story in Revelation 17 is about the judgment of the Papacy.

THE WILDERNESS—REVELATION 17:3

And in verse 3 we have, to me, the most important verse in Revelation 17. It says,

—"[3]So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns." Revelation 17:3 (KJV).

The wilderness, we will see from Revelation 12, verses 6 and 14, is the 1260 years, from AD538 to 1798.

Revelation 12, verse 6, says,

"[6]And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days." Revelation 12:6 (KJV).

A wilderness is a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

Look at verse 14.

"[14]And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent." Revelation 12:14 (KJV).

So, what we are saying is that the first thing we are told about John in Revelation 17 is that in order for him to receive this vision, he is carried to this history.

John is actually down here at Patmos in the Year 100, but he is going to see a vision concerning the Roman Catholic Church, and the Roman Catholic Church is in existence prior to AD538, but it is empowered in AD538. So, in order for him to see the Roman Catholic Church in power, he has got to be projected into the future to see it, and the future he is projected into is the 1260 years.

DRUNKEN WITH BLOOD

And look at verses 4 through 6.

When he goes into the wilderness, he is going to see this woman riding on a beast, and this woman has certain characteristics.

We just read verses 4 and 5 in the Spirit of Prophecy. We will finish off with verse 6.

> "[5]And upon her"—THE WOMAN, THE CATHOLIC CHURCH—"upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. [6]And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration." Revelation 17:5-6 (KJV).

Okay. So, there are two things that I want you to see there. It is when John is carried into this history here [the 1260 years in the wilderness] and he sees the Roman Catholic Church, she is already drunk with the blood of the saints.

Do you get drunk before you drink or after you drink?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: You get drunk during and after.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: During and after.

So, she is already drunk. She has already committed the persecutions. It is not before the persecution starts. When he sees her, she is already drunk with the blood of persecution.

And she is also called the Mother of Harlots.

So, in about 1500—is that a fair marking of the Protestant Reformation, or should I put it 1590?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It was in 1517 was the date when he [Luther] nailed his thesis to the door.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: His 95 thesis.

So, from 1500 on, you have the beginning of the Protestant Reformation, and you have people leaving the Church of Rome and starting churches based upon the Word of God.

But, by the time John sees the Roman Catholic Church in this history, she is called the Mother of Harlots, which means, some of these Protestant churches in this history [from 1500 to 1798] they have already quit protesting and they have quit reforming and they began to return to Rome. They become harlots themselves. They become daughters of Rome, making her a Mother. You have to have a daughter or a son to be a Mother, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, when John sees the Roman Catholic Church, he sees her right down here in 1798.

By the way, where does Daniel 11, verse 40, begin?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the Time of the End.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the Time of the End, in AD1798. Right? Because, the Books of Daniel and Revelation are the same book. The same line of prophecy that is in the Book of Daniel is taken up in The Revelation.

In your notes—and I think there is even one more reference in the book, The Great Controversy, on this subject besides these two—but, Sister White tells us the persecution ended shortly before 1798.

The Great Controversy, page 306, she says,

> "He thus mentioned certain events to precede His coming, and fixed the time"—CHRIST DID—"when the first of these should be witnessed: 'In those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light.' Mark 13:24. The 1260 days, or years, terminated in 1798. A quarter of a century earlier, persecution had almost wholly ceased. Following this persecution, according to the words of Christ, the sun was to be darkened. On the 19th of May, 1780, this prophecy was fulfilled." The Great Controversy, 306.

So, persecution is ending right down here, which means she is drunk. This is the area where John is seeing the Roman Catholic Church as the Mother of Harlots. She is drunk.

Beginning at page 266, The Great Controversy says,

> "The persecution of the church did not continue throughout the entire period of the 1260 years. God in mercy to His people cut short the time of their fiery trial. In foretelling the 'great tribulation' to befall the church, the Saviour said: 'Except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.' Matthew 24:22. Through the influence of the Reformation the persecution was brought to an end prior to 1798." The Great Controversy, 266–267.

So, I hope you see the logic. When John is carried away into the wilderness, in verse 3 of Revelation 17, to see the whore of Rome, the Roman Catholic Church, he does not just see her in the period of the 1260 years. He sees her at the very conclusion of the 1260 years, after she is drunk with the blood of persecution, and after she has become the Mother of Harlots.

THE MYSTERY OF THE WOMAN, AND THE BEAST

Revelation 17:7

Revelation 17:7 says,

> [7]And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns." Revelation 17:7 (KJV).

What is the mystery of the woman and the beast?
What is a beast in Bible prophecy?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is a state power.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Political power, state power, civil power.
What is a woman?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, he is going to tell us the mystery of church and state.

Is that what he is saying?

> "[7]And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman [CHURCH], and of the beast [STATE] that carrieth her, . . ." Revelation 17:7 (KJV).

And we have spent some time in this worship series more than once talking about Sister White's definition of the image of the beast. She says it in a variety of ways, but it is always the same thing. The image of the beast is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship.

And the mystery of the beast here is this very image; because, this is the mystery of a church that is being carried.

What does it mean if you are being carried? You are being supported by—right?—by a state.

Is that not the very image that the United States reproduces in the image of the beast?

I mean, it [the United States] reproduces the image of the beast. The beast that it is reproducing is the Beast of Catholicism. And the way that Catholicism was structured is that it was carried by the civil powers of Europe. They did its dirty work. It controlled the civil powers of Europe. That was the image of the Papacy. It is a church ruling over the civil structure. That is what is repeated in the United States.

And here, the angel, who is this angel? There is no doubt it is Gabriel.

Is it Gabriel? Gabriel is the one that brings the messages to John and Daniel.

But, I guess that would mean that Gabriel is one of the angels that pours out the vials, if we go back to verse 1, "And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, . . ."

Does that mean that Gabriel is a vial angel—I do not mean vile. I mean an angel that carries a vial.

But, we are not going there.

Verse 7: What is the mystery of the woman and the beast? It is the mystery of the healing of the deadly wound.

What happened in 1798? The Papacy received its deadly wound.

But, in terms of verse 7, in the expressions of verse 7, what happened? The Papacy ceased to be a beast of Bible prophecy. That is the deadly wound.

Did the Papacy cease to be a woman of Bible prophecy in 1798?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No.

Okay. 1798 is just marking when there is no more political structure that is supporting the Papacy; but, the Papacy continues to be a church on through history.

The mystery of the beast and the woman in Revelation 17 is how the woman (the Papacy) once again becomes a church/state power at the end of the world. That is the mystery of the woman and the beast.

A MYSTERY—COLOSSIANS 1:26-27; 2 THESSALONIANS 2:7

Okay. A mystery of Bible prophecy in the Bible, Colossians 1:26.

Most people do not think about this, but a mystery in the Bible is not like a mystery movie that we have in movie theaters and television today or in books. A mystery in television or books is a mystery that keeps you guessing, if it is a good one, to the very last page. All right? And then on the very last page or in the very last scene, everything is explained for you. That is what we think a mystery is.

But, that is not what a mystery is in God's Word. A mystery in God's Word is something that is deep and profound beyond your understanding. You cannot understand the whole thing, not even when you get to the last page you cannot understand the whole thing. But, what has been revealed, you are required to understand.

Colossians 1:26-27

Colossians 1:26-27 says,

> "[26]Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: [27]To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory." Colossians 1:26-27 (KJV).

Is there anyone that is prepared to explain the mystery of the Incarnation? It cannot be done; but, you have to know enough about Christ in you, the hope of glory, that you secure that experience or you are going to be lost. See, there is information revealed about the mystery of Christ in you, the hope of glory, that you are required to understand, even though its fullness is beyond human understanding.

2 Thessalonians 2:7

How about 2 Thessalonians 2, verse 7, a different type of mystery. 2 Thessalonians, verse 7:

> "[7]For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way." 2 Thessalonians 2:7 (KJV).

What is the Mystery of Iniquity here?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, what is iniquity?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The transgression of God's Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The transgression of God's Law: sin.

Is there anyone that can explain sin?

Can you give an excuse for sin?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You can give an excuse for sin.

Okay. What was Satan's excuse for sin? It is a mystery. There is the excuse for sin: it is a mystery. When it comes to the Mystery of Iniquity, you cannot explain sin. It is too deep; it is too profound; it is beyond human understanding; but, you have to understand enough about the Mystery of Iniquity to flee from it, or you are going to be lost for eternity.

So, a mystery in the Bible is not like a mystery in the movies. Okay? A mystery in the Bible is different.

And in verse 7 of Revelation 17 says, ". . . I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast . . . ." And the mystery of the woman and the beast is the combination of church and state at the end of the world. It is the political structure that the Papacy takes control of at the end of the world when its deadly would is healed.

All right? Do you follow me?

And we are required to understand everything that is revealed about this truth, because it is one of God's mysteries, although we will not be able to understand it all.

THE BEAST THAT CARRIES HER—REVELATION 17:7

Daniel 7:17

> "[17]These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth." Daniel 7:17 (KJV).

Daniel 17:7 is just telling us that a beast is a political kingdom. She [the Roman Catholic Church (the Papacy)] is carried by a civil power.

THEY GIVE THEIR KINGDOM AND RECEIVE POWER—REVELATION 17:16-17; 12

And this civil power in Revelation 17, verses 16 and 17, are these ten horns. And in verse 16 it says,

> "[16]And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. [17]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled." Revelation 17:16-17 (KJV).

These Ten Kings, these "ten horns," they agree to give their kingdom to the Beast. They are going to carry the woman. They are going to give their political structure to the Papacy.

And, we have mentioned that in this worship series. What is the Papacy's pay for being the rod in God's hand?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Egypt.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He gives them Egypt. That is Daniel 11, verses 42 and 43. And this here in Revelation 17:17, is the fulfillment when Egypt is given to the Papacy; because, Egypt—who is Egypt in Ezekiel 29, verse 2?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Dragon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Dragon.

And who is the Dragon at the end of the world in Testimonies to Ministers, page 38?

> "Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints—with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus." {TM 38.2}

So, the Dragon is given to the Papacy in prophecy. That is Daniel 11, verse 42; and, that is Revelation 17:17.

And verse 18 says,

> "[18]And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth." Revelation 17:18 (KJV).

Testimonies, volume 7, page 182:

> "As we approach the last crisis, it is of vital moment that harmony and unity exist among the Lord's instrumentalities. The world is filled with storm and war and variance. Yet under one head—the papal power—the people will unite to oppose God in the person of His witnesses. This union is cemented by the great apostate." Testimonies, volume 7, 182.

CITY/KINGDOM

What is a city in Bible prophecy?

If you will drop down just a couple of lines in your notes, you will see "City/Kingdom," and it has Revelation 3:12; 11:8, 13; 14:8; 16:19; 18:10, 16, 18, 19, 21; 20:9; 21:2, 10, 14-16, 18, 19, 21, 23; 22:14, 19. All of these are verses in the Book of Revelation alone that teach that a city represents a kingdom in Bible prophecy.

So, when verse 18 of Revelation 17 says, "And the woman," which is the Roman Catholic Church, "which thou sawest is that great city," is this kingdom at the end of the world. And what does this kingdom do? It reigns over the kings of the Earth.

What does it mean to reign?

> REIGN, verb—1. To possess or exercise sovereign power or authority; to rule; to exercise government, as a king or emperor; or to hold the supreme power. . . 2. To be predominant; to prevail. 3. To rule; to have superior or uncontrolled dominion. Romans 6:12 {Noah Webster's 1828 Dictionary}

> REIGNETH—Strong's Concordance G2192, . . . ; a primary verb . . .; to hold (used in very various applications, literally or figuratively, direct or remote; such as possession, ability, contiguity, relation or condition): - be (able, X hold, possessed with), accompany, + begin to amend, can (+ -not), X conceive, count, diseased, do, + eat, + enjoy, + fear, following, have, hold, keep, + lack, + go to law, lie, + must needs, + of necessity, + need, next, + recover, + reign, + rest, return, X sick, take for, + tremble, + uncircumcised, use.

Now, when Otto and Kathy go out riding their horses, how do they control their horses?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: With reins.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They rein them.

> REIN—to guide or control as with reins (n. 1. A narrow strap of leather attached in pairs to a horse's bit and manipulated to control the animal: usually used in pl.

2. [pl.] a means of controlling, etc.—vt. to guide or control as with reins. {Webster's New World Dictionary, 1990}

Who is control, the horse or Kathy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Kathy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: With Kathy's horse, it is usually her horse that is in control.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, ideally, the one that has got the reins is the one that is in control.

And, here the Roman Catholic Church is controlling the kings of the Earth.

PEOPLES, AND MULTITUDES, AND NATIONS, AND TONGUES

And, not only does she control the kings of the Earth, in Revelation 17, verse 1, it says, ". . . I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters;" and. then in verse 15 it tells us what these waters that it sits upon are. In verse 15 it says,

> "[15]And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues." Revelation 17:15 (KJV).

To "sit," in Bible prophecy, what does it mean to be seated in Bible prophecy?

What is the seat? That is where you rule from. Okay. It is the seat of your authority.

Not only is she [the Roman Catholic Church (the Papacy)] going to reign over the kings of the Earth, she is going to rule over all the people of the world, "peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues."

Where does she sit? Revelation 17:9 tells us where she sits as she rules over the peoples of the world and the kings of the Earth. It says,

> "[9]And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth." Revelation 17:9 (KJV).

So where does the woman "sitteth"? She sits on seven mountains.

Where are the seven mountains? You can see it from The Great Controversy, page 124, speaking of Luther:

> "At last he beheld in the distance the seven-hilled city. 'With deep emotion he [Luther] prostrated himself upon the earth, exclaiming: 'Holy Rome, I salute thee!'" The Great Controversy, 124.

The City of Rome is the seven-hilled city. That is where the Papacy rules from.

THE BEAST THAT WAS AND IS NOT—REVELATION 17:8

SHALL ASCEND

Revelation 17:8

Now, remember, Gabriel, or at least one of the angels that had the seven vials, is explaining this prophecy to John, and in verse 7 he says, "I am going to show you not only the judgment of the Papacy but I am going to show you the mystery of the woman and the beast." And in verse 8 he begins his explanation. He says,

> "[8]The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is." Revelation 17:8 (KJV).

Okay. We are saying that the beast that was, was the Papacy that ruled here in the wilderness time period [AD538 to 1798 (see Figure No. 110)].

But, in 1798, it [the Papacy that ruled from AD538 to 1798] is not.
But, at the end of the world, it is going to what?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ascend.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ascend. It is going to ascend.

Daniel 11:40

> "[40]And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over." Daniel 11:40 (KJV).

All right. And we are emphasizing that because in Daniel 11:40, when the King of the North comes against the King of the South like a whirlwind—we have looked at those Hebrew words, "come against like a whirlwind"—part of the Hebrew meaning of the coming against, the sweeping away like a whirlwind is the ascension. And verse 40 is the beginning of the ascending of the Papacy (the King of the North) at the end of the world. It is one of the characteristics of Satan and the Papacy in Bible prophecy.

And the beast that was, and is not, is going to ascend back to the throne of the Earth at the end of time.

And you can see the definition of ascend [against] there .

> AGAINST: Strong's Concordance 5921—to ascend, intrans. (be high) or act. (mount)—arise (up). (cause to) ascend up.

Isaiah 14:13-14

In Isaiah 14:13-14, which we have looked before, but we can look at it again, just so you can remember it, if you do not. And we have taken time in this worship series to show that you have Satan, but you have Satan's earthly representative.

Who is Satan's earthly representative?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Pope.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Pope of Rome.

Okay. So, the characteristics of the Pope of Rome and Satan are pretty much interchangeable. Sometimes when Sister White is talking about the antichrist at the end of the world, she is talking about Satan. Sometimes she is talking about the Pope of Rome. So, they are interchangeable.

And here, in terms of ascension, in verse 13 of Isaiah 14, it says,

> "[13]For thou [LUCIFER] hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north. [14]I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High," Isaiah 14:13-14 (KJV).

So, the characteristic of ascending is the characteristic of both the Papacy and Satan.

And in Review and Herald, December 21, 1897, it says,

> "In this time of prevailing iniquity, the Protestant churches that have rejected a 'Thus saith the Lord,' will reach a strange pass. They will be converted to the world. In their separation from God, they will seek to make falsehood and apostasy from God the law of the nation. They will work upon the rulers of the land to make laws to restore the lost"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ascendency.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"the lost ascendency of the man of sin, who sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God. The Roman Catholic principles will be taken under the protection of the state. The protest of Bible truth will no longer be tolerated by those who have not made the law of God their rule of life." Review and Herald, December 21, 1897.

So, what we are looking at is verse 8 [of Revelation 17], and we are trying to identify who "the beast who was, and is not, yet shall ascend" is. And the way that we are trying to identify who he is, is by breaking down verse 8 and marking all the characteristics in verse 8.

OUT OF THE BOTTOMLESS PIT—REVELATION 9:2; 11:7; 20:1-3

And the first characteristic that we have looked at is whoever this beast is in verse 8, it is the power that ascends out of the bottomless pit.

This term bottomless pit is the place where lots [many] in Adventism goes off in darkness. They know from The Great Controversy that in Revelation 11 there is a beast that comes out of the bottomless pit, and Sister White commenting on that beast that comes out of the bottomless pit in Revelation 11 in the book, The Great Controversy, tells us that this beast is atheistic France. So, some Seventh-day Adventists make a very shallow conclusion here that the bottomless pit represents Atheism. And any time now that they see "the bottomless pit" in the Scriptures, they are going to go, "Atheism, Atheism, Atheism." But, that is not what "the bottomless pit" represents, and it is disqualifying those that make that application from being Bereans who rightly divide the Word of Truth.

The Great Controversy, page 658, says,

> "That the expression 'bottomless pit' represents the earth in a state of confusion and darkness is evident from other scriptures." The Great Controversy, 658.

The bottomless pit represents confusion and darkness.

Is Atheism confusion and darkness? Oh, yeah.

Is Catholicism confusion and darkness? Yeah. Catholicism, what is the name on her [the Mother of Harlot's] forehead? Babylon.

What is Babylon? Confusion.

Okay. So, just because one power is identified as coming out of the bottomless pit does not mean that they all are going to be the same power every time the bottomless pit is referenced.

The Great Controversy, page 268, says—and this is where Sister White is commenting on atheistic France.

> "'When they shall have finished [are finishing] their testimony.' The period when the two witnesses were to prophesy clothed in sackcloth ended in 1798. As they were approaching the termination of their work in obscurity, war was to be made upon them by the power represented as 'the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit.'"—

And what was the beast that ascended out of the bottomless pit in that history that is going to make war upon the Bible?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Atheistic France.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Atheistic France. Okay? But, it descends out of the bottomless pit. That does not mean that the bottomless pit represents Atheism.

Continuing on:

> —"In many of the nations of Europe the powers that ruled in Church and State had for centuries been controlled by Satan, through the medium of the papacy. But here is brought to view a"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A new manifestation.

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"a new manifestation of Satanic power." The Great Controversy, 268.

The bottomless pit represents a manifestation of satanic power. That is what the bottomless pit represents.

And, you know, I mentioned, one of the voices out there that is trying to downplay the significance of the last six verses of Daniel 11 is this Tim Rosenberg that has come out with a book identifying the King of the South in verse 40 is Islam, and it is just a lot of foolish reasoning; but, I mean, he is getting lifted up in Adventism as the man of the hour for the last six verses in Daniel 11; because, "Here is the presentation on these verses that we can listen to and it won't shake us from our carnal lethargy; so, we want to hear that one. It is soothing for our itching ears."

And when I mentioned that book the other day, a brother that had gone to school with him remembered being friends with him, remembered the parting of their personal experience was when NLP was introduced into Adventism.

Do you remember when NLP was introduced into Adventism?

Do you know what NLP is? It is hypnotism, how to hypnotize your Bible studies, or how to hypnotize your church family.

And this brother remembers that that is where he and Tim parted ways, because Tim got excited about going to learn how to teach NLP.

Review and Herald, July 21, 1851, says,

> "I told him that the Lord had shown me in vision that mesmerism"—

And what is mesmerism? It is what we call hypnotism today, because it was invented by—I do not know his first name, but his last name was Mesmer.

> —"I told him that the Lord had shown me in vision that mesmerism [HYPNOTISM] was from the Devil, from the bottomless pit, and that it would soon go there, with those who continued to use it." Review and Herald, July 21, 1851.

Something from the Devil is from the bottomless pit, and hypnotism (NLP) is from the Devil.

And when we talk about the Spiritual Formations that are being required to be studied in order to become an ordained Seventh-day Adventist pastor today, when we talk about that ruling that was implemented in September of 2001, and we think about the work of reform that we hope our leadership would accomplish by going and cleaning up that mess of Spiritual Formations, but it just seems to keep growing, that is just the tip of the iceberg. They were teaching hypnotism back in the '80s. If you are going to do a reform like Josiah, you need to go in and find all those pastors that learned how to teach NLP and apply NLP, and remove them from the Seventh-day Adventist Church payroll.

It is not just Spiritual Formations. It is not just ordaining women. It is not just teaching that there was seven periods instead of seven days of Creation. You cannot just argue against it. You have got to clean it out. Josiah would. Josiah would go in and tear those idols down and turn them into dust.

But, NLP (hypnotism), it has been in Adventism for 30 years and still going strong, and it comes from the bottomless pit; because, the bottomless pit represents a satanic power.

I listened to a tape one time from Loma Linda where Bill Loveless, the famous pastor, was teaching the pastors of the Southern California Conference how to hypnotize their congregations; and, those are the words that he used, and that is what he was doing.

So, evidently Sister White is incorrect or some kind of infiltration has come into Adventism; because, she says hypnotism comes from the Devil.

All right. Back to Revelation 17, verse 8.

What we are saying here is that this beast that was, and is not, is going to ascend, which is a characteristic of the Papacy and of Satan, out of the bottomless pit, meaning a new manifestation of satanic power.

And if you are of those like Hartland Institute that teaches that this power here is Atheism, based upon this phrase "the bottomless pit," then you have to go to Revelation 9:2

Revelation 9:2

And in Revelation 9, verse 2, it says,

> "[2]And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit." Revelation 9:2 (KJV).

Okay. If you are going to be consistent, if you are saying because in Revelation 11, verse 8, the bottomless pit is where atheistic France came from and, therefore, every time we see the words bottomless pit it is Atheism; if you are going to be consistent, then here in Revelation 9, verse 2, this is Atheism. And if you think in Revelation 9, verse 2, that the power that comes out of that bottomless pit is Atheism, then you destroy these [1843 and 1850] Charts; because, what came out of the bottomless pit in Revelation 9, verse 2, are the First, Second, and Third Woe. It is Islam.

So, if you are going to insist, and be consistent, about saying the bottomless pit represents Atheism, you are off the platform of Adventism. You are fighting against the Foundations.

PERDITION—2 THESSALONIANS 2:3

Okay. Back to Revelation 17, verse 8. We are trying to define what this beast that was, and is not, is, based upon the various clues that are in the verse.

This beast, whoever it is, is going to go into perdition.

2 Thessalonians 2:3

Let me see if I can find 2 Thessalonians faster this time. 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, verse 3:

> "[3]Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition: . . ." 2 Thessalonians 2:3 (KJV).

In this worship series, we have spent a lot of time on this verse.

What is the "falling away"? That is the time period of Pergamos. That is the time period of compromise, represented by Constantine that prepares the way for Thyatira; and, Thyatira is the Papacy, and the Papacy is the man of sin that does not come into history until there is a compromise in Christianity that prepares the way. There is a falling away first. Right? We have spent some time on this.

But, who is the man of sin in this verse?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is the son of perdition.

One of the characteristics of the Papacy is that it is going to go into perdition.

Revelation 17, verse 8 says, "The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit [A NEW SATANIC POWER], and go into perdition: . . . " The power that is going to go into perdition is the man of sin. He is the son of perdition.

So, so far every characteristic we have looked here for this beast that was, and is not, and shall ascend, is the Papacy.

THE LAMB'S BOOK—REVELATION 13:3, 4, 8

And the next clue in verse 8 is, it says, ". . . and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.""

Okay. Now, if you are a Seventh-day Adventist theologian, you "know" that the Old Testament is Hebrew and the New Testament is Greek and, therefore, you "really cannot bring them together because they are two different languages and two different historical locations for the production of those statements";—so, you have difficulty in bringing the Bible together into a whole—"but, if you just stick to one, the Hebrew, then you have a little bit more leeway; or, the Greek, a little bit more leeway."

But this particular point, we are not going to go anywhere but back to Revelation. We are going to let John, himself, define who this is.

According to John, where it says, ". . . and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is," who is it that is the power that is wondered after by those people whose names are not written in the Lamb's Book of Life?

Revelation 13:3

Go back to Revelation 13.

What I am saying is, is you really cannot use any theology to twist this out of its place, because it is the same book, it is the same vision. It is Revelation. John is defining what this phrase means in the very same book.

Verse 3 of Revelation 13 says,

> "[3]And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast." Revelation 13:3 (KJV).

Okay. That is Revelation 13:3.

And Revelation 17:8 says, ". . . and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder . . . ."

Is there any difference there: All the world will wonder after the beast and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder?

And those that are going to wonder are those whose names are not written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

And in Revelation 13, verse 4, it says,

> "[4]And they worshipped the dragon"—THEY WORSHIPPED THE DRAGON—"which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" Revelation 13:4 (KJV).

So, they are worshipping him.

And then in verse 8 it says, ". . . and they [ALL] that dwell on the earth shall wonder [WORSHIP HIM] whose"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Names.

BOTHER PIPPENGER: —"whose names are not written in the book of life [OF THE LAMB THAT WAS SLAIN] from the foundation of the world, . . ." So, those people that are wondering after it and worshipping the beast are those people that do not have their names in the Lamb's Book of Life.

And if you go back to Revelation 17, verse 8, one of the characteristics of the beast that was, and is not, and shall ascend is that they that dwell on the earth shall wonder whose names were not written in the book of life.

So, who is this beast, once again? The first beast of Revelation 13 is the Papacy.

Okay. Every characteristic in verse 8 is a characteristic of the Papacy.

THE BEAST THAT WAS, AND IS NOT, AND YET IS AND SHALL ASCEND

WAS AND IS NOT

It is pretty easy here to identify what it means by "The beast that thou sawest was and is not, and yet is." It was in this history, AD538 to 1798. The Papacy WAS. In 1798, it IS NOT. But it IS; it is going to ascend at the end of the world.

Okay. In your notes, skipping over the first quote from The Great Controversy, 266,

> "The periods here mentioned—'forty and two months,' and 'a thousand two hundred and threescore days'—are the same, alike representing the time in which the church of Christ was to suffer oppression from Rome. The 1260 years of papal supremacy began in A.D. 538, and would therefore terminate in 1798. At that time a French army entered Rome and made the pope a prisoner, and he died in exile. Though a new pope was soon afterward elected, the papal hierarchy has never since been able to wield the power which it before possessed." The Great Controversy, 266.

to the second quote.

SHALL ASCEND

> "The prophecy of Revelation 13 declares that the power represented by the beast with lamblike horns shall cause 'the earth and them which dwell therein' to worship the papacy—there symbolized by the beast 'like unto a leopard.' The beast with two horns is also to say 'to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast;' and, furthermore, it is to command all, 'both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond,' to receive the mark of the beast. Revelation 13:11–16. It has been shown that the United States is the power represented by the beast with lamblike horns, and that this prophecy will be fulfilled when the United States shall enforce Sunday observance, which Rome claims as the special acknowledgment of her supremacy. But in this homage > to the papacy the United States will not be alone. The influence of Rome in the countries that once acknowledged her dominion is still far from being destroyed. And prophecy foretells a restoration of her power. 'I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.' Verse 3. The infliction of the deadly wound points to the downfall of the papacy in 1798. After this, says the prophet, 'his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.' Paul states plainly that the 'man of sin' will continue until the second advent. 2 Thessalonians 2:3-8. To the very close of time he will carry forward the work of deception. And the revelator declares, also referring to the papacy: 'All that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life.' Revelation 13:8. In both the Old and the New World, the papacy will receive homage in the honor paid to the Sunday institution, that rests solely upon the authority of the Roman Church." The Great Controversy, 578.

"And prophecy foretells a restoration of her power," that is when she ascends. That is when she IS.

But she WAS NOT before that time.

Where was she before that time?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, she was not.

When she was in the wilderness, she WAS from 1798 until when? Until she commits fornication with Ahab [USA at Sunday Law], right?

Where is she here?

She WAS [prior to 1798], and she IS [at The Sunday Law].

Where is she here [between 1798 and The Sunday Law]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: She is forgotten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: She is forgotten.

Right?

THERE ARE SEVEN KINGS

REVELATION 17:10-11

Revelation 17, verse 10:

"[10]And there are seven kings:"—

A king in Bible prophecy is a kingdom. The Books of Daniel and Revelation are the same book.

In your notes, from Testimonies to Ministers, page 112, I am just going to read the last couple of sentences.

> "There is need of a much closer study of the word of God; especially should Daniel and the Revelation have attention as never before in the history of our work. We may have less to say in some lines, in regard to the Roman power and the papacy; but we should call attention to what the prophets and apostles have written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit of God. The Holy Spirit has so shaped matters, both in the giving of the prophecy and in the events portrayed, as to teach that the human agent is to be kept out of sight, hid in Christ, and that the Lord God of heaven and His law are to be exalted. Read the book of Daniel. Call up, point by point, the history of the kingdoms there represented." Testimonies to Ministers, 112.

The kingdoms of Bible prophecy are set forth in Daniel, chapter 2, repeated in chapter 7, and repeated in chapter 8, and the 11th of Daniel.

BABYLON, MEDO-PERSIA, GREECE, AND ROME

Education, page 179:

> "The crown removed from Israel passed successively to the kingdoms of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome. God says, 'It shall be no more, until He come whose right it is; and I will give it Him.'" Education, 179.

And the kingdoms of Bible prophecy are Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome, Papal Rome. Those are the kingdoms of Bible prophecy.

FIVE ARE FALLEN

BABYLON, MEDO-PERSIA, GREECE, PAGAN ROME, AND PAPAL ROME

Daniel 7:7, 8, 11, 12

And here in verse 10, it says,

—"[10]And there are seven kings:"—THERE ARE SEVEN KINGDOMS—"five are fallen"—

This is why verse 3 is so important.

FIVE KINGDOMS ARE FALLEN

	1	Babylon
	2	Medo-Persia
	3	Greece
	4	Pagan Rome
	5	Papal Rome
1798 ⟶	6	USA (the False Prophet)
	7	United Nations (the Dragon)
	8	The Vatican (the Beast)

Where is John at when he receives the vision of Revelation 17? John is in 1798.

In 1798—this is where John is at in history to receive this vision—how many have fallen? Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome, and Papal Rome.

ONE IS

—"[10]And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is,"—

What kingdom is in existence in 1798? That is your sixth kingdom, the U.S.A.

We went through this. We will go through it one more time for the doctor. Maybe he has not recognized this before.

I do not have it in this Bible. I cannot do it.

When was the Declaration of Independence?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1776.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

When was the Constitution?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It was in 1787.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In 1787.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: And it was ratified in 1798, after a 10-year period.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When was the Bill of Rights?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The same time period, 1793.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1793.

When did the countries of the world recognize the United States as a nation?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1798.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In 1798 diplomatic stations were set up for the United States.

So, in 1798, which is where John is, five are fallen, and one is.

What is the "one is." What is the sixth kingdom of Bible prophecy in 1798? It is the United States of America.

Isaiah 23

And what is the history of this kingdom? It is Isaiah 23, is it not? This is the period when the Papacy is forgotten. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

THE NEXT TO COME ON THE STAGE

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Sister White says of the United States, Spalding and Magan, page 1—

And, of course, these people that take the bottomless pit and say it is Atheism, they start arguing that the sixth kingdom is Atheism (Luminism), but that is not what Inspiration teaches. Okay? That is simply an attempt to undermine God's truth.

Spalding and Magan, page 1, says,

> "I saw that the two-horned beast had a dragon's mouth, and that his power was in his head, and that the decree would go out of his mouth. Then I saw the Mother of Harlots; that the mother was not the daughters, but separate and distinct from them. She has had her day, and it is past, and her daughters, the Protestant sects, were *the next to come on the stage"—

After the Papacy, the next to come on the stage is the Protestant sects.

> —"and act out the same mind that the mother had when she persecuted the saints. I saw that as the mother has been declining in power, the daughters had been growing, and soon they will exercise the power once exercised by the mother." Spalding and Magan, 1.

A NEW POWER

Signs of the Times, February 8, 1910:

> "At the time when the Papacy, robbed of its strength, was forced to desist from persecution, John beheld a new power coming up to echo the dragon's voice, and carry forward the same cruel and blasphemous work. This power, the last that is to wage war" against the church and the law of God, is represented by a beast with lamblike horns."—

"This power, the last that is to wage war . . . ," you need to see this; because, we are saying that the sixth kingdom is the United States, and that there is a seventh kingdom, which is these ten horns; and, the eighth is of the seven.

But here [See Figure No. 113], we are saying the sixth kingdom is the United States, and Sister White tells us that the United States is the last to wage war against God's people.

So, how is it that there are other sinister kingdoms that come after the United States, but yet the United States is the last to wage war?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They work together.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They work together.

You see, this is something that is not often recognized by Adventist students of prophecy.

This sequence here of 6, 7, and 8, it is not the sixth, seventh, and eighth kingdoms; it is the final kingdom, because the final kingdom is a threefold kingdom of the False Prophet (the United States), the Beast (the Papacy), and the Dragon (the United Nations.).

This is the story of the mystery woman and the beast, how the woman once again has a beast that carries her. It is about how the threefold union comes together.

So, even though we see the sequence in Revelation 17, verse 10, of 1 through 8, these last three are the last kingdom. They are the last to wage war against the saints, and it is a threefold kingdom.

This is why you need to understand Revelation 16. This is why verse 1 says, 'and one of the angels that poured out the seven vials' brought the message of Revelation 17 to them; because, you need to understand that Revelation 17 is telling about how the final kingdom of Bible prophecy comes together to persecute God's people, and it is a threefold kingdom. And, it is the United States, the United Nations, and the Vatican.

But, we have more to say about that tomorrow.

Anyway, I wanted you to take notes so it did not go over your head that when Sister White talks about the United States, she says it is the last power to wage war against the Church and the Law of God. It is represented as a beast with lamb-like horns.

> —"The beasts preceding it had risen from the sea; but this came up out of the earth, representing the peaceful rise of the nation which it symbolized—the United States." Signs of the Times, February 8, 1910.

ONLY ONE

And then in The Great Controversy, page 440—and this is the one that I do not know how these guys get around. They do not get around; they just lie.

> "What nation of the New World was in 1798 rising into power, giving promise of strength and greatness, and attracting the attention of the world? The application of the symbol admits of no question. One nation, and only one, meets the specifications of this prophecy; it points unmistakably to the United States of America." The Great Controversy, 440.

So, five have fallen, and one is. The one that that follows the Papacy is the United States.

And one is yet to come.

And we will take up "the one that is yet to come" tomorrow, because the one that is yet to come is, in one sense, the subject of Revelation 17.

Okay. What do I mean by that? I mean that we are now trying to show that the Books of Daniel and Revelation, they are the same book, and that the sequence of events that we have identified in the last six verses of Daniel 11 are the identical events that are identified in Revelation 16, 17, and 18; and, that they also are the identical events that are identified in Revelation 13.

But, in Daniel 11:40-45, the main subject is the King of the North (the Papacy), the Beast of Revelation 16.

And in Revelation 17, the same history, the same story, the main emphasis is not on the Beast. It is upon the Ten Horns [the Ten Kings (the Dragon)] that commit fornication with the Beast. It is the story about the role they play in this history.

And in Revelation 13, it is the same history but it is not about the Beast of the King of the North of Daniel 11 or the Dragon of Revelation 17. It is about the False Prophet of the United States.

Revelation 13, 17, and Daniel 11 are three identical lines of prophecy; but, one is emphasizing the role of the King of the North (the Beast), the other of the role of the United States (the False Prophet), and the other of the role of the United Nations (the Dragon). So, Revelation 17, as much as anything else, is dealing with the Ten Kings, which is the kingdom that is still yet to come that we will take up, Lord willing, tomorrow as we proceed.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we see and hear your approach. We hear your footsteps. We see the disasters. We hear of the earthquakes, the volcanoes, the hurricanes, the tornadoes, the famines, the political unrest, the wars, the rumors of wars. We see all these things and we know that your coming is imminent. We watch the rulings that are taking place in the Supreme Court of the United States. We watch the human makeup of the Congress of the United States as it is being prepared with men that will be willing to pass and enforce a Sunday Law, and we can see that we are on borrowed time. We wish to be about our business of giving the Final Warning Message first to your people and then to the world, but we need to be awakened. We ask that this study that we are doing here will be part of the awakening that you will accomplish among your people at this time. We thank you for this study this morning, and we set before you this workday and ask that you will keep us safe and let us do what we do for your glory and honor, and continue to bless the productions of the DVD and the LiveStreaming. We pray in Jesus's name, and we also pray that you will be with our friends in Fort Smith today that are having this special interview and let your will be done there as well. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #60

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together this morning to once again study your Word and start our day together with you. We ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that as we consider these things our mind would be enlightened in agreement with your will. We want to receive the Latter Rain. We would ask that you would pour it out upon us by opening our understanding even further concerning the last six verses of Daniel 11 and 1989, and verse 40, and the Dirt Brush Man. We ask that you would overrule our humanity, both myself as the speaker and those that will be listening to these things, that we would hear and present the message as you see fit. We thank you for allowing our Brother to become a permanent resident. And, as we take up our study of your Word this morning, we ask that you would bless our study. In Jesus's name, amen.

DANIEL AND REVELATION

THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY
ELIJAH
THEME
REPETITION OF HISTORY
DANIEL'S CONNECTION WITH REVELATION
STRUCTURE

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are dealing with 1989; Daniel 11, verse 40, the collapse of the Soviet Union, identifying that that is the end of the scattering of William Miller's dream, the time when the Dirt Brush Man begins to clean house in Adventism, the time when the Lion of the tribe of Judah begins to unseal the progressive truths that produce the Everlasting Gospel among this final generation.

We went through the first part of Revelation 17 yesterday morning.

We are making an argument now that one of the reasons that what we suggested about Daniel 11, verses 40 to 45, one of the reasons that it is correct, is that it connects so perfectly with the Book of Revelation.

I am not sure how to illustrate this; but, in 1798, verse 40 of Daniel 11 begins.

Verse 41 of Daniel 11 is The Sunday Law in the U.S.A.

We have pointed out that the history of verse 40 that begins in 1798 and ends at verse 41 at The Sunday Law is the same history as Revelation 13:11.

This is Daniel 11 [constructing the parallel timelines on the whiteboard], verse 40, and verse 41.

This is Revelation 13, verse 11. At the beginning of verse 11, in Revelation 13, the United States is the lamb. By the end of the verse he is speaking as a dragon.

We have noted that when John received the vision of Revelation 13, Sister White says that the time when the Papacy was robbed of its strength, John beheld a new power coming up out of the Earth to echo the Dragon's voice.

So, John beholds the lamb-like beast (the United States) of Revelation 13 coming up out of the Earth in 1798; and, then, of course, he speaks as a Dragon at The Sunday Law.

We are identifying this history here also as Isaiah 23, because during this history Tyre is forgotten for 70 years, as the days of one king. This is 70 prophetic years, Tyre is forgotten; and, Tyre is the one that goes out and commits fornication with all the kings of the Earth. It is the Papacy.

So, we have these three lines of prophecy going.

And in Revelation 13 we have looked at before, that in verse 13 of Revelation 13, we see Satan (the United States) calling fire down out of heaven to deceive the whole world for the purpose of setting up an image of the beast.

And by verse 15, the United States provides the power for that image of the beast to speak; and, we have discussed this in the worships more than once, and we are going to try pulling it together here now into these lines.

When the United States speaks as a dragon in verse 11 of Revelation 13 and then it begins to deceive the whole world, it insists that an image of the beast is set up here in verse 14. It empowers it in verse 15. And the only definition of the image of the beast in the Spirit of Prophecy is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship.

So, in verse 14 when the United States commands the whole world—go to Revelation 13:14, speaking of the United States, it says,

> "[14]And [THE UNITED STATES] deceiveth them that dwell on the earth"—

This is not Europe. This is the whole Earth.

> —"by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. [15]And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed." Revelation 13:14-15 (KJV).

Therefore, there are two images of the beast in Revelation 13. One of them is specifically marked, which we just read in verses 14 and 15; but, we took time previously, more than once, to show that The Sunday Law is simply the proof that the image of the beast has been formed in the United States. In order for the United States to pass a Sunday Law, the Protestants of the United States have to come into a position where they are controlling the Government of the United States, where church and state are together, and it is where the church (the Protestants) is controlling the Government.

So, when the United States speaks as a dragon, that is The Sunday Law, but it is also proving that the image of the beast has been formed in the United States. So, even though it is not specifically marked in verse 11, there is an image of the beast there; and, then the second image of the beast in Revelation 13 is verses 13 and 14. But, this one is for the entire world, and by definition it means there has to be a World Government, a world political apparatus, and a World Church.

We have read quotes here in this worship study that it was a masterpiece of Satan's deception to seat himself upon the throne of the Earth to create the Catholic Church. He needed to have a worldwide church prepared so when he returns and personates Christ, he has a church structure that he can take control of to do his bidding.

And along that same line, if Satan is going to impact the whole world, he has to have a One World Government.

So, whether Adventists are familiar with it or not, prophecy teaches a One World Government at the end of the world. Right here [waymark of Revelation 13:14 in Figure No. 114] is the One World Government.

In Daniel 11, verses 42 and 43, we have identified that Egypt is the world and this is where the Papacy conquers the world. So, this is lining up with verses 14 and 15 of Revelation 13.

Revelation 13, Daniel 11:40-45, identical sequence of events.

In the story of Tyre, when the United States comes into the relationship that it does with the Papacy at The Sunday Law that the period of the United States being the sixth kingdom of Bible prophecy ends.

We have pointed out here that when the United States passes The Sunday Law, it also unites with the Dragon, not only the Papacy, and the Dragon being the Ten Kings. So, there is a very rapid movement from The Sunday Law in the United States to the setting up of the One World Government.

So, here in Tyre, the days of one king (the 70 years), this is from 1798 when the United States begins as a lamb, begins its time period as the sixth kingdom of Bible prophecy, until it is overthrown at The Sunday Law by the Papacy. And then immediately thereafter, the Papacy begins to commit fornication with the other kings of the Earth, and that is what the last few verses of Isaiah 23 tell us, too. It brings us right down to here [the third waymark of Isaiah 23].

Yesterday we began to look at the fact that when John receives the vision of Revelation 17, he is carried away to the wilderness, in a time period where the Papacy has already persecuted. She is drunk with the blood of the martyrs, and where she has already become the Mother of Harlots. Therefore, John is carried down to the end of the 1260 years of Papal rule. He is carried to 1798, and then he is given a riddle about seven kings: Five have fallen, and one is. The one king that is, in 1798, is the United States. It continues to be a kingdom until The Sunday Law, at which point it unites with the Papacy and the Dragon power and begins to deceive the world, to force the world to set up the One World Government.

This is the final kingdom of Bible prophecy in terms of the enemies of God's people; and, we know that if you are going to understand Revelation 17—this is the line of Revelation 17 here [Figure No. 115]—that it has to be understood in terms of Revelation 16; because, one of the angel's from Revelation 16 is the one that brought the message to John in Revelation 17.

And we are arguing that the message that needs to be recognized in Revelation 17 that is connected with Revelation 16 is the message in Revelation 16 concerning the threefold union (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet), and that Revelation 17 is telling us how the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet come together as the final kingdom of Bible prophecy.

And we are now back to our notes.

We went through and showed the five that are fallen: Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome, and Papal Rome.

The ONE IS, is the United States.

The final kingdom of Bible prophecy that is going to persecute God's people is the sixth kingdom. The United States, the United Nations, and the Papacy make up this sixth kingdom.

Let us put this up as well.

THE SIXTH KINGDOM

	1	Babylon
	2	Medo-Persia
	3	Greece
	4	Pagan Rome
	5	Papal Rome	Rev 16
1798 →	6	USA	(the False Prophet)
	7	ΔΔΔΔΔΔΔΔΔΔ	(the Dragon)
	8	The Papacy	(the Beast)

(1) Babylon; (2) Medo-Persia; (3) Greece; (4) Pagan Rome; (5) Papal Rome; (6) the United States: this is 1798 to where John was carried away.

Now, we are going to deal with the seventh and the eighth, although we have dealt with the eighth pretty thoroughly in the past.

ONE IS YET TO COME

Revelation 17:12

WHEN HE COMETH, HE MUST CONTINUE A SHORT SPACE—REVELATION 17:10-11

Okay. Revelation 17, verse 12—let us start in verse 10. Verse 10, it says,

> "[10]And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come;"—

So, five are fallen. They are in past history.

Where is John?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In 1798.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, FIVE ARE FALLEN before 1798; ONE IS in 1798, that is the United States; and THE OTHER IS NOT YET COME.

Whoever the seventh kingdom is, it is not in the history of 1798. It is still future to that history.

> —"and when he cometh, he must continue a short space." Revelation 17:10 (KJV).

And when the seventh kingdom comes, he is only going to continue a short space. That is one of the characteristics of the seventh kingdom. He continues a short space.

ONE HOUR KINGS—REVELATION 17:12

Dropping to verse 12, it says,

> "[12]And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet;"—

Of these seven kingdoms, which in 1798 has received no kingdom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The seventh.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The seventh has not yet come.

So, in the grammatical structure of verses 10 and 12, if you look carefully, the seventh kingdom, no matter who it is, it is the ten horns. Whoever the ten horns are, by the grammar of it—[marks symbolically the seventh kingdom upon the whiteboard]—whoever the seventh kingdom is, it is the ten horns; because, they are the ones that have not come yet.

And verse 12 says,

> —"[12]And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet, but receive power as kings one hour with the beast." Revelation 17:12 (KJV).

What is one hour?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A short space.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A short space. This connects with verse 10.

Of course, some of you may want to apply time prophecy here, but time is no longer after 1844. And if you are going to be among those that are wrapped up in the fanaticism of reapplying time prophecy like Amazing Facts and Doug Batchelor, like many of these guys in Adventism that are famous personalities—who is the guy that was (His name just ran through my mind. He trained John Osborne)—Kenneth Cox, and these guys that like to reapply time prophecy, here they would have one hour. The ten horns are going to rule for one hour with the Beast, so they would be looking for a time prophecy.

But, if you are going to be consistent, this Greek word hour—go back to Revelation 14.

Revelation 14, verse 7, says,

> "[7]Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: . . ." Revelation 14:7 (KJV).

This is the same Greek word, "the hour of his judgment is come."

So, how long does His Judgment lasts, just one hour? Because, if it did, His Judgment ended a long time ago. The Judgment finished and we are all living in some kind of—I do not know what we would be living in.

This word hour is not a time prophecy. It is a period [of time]. There is going to be a period, a short space, where the Papacy is going to rule over the Ten Kings.

And who is the premier king of the Ten Kings? Ahab (the United States).

RECEIVE POWER AND GIVE THEIR KINGDOM AND POWER TO THE BEAST—REVELATION 17:12, 13, 17

Verse 13 [of Revelation 17] says,

> "[13]These have one mind,""—

What would that mean? They are in agreement.

> —"and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. [14]These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful." Revelation 17:13-14 (KJV).

And verse 15 defines the waters as the peoples of the world.

> "[15]And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues." Revelation 17:15 (KJV).

And verse 16 says,

> "[16]And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. [17]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. [18]And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth." Revelation 17:13-18 (KJV).

So, here we are told that the Papacy is reigning over the kings of the Earth. She is riding upon them, she is riding upon them.

And, although, without a doubt, the subject of Revelation 17 is the judgment of the Papacy, in reality, the story here in Revelation 17 is the relationship of the Ten Kings with the Papacy. They are the ones that are going to make war. They are going to persecute. They are going to be the hands-on persecution machine. The Papacy is going to sit back in Rome and encourage them onward; but, it is the civil power that does the persecution.

Ultimately, the Ten Kings are going to turn and deliver judgment on the Papacy. They are going to burn her with fire and eat her flesh. They are going to be in agreement with the Papacy, but they are going to be ruled over by the Papacy.

This here, this relationship of the Ten Kings and the Papacy, this [points to the third waymark of Daniel 11:14 in Figure No. 114], is the image of the beast in Revelation 13. It [the One World Government] is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship

This [relationship of the Ten Kings and the Papacy] is verses 42 and 43 of Daniel 11. This is when the King of the North (the Papacy) conquers the entire world (Egypt: the Ten Kings).

This here [referring to Figure No. 114] is one of the strongest arguments for Daniel 11:40-45. This is not a close "parallel" to Daniel 11:40-45. Revelation 13 and Revelation 17, they are absolutely point on, point by point parallels that expand the whole picture that is being told.

Okay. To our notes.

THE BEAST IS THE EIGHTH—REVELATION 17:11

We will deal with the Beast now. And, we have dealt with this more than once in this worship series.

Verse 11 says,

> "[11]And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition." Revelation 17:11 (KJV).

We went through the kingdoms of history—Assyria, Egypt, Israel, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome, Papal Rome—and we found that in the kingdoms of history, which is different than the kingdoms of Bible prophecy, that Papal Rome comes up eighth and is of the seven.

And, we found that in Daniel 7, Pagan Rome disintegrates into ten kingdoms, and then there are three horns removed in order for the Papacy to come up eighth; but, it comes up in one of those countries that come up in Italy, so it is of the seven.

And in Daniel 8, we counted the horns, from the Medes and the Persians to the Greeks, until Rome comes into this story, and we found that Pagan Rome in Daniel 8 comes up eighth and is of the seven.

Then we went to Revelation 13, where the beast had seven heads, and one of the heads was wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. So, we have seen those seven heads on the beast in Revelation 13 that the Papacy there when it is healed comes up eighth and is of the seven.

So, when you get to verse 11 of Revelation 17, it says, "And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition," that is all you need to know. You know that the beast that comes up eighth and is of the seven is always Rome.

But, yesterday we went through the beast that was, and is not, in verse 8; and, we went through every characteristic in verse 8, and every characteristic in verse 8 about the beast that was, and is not, is the Papacy because it is the beast that ascends. That is one of the characteristics of the Papacy. Daniel 11:40, "come against him like a whirlwind," a mighty ascendency. Satan, who the Papacy is the representative of, wants to ascend to the Throne of God. He wants to lift himself up.

He comes out of the bottomless pit, and the bottomless pit in Bible prophecy means a new manifestation of satanic power, darkness, and confusion. And this is modern Rome. This is Papal Rome of old, only here at the end of the world it is modern Rome. It is going to have a One World Government under its control, not just Europe. It is the power that is defined as going into perdition, and in 2 Thessalonians 2:3, the man of sin is the son of perdition.

And, it is the beast that was, and is not. It is the beast that all those on the Earth shall wonder after whose names are not written in the Lamb's Book of Life, and we looked at Revelation 13 where the first beast, the Papacy, is the beast that the whole world will wonder after whose names are not written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

So, we looked at every characteristic of the beast that was, and is not, yesterday in verse 8 and found it is Papacy, Papacy, Papacy.

So, when we get to verse 11 and it says, "And the beast that was, and is not," that is the Papacy; but, it adds the line, "even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition," it is giving you the second line that it always comes up eighth, and it is of the seven.

So, here [Figure No. 116A], this [the 8th kingdom] is modern Rome. I am just going to put the "Papacy." All right?

And what Revelation 17 is telling us, it begins by giving us the kingdoms of Bible prophecy: the first, Babylon; the second, Medo-Persia; the third, Greece; the fourth, Pagan Rome; the fifth, Papal Rome. And of these, the eighth is of the seven.

That means that this one here [the eighth, Papacy], it must of these [1 through 7]; and, sure enough, it is this one [the fifth, Papal Rome], of these. It is No. 5, and this is the one that received the deadly wound.

And the No. 8, what does the No. 8 represent in Bible prophecy? Resurrection. It is in the Eighth Millennium when the Earth is going to be made new.

It was on the eighth day—

And we just heard on the news in the past couple of days that the worldly doctors have confirmed—they did not say all the reasons why, but I do not need to know all the reasons why—that it is still beneficial to circumcise your children—okay?—your boys. And Biblically you did it on the eighth day.

The reason they are saying it today is because it is a preventive against STDs (Sexually Transmitted Diseases).

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Or infections.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Or infections.

But, on the eighth day, the Hebrews were to circumcise their sons, and circumcision was replaced in the Christian Dispensation with what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Baptism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Baptism.

And what is baptism a symbol of?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Resurrection.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Resurrection. Okay? You go into the watery grave and you are resurrected into a newness of life.

So, this circumcision, this is a symbol of resurrection.

And, you had eight people go from the Antediluvian World to the New World in the ark. They were resurrected through the waters; and, of course, the Bible tells us that the waters of the Flood were as if a baptism.

So, the power that is resurrected here [at the eighth, the Papacy]—this is the third argument that this is the Papacy, by the way, if you are keeping track; the first is verse 8. Every characteristic of verse 8 is that it is the Papacy. The second [argument] is that Rome always comes up eighth and is of the seven; and, a third argument that seems probably a little bit not as significant as some is that "8" is the symbol of resurrection.

This [No. 5 in Figure 116A] is the Papacy receiving the deadly wound; this [No. 8, the Papacy] is the deadly wound being healed.

But, we are arguing that in verse 1 of Revelation 17, one of the angels that brought the message to John brought the seven vials. And we are saying that the connection with Revelation 16 is that it is telling the story about these three players: the False Prophet [No. 6], the Dragon [No. 7], and the Beast [No. 8]. This is Revelation 16.

But, what else is this, in this story? Where do we see the story of these three players: the False Prophet, the Dragon, and the Beast?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In Elijah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You see it in Elijah.

But, what I am looking for is right here in Daniel 11:40. Right here is verse 40 [see Figure No. 114]. You see the King of the South, you have the King of the North, and you have the ships and horsemen.

Who is the ships and horsemen?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The False Prophet.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The False Prophet (the U.S.A.)

Who is the King of the North? The Papacy.

Who is the King of the South? The Dragon.

So, in verse 40 of Daniel 11, you have the beginnings of the movement of these three powers to lead the world to Armageddon; and, that movement to Armageddon is identified in Revelation 16. And here in these last three kingdoms of the seven kingdoms and an eighth, in Revelation 17, we have these three powers bringing the world to Armageddon. They are bringing the world to the sixth kingdom of Bible prophecy.

The last kingdom of Bible prophecy—and sometimes I do not know why this is hard for—I guess I know why it is hard. It is kind of a break in the sequence of things. You are saying these are the kingdoms of Bible prophecy—and I am saying that and they are—Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome, Papal Rome. So, you have five witnesses, in sequential order; but, when you get to 6, 7, and 8, what I am saying is that it is not the sixth, seventh, and eighth kingdom. It is the sixth and final kingdom. It is the breakdown on how the final kingdom comes together. It is another witness on how the United States (the False Prophet) forces the world to accept the relationship of the Dragon and the Beast in verses 14 and 15 of Revelation 13. It is the King of the North conquering Egypt in verses 42 and 43.

So, these are not the sixth, seventh, and eighth kingdoms. This is simply how, the story of how, the sixth and final kingdom comes together.

So, in reality, this [No. 6 (the U.S.A.)] is one-third of the sixth kingdom.

This [No. 7 (the Dragon)] is one-third of the sixth kingdom.

And this [No. 8 (the Beast)] is one-third of the sixth kingdom.

The sixth kingdom is the kingdom that is marked with "666." It is the final kingdom.

THE TEN HORNS ARE TEN KINGS—REVELATION 17:13

Now, on the rest of your notes, we have looked at these before. I did not intend to read through all these. I intend to remind us of these.

We are now going to look a little bit at the Dragon, and we will start with Testimonies to Ministers, pages 38-39, which we have referred to over and over again; but, I want to read it all the way through this time, to make another point.

> "In the scene representing the work of Christ for us, and the determined accusation of Satan against us, Joshua stands as the high priest, and makes request in behalf of God's commandment-keeping people."—

What scenes are those? That is Zechariah, chapter 3, Joshua and the Angel. Sister White is talking about Zechariah, chapter 3.

And more than once at one place she says—and I think it might even be in our notes—that Zechariah, chapter 3, speaks with peculiar force to the closing work.

And we defined, whether you caught it or not, the closing work of Christ's ministry as the time period where he is either blotting out our sins or blotting out our names. It is the Judgment of the Living.

> —"In the scene representing the work of Christ for us, and the determined accusation of Satan against us, Joshua stands as the high priest, and makes request in behalf of God's commandment-keeping people. At the same time Satan represents the people of God as great sinners, and presents before God the list of sins he has tempted them to commit through their lifetime, and urges that because of their transgressions, they be given into his hands to destroy. He urges that they should not be protected by ministering angels against the confederacy of evil."—

These three powers here in Bible prophecy [the sixth kingdom] are "the confederacy of evil." Sister White speaks about this evil confederacy repeatedly, and so does the Bible.

So, this is telling you, if you are paying close attention, that this work of Joshua and the Angel is taking place at a time period when these three players are in existence. The confederacy of evil is here. It is not back in 1492 when Columbus sailed the blue, because the United States was not even in existence as a power in prophecy at that point, so it could not be the False Prophet there. The confederacy of evil is the confederacy that is set up at the end of the world, in our day and age. It is being set up right now.

> —"He [SATAN] is full of anger because he cannot bind the people of God into bundles with the world, to render to him complete allegiance. Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints--with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus."—

Now, the Dragon we have pointed out moves as history proceeds. The Papacy, the United States, is always in the same place, but the Dragon moves to different geographical areas; and, here this is telling us who the Dragon is in the time of The Sunday Law at the end of the world, because it just referenced The Sunday Law crisis, the persecution against those who keep the commandments of God.

And the Dragon power here at the end of the world is a confederacy of political leaders (kings, governors, and rulers). It is the United Nations.

It is just incredible to me that Seventh-day Adventists stumble over identifying the Dragon power as the United Nations.

Look here, [referencing Figure No. 114], in Revelation 13:14, the United States commands the entire world. That is what it says, 'them that dwell on the Earth to make an image to the Beast,' the Earth, the entire world.

We are going to read a quote here in a minute where Sister White says 'universal, these are of one mind.' This is a universal confederacy; it is a One World Government.

So, here in Revelation 13 you see the whole world impacted by an image of the beast, which means a World Church and a World State. That is the only thing it can be. When you put the Spirit of Prophecy together with verses 14 and 15, it means a One World Government.

Okay. So, when people are struggling over this, and in Daniel 11:40-45 Egypt is the most simplest symbol in there, it is the whole world. So, if you do not think the United Nations is the One World Government, where is the other One World Government that is in competition right now for the United Nations?

Do you think they are going to start one tomorrow, "Oh, we are going to start a new One World Government, and we are going to outdo the United Nations." Do you think there is time for that? There is only one world civil apparatus available to choose from, but Seventh-day Adventists, they do not want to lay their fingers on the United Nations in saying, "This is the Dragon power." Why? Because, they are Laodiceans; they have not been studying the Word of God. That is where the majority of them are at, that do not want to say it.

But, there is another reason why: Because, we are working with the United Nations as Seventh-day Adventists. ADRA, our social work that we do in the world, is under the guidelines of the United Nations. We do what they tell us to do. So, it is pretty hard to—what does the Bible say, "Can two walk together unless they be agreed"? You cannot really be agreed with someone if you are going to identify them as the Dragon. Okay? So, that is a reason that we do not want to identify the United Nations as a dragon as well.

But, Brothers and Sisters, it is easy as pie, if you want to understand.

The last sentence from that paragraph:

> —"In their enmity"—THESE GLOBALISTS—"In their enmity against the people of God, they show themselves guilty also of the choice of Barabbas instead of Christ."—

When does Barabbas come upon the scene; when does Barabbas show up? At The Sunday Law. Okay? At The Sunday Law.

Here is The Sunday Law in the United States [See Figure No. 114, Isaiah 23 parallel timeline]. We have dealt with this from several lines. Barabbas is going to show up.

Now, notice, it is saying that these kings, governors, and rulers, they are going to be the one that make war with Christ. Right? That is verse 14 of Revelation 17. Right?

But, we read yesterday or the day before, we read recently: Who is the last power to wage war against God's people?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States.

So, you have to mark that right here at The Sunday Law, the United States, just as Sister White says, it unites with the Dragon. It becomes the Dragon power, and it is going to lead out in the persecution. It becomes Ahab, because it is the first one to commit fornication with Jezebel.

So, here, my brother put in the story of Elijah. This is the line of Elijah.

This is the three and a half years drought, which brings you to 1798.

Here is The Sunday Law. In the history of the Millerites, that would be October 22, 1844; but, in our history at the end of the world, it is The Sunday Law.

And what is the story of Elijah telling us, what is it teaching us?

It is probably teaching us many, many, many things, but what we have been dwelling on in this worship series is that it is in this confrontation at Carmel—this [The Sunday Law] is the confrontation at Carmel in the story of Elijah—that the distinction between the true [prophet] and the false prophet is made. In the Millerite History, the distinction was being made between Millerite Adventism, which was the true prophet, and apostate Protestantism, which rejected the First Angel's Message and began to fulfill their role as the false prophet.

But, in our history, what is going on here at Carmel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The ensign is being lifted up.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is the ensign being lifted up. This is where the wise virgins of Adventism in here are being lifted up. This is the ensign.

And, 'the people of the world can only be warned by seeing men and women with the Seal of God upon them.' They can only be warned by seeing the ensign.

And, the people of the world are going to have two choices. The ensign, which is Christ; because, the ensign perfectly reflects the character of Christ. Right?

What is their other choice?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To choose Barabbas.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Barabbas, right here; the same point in time.

Okay. It is telling you that these kings, governors, and rulers at another level they are Barabbas.

Continuing on:

> —"God has a controversy with the world. When the judgment shall sit, and the books shall be opened, He has an awful account to settle, which would now make the world fear and tremble were men not blinded and bewitched by satanic delusions and deceptions. God will call the world to account for the death of His only-begotten Son, whom to all intents and purposes the world has crucified afresh, and put to open shame in the persecution of His people."—

Okay. What is that? What is that telling us?

It is telling us that verse 14 of Revelation 17, which says, "These [THE TEN KINGS] shall make war with the Lamb." Okay. This is the blood bath that is coming.

—"The world has rejected Christ in the person of His saints, has refused His messages in the refusal of the messages of prophets, apostles, and messengers. They have rejected those who have been colaborers with Christ, and for this they will have to render an account." Testimonies to Ministers, 38–39.

So, this takes place in the closing scenes of the Investigative Judgment, as symbolized in Zechariah, chapter 3, in the story of Joshua and the Angel.

JOSHUA AND THE ANGEL

And in the next quote from Prophets and Kings, pages 586 – 588:

"In his own strength, man cannot meet the charges of the enemy. In sin-stained garments, confessing his guilt, he stands before God. But Jesus, our Advocate, presents an effectual plea in behalf of all who by repentance and faith have committed the keeping of their souls to Him. He pleads their cause, and by the mighty arguments of Calvary, vanquishes their accuser. His perfect obedience to God's law has given Him all power in heaven and in earth, and He claims from His Father mercy and reconciliation for guilty man. To the accuser of His people He declares: 'The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan. These are the purchase of My blood, brands plucked from the burning.' And to those who rely on Him in faith, He gives the assurance, 'Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.' Zechariah 3:4.

"All who have put on the robe of Christ's righteousness will stand before Him as chosen and faithful and true. Satan has no power to pluck them out of the hand of the Saviour. Not one soul who in penitence and faith has claimed His protection will Christ permit to pass under the enemy's power. His word is pledged: 'Let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he shall make peace with Me.' Isaiah 27:5. The promise given to Joshua is given to all: 'If thou wilt keep My charge, . . . I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.' Zechariah 3:7. Angels of God will walk on either side of them, even in this world, and they will stand at last among the angels that surround the throne of God."—

In the third paragraph, it says,

—"Zechariah's vision of Joshua and the Angel applies with peculiar force to the experience of God's people in the closing scenes of the great day of atonement."—

What I am wanting you to see, if you will, is this controversy with the Ten Kings takes place in the Judgment of the Living, when the Judgment of the Living is going on. And the logic is very easy to see, if you believe that there is a close of probation coming. Some Adventists kind of really do not believe that. But, if you believe there is a close of probation coming, then you know that in this history when the ensign is being lifted up that probation has already closed for Adventism, and the world is choosing between the ensign [Christ] and Barabbas, and then Michael is going to stand up down here at the end of the world.

During this time period when the Ten Kings are active in persecution, we are in the Judgment of the Living.

> —"The remnant church will then be brought into great trial and distress. Those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus will feel the ire of the dragon and his hosts. Satan numbers the world as his subjects; he has gained control even of many professing Christians. But here is a little company who are resisting his supremacy. If he could blot them from the earth, his triumph would be complete. As he influenced the heathen nations to destroy Israel, so in the near future he will stir up the wicked powers of earth to destroy the people of God. Men will be required to render obedience to human edicts in violation of the divine law.
> "Those who are true to God will be menaced, denounced, proscribed. They will be 'betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends,' even unto death. Luke 21:16. Their only hope is in the mercy of God; their only defense will be prayer. As Joshua pleaded before the Angel, so the remnant church, with brokenness of heart and unfaltering faith, will plead for pardon and deliverance through Jesus, their Advocate. They are fully conscious of the sinfulness of their lives, they see their weakness and unworthiness; and they are ready to despair." Prophets and Kings, 586–588.

Isaiah 27:1-9; Ezekiel 27; Revelation 18

Go to Isaiah 27. Beginning at verse 1, it says,

> "[1]In that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword"—

What is the Lord's great and strong sword?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: His Word.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: His Word.

In that day, through His prophetic Word, the Lord > —"shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the [MIDST OF THE] sea."—

So, in this day, whatever "that day" is that is being discussed, we are seeing the judgment of the Dragon, the judgment of the Ten Kings.

Perhaps "leviathan" is Satan here; he is going to be punished. But He is going to slay the dragon that is in the sea. He is going to bring down the United Nations that is in the world. They [the Ten Kings (the United Nations) and Satan] are both the Dragon power.

But, verse 2 says,

> —"[2]In that day"—

We are still unsure what day that is.

—"sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine. [3]I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day. [4]Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together. [5]Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me. [6]He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit."—

What causes Israel to blossom and bud?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Latter Rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Latter Rain.

So, what day is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Day of the Latter Rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is the Latter Rain.

And in this time period of the Latter Rain, the Dragon, the Ten Kings are judged.

In the time period of the Judgment of the Living, which is the time period of the Latter Rain, the Dragon power, the Ten Kings are fulfilling their prophetic role.

Verse 7:

—"[7]Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him? [8]In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind"—

What is His rough wind? That is the Four Winds of Strife in Revelation 7. Sister White tells us these winds are an angry horse. But, —"he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind."—

There is a Day of the East Wind, and the Day of the East Wind is what marks the beginning of the Latter Rain, marks the beginning of the Judgment of the Living. The Day of the East Wind is 9/11 [September 11, 2001]. It is the time period when Islam reenters history in the Third Woe and is immediately restrained.

When did we study this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, no, no, no. We studied this here recently. I think it is the one we studied probably on Sunday.

I am saying that, because we just realized that Sunday, three days ago or four days ago, however you count it, we did not get it recorded and we have to re-record it. I think it was Sunday that we dealt with the East wind. What a bummer! It is hard to go back through and redo these thoughts. But, okay.

". . . in the day of the east wind," 9/11, in here, precedes The Sunday Law, marks the beginning of the Latter Rain, marks the time period when the Dragon power is going to come into history and begin its work of persecution.

—"[9]By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up." Isaiah 27:1-9 (KJV).

Ezekiel 27:

"[1]The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, [2]Now, thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus; [3]And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty. [4]Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty. [5]They have made all thy ship boards of fir trees of Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee. [6]Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim. [7]Fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee. [8]The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots. [9]The ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise. [10]They of Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness. [11]The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect. [12]Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs. [13]Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market. [14]They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules. [15]The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony. [16]Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate. [17]Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm. [18]Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool. [19]Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market. [20]Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots. [21]Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants. [22]The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. [23]Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants. [24]These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise. [25]The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

"[26]Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas. [27]Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin. [28]The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots. [29]And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land; [30]And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: [31]And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing. [32]And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea? [33]When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise. [34]In the time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall. [35]All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance. [36]The merchants among the people shall hiss at thee; thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt be any more." Ezekiel 27 (KJV).

"[1]And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. [2]And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. [3]For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. [4]And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. [5]For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. [6]Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. [7]How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. [8]Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. [9]And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, [10]Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. [11]And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: [12]The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, [13]And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. [14]And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. [15]The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, [16]And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! [17]For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, [18]And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city! [19]And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. [20]Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. [21]And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. [22]And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; [23]And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. [24]And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Revelation 18 (KJV).

TEN

Okay. The next page of your notes, "Ten." These Ten Kings, we have gone over this before.

You have The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, beginning at page 1168.

I know this is a real hard one for Seventh-day Adventists, a real hard one. You become an Adventist, whenever you become an Adventist in your own personal experience, and you go through the evangelistic series and you learn what Adventists believe about the Sabbath, the state of the dead, Daniel 2, Daniel 7, Daniel 8, and then you settle down to the culture of Adventism, and then you study no more. And what you remember is that Daniel 2 is Daniel 2 and you have not studied it very much at all.

So, when someone reads a Spirit of Prophecy quote such as this one, it kind of shakes your understanding because you were not taught that when you came in. Speaking of Daniel 2, Sister White says Daniel 2 represents "the mingling of churchcraft and statecraft" in iron and clay. She says,

> "We have come to a time when God's sacred work is represented by the feet of the image in which the iron was mixed with the miry clay. God has a people, a chosen people, whose discernment must be sanctified, who must not become unholy by laying upon the foundation wood, hay, and stubble. Every soul who is loyal to the commandments of God will see that the distinguishing feature of our faith is the seventh-day Sabbath. If the government would honor the Sabbath as God has commanded, it would stand in the strength of God and in defense of the faith once delivered to the saints. But statesmen will uphold the spurious sabbath, and will mingle their religious faith with the observance of this child of the papacy, placing it above the Sabbath which the Lord has sanctified and blessed, setting it apart for man to keep holy, as a sign between Him and His people to a thousand generations. The mingling of churchcraft and statecraft is represented by the iron and the clay. This union is weakening all the power of the churches. This investing the church with the power of the state will bring evil results. Men have almost passed the point of God's forbearance. They have invested their strength in politics, and have united with the papacy. But the time will come when God will punish those who have made void His law, and their evil work will recoil upon themselves." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, 1168–1169.

And you were taught that down here the feet of this image [referring to the 1843 Chart], this is Pagan Rome that disintegrates into ten kingdoms in Daniel, chapter 7. And for Sister White to be saying that we have now come to this time, and she said it in her lifetime, that is hundreds of years after Pagan Rome. She is putting a different application on Daniel 2 than you were taught. And she is saying the iron and clay down here represents the combination of church and state at the end of the world.

What does it represent? It represents the image of the beast in Revelation 14, verses 14 and 15. It represents Revelation 17:17, when the Ten Kings agree to give their kingdom to the Papacy at the end of the world. It represents verses 42 and 43 of Daniel 11, when the King of the North conquers Egypt. At the end of the world the iron and clay represents a mingling of churchcraft and statecraft that takes place.

So, because of our traditions and customs, which the Lion of the Tribe of Juda (the Dirt Brush Man) is now trying to sweep out the window—and remember, He is going to sweep them out whether you let them go or not.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: If you have these false ideas and you have made them idols and you will not let go of them, you get to go out the window with them when the Dirt Brush Man does His sweeping.

And if you have these idols about your original understanding of Daniel, chapter 2, you better wrap your mind around what Sister White says here and other places.

But, in this scenario, how many toes on those feet?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ten toes. Those ten toes are the Ten Kings at the end of the world.

AHAB

Psalm 83; Ezekiel 30; Genesis 10; Daniel 7; Revelation 12

In Psalm 83, we are looking at the number 10 now. Psalm 83, we have looked at this before, more than once; but, review is good.

Verse 1,

> "[1]Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God. [2]For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head."—

They that hate God—who hates God; at the end of the world who hates God?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Dragon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Dragon. Verse 14, of Revelation 17, he is going to make with the Lamb. He hates Him; he hates God.

And they have lifted up the head. What head did they lift up?

We read a quote here probably more than once.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A head.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Under one head (the Papal power). They are going to lift up the head.

If you are on the horse riding, are you up? You have got to get lifted up to rein over the horse. Okay? She is going to reign over the kings of the Earth. She is lifted up.

They have lifted up the head. When do they do that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Hmm. That is a quick answer, but not necessarily correct.

When do they lift up the head? Right here in verses 42 and 43 of Daniel 11 she conquers Egypt. Now she is in control of the whole world.

She is in control of the United States right here [in Daniel 11:41], but she still has to go to Egypt.

This is verses 14 and 15 of Revelation 13; this is when the head gets lifted up.

They have lifted up the head.

—"[3]They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. [4]They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. [5]For they have consulted together with one consent:"—

What did the Ten Kings do? They had one mind.

And what is the marginal reference for consent here? Heart; they have one heart, they have one mind.

—"they are confederate against thee:"—

What does it mean by confederate? This is the evil confederacy.

And then, of course, it lists out how many tribes?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ten tribes. All the prophets agree with one another. They are all speaking about the end of the world.

—"[6]The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes; [7]Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre; [8]Assur also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah. [9]Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison: [10]Which perished at Endor: they became as dung for the earth. [11]Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna: [12]Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession. [13]O my God, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind. [14]As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire; [15]So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm. [16]Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD. [17]Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish: [18]That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth." Psalm 83 (KJV).

Ezekiel 30

Ezekiel 30, we are looking at the number 10 as the Dragon power; Ezekiel 30.

In Ezekiel 29, verse 2, it says that Egypt is the Dragon power.

And because of time, I am just going to point you at Ezekiel 30. Start in chapter 29, verse 2, so you will see my reference.

"[2]Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt. [3]Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, . . ." Ezekiel 29:2-3 (KJV).

Okay. Egypt is the great dragon.

Ezekiel 30

And then in chapter 30 of Ezekiel, the Lord is going to bring judgment on Egypt; and, beginning in verse 6, going all the way down to verse 18, you will see that as the Lord from 6 to 18 in Ezekiel 30 that as the Lord is bringing judgment on Egypt, He brings judgment on ten cities.

What is a city in Bible prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A kingdom.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A kingdom. Ten kingdoms; Ten Kings.

Now, the only trick here is in the translation of verse 6. It says,

"[6]Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall;"—

And then He is going to tell us how Egypt falls, by dealing with these ten cities.

—"[6]Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene" Ezekiel 30:6 (KJV).

If you have a marginal reference for that, it says, "from Migdol to Syene." Migdol means tower; but Migdol is a city in Egypt. So, in the King James translation, "from the tower of Syene," making it sound like a tower is in the City of Syene, but actually the Hebrew is saying, "from the City of Migdol and the City of Syene." And you need to mark that because that is the first and second cities of these ten cities that are going to be judged; otherwise, it is pretty straightforward from there on. Egypt is made up of ten cities.

Genesis 10

Genesis 10, where the story of Babel begins, you have ten kingdoms marked there.

Daniel 7

Daniel 7, Pagan Rome disintegrates into ten kingdoms. You can see that on these Sacred [1843 and 1850] Charts.

Revelation 12

Revelation 12: the Dragon power, ten horns, Ten Kings. Ten is the number of the Dragon power.

THESE HAVE ONE MIND—REVELATION 17:13-14

Concerning having one heart, one mind, Sister White says,

"Revelation 17:13–14 quoted. 'These have one mind.' There will be a universal bond of union,"—

Now, at Hartland and many places—I pick on Hartland because Hartland has been so aggressive to attack this Message through the years; and, people do not fully understand that fact and probably why—but, in Hartland they will tell you that this "universal bond of union" that this particular kingdom, this worldwide kingdom, that it represents the European Common Market.

So, my first question to that foolish idea is always, "How many countries make up the European Common Market?" A quite a bit more than ten.

How can you say these Ten Kings are the European Common Market when it is in the twenties now. It just does not make a great deal of sense to me.

But, how is it like places like Hartland can make such an application when Sister White says, "'These have one mind.' There will be a universal bond of union"?

We have three dictionaries here. We can look up universal in all three of them, and it is going to says "worldwide."

What allows men to say "universal" means "Europe"? And, do you know what it is? It is the historical grammatical method of Biblical interpretation. And for those of you who do not understand that the Standish brothers are theologians that have learned the same theology that the pastors and leadership of Adventism employ today: you just do not understand.

And the only difference between the theology of Hartland and the theology of Desmond Ford is that of this apostate Protestant Biblical interpretation there are two streams. They are both bad streams. Do not drink the water from either stream! But, one of them produces the Sadducees in Adventism, those people that think you are going to continue sinning until Jesus returns. And, Hartland is not of them; they will oppose them. But, the other is the Pharisees. But, neither apply the proof-text method of Biblical interpretation.

If you apply the proof-text method, then you have just the sensibilities to not have a problem that when you see a passage in the New Testament in the Greek and a passage in the Old Testament, the Hebrews, and you can see they are talking about the same subject, that you do not even think twice about the fact that, "Well, hey, this was Hebrew and this was Greek, and this was several hundred years before." You do not think about it, if you are using proof-text. And if you have that mentality, that logic, then you also do not have a problem seeing a passage in the Spirit of Prophecy and the Bible and not stumbling over the difference between the English and the Greek, or the English and the Hebrew.

But, if you are a theologian, you are using your expertise on Hebrew and Greek and your expertise on history to allow you to pick and choose what is valid in the Spirit of Prophecy and what is not. And, obviously, when Sister White says these Ten Kings are a universal bond of union, that does not fit with their preconceived ideas; so, they choose to employ this historical critical type of theology.

> —"'These have one mind.' There will be a universal bond of union, one great harmony, a confederacy of Satan's forces. 'And shall give their power and strength unto the beast.' Thus is manifested the same arbitrary, oppressive power against religious liberty, freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience, as was manifested by the papacy, when in the past it persecuted those who dared to refuse to conform with the religious rites and ceremonies of Romanism.
> "In the warfare to be waged in the last days there will be united, in opposition to God's people, all the corrupt powers that have apostatized from allegiance to the law of Jehovah. In this warfare the Sabbath of the fourth commandment will be the great point at issue; for in the Sabbath commandment the great Law-giver identifies Himself as the Creator of the heavens and the earth." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, 983.

Go to Isaiah. It is not in your notes.

Isaiah 58, verse 1:

> "[1]Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins." Isaiah 58:1 (KJV).

What does that mean? Well, one of the things it means, in a Laodicean Adventism we will have a difficult time understanding this; is one of the things that it means is that Adventism was hijacked in the 1930s, and the method of correct Biblical study was set aside for the fallen apostate Catholic approach to Bible study. And from the 1930s onward, we have just gone off into darkness in our understanding of God's prophetic Word, and we have been educated to think that this is the way we are supposed to study the Bible and that it is okay; but, it leads us to the same conclusion that the Protestants and the Catholics come to. Okay? We end up on their side of the issue.

So, is this something that we are supposed to inform God's people of?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up they voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, . . ." Brothers and Sisters, if you are under the influence of ministry or ministers or theologians that are using this historical critical method of Biblical study, you are on the road to death. And, if you are sending your students to institutions that uphold these principles, you are sending your children to Moloch; and, we are at the end of the world, and you cannot afford to do that.

So, I disagree with you. You get heartburn when I mention some of these ministries. These ministries are leading entire groups of people to Hell. It needs to be identified.

Okay. Back to our notes.

WAR WITH THE LAMB—REVELATION 17:14

I am not going to read these. We have read them before.

Revelation 17:14

In Revelation 17:14, the Ten Kings are going to make war with the Lamb.

You have a very nice quote here describing how this evil confederacy of Isaiah 8 is also the three powers of Revelation 16, that these are they that will persecute God's people.

Bible Training School, December 1, 1902:

> "The powers of Satan are mustering for battle. Stern conflicts are before us. Press together, my brethren and sisters, press together. Bind up with Christ. 'Say ye not, A Confederacy; . . . neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. And he shall be for a sanctuary to his people; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.'

"I am instructed to say to those who know the truth, 'Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. And I will wait upon the Lord, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth in Mount Zion. And when they shall say unto you, seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter; should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.'

"'And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked,'—without the robe of Christ's righteousness—'and they see his shame.' . . .

"These subjects are of the utmost importance. Urge our people to consider them carefully. When they do this, their minds will be so fully occupied with matters of eternal consequence that they will lose sight of the little differences that once annoyed them. They will realize that prophecy is even now fulfilling. If the minds of the people of God were not occupied with things of minor consequence, they would see that the signs of the times are fast fulfilling, and that events of the greatest consequence to them are taking place in the world and in the churches pointed out by the words, 'Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.'" Bible Training School, December 1, 1902.

SPIRITUALISM

And then in the next quote of your notes, we are identifying that the Dragon power's religion is Spiritualism.

Education, pages 227 - 228:

"Spiritualism asserts that men are unfallen demigods; that 'each mind will judge itself;' that 'true knowledge places men above all law;' that 'all sins committed are innocent;' for 'whatever is, is right,' and 'God doth not condemn.' The basest of human beings it represents as in heaven, and highly exalted there. Thus it declares to all men, 'It matters not what you do; live as you please, heaven is your home.' Multitudes are thus led to believe that desire is the highest law, that license is liberty, and that man is accountable only to himself.

"With such teaching given at the very outset of life, when impulse is strongest, and the demand for self-restraint and purity is most urgent, where are the safeguards of virtue? what is to prevent the world from becoming a second Sodom? At the same time anarchy is seeking to sweep away all law, not only divine, but human. The centralizing of wealth and power; the vast combinations for the enriching of the few at the expense of the many; the combinations of the poorer classes for the defense of their interests and claims; the spirit of unrest, of riot and bloodshed; the world-wide dissemination of the same teachings that led to the French Revolution—all are tending to involve the whole world in a struggle similar to that which convulsed France." Education, 227–228.

And I am pretty sure we have read all of these quotes in previous worships in this series.

ISAIAH 8

ASSOCIATE YOURSELVES WITH SECRET SOCIETIES

These quotes are coming from Isaiah 8. Isaiah 8 is the evil confederacy.

The evil confederacy is these three powers: [The Sixth Kingdom]: the United States, the United Nations, and the Papacy at the end of the world that come into a threefold union and that lead the world to Armageddon.

Now, in your notes it tells us that this evil confederacy is made of secret societies.

Evangelism, pages 617 – 618:

> "The Lord declares through the prophet Isaiah: 'Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces. Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us. For the Lord spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. Sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself; and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread.' Isaiah 8:9–13.
> "There are those who question whether it is right for Christians to belong to the Free Masons and other secret societies. Let all such consider the scriptures just quoted. If we are Christians at all, we must be Christians everywhere, and must consider and heed the counsel given to make us Christians according to the standard of God's Word." Evangelism, 617–618.

Years ago I was with a friend. He had become an Adventist from being a Jew, a New York Jew, and he has relatives that are some of the rich New York Jewish people—I am not being derogatory, even if it sounds so—and he and I were listening to the guy on audio tape that had started the John Birch Society (and that guy is long since deceased), but he was the expert back then of the United Nations and why it is bad, and the Masons; and, he was telling a story about how the European globalists, the Rothschilds, had infiltrated the United States and bought up the newspapers and the radios to take control of the communication systems in the United States. And that is what we have today. We do not get real news today; we get conservative news or liberal news, and the truth is left far behind. And that was by design.

And this guy that started the John Birch Society was giving the history of all this, and he mentioned the guy that they sent from Europe with millions of dollars to come to the East Coast of the United States and buy up all these publishing companies and these radio corporations. And when he mentioned the guy, this friend of mine, this New York Jew, he said, "Well, that is my uncle."

I said, "Your uncle?"

And he said, "Yeah, and he does own all those places."

And he grew up with his uncle's son, contemporary cousins, and he knew all this story.

And, it is all valid. There is nothing that is hard to dig out about this. This country, this world has been purposely taken over by globalists (that is what I am calling them); but, Sister White, when speaking about this evil confederacy, she says they are Free Masons and secret societies. And you get into the literature of the United Nations, and that is where they come from, these Free Masons and secret societies.

And I forget why I was telling the story about the globalist takeover. There was a point there I was going to get at, and it has escaped me.

A CONFEDERACY OF COVETOUSNESS

Okay. The next quote, Review and Herald, July 18, 1907:

> "In these last days, there are arising strange fallacies and man-made theories which God declares shall be broken in pieces. The spirit of covetousness has led men to seek worldly advantage, and by extravagance and display they have tried to hide their wicked deeds which they have done in order to reach their object. Men occupying high positions of trust have revealed this unlawful desire for gain; they have practised extortion and robbery, and have gratified the evil passions of their hearts, until our cities are corrupted through their wickedness. God has declared that he will uncover these works of deceit and robbery by their own working. In some cases the judgments of God have already fallen heavily on these cities.
> "'The Lord spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken. Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.'" Review and Herald, July 18, 1907.

It says, "Men occupying high positions of trust have revealed this unlawful desire for gain." One of the characteristics of these globalists, these Free Masons, this Dragon power that is the evil confederacy of Isaiah 8 is that they are the world bankers. They are trying to control all the wealth of the world. And they trace that back to the Knights Templar and the Knights Templar statement—I do not know what you would call it. Their motto was that if you could control the wealth of the world, you could control the world.

And the Knights Templar continued on from the 12th Century, all the way to the present day. The United Nations traces its roots back even beyond the Knights Templar.

THESE SOCIETIES OFFER SOME ADVANTAGES

And you can see other quotes where Sister White is talking about this evil confederacy, in connection with Isaiah 8.

Selected Messages, book 2, page 131:

> "In the revelation of His righteous judgments, God will break up all these associations; and when the judgment shall sit and the books be opened, there will be revealed the un-Christlikeness of the whole confederacy. Those who choose to unite with these secret societies are paying homage to idols as senseless and as powerless to bless and save the soul as are the gods of the Hindus.
> "These societies offer some advantages which from a human point of view appear like great blessings, but not so when judged by the Lord's measurement. Behind their apparent advantages are concealed satanic agencies. The larger the income drawn into the treasury, the more and deeper is the evil. The ungodly gain which has enriched these societies will, when traced out in all its bearings, be seen to be a curse. The words which Eliphaz spoke to Job are true in respect to these associations: 'I saw him "taking root," but I "cursed his habitation"' (Job 5:3). They are Satan's traps, his net to entangle souls." Selected Messages, book 2, 131.

AN OVERWHELMING SURPRISE

Review and Herald, September 10, 1903.

"O that God's people had a sense of the impending destruction of thousands of cities, now almost given to idolatry! But many of those who should be proclaiming the truth are accusing and condemning their brethren. When the converting power of God comes upon minds, there will be a decided change. Men will have no inclination to criticize and tear down. They will not stand in a position that hinders the light from shining to the world. Their criticism, their accusing, will cease. The powers of the enemy are mustering for battle. Stern conflicts are before us. Press together, my brethren and sisters, press together. Bind up with Christ. 'Say ye not, A confederacy, . . . neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.'

"The world is a theater. The actors, its inhabitants, are preparing to act their part in the last great drama. God is lost sight of. With the great masses of mankind there is no unity, except as men confederate to accomplish their selfish purposes. God is looking on. His purposes in regard to his rebellious subjects will be fulfilled. The world has not been given into the hands of men, though God is permitting the elements of confusion and disorder to bear sway for a season. A power from beneath is working to bring about the last great scenes in the drama,—Satan coming as Christ, and working with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in those who are binding themselves together in secret societies. Those who are yielding to the passion for confederation are working out the plans of the enemy. The cause will be followed by the effect.

"Transgression has almost reached its limit. Confusion fills the world, and a great terror is soon to come upon human beings. The end is very near. We who know the truth should be preparing for what is soon to break upon the world as an overwhelming surprise." Review and Herald, September 10, 1903.

And what is Isaiah 8? Well, it is the chapter that follows Isaiah 7, but it is the same vision as Isaiah 7, is it not?

And what is the vision of Isaiah 7? It is the vision of Isaiah representing God's people at the end of the world, with the Latter Rain Message.

Did we not go through that somewhere, way back when? The Message of Shiloah that He gave to Ahaz, and Ahaz rejects the message, Ahaz being God's people that are rejecting the Message of the Latter Rain and the Message of the 2520.

But right there in Isaiah 8, what do we have? We have the evil confederacy.

In the time period of the Latter Rain, and in the time period where the Message of the 2520 is being carried to God's people, this evil confederacy is in the world. It is in the world.

THE TEN HORNS SHALL HATE THE WHORE

Revelation 17:16-17

Just a couple more things to put in place, and we are done here.
Revelation 17:16-17, these kings are going to hate the whore.

> "[16]And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. [17]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled." Revelation 17:16-17 (KJV).

2 Kings 9:29-37; Leviticus 21:9

2 Kings 9, beginning at verse 29: These Ten Kings are going to hate the whore. Verse 29 says,

> "[29]And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.
> "[30]And when Jehu was come Jezereel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. [31]And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master? [32]And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? Who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs. [33]And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot. [34]And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter. [35]And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands."—

Why?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The dogs ate her.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The dogs ate her up.

> —"[36]Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel: [37]And the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel." 2 Kings 9:29-37 (KJV).

The dogs ate her flesh.

Who are the dogs?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Ten Kings are the dogs. I am going to show you that the Ten Kings are the dogs. They are going to eat her flesh, but they are going to burn her with fire.

Why are they going to burn fire?

Leviticus 21:9

Leviticus 21, verse 9: Why do they burn her with fire? Leviticus 21, verse 9:

"[9]And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire." Leviticus 21:9 (KJV).

Because she is a whore.

Psalm 22:7-20; Acts 4:24-28; Psalm 2:1-4; Psalm 83:1-5; Palm 48:1-8

Psalm 22:7-20

Okay. Psalm 22, beginning at verse 7:

"[7]All they that see me laugh me to scorn:"—

Who is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is Christ.

—"they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, [8]He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him. [9]But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts. [10]I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly. [11]Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help. [12]Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round. [13]They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion. [14]I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. [15]My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou has brought me into the dust of death. [16]For"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Dogs.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"[16]For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet. [17]I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me."—

The assembly of the wicked is the dogs.

—"[18]They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. [19]But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me. [20]Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog." Psalm 22:7-20 (KJV).

Acts 4:24-28

Acts 4.
Because, the history of Christ at the cross, it is repeated in Revelation 17.
Acts, chapter 4, beginning at verse 24, says,

"[24]And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is: [25]Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, WHY DID THE HEATHEN RAGE, AND THE PEOPLE IMAGINE VAIN THINGS? [12]THE KINGS OF THE EARTH STOOD UP, AND THE RULERS WERE GATHERED TOGETHER AGAINST THE LORD, AND AGAINST HIS CHRIST. [27]For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together. [28]For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done." Acts 4:24-28 (KJV).

So, who gathered against Christ? The kings of the earth, which is the assembly of the wicked, which are the—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Dogs.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: —dogs which are going to eat Jezebel's flesh.

Psalm 2:1-4

Psalm 2, beginning at verse 1, this is where Acts is quoting from.

"[1]Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? [2]The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,"—

Who is the LORD's anointed?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ.

Who do you say that in Hebrew? Messiah.
Okay. When does Jesus become the Messiah or the Christ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At His baptism.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the baptism.

So, when the Divine Symbol comes down, what is happening? The Lord is anointing a people. And against the Lord's anointed the heathen are going to rage.

— [3]Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. [4]He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision."
Psalm 2:1-4 (KJV).

Psalm 83:1-5:

"[1]Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God. [2]For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head. [3]They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. [4]They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance." Psalm 83:1-5 (KJV).

Psalm 48:1-8:

"[1]Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness. [2]Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. [3]God is known in her palaces for a refuge. [4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. [5]They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away. [6]Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail. [=7]Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. [8]As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah." Psalm 48:1-8 (KJV).

Revelation 18:1-3; 4-8; 9-20; 21-24

"[1]And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. [2]And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. [3]For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. [4]And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. [5]For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. [+6]Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. [7]How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. [8]Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. [9]And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning. [10]Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. [11]And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: [12] The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble. [13]And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. [14]And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. [15]The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, [16]And saying, Alas, alas that great city that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! [17]For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off. [18]And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city! [19]And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. [20]Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. [21]And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. [22]And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; [23]And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. [24]And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Revelation 18 (KJV).

SUMMARY

What are we saying?

Here is what we are saying. One of the strongest evidences that what we teach about Daniel 11:40-45 is correct is its connection with the Book of Revelation; because, Sister White tells us often that they are the same book.

And in Revelation 17, we are seeing how the threefold union of modern Babylon comes together, the sixth kingdom.

THREEFOLD UNION: THE EVIL CONFEDERACY

				Rev 16	I	II
1798 →	6	USA		(the False Prophet)	Baal	Salome
	6	ΔΔΔΔΔΔΔΔΔΔ	10 Horns/United Nations	(the Dragon/Ten Kings)	Ahab	Herod
	6	The Papacy		(the Beast)	Jezebel	Herodias

The False Prophet, that is the prophets of Baal in the story of Elijah; the Dragon, this is Ahab; [the Beast], this is Jezebel.

And you can go on and on with this: [The False Prophet], this would be Salome in the story of John the Baptist; [the Dragon], this would be Herod; and [the Beast], this would be Herodias.

In each of these two stories [of (I) Elijah and (II) John the Baptist], you have an end-of-the-world lesson, an end-of-the-world lesson that we referred to yesterday that we will not deal with today.

But, it is a fact that when the Papacy takes control of the world, then the Ten Kings (the United Nations) are going to realize that the Papacy has no big burden about Islam. Her big burden is about Sabbathkeepers. That truth is in these two lines of prophecy [the histories in the stories of Elijah and John the Baptist].

At some point in time, the Lord willing, we will get to that; but, we have gone too long already.

Shall we have a word of prayer?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that you are opening these truths to our understanding, but we pray for your people that they would allow themselves to be awakened through the power of your Holy Spirit to the times in which we are living, and to the message that you are opening up to us, that they along with us might allow this Message to accomplish a work in us that would fit us and prepare us to be part of that ensign that in the near future is to be lifted up. We set before you this work day. We ask that what we do will be for your glory and honor and that we will do it safely. We ask now that you would let us part in peace, and we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #61

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for giving us a good night's rest and bringing us together this morning that we can start our day by considering your Word. We ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that He would take control of this presentation and direct our understanding, that we would receive it as you see fit. We ask that you would forgive us of our sins, forgive us of anything that is preventing us from hearing your Voice and understanding your Words, and preventing me from being used as you would want me to be used to share this Message. Please hide me behind your cross. We pray that you would pour the Latter Rain out upon us and increase our understanding in the Books of Daniel and Revelation at this time. In Jesus's name, amen.

CONNECTION WITH REVELATION

A SHORT TIME

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are still dealing with the connection between the events in Revelation 17 and 18, and Daniel 11:40-45.

I am going to do thing a little bit differently in terms of how I do the presentation this morning. I am not going to worry so much about giving an overview of where we are at until the end.

So, if you have your notes, you will notice that we have Revelation, chapter 12, verses 11 and 12.

For those of you who are watching, if you have a Bible, Revelation 12:11-12.

I just want to show something that has been established now, whether we recognize it or not.

Beginning in verse 11, it says,

> "[11]And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. [12]Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. Revelation 12:11-12.

The Devil has come down here, and part of the reason he has come down is he knows that he has a short time.

What is the short time that the Devil has?

And this is what we have been looking at in Revelation 17. And what I am saying is that once you put Daniel 11 and Revelation 13 and Revelation 17 together, it begins to produce truths that help you better organize other passages of prophecy.

A SHORT SPACE—ONE HOUR

Notice verses 10 through 12 of Revelation 17.

> "[10]And there are seven kings:"—THAT IS IN HERE [THE SHORT SPACE]—"five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come;"—

I have that underlined because that is one of the characteristics that allows you to know who this king is.

> "—[10]And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come, and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. [11]And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. [12]And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet;"—

In verse 10 they had not yet come. The seventh kingdom are these Ten Kings, just from the grammatical structure of these three verses.

> —"which have received no kingdom as yet, but receive power as kings one hour with the beast." Revelation 17:10–12 (KJV).

So, they are going to co-rule with the Papacy for one hour, which is a short space. So, you have two connections between verses 10 and 12. One is that the seventh kingdom has not yet come [verse 10], connects with verse 12 where it says they have received no kingdom as yet. And, then in verse 10 he is going to continue a short space, and he is going to co-rule with the Beast for one hour. And what I am saying here is the short time that the Devil has in Revelation 12, verse 12, is this short space. John is not going to be contradicting himself, and Revelation is one revelation.

THE DEVIL COMES DOWN

So, the Devil comes down with great wrath for this short space; and, this short space, it begins right here at The Sunday Law in the United States. Okay? And it continues until the Close of Probation.

And in our previous studies, we have given other proofs of this fact. This short space is one hour that the Papacy co-rules with the Ten Kings of the United Nations. It is the time period that Satan appears, because he has just a short time. It is here.

It is here that not only does he appears to personate Christ but it is here where the persecution takes place.

We are going to look at verses 11 and 12 of Revelation 12 a little more carefully than that; so, you see it in your notes again.

In verse 12 it says,

> "[11]And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. [12]Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." Revelation 12:11-12 (KJV).

THE SUNDAY LAW

The Devil comes down in this short space, and this connects with Revelation 13:13,

> "[13]And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men." Revelation 13:13 (KJV).

And we have established already that Satan begins his personation of Christ immediately after The Sunday Law in the United States. So, he has come down right here. He has come down for this short space.

THE INHABITERS OF THE EARTH

Back to Revelation 12:11-12:

> "[11]And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. [12]Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. Revelation 12:11-12 (KJV).

Now, we have not spent a great deal of time making the distinction that I am going to begin to make here in this study; but, two of the active players in this history [of the short space] is both the Devil (the Dragon) and the Ten Kings. They are going to burn the whore with fire and eat her flesh; so, they have a role in judging modern Babylon. Revelation 17, verses 1 and 2, the Angel tells John, "I will show you the judgment of the Great Whore that sits upon many waters," so this story is partially about the judgment of the Papacy, and the Dragon participates in that judgment.

But, also in this history, one of the other powers that is active is Islam. Islam (the East Wind) is the power that is sinking the economics structure; and, of course, one of the primary symbols of Islam is that it is a Woe. It is the First, Second, and Third Woes.

So, here in verse 12 it says, "Woe to the Inhabiters of the earth and of the sea!"

Okay. You might think that John is just using the word Woe as an expression here; but, notice that this Woe is pronounced upon the inhabitants of the earth and the sea. So, what I am saying is that in Revelation 12:11-12, once we understand Revelation 17, 13, and Daniel 11 as a complete unit of thought, there are other passages in The Revelation that open up to us.

This Woe, I am saying, is Islam, that Islam is in this history as well as the Dragon. And he is—how does it say it?—"Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea!"

THE THIRD WOE

Notice Revelation 8:13, and the key thought here is, "the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea."

Verse 13 of Revelation 8 says,

> "[13]And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the"—WHAT?
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: To the inhabiters of the earth.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!" Revelation 8:13 (KJV).

So, when in verse 12 of Revelation 12 John is saying, "Woe to the inhabiters of the earth," there is no reason to think that this Woe is any different than these Woes to the inhabiters of the earth.

And, of course, we understand that these three Woes here are the Fifth, the Sixth, and the Seventh Trumpets; and, we understand that the Pioneer position, which is upheld on these Charts [1843 and 1850 Charts], which are both upheld by the Spirit of Prophecy, that the First Woe is Islam, the Second Woe is Islam; the Fifth Trumpet is Islam, the Sixth Trumpet is Islam; therefore, the Third Woe, the Seventh Trumpet, would be Islam once again.

Now, notice Revelation 11, verses 14 through 19. We are dealing with the Woe that is pronounced upon the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea in verse 12 of Revelation 12.

You see the subtitle to these verses, verses 14 through 19, it says, "1844 and 9/11/2001." If you understand this correctly, you can see 1844 and 9/11/2001 in this following passage.

"[14]The second woe is past;"—

Now, we have not dealt with this in this worship series; but, many times publicly we have dealt with this thought I am going to explain to you here.

The Pioneers incorrectly thought that the Sixth Trumpet ended on August 11, 1840, with the collapse of the Ottoman Empire.

But, the Pioneers correctly taught that William Foy and Hazen Foss were truly given the Spirit of Prophecy. Both men declined to fulfill their responsibility and exercise the Spirit of Prophecy for the Millerite History. Ellen White accepted the calling. But, when the Pioneers of Adventism would address the Spirit of Prophecy in their writings, they would always refer to the fact that it was at this point in time when the Lord would raise up the Spirit of Prophecy. Based upon the prophetic record, they established it was time for the Lord to restore the Gift of the Spirit of Prophecy to His remnant people in the 1840s, and in so doing He called Hazen Foss and William Foy, and they both declined the calling; and, Ellen White took the Calling.

So, when the Pioneers were addressing the arrival of the Spirit of Prophecy in Adventism, they always argued that the gift given to Hazen Foss and William Foy was the genuine Spirit of Prophecy. They did not argue that these two men were given some kind of false prophecy from Satan. This was the Lord actually inspiring these men and giving them opportunity to serve in this fashion.

And I do not have it in the notes here, but it is available: William Foy had a vision in 1842, where he was shown that the Sixth Trumpet was still sounding. So, the Pioneers believed that the Sixth Trumpet ended on August 11, 1840, with the collapse of the Ottoman Empire; but, under Inspiration, under the Gift of the Spirit of Prophecy, William Foy went in and got his vision publicly registered by a Notary Public. So, it is a legal document that in 1842 he was told the Sixth Angel was still sounding; therefore—and this is just a secondary "therefore"—therefore, the Pioneers were wrong about the Sixth Trumpet ending in August 11, 1840. It ended on October 22, 1844, when the Seventh Trumpet began to sound.

We had reached that conclusion before we even knew about Hazen Foss and William Foy. It is like icing on the cake.

But, right here in verse 14, you are seeing the ending of the Sixth Trumpet and the arrival of the Seventh Trumpet. But, the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Trumpets are also Woes.

So, verse 14 says,

> —"[14]The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly. [15]And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, THE KINGDOMS OF THIS WORLD ARE BECOME THE KINGDOMS OF OUR LORD,"—

And the reason that I have that bold-faced there, I am not going to put in any Spirit of Prophecy quotes to back this up because we have dealt with this.

One of the things that we know that Christ did on October 22, 1844, is He went in to the Father to receive a kingdom. Okay? So, this is one of the arguments here that this is October 22, 1844.

> —"THE KINGDOMS OF THIS WORLD ARE BECOME THE KINGDOMS OF OUR LORD, AND OF HIS CHRIST; AND HE SHALL REIGN FOR EVER AND EVER. [16]And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, > [17]Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned."—

And what I am suggesting here is the next phrase is 9/11; whereas, that beginning was October 22, 1844.

The next phrase says,

> —"[18]And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth."—

Now, John has just taken us to the beginning and the ending of the Third Woe; and, now to bring this thought to a conclusion, he is going to take us back to the beginning, October 22, 1844, when he says,

> —"[19]And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail." Revelation 11:14–19 (KJV).

And, of course, we know that when the temple of God was opened in Heaven and you could see the ark of His testament, that is identifying when the door into the Most Holy Place was opened, on October 22, 1844. So, this is an overview of the Third Woe, the Seventh Trumpet, by John.

It begins October 22, 1844, and it goes on up to 9/11. And, the things that follow 9/11, all the way to the destruction of the wicked at the end of the thousand years, if you go back into those verses, the last phrase before "And the temple of God was opened," it says, "and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth." That is at the end of the thousand years.

So, the nations being angry, until the destruction of the wicked at the end of the thousand years, is the history of the Third Woe; but, the Third Woe begins on 9/11.

The Third Woe is the Seventh Trumpet, but the Seventh Trumpet begins to sound on October 22, 1844. All right?

The Woes are marking the activity of Islam.

THOSE WHO DESTROY THE EARTH—REVELATION 20:7-15

Now, go to Revelation 20, verses 7 through 15.

> "[7]And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, [8]And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of who is as the sand of the sea."—

Is there another place where Satan goes forth to deceive the nations? How about Revelation 13:13?

Keep your finger in Revelation 20, and go back to Revelation 13:13. It is more than verse 13 actually, but it says beginning in verse 13,

> "[13]And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men."—

"On the earth in the sight of men," that would be the nations of the Earth, right?

> —"[14]And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles . . . ." Revelation 13:13-14 (KJV).

So here, back in chapter 20, in verse 7,

> "[7]And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, [8]And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of who is as the sand of the sea. [9]And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them."—

Now, the last time Satan was deceiving the nations, what happened? Fire came down on Earth out of heaven in the sight of men. That is Revelation 13:13.

Fire comes down once again when he is deceiving the nations, only it is not his false miracle that is doing it; this is the judgment of God. Okay? So, it is a parallel-type history that should be noted.

And verse 10,

> "[10]And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and he false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever."—

When are the Beast and the False Prophet cast into the lake of fire? At Christ's Second Coming. They are there before the thousand years. Now the Devil is going to be cast into the lake of fire at the end of the thousand years.

Verse 11,

> "[11]And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. [12]And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. [13]And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. [14]And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. [15]And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." Revelation 20:7-15 (KJV).

So, back to your notes, we are commenting right now on Revelation 11:14-19, the history of the Third Woe (the Seventh Trumpet); and, we are saying that this destruction of the wicked at the end of the thousand years is when he destroys those that destroy the Earth. So, the Third Woe would encompass 9/11/2001, all the way to the Earth made new.

Notice what Sister White says about verse 18 of Revelation 11 from Early Writings, page 36. She says,

> "I saw that the anger of the nations, the wrath of God, and the time to judge the dead were separate and distinct, one following the other,"—

So, the angering of the nations is one event, the wrath of God.

Well, we know what that event is. What is the wrath of God?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Seven Last Plagues.

And Michael stands up in Daniel 12:1. This is the line of Daniel here.

So, what is the angering of the nations? Well, I may not know what it is, but I know that it takes place before probation closes; because, Sister White says, "I saw they were separate and distinct, one following the other."

And there are a lot of Laodicean Adventists that think that the third point here,

> —"I saw that the anger of the nations, the wrath of God, and the time to judge the dead"—

—there are a lot of people that think that this time to judge the dead is the beginning of the judgment in 1844; but, they could not be separate and distinct, one following another, if this were true; because, Sister White is saying this Judgment of the Dead takes place after the wrath of God. There is a Judgment of the Dead that takes place after the Second Coming of Christ during the thousand years when God's people are going to review the decisions that were made concerning the dead.

> —"the time to judge the dead were separate and distinct, one following the other, also that Michael had not stood up, and that the time of trouble, such as never was, had not yet commenced. The nations are now getting angry,"—

So, even in Sister White's day and age, the nations were already getting angry. But, there is a specific point in time that is marked when they get angry and are simultaneously held in check.

> —"The nations are now getting angry, but when our High Priest has finished His work in the sanctuary, He will stand up, put on the garments of vengeance, and then the seven last plagues will be poured out.
> "I saw that the four angels would hold the four winds until Jesus' work was done in the sanctuary, and then will come the seven last plagues." Early Writings, 36.

So, the full release of the Four Winds, the full release of the Four Winds,—and we have already established that the Four Winds slip through the Angels' fingers, even while they are holding them. All right? It is a progressive escalation. But, the Four Winds here, when they are fully released is another way to describe the Seven Last Plagues. It is another way to describe the wrath of God.

Now, Sister White is going to comment on something that she said on page 33. This is from Early Writings. We are still dealing with the angering of the nations, with Revelation 11, verses 14 through 19. Here is her comment.

> "1. On page 33 is given the following: 'I saw that the holy Sabbath is, and will be, the separating wall between the true Israel of God and unbelievers; and that the Sabbath is the great question to unite the hearts of God's dear, waiting saints. I saw that God had children who do not see and keep the Sabbath. They have not rejected the light upon it."—

Who are God's children that do not keep the Sabbath?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The other sheep that He has.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the other sheep that He has that are the eleventh-hour laborers, the one-hour laborers. It is those of God's children that are outside of Adventism.

> —"I saw that God had children who do not see and keep the Sabbath. They have not rejected the light upon it. And at the commencement of the time of trouble, we were filled with the Holy Ghost as we went forth and proclaimed the Sabbath more fully.'"—

She is quoting from page 33, because she is going to comment on this statement and she is going to explain what she meant by this time of trouble, the commencement of this time of trouble, and she is going to say that this is not the time of trouble when there is no more probation available. This is the time of trouble that takes place while probation is still open.

She continues on, and she says,

> —"This view was given in 1847 when there were but very few of the Advent brethren observing the Sabbath, and of these but few supposed that its observance was of sufficient importance to draw a line between the people of God and unbelievers. Now the fulfillment of that view is beginning to be seen. 'The commencement of that time of trouble,' here mentioned does not refer to the time when the plagues shall begin to be poured out, but to a"—WHAT?
>
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: To a short period.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: A what?
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: A short period.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: A short space.

—"a short period just before they are poured out, while Christ is in the sanctuary. At that time, while the work of salvation is closing,"—

And we have dealt with in this worship series that the closing work in the Sanctuary for Christ is the work of blotting out. It is the work that takes place during the Judgment of the Living. The closing work is the Judgment of the Living.

—"At that time, while the work of salvation is closing,"—

At that time during the Judgment of the Living.

—"trouble will be coming on the earth, and the nations will be angry, yet held in check"—

Now, we have already read a quote that "the nations are now getting angry"; but, there is a point in this end-time history where the nations are made angry, but at the same time they are held in check. Okay? There is a restraint marked.

—"the nations will be angry, yet held in check so as not to prevent the work of the third angel. At that time"—

At what time? When the angry nations are held in check.

—"At that time the 'latter rain,' or refreshing from the presence of the Lord, will come, to give power to the loud voice of the third angel, and prepare the saints to stand in the period when the seven last plagues shall be poured out." Early Writings, 85.

Now, we have already established in this study that Islam was restrained on 9/11. The Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descended, and the refreshing, the Latter Rain that is accomplished by the presence of the Lord because the Mighty Angel that comes down out of Heaven is no less the personage than Jesus Christ, this begins the Latter Rain.

The Latter Rain, we have established, comes in two parts. There is a sprinkling that takes place while the Lord is judging Adventism, and this time period when Adventism is being judged, the first temple cleansing of this history concludes at The Sunday Law; and, then, the Holy Spirit is poured out without measure as it was on Pentecost, and then the second temple cleansing takes place in this "short space."

Luke 21:25-26. And, of course, we are saying that the angering of the nations here in the Third Woe (the Seventh Trumpet) has been prefigured by the distress of nations in the Sixth Trumpet (the Second Woe). And in Luke 21, beginning in verse 25, it says,

"[25]And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; [26]Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken." Luke 21:25-26 (KJV).

Now, for most Seventh-day Adventists it is pretty easy for us to see that the signs in the sun and the moon and the stars are the signs that ushered in the Millerite History. This is referenced several times in God's Word. But, sometimes we are king of vague that one of the signs of the Millerite History was the distress of nations with perplexity. But, Uriah Smith is going to tell us here in this next passage what the distress of nations in that history was. He says,

> "As the prophetic period of this trumpet commenced by the voluntary surrender of power into the hands of the Turks by the Christian emperor of the East, so we might justly conclude that its termination would be marked by the voluntary surrender of that power by the Turkish Sultan back again into the hands of the Christians."—

He is talking about the Sixth Trumpet, and he is talking about the time prophecy of 391 years and 15 days, which began when the last emperor of Eastern Rome surrendered his sovereignty into the hands of the four great Ottoman sultans; and, that period ended when the last of those sultans, now the weak men of the East, surrendered his national sovereignty back into the four great Christian powers.

And now he is going to mark when this was taking place.

> —"In 1838 Turkey became involved in war with Egypt. The Egyptians bid fair to overthrow the Turkish power. To prevent this,"—

Why were they wanting to prevent this? Because they were distressed: the nations were distressed at what was going on in Egypt.

> —"In 1838 Turkey became involved in war with Egypt. The Egyptians bid fair to overthrow the Turkish power. To prevent this, the four great powers of Europe, England, Russia, Austria, and Prussia, interfered to sustain the Turkish government. Turkey accepted their intervention. A conference was held in London at which an ultimatum was drawn up to be presented to Mehemet Ali, the Pacha of Egypt. It is evident that when this ultimatum should be placed in the hands of Mehemet, the destiny of the Ottoman Empire would be virtually lodged in the hands of the Christian powers of Europe. This ultimatum was placed in the hands of Mehemet on the 11th day of August 1840! and on that very day the Sultan addressed a note to the ambassadors of the four powers, inquiring what should be done in case Mehemet refused to comply with the terms which they had proposed. The answer was that he need not alarm himself about any contingency that might arise; for they had made provision for that."—

His national sovereignty was gone. He was now being taken care of by the four great European powers.

> —"The prophetic period ended, and on that very day the control of Mohammedan affairs passed into the hands of Christians, just as the control of Christian affairs had passed into the hands of the Mohammedans 391 years and 15 days before. Thus the second woe ended,"—

He is wrong. If you are going to call the activity of Islam a woe, fine; but, he is believing that this is the end of the Sixth Trumpet.

—"Thus the second woe ended, and the sixth trumpet ceased its sounding."—

William Foy was still told the Sixth Trumpet was still sounding in 1842. It sounds until 1844.

Continuing on, Uriah Smith says,

—"Passing over the 10th and a portion of the 11th chapters of Revelation, the series of trumpets is again taken up in verse 14 of chapter 11."—

We have just been reading that.

—"The events of this trumpet are described in the five following verses. They are such as to show that this trumpet witnesses the conclusion of all earthly kingdoms and the beginning of the everlasting reign of Christ. Among the events introduced is the opening of the temple of God in heaven. Verse 19. This was the commencement of the work of cleansing the sanctuary, as explained in the exposition of that subject,—a work which constitutes the finishing of the mystery of God spoken of in Revelation 10:7, and marks the beginning of the sounding of the seventh trumpet."—

What marks the beginning of the sounding of the Seventh Trumpet? October 22, 1844.

—"It is therefore evident that the seventh angel began to sound in the autumn of 1844; and the little space termed 'quickly,' which was to intervene between the second and third woes, reached from August 11, 1840, where the sixth trumpet ceased to sound, to the autumn of 1844 where the seventh commenced."—

Now, because of the way he thinks he makes that conclusion. I personally disagree with that conclusion. What was going to come quickly is the Third Woe, and it came on 9/11/2001.

And how can that be "quickly" after October 22, 1844? It can be "quickly" in terms of conditional prophecy. Ellen White told us more than once that if we had finished the work of developing the character of Christ, "Christ would have come 'ere this."

So, all of this history, from 1844 to here [to 9/11/2001], it is "quickly" in the context of conditional prophecy: "The third woe cometh quickly." But, that is not really the point we want to make here.

—"The 18th verse of Revelation 11 shows that this trumpet covers the concluding troubles of the last days, and reaches over to the destruction of the wicked at the end of the thousand years of Revelation 20." Uriah Smith, Synopsis of Present Truth, 218.

That is what we just showed you, and we were showing you now that this is Pioneer logic.

Early Writings, page 41, concerning the angering of the nations and what that represents, it says,

> "December 16, 1848, the Lord gave me a view of the shaking of the powers of the heavens. I saw that when the Lord said 'heaven,' in giving the signs recorded by Matthew, Mark, and Luke, He meant heaven, and when He said 'earth' He meant earth."—

Seventh-day Adventists need to wrap their minds around this statement, if they believe in the authority of the Spirit of Prophecy; because, the passage where Sister White says that when the mighty buildings of New York City are thrown down, then Revelation 18, verses 1 through 3 will be fulfilled. That is a paraphrase, but she says that. In that passage she says then shall the Lord arise to shake terribly the Earth; and, people that fight against that passage take the passages and the Scriptures that talk about the Lord shaking heavens and Earth, or shaking the heavens, and try to read those definitions into what she says about 9/11 and the buildings of New York City when she says there that the Lord would arise to shake terribly the Earth, period. And here Sister White, among other things, is emphasizing that the shaking of the Earth is different than the shaking of the heavens; and, she is emphasizing it in such a way that this is how the Bereans, the students of prophecy, do not confuse these two things.

> —"December 16, 1848, the Lord gave me a view of the shaking of the powers of the heavens. I saw that when the Lord said 'heaven,' in giving the signs recorded by Matthew, Mark, and Luke, He meant heaven, and when He said 'earth' He meant earth. The powers of heaven are the sun, moon, and stars. They rule in the heavens. The powers of earth are those"—

What are "those"? It is talking about human beings, probably; because, it says, > —"those that rule on the earth."—

The powers of the Earth are the rulers of the Earth.

> —"The powers of heaven will be shaken at the voice of God. Then the sun, moon, and stars will be moved out of their places. They will not pass away, but be shaken by the voice of God. "Dark, heavy clouds came up and clashed against each other. The atmosphere parted and rolled back; then we could look up through the open space in Orion, whence came the voice of God. The Holy City will come down through that open space. I saw that the powers of earth are now being shaken and that events come in order. War, and rumors of war, sword, famine, and pestilence are first to shake the powers of earth, then the voice of God will shake the sun, moon, and stars, and this earth also. I saw that the shaking of the powers in Europe is not, as some teach, the shaking of the powers of heaven, but it is the shaking of the angry nations." Early Writings, 41

What is "the shaking of the angry nations"? It is the shaking of the powers in this passage that were controlling Europe. It is the powers, the political powers, on Planet Earth, the angry nations that are shaken. All right? So, the distress of nations in 1838, which distressed the powers of Europe in that time period, that distress of nations is Luke 21:25; but, it is prefiguring the angering of the nations at the end of the world. The nations that are shaken are identifying when the political powers of the world are going to be angered and distressed.

So, we are saying that 9/11 is the angering of the nations, paralleling the distress of nations in Luke 21:25.

Were the political powers of Planet Earth shaken at 9/11? Well, absolutely.

WOE TO THE EARTH AND THE SEA

Okay. So, we are dealing with Revelation 12:12. You may not realize it, but we are. It says,

> "[12]Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." Revelation 12:12 (KJV).

". . . inhabiters of the earth and of the sea!": We are saying that in this passage where "the devil is come down unto you," the Devil comes down to us immediately after The Sunday Law when he begins to persecute Christ, because he knows he has a short time, because "a short time" starts right here at The Sunday Law until human probation closes. He knows.

We may not know because we are fat and happy in our Laodicean condition; but, Satan knows the Scriptures. He knows that when The Sunday Law arrives in the United States, this is his last opportunity to kill Christians.

Okay. But, at that time period, you also have the woe activity going on, which is Islam.

And I am not suggesting that Islam is not a satanic power as well, but there is a distinction made between the Dragon power and Islam in prophecy; so, we need to hold to that description.

"Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea!"

In Revelation 7, verse 1 through 3, it says,

> "[1]And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. [2]And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to"—WHAT?
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: To hurt the earth and the sea.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"to hurt the earth and the sea,"—

"Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea!" These four angels, these Four Winds, they are the Woes that are going to hurt the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea.

—"[3]Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads." Revelation 7:1–3 (KJV).

Okay. The sealing time begins when the nations are angry, yet—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They are restrained.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —yet held in check when there is a restraint placed upon them [9/11/2001].

And at this time what begins to happen? The Latter Rain begins to sprinkle.

And in Revelation 9:4, it says,

"[4]And it was commanded them"—

And in Revelation 9:4, who is it? It is right here [indicating the First Woe on the 1850 Chart]. It is Islam.

—"[4]And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads." Revelation 9:4 (KJV).

The active agents to punish those that do not have the Seal of God in this history [between the waymarks identified as the Message of the Hour and the Close of Probation (see Figure No. 120)] are the Woe power. It is Islam.

Okay. So, in this history you have the Devil coming down [immediately after The Sunday Law to the close of human probation] because his time is short; but, you also have the activity of Islam taking place in this history.

HAVING GREAT WRATH

Okay. In verse 12 of Revelation 12, the Devil comes down because he has great wrath, with great wrath.

"[12]Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." Revelation 12:12 (KJV).

What is his great wrath? Well, the same way that when he personates Christ, he calls fire down from out of heaven; and, then at the end of the thousand years, he deceives the nations once more and there is fire that comes down out of Heaven—a point, counterpoint.

Here [in the history of the short space], so he is going to exercise great wrath; because, he knows when his time is over, the great wrath of God is going to be exercised against his followers. He is exercising his great wrath here [during the short space] in opposition to God's great wrath here [after the Close of Probation when the Seven Last Plagues are falling]. But, the key word there perhaps is the word great.

Matthew 24:21-22 says,

> "[21]For then shall be great tribulation,"—IT IS IN YOUR NOTES—"such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. [22]And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Matthew 24:21–22 (KJV).

This great wrath that he [the Devil] is going to exercise in this short space is the Great Tribulation. It is the greatest tribulation.

Now, Sister White definitely, more than once, applies this passage from Matthew 24 to the 1260 years; but, the 1260 years of Papal persecution is repeated here in this history [of the short space in Figure No. 120], only with more intensity. Because it is a shorter period of time, it is a last opportunity for Satan to kill Christians.

REVELATION 18:1-8

Okay. What we are dealing with now is the connection between Daniel and Revelation, between Daniel 11 and Revelation 13 and 17. And what I have tried to show you here from just taking basically verse 12 of Revelation 12 is once you have these three lines of prophecy [Daniel 11, and Revelation 13 and 17], this is the line of the Dragon [Revelation 17]; this is the line of the False Prophet [Revelation 13], and, this is the line of the Beast [Daniel 11]. Once you have these lines in place, you have a structure that allows you to illustrate the end of the world. Okay?

But, we want to finish off our consideration of Revelation 17 and 18.

And in Revelation 18—and we have dealt with this more than once in this worship series—in verse 1 a Mighty Angel comes down out of Heaven and He cries with a loud voice; and, then in verse 4 of Revelation 18, he [John] says, "And I heard another voice." So, we have dealt with the fact that Revelation 18 is two voices. It is two Angels. It is two temple cleansings. It is two distinct calls.

Notice what the work is, though.

> "John saw 'Another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the whole earth was lightened with his glory.' Revelation 19:1. That work is the voice of the people of God proclaiming a message of warning to the world." The 1888 Materials, 926.

So, the Earth being lightened with His glory has to do with the work that is accomplished during that history, and that work is a two-step work because there are two voices.

TWO VOICES

In Selected Messages, book 2, page 118—this is all review, by the way. We have been through these—it says,

> "When Jesus began His public ministry, He cleansed the Temple from its sacrilegious profanation. Among the last acts of His ministry was the second cleansing of the Temple. So in the last work for the warning of the world, two distinct calls are made to the churches. The second angel's message is, 'Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication' (Revelation 14:8). And in the loud cry of the third angel's message a voice is heard from heaven saying, 'Come out of her, my people, that ye be not > partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities' (Revelation 18:4, 5)." Selected Messages, book 2, 118.

So, in these two distinct calls, Revelation 18:1-3 is a distinct call; and, verse 4 is the second call. This is the two temple cleansings at the end of the world. We have studied this.

How did He accomplish these temple cleansings? Review and Herald, April 9, 1889, says,

> "Christ had just cleansed the temple of those who defiled it with forbidden traffic. Divinity had flashed through humanity, and men had seen the glory and power of God manifested before them." Review and Herald, April 9, 1889.

On 9/11 a Mighty Angel comes down out of Heaven, no less the personage than Jesus Christ, and He enters into a relationship with those Laodiceans who are willing to wake up and return to the Old Paths and meet the conditions of the Gospel; and, Divinity begins to flash through humanity.

At The Sunday Law in the United States, the Adventist Church is purified. The wheat and tares are separated, and those Adventists that had prepared for the Seal of God are then lifted up as an ensign, and once again Divinity flashes through humanity.

This [9/11/2001 to The Sunday Law (Figure No. 120)] is the First Temple Cleansing.

This [from The Sunday Law to the Close of Probation] is the Second Temple Cleansing.

Okay. Let us pass over Revelation 14. It is in the wrong place in these notes.

Let us go to Revelation 18.

You may not know what I am doing right now, but I am trying to give you the structure of Revelation 18.

Revelation 18:1-3, the First Temple Cleansing:

> "[1]And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. [2]And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. [3]For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies." Revelation 18:1-3 (KJV).

It is the first distinct call that is given to the church.

Then in verse 4, it says,

> "[4]And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Revelation 18:4 (KJV).

This is The Sunday Law. This is Revelation 18, verse 4,

This [9/11/2001] is Revelation 18, verses 1 through 3.

This is Revelation 17 in this history [from 1798 to 9/11/2001].

REACHED UNTO HEAVEN —REVELATION 18:5

And then verse 5 of Revelation 18 says,

> "[5]For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. [6]Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double." Revelation 18:5-6 (KJV).

THE CUP

Let us look at the cup: When is her cup filled?
Review and Herald, March 9, 1886:

> "But Christ declared that not one jot or tittle of the law should fail until heaven and earth should pass away. The very work that he came to do was to exalt the law, and show to the created worlds and to heaven that God is just, and that his law need not be changed. But here is Satan's right-hand man ready to carry on the work that Satan commenced in heaven, that of trying to amend the law of God. And the Christian world has sanctioned his efforts by adopting this child of the papacy,—the Sunday institution. They have nourished it, and will continue to nourish it, until Protestantism shall give the hand of fellowship to the Roman power. Then there will be a law against the Sabbath of God's creation, and then it is that God 'will do a strange work in the earth.' He has borne long with the perversity of the race; he has tried to win them to himself. But the time will come when they shall have filled their measure of iniquity; and then it is that God will work. This time is almost reached. God keeps a record with the nations: the figures are swelling against them in the books of heaven; and when it shall have become a law that the transgression of the first day of the week shall be met with punishment, then their cup will be full." Review and Herald, March 9, 1886.

So, in Revelation 18:5-6, the filling up of the cup is another argument that verse 4 is marking The Sunday Law. Okay?

Her sins have reached unto Heaven in verse 5.
Signs of the Times, November 19, 1894.

> "God instituted the Sabbath as a sign of his authority and power, and the Papacy, acting for the prince of evil, points to the Sunday as a sign of her power and jurisdiction. The day of the sun, Sunday, was a day devoted to the most vile of the heathen worship, for it was celebrated in connection with sun-worship. This Sunday-sabbath has been accepted by many who know it to be the foundling of heathenism, which has been cherished and nourished by the Church of Rome, and by her clothed in the garments of sanctity. But while many are now aware of its origin, there are true Christians in every church who do not know the origin of the Sunday-sabbath, and believe that they are keeping the day which God sanctified and blest. This is true of worshipers even in the Catholic Church; and while this ignorance and integrity remain, God accepts of their sincerity; but when light shall fall upon their pathway, God requires them to come into harmony > with his law, and to observe the Sabbath of his appointing. The time has come when the glory of the Lord is to fill the earth, and when the whole earth shall be lightened with his glory. The cry is sounding to the honest in heart to 'come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.' 'And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.' 'Here is the patience of the saints; here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.'" Signs of the Times, November 19, 1894.

At The Sunday Law her sins have reached unto Heaven. This is another argument that verses 4, 5, and 6 of Revelation 18 are marking The Sunday Law.

DOUBLE UNTO HER—REVELATION 18:6

> Her judgments are beginning here [at The Sunday Law]; but, her judgments are actually starting—the financial structure starts to sink back here [9/11/2001]—but her judgment is beginning here [at The Sunday Law], and it will be doubled unto her.
> Revelation 18:6 we have already read:
> "[6]Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double." Revelation 18:6 (KJV).
>
> Revelation 6:9-11
> But, go to Revelation 6:9-11.
> "[9]And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: [10]And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? [11]And white robes were given unto every one of them, and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled." Revelation 6:9-11 (KJV).

These are the martyrs of the 1260 years, and they ask the question, "How long until you judge the Papacy for murdering us from AD538 to [the end of the] 1260 [years]."

And the answer given to them is, "Just rest in your graves, because there is another group of martyrs that is going to be made up here [during the short space]."

And this is the reason that the Papacy receives a double judgment. She is being judged for the 1260 years of persecution, but she is going to be judged for the persecution of this time period [of the short space] as well, "double unto her." And this begins at The Sunday Law in the United States.

> "Revelation 18 points to the time when, as the result of rejecting the threefold warning of Revelation 14:6–12, the church will have fully reached the condition foretold by the second angel, and the people of God still in Babylon will be called upon to separate from her communion. This message is the last that will ever be given to the world; and it will accomplish its work. When those"—THE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS—"When [SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS} that 'believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness' (2 Thessalonians 2:12), shall be left to receive strong delusion and to believe a lie, then"—*WHEN THOSE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS RECEIVE STRONG DELUSION—"then the light of truth will shine upon all whose hearts are open to receive it, and all the children of the Lord that remain in Babylon will heed the call: 'Come out of her, My people' (Revelation 18:4)." The Great Controversy, 390.

The cleansing of Adventism begins on 9/11 and it continues to The Sunday Law. Those people in Adventism that are preparing for the mark of the beast at The Sunday Law receive strong delusion. Then the call goes to those outside of Adventism, "Come out of her, my people!"

Revelation 18:4 is The Sunday Law in the United States.

Review and Herald—this is all review for us, by the way—Review and Herald, June 15, 1897:

> "The one-hour laborers will be brought in at the eleventh hour, and will consecrate their ability"—

When will they be brought in?

So, what is this short space?

Now, I thought that in Revelation 17:10-12 says that when this seventh kingdom comes, he must continue for a short space.

And, then in verse 12 it says that he is going to rule for two hours with the Beast?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: One hour.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This Eleventh Hour is one hour. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"The one-hour laborers will be brought in at the eleventh hour, and will consecrate their ability and all their entrusted means to advance the work."—

Where are they coming from? Modern Babylon: Edom, Moab, and [the chief children of] Ammon.

But, who is going to finance this work? They are.

They are going to . . .

—"consecrate their ability and all their entrusted means to advance the work. These will receive the reward for their faithfulness, because they are true to principle, and shun not their duty to declare the whole counsel of God. When those who have had abundance of light"—

Who is that? Seventh-day Adventists.

—"throw off the restraint which the word of God imposes, and make void his law, others will come in to fill their places and take their crown." Review and Herald, June 15, 1897.

That is right here [at The Sunday Law].

And we have dealt with this repeatedly.

ESPECIALLY THE LAST TWO—REVELATION 18:21-24

Okay. This is just a snippet of a passage that we read earlier. She is speaking of Revelation 18. She says,

"Take each verse of this chapter, and read it carefully, especially the last two: [verse 23, 24 quoted.]" Manuscript Releases, volume 16, 269–270.

And if you will go to Revelation 18—we have already looked at this. This is review—if you take the last three verses [verses 22 through 24]:

"[21]And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. [22]And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; [23]And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. [24]And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Revelation 18:21-24 (KJV).

Now, we have already looked at this in previous presentations, and the phrases (the thoughts that are in these three verses) are, in the Bible, phrases that mark the close of human probation.

INTO THE EUPHRATES—JEREMIAH 51:61-64

"[61]And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words; [62]Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. [63]And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates: [64]And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah." Jeremiah 51:61-64 (KJV).

In Jeremiah 51—and it is in your notes; we are not going to go there—verses 61 through 64, Jeremiah says to take a stone, wrap it in a cloth, and throw it in the Euphrates River, marking the end of Babylon.

ESPECIALLY THE LAST TWO (CONTINUED)

So, here in verse 21 [of Revelation 18] it says,

> "[21]And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all." Revelation 18:21 (KJV).

Verses 21, 22, 23, and 24 of Revelation 18 are marking the end of Babylon, the close of human probation.

THE VOICE OF THE BRIDE . . .

Jeremiah 25:10-11; Jeremiah 7:34

One of the expressions that is repeated in here, the voice of the Bridegroom and the Bride, if you will go to Jeremiah 25, verses 10 and 11; and, Jeremiah 7:34, you will see that when the voice of the Bride and the Bridegroom is 'no more heard at all in thee," it is marking the close of probation.

> "[10]Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle. [11]And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years." Jeremiah 25:10-11 (KJV).

> "[34]"Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate." Jeremiah 7:34 (KJV).

What am I saying? I am saying that verses 21 through 24 of Revelation 18—[marking on the whiteboard] This is the line of Revelation 17 and 18—[verses] 21 through 24, that is the close of human probation.

REVELATION 13

And now we are going to switch gears quickly and bring this to a conclusion.

We did not get through this as quickly as I wanted.

We are going to go to Revelation 13 now. We have already looked at Revelation 13, but we are going to put a couple more things in place.

Okay. All these are review.

> "But what is the 'image to the beast'? and how is it to be formed? The image is made by the two-horned beast, and is an image to the beast. It is also called an image of the beast. Then to learn what the image is like and how it is to be formed we must study the characteristics of the beast itself—the papacy.

> "When the early church became corrupted by departing from the simplicity of the gospel and accepting heathen rites and customs, she lost the Spirit and power of God; and in order to control the consciences of the people, she sought the support of the secular power. The result was the papacy, a church that controlled the power of the state and employed it to further her own ends, especially for the punishment of 'heresy.' In order for the United States to form an image of the beast,"—

Does the United States form an image of the Beast?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. In order for the United States to form an image of the beast, > —"the religious power must so control the civil government that the authority of the state will also be employed by the church to accomplish her own ends." The Great Controversy, 443.

The image of the beast is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship.

Beginning at page 448 of The Great Controversy, it says,

> "The enforcement of Sundaykeeping on the part of Protestant churches is an enforcement of the worship of the papacy—of the beast. Those who, understanding the claims of the fourth commandment, choose to observe the false instead of the true Sabbath are thereby paying homage to that power by which alone it is commanded. But in the very act of enforcing a religious duty by secular power,"—

And what is that religious duty? In the very act of passing The Sunday Law in the United States.

> —"But in the very act of enforcing a religious duty by secular power, the churches would themselves form an image to the beast; hence the enforcement of Sundaykeeping in the United States would be an enforcement of the worship of the beast and his image." The Great Controversy, 448–449.

The image of the beast is fully formed at the enforcement of the mark of the beast, but the mark of the beast and the image of the beast are two different things.

Notice what Sister White says on page 445 of The Great Controversy.

> "The 'image to the beast' represents that form of apostate Protestantism which will be developed when the Protestant churches shall seek the aid of the civil power for the enforcement of their dogmas. The 'mark of the beast' still remains to be defined." The Great Controversy, 445.

Okay. Now we are in Revelation 13. We have put those things in place.

Revelation 13, verse 11, what is Revelation 13, verse 11?

What is Revelation 13, verse 11?

"[11]And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb; and he spake as a dragon." Revelation 13:11 (KJV).

Well, one of the things it is, Revelation 13, verse 11, begins when? 1798, and it ends at The Sunday Law in the United States.

So, one of the things that verse 11 is, it is the history of 1798 until The Sunday Law; because, when the United States speaks, when it passes The Sunday Law, then verse 12 is the history that follows after.

But, right here [at The Sunday Law] the mark of the beast is enforced, but the image of the beast is fully developed in the United States.

And then in verse 14, it says,

"[14]And he [THE UNITED STATES] deceiveth them that dwell on the earth"—

This is not the United States now; this is the whole world.

—"by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an > image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. [15]And he [THE UNITED STATES] had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed." Revelation 13:14-15 (KJV).

Now, what is that? This here in verses 14 and 15 is when the United States commands the world to accept the One World Government, with the Papacy in control.

The image of the beast by definition is the combination of the church and state. The state here is the Government of the entire world. It is a One World Government. But, the church that is in control of this political apparatus is the Papacy. The United States forces the whole world in verses 14 and 15 to accept the One World Government, with the Pope of Rome as the moral authority of that One World Government.

And then when you get to verse 18, you are at the close of probation. Let us read verse 16 [of Revelation 13]..

> "[16]And he causeth all,"—

Once this is in place, "he causeth all,"

> —"both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: [17]And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. [18]Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man: and his number is Six hundred threescore and six." Revelation 13:16-18 (KJV).

Now, we have not the time to go through and make the argument, but I am going to give it to you. Here, those that do not have the mark of the beast, it gets to the point where if you do not have the mark of the beast, you are killed. Okay? That is the Death Decree.

And at the death decree in the time of Stephen, at his death decree, which was the close of probation for Ancient Israel in AD34, at his death decree, as he was dying, what did he do? Acts 7:55-56; what did he do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He preached to them.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He looked up into Heaven and he saw Jesus standing. This, right here [at the waymark of the close of human probation], is the final verses of Revelation 13, the Death Decree, the close of probation.

All right. All this time—this is a bummer! I have not said it, but that is okay; but, you have been—what is it when you learn just by—anyway, subliminally you have been learning that the Message of the Hour comes here before the Close of Probation. Bad idea! WRONG! I did not want to put that in place [removes the waymark line identified as "Message of the Hour" depicted in Figure No. 120 and repositions it in Figure No. 121.][15]

Let me show this to you now. We are at the point where we can bring this to a conclusion.

[15] See Figure No. 122 and explanation in Presentation #62, regarding the waymark of the Message of the Hour being corrected and returned to its original position as depicted in Figure No. 120.

Here is what we are saying: What we have been saying and taught about the last six verses of Daniel 11, one of the strongest arguments, one of the strongest proofs of why this understanding of these verses is correct is that it lines up with Revelation 13 and 17; and, because Sister White often tells us that these are the same books. You would expect them to line up together.

So, Daniel 11, verse 40 is what? It is the same history as Revelation 13:11. It is from 1798 until The Sunday Law. And The Sunday Law per Daniel 11 is verse 41, which corresponds with this.

Then, the King of the North is going to conquer Egypt in verses 42 and 43 [of Daniel11]. And Egypt represents the entire world; whereas, in Revelation 13:11, the United States is going to speak as a dragon. That is The Sunday Law in the glorious land.

And then the United States goes out to the entire world to Egypt and says, "You must accept the One World government." All right?

And this, of course, leads to the close of [human] probation.

And I wish that I would have not done this backwards [referring to the Close of Probation waymark], if I would have pulled this line [the Close of Probation] over here where I had a little more room.

We are out of room, but this here is the Message of the Hour. Now, this is not talking about—what I am putting this here, this is not talking about the sequence of events. All right? The Message of the Hour does not come after human probation closes. That is not what I am saying here. What I am trying to show you here now is the structure of Daniel 11:40-45, of Revelation 13, and Revelation 17; it is identical, it is identical. All right?

Daniel 11, verse 40 (1798) until The Sunday Law (verse 41). Then, the King of the North conquers Egypt (the entire world); and, then you have the Message of the Hour emphasized in verse 44.

Okay. Now, in Revelation 17, you have the history of how the threefold union comes together: the sixth, seventh, and eighth kingdoms comes together to form the Sixth Kingdom.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, Revelation 17, in verses 1 and 2, we are told it is about the judgment of the Great Whore. So, Revelation 17, it tells us about how the threefold kingdom comes together; and, in Revelation 17, it tells us that the Dragon and the Ten Kings, they are going to bring judgment on the Great Whore. They are going to burn her with fire and eat her flesh. We have dealt with that.

But then in Revelation 18, what do we have? We have the Message of the Hour.

In Revelation 13, verse 11, we have 1798 until The Sunday Law, when the United States speaks as a dragon.

Then in verses 14 and 15 [of Revelation 13], the King of the North conquers Egypt: the whole world sets up an image of the Beast.

You get down here [Close of Probation, Revelation 13:15] where is the Death Decree: if you do not have the mark of the Beast, you are put to death. Human probation closes.

And then you have Revelation what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Fourteen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You have Revelation 14.

And what is Revelation 14?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is the Message of the Hour.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Message of the Hour.

Okay. So, in each of these histories you see first the story from here (1798) to here [the World Sunday Law). This story is the story of the healing of the deadly wound.

And then, once that story is told in each of these instances, you have the Message of the Hour emphasized. Revelation 17 tells the story of the healing of the deadly wound, and then Revelation 18 tells of the Message of the Hour (the Fourth Angel's Message).

Revelation 13 tells the story of the healing of the deadly wound. This is where we get the phrase "the deadly wound" from, Revelation 13. Once that story is told, we have the Message of the Hour (Revelation 14, the Three Angels' Messages, swelled to a Loud Cry).

Daniel 11:40-43 is the story of the healing of the deadly wound. Now the Papacy is in control of Egypt [the world]; and, then in verse 44, you have the Message of the Hour.

This is the identical structure: What we are saying about the last six verses of Daniel 11 fits perfectly with the testimony of Revelation.

And in here, this history here, what do we have?

Okay. Because you do not know the question, you really cannot answer very clearly.

In here what history do we have? We have the history of Pergamos.

What is Pergamos? It is the compromise church. It is the history of Constantine bringing in Paganism with Christianity, preparing the way for Thyatira.

We have made this point that all of these churches exist during this time period.

In this history here [Pergamos], we are going to have God's people lifted up as an ensign. If you are going to be lifted up as an ensign and perfectly reflect the character of Christ, are you living godly in Christ Jesus?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is Ephesus.

But, what happens to those people that are lifted up as an ensign?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They are persecuted.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are persecuted. What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Smyrna.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: [Writes Smyrna on the whiteboard].

But, there are two classes of worshippers. Sister White tells us that the Laodiceans are foolish virgins. If the Laodiceans are foolish virgins, who are the Philadelphians?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The wise virgins.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, you have here Laodicea, and then you have the Philadelphians that are taken out; and, the Philadelphians are lifted up as an ensign to what, for what purpose?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To call out Sardis.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To call Sardis, the eleventh-hour workers.

All of these histories [of the Seven Churches] correspond to what we are saying about the last six verses of Daniel 11. And what we are saying about the last six verses of Daniel 11, it corresponds to Revelation 13 and 14; and, it corresponds to Revelation 17 and 18.

Question?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That line right there after The Sunday Law, the conquering of Egypt, is that like the conquering of the world?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What is the title? World Sunday Law.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Message of the Hour, that is the eleventh hour? That the message for that time is what you are saying?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes; but, remember: I am at just one level when I am dealing with—the question was the Message of the Hour is the message for this period [the short space]? Yes, in each case.

The Message of the East and the North is the Three Angels' Messages of Revelation 14, are the two calls of the churches of Revelation 18, verses 1 through 4: the same message.

But, what I am wanting you to see at another level, not in the sequence of prophecy but at the structure of the prophetic narrative, the way that prophecy is structured grammatically, also you see that in each of these chapters [Daniel 11, Revelation 13 and 17], first the story of the healing of the deadly wound is told, and then the Message of the Hour is marked. This is a prophetic way to prove that verse 44 of the Message of the East and the North is Revelation 14, and the Three Angels' Messages is Revelation 18. It is two distinct calls being made to the Churches.

So, we are not done making our defense of what we are teaching about Daniel 11:40-45; but, one of those arguments is that what we teach about the last six verses of Daniel 11, it fits like a glove in the testimony of Revelation.

And we have left lots of stuff out that we have already put in place. The one that I like is Daniel 11:40 and Revelation 13:11, the same history, 1798 to The Sunday Law. But, that is also Isaiah 23, when Tyre is forgotten for 70 years, as the days of one king.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we are amazed at the accuracy of your Word, the way that the testimony that Daniel recorded, that was repeated by John hundreds and hundreds of years later, is so spot-on. We thank you that you have allowed us to see these connections that we might have confidence that what we understand about the last six verses of Daniel 11 is truly the message of the events connected with the close of probation that multitudes in Adventism have no more understanding of than if they had never been revealed. We ask that you would allow these truths to impact our lives and changes that we might perfectly reflect your character and that we might be tools in your hands to share this oil with those that we come in contact with. We ask that you would give us each a divine appointment today to meet with someone or a group of people that want to hear these truths; and, we ask that as we go to do our different tasks this day that you would keep us safe and that you would let us do what we do for your honor and glory. In Jesus's name, amen.

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, . . . [DVD recording picks up at this point] I would ask that you would overrule my words and my thoughts, to take control of the presentation that it would be a message from on High. Touch my lips with the coal from off your altar that the message might have its designed effect to those that hear it. We pray for a blessing upon the work we are doing with the recording and the LiveStreaming; and, we want the Latter Rain poured out upon us as you open our understanding to your Word. So, we ask that you would accomplish this according to your will. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yesterday we were dealing with this illustration, this presentation on Revelation 17, 13, and Daniel 11. And I looked over there, and for some reason I thought that this line [the waymark for the Message of the Hour] was out of place, and I moved it over there [to the right of the Close of Probation]. But, this line goes here [as corrected in the following, Figure No. 122, before the Close of Probation].

The structure of these three chapters is as follows: They tell the story of the healing of the deadly wound. The healing of the deadly wound in Revelation 17 is when the sixth, seventh, and eighth kingdoms come together, when the Ten Kings agree to give their kingdom unto the Papacy for a short space (for one hour, for the eleventh hour).

And then we have Revelation 18, which is the Message of the Hour.

And at the end of Revelation 18, we have the Close of Probation.

That is the structure of all these prophecies. First it tells the story of how the deadly wound is healed. Then you will see the Message of Hour noted. Revelation [18] tells that story: Verses 1 through 4 is the Message of the Hour. Then down in verses 21 through 24 you will see the Close of Probation.

So, too, with Revelation 13; Revelation 13 tells the healing of the deadly wound (The Sunday Law in the United States), and then the world is confronted with a Sunday Law and a One World Government.

And then you get to Revelation 14, which is the Three Angels' Messages (the Message of the Hour). And, of course, Revelation 14 goes on into Revelation 15, where smoke fills the Sanctuary, marking the Close of Probation and the Seven Last Plagues.

And then in Daniel 11, you have The Sunday Law in verse 41; the conquering of Egypt and the setting up of the image of the beast in Revelation 13 and 14, the Ten Kings agreeing to give their kingdom unto the Papacy for a short space. So, in Daniel 11 the healing of the deadly wound is accomplished here.

Then we see the Message of the Hour, the tidings out of the East and the North of verse 44; followed by Daniel 12:1, the Close of Probation.

So, I looked over there in my haste yesterday and was thinking I had it wrong and changed it around. I should have taken some time to think about it, but did not.

THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY
ELIJAH
THEME

REPETITION OF HISTORY

We are going to jump right into this quote in our next presentation here. This is from Manuscript Releases, number 13, page 394.

When it comes to the Spirit of Prophecy and the last six verses of Daniel 11, there are not very many places that Sister White references Daniel 11, but I think this is the most important. But, that is just my human understanding.

She says,

> "We have no time to lose. Troublous times are before us. The world is stirred with the spirit of war. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place. The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel"—

Okay. So, she is being specific. And in our studies here, we have shown previously thoroughly that Ellen White believed that the Time of the End was 1798, and verse 40 of Daniel 11 says, "And at the time of the end," or in 1798. So, when Sister White in this passage is going to reference the future fulfillment of Daniel 11, she understood, her writings mark, that the future fulfillment of Daniel 11 from her day and age would be verses 40 and onward, because she knew that the first 39 verses came before verse 40. The first 39 verses were history that preceded the Time of the End 1798.

So,

> —"The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated."—

So, now she is identifying a specific prophetic rule in Daniel 11 that we are to look for, that rule being that there are histories in the first 39 verses of Daniel 11 that will be repeated when the last six verses of Daniel 11 are fulfilled.

> —"Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy"—

And the prophecy she is speaking of is Daniel 11.

—"Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated. In the thirtieth verse a power is spoken of that"—

And now she is going to quote verses 30 to 36 of Daniel 11.

—"'In the thirtieth verse a power is spoken of that shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.' Daniel 11:30–36.

"Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place."—

Scenes similar to those described in verses 30 to 36 of Daniel 11 will be repeated in the last six verses of Daniel 11.

She continues on. She says,

—"We see evidence that Satan is fast obtaining the control of human minds who have not the fear of God before them. Let all read and understand the prophecies of this book, for we are now entering upon the time of trouble spoken of:"—

And now she is going to quote Daniel 12, verses 1 through 4. So, not only does she talk about the future fulfillment of Daniel 11 and say that the history of verses 30 to 36 is going to illustrate verses 40 through 45, but then she brings it to a conclusion in Daniel 12:1-4.

—"'And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.' Daniel 12:1–4." Manuscript Releases, number 13, 394.

So, she is emphasizing the last six verses of Daniel 11 very specifically, and very specifically telling us that whatever you think those verses represent, they have to parallel the history of verses 30 to 36.

So, we are going to look at the history of verses 30 to 36 as set forth by Uriah Smith. And this is where things become problematic for Seventh-day Adventists.

Verse 29 [of Daniel 11]:

> "[29]At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter." Daniel 11:29 (KJV).

Pagan Rome is introduced into Daniel 11 in verse 14 as the "robbers of thy people"; but, Pagan Rome does not begin to enter into the conquering of the world until verse 16. But, from verse 16 until verse 30, the subject of Daniel 11 is Pagan Rome. In verse 31 it is going to switch to Papal Rome. But, here in verse 29, it is still Pagan Rome, and Uriah Smith comments on this verse.

You will notice that in the verse there are two returnings. It says, "At the time appointed he shall return," and we have dealt with this in the past. This "time appointed," the time appointed in the terminology of Daniel is the end of a time prophecy, and in Daniel 11:24 there is a time prophecy that identifies how long Pagan Rome would rule the world supremely. It says it would rule it for a time, and a time is 360 years. And the time that is referenced in verse 24 of Daniel 11 begins at the Battle Actium in 31BC and ends in the Year AD330 when Constantine moves the capitol from the City of Rome to the City of Constantinople.

So, it is saying that at the time appointed, in the Year AD330—somewhere after the year AD330, Pagan Rome is going to return. It is going to come towards the South," but it shall not be as the former, or the latter."

Here is Uriah Smith's comment on this.

> "The time appointed is probably the prophetic time of verse 24, which has been previously mentioned. It closed, as already shown, in A.D.330, at which time this power was to return and come again toward the south, but not as on the former occasion, when it went to Egypt, nor as the latter, when it went to Judea. Those were expeditions which resulted in conquest and glory. This one led to demoralization and ruin. The removal of the seat of empire to Constantinople was the signal for the downfall of the empire. Rome then lost its prestige. The western division was exposed to the incursions of foreign enemies. On the death of Constantine, the Roman empire was divided into three parts, between his three sons, Constantius, Constantine II, and Constans. Constantine II and Constans quarreled, and Constans, being victor, gained the supremacy of the whole West. He was soon slain by one of his commanders, who, in turn, was shortly after defeated by the surviving emperor, and in despair ended his own days, A.D.353. The barbarians of the North now began their incursions, and extended their conquests till the imperial power of the West expired in A.D.476. "—

By AD476 Pagan Rome disintegrated into these ten nations.

> —"This was indeed different from the two former movements brought to view in the prophecy; and to this the fatal step of removing the seat of empire from Rome to Constantinople directly led." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 280.

So, verse 29 is identifying that Pagan Rome now is collapsing in its power. Its supreme power ended in AD330, at the end of the time prophecy of verse 24.

THE SHIPS OF CHITTIM

So, verse 30 is the last verse that is going to deal with Pagan Rome. It says,

> "[30]For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant." Daniel 11:30 (KJV).

Uriah Smith comments on this. It says,

> "The prophetic narrative still has reference to the power which has been the subject of the prophecy from the sixteenth verse; namely, Rome. What were the ships of Chittim that came against this power, and when was this movement made? What country or power is meant by Chittim? Dr. A. Clarke, on Isaiah 23:1, has this note: 'From the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. The news of the destruction of Tyre by Nebuchadnezzar is said to be brought to them from Chittim, the islands and coasts of the Mediterranean; for the Tyrians, says Jerome, on verse 6, when they saw they had no other means of escape, fled in their ships, and took refuge in Carthage, and in the islands of the Ionian and AEgean Seas. So also Jochri on the same place.' Kitto gives the same locality to Chittim; namely, the coast and islands of the Mediterranean; and the mind is carried by the testimony of Jerome to a definite and celebrated city situated in that land; that is, Carthage.
> "Was ever a naval warfare with Carthage as a base of operations, waged against the Roman empire? We have but to think of the terrible onslaught of the Vandals upon Rome under the fierce Genseric, to answer readily in the affirmative. Sallying every spring from the port of Carthage at the head of his numerous and well-disciplined naval forces, he spread consternation through all the maritime provinces of the empire. That this is the work brought to view is further evident when we consider that we are brought down in the prophecy to this very time. In verse 29, the transfer of empire to Constantinople we understood to be mentioned. Following in due course of time, as the next remarkable revolution, came the irruptions of the barbarians of the North, prominent among which was the Vandal war already mentioned. The years A.D.428–468 mark the career of Genseric." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 280–281.

The ships of Chittim or Genseric, they are the Second Trumpet of Revelation. Okay? And the first four trumpets bring Western Rome to a conclusion by AD476; but, the trumpet that cuts off the Mediterranean Ocean, the lanes of economic travel and support to Rome, is Genseric.

GRIEVED AND RETURN

> "[30]For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant." Daniel 11:30 (KJV).

The same verse says, "therefore he shall be grieved, and return," and Uriah Smith comments on this. He says,

> "'He shall be grieved and return.' This may have reference to the desperate efforts which were made to dispossess Genseric of the sovereignty of the seas, the first by Majorian, the second by Leo,"—

And these are the two returnings.

> —"both of which proved to be utter failures; and Rome was obliged to submit to the humiliation of seeing its provinces ravaged, and its 'eternal city' pillaged by the enemy." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 282.

So, in verse 30, Genseric, the trumpet powers, are coming against Rome, "against him"; and, twice in this verse he is going to return. He is going to attempt by these two leaders (Leo and Majorian) to defeat Genseric; but, they have no success in doing so.

INDIGNATION AGAINST THE COVENANT

> "[30]For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant." Daniel 11:30 (KJV).
> It says that they will have also in this verse,
> "'Indignation against the covenant;'"—

Here Uriah Smith is identifying the covenant as the Bible, and he says, > —"Indignation against the covenant; that is, the Holy Scriptures, the book of the covenant. A revolution of this nature was accomplished in Rome. The Heruli, Goths, and Vandals, who conquered Rome, embraced the Arian faith, and became enemies of the Catholic Church. It was especially for the purpose of exterminating this heresy that Justinian decreed the pope to be the head of the church and the corrector of heretics."—

And when did Justinian do that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD 533.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD533.

—"The Bible soon came to be regarded as a dangerous book that should not be read by the common people, but all questions in dispute were to be submitted to the pope. Thus was indignity heaped upon God's word. And the emperors of Rome, the eastern division of which still continued, had intelligence, or connived with the Church of Rome, which had forsaken the covenant, and constituted the great apostasy, for the purpose of putting down 'heresy.' The man of sin was raised to his presumptuous throne by the defeat of the Arian Goths, who then held possession of Rome, in A.D.538." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 282.

Okay. So, they have indignation against the Bible, the holy covenant, in this history; and, then Pagan Rome begins to connive or have intelligence with the Papacy and, from that point on, the Papacy becomes the subject of Daniel 11.

ARMS SHALL STAND ON HIS PART

And in verse 31, it says,

"[31]And arms shall stand on his part,"—

The arms are the military power of these European kings that are going to stand up for the Papacy. The Papacy is "his part."

—"and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. Daniel 11:31.

In the next reading is from a Catholic publication called The National Catholic Register; and, this is an old article from September 1996. And it is going to show that even if Seventh-day Adventists do not understand that Clovis is the symbol of the military power that stood up for the Papacy, that the Papacy understands this.

This is from 1996. It says,

Papal Trip to Mark 'Baptism' Of France

By DIANA GEDDES Special to the Register

"PARIS—John Paul II is coming to France this month–his fifth visit since becoming Pope in 1978–to celebrate the 15th centenary of the baptism of Clovis, the first Western Christian king and founder of the modern French nation.

"It was as a result of that baptism–traditionally believed to have taken place in Reims in 496 A. D.—"—

So, the Pope is going to France in 1996, 1500 years after Clovis's baptism, to celebrate Clovis's baptism.

—"It was as a result of that baptism—traditionally believed to have taken place in Reims in 496 A.D.—that France glories in the title of the 'eldest daughter of the Church.'. . .

"It was in Reims that Clovis, pagan leader of the Salian Franks, was baptized by St. Remi, the bishop of Reims, in the presence of all the kings nobles. He was to give to France (then still known as Gaul) its name, its capital, its first royal dynasty (the Merovingians, named after his grandfather, Merovec), and its official faith."—

Clovis was to give these things to France.

—"Some have suggested that Clovis' baptism was also the baptism of France. . . . The king's baptism did, however, mark the first official recognition of Christianity in a country still dominated by paganism and Arianism (the early Christian heresy which denied the divinity of Christ).

"The history of France and of Europe, and indeed the history of the Catholic Church would not have been the same if this baptism had not taken place. . . . Celebrating Clovis' baptism endorses the traditional view that his conversion marked the actual founding of France. 'By celebrating the baptism of Clovis, the French republic is unilaterally endorsing a certain Christian image of France,' he wrote. 'To remember Clovis is to recall monarchic religious and the divine rights of kings. . . .'

"Shortly after establishing himself as king, Clovis fell in love with and married Clotilda, a beautiful Bergundian princess who had been left a penniless orphan after the brutal murder of her parents by her wicked uncle, the king of Burgundy. A devout Catholic, Clotilda was to play a key role in her pagan husband's conversion to Christianity.

"According to tradition, Clovis spiritual turning point came in 496 during the battle of Tobiac against the Alemanni (another invading Germanic tribe). When all appeared lost for the Franks, Clovis raised his eyes to the heavens and cried out, 'God of Clotilda, if you give me victory, I will become a Christian.' The Alamanni turned and fled.

"Not long after this, during Clovis baptism, a second miracle reportedly occurred. The baptizing priest, who had been sent to bring the holy oil to the baptistery, was unable to push his way back through the hordes of Clovis' Frankish warriors crowding around the cathedral. The situation was saved by the sudden arrival of a white dove, which was seen to descend with a holy vial which it carefully placed in Clovis' hands."—

Oh, sure!

—"In the 25 years of his reign, Clovis . . . managed to drive off the waves of barbarian invaders and greatly extend his realm's boundaries to the east and south, consolidating his power through an alliance with the Church. . . . "—

A church/state alliance.

—"It is not yet known whether French President Jacques Chirac, who will meet the Pope upon his arrival in France on September 19, will attend the anniversary celebration of Clovis baptism three days later in Reims Cathedral. He may now consider it politically ill-advised. But there is little doubt that his predecessor and political mentor, General Charles de Galle, would have gone.

"'For me,' de Galle said, 'the history of France begins with Clovis. My country is Christian and I begin to count the history of France from the arrival of a Christian king bearing the name of the Franks." The National Catholic Register, September 8, 1996.

So, in verse 31, it says, "arms shall stand on his part," and the symbol of military power coming to the aid of the Papacy in this history is Clovis; and, the date for that is AD496.

Even if we do not understand this any longer, the Catholic Church does; and, we do not understand this any longer because the theologians in Adventism certainly reject what Uriah Smith says here. In fact, when you go into the early part of the 20th Century and you look at Ellen White opposing Daniells and Prescott in their attempt to bring in the false view of the Daily, attempting to bring in the view that the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry, you will see one of the issues that Sister White is rebuking them about is that they want to go in and change the books. Well, this is one of the passages in Uriah Smith's book that they want to change that they do not agree with, and we will show you the logic of that.

Now, this is a battleground for Advent history, these verses here, whether you are aware of it or not.

THE SANCTUARY OF STRENGTH

So, in verse 31,

"[31]And arms shall stand on his part,"—

That is AD496. That is Clovis and, thereafter, all the other European royalty that propped up the Papacy during the 1260 years.

—"[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they"—

So, the they is the arms, it is not the his; because they is plural and his is singular, and arms is plural.

—"[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they [THE ARMS] shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

Now, the modern theologians of Adventism, they are going to tell you that this sanctuary is Christ's Sanctuary in Heaven, but it is not. Okay? This is one of the reasons you have got to change this passage in Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation; because this sanctuary here they are treating as God's Sanctuary, but that is not the understanding that is in the book that Sister White says is God's helping hand.

On page 282 of Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, it says,

> "The power of the empire was committed to the carrying on of the work before mentioned. 'And they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,' or Rome."—

The sanctuary of Rome's strength is the City of Rome. When Rome ruled from the City of Rome, it was invincible. Rome was invincible from the Battle of Actium in 31BC for a time, for 360 years, until the Year AD330 when Constantine moved the capital of the empire from the City of Rome to Constantinople.

When the Goths were driven out of the City of Rome in AD538, then the Pope of Rome was invincible, so to speak, for 1260 years, until he was removed from the City of Rome by Napoleon, by Berthier in AD1798. When Rome is in the City of Rome, they are invincible. It is their strength. It is the sanctuary of their strength.

And, of course, this word sanctuary is not e sh that is translated as sanctuary. When you see e sh translated as sanctuary in God's Word, it is only God's Sanctuary.

This is sh , and it can be a Pagan sanctuary or God's Sanctuary.

> —"'And they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,' or Rome. If this applies to the barbarians, it was literally fulfilled;"—

The barbarians, who are the barbarians? The barbarians is a general term for the first three out of four trumpet powers. If you want to call Genseric out of North Africa a barbarian, fine; but, the barbarians are the first four trumpets, and they are tearing the Empire of Rome apart. By AD476 Western Rome is gone; all that is left is Eastern Rome, and that is accomplished by the first four trumpets, the barbarians.

> —"If this applies to the barbarians [THAT POLLUTE THE SANCTUARY OF STRENGTH], it was literally fulfilled, for Rome was sacked by the Goths and Vandals, and the imperial power of the West ceased through the conquest of Rome by Odoacer. Or if it refers to those rulers of the empire who were working in behalf of the papacy against the pagan and all other opposing religions, it would signify the removal of the seat of empire from Rome to Constantinople, which contributed its measure of influence to the downfall of Rome."—

Either way, either way, either one of these two choices, Uriah Smith is saying the sanctuary of strength is still the City of Rome, whether you are saying that they pollute the sanctuary of strength through the warfare of the barbarians or they pollute the City of Rome by casting it down as the capital and selecting Constantinople as the capital. Either way they have polluted the City of Rome, the sanctuary of strength. That is what Smith is saying here.

> —"it would signify the removal of the seat of empire form Rome to Constantinople, which contributed its measure of influence to the downfall of Rome. The passage would then be parallel to Daniel 8:11 and Revelation 13:2."

Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 282.

Daniel 8:11 says, "the place of his sanctuary was cast down.' Revelation 13:2 says, "and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat," that is the City of Rome being set aside for Constantinople, and "his great authority," that is Justinian's decree.

So, the arms stand up for the Papacy, warfare ensues, and the City of Rome is polluted. It is repeatedly attacked.

TAKE AWAY THE DAILY

"[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily *sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, pages 282–283:

"And they shall take away the daily sacrifice.'"—

And this is where it really gets serious here now. This here becomes an issue with the Spirit of Prophecy from this point onward, not just the Book of Daniel.

—"And they [THE ARMS, THE MILITARY PEOPLE THAT ARE SUPPORTING THE PAPACY] shall take away the daily sacrifice."—

And the Hebrew word that is translated as take away here is sur, and it means to remove.

And in Daniel 12:11, the Daily is taken away. And the Hebrew word that is translated as take away in Daniel 12:11 is sur, and it means to remove.

But, in Daniel 8:11 when it says they take away the Daily in Daniel 8:11, the Hebrew word is not sur; it is rum, and it does not mean to take away. It means to lift up and exalt.

But here, the Daily, Paganism, is going to be taken away.

And on this [1843] Chart here it says, "508 Taking away of the daily sacrifice, Dan. 12, 11, 12." And if the theologians of Adventism want to argue that that is kind of a vague statement, that is not really vague, though, if you go into the Pioneer writings. You can see that they understood exactly, unitedly that when they wrote this, they were saying the Daily represented Paganism. But, it is not on there [the 1843 Chart] specifically stated; so, here at the end of the world we can argue that.

But on this [1850] Chart, and this Chart was produced to correct the mistake on this [1843] Chart (and the mistake on this Chart was a singular mistake that impacted two of the figures. It was the fullness-of-the-year mistake that first had them predicting 1843 for the 2520 and the 2300). This [1850] Chart was to fix that mistake, and that is the only mistake that is made; but, they did state things differently.

Here [on the 1850 Chart], under "508," they are very clear. Of course, Sister White says this Chart God was in the publishment of this Chart and she saw that there was a prophecy of this Chart in the Bible. And here for "508," it says, "Pagan dominion or The DAILY taken away. Dan. 11:31." That is the verse that we are in.

And this sacred Table [the 1850 Chart] of Habakkuk is identifying this Daily as the Pagan dominion, Paganism.

How is it that the arms, the military strength of Europe that is going to support the Papacy, is going to remove, sur, take away Paganism?

And you notice that the word sacrifice in the verse [Daniel 11:31] is in italics, meaning that it is added. There are many added words in the Bible, but there is only one added word in the Bible that Ellen White comments on, that says it does not belong in the text, and that, of course, is the word sacrifice in connection with the word Daily in the Book of Daniel. In Early Writings, page 74, she says that the word sacrifice was added by human wisdom and does not belong to the text.

So, these arms shall take away the Daily, the Pagan dominion. Sacrifice is not there [being deleted by the Spirit of Prophecy].

Uriah Smith says this,

> —"'And they shall take away the daily sacrifice.' It was shown, on Daniel 8:13, that [THE WORD] sacrifice is a word erroneously supplied; that it should be desolation [THE DAILY DESOLATION]; and that the expression denotes a desolating power, of which the abomination of desolation is but the counterpart, and to which it succeeds in point of time. The 'daily' desolation was paganism,"—

Here is what Daniells and Prescott wanted to get out of that book [Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation]. And the reason that Adventism has the mentality today that Uriah Smith's book is valueless and we really do not need that book—and you run into it all the time, because it has been taught repeatedly for the last hundred years, almost, that this book is unimportant—is because this passage and other passages concerning the Daily. Okay? If you do not know that, you need to know that. You need to start studying this history. This is the controversy; what Uriah Smith was confirming about the Pioneers becomes the point of controversy in the early part of the 20th Century.

> —"The 'daily' desolation was paganism, the 'abomination of desolation' is the papacy. But it may be asked how this can be the papacy; since Christ spoke of it in connection with the destruction of Jerusalem. And the answer is, Christ evidently referred to the ninth of Daniel, which is a prediction of the destruction of Jerusalem, and not to this verse of chapter 11, which does not refer to that event."—

Do you understand what he is saying?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Go to Matthew 24. You should understand what he is saying. I would almost say that you are required to understand what he is saying, because there are not many places where Jesus specifically says, "You need to know this truth." But, in Matthew 24, let us start in verse 14. It says,

> "[14]And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. [15]When ye therefore shall see the > ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) [16]Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains: . . .” Matthew 24: 14-16 (KJV).

Jesus is here telling us that the prophetic gospel of the Book of Daniel is the prophetic message that gets carried to the world, and then the end comes.

But in connection with this, He says, “the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION, spoken of by Daniel the prophet” was a sign for the Christians that told them it was time to flee the City of Jerusalem.

And what Uriah Smith is saying is, if you go back to Daniel, that what Jesus was referring to is the abomination of desolation in a general sense: “When you see the abomination of desolation that maketh desolate in the Book of Daniel,” it is representing the Papacy and it is set forth in connection with the Daily that is representing Paganism (the Daily = Paganism, the abomination that maketh desolate = the Papacy).

But not so in Daniel 9, verse 26. It says,

> “[26]And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off,”—

When was Messiah cut off? At the cross.

> —“but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city”—

What city? Jerusalem.

Who are the people of the prince that destroyed Jerusalem?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Pagan Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pagan Rome.

> —“and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations”—IN THE PLURAL—“are determined.” Daniel 9:26 (KJV).

And that is what Uriah Smith is talking about here, that here these desolating powers (plural) are twofold. And the verse itself identifies what these two powers are; because, the first desolating power destroys the city and the sanctuary (that is Pagan Rome), but the war continues on and the last part of the war is accomplished by a flood.

So, if you go to Revelation 12, Revelation 12 introduces the dragon in chapter 12. And in verse 9 it says, > “[9]And the great dragon was case out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: . . .” Revelation 12:9, first part (KJV).

And, more than once in this worship series, we have read a quote from The Great Controversy where Sister White says “the dragon in Revelation 12 is Satan; but, in a secondary sense it is Pagan Rome.” So, though Revelation 12 is talking about the Great Controversy that began in Heaven, when it gets down to the history of Christ in Revelation 12, the dragon power, the earthly representative of Satan is Pagan Rome. Okay?

And in verse 13 it says,

> "[13]And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child." Revelation 12:13 (KJV).

Who is the woman that brought forth the man child?

Who is the man child?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ.

So, he is persecuting the church, and in this history the church is changing from Ancient Israel to the Christian Church. And the people that come to destroy the city and the sanctuary are Pagan Rome, but the end of the war is going to be with a flood.

So, notice, verse 14:

> "[14]And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent."—

Now we are into the history of Christianity, the 1260 years.

> "[15]And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood." Revelation 12:14-15 (KJV).

The persecution that is accomplished by the Papacy is represented as a flood.

So, if you go back to Daniel 9:26, you can see both these desolating powers in this one verse. It says, "and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary [AD70]; and the end thereof shall be with a flood,"—the end of these desolations, in the plural, will be with a flood. That is the Papal desolating power—"and unto the end of the war desolations are determined."

So, Uriah Smith is saying that when Jesus was telling us to understand the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, He is referring to verse 26 in the general sense of the abomination of desolation, not the specific sense when it represents the Papacy.

So, if you go back to Uriah Smith's commentary [in Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, pages 282–283[, in the middle of the first paragraph, it says, > —"And the answer is, Christ evidently referred to the ninth of Daniel, which is a prediction of the destruction of Jerusalem, and not to this verse of chapter 11, which does not refer to that event. Daniel, in the ninth chapter, speaks of desolations and abominations, plural. More than one abomination, therefore, treads down the church; that is, so far as the church is concerned, both paganism and the papacy are abominations. But as distinguished from each other, the language is restricted, and one is the 'daily' desolation, and the other is pre-eminently the transgression or 'abomination' of desolation."—

Do you follow that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Let me show you something that if you do not accept the 2520 as the Millerites did, you do not see this.

The first 2520 against the Northern Kingdom begins in 723BC when Hoshea is carried away captive. And 2520 years later, it ends in 1798. This is the type of stuff here that just amazes me about these guys that want to fight the 2520. They think there are just accidents and coincidences in history that happen to correspond to some kind of false teaching.

But, if you go to the dead center of this history, it brings you to AD538.

Therefore, this 2520 is illustrating 1260 years that Paganism would trample down the sanctuary and the host, followed by 1260 years that Papalism would trample down the sanctuary and the host.

This, of course, is the seven times of Leviticus 26; therefore, this [Paganism] is three and a half times and this [Papalism] is three and a half times.

So, when you see the 1260 years of Papal persecution noted in the Scriptures repeatedly as "times, time, and the dividing of times," the only way to correctly understand that is that this three and a half times [of Papalism] is simply the second three and a half times]. Combined [with the three and a half times of Paganism], it is the seven times of Leviticus 26. You just cannot get away from that, if you are willing to see.

But, if you are unwilling to see and unwilling to hear, then you certainly will not receive that.

Continuing on with Uriah Smith's commentary on how the arms took away the Daily, it says, > —"How was the daily, or paganism, taken away? As this is spoken of in connection with the placing or setting up of the abomination of desolation, or the papacy, it must denote, not merely the nominal change of the religion of the empire from paganism to Christianity, as on the conversion, so-called, of Constantine, but such an eradication of paganism from all the elements of the empire, that the way would be all open for the papal abomination to arise and assert its arrogant claims. Such a revolution as this, plainly defined, was accomplished; but not for nearly two hundred years after the death of Constantine.

> "As we approach the year A.D.508, we behold a grand crisis ripening between Catholicism and the pagan influences still existing in the empire. Up to the time of the conversion of Clovis, king of France, A.D.496, the French and other nations of Western Rome were pagan; but subsequently to that event (AD496), the efforts to convert idolaters to Romanism were crowned with great success. The conversion of Clovis is said to have been the occasion of bestowing upon the French monarch the titles of 'Most Christian Majesty' and 'Eldest Son > of the Church.' Between that time (AD496) and A.D.508, by alliances, capitulations and conquests, the Arborici, the Roman garrisons in the West, Brittany, the Burgundians, and the Visigoths, were brought into subjection.

> "From the time when these successes were fully accomplished; namely, 508, the papacy was triumphant so far as paganism was concerned; for though the latter doubtless retarded the progress of the Catholic faith, yet it had not the power, if it had the disposition, to suppress the faith, and hinder the encroachments of the Roman pontiff. When the prominent powers of Europe gave up their attachment to paganism, it was only to perpetuate its abominations in another form; for Christianity, as exhibited in the Catholic Church, was, and is, only paganism baptized." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 282–283.

Let me look at something real quick.

Go to Hebrews, chapter 8, in verse 10. And this is something that we have looked at before, but we will look at it briefly here once again.

Hebrews 8, verse 10:

> "[10]FOR THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AFTER THOSE DAYS,"—

Does it say "that day" or "those days"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "Those days."

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What are "those days"? He is going to make a covenant after "those days."

> —"[10]FOR THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AFTER THOSE DAYS,"—

What book are we reading?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hebrews.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Book of Hebrews.

Who is the Book of Hebrews written for?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Was it written for the Millerites?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. It was not written for the Millerites. You know it was not written for the Millerites, do you not? The Millerites thought the Sanctuary was the Earth.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It was written for us.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This was written for the people that understand the Sanctuary.

Who was the Book of Hebrews written for?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventh-day Adventists.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Seventh-day Adventists. This is the book that was written in the Bible for Seventh-day Adventists, because we are the only ones in the world that understand this book correctly.

There are probably people outside of Adventism that understand this book well, but this book can only be understood correctly in terms of Adventism.

Okay. So, verse 10, where it says,

> —"[10]FOR THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AFTER THOSE DAYS,"—

Who is the house of Israel that He is speaking of? Modern Israel (Adventism). He is going to make a covenant with Adventism after—what?—those days.

What are "those days"? I am understanding that it is after these two days, the 2520 and the 2300. Okay? Because, in order for this sanctuary to be cleansed in Daniel 8:14, in verse 13 of Daniel 8, both the sanctuary and the host have been trodden underfoot. And in order for the sanctuary to be made right—and that is what the word that is translated as cleansed in verse 14 means, is to be made right—in order for the sanctuary to be made right in Daniel 8:14, the sanctuary needed to cease to be trodden underfoot, and the host needed to cease to be trodden underfoot; because, in Daniel 8:13, both the sanctuary and the host were trodden underfoot, and Daniel 8:14 is talking about the restoration of the sanctuary.

And the 2300 days is talking about the restoration of the sanctuary, and the 2520 is talking about the restoration of the host. So, after those days, these two days [the 2520 and 2300], after these days, after these two time prophecies are fulfilled in 1844, the Lord is going to make a covenant.

> —"[10]FOR THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAITH THE LORD: I WILL PUT MY LAWS INTO THEIR MIND, AND WRITE THEM IN THEIR HEART: AND I WILL BE TO THEM A GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE TO ME A PEOPLE. [11]AND THEY SHALL NOT TEACH EVERY MAN HIS NEIGHBOUR, AND EVERY MAN HIS BROTHER, SAYING, KNOW THE LORD: FOR ALL SHALL KNOW ME, FROM THE LEAST TO THE GREATEST. [12]FOR I WILL BE MERCIFUL TO THEIR UNRIGHTEOUSNESS, AND THEIR SINS AND THEIR INIQUITIES WILL I REMEMBER NO MORE." —

This, or course, is pointing forward to the final covenant of the 144,000 and the blotting out of sin.

Verse 13:

> —"[13]In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old."—

That is what I wanted you to see.

> —"Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away." Hebrews 8:10-13 (KJV).

And there are other places in the Book of Hebrews where we find that the old is set aside for the new.

And all I want you to see very briefly here, we have already looked at this before. So, this is a review of our series.

But, in the time of Christ, He was setting aside the Old Testament, the old covenant, the earthly sanctuary, and bringing in the New Testament, the new covenant, the Heavenly Sanctuary.

But, Christ was born, and He was 30 years in preparation, and then He was empowered and He gave His testimony for three and a half years, and then He was crucified.

All right. In this history, the old covenant is being set aside to bring in the new covenant. Okay? The old dispensation is being set aside for the new dispensation.

But, this pattern of Christ governs the pattern of antichrist, because antichrist is a counterfeit for Christ; and, therefore, when we see AD508 here, and then 30 years of preparation to bring us to AD538 for the Papacy to be empowered to give its testimony for three and a half prophetic years, until it receives its deadly wound in 1798; and, when we see AD508 what is being set aside is Paganism to bring in Papalism, we are seeing the change of dispensation, the change of satanic dispensation between AD508 and AD538 that is paralleling the change of dispensation from the earthly sanctuary to the Heavenly Sanctuary; old covenant, new covenant, in the time of Christ. And, it is an absolute perfect parallel.

But, for the theologians in Adventism that have trained their minds to think there is a lot of discrepancies and accidents and coincidences in God's Word, they write that off because they do not want to accept what Uriah Smith is saying here about the Daily.

TAKE AWAY THE DAILY

Okay. Now, because of time, we are not going to bypass this next quote [under the subtitle "Take Away the Daily"], but we are going to take it up tomorrow—

The next passage from Uriah Smith was going to explain how the arms place the abomination that maketh desolate upon the throne of the Earth in AD538. Maybe we will not even come back to that. That is pretty self-evident, and you will have it in your notes [as follows].

> "[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily *sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, pages 282–283:

"'And they shall take away the daily sacrifice.' It was shown, on Daniel 8:13, that sacrifice is a word erroneously supplied; that it should be desolation; and that the expression denotes a desolating power, of which the abomination of desolation is but the counterpart, and to which it succeeds in point of time. The 'daily' desolation was paganism, the 'abomination of desolation' is the papacy. But it may be asked how this can be the papacy; since Christ spoke of it in connection with the destruction of Jerusalem. And the answer is, Christ evidently referred to the ninth of Daniel, which is a prediction of the destruction of Jerusalem, and not to this verse of chapter 11, which does not refer to that event. Daniel, in the ninth chapter, speaks of desolations and abominations, plural. More than one abomination, therefore, treads down the church; that is, so far as the church is concerned, both paganism and the papacy are abominations. But as distinguished from each other, the language is restricted, and one is the 'daily' desolation, and the other is pre-eminently the transgression or 'abomination' of desolation.

"How was the daily, or paganism, taken away? As this is spoken of in connection with the placing or setting up of the abomination of desolation, or the papacy, it must denote, not merely the nominal change of the religion of the empire from paganism to Christianity, as on the conversion, so-called, of Constantine, but such an eradication of paganism from all the elements of the empire, that the way would be all open for the papal abomination to arise and assert its arrogant claims. Such a revolution as this, plainly defined, was accomplished; but not for nearly two hundred years after the death of Constantine.

"As we approach the year A.D.508, we behold a grand crisis ripening between Catholicism and the pagan influences still existing in the empire. Up to the time of the conversion of Clovis, king of France, A.D.496, the French and other nations of Western Rome were pagan; but subsequently to that event, the efforts to convert idolaters to Romanism were crowned with great success. The conversion of Clovis is said to have been the occasion of bestowing upon the French monarch the titles of 'Most Christian Majesty' and 'Eldest Son of the Church.' Between that time and A.D.508, by alliances, capitulations and conquests, the Arborici, the Roman garrisons in the West, Brittany, the Burgundians, and the Visigoths, were brought into subjection.

"From the time when these successes were fully accomplished; namely, 508, the papacy was triumphant so far as paganism was concerned; for though the latter doubtless retarded the progress of the Catholic faith, yet it had not the power, if it had the disposition, to suppress the faith, and hinder the encroachments of the Roman pontiff. When the prominent powers of Europe gave up their attachment to paganism, it was only to perpetuate its abominations in another form; for Christianity, as exhibited in the Catholic Church, was, and is, only paganism baptized." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 282–283.

SHALL PLACE THE ABOMINATION

"[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, pages 285–288:

"Let it be marked that in this year, 508, paganism had so far declined, and Catholicism had so far relatively increased in strength, that the Catholic Church for the first time waged a successful war against both the civil authority of the empire and the church of the East, which had for the most part embraced the Monophysite doctrine. The extermination of 65,000 heretics was the result.

"Further evidence regarding the time is supplied by the prophecy of Daniel 12:11, where it is stated that 'from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, . . . there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.' As verses 4, 6, 7, 8, 9 of this chapter speak of the 'time of the end,' we may reasonably conclude the same time is meant in verse 11. Reckoning back 1290 'days,' or years, from the 'time of the end,' which began A.D.1798, we are brought to the year A.D.508.

"From these evidences we think it clear that the daily, or paganism, was taken away in A.D.508. This was preparatory to the setting up, or establishment of the papacy, which was a separate and subsequent event. Of this the prophetic narrative now leads us to speak.

"'And they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.' Having shown quite fully what constituted the taking away of the daily, or paganism, we now inquire, When was the abomination that maketh desolate, or the papacy, placed, or set up? The little horn that had eyes like the eyes of man was not slow to see when the way was open for his advancement and elevation. From the year 508 his progress toward universal supremacy was without a parallel.

"When Justinian was about to commence the Vandal war, A.D.533, an enterprise of no small magnitude and difficulty, he wished to secure the influence of the bishop of Rome, who had then attained a position in which his opinion had great weight throughout a large portion of Christendom. Justinian therefore took it upon himself to decide the contest which had long existed between the sees of Rome and Constantinople as to which should have the precedence, by giving the preference to Rome, and declaring, in the fullest and most unequivocal terms, that the bishop of that city should be chief of the whole ecclesiastical body of the empire. A work on the Apocalypse, by Reverend George Croly, of England, published in 1827, presents a detailed account of the events by which the supremacy of the pope of Rome was secured. He gives the following as the terms in which the letter of Justinian was expressed:

"'Justinian, pious, fortunate, renowned, triumphant, emperor, consul, etc., to John, the most holy archbishop of our city of Rome, and patriarch.

'Rendering honor to the apostolic chair and to your holiness, as has been always, and is, our wish, and honoring your blessedness as a father, we have hastened to bring to the knowledge of your holiness all matters relating to the state of the churches; it having been at all times our great desire to preserve the unity of your apostolic chair, and the constitution of the holy churches of God, which has obtained hitherto, and still obtains.

"'Therefore, we have made no delay in subjecting and uniting to your holiness all the priests of the whole East. . . . We cannot suffer that anything which relates to the state of the church, however manifest and unquestionable, should be moved without the knowledge of your holiness, who is THE HEAD OF ALL THE HOLY CHURCHES; for in all things, as we have already declared, we are anxious to increase the honor and authority of your apostolic chair.'—Croly, 114,115. . . .

". . . the highest authorities among the civilians and annalists of Rome, . . .ascend to Justinian as the only legitimate source, and rightly date the title from the memorable year 533. . . ."

"Such were the circumstances attending the decree of Justinian. But the provisions of this decree could not at once be carried into effect; for Rome and Italy were held by the Ostrogoths, who were Arians in faith, and strongly opposed to the religion of Justinian and the pope. It was therefore evident that the Ostrogoths must be rooted out of Rome before the pope could exercise the power with which he had been clothed. To accomplish this object, the Italian war was commenced in 534. . . .

"Belisarius entered Rome December 10, 536. But this was not an end of the struggle; . . .

"The whole nation of the Ostrogoths had been assembled for the siege of Rome; but success did not attend their efforts. Their hosts melted away in frequent and bloody combats under the city walls; and the year and nine days during which the siege lasted, witnessed almost the entire consumption of the whole nation. In the month of March, 538, dangers beginning to threaten them from other quarters, they raised the siege, burned their tents, and retired in tumult and confusion from the city, with numbers scarcely sufficient to preserve their existence as a nation or their identity as a people.

"Thus the Gothic horn, the last of the three, was plucked up before the little horn of Daniel 7. Nothing now stood in the way of the pope to prevent his exercising the power conferred upon him by Justinian five years before. The saints, times, and laws were now in his hands, not in purpose only, but in fact. And this must therefore be taken as the year when this abomination was placed, or set up, and as the point from which to date the predicted 1260 years of its supremacy." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 285–288.

But, I want to go to where it says, "Present Truth" now. All right?

We are going to spend some time, by the way, if you have not gathered, we are going to spend some time on Daniel 11:30-36 and how it parallels the last six verses of Daniel 11.

PRESENT TRUTH

But, under "Present Truth," it says, from The 1888 Materials, page 133:

"In every age the gospel ministry has tended to the same end. But every minute specification is not revealed in the Word of God. He desires us to use our reason and experience, by their help adopting methods and plans which, under the existing circumstances, are for the benefit of the church and the schools and the other institutions which have been established. 'By their fruits ye shall know them.' If erroneous opinions are entertained, search the Scriptures with hearts which are humbled before God. Pray to the Lord, believing that He hears, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. If we will only believe, we shall receive the help we need.

"The message 'Go forward' is still to be heard and respected."—

Now, what Sister White is dealing with here in this passage is someone may get a message, the Lord may tell a messenger to go forward, and the argument comes, "Look, did you ask permission from your pastor or your elders before you went forward?"

—"The message 'Go forward' is still to be heard and respected. The varying circumstances taking place in our world call for labor which will meet these peculiar developments. The Lord has need of men who are spiritually sharp and clear-sighted, men worked by the Holy Spirit, who are certainly receiving manna fresh from heaven. Upon the minds of such, God's Word flashes light, > revealing to them more than ever before the safe path. The Holy Spirit works upon mind and heart. The time has come when through God's messengers the scroll is being unrolled to the world."—

What is the scroll being unrolled to the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Responses are not discernible.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the unsealing of the book that sealed the Seven Seals by the Lion of the Tribe of Judah; or, you could say it is the Dirt Brush Man sweeping out the counterfeit coins; or, you could say it is the increase of knowledge that takes place when the Book of Daniel is unsealed.

> —"The time has come when God's messengers the scroll is being unrolled to the world. Instructors in our schools should never be bound about by being told that they are to teach only what has been taught hitherto. Away with these restrictions. There is a God to give the message His people shall speak."—

Oh, really? We are not suppose to wait for the General Conference to decide what the message is and then send it down through the pastors?

You know, there are claims by some of these pastors now that they are actually designing schedules or themes on what is supposed to be taught, where everyone is teaching the same thing in the same churches around the world. I mean, what does that do to the work of the Holy Spirit? It sets it aside.

If someone is going into the pulpit, they should be directed there on what they are going to say by the Holy Spirit, not by a mandate from the [General Conference].

> —"Away with these restrictions. There is a God to give the message His people shall speak. Let not any minister feel under bonds or be gauged by men's measurement. The gospel must be fulfilled in accordance with the messages God sends. That which God gives His servants to speak today would not perhaps have been present truth twenty years ago,"—

That is the whole point of reading this quote:

> —"That which God gives His servants to speak today would not perhaps have been present truth twenty years ago, but it is God's message for this time." The 1888 Materials, 133.

Okay. So, what am I saying?

I am saying that when Ellen White was alive—she died in 1915—that the subject of the Daily being Paganism was not present truth. It was simply truth. But now it is present truth. Why?

Why is it present truth now? And there are two reasons that it is present truth now; but, one of the reasons it is present truth, the one that we are dealing with today, if you go back to the first quote of your notes, Sister White says, " . . . The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated. In the thirtieth verse . . . ," and then she quotes verses 30 to 36. And, when she quotes 30 to 36, she says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place." She is saying that the history in verses 30 to 36 is the blueprint for the history of verses 40 through 45, and part of the history for verses 30 to 36 is the history of the Daily. Uh-oh.

Once verses 40 through 45 begin to be fulfilled, once the Soviet Union comes down in 1989, now this passage of the Spirit of Prophecy tells us that if we are going to understand the last six verses of Daniel 11 correctly, then we have to be correct about what the Daily represents; and, suddenly the Daily changes from truth to present truth.

So, Sister White could say in her day and age, the Daily is not to be made a test question because it was not to be made a test question in that time period. It was not to be made a test question there, and I am not saying that it is even to be made a test question now because some people have different ideas of what "test questions" mean.

But, once the Soviet Union collapsed in 1989 and students of prophecy were required to understand the implications of that fulfillment, and once this passage in the Spirit of Prophecy was discovered, now we see that we must have a correct understanding of the Daily.

And then, when you get to 9/11/2001 and the Lord leads us back to the Old Paths—

I do not know how many of you remember our worship series, but we went through the reform lines, and in the reform lines there is always a Time of the End; and, then the First Message is empowered, and then the Second Message, and then the Third Message where the door is closed. This (1) is the empowerment of the First Message; this (2) is the activities of the enemy that resist that message; this (3) is where the history comes to a conclusion and a door is closed and judgment is emphasized.

If you remember our study under reform lines, right here there is a foundational work [beginning at the waymark of the First Message], "Foundations."

So, when you get to 9/11, the foundations that the Lord leads us back to are these foundations, the truths on these [1843 and 1850] Charts, and He does so because 9/11 is marked by the activity of Islam. And if you are going to understand Islam in Bible prophecy, then you need to return to the Pioneer logic which allowed them to identify that the First Woe was Islam and the Second Woe was Islam. And if the First Woe was Islam and the Second Woe was Islam, then the Third Woe is 9/11, the arrival of Islam back into history; but. to prove that, you have got to go back to these foundational truths [gesturing towards the 1843 and 1850 Charts] to understand it.

So, once the Lord here [at 9/11] leads us back to the Foundations (the Old Paths of Jeremiah 6:16), then the Old Paths become present truth [again referring to the 1843 and 1850 Charts].

And what is one of the Old Paths? The Daily. So, now the Daily, upon the testimony of two, is present truth, no matter what the theologians would say.

THE TRUMPETS

So, closing this up, if you will go back to our notes, the second quote there from The Great Controversy, beginning at page 334, it says,

> "In the year 1840 another remarkable fulfillment of prophecy excited widespread interest. Two years before, Josiah Litch, one of the leading ministers preaching the second advent, published an exposition of Revelation 9, predicting the fall of the Ottoman Empire. According to his calculations, this power was to be overthrown . . . 'on the 11th of August, 1840, when the Ottoman power in Constantinople may be expected to be broken. And this, I believe, will be found to be the case.'—Josiah Litch, in Signs of the Times, and Expositor of Prophecy, Aug. 1, 1840.
> "At the very time specified, Turkey, through her ambassadors, accepted the protection of the allied powers of Europe, and thus placed herself under the control of Christian nations. The event exactly fulfilled the prediction. When it became known, multitudes were convinced of the correctness of the principles of prophetic interpretation adopted by Miller and his associates, and a wonderful impetus was given to the advent movement. Men of learning and position united with Miller, both in preaching and in publishing his views, and from 1840 to 1844 the work rapidly extended." The Great Controversy, 334-335.

THE 1843 CHART

> "I have seen that the 1843 chart was directed by the hand of the Lord, and that it should not be altered; that the figures were as He wanted them; that His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none could see it, until His hand was removed.
> "Then I saw in relation to the 'daily' (Daniel 8:12) that the word 'sacrifice' was supplied by man's wisdom, and does not belong to the text, and that the Lord gave the correct view of it to those who gave the judgment hour cry. When union existed, before 1844, nearly all were united on the correct view of the 'daily'; but in the confusion since 1844, other views have been embraced, and darkness and confusion have followed. Time has not been a test since 1844, and it will never again be a test." Early Writings, 74–75.

So, what am I saying here? I am saying that the Pioneer understanding of the Trumpets—and we have read a little bit of it from Uriah Smith today—that there are Seven Trumpets, and the Trumpets are the judgments upon Rome in response to Sunday laws, in response to Sunday laws.

The Pioneers did not say it that way; I am saying it that way. But, the rule of thumb is that national apostasy is followed by national ruin.

Sometimes we may just think that just applies to the United States, but that is not so. Sister White says after the United States every country on the globe is going to follow the example of the United States. And when Canada passes a Sunday law, national apostasy will be followed by national ruin: when Canada, the same with Mexico; the same with England; it is a principle.

And the first Sunday law was in AD321, and it was followed by national ruin in 330. We read about that today: The Roman Empire was divided into East and West.

And the national ruin then began with the first four Trumpets that brings Western Rome to an end in 476. After 476 never is there an Italian that sits upon the throne in the City of Rome until, of course, the Pope comes along.

So, the Pioneer understanding is, is that the Trumpets are the judgment that God brings upon Rome. I am adding to the fact that it is in response to the Sunday Law; because, when the Papacy is placed upon the throne in AD538, it enforces a Sunday law. And the Pioneers' understanding is that the Lord raises up Islam to chastise an apostate church. So, here we get the Fifth and Sixth Trumpets in this history, once again in response to a Sunday Law.

What am I saying? I am saying this: The Pioneer understanding of the Trumpets is that you cannot separate them because they are God's providential responses to judge Rome, and they are connected to one another. You cannot separate them out.

Therefore, when Sister White refers to verses 30 to 36 [of Daniel 11] being repeated, and the reference in verse 30 is for "ships of Chittim shall come against them," this passage is including the Pioneer understanding of the Trumpets.

So, when you are setting aside Uriah Smith's commentary of the Pioneer understanding of verses 30 to 36, you are also setting aside the Pioneer understanding of the Trumpets. You are setting aside the Old Paths. Okay? This whole passage becomes present truth.

And, of course, both of these Old Paths that we are dealing with here, the Daily, and AD508, and the Trumpets, are on both of these sacred [1843 and 1850] Charts. So, you are not only setting aside, when you reject the Pioneer understanding of verses 30 to 36, you are not only setting aside the Daily and their understanding of the Trumpets but you are setting aside the endorsement of those truths that are on these Charts; and, you are setting aside the Spirit of Prophecy.

So, before we begin to analyze these verses 30 to 36 in connection with verses 40 through 45, I want you to understand that this passage in Manuscript Releases, volume 13, that we read to start with, this opens a can of worms; because, now, you are not just choosing between the true or untrue understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11. Should you choose to reject the Pioneer understanding of verses 30 to 36, you are simultaneously rejecting the Spirit of Prophecy. Even if you do not understand that, you are.

So, we will continue this tomorrow.

And, what we are doing is we are beginning to get a busy board again. We have done that before. But, let me remove some of these things so I can bring this to a conclusion.

(Brother Pippenger clears areas of the whiteboard.)

We used to have a meeting out at the—there was a Baptist University, and you could rent the rooms, out in California in San Bernardino, one of those towns there, and it was the best place; because, the school rooms, they had whiteboards along the walls and you could do a thing on one whiteboard and you could just walk over five feet and there was another whiteboard, and you could go all the way around the room with the whiteboards. This whiteboard is big, but it is too small.

Okay. What we are wanting to do when we get to the conclusion of this study is we have shown you that Daniel 11, verses 40 through 45, connects with future history in Revelation 13 and Revelation 17, and it does it perfectly. Okay?

But, tomorrow we are going to back in and show that Daniel 11:40-45, it goes backwards in history and connects with the history of verses 30 to 36, and once again it is a perfect parallel. And verses 30 to 36 are going to parallel this and this [Revelations 13, 17] as well; because, we started early on in this presentation of the last six verses of Daniel 11 and showed you that the entire Bible is structured upon those last six verses. So, tomorrow, we will take up our consideration of how 30 to 36 parallels 40 through 45 and what it means if you reject the Pioneer understanding of verses 30 to 36. It means you are rejecting the Spirit of Prophecy.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that the message of your Word, the prophetic events, the sequence of events is so clearly illustrated and it is ever the same. We understand as human beings we cannot understand the deep things of God, that we are very simple in spite of ourselves thinking that we are greatly elevated in our understanding. But, it is obvious that in order to reach us that you have taken the Message of the Hour and just simply repeated it throughout your Word, in the hopes that it might click for us that it is the same story over and over again, and that story is illustrated upon the last six verses of Daniel 11. And we want to understand this. We want to understand not only the events but what it means to us as Seventh-day Adventists living here at the end of the world. We ask a continued blessing upon the work that we are attempting here with the DVDs and the LiveStreaming, and we ask a blessing upon the day's work that each of us is going to take up, that our work might glorify you and that it might be accomplished safely. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #63

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we open your Word this morning, we ask that you would accompany us through the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would take control of this presentation and that what is presented would be designed to edify and strengthen your people. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us by opening our understanding to your Word. We ask that you accomplish that for us at this time and that you forgive us in any way that might be preventing us from being fit vessels to receive that Rain. We thank you for another day of life and another opportunity to serve you and to serve others. We ask that this consideration of your Word would give us a thought to carry through the day. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Manuscript Releases, number 13, page 394, Sister White quotes verses 30 to 36 of Daniel 11 and says that scenes similar to the events in these verses are going to take place when Daniel 11:40-45 is fulfilled. That, of course, is a paraphrase, but it is what is stated in number 13, page 394 of Manuscript Releases, [as follows]:

"We have no time to lose. Troublous times are before us. The world is stirred with the spirit of war. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place. The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated. In the thirtieth verse a power is spoken of that 'shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.' Daniel 11:30–36.

"Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place. We see evidence that Satan is fast obtaining the control of human minds who have not the fear of God before them. Let all read and understand the prophecies of this book, for we are now entering upon the time of trouble spoken of:

"'And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.' Daniel 12:1–4." Manuscript Releases, number 13, 394.

Yesterday we looked at the overview of those verses as set forth by Uriah Smith. Daniel 11, verse 30, is the last verse where Pagan Rome is the subject; and, in the last phrase of verse 30, Pagan Rome has intelligence with the Papacy, "them that forsake the holy covenant." Uriah Smith says that Pagan Rome connived with Papal Rome at the point.

And from this point on now, Papal Rome becomes the subject of the prophecy, all the way to the end. In verse 31 it says,

"[31]And arms"—

This is the military and economic strength of Europe that is going to come to the aid of the Papacy," and the premier symbol of this is Clovis in AD496:

"[31]And arms shall stand on his part [ON THE PAPACY'S PART], and they [THOSE ARMS] shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,"—

The "sanctuary of strength" meaning the City of Rome in the warfare that ensued after Constantine divided the kingdom into the East and West in the year AD330; the City of Rome was the point of conquest. It was repeatedly sacked; it was polluted, for it was the "sanctuary of strength" for both Pagan and Papal Rome—

> "and [THEY, THE ARMS] shall take away the daily"—

And this is identifying the removal of the religion of Paganism as the legal religion of the Empire and replacing it with the Papal religion, which is the last phrase of verse 31,

> "and they [THE ARMS] shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

Then in verse 32, it says,

> "[32]And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. [33]And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall all by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days." Daniel 11:32-33 (KJV).

This "many days" is the 1260 years of Papal rule from AD538 to 1798; and, verses 32 to 35 are emphasizing the persecution that goes on during this history.

Verse 34 says,

> "[34]Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help; but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. [35]And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed."

The time of the end and the time appointed is the end of a time prophecy in the terminology of Daniel the Prophet; and, the time prophecy connected with this persecution of 1260 years, they are going to fall and be purged, made white, until AD1798.

And then in verse 36, it says,

> "[36]And the king [THE PAPACY] shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall [HE IS GOING TO] prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done." Daniel 11:36 (KJV).

He is going to rule until 1798, because in 1798 there is an indignation that is going to be accomplished against him, which we define as the deadly wound. It has been determined.

So, Sister White is saying when it comes to Daniel 11, verses 40 through 45, we should see a parallel history with verses 30 through 36. And, of course, we do.

In Daniel 11, verse 40, during the Ronald Reagan years, we see the secret alliance that begins between Ronald Reagan and the Pope of Rome; and, this is speaking to Pagan Rome having intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. And it says that "the arms," only in verses 40 through 45 the arms that come to the aid of the Papacy (the chariots, ships, and horsemen) is the United States of America. And in the Ronald Reagan years, the United States stood up for the Papacy and began to work with the Papacy by removing the Dragon power, the King of the South (the Soviet Union), its long enemy.

And it says the arms (that would be the United States in verses 40 through 45) shall pollute the sanctuary of strength. Of course, the sanctuary of strength for the United States is not the City of Rome. The sanctuary of strength for the United States is the Constitution. Prophetically what makes the United States strong, when the United States is a kingdom of Bible prophecy (the time period that it rules the world) is when its Constitution is intact; but, at The Sunday Law in the United States, the Constitution is fully destroyed and the Sixth Kingdom of Bible prophecy in terms of Revelation 17 has reached its conclusion. The United States, now fulfilling the role of Ahab, has committed fornication with the Papacy at The Sunday Law; and, the time that Tyre (the Papacy) is forgotten as "the days of one king" has come to a conclusion. This is from 1798 till The Sunday Law. And the United States will pollute the sanctuary of strength; it is going to destroy the very principle that made it strong.

And then it says he shall take away the "daily sacrifice." The United States is a twofold power. All powers have a religious and a political aspect. The two horns of the United States are Republicanism and Protestantism, and Protestantism was the first to begin the fall of Babylon in 1842. If you remember, we have noted that the fall of Babylon is progressive and it begins in 1842 when the Protestant churches reject the First Angel's Message.

The political side of the United States begins its fall in verse 40 in the Ronald Reagan years, and this fall is complete. The fall that begins with the Protestant aspect of the United States in the 1840s reaches its climax at The Sunday Law in the United States. Both the religious and the political horns of the United States have to be overcome. That is accomplished at The Sunday Law.

And the arms (the United States) in verse 31 that are going to take away the Daily, in verse 31 in ancient history it was that the Clovis and the military political leadership of the former Empire of Pagan Rome that disintegrated into ten nations in the West, they removed the state religion of Paganism and replaced it with Papalism. And at The Sunday Law in the United States, the Protestants will fully and completely become apostate Protestantism, and they will set aside Protestantism as their—I do not want to say legal religion, because there is a separation of church and state, but at the prophetic level it is their legal religion, and they set it aside for Catholicism at The Sunday Law in the United States, because that is the mark of Papal authority.

And they will "place the abomination that maketh desolate." The United States is going to be the power that places the Papacy upon the throne of the Earth, just as was Pagan Rome.

Then in verse 32, persecution begins until verse 36; and, in verse 36 you see the Papacy exalting himself until he comes to his end at the end of the indignation.

So, what we are saying here is that these activities by Pagan Rome are perfectly prefiguring the activities of the United States as set forth in Daniel 11:40 to Daniel 12:1.

Daniel 11, verse 40, this is where the intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant takes place.

By the time you get to The Sunday Law in Daniel 11, verse 41, the sanctuary of strength for the United States (the Constitution) is overturned; and the Daily, the former religion of the realm, is set aside. In this case it is not Paganism; it is Protestantism.

And then from verses 41 to 43, the United States is forcing the world to accept the world's image of the beast. It is forcing the world (Egypt) to come under the control of the King of the North.

And then in verses 44 and 45, we have the persecution that is represented in verses 32 to 35. But, in verse 45, exhibiting the arrogance of Rome, the Papacy is standing between the glorious holy mountain (between the church) and the people of the world (the seas), attempting to block the Final Warning Message of the East and the North, the Third Angel's Message that is swelling to a Loud Cry. And he comes to his end with none to help. He prospers until the indignation.

There is no teaching in Adventism concerning the last six verses of Daniel 11 that lines up with the history of verses of 30 to 36 of Daniel 11, except this teaching. And one of the reasons that there is—well, there is only one reason that there is no other teaching that would line up is because there is only one truth. Okay? But, one of the reasons that prevents people from arriving at this truth is that they have accepted the false teaching of the Daily; because, this history of verses 30 to 36 includes verse 31, which has the history of the Daily. Suddenly you have to be correct about the Daily.

You know, when Jesus was on Earth there was a time that He was in a building and they took the roof off and they lowered the paralytic[16] down between Him [and them]. Have you ever seen the connection between the Prophet Noah and the paralytic in the story of Christ? Have you ever seen that connection, their relationship?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No, I have not.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I have not. I know of no relationship. But, if there was a relationship between the paralytic and Noah, then we would be required as students of prophecy to see that relationship. Right?

When it comes to this particular study, there are relationships between Pagan Rome and Papal Rome that are specifically marked repeatedly in the Scriptures, and we must understand those relationships.

Daniel 7:8, 20, 24; 8:9-12, 13-14; Revelation 13:2, 12, 11; 17:17

Daniel 12:7; Leviticus 26:3-12; 28-34; Deuteronomy 4:1-7, 27; 28:4; Jeremiah 9:13-16; 31:10-11

Go to Daniel 7:8. Daniel 7:8 says,

> "[8]I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn,"—

Who are the horns? It is these ten horns which is Pagan Rome, and who is the Little Horn that is going to come up among them?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Papal Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Papal Rome.

—"[8]I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things." Daniel 7:8 (KJV).

Go to verse 20.

"[20]And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows." Daniel 7:20 (KJV).

Then go to verse 24.

"[24]And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings." Daniel 7:24 (KJV).

So, there is a relationship here that is being purposely discussed, between Pagan Rome and Papal Rome. And we understand that it was the power of Pagan Rome that removed those three horns. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, that is not what verse 24 says. It says, ". . . and he," this one king that arises after the ten kings, "shall be diverse from the first king, and [BUT] he shall subdue [THE] three kings." All right. There is a sense that the Papacy is the one directing traffic and removing the three horns.

And why is it that the historians tell us that the three horns were removed? Because, they had a religion that would not co-exist with the Papacy. So, the reason they had to go is because of a religious conflict with the Papacy's.

But, it is not the Papal military that is going to remove them—is it?—because the Papacy does not have a military, does it?

So, we have to see this relationship. If you do not see this relationship, you are really not standing on this foundation [referring to the 1843 and 1950 Charts].

Okay. In this book here, Foundations of the Seventh-day Adventist Message and M ss on," Damsteegt talks about the Millerite History. And on page 22, speaking of William Miller, he is going to say in his analysis but he is speaking about William Miller at the top of page 22, it says,

"In his analysis of the persecuting powers of God's people throughout the ages he developed the concept of the two abominations, defined as paganism (the first abomination) symbolizing the persecuting force outside the church, and the papacy (the second abomination) representing the persecuting power within the church. It was the motif of the two abominations that characterized most of his following prophetic interpretations." P. Gerard Damsteegt, Foundations of the Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, p. 22.

What Damsteegt is correctly saying here is that the Millerite understanding of prophecy—and this [1843] Chart is a Chart—both of these Charts [1843 and 1850 Charts]—the Millerite understanding of prophecy is based upon the understanding that prophecy is illustrating two desolating powers: Paganism and Papalism. This connection between Pagan Rome and Papal Rome is repeatedly emphasized in the Scriptures.

I have not suggested why I think it is important to see this relationship. I will do so as we proceed.

Daniel 8:9-12

But, go to Daniel 8, beginning in verse 9. We are not going to go in-depth with this, but we are just going to show you some of the relational connections between Pagan Rome and Papal Rome. In verse 9, it says,

"[9]And out of one of them came forth a little horn,"—

This little horn is the little horn of Rome, both Pagan and Papal; but, in verse 9 it is Pagan Rome.

—"[9]And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land." Daniel 8:9 (KJV).

This is Pagan Rome, and for Pagan Rome to take control of the world, it had to do something that Papal Rome was also going to have to do. And we just read what Papal Rome had to do.

What did Papal Rome have to do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Pluck up three.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pluck up three horns.

And in order for Pagan Rome to rule the world supremely, it had to overcome three geographical obstacles; and, upon the testimony of two a thing is established. And in our quote that we are working from today, it says, "Much of the history that is taking place in the fulfillment of Daniel 11 will be repeated." (Manuscript Releases, number 13, 394, paraphrased).

And we have in verses 16 and 17 of Daniel 11, which Sister White is speaking about—go to verses 16 and 17 of Daniel 11, so we can put it back in your memory if you have forgotten.

Daniel 8:13-14

In verse 13, the Syrian king who is the King of the North because Syria is the area that has Babylon in it, in verse 13,

"[13]For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches."—

The King of the North is getting ready to attack the King of the South (Babylon is getting ready to attack Egypt). And in this preparation for warfare in verse 13, verse 14 says,

> "[14]And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south:"—

Egypt is having big problems.

> —"also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall." Daniel 11:13-14 (KJV).

Okay. The "robbers of thy people," sometimes it is translated by some translators as the "breakers of the people," and Rome is the breaker; it breaks in pieces. This is Pagan Rome, first introduced into Daniel 11; and, they exalt themselves so much that they try to kill Christ when He is born, and they do kill Him at the cross. That is pretty profound self-exaltation when you participate in murdering God.

"But they shall fall." The story of Rome, both Pagan and Papal, is their fall.

And they establish the vision.

And then in verse 15 it goes back to the King of the North that is preparing to invade Egypt. So, it says,

> "[15]So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand. [16]But he that cometh against him"—

Against whom? Against the King of the North.

> —"[16]But he that cometh against"—THE POWER THAT WAS JUST SPOKEN OF IN VERSE 15, THE KING OF THE NORTH—

And who is it that is going to come against the King of the North? It is Pagan Rome. The one that comes against the King of the North that no one can stand against is Pagan Rome.

Look, at it. It says,

> —"[16]But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed."—

This is Pagan Rome coming into history.

Okay. The King of the North and the King of the South, they are having their struggles; but, now there is a new power arising into history, "the robbers of thy people," and in verse 16 he is going to launch his attack against Syria.

Okay. In Daniel 8:9—you do not need to go there. We are going to be there in a minute—in Daniel 8:9, the little horn waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east. The east is Syria; it is Babylon. This is where Pagan Rome officially, prophetically becomes the King of the North.

—"[16]But he that cometh against him [THE KING OF THE NORTH]—But [PAGAN ROME] comes against [THE KING OF THE NORTH AND DOES] according to his own will, and none shall stand before [PAGAN ROME]; and he shall stand in the glorious land,"—

So, he first comes against the King of the North [Babylon]; he becomes the King of the North. He has just conquered Babylon. Now, he also is going to conquer Palestine. That is what it says, "the pleasant land," in verse 9 of Daniel 8. He comes towards the east and towards the pleasant land.

But, here in verse 16 [of Daniel 11],

—"he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed."—

He has conquered two things here. He has conquered the King of the North (Syria) and the glorious land, the pleasant land (Israel). But in verse 17 it says, —"[17]He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him." Daniel 11:15-17 (KJV).

In verse 17 he sets his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom. What does that mean? What is the whole kingdom? What is the whole kingdom here in Daniel 11?

The point of reference for the whole kingdom is Alexander the Great's kingdom. It begins with the Medes and the Persians, but then it talks about Alexander the Great in Daniel 11, and then Alexander the Great's kingdom is divided to the four generals; but, ultimately it disintegrates into the northern and the southern part of Alexander the Great's kingdom. That is what this is about.

And now, after Pagan Rome has conquered Syria (becoming the prophetic King of the North) and Israel, now it is going to come into Egypt. He is given a daughter of women.

Who is the daughter of women that he is given that he corrupts?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Cleopatra.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Cleopatra. This is Egypt.

So, this is the three conquests that are in verse 9 of Daniel 8, if you go back there: towards the south, Cleopatra; towards the east, he becomes the King of the North by conquering Syria; and, towards the pleasant land he conquers Palestine (Israel).

And we have already looked in our studies that once he conquered the third obstacle at the Battle of Actium in 31BC according to Daniel 11:24, he would rule the world supremely for 360 years, till we reached the point of AD330 when Constantine divides the Empire into East and West; not purposely but factually that is what he did.

So, back to verse 9 [of Daniel 8], we are looking at the little horn.

It is sort of difficult to see in the English, and even if it is easy to see in the Hebrew I would not know it because I do not know how to read Hebrew, but in verses 9 through 12, the little horn is going to go back and forth between masculine and feminine.

In verse 9 the little horn is masculine; but, in the rest of the passage when the little horn is addressed, if it is in its feminine manifestation, then it is not called "he," it is called "it."

So, in verse 10, it says,

> "[10]And it [THE LITTLE HORN, THE FEMININE LITTLE HORN] waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. [11]Yea, he"—

In verse 11 the little horn is now he. It is back to the masculine form.

> —"[11]Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host,"—PAGAN ROME STOOD UP AGAINST CHRIST AT HIS BIRTH AND IN HIS DEATH—"and by"—OR THROUGH, OR FROM—"and [FROM] him [Pagan Rome][Paganism] was [rum-e]"—

It was not sur-ed. It was not "taken away." It was lifted up and exalted.

And how did Pagan Rome lift up and exalt Paganism? Well, every time it conquered a new country or city that had a Pagan religion that was not then worshipped in the City of Rome, it would take those articles of religious faith of that religion (the idols, the priests) and bring them back to the City of Rome, build a room in the Pantheon Temple and incorporate that Pagan religion into the Roman religion, which consisted of worshipping many Pagan gods.

Verse 11,

> —"[11]Yea, he"—MASCULINE LITTLE HORN (PAGAN ROME)—magnified himself even to [CHRIST AT HIS BIRTH AND IN HIS DEATH], "and [THROUGH PAGAN ROME, THE RELIGION OF PAGANISM WAS LIFTED UP AND EXALTED], and the place of his [PAGAN ROME'S] sanctuary"— of which the Pantheon Temple was their sanctuary, and it was located in the City of Rome.

> —"and the place of [PAGAN ROME'S] sanctuary [THE CITY OF ROME] was cast down [BY CONSTANTINE IN THE YEAR AD330 WHEN HE REMOVED THE CAPITAL OF THE EMPIRE FROM THE CITY OF ROME TO THE CITY OF CONSTANTINOPLE]. [12]And an host was given h " —

Do not stumble there. That word him is italicized; it is a supplied word.

Verse 12,

> —"And an host was given him against the daily ~~sacrifice~~ [PAGANISM] by reason of transgression, and it"—FEMININE LITTLE HORN—"it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered." Daniel 8:9-12 (KJV).

And, we looked at the fact that in verse 12 this word against is also found in Daniel 11, verse 24. If you go to Daniel 11, verse 24, the very final phrase says that, ". . . and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time." And we looked at Uriah Smith telling us that this word against is better translated as from: "he shall forecast his devices [FROM] the strong holds [FROM THE CITY OF ROME FOR 360 YEARS].

This word that is translated against is back here in verse 12; and, in verse 12 of Daniel 8, it also is better translated as from. Okay. And verse 12 says, "And an host [AN ARMY, MILITARY STRENGTH] was given him [THE PAPACY] against [FROM] the daily ~~sacrifice~~ [PAGANISM] by reason of transgression, . . ."

Were there any Pagan kings that gave their military might to the papacy? Clovis and onward, the military support came from Paganism by reason of transgression.

What is the transgression that Clovis accomplished that allowed his military and economic strength to be placed in the hands of the Papacy? A church/state relationship; this is the transgression that allowed this to take place.

There is much to say, of course, about verses 9 through 12. I wanted to derive this one small point that you may not have seen here. There is a relationship between Pagan Rome and Papal Rome that is emphasized, highly emphasized, in verses 9 through 12. What is that relationship?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Church and state.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Church and state? Is that a guess or do you know that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: I am saying that.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is what I understand. It is the church/state relationship.

And who is the state?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Oh, yeah, but who is the state?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the man.

Who is the woman? It is the church. Female Rome is the church. Male Rome is the state. Okay? And their transgression: the combination of church and state. So, one of the relationships that is identified between Pagan Rome and Papal Rome is their marriage, the combination of church and state, the transgression.

Why is this important? I still have not answered why this is important.

Okay, now, in verse 13 of Daniel 8, another relationship, another relationship that we are going to point out.

What are we doing? We are looking at the relationships between Papal Rome and Pagan Rome that are set forth in the Scriptures, and we have not said why we are looking at that yet.

In verse 13 of Daniel 8, it says,

> "[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? [14]And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." Daniel 8: 13-14 (KJV).

All right. I am not going to spend a great deal of time on these verses here. We have dealt with them a little bit before, and ultimately we are going to deal with them in detail when we deal with the 2520 in the Bible.

But, in verse 13 there are two powers: "the daily" is Paganism, and "the transgression of desolation" is Papalism. Understanding that truth is understanding the foundational approach to Bible prophecy of William Miller and the Millerites, because they understood that Bible prophecy was illustrated on the history of these two desolating powers. And in verse 13, the Millerite Pioneers would tell you that the Daily here is the Pagan desolating power, and the transgression of desolation is the Papal desolating power; and, they are correct.

And it goes further in the verse and it tells us what these two desolating powers are going to do. They are going to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot, and then in verse 14 it says, "Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." And this Hebrew word that is translated as cleansed means justified, and it also means made right.

Okay. In order for the sanctuary to be made right in 1844, two things have to happen, according to verse 13. The sanctuary needs to cease to be trodden under foot and the host needs to be ceased to be trodden under foot. And the prophecy that identifies when the sanctuary ceases to be trodden under foot is the prophecy of the 2300 Years; and, the prophecy that identifies when the host (God's people) ceases to be trodden under foot is the 2520.

So, in terms of the relationship between Paganism and Papalism, there is another relationship; and that is that there is a one-two punch of two desolating powers that are used by the Lord to trample down God's people and sanctuary, in His execution of punishment against His people for breaking the covenant. So, there is a relationship between Paganism and Papalism that has to do with them a one-two desolating power. All right?

Revelation 13:2, 12, 11

Go to Revelation 13:2. Revelation 13:2 says,

> "[2]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him"—

Three things.

And when it comes to the relationship between Paganism and Papalism, at least for me it is a mental cue that helps me remember. I do not think I need help in remembering this anymore, but this is the way it originally worked for me: Pagan Rome removes three things for the Papacy and it gives three things to the Papacy.

What are the three things that Pagan Rome removes for the Papacy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The three horns.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The three horns.

What are the three things that Pagan Rome gives to the Papacy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Power.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Power, seat, and great authority.

What is the power that was given to the Papacy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Military strength.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It was Clovis' military and economic strength.

What is the date that we put with that? 496,—we read it yesterday—the baptism of Clovis.

What is the seat? What is the seat?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The seat is the throne. It is where you rule from. Where power is seated is where it rules from.

Where and when did Pagan Rome give the seat of authority to Papal Rome?

FROM THE AUDIENCE (Brother Tracey): AD533.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Nope. AD330, when Constantine moved the capital from the City of Rome to the City of Constantinople; thus, leaving a power vacuum in the City of Rome that the Papacy immediately gobbled up. It took control of the City of Rome to be its seat of influence and authority.

So, power, AD496; seat, AD330.

Its civil authority, its great authority—we will let Tracey answer this one.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When did Pagan Rome give its civil authority to the Papacy?

BROTHER TRACEY: 533.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD533, with the decree of Justinian. Justinian identified the Pope of Rome as the head of the churches and the Corrector of Heretics, which at that point in time meant the Pope of Rome had the legal civil authority to turn around to the Emperor of Rome and say, "You are a heretic. Off with your head!" The civil authority had been turned over to the Papacy in AD533.

So, there are three things that Pagan Rome gave to the Papacy; three things that it removed from the Papacy.

Look at Revelation 13:12, speaking of the United States. In Revelation 13:12, speaking of the United States, it says,

"[12]And he [THE UNITED STATES] exerciseth all the"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Power.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What is the power?

So, who is it that gives their power to the Papacy at the end of the world that has been prefigured by Clovis in AD496?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States.

—"[12]And he [THE UNITED STATES] exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed." Revelation 13:12 (KJV).

Clovis is typifying the role of the United States, and now we are getting into the realm of why it is essential to see the relationship between Pagan Rome and Papal Rome, because Pagan Rome is prefiguring the role of the United States of America at the end of the world.

And if you do not see the relationship of Pagan Rome and Papal Rome, you are going to be in darkness concerning the work that the United States is now accomplishing on Planet Earth.

Now, go backwards to verse 11.

"[11]And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth;"—

This is the United States. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." Revelation 13:11 (KJV).

When does the United States speak as a dragon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At The Sunday Law.

What happens at The Sunday Law, prophetically?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What happens to the United States?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: National ruin.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: National ruin; there are so many good answers to that, but I guess I will just have to say it.

At this point the United States becomes who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ahab.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ahab. And when Ahab consummates the marriage with Jezebel in Daniel 11:41 or Revelation 13:11, we have a Sunday law.

But, the story of Ahab and Jezebel, what is one of the primary problems with that story?

Who is supposed to be the priest of the home in the marriage?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The man.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ahab, the man, is; but, that was not the case with Jezebel, is it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Uh-huh.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, when the United States marries the Papacy at The Sunday Law in the United States, when they fulfill the role of Ahab, Sister White often says that the United States is going to pay—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Homage.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —homage.

What does homage mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Going to give gifts.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You are going to give gifts; you are going to bow down? No.

HOMAGE, if you look it up in the dictionary, it comes from the history where the king owned all the land and you were just allowed to work the land under the king's control. There is a name for that.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Feudalism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Feudalism. It was in the time of feudalism. This was the time where the term homage comes. And if you were going to work this land for the king, then you had to pay homage to the king.

And how do you pay homage to the king? You get on your knees, you are naked, and you put your hands above your head, and then the king would put his hands over your hands—you would clasp hands at The Sunday Law—but you would clasp hands; but, you are in total submission. So, when the United States pays homage to the Papacy at The Sunday Law, it is also Ahab consummating the marriage with Jezebel.

And who is in charge of the situation there; is it Ahab or Jezebel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jezebel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jezebel.

So, where is Jezebel placed at that point? On the seat over the United States. Okay? But, she is not on the throne of the Earth yet. The United States then is going to go forth to the world and insist that the world set up the image of the beast, and then she is going to be placed upon the throne of the whole Earth. Right?

So, the United States is going to give its power to the Beast; the Dragon gave his power. The United States is going to place her upon the throne of the Earth. It is going to give her its seat; that is what the Dragon did in AD330.

But, the United States is also going to give the civil authority to the Papacy; because, the United States is who? It is Ahab. Right? It is Ahab.

And Ahab was the king of Judah or Israel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Israel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: How many kingdoms in Israel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, Ahab is the leader of how many kings?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

Revelation 17:17

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, in Revelation 17:7, speaking of the Ten Kings of whom Ahab (the United States) is the ruling power of those Ten Kings, in verse 17 it says,

> "[17]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled." Revelation 17:17 (KJV).

So, what took place in verse 17?

What is the kingdom of the Ten Kings? What do they represent?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are the civil structure. They are the civil structure. They are the civil authority.

In Revelation 17:17, the United States is now giving the great authority of the world into the hands of the Papacy.

Revelation 13:2, speaking of the role of Pagan Rome, says that Pagan Rome would give the Papacy three things: its power, its seat, and great authority. And at the end of the world, the United States gives the Papacy three things: its power, its seat, and great authority.

And Pagan Rome removed the Heruli, the Ostrogoths, and the Vandals in order to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth; and, the three obstacles for the Papacy at the end of the world are the King of the South, the glorious land, and Egypt. And to bring down the King of the South, the Papacy required the help of the United States, represented as chariots, ships, and horsemen. So, the United States brought down the first horn [Russia]. And the United States pays homage to Rome when the glorious land [the United States] is conquered. That is the second horn. And then the United States forces the whole world to accept the image of the beast, and places the Papacy in control of the civil structure of the Earth when it conquers Egypt [the world]. That is the third horn. So, as Pagan Rome removed three horns, the United States removes the three obstacles—the King of the South, the glorious land, and Egypt—for the Papacy.

And as Pagan Rome gave its power, seat, and great authority to the Papacy, so, too does the United States.

The point being is that this relationship between Pagan and Papal Rome is a subject of prophecy; therefore, we are required to understand it, even though we are not required to understand about the paralytic and his relationship with Noah, because we do not know of anyone, any relationship; but, there are several relationships between Pagan Rome and Papal Rome that are marked in the Scriptures. And the reason that we need to understand them is because Pagan Rome is prefiguring the work of the United States at the end of the world, and the United States is the power that is going to force the whole world to receive the mark of the beast; and, the subject of the mark of the beast is the Third Angel's Message. So, if you do not know the role of the United States, you do not really know the Third Angel's Message. And the only way you can know the role of the United States is if you understand the relationships between Pagan and Papal Rome.

And Satan knows this, and the most significant symbol of Pagan Rome in the Book of Daniel is the Daily. So, if you can destroy the understanding of the Daily, you are destroying one of the most important points of reference of what the United States is going to do at the end of the world, and you eliminate your ability to have a correct understanding of the Third Angel's Message.

Daniel 12:7

Another relationship [Daniel 12:7], I will pass over that one—well, let us go there, Daniel 12:7.

> "[7]And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished." Daniel 12:7 (KJV).

The scattering of the holy people: "all these things shall be finished." And this, of course, we know is the 1260 that ended in 1798.

Leviticus 26:3-12, 13-14

But, the scattering of the holy people, if you go to Leviticus 26, speaking of God's people, the holy people in the Scriptures, beginning in Leviticus 26, verse 3, it says,

> "[3]If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; [4]Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit."—

And He begins to describe the blessings that He would place upon the holy people of Israel if they would keep His commandments.

> —"[5]And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. [6]And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. [7]And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. [8]And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. [9]For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you. [1-]And ye shall eat old store, and bring forth the old because of the new. [11]And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you."—

And verse 12 says,

> "[12]And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people." Leviticus 26:3-12 (KJV).

Israel is God's people.

Is God holy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, Israel is the holy people. Okay?

And in verse 7 of Daniel 12, they are going to be scattered.

So in Leviticus 26, beginning in verse 28, this is the passage (28 through 34) that Miller marks right here for the seven times [indicating the 2520 in the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart]. Verse 28 says, if they break the covenant,

> "[28]Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. [29]And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. [3-]And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you. [31]And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours. [32]And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it. [33]And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. [34]Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths." Leviticus 26:28-34 (KJV).

So, if you go back to Daniel 12:7,

> "[7]And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half;"—

What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1260.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Three and an half times.

What is three and an half times?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1260.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is half of seven times.

> —"and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished." Daniel 12:7 (KJV).

So, there is a scattering of God's holy people that ends in AD1798; but, it began against Ancient Israel. This 1260 begins in AD538, 500 years after Ancient Israel is divorced of God; so, this holy people that are being scattered is spiritual Israel after the cross, and this is simply the second half of the seven times punishment.

So, I am going to leave that there. There is more to be said about the seven times that we will do as we proceed in our worship series.

> Deuteronomy 4:1-7, 27; 28:64

> ‹‹chapter 4:1Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you. 2Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. 3Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal-Peor: for all the men that followed Baal-Peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you. 4But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day. 5Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it. 6Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. 7For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for? . . . 27And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you. . . .

Selected Messages, book 2, page 69:

"For forty years did unbelief, murmuring, and rebellion shut out ancient Israel from the land of Canaan. The same sins have delayed the entrance of modern Israel into the heavenly Canaan. In neither case were the promises of God at fault. It is the unbelief, the worldliness, unconsecration, and strife among the Lord's professed people that have kept us in this world of sin and sorrow so many years." Selected Messages, book 2, 69.

Summary

So, let us bring this to a conclusion here.

Sister White says that in "the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment and much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated." (excerpt from Manuscript Releases, number 13, 394).

In Daniel 11, verse 31, you have the story of how the Papacy is placed upon the throne of the Earth: "And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily ~~sacrifice,~~ and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." We went over that history.

So, in that history, "the arms standing on his part," AD496, Clovis begins the work of plucking up the three horns, even though it is not in there, specifically mentioned in verse 31, it is there. That is the same history: arms standing on his part, AD496; removing the Daily, AD508, polluting the sanctuary of strength, the warfare during that period; placing the Papacy on the throne of the Earth, AD538. So, in verse 31 you have the history of AD496 to 538, and it is the history of the relationship between the arms (Pagan Rome) and "his part" (the Papacy). So, in verse 31 you have the history of the relationship of Pagan Rome and Papal Rome. And although it is not specifically marked in the verse, you have the history of the removal of the three horns; you have the history of the power, seat, and great authority, are all in that history.

And Sister White says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place." (excerpt from Manuscript Releases, number 13, 394). In verses 32 to 35 you have the persecution of the Dark Ages; and, then in verse 36 you have the Papacy's arrogancy and him coming to his end. He prospers until the indignation be accomplished.

So, here [see Figure No. 127B], this is Daniel 11, verse 40.

But, this here [see Figure No. 127B], this is Daniel 11, verse 30[17]; because, in verse 30 Pagan Rome connives with Papal Rome. Right? It has intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. This is Ronald Reagan and the Pope of Rome. Right?

And this, verse 31 [of Daniel 11], is Ronald Reagan and the United States standing up, "standing on his part," beginning the work of contributing to the bringing down of the Soviet Union (the King of the South). Ronald Reagan stands up for his comrade in arms, the antichrist of Bible prophecy (the King of the North).

And in the ensuing history of verse 31, you have the sanctuary of strength (the Constitution of the United States) overturned; and, at the same time, the United States fully ceases to be Protestant, is fully apostate Protestantism. It has changed its religious heritage from Protestantism to apostate Protestantism, just as Pagan Rome changed its religious profession in this identical history from Paganism to Papalism.

Then, in verses 32 through 35 [of Daniel 11], you have the persecution.

In verse 44 [Message of the Hour], it says, "But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many." That is verses 32 to 35. And then in verse 36, somewhere in here [Close of Probation], his arrogancy is emphasized, and he is coming to his end when the indignation is accomplished. And this [verse 36] is where he stands when Michael stands up, for in Daniel 12:1 it says, "And at that time," when the Papacy is in its arrogant fashion has placed itself between the glorious holy mountain and the people of the world, he comes to his end and none shall help. He prospers until the indignation be accomplished.

So, what we have shown you, if you are willing to see it, is that Daniel 11, what we are teaching about Daniel 11:40-45, the sequence of events there, they line up perfectly with the sequence of events in Revelation 13, and with the sequence of events in Revelation 17. The End of the Word History.

But, Sister White, who they teach is not a theologian—Praise the Lord, she is not a theologian!—but, Sister White says that the history of Daniel 11:40-45 is the history of verses 30 to 36, and sure enough it is. And verses 30 to 36, it also squares up with Revelation 13 and Revelation 17, let alone Daniel 11:40-45.

[17] Dialogue results in correcting verse 29 to verse 30 of Daniel 11.

And what these events are, these are the events connected with the Close of Probation, which multitudes in Adventism have no understanding of, though they have been clearly revealed.

And here we are at the end of the world. Anyone that wants to look at it can see that the economy is gone. It is being propped up by human devising. Is that not what Sister White says in Testimonies, volume 9, they are struggling in vain to put business operations on a more secure basis. And, then she tells us that the people of the United States are going to lean upon their legislators—this is my words; I will tell you when I am quoting her words—they are going to lean upon the legislators of the United States to pass a Sunday law—now, here is her words—"in order to return to temporal prosperity."

The reason the people of the United States push their Congress for a Sunday law is because something happens to the temporal prosperity in the United States, and they cry out, "Do something for us!" Okay?

So, before The Sunday Law, there is going to be an economic problem going on.

Do you see an economic problem on the horizon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Here is where we are. It is easy to see that The Sunday Law is approaching, and we are told that "The movement for Sunday legislation is going on in darkness," That is Sister White's words; that is not a paraphrase.

And there are two classes in Adventism. Right? What are the two classes in Adventism?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Wise and foolish.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Wise and foolish, okay. What are they, though?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Wheat and tares.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Wheat and tares. Keep going.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Sheep and goats.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Sheep and goats.

They are the children of the Day and the children of the Night; and, the children of the Night, they do not see this coming; because, even though the events connect with the Close of Probation have been clearly revealed, they are the children of the Night, so they have no more an understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed.

But, the children of the Day, they are going to understand these things. And how are they going to understand these things? What does the Bible say? "Surely the Lord thy God will do nothing except He"—do what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Reveal it.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"reveal it through"—who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: His prophets.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"His servants the prophets."

It is through this prophecy [Figure No. 127B] that the Lord is opening up the Third Angel's Message to His people.

And when did this prophecy begin to be opened up?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1989.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1989, with the collapse of the Soviet Union in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40. The Lion of the Tribe of Judah unsealed this message, which is a prophetic testing message designed by God to produce two classes of worshippers, and then demonstrate them at The Sunday Law in Adventism. This is the Everlasting Gospel that was unsealed in 1989. And, then in 1989 when that was unsealed, what happened?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: An increase of knowledge.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: An increase of knowledge.

What else?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Dirt Brush Man arrives.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Dirt Brush Man arrives! That is what we are dealing with. We are dealing with 1989 being the conclusion of William Miller's seven scatterings in William Miller's dream.

Which dream was it? It was William Miller's second dream. Okay?

But, which dream was it of Nebuchadnezzar? It was Nebuchadnezzar's second dream.

And William Miller's second dream is in Early Writings. Did Ellen White write Early Writings?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Did she write William Miller's dream?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No.

And Nebuchadnezzar's second dream is in the Book of Daniel. Did Daniel write the Book of Daniel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Except for what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Nebuchadnezzar's dream.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Nebuchadnezzar's dream; he wrote that in chapter 4.

So, this here, 1989, this is the end of Nebuchadnezzar's dream; and, at the end of his dream, Nebuchadnezzar, what is he? He is a converted man.

And who is waiting for him? Who are his counselors? Who is his main counselor that is there waiting for him at the end of the seven times?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel. Daniel has opened up to him.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to understand the relationship of Pagan Rome and Papal Rome that we might understand the powers that be here on Planet Earth now. We want to understand what is happening in an intelligent fashion, in a way that we can teach these things that those who want to hear, will hear and understand; but, we also want these truths to be used by your Holy Spirit to finish the work in each of our individual experiences that need to be finished. We thank you for allowing us to study these things in a time period of peace. We know that troublous times are on the horizon. We thank you for another day of life that we can serve you, and as we go forth to our individual tasks we ask that you would help us to be safe and do what we do for your glory and honor. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #64

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we take up this study today and tomorrow as we bring this consideration of 1989 to a conclusion, we ask that you would help us bind off the various truths that we have put forth. We need your Holy Spirit as we consider your Word. We ask that you bless us with that gift at this time and fill our hearts and minds with your Holy Spirit, that you take control of this presentation and guide and direct that it is presented in a way that edifies your people, and we ask that you prepare our hearts and minds to hear your Voice in this message and that the message might have an impact upon us to be more like you in thought, word, and deed; and, to be prepared with a message to provide to those that we come in contact with. We ask that you pour the Latter Rain out upon us and make us fit vessels to receive it at this time. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I had several other arguments that we could do on the last six verses of Daniel 11, 1989; but, because it is God's Word, it is infinite, and you can go on and on and on. So, I am determined that this morning and tomorrow we will bring 1989 to a conclusion, and then on Sunday we can return to our consideration of the Two Tables as typified in the Scriptures. We are in the process of doing that in the sense that 1989 we are identifying as the Time of the End for the last Reform Movement of sacred history, the Reform Movement of the 144,000; and, that not only was 1989 marking the Time of the End for the Reform Movement of the 144,000 but it is also the point in time when William Miller's scattering ended; and, therefore, the Dirt Brush Man arrives on the scene and begins to sweep away the customs and traditions that have been handed down in Adventism from generation to generation.

So, we have been making many arguments about the last six verses of Daniel 11. One of those arguments is that in every Reform Movement we see the Everlasting Gospel, and the Everlasting Gospel is the work of Christ in producing two classes of worshippers, based upon the introduction of a three-step testing message.

At the third step, the door closes.

The First Message, the characteristic of the First Message is that it is empowered when a Divine Symbol comes down.

And, in this history we will see two temple cleansings—we are doing some review right now—two temple cleansings.

As a point of reference so you can follow my logic, in the Millerite Reform Movement, the Mighty Angel of Revelation 10 came down on August 11, 1840, and empowered the First Angel's Message that had been going through history since the Time of the End in AD1798. Once the message was empowered by the confirmation of the year/day principle, the Protestants were tested by that message and by June of 1842 they had closed their door on the message, and now this is the First Temple Cleansing of that history.

And in this history we see the empowerment of the Midnight Cry in here; thus, empowering this message that is going through this history (the Second Angel's Message), and it concludes when the door closes here on October 22, 1844. This is the Second Temple Cleansing in this history.

So, there are two temple cleansings in each of these histories. I want to put that into the record.

Then I want to put in, there is a quote—

Do you realize how many quotes we have now? Over 500 pages. Okay? So, if you can remember all the references, you are amazing.

But, there was one quote that we used more than once early on, before we got to 1989, when we were dealing with the reform lines. It says, "The first and second angel's messages are still truth for this time, and are to run parallel with that which follows." (The 1888 Materials, 803–804).

So, once again, if we mark this history as the Millerites' and we see the First and the Second Angels' Messages, they are to run parallel—the Millerites being the beginning of Adventism—and this is to run parallel with the end of Adventism; and, it is based upon this premise that what brought the Mighty Angel down in 1840 was the restraint of Islam.

The restraint of Islam here on 9/11/2001 parallels this history.

"The First and Second Angels' Messages are still truth for this time, and are to run parallel with that which follows," and that which follows is our history. with the restraint of Islam in 1840. The Mighty Angel of Revelation 10 comes down with the restraint of Islam.

And in 2001 the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 comes down and begins the testing process of Adventism, the First Temple Cleansing of Adventism.

And here [the second waymark of Millerite History], what marks the closing of the door in the Millerite History was the action of the Protestant churches of the United States as they closed their doors to the message of the Millerites.

And this waymark here [the second waymark for the 144,000] is once again the Protestants of the United States when they pass a Sunday law. The door closes here for Adventists: the First Temple Cleansing.

And now the Second Temple Cleansing is going to take place with the eleventh-hour workers [at the third waymark for the 144,000].

This waymark [the third waymark for the Millerites] was the opening of Judgment; and, this waymark [the third waymark for the 144,000] is the close of Judgment when the Second Temple Cleansing concludes.

Okay. With that in place, go to your notes.

LUKE 21

A couple presentations ago within the past week, we made an emphasis about Luke 21 in connection with the sealing of God's people.

You see Luke 21:25-26 in your notes. It says in there:

> "[25]And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken." Luke 21:25-26 (KJV).

In the Millerite History, back here in 1833, you have the falling of the stars. The dark day has preceded this. But these signs in Luke 21:25-26 are the signs that ushered in the Millerite History.

We pointed out that the distress of nations that is in this history was in 1838. The distress of nations was Islam, the activities of Islam (Egypt attacking Turkey) that brought the four European powers to intercede into that situation and end the 391 years, 15 days, time prophecy of the Sixth Trumpet found in Revelation 9:14-15.

So, in this history [of the Millerites] in relation to Luke 21—go to Luke 21. In Luke 21, verse 7, the disciples have asked Christ what are the signs of the destruction of the temple, the Second Coming. They say in verse 7, > "[7]And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?" Luke 21:7 (KJV).

So, Jesus begins to answer their question in detail. If you go down through Luke 21, it is a very detailed response by Christ, in chronological order. And as He goes down through this answer of His, in verse 27 it says, after He set forth the signs He says,

> "[27]And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. [28]And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh." Luke 21:27-28 (KJV).

So, the signs for the Millerites—the signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars, and the distress of nations—Jesus is saying that when you see these signs, your redemption draweth nigh, and that in verse 27 you will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of Heaven.

And then in verse 32 in connection with that, He says,

> "[32]Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled." Luke 21:32 (KJV).

In the Millerite History, did this generation pass away before Jesus came in the clouds? No, because He came in the clouds on October 22, 1844.

Go to the Book of Daniel, chapter 7, in verse 13. It says,

> "[13]I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man, came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. [14]And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, . . ." Daniel 7:13 (KJV).

When did Christ go in to receive the Kingdom? October 22, 1844. This is Christ entering into the Most Holy Place of the Investigative Judgment on October 22, 1844; and, when He did so, He came with the clouds.

So, if you look at the second reference in your notes, Testimonies to Ministers, page 445; we read this just a few days ago—it says,

> "This sealing of the servants of God is the same that was shown to Ezekiel in vision."—

Sister White is saying that the sealing of the 144,000 in Revelation, chapter 7, is the same sealing that is found in Ezekiel 9; but, she adds to it.

> —"John also had been a witness of this most startling revelation. He saw the sea and the waves roaring, and men's hearts failing them for fear. He beheld the earth moved, and the mountains carried into the midst of the sea (which is literally taking place), the water thereof roaring and troubled, and the mountains shaking with the swelling thereof. He was shown plagues, pestilence, famine, and death performing their terrible mission." Testimonies to Ministers, 445.

What did he see? Well, he saw Luke 21, verse 25, which says,

> "[25]And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring: [26]Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken." Luke 21:25-26 (KJV).

So, Ellen White is telling us that John and Ezekiel's sealing of the 144,000 is also the point of reference of Luke 21. Okay?

There was a sealing process that was going on in the Millerite History. Those those roughly 50 people that moved in by faith to the Most Holy Place on October 22, 1844, are typifying the sealing of the 144,000.

So, Luke 21 was fulfilled in the Millerite History, but the prophets are speaking more about the end of the world than any other time; so, Luke 21 is going to be fulfilled for us, and you see Ellen White identifying that Luke 21 is a component of the sealing of the 144,000. So, you know that Luke 21 is at the end of the world.

So, if you are still in Luke 21, and as Christ is giving the answer to the Disciples, He gives them a parable in verse 29. He is going to repeat and enlarge upon His answer, and He is going to use a parable to expand what He is saying. And He says in verse 29,

> "[29]And he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; [30]When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. [31]So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. [32]Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled. [33]Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away." Luke 21:29-33 (KJV).

Now, in this worship study, we have already studied out pretty thoroughly what causes the trees to bud out, and what is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Latter Rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And when are these trees budding out?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In the Spring.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the Springtime; because, when you see them budding out, it tells you that Summer is nigh at hand. It is not budding out in Summer; it is telling you that Summer is approaching.

And, what takes place in the Summer, according to the Bible?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Fruit (and various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The harvest.

And when is the harvest, according to the Bible?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the end of the world.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the end of the world.

So, when you see the trees budding out, you know that you are at the end of the world. In fact, this parable is saying that if you are living when the trees bud out, you are living in the last generation: "This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled."

Sister White comments on this in The Great Controversy, page 308. She says,

> "Christ had bidden His people watch for the signs of His advent"—

And that is what the Disciples had asked Christ in Luke 21, "What are the signs?"

> —"Christ had bidden His people watch for the signs of His advent and rejoice as they should behold the tokens of their coming King. 'When these things > begin to come to pass,' He said, 'then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.' He pointed His followers to the budding trees of spring, and said: 'When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.' Luke 21:28, 30, 31." The Great Controversy, 308.

So, there is a sign that marks the fulfillment of Luke 21, and this sign is the Latter Rain. It is the budding trees of Spring. And, the people that are alive when this sign takes place are the final generation on Planet Earth, "This generation shall not pass."

And, we are required to recognize the Latter Rain; but, most of us in Adventism will not recognize it. We have that example from 1888. Do you think that those men who rejected the message of Jones and Waggoner in 1888 thought that they were rejecting the Latter Rain Message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ellen White had been telling them it is the Latter Rain Message. They still could not see it.

If they had actually understood that that was the Latter Rain Message, would they have rejected it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "No," and "Who knows."

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who knows the best answer; but, who knows? Okay? Who knows?

So, the 1888 is sacred history; because, we are modern Israel. Our history of Adventism is sacred history, and 1888 is prefiguring the end of the world when once again the Latter Rain Message is going to arrive, and men, the majority of Adventism, are not going to recognize it.

WE MUST NOT WAIT

This is just one—and we went through this in detail in this worship series, that we are required to recognize the Latter Rain. This is just one of those quotes that we have read before from The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 984.

> "We must not wait for the latter rain. It is coming upon all who will recognize and appropriate the dew and showers of grace that fall upon us."—

It is coming upon all who will recognize it.

> —"When we gather up the fragments of light, when we appreciate the sure mercies of God, who loves to have us trust Him, then every promise will be fulfilled. 'For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations' (Isaiah 61:11). The whole earth is to be filled with the glory of God." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 984.

When is the whole Earth going to be filled with the glory of God?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Revelation 18.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 18, when this Angel comes down [9/11/2001]; and, this Angel that comes down is no less the personage than Jesus Christ when Islam is restrained, as it was in the Millerite History. And this marks the beginning of the First Temple Cleansing; it marks the beginning of the Latter Rain; and, only those that recognize this have the possibility of navigating through this testing process safely, where they receive the Seal of God at the end of this history.

So, we have been dealing with the last six verses of Daniel 11—let us see how we are going to do this one—and we have been spending time on verse 40, we have spent quite a bit of time.

Verse 40 begins in 1798, and when does verse 40 conclude?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At The Sunday Law.

This is Daniel 11, verse 40. What else is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Revelation 13.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 13:11 and Isaiah 23 is verse 40. Okay?

This [The Sunday Law] is verse 41; and then we have verses 42 and 43, and that is when the deadly wound is healed, when Egypt [the world] is conquered.

How do I want to illustrate this?

Then down here [at the third waymark of Figure No. 130] I am going to put verses 42 and 43 to represent when the King of the North conquers Egypt in Daniel 11. We could put other Scriptures there.

But, this [the fourth waymark of Figure No. 130], I am going to put verses 44 through 12:1; because in Daniel 11, verse 44, you have the message, "the tidings out of the East and the North that troubleth him and he goes forth to destroy and utterly make away many"'; and, he is going to plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain in verse 45, and he shall come to his end with none to help." And then in Daniel 12:1, it says, "And at that time," in this history, in verses Daniel 11:44 through Daniel 12:1, Michael stands up and human probation closes.

So, in this history, this is the history of verse 40; and, in this history on 9/11 before The Sunday Law, we have the Mighty Angel come down.

Can you read this? I mean, can you follow the logic of this?

You can follow it when I am putting it up there; but, when I go back to it ten seconds later, are you going to remember it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

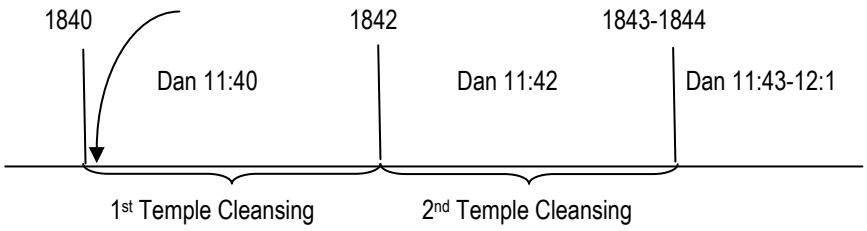

Figure No. 131.

So, what we are saying here [Figure No. 131], among other things, is that in 1840 the Mighty Angel came down. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And this empowers a message that is going to test who? The Protestants.

And how many temple cleansings are there going to be in this history? There are going to be two.

So, here is the end of the testing process for the Protestants. When is that marked?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1842.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1842.

And then in 1843 and 1844, what do you have? You have the Midnight Cry.

And the Midnight Cry, the reason why I said 1843 and 1844, the First Disappointment in 1843 was a purposeful contribution to the Midnight Cry of 1844. The First Disappointment of 1843 actually took place in 1844—right?—when you factor in Karaite reckoning. So, 1843 and 1844 are connected in that sense.

And so here, in this history, in 1843 and 1844, you have the Midnight Cry, which concludes with the door closing on October 22, 1844.

So, in this history you have the Second Temple Cleansing, and you have the First Temple Cleansing here accomplished.

Do you follow me? Yes, do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What I am saying here is that the Millerite History, 1840, is Daniel 11:40. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And the testing process goes until 1842.

And 1842, that is where the second testing process begins. All right?

And 1843 and 1844, that is Daniel 11:43 through 12:1.

Do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what I am saying is, Daniel 11:40-45 parallels the history of the Millerites from 1840 to 1844.

It can be illustrated better. I have done it better, I believe, and, I have watched other men do it better; but, I want you to see that the Millerite History is structured upon the last six verses of Daniel 11.

You have kind of a vague look. Did I lose you? Do you want to ask a question?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No. I was just thinking.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Vague looks are okay; but, if we can help to remove the vagueness, we will.

But, the Millerite History here [in Figure No. 131] is our history.

We have already gone through the last six verses of Daniel 11 in detail to show what it is in our history. In verse 41 The Sunday Law purifies the Adventist Church, and then those with the Seal of God are going to carry the Final Warning Message to the eleventh-hour workers, which reaches its conclusion there at the Death Decree and at The Sunday Law.

So, let us look at some other factors here in Millerite History.

Millerite History, in our history, and in all the reform lines in one sense are the histories of two messages, the First and Second Angels' Messages.

Okay. We have spent a lot of time on this already.

1st Message	2nd Message
ELIJAH	ELISHA
JOHN	CHRIST
MILLER	CHRIST
BODY	LIFE
(Shaking)	- - - - -

The First Message is Elijah; the second is Elisha. The First Message is John the Baptist; the second is Christ. The First Message is Miller; the second is Christ in that history.

In Ezekiel 37, the First Message produces the Body; the Second Message gives Life to the body, if that is the way to describe it.

But, in this history here (the Body/the Life), there in the First Message of Ezekiel 37, when Ezekiel gives that message, there is a sound (a voice), a sound. And what does that sound cause?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A shaking.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A shaking. So, we noted the Shaking, but there is no Life yet. There is a shaking in the First Message. It produces a body of believers. It does; and, this gets serious. This is one of the most serious things about the last six verses of Daniel 11.

Remember, John's message was the message that identified the events connected with the close of probation. He said to the Jews, "Who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come," the wrath to come being AD34/70, the close of their probation.

Miller's Message, which we read in The Great Controversy, was to acquaint his generation with the events connected with the close of probation. So, our first message, the one that brings the Body together, is the events connected with the close of probation, which Sister White refers to as a truth that multitudes in Adventism has no understanding of in more than one place; but, in Early Writings, page 259, which we have looked at in this series, we are told that those that would not receive the message of John the Baptist could not be benefited by the teachings of Jesus. And in the next paragraph, she says that those that rejected the First Message, the message of Miller, could not be benefited by the Second Message, the message of Christ.

So, when it comes to the last six verses of Daniel 11 that brings this body of believers together and causes the Shaking, if you cannot accept the last six verses of Daniel 11, no way you are going to see the arrival of the Latter Rain, the budding of the trees, on 9/11.

So, this [First Message] message here [the (Shaking)] has eternal consequences. You have to recognize this message to be able to participate in this [Second] Message.

The Shaking in this history is part of the story. We have spent time on that, and I will give you a history of one of the arguments. We have mentioned that the primary argument on the last six verses of Daniel 11 that the opponents brought up was the glorious land. Okay? Hartland Institute was training people, and probably still does to Seventh-day Adventist pastors. In their training process they would find sympathetic churches to Hartland that they could send these students out to go practice preaching on Sabbath, and they would give them the preaching assignment, "to go and teach why the glorious land is the Seventh-day Adventist Church." And the reason they were doing that was not to teach them how to preach a sermon; it was to oppose the message that the glorious land is the United States of America. So, they have been fighting this message for many, many years; and, so the glorious land among these truths as been one that has been really hammered on.

So, in response to all these agitation, this Shaking concerning this First Message, the Lord led the students of prophecy to recognize something that we have dealt with here several times, although we have not yet named it. It is called "the triple application of prophecy." Perhaps that is not the best name to hang upon it; but, what it means is that some prophecies are marked as bring fulfilled three times, and they have within them the eternal rule that upon the testimony of two a thing is established. So, the first time the prophecy is fulfilled, combined with the second time the prophecy is fulfilled has established what the characteristics of the third and final fulfillment will be.

And one of the main reasons that this principle in God's Word was recognized was over the argument of the glorious land; because, as we have taken time to deal with here, when Pagan Rome took control of the world supremely, it first had to overcome three geographical obstacles; and, when the Papacy took control of the world supremely, it had to first overcome three geographical obstacles. So, it was recognized that Pagan Rome combined with Papal Rome is an illustration of modern Rome. Therefore, when you come to the King of the South (verse 40, the glorious land in verse 41 [of Daniel 11]), and Egypt in verses 42 and 43, they are the three obstacles for modern Rome.

But, based upon a triple application of prophecy, what do those three obstacles have to be?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Geographical areas.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They have to be geographical areas. They cannot be spiritual entities.

For Pagan Rome in Daniel 8, 9, and 11, 16, and 17, it is Syria, Egypt, and Israel.

For Papal Rome it was the Heruli, the Ostrogoths, and the Vandals.

For modern Rome it is the Soviet Union, the United States, and the entire world. And to say that it is the Soviet Union and the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and then some other entity that you have to create because you have just destroyed all kinds of any logic that is in the verses is breaking the triple application of prophecy.

Let me give you another example of a triple application of prophecy. This is the simple one.

In this book—I should have kept this book over here—in this book on Millerite History, [Foundations of the Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission], he [P. Gerard Damsteegt] points out—and it has nothing to do with what I am going to say—but he points out that after October 22, 1844, the Millerite Adventists who were going to stay on the track, which were very few, they came to recognize who they were in sacred history. They had just been following a message and a movement, but after the Great Disappointment on October 22, 1844, they dive back into the Bible to see what happened, to see what the sanctuary was, to see what happened in their experience of the Millerites; and, they begin to see they are modern Israel, and they begin to see modern Israel illustrated in various passages of the Bible. And he records that the very first Biblical illustration that the Millerite Adventists, after the Disappointment, recognized of themselves was that they were who? Elijah. Okay? The very first thing that was recognized is that they were Elijah.

Example of Triple Application of Prophecy: The 3 Elijahs

	STATE (10)	CHURCH	DECEIVING POWER
ELIJAH	Ahab	Jezebel	Baal
JOHN THE BAPTIST	Herod	Herodias	Salome (the daughter)
144,000	UN (10) Dragon	Papacy Beast	USA False Prophet

And, there are three Elijahs. There is Elijah the first. Elijah is a triple application of prophecy. There is Elijah the second that is known as John the Baptist. Christ told us this. And then there is Elijah at the end of the world, and we are just going to put the 144,000.

The characteristics of the first Elijah, combined with the characteristics of the second Elijah will identify the characteristics of the third Elijah.

The first Elijah had to deal with a threefold enemy: Ahab, Jezebel, and the prophets of Baal. Now, Ahab, that is a civil power, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jezebel: church.

And this is the power that deceives, the deceiving power.

And, of course, with Ahab we also see the number 10.

With John the Baptist, he had to deal with the threefold power: Herod, once again the state; Herodias, church; and, Salome, the daughter. Okay. So, let us discuss this a little bit.

Was Ahab and Jezebel supposed to be married? It is an unlawful relationship; it is fornication.

Was Herod supposed to marry his brother's wife, Herodias?

So, in both cases: unlawful relationship.

The prophets of Baal, in the story of Elijah they did the dance of deception.

What does Salome do? She does the dance of deception.

So, Salome, the prophets of Baal, they are the deceiving power.

But, here, we find also that Salome is the daughter of Herodias; so, Salome, the daughter of Herodias, is pointing forward to apostate Protestantism, who is the daughter of the Papacy; because, at the end of the world, the 144,000 are going to have to deal with the United Nations, the One World Civil Power that consists of Ten Kings. They are going to have to deal with the Papacy, the impure church that comes into an unlawful relationship at the end of the world.

Where does the Papacy come into an unlawful relationship? Give me three Scriptures of their unlawful relationship.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel 11:42.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 11, verses 42 and 43, Egypt is conquered. The United Nations is conquered by the Papacy. The United Nations is Egypt; it is the entire world. That is one.

Where is another one? Revelation . . . ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 13.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 13, verses 14 and 15, the United States commands the world to set up an image of the Beast. The only definition of the image of the beast is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship. So, this is also Revelation 13, verses 14 and 15.

One more.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Revelation 17?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 17. Verse?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 17.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Verse 17: Revelation 17:17.

The Ten Kings agree to give their kingdom unto the Beast (the Papacy). Okay. This is the unlawful relationship.

And who deceives the world into accepting this unlawful relationship?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Revelation 13:13.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Revelation 13:13: the USA, right? The USA is Salome. It is the daughter. It is apostate Protestantism; it is the daughter of the Papacy.

So, that is two triple applications to prophecy. Pagan Rome had to conquer three geographical areas in order to rule the world supremely; Papal Rome had to conquer three geographical areas in order to rule the world supremely; therefore, modern Rome has to conquer three geographical areas and, therefore, the glorious land, no matter what you define it as, has to be a geographical area. It is not a church.

And why in the world, if Daniel wanted us to think the glorious land was the Seventh-day Adventist Church, why did he not just put glorious holy mountain, as he did in verse 45, only four verses later when the Bible is clear that the glorious holy mountain is God's church at the end of the world?

Why would he not just use glorious holy mountain in verse 41? Because, he is teaching that it is a land; it not the church; and, that is in agreement with a triple application of prophecy.

So, there are several triple applications of prophecy, but we have just now given you two [Figure No. 133 on the three Elijahs; and, three Scriptures witnessing to the Papacy coming into an unlawful relationship]. So, what have we done? We have established it.

Now, notice in this history, in this history [Figure No. 133]—and we have prepared you for this thought yesterday, but you did not think I was going to be asking you so many questions—what does Pagan Rome do for Papal Rome?

PAGAN ROME HISTORY

	330		496	533 (Rev 17:17)
(AD321)		(476)
Passes 1st Sunday law: national apostasy is followed by national ruin		Pagan Rome has disintegrated into 10 kingdoms
	Gives Papal Rome its Seat		Gives Papal Rome its Power	Gives Papal Rome its Great Authority

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Three things—(inaudible)—power, seat, and great authority.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It gives it three things: power, seat, and great authority.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: And it takes away three things

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And it takes away three things: the three horns. We dealt with that yesterday.

When did it [Pagan Rome] give its power to the Papacy?

Who is associated with the power?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Clovis.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Clovis.

When was Clovis baptized?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD496.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD496 is the power.

When did it give its seat?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD330.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD330.

When did it give its great authority; that is, civil authority?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD533.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD533.

Why did Justinian give his civil authority over to the Papacy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To solve a religious problem.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To solve a religious crisis.

What else? What was happening to Justinian's kingdom in AD533?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It was crumbling.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It was crumbling.

When did it begin to crumble?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: When the Trumpet powers started to come in (indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Sort of.

When did it begin to crumble?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the national apostasy, AD321.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD321. In AD321, right down here, Constantine passed the first Sunday law; and the rule is, national apostasy is followed by national ruin.

So, where does the national ruin begin? Right here in AD330.

What happens technically in AD330? The Roman Empire is split in half between East and West.

Then what happens?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Trumpets.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Trumpets begin to sound. By AD476 the western part of Rome has disintegrated into ten kingdoms. There is never going to be an Italian that sits upon the throne of Rome after AD476. It is controlled by foreign powers.

So, when you get to AD533, what is happening with Justinian? Justinian is the emperor in the East. What is happening? His kingdom is falling apart, and there is a religious controversy going on. One part of that controversy is which is the preeminent church; is it the church in Constantinople where Justinian lives, or is it the church of Rome where the Pope lives? And in his decree he decides to identify the Pope of Rome as the head of the churches and the Corrector of Heretics.

Correct? Is this all true?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, why did he implement that decree?

Why am I asking that? What is the purpose of me emphasizing all of this? Because, this history here [from AD496 to 533], the history of Pagan Rome and its work to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth is illustrating the work of whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States.

And this [AD533] is Revelation 17:17 at the end of the world. At the end of the world the civil authority [State], the Ten Kings right here [referring to Figure No. 133], the Ten Kings right here, they agree to give their kingdom to the Papacy, just like it was given to the Papacy back here in AD533.

So, if we can understand why Pagan Rome gave its authority to the Papacy in AD533, then we will know why the United Nations is going to agree to give its civil power to the Papacy at the end of the world in Revelation 17:17.

So, what did we identify? What did we say?

There was a religious controversy going on in the world, in the kingdom. For Justinian, he had a religious controversy going on in his kingdom; but, at the end of the world, this is worldwide.

There is a worldwide religious controversy that is raging at the end of time. What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Islam.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is Islam, Islam.

Okay. But, what is happening to the world? It is crumbling.

You have got to remember, sometimes we think that these globalists are actually going to succeed in implementing a One World Government that—you know, I do not know what we think. But, what the Bible says is that Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning, and the beginning of modern Babylon is illustrated in Babel. And as they were trying to build their One World Government, their tower to Heaven, the Lord comes down and confuses their work and they never finish the work.

So, sometimes we think that these globalists at the end of the world, even though we can see all the strings that they are pulling, we think that maybe they are going to pull it off. They are not going to pull it off. Their kingdom begins to crumble at September 11, 2001, when the east wind sinks the ships of Tarshish. It is already crumbling as we speak. They are trying to build that tower, but it is coming down.

So, here at the end of the world, in Revelation 17:17 [refers to the line of the 144,000 in Figure No. 133], the world will be crumbling. There will be a religious crisis. But, why was Justinian's world crumbling? Why was it crumbling?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It was because of Islam.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, it was not because of Islam. Nice try.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because of the Trumpet powers. It is better to say the Trumpet powers. This is the Trumpet powers.

But, is Islam a Trumpet power?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, it is the Seventh Trumpet.

So, they are parallel histories, they are parallel histories.

Okay. So, in this history [of the 144,000 in Figure No. 133], once you see that, the reason that—who is this [referring to the United Nations], by the way? This is the Dragon, is it not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Kings, governors, and rulers have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and they are represented as a dragon that goes to make war with the saints.

Who is the Papacy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Beast.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: [Enters the Papacy as the Beast in Figure No. 133].

And, the United States, the False Prophet.

So, in this history up here [Jezebel] and in this history [Herodias] here, we have a very important fact about this history here [the Dragon, the Beast, and the False Prophet]. But, you only see this fact if you see a triple application of prophecy, and you only see a triple application of prophecy if you have to fight the battle of the glorious land, if you have to deal with all of Adventism saying, "What you're teaching is heresy. The glorious land is the Seventh-day Adventist Church."

Of course, the easy answer to that is, "Okay. If you're saying the Pope of Rome conquers the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Daniel 11, verse 41, perhaps you can give me one other Scripture where this takes place; because the Bible says upon the testimony of two a thing is established." It is foolishness to call the glorious land the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

The word glorious means the sense of prominence. The Seventh-day Adventist Church is not the most prominent church in the world.

Have you ever seen the Dali Lama on a Newsweek Magazine cover?

How about the Pope of Rome?

How about the head of the Orthodox Church in Europe?

The answer to all three of those is, "Yes."

Have you ever seen the president of the General Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church on the front page of the Newsweek or a Time Magazine? No way! It is not the most prominent church.

In fact, one of the men that are running for President, his church is getting more talk than the Seventh-day Adventist Church. What church is that? Mormons! The Mormons are more out in the world right now in terms of face time than the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

And the word glorious means in sense of prominence. Okay?

So, because of that battle, the Lord orchestrated a shaking that forced is to see a triple application of prophecy. And with a triple application of prophecy, all kinds of lights begin to come on.

For instance, when Ahab, after he sees fire come down out of Heaven and consume that altar, he runs back to Jezebel who is not on the scene, and he says, "You won't believe it, Jezebel, but Elijah's God is the true God."

And what did Jezebel say? He thought she was going to be converted: "Off with his head by tomorrow! We're gonna kill him. I don't care!"

Did Ahab expect her to say that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Nope.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He was deceived.

The state power is deceived by the Papacy to its real intents.

And what are the intents of the Papacy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To kill.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To kill God's people; to kill Elijah. On the testimony of two a thing is established.

Here is Herod. He is partying down; he is drinking his wine; and, then Salome comes on the scene and she does this seductive, wonderful dance. And in his foolish state he says, "Up to half my kingdom will I give you for that wonderful dance," and he says it in front of all the other leaders that are there; so, he has got to keep his word.

Did he think she was going to say, "What I want for that dance is John the Baptist's head on a charger"?

It is the same story. Herod is deceived about Herodias's intent to kill John the Baptist, the same way that Ahab is deceived about Jezebel's intent to kill Elijah; therefore, the United Nations, it is going to be deceived about the idea that the Papacy intends to murder faithful Sabbathkeeping Christians.

But, it [the United Nations] is still going to agree to come into this relationship, because it is under deception.

And, you can see this deception in world history. We have used this story more than once, but it is a perfect story. When they captured Saddam Hussein in Iraq, in his little hole, there became a worldwide discussion: "Should we put Saddam Hussein on trial in Iraq, or should we let the Americans who captured him put him on trial?"

Because, if you put him on trial in Iraq and the United States, they will execute him; because, the United States and Iraq both believe in the death penalty. But, the United Nations supposedly does not believe in the death penalty. Okay?

So, there was an argument that took place right after they caught Saddam Hussein—you had to have heard of it; but, if you want to dig it out, it was discussed a lot—should Saddam Hussein be tried by the Americans or Iraq with the death decree, or should they transfer him over to The Hague to be tried in the World Court that does not believe in the death decree?

So, what did the Pope of Rome, Pope John Paul II, do during that time period of the last pope?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He started writing letters.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He started writing more letters. He started writing letters saying, "The Catholic Church doesn't believe in the death decree. You ought to try Saddam Hussein in the World Court, in the Hague."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That is right.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Catholic Church does not believe in the death decree?

What is she doing here when she is making that statement about Saddam Hussein? What is she doing?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: She is deceiving.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: She is deceiving the United Nations. She is saying, "We believe like you do. We don't believe in the death decree."

But, there is going to be a religious crisis—okay?—that allows this to come into existence, along with the activity of the United States, forcing them to set up an image of the beast.

And Satan here, Satan is personating Christ. He is here on Earth at this time pushing this same agenda.

The United States is pushing an agenda. Satan is personating Christ, pushing the same agenda. And, the kingdom is crumbling through the Seventh Trumpet, through a Trumpet power just like it was crumbling back here with Justinian. And, there is a religious crisis, and the religious crisis is, "How are we going to deal with radical Islam and the escalating world war that they are accomplishing here during the Third Woe?

And the answer is, "Well, we've got to bring the whole world under a One World Government so we can better bring them under control."

And as soon as the Papacy is placed in the leadership of this One World Government (Revelation 13:14-15, Revelation 17:17, and Daniel 11:42-43), as soon as she is in a position—Sister White says this—as soon as she has vantage ground, she will strike. As soon as she is in position, then "Ahab" is going to find out that she does not want to deal with radical Islam; she wants to deal with faithful Seventh-day Adventists, and they are going to find out she wants to kill them, wants to put them to death: Death Decree time.

So, from this simple little story of Elijah, when put in the context of a triple application of prophecy, it is speaking specific, direct information about the end of the world; but, this triple application of prophecy is recognized; because, when the First Message of Daniel 11:40-45 comes into history, there is a noise and it causes a shaking. It brings a body of believers together. But, this shaking is the argument. Sister White says the introduction of false teaching is what produces the shaking. Okay? It is the controversy between truth and error that goes in.

Okay. We have just about five minutes. We are bringing to a conclusion 1989 today and tomorrow; but, we want to do one more thing, one more upon the testimony of two or three a thing is established. And all we are looking at here is the triple application of prophecy.

THE FIFTH, SIXTH, AND SEVENTH TRUMPETS

1ST WOE	2ND WOE	3RD WOE (began 9/11/2001)
Islam	Islam	Islam
Arabia	Turkey	Worldwide
Strikes suddenly and unexpectedly	Strikes suddenly and unexpectedly, with the added use of explosives	Strikes suddenly and unexpectedly, with explosives
Armies of Rome	Armies of Rome	Armies of Rome (USA)

If you stand on the platforms of Adventism, the Fifth Trumpet and the Sixth Trumpet are the First and Second Woes. There are three woes. Revelation 8:13 says the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Trumpets are the First, Second, and Third Woes.

And the First Woe was Islam of Arabia.

The Second Woe was Islam of Turkey. It moved; different culture.

The mode of warfare is what is being discussed in Revelation 9. When it talks about Islam in Revelation 9, the Islam of the First and Second Woes, it is not talking about the various foods that they eat in their culture, or what color of clothes they like to wear in their culture. It is describing the warfare of Islam against Rome in that history. And the warfare that is emphasized in the First and Second Woes is a warfare that the name assassin is derived from.

We have talked about this before. The name assassin comes directly from the activities of the warfare of Islam. When you trace the root of assassin, they are assassins. They are not like the British and the French used to do, where they lined up in red coats and they lined up in blue coats and they start marching at one another killing people. They strike suddenly and unexpectedly. They are assassins on their Arabian horses.

But, here in this history of the Second Woe, you add what is added in Revelation 9, is that when Islam blew down the walls of Constantinople in the history of the Second Woe to bring to a conclusion Eastern Rome, for the first time in history they used explosives. The very first time explosives were used in warfare was in AD1453 when Islam built cannons to blow down the invincible walls of Constantinople, up to that point in time.

So, the mode of warfare of Islam is to strike suddenly and unexpectedly; but, in this history [of the Second Woe], you add explosives.

And with a triple application of prophecy, is it okay that the waymarks have a little bit of a difference?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Sure.

This one here [Figure No. 133] is the easiest one to see.

Did Elijah die?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Did Ahab and Jezebel want Elijah to die? Yes, but he did not die.

Did John the Baptist die?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Did Herod and Herodias want him to die? Well, Herodias did.

But, Elijah and John the Baptist, they are the same person. So, it is okay for these waymarks to have a little bit of extra piece of information when considered together.

So, the Islam of the Second Woe, it strikes suddenly and unexpectedly but also with explosives. And in both cases [of the First and Second Woes], they were at war with the armies of Rome.

So, in a triple application of prophecy, if the First Woe has these characteristics, and the Second Woe has these characteristics, what are the characteristics of the Third Woe going to be?

Well, it is going to be Islam. But this [the First Woe] was Islam in Arabia; this [the Second Woe] was Islam in Turkey; so, this [the Third Woe] is going to be worldwide Islam.

And what is Islam going to do when the Third Woe comes back into history? It is going to strike suddenly and unexpectedly with what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: With explosives.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: With explosives.

And who is it going to strike?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The armies of Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The armies of Rome.

Who are the armies of Rome?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Give me a text for that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel 11:40.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 11:40, the armies of Rome. The chariots and the horsemen are identifying the United States is the armies of Rome.

So, when the Third Woe comes into history, it will once again be Islam, worldwide Islam that will strike the armies of Rome suddenly and unexpectedly with explosives; and, the armies of Rome is the USA. Hmm, that is 9/11.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is 9/11, Brothers and Sisters.

And in Revelation 13, the United States is going to force the world to receive the mark of the beast; and, if you do not have the mark of the beast, you cannot buy or sell. And if you do not have the mark of the beast, you are put to death. So, the two powers of the United States at the end of the world are economic and military powers.

So, what is the symbol of the economic power of the United States?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Twin Towers in New York City.

What is the symbol of the military might of the United States?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Pentagon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Pentagon.

On 9/11 both the symbol of economic and the symbol of military (the chariots, ships, and horsemen) together were struck,

And, they struck the United States, which is the beast that comes up out what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Earth.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Earth.

And where did that fourth plane go? It went into the Earth.

9/11 is a triple application of prophecy come alive, identifying that the Third Woe has arrived in history, and that the Third Woe (9/11/2001) is the Trumpet power that begins to crumble the kingdom, paralleling Justinian, that Justinian as the civil authority is pointing forward when the civil authority down here [the United Nations] is going to agree to give their kingdom to the Papacy, because the Trumpet power is bringing the world to its knees.

And you may not quite understand how this has a connection with Daniel 11:40-45; but, if you do not see Daniel 11:40-45, you do not get to see any of this because those that reject the First Message cannot be benefited by the Second.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, it has been many years since 9/11 now, and we want not to become complacent to the fact that when that event took place the trees began to bud forth, and this is the sign that we must recognize if we are going to be among those that receive the Seal of God. Help us to remember that this is the final generation, and that this generation is one that is going to be lifted up as an ensign in the near future, but only if we accomplish the testing process of the Everlasting Gospel correctly, the testing process that is now being brought upon Adventism. Help us to understand that these truths that we are studying are gems and jewels that are being revealed by the Dirt Brush Man, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, in order to prepare an ensign to glorify His name in the coming crisis. We set before you this day of service that we each are going to do and ask that you keep us safe and that you will help us to do what we do for your glory and honor. We ask for a continued blessing upon the LiveStreaming work and the DVDs in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #65

PART SIX: 1989

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we come before you this morning to bring to a conclusion this section of Habakkuk's Tables, we ask that you help us to bring these final thoughts into a conclusion. We need your Holy Spirit if we are going to understand your Word correctly. We ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit. We ask that you would overrule my humanity, that the presentation this morning would be a presentation that comes from the Throne Room on high and not from a human being. We ask that you would prepare the hearts and minds of those that hear this presentation to receive it as you have designed. We want your Latter Rain poured out upon us; so, we would ask that you would do that at this time. We thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are bringing to a conclusion our argument that 1989 is the Time of the End for the Reform Movement of the 144,000, and that every Reform Movement begins with a Time of the End; and, the Time of the End in every Reform Movement is a fulfillment of a prophecy. And it just so happens that Daniel 11, verse 40, not only marks the Time of the End for the Reform Movement of the 144,000 but it marks the Time of the End for the Millerites; because, in 1798 the King of the South (atheistic France) began a war, pushed against the Papacy, delivering the deadly wound. But, at the conclusion of verse 40 we see the modern king of Atheism, the Soviet Union (the [new] King of the South] being swept away by the King of the North (the Papacy) and its ally, its end-time political ally the United States, as represented in the "chariots, ships, and horsemen." We are saying that this is the point in prophecy where the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, the Dirt Brush Man of William Miller's dream, begins to unseal the prophetic testing message that is the Everlasting Gospel for Seventh-day Adventists here at the end of the world.

And, we went through the verses that follow, Daniel 11:40-45; then, we have compared them with the sequence of events set forth in Revelation 17 and Revelation 13.

We have identified that the last six verses of Daniel 11 are emphasizing the movements of the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet as they lead the world to Armageddon, Armageddon being marked as the point in verse 45 where the King of the North is located between the seas and the glorious and holy mountain when he comes to his end. This is Megiddo; this is Armageddon; and, the King of the North is the representative of modern Babylon (the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet), which are all noted in verse 40, the King of the South being the Dragon; chariots, ships, and horsemen being the False Prophet; the King of the North being the Beast.

The last six verses of Daniel 11 is the story of how modern Babylon leads the world to Armageddon. The last six verses of Daniel 11 are the climax of the Biblical presentation of Michael, and Michael represents the Great Controversy. The name Michael means, Who (is) like God? And when Michael is set forth in the Scriptures, He is always in confrontation with Satan, whether it being in the Book of Jude, or in Revelation 12, or in Daniel 11.

And in Daniel 11, along with the argument about Michael (Who (is) like God?), we also see the subject of the King of the North, the King of the North in the passage being the Papacy; but, the true King of the North is Christ, who is seated in the sides of the North, in the City of the Great King, in Zion. So, the King of the North is also telling the story of Satan's attempt to exalt himself into the Throne Room of God. And it is in Daniel 11 that this story (the Great Controversy) Michael and the counterfeit King of the North all comes to a conclusion.

So, we have been emphasizing the many deep, profound truths that are in these verses that you would expect to see if this truly was the Time of the End, the passage of prophecy that is unsealed to test God's people in the Last Days.

Daniel 11:16-17; 11:31

And we want to show you what I call a literary technique. I do not know if that is the right way to illustrate it; but, if you will, go to Daniel 11, verses 16 and 17. We have dealt with these verses a few times already.

We know that Pagan Rome is first introduced into Daniel 11 in verse 14 as the "robbers of thy people" who exalt themselves to establish the vision; but, they fall.

But, in verse 16, the "robbers of thy people" of Pagan Rome begins to make his conquest of the world; and, we have pointed out that when Pagan Rome takes control of the world, it has to overcome geographical areas, and these are marked in verses 16 and 17 of Daniel 11; and, that is simply a second testimony to Daniel 8, verse 9.

And the literary technique that I am identifying—and there may be a better way to state it—is that when Daniel deals with Pagan Rome, first, first he tells us how Pagan Rome takes control of the world. Okay. That is verses 16 and 17.

And after he identifies how Pagan Rome takes control of the world, then in verse 20, it says, "Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes," and this "raiser of taxes" is Rome calling for a taxation that brings Joseph and Mary to Bethlehem. The point being is, the literary technique is that when Daniel deals with Rome, he first tells us how Rome takes control of the world; and, thereafter, he tells us how Rome interacts with God's people. Okay? Because, if you mark the dates in verses 16 and 17 that Rome is conquering the world—I think they took Syria in 65BC: I could be wrong on that, but it was in the Sixties; then, Israel in 63BC, somewhere in that neighborhood.

But, when was the league with the Jews?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 162.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 162BC—these are all BC dates.

So, in actuality, the league with the Jews is formed before this conquering begins; and, what I am saying is that when Daniel is telling us this history, the first thing that he tells us is how Pagan Rome takes control of the world, and then he takes up another subject: "This is how Pagan Rome interacts with God's people during this history."

If you go to Daniel 11:31—we have covered this verse more than once—"And arms shall stand on his part," this is Clovis standing up for the Papacy in AD496, and Clovis and those arms are going to pollute the City of Rome, "the sanctuary of strength," in the warfare that follows thereafter; and those Pagan kings are going to set aside their state religion of Paganism and change it to Papalism, as they take away the Daily in verse 31. And those Pagan kings are going to place the "abomination that maketh desolate"; they are going to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth in AD538.

So, here, once the Papacy is on the throne of the Earth in AD538 in Daniel 11:31, it is going to rule the world supremely for 1260 years; and, this is where the Papacy becomes the subject. So, the first thing that Daniel does when it comes to Papal Rome is the same thing that he does with Pagan Rome. He first tells us how Papal Rome takes control of the world, and then in verses 32 and onward, we have the persecution of the 1260 years. So, first Daniel tells us how Papal Rome takes control of the world, and then he begins to tell us how Papal Rome deals with God's people; and, he does this both with Pagan Rome and Papal Rome, and this is the same story in Daniel 11:40-45.

In Daniel 11, verses 40 to 43, we see the three obstacles that modern Rome needs to overcome, the three geographical obstacles: the King of the South in verse 40 (the Soviet Union); the glorious land being the United States in verse 41; and Egypt, the entire world, in verses 42 and 43. Once those three geographical areas are subdued, the deadly wound is healed.

So, first, Daniel tells us how modern Rome takes control of the world (verses 40 to 43); and, then in verses 44 and 45, he is going to tell us how Papal Rome is going to interact with God's people; because, "tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth . . . to destroy, and utterly to make away many," in verse 44,[18] "yet he shall come to his end," with none to help in verse 45.

So, in 1798 we have verse 40; and, verse 40 ends at The Sunday Law in the United States, which is verse 41; but this history is verse 40, and we have dealt with this history several times.

But, once Daniel finishes telling us the story over here of when Egypt is conquered, in verses 42 and 43, then he gives us the story of the message of the tidings of the East and the North. All right? And what we are saying here is that "the East and the North" represent a variety of things in God's Word. If you remember, in Isaiah 41, when you see "East and North" together, it represents the righteousness of Christ; because, Christ is the righteous man from the East. He comes from the North and He comes from the rising of the sun in Isaiah 41. So, when you look at "East and North" together, it is the message of Christ's righteousness.

But, the East is the sealing message because the Angel that descends in Revelation 7, He ascends from the East. But, the East is also the message of the Second Coming, "For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be" (Matthew 24:27 KJV) And, there appears in the East a cloud, a small cloud, in the shape of a man's hand.

So, the East and the North—and I am not touching on all of them—represent many things. But, whatever the East and the North is, it is the message that troubles the Papacy.

[18] To correct the misspoken cite of verse 40 to verse 44 of Daniel 11.

So, when we have looked at this history here, from AD1798 to The Sunday Law in the United States, when we have looked at the history of verse 40 we have identified it as also the history of Revelation 13:11; because, Sister White says when the Papacy was robbed of its strength—that is AD1798—John saw a new power rising from the Earth. So, the story of the Earth beast in Revelation 13 begins in AD1798, and it ends when the Earth beast of the United States speaks as a dragon; the same history.

And Isaiah 23, speaking of Tyre, Tyre being the power that commits fornication with all the kingdoms of the Earth, the story of Tyre in Isaiah 23 is the story of Tyre being forgotten for 70 years, which is "the days of one king," and the one king that is symbolizing the 70 years is the history of the United States, which begins in AD1798, in terms of a kingdom in Bible prophecy, and ends at The Sunday Law in the United States.

So, when we look at this history closely, we find that verse 40 has some parallel histories in the Scriptures that take place in verse 40. One of those is the story of Josiah, which is probably the next presentation we are going to do when we return to the work of identifying these two Tables [referring to the 1843 and 1850 Charts] as typified in God's Word. We are going to look at Josiah because there is an important element of the typifications of these two Charts in the story of Josiah.

But, Josiah here represents the leadership of the Adventist Church that rejects the warning message of the war between the King of the South and the King of the North, the long drawn-out war that initially the King of the South is victorious as it pushes against the King of the North; but, ultimately, the King of the North retaliates and sweeps away the King of the South. That is in the story of Josiah, and Josiah rejected that warning message, and where did he end up?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He ended up between the seas and the glorious holy mountain. He came to his end, with none to help, representing the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church that rejects the warning message of Daniel 11:40-45.

But, we also looked at Revelation 9, verses 1 through 3, roughly in there, the history of a long, drawn-out war between Rome and Persia; and ultimately when that war ends, this long, drawn-out war being a parallel to the long, drawn-out war between the King of the South and the King of the North in verse 40—and when that war with Rome and Persia comes to an end, it is marking the rise of Islam.

And we are saying that that history that brings Islam into history in the time period of the Fifth Trumpet, the First Woe, because it is based upon a long, drawn-out war between Rome and a two-horn power (Persia is a two-horn power) and the King of the South (France) was a two-horn power, that once this war concludes then you see Islam come into history and we have marked this as 9/11 [September 11, 2001]. So, in the history of verse 40 we see the arrival of the Third Woe.

And, we are saying that this [9/11/2001] is the arrival of the Message of the East that troubles the King of the North. It trouble the King of the North because the East is the children of the East; it is Islam; it is the East wind that sinks the economic structure of Planet Earth, right when Planet Earth is trying to lift up a One World globalist economy, and other factors. They are trying to put in place a One World Monetary System, and right as they are starting this work—you know, you can probably trace it back at least to George Bush I, right after the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989, right in here [see Figure No. 136]. George Bush I begins talking about a New World Order, and the long, drawn-out war between Persia and Rome comes to an end, and the smoke of Islam returns into history in the Third Woe and begins to sink the ships of Tarshish. And this is the message of the East that troubles the Papacy; because, right when he thinks he is getting to the place where he is going to build this tower into Heaven, it is all going to come tumbling down.

The Message of the North, it begins right in here, too; because, in 1989 the Lion of the Tribe of Judah unseals the message of the last six verses of Daniel 11, which is the Message of the King of the North.

But, the Message of the King of the North that is going to be proclaimed by God's people is the message identifying the corruptions within the Catholic Church and how those corruptions have made their way into the Protestant churches and the political world. It is a denunciation of the Papacy that only escalates as time goes by.

So, what am I saying? I am saying that this [AD1798 to The Sunday Law] is Daniel 11, verse 40. This is the history of verse 40.

This [The Sunday Law] is verse 41.

This [Egypt] is verses 42 and 43. But, when you get to verses 42 and 43, Daniel has told you how modern Rome has taken control of the world. Now he is going to tell us how Rome interacts with God's people during this same history; but, these Messages of the East and of the North here, verse 44, it actually begins back here in verse 40.

Particularly, the persecution is going to begin in earnest at The Sunday Law, but it escalates. It begins first with courtroom scenes and fines and persecution; but, by the time you get to him [the Papacy] conquering Egypt [the world], then it is going to escalate to a Death Decree.

So, the Messages of the East and of the North is the story of how the King of the North interacts with God's people; and, if you are going to understand the Messages of the East and of the North, you need to trace it back to its beginnings, and its beginnings is right here in verse 40. Verse 40 is an unbelievable verse.

Now, let us close this out with an emphasis.

I am a little bit—from my perspective, I cannot know these things really; but, just my human perspective, when I see what is going on with this Message in Adventism today, the controversy, the discussion, the websites, they are about the 2520. Okay? The 2520 seems to be the issue. I disagree with that. I think it is a distraction. I think it is—I think some of the agitation about the 2520 is not just the resistance to the truth about the 2520—that is satanic—but, I believe there is even a role that Satan is doing in agitating the significance of the 2520 that is not really connected with whether he is for or against the truth of the 2520. It has to do with creating an environment, a distraction, for those people that are studying this Message; because,—now, here is my argument—I think the message of 9/11 is not the 2520. That is part of the message which needs to be taught, which needs to be taught clearly; but, the message of 9/11 is Islam.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Islam is the subject that needs to be internalized by Seventh-day Adventists if they are going to understand the Third Angel's Message. The role of Islam is what is bringing the world to its knees right now.

Isaiah 44:6-7; Genesis 16:12; Revelation 11:18; Luke 21:25

And yesterday—I believe yesterday—we discussed a little bit, briefly, Luke 21, where Sister White compares the sealing of God's people in Revelation 7 and in Ezekiel 9, and says they are both the same sealing; but, she takes phrases out of verse 25 of Luke 21 and connects that with the sealing.

And the distress of nations in Luke 21, verse 25, was the activities of Islam in the 1840 time period that brought about the restraint that was placed upon them by the four great European powers. So, the distress of nations in Luke 21, verse 25, is prefiguring the angering of the nations in Revelation 11, verse 18, that is the subject of the Third Woe. So, when it comes to the sealing of God's people, not only do you have Revelation 7 and Ezekiel 9, you have Luke 21; and, in Luke 21 Christ tells a parable to answer the question about what is the sign of the Second Coming, and Sister White comments on the parable. We read it yesterday in The Great Controversy. Christ pointed his followers to the budding trees of Spring, and we are required to see when the Latter Rain arrives in history. And what marks the arrival of the Latter Rain in history is not the 2520; it is Islam.

And, I hope that I am not offending those people that I am like-minded with on the subject of the 2520. I am just telling you that if I had opportunity to stand in front of a bunch of Seventh-day Adventists that were not understanding these things, and I had the choice of either giving them one presentation and it was either going to be on the 2520 or Islam, it would be on Islam every single time; because, Islam is what we need to see in order to understand that the Latter Rain has arrived.

Now, once we see that, we will have to prove it; and, if we are going to prove it, then we are going to have to return to the Pioneer logic that allowed them to identify that the Fifth Trumpet was Islam, and the Sixth Trumpet was Islam. So, the Lord will lead us back to the Old Paths thereafter to prove Islam in Bible prophecy, and a symbol of the Old Paths are definitely the 2520, but it comes thereafter. And if you do not see Islam first, and you just get wrapped up in the 2520, then I think it is a mistake.

And another way to explain this mistake is there are people that have come into this Message because they did see the 2520. I know of one brother in Tennessee, a good friend—I am not being negative about him—but, someone showed him the [1843] Chart and told him about the Chart, and before it was all said and done, once he had accepted the truth of the Chart, he has got a website up on the 2520. And it is a good website. I am not being negative about this brother, but it is a point to show something. He was into the Charts and he was into the 2520, he already had a website up on the 2520 before he had even considered the last six verses of Daniel 11. Okay? There is a progressive understanding in this Message that has to be followed; because, Sister White is clear: Those that do not receive the First Message in Miller's time could not be benefited by the Second [Message]. In the time of Christ, if you did not receive the message of John the Baptist, you could not receive the message of Christ.

And the message of the [1843] Chart, this is the Second Message in our history. You can come to the foundational truths, but if you are wrong on the last six verses of Daniel 11, it means that you are trying to accept the message of Christ while you are rejecting the message of John the Baptist. It cannot be done!

So, what I am saying is, in Revelation 5 and onward, when Christ, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, is removing the Seven Seals from the Book, he does it one at a time. And the same work is illustrated in Daniel 12 as the Book of Daniel being unsealed and there is an increase of knowledge. So, in both of those illustrations, one of the things that can be gleaned from that is that the prophetic testing message that is the Everlasting Gospel for this generation has to be accepted in the order that the Lord gives it. It is sequential: one Seal here, the next, Seal, the next Seal. And, you cannot skip some of the early Seals and expect to truly understand the final Seals.

Okay. So, because for me, my conviction is that the Messages of the East and of the North is the Third Angel's Message, and it is the message that is being identified just before Michael stands up and probation closes in Daniel 11; and, Sister White tells us repeatedly the Books of Daniel and Revelation are the same book. So, the message in Revelation that is proclaimed just before probation closes is the Loud Cry of the Third Angel, whether you are going to deal with it in Revelation 14 or Revelation 18. If they are the same Book, then the Messages of the East and of the North (the tidings of the East and of the North that trouble the Papacy) has got to be the Third Angel's Message swelling into a Loud Cry. And if we do not understand what the East and the North is and their relation to one another, and why they trouble the Papacy, then we do not understand very much about the Third Angel's Message. Okay? We need to understand these things; because, these things is are what get proclaimed, because they are the tidings. And you know they get proclaimed because the tidings trouble the Papacy. So, you have to understand these things.

So, we are going to close off this consideration of 1989 with reviewing a few things that we have said about the Message of the East.

Go to Isaiah 44. And all of this is review, I think. Isaiah 44:6-7 says,

> "[6]Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. [7]And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them." Isaiah 44:6-7 (KJV).

Jesus appointed the ancient people. Jesus, the First and the Last, Jesus the God who illustrates the end from the beginning in order to accomplish that work of illustrating the end from the beginning, He appointed the ancient people, the people of the Old Testament to illustrate the people at the end of the world in the Book of Revelation. We have modern Babylon in Revelation 17. If you are going to understand modern Babylon, you have got to go to Ancient Babylon. We have spiritual Israel in Revelation 7. If you are going to understand who they are, you need to go back to Genesis 49 and look at the blessing that was placed upon Jacob's 12 sons. So, the ancient people illustrate the end of the world. If you are going to understand Revelation 11:8, who Egypt and Sodom are, what power is Egypt and Sodom in Revelation 11:8, you are going to have to understand who Sodom of the Old Testament and Egypt of the Old Testament were.

Then in Genesis 16:12, one of the ancient people that was appointed is Islam. Verse 12, speaking of Ishmael, the father of Islam, unless you want to claim that Abraham is the father of Islam; but, Abraham is not the father of Islam. Islam is a religion, and Abraham's religion was different than the religion of Islam. But, the Islamists will tell you that either Ishmael or Abraham is their father. And Ishmael in verse 12, it is said of him—and all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, and Jesus appointed the ancient people to illustrate the end of the world—and it is said of him [Ishmael],

> "[12]And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren." Genesis 16:12 (KJV).

Islam, at the end of the world, is illustrated by this ancient wild man; and, the role of Islam at the end of the world is that their hand will be against every man, and every man will come together, every man will unite together against Islam to deal with radical Islam. And, of course, this is Revelation 17:17, when the Ten Kings agree to give their kingdom to the Papacy. This is Revelation 13:14-15, when the United States forces the world to accept the image of the beast, the One World Government.

But, the reason that they [the Ten Kings] do this is found in Revelation 13:2; because, in Revelation 13:2, the Dragon (Pagan Rome) gave its authority to the Papacy in the year AD533, and the Dragon (Clovis, Pagan Rome) is prefiguring the United States and the United Nations at the end of the world that turned the civil authority over to the Papacy in Revelation 17:17 for a short space for one hour. And, the reason that they do that is that in the time of Justinian in AD533, when the Dragon gave its civil authority to the Papacy, Justinian's kingdom was being brought to its knees by a Trumpet power, and there was a religious crisis going on in the realm; thus telling us that at the end of the world, the Seventh Trumpet (the final Trumpet) will be bringing the kingdom of the World to its knees by an escalating crisis, and the crisis will be a religious crisis concerning radical Islam, and this same history will be repeated.

The role of Islam in Bible prophecy is to bring the One World Government together, and it does so by raising a guerilla warfare against the entire world. And the logic of the globalists is that we need to bring the world under a One World Government to deal with this escalating crisis.

In Revelation 11:18—and you will find a lot of messages in Adventism, but as we walk through this in conclusion here this morning, please note the breadth of the testimony concerning Islam in the Scriptures. Revelation 11, verse 18, and we have looked at this. It says,

> "[18]And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth." Revelation 11:18 (KJV).

And in Luke 21:25—we already referred to it—the nations were distressed. And in Luke 21:25, Uriah Smith tells us that in 1838 the distress of nations took place, as Egypt invades Turkey. So, the distress of nations in the Millerite history was accomplished by Islam; and, the Millerite History is going to be repeated to the very letter. So, the distress of nations or the angering of the nations here in verse 18 of Revelation 11, we are saying is accomplished by Islam once again; and, we are saying that this is in agreement with the role of Islam. He is a wild man, and his hand will be against every man. He angers the nations.

Okay. In speaking of the angering of the nations, in Early Writings, page 85, Sister White is commenting on something she said earlier in the book.

> "This view was given in 1847 when there were but very few of the Advent brethren observing the Sabbath, and of these but few supposed that its observance was of sufficient importance to draw a line between the people of God and unbelievers. Now the fulfillment of that view is beginning to be seen."—

I am jumping into the center of the paragraph.

> — 'The commencement of that time of trouble,' here mentioned does not refer to the time when the plagues shall begin to be poured out, but to a short period just before they are poured out, while Christ is in the sanctuary. At that time, while the work of salvation is closing,"—

And in this worship series we have taken time to demonstrate that the closing work of salvation is where Christ is doing the work that we call the Judgment of the Living.

> —"At that time, while the work of salvation is closing, trouble will be coming on the earth,"—

Ishmael's hand will be against every man.

> —"and the nations will be angry, yet held in check"—

And we are saying that the nations were made angry on September 11, 2001, and they were simultaneously held in check when George Bush immediately thereafter went to the United Nations and says, "We are now in a war with radical Islam. You are either for us or against us."

And there was a restraint put upon them [Islam]. The bank accounts that they could easily access were shut down. They went into Afghanistan; they went into Iraq; and, they put a restraint upon Islam.

> —"the nations will be angry, yet held in check so as not to prevent the work of the third angel. At that time"—

At the time when the nations are made angry and held in check, > —"the 'latter rain,' or refreshing from the presence of the Lord, will come, to give power to the loud voice of the third angel, and prepare the saints to stand in the period when the seven last plagues shall be poured out." Early Writings, 85.

So, we are saying that the time is 9/11, that nations are made angry, paralleling the stress of nations in 1838; but, there is a restraint placed upon Islam, the entity that is making the nations angry, and at that time the first phase of the Latter Rain, which is the sprinkling, begins. The full outpouring comes at The Sunday Law, when the Church is purified through the separation process of delivering either the mark of the beast or the Seal of God to Seventh-day Adventists.

Revelation 7:1-3; Isaiah 27:8; Ezekiel 37:9

Revelation 7:1-3 talks about this restraint. At that time the nations will be angry, yet held in check; and, in Revelation 7:1-3, we see four angels that are commanded to hold the Four Winds until God's people are sealed. We are saying that the angry nations that are held in check here are the Four Winds. We have shown that. But, this not only marks the arrival of the sprinkling part of the Latter Rain but it marks the beginning of the sealing process of the 144,000.

And we see this restraint also in Isaiah 27:8; because in 1 Corinthians 14:32-33 tells us "[32]. . . the spirits of the prophets are subject unto the prophets. [33]For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." So, all the prophets are telling us the same story.

And in Isaiah 27:8, it says, "In measure," and we are suggesting that the measure here is based upon the promise of verse 6; because, in verse 6, it says that ". . . Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit." And what is it that causes the trees to blossom and bud?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Latter Rain. It is the Rain.

So, in verse 8, it says, "In measure, . . . ," when the Latter Rain is sprinkling, when it is being measured. At The Sunday Law it is a full outpouring.

> "[8]In measure, when it shooteth forth,"—

Right at the beginning of the Latter Rain.

> —"thou wilt debate with it:"—

Here is where the debate of Adventism begins.

And it says,

> —"thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind." Isaiah 27:8 (KJV).

And all of the prophets agree with one another. So, if we see John telling us that four angels are holding the Four Winds of Strife, those Four Winds of Strife are the rough wind; and, here in verse 8 they are being restrained. They are being stayed. The prophets agree with one another.

So, verse 8 is marking the beginning of the sealing of the 144,000, because it agrees with John; but, it is also marking that the beginning of the Latter Rain begins when the rough wind is stayed, the measuring of the Latter Rain, and it gives us the name for this point in time [9/11/2001]. It is the day of the East Wind; thus begins the debate, thus begins the sealing of the 144,000, thus begins the sprinkling of the Latter Rain, and thus my argument that I made earlier rests upon this. The debate, if you are going to be on the right side of the issue of the controversy in Adventism, the shaking, then you need to be arguing about the right subject, and the right subject is the Day of the East Wind, when the rough wind is stayed. It is not about the 2520.

It is about the 2520. I know that is causing some people some nervousness; but, first and foremost it is about the Day of the East Wind.

In Ezekiel 37:9, still dealing with this East Wind, all the prophets agree with one another. There are two prophecies in Ezekiel 37. The first brings the bones and the flesh together; the second breathes the breath of life into the bodies.

The first message of Ezekiel 37 is the message of the last six verses of Daniel 11. It is the message of the King of the North. It is the tidings of the North. That comes first. It is the message that is delivered by Elijah. It is the message that is delivered by John the Baptist. It is the message that is delivered by William Miller. It is the message identifying the events connected with the close of probation.

But, the second message [of Ezekiel 37] is the message that is delivered by Elisha. It is the message delivered by Christ. It is the message that brings the body to life. It is the message that puts the Spirit in them, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

And in verse 9 it says,

> "[9]Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind,"—

Now, what did we just read about in Isaiah 27:8? The Day of the East Wind.

> —"Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds,"—

This message of the wind that brings God's people to life, it is a message that comes from the Four Winds; and, the message from the Four Winds is the message of Revelation 7:1-3. It is the message of Isaiah 27:8, the message of restraining the rough wind, "he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind."

> —"Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." Ezekiel 37:9 (KJV).

This is the message that turns God's people into a mighty army.

Verse 10 says,

> "[10]So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. [11]Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts." Ezekiel 37:10-11 (KJV).

Okay. This is the story of Aaron's rod that budded. In the valley of the dead dried bones, all those rods are dead and dry and they are put into the Most Holy Place and the Latter Rain is poured out upon them; but, only one of those rods buds. Okay? And it becomes this mighty army.

But, there were other rods in there. Most of Adventism is going to reject. They are going to be on the wrong side of the debate. They are going to reject this message, and their rods will not bud.

Okay. So, Sister White comments on Ezekiel 37, verse 9. Manuscript Releases, volume 20, page 217, says,

> "Angels are holding the four winds, represented as an angry horse seeking to break loose and rush over the face of the whole earth, bearing destruction and death in its path.

> "Shall we sleep on the very verge of the eternal world? Shall we be dull and cold and dead? Oh, that we might have in our churches the Spirit and breath of God breathed into His people, that they might stand upon their feet and live. We need to see that the way is narrow, and the gate strait. But as we pass through the strait gate, its wideness is without limit." Manuscript Releases, volume 20, 217.

She is quoting from Ezekiel 37:9, and she is telling us, if we will receive it (if we have not rejected the Spirit of Prophecy in practice), she is telling us that the Four Winds of Strife of Revelation 7:1-3, and of the rough wind of Isaiah 27:8, that these four winds are represented as the angry horse of Bible prophecy.

And, of course, Genesis 16:12 says, "And he will be a wild man," and that word wild is the wild Arabian ass; and an ass is part of the horse family. So, from Genesis to Revelation, where in Revelation 9 Islam is represented as a horse. The symbol of Islam in Bible prophecy from the beginning (Genesis) to the end (Revelation) is the horse; and, Sister White says the angels are holding the Four Winds, represented as an "angry horse, seeking to break loose and bring death and destruction upon the earth."

And the ancient people of Islam in Genesis 16:12 is a wild man whose hand is against every man! He is seeking to break loose and to bring death and destruction in his path.

And Islam has a king over them in Revelation 9:11, whose name in the Hebrew is Abaddon and in the Greek Apollyon. And Abaddon and Apollyon mean death and destruction. This angry horse that is representing the Four Winds here seeks to produce the very character of Islam as identified in Revelation 9:11, which is death and destruction, Apollyon and Abaddon. A name in prophecy represents character.

Revelation 9:7, 16-17

So, Revelation 9:7, 16 and 17, speaking of the history of the First and Second Woes, the Fifth and Sixth Trumpets, we see Islam represented as this horse, just as the word wild in Genesis 16:12 is the ass (the horse); the ass, the horse, the same family.

But, also, a secondary characteristic to Islam being the wild horse, the angry horse of Bible prophecy, as illustrated on these two Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts], in verse 2 of Revelation 9, it says,

> "[2]And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit."—

This is the introduction of Islam into history after the long, drawn-out war between Rome and Persia. This is Daniel 11, verse 40, typified in this history. And when Islam comes into history, it comes as a smoke blotting out the sun of the Gospel. It is a false religion, blocking the truth of God's Word.

And it says,

—"[3]And there came out of the smoke"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Locusts.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power." Revelation 9:2-3 (KJV).

Another symbol of Islam in Bible prophecy is not simply the horse but they are the locusts.

Exodus 10:12-15; Genesis 41:6, 23, 27; Psalms 48:4-7; 83:1-5; Ezekiel 27:1-4, 25-26; Isaiah 23:1,[19] 6-10, 13-14; Revelation 18:10, 16, 19; 8:13; James 5:1-8

Go to Exodus, chapter 10, verse 12.

You know, when we first started in this work, because you are teaching prophesy everywhere you go, you are going to draw out people that study prophecy and you are going to draw out to your meetings people that have a bunch of crazy ideas about prophecy. So, right from the beginning, we have bumped heads with all these foolish prophetic ideas in Adventism; and, one pops into my mind, just to make a point here.

Those people that reapply time prophecy at the end of the world on a day-for-a-day fashion, they say the 1290, and the 1260, and the 1335 they all take place at the end of the world, but not in a day for a year but in a day for a day because of all their foolish reasoning. They basically have two Spirit of Prophecy quotes that they build their premises on, perhaps three if you want to talk about their application of the Trumpets. And they are all misapplications.

You know, the one where it says, "We were in Dead River and a Brother Hewitt was there saying there was a false prophet, Jezebel, and that I am that false prophet. He was saying that about Ellen White. And she goes on to say, "We showed him some of his errors, and that the 1335 was past," [paraphrasing the following quote of Ellen G. White, 6 Manuscript Releases, page 251.1]:

> "Brother Hewit from Dead River was there. He came with a message to the effect that the destruction of the wicked and the sleep of the dead was an abomination with a shut door that a woman, Jezebel, a prophetess had brought in and he believed that I was that woman Jezebel. We told him of some of his errors in the past, that the 1335 days were ended and numerous errors of his. . ." {6MR 251.2}

They use that quote to say that this Brother Hewitt was teaching that the 1335 was fulfilled in the past and that was one of his errors; but, it is a wresting of the grammatical Word. That is one of the points that they build this teaching on.

And then there is another quote where they say there is a warning message in Daniel 12 that we all need to understand before the Time of the End. Okay? And the warning message in Daniel 12, when you look at the entire passage that they pull this little piece out of is that you and I need to have an understanding of the increase of knowledge that we might be among the wise, instead of the wicked. That is the warning message in Daniel 12. But, they insist that the warning message in Daniel 12 that we need to understand is the reapplication of these time prophecies. And basically, Brothers and Sisters, that is it! They build a whole prophetic model, a whole ministry, write books, teach on two misapplied passages in the Spirit of Prophecy.

[19] See correction of the notes by Brother Pippenger at DVD 01:00:26.

So, for those of you who may be watching this on the DVD or on LiveStreaming, and you are thinking to yourself, "This is a bunch of heresy that these people are teaching, that 9/11 the Third Woe arrived, and the Latter Rain began, and the Judgment of the Living began, and the sealing of the 144,000 began," you go ahead and believe that, that this is wrong, at your own peril! Go ahead and say that this is a bunch of fanaticism and delusion like men are saying; but, what I want to remind you of, as we are walking through this, we are not giving you one or two references. We are going throughout the entire Bible and showing that it fits together, and it is telling the same story. So, you are not arguing with human beings; you are arguing with the testimony of the Scriptures, and it is a thorough, deep, and complete testimony of the Scriptures. It is not based upon two quotes from the Spirit of Prophecy that are taken out of context.

So, in Exodus 10, verses 12 through 15, this is dealing with the plagues of Egypt. It says,

> "[12]And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land"—

And we are saying one of the things it represents is locusts in Bible prophecy, based upon Revelation 9:1-3.

> —"that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left."—

Now, if they eat every herb of the land, what are they doing? They are destroying the financial structure. They are destroying a lot of things, but Islam is going to destroy the financial structure; but, if you do not have any green things to eat or sell or trade, the financial structure is getting finished off here. But, that is a minor point.

Verse 13,

> —"[13]And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought"—a what?
>
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: An East wind.
>
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"an east wind."

An east wind: "He stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind."

> —"brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts."—

So, associated with the East wind are the locusts of Bible prophecy.

> —"[14]And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt:"—

Their hands, these locusts' hands—do locusts have hands?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, maybe they do have hands. I am not sure that in insect terminology they call them "hands."

But, the locusts are Islam; and, Islam, according to Genesis 16:12, his hand is going to be against every man. These locusts are going to be everywhere in Egypt, not just in one place.

> —"[14]And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. [15]For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened;"—

What happened when the locusts—when the smoke came out of the pit in Revelation 9, verses 1 through 3? The land was darkened.

What was it darkened with? Locusts.

> —"and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt." Exodus 10:12-15 (KJV).

And carry this on in your own studies.

In verse 4 of Revelation 9, these locusts (Islam), what are they told? "Hurt not" these very things that are being hurt here. So, there is a connection there, even in the contrast.

So, what I am saying is, one of the symbols of Islam is that they are locusts; and, what brings the locusts is the East wind of Bible prophecy.

Go to Genesis 41.

Because, what we are saying, Brothers and Sisters, is that the role of Islam in Bible prophecy is that they are going to anger the nations. Their hand is going to be against every man. And at the time they begin to anger the nations on 9/11/2001, there is going to be a restraint placed upon them.

Why is the restraint placed upon them? So that the Lord can finish His work.

What is His work? He is selecting those from Adventism that He is going to lift up as an ensign: that is the First Temple Cleansing. And, then He is going to select the eleventh-hour workers in the ensuing history. That is the work that He is doing.

And in Genesis 41, verse 6, we have a story of an East wind.

> "[6]And behold"—this is Pharaoh's dream—"seven thin east and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them." Genesis 41:6 (KJV).

Do you remember Pharaoh's dream? Seven years of plenty, followed by seven years of nothing. And what produces the seven "blasted years" is an east wind.

Notice verse 23:

> "[23]And behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them: . . ." Genesis 41:23 (KJV).

And verse 27 says,

> "[27]And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine." Genesis 41:27 (KJV).

So, what we are saying is the locusts, the wild horse of Bible prophecy (the angry horse), that its role in Bible prophecy is to bring all mankind together against it [Islam], because it is seeking to bring death and destruction upon the whole Earth, death and destruction to anyone that will not accept the Prophet Mohammad's teachings. This is the role of Islam.

And because of their activity, these circumstances are going to allow the United States to force the whole world to accept a One World Government.

And in this story here in Genesis (and Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning), what is happening to Egypt?

First off, as we are studying the last six verses of Daniel 11, in verses 42 and 43, what does Egypt represent?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The world.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The whole world.

So, here in Genesis 41, in Egypt we have an illustration of the whole world, and what is going on here? The whole world is being brought into slavery, into a One World Government.

And how is it, what is the justification for Pharaoh and Joseph for buying back the whole world and ultimately putting all the citizens into slavery? What is it that allows them to do this? The East wind that brings the locusts.

Okay. So, the illustration at the beginning of the Bible is speaking about the end of the world. What brings about the One World Government is the East wind; it is the angering of the nations; it is the locusts.

Psalm 48.

We have spent time talking about the Ten Kings of the United Nations (and all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, and they all agree with one another); and, in verse 4 of Psalm 48, it says,

> "[4]For, lo, the [ten] kings were assembled,"—

It does not say "ten kings"; it says "kings," but all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world; so, the psalmist kings here at the end of the world has to be the Ten Kings of Revelation 17.

> "[4]For, lo, the [ten] kings were assembled, they passed by together."—

They saw Zion, in the first few verses that are identified.

> —"[5]They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away."—

There is trouble that comes upon these globalists (the United Nations.)

> —"[6]Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail."—

It is not a singular pain. It is a pain that hits, and then it gets worse and worse, and closer and closer together as it proceeds through history.

> —"[6]Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail. [7]Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind." Psalm 48:4-7 (KJV).

Okay. An East wind is going to break the ships of Tarshish, and the ships of Tarshish we have already studied in Daniel 11, verse 40.

What do ships represent in Bible prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Economics.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Economics.

What is the premier ship for economics in Bible prophecy, the ships of Tarshish?

So, who is the premier economic producer in the world today?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States of America is the ships of Tarshish, and an East wind is going to wreck the economy of the United States.

There [see Figure No. 136, at the 9/11/2001 waymark] is the Day of the East Wind.

And when it does so, the kings of the Earth, they are going to be afraid because they were right on the verge, they were right on the verge of building this tower, the wonderful One World Government, and their plans are being turned upside down by an East wind. They are angered. They are angered at Islam for getting in the way of their plans.

And in Psalm 83, these same kings—and remember, these kings in Revelation 17, verse 14, they are going to make war with the Lamb; and, we read a quote where Sister White tells us that warfare is going to be accomplished through the persecution they bring upon God's people. And those same kings in Revelation 17, they are of one mind. And in verse 1 of Psalm 83, it says,

> "[1]Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still O God. [2]For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head."—

And the head they lift up is the Papacy. Sister White says "under one head, the Papacy power." These Ten Kings lift her [the Papacy (the church, the Beast)] up upon the horse, so to speak, because she is going to reign over them. She is going to ride on them. They are going to lift her up to the position of leadership and control.

Verse 3,

> —"[3]They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones."—

Why are we the hidden ones? How are we the hidden ones? There are only two classes at the end of the world, and one class is under the shadow of Egypt, and the other class is under the shadow of the Most High and that is where they are hidden. We are hidden under the shadow of the Most High.

Verse 4,

—"[4]They [THESE KINGS] have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance."—

That is verse 14 of Revelation 17. These Ten Kings are going to make war with the Lamb.

Verse 5,

—"[5]For they have consulted together with one consent:"—

"One heart" in the margin; this is one mind.

—"they are confederate against thee:" Psalm 83:1-5 (KJV).

And then they list the ten kingdoms.

So, these Ten Kings, they intend to kill God's people. And as they are looking at God's people, as they are looking over Zion, they are troubled because they see the ships of Tarshish, the economic structure, going down in the smoke of 9/11.

Ezekiel 27—we are almost finished here—Ezekiel 27:1-4; and, in your notes after that, it says, Isaiah 27. That is not Isaiah 27. I am pretty sure that is Isaiah 23. So, if you want to correct that.

But, we are in Ezekiel 27. Verses 1 through 4 says,

"[1]The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, [2]Now, thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus;"—TYRUS IS TYRE—"[3]And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty. [4]Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty." Ezekiel 27:1-4 (KJV).

This is the Papacy.

And beginning in verse 25, it says,

"[25]The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

"[26]Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas." Ezekiel 27:25-26 (KJV).

Now, this is talking about the East wind once again sinking the economic structure; but, it is in terms of how it impacts the Papacy (Tyre). And it does impact the Papacy. Just when she was getting ready to take control of the world, Islam (the East wind) wrecks her plan.

That is why the tidings out of the East trouble the Papacy. And the tidings out of the North troubles her because there is a group of people that have been raised up identifying who she is and what her relationship is with the kings of the Earth, and who Islam is. There is a group of people that are explaining the Messages of the East and the North and it troubles her.

Now, Isaiah 23, verse 1:

"[1]The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish;"—

The burden is a prophecy, the prophecy of the Papacy. We know this is the Papacy, because by the end of the chapter, it is Tyre that commits fornication with all the kings of the Earth.

"[1]The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish;"—

They are sinking. The economic structure is going down.

Why is it going down? Because of an East wind.

—"for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them." Isaiah 23:1 (KJV).

What did you learn by studying the last six verses of Daniel 11? Well, you learned that in Manuscript Releases, volume 13, page 395, I believe, Sister White compares verses 30 to 36 with the last six verses of Daniel 11. And in that passage, Pagan Rome in verses 29 and 30 and in that area, Pagan Rome has been grieved because the ships of Chittim come against them.

What are the ships of Chittim? It is the Vandals. It is the Second Trumpet.

The story in Isaiah 23 is revealed by understanding the message of the Trumpets. It is revealed to them from Chittim. Chittim is a symbol of the Trumpets, the Second Trumpet specifically, all the Trumpets in a general sense. The message of Isaiah 23 is understood when you understand it in the context of the Seventh Trumpet, the Third Woe.

And in verse 6, it says,

"[6]Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle. [7]Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? Her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn. [8]Who hath taken counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? [9]The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. [10]Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength." Isaiah 23:6-10 (KJV).

The daughter of Tarshish is the remnant. A daughter in Bible prophecy is the offspring. The last manifestation of Tarshish has no strength. The East wind has sunk the ships of Tarshish.

And in verses 13 and 14 [of Isaiah 23] it says,

—"[13]Behold the land of the Chaldeans;"—THAT IS NIMROD; THAT IS BABYLON—"[13]Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof,"—THAT IS CHURCH—"they raised up the palaces thereof;"—THAT IS STATE—"and he brought it to ruin. [14] Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste." Isaiah 23:13-14 (KJV).

What lays waste the ships of Tarshish is the East wind of Bible prophecy.

And you see in Revelation 18:10, 16 and 19, that these kings of the Earth are saying, "Alas, alas, what is like this great city Tyre," whose financial aspect is brought down by the East wind, the ships of Tarshish. And when they are saying, "Alas, alas, alas," three times in Revelation 18, it is the same word that is translated woe, in Revelation 8:13, "Woe, woe, woe" brings down the financial structure.

> "[10]. . . Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come." Revelation 18:10 (KJV).

> "[16]And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!" Revelation 18:16 (KJV).

> "[19]And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate." Revelation 18:19 (KJV).

In James 5:1-8, talking about the rich men that are watching the ships of Tarshish go down, and weeping and howling because their riches are turned into nothing, they do so in the time of the Latter Rain.

> "[1]Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. [2]Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. [3]Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. [4]Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. [5]Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. [6]Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you. [7]Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. [8]Be ye also patient: stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh." James 5:1-8 (KJV).

And, as we went through in one of our studies and we looked at the fact that the genealogies in Genesis, when you put them in order and by definition from Adam to Noah, tells the Gospel story in the definitions of the names.

And, when you take the 12 tribes in Revelation 7 and define their names and put them into a statement, they are describing perfectly the experience of the 144,000.

So, too, when you take the 12 names of the 12 princes of Ishmael, they describe the prophetic history of Islam to the very "T."

And the twelfth of his sons was Kedemah.

> 12. KEDEMAH: H6929—From H6923; precedence; Kedemah, a son of Ishmael. H6923: A primitive root; to project (one self), that is, precede; hence to anticipate, hasten, meet (usually for help): - come (go, [flee]) before, + disappoint, meet, prevent. Toward the east. The children of the east. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 620.

And KEDEMAH means the children of the East. Islam is the children of the East.

And the eleventh son, the eleventh prince of Ishmael, is Naphish, > 11. NAPHISH: H5305—From H5314; refreshed; Naphish, a son of Ishmael, and his posterity. H5314: A primitive root; to breathe; passively, to be breathed upon, that is, (figuratively) refreshed (as if by a current of air): - (be) refresh selves (-ed). Wealth. The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Dictionary, 753.

which means refreshed. And, of course, the refreshing is the Latter Rain. And it is a primary root to breathe. This refreshing is when the breath is breathed into the dry bones, and this message comes from the Four Winds, and those Four Winds are the angry horse of Bible prophecy.

And when the angry horse of Bible prophecy angers the nations on 9/11, and yet is held in check, the refreshing from the presence of the Lord begins.

SUMMARY

So, Brothers and Sisters, first Daniel tells us how the King of the North conquers the world, and then in verse 44 and onward he tell us how he interacts with the people; and, his interaction with God's people in this history is based upon the problem he has with the Message of the North identifying who he is. He is the counterfeit Christ, the antichrist of Bible prophecy. He doesn't like that!

And the Message of the East he does not like either, because he realizes that the wealth that he was going to use to control the world is being swept away by a power that is out of his control.

And you cannot understand the Third Angel's Message correctly if you do not understand that it is based upon identifying the Pope of Rome as the antichrist of Bible prophecy, and the role of Islam in that same history.

And all of this was opened up to God's people's understanding in 1989, with the collapse of the Soviet Union in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, at which point in time the scattering of William Miller's dream concluded and the Dirt Brush Man came in and began to sweep away the counterfeit coins and rubbish that has been introduced in Adventism since the beginning of the 20th Century.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us this far in our consideration of Habakkuk's Tables. We want to understand the First Message that we can be benefited by the Second. We want to understand the last six verses of Daniel 11, the events connected with the close of probation, in a way to convict us in our need of personal preparation for the soon close of probation, that we might receive the Seal of God and be lifted up as an ensign. We also want to understand the Second Message, the message that marks the arrival of the sealing of the 144,000 and the beginning of the Latter Rain, the Message of the East Wind and its purpose of bringing in the environment that allows the United States to force the world to accept the One World Government. We need to understand these things, because we want to be Daniel in chapter 5. We want to be able to go into Babylon when the whole world is falling down around Belshazzar's head and understand the message of the hour, to be the ones that Daniel is typifying that can rightly divide the Word of Truth in this end-of-the-world crisis. And we understand that the message that Daniel took to Babylon as it was falling down around Belshazzar's head is the message of chapter 4, the message of Nebuchadnezzar, the message of the seven times. Please help us to understand these things correctly and to be faithful in our presentation of these things. We want the oil that we might hand it on to other people. We want the oil that it might be used by the Holy Spirit to transform us into your image. And we would ask that you would accomplish these things for us. And as we take up another day of work, we once again ask for your protection during this day, and ask for the ability that what we can do we can do for your glory and honor in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #66

PART SEVEN: JOSIAH

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's rest and another day of life that we might serve you. And as we begin our day of worship here, we ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would fill our hearts and minds with the Divine Spirit that we might understand the message that you have for us this morning. I ask that you would overrule my humanity, hide me behind your cross, and use me as an instrument to convey a message that you want to share and not what I want to share; and, that you would also prepare the hearts and minds of those that hear these things, to receive it as you see fit. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. We ask that you do that by opening our understanding. We want to see how Josiah illustrates God's people at the end of the world, and we ask that you would give us enlightenment on this understanding. In Jesus's name, amen.

AARON'S FOUNDATIONAL REJECTION—EXODUS 32

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is Part Seven of Habakkuk's Tables, entitling this "Josiah." We will not get to Josiah for a while; and, we are going to start with Aaron, and then go into Jeroboam, to show the parallel between Aaron and Jeroboam and then note that when Jeroboam began to repeat Aaron's sin that a disobedient prophet came out of Judah to confront Jeroboam and that the disobedient prophet sets forth the prophecy of Josiah. And, we are going to trace all that history, but we are going to begin in Exodus 32 with the story of Aaron, and I do not expect to get out of this story until tomorrow. We will just get half-way through it.

We are operating upon the premise that all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world and that they all agree with one another; and, that they are all illustrating Adventism at the end of the world, both the beginning and the ending of Adventism.

And what we are doing here in this particular part of the study is showing these two Tables [the 1843 and 1850 Charts] as typified in God's Word.

We will begin now with Testimonies, volume 8, page 115.

> "Upon us is shining the accumulated light of past ages. The record of Israel's forgetfulness has been preserved for our enlightenment. In this age God has set His hand to gather unto Himself a people from every nation, kindred, and tongue. In the advent movement He has wrought for His heritage, even as He wrought for the Israelites in leading them from Egypt. In the great disappointment of 1844 the faith of His people was tested as was that of the Hebrews at the Red Sea." Testimonies, volume 8, 115–116.

So, when we are going to consider here Aaron and the golden calf immediately after the crossing of the Red Sea, it is obvious that Ellen White sees this history as a parallel history to the Millerite time period.

And what was preserved for our enlightenment? It was the record of Israel's forgetfulness.

What did they forget? I would suggest that they forgot the mighty manifestation of the power of God that was brought about for them to bring them out of Egypt. They were counseled over and over again to remember that history, over and over again and yet Aaron, who had just witnessed that mighty deliverance, within a couple of months is willing to forget all about the power of God and build a golden calf. So, forgetfulness of that sacred history is paralleling the forgetfulness of that sacred history that we as Adventists do when we no longer acknowledge or understand the Advent Movement of 1840 to 1844, and the various components of that history.

Exodus 32:1-4

So, we are going to go into Exodus 32:1-4 and spend some time there, to begin with. Exodus 32, beginning at verse 1, says,

> "[1]And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. [2]And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. [3]And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron. [4]And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt." Exodus 32:1-4 (KJV).

SELF-PRESERVATION; AN IMAGE TO THE BEAST AND A FALSE ALTAR

We are going to read from Patriarchs and Prophets, page 317, where Sister White is commenting on this; and, we are going to notice four points in here, primarily.

> Aaron feared for his own safety; and instead of nobly standing up for the honor of God, he yielded to the demands of the multitude. His first act was to direct that the golden earrings be collected from all the people and brought to him, hoping that pride would lead them to refuse such a sacrifice. But they willingly yielded up their ornaments; and from these he made a molten calf, in imitation of the gods of Egypt. The people proclaimed, 'These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.' And Aaron basely permitted this insult to Jehovah. He did more. Seeing with what satisfaction the golden god was received, he built an altar before it, and made proclamation, 'Tomorrow is a feast to the Lord.' The announcement was heralded by trumpeters from company to company throughout the camp. 'And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink and rose up to play.' Under the pretense of holding 'a feast to the Lord,' they gave themselves up to gluttony and licentious reveling." Patriarchs and Prophets, 317.

When she says, "Under the pretense of holding 'a feast to the Lord,'" it is suggesting that this is a counterfeit. This was not a genuine feast to the Lord. They produced a counterfeit feast for the Lord.

But, he [Aaron] made an imitation of the gods of Egypt, and then in the Webster's Dictionary of 1828, it says, > IMITATION: That which is made or produced as a copy, likeness; resemblance. Webster's 1828 Dictionary.

So, this imitation of the gods of Egypt was a resemblance of the gods of Egypt. It was an image of the gods of Egypt, and it was a calf; it was a beast; it was the image of the beast.

Okay. The points that I want you to see in Patriarchs and Prophets there is that Aaron feared for his own safety. And a word for that is self-preservation; but, the primary part of the self-preservation is self. The first waymark in this short history of Aaron is self-preservation, self.

Then he builds an image of the beast, and then he builds an altar, and the altar is a false Christ.

A FALSE CHRIST

Notice Selected Messages, book 3, page 300.

> "Anciently it was a great sin for the people of God to give themselves away to the enemy, and open before them either their perplexity or their prosperity. Under the ancient economy it was a sin to offer sacrifice upon the wrong altar. It was a sin to offer incense kindled by the wrong fire.
> "We are in danger of mingling the sacred and the common."—

What is the mingling of the sacred and the common?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Mystery of Iniquity.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Mystery of Iniquity.

> —"We are in danger of mingling the sacred and the common. The holy fire from God is to be used in our efforts. The true altar is"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, when Aaron went further than just building the golden calf, he also built an altar, what was he setting up? A false Christ.

> —"The true altar is Christ; the true fire is the Holy Spirit. This is our inspiration. It is only as the Holy Spirit leads and guides a man that he is a safe counselor. If we turn aside from God and from His chosen ones to inquire at strange altars we shall be answered according to our works." Selected Messages, book 3, 300.

All right. So in this passage from Patriarchs and Prophets, Aaron (1) feared for his own safety. There you have self-preservation. Then he (2) built an image to the beast. Then he (3) introduced the false Christ. And then he said, (4) "Tomorrow morning we are going to have a worship service."

WORSHIPPING THE IMAGE

. . . eat and to drink, and rose up to play. Exodus 32:5-6

In verses 5 and 6 of Exodus 32, it says,

> "[5]And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD. [6]And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play." Exodus 32:5-6 (KJV).

So, what I am hoping you will see here, and we have dealt with this sequence before, is that there is a three-step testing process that leads to false worship. Self-exaltation, in this case it was self-preservation; then, the image of the beast, the image of the beast is the combination of church and state, and the combination of church and state is the Mystery of Iniquity. It is a combination, a mingling of two entities that are not supposed to be mingled; and, the Mystery of Iniquity is Spiritualism. So, in this sequence, we have self-exaltation, represented by self-preservation; we have the image of the beast, which is the Mystery of Iniquity (which is Spiritualism); and, then we have the altar, representing a false Christ; and, then they are going to have a false worship service on the next morning.

SUNDAY WORSHIP

In The Great Controversy, page 437, it says,

> "'The Sabbath therefore lies at the very foundation of divine worship,"—

So, if you are going to have a false worship, what are you doing?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You are rejecting the Foundations. Aaron and the Hebrews were rejecting the Foundations; but, you were counterfeiting the Sabbath.

And what is the counterfeit sabbath at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Sunday.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All the histories are illustrating the end of the world; so, this false worship is a symbol of Sunday worship at the end of the world.

> —"'The Sabbath therefore lies at the very foundation of divine worship, for it teaches this great truth in the most impressive manner, and no other institution does this. The true ground of divine worship, not of that on the seventh day merely, but of all worship, is found in the distinction between the Creator and His creatures." The Great Controversy, 437.

And, of course, Aaron and the Hebrews are worshipping the creation, the gods of gold and silver and wood there, not the Creator.

SELF, IMAGE OF THE BEAST, A FALSE CHRIST—THEN FALSE WORSHIP
SELF-EXALTATION, SPIRITUALISM, A FALSE CHRIST, AND SUNDAY WORSHIP

So, in this story we have this sequence: Self, this is a rejection of the First Angel's Message, which says, "Fear God. Come to the foot of the cross." Then we have the image of the beast, which is the second test, which is a symbol of the Mystery of Iniquity and Spiritualism that leads to a false Christ; and, it then leads to false worship, the Sunday worship. This sequence we have looked at before in other histories. We are just putting it into the record as a point of reference.

Back to verse 1 [of Exodus 32].

> "And when the people saw that Moses delayed . . ." Exodus 32:1 (KJV)

We want to look at verse 1 a little bit closer. In verse 1 it says,

> "[1]And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down." Exodus 32:1 (KJV)

What would you call that?

He tarried. Okay? And this tarrying time by Moses allows the Hebrews to manifest their character.

Notice the Review and Herald, October 31, 1899.

> "When the ten virgins went forth to meet the bridegroom, their lamps were trimmed and burning. Apparently there was no difference between the five who were wise and the five who were foolish."—

Now, remember, the parable of the Ten Virgins was fulfilled to the very letter in the history of the Millerites, and it is fulfilled again to the very letter at the end of the world. So, we are seeing both the beginning and the end of Adventism. And, we are seeing that in the story of Aaron, it was the premise that Moses had delayed to come down that gives the motivation for the people to go force Aaron to make this golden calf.

> —"Apparently there was no difference between the five who were wise and the five who were foolish."—

What is the difference between the wise and foolish virgins anyway?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The oil. Right?

> —"To outward appearance all were prepared, robed in white, and carrying their lighted lamps. But only five of these virgins were wise."—

Now Sister White is going to define why they were wise.

—"These anticipated delay, and filled their flagons with oil, ready for any emergency. Five of the number had not this foresight;"—

The foolish virgins did not anticipate delay.

—"Five of the number had not this foresight; they made no provision for disappointment or delay." Review and Herald, October 31, 1899.

"[1]. . . as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him." Exodus 32:1 (KJV).

So, in Exodus 32, verse 1, when the people saw that Moses delayed, they rejected God.

Who are they? They were the foolish virgins. They were not prepared for delay. They had not the oil to carry them through the tarrying time.

Okay. In verse 1 of chapter 32, it says, ". . . as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him." Exodus 32:1 (KJV) This here is identifying what I think may be the primary problem of the Hebrews' here.

What is their primary problem in this part of the verse: ". . . as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They were looking to Moses.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. Moses did not bring them out of Egypt, did he?

They were seeing a literal man; but, they were not seeing who he was representing. Okay? They did not have the ability to make a distinction between the literal and the spiritual.

LITERAL AND SPIRITUAL

John 6:53-66

Okay. Go to John 6; because, this is repeated in the time period of Christ, this same problem that the Hebrews repeatedly have, and that problem being they do not understand prophecy; because, prophecy is based upon taking the things of the natural world and understanding their spiritual application. And the Jews looked at Moses and said, "This literal man brought us out of Egypt," and they could not understand that this man was a tool in the hand of the Lord, and the Lord brought them out of Egypt.

And in John 6, beginning at verse 53, it says,

"[53]Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you."—

Now, if you were an upstanding Hebrew and someone told you that, what would you think? You would think, "This man is rejecting the health laws of the Old Testament."

Were you supposed to eat flesh and blood?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. If flesh had blood in it, you were not allowed to eat it. So right here, right off the bat, Jesus is challenging them in their understanding of the health laws.

Verse 54:

"[54]Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood,"—

Now it is even a step further. It is not eating simply flesh with blood in it; He 'is calling them to be a cannibal.'

—"[54]Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. [55]For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. [56]He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. [57]As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. [58]This is that bread which came down from heaven:"—

Now, Jesus did not leave it there. He is going to explain this spiritual and literal; but, they do not have the ability to see it, just like they did not have the ability to see that it was God that brought them out of Egypt. They thought it was Moses.

—"[58]This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. [59]These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum."—

What is Capernaum?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That is His own city.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is His own city. This is the main place where He hung out.

—"[60]Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it? [61]When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you? [62]What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? [63]It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. [64]But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. [65]And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

"[66]From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him." John 6:53-66 (KJV).

From what time? From the point where He gave them the test of understanding prophecy, understanding the principle of prophecy that the literal things illustrate the spiritual things, that His Spirit is life and that to eat of His Word is to eat His flesh.

They could not see it, and this was their problem all the way back in the deliverance of Egypt. They did not see God delivering them out of Egypt; they saw Moses. They probably saw both, but they chose (because of their preconceived ideas) to only accept the literal understanding.

So, the problem for the Jews at their beginning is the same problem that they have at the end.

So, when did they turn away and walk no more with Him? In John 6:66, this is pointing forward in this story to The Sunday Law. Okay?

So, what story is Aaron pointing forward to?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Sunday Law. These are parallel histories, and in both cases the problem is that God's people did not understand the prophetic lesson conveyed in their particular history.

Do you follow my point?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Affirmations.

"[1]. . . make us gods, which shall go before us. . . Exodus 32:1 (KJV).

So, in verse 1 of Exodus 32, it says, ". . . make us gods, which shall go before us. . ." Exodus 32:1. This is a rejection of the Midnight Cry. Okay?

I am sure that we have spoken about this in this worship series, but you may not have heard the particular presentation where we spoke about it; so, I am going to run it by you once again.

The evidence is, is that Ellen White's first vision, it was for Adventism; it was for God's people; it is for everyone. But, one of the primary reasons of that vision was for God's man of the hour.

Who was God's man of the hour in that history? William Miller.

After October 22, 1844, the Millerites were scattered by the Great Disappointment spiritually. There were very few that continued on into that experience; but, the leader of that movement, William Miller, began to lose his way. They had some conferences after 1844, and William Miller was in agreement with the group that determined that the experience of the Midnight Cry in the Summer of 1844 was not valid; and, William Miller had an understanding of what the Midnight Cry was long before the Midnight Cry arrived, based upon the parable of the Ten Virgins. And when Samuel Snow brought the message of the Midnight Cry at the Exeter Camp Meeting in August of 1844, the very last Millerite to accept Samuel Snow's understanding of the Midnight Cry was William Miller. He had held to an understanding of what the Midnight Cry represented in the parable of the Ten Virgins that he would not let go of until the very, just like two weeks before October 22, 1844; and, then he wrote Joshua Himes—I believe, but he wrote one of the Pioneers—saying that he finally sees the Midnight Cry, "Glory to God!" And he was praising the Lord for it.

So, everybody now is onboard with the message that the Lord is going to return on October 22, 1844, the Midnight Cry Message; and, then you had the disappointment, and then you had the spiritual scattering, and then they have this conference and William Miller and his cohorts determined to go back to the original teaching of the Midnight Cry.

And in December of 1844, a couple of months later, Ellen White receives her first vision; and, in her first vision she talks about those who denied the Midnight Cry, the light that was set up behind them on the path. And what happens to them if they deny the Midnight Cry? They fall off the path to the wicked world below.

So, this is for all of Adventism; but, primarily, this was the Lord calling to William Miller, saying, "Don't reject the Midnight Cry!"

Now, here, what does this have to do with Exodus 32:1? They say in 32:1, "Make us some gods, because we are going to go back to Egypt and we want these gods to go before us." Okay?

And, God's people are to have a God that goes before them. Who is that God? Jesus, the Holy One of Israel.

So, their determining to have this golden calf go before them is a rejection of the Midnight Cry.

DENIED THE MIDNIGHT CRY

Now, notice this from Early Writings, page 15. We have read this previously, more than once, probably.

> "They had a bright light set up behind them at the beginning of the path, which an angel told me was the 'midnight cry.' This light shone all along the path, and gave light for their feet, so that they might not stumble.
> "If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them,"—

Who was just before them? Not the golden calf. You see, they wanted the golden calf to go before them.

But, on this path to Heaven for God's people, Jesus is just before them.

> —"If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the city, they were safe. But soon some grew weary, and said the city was a great way off, and they expected to have entered it before. Then Jesus would encourage them by raising His glorious right arm, and from His arm came a light which waved over the advent band, and they shouted 'Alleluia!' Others rashly denied the light behind them, and said that it was not God that had led them out so far. The light behind them went out, leaving their feet in perfect darkness, and they stumbled and lost sight of the mark and of Jesus, and fell off the path down into the dark and wicked world below." Early Writings, 15.

The Midnight Cry, we went over the reform lines. The Midnight Cry is a waymark that is marked in every Reform Movement. It is a manifestation of the power of God.

At the point in every Reform Movement where the Midnight Cry occurs, in the story of Noah, the Midnight Cry is the animals getting on the ark.

In the story of Elijah, the Midnight Cry is marked by the fire coming down out of Heaven and consuming Elijah's offering.

In the story of Christ, the Midnight Cry is the Triumphal Entry of Christ into Jerusalem. Sister White uses that history to illustrate the Midnight Cry.

So, the Midnight Cry is marked at a specific point in every Reform Movement.

And the Midnight Cry, in the history of Aaron, was the plagues of Egypt. Aaron had seen, all of them had seen, the wonderful deliverance and the manifestation of God's power in the plagues of Egypt; and, just a couple of months down the road, they are denying that power and saying, "Make us a golden calf so we can go back to Egypt."

So, what I am saying is they are denying the Midnight Cry.

And what happens if they deny the Midnight Cry? They fall off the path to the wicked world below.

And, of course, this is what the Millerites did after 1844. Only 50 of them continued on. And this, the denial of the Midnight Cry, is why Adventists will not make it to Heaven. They are going to be put in a place where they are going to have to say, "Yes, I believe in the Midnight Cry," or "No, I don't," even though it may not be expressed that way.

So, this history of Aaron is prefiguring both the Millerites and our history, and I am saying that the fact that they want to have the golden calf go before them on their journey is saying that they have rejected the path where Christ goes before them.

THE MARKED MANIFESTATION OF GOD'S POWER

And the Midnight Cry is a marked manifestation of the power of God.

What do I mean by "marked"? You know, there are things in the Bible that are there; but, there are some things in the Bible that are emphasized, they are marked. The Midnight Cry is a marked manifestation of the power of God. It is marked in the sense that not only did the Midnight Cry take place in the Millerite History but Ellen White often refers to it. It is marked; it is emphasized.

In Testimonies, volume 5, pages 211 – 212, speaking of the sealing of the 144,000—and what three passages in the Scriptures have we identified that deal with the sealing of the 144,000? Revelation 7 (that is an easy one); Ezekiel 9; and, the more obscure one but the one that we are going to keep reminding ourselves of is Luke 21, Luke 21. Sister White ties Luke 21 in with Ezekiel 9 and Revelation 7; and, then she comments on Luke 21:25 in that passage saying that Christ pointed His followers to the budding leaves of Spring, identifying that the sealing of the 144,000 begins when the sprinkling of the Latter Rain begins, and the sprinkling of the Latter Rain begins when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 descends.

This here, this passage from Testimonies, volume 5, pages 211-212, is where Sister White is commenting on Ezekiel 9, which is the sealing of the 144,000. She says this:

> "The class who do not feel grieved over their own spiritual declension,"—

Why are we reading about this with Aaron in Exodus 32? What I am saying is, in verse 1 of Exodus 32 you can derive from that passage, if you understand that all these prophecies in the Bible are pointing to the end of the world, you can derive that one of the problems for Aaron and the Hebrews in the golden calf story is that they rejected the Foundations; they rejected true worship, which is the Sabbath; but, they also denied the Midnight Cry. Okay?

And, the Midnight Cry was the manifestation of God's power; and, if you reject the truth in regard to the manifestation of God's power, you do not receive the Seal of God.

So,

> —"The class who do not feel grieved over their own spiritual declension, nor mourn over the sins of others, will be left without the seal of God. The Lord commissions His messengers, the men with slaughtering weapons in their hands: 'Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at My sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.'

"Here we see that the church—the Lord's sanctuary"—

Now, what is she speaking about here? She is speaking about Ezekiel 9.

And what is Ezekiel 9 dealing with? It is dealing with Jerusalem. It is based upon the principle of repeat and enlarge, and in Ezekiel, chapter 8, Ezekiel is telling us who is going to receive the mark of the beast in Adventism at The Sunday Law, where Ezekiel 8 shows four escalating abominations forming worldwide. These abominations will permeate the World Adventist Church; they will escalate; and, they ultimately conclude in chapter 8 with the 25 members of the General Conference Committee bowing down to the sun.

Why in the world would you put 25 men on the General Conference Committee and not change that number somewhere through history? Have you not ever read Ezekiel 8, where 25 leaders bow down to the sun? Change your General Conference Committee to 26 or 24!

Then chapter 9 repeats that same history, when those abominations are going on in Jerusalem, which Sister White just told us is the Lor 's Church, and identifies those that are going to receive the Seal of God during this same time period when the abominations are reaching their full, when they are maturing. Okay?

—"Here we see the Church—the Lord's sanctuary—"—THIS IS JERUSALEM IN EZEKIEL 9—"was the first to feel the stroke of the wrath of God."—

Judgment begins with the House of God.

—"The ancient men, those to whom God had given great light and who had stood as guardians of the spiritual interests of the people, had betrayed their trust."—

How had they betrayed their trust?

—"They had taken the position that we need not look for miracles and the marked manifestation of God's power as in former days."—

What was the marked manifestation of the Power in the Millerite History? The Midnight Cry.

They [the leaders of Adventism (the ancient men)] have determined that that history will not be repeated.

And what was the Midnight Cry a symbol of? It was a symbol of the Latter Rain.

They have rejected the Midnight Cry, and they fall off the path to the dark and wicked world below, just like Aaron and the Hebrews rejected the marked manifestation of the power of God in the plagues of Egypt.

—"[They] had betrayed their trust. They had taken the position that we need not look for miracles and the marked manifestation of God's power as in former days. Times have changed."—

"This is the 21st Century, Brothers and Sisters!"

—"Times have changed. These words strengthen their unbelief, and they say: The Lord will not do good, neither will He do evil. He is too merciful to visit His people in judgment. Thus 'Peace and safety' is the cry from men"—

Now, notice who these men are.

—"men who will never again lift up their voice like a trumpet to show God's people their transgressions and the house of Jacob their sins."—

These are the men that were ordained to lift up their voices like trumpets, and they had done so in the past; but, when this testing time comes, they are going to reject the history of the Millerites, which is symbolized by the Midnight Cry. They are going to reject the principle that the Midnight Cry prefigures the Latter Rain. They are going to reject the Latter Rain. They are going to reject the idea that the Lord is going to manifest His power here at the end of the world, as He has done in former reform lines.

—"Thus 'Peace and safety' is the cry from men who will never again lift up their voice like a trumpet to show God's people their transgressions and the house of Jacob their sins. These dumb dogs that would not bark are the ones who feel the just vengeance of an offended God. Men, maidens, and little children all perish together.

"The abominations for which the faithful ones were sighing and crying were"—now, notice this—"were all that could be discerned by finite eyes,"—

Okay. What can you discern in Adventism with finite eyes? Well,

- We have rejected the King James Bible. We insist on having these Catholic bibles, these modern bibles.
- We are ordaining women.
- We have given the Pope of Rome a medal, twice.
- We teach hypnosis—how to hypnotize our church families—since the 1980s.
- Now we have determined that if you are going to be an ordained pastor in the Seventh-day Adventist Church that you have to take a course on the Jesuit teaching of Spiritual Formations.
- We have come into an association with the dragon power of Bible prophecy. We have turned our social welfare work over to the control and direction of the United Nations with ADRA.

On, and on, and on; but, those things we can see.

- We have joined the World Council of Churches, and do not let them tell you otherwise. We are voting members of the World Council of Churches.
- We have joined the ecumenical movement.
- We share our pulpits with pastors from apostate Protestantism and Catholicism.
- Some of us teach that the seven days of Creation are actually seven periods of time.

But, these abominations in Adventism, we can see them. There are voices telling us about these things going on. Okay?

What does Sister White say?

> —"The abominations for which the faithful ones were sighing and crying were all that could be discerned by finite eyes, but by far the worst sins, those which provoked the jealousy of the pure and holy God, were unrevealed."—

Wow! What is going on up there at the top?

> —"The great Searcher of hearts knoweth every sin committed in secret by the workers of iniquity. These persons come to feel secure in their deceptions and, because of His long-suffering, say that the Lord seeth not, and then act as though He had forsaken the earth. But He will detect their hypocrisy and will open before others those sins which they were so careful to hide.
> "No superiority of rank, dignity, or worldly wisdom, no position in sacred office, will preserve men from sacrificing principle when left to their own deceitful hearts. Those who have been regarded as worthy and righteous prove to be ring-leaders in apostasy"—

So, Brothers and Sisters, if you are looking around and you are seeing leaders that you think are the real spiritual ones that really give you the idea that they are really Christ-like, it says,

> —"Those who have been regarded as worthy and righteous prove to be ring-leaders in apostasy and examples in indifference and in the abuse of God's mercies. Their wicked course He will tolerate no longer, and in His wrath He deals with them without mercy."—

In Sabbath School yesterday or in the Worship Hour, I forget which, Brother Daniels shared where Sister White reminds us that Satan once moved around in the Heavenly Courts. So, Satan knows how to act like a holy being. But, just because you know how to act like a holy being does not necessarily mean that you are a holy being.

> —"It is with reluctance that the Lord withdraws His presence from those who have been blessed with great light"—

And we went through this in this worship study. Who is it that has been blessed with great light and opportunities?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventh-day Adventists.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Seventh-day Adventists.

> —"It is with reluctance that the Lord withdraws His presence from those who have been blessed with great light and who have felt the power of the word in ministering to others. They were once His faithful servants, favored with His presence and guidance; but they departed from Him and led others into error, and therefore are brought under the divine displeasure." Testimonies, volume 5, 211–212.

And if you were going to read this passage a few times, if there was any indication about when and where and how they departed from the Lord, what is it? It is that "They had taken the position that we need not look for miracles and the marked manifestation of God's power as in former days."

That is what Aaron did. When he had the mob at his tent threatening to kill him, to make the golden calf, he could have by faith said, "You know, I just watched all the firstborn of Egypt get laid to rest by the Lord. I watched the water get turned into blood. I watched frogs come out of nowhere, flies from out of nowhere, hail that hit the ground and turned into fire. My God can deliver me!" He could have stood firm.

But, what did he do? He forgot the manifestation of the power of God. He rejected the Midnight Cry.

THERE IS TO BE A WONDERFUL MANIFESTATION OF GOD'S POWER

This is repeated at the end of the world. There will be, no matter what the leadership says, no matter what these men are saying—that "This is not the Judgment of the Living. We are not now in the sealing of the 144,000. This is not the Latter Rain time period."—no matter what these men are saying, this manifestation of the power of God that is the Latter Rain, that all these other manifestations of the power of God typify and point forward to, it will take place!

This is Review and Herald, December 23, 1890.

> "The True Witness declares, 'I know thy works.' 'Repent, and do the first works.' This is the true test, the evidence that the Spirit of God is working in the heart to imbue you with his love. 'I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.'"—

What is the candlestick that gets removed out of its place?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: There you go. We went through this the other day. The candlestick is the church. He is saying this church is going to get removed.

What church is that?

Well, all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world. It is the church at the end of the world.

> —"The church is like the unproductive tree which, receiving the dew and rain and sunshine, should have produced an abundance of fruit, but on which the divine search discovers nothing but leaves."—

When does the Divine Searcher discovers nothing but leaves?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Judgment.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. He says Judgment, because He is the Divine Searcher? Because of the divine search, do you see the Judgment there?

But, when is it?

It is an unproductive tree. What is it receiving?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The dew,

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The dew, the rain, and the sunshine.

This Judgment is taking place when the rain is falling, in the Latter Rain; and, it is not producing any fruit.

> —"Solemn thought for our churches! solemn, indeed, for every individual! Marvelous is the patience and forbearance of God; but 'except thou repent,' it will be exhausted; the churches, our institutions, will go from weakness to weakness, from cold formality to deadness, while they are saying, 'I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing.' The True Witness says, 'And knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.' Will they ever see clearly their condition?"—

Now, I want to make sure you see this. In previous worship we purposely went through and identified that Sister White says the messages of Jones and Waggoner was the Loud Cry of the Third Angel. She says it was Justification by Faith. She says it was the Latter Rain Message. But, she also said that it was the Laodicean Message.

The Latter Rain Message is the Laodicean Message, and Sister White here is using the Message of the Laodiceans.

When does the Message of the Laodiceans become present truth? In the time of the Latter Rain. It is the Latter Rain Message. It is the last call for Israel.

Okay. She continues on. She says,

> —"There is to be in the churches a wonderful manifestation of the power of God, but it will not move upon those who have not humbled themselves before the Lord, and opened the door of the heart by confession and repentance. In the manifestation of that power which lightens the earth with the glory of God,"—

What manifestation of the power of God is that? Revelation 18.

> —"In the manifestation of that power which lightens the earth with the glory of God, they will see only something which in their blindness they think dangerous, something which will arouse their fears, and they will brace themselves to resist it. Because the Lord does not work according to their ideas and expectations, they will oppose the work. 'Why,' they say, 'should not we know the Spirit of God, when we have been in the work so many years?'— Because they did not respond to the warnings, the entreaties of the messages of God, but persistently said, 'I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing.' Talent, long experience, will not make men channels of light, unless they place themselves under the bright beams of the Sun of Righteousness, and are called, and chosen, and prepared by the endowment of the Holy Spirit. When men who handle sacred things will humble themselves under the mighty hand of God, the Lord will lift them up. He will make them men of discernment—men rich in the grace of his Spirit. Their strong, selfish traits of character, their stubbornness, will be seen in the light shining from the Light of the world. 'I will > come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.' If you seek the Lord with all your heart, he will be found of you." Review and Herald, December 23, 1890.

So, Aaron and the Hebrews, they denied the power of the Midnight Cry, of the deliverance from Egypt, prefiguring the Millerites after 1844 that denied the history and experience of the Midnight Cry and fell off the path, prefiguring God's people at the end of the world that are going to deny that the Midnight Cry history will be repeated in the time period of the Latter Rain.

BEFORE THE LOUD CRY

Before—and this is a real tricky one here—before the Latter Rain revival, the Loud Cry of the Third Angel's Message, Satan produces a counterfeit.

Notice Early Writings, beginning at page 260; and, this is a tricky passage in the sense that you can read this passage and say, "Oh, she is speaking about the apostate Protestant churches; but, maybe she is speaking about the Adventist churches." Notice what she says.

> "I saw that God has honest children among the nominal Adventists and the fallen churches,"—

Hmm, the nominal Adventists and the fallen churches.

My Brother Austin, what does nominal mean?

Does anyone else like to help him? What does nominal mean?

BROTHER AUSTIN: In name only.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In name. Okay. These are people that say they are Adventists, but they are not.

Now, of course, now, you could say Sister White is writing this in a period where she is talking about anyone that believed the Lord was coming is an Adventist; but, we are understanding it here as Seventh-day Adventists. You could make that argument.

> —"I saw that God has honest children among the nominal Adventists and the fallen churches, and before the plagues shall be poured out, ministers and people will be called out from these churches and will gladly receive the truth. Satan knows this; and before the loud cry of the third angel is given, he raises an excitement in these religious bodies, that those who have rejected the truth may think that God is with them. He hopes to deceive the honest and lead them to think that God is still working for the churches. But the light will shine, and all who are honest will leave the fallen churches, and take their stand with the remnant." Early Writings, 260–261.

Now, I believe that this is talking primarily about the eleventh-hour workers; but, I am making this emphasis that you can see this principle even within Adventism, if you look for it; because, I am setting you up to prove this to you.

But, the one that you want to see here is that before the Loud Cry of the Third Angel's Message, there is a counterfeit that goes on in the churches that are going to be the target for the message of the Latter Rain. You see that, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

THE PRINCIPLES OF GOD'S DEALING WITH MEN

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. But, we have been operating—in this study, one of our main principles is The Great Controversy, page 343, which says,

> "The work of God in the earth presents, from age to age, a striking similarity in every great reformation or religious movement. The principles of God's dealing with men are ever the same."—

"The principles of God's dealing with men are ever the same." He is going to deal with Seventh-day Adventists the same way that He deals with apostate Protestantism; because, He deals with men the same way, no matter what.

> —"The important movements of the present have their parallel in those of the past, and the experience of the church in former ages has lessons of great value for our own time." The Great Controversy, 343.

So, all the Reform Movements parallel one another; but, what I am wanting you to see here is that God's dealing with men is always the same.

EVERY REFORM MOVEMENT

But, in these Reform Movements, Satan always responds to these Reform Movements the same way.

The Great Controversy, page 186, says it this way:

> "But Satan was not idle. He now attempted what he has attempted in every other reformatory movement—to deceive and destroy the people by palming off upon them a counterfeit in place of the true work. As there were false Christ's in the first century of the Christian church, so there arose false prophets in the sixteenth century." The Great Controversy, 186.

Okay. There is always a counterfeit

BEFORE THE MANIFESTATION OF GOD'S POWER

But, the counterfeit precedes the Truth. In The Great Controversy, page 464, Sister White says this:

> "Notwithstanding the widespread declension of faith and piety, there are true followers of Christ in these churches. Before the final visitation of God's judgments upon the earth there will be among the people of the Lord such a revival of primitive godliness as has not been witnessed since apostolic times. The Spirit and power of God will be poured out upon His children."—

This is the Latter Rain. Right? And, the Latter Rain comes in two phases, the sprinkling and the full outpouring.

> —"At that time many will separate themselves from those churches in which the love of this world has supplanted love for God and His word. Many, both of ministers and people, will gladly accept those great truths which God has caused to be proclaimed at this time to prepare a people for the Lord's second coming. The enemy of souls desires to hinder this work; and before the time for such a movement shall come,"—

And what is the Latter Rain? Is it the Latter Rain Church?

It is the Latter Rain Movement.

> —"before the time for such a movement shall come, he will endeavor to prevent it by introducing a counterfeit."—

A counterfeit what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Movement.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A counterfeit movement and the counterfeit comes before the genuine. Right?

We have seen it now in Early Writings and here, a second witness, that he [Satan] does this in the churches outside of Adventism. He produces a counterfeit revival as he sees the Latter Rain coming, so the churches will feel comfortable that they do not have to listen to this message about the Latter Rain coming from Adventism.

But, what I am suggesting is what he [Satan] has done in every other sacred history when the Lord raises up a Reform Movement, he [Satan] produces a counterfeit to oppose it.

In the history of the Millerites, that counterfeit that predated the Millerites was Protestantism. The Lord was testing Protestantism in the Millerite History. That was His people, the Protestants. He had just raised up the Protestants and he had brought them to the history of 1840 to 1844 in order to complete the Protestant Reformation. They had not come all the way out of Rome, from AD1500 onward. Adventism is the fully coming out of Rome part of the Protestant Reformation. So, the Lord was testing the Protestants in that history, and the Protestants predated the Millerites. But the Millerites, they were the true movement.

Okay. The true movement at the end of the world, the 144,000 in a generic sense; but, before the Lord begins the movement of raising up the 144,000, Satan does as he always does. He introduces a counterfeit.

> —"before the time for such a movement shall come, he will endeavor to prevent it by introducing a counterfeit. In those churches which he can bring under his deceptive power he will make it appear that God's special blessing is poured out; there will be manifest what is thought to be great religious interest. Multitudes will exult that God is working marvelously for them, when the work is that of another spirit. Under a religious guise, Satan will seek to extend his influence over the Christian world." The Great Controversy, 464.

So, in both this, here in The Great Controversy and in the one in Early Writings, you can argue, "Oh, she is talking about the churches outside of Adventism," but we know there is going to be a Reform Movement of the Latter Rain in Adventism, and we know that Satan always reacts to every Reform Movement the same way by introducing a counterfeit. So, if we can see if there is a counterfeit movement that is marked by Inspiration, we know that it is the one that precedes the true movement of the Latter Rain.

THE COUNTERFEIT

And in Selected Messages, book 1, pages 204 – 205, it says this:

> "The enemy of souls has sought to bring in the supposition that a great reformation was to take place among Seventh-day Adventists, and that this reformation would consist in giving up the doctrines which stand as the pillars of our faith, and engaging in a process of reorganization. Were this reformation to take place, what would result? The principles of truth that God in His wisdom has given to the remnant church, would be discarded. Our religion would be changed. The fundamental principles that have sustained the work for the last fifty years would be accounted as error. A new organization would be established. Books of a new order would be written. A system of intellectual philosophy would be introduced."—

What is "intellectual philosophy"? Human intellect, right? Human intellect, this is self, human intellect. And all it can be is philosophy. It cannot be truth because, if you are going to build a program based upon human intellect, then it is a program that is based upon policy; therefore, it has to be intellectual philosophy. So, it is not truth.

> —"A system of intellectual philosophy would be introduced."—

It is a system that places man's word above God's Word.

And what is it when you place man's word above God's Word?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Spiritualism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Spiritualism.

> —"The founders of this system would go into the cities, and do a wonderful work."—

The city work that is here referenced, I mean you can go through and you can put dates on all these points, but what is it 2014?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 2013.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 2013 we are going to go into—650 cities around the world, is it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are going to do "a wonderful work" in the cities. This counterfeit movement is underway.

> —"The Sabbath of course, would be lightly regarded, as also the God who created it. Nothing would be allowed to stand in the way of the new movement."—THE NEW MOVEMENT—"The leaders would teach that virtue is better than vice, but God being removed, they would place their dependence on human power, > which, without God, is worthless. Their foundation would be built on the sand, and storm and tempest would sweep away the structure."—

What is the storm of the Bible? Well, we just studied Daniel 11:40-45. Who is it that comes as a whirlwind, as an overflowing flood? The King of the North, and he comes at The Sunday Law.

At The Sunday Law the storm and tempest would sweep away the structure and the foundation of this movement. This foundation is built upon sand.

This Foundation here [pointing to the 1843 Chart] is the Rock of Ages.

> "Who has authority to begin such a movement? We have our Bibles. We have our experience, attested to by the miraculous working of the Holy Spirit. We have a truth that admits of no compromise."—

No compromise, no compromise!

> —"Shall we not repudiate everything that is not in harmony with this truth?" Selected Messages, book 1, 204–205.

Yes, we should.

SUMMARY

So, what we are saying here as we do our first part of "Aaron," Aaron's foundational rejection, is that when they came out of Egypt, Aaron and the Hebrews forgot the manifestation of God's power in the Deliverance. They rejected the Foundation by accepting the false worship of the golden calf. They set up an image of the beast.

And in doing all these things—and we will have more to say about this tomorrow when we bring it to a conclusion—they are prefiguring both the Millerite History and our history.

And there is more to this story that we will deal with tomorrow.

And then, from this platform, after we put these points in place, we will move forward into the story of Jeroboam.

What had Aaron just done when he made the golden calf? Well, Aaron had just come out of Egypt.

What had Jeroboam done just before he built his two golden calves? He had just come out of Egypt.

Okay. We are going to draw those connections to show that the story here of the golden calf with Aaron is prefiguring the story of the golden calves with Jeroboam. And then once we have those points of reference in place, we are going to look at the disobedient prophet and consider his prophecy that he gives to Jeroboam, that the Lord is going to raise up someone named—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Josiah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Josiah. And what does JOSIAH mean? The foundation of God. It is all about the rejection of the foundations.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be among those that recognize the manifestation of the power of God that takes place here and now. We do not want to deny what is taking place here, and we do not want to deny the manifestation of the power of God that has taken place in past histories prefiguring this time. We want to be those that are lifted up as an ensign, but we know that we will be in the minority and, to be faithful in this time, we are going to have to be more courageous than was Aaron, as the Hebrews surrounded his tent. We want that courage, and we know that power, that strength comes from an understanding of your Word. We ask that you would give a hunger, a burning desire to understand your Word more fully, and then give us the will to begin to study it like never before. We thank you for bringing us together this morning. We know that we all have certain tasks to accomplish this day. We would ask that you would watch over us, protect us, keep us safe, and allow us to do what we do for your glory and honor. We ask that you would place your healing touch upon Paul's knee and help it get well. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #67

PART SEVEN: JOSIAH

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for once again allowing us a good night's sleep and allowing us to come together to consider your Word here first thing this morning. We ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would allow this presentation to be part of an understanding to better prepare us to stand on your side of the question here in this end-time crisis. We want you to continue to open our understanding to Habakkuk's Tables and the evidence of the truth which they are presenting to the world here at the end time. We thank you for the work that you have done so far as the Lion of the Tribe of Judah in unsealing these things. We ask for your continued efforts in this regard for each of us individually and for your people in general. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. We want to be vessels that are prepared to receive it. We ask that you make that happen for us now. In Jesus's name, amen.

AARON'S FOUNDATIONAL REJECTION—EXODUS 32, PART TWO

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are dealing with Exodus 32. We made it through the first six verses yesterday, dealing with Aaron's foundational rejection. We want to bring that to a conclusion this morning and show the connection between this story and the story of Jeroboam.

OUT OF THE WAY

In Exodus 32, verses 7 and 8, it says,

> "[7]And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves: [8]They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt." Exodus 32:7-8 (KJV).

So, yesterday we looked at what was going on down in the camp, and now the Lord has filled Moses in on the situation.

WHORING

Judges 2:17

If you go to Judges, we want to understand what it means that "they have turned aside quickly out of the way." In Judges, chapter 2, and in verse 17, it says,

> "[17]And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so." Judges 2:17 (KJV).

So, to "turn quickly out of the way" is to go out "a whoring." And what is the act of whoring represent?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Fornication.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Fornication; it is the unlawful relationship between two entities; it is the mingling of two inappropriate seeds; it is—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Mystery of Iniquity.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —the Mystery of Iniquity. The Mystery of Iniquity is what produces, in both of these cases here in Judges and in Exodus, God's people "turning out of the way."

DRINKING STRONG DRINK

Isaiah 28:5-7

Go to Isaiah 28, still dealing with what it means to "turn out of the way." In Isaiah 28, verse 5, of course this is talking about the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church; because, in verse 1 it says, "Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, . . . ," and the crown representing leadership.

And in verse 14 it says,

"[14]Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem." Isaiah 28:14 (KJV).

And we read here recently, and we have probably read this more than once in this worship service, but we read from Testimonies, volume 5, page 211, where Sister White says that Jerusalem is the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of the world. So, the "scornful men," "the crown of the pride" which rule Jerusalem are the subject of Isaiah 28. This is the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of the world.

And Isaiah 28, verse 5 says,

"[5]In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people."—

So, the Lord, at the end of the world in the Latter Rain time period, if you want to place it where it is supposed to be, it is going to be a crown of glory for the residue of His people (for the remnant).

Verse 6:

—"[6]And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate. [7]But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink, are out of the way: the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way, through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment." Isaiah 28:5 (KJV).

So, here, what takes them out of the way is not the fornication; it is the strong drink.

And what is the wine? We have looked at this when we went through Revelation 17. What is the alcohol that people drink that causes them to be spiritually drunk?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: False doctrine.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: False doctrine, the wine of Babylon.

So, the Mystery of Iniquity causes them to go out of the way, but also false doctrine causes them to go out of the way.

But, I want you to see here in this verse, verse 7, that this expression, "out of the way," is twice repeated. We are going to deal with that here in a while. And when we see a phrase or a word twice repeated, "out of the way, out of the way," it is a reference to the Second or Fourth Angel's Message. So, it ties it in here with the Latter Rain time period.

IN WHAT DAY?

Isaiah 28:9-13

But, let us be certain about what day it is. Go to verse 9 through 13 of Isaiah 28. Beginning in verse 9, it says,

> "[9]Whom shall he teach knowledge? And whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. [10]For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little: [11]For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people. [12]To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. [13]But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken." Isaiah 28:9-13 (KJV).

So, in what day are they going to be "out of the way" because of strong drink, and what day is it that the Lord is going to lift up the residue (the remnant) as a crown of glory, contrasting the crown of pride of Ephraim? It is in the day He is accomplishing the Everlasting Gospel among Adventism because they are being tested here in verses 9 through 13 with how they respond to the Word of the Lord: Verse 13 says, "But the word of the LORD was unto them." How they respond to the testing of the Word of the Lord, and the Word of the Lord that tests them is William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation, what we call proof-texting, the study of the Bible that takes a Concordance and take line upon line, here a little, there a little. And the reason they fail the test is because in the 1930s Adventism reached out to apostate Protestantism and accepted their Biblical approach to the study of God's Word; and, of course, their Biblical approach to the study of God's Word provided them with the philosophy that allowed them to reject the First Angel's Message in the time of William Miller. So, it has already been proven to be a false theory. But, of course, this is what we use in Adventism today, whether it is the organized Conference work or the self-supporting work; they are using this fallen apostate Protestant approach to Biblical study.

But, it is very clear here that in the time of the Latter Rain, because verse 12 says, "the refreshing," which in The Great Controversy, page 611, Sister White says is the Latter Rain; and, it is the Latter Rain Message because in verse 12 says, "this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear." The refreshing here is something that you can hear; it is a message.

In the time of the Latter Rain, this group (the drunkards of Ephraim) are "out of the way" because they have accepted the doctrines of Rome that they accept, because they are using the Biblical approach to Bible study that comes from Rome, handed off to apostate Protestantism, and then received by Adventism in the 1930s.

So, the Mystery of Iniquity will take you "out of the way." Fornication and false doctrine will take you "out of the way."

And the day that this is applied here, the time period that Isaiah 28 is marking, is the time period of the Latter Rain testing process of the Everlasting Gospel.

And, of course, all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world; so, this story of Aaron in Exodus 32 is pointing forward to the Latter Rain time period here at the end of the world when God's people get "out of the way."

A CROWN OF GLORY

Isaiah 62:1-3

What is the crown of glory that the Lord is going to lift the residue up as a crown of glory and as a diadem in His hand?

Isaiah 62, verses 1-3, says,

> "[1]For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth."—

So, He is not going to rest until His righteousness and His salvation goes forth as a—what?—as a lamp that burneth. What does that mean?

Well, I mean, every lamp, if it is going to be a good lamp, is going to burn. Right? If it does not burn, it is darkness. But, what does it mean? His righteousness is going to be carried to the world by what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A burning lamp.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: By a burning lamp.

What is a lamp?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is a light.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Church. This is the Church Triumphant. Christ is walking among the Seven Lamps—is He not?—the Seven Candlesticks.

Verse 2:

> —"[2]And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness,"—

So, when this lamp goeth forth, this Church goeth forth, the Church Triumphant goeth forth, what is He doing? What is another Biblical illustration that we often refer to in this series?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He is lifting up an ensign.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is lifting up an ensign. That is when this lamp is going forward. All right?

—"[2]And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name. [3]Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God." Isaiah 62:1-3 (KJV).

He is going to lift His people up as an ensign in the Latter Rain time period. They are going to change from Church Militant to Church Triumphant; therefore, they are going to go forth as a lamp that burneth and present the message of Righteousness by Faith, and the world is going to see it.

And in that time period, the other class in Adventism that is represented by the drunkards of Ephraim, they are going to be drunk with the wine of Babylon because they rejected William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation, and they are "out of the way."

Now, if you remember, from Early Writings, page 15, we looked at it a couple of times yesterday. One of the expressions there was,

"If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the city, they were safe." Early Writings, 15.

And we pointed out that they wanted to make this golden calf as a god that would go before them, back into Egypt; but, in Ellen White's first vision, which we just read from, Jesus was the One that was to go before us. So, if you are going to make another god that is going to go before you, you are making a counterfeit Christ; you are off the path that takes you to Heaven. You have fallen off to the wicked world below. You are off the path that is enlightened by . . . ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Midnight Cry.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: . . . the light behind it that sheds all along the way, the Midnight Cry.

THE HOLY ONE OF ISRAEL

Okay. We are going to show you a passage in the Scriptures, in Isaiah 30, verses 8 to 18, where the Holy One of Israel—that is Christ. Right?—that He is before them on this path.

So, in verse 8 of Isaiah 30, it says,

"[8]Now go write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever: [9]That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:"—

Now, there evidently is something written on a Table that is noted in a Book that demonstrates who the rebels are. So, what is the Table that is noted in the book that creates a test that produces obedient and rebellious people? Habakkuk's Tables [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts].

These Tables are noted in what Book?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Habakkuk.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the Book of Habakkuk.

And in the Millerite History, if you accepted the message of this [1843] Chart, you ended up following Christ by faith into the Most Holy Place. But, if you rejected the message on this Chart, you ended up praying to the Holy Place and Satan answered your prayers. The Everlasting Gospel was accomplished by the message on this Chart. It produced two seeds: the seed of Satan—Satan was answering the prayers of those that would not follow Christ into the Most Holy Place—and it produced the seed of Christ, those that followed Him into the Most Holy Place.

So, the message on this Chart identifies, among other things, who are the rebels in the camp; and, that is what Isaiah 30 is saying: "[8]Now go write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever: . . . " Isaiah 30:8.

What is "the time to come for ever and ever" in the Bible? It is the Latter Rain. All the Bible is talking about the end of the world: the Latter Rain time period, the sealing of the 144,000, the gathering in of the eleventh-hour workers. This is "the time to come for ever and ever."

And this Table, this Book identify who is the rebellious people, the lying children, children that will not hear the Law of the Lord.

The last time Darrio Taylor was here and we recorded his presentations—if you have looked at those—you may remember that he went through in part of his series and showed that in the Scriptures that the proof that you keep the Ten Commandments, the proof that you keep the Law of God is demonstrated by whether you walk in the way of the Lord. And he went through several places where he showed this.

So, they are "out of the way" in Exodus 32.

And these people here in Isaiah 30, they will not hear the Law of the Lord; but, the way it is demonstrated that they are not law keepers is they get "out of the way."

> —[9]That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD: [10]Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits:"—

Now, notice here, these rebels, those that are rebelling against Habakkuk's Tables [gesturing to the 1843 and 1850 Charts behind the podium], the messages on the Foundational Truths at the end of the world, are those that are rebelling against this [1843] Table in the time of the Millerites. What they are saying is, "We don't want to hear about country living. We don't want to hear the Health Message, and we don't want to hear about dress reform."

Is that what they are saying?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Uh-huh.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. They are saying, "We don't want to hear the prophetic message. We don't' want to hear what the seers are saying, what the prophets are saying. In fact, if you are going to give us the prophetic message, we want a peace and safety message. We want smooth things, and we want to be deceived; because, we don't want to hear the heard truths."

So, "this rebellious people" is very germane to Adventism today. It is not about the message of church growth, how to take the cell techniques that originated in Korea and go out and hypnotize people two by two in order to produce church growth. They are not saying, "We don't want to hear that."

They are not saying any of these things. What they are saying is, "We do not want to hear the prophetic message. We don't want to hear the prophetic message, unless it is a dishonest prophetic message. It is deceitful; because, it is teaching us that everything is all right."

But, everything is not all right, is it?

Okay. These people which will not hear the Law of the Lord—this [the 1843 and the 1850 Charts] is the Law of the Lord, this is the Law of the Lord.

What did Sister White say—if you break one of the health laws, what does she equate that to?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Breaking the Ten Commandments.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Breaking the Ten Commandments. There is no difference. A "thus saith the Lord" is the Law of the Lord. This [the 1843 and the 1850 Charts) is the Law of the Lord.

And we have seen that typified already in this series. When the Lord entered into covenant with Ancient Israel in this time period (in Exodus 32), He gave them the two tables to mark the covenant; and, that was Ancient Israel. But, in modern Israel, when He entered into covenant with them, what did He give them? Two tables.

These Two Tables, of Habakkuk's Tables, they have been typified by the two tables of the Ten Commandments.

> —"[9 continued]. . . children that will not hear the law of the LORD: [10]Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits: [11]Get you out of the way,"—

Okay. What gets you "out of the way"? Well, what gets you "out of the way" in Judges is that you have entered into the Mystery of Iniquity. You are whoring. You have commingled two things that are not supposed to be mingled.

In Isaiah 28, what gets you "out of the way" is false doctrine.

Here in Isaiah 30,

> —"[11]Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us."—

Who is the Holy One of Israel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jesus.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ.

And what path is He on?

Do the prophets all agree with one another?

So, Ellen White's first dream, when she sees Jesus on the path before us, what path is that? That is the path to eternal life, is it not? But, she describes a group of people that deny the Midnight Cry [gesturing towards the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. They deny the history that represents these two Charts, and they fall off the path.

And now Isaiah is telling us about these same people, because all the prophets agree with one another.

> —"[11]Get you out of the way,"—GET OFF THAT PATH!—"turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us."—

"Let us take a path where we do not have to be looking at Jesus all the time in front of us." That is what they are saying, and they have done this because of the Mystery of Iniquity mingling the sacred and the divine, and because they have accepted the false rules of prophetic interpretation that came from apostate Protestantism and Catholicism: the historical grammatical method of Biblical interpretation, thus rejecting the proof-text method of William Miller.

Continuing on, it says,

> —"[12]Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word,— (Isaiah 30:8-18 to be continued)

What word; what word is it that they despise?

Now, this is Isaiah 30, is it not? This is not in your notes: look at Isaiah 30, verse 1.

> "[1]Woe to the rebellious children, . . ." Isaiah 30:1, in part (KJV).

Now go back to Isaiah 29, verse 1.

> "[1]Woe to Ariel, to Ariel,"—

And what is Ariel? It is a term for Jerusalem.

> —"[1]Woe to Ariel [JERUSALEM], to Ariel [JERUSALEM], the city where David dwelt! . . ." Isaiah 29:1 (KJV margin)

Now go back to Isaiah 28, verse 1.

> "[1]Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim . . ." Isaiah 28:1, in part (KJV).

Isaiah 28, 29, and 30 are the same vision. Okay? This is a woe against God's people at the end of the world.

So, in Isaiah 30 [verse 12], it says, "Because ye despise this word, . . ." What word has been despised in this vision?

Well, just go to Isaiah 28:13 and it tells you the word that has been despised. It says,

> "[13]But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little, that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken." Isaiah 28:13 (KJV).

What word is it that causes them to leave the path when they reject it? It is William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation.

Back to your notes:

> —"Isaiah 30:8-18 continued / verse [12]Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon: [13]Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant. [14]And he shall break it > as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit."—

It is going to break it like Josiah broke down the altars, and He is going to break it into such small pieces that there is not even a piece of pottery where you can get a little bit of water out of a pool of water, and you could not get a coal out of a fireplace to start another fire. That is how small the pieces are.

In other words, when this swelling in the wall—and what is this wall that is swelling, that is going to break?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The structure.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Is it the structure?

What does the wall typically represent in Bible prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Law of God.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Law of God. It is what protects us.

So, this wall that is going to break has to do with the breaking of the Law of God.

Does The Sunday Law come suddenly and unexpectedly, according to Sister White?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The breaking of this wall comes "suddenly and at an instant."

And what wall is it that is broken here? I am saying it is the Law of God. I am saying this is a symbol of The Sunday Law. But, what wall is broken here?

It is a secondary question.

Brother David, you know this one. What wall is broken?

The wall of separation of church and state that is overturned at The Sunday Law in the United States. It is broken suddenly and at an instant. And at that point, Josiah comes into Adventism and he is breaking all the idols; he is turning them into powder. And at that point it is too late for the drunkards of Ephraim, for the foolish virgins of Adventism. Even if they could get a piece of that pot, they could not get any fire or water with it anyway. It is too late.

What is the fire and the water?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Holy Spirit.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Holy Spirit, in both cases.

Who is it that comes to The Sunday Law in Adventism in the parable of the Ten Virgins and finds they have no Holy Spirit?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The foolish virgins.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The foolish virgins, they have no oil.

And at The Sunday Law when probation is closed, there is no possible way for them to get the Holy Spirit. It is END OF STORY!

> —"[15]For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel: In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not."—

What is the "returning and rest" that is marked in the Scriptures that people refuse to walk in? Jeremiah 6:16, the Old Paths, ". . . Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein."

So, what was the safety for this people? How were they going to be saved in this passage, if they were to be saved? By returning to the Old Paths and walking therein, and they would find rest for their souls.

But, what are the Old Paths?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Foundations.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Foundations?

Sister Heather, what are the Old Paths?

SISTER HEATHER: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: These [1843 and 1850] Charts are the Old Paths. Right? And you need to see this in the context, because this passage in Isaiah 30, it starts with, ". . . write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, . . ." And these Tables, that are in the Book of Habakkuk produced the rebels; and, ultimately the rebels, they get off the path into eternal death because they refuse to return to these foundational truths and receive the rest of the Latter Rain. They would not.

Continuing on here in Isaiah 30, it says,

—"[16]But ye said, No, for we will flee upon horses;"—

Those people that are on the wrong side of the issue, they are going to flee on horses.

> —"therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. [17]One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill."—

When is it that God's people are lifted up as an ensign? At The Sunday Law.

The lifting up begins just before The Sunday Law, but they are lifted up as an ensign, as a lamp that burneth at The Sunday Law.

And, those people that are not lifted up flee from them at The Sunday Law time period, and what is the ratio that they flee from them at? Well, here in this passage it is 1,000:1; and, of course, that is the unofficial ratio of the Millerite History, from 50,000 down to 50 on October 22, 1844. It was as the parable of the Ten Virgins was being fulfilled, and those 1,000 that left the 1 there on October 22, 1844, in the terminology of the parable of the Ten Virgins, they left because the 5 wise virgins rebuked them and said, "We don't have any oil for you." At the rebuke of the 5 wise virgins shall the 5 foolish virgins flee, and the ratio will be 1,000 shall flee at the rebuke of 1.

I think it was in church, but it is a familiar quote. Here in the past couple of days, it has been expressed, and now it is escaping my mind, even when I am thinking about it—oh, it was in church. There is a quote where Sister White says, "A greater number than we now anticipate—" Those are her words, but the rest are my words—"leave Adventism at The Sunday Law." Now, that is my words, but that is what she is talking about.

Brother Daniel was doing something about the separation that takes place between the wise and the foolish at The Sunday Law, and Sister White says, "A greater number than we now anticipate":

> "When the law of God is made void the church will be sifted by fiery trials, and a larger proportion than we now anticipate, will give heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils. Instead of being strengthened when brought into strait places, many prove that they are not living branches of the True Vine; they bore no fruit, and the husbandman taketh them away." {2SM 368.1}

And if you take the Millerite History and understand that the Millerite History is repeated to the very letter at the end of the world, then you make the assumption that the foolish virgins that left the Millerites on October 22, 1844, are giving us an example of the foolish virgins of Adventism that leave at The Sunday Law. So, we can think, "Well, the historians infer that it is 1,000:1 ratio; 50,000:50 overnight; but, it is going to be greater than that, a greater number than we now anticipate. It would be nice if it was only 1,000:1 here, but look around at the condition of Adventism. It is pretty clear that it is going to be greater than that.

> —"[17]One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill. [18]And therefore will the LORD wait,"—

The Lord will wait. When will the Lord wait? He tarries; the Bridegroom tarries.

> —"[18]And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him." Isaiah 30:8-18 (KJV).

So, in the Millerite History, when did the Lord wait? On March 22, 1844, the first disappointment came: The Bridegroom tarried.

What happened thereafter? It is the climax of the Everlasting Gospel. From March 22 to October 22, during that seven months, in that history that is called The Seventh Month Movement; not from that logic, but it is called The Seventh Month Movement. He produces two classes of worshippers, the wise and the foolish of the Millerite History; and, those that are blessed are the ones that wait for him during that time period.

So, the Lord waits to mark the beginning of the climax of the Everlasting Gospel. And when He reaches the point that He is going to introduce the three-step prophetic testing message that develops and then demonstrates those two classes, when He reaches a point where he says, "Okay. Here we go. We are going to begin this separation in Adventism. We are going to begin to seal the 144,000," when He reaches that point, He tarries. Okay? And He tarried on 9/11/2001. He is now going to bless those that wait for Him. He is going to lift them up as an ensign.

But, a far greater number in Adventism are "out of the way" because they have rejected the proof-text method of Biblical study introduced by William Miller, and because they have rejected these Tables that are noted in Habakkuk, and they are preparing to flee at the rebuke of the wise virgins.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jeff?
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: In Ecclesiastes 7:27-28, it is 1000:1.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ecclesiastes 7:27-28 says,

> "[27]Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account: [28]Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found, but a woman among all those have I not found." Ecclesiastes 7:27-28 (KJV).

Okay. I have that marked, but I get your point.

So, let us go back quickly through Isaiah 30, verses 8 through 18.

Habakkuk 2:1-4; Jeremiah 6:16-17; Isaiah 31:1-3; Matthew 25:8-9; Daniel 12:12

Habakkuk 2:1-4, we do not have to go there. We are just referencing. It is the Table; it is the Table that is noted in a Book that identifies the rebels in the camp and the righteous in the camp.

Jeremiah 6:16-17 are the Old Paths that we need to return to if we are going to find rest for our souls.

And let us go to Jeremiah 6:16. We all know this, but to put it in the record. The counsel here in Isaiah 30 was, "In returning and rest shall ye be saved." And in verse 16 of Jeremiah 6, it says,

> "[16]Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. [17]Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken." Jeremiah 6:16-17 (KJV).

Okay. So, not only are they rejecting the Old Paths, they are rejecting a message that comes based upon the Old Paths that is the trumpet message; and, the Trumpet Message at the end of the world is the Seventh Trumpet.

[Referring to the lower right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart] And the Fifth Trumpet was a Woe (the First Woe), and the Sixth Trumpet was the Second Woe, and the Seventh Trumpet (the message they are rejecting, as they are rejecting the Old Paths and the Latter Rain) is the message of the Third Woe. And if the First Woe was Islam, and the Second Woe was Islam, the message they are rejecting is the Message of Islam.

Go to Isaiah 31:1-3. I do not rightly remember why I have that in there. Perhaps I can just speak to it—oh, they are going to flee on horses. Okay? Verse 1 of Isaiah 31.

And remember, we were reading this passage from Isaiah 30; so, verse 31, it is the same vision. It is commenting on itself. So, in verse 16 of Isaiah 30, it said, "But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift." So, these foolish virgins in Adventism that are going to flee on horses, which is what the people in the story of Aaron wanted to do. They wanted to go back to Egypt.

In verse 1 of Isaiah 31, it says,

> "[1]Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help;"—

Is that not where Aaron's crew wanted to go?

> —"and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD!"—

They do not want to look to the Holy One of Israel, "Cause Him to cease before us! We want to take another path."

Verse 2:

> —"[2]Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity. [3]Now the Egyptians are men, and not God;"—

Now, they want to go to Egypt. They want to trust in men, not God.

> —"and their horses flesh, and not spirit. [3]When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fall together." Isaiah 31:1-3 (KJV).

So, when they are going to flee on horses, what are they going to flee on? Their own human strength.

And they are fleeing from what? The Latter Rain, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

In Matthew 25:8-9, it says,

> —"[8]And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. [9]But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves." Matthew 25:8-9 (KJV).

Okay. This is, in these verses, the breaking of the pot, where there is no shard to get fire or water: ". . . blessed are they that wait for him," in Isaiah 30:18, of course, is referencing Daniel 12:12, "Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days."

TWO TABLES

Exodus 32:9-16

The Two Table: We are back to Exodus now, back to the story of Aaron. What we have just done with the story of Exodus is explain what takes us "out of the way," what took them "out of the way," the Mystery of Iniquity, the whoring, the false doctrine (the wine); and, their refusal to accept the message that the Lord provides, that is represented upon Habakkuk's Two Tables. They are "out of the way," "they are out of the way."

In verse 9 of Exodus 32, it says,

"[9]And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: [10]Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation. [11]And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against the people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? [12]Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people. [13]Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever. [14]And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

"[15]And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written. [16]And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables." Exodus 32:9-16 (KJV).

Okay. So, what we are saying here is that those two tables prefigured these Two Tables [the 1843 and 1850 Charts], and that these are the work of God. And you can see the two quotes in your notes that we have referred to often.

"I have seen that the 1843 chart was directed by the hand of the Lord, and that it should not be altered; that the figures were as He wanted them; that His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none could see it, until His hand was removed." {Early Writings, 74.1}.

And then of this Chart (the 1850 Chart), it says,

"I saw that God was in the publishment of the chart by Brother Nichols. I saw that there was a prophecy of this chart in the Bible, and if this chart is designed for God's people, if it [is] sufficient for one it is for another, and if one needed a new chart painted on a larger scale, all need it just as much." {Manuscript Releases, volume 13, 359.1}

So, when it comes to the 1863 Chart that the drunkards of Ephraim want us to believe is the chart the point-in-reference for Adventism, you will find no, NONE, NADA endorsement from the Spirit of Prophecy that says the Lord directed the 1863 Chart, or that the 1863 Chart is the fulfillment in the prophecy in the Bible.

These two Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts]—and these are not the only references—Sister White says more than once that these two Charts, they are both the fulfillment of Habakkuk, and Habakkuk 2 talks about "Write the vision and make it plain upon tables" (in the plural). These two Tables are the subject of prophecy. These two Tables are the Tables that were given to spiritual Israel, modern Israel at the beginning of Adventism to mark the covenant between God and His people, the same way the two tables that Moses was bringing down was to mark the covenant between Ancient Israel [and God].

The spirit of antichrist that seeks to change times and law, according to the Book of Daniel, in seeking to change times and law by the antichrist is an attempt to change the two tables. So, anyone that wants to say these Two Tables [1843 and 1850 Charts] need to be changed, "We need to change them to what is on the 1863 Chart," that is the spirit of antichrist.

CELEBRATION WORSHIP

Exodus 32:17-18; Isaiah 22:12-14

So, Moses is coming down from the Mount with the Tables, and in verse 17 [of Exodus 32] it says,

> "[17]And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp. [18]And he said, it is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear." Exodus 32:17-18 (KJV).

And their style of worship here is the style of worship that confronts many Adventist Churches today, Celebration Worship. Here in the Day of Atonement, when we are supposed to be fasting and praying and afflicting our souls, they are partying down. And celebration-style worship came out of the Vatican II documents. Celebration was invented by the Papacy, and the Papacy designed to introduce it into the Pentecostal Church and spread it through all the Christian churches; and, it is here in Adventism today, the same worship style that was going on with Aaron at the foot of the Mount.

And we read purposely a long time ago in this series—I think we read all the way through Isaiah 22; but, now I am uncertain. Let us go to Isaiah 22 to give a second witness to this celebration-style worship that is confronting Adventism today that is prefigured by the celebration-style worship that Aaron was accomplishing at the foot of the Mount.

In verse 12 of Isaiah 22—and I do not know if you remember Isaiah 22, but there are two classes of worshippers in Isaiah 22 that are represented by Eliakim—or is it Hilkiah? Let me make sure on that. (Pause in presentation)— . . . Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, contrasted with Shebna (Shebna the foolish virgin that is going to be cast into a field, like a ball. He is going to be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord; he is the Laodicean); Eliakim being the Philadelphians (the 144,000). But, the time period that is being presented in Isaiah 22 is the time period of the Day of Atonement. And in verse 12, it says,

> "[12]And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:"—

What day does He call us to that kind of experience?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Day of Atonement.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the Day of Atonement.

Verse 13:

> —"[13]And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die."—

This is the same kind of worship that was going on at the foot of the Mount with Aaron. They are partying down when they are supposed to be fasting and afflicting their souls.

And in verse 14, it says,

> —"[14]And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity"—

This style of worship,

> "—Surely this iniquity shall not be purged"—

And this Hebrew word purged is atoned for.

> —"shall not be purged [ATONED FOR] from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts." Isaiah 22:12-14 (KJV).

So, this style of worship that was being accomplished by Aaron and his cohorts at the foot of the Mount is prefiguring a style of worship that will be accomplished in Adventism at the end of time, just before The Sunday Law, when the wall suddenly breaks.

AARON'S FOUNDATIONAL REJECTION—EXODUS 32, PART THREE

(SEE NOTES FOR PRESENTATION #68)

BROKEN COVENANT

Exodus 32:19-20; Revelation 14:9-11

Exodus 32:19-20

I have bit off more than I can chew here, once again.*

> "[19]And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot,"—

You know that there is virtually—there is a lot of Seventh-day Adventist Churches in the City of London. And I do not have experience with lots of places in the world, but I used to go to London on a regular basis, not that I have been to every Adventist Church in London; I have been to very few; but, I have spoken to the Adventists in London, and those churches, many churches, there is just virtually none of them that do not have this style of worship. Some of the Adventist Churches in London, you can go in there and they will be dancing in the aisles.

So, if we are not out going into every single Seventh-day Adventist Church each Sabbath, we do not understand how accurate that God's Word is to what is really taking place. So, okay, I have seen places on Planet Earth where this kind of foolishness is being accomplished on a regular basis, "and all the leadership answered not a word."

> "[19]And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount. [20]And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

What is he doing here?

We mentioned yesterday that the calf is both the image of the beast, and the worship of the beast and of the image is Sunday worship. This is The Sunday Law at the end of the world.

Revelation 14:9-11

And if you go to Revelation 14:9-11, you see the punishment for those that are going to accept the mark of the beast, that are going to accept Sunday sacredness. In verse 9, it says,

> "[9]And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image,"—

Were they worshipping the beast and his image there at the foot of the Mount?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, [10]The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out"—

Were they going to drink something as their punishment? We just read it.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: [11]And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." Revelation 14:9-11 (KJV).

So, here in the story of Aaron is typified the punishment of those that receive the mark of the beast at the end of the world. Exodus 32 is illustrating the end of the world.

THE PEOPLE

And the end of the world is the end of Adventism; so, Exodus 32 is also illustrating the beginning of Adventism. And we have not taken time yet to look at Daniel 2, Daniel 8, and Revelation 17 in terms of the progressive there that is marked. But, in Daniel 2 you see a progression that is purposely identified in prophecy, a progression.

You see the progression in the metals in Daniel 2: [referring to kingdoms as represented in the figure of a man in the upper left-hand corner of the 1843 Chart] Gold, Silver, Brass, Iron, Iron and Clay. Gold is more valuable than Silver, which is more valuable than Brass, which is more valuable than Iron. Gold is softer than Silver, which is softer than Brass, which is softer than Iron. There is a purposeful progression.

And Sister White comments on this progression. She talks about the corruption of the religion of the world as history proceeds.

But, in Daniel 8, you get a second testimony to this progression in Daniel, chapter 8; because, the powers of Bible prophecy in Daniel 8, [beginning with the gold head of Babylon] they g al [self-exaltation] themselves.

And the Medes and the Persians [the Silver] g al themselves.

But, Alexander the Great [the Brass] even g al himself even more than the Medes and the Persians.

And the Romans [the Iron], they g al themselves more than even Alexander the Great.

And the Papacy, down here in the Iron and Clay, it g al s itself even more than Pagan Rome.

But, disregarding the g al , there is a purposeful progression that is marked here.

And, of course, in Revelation 17 you see this progression, if you can see, is that it [referring back to the figure of the man] is a story about how the Mystery of Iniquity, of how the Papacy, of how Mystery Babylon moves from one head [from one kingdom] to the next kingdom down through history.

Okay. When she [Mystery Babylon] is taking off one head in 1798—right?—she is taking off the beast that carried her at that time, the European kings in 1798. And immediately what did she began to do? She began to get back upon the next beast.

Who is the beast in 1798?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States.

Revelation 17 is talking about this progression of the Mystery Babylon Woman, of how she progresses through history riding different "heads" [beasts] to accomplish her work. And in the Millerite History what the apostate Protestants—at that time they were Protestants; they were then becoming apostate Protestants—what they did is they continued to carry Rome with them. They came to the point where the Protestant Reformation was going to reach its climax, and the next step was the Lord was going to return His people to Sabbathkeeping, and they continued to uphold Sunday. They continued to carry the doctrines of Rome in their hearts and their minds and they got separated from modern Israel, the beginning of Adventism. So, right there is an illustration of The Sunday Law in the history of the Millerites, if you will see it. And the punishment is that you drink this golden water that Moses has made, and the smoke of your torment rises forever and ever. And sure enough, the Protestants in the Millerite History began to pray to the Holy Place and Satan answered their prayers.

Let us stop it there and take it up tomorrow. The reason being is it does not look like we have very much left in our notes, but we do.

What we are doing here, so you understand the relation of all these things, is we are still in the part of this worship series where we are showing the typifications of these two Charts [the 1843 and the 1850 Charts] in God's Word. Not only are these two Charts the Two Tables that mark the covenant with modern Israel, despite what Adventism will say about that, these are the Two Covenant Tables for Adventism; but, because of this, the Bible has typified the role, the purpose, the history of these two Charts throughout God's Word, and we are in the process of looking at some of the places where this is typified.

And Jesus being the Beginning and the Ending, He illustrates the end of a thing from the beginning of a thing, and the thing that we are dealing with right now is the golden calf, among other things; and, the golden calf, its beginning is with Aaron, and the story of the golden calf, its end is with Jeroboam, who builds two golden calves and then says the very same thing, "These be thy gods that brought thee out of Egypt."

So, we are going to look at Aaron's story and Jeroboam's story to see the beginning and the end and see how these two stories are both contributing to the end of the world, in order to set up the context for understanding who the disobedient prophet is. And the disobedient prophet comes with a prophetic message to Jeroboam at the very point in time where he is setting up these two golden calves, and that disobedient prophet then carries out a sequence of events that contribute to our understanding of Adventism; but, that disobedient prophet first gives a prophecy to Jeroboam, and it is the prophecy of Josiah. So, we want to build all the background so we can get to Josiah; because, Josiah represents, among other things, the people at the end of the world that discover in the Sanctuary the curse of Moses. And because they discover the curse of Moses, it produces a revival. And so we want to see this typified. That is why we are taking time with Aaron and Jeroboam.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have allowed us to live another day, that we might serve you. And as we take up our service for you this day, we ask that you would watch over us and keep us safe and that what we do will be to your glory and honor. We want to understand how Aaron and Jeroboam are illustrating the days in which we live. We ask that you continue to open our understanding to these things. We want to understand that these Two Tables are most certainly the symbols of the covenant that you entered into at the beginning of Adventism with your people, and they are the symbols of your covenant that you are now entering into with those that you are about to lift up as an ensign. We thank you for the beautiful weather that you have given us here recently, and we thank you for the easy times that we have here to come together and worship. We know that in some parts of the world these types of easy times are not available, and that in the very near future the country in which we live is going to become the point of greatest darkness on Planet Earth, and easy times will be no more until your return. So, help us to take advantage of these times, that we can press together with one another and gather strength from the power that is contained in your Word. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

PART SEVEN: JOSIAH

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we come to this study this morning, we ask that you would grant us your guidance, that you would give us your Holy Spirit to direct our thoughts, our understanding. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. We ask that you accomplish that by giving us a deeper understanding of the significance of the story of Aaron and the golden calf and its relationship to Jeroboam. We want to understand these things in a way that we can be benefited as individuals, to become more like you in thought, word, and deed, and also that we might have a message to share with those that we come in contact with. Please take control of my humanity, that I can be a tool in your hand and not have my human thoughts interjected into this study. We ask that you prepare the hearts and minds of those that hear it, to receive it as you see fit that it might accomplish what you intend for it to. In Jesus's name, amen.

AARON'S FOUNDATIONAL REJECTION—EXODUS 32, PART THREE (CONTINUED)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is our third consideration of Exodus 32, the golden calf and Aaron. We left off yesterday midway through Exodus 32. We are going to start with verses 21 through 24.

THE PEOPLE (CONTINUED)

Exodus 32:21-24

We have just seen Moses come down and punish the people by turning the gold into dust and mixing it with water and making them drink their idol, prefiguring the drinking of God's wrath by those that receive the mark of the beast in Revelation 14's Third Angel's Message.

Now we want to read verses 21 through 24.

> "[21]And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them? [22]And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief. [23]For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. [24]And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf." Exodus 32:21-24 (KJV).

So, Aaron is suffering under the guilt of what he has done.

NAKED, POOR, BLIND AND MISERABLE

Exodus 32:25

Verse 25 says,

"[25]And when Moses saw that the people were naked; (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies:)" Exodus 32:25 (KJV).

Who is it that is naked?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Multiple indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: These are the Laodiceans: naked, poor, blind, and miserable.

We are suggesting this story is illustrating the end of the world in our day and age, but also the history of the Millerites, because the beginning illustrates the end. Those people in the Millerite History that end up naked are the ones that are praying to the Holy Place when Christ moves into the Most Holy Place.

THE LEVITES

Exodus 32:26-29

Beginning in verse 26,

"[26]Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD'S side? Let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him. [27]And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor. [28]And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. [29]For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother: that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day." Exodus 32:26-29 (KJV).

And, of course, the Levites are going to be marked in the story of Jeroboam, and we are saying that the story of Aaron is the beginning of the story of the golden calf and Jeroboam is the end, and the Levites are the ones that are faithful in this history.

Let us go to Malachi. This history is prefiguring the end of the world, prefiguring the Millerites as well. And we have looked at Malachi 3 often in this study. And in verse 1 it says,

"[1]Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me:"—

In the time of Christ, this was John the Baptist; and, this was William Miller in the Millerite History, preparing the way for Christ to change dispensations. With John the Baptist He was changing dispensations from the earthly sanctuary to the Heavenly Sanctuary; in the story of Miller, from the Holy Place to the Most Holy Place.

—"[1]Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. [2]But who may abide the day of his coming? And who shall stand > when he appeareth? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' sope: [3]And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness." Malachi 3:1-3 (KJV).

In verse 1 of Malachi 3, when Christ comes to His temple, you see it referenced there in verse 1 two times; and, Sister White takes this verse, as we have demonstrated before, and applies it to the Two Temple Cleansings of Christ.

In verses 2 and 3 is a description of the process of cleansing the temple. The Lord is going to sit as a refiner and a fuller, and He produces a purification process that is the Everlasting Gospel. He did so in the history when He walked among men, the history of John the Baptist; and, He did so in the history of the Millerites, cleansing the temple twice, producing a group of people, the Levites, that moved into the Most Holy Place with Him. But, all of these histories are pointing forward to the end of the world in the development of the 144,000, which is 12 tribes, Levites of only one tribe. And when it comes to the Levites, it is emphasizing those people that come out of God's Church that are going to stand faithful in The Sunday Law crisis.

So, the Levites back here in Exodus 32 are prefiguring Seventh-day Adventists that are lifted up as an ensign at the end of the world. They are marked for their willingness to make a distinction between God's Law and the golden calf.

Back to your notes.

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

Exodus 32:30

Exodus 32, verse 30, says,

> "[30]And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin." Exodus 32:30 (KJV).

Thus referencing the Day of Atonement, pointing forward to the conclusion of the Millerite History, where those that are typified by the Levites move into the Most Holy Place with Christ at the beginning of the Day of Atonement, and prefiguring those of us here at the end of Adventism that are living in the atypical Day of Atonement and preparing, hopefully, for the Seal of God at The Sunday Law. So, this is clearly placed in the context of the Day of Atonement, when we understand that all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world.

THE BLOTTING OUT—THE LATTER RAIN

Exodus 32:31-35

Then in verses 31 through 35 it gets even more specific about what is being referenced. Verse 31 says,

> "[31]And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold. [32]Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—: and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.

> [33]And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. [34]Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mind Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them. [35]And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made." Exodus 32:31-35 (KJV).

So, not only is this referencing the Day of Atonement, it is referencing the very conclusion of the Day of Atonement when Christ is blotting out sins: the Judgment of the Living; the time of the Latter Rain.

So, what we are identifying here is that the story of Aaron is prefiguring the story of Jeroboam.

JEROBOAM

A PROPHECY

1 Kings 11:29-31

Let us go to 1 Kings 11. We are saying that the story of the golden calf with Aaron is prefiguring the story of the golden calves with Jeroboam, that they are the beginning and the end; and, therefore, the characteristics in the story of Aaron are going to hold true with the characteristics in the story of Jeroboam.

In 1 Kings 11, beginning in verse 29, it says,

> "[29]And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field: [30]And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces: [31]And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee: . . ." 1 Kings 11:29-31 (KJV).

So, here is a prophecy of the division of Israel, and the Ten Northern Tribes and Two Southern Tribes, and Jeroboam is the focus of the prophecy. He is going to be the first king. And he could have had a righteous kingdom; but, when it all plays out, he is not going to walk in the way of righteousness.

A PROMISE

1 Kings 11:35-40

He is given a promise in verse 35 to this effect. It says,

> "[35]But I will take the kingdom"—

After He says he will not take it from Solomon; He is going to take it from Solomon's son.

—"[35]But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes. [36]And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a light always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there. [37]And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shall be king over Israel. [38]And it shall be, if thou will hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee."—

So, the promise here—let me read two more verses.

—"[39]And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever. [40]Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon." 1 Kings 11:35-40 (KJV).

So, we are seeing here Solomon's jealousy drives Jeroboam into Egypt, and Jeroboam is being typified by Aaron, and the story of Aaron takes place right after Aaron comes out of Egypt. And, of course, the story of Jeroboam and his golden calves are going to take place after he comes out of Egypt.

But, to be noted here is that this is a prophecy that the kingdom was going to be divided. This is a prophecy that had to come to pass. This is a prophecy similar to the prophecy of the covering up of the truths on these [1843 and 1850] Charts. There was going to be a return to the Old Paths at the end of the world, and an argument where the majority of Adventism is going to refuse to walk in the Old Paths. And in order that these Old Paths to be rediscovered at the end of the world, they have to be covered up. This is a prophecy. The covering up has to take place in order for them to be rediscovered.

So also with Jeroboam: Something has to happen to divide the kingdom into two parts, and it was God's Word that He was going to make it happen. How people related to the fulfillment of that prophecy is up to individuals, but it was going to happen now because it has become part of God's Word. There was going to become a division in the kingdom.

THE THIRD DAY

1 Kings 12:12-19

Let us look at chapter 12, verses 12 through 19, of 1 Kings, beginning at verse 12.

"[12]So Jeroboam"—

And Jeroboam has come back from Egypt. He has come to the meeting with Rehoboam, where Rehoboam is going to inform them as to how he is going to govern, as compared to how Solomon governed.

Verse 12:

"[12]So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day,"—

Rehoboam had said, "Give me three days to consider how I am going to govern," and they came back at the end of three days. And three days, of course, is a prophetic symbol in the Scriptures. We will not deal with that right here, but Christ was in the tomb for three days. Christ compared those three days to the building of the temple; and, in John 2:20, the Jews say the temple took 46 years to build, so this three days could be understood as 46 years; it could be understood, therefore, as the Three Angels' Messages that came into history from 1798 to 1844.

And here in this story, the kingdom is going to be divided at the end of three days; therefore, it is going to be divided—when?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In 1844.

Okay. This has a lesson to the division of apostate Protestantism from Millerite Adventism. The First Angel's Message was sent to the Protestant world. They were tested for 46 years. At the end of 46 years, they began to fulfill their role as the False Prophet of Bible prophecy. The Millerite Adventists have been identified as the True Prophet in that history, that this history is governed by the story of Elijah. And at the end of three days, in 1844, Protestantism is going to be divided into apostate Protestantism and Millerite Adventism.

Okay. 1 Kings 12:12:

> "[12]So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day,"—

They came in 1844.

> —"as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day."—

The kingdom is going to be divided at The Sunday Law once again, in Adventism, at the end of the third day.

> —"[13]And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him;"—

Rehoboam here is rejecting the Old Paths.

> —"[14]And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. [15]Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat."—

This is important (verse 15) for me. Whatever Rehoboam did, even if he had taken a righteous response to this situation, the kingdom was going to be divided, one way or another, by the Lord. That could not be turned backwards.

> —"[16]So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? Neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents. [17]But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. [18]Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. [19]So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day." 1 Kings 12:12-19 (KJV).

So, what we are saying here, just to put this in place:

1798 to 1844 is 46 years; but, based upon John 2:20, this 46 years is 3 days.

The First Angel's Message came here; the Second Angel's Message arrives in 1842; the Third Angel's Message arrives on October 22, 1844. These Three Angels' Messages are the three days. At the end of the three days, the kingdom is divided.

This is the story of Elijah. This is the three and a half years of drought. And by the time you get to the punishment of the prophets of Baal, them being slain after the fire comes down out of Heaven proving that Elijah is the True Prophet, the False Prophets are slain right here; and, you are seeing two classes of worshippers that are demonstrated in this history [of Elijah] and in this history [of the Millerites], but you are seeing the seal of approval being put on Millerite Adventism, and you are seeing apostate Protestantism begin to fill its role as the False Prophet.

This also is repeated in our history. At 9/11, the testing process of Adventism begins. At The Sunday Law it ends. In this history from 9/11 to The Sunday Law, there are three primary tests that take place; the third is where the door closes. At The Sunday Law, two classes are demonstrated.

At the slaying of the prophets of Baal [in the line of Elijah], two classes are demonstrated.

In 1844 [in Millerite History], two classes are demonstrated.

These three days of Jeroboam is leading us to 1844. This we want you to see; because, at this point in time, Israel (the Ten Northern Tribes) becomes apostate Protestantism; and, the Two Southern Tribes of Judah become Millerite Adventism, if you can follow the logic of this.

Legend: 🔍 = Disappointment

Now, this here, we have looked at this before. This is the prophetic chain.

William Miller, Ellen White says that William Miller was given the commencement to the Chain of Truth; and, of course, William Miller tells us the three commencements that he was given was 677BC, the commencement of the 2520; 457BC, the commencement of the 2300 Days; and, AD508, the commencement of the 1335 and the 1290.

Miller (the Millerites), at the beginning of Adventism, were given the commencement to the Chain of Truth; and, at the end of Adventism, we have been given the links to the Chain of Truth. And these [see Figure No. 138] are the links. What these are, are the 3:1 combinations.

And this little mark here is the Disappointment that always follows the third waymark.

Right here [referring to 1844 in the Millerite reform line in Figure No. 137] is the Great Disappointment that follows this third waymark.

Right here [referring to Elijah's reform line of Figure No. 137] is Elijah praying seven times, not one time, for the rain to come. He was disappointed that his prayer was not answered the first time around.

And, of course, there is going to be a disappointment that follows The Sunday Law in the United States when those Seventh-day Adventists that receive the Seal of God realize how few of their brothers and sisters stand with them in this crisis.

So, after the third waymark in the reform lines, we always see a disappointment.

So, in this first link of the chain, where this story begins in Eden, we see Christ, Adam, and Eve; followed by the disappointment of them being driven out of the Garden; and, then we see the story of Cain and Abel. This is the first link in the chain.

And I am not saying that I am including all the links. I am just trying to make a point in terms of Jeroboam here.

The next link in the chain that we can see easily is the story of Noah. We have the three (Shem, Japheth, and Ham); followed by the disappointment, the world being destroyed by a flood; and Noah is the fourth in this history.

Then, if we jump forward to the story of Moses, we see Miriam, Aaron, and Moses; the disappointment by the Red Sea; and, then Joshua is going to be the new leader in this story. Joshua goes into the Promised Land. They place the tent sanctuary in Shiloh.

And in Shiloh we see three persons (Hophni, Phinehas, and Eli); the disappointment of the ark being captured and all these men [Hophni, Phinehas, and Eli] being killed; and, then Samuel, this is the fourth waymark (the Fourth Angel's Message) and Samuel, the new leader. Here, this is the story of Shiloh,

But now the Lord is choosing Jerusalem. Shiloh is being set aside, and the temple is going to be built in Jerusalem. And we see the first three kings (Saul, David, and Solomon), and here we are in the story of Rehoboam; the first disappointment is the rending of the kingdom, the division that we are talking about into two kingdoms; Rehoboam is the fourth waymark. The Lord chose Jerusalem here, but Jerusalem is going to be destroyed because of Israel's disobedience.

The destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar takes place in this history of three kings (Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah); the disappointment is the destruction of Jerusalem and the carrying away into captivity; and, Nebuchadnezzar is the fourth waymark in that history.

When it is time to come out of Babylon and rebuild Jerusalem and the temple, we once again have three kings (Cyrus, Darius, Artaxerxes), with the three decrees; with the disappointment of Ezra of how few people came out of Babylon under the Third Decree; and, then Artaxerxes again makes a decree again for Nehemiah to come and finish the work of rebuilding the streets and walls in troublous times. This third waymark [of Artaxerxes] begins the 2300-year prophecy that comes into history in AD1798, 1842, and 1844 (the First, Second, and Third Angels' Messages), which are followed by a disappointment.

And then we are living now in the time of the Fourth Angel.

So, in these histories, we are saying that the 3:1 combination of Bible prophecy is the links in the chain. And I have just given you a brief overview of these.

Now, if you go back into them, you will see the story of a link and a chain. If you have a chain, every link is the same. Okay? And these are all the same. They are the 3:1 combination; but, they go through a metamorphosis as they proceed down through history.

The similarity here is these are Christ, Adam, and Eve, the creators of mankind, at least in one sense. Christ created us, and it is through Adam and Eve that all of us have been created; and, they produce Abel, the symbol of the Everlasting Gospel first set forth.

These in the next link, we once again have three family members [Shem, Japheth, and Ham]—these [also] are three family members [speaking of Christ, Adam, and Eve in the first 3:1 combination]. Christ is the Son of God, Adam [and Eve; and, Abel], they are family members at that level—and the disappointment leading to Noah.

In this level you can see how these leaders are the same, but they are changing. Shem, Japheth, and Ham you can say are also the creators of mankind, as these [Christ, Adam, and Eve] were, in the sense that after the Flood all mankind come down through Noah and his family.

So, there is a connection between each preceding and following link as you go down, although they are changing a little bit.

These are all family members [referring to the first three links], and these are all family members, Miriam, Aaron, and Moses. But, Joshua is not a family member; but, these are three leaders, followed by a fourth leader.

These are all leaders; they are family members (Hophni, Phinehas, and Eli), but these are bad leaders. There is a little bit of a change there.

These [Miriam and Aaron] were so-so leaders. Moses was an excellent leader, one mistake. Aaron and Miriam, there were some issues.

But, Hophni, Phinehas, and Eli, bad leaders, producing a new leader [Samuel] that is not family; just like Joshua, not family.

Now these leaders are changing to kings: beginning kings [Saul, king; David, king; Solomon, king; and Rehoboam, king]; and, ending kings [Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah]. There is a connection from that level. But, now a foreign king, Nebuchadnezzar, becomes the fourth waymark here.

Foreign kings [Cyrus, Darius, Artaxerxes]; but, here they are not simply kings, they are making decrees, pronouncements.

And the decrees, the pronouncements, when you get to this level [the 8th link in Figure No. 138], they are messages. So, there is a connection at that level.

But, these links also show us a change of dispensation.

Here [link 1], Adam and Eve in the Garden were worshipping Christ face-to-face until sin came in; and, then they were driven from the Garden. And here with Abel, they were not so much worshipping at an altar. Where are they worshipping? The gates of the Garden of Eden

And here [link 2], they are worshipping at the gates of the Garden of Eden, until the Flood; and, then Noah institutes altar worship.

And altar worship continues until Moses [link 3] institutes the tent sanctuary, which is still active here [link 4] until the ark is captured.

And here the tent sanctuary is now going to be set aside for the permanent sanctuary, which Solomon [link 5] leads out in construction.

But here with Zedekiah [link 6], the permanent sanctuary is destroyed.

And now here with these decrees [link 7], the permanent sanctuary is to be rebuilt, but it is going to be destroyed in AD70.

So, here [link 8] now, the spiritual temple is being built.

So, once again, they are the same; they are a link; they are a 3:1 combination. They have a connection with the previous link and the following link; but, each of these links is showing a change in dispensations:

- Link 1: the gates of the Garden of Eden;
- Link 2: altar;
- Link 3: tent sanctuary;
- Link 4: here, a change is taking place: between Shiloh where the tent sanctuary was and Jerusalem.
- Link 5: In this story here, the Lord was setting aside Shiloh and choosing Jerusalem.

So, in these lines we see a change in dispensation.

And at the third waymark, one of the things that we see typified is The Sunday Law. When Nebuchadnezzar comes and destroys Jerusalem (when the King of the North comes and conquers Jerusalem) in this history, this is typifying The Sunday Law at the end of the world.

Of course, we know that at the end of the world, the third waymark down here [Figure No. 137, the line of the 144,000] is The Sunday Law.

And I did not put in here Christ. Christ is a 3:1 combination to that history.

But, in any case, the third waymark, when you put that together, you see a Sunday Law.

The fourth waymark, this is the Latter Rain time period. It is showing a change in dispensation.

So, when we get to the rending of the kingdom with Rehoboam and Jeroboam, we are getting to October 22, 1844, where there is a change in dispensation from the Holy Place to the Most Holy Place; but, we are also seeing that apostate Protestantism is being identified, and Judah is being chosen over Shiloh, right here [link 5]. Judah is being chosen, and Jerusalem is being chosen. Judah is being chosen as the tribe where God is going to interact with them.

THEY SHALL KILL ME

1 Kings 12:26-33

So, let us go to 1 Kings 12:26-33.

> "[26]And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:"—

Okay. Jeroboam now has the ten tribes; they have separated from Judah and Rehoboam.

He says to himself,

> —"[27]If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah."—

What is Jeroboam afraid of? Self-preservation; he thinks the people are going to kill him.

Why did Aaron build the golden calf? They believed the people were going to kill him. Aaron had just come out of Egypt; Jeroboam had just come out of Egypt. They are going to do the same thing, and it is motivated on misguided fear.

> —"[28]Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. [29]And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan. [30]And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan. [31]And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people,"—

Why did he make priests of the lowest people? Because, the Levites refused to participate in this worship.

—"[he] made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi. [32]And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar."—

He is making a counterfeit worship, just as Aaron did. After he made the calf and the altar, then he identified a feast of the Lord the next day, where they all rose up to eat, and drink, and play.

> —"on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bethel, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. [33]So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense." 1 Kings 12:26-33 (KJV).

When Aaron made the golden calf, that calf was an image of a beast; and, the only definition of the image of the beast is the combination of church and state with the church in control of the relationship. So, in Aaron's golden calf, we see the combination of church and state at the prophetic level.

And here when Jeroboam is repeating this sin, at the end of the story of the golden calf, he outdoes Aaron in the sense that he makes two golden calves, and he places one in the city of Bethel, and one in the city of Dan.

BETHEL: the house of God.
DAN: judge

And BETHEL, BETH mean house, EL means God. BETHEL is the house of God. That is church.

And DAN means judge. This is where judgment takes place. Judgment takes place by a king. A king is a political power; this is state.

So, we see more specifically, but given a second witness to the fact, that his golden calf represents the image of the beast, the combination of church and state.

A MAN OF GOD OUT OF JUDAH

1 Kings 13:1

So, Jeroboam has ordained this counterfeit worship service.

And then in 1 Kings 13:1—and this is where we are leading to:

> "[1]And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense." 1 Kings 13:1 (KJV).

So, this prophet from Judah, who is he?

Right here [link 5, third waymark], in this history here where the kingdom is divided, this 3:1 combination—Rehoboam would be the fourth in this history—right here at this disappointment, what is taking place? Two classes have been demonstrated. In this history you have the Ten Northern Tribes which becomes Israel, and the Two Southern Tribes which is Judah. That is this history here with Rehoboam.

So, who is Israel and Judah in the history of the Millerites, right here [see Figure No. 137]?

Judah is the Millerites. They have just been chosen.

Were they not chosen? Did the Lord not just enter into covenant with Millerite Adventism in 1844?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, who is Israel, the Ten Northern Tribes? That is the False Prophet in the terminology of Elijah, but it is apostate Protestantism [in the Millerite History].

So, this prophet from Judah, who is he? This is the Millerites, and they are taking a message to apostate Protestantism. Right?

Okay. Verses 2 through 10 [of 1 Kings 13] says,

"[2]And he cried against the altar"—

This altar that Jeroboam had set up for this worship service.

And what does the altar represent? Christ. So, he has created a false Christ here.

—"[2]And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar,"—

We are going to deal with "altar, altar."

—"thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name;"—

So, right here in 1844, we see the prophecy of Josiah put into place. Right?

Do you follow the logic?

This prophecy comes right here in the story of Jeroboam and Rehoboam [link 5]. Right [after the fourth waymark] after the split [of the kingdom], the prophecy of Josiah is put in place.

—"Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David,"—

What is the House of David? Judah (Millerite Adventism; Adventism).

—"Josiah by name, and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee. [3]And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out."—

Now, the sign is what is going to confirm that this prophet from Judah is a true prophet; but, the prophecy, the future prophecy, is about Josiah coming into history and tearing down these high places, and burning men's bones upon them. So, he says, "This is the sign that proves that this prophecy is valid."

> "[4]And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him. [5]The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. [6]And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Entreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before."—

So, did the Protestants right here in this [Millerite] history, did they actually understand the Millerites were right? Yeah, they did. They watched the Lord confirm that history.

Now, they are dead and buried and their children may not understand it, but the Lord confirmed that Millerite Adventism was His covenant people in that history.

And that is what He was doing here with Jeroboam.

And the prophet, Jeroboam had just built a false Christ, a false altar, and the first crisis he is confronted with when his arm is paralyzed, he says, "Pray to your God for me, please!" He knew which God to go to if he needed help. He knew his god was the false god.

> "[7]And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward. [8]And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place: [9]For so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest. [10]So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel. 1 Kings 13:2–10 (KJV).

ALTAR, ALTAR

Isaiah 40:1–5; Zechariah 4:7; Revelation 14:8; 18:2; Zechariah 2:6; Isaiah 52:11; Isaiah 8:9; Isaiah 41:27; 65:1; 52:7; 51:9, 17; 57:14; 62:10

So, "Altar, Altar," we have mentioned this in this worship series, but we have never taken time to make this prophetic point.

When you see a word or an expression repeated two times in the Scriptures, it is a prophetic symbol of the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message. The Second and the Fourth Angels' Message contain the expression, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen." This twofold representation of "Babylon is fallen, is fallen," of the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message mark the history of the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message with this repetition. And when you see the repetition of two words or two phrases in the Scriptures, you will find that it is specifically emphasizing those two histories, the history of the Second Angel's Message in the Millerite time period and in the history of the Latter Rain.

Now, all the prophets are speaking about the history of the Latter Rain, so this is kind of a moot point. If you realize that all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world anyway, then they are all speaking about the Fourth Angel's Message. But, when you see these repetitions two times, it is an extra emphasis on the particular passage that you are looking at.

Look at Isaiah 40.

How many times would I have to show this to you before it was established?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Two or three.

Isaiah 40, beginning in verse 1, says,

"[1]Comfort ye, comfort ye"—

And in the time period of the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message, you are seeing a manifestation of the power of God, and how is this manifestation of the power of God accomplished? How does Zechariah tell us that this work is accomplished?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: ". . . Not by might . . ."

BROTHER PIPPENGER: ". . . Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts." Zechariah 4:6 (KJV).

This work of the Second and Fourth Angels' Message is accomplished by the Holy Spirit. And what is one of the titles of the Holy Spirit?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Comforter.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is the Comforter.

So, here you see,

"Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God."—

And I am saying that because that is repeated twice, it is marking the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message at a time that the Comforter is especially active.

Verse 2:

—"[2]Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned:"—

When is her iniquity pardoned? In the blotting out of sin in the Judgment of the Living during the Latter Rain.

—"for she hath received of the LORD'S hand double for all her sins.

"[3]The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. [4]Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: [5]And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it." Isaiah 40:1-5 (KJV).

When does all flesh see the glory of the Lord revealed? Revelation 18:1, an Angel comes down out of Heaven and the Earth is lightened with His glory.

And in this history, the history of the Latter Rain, the history of the sealing of the 144,000, there is going to be a preparation that takes place that is accomplished through the work of God's people that is typified by Elijah, and John the Baptist, and William Miller.

And in verse 2 here, "the voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God," this is identifying the work of Elijah, John the Baptist, and William Miller, but more specifically the work of those in Adventism beginning on 9/11/2001.

"Comfort ye, comfort ye," this double, this repetition is marking the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message. We have shown that to you once. Go to Zechariah 4:7.

> "[7]Who art thou, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it." Zechariah 4:7 (KJV).

Of course, GRACE is an interchangeable term with the Holy Spirit. I know you might not be familiar with that, but it is a fact that grace is associated with the Holy Spirit.

And who is Zerubbabel? Zerubbabel was the governor when they were building Jerusalem, and he actually in reality did the foundation stone for the building; he laid the foundation stone for the building of the temple; and, he put the capstone on the temple.

But, what does ZERUBBABEL mean? We have dealt with this already. It means offspring of Babylon, out of Babylon. ZERUBBABEL is a symbol for the message, "Come out of Babylon," which is the message of the Second and Fourth Angels' Message. So, in the name ZERUBBABEL and the work that Zerubbabel accomplished, Zerubbabel laid the Foundations of Adventism, right up here on these two Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts].

So, Zerubbabel finishes the work of Adventism in this sealing of the 144,000; and, we know that this is the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message that is being referenced also, because what is said is, "Grace, grace."

Revelation 14:8 is the point of reference for identifying a repetition or a word of phrase twice as the Second and Fourth Angels' Message. The Second Angel's Message in verse 8 of Revelation 14 says,

> "[8]And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, . . ." Revelation 14:8 (KJV).

There is your repetition.

If you go to Revelation 18:2, which is the Fourth Angel's Message time period in verse 2, it says,

> "[2]And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, . . ." Revelation 18:2 (KJV).

When you see a word or a phrase is repeated twice, it is marking the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message.

If you go back to Zechariah 2:6—now, you are correct if you are thinking that this little tangent that we are off on does not necessarily have anything directly related to Aaron and Jeroboam, this is true; but, we are putting this principle, this symbol in place here before we move forward.

Zechariah 2, verse 6, it says,

> "[6]Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD. [7]Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon." Zechariah 2:6-7 (KJV).

What is Zechariah saying here? He is saying, "Come out of Babylon!" But, he takes the word ho, and he repeats it twice. When you see a word or a phrase repeated twice, it is marking the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message.

Go to Isaiah 52:11. And we are no where even close going to study all the places where a word or a phrase is repeated twice. We are just letting you see enough that you can accept this as truth, if you wish.

Isaiah 52:11 says,

> "[11]Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD." Isaiah 52:11 (KJV).

"Depart ye, depart ye! Come out of Babylon! Be clean," the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message.

Isaiah 8:9:

> "[9]Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces." Isaiah 8:9 (KJV).

Of course, you have got to deal with the fact that in this verse, "ye shall be broken in pieces," is mentioned three times. But, "gird yourselves, gird yourselves" is mentioned twice. And this passage deals with the evil confederacy of Bible prophecy that we have dealt with repeatedly in this study, the evil confederacy being the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet, the confederacy at the end of the world that is made up of the world bankers, the globalists, the Free Masons, primarily the United Nations.

And if you drop down just so you can see where this takes place in history, if you drop down to verse 16, it says,

> "[16]Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples." Isaiah 8:16 (KJV).

This "gird yourselves, gird yourselves," this pronouncement against this evil confederacy, it takes place in the time when the 144,000 are being sealed. It takes place in the time of the Latter Rain.

This repetition of phrases and words two times represent the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message.

Isaiah 41:27. Isaiah 41, verse 27 says,

> "[27]The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings." Isaiah 41:27 (KJV).

In the time period of the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message you are to "Behold, behold" those that are bringing the Message of the Hour: the Millerites, the 144,000. "Behold, behold."

Isaiah 65:1. Isaiah 65, verse 1, says,

> "[1]I am sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name." Isaiah 65:1 (KJV).

In both the histories of the Millerites and of our history the revival is accomplished through the work of Christ. It is not human beings that lift themselves up out of a lost condition and flee from Babylon and come to the Lord on their own initiative. It is a work that is accomplished by the Lord, through beholding Him. This is why the message of Jones and Waggoner that was to present more clearly before the world an uplifted Savior that they might behold Him, and awaken and respond to the Latter Rain Message.

Okay. "Behold, behold," the Latter Rain Message.

Isaiah 52:7:

> "[7]How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!" Isaiah 52:7 (KJV).

The people that behold Christ, that are brought into revival, they are going to bring good tidings, good tidings to the world in both the Millerite History of the Second Angel's Message and in our history.

In Isaiah 51:9, it says,

> "[9]Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?" Isaiah 51:9 (KJV).

When is it that there is a wake-up call? At the Midnight Cry.

And the Midnight Cry was what? It was where the Second Angel's Message was empowered. The Second Angel's Message is, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen," and it was empowered at the Midnight Cry when the virgins awoke, "Awake, awake!" The Millerite History is repeated to the very letter. The parable of the Ten Virgins is repeated to the very letter at the Midnight Cry at the end of the world. All the virgins are going to awake.

It is not in your notes, but go to the Book of Joel, chapter 1, verse 5. It says,

> "[5]Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth." Joel 1:5 (KJV).

At the Midnight Cry in the Millerite History, at the Exeter Camp Meeting on August 12 - 17 of 1844, was there any new wine? Yes. Samuel Snow brought the new wine, identifying October 22, 1844; but, there was a class of people that would not receive that message. Who were they? They were the drunkards. The new wine had been cut off from their mouths.

When was the new wine that was cut off from their mouths? At the wake-up time.

So, at the wake-up time—and what is our wake-up time? Right now; from 9/11 onwards is our wake-up time.

What happens at the wake-up time? The message is cut off from the drunkards of Ephraim. It is cut off from their mouths, and the debate begins between those that are drinking the new wine and those that are drinking the wine of Babylon, and those that made a covenant with death and those that are making a covenant with life.

So, when we see back here in Isaiah 52, verse 7, "Awake, awake," it is a reference to the Second and Fourth Angels' Message.

Isaiah 51, verse 17:

> "[17]Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the Lord the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out." Isaiah 51:17 (KJV).

We know pretty certain in our minds when the wake-up call came for the Millerites. When was it? I just said it. When was it? At the Midnight Cry.

When was it? August 12 – 17, 1844. The Midnight Cry arrives; awake time takes place.

We are a little bit less sure that 9/11/2001 was the wake-up time here at the end of the world, as we are with August 12 – 17, 1844. But, what did this last verse say? "Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out."

Here the wake-up time is marked for us pretty clearly.

What do you do when you wake up? You stand up.

And when does God's people stand up? At the second message of Ezekiel 37, when the breath comes into the bones. And the breath that comes into the bones in Ezekiel 37, verse 9, it comes from where?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Four Winds.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Four Winds.

And what does Ellen White say those Four Winds are? They are an angry horse seeking to break loose and bring death and destruction on the whole world. The angels are holding these Four Winds. "Oh, that God's people might have the spirit poured upon them that they might stand up on their feet and live." That is Ellen White; that is Ezekiel 37:9.

So, here in verse 17, it says, "Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem." Wake-up time at the end of the world: 9/11/2001. This is where the two classes are beginning to be formed. They will be demonstrated at The Sunday Law.

Isaiah 57:14. Isaiah 57, verse 14, says,

> "[14]And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people." Isaiah 57:14 (KJV).

This is more of the work of John the Baptist, and Elijah, and William Miller, preparing the way of the Lord, making straight His paths; and, it is more of the Triumphal Entry.

"Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way." Who is that prepared the way for Christ to suddenly come to His Temple? John the Baptist.

Who was a type of Elijah? William Miller.

So, this is just describing the work that takes place in the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message; because, at the climax of the Second Angel's Message, Christ moved into the Most Holy Place.

Isaiah 62:10:

> "[10]Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people." Isaiah 62:10 (KJV).

This work of John the Baptist, Elijah, William Miller, preparing the way of the Lord, reaches its climax in the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message.

So, when the prophet comes to Jeroboam and he says, "Oh, altar, altar," he is marking that this history pointing forward to the Second Angel's Message, right here [1844 (third waymark of Millerite History), Figure No. 137], the Midnight Cry. They wake up. They are preparing for Christ to suddenly come to His Temple. "Altar, altar" is tying this story into 1844; and, therefore, you have the responsibility as a student of prophecy of determining who these two classes are. And Jeroboam (Israel), that is apostate Protestantism in this history; and Judah and Benjamin, that is Millerite Adventism. So, Millerite Adventism brings a message to apostate Protestantism after 1844.

And, what is the message after 1844 that Millerite Adventism brings to apostate Protestantism? That your altar is an abomination!

And, what is your altar? It is a symbol of worshipping the sun. It is Sunday worship. Suddenly the issue from 1844 onward, the message of this disobedient prophet, is the message of the mark of the beast and the Seal of God. Right?

And you can place that in this history.

The prophet did not have to say, "O Altar, altar." He could have just said, "O altar." You may argue, "Well, he was talking about the altar in Bethel and the altar in Dan," but God controls His Word. He put that in there for His purpose.

So, the prophecy is a prophecy of a king that would come and do a work of reformation, and his name was Josiah. What does JOSIAH mean?

> JOSIAH: Strong's Concordance H2977—From the same root as H803 and H3050; founded of Jah. H803—Feminine passive participle from an unused root meaning to found; foundation. H3050—Jah*, the sacred name.

It is from H803 and H3050, and it is the feminine participle of an unused root, meaning to found; the foundation. And, of course, Jah, is the sacred name. So, JOSIAH means the foundation of God.

So, the prophecy that Millerite Adventism gives to apostate Protestantism here is a prophecy about the Foundations. The Foundations are being marked in this history.

This [the 1843 Chart] is the Foundations.

This [the 1850 Chart] is the Foundations and the Pillars.

So, we know as students of prophecy that the story of Josiah will have something to do with the Foundations.

BREAD AND WATER

Isaiah 55:1-11; Deuteronomy 8:3; Matthew 4:4; John 6:49-51

And the king said—I do not know why the king said, just out of fear, I guess—Jeroboam says, "I'll give you a reward. I'll give you a reward for just destroying my brand new altar and paralyzing my arm. I'll give you the reward because the Lord allowed my arm to be healed."

And he [the prophet] says, "I won't take your reward. I have been told not to eat your bread and water."

Isaiah 55, verses 1 through 11. We are almost done here.

> "[1]Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. [2]Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. [3]Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David."—

He does not want to eat Jeroboam's bread and water, because he is going to eat God's bread and water.

And why is he going to do that? Because, right here in 1844 [See Figure No. 137] they entered into covenant with God. You eat His bread and water; you enter into an everlasting covenant.

Verse 4:

> —"[4]Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. [5]Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee."—

In this history, Elijah was glorified right here [See Figure No. 137, the fire coming down from Heaven before the third waymark].

He [the Lord] has glorified Millerite Adventism [See Figure No. 137, before the third waymark].

And He called a nation that knoweth not. This is a bigger subject than sometimes we realize; but, that is what is happening now, is it not? Adventism is watching while the Lord is selecting a group of people that are using "stammering lips and another tongue" (Isaiah 28:11, KJV) to present the message to His people.

He is choosing a nation that had not been known—to do a number of things, but we are not dealing with that.

> —"[6]Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: [7]Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

"[8]For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. [9]For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. [10]For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: [11]So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Isaiah 55:1-11 (KJV).

So, in any case, the bread and water is the message of the Lord. That is what this disobedient prophet was told to eat, not to eat the bread and water (the doctrines) of apostate Protestantism.

Deuteronomy 8:3.

I did not read [into the record] all that passage of Isaiah 55:1-11 [in your notes] because of time, if you are wondering.

Deuteronomy 8, verse 3:

"[3]And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live." Deuteronomy 8:3 (KJV).

So, the bread that he was going to eat (the disobedient prophet) was every Word that proceeded from the mouth of God. And what symbolizes that Word? The manna that comes down from Heaven, the manna that Jesus referred to when He told the Jews that they needed to drink His blood and eat His flesh, and they turned away from Him.

It is not simply His Word. What is it? What is it?—I did not do that on purpose. MANNA means what is it?

It is not simply His Word: What is it? [manna], it is His prophetic Word. The bread and water that the disobedient prophet was going to feed upon was God's prophetic Word. Right?

Of course, I do not know any of His Words that are not prophetic. All of His Words contain the same creative power that He used to create the worlds; so, every Word that God speaks has that creative energy in it; and, Isaiah tells us that His Word will not return to Him void; it is going to accomplish the purpose that He set it forth for. So, every Word has a purpose; every purpose will be accomplished. When the creative power accomplishes the purpose for every Word in the Bible, it will be a fulfillment of prophecy. Every Word in the Bible is prophetic.

But, you can study the Bible incorrectly, where you isolate it out as the Greek isolates things out, and isolate the Psalms (the songs), the doctrines, the law; but, we are not of such mindset.

Matthew 4:4:

"[4]But he answered and said, It is written, MAN SHALL NOT LIVE BY BREAD ALONE, BUT BY EVERY WORD THAT PROCEEDETH OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD." Matthew 4:4 (KJV).

John 6:49-51.

And John 6 we have just referenced with the manna, and Jesus telling them they must—let us go to John 6—eat His flesh and drink His blood. John 6:49-51 says,

> "[49]Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. [50]This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. [51]I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world." John 6:49-51 (KJV).

All right. We are at the end of this thought.

THE WAY THOU CAMEST

So, what are we saying? We are saying that at the beginning of the story of the golden calf is Aaron, and that that story prefigures the end of the story of the golden calves with Jeroboam.

And then in the history of Jeroboam and Rehoboam, when the kingdom is being divided, we are placed here in 1844 and at The Sunday Law, where God's people are going to be divided into two classes. And when this happened in the story of Jeroboam, Millerite Adventism brings a message, a rebuke of apostate Protestantism, a rebuke for their rejection of the First Angel's Message, their unwillingness to follow Christ by faith into the Most Holy Place and receive the advancing light of the Third Angel: the Sanctuary, the Sabbath.

And the golden calves of Jeroboam represents this rebellion, this counterfeit worship that Millerite Adventism stands opposed to, brings this message against.

And the prophet expresses that he has been specifically told by the Lord that he is not to drink the break and water (the doctrine, the teachings) of apostate Protestantism, nor is he to go back the way that he came.

How did Millerite Adventism get to here [See Figure No. 137, at the third waymark of 1844] to where it is entering into covenant with Christ, where it is Elijah, it is the True Prophet in contrast with the False Prophet, and in contrast with the prophets of Baal, in contrast with the Northern Kingdom of Israel? How did it get there?

It came through these three days, these three histories. You are not to go back through that history, not to go back that way. If you were to go back that way, here [1844] Millerite Adventism becomes God's covenant people. Before here [tracing the reform line back to 1798] what were they? They were Protestants. They had come out of Protestantism, and they are not to go back to Protestantism; because, Protestantism has been exposed now as apostate Protestantism. They were not to go back that way.

Their way [the way of Millerite Adventism] was different. What was their way? Which way were they to go?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To the Most Holy Place.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To the Most Holy Place, that is true; but, they were to go on a path where Jesus was in front of them, and the Midnight Cry was behind them, and this path was high and lifted up. It is leaving the world. They were not to go back to apostate Protestantism.

So, tomorrow we will begin the story of the disobedient prophet and how that illustrates Adventism; and, from there we will go into the fulfillment of the prophecy of Josiah.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we ask that you would forgive us as a people for so quickly returning to apostate Protestantism. We seek to employ their techniques of church evangelism, of church worship style. We use their techniques for studying your Word, even though the Bible has been very clear that that bread, that water is corrupted. It is polluted. Please forgive us for this. Place a burden upon God's people to seek the Manna that comes from Heaven. We thank you for bringing us this far into this worship series. We ask for your continued blessing upon what we are studying and upon the work we are attempting with the LiveStreaming and the DVDs. And we set before you this day, each of us have our own individual tasks. We ask that you keep us safe and help us to do what we do for your glory and honor. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #69

PART SEVEN: JOSIAH

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's rest. We ask now, as we take up our study of your Word this morning, that you would allow us the presence of your Holy Spirit to direct our thoughts and our understanding. We ask that you would continue to open our understanding to your Word by pouring your Latter Rain out upon us, and make us fit vessels to receive that Rain. We ask that you please overrule my humanity, that what is spoken here this morning would be edifying to your people and would glorify and honor you. We thank you for another day of life that we might serve you; and, we would ask that you speak to us here at the beginning of this day. In Jesus's name, amen.

FIRST TEN VERSES

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are dealing with Aaron and the golden calf, prefiguring Jeroboam and the two golden calves.

And in 1 Kings 13, where Jeroboam is initiating the worship of these two golden calves, a prophet comes out of Judah; and, we are now going to consider this disobedient prophet. We are going to just start in verse 1. It is in your notes of 1 King 13. We will go down through it and then discuss some of the symbolism in this chapter.

And we went through this yesterday, but I am going to read through it again just to put it in our memory.

Beginning at verse 1, it says

> "[1]And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Bethel:"—

Judah now is representing the Two Southern Tribes that is coming to Bethel, the city which means the House of God, which is representing the Ten Northern Tribes of Israel. But, in the context of Millerite History, this is Millerite Adventism (Judah). And apostate Protestantism [Israel] at this point, after 1844, the religious aspect of the United States, has already rejected the message; so, they have already begun to fulfill their role as the False Prophet.

> —"[1]And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense."—

We have looked into the past as we were looking at 1863, at first leaders. We looked at Aaron, Jeroboam, Rehoboam, Saul, and Peter to see that first leaders are always tested in order to set up the understanding of how James White failed the test in 1863.

And what is Jeroboam doing here that one of the other first leaders does in this act? "Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense," what is this? That is what Saul did, was it not? Saul determined he could not wait for the prophet Samuel to do the offering; so, as the state (as the political leader) he [Saul] took it upon himself to enter into the role of the Priests, a combination of church and state, an unholy combination.

—"[2]and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar,"—

Thus, marking this history in the Second and the Fourth Angels' Message by the repetition of the word altar.

—"O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

"[3]And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out."—

What does an altar represent?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ, or a false Christ. And this sign is going to demonstrate the true Christ in opposition to the false Christ; because, this altar is going to come under the authority of the Word of God and it is going to be destroyed. This is a false Christ. It is a sign that is making the distinction between the true Christ and the false Christ.

And where do we see this distinction made in a parallel history? The primary one that we emphasize is the story of Elijah, that there was a distinction made between the True Prophet and the False Prophets (the True Prophet, Elijah; and, the False Prophets, the prophets of Baal).

And how was that accomplished? Through a sign: fire coming down out of Heaven.

So, this sign here is also going to make the distinction between the True and False Prophets.

—"[3]And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out."

"[4]And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him."—

And I looked up yesterday this word dried up; because, in my mind I have been visualizing his hand being paralyzed, but that is not what it means. To be dried up, it means he just loses all ability to control it.

—"[5]The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD."—

Now we see which altar is the true altar.

—"[6]And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Entreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again."—

And king Jeroboam sees who the true God is, because he asked for the true God to restore his hand, just as Ahab, no doubt, understood who the true God was when he saw he fire come down out of Heaven.

> —"And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.
> "[7]And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward. [8]And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house,"—

What would half his house be? It would be five kingdoms—right?—out of ten.

> —"I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place: [9]For so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest."—

The bread and water is the message—right?—the Word of God, the doctrine.

> —"[10]So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel." 1 Kings 13:1-10 (KJV).

God's prophet here from Judah, he came to this experience historically in the testing process that tested the Protestant world. 1798 to 1844 was the Everlasting Gospel that was being accomplished upon the Protestants. At the end of that process, the Millerites are chosen to enter into covenant with the Lord.

But, what brings this confrontation between the prophet from Judah and Bethel is the history of 1798 to 1844. This is the way the Millerites came. They came out of Protestantism; and, this pronouncement not to go by the way that he came to Bethel is saying, "Don't go back to Protestantism."

Okay. That is where we stopped yesterday.

VERSES ELEVEN THROUGH THIRTY-FOUR

Now we are going to take it up in verse 11 [of 1 Kings 13].

The prophet from Judah has given his prophecy of Josiah. He set forth a sign to prove that it is a legitimate prophecy, and he is going to go back home now.

> "[11]Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel;"—

Which means he is a prophet from the Ten Tribes, from Israel (an on old prophet from Protestantism).

> —"and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father. [12]And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah. [13]And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon, [14]And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah?"—

So, for whatever reason, the prophet from Judah, he does not go immediately home. He stops under an oak. If you are under an oak, what is covering you?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Leaves?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The shade, the shade. Right? An oak tree is going to produce a shade.

Okay. He is sitting in the shade; maybe it was hot.

—"and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest form Judah? And he said, I am. [15]Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread. [16]And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place: [17]For it was said to me by the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest."—

He is not supposed to eat any bread or water in Israel. The Millerites are not supposed to drink any bread or water in apostate Protestantism. They are not supposed to take their [apostate Protestantism's] doctrines unto themselves.

And, we have read in this worship series from Early Writings, pages 259 – 260, when the Protestants fully rejected the testing process of 1798 to 1844, they continued to direct their prayers to the Holy Place; and, Satan, pleased with this deception, began to answer those prayers.

So, after 1844 who is leading apostate Protestantism in the United States?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Satan.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan.

What in the world would Adventism want to go back and take any kind of direction from a body of people that are being led by Satan?

Adventism was told this very thing, "Satan is answering their prayers. Don't go back and eat their bread or drink their waters. Don't walk in their ways." Of course, we did; through the years we went back and ate their bread and drank their water.

—"[18]He"—[THE FALSE PROPHET]—"said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him."—

So, he is a prophet, but he is a lying prophet.

So, what is he? He is the False Prophet. Apostate Protestantism has begun to fulfill its role as the False Prophet.

This is the amazing part:

—"[10]So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

"[20]And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:"—[CAME TO THE FALSE

PROPHET]—"[21]And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee, [22]But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

"[23]And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back. [24]And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase. [25]And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

"[26]And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him. [27]And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him. [28]And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass."—

But, he was still there; so, this is supernatural.

You know, there are some lions that go crazy, or something goes wrong with them, where they become maneaters. They just go out and kill people to kill them; but, that is the exception to the rule. A lion is going to kill something that it is going to eat.

But, an ass is going to run away from a lion, and a lion is probably going to deal with the ass at the same time he is dealing with the man. So, this is totally supernatural; this is a judgment from the Lord.

—"[29]And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him. [30]And he laid his carcase in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother!"—

When they were mourning over him, what were they saying about him?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Woe.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Woe. Alas is woe, "[Woe], my brother!"

—"[31]And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones: [32]For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass."—

"[33]After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places. [34]And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth." 1 Kings 13:11-34 (KJV).

Now, Jeroboam is the first king of the Northern Kingdom of Israel. How many of those following kings of Israel were good kings?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: None.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: None. They were all wicked. And when the Bible comments on their wickedness, it is always traced back to the sins of Jeroboam. It is the sins of Jeroboam that bring the curse upon the Northern Kingdom.

And in this passage, what is the sin of Jeroboam?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He made them Priests.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He made Priests of the lowest of people.

And why did he have to do that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various simultaneous responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because the Levites refused to enter into it, just like the Levites refused to enter into worship of Aaron's golden calf. Okay? So, there is something about unsanctified ministers that brings about a curse.

THE FALSE PROPHET FROM BETHEL

Okay. The False Prophet; let us look at the False Prophet.

In verse 18 [of 1 Kings 13], it says,

"[18]He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him." 1 Kings 13:18 (KJV).

Is a prophet going to lie?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This one was, because he was a false prophet.

Galatians 1:8:

"[8]But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." Galatians 1:8 (KJV).

What angel, if it was an angel (if he was not making that up; that was not part of the lie), what kind of angel was it that told him this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It was a fallen angel.

Proverbs 14:5 says,

"[5]A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies." Proverbs 14:5 (KJV).

So, this prophet is a false witness. He is the False Prophet of Bible prophecy (apostate Protestantism).

BE YE SEPARATE

And the True Prophet out of Judah was not to be connected with the False Prophet. He was not to go back the way that he came. He came out of Protestantism. He came through the history that brings the Protestant Reformation to its climax, and he was not to return to that experience.

2 Corinthians 6:17, and 18, says,

> "[17]Wherefore come out from among them,"—

This is the Millerite story.

> —"and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, [18]And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty." 2 Corinthians 6:17-18 (KJV).

The prophet was to be separate from the worship of Jeroboam.

Revelation 14:8:

> "[8]And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication." Revelation 14:8 (KJV).

When does the fall of Babylon begin? In June of 1842 the Protestant churches began to close their doors; and, by the Summer of 1844, the Millerites were proclaiming the message, "Come out of Babylon!" The Millerites knew that they were not to drink the wine of Babylon.

So, this story of Jeroboam and the disobedient prophet, it is a story of Millerite Adventism in contrast with the False Prophet of apostate Protestantism.

So, my contention here is that had the disobedient prophet determined he was going home and he was not going to stop till he got home, that he [the False Prophet] would not have caught up with him. He [the disobedient prophet] had a head start. The only reason the False Prophet caught up with him is because he stopped by the tree.

SHADOW

Psalm 36:7; 91:1; Isaiah 4; 30:13

Okay. Psalm 36, verse 7, says,

> "[7]How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings." Psalm 36:7 (KJV).

Psalm 91:1:

> "[1]He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." Psalm 91:1 (KJV).

So, God's people are going to be under the shadow of God's wings, and the shadow of God's wings, His wings are His secret place. Where is the secret place that God's people dwell under God's shadow at?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Most Holy Place.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Most Holy Place, the Heavenly Sanctuary.

Okay. So, Isaiah 4 deals with this. Isaiah 4, we can read verse 1, but it is kind of a different piece of information. So, let us start with verse 2 of Isaiah 4.

> "[2]In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel. [3]And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem: [4]When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning."—

"In that day," verse 2, what day is that? It is the Judgment of the Living. Here is where He is purging the sins of God's people. If you are still found written in the Book of Life, then you are those that have escaped of Israel and you are part of the beautiful and glorious branch of the Lord, and He will have washed away your filth and purged your blood with the spirit of judgment, and the spirit of burning.

What is the spirit of judgment and burning? That is Investigative Judgment. It is the Judgment of the Living, but it also connects with Malachi, chapter 3. He is sitting as the refiner and purifier of silver and gold.

For what purpose? To purify the sons of Levi, those that stand faithful during Aaron's and Jeroboam's golden calves Sunday Law test.

Verse 5:

> —"[5]And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence. [6]And there shall be a tabernacle"—

What is a tabernacle?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A tent.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A tent, and it is a sanctuary, a tent sanctuary.

> —"[6]And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day time from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain." Isaiah 4: 2-6 (KJV).

The Most Holy Place is where God's people dwell under the shadow of the Most High, meaning they are under His influence.

But, there are two classes in the world. Go to Isaiah 30, verses 1 through 3.

"[1]Woe to the rebellious children,"—

What rebellious children are we speaking about here?

Well, if you go back to chapter 28, verse 1, it says, "Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, . . ." Isaiah 28:1 (KJV).

And then in verse 14 it says, "Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem." Isaiah 28:14 (KJV). So, there is a Woe pronounced upon the leadership of Jerusalem (in Testimonies, volume 5*,* page 211, Jerusalem is the Seventh-day Adventist Church). There is a Woe pronounced upon the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, because of why?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Because they have been drinking.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because they have been overcome with wine.

What have they done? They have eaten the bread and drank the water of the False Prophet of Bethel.

So, "Woe to the crown of pride" in verse 1 of chapter 28.

The same vision in chapter 29: it says, "Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt!" This is a Woe upon Jerusalem, upon Jerusalem's leadership.

So, when we get to chapter 30, verse 1, it is still the same vision. It says, "Woe." So, this is about the Woe that is pronounced upon those people that go back to Bethel and eat that bread and water.

> —"[1]Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me: and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin: [2]That walk to go down into Egypt,"—

That is where Jeroboam and Aaron came from, is Egypt. These people are returning to Egypt.

> —"and have not asked at my mouth; to strength themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! [3]Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion." Isaiah 30:1-3 (KJV).

So, the shadow is what you trust in. You can trust in Christ, the High Priest in the Most Holy Place and be under His shadow; or, you can trust in the dragon, in Egypt, and be under his influence. It is about influence, the shadow; His influence.

Notice your notes, Pamphlets, page 140:

> "Shall the education given in our schools be after God's order, or after the wisdom of this world,"—

How do we symbolize the world more often than not in God's Word? Well, in verses 42 and 43 of Daniel 11, it is Egypt.

—"Shall the education given in our schools be after God's order, or after the [the shadow of Egypt] the wisdom of this world, which the Lord pronounces foolishness? Shall the hearts of students become estranged from God by eating of the tree of knowledge,"—

Ah, the tree of knowledge is where you get the wisdom of the world. The tree of knowledge is where you come under the influence of Egypt.

—"become estranged from God by eating of the tree of knowledge, which hardens the heart into disobedience, and ministers to vanity and pride? Shall not the education given in our schools be of that character which will give a more decided knowledge of God's Word, and which will bring the soul into a vital connection with God, keeping God before the mind's eye, and arousing every better feeling in the soul? This is the kind of education which is as enduring as eternity." Pamphlets, 140.

What I am suggesting is that when the disobedient prophet went home, he made a mistake and he sat down under this oak tree, under that shadow, under the influence of that oak tree, and that oak tree is a symbol of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil.

And what is one of the things that the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil represents?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Mystery of Iniquity.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Mystery of Iniquity. It is the mingling of the sacred with the common.

But, in any case, a tree is understood to be knowledge and education.

Fundamentals of Christian Education, page 437, says,

"From God, the fountain of wisdom, proceeds all the knowledge that is of value to man, all that the intellect can grasp or retain. The fruit of the tree representing good and evil is not to be eagerly plucked, because it is recommended by one who was once a bright angel in glory. He has said that if men eat thereof, they shall know good and evil. But let it alone. The true knowledge comes not from infidels or wicked men. The word of God is light and truth. The true light shines from Jesus Christ, who 'lighteth every man that cometh into the world.' From the Holy Spirit proceeds divine knowledge. He knows what humanity needs to promote peace, happiness, and restfulness here in this world, and secure eternal rest in the kingdom of God." Fundamentals of Christian Education, 437.

What I am suggesting here is that the disobedient prophet stopped on his way back to Judah and came under the influence of this tree, and this tree is a symbol of education. And a tree can have good fruit or bad fruit, but in this story it was a bad idea for this disobedient prophet to stop there. If he had kept going, he would have never got caught. So, for the disobedient prophet, this tree brought forth bad fruit. It is a bad tree. And what I am saying is in connection with the Mystery of Iniquity, the mingling of the common and the sacred, which the disobedient prophet did when he sat down to eat with the False Prophet of Bethel, that the influence of the education represented by that tree is what leads him to his death, ultimately.

Matthew 7:13-27. Go to Matthew 7, and we will begin with verse 13, say something about verse 13 and then read on.

> "[13]Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:"—

Now, when some people read this story of the disobedient prophet, the disobedient prophet is found in the way, his carcase is found in the way, they are thinking, "Well, this is the Old Path." But, he is in the wrong place. He was not on the Old Paths. That is where he was supposed to be walking.

So, what I am saying is "the way" where he is found is the broad way which leadeth to destruction. Okay?

"Enter ye in at the strait gate," what is a strait gate?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The narrow path.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The narrow path. It is being obedient to God's Word.

Was the disobedient prophet obedient to God's Word?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: [Shakes his head in agreement of "No."]

So, he was taking the broad way home, and it led him to destruction.

Verse 14:

> —"[14]Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.
>
> "[15]Beware of"—who?

Beware of that old prophet from Bethel.

> —"[15]Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing,"—

"I'm a prophet, too. An angel spoke to me."

> —"[15]Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. [16]Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?"—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"[17]Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit: but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit."—

What happened because this disobedient prophet came under the influence of the oak tree when he sat underneath it was bad. This tree brought forth bad fruit. Okay?

Verse 18:

—"[18]A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. [19]Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. [20]Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

"[21]Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. [22]Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord,"—

In what day? In the time of the Latter Rain; in the judgment time; the Fourth Angel's Message.

—"Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works? [23]And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

"[24]Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:"—

Did the disobedient prophet do the Lord's saying? No.

He was not a wise man. What was he?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He was foolish.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He was a foolish virgin.

—"[25]And the rain descended,"—

When are the foolish and the wise manifested?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No.

"And the rain descended." When the Rain begins to descend, the wise and the foolish are manifested.

When does the Rain begin to descend? Eleven years ago yesterday, on September 11, 2001. Of course, Islam did some nasty work again last night to escalate the Third Woe, if you have not been on the internet yet. They attacked embassies in Egypt and Libya, and killed ambassadors for the United States in Libya, and moved up the tension that right now Barrack Obama is trying to throw some water on the gas; because, the Prime Minister of Israel said he has tried to contact Barrack Obama to talk to him about Iran, and Barrack Obama is giving him the cold shoulder. So, now Barrack Obama is saying, "This isn't so. This isn't the true story," as of yesterday.

And, what is going on, for anyone that wishes to see, is Israel is frustrated that the United States is not willing to stand with them as they get ready to attack Iran.

So, for those of you that think that what we teach about the Third Woe beginning on 9/11/2001, Sister White says that prophecy—by the fulfillment of these prophecies, they will be confirmed. The Lord is now confirming, once again, with double measure, what we are teaching about the ass of Islam.

But, that is not what—where were we? Verse 25:

—"[25]And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. [26]And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a > foolish man, which built his house upon the sand. [27]And the rain descended, and the floods came,"—

"The rain descended." When did the Rain begin to descend?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 9/11.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 9/11.

What is "the flood"? Based upon Daniel 11, verse 40, what is the flood; because, the King of the North comes as an overflowing flood? It is the Euphrates overflowing. It is the banks. It is this mighty sweeping away as it overflows and passes over in verse 40. What is that? What is "the floods"?

Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The King of the North.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What is the flood?

The King of the North brings the flood, but when does the flood arrive?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At The Sunday Law.

The Rains came at 9/11: the Sunday Law, the flood.

"And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew,"—

What are the winds? The Four Winds of Islam are restrained on 9/11, but they are slipping through the Angels' fingers.

All these things are in this verse: 9/11, The Sunday Law; and, of course, at The Sunday Law the United States has fully disconnected itself from righteousness, and the winds are only going to escalate and national apostasy is followed by national ruin.

> —"And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it." Matthew 7:13-27 (KJV).

So, what am I saying? I am saying you determine a tree by its fruit, and the fruit of this tree, this oak tree that the disobedient prophet sat under, was bad fruit. This was a bad tree.

And a tree symbolizes knowledge. And the tree of knowledge, when it represents worldly education, is a bad tree.

And the first tree that we know about connected with knowledge is the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, this mingling of the sacred with the common, this Mystery of Iniquity.

It was at this tree where the Mystery of Iniquity was accomplished upon Adventism as Adventism was going home. And as they sat down under this tree in the 1930s and accepted the Catholic-Protestant technique of Biblical hermeneutics, they accepted apostate Protestantism's theology that is called the grammatical historical method, what they were doing is agreeing to go back to Bethel and sit down and eat the bread and the water of apostate Protestantism; and, for this, Adventism would die.

Now, where did Adventism come to its demise? It came to its demise with two animals in the scenario: a lion and an ass.

And in this worship series, we have purposely taken a great deal of time to say that all the Reform Movements parallel one another; but, the classic Reform Movement that teaches us the waymarks and what Reform Movements are is the Reform Movement of the Millerites from 1798 to 1844; and, this history is the history of the First and Second Angels' Messages, the Second Angel's Message arriving in 1842, though it is not proclaimed until the Summer of 1844. It was in June of 1842 that the Protestants (the old prophet of Bethel) began to close the doors of its churches against the Millerite message. And the Third Angel's Message arrived on October 22, 1844. Therefore, this history is of the history of First and Second Angels' Messages. It is not the history of the Third. The Third [Angel's Message] arrives here [on October 22, 1844].

So, we have spent a great deal of time identifying that this First Message is the Elijah Message, that is followed by the Elisha Message: this is John the Baptist, followed by Christ. Right? We have studied this in this worship series.

This [Fist Angel's Message (1AM in Figure No. 139)] is Ezekiel 37 that causes a shaking and a noise; but, not until this Second Message arrives [Second Angel's Message (2AM)] does the breath come into the dead dry bones.

This [First Angel's Message, (1AM)] is the message of the King of the North for us at the end of the world; and, this is the message [2AM] of the children of the East for us at the end of the world (this is Daniel 11, verse 44).

Or, in the story of the disobedient prophet, this is the story of the lion [1AM], and the ass [2AM].

THE LION

And we see in your notes, Daniel 7:3-4. It says,

> "[3]And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. [4]The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it." Daniel 7:3-4 (KJV).

Who is the first kingdom there in Daniel 7 that is like a Lion?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Babylon.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Babylon, the King of the North.

THE ASS

And in Genesis 16:11-12, speaking of Ishmael and Hagar, it says,

> "[11]And the angel of the LORD said unto her,"—[UNTO HAGAR]— Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael; because the LORD hath heard thy affliction. [12]And he will be a wild man;"—

And this word wild is, more often than not, translated as its meaning dictates as the wild Arabian ass.

> ASS: H6501—(Jeremiah 2:24) from 6500; 1) wild ass. Strong's Concordance.
> "[24]A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her." Jeremiah 2:24 (KJV).
> —"his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren. Genesis 16:11-12 (KJV).

Islam, at the end of the world, the descendants of Ishmael, is going to be against every man in the world, and he is going to dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

And, there is a quote where Sister White says "the spirit of Ishmael is the spirit of discord." (That is a paraphrase.) But, if you removed everyone from Planet Earth except those followers of Mohammad (the Islamists, the Mahometans as the Pioneers called them), if everyone but them were on Planet Earth, they would continue to fight with one another until there was just one man standing because that is the spirit of Ishmael, and that spirit is said to be in the presence of all his brethren. So, this is just foolish political correctness that teaches that it is a minority of Islam that is radical and is going to push this agenda of the Koran. The Bible teaches that the spirit of Ishmael is in all its brethren.

But, if you were to read the Koran very carefully, the instruction from Mohammad is, is when you are in a society where you are in such a minority that you have no way to promote Mohammad and the Koran, is that you are just to pretend that you are a peace loving happy camper until you reach the [Islamic] population point to where you can become militant. And that is not political correctness; that is the Inspired Word of God commenting on the reality of the Koran.

So, what we are saying here is this "Ass" is Islam.

And, we are saying that when the disobedient prophet comes to his end, the disobedient prophet, who is he? Who is the disobedient prophet in this story?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Adventism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is Adventism. They have a message of rebuke for apostate Protestantism, "Come out of Babylon. You are carrying the doctrines of Rome. You are keeping Sunday sacred when there is not a word in the Bible to support you in this position." This was the message that was given to Adventism, not just for apostate Protestantism but for the whole world. Is this not the Third Angel's Message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: How can you tell people the Third Angel's Message, about the mark of the beast, if you do not know what the mark is or who the beast is? You have a message to carry to them.

So, he comes back with this message and is told to never drink their doctrines, never accept their doctrines, drink their water, eat their bread; and, he heads home and he sits down under the tree of worldly education and accepts the technique of Biblical interpretation that is promoted in Catholicism and apostate Protestantism. And from that influence of that tree, he goes back and he begins to imbibe of these fallen doctrines of Babylon. And, as he heads home, he ends up being killed by a LION as he is riding on an ASS, and the Lion and the Ass just stand there in order to give a symbolic picture of Adventism to anyone that is willing to see.

And what does this symbolic picture say? It says the two messages [referring to the First and Second Angels' Messages] that Seventh-day Adventists will be incapable of receiving because they sat down under the educational tree of apostate Protestantism is Daniel 11:40-45 [referring to the LION in Figure No. 139], and Islam of 9/11 [referring to the ASS in Figure No. 139]. That is why they die. They cannot understand these two messages.

And their death, those in Adventism that die, will die with the Lion and the Ass standing there with them, to give witness to the two messages that they rejected. And why did they reject them? Because, they sat down under the shadow of that tree of knowledge and returned back to Bethel to eat and drink with the False Prophet.

THE WAY

Matthew 7:13. Verse 13 of Matthew 7 says,

> "[13]Emter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: . . ." Matthew 7:13 (KJV).

So, the disobedient prophet, it is fairly easy to see if you are using the proof-text method of Biblical study, that this is an illustration of Adventism and it is giving a message of where Adventism fails with the message of the last six verses of Daniel 11 [the Lion], and the message of the Third Woe [the Ass]. And, it tells us that what prepares us to reject those messages is the historical grammatical emphasis that is placed upon the interpretation of the Bible that comes out of Babylon, out of Catholicism and apostate Protestantism.

So, with understanding that the disobedient prophet is a symbol of Adventism, we are now prepared to move to the prophecy of the disobedient profit that he left with Jeroboam; that being, that the Lord was going to raise up Josiah by name; and, that is where we will go tomorrow.

A thing popped into my mind, and I did not know how to weave it into this. There is probably a way to weave it into this study, but I am going to say it anyway, even if it seems how of place.

Someone was sharing with me here recently about the ASI (Adventist-laymen's Services and Industries) discussion over Spiritual Formations and that Ted Wilson was there and he was opposed to Spiritual Formations. And they talked about here recently on 3ABN, and Ted Wilson was—

Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They had a panel there.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, and they had a panel and Ted Wilson was there, and he spoke about Spiritual Formations and was opposed to it. In the world, what they call that is lip service. If you are going to deal with Spiritual Formations, deal with it, deal with it. Say to anyone that continues to practice this technique and is under the appointment of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, "Here is your walking papers." Deal with it!

As we have said here before, if you were truly going to do the work of a Josiah, you have many things to clean up in the camp.

And it is nice that the General Conference president is out there putting his word against the teachings of the Jesuits, Spiritual Formations. But, for me personally, and this is just a personal thing for me, if he wants to lead out in a revival and reformation, the first thing that he should do, in my opinion, is he needs to come out and reject publicly the stated position of his father when his father was the General Conference president. Under oath in a trial, his father said, "The teaching that the Pope of Rome is the antichrist of Bible prophecy has been assigned to the historical trash heap."

But, Sister White says, "All those that become confused on the meaning of antichrist will ultimately end up on the side of antichrist." Ted Wilson's father has a legal statement where he said the Pope of Rome is not the antichrist. If Ted Wilson wants to begin the work of Josiah, he needs to come out and say, "My father was wrong. The Pope of Rome is the antichrist." And we need to understand this because we cannot warn people about the mark of the beast unless we know for certain who the beast is, and the beast is the Pope of Rome, the antichrist of Bible prophecy.

And the first problem I think Ted Wilson should take down in Adventism is his father's legal position that the Pope of Rome is not the antichrist. When he does that, then I think maybe we can see the beginnings of a Josiah. It is time to clean up the camp. The Sunday Law is approaching. The Third Woe is escalating. We need a Josiah now. We do not need a policy man.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we know that all the prophecies, all the stories in the Old Testament and the New Testament are illustrating the end of the world, and that in the curse of Leviticus 26, the 2520-year curse that was pronounced upon Israel for breaking the statutes of chapter 25, and in that curse you said that if we recognize that we were in captivity and we would confess our sins and the sins of our fathers, among other things, that you would gather us. Father, our fathers, our spiritual fathers, have sat down under the tree of education and returned to apostate Protestantism. We confess this sin and ask forgiveness. We ask that your Holy Spirit would convict us of the seriousness of this, that we might be awakened and not be among that large class of Seventh-day Adventists that are going to die on the broad way leading to destruction, and the symbol of their death will be the rejection of the last six verses of Daniel 11 and the Third Woe, their rejection of the warning of the Lion and the Ass. We pray that you would accomplish a revival among your people as represented by Josiah, though we understand that you have told us that this apostasy will wax greater and greater until the Second Coming. We still know that you are about to lift up an ensign, and we want to be part of that number. We ask you to accomplish that for us. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #70

PART SEVEN: JOSIAH

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we start our day with this morning manna, we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit that we might understand it aright, that you would take control of my mental process that I can convey the message that you have for us and not a message corrupted with human thoughts and ideas. Please prepare our hearts and minds to hear your voice and understand it in this message. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. We ask that you would accomplish that for us now, in agreement with Zechariah 10, verse 1. And we thank you for another day of life, a good night's rest, and ask for a continued blessing now as we partake of your Word. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are looking at many, many things; but, we are looking at the prophecy of Josiah as set forth to Jeroboam from the prophet from Judah that ultimately is killed by the Lion while riding upon the Ass.

And in this worship series, we have looked at several Biblical stories that illustrate the end of the world; and, we are going to throw another one into the story of Josiah to make one specific point concerning the end of the world being the Latter Rain. We want to understand that all of these prophecies are illustrating the end of the world, but more specifically they are illustrating the time period of the Latter Rain at the end of the world. And if we have that in place, then when we go into the story of Josiah and we understand that it is the Latter Rain, and we see the Book of Moses discovered, we will have more ability to identify which specific book of Moses, which curse of Moses is represented in the story of Josiah; because, it would have to be a curse of Moses that is also identified in other illustrations of the Latter Rain. As an example, Jeremiah 6:16, "Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths; . . . and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls," the rest being the Latter Rain; the walking in the old paths being the way to receive the Latter Rain.

So, when we identify the Old Paths as the Foundational Truths as represented on this [1843] Chart, we are narrowing down the options to choose from in terms of the curse of Moses. I mean, what curse of Moses is part of the testimony of the Old Paths and the Latter Rain time period? It has to be part of the curse that can be expressed in these truths [of the 1843 Chart]. That, of course, is the 2520.

Although we have proven it over and over, I want to put some additional evidence in that this is the Latter Rain time period.

In Selected Messages, book 3, beginning at page 338, certainly we have read this before in this worship series. It says,

> "Each of the ancient prophets spoke less for their own time than for ours, so that their prophesying is in force for us. 'Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.' 1 Corinthians 10:11. 'Not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.' 1 Peter 1:12. . . .

"The Bible has accumulated and bound up together its treasures for this last generation."—

What is the last generation?

—"All the great events and solemn transactions of Old Testament history have been, and are, repeating themselves in the church in these last days."—

What are the great and solemn events that are the subject of prophecy? It is the events connected with the close of probation.

What is the last generation? Where is the last generation marked?

How do you know you are in the last generation? That is Luke 21, "Verily I say unto to, This generation shall not pass, till all be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away." Luke 21:32-33 (KJV).

Luke 21 says the generation that sees the budding trees of Spring is the last generation.

—"The Bible has accumulated and bound up together its treasures for this last generation. All the great events and solemn transactions of Old Testament history have been,"—

All the great and solemn events of Old Testament history that are illustrating the events connected with the close of probation.

—"and are, repeating themselves in the church in these last days." Selected Messages, book 3, 338-339.

The principle that we have dealt with before is upon the two or three a thing is established. Deuteronomy 17:6 says,

"[6]At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death." Deuteronomy 17:6 (KJV).

"[1]One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established." Deuteronomy 19:15 (KJV).

2 Corinthians 13:1 says,

"[1]This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established." 2 Corinthians 13:1 (KJV).

1 Timothy 5:19:

> "[19]Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses." 1 Timothy 5:19 (KJV).

So, all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, and the truths that they are setting forth will be established when you can see those truths in two or three places.

In Revelation 10, beginning at verse 8, it says,

> "[8]And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth."—

And when commenting on this, Sister White says that Little Book is the Book of Daniel, and she says the Angel is no less than the personage than Jesus Christ.

John is here told to go take the Little Book out of the Angel's hand, and we know that this Angel descended to the Earth on August 11, 1840, with the restraint that was placed upon the Ottoman Empire by the four great European powers. In that history the restraint of Islam brings the Angel down, thus empowering the First Angel's Message by confirming the year-day principle.

In verse 8 John is told to go take that Little Book, and then in verse 9, it says, > —"[9]And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. [10]And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter." Revelation 10:8-10 (KJV).

We have spent a great deal of time studying what it means when a prophet eats the Word of God, whether it is from the testimony of Jeremiah or Ezekiel. It represents the prophet receiving a message that he is to carry to God's people. And the prophet is forewarned in each instance that God's people will not receive the message, and the promise is given that the Lord will give the prophet a forehead of flint, the forehead of a diamond, of an adamant; thus, the process of carrying a testing message to God's people, the shaking that it causes, the resistance that it runs into requires a strengthening of your forehead. And, of course, this is in no doubt part of the process of the sealing, for the Seal of God goes upon your forehead.

When John eats the little book here, he is eating the manna that was sent down from Heaven. The manna that was sent down from Heaven in the Old Testament, or when Jesus is referring to it in John, chapter 6, is the Word of God. And, of course, Jesus has just come down out of Heaven on August 11, 1840. He is the True Manna, and John is told to go and take the Little Book out of His hand and eat the Book of Daniel, eat the Word of God, eat the Manna.

When you eat the manna, you are receiving the Message of the Hour, you are receiving the Latter Rain.

And in this passage, one of the principles about the prophets, when the prophets become part of the prophecy, they are illustrating God's people at the end of the world; and, in this passage you can see this principle as well, for the Millerites did not understand the experience that they were going to go through from 1840 to 1844. Sister White specifically says that. They did not know what was going to happen to them.

So, although John does represent the Millerites here in Revelation 10, verses 8 through 10, for the Millerites they ate the Little Book and it was sweet in their mouth.

And when was the Little Book sweet in their mouth?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In 1840.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In August 11, 1840, when the year-day principle was confirmed, the year-day principle that was the primary point of reference for all these time prophecies [as illustrated on the 1843 Chart] was confirmed, then suddenly their message became very sweet; but, then at the Great Disappointment on October 22, 1844, it became bitter in their stomach.

And we understand that John here is representing the Millerites. Sister White represents this and their experience from 1840 to 1844.

But, John here primarily represents the 144,000; because, the 144,000 are required to understand this history, and John represents someone that is told in advance what is going to happen when he eats the Little Book.

So, John here is representing both Millerite Adventism and the 144,000. He is representing the beginning of Adventism and the end of Adventism; and, he is identifying the reception of the Latter Rain Message that you have to take the message, you have to take the Little Book out of the Angel's hand and eat it.

And Sister White says "the eating of the Little Book represents the glad reception and the comprehension of the message."

So, when we look at John illustrating God's people at the end of the world, he is illustrating God's people in the time of the Latter Rain, when the Angel of Revelation 18 descends and they are required then to eat the manna of the hour.

Go to Zechariah, chapter 4, for a second witness to the fact that when the prophets are illustrating God's people at the end of the world, they are primarily illustrating the Latter Rain.

In chapter 4, verse 1, it says,

> "[1]And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep."—

This is the angel Gabriel waking up Zechariah and, in so doing, he is illustrating the wake-up time for the Millerites at the Midnight Cry in the Summer of 1844, and he is representing the wake-up time for Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world at 9/11.

> "[1]And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep. [2]And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof: [3]And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. [4]So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?"—

Of course, this is the seven-branch candlestick right here [indicating the lower left-hand corner of the 1850 Chart], but you cannot see it, of course from the pulpit. It is illustrated on the 1850 Chart.

There is no reason why Zechariah, the prophet of the Lord, would not understand what the seven-branch candlestick is. He is a prophet of the Lord during the time of the rebuilding of the temple in Jerusalem. Certainly a prophet that is in that history would understand what the furnishing of the sanctuary is. But, yet, when he is awakened, he does not understand what this seven-branch candlestick is; thus, illustrating that when the Millerites were awakened in the Summer of 1844, and in just two months they were going to suffer the Great Disappointment, they understood the Earth as the sanctuary. They did not understand the sanctuary. When they woke up they did not understand what the seven-branch candlestick was. Zechariah here is representing the Millerites that are awakened in the Summer of 1844, only to find that they have a misconception about the sanctuary.

And this is emphasized. Verse 4:

> —"[4]So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?"—

Zechariah is putting in the record that he does not know what it is, and then in verse 5 it says,

> —"[5]Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be?"—

He does not give him the answer. He repeats the question so that the student of prophecy can recognize that this is something that you need to come to grips with.

> —"Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord."—

"I don't know what this is. I, as a prophet, working in rebuilding the sanctuary, I do not know what the seven-branch candlestick is."

Zechariah is not Zechariah here. He is the Millerites, and he is us at the end of the world.

There is something about the seven-branch candlestick that we do not know what it is at the end of the world.

And who is the angel speaking to him? Well, upon the testimony of two or three, a thing is established, and we are told that Gabriel is the angel that spoke to Daniel, and Gabriel is the angel that talked to John, and Gabriel talked to John the Baptist's father.

Who is the angel that talks with the prophets?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Gabriel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is Gabriel. Okay? So, Gabriel is talking to him here, and in verse 6, he says,

> —"[6]Then he answered and spake unto me, saying,"—

What is Gabriel describing here now? He is describing the seven-branch candlestick. Zechariah does not know what they are, and the angel emphasizes it, and now the angel is going to tell him what it is.

> —"This is the word of the LORD"—

He could stop right there, "This is the word of the LORD."

> —"This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts."—(to be continued)

Now, the outpouring of the Spirit is accomplished through the unfolding of God's Word. The Latter Rain is accomplished through a message from the Bible. The Latter Rain is a message.

In Isaiah 28, beginning in verse 9, says,

> "[9]Whom shall he teach knowledge?"—

What knowledge needs to be taught at the end of the world? The increase of knowledge that comes when the Book of Daniel was unsealed, and it was unsealed in 1989 with the collapse of the Soviet Union, in fulfillment of verse 40 of Daniel 11.

> —"[9]Whom shall he teach knowledge? And whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts."—

People that are not just handling truth, people that are seeking after present truth.

There are many wonderful truths in the Word of God, Sister White says. There is milk in the Word of God. There are many wonderful truths in the Word of God, but what the flock of God needs now is present truth. Those people that are studying with the intensity to find present truth are the ones that will understand the increase of knowledge.

> —"[10]For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:"—

There is the proof-texting method of Biblical study that was discovered and put in place by William Miller.

Verse 11:

> —"[11]For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people."—

There is a time period when He is going to speak to His people through men and women that were not the ordained speakers to His people. They speak with stammering lips and another tongue.

Verse 12:

> —"[12]To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest;"—

There is only one group of people that are promised the Latter Rain, and that is Seventh-day Adventists. I mean the Seventh-day Adventists and the eleven-hour workers are going to experience the Latter Rain; but, the church that has been promised to be the recipient of the Latter Rain is the Church of Laodicea (the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of time).

And in verse 11, he is talking about "this people." "For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people." Who is this people? He is going to describe it in verse 12, "To whom he said," this people to whom He said, "This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest." This is Adventism. This is the people that has been promised the Latter Rain.

—"and this is the refreshing:"—

The Great Controversy, page 611, says the rest, the refreshing, is the Latter Rain.

—"[12]To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear." Isaiah 28:9-12 (KJV).

The Latter Rain is a message. It is something that you hear.

Go back to Zechariah, chapter 4.

What is the candlestick? Gabriel says in verse 6,

—"Zechariah 4 continued, verse [6]Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by my might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts."—

This seven-branch candlestick is His Spirit.

When the Millerites wake up at the Midnight Cry in the Summer of 1844, they have a misunderstanding about the furnishings of the sanctuary. But, when Adventism woke up at 9/11/2001, their misunderstanding is that the candlestick also represents the Latter Rain, the power of the Holy Spirit, "Not by my might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts."

And, of course, if you drop down to verse 11,

"[11]Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?"—

For the Millerites, it was the Old and New Testaments; for Zechariah, it was the Law and the Prophets; for you and me here at the end of the world it is the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy.

Verse 12,

"[12]And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches, which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? [13]And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. [14]Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth." Zechariah 4:1-6, 11-14 (KJV).

The Law and the Prophets for Zechariah; the Old and New Testaments for the Millerites; and the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy for you and me.

And this golden oil Sister White comments on is the oil that the wise virgins have and the oil that the foolish virgins do not have, and Sister White plainly says that this oil is the messages of God's Spirit; and, she says, you dishonor God when you do not receive those messages. And the messages of God's Spirit that is the golden oil is the Latter Rain.

So, in John's story in Revelation 10, verses 8 through 10, it is about the Latter Rain at the end of the world.

In Zechariah, in chapter 4, with the candlestick and the golden oil that comes through the two pipes, it is about the Latter Rain, it is about the Latter Rain.

Okay. So, I want to give a third witness to this.

GIDEON

JUDGES 6:1-10

Judges, chapter 6. And if you were expecting to study Josiah today, we probably will not study Josiah today, but we are putting a component into the story of Josiah that we want to deal with.

Judges, chapter 6, verses 1 through 10. And we are saying that all the prophets speak about the end of the world, more than the days in which they lived. So, this story is a story about the end of the world.

In fact, for me, Judges, [chapters] 6 through 8 is perhaps the most specific illustration of Adventism in God's Word.

> "[1]And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years."—

So, this story takes place at the end of 2520 days.

The Millerite story takes place at the end of 2520 years that ended in 1798; and, our story here at the end of the world begins in 1989 at the end of the scattering, the seven scatterings of William Miller; and, Gideon's story takes place at the end of seven times of captivity.

Verse 1,

> —"[1]And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years."—

You are going to have some references here as we go down through our notes. If you remember, in Daniel 11:41, the King of the North, there are those that escape the hand of the Papacy.

Of course, as Seventh-day Adventists, it is easy for us to understand what the "hand" represents in Bible prophecy, because we are experts on the fact that the mark of the beast goes on the forehead if you believe in Sunday sacredness, and in the hand if you are just forced into observance of it. So, we understand the "hand" represents subjection.

And some people escape the Papacy's "hand" at The Sunday Law in the United States, modern Babylon (the eleventh-hour workers: Edom, Moab, and the chief children of Ammon); and, then he goes forth (the Papacy in verse 42) and he stretches his "hand" upon the countries, "and the land of Egypt shall not escape."

So, the point is, is here in this story of Gideon, you will have a reference in your notes: HAND is referenced—I forget now. It is in your notes later on—16 times. So, this is one of the places where you can come and demonstrate very conclusively that the "hand" has to do with being brought into subjection.

Verse 2:

—"[2]And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel: and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them the dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds."—

Why were they making dens in the mountains? To hide in, for fear of their enemy.

—"[3]And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them;"—

What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That is the threefold union.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the threefold enemy that represents the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet at the end of the world. When you see that threefold enemy, you will see two expressed in a singular fashion, and one in a plural fashion; and, sure enough, Midian (singular0, Amalekites (singular), and the children of the East is a plurality in God's Word.

It is by recognizing this "singular, singular, plurality" that allows you as a student of prophecy to see three tribes and understand that these three tribes represent modern Babylon at the end of the world; because, all the prophets are speaking more about the end of the world than the days in which they lived. And the part of the end of the world that they are speaking about is the part that we call the Latter Rain time period.

Okay. Verse 4:

—"[4]And they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto Gaza, and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass. [5]For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude;"—

And grasshoppers, of course, sometimes it is translated as the Hebrew word as locusts; and, I am not counting when it is translated as locusts. But, grasshoppers and the sands of the sea, when you see those, it represents the multitude of people at the end of the world. We will show you that in a moment.

—"for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it. [6]And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel cried unto the LORD.

"[7]And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites,"—

There is a principle there that is not understood that Sister White and the Bible emphasizes repeatedly. You find yourself in trouble, cry out unto the Lord. Do not just keep going in the same direction; the trouble is only going to get worse.

So, when they did cry out unto the Lord, verse 8, —"[8]That the LORD sent a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage; [9]And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drave them out from before you, and gave you their land; [10]And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice." Judges 6:1-10 (KJV).

And we will stop there and talk about these things.

The prophet here that is sent, the emphasis of the prophetic ministry of this prophecy is to emphasize the principle of taking God's people back to the histories of the past to find their point of reference for faith: "Go back to the Lord's leading in your past history."

If you find yourself as a Christian where you understand that you have lost the presence of the Lord, Sister White tells you there is a work that you are supposed to do if you find yourself lacking the presence of the Lord. What does Sister White say to do first? Go back to the last place where you can remember that you had a genuine experience with the Lord and start there. Okay?

So, this principle is noted in here, too.

But, let us go back and go through verses 1 through 10.

THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL DID EVIL

In the Signs of the Times, June 3, 1881,

> "Alas, that in the history of God's chosen people the sorrowful story of apostasy and its punishment must be so oft repeated! Forty years of peace elapsed after the destruction of Sisera and his host, and again 'the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years.' Heretofore the hand of the oppressor had fallen but lightly on the tribes dwelling east of the Jordan, but in the present calamities they were the chief sufferers. . . .
> "Because of their sins, the protecting hand of God was withdrawn from Israel, and they were left to the mercies of their enemies." Signs of the Times, June 23, 1881.

This is the context of Judges, chapter 6.

THE MULTITUDE

GRASSHOPPER: (sands of the sea) used 19 times in the Bible—meaning: multitude.

Judges 7:12; Rev. 17:15; Isaiah 40:22; 1 Samuel 13:5; Joshua 11:4–5

And in Judges 7:12, it says,

> "[12]And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude." Judges 7:12 (KJV).

Revelation 17:15, we should probably know that; but, Revelation 17:15, what is "the multitudes"? But, this story of Gideon is the end of the world, during the Latter Rain time period, and verse 15 says,

> "[15]And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues." Revelation 17:15 (KJV).

The grasshoppers are the people of the world.

Isaiah 40:22

> "[22]It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants there are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in." Isaiah 40:22 (KJV).

And then you have a couple of other references there of grasshoppers and multitudes, 1 Samuel 13:5; Joshua 11:4-5; but, I want to read from Joel, about the multitude; because, we are saying this is the multitudes, the peoples, the seas at the end of the world during the time period of the Latter Rain. You can look up these other references on your own.

> "[5]And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Bethaven." 1 Samuel 13:5 (KJV).

> "[4]And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many. [5]And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel." Joshua 11:4-5 (KJV).

And as we read through Joel, we have dealt with this particular little issue in this worship series, that when you see the expression (the two words), "bring again," in the Old Testament—i.e., "I will bring again the captivity of Israel," "I will bring again the captivity of Judah"—in our English, "bring again" makes us think it means, "I am going to bring them again into captivity," but actually the Hebrew means reverse. When it says, "I am going to bring again the captivity," it means, "I am going to reverse the captivity." It means they are in captivity, and I am going to end it. Where in the English it sounds like, "I am going to take them into captivity."

So, I am pointing this Hebrew word out here in your notes; because, in this passage of Joel, it is going to talk about "bring again," and we want to understand this correctly.

You see the Concordance definition of bring again.

BRING AGAIN: Strong's Concordance H7725 shûb A primitive root; to turn back (hence, away) transitively or intransitively, literally or figuratively (not necessarily with the idea of return to the starting point); generally to retreat.

Joel 2:28 – 3:17

And in Joel 2:28, we are looking at the multitudes, the grasshoppers, the enemies of Gideon at the end of the world, which is most likely an illustration of the Latter Rain.

Beginning at verse 28 of Joel, chapter 2,

> "Chapter 2:28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh;"—

So, what time period does this take place in? The Latter Rain, clearly.

> —"and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. 30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come. 32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call."—

Who quotes this? Who quotes this? Joel writes it, but who quotes it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Peter.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Peter, in Acts, chapter 2, chapter 3, identifying the outpouring at Pentecost; but, Sister White tells us that the outpouring at Pentecost is prefiguring the outpouring of the Latter Rain (verse 1 of chapter 3).

> —"Chapter 3:1 For, behold, in those days,"—IN THE TIME OF THE LATTER RAIN—"and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,"—

So, what does this mean? These words bring again means reverse: "When I will reverse the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem."

So, in the Latter Rain time period—just before the Latter Rain time period, what condition is Judah and Jerusalem in? They are in captivity.

What captivity is that? It is Miller's scattering, because a scattering is captivity, and it gets reversed.

Verse 2:

> —"2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land. 3 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink. [4]Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? Will ye render me a recompence? And if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;"—

Who is He talking to there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who is he talking to there, in verse 4?

—"[4]Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine?—

Who is He talking to there? That is the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. That is the threefold enemy: Palestine, Tyre, and Zidon.

—"Will ye render me a recompence?"—

He is talking about dealing with the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

Verse 5:

—"[5]Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:"—

Who do that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Nebuchadnezzar.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Nebuchadnezzar. This is about persecution against God's people.

Verse 6:

—"[6]The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold into the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border. [7]Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:"—

When does he reverse the captivity of Jerusalem and Judah? At the outpouring of the Latter Rain He is going to reverse the captivity. Right? Prior to that time, they have been captive.

And who have they been sold to, in verse 6? "The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold into the Grecians, . . ."

Who sold them to the Grecians? The threefold enemy of Tyre, Zidon, and Palestine. Modern Babylon has sold God's people to the Grecians.

What does that mean?

Why did the majority of the Hebrews reject Christ as the Messiah?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: False education.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: False education.

What was their false educational system? It was the Greek educational system.

What sells out God's people? It is a false educational system. It is the technique for studying the Bible that comes from Babylon, from modern Babylon, from apostate Protestantism and Catholicism. It is the grammatical historical method of studying the Bible, which was introduced in the 1930s. And that is another story.

Verse 7:

> —"[7]Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:"—

Okay. They have been sold. They are in captivity. The captivity is reversed at the Latter Rain. At 9/11 the captivity is being reversed. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And He is going to—what?—them?

What happens at 9/11? There are two messages, right?

Remember yesterday [referring to Figure No. 139]: First Message, Second Message; Elijah, Elisha; John, Christ; Shaking and Noise—what message is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The First.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the First Message. Where do we find this message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ezekiel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ezekiel 37.

And what is the Second Message in Ezekiel 37? It is the breath, but what does it do? It causes them to stand on their feet. They stand up.

And when they stand on their feet, what happens to them?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They are lifted up as an ensign.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are lifted up as an ensign. The lifting up begins at 9/11, but the world sees it at The Sunday Law.

Where was I? I was not going to go into this detail. It is not my point.

> —"[8]And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.
> "[9]Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up. [10]Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong."—

And Sister White says in the Last Days—and when Sister White says "in the Last Days," because she is a prophet that agrees with all the other prophets, the "Last Days" that she is referring to is the time period of the Latter Rain. And Sister White says in the Last Days wars will rage.

Do you see any wars and rumors or wars going on in the world today?

Okay. We are still in verse 10:

> —"let the weak say, I am strong."

In connection with these wards in the Last Days, the weak are going to say they are strong. What does that mean? Well, that means that is the United States wanted to right now, it could take its nuclear arsenal and eliminate the Middle East. Okay? Islam could be gone; they could be vaporized.

Compared to the fire power of Russia, the multitudes in the army of China, or the fire power of the Europeans, or the fire power of the United States, Islam is weak. Okay? They are struggling in Iran to get together one nuclear bomb that they can send to Jerusalem, maybe two or three but that is it. They know when they fire those nuclear bombs, it is over. They are weak, and in this history the weak will say, "I am strong!" They are going to fight in any case. Okay?

> —"[11]Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD. [12]Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. [13]Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come,"—

When does the harvest time begin?

What is the harvest? The Summer time; it is at the end of the world. It begins at The Sunday Law in the United States, the Summer time does.

> —"[13]Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get your down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great."—

And here is where we are at now.

> —"[14]Multitudes, multitudes"—

What does that tell you?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Second and Fourth Angels' Message. This is a marker. This is the multitudes that are gathered. The grasshoppers in Gideon's story are gathered in the Latter Rain time period when the Judgment of the Living is coming to a conclusion.

> —"[14]Multiudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. [15]The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. [16]The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. [17]So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more." Joel 2:28 – 3:17 (KJV).

What is a stranger? A Gentile. Okay? A stranger is a Gentile.

And, at the end of the world, the glorious holy mountain in verse 45 of Daniel 11, it is pure. This is the Church Triumphant. There are no people in there that are wearing the wrong apparel. They all have the right apparel on, if you know what I mean.

So, back to your notes.

The multitudes in Gideon's story are the multitudes here at the end of the world in the valley of decision, the time of the Judgment of the Living, the time of the Latter Rain when the world is being divided into two classes.

Where do you see the world divided into two classes just before probation is closed?

If I was to put a mountain over here, and the seas over here, what would the seas be?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The multitudes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And if I was to put the Pope of Rome right in the middle, what verse would you have? Daniel 11, verse 45. He places the tabernacles of his palaces between the seas and the glorious holy mountain. The world has been divided into two classes, and Jerusalem (Zion) will not have any strangers any longer.

THE HAND (16 TIMES IN JUDGES 6 – 8)

Judges 6:1; 9, 13, 14, 36, 37; 7:2,7,9,11,14,15: 8:6, 7, 15, 22*

To your notes, "The Hand," in the first verse of chapter 6 of Judges, Gideon and his people were given into the hand of Midian for seven years. And these are all the verses* in this story, chapters 6 through 8 of Judges, where the hand is used to demonstrate subjection.

In Testimonies, volume 5, page 712,

> "When our nation shall so abjure the principles of its government as to enact a Sunday law, Protestantism will in this act join hands with popery." Testimonies, volume 5, 712.

They are going to be brought into subject into the Papacy,
And the next quote we have read before, and it says,

> "The Protestants of the United States will be foremost in stretching their hands across the gulf to grasp the hand of Spiritualism;"—

That is the Dragon power.

> —"they will reach over the abyss to clasp hands with the Roman power;"—

That is the Papacy.

> —"and under the influence of this threefold union, this country will follow in the steps of Rome in trampling on the rights of conscience." The Great Controversy, 588.

This threefold union is the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet. It is in the story of Gideon, Midian, the Amalekites, and the children of the East; and, their joining hands is representing their agreement.

THREE ENEMIES

JUDGES 6:3; 7:12

> "[3]And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them: . . ." Judges 6:3 (KJV).

> "[12]And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude." Judges 7:12 (KJV).

> Midian: strife. Abraham and Keturah—Amal: trouble. Esau—The children of the east: (plural.)

Midian, Amal, and the children of the East, you have several references of these three enemies in your notes.

NUMBERS 22:4-5

> "[4]And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way. [5]And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread." Numbers 22:4-5 (KJV).

Moab, Midian, Balaam of Pethro which is in the land of the children of his people: (plural.)

In Numbers 22:4-5, the three enemies are Moab, Midian, and Balaam.
And Sister White comments on Numbers 22. In Adventist Home, page 27, she says,

"Near the close of this earth's history Satan will work with all his powers in the same manner and with the same temptations wherewith he tempted ancient Israel just before their entering the land of promise. He will lay snares for those who claim to keep the commandments of God, and who are almost on the borders of the heavenly Canaan." Adventist Home, 327.

So, she is saying Numbers 22 is here at the end of the world.

So, who is Moab, Midian, and Balaam at the end of the world? It is this threefold union. Balaam is associated with the children of the East, a plurality.

NEHEMIAH 2:19

"[19]But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? Will ye rebel against the king? Nehemiah 2:19 (KJV).

Sanballat the Horonite: the moon god; sin has given life. Moab—Tobiah the Ammonite: Yaweh is good—Geshem the Arabian: born in the rainy season. (plural.) Ishmael.

In Nehemiah when they rebuilding the temple after they came out of Jerusalem, there were three enemies: Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian; the Arabian, once again, a plurality.

And Sister White says in Christian Service, page 173,

"The experience of Nehemiah is repeated in the history of God's people in this time. Those who labor in the cause of truth will find that they cannot do this without exciting the anger of its enemies. Though they have been called of God to the work in which they are engaged, and their course is approved of Him, they cannot escape reproach and derision." Christian Service, 173–174.

Who is Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian? The Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

JOHN 19:19-20

"[19]And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. [20]This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified as nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin." John 19:19-20 (KJV).

Hebrew: from the other side. Shem—Latin: Roman: I have exalted. Spiritually Ham—Greek: sons of the Ionians. Japheth (plural.)

At the cross, the sign that was placed on the top of the cross was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. There is your threefold division; and, HEBREW is from Shem; LATIN is from Ham; and, GREEK is from Japheth (GREEK is the plurality; Japheth is the plurality).

Selected Messages, book 1, page 406,

"The trials of the children of Israel, and their attitude just before the first coming of Christ, have been presented before me again and again to illustrate the position of the people of God in their experience before the second coming of Christ—how the enemy sought every occasion to take control of the minds of the Jews, and today he is seeking to blind the minds of God's servants, that they may not be able to discern the precious truth." Selected Messages, book 1, 406.

Threefold enemy in the time of Christ; threefold enemy at the end of the world.

REVELATION 16:12-13

"[12]And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. [13]And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet." Revelation 16:12-13 (KJV).

Beast: Catholicism—False prophet: Apostate Protestantism—Dragon: Spiritualism

And that threefold enemy is found in Revelation 16, to be the Beast, the False Prophet, and the Dragon.

Revelation 16:19; 16:13-16

"[19]And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath." Revelation 16:19 (KJV).

"[13]And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. [14]For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. [15]Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. [16]And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon." Revelation 16:13-16 (KJV).

ISAIAH 11:14

> "[14]But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them." Isaiah 11:14 (KJV).

Edom, Moab, children of Ammon. (plural.)

And then in Isaiah 11:14, you see Edom, Moab, and the children of Ammon, paralleling Daniel 11, verse 41:

DANIEL 11:41

> "[41]He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries [people (SDAs)] shall be overthrown. But these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

Edom: red. Esau—Moab: from father. Lot—The chief of the children of Ammon: paternal uncle. Lot. (plural.)

Edom, Moab, and the children of Ammon.

PROPHET OF HISTORY

So, under this bondage in the story of Gideon in chapter 6, the people finally cry out to the Lord; and, the Lord sends them a prophet. The prophet points them back to the deliverance of Egypt, the emphasis of the ministry.

You know, you have ministries in Adventism today that they go out and do literature evangelism, and then you have a ministry that does the Health Message, and you have ministries that emphasize what Jones and Waggoner taught in 1888; but, the ministry of this prophet in Judges, chapter 6, was to teach the people that their safety was understanding and remembering their past history. The prophet comes into this story and says, "Remember. Hey, the Lord delivered you out of Egypt." Okay? He takes them back to their past history.

And, of course, the prophet at the end of the world that has this identical ministry is Ellen White. In Life Sketches, page 196, she says,

> "We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teaching in our past history." Life Sketches, 196.

Now, in verse 8 of Judges 6, it says,

> "[7]And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried into the LORD because of the Midianites, [8]that the LORD sent a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage; . . . [9]And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drave them out from before you, and gave you their land; . . ." Judges 6:7-9 (KJV).

The same ministry: 'You have nothing to worry about, except as you forget the Lord's teaching and our experience in our past history.'

The Upward Look, page 232m says

> "The history of the children of Israel is written for our admonition and instruction upon whom the ends of the world are come. Those who would stand firm in the faith in these last days, and finally gain an entrance into the heavenly Canaan, must listen to the words of warning spoken by Jesus Christ to the Israelites. These lessons were given to the church in the wilderness to be studied and heeded by God's people throughout their generations forever. The experience of the people of God in the wilderness will be the experience of His people in this age. Truth is a safeguard in all time to those who will hold fast the faith once delivered to the saints." The Upward Look, 232.

What is the faith that was once delivered to Ancient Israel? It was the faith of the Red Sea deliverance. Their faith was premised upon their foundational experience.

What is the faith that was delivered to Adventism? It is the faith that is based upon this history here of these two Charts [the 1843 and the 1850 Charts] of Habakkuk; and, 'We have nothing to fear for the future, except we shall forget that past history.'

So, what am I saying? I am saying the prophet is Ellen White is this passage, the writings of the Spirit of Prophecy.

Let us move quickly. We have seven minutes.

JUDGES 6:11-16

THE ANGEL

Verses 11 through 16 [of Judges]

> "[11]And there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abiezrite: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites. [12]And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour. [13]And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us?"—

And this is the reason here that I added the story of Gideon to the story of Josiah. This verse here is what I want to put in the record.

Verse 13 again,

> —"[13]And Gideon said unto him, Oh, my Lord,"—

Why is he calling an angel "Lord"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He's Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because this angel is Christ.

—"[13]And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. [14]And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee? [15]And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house. [16]And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man." Judges 6:11-16 (KJV).

In your notes, Signs of the Times, June 23, 1881,

> "The angel had vailed the divine glory of his presence, but it was no other than Christ, the Son of God." Signs of the Times, June 23, 1881.

And she is speaking Gideon in here.

So, this is Christ speaking with Gideon.

And I have another thought I will not throw in here.

THE HARVEST

What is Gideon doing? He is bringing in the harvest. Matthew 13:39:

> "[39]The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels." Matthew 13:39 (KJV).

So, here when Gideon is bringing in the harvest and working it at the wine press, he is representing the end of the world.

WHEAT

And what is Gideon doing; what is Gideon doing with this wheat? He is threshing it, is he not?

Judges 6:11, he "threshed wheat by the winepress." What does it mean, "to thresh wheat"? Beat it up where you can separate the parts of the wheat that you do not want to eat. Okay? He is going the work of separating. Right?

Fundamentals of Christian Education page 307:

> "Allow no one to be brains for you, allow no one to do your thinking, your investigating, and your praying. This is the instruction we need to take to heart today. Many of you are convinced that the precious treasure of the kingdom of God and of Jesus Christ is in the Bible which you hold in your hand. You know that no earthly treasure is attainable without painstaking effort. Why should you expect to understand the treasures of the word of God without diligently searching the Scriptures?
> "It is proper and right to read the Bible; but your duty does not end there; for you are to search its pages for yourselves. The knowledge of God is not to be gained without mental effort, without prayer for wisdom in order that you may separate from the pure grain of truth the chaff with which men and Satan have misrepresented the doctrines of truth. Satan and his confederacy of human agents have endeavored to mix the chaff of error with the wheat of truth. We should diligently seek for the hidden treasure, and seek wisdom from heaven in order to separate human inventions from the divine commands. The Holy Spirit will aid the seeker for great and precious truths which relate to the plan of redemption. I would impress upon all the fact that a casual reading of the Scriptures is not enough. We must search, and this means the doing of all the word implies. As the miner eagerly explores the earth to discover its veins of gold, so you are to explore the word of God for the hidden treasure that Satan has so long sought to hide from man. The Lord says, 'If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching.' John 7:17." Fundamentals of Christian Education, 307.

What was Gideon doing? He was studying the Word of God with an intensity that allowed him to separate the wheat from the chaff.

Is Gideon an illustration of the end of the world?

Is Gideon God's people at the end of the world?

Is Gideon doing this work of separation right at a time when the Angel, who is no less than the personage of Jesus Christ, comes down out of Heaven?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, Gideon represents those people that are receiving the Latter Rain, eating the Little Book that is in the Angel's hand.

LEAST

Okay. He says he is the least. This connects with verse 11 of Isaiah 28, "For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people." Gideon is not the greatest in Israel; he is the least of the least.

> "The experience of Gideon and his army, was designed to teach a lesson of simplicity and faith. The leader whom God had chosen occupied no prominent position in Israel."

What does Sister White say? Men from the common occupations and the plows will be called to finish the work.

Who are those men? They are Gideon. Gideon represents the least, the people that get called from the plow to finish the work.

> —"The leader whom God had chosen occupied no prominent position in Israel. He was not a ruler, a Levite, or a priest. He thought himself the least in his father's house. Human wisdom would not have selected him; but God saw in Gideon a man of integrity and moral courage. He was distrustful of self, and willing to listen to the teachings of God, and carry out his purposes. The Lord is not dependent upon men of high position, of great intellect, or extensive knowledge. Such men are frequently proud and self-sufficient. They feel themselves competent to devise and execute plans without counsel from God.

> They separate themselves from the true Vine, and hence become dry and fruitless, as withered branches." Signs of the Times, June 30, 1881.

And in Isaiah 27:11, the women come and take those branches away and burn them.

> "[11]When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour." Isaiah 27:11 (KJV).

HIDDEN

Gideon was hiding as he was doing this work, because he did not want the Midianites to see him; because, they would have come and killed him and took his food, perhaps.

So, who are the hidden ones?

What hides the hidden ones?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The shadow of the Most High.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The shadow of the Most High. Okay. But, who are they?

Testimonies, volume 5, pages 80 – 81:

> "The days are fast approaching when there will be great perplexity and confusion. Satan, clothed in angel robes, will deceive, if possible, the very elect. There will be gods many and lords many. Every wind of doctrine will be blowing. Those who have rendered supreme homage to 'science falsely so called'"—

"Science falsely so called" is the reception of the historical grammatical method of Biblical interpretation that came in, in the 1930s.

> —"Those who have rendered supreme homage to 'science falsely so called' will not be the leaders then."—

And when they accepted this historical grammatical method of Biblical study, they were rejecting William Miller's method called proof-texting, line upon line.

> —"Those who have trusted to intellect, genius, or talent will not then stand at the head of rank and file. They did not keep pace with the light."—

They could not! They had the wrong Biblical—I do not even want to call them principles —the wrong Biblical approach, and it prevents them from recognizing the light.

> —"Those who have proved themselves unfaithful will not then be entrusted with the flock."—

Gideon is going to be entrusted with the flock. Men from the common occupations, according to Sister White; men, according to Isaiah, that have not been trained in speaking. They speak with stammering lips and another tongue.

> —"In the last solemn work few great men will be engaged. They are self-sufficient, independent of God, and He cannot use them. The Lord has faithful servants, who in the shaking, testing time will be disclosed to view."—

When is the shaking, testing time? It begins with this Message [the First Angel's Message (see Figure No. 139)] in 1989; because, the First Message in Ezekiel 37, it makes a noise and it causes a shaking.

In this time, from 1989 onward, these men and women will be brought to view.

> —"The Lord has faithful servants, who in the shaking, testing time will be disclosed to view. There are precious ones now"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hidden.

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"hidden who have not bowed the knee to Baal. They have not had the light which has been shining in a concentrated blaze upon you. But it may be under a rough and uninviting exterior the pure brightness of a genuine Christian character will be revealed. In the day time we look toward heaven but do not see the stars. They are there, fixed in the firmament, but the eye cannot distinguish them. In the night we behold their genuine luster." Testimonies, volume 5, 80–81.

Midnight, the Midnight Cry!

Okay. So, Gideon's question to Christ (the Angel), "Oh, my Lord," verse 13 [of Judges 6], "if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us?"

Prior to 9/11, why is this befallen us?

Why are we using apostate Protestant church growth techniques?

Why are we allowing men to teach in our universities that are either directly saying or insinuating that the seven days of Creation are seven periods of time?

Why are we ordaining women?

Why are we having celebration service?

Why are we letting Catholic priests come in and give week of prayers at our universities?

Why are we exchanging pulpits with these fallen denominations on the Sabbath and going to their churches on Sunday?

Why is all of this taking place?

"Why is this befalling us?" is what Gideon is asking. "Why then is this all befalling us, and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying,"—now, he is going to define the miracles here, and I want you to see this, if you will. He in the same sentence is saying, "Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?"

What were the miracles of Egypt?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The plagues.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. But, where does this story of the deliverance of Egypt reach its climax? Is it not at Pentecost, when the Lord delivers the Law and enters into covenant with them?

And at the mount, Sister White says there has never been a greater manifestation of the power of God than at Sinai, and that includes the Flood. So, what went on at Sinai, there was the manifestation of the power of God that was the capstone to that history. And what was it? It was Pentecost.

So, when Gideon is saying, "Where are the miracles that you promised that are prefigured by Pentecost?" what is Gideon asking about? "Where is the Latter Rain?"

Does not Pentecost prefigure the Latter Rain?

Is there going to be miracles during the Latter Rain?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, who does Gideon represent here, Brothers and Sisters?

This is a key point, because we have spent time already here demonstrating that only those that recognize the Latter Rain receive it. And in order to recognize the Latter Rain, you have got to be looking for it.

Was Gideon looking for it [the Latter Rain]? He represents a class in Adventism that knows that the purpose of Adventism was to be the group of people that receive the Latter Rain and proclaim the Last and Final Warning Message. Gideon knew this, and he is saying, "Why hasn't it happened?" He is of the class of Adventism that is looking for and can recognize the Latter Rain when it comes, because he knows the Latter Rain was prefigured in Egypt at Pentecost. He knows those old histories represent the Latter Rain.

But, that is only going to be a small minority of Adventism that has that mindset. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: How do you know that? Because, who is Gideon? He is the least, he is the smallest, he is the weakest.

MIRACLES

Okay. What are the miracles?

Testimonies, volume 5, page 211—we are almost done. We are not going to read the next quote after that.

Page 211 says,

> "Here we see that the church—the Lord's sanctuary—was the first to feel the stroke of the wrath of God. The ancient men, those to whom God had given great light and who had stood as guardians of the spiritual interests of the people, had betrayed their trust. They had taken the position"—

This is talking about the sealing in Ezekiel 9. These men are not going to receive the Seal of God because, > —"They had taken the position that we need not look for miracles and the marked manifestation of God's power as in former days."—

And Gideon represents a group of people that are looking and longing for those miracles, longing for the Latter Rain.

> —"Times have changed. These words strengthen their unbelief, and they say: The Lord will not do good, neither will He do evil. He is too merciful to visit His people in judgment. Thus 'Peace and safety' is the cry from men who will never again lift up their voice like a trumpet to show God's people their transgressions and the house of Jacob their sins. These dumb dogs that would not bark are the ones who feel the just vengeance of an offended God. Men, maidens, and little children all perish together." Testimonies, volume 5, 211.

What is my point? My point is that when John in Revelation 10 is illustrating the end of the world, the story tells us that it is illustration the Latter Rain.

When Zechariah in chapter 4 is illustrating the end of the world, his story is emphasizing the fact that God's people at the end of the world, they do not know what the candlestick is; they do not know what the Latter Rain is.

And Gideon is placing God's people at the end of the world and, once again, he is representing a group of people that are seeking for, expecting, believing in the Latter Rain. It is about the Latter Rain.

If you do not understand that one of the background contexts to these illustrations in the Bible at the end of the world is the Latter Rain, and the issues connected with the Latter Rain, then you will miss some of the important points of the story of Josiah in connection with the Latter Rain.

Okay. The next quote is The Great Controversy, beginning at page 611, where Sister White talks about the refreshing being the Latter Rain. We are familiar with that, have read it several times.

"The work will be similar to that of the day of Pentecost. As the 'former rain' was given, in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at the opening of the gospel, to cause the upspringing of the precious seed, so the 'latter rain' will be given at its close, for the ripening of the harvest. 'Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord; his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.' (Hosea 6:3.) 'Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God; for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain.' (Joel 2:23.) 'In the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh.' 'And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' (Acts 2:17, 21.) The great work of the gospel is not to close with less manifestation of the power of God than marked its opening. The prophecies which were fulfilled in the outpouring of the former rain at the opening of the gospel, are again to be fulfilled in the latter rain at its close. Here are 'the times of refreshing' to which the apostle Peter looked forward when he said, 'Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out [in the investigative Judgment], when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; and he shall send Jesus.' (Acts 3:19–20.)

"Servants of God, with their faces lighted up and shining with holy consecration, will hasten from place to place to proclaim the message from Heaven. By thousands of voices, all over the earth, the warning will be given. Miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and signs and wonders will follow the believers. Satan also works with lying wonders, even bringing down fire from heaven in the sight of men. (Revelation 13:13.) Thus the inhabitants of the earth will be brought to take their stand." The Great Controversy, 611–612.

THE WINEPRESS

Revelation 19:11-21; 14:14-20

And I just want to put in the record, in closing here, that Gideon was by the winepress; and, the winepress, you have Revelation 19, and Revelation 14. This is the end of the world.

> "[11] And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. [12] His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. [13] And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. [14] And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. [15] And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. [16] And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. [17] And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; [18] That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. [19] And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. [20] And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. [21] And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh." Revelation 19:11-21 (KJV).

> "[14]And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. [15]And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. [16]And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. [17]And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. [18]And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. [19]And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. [20]And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs." Revelation 14:14-20 (KJV).

This battle that Gideon is entering into is the battle that concludes between the seas and the glorious holy mountain, the battle that we call Armageddon. He is by the winepress. He is on the verge of Armageddon.

So, we want to put that point in place. We gave you three witnesses, John, Zechariah, and now Gideon, that the prophets illustrate the end of the world and, in so doing, they are illustrating the history of the Latter Rain; therefore, when we see the end of the world illustrated, we must place it in the history that is represented by the Latter Rain.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want the humility of Gideon. We want to understand who we are, and who we are is someone that is not qualified, not capable, not worthy of serving you; but, we know that you have the power that when combined with humanity can lift us up as you did Gideon and his 300 to finish this work. We want to maintain that humility, that understanding that we are the least of the least in our Father's House; but, we also want to see from this testimony that you are willing to take these type of people and finish the work, because we want the work to be finished not only in our lives but here on Planet Earth. We ask that you accomplish that for us. We ask that you continue to bless this study that we might understand the significance of Habakkuk's Two Sacred Tables. And we set before you this day of work and ask that you would keep us safe and let us do what we do for your glory and honor, and ask for a continued blessing upon the work that we are going here with the LiveStreaming and the DVDs. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #71

PART SEVEN: JOSIAH

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a night's rest and giving us another day of life. As we consider the story of Gideon in the context at the end of the world, we ask that you would granted us your Holy Spirit that we might understand what Gideon is teaching us about ourselves and about your people, about end-time events. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. We ask that you would accomplish that and that you would prepare our vessels to receive that Rain. We ask that you take control of the words and thoughts that I convey, that I be hidden behind your cross, and that you prepare the hearts and minds of those hearing this message, to receive it as you see fit. We see the troublous times in the world and know that probation is about to close, and we would ask that you would use this presentation to help finish your work in us as individuals and your church, and on Earth that you might come soon. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We took up the consideration of Gideon in order to emphasize that these Biblical illustrations of the end of the world take place in the time of the Latter Rain. We see Gideon in our last presentation asking where the miracles are, that they had been told about; thus, emphasizing that God's people understand, whether they consciously think about it or whether they have buried it in their Laodicean mindset. But, Adventism knows that it is the Church that is raised up to proclaim the Loud Cry of the Third Angel, and the Loud Cry of the Third Angel is the message that is carried during the Latter Rain time period, and they know that they are the people of the Latter Rain.

THE WINEPRESS—JUDGES 6:11

Revelation 19:11-21; Revelation 14:14-20; Isaiah 63:1-6

We ended yesterday—we did not look at it closely—but, we ended in Judges 6:11, identifying that Gideon, the story of Gideon, takes place by the winepress; thus, it is saying that the story of Gideon is set on the verge of the winepress of the Bible.

And in verse 11 of Judges 6 it says,

> "[11]And there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abiezrite: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites." Judges 6:11 (KJV).

Of course, we have looked at the fact that the Angel was Christ. He is going to give an offering here. This offering will impact him at the end of his story; because, he thinks because Christ received his offering, ultimately that that qualifies him to be a priest, and he uses this misconception in chapter 8 to take the golden earrings from the battle and make an ephod, which becomes a snare for Israel, the same way that Aaron took the golden earrings and made a golden calf.

But, he is threshing wheat. Gideon's name means Feller or Thresher.

The thresher of Bible prophecy is an important symbol to understand, and he is behind the winepress.

And we have reference for the winepress in your notes: Revelation 19:11-21; Revelation 14:14-20; but, let us just look at Isaiah 63 to put that in context.

What we are saying is that this story is taking place on the verge of the time period when the Lamb of God tread's the winepress alone, the end of the world, the Seven Last Plagues, the Second Coming of Christ.

In verse 1 of Isaiah 63, it says,

> "[1]Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. [2]Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and they garments like him that treadeth in the winefat? [3]I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. [4]For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. [5]And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me. [6]And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth." Isaiah 63:1-6 (KJV).

That is where Gideon was. He was by this history; that is where we are. We are on the verge of the winepress, when the Lord is going to return in His fury.

Notice verse 4, the day of vengeance is in His heart.

If you go backwards to chapter 61 of Isaiah, just so we understand the context of the Day of Vengeance. In Isaiah 61, this is the passage of the Scripture that Christ proclaimed when He stood and opened the Bible and read it.

Verse 1,

> "[61]The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; [2]To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,"—

And then Christ closed the Scroll and sat down.

But, it continues on.

> "[2]To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all that mourn; [3]To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.
> "[4]And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. [5]And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. [6]But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves." Isaiah 63: 1-6 (KJV).

The Day of Vengeance is the day of the winepress.

GIDEON: FELLER, THRESHER

Now, let us consider what it means that Gideon is the thresher.

Go to Micah, chapter 4. Beginning in verse 1, it says.

"[1]But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established"—

Does that sound familiar?

Have you ever looked how similar Micah, chapter 4, is to Isaiah, chapter 2?

"[1]But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains,"—[to be continued]

Just keep your finger there just so you can see this, if you have not seen it before, and go to Isaiah 2.

Do you remember what we just read, or has it already fled out of your mind?"

Okay. It is early in the morning.

Now, if you have got your Bible like this [holding the segments between his fingers], holding Isaiah 2 and Micah 4, it is very easy to see.

Verse 2 of Isaiah 2 says,

"[2]And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it." Isaiah 2:2 (KJV).

If you go back to Micah 4, it says,

"[1]But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow into it. [2]And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us to up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem."

This is Isaiah 2.

Michael 4, verse 3:

"[3]And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke STRONG nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. [4]But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. [5]For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

"[6]In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth,"—

What does it mean to halteth? Limps?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To halt?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. To halteth. It is not a symbol of them that halt. Halteth; when you limp, you are halteth-ing.

—"will I assemble her that halteth,"—

Who halteth it? Who halteth it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Israel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Israel? Be more specific: Jacob.

Okay. When Jacob struggled with the Angel, the Angel touched him and, from that point on, he halteth.

And He changed his name from JACOB there, the supplanter, to ISRAEL, the overcomer.

So, He is going to assemble those that are represented by Israel, the overcomer.

Verse 6,

—"[6]In that day,—

And what day is that? The last days, when the Lord is establishing His Church, His glorious holy mountain.

—"[6]In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth,"—

He will assemble those that have struggled with the Angel and have overcome their sins.

—"and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;"—

Who is "her" that was driven out? It is the church people that have been outcast from the Church.

—"[7]And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever. [8]And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come,"—

Who is the "tower of the flock"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What does that tell you? That a tower represents a church. It is Christ's Church.

"[8]And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem."—

What is the "first dominion"? Eden. There is a promise of Eden restored here.

Verse 9:

"[9]Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? For pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail. [10]Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion,"—

What is the daughter?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The remnant.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the remnant, the last Church.

—"O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon: there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies."—

The King of the North is now conquering in the time period when the call is, "Come out of Babylon!"

Verse 11:

"[11]Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion."—[to be continued]

Keep your finger there.

Now, what does it say? ". . . many nations are gathered against thee . . ."

What would "many nations" be prophetically?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: United Nations.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: United Nations: it would be Egypt; it would be the Ten Kings.

And they said, "Let her be defiled," that is Zion, the remnant of Zion, and they are going to look upon Zion.

Keep your finger there and go to Psalm 48, just so you can see that this is not a casual reference. This is a subject of prophecy.

In Psalm 48, verse 4, it says,

"[4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. [5]They saw it,"—

What did they see?

If you back up to verse 2,

"[2]Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King." Psalm 48:2 (KJV).

So, this is the same reference as in Micah. It is about Zion.

Verse 4 (continued):

> "[4]For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. [5]they saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away." Psalm 48:4 (KJV).

Okay. When the kings are looking at Zion—go to Psalm 83, because all the prophecies are the end of the world—and in verse 2 of 83, it says,

> "[2]For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head. [3]They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. [4]They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. [5]For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee: . . ." Psalm 83:2-5 (KJV).

These are the Ten Kings that are of one mind. They look upon Zion, and they determine they are going to cut Zion off from being a people.

If you go back to Micah 6:11, it says,

> —"[11 continued] Now also many nations"—THE TEN KINGS—"are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion. [12]But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor. [13]Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion:"—

And do what? What is the daughter of Zion going to do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Thresh.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is going to thresh.

> —"[13]Arise and thresh,"—

When does the daughter of Zion arise?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When it is lifted up as an ensign. At The Sunday Law, she arises and threshes.

> —"O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces"—

In pieces? Who beats in pieces?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Stone.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Stone in Daniel 2.

Who else beats in pieces?

What about Josiah? What did Josiah do to all the idols? He beat them into pieces, into fine powder.

And we are heading towards Josiah.

—"[13]Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion, for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth." Micah 4:1-13 (KJV).

In your notes, from Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing, pages 62 – 63, it says,

> "Not until he fell crippled and helpless upon the breast of the covenant angel did Jacob know the victory of conquering faith and receive the title of a prince with God. It was when he 'halted upon his thigh' (Genesis 32:31) that the armed bands of Esau were stilled before him, and the Pharaoh, proud heir of a kingly line, stooped to crave his blessing. So the Captain of our salvation was made 'perfect through sufferings' (Hebrews 2:10), and the children of faith 'out of weakness were made strong,' and 'turned to flight the armies of the aliens' (Hebrews 11:34). So do 'the lame take the prey' (Isaiah 33:23), and the weak become 'as David,' and 'the house of David . . . as the angel of the Lord' (Zechariah 12:8)." Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing, 62–63.

Okay. Habakkuk 3:12, you see in your notes. You do not have to look there. It says,

"[12]Thou didst march through the land in indignation,"—

This is the indignation against the wicked.

—"[12]Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst"—WHAT?—"thresh the heathen in anger." Habakkuk 3:12 (KJV).

What does GIDEON mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Thresher.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Thresher. Gideon is a symbol of those that the Lord uses to thresh the heathen in anger.

But, in so doing, who is threshing the heathen? The Lord. It is the same type of parallel connection as the ensign that is lifted up. The ensign represents Christ at one level, but it represents those that perfectly reflect His character. Christ threshes the heathen, but He does so with His people.

A Word to the Little Flock, page 12:

> "This, will not take place, until Jesus has finished his priestly office in the Heavenly Sanctuary, and lays off his priestly attire, and puts on his most kingly robes, and crown, to ride forth on the cloudy chariot, to 'thresh the heathen in anger,' and deliver his people." A Word to the Little Flock, 12.

The winepress, the threshing, the Seven Last Plagues.

Isaiah 41:10-16

Go to Isaiah 41, verses 10 through 16. This is the history that Gideon is on the verge of entering into in his story. He is by the winepress; he is next to it.

Isaiah 41:10-16 says—

The first time I ever went up to present—a long time ago in California, the first time I ever went up front to present in front of God's people, I was scared, scared, scared. And this dear old sister, Martha Mason, came up and she gave me Isaiah 41:10. And I do not know why. She did not know I was scared.

She said, "Here you go."

So, this verse has been a favorite verse of mine, as it is probably for everyone for many years.

Her husband later on, who was a different sort of person, he came up one time and he gave me the Bible verse that says, "Study to be quiet."

He gives me this Bible verse on this piece of paper, and he said, "Any time you ever think about speaking in church again, remember this verse."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: (Laughter). So, there was a blessing and a curse in that family, as far as my experience.

Verse 10:

> "[10]Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness."—

A nice promise, huh?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

Verse 11:

> —"[11]Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish. [12]Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought. [13]For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee. [14]Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. [15] Behold, I will make thee a new sharp"—Gideon instrument.

GIDEON means thresher.

> —"I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff."—

What gets beaten small and made into chaff? Daniel 2.

Verse 16:

—"[16]Thou shalt fan them,"—

What happens to the chaff in Daniel 2? It gets blown away in the wind.

> —"[16]Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel." Isaiah 41:10-16 (KJV).

Now, so, what I am saying is: Gideon represents those people that thresh the heathen in anger.

And this next passage I have it printed out in your notes because it is from Jeremiah 51, and I jump. We are going to read for the record, for those that are watching this on DVD or on LiveStreaming. We are going to read verses 1 and 2, then 5 through 10, and then 13 and 14, and then 9 through 26, and then verse 33, and then verses 35 through 37, and then verses 44 to 49. It is all in your notes. It is at the end of this passage.

So, here we go. Jeremiah 51, we are trying to understand what Gideon represents in his name, the thresher, and we are seeing that it represents God dealing with the heathen at the end of the world, the Seven Last Plagues time period. It is a parallel understanding to Daniel 2, when the Rock strikes the feet of the image.

> "[1]Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind; [2]And will send unto Babylon fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about. . . .
> "[5]For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel."—

What does that mean? That means at the end of the world the Seventh-day Adventist Church is filled with sin.

Is that what it means to you?

> "[3]For Israel"—

Are we not modern Israel?

> —"[3]For Israel hath not been forsaken,"—

Because the Lord is going to take a remnant out of Israel.

> —"nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel. [6]Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance;"—

What is the time of the Lord's vengeance? That is Isaiah 61.

—"he will render unto her a recompense. [7]Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. [8]Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. [9]We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven,"—

When does her judgment reach unto heaven? At The Sunday Law (in Revelation 18, verse 5-6, her sins have reached unto heaven; therefore, double unto her double: "For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works; in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.").

—"for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. [10]The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. . . .

"[13]O thou that dwellest upon many waters,"—

Who "dwellest upon many waters"? This is modern Babylon, Revelation 17.

—"abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness. [14]The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillars; and they shall lift up a shout against thee. . . ."—

What is the shout that they lift up?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Loud Cry.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Loud Cry, the Third Angel.

—"[19]The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name. [20]Thou art my"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Battle ax.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"battle ax and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;"—

What is this making you think of? Daniel 2, the threshing.

—"[21]And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; [22]and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider; With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid; [23]I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers. [24]And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD. [25]Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain. [26]And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate forever, saith the LORD. . . .

[33]For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon"—

What is the daughter?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Remnant.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Remnant.

—"The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come. . . ."—

Gideon represents those that beat in pieces Babylon: Daniel, chapter 2.

—"[35]The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon,"—

What is the violence done to Christ and His flesh? Well, it is the cross; but, what is it in a secondary sense? It is the persecution of His people. Revelation 17:14, the Ten Kings are going to make war with the Lamb; and, Sister White informs us they do this by persecuting His people.

—"[35]The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. [36]Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry."—

What is that? That is the drying up of the Euphrates.

Who did that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Cyrus.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Cyrus.

—"[37]And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant. . . .

"[34]And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall. [45]My people, go ye out of the midst of her,"—

What is that? That is the Loud Cry of the Fourth Angel, "Come out of Babylon!"

—"[45]My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD. [46]And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler."—

How many rumors are there at the end of the world? Two.

—"[47]Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. [48]Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD. [49]As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth." Jeremiah 51:1–2, 5–10, 13–14, 19–26, 33, 35–37, 44–49 (KJV).

So, when we see Gideon by the winepress, and his name is Thresher, we are seeing Gideon being prepared to accomplish this work, to break in pieces at the threshing floor of Babylon, nations and kings.

JUDGES 6:17-21

Let us go back to Judges 6, verses 17 through 21.

"[17]And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then shew me a sign that thou talkest with me. [18]Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again. [19]And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it."—

Who is he presenting it to? To Christ, the Angel.

—"[20]And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so. [21]Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight." Judges 6:7-21 (KJV).

Signs of the Times, June 23, 1881:

"Gideon desired some token that the one now addressing him was the same that spoke to Moses in the burning bush." Signs of the Times, June 23, 1881.

This is Christ.

JUDGES 6:22-24

Verse 22:

> "And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord God! For because I have seen an angel of the LORD face to face. [23]And the LORD said unto him, Peace be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die. [24]Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites." Judges 6:22-24 (KJV).

Okay. We are probably beyond the scope of this study; but, Sister White says that Gideon is seeking for a sign that this is the angel of the Lord, and once he realizes that it is, what does he say?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Alas.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Alas (Woe), which is also Woe.

So, this sign at the end of the world is accomplished on September 11, 2001, when the Third Woe comes into history, and the Mighty Angel that is dealing with Gideon comes down out of Heaven. This is the sign here.

JUDGES 6:25-27

Verse 25:

> "[25]And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it: [26]And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down. [27]Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night." Judges 6:25-27 (KJV).

JUDGES 6:27-32

Manuscript Releases, volume 21, 129, says,

> "Every heart emptied of self will have the quickening energy of the Holy Spirit. It is now that some are being worked by satanic agencies. Mark the fruit. The whole life is one of ambitious determination to carry out their own plans and purposes, to do a special work to exalt themselves. God puts to them the challenge, 'Choose ye this day whom ye will serve. If it be God, serve Him; if Baal, serve him.' But some have been fixing themselves for a long time by a species of deception and misrepresentation and prevarication, because they have not turned from their idols to serve the living and true God." Manuscript Releases, volume 21, 129.

The work that Gideon is going to do requires that first, before he can be used to go thresh Babylon, to destroy the system of Baal in the world, he first has to take Babylon out of his own home.

Manuscript Releases, volume 18, page 246, says,

> "He has so fully established the idol self in the heart and worshiped at its shrine, there has been no room for Jesus, no room for light, for love, for meekness, and lowliness of heart. Self is magnified into wonderful proportions. His only hope is to die to self, crucify self. If not, he loses that life which measures with the life of God. It is life or death that is set before Dr. Burke. 'Choose you this day whom ye will serve'; 'If the Lord be God, follow Him: but if Baal, then follow him.' I would give my own life if such a gift would save his soul, but it would not. Though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in the land, as I live, saith the Lord God, 'they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; . . . they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness,' which is the imputed righteousness of Christ." Manuscript Releases, volume 18, 246.

Before Gideon takes up this sacred work, first the idolatry in his family must be destroyed.

The Faith I Live By, page 111:

> "What is justification by faith? It is the work of God in laying the glory of man in the dust, and doing for man that which it is not in his power to do for himself. When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ." The Faith I Live By, 111.

This is what Gideon is illustrating here. Those people that are going to partake of the Latter Rain have to receive the Early Rain; and, Sister White tells us that the Early Rain is perfecting holiness in the fear of the Lord.

I jumped some verses, did I not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes, you did. You did Judges 6:27.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, I did; but, I did not do 28 through 32.

Okay. Let us read 28 through 32.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: You did not do the Signs of the Times quote of June 23, 1881.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. I blew it. Somebody should have stopped me. Let us go back.

JUDGES 6:25-27 (CONTINUED)

He [Gideon} tears down the altar, verses 25 through 27, and then in the Signs of the Times [June 32, 1881,] Sister White says,

> "The family to which Gideon belonged was grievously infected with idolatry."—

The Seventh-day Adventist Church is grievously infected with idolatry.

—"His father"—

The leadership.

—"His father erected at Ophrah, where he dwelt, a large altar to Baal, at which the people of the towns worshiped. Gideon was commanded to destroy this altar, to cut down the groves that surrounded it, and in its stead to erect an altar to Jehovah, over the rock on which the offering had been consumed, and then to offer a sacrifice unto the Lord. Gideon faithfully carried out these directions, performing the work by night, lest he should be compelled to desist if he attempted it by day.

"The deliverer of Israel must declare war upon idolatry before he went to battle with the enemies of his people. He must esteem the honor of God above the credit of his father, and regard the divine commands as more obligatory than parental authority. . . .

"It was of great importance that the deliverance of Israel should be preceded by a solemn protest against the worship of Baal, and an acknowledgment of Jehovah as the only true and living God." Signs of the Times, June 23, 1881.

The people that are lifted up as an ensign, that call the eleventh-hour workers out of Babylon during The Sunday Law crisis, must deal with the idolatry that is in the Seventh-day Adventist Church first. They must address it. They must be faithful in that regard if they are going to secure the privilege of being part of the ensign that beats Babylon to pieces, and this is what is being illustrated here.

JUDGES 6:27-32 (RESUMED)

"[27]Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

"[28]And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built. [29]And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing. [30]Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it."—

When God's people, prior to The Sunday Law, begin to stand against the idolatry in Adventism, those that are the idolaters are going to want to kill them.

—"[31]And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will he plead for Baal? Will ye same him?"—

His father starts using some logic. It is the same logic as Elijah. This is a parallel story. Elijah starts taunting the prophets of Baal, "Hey, well, maybe your god is on vacation. Maybe he can't hear."

So, now the same logic is going to be exercised by Joash, Gideon's father. He says, —"Will he plead for Baal? Will ye same him? He that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar. [32]Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying,"—

Gideon gets another name here.

—"Let Baal plead against him,"—

What does JERUBBAAL mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Let Baal plead.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Let Baal plead.

—"he called him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar." Judges 6:27-32 (KJV).

Okay. Then we have the three quotes that I previously read, that we first have to remove idolatry out of our own life, out of our own homes, our own experience, before we will be privileged to be lifted up as an ensign.

We first have to have the Early Rain experience, the sprinkling experience that begins at 9/11, if we are to be qualified to receive the full outpouring at The Sunday Law.

JUDGES 6:33-35

Verses 33 through 35:

"[33]Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel."—

Who is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The threefold enemy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the threefold enemy, modern Babylon: the Beast, the Dragon, and the False Prophet.

And the valley of Jezreel, where is the valley of Jezreel? It is the valley that we looked at when we were considering where the King of the North comes to his end with none to help. It is the valley that has Carmel, the place where Elijah's story was set.

All these famous Bible battles are in the same place, in the valley of Jezreel, is that geographical area as well. This is Armageddon.

What does JEZREEL mean? God sows.

Verse 34:

"[34]But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He blew a trumpet.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He blew a trumpet? So, when the Spirit of the Lord comes upon Gideon, he blew a trumpet; and, Gideon represents the end of the world.

What trumpet is blown at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Seventh.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Seventh Trumpet; and, it marks the point in time when the Spirit of the Lord comes upon Gideon.

When the Seventh Trumpet, the Third Woe, arrives in history, the Latter Rain begins to sprinkle.

> —"[34]But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered after him. [35]And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them." Judges 6:33-35 (KJV).

There is a what? There is a gathering now—two gatherings in Adventism, actually: A gathering together of the wise, and the gathering together of the foolish; the gathering together of those that are drinking the new wine, and the gathering together of the drunkards of Ephraim begins when the Spirit begins to sprinkle, when the Seventh Trumpet arrives in the Third Woe.

Signs of the Times, June 23, 1881:

> "The whole transaction, with the stirring appeals of Gideon, produced a powerful effect upon the people of Ophrah [ISRAEL]"—

The Third Woe produces a powerful effect upon the people of Israel.

> —"All thoughts of violence were dismissed; and when, moved by the Spirit of the Lord, Gideon sounded the trumpet of war, they were among the first to gather to him. He then sent messengers throughout his own tribe of Manasseh, and also to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and all cheerfully obeyed the call." Signs of the Times, June 23, 1881.

What was that? That is the 3:1 combination. You have four tribes there, but the first tribe was set off distinctly by itself, saying that this is an illustration of the Loud Cry of the Third Angel.

JUDGES 6:36-40

Verse 36:

> —"[36]And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, [37]Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor;"—

What does wool come from? Does it come from a cow, a horse, a sheep?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Sheep.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Wool comes from sheep.

> —"[37]Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and"—

What are sheep?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: God's people.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: God's people.

"and if the dew be on the fleece only,"—

What is the dew?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Latter Rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Latter Rain.

Verse 36:

> —"[36]And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, [37]Behold I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said. [38]And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. [39]And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. [40]And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground." Judges 6:36-40

So, what is the story about? It is two classes of fleece, two types of sheep. One received the Latter Rain and one does not receive the Later Rain.

Sister White says in Testimonies to Ministers, beginning at page 506:

> "'Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain; so the Lord shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain.' 'He will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain.' In the East the former rain falls at the sowing time. It is necessary in order that the seed may germinate. Under the influence of the fertilizing showers, the tender shoot springs up. The latter rain, falling near the close of the season, ripens the grain and prepares it for the sickle. The Lord employs these operations of nature to represent the work of the Holy Spirit. As the dew and the rain are given first to cause the seed to germinate, and then to ripen the harvest, so the Holy Spirit is given to carry forward, from one stage to another, the process of spiritual growth. The ripening of the grain represents the completion of the work of God's grace in the soul. By the power of the Holy Spirit the moral image of God is to be perfected in the character. We are to be wholly transformed into the likeness of Christ.
> "The latter rain, ripening earth's harvest, represents the spiritual grace that prepares the church for the coming of the Son of man. But unless the former rain has fallen, there will be no life; the green blade will not spring up. Unless the early showers have done their work, the latter rain can bring no seed to perfection. . . .
> "Many have in a great measure failed to receive the former rain. They have not obtained all the benefits that God has thus provided for them. They expect that the lack will be supplied by the latter rain. When the richest abundance of grace shall be bestowed, they intend to open their hearts to receive it. They are making a terrible mistake. The work that God has begun in the human heart in giving His light and knowledge must be continually going forward. Every individual must realize his own necessity. The heart must be emptied of every defilement and cleansed for the indwelling of the Spirit. It was by the confession and forsaking of sin, by earnest prayer and consecration of themselves to God, that the early disciples prepared for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost. The same work, only in greater degree, must be done now. Then the human agent had only to ask for the blessing, and wait for the Lord to perfect the work concerning him. It is God who began the work, and He will finish His work, making man complete in Jesus Christ. But there must be no neglect of the grace represented by the former rain. Only those who are living up to the light they have will receive greater light. Unless we are daily advancing in the exemplification of the active Christian virtues, we shall not recognize the manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the latter rain. It may be falling on hearts all around us, but we shall not discern or receive it." Testimonies to Ministers, 506–507.

We will be the fleece, the dry fleece.

Chr st's Object Lessons, beginning at page 406, says,

"In the parable, all the ten virgins went out to meet the bridegroom. All had lamps and vessels for oil. For a time there was seen no difference between them. So with the church that lives just before Christ's second coming. All have a knowledge of the Scriptures. All have heard the message of Christ's near approach, and confidently expect His appearing. But as in the parable, so it is now. . . .

"Without the Spirit of God a knowledge of His word is of no avail. The theory of truth, unaccompanied by the Holy Spirit, cannot quicken the soul or sanctify the heart. One may be familiar with the commands and promises of the Bible; but unless the Spirit of God sets the truth home, the character will not be transformed. Without the enlightenment of the Spirit, men will not be able to distinguish truth from error, and they will fall under the masterful temptations of Satan.

"The class represented by the foolish virgins are not hypocrites."—

They are just dry fleece.

—"They have a regard for the truth, they have advocated the truth, they are attracted to those who believe the truth; but they have not yielded themselves to the Holy Spirit's working. They have not fallen upon the Rock, Christ Jesus, and permitted their old nature to be broken up. This class are represented also by the stony-ground hearers. They receive the word with readiness, but they fail of assimilating its principles. Its influence is not abiding. The Spirit works upon man's heart, according to his desire and consent implanting in him a new nature; but the class represented by the foolish virgins have been content with a superficial work. They do not know God. They have not studied His character; they have not held communion with Him; therefore they do not know how to trust, how to look and live." Chr st's Object Lessons, 406–411.

Now, for these last two long quotes, I have been trying to remember a place in the Bible. It is hard to read (it is hard to read with meaning) and figure out the verse you are looking for at the same time. I think it is in Hosea, but I could be wrong. Hosea was coming into my mind.

Okay. Hosea, chapter 6, verse 1.

> "[1]Come, and let us return unto the LORD:"—

What does that mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: We are not with Him.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are not with the Lord.

> "[1]Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up."—

When we are away from the Lord, we are having problems. He is willing to heal our problems.

Verse 2.

> "[2]And after two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." Hosea 6:1-2 (KJV).

So, when are we raised up?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In the third day.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the third day.

When are we raised up?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Third Angel's Message.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Third Angel's Message.

When are we raised up?

When is the ensign lifted up?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Sunday Law.

So, how many days precede The Sunday Law?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Three?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Two; the third day you are raised up.

So, go back to Judges, and we just read 36 through 40 of Judges 6. Gideon wants to know if he is the one that is actually going to be lifted up as an ensign. He is the thresher that is going to finish the work; but, in order to know that, he is going to do the test of the fleece.

How many days does the testing of the fleece take?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two days.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Two days.

And once he sees that he is the chosen one in this story comes the third day when he going to be lifted up.

THE CLEANSINGS

Okay. "The Cleansings."

Signs of the Times, June 2, 1898:

"The Word of God, just as it reads, is the ground of our faith. That Word is the sure word of prophecy, and it demands implicit faith from all who claim to believe it. It is authoritative, containing in itself the proof of its divine origin. 'We have not followed cunningly-devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of His majesty.' 'He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.'" Signs of the Times, June 2, 1898.

The ground of our faith is the Word of God, and the Word of God is the prophetic Word.

So, in Judges 7, verse 1, it says,

"[1]Then Jerubbaal [LET BAAL PLEAD],"—THAT IS GIDEON'S NAME—"who is Gideon, [WHICH MEANS 'THRESHER'] and all the people that were with him, rose up early,"—

They are rising up now.

—"and pitched beside the well of Harod [WHICH IS THE SPRING OF TERROR OR TREMBLING]: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them,"—

So, who is the host of the Midianites? It is Midian, the Amalekites, and the children of the East; but, the entire host is the Midianites; but, where are they?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The North.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is the King of the North. The King of the North is the symbol of modern Babylon, the threefold enemy.

—"so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh"—

They were on the North side of them,

—"by the hill of Moreh"—which means [TEACHER OR EARLY RAIN].

Before the battle starts, they are by the hill of Moreh. They are in the time period of the Early Rain when The Sunday Law comes, when the full outpouring begins.

—"in the valley." Judges 7:1 (KJV).

(The beginning of these notes were presented within the time and DVD allotted for Presentation #71)

THE GEOGRAPHY

> Jerubbaal, [Let Baal Plead]—Mount Carmel; Megiddo; the valley is about 13 miles long with two mountains on the southern end—Ebal (the mount of cursings) and Gerezim (the mount of blessings).

So, let us set the geography: This valley of Jezreel is where Ahab's House made its fate. Okay?

How did Ahab's House meet its fate? Jehu, Jehu.

Mount Carmel is there.

This is where we find Megiddo (Armageddon). The valley is about 13 miles long.

There are two mountains on the southern end.

On the North side is Ebal (which is called the Mount of Cursings); and, on the South side is Gerezim (the Mount of Blessings).

And God's enemy is prophetically on the North.

So, this story of Gideon is a clear story of the end of the world.

So, let us have a word of prayer.

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be among those that are represented by Gideon, that have the privilege of being the threshers in your hands that call people out of Babylon here at the end of the world. But, we understand from the story of Gideon that first we must remove the idolatry, we must remove Bel from our own hearts and our own homes and, if we will do this, you promise to pour your rain out upon us. We ask that you give us the courage to accomplish that work in ourselves through the power of the Holy Spirit. We ask that you give the courage to our brothers and sisters to do likewise. We thank you for bringing us this far in this LiveStreaming and blessing it up to this point, and we thank you for the work we are doing in recording the DVDs. And now we set before you this day and ask you to watch over us in whatever task we are doing, that we would be safe and that we would do it for your glory and honor. In Jesus's name, amen.

DANIEL 11:45

> "[45]And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in [AND] the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him." Daniel 11:45 (KJV).

Review and Herald, February 26, 1914:

"In the last days of this earth's history, God's covenant with his commandment-keeping people is to be renewed. 'In that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and I will make them to lie down safely. And I will betroth thee unto me forever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness; and thou shalt know the Lord.'

"'And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the Lord, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth; and the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel. And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.' Hosea 2:14-23.

"'In that day, . . . the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, . . . shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.' Isaiah 10:20. From 'every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people' there will be those who will gladly respond to the message, 'Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come.' They will turn from every idol that binds them to this earth, and will 'worship him at that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.' They will free themselves from every entanglement, and will stand before the world as monuments of God's mercy. Obedient to every divine requirement, they will be recognized by angels and by men as those that 'keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.' Revelation 14:6–7, 12.

"'Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord thy God. Amos 9:13–15.'" Review and Herald, February 26, 1914.

Isaiah 61:11-62:12; Zechariah 9:12-10:1

Isaiah 61:11-62:12

“Chapter 61:1 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; 2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; 3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

“4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. 5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. 6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves. 7 For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them. 8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed. 10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. 11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

“Chapter 62:1 For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth. 2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name. 3 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God. 4 Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzibah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married. 5 For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

"[6] I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, [7] And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth. [8] The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured: [9] But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

"[10] Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people. [11] Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. [12] And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken." Isaiah 61:1-62:12 (KJV).

Zechariah 9:12-10:1

"Chapter 9:12 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee; [13] When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man. [14] And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the LORD God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south. [15] The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar. [16] And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land. [17] For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

"Chapter 10:1 Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field." Zechariah 9:12-10:1 (KJV).

A MOVEMENT—JUDGES 6:34–35

"[34]But the Spirit of the Lord came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered after him. [35]And he sent his messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them." Judges 6:34-35 (KJV).

The Great Controversy, page 611:

"The angel who unites in the proclamation of the third angel's message is to lighten the whole earth with his glory. A work of world-wide extent and unwonted power is here foretold. The advent movement of 1840–44 was a glorious manifestation of the power of God; the first angel's message was carried to every missionary station in the world, and in some countries there was the greatest religious interest which has been witnessed in any land since the Reformation of the sixteenth century; but these are to be exceeded by the mighty movement under the last warning of the third angel." The Great Controversy, 611.

THE DOUBLE CLEANSING—JUDGES 7:2–7

"[2] And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me. [3] Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand. [4] And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go. [5] So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink. [6] And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water. [7] And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place." Judges 7:2-7 (KJV).

Review and Herald, December 6, 1892:

"When Jesus began his public ministry, he cleansed the temple from its sacrilegious profanation. Among the last acts of his ministry was the second cleansing of the temple. So in the last work for the warning of the world, two distinct calls are made to the churches. The second angel's message is, 'Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.' And in the loud cry of the third angel's message a voice is heard from heaven saying, 'Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plaques. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.'" Review and Herald, December 6, 1892.

JUDGES 7:8–15

"[8]So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

"[9]And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for I have delivered it into thine hand. [10]But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host: [11]And thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the armed men that were in the host. [12]And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude. [13]And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along. [14]And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

"[15]And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian." Judges 7:8-15 (KJV).

Selected Messages, book 2, pages 105-106:

"The book that was sealed was not the book of Revelation, but that portion of the prophecy of Daniel which related to the last days. The Scripture says, 'But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased' (Daniel 12:4). When the book was opened, the proclamation was made, 'Time shall be no longer.' (See Revelation 10:6.) The book of Daniel is now unsealed, and the revelation made by Christ to John is to come to all the inhabitants of the earth. By the increase of knowledge a people is to be prepared to stand in the latter days. . . .

"In the first angel's message men are called upon to worship God, our Creator, who made the world and all things that are therein. They have paid homage to an institution of the Papacy, making of no effect the law of Jehovah, but there is to be an increase of knowledge on this subject." Selected Messages, book 2, 105–106.

Leviticus 23:16-17:

"[16]Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD. [17]Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baken with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD." Leviticus 23:16–17.

Signs of the Times, July 14, 1881:

"The apparently powerless condition of that little company of Israelites, compared with the vast host of the enemy, was fitly represented by the cake of barley bread. But as that loaf overthrew the tent upon which it fell, so would the handful of Israelites destroy their numerous and powerful enemies. The Lord himself directed Gideon's mind in the adoption of a plan which the latter immediately set out to execute. He divided his three hundred men into three companies. To every man was given a trumpet, and a pitcher containing a lighted lamp. He then stationed his men in such a manner that they surrounded the entire camp of Midian. They had been previously instructed how to proceed, and at midnight, at a signal from Gideon, all the three companies blew their trumpets, uncovered their lamps, and broke the pitchers, at the same time shouting, 'The sword of the Lord and of Gideon!' The light of three hundred lamps, piercing the midnight darkness, and that mighty shout from three hundred voices, suddenly aroused the sleeping army. Believing themselves at the mercy of an overwhelming force, the Midianites were panic-stricken. A terrible scene of confusion ensued. In their fright they fled in all directions, and mistaking their own companions for enemies they slew one another.

"As the news of Israel's victory spread, many who had been sent to their homes returned, and joined in the pursuit of their fleeing enemies. Gideon also sent messengers to the Ephraimites, requesting them to seize the fords of the Jordan that the fugitives might not escape eastward.

"In this terrible overthrow, not less than one hundred and twenty thousand of the invaders were slain, and so completely were the Midianites subdued that they were never again able to make war upon Israel. A remnant of fifteen thousand who managed to escape across the river, were pursued by Gideon and his faithful three hundred, and utterly defeated, and Zebah and Zalmunna, two Midianite princes, were slain." Signs of the Times, July 14, 1881.

THE LOUD CRY

Review and Herald, February 21, 1893:

"Those who have been, and who still are, diligent students of prophecy, are to 'prepare the way of the Lord, and to make his paths straight.'" Review and Herald, February 21, 1893.

JUDGES 7:16-22

"[16] And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers. [17] And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall ye do. [18] When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon. "[19] So

Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands. [20] And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon. [21] And they stood every man in his place round about the camp; and all the host ran, and cried, and fled. [22] And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Bethshittah in Zererath, and to the border of Abelmeholah, unto Tabbath." Judges 7:16-22 (KJV).

Patriarchs and Prophets, pages 548 – 554:

"By divine direction a plan of attack was suggested to him, which he immediately set out to execute. The three hundred men were divided into three companies. To every man were given a trumpet, and a torch concealed in an earthen pitcher. The men were stationed in such a manner as to approach the Midianite camp from different directions. In the dead of night, at a signal from Gideon's war horn, the three companies sounded their trumpets; then, breaking their pitchers and displaying the blazing torches, they rushed upon the enemy with the terrible war cry, 'The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon!'" Patriarchs and Prophets, 548–554.

CLAY POTS

The Great Controversy, Introduction, vi-vii:

"God has been pleased to communicate His truth to the world by human agencies, and He Himself, by His Holy Spirit, qualified men and enabled them to do this work. He guided the mind in the selection of what to speak and what to write. The treasure was entrusted to earthen vessels, yet it is, nonetheless, from Heaven. The testimony is conveyed through the imperfect expression of human language, yet it is the testimony of God; and the obedient, believing child of God beholds in it the glory of a divine power, full of grace and truth." The Great Controversy, Introduction, vi-vii.

Acts of the Apostles, page 330:

"'We have this treasure,' the apostle continued, 'in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.' God could have proclaimed His truth through sinless angels, but this is not His plan. He chooses human beings, men compassed with infirmity, as instruments in the working out of His designs. The priceless treasure is placed in earthen vessels. Through men His blessings are to be conveyed to the world. Through them His glory is to shine forth into the darkness of sin." Acts of the Apostles, 330.

LIGHT

The Desire of Ages, page 107.

"To sin, wherever found, 'our God is a consuming fire' (Hebrews 12:29). In all who submit to His power the Spirit of God will consume sin. But if men cling to sin, they become identified with it. Then the glory of God, which destroys sin, must destroy them." The Desire of Ages, 107.

Chr st's Object Lessons, pages 415 - -416:

"Those who wait for the Bridegroom's coming are to say to the people, 'Behold your God.' The last rays of merciful light, the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. The children of God are to manifest His glory. In their own life and character they are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them." Chr st's Object Lessons, 415–416.

Testimonies, volume 7, pages 26 – 27:

"God will move upon men in humble positions to declare the message of present truth. Many such will be seen hastening hither and thither, constrained by the Spirit of God to give the light to those in darkness. The truth is as a fire in their bones, filling them with a burning desire to enlighten those who sit in darkness. Many, even among the uneducated, will proclaim the word of the Lord. Children will be impelled by the Holy Spirit to go forth to declare the message of heaven. The Spirit will be poured out upon those who yield to His promptings. Casting off man's binding rules and cautious movements, they will join the army of the Lord." Testimonies, volume 7, 26–27.

SWORD

"[12]For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart." Hebrews 4:12 (KJV).

TRUMPET

Patriarchs and Prophets, pages 548 – 554:

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. Isaiah 58:1.

"The simple act of blowing a blast upon the trumpet by the army of Joshua around Jericho, and by Gideon's little band about the hosts of Midian, was made effectual, through the power of God, to overthrow the might of His enemies. The most complete system that men have ever devised, apart from the power and wisdom of God, will prove a failure, while the most unpromising methods will succeed when divinely appointed and entered upon with humility and faith. Trust in God and obedience to His will are as essential to the Christian in the spiritual warfare as to Gideon and Joshua in their battles with the Canaanites. By the repeated manifestations of His power in behalf of Israel, God would lead them to have faith in Him—with confidence to seek His help in every emergency. He is just as willing to work with the efforts of His people now and to accomplish great things through weak instrumentalities. All heaven awaits our demand upon its wisdom and strength. God is 'able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think.' Ephesians 3:20." Patriarchs and Prophets, 548–554.

JOSHUA AND GIDEON

Signs of the Times, June 21, 1881:

"It is not safe for God's people to adopt the maxims and customs of the ungodly. The divine principles and modes of working are widely different from those of the world. The history of nations presents no such victories as the conquest of Jericho or the overthrow of the Midianites. No general of heathen armies had ever conducted warfare as Joshua and Gideon had done. These victories teach the great lesson that the only sure ground of success is the help of God, working with human effort. Those who trust to their own wisdom and their own skill will surely be disappointed. The only safe course in all the plans and purposes of life is to preserve the simplicity of faith. Humble trust in God and faithful obedience to his will are as essential to the Christian in waging spiritual warfare as they were to Gideon and his brave associates in fighting the battles of the Lord." Signs of the Times, June 21, 1881.

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 2, 1004.

"It is a dangerous thing for men to resist the Spirit of truth and grace and righteousness, because its manifestations are not according to their ideas, and have not come in the line of their methodical plans. The Lord works in His own way, and according to His own devising. Let men pray that they may be divested of self, and may be in harmony with heaven. Let them pray, 'Not my will, but thine, O God, be done.' Let men bear in mind that God's ways are not their ways, nor His thoughts their thoughts; for He says, 'As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.' In the instruction that the Lord gave Gideon when he was about to fight with the Midianites,—that he should go out against his foes with an army of three hundred blowing trumpets, and carrying empty pitchers in their hands, and shouting, 'The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon,'—these precise, methodical, formal men would see nothing but inconsistency and confusion. They would start back with determined protest and resistance. They would have held long controversies to show the inconsistency and the dangers that would accompany the carrying on of the warfare in such an extreme way, and in their finite judgment they would pronounce all such movements as utterly ridiculous and unreasonable. How unscientific, how inconsistent, would they have thought the movements of Joshua and his army at the taking of Jericho!" The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 2, 1004.

UNITY—JUDGES 7:23–8:3; ISAIAH 11:10–16

Judges 7:23-8:3

"Chapter 7:23 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites. 24 And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Bethbarah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Bethbarah and Jordan. 25 And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

"Chapter 8:1 And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply. 2 And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? 3 God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that." Judges 7:23-8:3 (KJV).

Isaiah 11:10-16

"10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious. 11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. 12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. 13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. 14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. 15 And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dryshod. 16 And there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt." Isaiah 11:10-16 (KJV).

ENSIGN: 5251—from 5264; a flag; also a sail; by impl. a flagstaff; gen. a signal; fig. a token:—banner, pole, sail, (en-)sign, standard. 5264: to gleam from afar, i.e. to be conspicuous as a signal; to raise a beacon:–lift up as an ensign, standard bearer. Strong's.

Evangelism, page 281:

"It is at this time that the true Sabbath must be brought before the people both by pen and by voice. As the fourth commandment of the Decalogue and those that observe it are ignored and despised, the faithful few know that it is the time not to hide their face but exalt the law of Jehovah by unfurling the banner on which is inscribed the message of the third angel, 'Here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.' Revelation 14:12." Evangelism, 281.

Testimonies, volume 8, page 41:

"In vision I saw two armies in terrible conflict. One army was led by banners bearing the world's insignia; the other was led by the bloodstained banner of Prince Immanuel. Standard after standard was left to trail in the dust as company after company from the Lord's army joined the foe and tribe after tribe from the ranks of the enemy united with the commandment-keeping people of God. . . . The army following the banner with the inscription, 'The commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus,' was gloriously triumphant." Testimonies, vol. 8, 41.

Review and Herald, March 19, 1895:

"Trials are to come upon God's people and the tares are to be separated from the wheat. But let not Ephraim envy Judah any more, and Judah will no more vex Ephraim. Kind, tender, compassionate words will flow out from sanctified hearts and lips. It is essential that we be united, and if we all seek the meekness and the lowliness of Christ, we shall have the mind of Christ, and there will be unity of spirit." Review and Herald, March 19, 1895.

Review and Herald, January 3, 1899:

"Paul asks, 'Is Christ divided?' Have we not one spiritual Head? Christ has been the uniting stone, the chief corner-stone, in all ages. The patriarchs, the Levitical priesthood, and Christians of today, all have their center in him. He is all and in all. 'The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.'

"The cross of Christ is the pledge of our fellowship and union. The time must come when the watchmen shall see eye to eye; when the trumpet shall give a certain sound; when 'Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim' any more." Review and Herald, January 3, 1899.

A WOLF AND A RAVEN, (THE PAPACY AND THE TEN KINGS)—OREB & ZEEB

Judges 7:25

"[25]And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan." Judges 7:25 (KJV).

ZEEB: "JACKEL OR WOLF" (DIED AT WINEPRESS)

Psalm 83; Revelation 17:12–14

Psalm 83

"[1]Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.
[2] For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.
[3] They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. [4] They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. [5] For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee: [6] The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes; [7] Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre; [8] Assur also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah. [9] Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison: [10] Which perished at Endor: they became as dung for the earth. [11] Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna: [12] Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession. [13] O my God, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind. [14] As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire; [15] So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm. [16] Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD. [17] Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish: [18] That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth." Psalm 83 (KJV).

Revelation 17:12-14

"[12]And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. [13]These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. [14]These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful." Revelation 17:12-14 (KJV).

Selected Messages, book 3, page 392:

"'These have one mind.' There will be a universal bond of union, one great harmony, a confederacy of Satan's forces. 'And shall give their power and strength unto the beast.' Thus is manifested the same arbitrary, oppressive power against religious liberty, freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience, as was manifested by the papacy, when in the past it persecuted those who dared to refuse to conform with the religious rites and ceremonies of Romanists." Selected Messages, book 3, 392.

Testimonies to Ministers, page 38.

"Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints—with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus. In their enmity against the people of God, they show themselves guilty also of the choice of Barabbas instead of Christ." Testimonies to Ministers, 38.

Revelation 19:17-21

"17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; 18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. 19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. 21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh." Revelation 19:17-21 (KJV).

OREB: "RAVEN" (DIED AT ROCK)

Revelation 18:2

"2And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird." Revelation 18:2 (KJV).

Isaiah 10 – 11

“Chapter 10:1 Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed; 2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless! 3 And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory? 4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

“5 O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation. 6 I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. 7 Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few. 8 For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings? 9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?
10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria; 11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? 12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. 13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man: 14 And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped. 15 Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood. 16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. 17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day; 18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth. 19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

“20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. 21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God. 22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness. 23 For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

“24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt. 25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction. 26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt. 27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. 28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages: 29 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled. 30 Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth. 31 Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee. 32 As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.
33 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.
34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

“Chapter 11:1 And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots: 2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD; 3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: 4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth: with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. 5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. 6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. 7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. 8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. 9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. 10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious. 11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.
12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. 13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. 14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. [15] And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dryshod. [16] And there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt." Isaiah 10, 11 (KJV).

OREB AND ZEEB

Testimonies, volume 7, page 182:

"The world is filled with storm and war and variance. Yet under one head—the papal power—the people will unite to oppose God in the person of His witnesses." Testimonies, volume 7, 182.

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, page 1169:

"We have come to a time when God's sacred work is represented by the feet of the image in which the iron was mixed with the miry clay. God has a people, a chosen people, whose discernment must be sanctified, who must not become unholy by laying upon the foundation wood, hay, and stubble. Every soul who is loyal to the commandments of God will see that the distinguishing feature of our faith is the seventh-day Sabbath. If the government would honor the Sabbath as God has commanded, it would stand in the strength of God and in defense of the faith once delivered to the saints. But statesmen will uphold the spurious sabbath, and will mingle their religious faith with the observance of this child of the papacy, placing it above the Sabbath which the Lord has sanctified and blessed, setting it apart for man to keep holy, as a sign between Him and His people to a thousand generations.

"The mingling of churchcraft and statecraft is represented by the iron and the clay. This union is weakening all the power of the churches. This investing the church with the power of the state will bring evil results. Men have almost passed the point of God's forbearance. They have invested their strength in politics, and have united with the papacy. But the time will come when God will punish those who have made void His law, and their evil work will recoil upon themselves." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, 1169.

Testimonies, volume 1, pages 360 – 361:

"Our kingdom is not of this world. We are waiting for our Lord from heaven to come to earth to put down all authority and power, and set up His everlasting kingdom. Earthly powers are shaken. We need not, and cannot, expect union among the nations of the earth. Our position in the image of Nebuchadnezzar is represented by the toes, in a divided state, and of a crumbling material, that will not hold together. Prophecy shows us that the great day of God is right upon us. It hasteth greatly." Testimonies, volume 1, 360–361.

Luke 8:11

"Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God." Luke 8:11 (KJV).

Genesis 11:1-9

"[1] And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. [2] And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there. [3] And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for morter. [4] And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. [5] And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. [6] And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do. [7] Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. [8] So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city. [9] Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth." Genesis 11:1-9 (KJV).

Youth Instructor, September 22, 1903:

"The image revealed to Nebuchadnezzar, while representing the deterioration of the kingdoms of the earth in power and glory, also fitly represents the deterioration of religion and morality among the people of these kingdoms. As nations forget God, in like proportion they become weak morally.

"Babylon passed away because in her prosperity she forgot God, and ascribed the glory of her prosperity to human achievement.

"The Medo-Persian kingdom was visited by the wrath of heaven because in this kingdom God's law was trampled under foot. The fear of the Lord found no place in the hearts of the people. The prevailing influences in Medo-Persia were wickedness, blasphemy, and corruption.

"The kingdoms that followed were even more base and corrupt. They deteriorated because they cast off their allegiance to God. As they forgot Him, they sank lower and still lower in the scale of moral value (YI Sept. 22, 1903)." Youth Instructor, September 22, 1903."

BREAK DOWN THIS TOWER

JUDGES 8:4-9

"[4]And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing them, [5]And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people that follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian. [6]And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thine army? [7]And Gideon said, Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers. [8]And he went up thence to Penuel, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him." Judges 8:4-9 (KJV).

Isaiah 2:12-22

"[12] For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low: [3] And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, [14] And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up, [15] And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall, [16] And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures. [17] And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. [18] And the idols he shall utterly abolish. [19] And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. [20] In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats; [21] To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. [22] Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of? Isaiah 2:12-22 (KJV).

JACOB'S TIME OF TROUBLE: PENUEL

Judges 8:10-12

"[10]Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for there fell an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

"[11]And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host: for the host was secure. [12]And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host." Judges 8:10-12 (KJV).

ZEBAH: "BORN ON THE DAY OF SACRIFICE"

Zephaniah 1 – 2:3

"Chapter 1:1The word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah. [2] I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD. [3] I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling blocks with the wicked: and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD. [4] I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests; [5] And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham; [6] And them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him. [7] Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests. [8] And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel. [9] In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit. [10] And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills. [11] Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

"[12] And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil. [13] Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof. [14] The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. [15] That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, [16] A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers. [17] And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung. [18] Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

"Chapter 2:1 Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired; 2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you. 3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger." Zephaniah 1 – 2:3 (KJV).

ZALMUNNA: "SHADOW OF PROTECTION IS WITHHELD"

Isaiah 30:1–3; Psalm 91

Isaiah 30:1-3

"1 Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin:
2 That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion." Isaiah 30:1-3 (KJV).

Maranatha, page 199:

"The two armies will stand distinct and separate, and this distinction will be so marked that many who shall be convinced of truth will come on the side of God's commandment-keeping people. When this grand work is to take place in the battle, prior to the last closing conflict, many will be imprisoned, many will flee for their lives from cities and towns, and many will be martyrs for Christ's sake in standing in defense of the truth." Maranatha, 199.

SUCCOTH: [BOOTHS]

The Desire of Ages, pages 447 – 448.

"The Feast of Tabernacles was the closing gathering of the year. It was God's design that at this time the people should reflect on His goodness and mercy. The whole land had been under His guidance, receiving His blessing. Day and night His watchcare had continued. The sun and rain had caused the earth to produce her fruits. From the valleys and plains of Palestine the harvest had been gathered. The olive berries had been picked, and the precious oil stored in bottles. The palm had yielded her store. The purple clusters of the vine had been trodden in the wine press.

"The feast continued for seven days, and for its celebration the inhabitants of Palestine, with many from other lands, left their homes, and came to Jerusalem.

From far and near the people came, bringing in their hands a token of rejoicing. Old and young, rich and poor, all brought some gift as a tribute of thanksgiving to Him who had crowned the year with His goodness, and made His paths drop fatness. Everything that could please the eye, and give expression to the universal joy, was brought from the woods; the city bore the appearance of a beautiful forest.

"This feast was not only the harvest thanksgiving, but the memorial of God's protecting care over Israel in the wilderness. In commemoration of their tent life, the Israelites during the feast dwelt in booths or tabernacles of green boughs. These were erected in the streets, in the courts of the temple, or on the housetops. The hills and valleys surrounding Jerusalem were also dotted with these leafy dwellings, and seemed to be alive with people.

"With sacred song and thanksgiving the worshipers celebrated this occasion. A little before the feast was the Day of Atonement, when, after confession of their sins, the people were declared to be at peace with Heaven. Thus the way was prepared for the rejoicing of the feast. 'O give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good: for His mercy endureth forever' (Psalm 106:1) rose triumphantly, while all kinds of music, mingled with shouts of hosanna, accompanied the united singing. The temple was the center of the universal joy. Here was the pomp of the sacrificial ceremonies. Here, ranged on either side of the white marble steps of the sacred building, the choir of Levites led the service of song. The multitude of worshipers, waving their branches of palm and myrtle, took up the strain, and echoed the chorus; and again the melody was caught up by voices near and afar off, till the encircling hills were vocal with praise." The Desire of Ages, 447–448.

JUDGES 8:22-23

"[22] Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian. [23] And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you." Judges 8:22-23 (KJV).

Signs of the Times, July 28, 1881:

"The people of Israel, filled with joy and gratitude at their deliverance from the Midianites, proposed to Gideon that he should become their king, and that the throne should be confirmed to his descendants. His answer shows how true and noble were the motives by which he was actuated. 'I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you. The Lord shall rule over you.' At the divine command, Gideon had willingly gone forth to battle for Israel; he had not shrunk from duty, nor hesitated in the face of danger; but he nobly refused to accept from the people those honors which the Lord had reserved to himself the right to bestow.

"God had manifested special favor to Gideon, in selecting him as the instrument through whom to deliver Israel. While great responsibilities rested upon him in this important crisis, Gideon's course was marked with humility and faithful obedience. God accepted his work, and crowned his efforts with success. But now Gideon was assailed by temptation in a new form. When the reprover of wrong has done his work, in obedience to God's commands, the period of inactivity which succeeds the struggle, is often the most dangerous. This danger Gideon now experienced. A spirit of unrest was upon him. Hitherto he had been content to execute the commands given him of God; but now, instead of calmly waiting for divine instruction, he began to devise and execute plans for himself. He had not learned to wait as well as to labor—to suffer God's will as well as to do it." Signs of the Times, July 28, 1881.

Review and Herald, February 21, 1888:

"No impatient man or woman will ever enter into the courts of heaven. We must not allow the natural feelings to control our judgment." Review and Herald, February 21, 1888.

JUDGES 8:24-29

"[24] And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.) [5] And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey. [26] And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; beside ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about their camels' necks. [27] And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel went thither a whoring after it: which thing became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house. "[28] Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon. [29] And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house." Judges 8:24-29 (KJV).

Patriarchs and Prophets, page 574:

"It was not customary for the Levites to enter upon their peculiar services until they were twenty-five years of age, but Samuel had been an exception to this rule. Every year saw more important trusts committed to him; and while he was yet a child, a linen ephod was placed upon him as a token of his consecration to the work of the sanctuary." Patriarchs and Prophets, 574.

Patriarchs and Prophets, page 351:

"Over the ephod was the breastplate, the most sacred of the priestly vestments. This was of the same material as the ephod. It was in the form of a square, measuring a span, and was suspended from the shoulders by a cord of blue from golden rings. The border was formed of a variety of precious stones, the same that form the twelve foundations of the City of God. Within the border were twelve stones set in gold, arranged in rows of four, and, like those in the shoulder pieces, engraved with the names of the tribes. The Lord's direction was, 'Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the Lord continually.' Exodus 28:29. So Christ, the great High Priest, pleading His blood before the Father in the sinner's behalf, bears upon His heart the name of every repentant, believing soul. Says the psalmist, 'I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me.' Psalm 40:17." Patriarchs and Prophets, 351.

Signs of the Times, July 28, 1881:

"Gideon led the people to look upon this ephod and the breastplate as possessing special sacredness in themselves. In this he erred. All that could make them sacred was the fact that they were employed in the solemn service of God as he had directed. The high priest alone was authorized to wear them when he went in before the Lord." Signs of the Times, July 28, 1881.

Signs of the Times, July 28, 1881:

"The ephod and the breastplate were regarded with pride, because of their costly material and exquisite workmanship; and after a time were looked upon with superstitious reverence." Signs of the Times, July 28, 1881.

Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, pages 383 – 384:

"A religion of externals is attractive to the unrenewed heart. The pomp and ceremony of the Catholic worship have a seductive, bewitching power by which many are deceived; and they come to look upon the Roman Church as the very gate of Heaven. None are proof against her influence but those who have planted their feet firmly upon the foundation of truth, and whose hearts are renewed by the Spirit of God. Thousands who have not an experimental knowledge of Christ will be swept into this deception.

"A form of godliness without the power is just what they desire. The Romanist feels at liberty to sin, because the church claims the right to pardon. To him who loves self-indulgence, it is more pleasing to confess to a fellow-mortal than to open the soul to God. It is more palatable to human nature to do penance than to renounce sin. It is easier to mortify the flesh by sackcloth and nettles and galling chains than to crucify fleshly lusts. Heavy is the yoke which the carnal heart is willing to bear rather than bow to the yoke of Christ.

"There is a striking similarity between the church of Rome and the Jewish church at the time of Christ's first advent. While the Jews secretly trampled upon every principle of the law of God, they were outwardly rigorous in the observance of its precepts, loading it down with exactions and traditions that made obedience painful and burdensome. As the Jews professed to revere the law, so do Romanists claim to reverence the cross. They exalt the symbol of Christ's sufferings, while in their lives they deny him whom it represents." Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, 383–384.

Patriarchs and Prophets, page 317:

"How often, in our own day, is the love of pleasure disguised by a 'form of godliness'! A religion that permits men, while observing the rites of worship, to devote themselves to selfish or sensual gratification, is as pleasing to the multitudes now as in the days of Israel. And there are still pliant Aarons, who, while holding positions of authority in the church, will yield to the desires of the unconsecrated, and thus encourage them in sin." Patriarchs and Prophets, 317.

Signs of the Times, July 28, 1881:

"Satan is never idle. He is filled with hatred against God, and is constantly enticing men into a wrong course of action. After the armies of the Lord have gained a signal victory, the great adversary is especially busy. He comes disguised as an angel of light, and as such he endeavors to overthrow the work of God. Thus thoughts and plans were suggested to the mind of Gideon, by which Israel were led astray.

"The tribes on the east side of the Jordan were quite a distance from the tabernacle at Shiloh, to which all the men of Israel were required to repair three times a year, to attend the great annual feasts. This of course, required a considerable outlay of time and means. The thought was suggested to Gideon that it would be a great advantage to these tribes to have a place at home, for sacrifice and worship.

"Without waiting for the divine sanction, he determined to provide a suitable place and to institute a system of worship similar to that carried on at the tabernacle at Shiloh. . . .

"As is natural, even at the present day, the people of Israel were more ready to ascribe the honor of the victory to Gideon than to the Lord. They readily complied with the request. . .

"Gideon led the people to look upon this ephod and the breastplate as possessing special sacredness in themselves. In this he erred. All that could make them sacred was the fact that they were employed in the solemn service of God as he had directed. The high priest alone was authorized to wear them when he went in before the Lord.

"Because he had been commanded to offer a sacrifice upon the rock where the angel appeared to him, Gideon concluded that he had been divinely appointed to officiate as a priest, and that by instituting a service there, he might save the people the trouble and expense of their journeys to Shiloh.

"The Lord was not pleased with this arrangement, for it was contrary to the order which he had established. It was an assumption of authority on the part of Gideon which proved disastrous to himself and to all Israel. God designs that his people shall place a high estimate upon every provision for their salvation. He desires them to appreciate his great mercy and condescension, and to manifest gratitude and zeal proportionate to the value of the great gift of the Son of God. But we are disposed to shun sacrifice and self-denial for our eternal interest, while we readily devote time and strength to seeking temporal advantage. Thus our conduct too often shows that we place a higher estimate upon earthly things that upon the heavenly treasure.

"It is the work of God's true people to advance his glory in the earth. Through connection with him, they will be imbued with divine wisdom, which will lead them to place a right estimate upon eternal things. The Lord desired his people to go up to the tabernacle at Shiloh, at the stated seasons, even though it might require considerable sacrifice. That very effort would lead them to place a higher value upon their religious privileges.

"In seeking to bring the worship of God nearer home, Gideon was but providing to indulge the people in their indolence. This would have no beneficial influence upon them. All plans based upon human reasoning should be looked upon with a jealous eye, lest Satan insinuate himself into the position which belongs to God alone. The course pursued by Gideon proved a snare, not only to himself and family, but to all Israel. The irregular and unauthorized worship led the people finally to forsake the Lord altogether, to serve idols. The ephod and the breastplate were regarded with pride, because of their costly material and exquisite workmanship; and after a time were looked upon with superstitious reverence. The services at the place of worship were celebrated with feasting and merriment, and at last became a scene of dissipation and licentiousness. Thus Israel were led away from God by the very man who had once overthrown their idolatry.

"If men could foresee the result of their course, if they could realize the influence which they exert upon their own families and upon society, they would move with greater caution, and would maintain a firmer reliance upon God. The misconduct of parents frequently produces the most ruinous effects upon their children and associates, after the actors themselves have been laid in the grave. There is no evil which man should so much dread, as being given up to his own lusts. This was the fate of Israel. After Gideon's death, the people, especially his own house, plunged into the grossest idolatry.

"Thus the snare which Gideon had so unwittingly set, entrapped the unwary feet of thousands. A snare,—how many snares are to be found in our path today! There is need that light from above be constantly shed upon our way, that we may see the snares laid for our feet. Oh, that fathers and mothers could realize the dangers that beset their path and the path of their children!

"Those who are placed in the highest positions may lead astray, especially if they feel that there is no danger. The wisest err; the strongest grow weary. Excess of caution is often attended with as great danger as excess of confidence. To go forward without stumbling, we must have the assurance that a hand all-powerful will hold us up, and an infinite pity be exercised toward us if we fall. God alone can at all times hear our cry for help.

"It is a solemn thought that the removal of one safeguard from the conscience, the failure to fulfill one good resolution, the formation of one wrong habit, may result not only in our own ruin, but in the ruin of those who have put confidence in us. Our only safety is to follow where the steps of the Master lead the way, to trust for protection implicitly to Him who says, 'Follow me.' Our constant prayer should be, 'Hold up my goings in thy path, O Lord, that my footsteps slip not.'

"The Israelites needed the benefits of assembling for worship and entering into covenant together to serve the Lord. In separating themselves from the place of worship divinely appointed, they lost much. God had servants whose lips he unsealed to speak words of warning, encouragement, and reproof, so that the light received from Heaven by one shone not for himself alone, but to lighten the path of others. God knows best what his people need. His words come down to us, in warning and instruction,—'Not forsaking the assembling of yourselves together, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as ye see the day approaching.'

"At the present day, as in ancient times, the people of God plead their own ease or convenience as an excuse for neglecting divine service. They will devise means to preserve the Christian name without making any sacrifice of time or means. God requires his people to maintain his worship. And those who are burdened with care and responsibility, should be the last to excuse themselves from religious privileges. They need wisdom from above. They need to be constantly reaching upward to lay hold on the divine arm, lest they stumble and fall. They can walk safely, only as they fear God, and obey his voice. Those whom God has burdened with a place in his work, need not be left to their own judgment, as was Gideon, to lead men away from the right path. The feet that God is guiding will press on in a way which leads straight forward, ever ascending, and ever brightening, until it reaches the brightness of eternal day.

"All wrong-doing is forsaking the path where Jesus leads, turning aside to the crooked ways of darkness. Those who are determined in the strength of Jesus to make the most of their opportunities, seizing every ray of light that Heaven sheds on their pathway, will go straight forward, fulfilling their duty to God and to their fellow-men. They will not fall, nor stumble. A divine Guide goes before the faithful, encouraging them with his voice, aiding them with his hand, and they need never mistake the way." Signs of the Times, July 28, 1881.

PART SEVEN: JOSIAH

THE FOUNDATION

2 CHRONICLES 35:19-25

"[19] In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

"[20] After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. [21] But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not. [22] Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. [23] And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. [24] His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. [25] And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations." 2 Chronicles 35:19-25 (KJV).

Bible Commentary, volume 2, page 1039:

"Those who will not take God's Word as assurance, need not hope that human wisdom can help them; for human wisdom, aside from God, is like the waves of the sea, driven with the wind, and tossed. The word of Christ is, 'He shall guide you into all truth.' Reject not the light given.

"Read the history of Josiah. He had done a good work. During his reign idolatry was put down, and apparently successfully uprooted. The temple was reopened and the sacrificial offerings re-established. His work was done well.

"But at the last he died in battle. Why?—Because he did not heed the warnings given. . . . [2 Chronicles 34:26–33; 35:20–24 quoted.]

"Because Josiah died in battle, who will charge God with denying His word that Josiah should go to his grave in peace? The Lord did not give orders for Josiah to make war on the king of Egypt. When the Lord gave the king of Egypt orders that the time had come to serve Him by warfare, and the ambassadors told Josiah not to make war on Necho, no doubt Josiah congratulated himself that no word from the Lord had come directly to him. To turn back with his army would have been humiliating, so he went on. And because of this, he was killed in battle, a battle that he should not have had anything to do with. The man who had been so greatly honored by the Lord, did not honor the word of God. The Lord had spoken in his favor, predicted good things for him; and Josiah became self-confident, and failed to heed the warning. He went against the word of God, choosing to follow his own way, and God could not shield him from the consequences of his act.

"In this our day men choose to follow their own desires and their own will. Can we be surprised that there is so much spiritual blindness?" The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 2, 1039.

Chr st's Object Lessons, page 152:

"For each of the classes represented by the Pharisee and the publican there is a lesson in the history of the apostle Peter. In his early discipleship Peter thought himself strong. Like the Pharisee, in his own estimation he was 'not as other men are.' When Christ on the eve of His betrayal forewarned His disciples, 'All ye shall be offended because of Me this night,' Peter confidently declared, 'Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.' Mark 14:27, 29. Peter did not know his own danger. Self-confidence misled him. He thought himself able to withstand temptation; but in a few short hours the test came, and with cursing and swearing he denied his Lord." Chr st's Object Lessons, 152.

1 KINGS 13

JOSIAH: Strong's Concordance, H2977—From the same root as H803 and H3050; founded of Jah; Joshijah, the name of two Israelites: - Josiah. H803— Foundation.

Testimonies, volume 8, pages 296 – 297:

"The enemy is seeking to divert the minds of our brethren and sisters from the work of preparing a people to stand in these last days. His sophistries are designed to lead minds away from the perils and duties of the hour. They estimate as of little value the light that Christ came from heaven to give to John for His people. They teach that the scenes just before us are not of sufficient importance to receive special attention. They make of no effect the truth of heavenly origin, and rob the people of God of their past experience, giving them instead a false science. 'Thus saith the Lord: Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein.' [Jeremiah 6:16.]

"Let none seek to tear away the foundations of our faith,—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work, by prayerful study of the Word and by revelation. Upon these foundations we have been building for more than fifty years. Men may suppose that they have found a new way, that they can lay a stronger foundation than that which has been laid; but this is a great deception. 'Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid.' [1 Corinthians 3:11.] In the past, many have undertaken to build a new faith, to establish new principles; but how long did their building stand? It soon fell; for it was not founded upon the Rock." Testimonies, volume 8, 296–297.

A MOVEMENT: 2 KINGS 22:1-7

"[1] Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath. [2] And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

"[3] And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, [4] Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people: [5] And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house, [6] Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house. [7] Howbeit there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully." 2 Kings 22:1-7 (KJV).

The Great Controversy, page 611:

"The angel who unites in the proclamation of the third angel's message is to lighten the whole earth with his glory. A work of world-wide extent and unwonted power is here foretold. The advent movement of 1840–44 was a glorious manifestation of the power of God; the first angel's message was carried to every missionary station in the world, and in some countries there was the greatest religious interest which has been witnessed in any land since the Reformation of the sixteenth century; but these are to be exceeded by the mighty movement under the last warning of the third angel.

"The work will be similar to that of the Day of Pentecost. . . .

"The great work of the gospel is not to close with less manifestation of the power of God than marked its opening." The Great Controversy, 611.

ISAIAH 58:12—BUILD; RAISE UP; REPAIR AND RESTORE

"[12] And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in." Isaiah 58:12 (KJV).

THE OLD WASTE PLACES

Isaiah 61:1-4

"[1] The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; [2] To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; [3] To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

"[4] And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations." Isaiah 61:1–4 (KJV).

Luke 4:18-20

"[18] THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME, BECAUSE HE HATH ANOINTED ME TO PREACH THE GOSPEL TO THE POOR; HE HATH SENT ME TO HEAL THE BROKENHEARTED, TO PREACH DELIVERANCE TO THE CAPTIVES, AND RECOVERING OF SIGHT TO THE BLIND, TO SET AT LIBERTY THEM THAT ARE BRUISED, [19] TO PREACH THE ACCEPTABLE YEAR OF THE LORD. [20] And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him." Luke 4:18–20 (KJV).

OLD: Strong's Concordance, H5769—From H5956; properly concealed, that is, the vanishing point; generally time out of mind (past or future), that is, (practically) eternity. H5956—A primitive root; to veil from sight, that is, conceal (literally or figuratively):—X any ways, blind, dissembler, hide (self), secret (thing).

WASTE: Strong's Concordance, H2723—properly drought, that is, (by implication) a *desolation: - decayed place, desolate (place, -tion), destruction, (laid) waste (place).

FORMER: Strong's Concordance, H7223—From H7221; first, in place, time or rank (as adjective or noun):—ancestor, (that were) before (-time), beginning, eldest, first, fore [-father] (-most), former (thing), of old time, past. H7221—a beginning: - beginning.

P. Gerard Damsteegt, Foundations of the Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, page 22:

"William Miller, when applying his hermeneutic, noticed in the various apocalyptic passages a recurring theme of controversy between the people of God and their enemies. In his analysis of the persecuting powers of God's people throughout the ages he developed the concept of the two abominations, defined as paganism (the first abomination) symbolizing the persecuting force outside the church, and the papacy (the second abomination) representing the persecuting power within the church. It was the motif of the two abominations that characterized most of his following prophetic interpretations." P. Gerard Damsteegt, Foundations of the Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, 22.

REPAIRER: Strong's Concordance, H1443—A primitive root; to wall in or around:—close up, fence up, hedge, enclose, make up [a wall], mason, repairer.

RESTORER: Strong's Concordance, H7725—A primitive root; to turn back (hence, away) transitively or intransitively, literally or figuratively (not necessarily with the idea of return to the starting point); generally to retreat; often adverbially again.

JEREMIAH 6:16

"[16] Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein." Jeremiah 6:16 (KJV).

THE FOUNDATIONS OF MANY GENERATIONS

Isaiah 28:9-13

2 KINGS 22:8-10

"[8] And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD, And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. [9] And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work that have the oversight of the house of the LORD. [10] And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king." 2 Kings 22:8-10 (KJV).

THE 2520

"I [William Miller] had Cru en 's Concor anc e, which I think is the best in the world; so I took that and my Bible, and set down to my desk, and read nothing else, except the newspapers a little, for I was determined to know what my Bible meant. I began at Genesis, and read on slowly; and when I came to a text that I could could [sic] not understand, I searched through the Bible to find out what it meant. After I had gone through the Bible in this way, O, how bright and glorious the truth appeared! I found what I have been preaching to you. I was satisfied that the seven times terminated in 1843. Then I came to the 2300 days; they brought me to the same conclusion." Apollos Hale, The Second Advent Manuel, 65.

THE YEAR/DAY TEST

Isaiah 6, 7

"Chapter 6:1 In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the LORD sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. 2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. 3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. 4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. 5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. 6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: 7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. 8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. 9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. 10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed. 11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, 12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land. 13 But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

"Chapter 7:1 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. 2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind. 3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field; 4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be faintheartedfor the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. 5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, 6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal: 7 Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

[8] For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.
[9] And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established. [10] Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying, [11] Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. [12] But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. [13] And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?
[14] Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. [15] Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. [16] For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

"[17] The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria. [18] And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. [19] And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes. [20] In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard. [21] And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep; [22] And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land. [23] And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns. [24] With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns. [25] And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle." Isaiah 6, 7 (KJV).

"[11] And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes. [12] And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying, [13] Go ye, enquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us. [14] So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college;) and they communed with her. [15] And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me, [16] Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read: [17] Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched. [18] But to the king of Judah which sent you to enquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard; [19] Because thine heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD. [20] Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again." 2 Kings 22:11-20 (KJV).

2 Kings 23:1-8

"[1] And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. [2] And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD. [3] And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant. [4] And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Bethel. [5] And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all he host of heaven. [6] And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people. [7] And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the grove. [8] And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city." 2 Kings 23:1-8 (KJV).

Ezekiel 37:15-28

"[15] The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, [16] Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and for all the house of Israel his companions: [17] And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand. [18] And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these? [19] Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand. [20] And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

"[21] And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: [22] And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all. [23] Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. [24] And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them. [25] And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever. [26] Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. [27] My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people. [28] And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore." Ezekiel 37:15-28 (KJV).

2 KINGS 23:1–3; ISAIAH 27:8–11; DANIEL 2:34–35; ISAIAH 41:15–16; JEREMIAH 51:33; MICAH 4:11–13

2 Kings 23:1-3

"[1] And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. [2] And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD. [3] And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant." 2 Kings 23:1-3 (KJV).

Isaiah 27:8-11

"[8] In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind. [9] By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up. [10] Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof. [11]When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favor." Isaiah 27:8-11 (KJV).

Daniel 2:34-35

"[34] Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. [35]Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors, and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth." Daniel 2:34-35 (KJV).

Isaiah 41:15-16

"[15] Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff. [16] Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel." Isaiah 41:15-16 (KJV).

Jeremiah 51:33

"[33] For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come." Jeremiah 51:33 (KJV).

Micah 4:11-13

"[11] Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion. [12] But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor. [13]Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth." Micah 4:11-13 (KJV)

Habakkuk's Two Tables #72

[#72B of Notes, with DVD]

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we ask that as we begin this LiveStreaming project over the next couple of months that you would bless our efforts, that you would make the production go smoothly and without glitches, and that the material also that we are recording the DVDs you would watch over and make that a successful work as well. And as we begin to bring the study of Habakkuk's Tables to a conclusion, we invite you to be with us. We want your Holy Spirit to guide and direct our considerations. We want you to take control of the words and the concepts that I would share, overrule my humanity that what is taught would be from the Throne Room on High. We ask that you would pour the Latter Rain out upon at this time by opening our understanding to your Word, and we ask that you bless not only those of us that are here at this worship this morning but those that are watching this on LiveStream, wherever they might be, and bless those that later on watch it on DVDs. Please help us to understand that we are now in the fulfillment of the Omega apostasy and that you have given us light about what transpires in this time, and help us access that light that we can be better prepared to navigate through this deceptive turbulous time. We ask this in Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is #72[20] of Habakkuk's Tables, and we are now going to take up the part of the presentation where we take the truths that are on these [1843 and 1850] Charts and show them from the Bible. We are going to deal primarily with four truths on here [referring to the 1843 Chart]. We are going to deal with Daniel 2; we are going to deal with the 2520; we are going to deal with the Daily; and, we are going to deal with Islam, but we are going to deal with it from the Bible but also in the context of Present Truth.

We began this study by showing that Ellen White endorses the truths on these Charts, and she endorses the Charts in general; but, the specific truths on these Charts she endorses.

And then we spent the majority of our time looking at how these Charts and the truths on these Charts are typified in the Word of God; and, now we are going to show these truths from the Bible, defend them from the Bible. But, we are going to put it in the context of the Omega apostasy, or the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians; because, that is where the Bible places these truths at the end of the world. This is the stumbling block or the Rock of Ages, whichever way you relate to it, that tests Adventism at the end of time. So, in order to rightly identify these truths from the Word of God, we have to place them in the context of the Omega apostasy. So, we are going to make some points along that line here in this presentation.

And certainly most of this week's presentations are going to be derived from truths that we have already put in place in the first 71 presentations [inclusive of notes for #72A through #74B, attached to Presentation #71 in the conclusion of the study on Josiah]; but, we are going to focus them in before we begin our study of these doctrines.

[20] Corrected to #72 (with notes identified as #72B) based upon a statement of a later presentation by Brother Pippenger that the two segments (#72A through #74A on Josiah) were skipped over to enter into the Conclusion of the Habakkuk's Two Tables series.

THE VERY LAST DECEPTION

We will begin with Selected Messages, book 1, page 48.

> "Satan is . . . constantly pressing in the spurious—to lead away from the truth. The very last deception of Satan will be to make of none effect the testimony of the Spirit of God. 'Where there is no vision, the people perish' (Proverbs 29:18). Satan will work ingeniously, in different ways and through different agencies, to unsettle the confidence of God's remnant people in the true testimony.
> "There will be a hatred kindled against the Testimonies which is satanic. The workings of Satan will be to unsettle the faith of the churches in them, for this reason: Satan cannot have so clear a track to bring in his deceptions and bind up souls in his delusions if the warnings and reproofs and counsels of the Spirit of God are heeded." Selected Messages, book 1, 48.

So, a few things in here: The last deception that confronts Adventism has to do with the Spirit of Prophecy; so, we are going to show the last deception is also represented as the Omega Apostasy and we argue, therefore, that the Omega Apostasy includes the testing in relation to how we relate to the Spirit of Prophecy.

And, if the Spirit of Prophecy is rejected, she says that Satan will have the ability to bring in his delusions (in the plural). We are going to consider delusions here a great deal this week. We are going to show that Isaiah 66 delusions, the Lord is going to choose the delusions of Adventists in the Omega prophecy, that those delusions in Isaiah 66 are also the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians. And in both those cases, in Isaiah and 2 Thessalonians, it is portrayed as if God sends them strong delusions; but, here we see that it is Satan that brings these delusions, and this is similar to Pharaoh. The Bible teaches that Pharaoh hardened his own heart, but that God hardened Pharaoh's heart. So, these delusions in this passage that we looked at that come from Satan, these delusions are allowed to take place by the Lord. So, from one aspect, they are satanic delusions; but, the Lord takes credit for them from another angle.

DELUSIONS

In the next quote we can see this: Testimonies, volume 8, pages 249-250. It says,

> "One who sees beneath the surface, who reads the hearts of all men, says of those who have had great light:"—

And we have already established in this study that the expression, "those who have had great light and opportunities" are Seventh-day Adventists.

> —"One who sees beneath the surface, who reads the hearts of all men, says of those who have had great light: 'They are not afflicted and astonished because of their moral and spiritual condition.' Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations. I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before Mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.' 'God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie,' because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved,' 'but had pleasure in unrighteousness.' Isaiah 66:3, 4; 2 Thessalonians 2:11, 10, 12.

"The heavenly Teacher inquired: 'What stronger delusion can beguile the mind than the pretense that you are building on the right foundation and that God accepts your works, when in reality you are working out many things according to worldly policy and are sinning against Jehovah? Oh, it is a great deception, a fascinating delusion, that takes possession of minds when men who have once known the truth, mistake the form of godliness for the spirit and power thereof; when they suppose that they are rich and increased with goods and in need of nothing, while in reality they are in need of everything.'" Testimonies, volume 8, 249–250.

So, the very last deception of Satan has to do with making of none effect the Spirit of Prophecy; and, those people that set aside the Spirit of Prophecy, in one way or another, will be opened to satanic delusions. But, the satanic delusions that will come in the last deception—and this would be the Omega Apostasy—are the delusions that the Lord selects for those people, according to Isaiah, in chapter 66; and, those delusions are summarized as the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians. And, this is definitely the end of the world, because this last phrase speaks about the men who have once known the truth (that is Adventists who knew the truth in the beginning), but they are Laodiceans: they are rich and increased with goods and in need of nothing. It is the end of the world. Laodicea is about ready to be spewed out of the mouth of the Lord, and they are going to receive strong delusions.

But, the strong delusion that I receive, if I receive it, may very well be different than the strong delusion that you receive. The Lord is going to choose our delusions. And, those that are being deluded, one of their fundamental misunderstandings is, they think they are building on the right foundation, but they are building on the wrong foundation. And this theme of the two foundations we are going to note as we proceed. It says, "What strong delusion can beguile the mind than the pretense that you are building on the right foundation . . . ? So, one of the big errors has to do with which foundation you are building upon.

THIS WILL SAVE US FROM ACCEPTING STRONG DELUSION

From Spalding and Magan, we are going to look at this next quote in a very different sort of way. But, what we are saying here is that the last apostasy in Adventism, based upon the light Sister White has given us in the Alpha history of John Harvey Kellogg, the last apostasy is the Omega Apostasy; but, the last apostasy is to make none effect the Spirit of Prophecy. So, I am saying that the Omega has to do with the Spirit of Prophecy; but, what it also has to do is with the right or wrong foundation. These are the points that we are trying to build as we proceed.

Spalding and Magan, page 324:

"Perilous times are before us. Everyone who has a knowledge of the truth should awake, and place himself, body, soul, and spirit, under the discipline of God. Wake up, brethren, wake up. The enemy is on our track. We must be wide awake, on our guard against him. We must put on the whole armor of God. We must follow the directions given in the spirit of prophecy. We must love and > obey the truth for this time. This will save us from accepting strong delusions. God has spoken to us through his Word. He has spoken to us through the Testimonies to the church, and through the books that have helped to make plain our present duty and the position that we should now occupy. The warnings that have been given, line upon line, precept upon precept, should be heeded. If we disregard them, what excuse shall we offer?

> "The new theories in regard to God and Christ, as brought out in The Living Temple, are not in harmony with the teaching of Christ. The Lord Jesus came to this world to represent the Father. He did not represent God as an essence pervading nature, but as a personal being. Christians should bear in mind that God has a personality as verily as has Christ." Spalding and Magan, 324.

Now, in this quote, Spalding and Magan is a collection of letters that Sister White sent to Spalding and Magan. So, this is not any compilation here. Okay? Spalding and Magan is not a compilation.

And, when she is talking about the delusions that we can be saved from, she is specifically saying there that our protection is not only the Bible but the Spirit of Prophecy.

Did you see that in there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes, in the Testimonies.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the Testimonies, in the books that she has written.

But, she says the warning has been given line upon line. Okay? So, this is familiar ground for us that are studying these truths, according to Isaiah 28. This is William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation. This is proof-texting. This is "true education," as opposed to the "false education" that is in Adventism today.

And then as she is talking about "these perilous times" and the inference by the strong delusions—she is talking about the Omega time period, the time when the Spirit of Prophecy has been set aside—she references John Harvey Kellogg and The Living Temple, which is noted as the Alpha Apostasy. Okay?

But, I want you to take note here that in Spalding and Magan, in what we just read, these are letters that she wrote. This is not something that was put together as a compilation, taking this paragraph from here and this paragraph from there. Do you follow what I am saying? Amen?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now, notice this next quote; because, this next quote is from Testimonies, and it is the identical quote. But in Testimonies, once again the Testimonies are not a compilation. These are things that even if they were compilations, Sister White was overseeing the compiling of them, even if they were. This is to be related to as if this is one thought. And you will notice from Testimonies, volume 8, page 298, that the first paragraph is identical; it is the same paragraph.

> "Perilous times are before us. Everyone who has a knowledge of the truth should awake, and place himself, body, soul, and spirit, under the discipline of God. The enemy is on our track. We must be wide awake, on our guard against him. We must put on the whole armor of God. We must follow the directions given through the spirit of prophecy. We must love and obey the truth for this time. This will save us from accepting strong delusions. God has spoken to us through His word. He has spoken to us through the testimonies to the church, and through the books that have helped to > make plain our present duty and the position we should now occupy. The warnings that have been given, line upon line, precept upon precept, should be heeded. If we disregard them, what excuse can we offer?—

But, the second paragraph in Spalding and Magan, she referenced The Living Temple, the Alpha Apostasy, and John Harvey Kellogg.

But, the second paragraph here in Testimonies, volume 8, she does not reference John Harvey Kellogg. She says,

> —"I beseech those who are laboring for God not to accept the spurious for the genuine."—

Was The Living Temple the spurious for the genuine?

Now, she says in that first paragraph, the second to the last sentence, "The warnings that have been given," how?

How has the warnings been given?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Line upon line.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Line upon line.

So, we have the right here to take these two references and bring them together line upon line. Do you follow what I mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: These two statements in Spalding and Magan and Testimonies, volume 8.

And, therefore, Testimonies, volume 8, is giving us further information on what The Living Temple (the Alpha Apostasy) and John Harvey Kellogg represent.

So, this second paragraph says,

> —"I beseech those who are laboring for God not to accept the spurious for the genuine. Let not human reasoning be placed where sanctifying truth should be. Christ is waiting to kindle faith and love in the hearts of His people. Let not erroneous theories receive countenance from the people who ought to be standing firm on the platform of eternal truth. God calls upon us to hold firmly to the fundamental principles that are based upon unquestionable authority." Testimonies, volume 8, 298.

So, what I want you to see here is, if you will, generally when Adventists go into the Alpha Apostasy and John Harvey Kellogg in the book, The Living Temple, they focus on the spiritualistic doctrine of Pantheism. Okay? That is the primary thing that they see, is this doctrine of God pervading everything. It is in all nature.

But here, using line upon line, Sister White, the warning that she is sending to us is that what is represented by The Living Temple and John Harvey Kellogg, and therefore the warning that we should derive from the Alpha Apostasy, is the work of taking human reasoning and placing it above God's Word, which is spiritualism, which was The Living Temple. But, she adds the light that this work that will happen is going to take us off the platform of eternal truth and remove us from the fundamental principles of Adventism. It is a warning that this human reasoning being placed above God's Word is actually an attack upon the Foundations of Adventism; and, this is also a theme that is repeated in the history of John Harvey Kellogg and that crisis. But, this broadens our understanding of the Omega, because it is telling us, "Oh, we don't simply need to look for the manifestation of Pantheism. What we need to be watching for is the effort to place human reason above God's Word, and this effort will be used to lead people off the foundation or platform of Adventism."

Do you follow my logic?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

OMEGA

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, we are going to continue to develop this thought. We are saying that the Omega Apostasy (the last Apostasy) has to do with this making none effect the Spirit of Prophecy, and that the illustration of the Omega is found in the history of John Harvey Kellogg, which is the Alpha. And those people that get on the wrong side of this issue in the Omega, they are going to think they are building on the right foundation, when really they are building upon the wrong foundation. So, the foundation becomes one of the points of this Omega Apostasy.

In Selected Messages, book 1, page 198, it says,

> "Be not deceived; many will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils. We have now before us the alpha of this danger. The omega will be of a most startling nature." Selected Messages, book 1, 198.

So, here Sister White is clearly—and she does it other places—using the Alpha to prefigure the Omega. And she says in the Omega many will depart from the faith.

DEPARTING FROM THE FAITH

So, what is the faith that they are going to depart from?

Review and Herald, April 14, 1903:

> "Let those who stand as God's watchmen on the walls of Zion be men who can see the dangers before the people,"—

And, by the way, if you go test this as you should—you should test everything that I say—you will find that this is cut from a passage where she is dealing with the medical leaders that should have been recognizing what was going on with John Harvey Kellogg. So, this is in the context of the Alpha Apostasy; but, I cut it off to make a point.

And what point am I trying to make? At this point, I am trying to make that in the Omega Apostasy we are told in the Bible and in the Spirit of Prophecy (because, Sister White was just quoting the Bible) that many will depart from the faith in the Omega. So, we want to know what the faith is. Okay?

> "Let those who stand as God's watchmen on the walls of Zion be men who can see the dangers before the people,—men who can distinguish between truth and error, righteousness and unrighteousness.

> "The warning has come: Nothing is to be allowed to come in that will disturb the foundation of the faith upon which we have been building ever since the message came in 1842, 1843, and 1844. I was in this message, and ever since I have been standing before the world, true to the light that God has given us. We do not propose to take our feet off the platform on which they were placed as day by day we sought the Lord with earnest prayer, seeking for light. Do you think that I could give up the light that God has given me? It is to be as the Rock of Ages. It has been guiding me ever since it was given." Review and Herald, April 14, 1903.

So, in the Omega Apostasy, when many will depart from the faith, the Foundation of the Faith, according to the Spirit of Prophecy—and you best accept the authority of the Spirit of Prophecy or you are fulfilling the last deception of Satan—according to the Spirit of Prophecy, the Foundation of the Faith is the messages that came in 1842, and 1843, and 1844; and, those messages are represented on this [1843] Chart. This is the Foundation of the Faith that many will depart from in the Omega time period.

Do you see the logic?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER:

A FALSE FOUNDATION

In Acts of the Apostles, page 596, it says,

> "The apostles built upon a sure foundation, even the Rock of Ages."—

And who is the Rock of Ages?

That is an easy one.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ.

Sister White, in this last quote, has said that the messages that came in 1842, 1843, and 1844 are the Rock of Ages.

Now she is going to talk about the Rock of Ages in the time of the Apostles.

> —"The apostles built upon a sure foundation, even the Rock of Ages. To this foundation they brought the stones that they quarried from the world. Not without hindrance did the builders labor. Their work was made exceedingly difficult by the opposition of the enemies of Christ. They had to contend against the bigotry, prejudice, and hatred of those who were building upon a false foundation."—

Now you see, once again, in the time of the Disciples, they were building upon a foundation; but, the enemies against them were doing what? Building a false foundation.

So, in each of these histories, you will see a true and a false foundation. But, she is going to add another line of Bible truth to this.

Speaking of the Disciples, she says,

—"Many who wrought as builders of the church could be likened to the builders of the wall in Nehemiah's day, of whom it is written: 'They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, everyone with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.' Nehemiah 4:17." Acts of the Apostles, 596.

Now, I mean this being the 72nd presentation with some breaks in between these presentations, probably only someone that is actually in possession of the DVDs after this presentation, and is going through them in an organized, systematic fashion and not taking time, will remember everything in the first 71 presentations [inclusive of notes for #72A - #74A only, without DVDs, on the topic of "Josiah"]. I do not expect everyone to remember that; but, I do want to show something here just to remind us.

In the history of Nehemiah, there were three decrees. The Third Decree here starts the 2300-year prophecy. But, Nehemiah, he secures the Fourth Decree.

Okay. The 2300-year prophecy ends at the Third Message, the First Message arriving in 1798, the Second in 1842, and the Third in 1844.

But, down here in our time period, we are in the Fourth Angel's Message.

So, I want you to see that when Sister White is talking about the work of the Disciples in building upon the foundation that had been laid in their time period that they were struggling against enemies that were building on a false foundation; and, then she takes that history—and, of course, all the prophets are speaking more about our day than the days in which they lived—and she is applying this history of the Disciples to us. But then she incorporates into it the history of Nehemiah, and Nehemiah is prefiguring our history. So, she is using both the history of Nehemiah and the history of the Disciples to talk about the work that will go on during the time period of the Latter Rain and the Fourth Angel's Message when there will be a foundational work, and in that foundational work the enemies of that work will be under great deception; because, we have already read what greater deception can come upon the human mind other than to believe that they are building upon the right foundation, when they are not.

I hope you see that connection there, between those two Biblical histories.

THE FOUNDATION OF SAND

Okay. Now, dealing with the history of the Alpha [Apostasy], in order to illustrate the Omega [Apostasy], the omega is the last letter in the Greek alphabet; the alpha is the first; thus, part of the prophetic relevance, the significance of the Omega Apostasy is this is the last apostasy, and the last deception of Satan is to make of none effect the Spirit of Prophecy. So, the Omega, the Spirit of Prophecy, and the struggle over the true and the false foundations are what we are dealing with so far.

But, speaking of the Omega Apostasy from the time period of the Alpha, Sister White says, in Selected Messages, book 1, pages 204 – 205,

> "In a vision of the night I was shown distinctly that these sentiments"—

And she is referring to, if you read this whole quote, the sentiments of The Living Temple.

> —"I was shown distinctly that these sentiments have been looked upon by some as the grand truths that are to be brought in and made prominent at the present time. I was shown a platform,"—

In Sister White's terminology, platform and foundation are interchangeable terms; and, we have already shown that the Foundation of the Faith, therefore the Platform, are the messages that came in 1842, 1843, and 1844. So, when she was shown a platform, in once sense she was shown this [1843] Chart, right here.

> —"I was shown a platform, braced by solid timbers—the truths of the Word of God. Someone high in responsibility in the medical work was directing this man and that man to loosen the timbers supporting this platform."—

So, when we come to the nuts and bolts of the history of the Alpha, it was an attack upon the Foundational Truths, and thus it was prefiguring that in the Omega it would be an attack against the Foundational Truths.

> —"Then I heard a voice saying, 'Where are the watchmen that ought to be standing on the walls of Zion?"—

And who is standing on the walls of Zion?

Of course, you cannot know the answer to that because this is a question that originates in my head; but, based upon this presentation, who have we seen in this presentation standing on the walls of Zion?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Nehemiah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Nehemiah; with a work implement in this hand [indicates his right hand], and a weapon in this hand [indicates his left hand]. Okay? And they were watching. They were working, but they were watching to see if the enemies were going to come at them.

> —"'Where are the watchmen that ought to be standing on the walls of Zion?"—

And if you run NEHEMIAH—NEHEMIAHS, let us put it in the plural—in the Ellen White CD-ROM, you will find 18 references to NEHEMIAH. A few of them are repetitious, but the point is that you can find abundant quotes where Sister White says that what God's people need to be in this day and age are NEHEMIAHS. So, she specifically ties us in with that history.

—"'Where are the watchmen that ought to be standing on the walls of Zion? Are they asleep? This foundation was built by the Master Worker, and will stand storm and tempest. Will they permit this man to present doctrines that deny the past experience of the people of God? The time has come to take decided action.'"—

Now, there are all kinds of light in there.

This foundation is going to be tested by storm and tempest; but, we have already seen that in the controversy over this foundation [the 1843 Chart], what else is there going to be? There is going to be a false foundation.

So, if this foundation [the 1843 Chart] is going to be tested by storm and tempest, is the false foundation going to be tested by storm and tempest, too?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes! That takes you right into the parable in Matthew 7 [Matthew 7:24-27], that those that built their house (and every house has a foundation) upon the rock, as opposed to those that built their house upon the sand.

Continuing on:

—"The enemy of souls has sought to bring in the supposition that a great reformation was to take place among Seventh-day Adventists, and that this reformation would consist in giving up the doctrines which stand as the pillars of our faith, and engaging in a process of reorganization. Were this reformation to take place, what would result? The principles of truth that God in His wisdom has given to the remnant church, would be discarded."—

That is past history, Brothers and Sisters. Both the reorganization and the principles of truth have been discarded.

—"Our religion would be changed."—

Our religion has been changed. Okay? When we boil our religion down to one of the lowest common denominators is that we are supposed to be those that proclaim the Third Angel's Message, and the Third Angel's Message is a warning about receiving the mark of the Papacy. And in Daniel 11:14, we are told that Rome establishes the vision.

And, we have already read a quote where Sister White quoted from the Bible where it says, "Where there is no vision, the people perish."

And Sister White says, concerning Rome, "All those that become confused on the meaning of antichrist will ultimately end up on the side of antichrist."

Well, our religion is the religion that is to proclaim and identify who the antichrist is and what his mark is. That is the Third Angel's Message. And we legally in a court of law, our General Conference President years ago said that we have taken the teaching of the Papacy being the antichrist and we have assigned that to the historical trash heap. That is a legal document. Our religion has been changed.

Back to the quote:

> —"The fundamental principles that have sustained the work for the last fifty years would be accounted as error."—

The Biblical Research Institute will tell you that the 2520 is erroneous; the Pioneer understanding of the Daily is erroneous; the Pioneer understanding of Islam is erroneous; and, as they do that, they do not realize that they are destroying the Biblical basis for proving the 2300 years. And these are the fundamental principles that were the Foundation that sustained the message for the first 50 years.

> —"The fundamental principles that have sustained the work for the last fifty years would be accounted as error. A new organization would be established."—

And it has; and, Sister White has a very nice—I do not know that it is very nice—but, she has a very clear dream about this new organization. She was in her house. She saw a procession of men coming to her house. She looked the other way, and when she turned back, the procession had turned into a Catholic procession; and, she said she knew those men well.

And where she was living when she had this dream was in Battle Creek. The men she was working with well at that time were the leadership of the Adventist Church, and she had seen them change from a procession of men to a procession of Catholics.

> —"A new organization would be established. Books of a new order would be written."—

And they have been written and are still being written.

> —"A system of intellectual philosophy would be introduced. The founders of this system would go into the cities, and do a wonderful work. The Sabbath of course, would be lightly regarded, as also the God who created it. Nothing would be allowed to stand in the way of the new movement."—

Now, Brothers and Sisters, this is part of the story. The Millerite Movement ended in 1863 when the Seventh-day Adventist Church was founded; but, when Sister White talks about the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18, she says it is a "Movement." From 1863 until the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 comes down, you have a church; but, when that Angel comes down, now you have a Movement of the Fourth Angel. But, that Movement is in controversy with a new movement that is being discussed here. There are two movements. One is a false movement and one is a true Movement. Both of those movements are based upon a foundation: one is the true foundation, and one is the false foundation.

> —"Nothing would be allowed to stand in the way of the new movement."—

And the rest of this week we are going to deal with this reality. This new movement, it is going to cast out those people that are in the Movement of Revelation 18; because, those people that are in the Movement of Revelation 18, according to God's Word, are going to be lifted up as an ensign at The Sunday Law. But, those that are lifted up as an ensign, according to God's Word, are the outcasts of Israel.

—"The leaders [OF THIS NEW MOVEMENT] would teach that virtue is better than vice, but God being removed,"—

God is removed. They are going to remove God!

—"The leaders would teach that virtue is better than vice, but God being removed, they would place their dependence on human power, which, without God, is worthless. Their foundation would be built on the sand, and storm and tempest would sweep away the structure."— (Selected Messages, book 1, pages 204 – 205, [to be continued following the Scriptural cite of Matthew 7:24-27])—

Here is the foundation built on sand, as opposed to this Foundation [the 1843 Chart] that is built upon what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Rock of Ages.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Rock of Ages.

MATTHEW 7:24-27

Okay. These two movements, these two foundations—go to Matthew 7—these two foundations, these two movements, they are a subject, a specific subject of Bible prophecy. We are not going to spend time in Matthew 7. We are just going to put this into the record.

Beginning in verse 24—of course, it is even better to go before verse 24 and discuss how you know people by their fruits, and identify that some people that were involved with teaching the message are going to find that God never knew them. But, in verse 24, it says,

"[24]Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:"—

What do you build a house upon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A foundation.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A foundation. They built their house upon the foundation. And all the prophecies are speaking about the end of the world; so, this house here that is built upon the rock is built upon the foundation that Ellen White has identified that is the foundation at the end of the work. It is the truths that we received in 1842, 1843, and 1844.

Verse 25:

—"[25]And the rain descended,"—

There is the Latter Rain marking the testing time for this foundation.

—"and the floods came,"—

And the floods are a symbol of the Papacy and The Sunday Law.

—"and the winds blew,"—

And these are the Winds of Strife that are held, but slip through the angels' hands increasingly. They are held until human probation closes.

And you will see the rain, and the floods, and the winds, marking a threefold testing process.

> —"and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. [26]And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: [27]And the [LATTER] rain descended, and [THE PAPACY] the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it." Matthew 7:24-27 (KJV).

So, when Sister White says, "Their foundation would be built on the sand, and storm and tempest would sweep away the structure," she is saying The Sunday Law storm is going to sweep away the corporate structure of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

She continues on and says in Selected Messages, book 1, pages 204 – 205, > —"Who has authority to begin such a movement? We have our Bibles. We have our experience, attested to by the miraculous working of the Holy Spirit. We have a truth that admits of no compromise. Shall we not repudiate everything that is not in harmony with this truth?" Selected Messages, book 1, 204–205.

So, we are broadening the characteristics of the Omega Apostasy. We are saying the Omega Apostasy has to include a rejection of the Spirit of Prophecy, because we are told that is the last deception of Satan.

And, we have thrown in that the delusions that come upon Seventh-day Adventists because they failed the Omega testing process is the strong delusions of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2; but, it is also the many delusions of Isaiah 66. And I am putting that in place because Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning, and I want to put it in our memory banks before we get to studying the Daily, that the place in the Scriptures where William Miller came to understand that the Daily represented Paganism is 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, the very place where the strong delusion is referenced; and, we are going to make part of our study concerning the Daily the fact that the Daily is the symbol that is the truth that is rejected that brings the strong delusion. It is the symbol of these Truths [referring to the 1843 Chart].

All these truths that we are dealing with have a doctrinal understanding, but they also have an experiential understanding. And of these truths, the Daily, the experiential understanding is self-exaltation, and it is the self-exaltation that is represented as the Daily that brings upon the strong delusion to Seventh-day Adventists. So, I want to mark that in our memory banks about these delusions that take place in the Omega time period; and, the Omega time period is going to be an attack against the true Foundation and an emphasis upon the false foundation. And the true Foundation is the Rock of Ages, and the false foundation is sand.

And what we derive from the Alpha that is prefiguring this time period is that it is accomplished by placing human reasoning above God's Word.

So, let us make sure that we are clear about the Platform and Foundation.

Selected Messages, book 1, page 200:

> "But we must firmly refuse to be drawn away from the platform of eternal truth, which since 1844 has stood the test."—

So, when Sister White says the Foundation of our Faith is the messages that came in 1842, 1843, and 1844, the Foundation of our Faith has stood the test since that time.

And what time was that? 1844, right here [referring to the 1843 Chart], these truths here.

Now, after 1844 was the time—or at the end of 1844, they began to understand what the Pillars are that are represented in the [lower left-hand] corner of this [1850] Chart. But, the truths that have stood since 1844 that are the Platform of Eternal Truth are these truths [as reflected on the 1843 Chart], according to the Spirit of Prophecy. And if you do not accept the authority of the Spirit of Prophecy, then you are probably accomplishing the fulfillment of the prophecy of the last deception of Satan, is to make of none effect the Testimonies of God's Spirit, and you are on the verge of receiving strong delusion.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"But we must firmly refuse to be drawn away from the platform of eternal truth, which since 1844 has stood the test. I am instructed to speak plainly. 'Meet it,' is the word spoken to me. 'Meet it firmly, and without delay.' But it is not to be met by our taking our working forces from the field to investigate doctrines and points of difference. We have no such investigation to make. In the book Living Temple there is presented the alpha of deadly heresies. The omega will follow, and will be received by those who are not willing to heed the warning God has given.
> "Our physicians, upon whom important responsibilities rest, should have clear spiritual discernment. They are to stand constantly on guard. Dangers that we do not now discern will soon break upon us, and I greatly desire that they shall not be deceived. I have an intense longing to see them standing free in the Lord. I pray that they may have courage to stand firm for the truth as it is in Jesus, holding fast the beginning of their confidence [STEADFAST] unto the end." Selected Messages, book 1, 200.

THE BEGINNING OF OUR CONFIDENCE

So, what is "the beginning of their confidence"; because, that is what we are supposed to hold steadfast to the end.

Testimonies, volume 8, page 511, says,

> "'These things . . . are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.' 1 Corinthians 10:11. The warning comes sounding down along the line to our time:
>
> "'Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called Today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we are made partakers of Christ,—

How?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "IF. . ."

—"if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end;"—

Do you know what that means? Whatever the beginning of our confidence is, if we do not hold it steadfast to the end, then we are not partaking of Christ.

Is that what it means to you? That is what it means.

—"we are made partakers of Christ, [ONLY] if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end,—

So, we need to know what the beginning of our confidence is, right? Because, if you do not know what it is, you cannot hold it; and, if you do not hold it, you do not have Christ; and, if you do not have Christ, you are lost.

Continuing on,

—For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end, "while it is said,

Today if ye will hear His voice,
Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

'For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.' Hebrews 3:12–16.

"Cannot we who are living in the time of the end realize the importance of the apostle's words: 'Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God'? Verse 12.

"Upon us is shining the accumulated light of past ages. The record of Israel's"—

Israel's what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Forgetfulness.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Forgetfulness.

—"The record of Israel's forgetfulness has been preserved for our enlightenment. In this age God has set His hand to gather unto Himself a people from every nation, kindred, and tongue. In the advent movement He has wrought for His heritage, even as He wrought for the Israelites in leading them from Egypt. In the great disappointment of 1844 the faith of His people was tested as was that of the Hebrews at the Red Sea. Had the Adventists in the early days still trusted to the guiding Hand that had been with them in their past experience, they would have seen of the salvation of God. If all who had labored unitedly in the work of 1844 had received the third angel's message and proclaimed it in the power of the Holy Spirit, the Lord would have wrought mightily with their efforts. A flood of light would have been shed upon the world. Years ago the inhabitants of the earth would have been warned, the closing work would have been completed, and Christ would have come for the redemption of His people." Testimonies, volume 8, 115.

Now, I want to give a little bit of an explanation on this. Sister White has just—we are trying to find out what "the beginning of our confidence" is that we need to hold to, if we are going to partake of Christ. And, Sister White has just referenced the history of Ancient Israel as found in Numbers 14. And you have that in your notes. We do not have to go there; but, we have studied this already in Habakkuk's Tables.

> "[11]And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them? [12]I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they. [13]And Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up the people in thy might from among them:) [14]And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by daytime in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night. [15]Now if thou shall kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying, [16]Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness. [17]And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, [18]The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. [19]Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now. [20]And the LORD said, I have pardoned according to thy word: [21]But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD. [22]Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice; [23]Surely they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it: . . . [34]After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know my breach of promise." Numbers 14:11-23, 34 (KJV).

The beginning of Ancient Israel is marked by a rebellion, and that rebellion is part of Numbers 14:34, which is the year-day principle.

And this rebellion is after how many tests?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ten.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ten tests that began at the Red Sea crossing.

Okay. Let us make this Passover (the Plagues of Egypt), Moses's message.

The disappointment that began here by the Red Sea begins ten tests that culminate here in Numbers 14.

And Sister White uses that history, along with Paul in Hebrews, saying that to not enter into this rest that they were rejecting here, which Sister White identifies as the Rest of Grace, is unbelief and brings death. She uses this history of the Hebrews, and what did she say was the problem for the Hebrews in this history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What was their problem?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Forgetfulness.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Forgetfulness.

What did they forget?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They forget this history right here, where the Lord delivered them out of Egypt; and, she compares that very history with the history when these truths [referring to the 1843 Chart] arrived in Adventism. So, what she is saying is these things are written for our admonition, is that this is another way to illustrate that the tests, the Omega Apostasy at the end, has to do with forgetting the Foundations, the beginning work that Christ accomplished for the Hebrews in that history and for us in the Millerite History.

And what is that? And I am trying to draw this down to the point: What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Forgetting our history.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the beginning of our confidence. This history here [referring to Figure No. 142 in type to the 1843 Chart] is the beginning of our confidence; and, we have to hold this steadfast to the end if we are to—what?—partake of Christ. And, if we do not partake of Christ, we are lost.

THE OLD PATHS

So, still dealing with Platform, Foundations, this is Testimonies, volume 8 again, pages 296 – 297. It says,

> "The enemy is seeking to divert the minds of our brethren and sisters from the work of preparing a people to stand in these last days."—

The enemy is seeking to prevent God's people from developing country property. Is that what she said?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: From—I will not use examples, because people will misunderstand them.

What the enemy is seeking to prevent us from doing is—what?—preparing a people to stand in the last days.

Now, if you do not accept William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation, you can put a lot of meaning into that sentence; but, if you use Miller's Rules (proof-texting), then when a prophet talks about God's people standing here [gestures to his left], and another prophet talks about God's people standing here [gestures to his right], and another prophet talks about God's people standing here [gestures to his front], you know all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world; so, all three of them are talking about God's people standing up at the end of the world. And the work that the enemy is seeking to prevent is the work that prepares God's people to stand up at the end of the world. Okay? Just put that in your memory banks as we go through this.

> —"The enemy is seeking to divert the minds of our brothers and sisters from the work of preparing a people to stand in these last days. His sophistries are designed to lead minds away from the perils and duties of the hour. They estimate as nothing the light that Christ came from heaven to give to John for His people."—

They estimate as nothing the Book of Revelation.

> —"They teach that the scenes just before us are not of sufficient importance to receive special attention. They make of no effect the truth of heavenly origin"—

And what do they do?

> —"and rob the people of God of their past experience,"—

Right here [indicating the Passover time of Figure No. 142], the beginning of our confidence.

> —"giving them instead a false science.
>
> "'Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein.' Jeremiah 6:16.
> "Let none seek to tear away the foundations of our faith—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work by prayerful study of the word and by revelation."—

So, the beginning of our work, the foundations at the beginning of the work, are the beginning of our confidence but they are also the Old Paths of Jeremiah; they are also the Rock of Ages; they are also the messages that came in 1842, 1843, 1844; and, they are also the truths that are represented on Habakkuk's Table there [referring to the 1843 Chart].

Do you follow all that logic, of course?

> —"Upon these foundations we have been building for the last fifty years. Men may suppose that they have found a new way and that they can lay a stronger foundation"—

Here is the false foundation.

> —"than that which has been laid. But this is a great deception."—

To think that you can prepare a different foundation is a great deception.

—"Other foundation can no man lay than that which has been laid.

"In the past many have undertaken the building of a new faith, the establishment of new principles. But how long did their building stand? It soon fell, for it was not founded upon the Rock."—

She is consistent in her testimony about these truths.

—"Did not the first disciples have to meet the sayings of men? Did they not have to listen to false theories, and then, having done all, to stand firm, saying: 'Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid'? 1 Corinthians 3:11.

"So we are to hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end."—

So, what is the beginning of our confidence? It is the Platform. It is the Foundation. It is the 1843 Chart. It is the truths that we received in 1842, '43, and '44. And, the Omega Apostasy is going to seek to establish a false foundation that is upon the sand, not upon the Rock; and, there will be a false movement connected with this Omega Apostasy, in opposition to the Movement of Revelation 18.

—"Words of power have been sent by God and by Christ to this people, bringing them out from the world, point by point, into the clear light of present truth. With lips touched with holy fire, God's servants have proclaimed the message. The divine utterance has set its seal to the genuineness of the truth proclaimed." Testimonies, volume 8, 296–297.

THE WORK OF PREPARING A PEOPLE TO STAND IN THESE LAST DAYS

Ezekiel 37:1-14

"[1] The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, [2] And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. [3] And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest. [4] Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. [5] Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: [6] And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. [7] So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone."—

So, what is the work of preparing God's people to stand?

Go to Ezekiel 37. All the prophets agree with one another. In Ezekiel 37, in verses 1 through 14, we are going to cut into those verses; but, here we see Ezekiel looking at a valley of dead, dry bones, which Sister White Repeatedly teaches is the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of the world. And Ezekiel is told to present two prophecies, and the first prophecy brings the bones and the flesh together; but, they are not living. They have to have the breath of God breathed upon them in order to what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To stand.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To stand upon their feet.

The enemy is seeking to prevent the preparation of God's people standing. The enemy is seeking to prevent the second message of Ezekiel 37 from being recognized and received by God's people; because, that is the message that causes God's people to stand.

Let us take it up in verse 9 of Ezekiel 37.

> [8] And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. [9] Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds,"—

Do all the prophets agree with one another?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, these "four winds," they have to correspond to the Four Winds of Revelation 7, because God is not the author of confusion.

There is a breath that comes from these Four Winds.

> —"O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. [10] So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army."—

What prepares God's people to stand is this breathing that comes from the Four Winds.

> —"[11] Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts. [12] Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. [13] And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, [14] And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD." Ezekiel 47:1-14 (KJV).

THE BREATH OF PENTECOST

Okay. If you will go to your notes, from Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, page 243, it says,

> "The act of Christ in breathing upon his disciples the Holy Ghost, and in imparting his peace to them, was as a few drops before the plentiful shower to be given on the day of Pentecost." Spirit of Prophecy, volume 3, 243.

Now, we have dealt with this, also.

When did Christ breathe upon His Disciples?

Well, he had just resurrected and Mary was about to hold Him. And what did He tell Mary?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Do not touch me.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "Do not touch me. I have not yet ascended."

And then the next thing that happens is He appears before His Disciples and He breathes upon them. So, if He had ascended to His Father, when He comes to breathe upon them, what did He just do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He came down.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He just came down from out of Heaven. Okay?

And, "The act of Christ breathing upon his disciples the Holy Ghost, and in imparting his peace to them, was as a few drops before the plentiful shower . . . ."

Right here is the sprinkling, represented by the breath, that comes before the plentiful showers on Pentecost.

THE MESSAGE OF THE FOUR WINDS: EZEKIEL 37 / REVELATION 7

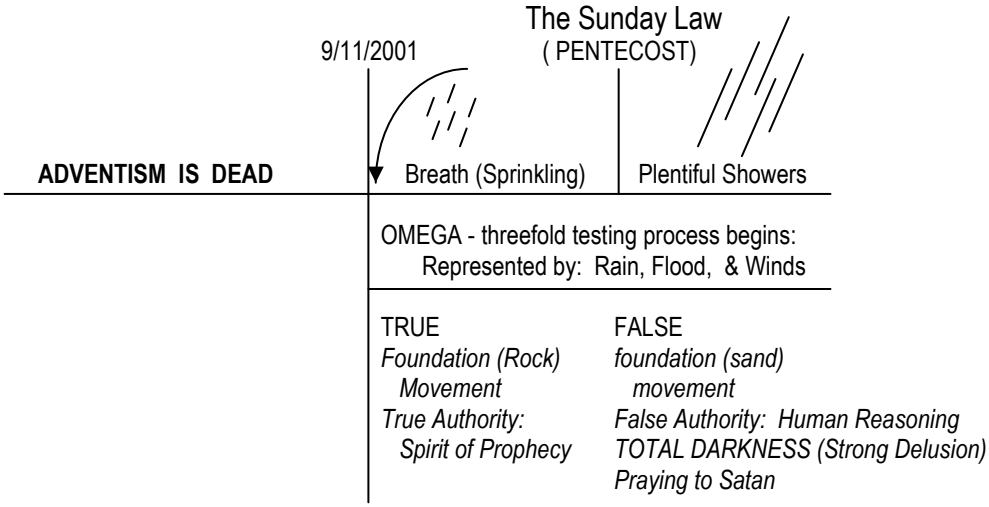

Figure No. 143.

Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And then in Testimonies to Ministers, page 507, it says,

> "Unless we are daily advancing in the exemplification of the active Christian virtues, we shall not recognize the manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the latter rain. It may be falling on hearts all around us, but we shall not discern or receive it." Testimonies to Ministers, 507.

So, there is a time period in Adventism when it is sprinkling.

And in the time of Christ, what begins the sprinkling?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The breathing.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The breathing.

In Ezekiel 37, when the message of the Four Winds is breathed upon the dead, dry bones, what do they do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They stand up.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They stand up.

And what is the enemy seeking to do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Multiple responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Prevent the preparation of God's people standing up.

So, he is trying this prophetic message about the breathing and the Four Winds. Whatever that prophetic message is, Satan is seeking to prevent God's people from understanding that prophetic message.

REVIVAL

Sister White says in Bible Training School, December 1, 1903:

> "The dry bones need to be breathed upon by the Holy Spirit of God, that they may come into action, as by a resurrection from the dead." Bible Training School, December 1, 1903.

The breath brings them to life.

Selected Messages, book 1, page 121, says,

> "A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work." Selected Messages, book 1, 121.

Adventism is dead here! Adventism is dead here. They need this message breathed upon them that they might be resurrected to life.

And in Testimonies to Ministers, pages 112 – 114, it says,

> "When the books of Daniel and Revelation are better understood, believers will have an entirely different religious experience." Testimonies to Ministers, 112–114.

There is something in the Books of Daniel and Revelation that brings God's people to life, and we are saying it is Revelation 7, the message of the Four Winds; because, that is what Ezekiel 37 says.

And Sister White says in The Great Controversy, page 341,

> "To John were opened scenes of deep and thrilling interest in the experience of the church. He saw the position, dangers, conflicts, and final deliverance of the people of God. He records the closing messages which are to ripen the harvest of the earth,"—

What ripens the harvest?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Latter Rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what is the Latter Rain?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is a message.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is a message.

—"He records the closing messages which are to ripen the harvest of the earth, either as sheaves for the heavenly garner or as fagots for the fires of destruction. Subjects of vast importance were revealed to him, especially for the last church, that those who should turn from error to truth might be instructed concerning the perils and conflicts before them. None need be in darkness in regard to what is coming upon the earth." The Great Controversy, 341.

A MESSAGE

So, the Latter Rain Message, it comes from the Book of Revelation, and it finishes the work for the two classes in Adventism and for the two classes in the world. And Revelation 7 is the Message of the Four Winds; but, in Ezekiel 37, Ezekiel was to breathe upon the dead, dry bones the Message of the Four Winds.

Manuscript Releases, volume 12, page 205[21], says,

> "What power must we have from God that icy hearts, having only a legal religion, should see the better things provided for them—Christ and His righteousness! A life-giving message was needed to give life to the dry bones." Manuscript Releases, volume 12, 205.

So, this breath that Ezekiel is referencing with the Four Winds is a life-giving message, and it is the message of Christ's Righteousness.

MANUSCRIPT RELEASES, VOLUME 20, PAGES 216 - 217

In Manuscript Releases, volume 20, beginning at page 216, it says,

> "Angels are holding the four winds,"—

There you go. That is Revelation 7 and Ezekiel 37.

> —"Angels are holding the four winds, represented as an angry horse seeking to break loose and rush over the face of the whole earth, bearing destruction and death in its path."—

And the angry horse of Bible prophecy is right here on this [1843] Chart, and right here on this [1850] Chart [referring to the lower right-hand corners of both Charts]. It is Islam, and we are living in the time period when Islam is seeking to break loose and bring death and destruction over the whole world.

And for those of you who are thinking, "Oh, well, Islam is not really doing as much as it did in the past few years," WAKE UP! If Islam puts all its bombs and its guns away and just waits for ten years, by population they are going to take control of Europe. And once they have Europe, it is all over! They are seeking to break loose, even though at this time they may be restrained. ISLAM IS THE ANGRY HORSE OF BIBLE PROPHECY, and it is this message that prepares God's people to stand that Satan is trying to prevent God's people from recognizing. That is what his work is.

[21] Corrects misspeak of page 204 to 205 as reflected in the presentation notes.

But, this message can only be recognized by Seventh-day Adventists if they stand upon this Foundation [referring to the 1843 Chart].

If they take the understanding that proves that this First Woe is Islam, and this Second Woe is Islam, then they have the Biblical reference to prove that the Third Woe is Islam, and it arrived on 9/11/2001, when the Angel came down and the sprinkling, the breathing began, and God's people stood upon their feet, a mighty army.

And, the only way that you can prove this about Islam is to stand on this [1843] Chart. So, the obvious thing is that 9/11, you are forced by the logic of it to return to the Foundation.

And here is where the controversy is over the true and the false foundations begin. Here is where the Omega sets in; and, here is where you start to deciding whether you accept what Sister White says about these foundations and platforms. Here is where you are tested on how you understand the authority of the Spirit of Prophecy.

> —"Angels are holding the four winds, represented as an angry horse seeking to break loose and rush over the face of the whole earth, bearing destruction and death in its path. Shall we sleep on the very verge of the eternal world? Shall we be dull and cold and dead? Oh, that we might have in our churches the Spirit and breath of God breathed into His people, that they might stand upon their feet and live. We need to see that the way is narrow, and the gate strait. But as we pass through the strait gate, its wideness is without limit." Manuscript Releases, volume 20, 216-217.

Sister White is here telling us that the Four Winds of Revelation 7 are the same four winds of Ezekiel 37, and she is saying that these Four Winds are represented by the angry horse of Bible prophecy.

A FIRM PLATFORM

One long quote in closing, in Early Writings, beginning at page 259, it says this—now, this is a prophecy, and I am going to try to use this prophecy to bring this to a conclusion.

I am saying that after 9/11, we enter into the Omega testing process. There is going to be a true [Foundation] and a false foundation in this time

There is going to be a True [Movement] and a false movement.

The deceptions that come in this time period are in large part going to be brought about because of an unwillingness to accept the authority of the Spirit of Prophecy.

So, you are going to have a True Authority and a false authority. The True Authority is the Spirit of Prophecy; and, the false is just like John Harvey Kellogg: it is human reasoning.

And in this period there is going to be a threefold testing process to demonstrate whether your foundation is upon the Rock or upon the sand; and, that threefold testing process is represented by Rain, Flood, and Wind.

So, let us try to tie this off and bring it to a conclusion.

Early Writings, beginning at page 259:

> "I saw a company who stood well-guarded and firm, giving no countenance to those who would unsettle the established faith of the body."—

What is "the established faith of the body"?

What is it? It is the truths we have received in 1842, and 1843, and 1844.

There is a company right here in this history [Figure No. 143] that is going to attempt to—how does she say it?—"unsettle the established faith of the body."

—"God looked upon them with approbation. I was shown three steps—"

Are there three steps in this history [Figure No. 143] that we have already identified?

—"the first, second, and third angels' messages. Said my accompanying angel, 'Woe to him who shall move a block or stir a pin of these messages."—

Who is her accompanying Angel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Gabriel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Gabriel.

Now, how can you claim that? Well, upon proof-texting. We are told that the Angel that went to John the Revelator was Gabriel. We are told that the Angel that went to Daniel was Gabriel. Upon the testimony of two, the Angel that goes to the prophets is the Light Bearer: it is Gabriel.

Said Gabriel,

> —"'Woe to him who shall move a block or stir a pin of these messages. The true understanding of these messages is of vital importance. The destiny of souls hangs upon the manner in which they are received.' I was again brought down through these messages, and saw how dearly the people of God had purchased their experience. It had been obtained through much suffering and severe conflict. God had led them along step by step, until He had placed them upon a solid, immovable platform. I saw individuals approach the platform and examine the foundation. Some with rejoicing immediately stepped upon it. Others commenced to find fault with the foundation. They wished improvements made, and then the platform would be more perfect, and the people much happier. Some stepped off the platform to examine it and declared it to be laid wrong. But I saw that nearly all stood firm upon the platform and exhorted those who had stepped off to cease their complaints; for God was the Master Builder, and they were fighting against Him. They recounted the wonderful work of God, which had led them to the firm platform, and in union raised their eyes to heaven and with a loud voice glorified God. This affected some of those who had complained and left the platform, and they with humble look again stepped upon it."—

She is describing this history right here, from 9/11 until The Sunday Law, the controversy in Adventism over the true or the false foundation.

But, Sister White is going to explain this to us now by going back into history. She is going to give us two witnesses to what goes on.

The next paragraph says,

—"I was pointed back to the proclamation of the first advent of Christ. John was sent in the spirit and power of Elijah to prepare the way of Jesus. Those who rejected the testimony of John were not benefited by the teachings of Jesus."—

What was John's message? Life or death; life or death.

—"Their opposition to the message that foretold His coming placed them where they could not readily receive the strongest evidence that He was the Messiah. Satan led on those who rejected the message of John to go still farther, to reject and crucify Christ. In doing this they placed themselves where they could not receive the blessing on the day of Pentecost, which would have taught them the way into the heavenly sanctuary. The rendering of the veil of the temple showed that the Jewish sacrifices and ordinances would no longer be received. The great Sacrifice had been offered and had been accepted, and the Holy Spirit which descended on the day of Pentecost carried the minds of the disciples from the earthly sanctuary to the heavenly, where Jesus had entered by His own blood, to shed upon His disciples the benefits of His atonement. But the Jews were left in total darkness. They lost all the light which they might have had upon the plan of salvation, and still trusted in their useless sacrifices and offerings. The heavenly sanctuary had taken the place of the earthly, yet they had no knowledge of the change. Therefore they could not be benefited by the mediation of Christ in the holy place."—

They end up in total darkness. That is strong delusion, strong delusion. They cannot see the change; they cannot see the change from the earthly to the heavenly.

But, she gives them another witness, another historical witness to our history in the next paragraph. She says,

—"Many look with horror at the course of the Jews in rejecting and crucifying Christ; and as they read the history of His shameful abuse, they think they love Him, and would not have denied Him as did Peter, or crucified Him as did the Jews. But God who reads the hearts of all, has brought to the test that love for Jesus which they professed to feel. All heaven watched with the deepest interest the reception of the first angel's message. But many who professed to love Jesus, and who shed tears as they read the story of the cross, derided the good news of His coming. Instead of receiving the message with gladness, they declared it to be a delusion. They hated those who loved His appearing and shut them out of the churches. Those who rejected the first message"—

Those that rejected the message of John the Baptist.

—"Those who rejected the first message"—

Could not be benefited by the teachings of Jesus.

> —"could not be benefited by the second; neither were they benefited by the midnight cry, which was to prepare them to enter with Jesus by faith into the most holy place of the heavenly sanctuary. And by rejecting the two former messages, they have so darkened their understanding that they can see no light in the third angel's message, which shows the way into the most holy place. I saw that as the Jews crucified Jesus, so the nominal churches had crucified these messages,"—

So, what do these messages represent? Jesus.

> —"and therefore they have no knowledge of the way into the most holy, and they cannot be benefited by the intercession of Jesus there. Like the Jews, who offered their useless sacrifices, they offer up their useless prayers to the apartment which Jesus has left; and Satan, pleased with the deception, assumes a religious character, and leads the minds of these professed Christians to himself, working with his power, his signs and lying wonders, to fasten them in his snare." Early Writings, 258–261.

The Jews were in total darkness, but in the Millerite History they are praying to Satan. These two histories are used to identify this history [Figure No. 143], and this history is the history of the Omega Apostasy, and this history is the history of Paul's strong delusion,

And Paul's strong delusion in 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, is because of a rejection of the truth. And the truth that Paul is setting forth in 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, is the very truth, the very passage, where William Miller came to understand that the Daily was Paganism.

And we will deal with that more in detail as we proceed; but, Lord help us that we can see that Christ has come down and breathed upon the dead, dry bones, and the testing process is well underway now, 12 years later [following 9/11/2001].

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be weaned from the satanic technique of trusting in human wisdom above your Word. I ask that you would convict those that are hearing this presentation, whether LiveStreaming or DVD or in this room, of their responsibility of testing these things, making sure that they are so. We want to be among those that are building upon the Rock of Ages and not among those that are building upon the sand. So, we want to be weaned from our confidence in human beings, and more fully drawn into a trust, of faith, in your Word. We ask that you would continue to bless these presentations. We have other speakers coming in the following weeks. We ask that you bring them here safely and that you continue to accomplish the LiveStreaming in a successful fashion and the recording. We want these messages to be part of the awakening process for Adventism, and we ask that you would use them in this fashion according to your will. In Jesus's name, amen.

[#73B of Notes, with DVD]

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for another good night's rest and another day that we have opportunity to serve you. As we begin this day we ask you to grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit. And as we open your Word, consider these truths this morning, we ask that you would take control of the study and that you would give us light that would better prepare us to reflect your character to those we come in contact with, to better prepare us to give us a winning and a decisive message to those that want to understand these things as we are understanding them. We want to consider the role of William Miller in the message that we hold and present. We ask that you enlighten us into this fact, into these truths about William Miller this morning. We thank you for all these things. We pray that you would pour your Latter Rain out upon us and overrule any human thoughts or ideas that I have that they might simply be truths that you are trying to convey to your people and that you would also prepare their hearts and minds to receive these things. In Jesus's name, amen.

WILLIAM MILLER

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I do not know why, but yesterday at the end of the presentation, after we turned the mic off, Sister Tara Marie asked me if I thought William Miller was a prophet. And the easy answer is, no, not in the sense that we define a prophet; but, there is something about William Miller that is—perhaps does not qualify in the fullest sense of a prophet, but there are things about William Miller that sets him out as something different than simply one of the students of prophecy in that history.

WILLIAM MILLER

WILLIAM: "will" and "helmet."
MILLER: a person who owns or operates a mill, esp. a mill that grinds grain into flour.

In the notes there you see his name, WILLIAM, meaning "will" and "helmet." And, of course, we have addressed this before. Prophets names correspond to their ministry, and William Miller is definitely someone that did the will of the Lord in his history, and he presented the message of salvation; and, of course, the helmet is a symbol of salvation in God's Word.

And MILLER is a person who owns or operates a mill and grinds grain into flour. But, anyone that operates a mill does not simply grind grain into flour. They are going to have to separate the wheat from the chaff, and this was the work of William Miller. As he began to study God's Word, he was separating the truths of God's Word from the chaff of men's ideas.

So, we see that William Miller's name did correspond to his ministry.

And, of course, we know from our study of prophets that at the end of every time prophecy that deals with God's people, the Lord raises up a prophet at the end of that time period; and, the message of that prophecy that is fulfilled in that history becomes present truth unto the remnant that are raised up in that history. And a prophet that is raised up at that time, the message of that prophecy becomes the focus of the ministry of that prophet.

I am not saying that William Miller is a prophet. I do not want to fight that battle. We expect the predictions of prophets to be 100 percent true, and we know that this is one of the things that William Miller did not accomplish in terms of what he was presenting prophetically.

But, when we first came to understand that at the end of every time prophecy that dealt with God's people that the Lord raises up a gathering prophet, and that message of the prophecy is present truth unto them, and it is present truth unto the remnant that is raised up at that time period, when we first recognized that principle and that truth, we had not recognized the 2520. So, we simply saw 1798 as a prophecy dealing with Papal Rome. But, once you understand that 1798 is also the fulfillment of the 2520 that was accomplished against the Northern Kingdom, then 1798 does not simply become a prophecy about Papal Rome; it becomes a prophecy that marks the beginning of the gathering of God's people.

So, based upon the fact that upon the testimony of two or three a thing is established, you expect to see someone raised up in 1798, at the end of that prophecy, that scattering and gathering prophecy of the 2520 against the Northern Kingdom; and, sure enough, William Miller is there on the scene, but we are not calling him a prophet. We are just telling you that there is some evidence that sets him up at a level beyond simply a Bible student in that time period.

TYPIFIED

CALLED AS ELISHA

So, we are going to look at some of the ways that Ellen White has identified that William Miller was typified.

In The Great Controversy, page 331, it says that,

> "As Elisha was called from following his oxen in the field, to receive the mantle of consecration to the prophetic office, so was William Miller called to leave his plow and open to the people the mysteries of the kingdom of God. With trembling he entered upon his work, leading his hearers down, step by step, through the prophetic periods to the second appearing of Christ. With every effort he gained strength and courage as he saw the widespread interest excited by his words." The Great Controversy, 331.

Now, if you think about that, Elisha when he was called, he wanted to follow Elijah—right?—but he did not want to do it—he had some things he wanted to get done first. He wanted to go home and say goodbye to his mom and his dad, and settle some business at hand. But, Elijah did not let him go that route, did he?

And if you go back into the history of William Miller, there was no doubt a calling over a period of time but the story that comes to my mind is he had had for several years the voice in his mind saying, "Go warn the world about what you are learning here," and he kept putting it off and putting it off. And there finally came a point in time where he struck a deal with the Lord saying, "Okay. You know, if I get invited to preach, then I will go."

And he thought, "Ah, this is not going to happen, so I am safe." And at that very moment there was a knock on the door and a young boy had been sent by his father saying, "Go and invite Brother Miller to come and present what he is understanding from the Bible tomorrow at church," and Miller, frustrated with the covenant that he had just made with the Lord, you know, just walks out of his house and into the forest where he would pray. And the voice said, "You know, are you going to so quickly turn against the covenant you made with me?"

So, his calling is compared to Elisha's calling. William Miller had some things that were kind of holding him back, but he followed through. Elisha had some things that were kind of holding him back and following through.

And, yesterday, if you listened and you got the point that I was trying to make is that the Omega Apostasy is an attack against the foundational truths of Adventism; but, it is, simultaneously, a rejection of the Spirit of Prophecy. So, when those today argue against the emphasis that is placed upon William Miller, the emphasis that is placed upon the role of William Miller is established by the Spirit of Prophecy's comments about William Miller. So, when you are arguing against William Miller being anything special in the history of the Millerites, you are arguing against the Spirit of Prophecy.

So, the reason that we are starting off with the typifications of Elisha, I would suggest to those in Adventism that want to downplay the pieces of light that come from the study of the role of William Miller that they need to be careful that the bears do not come down and tear them apart; because, that is the story of Elisha. Questioning Elisha's role brings the bears upon you.

And Sister White is here comparing Elisha and William Miller.

MOSES IN DEATH

Sister White also compares William Miller's death with the death of Moses.

In her Early Writings, beginning at page 257, she says,

> "God suffered him to fall under the power of Satan, the dominion of death, and hid him in the grave from those who were constantly drawing him from the truth. Moses erred as he was about to enter the Promised Land. So also, I saw that William Miller erred as he was soon to enter the heavenly Canaan, in suffering his influence to go against the truth. Others led him to this; others must account for it. But angels watch the precious dust of this servant of God, and he will come forth at the sound of the last trump." Early Writings, 257–258.

So, his calling to his ministry is as Elisha's calling was. His death is as Moses's death.

Those typifications put an emphasis upon the work of William Miller that should not be missed.

Why should we not miss it? Because, if it was not important, you see, it would not be in the Inspired Record.

IN THE SPIRIT OF JOHN THE BAPTIST AND ELIJAH

In the spirit in which he prosecuted his work is mentioned many times. In Early Writings, page 233, it says,

> "Thousands were led to embrace the truth preached by William Miller, and servants of God were raised up in the spirit and power of Elijah to proclaim the message. Like John, the forerunner of Jesus, those who preached this solemn message felt compelled to lay the ax at the root of the tree, and call upon men to bring forth fruits meet for repentance." Early Writings, 233.

So, here, in terms of the presentation of the message, Miller is compared to Elijah and John the Baptist. So, Elisha, Elijah, Moses, John the Baptist: you would think Seventh-day Adventists would have a little bit of sacred respect for the role of William Miller. But, when you see these men that fight this message, on a regular basis they denigrate the role of Miller in that history.

THE MARK OF THE BEAST

Let us go to Isaiah. It is not in your notes, but let us go to Isaiah 8:18.

Now, I know some people that will already be typing me an email about me inferring that William Miller is a prophet; but, I am plainly saying that I am not making that claim. I am not trying to defend that every prediction that William Miller gave came true. All right? But, there is something about William Miller that is more than simply a Bible student, and he had a specific role in this sacred Reform Movement. I am leaving it there. This is not the purpose here, to fight this battle about whether Miller was a prophet. Okay? But, he is typified by Elisha, Elijah, John the Baptist, Moses, and others; so, I am going to make a claim here that may cause some of you some heartburn.

Now, Isaiah 8:18, Isaiah says,

> "[18]Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion." Isaiah 8:18 (KJV).

So, what I am going to say here is that—and there are other places in the Bible to prove the principle that I am going to point to—is that the prophets, and even the prophets' children—okay?—and the prophets' children is not necessarily a prophet, so this is broader than a prophet. They are signs. They are symbols. So, I am going to suggest here that William Miller is a symbol, and one of the things that he symbolizes is those Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world that receive the mark of the beast.

Now, we have already read that William Miller is a saved man. Angels are waiting for the resurrection. So, I am not suggesting that William Miller is lost; but, I am suggesting that William Miller represents Seventh-day Adventists that receive the mark of the beast at the end of the world, and it is a very important recognition. Okay? It is not a minor one; it has got several characteristics with it that align with the message of the hour here at the end of the world; so, they are worth noting.

In Christian Experience and Teachings of Ellen G. White, on page 57, she says this—and this is her first vision. Okay? And I looked, but I did not look hard and long, but I looked. I could not find exactly when she received her first vision. It was in December of 1844, but I could not find the day that she received her first vision. But, the day that she wrote it out was December 20, 1844. So, that is when this vision takes place.

She says,

> "It was not long after the passing of the time, in 1844, that my first vision was given me."—

So, October 22nd, the month of November, and then in December, probably less than two months later, Ellen White receives her first vision. Okay?

> —"I was visiting Mrs. Haines at Portland, a dear sister in Christ, whose heart was knit with mine; five of us, all women, were kneeling quietly at the family altar.

While we were praying, the power of God came upon me as I had never felt it before.

"I seemed to be surrounded with light, and to be rising higher and higher from the earth. I turned to look for the advent people in the world, but could not find them, when a voice said to me, 'Look again, and look a little higher.' At this, I raised my eyes, and saw a straight and narrow path, cast up high above the world. On this path the advent people were traveling to the city which was at the farther end of the path. They had a bright light set up behind them at the beginning of the path, which an angel told me was the 'midnight cry.' This light shone all along the path, and gave light for their feet, so that they might not stumble.

"If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the city, they were safe. But soon some grew weary, and said the city was a great way off, and they expected to have entered it before. Then Jesus would encourage them by raising His glorious right arm, and from His arm came a light which waved over the advent band, and they shouted 'Alleluia!' Others rashly denied the light behind them, and said that it was not God that had led them out so far. The light behind them went out, leaving their feet in perfect darkness, and they stumbled and lost sight of the mark and of Jesus, and fell off the path down into the dark and wicked world below." Christian Experience and Teachings of Ellen G. White, 57. (First written on December 20, 1844.)

Now, the reason why I am emphasizing that this is in December of 1844 is the historical context tells us that the primary person that this vision was given for was William Miller. It was given for everyone; it was given for us here today. But, if you go back into Millerite History, you will find that the Millerites fully believed that they were fulfilling the parable of the Ten Virgins. And from the very beginning of Miller's work, he understood that the message that he was proclaiming, that he began to proclaim right at the beginning, was the Midnight Cry. And when he addressed the message that he was sharing with the world, it was to him the Midnight Cry from the parable of the Ten Virgins.

But, in the Summer of 1844, when The True Midnight Cry arrived, when Samuel Snow came to the camp meeting at Exeter and presented the evidence from the Scriptures that not only would the Lord return in 1844, but it would be on October 22, 1844, because Snow was employing the feasts of the Bible to reach that conclusion. When that Midnight Cry Message arrived, those that had been leading out in the Millerite Movement were the very last ones to accept that message. The people at the Exeter camp meeting, they accepted it. They left that camp meeting on fire with the Midnight Cry Message. But, the very last person in the Millerite Movement to accept that that was the Midnight Cry was William Miller.

William Miller for 20 years had been saying his message in general was the Midnight Cry; and, now, just a couple of months before October 22, 1844, there is new light and the new light is identified as THE Midnight Cry Message, and Miller was the last to receive it.

And, of course, there is a lesson from there that we are not looking at. When this history is repeated, you can show that those people that have been doing the Lord's work prior to the Final Warning Message coming, the leaders that were leading out in genuine service for the Lord before this message arrives in history will be the last to accept it, as prefigured by Miller. But, we are not dealing with that part. We are just dealing with the fact that Miller was the last to accept that Samuel Snow's presentation identifying October 22, 1844, was The True Midnight Cry. He had to set aside his former teaching. Okay?

So, when you go back into Ellen White's first vision, she sees the Midnight Cry set up behind God's people on this path to Heaven, and she sees people denying that the Midnight Cry was of the Lord. And, what she is referencing is right after October 22, 1844, when all the disappointment and confusion set in, is there comes a point in time where William Miller rejects that Samuel Snow's True Midnight Cry Message was the Midnight Cry and he returns to his previous understanding of what the Midnight Cry was. In other words, he was rejecting the bright light that was set up behind them, and he was falling off the path to the wicked world below. And, at the very time that Miller is doing this is when Ellen White receives this vision that gives the warning about this very thing.

So, the historical context of this vision in connection with William Miller is good to put in your head.

THOSE WHO ACCEPTED THE MIDNIGHT CRY

Another quote about what happens when you reject the Midnight Cry is Selected Messages, book 1, page 63. It says,

> "I was shown in vision, and I still believe, that there was a shut door in 1844. All who saw the light of the first and second angels' messages and rejected that light, were left in darkness."—

Now, that is not Miller. That is the people that rejected the First and Second Angels' Messages. But, now Sister White is going to talk about the Midnight Cry.

> —"And those who accepted it [THE FIRST AND SECOND ANGELS' MESSAGES] and received the Holy Spirit which attended the proclamation of the message from heaven, and who afterward renounced their faith and pronounced their experience a delusion, thereby rejected the Spirit of God, and it no longer pleaded with them." Selected Messages, book 1, 63.

That is just another way to say that if they rejected the Midnight Cry, they fell off the path to the dark and wicked world below.

LOW HAMPTON CONFERENCE OF ADVENTISTS, DECEMBER 28-29, 1844

So, notice, in December 28 and 29, there is a conference in 1844 in Low Hampton. We are going to read from Gerhard Damsteegt's book, Foundations of the Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, pages 133 – 114.

And it is here, just a couple of months, this is the end of December; so, it is two months after the Disappointment, Miller and Himes are calling a conference, and we will read what they do at the conference.

> "At the Low Hampton Conference of Adventists (December 28, 29, 1844) Himes urged three aspects of future of future missionary activity: (1) Comforting the saints who are still looking for the kingdom at hand;"—

They are trying to figure out how to keep going with this Movement that just collapsed before their very eyes on October 22, 1844.

> —"(2) arousing the professed Christian world once more to prepare for the Advent; (3) fully and freely proclaiming salvation to lost and perishing sinners. A few weeks later the Advent press was again in operation, and Himes declared, 'I am more and more convinced that the door of salvation is open wide, and that we are to "preach the Gospel of the Kingdom to all the world," in the faith that sinners may and will be converted, until the end comes.' In response to reports about new conversions and pressure of some of his colleagues Miller became gradually less dogmatic on the extreme shut door concept"—

We are not dealing with that. That is part of that history that we should understand. And, the reason that we should understand it is we find in the beginning of Adventism, right here in this history, there was a controversy over the shut door; and, here at the end of the world, there is, once again when Millerite History is repeating, there is a controversy over the shut door. The controversy here at the end of the world is, "Does probation really close for Seventh-day Adventists at The Sunday Law that is represented in Daniel 11:41?" And the answer is, yes, probation closes. There is a shut door for Adventists at The Sunday Law; but, most of Adventism refuses to wrap their minds around this truth. It is the controversy once again over the shut door that was prefigured over the controversy over the shut door at the beginning of Adventism in the Millerite History. But, we are not dealing with that here.

> —"Miller became gradually less dogmatic on the extreme shut door concept and after the Jewish Karaite year 1844 had passed he gave it up and returned to his original view of the midnight cry."—

Now, we know that the Karaite year of 1843 ended on March 21, 1844. So, there may be some variation in the Biblical year. I have not looked at when the Karaite year ended in 1844; but, let us say it is going to roughly end in March of 1844.

So, by March of 1844[22], William Miller has fully rejected that The Midnight Cry Message brought by Samuel Snow to the Exeter camp meeting is The True Midnight Cry Message, and he goes back to his original understanding that his message in general was the Midnight Cry.

So, what is he doing? He is rejecting the bright light that was set up behind the Advent people to lead them to Heaven. He has been forewarned by a vision a few months before in December. The Lord places this vision in the record for us, for all of Adventism; but, the primary point of reference was for William Miller, because the Lord knew that William Miller was about to reject the Midnight Cry.

Continuing on:

> —"However, new interpretations of the Disappointment, relating it to Christ's heavenly ministry, seemed to some to confirm the validity of the Seventh Month movement"—

[22] Corrected by Brother Jeff Pippenger to 1845 [see intro dialogue in presentation #77 of Notes, and #77 of DVD.

That is Samuel Snow's Message.

> —"and some kind of shut door concept, and created a strong controversy—even fanaticism—among Adventists.
> "At the end of April 1845 at Albany, New York, a conference of Adventists was called together by Himes with the object of ending confusion and division. Miller commented, 'It need not be replied that it was convened to deliberate respecting, and if possible extricate ourselves from the anarchy and confusion of BABYLON in which we had so unexpectedly found ourselves.'"—

By 1845, there is so much confusion over what went on, on October 22, 1844, that Miller says that the Movement has turned into Babylon.

> —"At the Albany Conference, chaired by Miller, it was decided to reject all new theological interpretations which had been developed since the Disappointment."—

There he is rejecting the theological interpretations that people like Joseph Bates, and James and Ellen White were understanding that had taken place on October 22, 1844, when Christ moved into the Most Holy Place.

So, in April of 1844[23], Miller has rejected the Midnight Cry, and now he is rejecting the light that would allow him to understand what happened.

> —"Thus the conference refused to accept the newly developed views which recognized the special significance of the Seventh Month movement in salvation history." P. Gerhard Damsteegt, Foundations of the Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, 113, 114.

Okay. Now, what am I doing here? What I am doing here is I am saying that William Miller not only was typified by Elisha, Elijah, John the Baptist, and Moses, but William Miller himself typifies Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world that receive the mark of the beast.

THE THIRD ANGEL'S MESSAGE

In Early Writings, beginning at page 257—we will pull this together in a moment, after this quote here—Early Writings, page 257, it says,

> "My attention was then called to William Miller. He looked perplexed and was bowed with anxiety and distress for his people. The company who had been united and loving in 1844 were losing their love, opposing one another, and falling into a cold, backslidden state. As he beheld this, grief wasted his strength. I saw leading men watching him, and fearing lest he should receive the third angel's message and the commandments of God."—

[23] Ibid.

What was the Third Angel's Message and the commandments of God that they were afraid that William Miller was going to accept? The Sabbath. Okay? He had already rejected the Midnight Cry, but now they were understanding the Law of God, because they had moved into the Most Holy Place; and, now, Miller has the opportunity to accept the Sabbath truth. But, leading men, men that were surrounding him, they were watching him, and they were going to prevent him from accepting this.

She continues on:

> —"And as he would lean toward the light from heaven, these men would lay some plan to draw his mind away. A human influence was exerted to keep him in darkness and to retain his influence among those who opposed the truth. At length William Miller raised his voice against the light from heaven."—AGAINST THE SABBATH—"He failed in not receiving the message which would have fully explained his disappointment and cast a light and glory on the past, which would have revived his exhausted energies, brightened his hope, and led him to glorify God. He leaned to human wisdom"—

And I want you to see this. Mark this. Understand this.

The first thing that William Miller does is he rejects the Midnight Cry, and then he begins to trust in human beings. He is leaning upon human wisdom: First, the Midnight Cry; and, then human wisdom. And because of the human wisdom, what does he do? He rejects the Sabbath.

Okay. There is a three-step process there that William Miller went through.

> —"He leaned to human wisdom instead of divine, but being broken with arduous labor in his Master's cause and by age, he was not as accountable as those who kept him from the truth. They are responsible; the sin rests upon them.
> "If William Miller could have seen the light of the third message, many things which looked dark and mysterious to him would have been explained. But his brethren professed so deep love and interest for him, that he thought he could not tear away from them. His heart would incline toward the truth, and then he looked at his brethren; they opposed it. Could he tear away from those who had stood side by side with him in proclaiming the coming of Jesus? He thought they surely would not lead him astray.
> "God suffered him to fall under the power of Satan, the dominion of death, and hid him in the grave from those who were constantly drawing him from the truth. Moses erred as he was about to enter the Promised Land."—

We have read this already.

> —"So also, I saw that William Miller erred as he was soon to enter the heavenly Canaan, in suffering his influence to go against the truth. Others led him to this; others must account for it. But angels watch the precious dust of this servant of God, and he will come forth at the sound of the last trump." Early Writings, 257–258.

So, what I want you to see is, what I am suggesting is that William Miller went through a threefold testing processing that concludes the third test, his rejection of the Sabbath. His first test was the Midnight Cry. His second test was trusting human wisdom. And at the end of the world, those Seventh-day Adventists that look back at the Millerite History and have the ability to see that the Midnight Cry represents the Latter Rain at the end of the world, when they reject that Midnight Cry history, they are doing the same thing that William Miller did. And as they reject that Midnight Cry history as the point of reference for the Latter Rain at the end of the world, they are then going to turn away from the influence of God's Word and start trusting in the leadership at the end of the world that is telling them, "This isn't the Latter Rain." They are going to trust in human wisdom, and the next step is they are going to receive the mark of the beast at The Sunday Law. And this has all been typified in the life of William Miller.

ZECHARIAH 10:1

In Zechariah 10:1, it says we are to pray for the Latter Rain in the time of the Latter Rain.

> "[1]Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field." Zechariah 10:1 (KJV).

And Sister White agrees with this, The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 984. It says,

> "We must not wait for the latter rain. It is coming upon all who will recognize and appropriate the dew and showers of grace that fall upon us. When we gather up the fragments of light, when we appreciate the sure mercies of God, who loves to have us trust Him, then every promise will be fulfilled. [Isaiah 61:11 quoted.] The whole earth is to be filled with the glory of God." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 984.

And the whole Earth is to be filled with the glory of God when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 comes down; but, we have to recognize when that Angel comes down. And how could you possibly fulfill the passage in Zechariah 10:1 and pray for the Latter Rain in the time of the Latter Rain if you did not know that you were in the time of the Latter Rain? You need to recognize it.

And RECOGNIZE, the definition is in your notes:

> RECOGNIZE: 1. To recollect or recover the knowledge of, either with an avowal of that knowledge or not. We recognize a person at a distance, when we recollect that we have seen him before, or that we have formerly known him. We recognize his features or his voice. Webster's 1828 D ct onary.

So, the essence of the word RECOGNIZE has to do with being able to recognize that object, thing, or whatever, based upon the fact that you have seen it before.

So, if we are to recognize the Latter Rain, the way that we are going to recognize the Latter Rain is that we have seen it before. And what we have seen before, where we have seen the Latter Rain before, is in the Midnight Cry. We have to see that the Midnight Cry is typifying the Latter Rain in order to recognize it.

We have to do what? We have to go back to the Millerite History of 1840 to 1844. We have to stand on that Platform of Truth in order to have the ability to recognize the Latter Rain at the end of the world. Okay?

And if we do not recognize it, we are going to receive the mark of the beast.

RETURNED TO HIS ORIGINAL VIEW OF THE MIDNIGHT CRY

And this next thought might be a little bit tricky for me to convey.

When William Miller was rejecting the Midnight Cry, what did he do?

I just told you this morning. What did he do? He reverted to his old view of the Latter Rain.

And, you will find that as you go out in Adventism and you meet these opponents to this message, and you say, "Look, the Latter Rain began when Islam was restrained on September 11, 2001, that was typified by the restraint of Islam on August 11, 1840, when Islam was restrained and the Mighty Angel came down, thus prefiguring the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 coming down," when you go out in Adventism and tell them this, they say, "Well, I admit we are supposed to understand that we are in the time of the Latter Rain, but the time of the Latter Rain began in 1888." They revert to the old view of the arrival of the Latter Rain, with Jones and Waggoner, to prevent the conviction that 9/11 marks the arrival of the Latter Rain in our day and age.

Miller reverted to a former view of the Midnight Cry. Here at the end of the world, those people that are walking in the footsteps of Miller, they revert to a former identification of the Latter Rain. They revert to 1888, and then they start saying, "Oh, you know what, we are supposed to be preaching the message of Jones and Waggoner and none other; and, the Latter Rain has been falling since 1888. So, yeah, I can see why you are saying that the Latter Rain is falling now, but you are misrepresenting it."

Not so! Sister White is clear that the Latter Rain of 1888 ended.

But, let us read some information on this, Selected Messages, book 1, page 235.

> "An unwillingness to yield up preconceived opinions, and to accept this truth, lay at the foundation of a large share of the opposition manifested at Minneapolis against the Lord's message through Brethren [E.J.] Waggoner and [A.T.] Jones. By exciting that opposition Satan succeeded in shutting away from our people, in a great measure, the special power of the Holy Spirit that God longed to impart to them."—

So, what is she saying?

God longed to impart the Latter Rain in 1888; but, Satan used the leadership of the Adventist Church to prevent it from happening. So, to say that the Latter Rain arrived in 1888 and in one sense it has been sprinkling ever since is a misrepresentation of the truth.

> —"The enemy prevented them from obtaining that efficiency which might have been theirs in carrying the truth to the world, as the apostles proclaimed it after the day of Pentecost. The light that is to lighten the whole earth with its glory was resisted, and by the action of our own brethren has been in a great degree kept away from the world." Selected Messages, book 1, 235.

Go to Jeremiah 3:3. It is in your notes. Jeremiah 3:3; all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world.

"[3]Therefore the showers have been withholden,"—

What showers at the end of the world?

What are the showers at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Latter Rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Latter Rain.

What does it mean, they have been withholden? They have been held back.

The Lord wanted to pour them out in 1888, but they have been held back.

—"[3]Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed." Jeremiah 3:3 (KJV).

Why is the Latter Rain held back? Because the people that prevented it—I do not know how to articulate it—but they have "a whore's forehead."

There is a contrast of two classes of worshippers throughout the prophetic message, whether you have the false foundation we mentioned yesterday and the True Foundation, or the false movement or the True Movement. And at the very time that the Lord is making God's people's head as a diamond by putting His name upon their forehead, sealing them in their forehead, the other class is developing a whore's forehead. Okay?

JEREMIAH 5:20-31

Go to Jeremiah 5, verses 20 through 31.

"[20] Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, [21] Hear now this, O foolish people,"—

Who is to hear this?

It is at the end of the world. Who are the foolish people at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The foolish virgins.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The foolish virgins in Adventism. Okay?

—"[21]Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding;"—

What understanding do they not have? They do not understand the increase of knowledge. Okay?

—"[21]Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding, which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:"—

Who is that people? Well, that is the same people here in Isaiah 6 that the Lord told Isaiah, "You are going to deal with." And in Isaiah 6, verse 3, Isaiah puts in place when you begin to deal with these foolish people that have eyes that do not see, and ears that do not hear. It is when the whole Earth is lightened with the glory of the Lord. Isaiah 6:3 says this experience begins on September 11, 2001.

Verse 22:

> —"[22] Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? [23] But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. [24] Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest."—

If nothing else, this is telling you that the Latter Rain has a specific time that God governs, controls, watches over it, it to take place at a specific time.

Verse 25:

> —"[25] Your iniquities have turned away these things,"—

The iniquities of the brethren in 1888, in that time period, they turned away the Latter Rain. So, to suggest that when we get to the genuine fulfillment of the Latter Rain at the end of the world that the illustration that the Latter Rain is something that came in 1888 and it has been sprinkling upon Adventism ever since is to revert to a former view of what the Latter Rain was, just like Miller reverted to a former view of what the Midnight Cry was.

If you are seeing this logic, say, "Amen."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Verse 25 again,

> —"[25]Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you. [26] For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men. [27] As a cage is full of birds,"—

What is "a cage full of birds"?

These wicked men are now being described as a cage full of birds. What is the cage full of birds in the Scriptures?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is Babylon.

> —"a cage full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich."—

Who are waxen rich? Laodiceans.

> —"[28] They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. [29] Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

"[30] A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; [31] The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof? Jeremiah 5:20-31 (KJV).

So, what I am saying here, if you will see it, is that the argument that 1888 is the arrival of the Latter Rain and that the Latter Rain has been sprinkling in a general sense since that time period, that is absolutely not true. The Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy identifies that the Lord wanted to pour the Latter Rain out in 1888; but, due to the wickedness of God's people, it was stopped.

So, now, when the Latter Rain truly arrives, these people that want to say, "Oh, I don't want to accept the implications of 9/11. I want to fight against this message, and I want to defend it by going back to the messages of Jones and Waggoner and the history of 1888," they are paralleling William Miller as he reverted to his original view of the Midnight Cry.

ISAIAH 28:14-18

"[14] Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. [15] Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: [16] Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. [17] Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. [18] And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it." Isaiah 28:14-18 (KJV).

When the Latter Rain arrives, there is a group of men that begin to hide behind lies.

And Jeremiah just said something about the foolish people in Adventism. What did he say? That the congregation of the foolish people in Adventism, they love to have it so. They love for their leaders to give them lies about this history, and they are going to stand with their leaders. And what is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is human reasoning.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is human reasoning. That is where William Miller went next, after he rejected and reverted to the former Midnight Cry. Then he began to rely upon human understanding. The next step is to start following the leadership that is building a covenant with death by hiding underneath lies, "And my people love to have it so."

Well, what follows that is that William Miller, he rejects the Sabbath.

In Testimonies, volume 5, page 211, it says,

"Here we see that the church—the Lord's sanctuary—was the first to feel the stroke of the wrath of God. The ancient men, those to whom God had given great light and who had stood as guardians of the spiritual interests of the people, had betrayed their trust."—

Now, Sister White here is talking about Ezekiel 9—chapters 8 and 9—but Ezekiel 9, when the Sealing Angel is going through and placing a mark on the foreheads of those that sigh and cry for the abominations that are done in Adventism. And the first of those that are going to be judged and dealt with are the leadership of the Adventist Church. That is Isaiah 28:14, the scornful men which rule this people that are in Jerusalem. They get dealt with first.

But, why? What is it that this leadership does? What is the lie they hide behind? The next sentence in this passage says, these ancient men,

—"They had taken the position that we need not look for miracles and the marked manifestation of God's power as in former days. Times have changed."—

They have taken the position that we do not believe that the history of the Midnight Cry is prefiguring the Latter Rain and that it is going to be repeated at the end of the world. They reject the Midnight Cry.

And what happens to them? They fall off the path.

—"These words strengthen their unbelief, and they say: The Lord will not do good, neither will He do evil. He is too merciful to visit His people in judgment. Thus 'Peace and safety' is the cry from men who will never again lift up their voice like a trumpet to show God's people their transgressions and the house of Jacob their sins. These dumb dogs that would not bark are the ones who feel the just vengeance of an offended God. Men, maidens, and little children all perish together." Testimonies, volume 5, 211.

So, what I am saying is, Miller also typified Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world that receive the mark of the beast; but, fortunately for Miller, he is going to be saved. But, the people that he is typifying in Adventism here at the end, they are going to be lost for eternity, and they are going to be lost for eternity because they are going to accept the lie that we need not look for miracles and the marked manifestation of God's power as in former days.

Was the Midnight Cry a marked manifestation of the power of God in the history of the Millerites?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Absolutely! "We don't believe that is going to be repeated. We do not believe that the Millerite History is repeated at the end of the world to the very letter; therefore, we don't believe that Jesus is the First and the Last, that He illustrates the End from the Beginning; therefore, we are going to build up a foundation of lies to hide under, and it is going to lead us to The Sunday Law."

So, what I am saying is, when it comes to William Miller, those people that take such a shallow view of his work and his role at the beginning of Adventism, the bears are about to be let loose upon them.

HIS MESSENGER

William Miller may not have been a prophet, but he was God's messenger, whatever that may mean.

Notice Malachi 3:1.

> "[1]Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts." Malachi 3:1 (KJV).

And this is identifying John the Baptist as the messenger that prepared the way for Christ to suddenly come to His temple, to suddenly come to His temple twice in the Beginning and End of His ministry when He cleansed the temple, and to suddenly come to the Temple in Heaven at Pentecost.

So, John the Baptist is here typified; but, we have already read a quote where Sister White—and it is not the only one—where Sister White compares William Miller with John the Baptist. William Miller was the messenger that prepared the way for Christ to suddenly come to the Most Holy Place aspect of His temple on October 22, 1844. He was that messenger. He is marked in God's Word.

Sister White says this of William Miller in Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, page 219:

> "William Miller was disturbing Satan's kingdom, and the arch-enemy sought not only to counteract the effect of the message, but to destroy the messenger himself."—

He is the messenger that prepares the way for Christ to come to the Most Holy Place.

> —"As Father Miller made a practical application of Scripture truth to the hearts of his hearers, the rage of professed Christians was kindled against him, even as the anger of the Jews was excited against Christ and his apostles. Church-members stirred up the baser classes, and upon several occasions enemies plotted to take his life as he should leave the place of meeting. But holy angels were in the throng, and one of these, in the form of a man, took the arm of this servant of the Lord, and led him in safety from the angry mob. His work was not yet done, and Satan and his emissaries were disappointed in their purpose." Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, 219.

ACCOMPANIED BY ANGELS

> "Angels of God accompanied William Miller in His mission." Early Writings, 232.

HIS ANGEL

And this is the next part. This is where people really have a—they really stumble. The Desire of Ages, page 99, says,

"The words of the angel, 'I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God,' show that he holds a position of high honor in the heavenly courts. When he came with a message to Daniel, he said, 'There is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael [Christ] your Prince.' Daniel 10:21. Of Gabriel the Saviour speaks in the Revelation, saying that 'He sent and signified it by His angel unto His servant John.' Revelation 1:1." The Desire of Ages, 99.

Sister White just identified that Gabriel is "His angel." That is a term for Gabriel.

So, in Early Writings, page 230, Sister White says this,

"God sent His angel"—

Who is His angel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Gabriel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"God sent His angel [GABRIEL] to move upon the heart of a farmer who had not believed the Bible, to lead him to search the prophecies. Angels of God repeatedly visited that"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Chosen one.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"that chosen one,"—

He was not just a messenger of Malachi 3; he was the chosen one, typified by Elisha, Elijah, John the Baptist, Moses.

—"to guide his mind and open to his understanding prophecies which had ever been dark to God's people."—

If you ever accept this truth—and people fight this truth. Sometimes you wonder why they fight this truth—but, if you ever accept this truth that it was Gabriel that was laboring with William Miller, and then you go back into some of the biographies of William Miller and he talks about, "And the thought came into my mind . . . ," who gave him that thought? You know? It is Gabriel, right? But, if you do not accept it, you will not see that.

And I do not know that you necessarily need to see it, but it really brings the testimony of William Miller to life if you have that understanding, that it was not just his Guardian Angel; it was the same angel that directed every prophet that recorded words in the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy, the same angel.

—"Angels of God repeatedly visited that chosen one, to guide his mind and open to his understanding prophecies which had ever been dark to God's people. The commencement of the chain of truth was given to him,"—

And we are making the claim—started to make the claim yesterday, but I am going to point it out to you here—that when it comes to these Foundational Truths [indicating the 1843 Chart], and the argument over these Foundational Truths, to reject these Foundational Truths is to reject the Spirit of Prophecy.

So, you have got to wrap your mind around this right here. Sister White just said that Gabriel gave William Miller the commencement to the chain of truth. Do you believe that or do you not believe that?

Is this inspired? Is this authoritative in your life? Because, perhaps this means something.

> —"The commencement of the chain of truth was given to him, and he was led on to search for link after link, until he looked with wonder and admiration upon the Word of God. He saw there a perfect chain of truth. That Word which he had regarded as uninspired now opened before his vision in its beauty and glory. He saw that one portion of Scripture explains another, and when one passage was closed to his understanding, he found in another part of the Word that which explained it. He regarded the sacred Word of God with joy and with the deepest respect and awe." Early Writings, 230.

THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CHAIN OF TRUTH

So, now, here is what William Miller says about "the commencement." Ellen White says that Gabriel was leading William Miller, and she says he was given the commencement to the chain of truth, and he was led to all the links in the chain of truth. And here is what William Miller says about the commencements that he was given.

William Miller, Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, April 18, 1854:

> "From a farther study of the Scriptures, I concluded that the seven times of Gentile supremacy must commence"—

Notice the word.

> —"must commence when the Jews ceased to be an independent nation at the captivity of Manasseh, which the best chronologers assigned to B. C. 677; that the 2300 days commenced with the seventy weeks, which the best chronologers dated from B. C. 457; and that the 1335 days commencing with the taking away of the daily, and the setting up of the abomination that maketh desolate, [Daniel 12:11] were to be dated from the setting up of the Papal supremacy, after the taking away of Pagan abominations, and which, according to the best historians I could consult, should be dated from about A. D. 508. Reckoning all these prophetic periods from the several dates assigned by the best chronologers for the events from which they should evidently be reckoned, they all would terminate together, about A. D. 1843. I was thus brought, in 1818, at the close of my two years study of the Scriptures, to the solemn conclusion, that in about twenty-five years from that time all the affairs of our present state would be wound up." William Miller, Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, April 18, 1854.

Sister White says Miller was given the commencement of the chain of truth, and Miller says the three commencements that he was given was the starting point for the 2520, the 2300, and the 1335.

So, who gave him those commencement points?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Gabriel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Gabriel.

And who is Gabriel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ's angel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ's angel.

So, who gave him those commencement points?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ.

So, when we are going to argue about 677BC really commencing any prophecy, are we arguing against William Miller or are we arguing against Gabriel? We are fighting against God.

MILLER'S RULES

Okay. William Miller's Rules, Sister White says, from The 1888 Materials, page 403,

> "We should know for ourselves what constitutes Christianity, what is truth, what is the faith that we have received,

We dealt with that yesterday. What is the faith that we have received? The messages that came in 1842, 1843, and 1844. This is the beginning of our confidence. We should know this.

But, also, she says, "We should know for ourselves . . ."

> —"what are the Bible rules—the rules given us from the highest authority." The 1888 Materials, 403.

What are the Bible Rules?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: William Miller's Rules.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, Sister White is clear, the rules that were given to us from the highest authority.

And if you track William Miller's comments on how he comes to understand these Rules, who was giving them to him? Gabriel. Is he a representative of the highest authority?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Absolutely.

Review and Herald, November 25, 1884, it says,

> 'Those who are engaged in proclaiming the third angel's message are searching the Scriptures upon the same plan that Father Miller adopted."—

And you can reverse this around and say, "Those who are not using the same rules that Father Miller adopted are not giving the Third Angel's Message, even if they claim to be doing so."

—"Those who are engaged in proclaiming the third angel's message are searching the Scriptures upon the same plan that Father Miller adopted. In the little book entitled Views of the Prophecies and Prophetic Chronology, Father Miller gives the following simple but intelligent and important rules for Bible study and interpretation:—

"[Rules one through five quoted.]

"The above is a portion of these rules; and in our study of the Bible we shall all do well to heed the principles set forth." Review and Herald, November 25, 1884.

We should know what are the Bible Rules given to us from the highest authority, and those Rules are the Rules that the Lord used William Miller to assemble at the beginning of Adventism.

MILLER'S CONCORDANCE

I like this comment here that I have in here about William Miller's method of study from a biography of him that was written by Sylvester Bliss. This is from page 244 – 246 of Memoirs of William Miller. It says—

And we, in our worships here recently, our morning worships, a group of us have been reading through F. D. Nichols's book, The Midnight Cry. Every Seventh-day Adventist should read through that book. If you can get on the internet, you can find that book in a PDF form that you can download and print out for free: The Midnight Cry, by F. D. Nichols.

And there is a point here. I never knew this until I started reading through this book about how sickly William Miller was. By the time you got to the heart of the Movement, the 1840 to 1844 time period, he was so wore out that many of the conferences that they were holding, the important conferences, he could not make it there. He was too sick.

And he had a couple types of sicknesses, but one of them was boils. And we were just reading here the other day where the author of The Midnight Cry, Nichols, quoted one of Miller's letters, telling his friend that he had, I think, 27 boils currently on his body; and, Nichols commented that it was like Job. Okay? So, I am adding this in here from Sylvester Bliss, just as an observation. I am not saying that Job typified William Miller, but just as an observation.

It says,

"He has brought up eight children, two others having died in early life. His whole family, like Job's, originally consisted of seven sons and three daughters. Four of them are now in the house with him, and two sons are at the West. As a specimen of the fertility of his farm, he showed us a potato weighing two pounds and seven ounces. . . ."—

That is a nice potato.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, I like the next part. It says,

—"We were interested"—

Some people were coming to his farm.

—"We were interested in seeing his old family Bible, which cost $18.50, and his quarto copy of Cruden's Concordance, which was originally purchased, in 1798, for $8."—

So, Miller bought his Concordance in 1798, the time of the end when the Book of Daniel was unsealed and many began to run to and fro and knowledge was increased.

Of course, he was not going to get into it until 1816. But, why do we have to know about that Concordance in 1798? I do not know exactly why, but it is kind of like icing on the cake.

Continuing on,

—"These two books were almost the only ones he looked at while preparing his lectures."—

You know, Vance Ferrell came out with an attack against the truth here recently, and then there has been two other ministries that took Vance Ferrell's work (Shared Chronicles). Bob Trebes, he echoed Vance Ferrell's charge; and, another guy, but it does not matter. And Vance Ferrell's charges are all a bunch of foolishness; but, one of them is that he claims that Miller took his understanding of the 2520 from someone else. Okay? I do not know where he pulls that out of his hat from, but it is a denial of the testimony of the biographies of Miller and of Miller himself. And I do not know why someone would be wanting to twist the words of someone that we have been told that was being directed by Gabriel; but, we do so when we fight this message.

It says,

—"A clergyman once called at his house in his absence, and, being disappointed in not seeing him, wished the privilege of looking at his library. His daughter conducted the visitor into the north-east room, where he has sat so many hours at his ancient desk. Those two books, and no others, lay upon the table. 'That is his library,' said she."—

"Well, I thought he got his information from other people." That is not the testimony. His library was a Bible and a Concordance.

—"'That is his library,' said she."—

Of course, some people like to note that where he sat in his room was in the northeast corner, and they like to note that because they understand that the message of the hour is illustrated in the last six verses of Daniel 11, and in verse 44 it says, "Tidings out of the east and the north shall trouble the King of the North," of the Papacy, "and he shall go forth to destroy and utterly make away many." And the tidings of the East and the North is Daniel's way of articulating the Third Angel's Message. And the tidings of the East and the North means so many things in the Scriptures that it takes a whole presentation just to define the East and the North. But, to keep it simple, the twofold message of the East and the North, the North is the message of Daniel 11:40-45, the message of the King of the North, his final rise and fall. And the East is the message of the children of the East that come back into prophetic history at 9/11.

Okay. So, the tidings of the East and the North in Daniel 11:44 is a summary of the Final Warning Message to Planet Earth at the end of Adventism; and, at the beginning of Adventism, the message that was brought to Adventism was brought by William Miller, and where William Miller did his study was in the northeast part of this room.

Okay. That is a minor point, but it is a nice observation.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It was not just of the room but the whole house.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The whole house.

Some people are focused on this, and this is good! I like that. Okay?

> —"Those two books, and no others, lay upon the table. 'That is his library,' said she. The clergyman was amazed. Her remark was strictly true, as far as theological writings were concerned. He never had a commentary in his house, and did not remember reading any work upon the prophecies, except Newton and Faber, about thirty years ago." Sylvester Bliss, Memoirs of William Miller, 244–246.

Okay. So, where Vance Ferrell pulls that out of his hat, and others are quick to jump on, is a denial of the record, the historical record, of William Miller.

THE DAILY

Okay, "The Daily." Here—I think Apollos Hale, is it not?—Apollos Hale from that time period is going to describe how William Miller applied his Rules; and, in so doing, he is going to address the Daily.

And we are almost at the conclusion of this presentation, and this is going to be pulling Miler into the Daily. So, bear with me now. We are coming to a conclusion, even though you see a lot of notes still ahead.

Apollos Hale, The Second Advent Manuel, 65–66, quoting William Miller:

> "During, the twelve years I was a deist, I read all histories I could find; but now I loved the Bible It taught of Jesus! But still there was a good deal of the Bible that was dark to me. In 1818 or 19, while conversing with a friend! To whom I made a visit, and who had known and hear[d] me talk while I was a deist, he inquired, in rather a significant manner, 'What do you think of this text, and that?' referring to the old texts I objected to while a deist. I understood what he was about, and replied—If you will give me time, I will tell you what they mean. 'How long time do you want?' I don't know, but I will tell you, I replied, for I could not believe that God had given a revelation that could not be understood I then resolved to study my Bible, believing I could find out what the Holy Spirit meant. But as soon as I had formed this resolution the thought came to me"—

Where did he get this thought?

As soon as he determined, "Okay. I am going to study the Bible," a thought comes to him, and this is in his head.

> —"—'Suppose you find a passage that you cannot understand, what will you do?' This mode of studying the Bible then came to my mind:—I will take the words of such passages, and trace them through the Bible, and find out their meaning in this way."—

Who told him to do this proof-texting?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Gabriel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Gabriel.

—"I had Cru en 's Concor anc e, which I think is the best in the world; so I took that and my Bible, and set down to my desk,"—

In the Northeast corner of his house, not just the room.

—"and read nothing else,"—

And "read nothing else," in spite of what men may say.

—"except the newspapers a little, for I was determined to know what my Bible meant. I began at Genesis, and read on slowly; and when I came to a text that I could not understand, I searched through the Bible to find out what it meant. After I had gone through the Bible in this way, O, how bright and glorious the truth appeared! I found what I have been preaching to you. I was satisfied that the seven times terminated in 1843."—

That is the 2520. He was satisfied that the 2520 ended in 1843.

And, this is an important point here coming in this next sentence.

—"Then I came to the 2300 days;"—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Oh, yeah!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what did Miller discover first?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The 2520.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And why would he do that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He started at the beginning.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He began at the beginning of the Bible and the 2520 is in Leviticus, and the 2300 is in the Book of Daniel. Okay? So, he comes to the 2300 after the 2520.

—"Then I came to the 2300 days; they brought me to the same conclusion; but I had no thought of finding out when the Savior was coming, and I could not believe it; but the light struck me so forcibly I did not know what to do. Now, I thought, I must put on spurs and breeching;"—

What does that mean, [Sister] Autumn?

FROM SISTER AUTUMN IN THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What?

SISTER AUTUMN: (Again, inaudible on the DVD).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is riding a horse. He is going to put on—what would we call these things that—

SISTER AUTUMN: Chaps.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —chaps and spurs.

Why? Why do you have those? Because you are riding a horse.

What are the spurs for?

SISTER AUTUMN: To get him to go.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To control the horse—right?—not just to get him to go, but to control him.

SISTER AUTUMN: That is right.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because, Miller, not, he is going to get on this horse in studying the Bible and he wants to control it. The Holy Spirit wants to make him run full speed ahead, and he wants to go full speed ahead; but, if the Holy Spirit wants him to slow down, he is going to slow that horse down. That is what I think he is saying here.

> —"Now, I thought, I must put on spurs and breeching, I will not go faster than the Bible, and I will not fall behind it. Whatever the Bible teaches, I will hold on to it. But still there were some texts that I could not understand.'"—

Now, this is Apollos Hale. He says, and this is the next paragraph,

> —"So much for his general mode of studying the Bible. On another occasion he stated his mode of settling the meaning of the text before us—the meaning of 'the daily.'"—

Okay. So, now he is going to give us an example of how he drew conclusions through this method of proof-texting; and, Apollos Hale is going to give us an example, and he reaches into Miller's own testimony to do so.

> —"'I read on,' said he, 'and could find no other case in which it was found, but in Daniel.'"—

Speaking of the Daily, and then he is going to quote from Daniel.

> —"'I then took those words which stood in connection with it, 'take away.' He shall take away the daily, 'from the time the daily shall be taken away,' etc. I read on, and thought I should find no light on the text; finally I came to 2 Thessalonians 2:7–8.'"—

And we dealt with this yesterday. This is the passage that brings on the strong delusion to Adventism.

> —"'For the mystery of iniquity doth already work, only he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the way, and then shall that wicked be revealed,' etc. And when I had come to that text, O, how clear and glorious the truth appeared! There it is! that is 'the daily!' Well, now, what does Paul mean by 'he who now letteth,' or hindereth? By 'the man of sin,' and 'the wicked,' Popery is meant. Well, what is it which hinders Popery from being revealed? Why, it is Paganism; well, then, 'the daily' must mean Paganism." Apollos Hale, The Second Advent Manuel, 65–66.

I do not know if that is according to William Miller or Gabriel.

HIME'S FIRST CHART

Now, LeRoy Froom, in The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, he talks about this chart here:

Okay. We are going to start making some very brief arguments about the Daily here.

And this passage here kind of makes me "covetous"; because, we have this chart [Figure No. 144]. I like this chart. I like this chart well enough that we have it framed and we have it on the wall over in our office.

But, Froom is going to tell us that this original chart was "full color." Right? But, you will see what we are getting at. But, now with this black-and-white chart, I want the full color one if it is available, but I do not know that it is.

Okay. Let us read what Froom says about this chart.

> "IV. Himes's Composite Chart of Daniel's Visions
> "A well-devised composite chart, in color, called A Pictorial Chart of Dan el's V s ons, was issued prior to 1843 by J. V. Himes, and widely distributed. It was arranged in three paralleling horizontal sections, or lines, likewise marked off by centuries. . . .
>
> "So, in prophetic teaching this chart is essentially—and quite naturally—a replica of Miller's early positions on the time periods as well as the symbols."—

So, he is saying Himes is reflecting Miller's understanding on this chart.

> In connection with Miller's '666 years' of pagan Rome, in the lower section, Himes has 'Pagan Rome, the Continual or Daily,' from 158 B.C. to A.D. 508. Then, at A.D. 508 stands a smoking altar with its pagan priest in color, and the words, 'Paganism taken away';"—

I want you to see this: And you cannot see it, because it is small; but, he is talking about right here [indicating the center of the third segment of the chart]. Okay? Froom is quoting this chart.

This chart is made by Joshua Himes (J. V. Himes), just prior to 1843; but, this chart here [Figure No. 144] is going to get set aside for this [1843] Chart, and this [1843] Chart was published in May of 1842. So, I mean, this is the one, two, punch.

1843 Chart (published by J. V. Himes) 1850 Chart (Published by O. Nichols)

And who published this [1843] Chart [in Figure No. 145]? The same guy, Joshua Himes.

So, this [Figure No. 144] is Joshua Himes first chart.

And this [Figure No. 145] is the [1843] Chart that Sister White says was directed by the hand of the Lord and should not be altered.

And when you come to this [1843] Chart in AD508, all it says is "The tak ng away of the Daily sacrifice. Dan. 12:11-12."

And people will argue, "Well, This [1843] Chart really doesn't identify the Daily as Paganism, because it is not clearly represented there. It just talks about the Daily. You can put any definition on the Daily you want and not find it on this Chart." But, we are going to try to show you why that is absolutely foolish reasoning.

Over here [Figure No. 144], what Froom is talking about, here [referring to the altar scene in the center of segment 3 of Figure No.144] it says "508" and "538." And here is an altar [under "508"], which is a Pagan altar, which a Pagan priest is offering an offering on.

And here is a Catholic altar [under "538"], with a Papal priest offering.

And here, under this "508," it says, "Paganism taken away, 508."

And here, under "538," it says, "Papacy began, 538."

It [this chart in Figure No. 144] is talking about these two abomination powers, Paganism and Papalism.

We will go back to Froom.

> —"'Pagan Rome, the Continual or Daily,' from 158 B.C. to A.D. 508. Then, at A.D. 508 stands a smoking altar with its pagan priest in color, and the words, 'Paganism taken away'; and at A.D. 538 is a cross—surmounted Catholic altar, before which stands a Catholic priest with his smoking censer, and the expression, 'Papacy began.' This feature however, soon disappears in the large '1843 Chart,' which becomes the standard, used subsequently by all the Millerite ministers both before and during the actual year '1843.'" LeRoy Froom, The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, volume 4, 725–727.

So, this chart [Figure No. 144] and this 1843 Chart [Figure No. 145] are invented by the same guy, Himes.

Here [in Figure No. 144] it is just absolutely clear that in AD508 it is teaching that Paganism is taken away; but, that illustration, that expression does not take away from this 1843 Chart [Figure No. 145].

So, you can argue, "Well, Paganism wasn't necessarily understood to be the Daily."

But, Brothers and Sisters, this is like yesterday and the next day, by the same guy. Historically, you have to understand that Himes knew that AD508 [in Figure No. 145] meant the same thing that Himes meant over here [in Figure 144] the day before.

But, more than that, when you get to this Chart in 1850, where Sister White says, "I saw that God was in the publishment of this Chart," when it comes to AD508, it says, "Pagan Dominion or Daily taken away. Dan. 11:31. 508."

So, you have got three witnesses there that the Millerite understanding, based upon William Miller's conclusion, was that the Daily was Paganism.

Do you see the point of putting this in the record?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I wish we had a colored one [referring to Hime's Pictorial Chart in Figure No. 144].

THE SIMPLE ENGLISH

So, let us go to "The Simple English." Now we are doing just review, just review of where we started.

Where we started was that Ellen White agreed with the Pioneer understanding represented on this [1843] Chart.

So, you see there from Early Writings, page 74, that Sister White says,

> "Then I saw in relation to the 'Daily' (Daniel 8:12) that the word 'sacrifice' was supplied by man's wisdom, and does not belong to the text, and that the Lord gave the correct view of it to those who gave the judgment hour cry. When union existed, before 1844, nearly all were united on the correct view of the "daily"; but in the confusion since 1844, other views have been embraced, and darkness and confusion have followed. Time has not been a test since 1844, and it will never again be a test. {EW (Early Writings) 74.2}

What is the view of the Daily before 1844 that they were united on?

This view [Figure No. 144] is real easy: "Paganism taken away, 508."

Sister White just placed a black-and-white endorsement on Miller's understanding of the Daily.

MANUSCRIPT RELEASES, VOLUME 20, 17-22

And then you have Manuscript Releases, volume 20, pages 17-22, which is already in the record in Habakkuk's Tables—and we have already dealt with this—the teaching that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry that was being pushed by W. W. Prescott and A. G. Daniells (and Willie White behind the scenes), those three men. But, in this letter she is dealing with Prescott and Daniells; just some snippets. It is already in the record.

The reason why I have this subtitled here, "The Simple English," Ellen White says in simple English that Miller's understanding of the Daily was correct. And in simple English she says that the understanding that the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry came from angels that were expelled from Heaven.

So, do you accept the authority of the Spirit of Prophecy?

Here are some of the things she said about Brothers Daniells and Prescott:

- "And there was Brother Daniells, whose mind the enemy was working; and your mind and Elder Prescott's mind were being worked by the angels that were expelled from heaven."

- "And I was shown from the first that the Lord had given neither Elders Daniells nor Prescott the burden of this work. Should Satan's wiles be brought in, should this 'Daily'"—

Right there, she just defined Prescott's and Daniells's definition of the Daily as "Satan's wiles."

> —"Should Satan's wiles be brought in, should this 'Daily' be such a great matter as to be brought in to confuse minds and hinder the advancement of the work at this important period of time? It should not, whatever may be."

These are just snippets. This is already in the record.
Speaking to Daniells, she says,

- "I have been instructed that such hasty movements should not have [been] made [such] as selecting you as president of the conference even another year. But the Lord forbids any more such hasty transactions until the matter is brought before the Lord in prayer; and as you have had the message come to you that the work of the Lord resting upon the president is a most solemn responsibility, you had no moral right to blaze out as you did upon the subject of the 'Daily' and suppose your influence would decide the question."

And then she says,

- "Yes, it would, but while their minds were thus absorbed I was shown that Brother Daniells and Brother Prescott were weaving into their experience sentiments of a spiritual[istic] appearance and drawing our people to beautiful sentiments that would deceive, if possible, the very elect. I have to trace with my pen [the fact] that these brethren would see defects in their delusive ideas that would place the truth in an uncertainty; and [yet] they [would] stand out as [if they had] great spiritual discernment. Now I am to tell them [that] when I was shown this matter, when Elder Daniells was lifting up his voice like a trumpet in advocating his ideas of the 'Daily,' the after results were presented. Our people were becoming confused. I saw the result, and then there were given me cautions that if Elder Daniells without respect to the outcome should thus be impressed and let himself believe he was under the inspiration of God, skepticism would be sown among our ranks everywhere, and we should be where Satan would carry his messages. Set unbelief and skepticism would be sown in human minds, and strange crops of evil would take the place of truth."

So, on a simple level, Sister White says that the Daily is Paganism, and that teaching the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry came from Satan. Those are her words.

EARLY WRITINGS – AN EVOLUTION

Now, we went through—and we are not going to go through this again,—we went through the evolution of Early Writings. The book, Early Writings, is where people tried to make their argument to try to reject the view that the Daily represents Paganism. And the first record of the vision where she makes her statement about the Daily gets changed as it is published throughout history. It was published three times, and it ends up in Early Writings, teaching a completely different thing than the original statement.

You will notice in your notes under "Early Writings – An Evolution," from Review and Herald, November 1, 1850, the first paragraph begins with,

"September 23d,"—

That is always there in each three times that it is printed, "September 23d." We want to mark that and now move away from it.

> —"the Lord showed me that he had stretched out his hand the second time to recover the remnant of his people, and that efforts must be redoubled in this gathering time. In the scattering time Israel was smitten and torn; but now in the gathering time God will heal and bind up his people. In the scattering, efforts made to spread the truth had but little effect, accomplished but little or nothing; but in the gathering when God has set his hand to gather his people, efforts to spread the truth will have their designed effect. All should be united and zealous in the work. I saw that it was a shame for any to refer to the scattering for examples to govern us now in the gathering; for if God does no more for us now than he did then, Israel would never be gathered. It is as necessary that the truth should be published in a paper, as preached."—

The second paragraph said,

> —"The Lord showed me that the 1843 chart was directed by his hand, and that no part of it should be altered; that the figures were as he wanted them. That his hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none could see it, until his hand was removed.
> "Then I saw in relation to the 'Daily,' that the word 'sacrifice' was supplied by man's wisdom, and does not belong to the text; and that the Lord gave the correct view of it to those who gave the judgment hour cry. When union existed, before 1844, nearly all were united on the correct view of the 'Daily;' but since 1844, in the confusion, other views have been embraced, and darkness and confusion has followed." Review and Herald, November 1, 1850.

Now, if you go to the next page [of your notes]—and this is almost impossible, I think, to convey verbally. If you are watching this LiveStream or on a DVD, you need to get the notes [Note: included within this transcript as follows] and make this comparison; because, this vision is going to get printed within a couple of years (maybe just a year) in Experience and Views, and they begin to change some of the words to try to make them probably more modern or more clear for that time period. I do not know that I have a problem with that. But, they also combine a paragraph [from the original printing], and you have to see how they combined the paragraph; because, it begins to change things:

> "September 23d, the Lord shewed [formerly—"showed"] me that he had stretched out his hand the second time to recover the remnant of his people, and that efforts must be redoubled in this gathering time. In the scattering, Israel was smitten and torn; but now in the gathering time God will heal and bind up his people. In the scattering, efforts made to spread the truth had but little effect, accomplished but little or nothing; but in the gathering, when God has set his hand to gather his people, efforts to spread the truth will have their designed effect. All should be united and zealous in the work. I saw that it was wrong for any to refer to the scattering for examples to govern us now in the gathering; for if God does no more for us now than he did then, Israel would never be gathered. [Removed: "It is as necessary that the truth should be published in a paper, as preached."] [Paragraphs Combined] I have seen [formerly—"the Lord showed me] that the 1843 chart was directed by the hand of the Lord, [formerly—"by His hand"] and that it should not be altered; [formerly—"no part of it should be altered"] that the figures were as he wanted them. That his hand was over, and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none could see it, until his hand was removed." Experience and Views, 61-62.

TIME NOT CONNECTED WITH THE THIRD ANGEL

And they also, on page 48, there is a paragraph that has nothing to do with this vision. It came from another vision. And you see that "Time Not Connected with the Third Angel," in the center of the page of your notes. In this paragraph from Experience and Views, page 48—

> "The Lord has shown me that the message of the third angel must go, and be proclaimed to the scattered children of the Lord, and that it should not be hung on time; for time never will be a test again. I saw that some were getting a false excitement arising from preaching time; that the third angel's message was stronger than time can be. I saw that this message can stand on its own foundation, and that it needs not time to strengthen it, and that it will go in mighty power, and do its work, and will be cut short in righteousness." Experience and Views, 48.

—it is from a totally different vision. It is found on page 48 of Experience and Views.

And the passage that is ultimately going to be in Early Writings is found on page 61 of Experience and Views. They are two different Experience and Views, which is the second time that this passage is printed.

These two paragraphs are from two different visions.

But, when you get to Early Writings, which is the third manifestation of this evolution, they take this paragraph from page 48 and they put it right into this paragraph that they have molded a little bit from Experience and Views, and they make it sound like her emphasis of a message not being hung up on time has something to do with the Daily and the 1843 Chart, and it has nothing to do with it. It comes from a completely different vision:

> "September 23, . . . I have seen that the 1843 chart was directed by the hand of the Lord, and that it should not be altered; that the figures were as He wanted them; that His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none could see it, until His hand was removed.
> "Then I saw in relation to the 'daily' (Daniel 8:12) that the word 'sacrifice' was supplied by man's wisdom, and does not belong to the text, and that the Lord gave the correct view of it to those who gave the judgment hour cry. When union existed, before 1844, nearly all were united on the correct view of the 'daily'; but in the confusion since 1844, other views have been embraced, and darkness and confusion have followed. Time has not been a test since 1844, and it will never again be a test.
> "The Lord has shown me that the message of the third angel must go, and be proclaimed to the scattered children of the Lord, but it must not be hung on time. I saw that some were getting a false excitement, arising from preaching time; but the third angel's message is stronger than time can be. I saw that this message can stand on its own foundation and needs not time to strengthen it; and that it will go in mighty power, and do its work, and will be cut short in righteousness.

"Then I was pointed to some who are in the great error of believing that it is their duty to go to Old Jerusalem . . ." Early Writings, 74—76.

But, if you think that this is making a mountain out of a mole hill, then you need to do your diligent study and go back and find that Willie White bases his rejection upon the Daily upon this paragraph that is stuck in there! He starts arguing that the only way to understand the Daily correctly is to see that Sister White was worried about time prophecy being reset; and, he is basing it upon this paragraph from page 48 of Experience and Views that is 20—13 pages away from another vision that gets combined in Early Writings, leading a reader to believe—if you have Willie White and then his son, Arthur White, telling you that Sister White was just worried about time setting. It gets combined in the book, Early Writings, and it makes it appear to the shallow surface reader that the emphasis about the Daily was with time setting, and there is no reference in there at all. It says, "Time has not been a test since 1844, and it will never again be a test." That is in the original; but, this other paragraph was not.

That is part of our original studies.

So, what I am saying is, when you look at Early Writings, and if you do not think that the quote in Early Writings where Sister White says, "I was shown that those that gave the judgment hour cry had the correct view of the 'Daily,'" if you do not think that that passage in Early Writings, page 74, is part of the subject of the Daily here at the end of the world, then you have your head in the sand. Okay?

Because, when the controversy of the Daily came into Adventism after the beginning of the 20th Century, in the 1910 to 1915 time period, Stephen Haskell, who was trying to defend the Pioneer position that the Daily is Paganism, what did he do? He reprinted this [1843] Chart, just like this [Figure No. 145], with one exception. He put this quote from Early Writings, page 74, at the bottom of this [reprinted] chart: "I was shown that those that gave the judgment hour cry had the correct view of the Daily."

If you do not understand that this passage in Early Writings is part of the controversy, then your head is in the sand. It is part of the controversy.

And, you need to understand that through going back to the original source, the emphasis that is being placed upon the passage in Early Writings that tries to uphold the teaching that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry, which came from angels that were expelled from Heaven, that is made by an evolution of thought. The original vision has no justification for doing that.

TWO HISTORICAL WITNESSES

SEPTEMBER 23

CROSIER'S ARTICLE REPRINTS – SEPTEMBER 1850

THE ADVENT REVIEW* – VOLUME I; AUBURN, NY, NUMBER 3

THE ADVENT REVIEW* – VOLUME 1; AUBURN, NEW YORK, NUMBER 4

THE ADVENT REVIEW* – VOLUME 1; AUBURN, NEW YORK, SPECIAL

Now, every time that it was printed, whether it was in the Present Truth the first time, or in Experience and Views the second time, or in Early Writings the third time, the passage begins with "The Lord showed me on September 23d." We have dealt with this also.

September 23, 1850, the Lord showed Sister White that since 1844 there had been incorrect views of the Daily that were being introduced.

And we have already been over this at the beginning of this presentation. This is just a reminder.

And in the beginning of September 1850, James White printed the Advent Review and Herald article in which he included Crosier's article which had the wrong view of the Daily. And it was a long article, so he had to put it in two publications. There were two Advent Reviews in September that were printed, to get all of Crosier's article in it.

Then on September 23rd of the very same month, Ellen White gets a vision where she says, "I was shown that since 1844 other views of the Daily have been introduced, and it is bringing darkness and confusion."

So, what did James White then do? The same month, September 1850, he printed a third Advent Review and Herald, and he reprinted Crosier's article which he had just printed at the beginning of the month, only in his reprint, in this third time around, he removed from Crosier's article the teaching that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry.

Why did James White do that? Well, because the prophetess was his wife; and, in September 23 of that month she was given light that these other views of the Daily are bringing darkness and confusion and, James White, as the husband of the prophetess immediately went out and rectified that error.

So, you have an historical witness by what took place in that history that the Whites understood that the Daily was Paganism.

Now, in Manuscript Releases, number 15, page 210, she says,

> "Monday we returned to Dorchester where our dear Brother Nichols and family live."—

That is this Nichols, "Brother Nichols." This [1850 Chart] is published by Otis Nichols. It is in the same history. This is September 1850 when this is going on with the Crosier article. And Ellen White comes to— I do not what happened. I am making this all up—and Ellen White comes to James and says, "Look at what the Lord just showed me. The other views of the Daily that have been coming in. I received this yesterday on September 23rd."

And James White goes, "I gotta fix this one!" and he immediately goes and reprints the article to fix it. This is September 1850.

Okay. So, in November of 1850, how much longer is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two months.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the same history. Okay?

> —"Monday we returned to Dorchester were our dear Brother Nichols and family live. There in the night God gave me a very interesting vision, the most of which you will see in the paper. God shewed me the necessity of getting out a chart [BROTHER PIPPINGER POINTS TO THE 1850 CHART]. I saw it was needed and that the truth made plain upon tables would effect much and would cause souls to come to the knowledge of the truth." Manuscript Releases, number 15, 210—November, 1850.

So, in this very same history, not only does James White remove Crosier's false teaching of the Daily after he is—"rebuked" might be too strong for promoting the false view in the Advent Review—but, he participates with Nichols in making this {1850] Chart within two months.

1850 CHART

Ten HORNS arose	490
Pagan Dominion or The DAILY taken away. Dan 11:31	508
Papacy set up.	538

And what does this Chart say right here [referring to the center midsection of the 1850 Chart]? "Pagan Do n on or The DAILY taken away." So you have two historical witnesses. You have the activity in the Review and Herald in September, in response to the vision that appears in Early Writings, page 74; and, you have the publication of this [1850] Chart showing that two months after James White removed Crosier's false teaching of the Daily out of the article, that they emphasize this very clearly. So, historically, the Whites understood that the Daily was Paganism, and that understanding came from William Miller, who received that understanding by following the impressions of the Angel Gabriel.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we do not want to be of the type of people that have often been your people that resist and mock the prophets. I am not concerned whether William Miller was a prophet at this point, but it is clear that as the messenger that you sent, the chosen one, that the role that he fulfilled was sacred and holy. And for us to downplay, misrepresent, and reject that message, we are accomplishing the same work that your people have done throughout history, in persecuting the men that you selected to bring the message to them in that history. Forgive us for doing so; but, more than that, allow us to understand the light that we can receive from that history that would better prepare us to navigate this history in a successful fashion, one that would achieve for us personal salvation and help others to that goal and, more importantly, one that would glorify you. We thank you for the wonderful truths that you are opening to your people, and we ask that your Holy Spirit would be allowed to make these truths a reality in their experience, for we can see on the near horizon a tremendous crisis that we need to be prepared for. Prepare us for that we ask in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #74

[#74B of Notes, with DVD]

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we ask your presence as we begin the next presentation in the series of Habakkuk's Tables. We want to see how the history connected to the 2520 connects with our history. We want to put it in its proper place as a waymark that we can understand the role that it plays here at the end. And in order to do this correctly, we need the direction of your Holy Spirit, so we ask that you grant us your Holy Spirit at this time and that you would open our understanding to your Word by pouring your Latter Rain out upon us. We know that as human beings we are corrupt and possess our own preconceived opinions. We ask that you would overrule my words and my thoughts and hide me behind your cross that I can simply convey the words that you have for us at this time. And we pray that your Holy Spirit will do the same for those that are hearing this message. We want to be blessed with light from your Throne Room, and we ask that you would accomplish this at this time. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are in the conclusion phase of Habakkuk's Tables, and since Sunday we have put a few things in place. We are going to put one more thing in place.

And just for those of you who are watching LiveStream, tomorrow we are going to try to tie this presentation with the previous two together in a way that I am under conviction needs to be recognized. So, try to wrap your mind around what we are saying today in preparation of pulling several things together tomorrow.

THE 2520

On Sunday we looked at the fact that the enemy is trying to prevent God's people from standing up, and we briefly referenced that God's people stand up in Ezekiel 37, verses 9 through 11. And the message that begins the sprinkling that causes them to stand up is the message of Islam being restrained. And in order to understand the role of Islam in Bible prophecy, you have to return to the Pioneer logic as represented on these two charts behind me. If the First Woe was Islam and the Second Woe was Islam, the Third Woe would be Islam.

And, we looked yesterday at and reminded ourselves that Sister White placed her seal of approval on William Miller's understanding that the Daily in the Book of Daniel represents Paganism. We looked at the role of William Miller, as far as a prophetic type, and put that in place. We have much more to say about the Daily as we proceed.

And today we want to say a little bit about the 2520. These are the three primary truths on the [1843] Chart that we are going to be dealing with; so, we are going to touch briefly on some aspects of the 2520, without really dealing with it as a doctrine.

TEACHING AND LEARNING

In Life Sketches, page 196, it says,

> "We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teaching in our past history." Life Sketches, 196.

All the prophets are speaking about the end of the world; so, [this is] what we have to fear at the end of the world.

If we remember how the Lord taught us and led us in the past, we have nothing to fear; but, if we are going to be among the fearful in Adventism at the end of the world, we see this represented in Isaiah 66.

Isaiah 66:4

> "[4]I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not." Isaiah 66:4 (KJV).

And we are spending some time in Isaiah 66 here this whole week and maybe the beginning of next week. But, if you go to Isaiah 66, verse 4—we dealt with Isaiah 66, verse 4, a couple of presentations ago, showing that the delusions that the Lord is going to choose for God's people are the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2. Sister White ties this verse together with 2 Thessalonians's strong delusion—but, in verse 4, it says, "I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; . . ."; but, they have nothing to fear for the future, except as they forget the Lord's teaching and leading in their past experience. So, their fears are directly related to their forgetfulness concerning the Lord's leading and His teaching in their past experience. And, because they forget that, they will receive the strong delusion.

Now, why is it that we should remember the Lord's leading and teaching in the past history?

In Publishing Ministry, page 175, Sister White says,

> "Again and again"—

She is placing an emphasis upon this.

And if you take the various ways that Sister White says that history can be repeated, there are some places where she says, "history will be repeated," or in this quote she is going to say, "history will repeat itself." There are various expressions that she uses to emphasize the repeat of history. And if you run that through the CD-ROM, she repeatedly, repeatedly, identifies this principle.

And, in fact, this principle here that history repeats itself, when it is brought down to the end of the world (because all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world), the very essence of this principle is that the Millerite History is repeated in the history of the 144,000 to the very letter.

And this principle is the parallel principle to the year-day principle for the Millerites. The rule of Bible prophecy that established and empowered the Millerite message in their history is paralleling the principle for our day and age, which is that the Millerite History is repeated in the history of the 144,000. And Sister White repeatedly speaks about history repeating.

And here she says,

—"Again and again I have been shown that the past experiences of God's people are not to be counted as dead facts. We are not to treat the record of these experiences as we would treat a last year's almanac. The record is to be kept in mind, for history will repeat itself." Publishing Ministry, 175.

So, the reason that we should remember the Lord's leading and His teaching in our past history is because that past history is going to be repeated.

The Teaching

Okay. So, what were the teachings? We want to look at the teachings that she says that we should not forget.

In Manuscript Releases, volume 15, page 371, says,

"The truths that we received"—

"The truths . . . ," that would be the teachings, the doctrines.

—"The truths that we received in 1841, '42, '43, and '44 are now to be studied"—

You are studying something. It is a teaching, it is a lesson.

—"are now to be studied and proclaimed. The messages of the first, second, and third angels will in the future be proclaimed with a loud voice. They will be given with earnest determination and in the power of the Spirit." Manuscript Releases, volume 15, 371.

So, the teachings that we are not to forget are the teachings of 1840 to '44 (here she is saying 1841, '42, '43, '44). So, what were the teachings that they were given in that history? And following I have them broken down:

May, 1842—Habakkuk 2:2
March 22, 1844—Habakkuk 2:3, Matthew 25:5
Summer 1844—Revelation 14:8
August 11–17, 1844—Daniel 9:25, Leviticus 16:29–30; Matthew 25:6
October 22, 1844—Daniel 8:14, Matthew 25:10, Revelation 3:7

The only one that I might have left out here but was not germane to what we are looking at is, in this history the state of the dead was also introduced into the Millerite Movement by George Storrs.

But, for purposes of what we are looking at, in 1842, the understanding of Habakkuk 2:2 came into that history; and, the understanding of Habakkuk 2:2 is, "Write the vision and make it plain upon tables. [Gestures to the 1843 and 1850 Charts.]" That was in May of 1842.

And then in March 22, 1844, Habakkuk 2:3 was recognized, because they recognized then that the vision tarried in Habakkuk 2:3; and, this tarrying time is also referenced in Matthew 25:5, the tarrying of the Ten Virgins. That was a teaching from that history [of the Millerites].

And then in the summer of 1844, they recognized another teaching, "Babylon is fallen," the Second Angel's Message proclaimed in the summer of 1844.

And then in August 11-17, 1844, they recognized the light that is identified as the Midnight Cry. It was based upon Daniel 9:25, from the going forth of the commandment to restore and rebuild Jerusalem. They realized that the commandment to restore and rebuild Jerusalem began in the fall of the year, not at the beginning of the year as they first thought. They combined that with the types of the Old Testament, Leviticus 16:29-30, that it was on the 10th day of the 7th month that the Day of Atonement was to take place; and, at that point, Matthew 25, verse 6, was fulfilled, "Behold, the bridegroom cometh. Go ye out to meet him." So, that was a teaching of that history that was recognized.

And then on October 22, 1844, they recognized the closed door of Christ moving into the Most Holy Place. Matthew 25:10, the door was closed on the virgins. Revelation 3:7, the door into the Holy Place is closed and into the Most Holy Place is opened.

So, when Sister White says the truths we received in 1841, '42 '43, '44 are now to be studied and to be proclaimed, the truths that they received, the truths that they understood in this history were those truths.

Now, why do we want to understand that? Because, history will be repeated, and we have nothing to fear for the future, except we forget the Lord's teaching and His leading in our past history, not just His teaching but how He led us.

THE LEARNING

So, we will look at His leading now.

> "We understand the present feebleness and smallness of the work. We have had an experience. In doing the work God has given us, we may go trustingly forward, assured that He will be our efficiency."—

Assured that He will lead us, right? We can go forward, trusting that He is going to lead us; and, that is what we are talking about here, how the Lord led us in the past.

> —"In doing the work God has given us, we may go trustingly forward, assured that He will be our efficiency. He will be with us in 1906,"—HE WILL BE WITH US IN 2013—"as He was with us in 1841, 1842, 1843, and 1844." Loma Linda Messages, 156.

So, the teachings and the leadings that we are not to forget, because history is going to be repeated, are the teachings and the leadings that are referenced from 1841 to 1844.

So, how did the Lord lead the Millerites in that history?

May, 1842—1843 Chart produced
March 22, 1844—The tarrying time arrives
Summer 1844—Separation from churches
August 11–17, 1844—Midnight Cry arrives
October 22, 1844—The door shuts

Well, once again in May of 1842, He led them to produce this [1843] Chart; and, they all gave testimony that this was a fulfillment of prophecy, the production of this Chart was a fulfillment of prophecy, and that they had been led to do this. This was part of the Lord leading them in that history.

And then they were led into the Tarrying Time, the First Disappointment; and, it is repeatedly identified by Ellen White that this First Disappointment was designed by God. God designed this Disappointment to begin the separation process of those in the Millerite Movement that were there for the right purposes and those that were there for the wrong purposes. This was part of His leading. He brought them to the Tarrying Time on March 22, 1844.

He brought them to the Summer of 1844 where the Second Angel's Message was to be proclaimed and the separation from the churches took place. He led them to this experience. And, we will show you a nice little detail to show that the Lord was leading in this in a moment.

And then He led them to the Exeter Camp Meeting of August 11-17, 1844, where the Midnight Cry Message was proclaimed and recognized and received, and then carried to the United States. And it is nice to go back and look in that history. Joseph Bates was leading in that camp meeting, and the Lord had told him—I do not know if it was an audible Voice or just an impression—there would be new light at this camp meeting. So, he went there knowing to be open for a message that Samuel Snow was ultimately going to bring. So, you see that the Lord led in that whole experience.

And then the Lord led them into the Shut Door on October 22, 1844.

So, when Sister White says we have nothing to fear for the future, except we forget the Lord's leading and teaching in our past history, and then she isolates exactly what history that is, the history of 1841 to '44, and you look at what they learned in that history, what they were taught and what their experience was, you are putting together light that should provide you with some understanding about what is going to happen here at the end of the world.

HIS LEADING AND HIS TEACHING

Now, when it comes to His leading and teaching, when you look at these two different breakdowns that we have given, this here [the 1843 Chart], this represents the teachings of the Millerites, but it also represents the leading of the Millerites; because, we have a nice quote here where James White basically says it was required that this Chart was published. They had to publish this in order to get their mindset, in order to get it established in their minds that in 1843 was the year of the coming of the Lord. It had to be published in order to lock them into that in order for the First Disappointment to accomplish its work. Okay?

Sister White says in Early Writings, page 74,

> "I have seen that the 1843 chart was directed by the hand of the Lord, and that it should not be altered; that the figures were as He wanted them; that His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none could see it, until His hand was removed." Early Writings, 74.

THE CHART

Joseph Bates says in The Autobiography of Joseph Bates, page 263, about this [1843] Chart—and what I am saying is that this Chart represents the teachings of that history and the leadings of that history, at least a certain portion of it:

> "In May, 1842, a General Conference was convened in Boston, Massachutes. At the opening of this meeting, Brethren Charles Fitch and Apollos Hale, of Haverhill, presented the pictorial prophecies of Daniel and John, which they had painted on cloth, with the prophetic numbers, showing their fulfillment. Brother Fitch in explaining from his chart before the Conference, said, while examining these prophecies, he had thought if he could get out something of the kind as here presented it would simplify the subject and make it easier for him to present to an audience."—

Now, yesterday we dealt with a little bit about William Miller, and I hope you got what I was trying to say and infer, is that Gabriel was leading William Miller. And if that is too much for you to accept, it is unfortunate because it is true, but at minimum you can understand that an angel was leading William Miller. And there are places, and we referenced one and maybe two yesterday, where William Miller suddenly has an idea, and you can see there is the Angel Gabriel giving him that idea. And this brother here that is being discussed, Brother Fitch, we know he had a good experience with the Lord because Sister White saw him in the Earth made new. He is a saved man. There are very few people that she actually says Brothers Fitch and Stockman were there in the Earth mad new. It tells you that their experience was correct, because Elder Fitch died before October 22, 1844. So, in the time period leading to his death, he must have had a genuine walk with the Lord, because he is in the Earth made new. So, all I am saying is, logic tells me that when he is saying, "A thought came to my mind that I should produce this Chart," that it was not a human thought. It was an angel leading him, just like William Miller had been led; because, they were being led to produce this Chart.

That might be problematic for some of you, but okay.

> —"Brother Fitch in explaining from his chart before the Conference, said, while examining these prophecies, he had thought if he could get out something of the kind as here presented it would simplify the subject and make it easier for him to present to an audience. Here was more light in our pathway."—

This is Joseph Bates writing. He is recognizing that this [1843] Chart was more light on their pathway.

> —"These brethren had been doing what the Lord had shown Habakkuk in his vision 2,468 years before, saying, 'Write the vision and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time.' Habakkuk 2:2."—

They understood the production of this Chart was a fulfillment of prophecy.

> —"After some discussion on the subject, it was voted unanimously to have three hundred similar to this one lithographed, which was soon accomplished. They were called 'the '43 charts.' This was a very important Conference." The Autobiography of Joseph Bates, 263.

So, how many of them thought that this Chart was a fulfillment of prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: All.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: According to the record, it was unanimous. Okay? So, they knew that this [1843 Chart] represented their teachings, but they also recognized that the Lord had led them to do this. Okay?

LEADING THROUGH PROPHECY

James White says—James White actually here is making a very sober prediction about himself. Okay?

Second Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, volume 1, number 2, James White, says,

> "It was the united testimony of Second Advent lecturers and papers, when standing on 'the original faith,' that the publication of the chart was a fulfillment of Habakkuk 2:2, 3. If the chart was a subject of prophecy (and those who deny it leave the original faith), then it follows that B.C. 457 was the year from which to date the 2300 days. It was necessary that 1843 should be the first published time in order that 'the vision' should 'tarry,' or that there should be a tarrying time, in which the virgin band was to slumber and sleep on the great subject of time, just before they were to be aroused by the Midnight Cry." Second Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, Volume I, Number 2, James White.

He is saying that it was necessary that this [the 1843 Chart] gets published in order for 1843 to be marked, in order to create the Disappointment and fulfill Habakkuk 2:3, which says, "Though the vision tarry, wait for it." Okay? He is seeing that the production of this Chart is a fulfillment of Habakkuk 2:2, but he is also seeing that the Year 1843 had to be put in place to fulfill Habakkuk 2, verse 3. And, of course, in 1863 he steps off this platform.

LEADING THROUGH HIS PROVIDENCE

I have another quote here from Joseph Bates, in a different publication of Joseph Bates's, and it is almost identical to the one that we just read from Joseph Bates; but, I want to show you one other thing in it. This one is from Second Advent Way Marks and High Heaps, page 53, by Joseph Bates. It says,

> "In May, 1842,"—

It tells the same story about the Chart being published; and, I am going to drop down to where he quotes from Habakkuk, and it says,

> —"a general conference was again convened in Boston, Mass. At the opening of this meeting Brother Charles Fitch and Apollos Hale of Haverhill, presented us the Visions of Daniel and John which they had painted on cloth, with the prophetic numbers and ending of the vision, which they called a chart. Brother Fitch, in explaining the subject said in substance as follows: he had been turning it over in his mind, and felt that if something of this kind could be done, it would simplify the subject, and make it much easier for him to present it to the people. Here new light seemed to spring up. These brethren had fulfilled a prophecy given by Habakkuk 2468 years before, where it says, 'And the Lord > answered me and said, write the vision and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.'"—

Now, this is where it is a little bit different than the previous quote. It says, > —"This thing now became so plain to all, that it was unanimously voted to have three hundred of these charts lithographed forthwith, that those who felt the message may read and run with it. A camp meeting also was appointed for the first time, and convened the last week in June, at East Kingston, New Hampshire, where an immense multitude assembled to hear the glad tidings of the reign of Christ." Joseph Bates, Second Advent Way Marks and High Heaps, 53.

At the same meeting where they unanimously voted to produce this [1843] Chart, they voted to set up the first Millerite camp meeting. The point about that is, is this [1843] Chart is what is going to close the doors of the churches against the Millerites, and the Lord was leading in this. This was the Lord leading, and He knew, the Lord knew, the churches were going to close their doors. So, at the same time He is producing the Chart that is going to make the doors close, He is having them get prepared to do camp meetings outside the church. So, this was the Lord's leading in this history.

REMOVING THE "IF"

William Miller gives us explanation, if we will see it, why this [1843] Chart is what forces the churches to close their doors against them. This is William Miller from his Apology and Defense, page 24:

> "I had never been positive as to any particular day for the Lord's appearing, believing that no man could know the day and hour. In all my published lectures, it will be seen on the title page, 'about the year 1843.' In all my oral lectures, I invariably told my audiences that the periods would terminate in 1843, if there were no mistake in my calculation; but that I could not say the end might not come even before that time, and they should be continually prepared. In 1842,"—

That is when they published this [1843] Chart. That is when they unanimously voted to publish this Chart.

And this Chart says specifically, 1843 is the end of the world. So, Miller says, > —"In 1842, some of my brethren preached with great positiveness the exact year, and censured me for putting in an IF."—

How did they preach "with great positiveness" with this Chart? This [1843] Chart was nailing it down, "The Lord is returning in 1843," and now they turned to William Miller and said, "Hey, get your "IF" out of your presentations. We want to stand united on this presentation."

He continues on,

—"The public press had also published that I had fixed upon a definite day, the 23rd of April, for the Lord's Advent."—

He had not done that, but the press was saying that he had done that.

—"Therefore, in December of that year, as I could see no error in my reckoning, I published my belief, that sometime between March 21st, 1843, and March 21st, 1844, the Lord would come. Some had their minds fixed on particular days; but I could see no evidence for such, unless the types of the Mosaic law pointed to the feast of Tabernacles."—

Miller had written an article suggesting that maybe the clue to identifying when the 2300 Days would end would be in the types, well before Samuel Snow saw it. Samuel Snow uses this identical logic to arrive at October 22, 1844. So, Miller was seeing the glimpses of that, even before Snow.

But, now he continues on,

—"During the year '43, the most violent denunciations were heaped upon me,"—

Why? Because, now he was not saying, "1843, maybe a little bit before, or maybe a little bit after." Now he was saying, "The Lord is returning in 1843, period," and that is what gave the ammunition for the false-hearted in the Protestant world to start calling them fanatics and a diluted people.

—"During the year '43, the most violent denunciations were heaped upon me, and those associated with me, by the press, and some pulpits. Our motives were assailed, our principles misrepresented, and our characters traduced."—

What is traduced? Traduced is when you cut someone in half with a sword. Okay? Which would be a more familiar term back them, because the wars that we were fighting in those times were using swords; not exclusively, but they were still using swords.

—"Time passed on: and the 21st of March, 1844 went by, without our witnessing the appearing of the Lord. Our disappointment was great; and many walked no more with us." W ll a M ller's Apology an D efense, 24.

So, on March 22, 1844, there is a large group of the Millerites that turned away from that. Okay? That is where the separation process begins.

And the separation process was accomplished by whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Lord.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: By the Lord.

How did He do it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: By introducing this [1843] Chart. And by introducing this Chart, he [William Miller] was being very dogmatic that the Lord was going to return in 1843. He was setting them up for a test to demonstrate who was really in the Movement for the right reason. It was the Chart that was leading them. He [the Lord] was using the Chart to lead them.

While at the same time, the Chart represents the teachings; and, what we are looking at is the fact that we have nothing to fear for the future, except as we forget the Lord's leading and His teaching in our past history. Okay? So, that is why we are emphasizing these things.

THE SEPARATION PROCESS BEGINS

So, with the First Disappointment on March 22, 1844, the separation process begins.

Now, Sister White comments about this history, and this is where we are dealing with the 2520. This is the passage in the Spirit of Prophecy where Sister White conclusively, directly, absolutely airtight places her seal of approval on the 2520. She says, and this is a comment in reference to Early Writings, page 74, which we have already read, that she says that the 1843 Chart was directed by the hand of the Lord, but the Lord held His hand over a mistake in some of the figures.

The Lord held His hand over this portion up here [referring to the upper right-hand portion of the 1843 Chart], with these figures [2520, 2300, and 1843].

She says from Early Writings, pages 235 – 237,

> "I saw the people of God joyful in expectation, looking for their Lord. But God designed to prove them."—

What does it mean "to prove them"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To test them.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To test them.

> —"His hand covered a mistake in the reckoning of the prophetic periods."—

This is the same book where she says the Lord held His hand over a mistake in some of the figures. This is Early Writings. She is now giving the explanation of the Lord holding His hand over these figures [again referring to the upper right-hand portion of the 1843 Chart].

> —"Those who were looking for their Lord did not discover this mistake, and the most learned men who opposed the time also failed to see it. God designed that His people should meet with a disappointment."—

It was God's design. It was His leading that this Tarrying Time arrived.

> —"The time passed, and those who had looked with joyful expectation for their Saviour were sad and disheartened, while those who had not loved the appearing of Jesus, but embraced the message through fear, were pleased that He did not come at the time of expectation. Their profession had not affected the heart and purified the life. The passing of the time was well calculated to reveal such hearts. They were the first to turn and ridicule the sorrowful, disappointed ones who really loved the appearing of their Saviour. I saw the wisdom of God in proving His people and giving them a searching test to discover those who would shrink and turn back in the hour of trial."—

He was leading them with this Chart.

—"Jesus and all the heavenly host looked with sympathy and love upon those who had with sweet expectation longed to see Him whom their souls loved. Angels were hovering around them, to sustain them in the hour of their trial. Those who had neglected to receive the heavenly message were left in darkness, and God's anger was kindled against them, because they would not receive the light which He had sent them from heaven. Those faithful, disappointed ones, who could not understand why their Lord did not come, were not left in darkness. Again they were led to their Bibles to search the prophetic periods."—PLURAL— "The hand of the Lord was removed from the figures,"—

There was a singular mistake in some of the figures, she says in Early Writings, page 74; and, now she is saying they were led again to search out the prophetic periods and the Lord removed His hand from the figures, and the singular mistake, —"and the mistake was explained. They saw that the prophetic periods reached to 1844, and that the same evidence which they had presented to show that the prophetic periods closed in 1843, proved that they would terminate in 1844."—

The prophetic periods that they had been identifying concluding in 1843 were the 2520 and the 2300; but, the Lord removed His hand from that so that they could see their mistake and their mistake was the fullness of the year mistake that impacted these predictions.

So, when Sister White says they then saw that the same evidence that had proved that these prophecies had ended in 1843 and then was recognized to prove they ended in 1844, Ellen White is saying the same evidence that marks 1843 as a conclusion for the 2520 was then recognized to demonstrate the 2520 ended in 1844. This is an absolute, airtight proof that Ellen White supported the Millerite understanding of the 2520.

—"Light from the Word of God shone upon their position, and they discovered a tarrying time"—

Now they are going to see Habakkuk 2, verse 3, "the vision tarry, wait for it."

—"—'Though it [the vision] tarry, wait for it.' In their love for Christ's immediate coming, they had overlooked the tarrying of the vision, which was calculated to manifest the true waiting ones. Again they had a point of time. Yet I saw that many of them could not rise above their severe disappointment to possess that degree of zeal and energy which had marked their faith in 1843.

"Satan and his angels triumphed over them, and those who would not receive the message congratulated themselves upon their farseeing judgment and > wisdom in not receiving the delusion, as they called it. They did not realize that they were rejecting the counsel of God against themselves, and were working in union with Satan and his angels to perplex God's people, who were living out the heaven-sent message.

> "The believers in this message"—

In what message? This is where you really need to be careful and specific.

"The believers in this message," and the message here in context is the message that the evidence that we had thought proved the 2520 and 2300 and 1843 actually shows the 2520 and the 2300 ends in 1844.

> —"The believers in this message were oppressed in the churches. For a time, those who would not receive the message were restrained by fear from acting out the sentiments of their hearts; but the passing of the time revealed their true feelings. They wished to silence the testimony which the waiting ones felt compelled to bear, that the prophetic periods extended to 1844."—

So, after the Tarrying Time, what is the message that the true Millerites are then proclaiming? The historical logic will tell you this.

"We thought it was 1843, but now we see it is 1844," is that what they are going to be explaining to people, logically? Yes, and this message becomes THE message. It is not anymore about Islam being restrained. It is not the other messages here. Now they are explaining to people why it is no longer 1843; it is 1844. And as they do so, the persecution in the churches is amped up.

> —"With clearness the believers explained their mistake and gave the reasons why they expected their Lord in 1844. Their opposers could bring no arguments against the powerful reasons offered. Yet the anger of the churches was kindled; they were determined not to listen to evidence, and to shut the testimony out of the churches, so the others could not hear it. Those who dared not withhold from others the light which God had given them, were shut out of the churches; but Jesus was with them, and they were joyful in the light of His countenance. They were prepared to receive the message of the second angel." Early Writings, 235–237.

I got an email yesterday from a brother in Tennessee that had just received an email from some brethren in Wales, and the brethren in Wales were telling him in their email to the brother in Tennessee that this weekend, I think it is—I think it was this weekend—that they [the church] are going to deal with them, disfellowship them over their association with this message.

And then this morning I got an email from a brother in Canada. His conference is going to deal with him now because he has continued to discuss the 2520.

So, all around the world, this experience here is being repeated over the very same message, the message being that the 2300 and the 2520 both are fulfilled in 1844.

Okay. So, at the Tarrying Time the separation process begins.

THE SUMMER OF 1844

The Great Controversy, pages 375 – 376, it says this,

> "As his [Miller's] work tended to build up the churches,"—

I mean, Miller was producing a revival in Christianity, his message. The Millerite preachers were preachers from all denominations, and the people that were receiving this message were being revived and awakened. And that was no problem for these Protestant churches to see their churches come alive. The problem came when they began to say the Lord was coming in 1843; and, then thereafter when He did not return in 1843, the Tarrying Time, the problem increased even more.

> —As his [Miller's] work tended to build up the churches, it was for a time regarded with favor. But as ministers and religious leaders decided against the advent doctrine and desired to suppress all agitation of the subject, they not only opposed it from the pulpit, but denied their members the privilege of attending preaching upon the Second Advent, or even of speaking of their hope in the social meetings of the church."—

"You go to that meeting over there where they are talking about these things, you are going to be removed from the church."

What things were they talking about? The things they were talking about is that the same evidence that had led them to first predict 1843 then proved that the prophetic periods, the 2520 and 2300, ended in 1844.

"You better not be going to those meetings!"

> —"Thus the believers found themselves in a position of great trial and perplexity. They loved their churches and were loath to separate from them; but as they saw the testimony of God's word suppressed and their right to investigate the prophecies denied they felt that loyalty to God forbade them to submit. Those who sought to shut out the testimony of God's word they could not regard as constituting the church of Christ, 'the pillar and ground of the truth.' Hence they felt themselves justified in separating from their former connection. In the summer of 1844 about fifty thousand withdrew from the churches." The Great Controversy, 375–376.

Okay. Now we are in the Summer of 1844, and the separation process is meeting its climax. This is when the Second Angel's Message is proclaimed, because they realized that these churches that were fighting against this message were not in the pillar of the ground of Truth. Those churches had then become, in their understanding, part of Babylon and they separated.

Sister White says in The Great Controversy, page 389,

> "The second angel's message of Revelation 14 was first preached in the summer of 1844, and it then had a more direct application to the churches of the United States, where the warning of the judgment had been most widely proclaimed and most generally rejected, and where the declension in the churches had been most rapid. But the message of the second angel did not reach its complete fulfillment in 1844. The churches then experienced a moral fall, in consequence of their refusal of the light of the advent message; but that fall was not complete." The Great Controversy, 389.

FANATICISM

In this time period, in the time period of the Second Angel—and this is worth noting—this is where fanaticism comes in.

Just so you can follow my logic [draws timeline upon the whiteboard], the First Angel's Message was empowered when the year-day principle was confirmed on August 11, 1840, with the collapse of the Ottoman Empire, in fulfillment of Revelation 9, verses 14 and 15.

So, the First Angel's Message, it has been proclaimed by Miller. He has understood it since 1818, and begins to publish it in 1831. But, here, this is the First Angel's Message and it is empowered, and it begins to test the churches from August 11, 1840, onward.

Then in June of 1842, the process of the churches closing their doors against this message begins; because, in May of 1842 the Chart predicting the end of the world in 1843 is introduced.

And then on March 22, 1844, the Tarrying Time arrives, and the separation process begins in the Millerite History. And as in this history, the faithful begin to show that the same evidence that identified that the 2520 and 2300 ended in 1843 was then recognized to demonstrate that it ended in 1844, then the churches really began to reject this message.

And in the Summer of 1844, the faithful have determined that the Protestant churches had become Babylon because of their rejection of the message.

This here is the First Message going through history. It is empowered here [August 11, 1840]; the First Message is empowered. All the messages arrived and are thereafter empowered.

Here, the Second Angel's Message arrived, but it gets empowered down here at the Exeter Camp Meeting. August 12-17, 1844, the Second Angel's Message is empowered and leads to the arrival of the Third Angel's Message.

And, of course, the Third Angel's Message, as was the First and the Second, is not empowered until the Fourth Angel joins it on September 11, 2001.

So, let us go back to this quote now and try to make sure we understand the sequence of the history that Ellen White is dealing with.

The Great Controversy, page 398:

> "It was not the proclamation of the second advent that caused fanaticism and division."—

This here, the First Angel's Message when it was empowered, that did not cause fanaticism and division. Okay? That was the Mighty Angel of Revelation 10 that had come down, and Sister White said that was "no less than the personage of Jesus Christ." This Message was empowered, and it was so powerful that it prevented fanaticism from coming in.

> —"It was not the proclamation of the second advent that caused fanaticism and division. These appeared in the summer of 1844,"—

What is the Summer of 1844? This is the time of the Second Angel's Message.

> —"These appeared in the summer of 1844, when Adventists were in a state of doubt and perplexity concerning their real position. The preaching of the first angel's message and of the 'midnight cry' tended directly to repress fanaticism and dissension."—

No fanaticism and dissension in here [between August 1, 1840 and June 1842]; none in here, not with the Midnight Cry [between August 11-17, 1844 and October 22, 1844].

But, in here [between March 22, 1844, and August 11, 1844], fanaticism arrives. And the reason you want to see this is because history repeats. So, when we take this history down to our time period, we will realize that this time period of fanaticism that is being referenced is marking the strong delusion that comes to Adventism at the end of the world.

> —"Those who participated in these solemn movements were in harmony;"—THE THE MIDNIGHT CRY AND THE FIRST ANGEL'S MESSAGE—"their hearts were filled with love for one another and for Jesus, whom they expected soon to see. The one faith, the one blessed hope, lifted them above the control of any human influence, and proved a shield against the assaults of Satan.
> "'While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.' Matthew 25:5-7. In the summer of 1844, midway between the time when it had been first thought that the 2300 days would end, and the autumn of the same year, to which it was afterward found that they extended, the message was proclaimed in the very words of Scripture: 'Behold, the Bridegroom cometh!'" The Great Controversy, 398.

So, in this history of the Midnight Cry, fanaticism melts away like dew with the morning sun.

The proclamation of the First Angel's Message, no fanaticism; but, in here, the Tarrying Time, the separation process, the uncertainty about what just took place, this is where the fanaticism arrives.

And those people that are getting drawn into fanaticism—you see, when the Tarrying Time arrives, two classes are demonstrated, right? We have just read that. Some people are led back to their Bible, and they discover that the same evidence that showed the prophecies ended in 1843 were then recognized to show they ended in 1844. But, as Miller said, "Many no more walked with us at that time period." There is a large body of Millerites at this point that turn against the Message, and Sister White says they become the worst critics of those that are carrying on with the Message. Right?

Are you with me on that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, these people that have lost their ways, they are getting drawn into fanaticism here [indicating the period of the Tarring Time]. They are still professing to be Christians, of no doubt; but, their views of truth are now out in darkness. And the reason for it is what? Why is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Because they rejected the message.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because they rejected the light. When you reject the light, you go into darkness; and, in that darkness is where the delusions and the fanaticisms arrive.

Notice what Sister White says, The Great Controversy, beginning at page 430. And, this is a principle. She is not talking necessarily here about the Summer of 1844 but the principle of rejecting light and what happens.

> "Men cannot with impunity reject the warning which God in mercy sends them. A message was sent from heaven to the world in Noah's day, and their salvation depended upon the manner in which they treated that message. Because they rejected the warning, the Spirit of God was withdrawn from the sinful race, and they perished in the waters of the Flood. In the time of Abraham, mercy ceased to plead with the guilty inhabitants of Sodom, and all but Lot with his wife and two daughters were consumed by the fire sent down from heaven. So in the days of Christ. The Son of God declared to the unbelieving Jews of that generation: 'Your house is left unto you desolate.' Matthew 23:38. Looking down to the last days,"—

Now, he went to Christ, and he jumps over Millerite History, and he brings it right down to our time period.

But, what we are looking at is the history of the Millerites when they rejected the light.

What light did they reject that brings on the fanaticism?

What was the teaching? What was the light that these people are going to go into delusion and fanaticism, what was the light that they rejected?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Tarrying Time?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. The Tarrying Time is the experience.

They rejected the light that the evidence that proved the 2520 ended in 1843 was then recognized to prove that it ended in 1844. That was the light that they were rejecting.

But, let us continue on here.

> —"Looking down to the last days, the same Infinite Power declares, concerning those who 'received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved': 'For this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.' 2 Thessalonians 2:10-12. As they reject the teachings of His word, God withdraws His Spirit and leaves them to the deceptions which they love." The Great Controversy, 430–431.

Of course, if you are going to be a very literal person, if you understand that the Millerite History is repeated to the very letter, what light would it be that Adventists reject that bring the strong delusion, if we are going to use the Millerite History as a point of reference? Well, it would be the light about the 2300 and the 2520 ending in 1844 and not 1843.

Maranatha, page 173, says this:

> "When those that 'believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness' 2 Thessalonians 2:12, shall be left to receive strong delusion and to believe a lie, then the light of truth will shine upon all whose hearts are open to receive it, and all the children of the Lord that remain in Babylon will heed the call: 'Come out of her, my people.' Revelation 18:4." Maranatha, 173.

The point being here is that Adventism goes into strong delusion before The Sunday Law. It is at The Sunday Law that God's people are going to call God's other children out of Babylon. But here, she says when those who did not receive the love of the truth receive the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, THEN (meaning after) God's other children in Babylon are to be called out.

So, what I am saying is this darkness and fanaticism here [between March 22, 1844, and August 11, 1844], in this history of the Millerites, based upon the rejection of this message here [the Tarrying Time of March 22, 1844], the separation process begins, this is the history that is prefiguring the history of the strong delusion in Adventism at the end of the world.

THE MIDNIGHT CRY

What led to the message of the Midnight Cry, which is here [August 11-17, 1844]? It is a familiar quote, no doubt, from The Great Controversy, page 398.

> "That which led to this movement"—THE MIDNIGHT CRY MOVEMENT—"was the discovery that the decree of Artaxerxes for the restoration of Jerusalem, which formed the starting point for the period of the 2300 days, went into effect in the autumn of the year 457 B.C., and not at the beginning of the year, as had been formerly believed. Reckoning from the autumn of 457, the 2300 years terminate in the autumn of 1844." The Great Controversy, 398.

And if you read on in this passage, she says from that point, once they realized that the decree was in the end of the year, in the Autumn of the year of 457BC, then the next step was that they went into the types and concluded that the Day of Atonement took place in the 7th month, the 10th day, which was also in the Autumn of the year, allowing them to determine that the 10th day of the 7th month in the Year 1844 would occur on October 22nd. So, this truth is what removes fanaticism here at the Midnight Cry. Now you have a group of people that are carrying the message to their world, and fanaticism is no longer in the Movement. The fanaticism is in here [from the Tarrying Time beginning March 22, 1844, to the Summer of 1844].

So, if this Midnight Cry experience is paralleling the Loud Cry experience when the message is carried to the world at our day and age, then the fanaticism, the delusion, is something that takes place before that time period: Right now!

THE THINGS SEEN IN 1843 AND 1844

Manuscript Releases, volume 21, page 437, says,

> "All the messages given from 1840–1844 are to be made forcible now,"—

All the messages are to be made forcible now? Well, the message here [from March 22, 1844 in Figure No. 146] in this history that separated the believers and closed the doors of the churches against the Millerites is a message that the 2520 and the 2300 ended in 1844.

> —"All the messages given from 1840-1844 are to be made forcible now, for there are many people who have lost their bearings. The messages are to go to all the churches.
> "Christ said, 'Blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them' [Matthew 13:16, 17]. Blessed are the eyes which saw the things that were seen in 1843 and 1844.
> "The message was given. And there should be no delay in repeating the message, for the signs of the times are fulfilling; the closing work must be done. A great work will be done in a short time. A message will soon be given by God's appointment that will swell into a loud cry. Then Daniel will stand in his lot, to give his testimony." Manuscript Releases, volume 21, 437.

Now, Brothers and Sisters, she says, "Blessed are the eyes which saw the things that were seen in 1843 and 1844." What was seen in 1843 and 1844?

WHAT WAS SEEN IN 1843 AND 1844?

THE PROPHETIC PERIODS ENDED IN 1844

Your next quote, we have already read it, but we are going to read a portion of it. It says, from Early Writings, page 236:

> "The hand of the Lord"—

Right here [referring from March 22, 1844 (the Tarrying Time)].

> —"The hand of the Lord was removed from the figures, and the mistake was explained. They saw that the prophetic periods reached to 1844, and that the same evidence which they had presented to show that the prophetic periods closed in 1843, proved that they would terminate in 1844." Early Writings, 236.

That is what they saw! Blessed are the eyes that saw these things.

What did they see? They saw the 2520 ending in 1844, and she says there should be no delay in repeating this message, and she says it in the context of all the messages of 1840 to 1844 are to be made forcible now.

REVELATION 14:8—BABYLON IS FALLEN

What else did they see? In here [the Summer of 1844] they saw Revelation 14:8, "Babylon is fallen!"

They saw churches that were no longer the pillar and the ground of the truth. And why were the churches identified as no longer being the ground and pillar of the truth? Because, they had rejected the message that the 2520 and the 2300 ended in 1844.

THE TYPES—THE SHUT DOOR

What else did they see? They see the shut door. The message of the Midnight Cry is the Shut Door Message.

The Great Controversy, page 398*:*

> "That which led to this movement was the discovery that the decree of Artaxerxes for the restoration of Jerusalem, which formed the starting point for the period of the 2300 days, went into effect in the autumn of the year 457 B.C., and not at the beginning of the year, as had been formerly believed. Reckoning from the autumn of 457, the 2300 years terminate in the autumn of 1844." The Great Controversy, 398.

They believed the Lord was going to return to Earth and shut the door of probation for all mankind at that point in time, point in time; but, it was still a shut door message. And sure enough, on October 22, 1844, the door in the parable of the Ten Virgins was shut upon the virgins of the Millerites, and the door in the Holy Place was shut.

What they saw here at the Midnight Cry was the Shut Door Message. Okay?

THE MESSAGE THAT BROUGHT US OUT OF THE CHURCHES

Review and Herald, January 19, 1905:

> "God is not giving us a new message. We are to proclaim the message that in 1843 and 1844 brought us out of the other churches." Review and Herald, January 19, 1905.

What message in 1843 and 1844 brought us out of the churches?

> ". . . They saw that the prophetic periods reached to 1844, and that the same evidence which they had presented to show that the prophetic periods closed in 1843, proved that they would terminate in 1844." Early Writings, 236.

We have no new message. The message of the 2520 and the 2300 ended in 1844 is the message that through the Lord's leading brought them out of the churches. Had they not presented that message, they would have stayed in the churches and went into delusion and fanaticism that the churches went into. What brought them out was the message of the 2520 and the 2300.

Life Sketches, page 27:

> "In June, 1842, Mr. Miller gave his second course of lectures at the Casco Street church in Portland. I felt it a great privilege to attend these lectures; for I had fallen under discouragements, and did not feel prepared to meet my Saviour. This second course created much more excitement in the city than the first. With few exceptions, the different denominations closed the doors of their churches against Mr. Miller. Many discourses from the various pulpits sought to expose the alleged fanatical errors of the lecturer; but crowds of anxious listeners attended his meetings, and many were unable to enter the house. The congregations were unusually quiet and attentive." Life Sketches, 27.

Right here [June 1842], the closing of the door begins. The reason it begins and the reason that we need to understand this is we have no new message. We are to present the message that 1843 and 1844 brought us out of the other churches. Right here the process begins.

The introduction of the 1843 Chart and the removal of the "IF" by William Miller saying the Lord is returning in 1843 begin this process. It is a Closed Door Message: "In 1843 the Lord is coming back to the Earth." This Chart begins this process.

So, what I am saying is that there will come a time here at the end of the world where not this [1943] Chart but THESE CHARTS [the 1843 and the 1850 Charts] will be introduced and they will begin the process of the churches closing their doors. Okay?

But, what comes after this, once the process begins here [the Tarrying Time] and you get to this history [the Summer of 1844], then you begin to get removed from out of the churches. All right?

So, in this history right here [June 1842], Sister White just said that she was at the meetings at the Casco Street Church in Portland when Miller is giving his second course of lectures and the doors began to closed. Ellen White is there in the audience hearing these things; and, during this time, she and her family and others begin to get disfellowshipped. All right?

Notice what she says from Early Writings, page 13.

> "Most of my father's family were full believers in the advent, and for bearing testimony to this glorious doctrine seven of us were at one time cast out of the Methodist Church. At this time the words of the prophet were exceedingly precious to us: 'Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for My name's sake, said, Let the Lord be glorified: but He shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.' Isaiah 66:5.
> "From this time, up to December, 1844, my joys, trials, and disappointments were like those of my dear Advent friends around me. At this time I visited one of our Advent sisters, and in the morning"—*AND SHE DESCRIBES HER FIRST VISION, IN DECEMBER—"*we bowed around the family altar. It was not an exciting occasion, and there were but five of us present, all women. While I was praying, the power of God came upon me as I had never felt it before. I was wrapped in a vision of God's glory, and seemed to be rising higher and higher from the earth, and was shown something of the travels of the Advent people to the Holy City, as narrated below." Early Writings, 13.

What I want you to see here, Brothers and Sisters, if you go to Isaiah 66 again, is there are a few places that Sister White quotes Isaiah 66, verse 5; and, of those few places, she always ties it in to this history here [between March 22, 1844, and August 11, 1844], to when they were being cast out of the churches.

Isaiah 66, verse 4, says,

> "[4]I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them;"—

And we have already shown that this is the delusions of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2.

> —"because when I called, none did answer, when I spake, they did not hear:"—

They rejected the light. Just like in the time of Noah, Abraham, Christ, they rejected the light.

> —"but they did evil before mine eyes and chose that in which I delighted not.
> "[5]Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed." Isaiah 66:4-5 (KJV).

So, Sister White takes verse 5 and places it in this history [from March 22, 1844, to the Summer of 1844], this history right here, exclusively, when she uses that verse.

THE LORD'S HAND REMOVED

The Lord's hand is removed from the figures here at the Tarrying Time. We are familiar with that from Early Writings, page 236.

> "The hand of the Lord was removed from the figures, and the mistake was explained. They saw that the prophetic periods reached to 1844, and that the same evidence which they had presented to show that the prophetic periods closed in 1843, proved that they would terminate in 1844." Early Writings, 236.

And then Sister White says, in The Great Controversy, page 372,

> "Many were persecuted by their unbelieving brethren. In order to retain their position in the church, some consented to be silent in regard to their hope;"—

I have seen men do that.

> —"but others felt that loyalty to God forbade them thus to hide the truths which He had committed to their trust. Not a few were cut off from the fellowship of the church for no other reason than expressing their belief in the coming of Christ. Very precious to those who bore this trial of their faith were the words of the prophet: 'Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for My name's sake, said, Let the Lord be glorified: but He shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.' Isaiah 66:5." The Great Controversy, 372.

Isaiah 66, verses 4 and 5, is fulfilled right in here [the period from the Tarrying Time to the Summer of 1844] because it is the fanaticism that comes in, and it is the separation process that takes place.

But, in The Great Controversy, page 393, it says,

> "The parable of the ten virgins of Matthew 25 also illustrates the experience of the Adventist people." The Great Controversy, 393.

And then in Review and Herald, August 18, 1890, it says,

> "I am often referred to the parable of the ten virgins, five of whom were wise, and five foolish. This parable has been"—IN THE MILLERITE HISTORY—"This parable has been and will be"—IN OUR HISTORY—"This parable has been and will be fulfilled to the very letter, for it has a special application to this time, and, like the third angel's message, has been fulfilled and will continue to be present truth till the close of time." Review and Herald, August 19, 1890.

This Millerite History here, it is going to get repeated to the very letter in our history.

Notice what she says about the Midnight Cry, from Bible Echo, May 4, 1896.

> "There is a world lying in wickedness, in deception, and delusion, in the very shadow of death,—asleep, asleep. Who are feeling travail of soul to awaken them? What voice can reach them? My mind is carried to the future when the signal will be given, 'Behold the Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet Him.' But some will have delayed to obtain the oil for replenishing their lamps, and too late they will find that character, which is represented by the oil, is not transferable. That oil is the righteousness of Christ. It represents character, and character is not transferable. No man can secure it for another. Each must obtain for himself a character purified from every stain of sin." Bible Echo, May 4, 1896.

Her mind is carried to the future when this history here [referring to August 11-17, 1844] is going to be repeated. But, this history here cannot be separated from this history [from 1840 to 1844 of the Millerite History], can it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, if this is going to be repeated, the Midnight Cry in here, then this is going to be repeated [history of the Summer of 1844]; this is going to be repeated [the history of the Tarrying Time]; this is going to be repeated [the history of June 1842]; and this is going to be repeated [the history of August 11, 1840 through May of 1843].

There is going to come a time after the Angel comes down (this is the Angel of Revelation 10, Millerite History), there is going to come a time when the Angel of Revelation 18 comes down [September 11, 2001, Period of the 144,000]. He is going to come down for the same reason that this Angel [of Revelation 10 at August 11, 1840] came down: the restraint of Islam.

And what is the restraint of Islam? It is the message that prepares God's people to stand. They stand up here.

And then there is going to come a time where the [1843 and 1850] Charts are introduced in our history, and that is going to begin the closing of the doors in Adventism.

Then there is going to be a debate, Isaiah says in Isaiah 27, that begins in this history; and, the debate is going to be the same debate that went on here [in the Millerite History], that debate being that the 2520 and the 2300 were valid prophecies that came to a conclusion in 1844.

And here fanaticism arrives [between March 22, 1844, and August 11, 1844]; and here [in the History of the 144,000] strong delusion arrives.

Strong Delusion is Isaiah 66, verse 4; and, verse 5 says [paraphrasing], "They are going to cast you out of the churches. Your brethren, your church brethren that hate you, are going to cast you out of the churches; and, they are going to think that they are doing God's work and will, because when they cast you out of the churches, they are going to say, 'Let the Lord be glorified!' But, He will appear to your joy and to their shame."

CAST OUT

THE OUTCASTS OF ISRAEL

Isaiah 66:5; Isaiah 11:12; Isaiah 5:26; Numbers 2:1–2; Isaiah 18:3; Isaiah 11:10; Psalm 147:2; Zechariah 9:16; Isaiah 56:8; Isaiah 30:8–21; Isaiah 66:18–21

So, I am out of time; but, I am going to take just a little more time.

A few weeks ago I went to a Friday night and Sabbath meeting, to a brother who was a deacon and his wife was a deaconess in the church. And he had invited his pastor and his head elder to come to the Friday night meeting, which they did, and we went over this series of quotes here. And in this series of quotes, in the evening meeting in his home, the pastor and the head elder got a little bit uncomfortable with some of the conclusions that I was drawing, but they fulfilled the very thing that was going to happen (that is suggested here) within a week.

I will explain as we go along.

Isaiah 66, verse 5,

> "[5]. . . Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified." Isaiah 66:5, in part (KJV).

So, those that are cast out, what are they? They are cast out of the church.

What is the church? What is the church?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The church is modern Israel, right? So, they are the ones that are cast out of Israel. So, who are they?

Go to Isaiah 11, verse 12. We are going to move real quick.

Isaiah 11, verse 12, says,

> "[12]And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth." Isaiah 11:12 (KJV).

Now, the ensign that is lifted up is what draws all the nations to the glorious Holy Mountain here at the end of the world; and, Sister White describes the ensign as Christ, as His Law, as His Sabbath, and as His people.

And Isaiah here is saying that the ensign is the Outcasts of Israel. And Isaiah is Isaiah. He is Isaiah in chapter 11 and he is Isaiah in chapter 66; so, he is not going to disagree with himself. He says, "Your brethren that hated you, cast you out of Israel," out of modern Israel.

So, what bothered this head elder is that I said that the people who are the ensign that are going to get lifted up, they are going to get disfellowshipped from the Seventh-day Adventist Church over this Message, for the same reason that the Millerites were disfellowshipped from their churches in those time periods, because they are preaching the 2300 and the 2520 ended in 1844. And that made him nervous.

But, the next Sabbath after that when this friend of ours, that held the meetings that was a deacon and his wife a deaconess, went to church, it was put in the bulletin that they were no longer a deacon and deaconess. They had been cast out in one week without any church board meeting.

So, as I understand it, God's Word never fails.

Go to Isaiah 5:26.

> "[26]And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: . . ." Isaiah 5:26 (KJV).

And the ensign is the Outcasts of Israel.

And he is going to lift up an ensign. What is an ensign?

Go to Numbers, chapter 2, verses 1 and 2.

> "[1]And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, [2]Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: far off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch." Numbers 2:1-2 (KJV).

The ensign is a symbol of their father's house. He is going to lift up an ensign, and the ensign that is a symbol of the Heavenly Father's House are those that are cast out, the Outcasts of Israel.

And, Sister White only uses Isaiah 66:5 when she is describing those people that are cast out of the churches in this history of the Millerite time period; and, "We have nothing to fear for the future, except we forget the Lord's leading and teaching in our past history." This was the Lord leading. He led them into an experience where they were cast out.

And verse 4 of Isaiah 66 is that this casting out goes on in the time of fanaticism, or the time of strong delusion; and, it is for the identical reason, the identical message, the identical leading.

Go to Isaiah 18:3.

> "[3]All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains, and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye." Isaiah 18:3 (KJV).

He lifts up an ensign to bring God's other sheep together with the Outcasts of Israel, and He does so when He is blowing a trumpet.

What trumpet gets blown in this history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Third Woe.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Third Woe of the Seventh Trumpet. It is an identification that the world, that this period of time is being brought to its knees because the Third Woe of Radical Islam is bringing the world down. It is sinking the ships of Tarshish before their very eyes.

Go back to Isaiah 11, verse 10.

> "[10]And in that day"—

And if you want to know what day it is, go back to chapter 10, verse 1, same vision.

Verse 1, of chapter 10, it says,

> "[1]Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed; . . ." Isaiah 10:1, in part (KJV).

And in Manuscript Releases, volume 14, page 91, Sister White tells us that this unrighteous decree here is The Sunday Law.

So, in the history of The Sunday Law, if you go back to Isaiah 11, verse 10, at The Sunday Law, it says,

> —"[10]And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious." Isaiah 11:10 (KJV).

The Outcasts of Israel, those that get disfellowshipped in this history before the door closes, when the door closes at The Sunday Law they are lifted up as an ensign to bring the whole world to the glorious Holy Mountain to stand with God's people.

Go to Psalm 147, verse 2. We will put this in the record. Hopefully we will deal with this within the next couple of worships. We are almost done here.

Psalm 147, verse 2:

> "[2]The LORD doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel." Psalm 147:2 (KJV).

Okay. The building up of Jerusalem is accomplished by the Outcasts of Israel.

And who are the Outcasts of Israel? They are those that were cast out by their brethren which did hate them, and thought they were doing God's will.

Okay. So, the story of the Outcasts is the story also of building Jerusalem. And when you build Jerusalem, what are you going to have to do? You are going to have to get some tools.

And what are the tools that are referenced in the Bible for building Jerusalem? Well, there is a line stretched, there is a rod, there is a measuring that goes on.

And here in this history [of the Millerites], right after the Disappointment, Revelation 10:8-10, John is told to take the Little Book, and it would be sweet in his mouth and bitter in his stomach.

And then in verse 11, it says, "You must prophesy again before many nations, kindreds, tongues, and peoples."

And then John is given a rod and told to do what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Measure.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Measure the temple, but leave out the courtyard, for it is given to the Gentiles.

So, in this history [of the Millerites], Jerusalem is getting built once right here when the door closes [October 22, 1844].

And when the door closes at The Sunday Law for Seventh-day Adventists, prophetically Jerusalem is going to be built again. It is going to get built by the Outcasts of Israel.

A big story in a small amount of time.

Go to Zechariah, chapter 9, verse 16.

> "[16]And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land." Zechariah 9:16 (KJV).

And, we have already found out that the ensign is the Outcasts of Israel. They are going to be lifted up as stones on a crown, the Outcasts of Israel.

Isaiah 56, verse 8, says,

> "[8]The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him." Isaiah 56:8 (KJV).

The Outcasts of Israel are the flock, His flock; but, He has other sheep that He is going to gather. There are two gatherings. The second gathering begins when the ensign is lifted up and the world is called to the ensign.

Okay. Go to Isaiah 30. I probably should pass over Isaiah 30, verses 8 through 21[24], and deal with it another time; because, there is so much light in that passage that you need sunglasses even to look it; but, we are out of time, and it takes a certain amount of time to consider these things.

So, Isaiah 30, verses 8 through 21, we will deal with that and Isaiah 66:18-21, tomorrow. We are out of time and these verses are just too profound to race through.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to proclaim the message that brought the Millerites out of the churches in 1843 and 1844; and, we see very specifically that very message is the message that is causing a shaking in Adventism at this time. It is the message of the Chart, and now the Charts, and it is the message that upholds that the 2520 is a valid prophecy that ended in 1844. We want to uphold these teachings and present these teachings, but we also understand that these teachings in the Millerite experience produced an experience that you led them through, and that therefore you are also leading your people through this experience at this very time. And we want to be benefited by the light of the past that we might go through this testing process in a way that glorifies your name and secures us salvation. So, we ask that you would give us discernment to understand the significance of this past history and how it applies to us this very day. We thank you for the work that you are doing with the LiveStreaming and the DVD recordings, and ask for your continued blessing upon them. As we begin our work for you this day, we ask that you would keep us safe, watch over and protect us. In Jesus's name, amen.

[24] Corrects audibly on the DVD the cite reference from Jeremiah 30:8-21 to Isaiah 30:8-21 that appeared in instant presentation Notes as a typographical error.

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's rest and another day that we can serve you. As we take up our morning worship, we ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would come into each of us and enlighten our minds that we can receive the light that you have for us from this particular approach to your Word. We would ask that you would overrule my humanity, take control of my words and my thoughts that they might be of such a nature that they would glorify and honor you and that they would edify your people. And we would ask that you would a similar work for those that are hearing these things. We want to understand these truths. We want to receive them gladly and comprehend them, that we might eat them and they become part of us, that they would change us more fully into your image and better prepare us to teach these things to those that we come in contact with. We ask now that your Angels would be in attendance, that you would watch over the LiveStreaming that we are doing and the DVD production that they also might be a blessing beyond simply this study this morning. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I had hoped to get to a punch line today; but, when I went to Jeremiah, instead of Isaiah yesterday, it kind of threw me but it also gave me reason to go back to look more closely at that passage in Isaiah; and, this time I am going to go a little farther with it.

On Sunday we began our conclusion on Habakkuk's Tables, and virtually everything that we are sharing here, we have already shared in the previous presentations of Habakkuk's Tables. And pretty much everything that we have shared in Habakkuk's Tables, we have shared publicly before and I received a small amount of criticism that this is just repeating the old stuff; but, I do not accept that criticism. Repetition is good, and I am going through it from different approaches which is good. So, we understand that this is both a repetition of what we have already done in Habakkuk's Tables and what we have done publicly in other places; but, there is a purpose for some of it.

And Sunday, as we began our conclusion, we spent some time identifying the Foundation, the Platform, the Old Paths, the beginning of our Confidence, and the Established Faith as the same thing. Okay? They are the Truths as represented upon this [1843] Chart, which were gathered together by the Millerites in their history.

And we read a quote where the enemy was working to prevent God's people from standing. And, upon the principle that all the prophets are teaching the same thing at the end of the world, in Ezekiel 37:9-11 we see that what brings the bones and flesh to their feet is a second message in Ezekiel 37; and, the second message is the message of the Four Winds.

Sister White defines the Four Winds in Ezekiel 37 as the Four Winds in Revelation 7 that are restrained while the 144,000 are sealed; but, she also calls them "an angry horse that is seeking to break loose," thus it is restrained, just as it is in Revelation 7.

And we know that the angry horse that is represented in the Foundation and on the Platform and in Old Paths at the beginning of our Confidence and the Established Faith of the Body is the angry horse of Islam, as represented in the First and Second Woes.

So, we see here in this waymark that we are putting up here that what causes God's people to stand is the restraint of Islam, which took place in the Millerite History on August 11, 1840, and took place in our history on September 11, 2001.

But, what we were doing in that first presentation and throughout all of these presentations is showing a direct connection with the Spirit of Prophecy to the Foundational Truths. If you throw out the Spirit of Prophecy, you are going to throw out the Foundational Truths; and, if you throw out the Foundational Truths, you are going to throw out the Spirit of Prophecy, even if you say otherwise.

There are many of those that are fighting against this message of the Foundations in Adventism that claim to be supportive of the Spirit of Prophecy, but they are not; because, they are denying the light of the Spirit of Prophecy on this subject.

And, we have been focusing in on Isaiah 66; particularly we begin with Isaiah 66:5 and show that Sister White talks about the delusions that the Lord will choose for God's people at the end of the world are the same as Paul's strong delusion in 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2.

One of the reason that we are putting an emphasis upon that is because in 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, that William Miller discovers that the Daily, which is one of the Foundational Truths, that the Daily was Paganism. And if you take 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, and grammatically analyze it, those people that receive strong delusion do so because they do so because they do not have a love of the Truth; but, the Biblical truth that is noted in 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, is the truth that William Miller saw. It is the truth about the relationship of Paganism and Papalism, it is the truth about the Daily; therefore, there is one way to look at 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, grammatically, and what it is saying is the reason that Adventists receive the strong delusion at the end of the world is because they reject William Miller's understanding is Paganism. And, that is in perfect agreement with the grammatical structure of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2. And we are purposely, of course, putting that in there.

Yesterday we began to look at two aspects of this history, and we pointed out that Isaiah 66:5, in verse 4, that when the Lord is going to choose the delusions of these Adventists that receive the strong delusion, He is going to bring their fears upon them, and Sister White says, "We have nothing to fear for the future, except that we forget the Lord's teachings and leadings in our past history." So, we went and showed that the teachings of 1841, 1842, 1843, and 1844 were the teachings that she is referencing; and, that in connection with those teachings, the Lord was leading them through the providential understanding and fulfillment of those very teachings in that history. So, we identified that the messages that came that are represented on this [1843] Chart in 1840 to '44, were the teachings; but, those teachings produced the experience, and the experience was accomplished by the Lord leading them through this history.

So, if we forget these teachings and that history, we have everything to fear, was one of the punch lines of that study.

And we noted that if we are looking at this [Figure No. 148] in terms of the Millerite History—and we can do either: we can put this in the Millerite History or in our history—that in 1842 we see the Chart (the 1843 Chart) comes into history; and, this begins the separation process we looked at yesterday, because once the Chart was in history the Millerites said to William Miller, "Take the 'IF' out of your presentation," and this begins the churches identifying that what Miller and his associates were preaching were "fanaticism." So, the door begins to close.

And then, this [the 1843 Chart on the timeline of Figure No. 148], let us put May-June, because the doors begin to close at this time. The Chart is produced in May [1842].

And then we have the First Disappointment, March 22, 1844; and, from this point on, fanaticism arrives, the separation process begins.

Sister White has a quote where she says in this history, which is the First Message, there was no fanaticism. When they had the year-day principle confirmed for them, the fanaticism did not stand up to that. There was too strong of an argument.

But, then after the First Disappointment when, as Miller said, many walked no more with them, a large portion of the Millerites left and began turning against the message; and, those that remained in the message, they were a little bit taken aback that the Lord did not come in March 21, 1844 (in the prophetic year 1843). When He did not come, they were going through some doldrums; and, at this time fanaticism arrives, until the Midnight Cry down here.

The Midnight Cry, once they had October 22, 1844, in place, once again the message is empowered. August 12-17, 1844, the Midnight Cry arrives, fanaticism is gone, and it concludes on October 22, 1844.

But, it is in this history here, where the fanaticism and strong delusion comes into the Millerite History; because, as we read in Early Writings, pages 259 – 260, those that would not receive the First Message (or in Christ's day, would not receive the message of John the Baptist), could not be benefited by the teachings of Jesus. They could not be benefited by the Second Angel's Message; and, therefore, they could see no light in Christ beginning His work in the Heavenly Sanctuary, or Christ moving into the Most Holy Place.

And, it is in this process of the rejection of the message that they go into fanaticism and delusion; and, of course, we are setting this up for an illustration of why we go into fanaticism and delusion at the end of the world as we reject the very same message.

And, of course, because we are focusing on Isaiah 66, we pointed out that in verse 5, when Isaiah says, "You brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but He shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed." that Sister White uses that verse exclusively to identify this history here [from March 22, 1844 to August 12-17, 1844, when the Protestants began to close the doors against the Millerite message and cast the faithful Millerites out of the church, disfellowshipping them. She uses that verse to describe that, and that is the only time she applies that verse is when she is describing that history.

And the message (basically three messages) that was causing them to be cast out was the message of the [1843] Chart. The message of the Chart in this history was identifying specifically that the Lord would come in 1843. Okay? Once Miller removes the "IF" it is 1843, the doors began to close. So, the Chart is one of the messages that begins the separation process.

And then after the First Disappointment, the Lord led His people back to an understanding that the same evidence that showed that the 2520 and the 2300 would end in 1843 was then recognized to prove it ended in 1844, this [Isaiah 66] becomes one of the messages gets them thrown out of the churches. You can see that in Early Writings, page 238.

And, of course, it reaches a point where they understand, in the Summer of 1844, that the churches that are doing these things have become Babylon, because they have rejected the Truth. And the church is to be the ground and the pillar of the Truth, so they begin with another recognition they have is that the churches are Babylon.

And way back here [in May-June of 1840], they retain this message of the Chart; and, the message of the Chart is the Shut Door. Okay? "The Lord is coming in 1843 probation for mankind ends": it is a Shut Door Message that is represented by the Chart.

And thereafter, when they find the same evidence that led them to identify 1843 leads them to identify 1844, it is the same message, just a different year. It is a Shut Door, right here [October 22, 1844]. It is a Shut Door Message.

So, the messages of this history that are causing the division, causing the separation are the message of the 2520 and the 2300 ending in 1844: the message of probation is about to close, and the message that the church is rejecting the Truth and becoming a cage of unclean and hateful birds.

So, we are going to go and look a little bit more at Isaiah 66.

I want to get to a point where we started lining up the Alpha and the Omega Apostasy in this history. We will have to do that a little bit later on.

Isaiah 66:1

REST

Let us go to Isaiah 66, verse 1, now as we take up the notes for this day.
Isaiah 66, verse 1, says,

> "[1]Thus saith the Lord, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?" Isaiah 66:1 (KJV).

> REST: Strong's Concordance, H4496—Feminine of H4495; repose or (adverbially) peacefully; figuratively consolation (specifically matrimony); hence (concretely) an abode: - comfortable, ease, quiet, rest (-ing place), still. H4495— The same as H4494; rest. H4494—quiet*, that is, (concretely) a settled spot, or (figuratively) a home: - (place of) rest.

Okay. If you go to the Strong's, you will see in your notes that the word translated REST, here, is the Feminine of H4495. It means to repose (to rest); but, it comes from H4495, and H4495 is the same as H4494; and, H4494 is a settled spot, or a home.

So, in Isaiah 66, verse 1, when He asked the question there at the end of the verse, "Where is the place of my rest?" He is asking, "Where is my home?" Where is the Lord going to dwell?

Where you dwell is your home, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

CHOOSING JERUSALEM

1 Kings 14:21; Isaiah 14:1; Zechariah 1:12–17; Revelation 10:8–11:2; Zechariah 4:8–10; 2 Kings 21:10–15; Isaiah 28:14–18

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, this is the subject that we are going to take up a little bit.

But, the Lord, throughout the Scriptures has chosen where His home is.

1 Kings 14:21

If you go to 1 Kings 14:21—

You know, I think my wife says we have lived on this property now for 14 years. And when we came here, we had a cat that was a house cat. The cats we have now, they live outside; but, at that time, this cat was a house cat, still lived inside and we had her for a long time and her name was Ruby.

And there is a bird that comes in the Springtime here, and I do not know what kind of bird it is; but, we call it the "Ruby Bird," because we have this cat named Ruby, and every Springtime, if you go out, you can hear this bird going, "Ruby! Ruby!" And when we go out—if you think I am crazy, we can point it out, and you can say, "Well, it doesn't really sound like, 'Ruby,'" but, it does.

But, through the years, every Springtime you can hear this bird arrive and you know that Springtime is here. And two days ago it got kind of warm here and it felt like Spring—It got cold yesterday, and it is still cold today—but, two days ago you could taste the Springtime, and the Ruby Bird is back!

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And the trees are budding out, and things are coming back to life.

So, I am kind of this morning waking up, realizing it is Springtime, and I got kind of that, "Ah! This is a nice feeling!"

And I am looking into the group this morning, and you all seem kind of subdued and down. What is going on?! This is the Springtime! Let us liven up in here a tad, okay?!

The Lord is causing things to bud out, both literally and spiritually. We should be praising the Lord for this.

So, in Isaiah 66, verse 1, the question is raised about where is the Lord going to rest, and where is His home going to be.

And all of the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, so where is His home going to be at the end of the world?

And in 1 Kings 14:21, it says,

> "[21]And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess." 1 Kings 14:21 (KJV).

So, the Lord chose to dwell in Jerusalem; but, He chose Jerusalem out of what? Out of all the tribes.

And, this is the story of whom here?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Rehoboam.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Rehoboam. And, what is that story?

That story is the division of Israel, between Rehoboam (the Southern Kingdom) and Jeroboam (the Northern Kingdom). So, we see that the Lord is choosing Jerusalem in this history as He is separating His people into two groups.

Of course, the 10 tribes that are going to Jeroboam, what does Jeroboam do to prevent those 10 tribes from coming back to Rehoboam's place in Jerusalem?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He makes two golden calves.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He sets up two golden calves, one in Bethel and one in Dan; and, he puts the same pronouncement upon them that Aaron placed upon his golden calf in his day and age: "These be thy gods, O Israel, who brought you out of Egypt!"

And, of course, the punishment for Aaron that was executed by Moses and Aaron and his followers was they ground up that image of the beast (that golden calf), and they made the people drink it. And all the prophecies are pointed to the end of the world: The punishment for worshipping the image of the beast in the Third Angel's Message is that you are going to drink the wine of God's wrath that is poured out without measure into the cup of His indignation. You are going to drink that ground up golden calf, as Moses made them drink it with Aaron. So, we see that the golden calf in Aaron's day and age is a symbol of The Sunday Law. And Jeroboam is a second witness to that. He set up a golden calf in Bethel (which means House of God) and in Dan (which means Judge), so it is emphasizing that those two golden calves represent church and state, once again a story about The Sunday Law at the end of the world.

So, when we ask who Rehoboam is, Rehoboam is the group of God's people that gets chosen in The Sunday Law crisis, while the other group is going to receive the mark of the beast. And in that time period of The Sunday Law crisis, the Lord is choosing Jerusalem to dwell at. That is where He is going to take His rest.

Do you see that?

Isaiah 14:1

Isaiah 14:1:

> "[1]For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob." Isaiah 14:1 (KJV).

So, the Lord is going to choose Israel one more time—He will yet choose Jerusalem, we will show you in a minute—but, not only is He going to choose Israel, he is also going to gather another people to Him. So, when He is choosing Jerusalem and He is choosing Israel—

Did He choose Israel back in 1 Kings? Yes. He made a choice of Judah at Jerusalem, as opposed to the 10 Northern Tribes. He is going to dwell in Jerusalem, but He is choosing a people that He is going to dwell with in Jerusalem.

And here in Isaiah 14:1, He will yet choose Israel, but He is also going to have strangers joined to them; and, of course, this is talking about Him choosing those that are going to be lifted up as an ensign at The Sunday Law, and then gathering others unto Himself after that.

Zechariah 1:12-17

Go to Zechariah 1. Zechariah 1, beginning at verse 12, says,

> "[12]Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?"—

This is referencing the 70 years of captivity of Israel in Ancient Babylon. But, in this series of Habakkuk's Tables, we have read you the quote from Prophets and Kings where Sister White compares those 70 years with the 1260 years of Papal rule. So, this is also an illustration of 1798, when spiritual Israel was coming out of spiritual Babylon.

Verse 13,

> "[13]And the Lord answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words. [14]So the angel that communed with me said unto me,—

Who is the angel communing with Zachariah? It is Gabriel.

> —"Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. [15]And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction. [16]Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched upon Jerusalem. [17]Crying yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem." Zechariah 1:12-17 (KJV).

So, this is a promise of choosing Jerusalem, not in the time of Rehoboam, but He is going to once again choose Jerusalem in the time of their coming out of Babylon; but, this is also the Lord choosing Jerusalem in the time of the Millerites when they came out of spiritual Babylon, out of the 1260 years. And these three choosings of Jerusalem, and the story of Rehoboam, and the story of Ezra, and the story of the Millerites are all prefiguring the Lord choosing Jerusalem at the end of the world.

And one of the symbols of the Lord choosing Jerusalem is that He is going to build it; and, therefore, you are going to see a line stretched upon it. You are going to see building tools illustrated.

Revelation 10:8–11:2.

So, go to Revelation, chapter 10, beginning in verse 8.

> "chapter 10:8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. 9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. 10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter."—

What are those two histories?

When was the message sweet to the Millerites? Right here, August 11, 1840; because, the year-day principle was confirmed. And, this is when Islam was restrained in the history of the Millerites.

And it becomes bitter down here. This is the bitterness, October 22, 1844.

And, then verse 11 says, "And he said unto me [THE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS AT THE END OF THE WORLD] are going to have to repeat this history."

It says,

> —"11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings."—

They had sent their message to the world from 1840 to '44. That is what Sister White says in The Great Controversy, page 611; but, that is going to happen again. This history is going to happen again. This message is going to get carried to the world again.

And then in verse 1 of chapter 11 [of Revelation], it says,

> —"chapter 11:1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. 2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months." Revelation 10:8-11:2 (KJV).

So, now, when John comes to this history, he is told to measure the temple, thus identifying Jerusalem is to be built once again.

Now, if we were to go back to the coming out of Babylon, there are 70 years of captivity here. And then, what are the next things we see, primary things? Three Decrees, right?

The Third Decree starts the 2300-day prophecy. That would be right here [October 22, 1844]. And that aligns with the Third Message in the Millerite History.

The empowerment of the First Message on August 11, 1840, would be right here. That would be the First Decree.

And then in here in the Second Angel's Message, you would have the Second Decree.

So, when they come out of Babylon, where is it that they build the foundation of the temple?

We have already gone over this in this study. The foundation of the temple is built in the history of the First Decree. The foundation is laid right here, right in the spot that we are lining up with the Millerite History, when this Foundation is established [referring to the 1843 Chart].

When was the temple complete in the history of the Three Decrees? It was completed before the Third Decree. It is an historical fact. The temple is completed before the Third Decree.

But the Third Decree is still bringing people out of Babylon, why? Because, Jerusalem is not finished until the streets and wall are finished. Okay? The Lord is going to build Jerusalem. He is going to stretch lines upon it. He is going to measure it; but, the total job is not done until you get out here with the Fourth Decree with Nehemiah [extending beyond October 22, 1844]—right?—because, it is in the time period of Nehemiah that the streets and wall are finished even in troublous times.

So, if you can do this with me, jump back into Revelation 10 and 11. When John has the bitterness in his stomach here [October 22, 1844], and he is told, "You are going to have to do this again, and rise and measure the temple of God," they have laid the foundations, the temple has been built; but, it is not until our day and age back out here in the Fourth Angel's Message when the streets and wall are going to be finished in troublous times. When Nehemiah comes, he is going to have to do some stretchings of lines as well. So, it is a complete package that we have to look at here.

And when John is told to measure the temple, we get an idea of what the temple he is to measure is, because from 1798 to 1844, we have 46 years, and John is told to rise and measure the temple, but leave off the courtyard, for it is given to the Gentiles: "Don't measure the courtyard, because the courtyard represents the Gentiles." And how long are the Gentiles going to trample down Jerusalem?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are going to trample it down from AD538 to 1798. So, when John is told to measure the temple, based upon this reference to the courtyard being the Gentiles', he is being told to measure something in time; and, the time is the time that starts when the courtyard ends in 1798.

And he is right here [October 22, 1844]. John just went through the bitter disappointment. He is in 1844; so, he is to measure the 46 years. Okay?

And, of course, the 46 years represents the days (46 days that Moses was on the Mount receiving instructions to build the earthly sanctuary). It represents the 46 years of Herod's remodeling of the temple; and, the very year that Herod's remodeling ended is the year that Jesus was baptized. It represents the 46 years that the Millerite temple was erected. In order for the Lord to suddenly come to His temple on October 22, 1844, He had to erect it. He had to have a host to enter into covenant with. It represents the 46 chromosomes that go to make up the human temple. And, it also represents it in these histories, whether it is with Moses's history, or the history of Christ, or the history of the Millerites that the Lord is entering into covenant with His people. And His covenant is His Ten Commandments, and those Ten Commandments have two tables, and on the one table you have four commandments, and on the other table you have six (4-6). So, this "46" also represents the covenant, the Two Tables, and these Two Tables [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts] by implication that come into this history to mark that they entered into covenant.

So, this history [see Figure No. 148] is the temple building; but, in our history, it is the history of the temple finishing.

Zechariah 4:8-10

So, go to Zechariah 4, verses 8 through 10.

And why are we even talking about this?

I mean, what are we trying to demonstrate here? Well, what we are trying to demonstrate here is that the Lord is going to choose where He is going to rest. Okay? And He is going to choose Jerusalem. That is where He is going to be. That is going to be His home. That is where He is going to abide.

But, when He chooses Jerusalem and chooses to abide there, He is going to build Jerusalem, and then He is going to abide there.

He is going to choose Jerusalem in this history here at the end of the world; and, those people that are the hosts that He chooses to abide with are the Outcasts of Israel that have been outcast by the brethren that hated them.

So, in Zechariah 4, we are still looking at some of the terminology in the Bible concerning the work of building Jerusalem. And the reason the Lord builds Jerusalem is so He can take His rest there. All right?

In Zechariah 4, beginning at verse 8, it says this:

> "[8]Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me saying, [9]The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house;"—

And what does ZERUBBABEL mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Out of Babylon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It means Out of Babylon. Out of Babylon means offspring of Babylon, technically; but, that means Out of Babylon. That means—somebody spell it for me, Zerubbabel.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Z-E-R-U-B-B-A-B-E-L.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, "Out of Babylon," Zerubbabel, he builds the foundation of the Millerite History. He built the foundation, but Zerubbabel also is going to put the capstone on it. Okay? There is going to be an experience of "Out of Babylon" in the Millerite History; there is going to be an experience of "Out of Babylon" in our history.

And the experience of Out of Babylon in the Millerite History, this is when the fanaticism came in. This is the strong delusion. This is where the Lord chooses the delusions in Isaiah 66:5, in this history of the Millerites, in this message.

Remember, the Final Message (the Midnight Cry), and the First Message were too powerful for fanaticism to exist. But, it is in the Second Message where fanaticism came, after the [First] Disappointment.

Are you all with me?

Okay. Back to Zechariah.

> —"[9]The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of Hosts hath sent me unto you. [10]For who hath despised the day of small things?"—

The Millerite History's "day of small things," it is despised. God's people today say, "We will not walk in these Old Paths. We despise the history that is represented by this [1843] Chart." Okay?

When you get to the time when Zerubbabel is going to put the capstone on it, the larger portion of Adventism is going to despise the "day of small things," the beginnings.

> —"[10]For who hath despised the day of small things?"—

But, there will be a group—there are two classes; it is all about two classes.

> —"for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven, they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth." Zechariah 4:8-10 (KJV).

So, in the history of putting the capstone on this building process—and this building process is represented by stretching the line, and using the plummet and the rod to measure these things—

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Is the capstone to finish it?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Capstone means the final piece. Zerubbabel is going to put the capstone on it, and he laid the foundation. He does the beginning and the end; because, what he represents, this message "Out of Babylon" is repeated in both these histories.

But, in reality, the governor in the history of the building of Jerusalem when they came out of Babylon was Zerubbabel, and he truly did lay the first stone in the foundation and put the last stone on the temple.

So, in this history of building the temple, there is a group that despises the "day of small things."

"We will not walk in the Old Paths. We will not hearken to the sound of the Trumpet."

But, there is going to be another group (hopefully, you and I), and what will we do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Rejoice.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We will rejoice when we see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel. Why? Because, it means that He is choosing Jerusalem once again. He is choosing to rest in Jerusalem.

And if we get through this study today, we will show you that the rest that He takes in Jerusalem is not with temples made with hands, but in our human body temple. That is where He is choosing to rest, in Zion at the end.

So, we rejoice. But, what is the symbol of our rejoicing? What is the symbol of our rejoicing in the verse?

It says, ". . . they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; . . ." They are going to see Zerubbabel in this history, and they are going to see that he has a plummet in his hand.

And what is with the plummet?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: ". . . those seven; . . ."

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Those seven.

Okay. Now, this seven here, it is the same Hebrew word that is translated as seven times in Leviticus 26.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are going to see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel, and they are going to rejoice with the plummet with those seven.

Of course, there are probably a lot of places where seven occurs that is the same Hebrew word as the seven times in Leviticus 26. So, maybe this is kind of pulling one out of the hat.

2 Kings 21:10-15

But, let us go to 2 Kings; because, this word plummet, this word plummet is only found three times in God's Word. Go to 2 Kings 21, verses 10 through 15.

> "[10]And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying, [11]Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols: [12]Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle. [13]And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab:"—

Who is the "house of Ahab"? That is the house of the Northern Kingdom.

> —"[13]And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria [OF THE NORTHERN KINGDOM], and the plummet [OF THE NORTHERN KINGDOM] of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down. [15]And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; [15]Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day." 2 Kings 21:10-15 (KJV).

So, here we have a judgment against Manasseh; and, the judgment against Manasseh is going to be the same line and the same plummet that was carried out against Samaria, of the house of Ahab.

And, what was carried out against Samaria, of the house of Ahab? The 2520. It is saying that Judah is going to suffer the same punishment as did the Northern Kingdom.

And, what is the symbol of this punishment? The plummet, the plummet.

There is one other place where the plummet is mentioned.

So, what I am saying is, the plummet is the 2520. And there will be a group in Adventism in the time period, where Zerubbabel is finishing the work, that they are going to see the 2520, and they are going to rejoice; and, at that same time there is going to be a group that despise the "day of small things," the foundational time period when this [the 2520] was one of the Foundational Truths, this history here, the 2520.

But, the plummet is the symbol of the punishment against the Northern Kingdom, and that same punishment was carried out against the Southern Kingdom. It was carried out beginning with Manasseh when he was carried into captivity.

Isaiah 28:14-18

But, there is also a punishment that is associated with the plummet that comes down to our day and age as well: Isaiah 28, beginning at verse 14.

> "[14]Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem."—

In Testimonies, volume 5, Sister White tells us that Jerusalem here is the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

> —"[15]Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death,"—

And, they are making a covenant with death. These men that despise the "day of small things" are making a covenant with death at the very time there is a group in Adventism that are making a covenant of life, those that rejoice when they see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel.

> —"[15]Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:"—

The overflowing scourge, if you do not know what the overflowing scourge is, then you are represented by Josiah. I mean, Josiah represents two classes of worshippers at the end of Adventism. Josiah represents the class of worshippers that discover the curse of Moses that had been hidden away in the temple, and the curse of Moses is the 2520 and, from that, they cause a revival.

But, Josiah also represents the leadership of Adventism that will not be warned about the battle between the King of the South and the King of the North, that initially the King of the South attacks the King of the North but, over a period of time, the King of the North returns and sweeps away the King of the South. Josiah would not take the warning. The warning for Josiah about the message of the King of the South and the King of the North is, "Don't get involved with that battle!" But, Josiah went ahead and got involved with the battle, and he died at Megiddo. And Megiddo in Josiah's death is Armageddon in Revelation 16.

So, if you do not know what the overflowing scourge is, you are not being warned by Daniel 11, verse 40, because that is the war between the King of the South and the King of the North that the Seventh-day Adventist Church refuses to understand, that rejects; because, Daniel 11, verse 40, tells you the next thing that happens is The Sunday Law in the United States where probation closes for Seventh-day Adventists. So, if you refuse to understand correctly Daniel 11, verse 40, then you will not understand that the King of the North, when he comes and sweeps away the Soviet Union in 1989, he comes as a flood because the Papacy is the flood in Bible prophecy.

And these men that despise the "day of small things" here, these leaders that rule Jerusalem, they have made a covenant with death saying, "When the overflowing scourge comes, when The Sunday Law arrives, it ain't gonna hurt us!" But, they are hiding their lives in falsehoods.

Verse 16:

—"[16]Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste."—

This history here [Figure No. 150: Foundation, Platform, Old Paths, Confidence, Establishes Faith], he lays in Zion. He laid it with the Millerites, and now He uses it to test us.

Verse 17:

—"Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The plummet.

JEFF PIPPENGER: —"the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. [18]And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it." Isaiah 28:14-18 (KJV).

So, when the Lord is building Jerusalem, He uses these building tools to illustrate it, but he also lets us know that during the time that He is building Jerusalem, He is separating two classes of worshippers; and, the symbol of this separation is the plummet. It is the punishment against those that reject the Foundations. That is what tests them, the 2520.

REST

Psalm 95:11

What is the rest?
Psalm 95:11:

"[11]Unto whom I sware in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest."
Psalm 95:11 (KJV).

Brothers and Sisters, the board could get kind of full here; but, we did a study. We referred to it more than once. It is the study of the year-day principle; and, in one sense the year-day principle is the very foundation of Adventism. If William Miller had not come to understand the year-day principle correctly, he would not have been able to put together the understanding of these time prophecies [as illustrated on the 1843 Chart].

And the two places in the Bible that we use the year-day principle to uphold time prophecy is Numbers 14:34 and Ezekiel 4:6. And both of these histories where the year-day principle is expressed are histories of Ancient Israel's rebellion.

Here [Numbers 14:34] they are rebelling against the Rest of Grace; here [Ezekiel 4:6] they were rebelling against the Rest of the Sabbath: two different rests.

And this [the Rest of Grace] is at the beginning, right at the borders of the Promised Land when the spies returned. They could have gone into the Promised Lane, but they did not do so.

And this [the Rest of the Sabbath] is at the end, just before Nebuchadnezzar destroys Jerusalem.

So, at the beginning and at the end of Ancient Israel, you have two lines in the sand that identify the rebellion of God's people as they rebel against the rests of that time period.

And the rests at our time period here, Brothers and Sisters, is that the Lord is choosing Jerusalem. He is going to take His rest. He is going to send His Holy Spirit.

So, in Pacific Union Recorder, November 7, 1901, speaking of this,

> "Those who are unwilling to give the Lord faithful, earnest, loving service will not find spiritual rest in this life nor in the life to come. 'There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God [PSALM 95;11, AND IN HEBREWS]. . . . Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fail after the same example of unbelief.' The rest here spoken of is the rest of grace, obtained by following the prescription. 'Labor diligently.'" Pacific Union Recorder, November 7, 1901.

It is the rest of grace; it is not the Sabbath Day rest.

The Hebrews rejected the Rest of Grace, the Rest of Grace.

And what would that Rest of Grace given them? If they had accepted Joshua and Caleb's testimonies, what would that rest had given them?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response).
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

The Power to go into the Promised Land. They rejected the power to go in and knock those giants down.

And what was that power? It was the Rest of Grace. It was the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 132:8-18

Go to Psalm 132, verses 8 through 18.

"[8] Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength."—

Now, before I read further, before I read further, this is about the Lord entering into His rest and us entering into His rest, and Him entering into Zion; but, I want you to see something.

Where does it begin?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: When He arises.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: When He arises.

Notice the quote in your notes from Review and Herald, July 5, 1906. It says,

> "Now comes the word that I have declared that New York is to be swept away by a tidal wave? This I have never said. I have said, as I looked at the great buildings going up there, story after story, 'What terrible scenes will take place when the Lord shall arise"—

And we are saying that the Lord arose on 9/11.

> —"to shake terribly the earth! Then the words of Revelation 18:1–3 will be fulfilled.' The whole of the eighteenth chapter of Revelation is a warning of what is coming on the earth. But I have no light in particular in regard to what is coming on New York, only that I know that one day the great buildings there will be thrown down by the turning and overturning of God's power. From the light given me, I know that destruction is in the world. One word from the Lord, one touch of his mighty power, and these massive structures will fall. Scenes will take place the fearfulness of which we cannot imagine." Review and Herald, July 5, 1906."

On 9/11/2001 the great buildings in New York City were thrown down, and the Lord arose!

Now, let us go back to Psalm 132, verse 8.

> —"Psalm 132 (continued): [8] Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength. [9] Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy. [10] For thy servant David's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed. [11] The LORD hath sworn in truth unto David;"—

Now, let me just ask something here in verse 10.

He is arising, and He is entering into His rest. The ark of His strength is mentioned (there is the Law of God). The priests are clothed with righteousness, and the saints are shouting for joy, and the face of His anointed is referenced.

What does anointed mean?

When was Christ anointed? At His baptism.

And what happened at His baptism?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Holy Spirit came down.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Holy Spirit descended, just like the Angel descended on August 11, 1840; just like the Angel of Revelation 18 descended on 9/11. The Psalmist is in agreement with this model that we are portraying.

Verse 11,

> —"[11]The LORD hath sworn in truth unto David, he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne. [12] If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony"—

He is entering into covenant with His people at this point, when He is taking His rest.

> —"that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore."—

Yesterday—when I went to Jeremiah instead of Isaiah and I started reading through Jeremiah and I realized it was the wrong passage, but there was a very nice promise in there for our children, and I mentioned it before I ended everything—and a sister from out on the West Coast emailed in and said something like this, "I'm glad that you went to Jeremiah [See Footnote 21, referring to Jeremiah 30:8-21.]. I like the promises for our children." And here is another one.

> —"[12]If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore."—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"[13] For the LORD hath chosen Zion;"—

He is choosing Zion again.

When did He choose Zion in 1 Kings 14? When He separated the Northern Kingdom from the Southern Kingdom. He chooses Zion when there is a separation going on between two classes of worshippers.

> —"he hath desired it for his habitation. [14] This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it. [15] I will abundantly bless her provision:"—

What is "her provision"?

What is your provision?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Food.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. He will give them manna (Bread from Heaven).

—"I will satisfy her poor with bread. [16] I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy. [17] There will I make the horn of David to bud:"—

How does the horn of David bud?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Latter Rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Latter Rain.

—"I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed."—

So, these are the people that are anointed by the Latter Rain, and He has ordained a lamp for them. What does that mean?

What does that mean that He has "ordained a lamp" for them?

When Christ is moving through the seven candlesticks in the Holy Place, in the beginning of the Book of Revelation, what do those lamps represent?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Churches.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Churches. He has "ordained a lamp for mine anointed."

What is the lamp that is being lit right here [Figure No. 150].

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Laodicea.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The last church, Laodicea is the last church.

But, in here, Brothers and Sisters, in this history, do you know what this is? This is the Church Militant; but, at The Sunday Law, it becomes the lamp that is the Church Triumphant that has been ordained by the Lord.

—"[18] His enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish." Psalm 132:8-18 (KJV).

And what is his crown? Well, it is full of stones; and, we have those stones that are lifted up as an ensign, Zechariah tells us.

Isaiah 18 (Isaiah 27:11; Matthew 13:29–30); Acts 7:47–51; Hebrews 4:1–11; Ephesians 2:19–22; 1 Corinthians 3:9–17; 1 Corinthians 6:19; 2 Corinthians 6:14–18; 1 Peter 2:5

Isaiah 18 (Isaiah 27:11; Matthew 13:29-30).

Isaiah 18—time is rapidly slipping away—Isaiah 18, and let us start in verse 3. I will not deal with the nations "scattered and peeled" because of the shortness [of time]. Let us start in verse 3.

"[3]All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye. [4]For so the Lord said unto me, I will take my rest,"—

When He is lifting up the ensign is when He is taking His rest, and His rest is His home. This is where He is going to abide.

And where is He going to abide? Well, He chose Zion; He chose Jerusalem. He chooses Zion; He chooses Jerusalem.

> —"and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. [5]For afore the harvest,"—

When is the harvest?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the end of the world.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The end of the world. Okay? Summertime is the harvest.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Summertime starts at The Sunday Law.

> —"[5]For afore the harvest,"—BEFORE THIS SUNDAY LAW—"when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruninghooks, and take away and cut down the branches. [6]They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them." Isaiah 18:3-7 (KJV).

He is going to cut off the Northern Kingdom. He is going to separate the wise and foolish virgins; and, the foolish virgins, they are going to become the prey of the birds (that is Babylon) and the beasts (that is the United Nations) in The Sunday Law testing time. He is going cut down those branches.

If you will, go to Isaiah 27:11, if you read from verse 1 through 11, it is the same history; but, in verse 11, it says,

> "[11]When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire:"—

Who are the women?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The churches.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Apostate Protestantism; Catholicism.

> —"for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour." Isaiah 27:11 (KJV).

They have "no understanding," what does that mean? No understanding of what? Of the increase of knowledge.

"The wise will understand, but the wicked will not understand"; and, how important is it to understand that knowledge? According to Hosea, "My people are destroyed from a lack of knowledge."

How are they destroyed? They are cut off as branches, and the women come and bind them in bundles and burn them.

Matthew 13:29-30

Matthew 13, verses 29 and 30.
The history of building Jerusalem is a history of a separation of two classes.
[Beginning at] verse 28:

> "[28]He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? [20]But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. [30]Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn." Matthew 13:28-30 (KJV).

What is his "barn"? It is Jerusalem. He is gathering us into Jerusalem, if we are faithful.

And, we have already read in this presentation that it is the Third Angel that does the separation.

And commenting on the wheat and tares, Sister White says that the parable shows that there is no probation after the judgment.

This is The Sunday Law right here [indicating the last waymark in Figure No. 150.] It is The Sunday Law.

When all three of these passages, the broken branches, the cut-down branches, and the tares are gathered into bundles to be burned by the women, to be persecuted by the Papacy (the unclean bird), and the United Nations (the beasts of the earth), why would you die?

Acts 7:47-51

Acts 7, beginning at verse 47,

> "[47]But Solomon built him an house."—

We are talking about the Lord choosing Jerusalem.

> —"[47]But Solomon built him an house. [48]Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the prophet, [49]HEAVEN IS MY THRONE, AND EARTH IS MY FOOTSTOOL:"—

Where is he [Luke] quoting from?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Acts 7:47.

Sorry. I figured you would have it in notes.

But, when you get to verse 49, and it says,

—"[49]HEAVEN IS MY THRONE, AND EARTH IS MY FOOTSTOOL: WHAT HOUSE WILL YE BUILD ME?"— what is He talking about? What is He referencing, what is He quoting?

—"SAITH THE LORD: OR WHAT IS THE PLACE OF MY REST?"—

That is Isaiah 66, verse 1.

—"[50]HATH NOT MY HAND MADE ALL THESE THINGS?"—

What is He talking about? He is talking about the temple (Jerusalem), where He is going to abide.

What does verse 51 say?

> —"[51]You stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye." Acts 7:47-51 (KJV).

So, these people that are unwilling to be part of the Jerusalem, the temple where the Lord is going to rest, what are they resisting?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Holy Spirit.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Latter Rain, the Latter Rain.

Hebrews 4:1-11

Go to Hebrews 4:1-11. And we will not read this, we will just point at it; because, we have referenced this more than once.

> "[1] Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. [2] For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. [3] For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, AS I HAVE SWORN IN MY WRATH, IF THEY SHALL ENTER INTO MY REST: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. [4] For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, AND GOD DID REST THE SEVENTH DAY FROM ALL HIS WORKS. [5] And in this place again, IF THEY SHALL ENTER INTO MY REST.
> [6] Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief: [7] Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, TO DAY IF YE WILL HEAR HIS VOICE, HARDEN NOT YOUR HEARTS. [8] For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day. [9] There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. [10] For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. [11] Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." Hebrews 4:1-11 (KJV).

This is the rest.

Psalm 95:11, we have already read. This is the Rest of Grace, Sister White calls it, that the Hebrews rejected when they had the opportunity to go into the Promised Land.

This is not the Seventh-day Sabbath. This is the Rest of Grace.

But, Paul—the Book of Hebrews is the book in the Bible that is written for Seventh-day Adventists. It is not written for Millerites. The Millerites did not understand Hebrews. If they understood Hebrews, they would have understood that the Sanctuary in Heaven was the Sanctuary in Heaven and not the Earth. Hebrews was not for the Millerites.

And the Christian world does not understand the Book of Hebrews. The only people on Earth that truly understand the Book of Hebrews are Seventh-day Adventists. This is for us.

So, when Paul is saying, "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God," well, it is not the Sabbath day rest that he is talking about; and, that is the way Sister White says it, too, and not just me. It is the Rest of Grace that we reject, as illustrated back here in Numbers 14:34, when they rejected the Rest of Grace, and it is the history that Paul is referring to. They reject the Rest of Grace here [the first waymark in Figure No. 150], and they reject the rest of the Seventh-day Sabbath here [the last waymark in Figure No. 150 (The Sunday Law)].

We are going to reject the rest of the Seventh-day Sabbath at The Sunday Law, and the symbol of the Rest of Grace that we are going to reject is the Rest of the Land every seventh year (the Rest of the Jubilee that is represented by the 2520, which is the plummet).

Okay?

Ephesians 2:19-22

Go to Ephesians 2, verses 19 through 22. We are still trying to figure out, when the Lord is talking about taking His rest, where is He going to rest— Ephesians 2—here at the end of the world?

What do all these illustrations—of building Jerusalem, the Lord choosing Jerusalem, the Lord taking His rest—what are they pointing forward to? They are pointing forward to the end of the world.

But, at the end of the world, there is going to be a group of us that think the temple is the Seventh-day Adventist structure, the corporation: that is the temple of the Lord, that is the temple of the Lord, that is the temple of the Lord. But, that is not what the Lord is talking about taking His rest in.

Ephesians, chapter 2, beginning at verse 19, says,

> "[19]Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; [20]And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; [21]In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: [22]In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit." Ephesians 2:19-22 (KJV).

". . . ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit," you are part of the temple. And the Lord is going to take His rest in Jerusalem. He is going to take His rest in the temple; but, He is not going to take His rest in a manmade structure.

Where is He going to take His rest? In our hearts, unless we choose to reject the rest as the Hebrews did.

1 Corinthians 3:9-17

1 Corinthians 3.
I am going to end this before your notes end; so, do not get nervous.
1 Corinthians 3, verses 9 through 17:

—"[9]For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building."—

You are God's building? . . . and laborers.

—"[10]According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. [11]For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. [12]Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; [13]Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is."—

So, when the Lord is building the temple, there are two classes of worshippers. There is one class that is putting on gold, silver, and precious stones to the temple; and, there is another class that is putting wood, hay, and stubble. But, they are going to get thrown into a purification process, which here is represented by fire. And what happens to wood, hay, and stubble?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They burn it.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It burns up.

Who gets burned up? Those branches that are cut off and put into bundles. They get burned up in the Summertime.

—"[14]If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. [15]If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saves; yet so as by fire. [16]Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? [17]If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple you are."
1 Corinthians 3:9-17 (KJV).

So, in Isaiah 66:1, when the Lord is deciding where He is going to take His rest at the end of the world (because all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world), where is He desiring to take His rest?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In our hearts, in our minds.

But, what do we have to do? We have to be on the right side of the testing process. We have to participate in this work. We have something to contribute to the building of the temple, and it better be gold, and silver, and precious stones; because, if it is wood, hay, and stubble . . . .

1 Corinthians 6:19

Go to 1 Corinthians 6:19.

> "[19]What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?" 1 Corinthians 6:19 (KJV).

This [pointing to himself (ourselves)] is the temple that He abides in, where He chooses to take His rest.

2 Corinthians 6:14-18

2 Corinthians 6, verses 14 through 18:

> "[14]Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers:"—

"Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers."

> —"[14]Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion hath light with darkness? [15]And what concord hath Christ with Belial? Or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? [16]And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? For ye are the temple of the living God, as God hath said, I WILL DWELL IN THEM, AND WALK IN THEM; AND I WILL BE THEIR God, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE. [17]WHEREFORE COME OUT FROM AMONG THEM, AND BE YE SEPARATE, saith the Lord, AND TOUCH NOT THE UNCLEAN THING; AND I WILL RECEIVE YOU, [18]AND WILL BE A FATHER UNTO YOU, AND YE SHALL BE MY SONS AND DAUGHTERS, saith the Lord Almighty." 2 Corinthians 6:14-18 (KJV).

Was there a separation process that went on in this history [Figure No. 150], when they were building this temple?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: There was a separation process.

Who causes the separation process?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Lord.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Lord.

This [1843] Chart here started the process, and what are we told about this Chart here?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It was directed by the hand of the Lord.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Directed by the hand of the Lord.

This Chart here gets forgotten; and, this one [the 1850 Chart] even gets forgotten more, until shortly after 9/11; and, then both of these charts are recognized. They become such a subject of separation that men have suggested that a manmade chart made in 1863 should replace those two. That 1863 chart has no endorsement by God, whatsoever; and both of these Charts do. And here begins the separation process that parallels the separation process in this history.

And, what does Paul say? "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers."

Does this mean that you are supposed to take your membership out of the Seventh-day Adventist Church? Well, you know that is not true; because, Sister White says otherwise. But, she does say that we should not attend the assemblies of those that are teaching error.

In this history here [Figure No. 150], there came a separation process that was accomplished by the Lord. We are not talking about membership in the Adventist Church. We are talking about the principle that by beholding, you become changed. And if you willingly put yourself in the place where you are going to receive darkness, there will be consequences; because, God's Word never fails.

1 Peter 2:5

Go to 1 Peter 2:5. We will close with this.

> "[5]Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ." 1 Peter 2:5 (KJV).

Keep your finger there and go to Isaiah 66, as we bind this presentation off; Isaiah 66, where we began, with verse 1, which says,

> "[1]Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?" Isaiah 66:1 (KJV).

In 1863 the Millerite Movement ended and a church was built. And after the church rejected the attempt by the Lord to pour out the Holy Spirit in 1888, they went into the Alpha Apostasy, and a new movement was begun.

A new organization was begun. There is the house that we have built for Him, that He is referencing, "Where is the house that ye build unto me?" Well, that house is here today; but, He is going to choose the place of His rest, and the place of His rest is Jerusalem. Okay? There is a separation process that is under way in this history.

Now, go back to 1 Peter, chapter 2, verse 5. It says,

> "[5]Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ." 1 Peter 2:5 (KJV).

Go to verse 9.

> "[9]But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: [10]Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy." 1 Peter 2:9 (KJV).

This is referencing when the Lord entered into covenant with Ancient Israel at Sinai; and, before He did that, they were Jacob's descendants; and, when He did that, they became Ancient Israel, God's denominated people. He entered into covenant with them. In time past, they were not the people of God, but now they were His denominated people.

But, Peter here is using that history to show that the Christian church, which in time past were not the people of God, but now become the people of God because he had entered into covenant with them.

But, Peter is primarily speaking about the end of the world, where there is a group of people that in time past were not the people of God. Who were they? They were the Outcasts of Israel that the Lord is going to enter into covenant with.

So, go back to verse 5. We are definitely closing. It says,

> "[5]Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood,"—

How was the Millerite spiritual house built up? It was built up from the history of 1798 to 1844, the arrival of the First Message to the arrival of the Third. And, that history is where the temple is built up, and that history is repeated.

In this history here [Figure No. 150], He is building up a people. And on 9/11 when Islam is restrained, the separation process begins. The message is empowered; it begins. And He is starting to separate two classes.

Verse 6, and where is it that Peter is quoting from here in verse 6? That is Isaiah 28.

> "[6]Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, BEHOLD, I LAY IN SION A CHIEF CORNER STONE,"—

What is Sion? That is His people.

What is the Cornerstone?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jesus.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, it is Jesus; but, what is Jesus in this context? He is the Rock of Ages. He is the Cornerstone. He is represented by the Truths on these [1843 and 1850] Charts.

"Behold, I lay in the Adventist Church these Two Tables that represent my covenant that has been prefigured by the two tables of the Ten Commandments. I place that in Adventism."

> —"BEHOLD, I LAY IN SION A CHIEF CORNER STONE, ELECT, PRECIOUS: AND HE THAT BELIEVETH ON HIM SHALL NOT BE CONFOUNDED. [7]Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, THE STONE, WHICH THE BUILDERS DISALLOWED, THE SAME IS MADE THE HEAD OF THE CORNER, [8]AND A STONE OF STUMBLING, AND A ROCK OF OFFENCE, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed." 1 Peter 2:6-8 (KJV).

This here, in the Millerite History, these here [the 1843 and 1850 Charts] in our history marks the time when this separation process of these two classes begin.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we wish to be among the obedient, and not among the disobedient that have been appointed to hide themselves under lies and falsehoods, that have made a covenant with death that is going to be swept away by the overflowing scourge, that are going to be judged by the plummet with the eyes of those seven that was stretched out over the Northern Kingdom and the Southern Kingdom. We want to be among those that become your resting place in this time period; prepared to be lifted up as an ensign at The Sunday Law, lifted up as you were on the cross, that the nations might be called unto you, as you called all men unto you when you were lifted up. We thank you for this morning to take time to study these things. We ask that your Holy Spirit would keep running these precious truths through our hearts and minds as we accomplish our work this day; and, we ask that you would give us a safe workday as we do so. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #76

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's sleep, another day of life. We ask that as we open your Word this morning that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you continue to pour out your Latter Rain upon us and your people around the world, that our understanding of your Word would become so complete that we can give the Loud Cry Message in the near future when The Sunday Law crisis hits. We pray for the work that we are doing in recording the DVDs, and the work that is going on in LiveStreaming this information. And as we have a busy month ahead of us with other speakers coming to participate in this work, we ask especially that you give Marco traveling mercies, so that he will arrive tomorrow safely. As we open your Word, we would ask that you would take control of my thinking process, that you would overrule any preconceived ideas that I may have, and that the message given would be one that has been touched with a coal from the altar that it is purified and empowered to have an impact upon your people. We ask, also, that your people would be fully surrendered to you. And we ask forgiveness of sins, if there are any transgressions that we have that are preventing us from being ready to hear, that you would forgive us. And we thank you that we can come together and study these things in such a time as this. In Jesus's name, amen.

THE DAILY

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. As we go into the Book of Daniel, this first quotation seems very important to me; because, there are some issues in the Book of Daniel that seem minor or small, but those issues actually become a turning point between truth and error. And because we are going to emphasize some of those issues that may seem small to those people that are not seeing things correctly, we want to make sure that we identify that it is okay in God's Word to make an issue out of apparently small things. One word in God's Word can mean life or death.

When Jesus told Mary, "Go and sin no more," if you take the word no out of that statement, it says, "Go and sin more." One word; her salvation can be boiled down to that one word; and. there are many, many illustrations in God's Word of that.

And in the Book of Daniel, in this sacred study, we will put emphasis on things that may seem small, but they have eternal value in them.

So, in Education, page 123, in order to uphold the premise of placing emphasis upon that, we turn to this passage (there are others).

> "The Bible contains all the principles that men need to understand in order to be fitted either for this life or for the life to come. And these principles may be understood by all. No one with a spirit to appreciate its teaching can read a single passage from the Bible without gaining from it some helpful thought. But the most valuable teaching of the Bible is not to be gained by occasional or disconnected study. Its great system of truth is not so presented as to be discerned by the hasty or careless reader. Many of its treasures lie far beneath the surface, > and can be obtained only by diligent research and continuous effort. The truths that go to make up the great whole must be searched out and gathered up, 'here a little, and there a little.' Isaiah 28:10.

> "When thus searched out and brought together, they will be found to be perfectly fitted to one another. Each Gospel is a supplement to the others, every prophecy an explanation of another, every truth a development of some other truth. The types of the Jewish economy are made plain by the gospel. Every principle in the word of God has its place, every fact its bearing. And the complete structure, in design and execution, bears testimony to its Author. Such a structure no mind but that of the Infinite could conceive or fashion." Education, 123.

Every fact in God's Word has its bearing.

So, as we begin to look at the Daily in terms of upholding the Pioneer position that the Daily in the Book of Daniel represents Paganism, we are going to put a few principles in place before we go into the Book of Daniel; because, that is where we are going to take it up.

CHURCH AND STATE

Isaiah 14:12-14

And we want to turn to Isaiah 14 to start this consideration. Isaiah 14, beginning at verse 12, says,

> "[12]How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! [13]For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also"—

Now, there is one word that we want to put an emphasis on: that word also.

> —"I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north. [14]I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High." Isaiah 14:12-14 (KJV).

There are two places here that Satan is going to seat himself—desires to seat himself. And just on that you can do a large study in God's Word. We are going to take one aspect out of it.

He wants to sit upon God's Throne, and he also wants sit up on the Mount of the Congregation. And the Throne represents God's Political Kingdom; the Sides of the North is Jerusalem, it is God's Church. Satan wants to rule over both God's political realm and His religious realm. So, in the rebellion of Lucifer in Heaven, one of the themes that is found consistently through God's Word is this issue of church and state.

And if you do not understand that the issue of church and state is one of the themes of Bible prophecy, then you will find it difficult to understand what the Daily in the Book of Daniel is.

Okay. We want to show you this upon the testimony of more than one; but, here we see that Lucifer's rebellion included his desire to sit upon God's political authority, upon his throne, (upon the state); and, upon his religion authority, the sides of the north (His church): church and state.

BABEL

Genesis 11:4

In Genesis 11:4, we see Nimrod building a kingdom; and, his kingdom is also, once again, a kingdom that consists of church and state.

Verse 4 says,

> "[4]And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven: and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth." Genesis 11:4 (KJV).

TOWER IS A CHURCH

A tower represents the church; a city represents the political kingdom. When Nimrod was going to build his kingdom, it was a kingdom that consisted of church and state, just as Satan's desire is to take over God's political and religious domain.

In The Desire of Ages, page 597, it says,

> "In the parable the householder represented God, the vineyard the Jewish nation, and the hedge the divine law which was their protection. The tower was a symbol of the temple." The Desire of Ages, 597.

So, when Nimrod wanted to build a tower, he wanted to build a church.

CITY IS A KINGDOM

Revelation 11:8; 14:8; 16:19; 17:18; 18:10, 16, 18, 19, 21; 21:10

And in terms of building a kingdom, you can look at—you have it in your notes. Revelation 11:8, the great city; in Revelation 11, verse 8, is the kingdom of France.

> "[8]And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified." Revelation 11:8 (KJV).

And then in Revelation 14:8; and Revelation 16:19; Revelation 17:18; Revelation 18:10, 16, 18, 19, 21, you will see references to the Kingdom of Babylon that is represented by a city. A city represents a kingdom.

> "[8]And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication." Revelation 14:8 (KJV).

> "[19]And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the win of the fierceness of his wrath." Revelation 16:19 (KJV).

> "[18]And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth." Revelation 17:18 (KJV).

> "[10]Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. . . . [16]And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! . . . [18]And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great City! [19]And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. . . . [21]And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all." Revelation 18:10, 16, 18-19, 21 (KJV).

And then in Revelation 21:10 you will see the City of Jerusalem representing God's Kingdom.

> "[10]And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God." Revelation 21:10 (KJV).

So, just in the Book of Revelation you have 10 proofs that a city in the Scriptures represents a kingdom. So, when Nimrod was going to build a city, that is a political kingdom; that is the state. And when he was going to build a tower, that is the church. That is the second witness that the satanic kingdom at the end of the world (because all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world) is going to be consist of church and state.

DANIEL TWO

IRON AND CLAY

In Daniel 2 we see the iron and clay down here in this part of the image [refers to the feet and toes of the image portrayed on the 1843 Chart].

Sister White, from The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, page 1168, says,

> "We have come to a time when God's sacred work is represented by the feet of the image in which the iron was mixed with the miry clay. God has a people, a chosen people, whose discernment must be sanctified, who must not become unholy by laying upon the foundation wood, hay, and stubble. . . . The mingling of churchcraft and statecraft is represented by the iron and the clay. This union is weakening all the power of the churches. This investing the church with the power of the state will bring evil results. Men have almost passed the point of God's forbearance. They have invested their strength in politics, and have united with the papacy. But the time will come when God will punish those who have made void His law, and their evil work will recoil upon themselves." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 4, 1168.

So, here in Daniel 2, we see this kingdom down here at the end of the world (because she says, "We have come to a time") is represented as iron and clay; and, Sister White says that is churchcraft and statecraft. And you can go into the Scriptures and find that iron represents the Roman kingdom, and the Roman kingdom represents statecraft; and, you can go into the Scriptures and find that clay, that God is the potter, we are the clay. Clary represents religion. Church and state, so . . . .

THE IMAGE TO THE BEAST
Revelation 13:11, 14

So, a third reference in the Scriptures, one of the themes in Bible prophecy is church and state. In Revelation 13, verses 11 and 14—we can turn there, Revelation 13, verses 11 and 14. We see the image to the beast set up.

Now, you may not see the image of the beast set up in verse 11 of Revelation 13, but it is. In verse 11 of Revelation 13, it says,

> "[11]And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. . . ." Revelation 13:11 (KJV).

SPEAKING

In your notes, if you drop down to almost the bottom of the page where the subtitle says, "Speaking," Sister White says in The Great Controversy, page 442,

> "The 'speaking' of the nation is the action of its legislative and judicial authorities." The Great Controversy, 442.

Revelation 13:11, 14 (Continued)

And she is saying this in reference to Revelation 13:11. If you read in that area of The Great Controversy or other places, when the United States legislates The Sunday Law, it speaks. Okay? And when it speaks, it will have formed an image of the beast.

So, I do not argue that you do not find the expression, "the image of the beast," in verse 11; but, by context it is there. When the United States speaks as the dragon, it has formed an image of the beast.

And then in verse 14 [of Revelation 13], still speaking of the United States, it says, > —"Revelation 13 continued, verse [14]And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live." Revelation 13:14 (KJV).

So, most people do not realize it—and this is not the focus of our subject here today—but, in Revelation 13 there are two images of the beast. There is the one that is set up in the United States at The Sunday Law time period. It is fully developed when they pass this Sunday Law. And then in verse 14 the United States commands the world to set up an image of the beast. There are two images of the beast: one in the United States; one in the world. And, Sister White only has one definition of what the image of the beast is.

I received an email I think from Africa yesterday, and I am not so sure that these emails are even valid. I am getting so many emails from people around the world that want to have just simple, basic questions asked; and, I am thinking, maybe the enemy is going this, to keep your time focused on answering questions that people should already know, rather than doing what is the higher priority. But, this email is asking, you know: "Is there a difference between the mark of the beast and the image of the beast?"

Notice The Great Controversy, page 445, in your notes.

> "The 'image to the beast' represents that form of apostate Protestantism which will be developed when the Protestant churches shall seek the aid of the civil power for the enforcement of their dogmas. The 'mark of the beast' still remains to be defined." The Great Controversy, 445.

Sister White clearly is saying that the mark of the beast and the image of the beast are two different things, and the image of the beast is what is formed when the church and state come together, and the church employs the civil power to accomplish its own ends.

Notice the next quote. She is going to define that for us. This is what the image of the beast is, and the reason that we are looking at this is because the image of the beast is the combination of church and state, which is the iron and clay in the feet, which is Nimrod's tower and city, which is Satan wanting to sit upon God's Throne and upon the Sides of the North.

She says in The Great Controversy, page 443,

> "But what is the 'image to the beast'? and how is it to be formed? The image is made by the two-horned beast, and is an image to the beast. It is also called an image of the beast. Then to learn what the image is like and how it is to be formed we must study the characteristics of the beast itself—the papacy."—

What is the beast?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy.

> —"When the early church became corrupted by departing from the simplicity of the gospel and accepting heathen rites and customs, she lost the Spirit and power of God; and in order to control the consciences of the people, she sought the support of the secular power. The result was the papacy, a church that controlled the power of the state and employed it to further her own ends, especially for the punishment of 'heresy.' In order for the United States to form an image of the beast, the religious power must so control the civil government that the authority of the state will also be employed by the church to accomplish her own ends." The Great Controversy, 443.

So, the image of the beast represents the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship. And prophetically, this image is fully developed at The Sunday Law in the United States.

When the Protestant Churches in the United States have the ability to use the Government of the United States to pass a Sunday Law, then the image of the beast has reached its full maturity in the United States. And this is marked when Revelation 13:11 says that the United States will speak as a dragon, because the "speaking" of a nation is the action of its legislative and judicial authorities. So, when The Sunday Law is passed, that is the mark of the beast; but, it is not the image of the beast. When The Sunday Law is passed, it is simultaneously demonstrating that church and state have come together fully in the United States and the church is now controlling the civil structure of the United States.

Beginning on page 448 of The Great Controversy, Sister White says,

> "The enforcement of Sundaykeeping on the part of Protestant churches is an enforcement of the worship of the papacy—of the beast."—

Who is the beast?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy.

> —"Those who, understanding the claims of the fourth commandment, choose to observe the false instead of the true Sabbath are thereby paying homage to that power by which alone it is commanded. But in the very act of enforcing a religious duty by secular power, the churches would themselves form an image to the beast; hence the enforcement of Sundaykeeping in the United States would be an enforcement of the worship of the beast and his image." The Great Controversy, 448–449.

So, what I am saying is, in Revelation 13:11 when the United States speaks as a dragon, then the image of the beast is in place in the United States. And fully disconnected from righteousness, the United States then goes out to the world and says, "You must set up an image of the beast."

And what is the image of the beast? It is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship. So, in verse 14 of Revelation 13, you have evidence of a One World Government. In order for the United States to command the whole world to set up an image of the beast, it means the whole world has to come under the authority of a church that is controlling a civil structure over the entire world.

And if you do not think this is so, then read verse 15 of Revelation 13; because, in verse 15, still speaking of the United States, it says,

> "[15]And he [THE UNITED STATES] had power to give life unto the image of the beast,"—

This is the image of the beast of verse 14. Go back to verse 14, "[14]And [THE UNITED STATES] deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. [15]And he [THE UNITED STATES] had power to give life unto the image of the beast, ..."

The only definition of the image of the beast is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of the relationship. The United States is now telling the world, "Set up a One World Government, with the church in control of the relationship."

And it further says, " —"that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed." Revelation 13:15 (KJV).

And we already read the speaking of a nation is the action of its legislative and judicial authorities; therefore, the world's image of the beast has to have a judicial and a legislative body. And it does. The judicial body is in Holland; the legislative body is in New York City: it is the United Nations. It has both of those.

And it is not speaking yet, but the United States is going to force the world to accept the United Nations, and it will begin to "speak" in the world Sunday Laws. But, before that happens, there will be a Sunday Law in the United States, and the image of the beast in the United States will be fully formed.

So, all we are saying here is that one of the themes of Bible prophecy is the combination of church and state, because all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world.

And, at the end of the world, one of the stories is this image of the beast. All right? And you can trace it back to Daniel 2; you can trace it to Nimrod; and, you can trace it to Satan.

Do you follow the logic?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

THE TEN KINGS AND THE BEAST

Revelation 17:17

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In Revelation 17:17, which we have looked at in Habakkuk's Tables, in Revelation 17:17 it says,

"[17]For God hath put in their hearts"—

These Ten Kings; and these Ten Kings, they are the 10 toes of Daniel 2. They are the 10 enemies of Psalm 83. They are the 10 nations which Ahab represents in his relationship to Jezebel. Over and over again these Ten Kings have been prefigured in prophecy.

Testimonies to Ministers, page 38, speaking of the end of the world, it says,

> "Kings and rulers and governors have placed upon themselves the brand of antichrist, and are represented as the dragon who goes to make war with the saints—with those who keep the commandments of God and who have the faith of Jesus." Testimonies to Ministers, 38.

These Ten Kings are the dragon power.

So, in Revelation 17:17, it says,

> "Revelation 17:17 continued For God hath put in their hearts"—THESE TEN KINGS, THE DRAGON POWER—"to fulfill his will,"—THE DRAGON POWER—"and to agree, and give their kingdom"—THEIR POLITICAL KINGDOM—"unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled." Revelation 17:17 (KJV).

Who is the beast?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy. Okay? John is not going to disagree with himself.

So, we see here these Ten Kings that are the civil structure of the United Nations, they agree to give themselves into the hands of the Papacy here at the end of the world; and, that is what is playing out in the daily newspapers, as we speak. This process is about to take place.

We are not dealing with that at this point. We are dealing with just a theme.

One of the subjects in Bible prophecy is the combination of church and state; and, if you are going to understand the Daily as Paganism, then you need to understand the Daily in Daniel, chapter 8. But, in order to understand Daniel, chapter 8, you have to understand that one of the themes of Bible prophecy is the combination of church and state.

So, we are dealing with this theme, to have it in place for when we go into Daniel, chapter 8.

Okay. That plank is put in place.

THE GREAT CONTROVERSY

Isaiah 14:12-14; Philippians 2:5-8

We are going to switch now to "The Great Controversy."
Manuscript Releases, volume 2, page 330:

> "If Satan can get us to enshroud ourselves in garments of self-righteousness, then we will not wear the robe of Christ's righteousness. Self-exaltation and pride of position and self-importance were the sins of Satan in heaven. True religion dies out of the heart when these take possession and are developed in the character." Manuscript Releases, volume 21, 330.

Isaiah 14:12-14

Go back to Isaiah 14, where we started with the combination of church and state. Verse 12 of Isaiah 14 says,

> "[12]How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!"—

And, now, instead of looking for church and state, we are going to look at this self-exaltation that is the symbol of Satan's kingdom. All right?

Verse 13,

> —"[13]For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend"—

Okay. He will ascend. What does it mean to ascend?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Lifted up.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Lift himself up. Okay? This is the primary principle of Satan's kingdom, to lift yourself up, to ascend.

> —"I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars"—

Okay. He is going to lift up and exalt himself. Do you see that? "Lift up and exalt," write that down in your memory bank; because, there is a word that Daniel uses six times in his book called rum that means lifted up and exalt.

> —"[13]For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north. [14]I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High." Isaiah 14:12-14 (KJV).

So, when it comes to the basic root of Satan's kingdom in the Great Controversy, it is this lifting up and self-exaltation. That is what I am saying; whereas, in the Great Controversy, it is—what is the full title to The Great Controversy? The Great Controversy between Christ and Satan. Okay? So, Satan's kingdom is this kingdom that is going to lift up and exalt itself.

Philippians 2:5-8

And if you go to Philippians 2, we see what Christ's Kingdom is, in contrast with Satan's kingdom. Philippians 2, beginning at verse 5, it says,

> "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. [6]Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: [7]But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. [8]And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." Philippians 2:5-8 (KJV).

So, these kingdoms in the Great Controversy, Satan's kingdom is lifting himself up and exalting himself; whereas, Christ in this Great Controversy struggle, He is taking Himself into the lowest point of humility: two contrasting kingdoms.

MICHAEL: WHO IS LIKE GOD

Revelation 12:7-9; Jude 1:9; Daniel 10:12-21

Another place that you can see the Great Controversy in the Book of Daniel, and a couple of other places in the Scriptures, is in the MICHAEL (Who is like unto God).

And we see Michael referenced—and we are dealing with the Great Controversy now. We have put in place the two philosophies that govern these two kingdoms; but, we are going to look a little more closely at the struggle now.

Revelation 12, verses 7 through 9, tells us that this is a war that is going on. It is a literal war.

Verse 7 says,

> "[7]And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, [8]And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. [9]And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him." Revelation 12:7-9 (KJV).

So, here we see Michael; and, every time we find Michael in the Scriptures, He is in a conflict, a direct conflict with Satan.

MICHAEL itself, just the name MICHAEL is emphasizing the Great Controversy. And, here in Revelation 12, it is emphasizing that this war began in Heaven, and that it is a literal battle.

Jude 1:9

Go to Jude, the book right before the Book of Revelation. This is the second place where we will find Michael in conflict with Satan.

In verse 9, it says,

"[9]Yet Michael the archangel,"—

What does archangel mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Head Angel.

—"[9]Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee." Jude 1:9 (KJV).

So, here the conflict, the war between Michael and Satan that began in Heaven, it is down on Planet Earth now, and now Satan is arguing about whether Christ (Michael) has the spiritual authority to resurrect those that have sinned. That is what Satan's argument was, "You can't resurrect Moses. He struck the rock."

Jesus did not argue with him. He said, "The Lord rebuke thee," and resurrected Moses.

So, now we see the Controversy is about Christ's spiritual authority and Satan's jealousy over that.

Daniel 10:12-21

Go to Daniel, chapter 10; the Book of Daniel. I am going to emphasize this Great Controversy struggle for a reference when we get into the study of the Daily.

In Daniel 10, beginning at verse 12, we see another illustration of the Great Controversy.

"[12]Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. [13]But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, and I remained there with the kings of Persia."—

This word prince, there are several words in God's Word that are translated as prince; but, this word prince is sar, and it means a military commander. So, now we are seeing Christ, the chief of princes, being portrayed as a military commander in conflict with the prince of Persia, a military commander. This is the Great Controversy once again, because it is "Michael, your prince." This is the struggle between Christ and Satan.

And who is there in Persia? In that verse, who is referenced in Persia? ". . . the prince of the kingdom of Persia," but, who did Gabriel remain with? The kings of Persia.

The kings of Persia are the human kings of Persia; but, Sister White informs us that the prince of Persia was none other than Satan himself.

Now, in your notes, from Seventh-day Adventists Bible Commentary, volume 4, page 1173, it says after she quotes this passage in Daniel 10,

> "By this we see that heavenly agencies have to contend with hindrances before the purpose of God is fulfilled in its time. The king of Persia was controlled by the highest of all evil angels. He refused, as did Pharaoh, to obey the word of the Lord. Gabriel declared, He withstood me twenty-one days by his representations against the Jews. But Michael came to his help, and then he remained with the kings of Persia, holding the powers in check, giving right counsel against evil counsel. Good and evil angels are taking a part in the planning of God in His earthly kingdom. It is God's purpose to carry forward His work in correct lines, in ways that will advance His glory. But Satan is ever trying to counterwork God's purpose. Only by humbling themselves before God can God's servants advance His work. Never are they to depend on their own efforts or on outward display for success." Seventh-day Adventists Bible Commentary, volume 4, 1173.

Who is the highest of all evil angels?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Satan.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan.

The prince of Persia here is Satan. The king of Persia is the king of Persia. And, once again, we see that when Michael is referenced, the Great Controversy is emphasized in the story.

And in this struggle, what is it—among other things, not only is Satan trying to prevent Cyrus from allowing the Jews to come back and rebuild Jerusalem in this story, because that is what is going on, but in the struggle Satan at least has a secondary (maybe a primary) purpose of preventing Gabriel from accomplishing his work to Daniel. And what is the work that he is going to accomplish to Daniel that he is trying to prevent by having this Great Controversy struggle here in chapter 10? Well, it is verse 14.

> __"Daniel 10 continued, verse 14Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days."—

Gabriel's purpose was to come and explain to Daniel what happens to God's people in the latter days, and it was being hindered by a struggle that he was having with the kings and prince of Persia, and only Michael could intercede to move things forward.

And what is it that Gabriel ultimately identifies that is going to happen in the latter days to God's people? Well, Daniel 11:40-45: it is the Foundational Message of our history that is directly connected with the struggle of the Great Controversy.

—"[15]And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb. [16]And behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength. [17]For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me. [18]Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. [19]And said, O man greatly beloved, feat not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak: for thou hast strengthened me. [20]Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come. [21]But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince." Daniel 10:12-21 (KJV).

So, what we have put in place now at this point before we begin to look at Daniel 8 is that one of the themes (and every fact has its bearing) in Bible prophecy is the combination of church and state. Another one is the Great Controversy struggle between Christ and Satan in that there are two different kingdoms here represented: the kingdom that wants to lift itself up and exalt itself, versus Christ's Kingdom of self-sacrificing love.

PROGRESSION

We want to add another thought into this, and I have it titled for you as "Progression."

DANIEL 2

We see this progression here in Daniel 2. And, we are going to look at the progression in Daniel 2 and Revelation 17: Gold; silver; brass; iron; iron and clay. So, we see a progression in here [referring to the image of kingdoms as reflected on the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. We have two witnesses of it.

The gold is more valuable than the silver, which is more valuable than the brass, which is more valuable than the iron, which is more valuable than iron and clay.

But, we also see the progression at another level. Gold is softer than silver, which is softer than brass, which is softer than iron.

And, Sister White comments on this progression.

If you have your Ellen White Study Bible, under Daniel, chapter 2, they quote this, but they cut it off. They cut it off; and, so, I am going to go a little bit further with it because there is something very important that they cut off—not that they did it on purpose, but in my mind.

If you have your Study Bible, it will cut off like at the fourth paragraph. We are going to read beyond this. This is a rather long—it is the longest quote we have, and it was something that she wrote for a publication called, the Youth Instructor. So, in terms of Methuselah, I guess everyone in this room is a youth; but, in terms of who is in this room, I guess this is primarily for Austin and Autumn. But, we are going to glean the prophetic message out of it.

Youth Instructor, September 22, 1903.

"'Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.'"—

And what we are looking for is a progression that is illustrated in Daniel 2, and she is going to comment on this image. She says, > —"The image revealed to Nebuchadnezzar, while representing the deterioration of the kingdoms of the earth in power and glory, also fitly represents the deterioration of religion and morality among the people of these kingdoms. As nations forget God, in like proportion they become weak morally.

>
> "Babylon passed away because in her prosperity she forgot God, and ascribed the glory of her prosperity to human achievement."—

This [the head of the image] is Babylon.

> —"The Medo-Persian kingdom was visited by the wrath of heaven because in this kingdom God's law was trampled underfoot. The fear of the Lord found no place in the hearts of the people. The prevailing influences in Medo-Persia were wickedness, blasphemy, and corruption.
> "The kingdoms that followed were even more base and corrupt. They deteriorated because they cast off their allegiance to God. As they forgot him, they sank lower and still lower in the scale of moral value."—

Now, that is where it ends in the comments of the Study Bible.

She says, "The kingdoms that followed," and that is good enough. In that sense you can take it all the way to the end of the world.

But, if you go to the next paragraph, it says—she is giving a specific sequence of kingdoms. She then says,

> —"The vast empire of Rome"—

That is here [the legs of the image].

> —"The vast empire of Rome crumbled to pieces, and from its ruins rose that mighty power, the Roman Catholic Church."—

That is down in here [the two feet of the image, the kingdom of Rome divided]. She is going all the way to the end of the world with this one.

> —"This church boasts of her infallibility and her hereditary religion."—

She still boasts of her infallibility, even though the current Pope stepped aside, among other things, because of the corruption that he had participated in. I mean, I thought he was infallible!

> —"But this religion is a horror to all who are acquainted with the secrets of the mystery of iniquity. The priests of this church maintain their ascendency"—

This church is known for its ascendency.

And who wanted to ascend into Heaven?

—"The priests of this church maintain their ascendency by keeping the people in ignorance of God's will, as revealed in the Scriptures."—

So, what we are seeing here, she is walking down this history (Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome, and Papal Rome [reflected by the image].

—"It is sin that is ruining nations today."—

Ah, now she is in our time period.

—"Even many leaders in the religious world have not a good conscience toward God. Many of those who claim to be Protestants—

What kingdom is the Protestant kingdom? That is the United States.

So, she has moved right passed the fifth kingdom (the Papacy), on to the United States of America (the sixth kingdom).

—"Many of those who claim to be Protestants have not the faith in God's word that Luther had in the early days of the Reformation. They have left the old landmarks, and depend on ceremony and formal display to make up for their lack of the purity and piety, the meekness and lowliness, found in obedience to God.

"There is no real standard of righteousness apart from God's law. By obedience to this law the intellect is strengthened, and the conscience is enlightened and made sensitive. The youth need to gain a clear understanding of God's law. They are not left to follow blindly the guidance of men. The great prophetic waymarks which God himself has set up show the path of obedience to be the only path that can be followed with certainty.

"Those who love and obey the law of God will meet with trials and temptations; but if they hope and pray, and trust his word, they will be able to say, with Paul, 'I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.'

"My dear young friends, have you wholly given yourselves up to God, to do his will? Are you transformed by the grace of Christ? Some claim to be one with Christ, while their special work is to make void the law of God. Will you accept their assertions? How will you distinguish God's true servants from the false prophets that Christ said would arise to deceive many? There is only one test of character,—God's holy law.

"We are living in a momentous period of this earth's history. The final conflict is just before us. We see the world corrupted under the inhabitants thereof. Satanic agencies have made the earth a stage for horrors that no language can describe. War and bloodshed are carried on by nations claiming to be Christian. A disregard for God's law has brought the sure result.

> "'We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.' 'Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.'
> "There will be a sharp conflict between those who are loyal to God and those who cast scorn upon his law. The church has joined hands with the world."—

What church?

> —"The church has joined hands with the world. Reverence for God's law has been subverted. The religious leaders have taught for doctrine the commandments of men. As it was in the days of Noah, so it is in this age. But shall the prevalence of disloyalty and transgression cause those who have reverenced God's law to have less respect for it,"—

". . . those who have reverenced God's law . . . ."

> —"or to unite with the powers of earth in attempting to make it void?
> "The test comes to everyone. There are only two sides. Dear young reader, on which side are you standing?" Youth Instructor, September 22, 1903.

So, the reason I put that in there, because I have always emphasized in this part of the presentation that we do here that based upon that quote that stops pretty much at the Medes and Persians, and says, "and the kingdoms that follow," that this progression here [referring to the image on the Charts] takes you all the way to the end of the world.

But, she [Ellen White] takes it all the way to the end of the world. In fact, she takes it right down to the very last people that profess to be Protestants the Seventh-day Adventist Church. She goes to the United States, and then she brings it home to us.

So, what I am saying is, one of the themes of Bible prophecy is the combination of church and state. And you cannot really wrap your mind around Bible prophecy unless you put it in the context of the Great Controversy.

But, when it comes to the kingdoms of Bible prophecy, then you need to understand that there is a specific progression that is emphasized in Bible prophecy. We have given you one witness of that so far. That is Daniel, chapter 2.

We will give you a second.

REVELATION 17

Revelation 17:3, 9, 10; 2:12-13

Revelation 17:3, 9, 10

Now, go to Revelation 17. Revelation 17, verse 3, says,

> "[3]So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness; and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns." Revelation 17:3 (KJV).

So, he sees a woman sitting "upon a scarlet coloured beast, . . . having seven heads and ten horns."[25] And what I want you to look at is the woman and the beast here. She is sitting upon this beast.

And then go to verse 9 of the same chapter.

> "[9]And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth." Revelation 17:9 (KJV).

If you go to William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation, when he gives his 14 rules, he will give a rule and then he will give Bible references to support or illustrate his rule; and, in one of the rules—I do not remember which one right now he identifies in order to show the rule—he identifies what mountains represent in the Scriptures.

What do mountains represent?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Kingdoms.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Kingdoms. Okay.

And verse 9,

> "[9]And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are [SEVEN KINGDOMS] seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth." Revelation 17:9 (KJV).

Now, in verse 3, the woman is sitting upon a beast with seven heads and ten horns, but now we realize that when she is sitting upon this beast, she is sitting upon seven kingdoms.

Do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And in verse 10, it says,

> "[10]And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space." Revelation 17:10 (KJV).

And the Books of Daniel and Revelation are the same book, so they are not going to disagree with one another.

I had a friend from Tennessee email me last week. He gave me two articles that he had come across. He wanted to know what I thought about both articles. I was familiar with both of them. I forget what the one was, but the other one was the typical Adventist explanation of verse 10 of Revelation 17; and, the typical Adventist explanation of verse 10 is that these kingdoms represent the kingdoms of history. And the typical Adventist approach to the kingdoms of history (if you bust out your theology books from Seventh-day Adventists), they will say these seven heads are the kingdoms of history, beginning with Assyria, Egypt, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and then Pagan Rome. Okay? And, they will say that John is seeing this in the time period when five have fallen and one is. Pagan Rome was in existence when John was in the Isle of Patmos. It was Pagan Rome that was persecuting him. Okay? So, this is the typical Adventist understanding.

[25] Correcting from DVD audio, "she has seven heads and ten horns," to the verbiage of Holy Script in Revelation 17:3 (KJV).

But, it also shows the typical Adventist position, and the typical Adventist position is they have no respect for the authority of the Spirit of Prophecy. In the book of Education, Sister White says the kingdoms of history are Assyria, Egypt, Israel, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece. So, you cannot really say that John was on Patmos during the time period of Greece, can you? So, that kind of falls apart, totally falls apart. It is called demonstrating the lack of reverence of the truth found in the Spirit of Prophecy.

But, we understand that the Books of Daniel and Revelation are the same book; they have to agree with one another. And, the subjects are not the kingdoms of history; it is the kingdoms of Bible prophecy. And the kingdoms of Bible prophecy are Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome. And then what did Sister White say in the quote [Youth Instructor, September 22, 1903] we just read followed Pagan Rome? Papal Rome.

Five have fallen, one is (and the kingdom that followed Papal Rome in the passage from Sister White was what? It was the Protestant kingdom.

What is the Protestant kingdom? The United States.

And one is yet to come. What is the one that is yet to come? Well, it is the United Nations.

So, as John sees this woman, she is riding upon the beast with seven heads and ten horns; and, in connection with riding upon this beast in verse 9, it says the woman sits upon these seven heads.

Revelation 2:12-13

Go to chapter 2 of Revelation—just one quick reference, but this is fairly easy to see. Verse 12 says,

> "[12]And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath he sharp sword with two edges; [13]I know thy works and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: . . . "—

I am not really a tourist. When we travelled around this world with this message, there are many times when you have some days off and the brethren generally want to take you sightseeing. I have had that happen to me a couple of times; but, I generally have had enough travelling that once you are there you do not want to go travelling in your off time.

But, one of the times was one of the best times. They got us to go to the Berlin Museum. I like the Berlin Museum because they tore down the walls of Babylon and they reassembled the walls of Babylon. They are right in this museum building, and we walked through some gates from the walls of Babylon that we know that Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; Nebuchadnezzar, and Belshazzar had to have walked through those very same gates back in that history. So, that was kind of cool.

But, they also had a portion in that museum where on scale they rebuilt Pergamos; and, in Pergamos they built the Temple of Pergamos that was in Pergamos, and it is a satanic monument. Okay?

What happened in history is when Babylon fell, the religious elite of Babylon (the Chaldeans), they fled to Pergamos and they set up their spiritual empire there in Pergamos; and, that is what verse 13 is telling us about Pergamos.

And you can go see the Pergamos Temple, rebuilt, in the Berlin Museum.

Verse 13 says,

> —"[13]I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you where Satan dwelleth." Revelation 2:12-13 (KJV).

Satan had been ruling from Babylon. When Babylon fell, he moved to Pergamos and set up shop. So, in the Bible, where a power is seated is where they are ruling from.

So, if you go back to Revelation 17, verse 9, it says, "And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are [SEVEN KINGDOMS] seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth."

What does it mean that she is sitting upon them?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: She's ruling.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: She is ruling them. Okay?

And how many of those kingdoms does she sit upon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: All of them.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All of them.

So, the story in Revelation 17 is how this MYSTERY BABYLON Woman ruled over the kingdom of Babylon, and then changed and ruled over the kingdom of the Medes and Persians, and then was ruling over Greece, Pagan Rome, Papal Rome; and, she is now ruling—and I can say this with spiritual authority—that she is now ruling over the Protestants. Because, it is very clear that in 1842 the Protestants rejected the message of the hour; and, by the time they got to 1844, they were sending their prayers to the Holy Place. And who were answering their prayers?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Satan.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan.

Okay. So, there is a progression in Revelation 17 that shows that MYSTERY BABYLON goes down through these kingdoms and rules every one of them.

Do you follow me? You need to see that progression to get into Daniel 8, which is where we are going now.

REPEAT AND ENLARGE

I looked for a quote by James White. I do not think it is in the CD-ROM. I think I got that quote from Louis F. Were. But, basically, the James White quote is in response to an argument that he was having with Uriah Smith, an argument that lasted about ten years. Okay? Uriah Smith gave a sermon on why he believed the King of the North in Daniel 11 was Turkey; and, as soon as he did, James White got up on the pulpit and gave a sermon on why he believed the King of the North in Daniel 11 was the Papacy. And they had this ongoing argument between The Signs of the Times and the Review and Herald for about ten years.

And in one of those interactions, James White used an argument against Uriah Smith that emphasizes the rule that we call "repeat and enlarge," and he says that if the last power in Daniel 2 is Rome, and that the last power in Daniel 7 is Rome, and the last power in Daniel 8 is Rome, then the last power to come to its end in Daniel 11 is Rome. And what he is doing, he is arguing with Uriah Smith saying, "The last power in Daniel 11 can't be Turkey," because you have three witnesses in the Book of Daniel alone that the last power is Rome. But what he is doing is he is identifying the rule of repeat and enlarge.

Daniel 7 repeats and enlarges upon Daniel 2; and Daniel 8 enlarges upon Daniel 2 and 7; and Daniel 11 enlarges upon Daniel 2, 7, and 8.

And then you can get into Revelation and just keep repeating and enlarging upon all these lines of prophecy.

So, as we begin to look at the Daily, look at Daniel 8. We are now starting to uphold the Pioneer position that the Daily is Paganism just from the Scriptures, not from the fact that Sister White plainly says that the Millerites had the correct view of the Daily, and the view of the Daily being Christ's Sanctuary ministry came from angels that were expelled from Heaven. We will set that aside and take it just from the Scriptures.

In Daniel 8:1, it says,

> "[1]In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar"—

Of king who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Belshazzar.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Belshazzar.

> —"a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first." Daniel 8:1 (KJV).

Okay. So, he had a vision that came after that which appeared unto him at the first. So, Daniel is connecting this vision, at least grammatically, saying, "This vision [gesturing to his right] came after this one [gesturing to his left]."

So, if you go back to Daniel 7:1, it says,

> "[1]In the first year of"—

Of who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Belshazzar.

> —"Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters." Daniel 7:1 (KJV).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, Daniel 8:1 says in the third year of king Belshazzar. Daniel 8 says that; and, in Daniel 7 it says in the first year of Belshazzar.

And Daniel says in Daniel 8 that he received a vision after the one "at the first." And it could be the first year of Belshazzar, or it could be that he got the first vision here in Daniel, chapter 7: take your choice. Do you see what I am saying?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In Daniel 8:1, where he says, ". . . a vision appeared to me . . . after that which appeared unto me at the first," he could be saying because he just referenced the third year of the reign of Belshazzar, he could be saying "after that which appeared unto me in the first year of king Belshazzar"; because, in Daniel 7:1, it says, "In the first year of king Belshazzar." Or, he could just be saying in the first year of king Belshazzar, he received a vision, a dream, a vision in his head, and that in chapter 8 he was receiving a follow-up vision.

But, my point here is that Daniel is purposely tying Daniel 7 and Daniel 8 together: "Every fact has its bearing [paraphrasing Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation, No. 1]."

So, when Daniel is saying to us here at the end of the world, "When you are going to study Daniel, chapter 8, you must study it in context with Daniel, chapter 7." That is what he is saying, if you are going to study it correctly.

And Daniel, chapter 7, is the kingdoms of Bible prophecy—right here [points to the image on the 1843 Chart in the upper left-hand corner]—and Daniel, chapter 8, is the kingdoms of Bible prophecy; but, Daniel, chapter 7, very simply, it is these beasts that represent political kingdoms. Okay?

So, what is one of the themes in Bible prophecy? It is the combination of church and state; and, Daniel, chapter 7, is setting forth the kingdoms of Bible prophecy in their political manifestations.

And Daniel, chapter 8, is repeating and enlarging upon that testimony [in Daniel, chapter 7], only it is not portraying the kingdoms in their political manifestations; it is portraying those kingdoms in their religious manifestations.

And how do we know this? How do we know this?

And, Brothers and Sisters, you may think this is a very small point, but it is a life-or-death point; because, if you understand this, you will be weaned from accepting the false presentation of the Daily that is rampant in Adventism.

How do we know that Daniel, chapter 8, is illustrating the kingdoms of Bible prophecy in their religious manifestation? We know so, because Daniel uses symbols from the sanctuary to portray these kingdoms. Okay?

Here [using the 1843 Chart in reference] is a ram. Is a ram a sanctuary offering?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

Is a he-goat a sanctuary offering? Yes.

Are there any horns in the sanctuary?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

So, these kingdoms that are represented in Daniel 8 are represented by religious relics from God's sanctuary; BUT, they are not acceptable in God's sanctuary. They are all corrupted, they are all corrupted!

So, Daniel is saying, "These kingdoms of Bible prophecy—Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome—I am now telling you in Daniel, chapter 8, what their religious manifestations were, because you need to know what their religious manifestations were, because Bible prophecy is based upon the combination of church and state. And when you combine Daniel 7 and Daniel 8, you have the political and religious manifestations of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy."

So, Daniel is making sure we understand that the religious manifestations of these kingdoms are a counterfeit manifestation; because, though he uses sanctuary terminology and sanctuary symbols, they are all corrupt.

Leviticus 1:3, 10; Deuteronomy 22:5

Leviticus 1:3, 10

And I am passing to the very bottom of your notes now, and I will go back to another issue in a moment. Go to Leviticus 1, verses 3 and 10. There are several verses in the Scriptures that can uphold this next point; but, it is very easy to see this.

Verse 3 of Leviticus 1 says,

> "[3]If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: . . ." Leviticus 1:3, in part (KJV).

Without what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Blemish.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: If you were going to offer an offering in the sanctuary, it had to be perfect.

Go to verse 10. Verse 10 says,

> "[10]And if his offering be of the flocks, namely of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish." Leviticus 1:10 (KJV).

So, go to Daniel 8. As Daniel is using sanctuary symbolism to describe the kingdoms of Bible prophecy, he is telling us that this is their religious manifestation; but, he is telling us this is a counterfeit religion because these are not perfect offerings.

Notice in verse 3, and this is the Medes and Persians. It says,

> "[3]Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last." Daniel 8:3 (KJV).

What is that [". . . and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, . . .]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is not perfect.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is not perfect, cannot be used in the sanctuary.

So, this is the religious manifestation of the Medes and Persians, but this is a counterfeit religion.

Go to verse 5, [of Daniel 8] and we will look at Greece, the he-goat.

> "[5]And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had"—HAD A WHAT?—"a notable horn between his eyes." Daniel 8:5 (KJV).

Could you use that goat in the sanctuary service?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. He was corrupted. It was not perfect.

But then we get to verses 8 and 9. This is the introduction of Rome.

In verse 8,

> "[8]Therefore the he goat"—GREECE, ALEXANDER THE GREAT—"Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven."—

Now, this is really an imperfect offering.

And then in verse 9 we are going to see Rome introduced into the narrative:

> "[9]And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land [TOWARD THE WEST]." Daniel 8:8-9 (KJV).

Now, verses 9, 10, 11, and 12, the subject of those four verses is this little horn. Okay?

Deuteronomy 22:5

Now, you have to get into the Hebrew to test what I am going to say, but none of the theologians that argue against what I teach in Adventism will tell you this is not true. They all know this is true. But, this little horn, it oscillates; it goes back and forth as it goes through verses 9, 10, 11, and 12.

What do I mean it oscillates? The little horn in verse 9 is masculine; but, when the little horn in verse 10 is referred to, it is feminine. But, when it gets to verse 11, that little horn goes back to masculine, and then when it gets to verse 12 it goes back to feminine. That is what I mean by oscillating.

And is a horn part of the sanctuary service? Yes. So, this little horn, it is once again saying, "These kingdoms of Bible prophecy, beginning with the Medes and the Persians, and Greece, and now Rome, that this is representing their religious manifestations; but, it is counterfeit.

How do you know it is counterfeit? Go to Deuteronomy 22:5.

> "[5]The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are an abomination unto the LORD thy God." Deuteronomy 22:5 (KJV).

You see, this little horn is both a boy and a girl. It cannot be a genuine sanctuary horn because it is an abomination to manifest both man and woman in the same issue. So, this little horn is teaching the same lesson as the he-goat and the ram. They are sanctuary terms, but they are corrupt; so, they are representing a counterfeit religious manifestation in the kingdoms of Bible prophecy.

Go back to Daniel 8 now.

Just right there, Brothers and Sisters, right there. These men that have taken the view of the Daily that came from apostate Protestantism, that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry, right there is enough information to tell you, "Hey, this can't be right!" Because, they are saying the Daily here in Daniel, chapter 8, is Christ's Sanctuary ministry, and you have just seen upon the testimony of three items coming down through this history (the ram, the he-goat, and the horn) that all these sanctuary terms are corrupt; therefore, they claim, "This to me, this translated as Daily here, it comes from the sanctuary." Well, if it does, you need to relate to it as a corrupt symbol.

Are you trying to tell me that this corrupt symbol in this flow of corrupt symbols would represent Christ's Sanctuary ministry?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, I do not think so. It cannot. It is out of context.

But, that is not what we are dealing with here.

In Daniel 8, in verse 9—you need to get to the Hebrew to test what I am saying, but you really do not if you look at it in an enlightened fashion.

The subject of verses 9, 10, 11, and 12 is the little horn. And the little horn in verse 9 is in the masculine sense; and, then in verse 10 it says "it waxed great." Okay? The "it" there is the little horn, because it is the subject all the way through.

And then in verse 11, "Yea, he magnified himself," that is the little horn again. That is the subject all the way through.

Verse 12, "And an host was given him against," so, it is the little horn all the way through.

But, when it is in its feminine tense, the translators of the King James Bible made sure not to call it "he." They call it, "it." Okay?

Look at verse 10:

> "[10]And it"—

The little horn, it is there "it" because it is feminine,

> "[10]And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them."—

And then in verse 11 it says,

> "[11]Yea, he"—

Now it is not "it." It does not say, "Yea, it"; it says, "Yea, he." There is the masculine little horn.

> —"[11]Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down."—

Verse 12,

> —"[12]And an host was given him"—

What is that: "And a host was given him," what is that "h " there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is italicized.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is italicized. Okay? If it was not italicized, it would be telling you the little horn there was the masculine sense. But, it says, —"[12]And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered." Daniel 8:10-12 (KJV).

That is the feminine.

So, you see this transgender little horn go down through this narrative. He is the man in verse 9. He is the woman in verse 10. He is the man in verse 11. He is the woman in verse 12.

Now, Brothers and Sisters, based upon today's presentation, that alone is telling you something. What is it telling you?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is telling you something, based upon today's presentation. What is it telling you? The little horn represents a man and a woman in this passage.

I will make it easy: What is a woman in Bible prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What is a man?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A state.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A state.

Okay. So, you have two manifestations of this little horn in this history. One is the Rome that represents statecraft (Pagan Rome). The other is the Rome that represents churchcraft (Papal Rome). Okay?

And every fact has its bearing, Brothers and Sisters; so, this is very easy to see here.

Now, we want to put one thing in the record before we close: Daniel 2, Revelation 17, and Daniel 8 illustrate a progression. The progression needs to be marked, because "every fact has its bearing." And this progression is important.

Great—G D AL

The word that is translated as great in Daniel 8 is the Hebrew word g al , and you will see the definition.

> GÂDAL: Strong's Concordance, H1431—A primitive root; properly to twist, that is, to be (causatively make) large (in various senses, as in body, mind, estate or honor, also in pride): - advance, boast, bring up, exceed, excellent, be (-come, do, give, make, wax), great (-er, come to . . estate, + things), grow (up), increase, lift up, magnify (-ifical), be much set by, nourish (up), pass, promote, proudly [spoken], tower.

And towards the end of the definition, it means, to grow (up), to increase, to lift up, to magnify, to proudly speak.

Now, who is it that wants to lift up and exalt himself?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The pride of Satan.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now, this is adding a layer now in Daniel, chapter 8, that these kingdoms of Bible prophecy in Daniel, chapter 8, are the religious manifestation as contrasted with their political manifestation in Daniel, chapter 7. And we know it is their religious manifestation because Daniel is using sanctuary terms when he illustrates Daniel, chapter 8; but, we know that it is a counterfeit religion because all the sanctuary terms are corrupted. But, now along with this, we see a progression in Daniel 2 and Daniel 17 that we are going to factor in to Daniel 8, and we are going to see this progression as illustrated in the word g al , which means lift up and exalt.

The ram—verse 4
The he-goat—verse 8
The masculine little horn—verse 9
The feminine little horn—verse 10

So, when we come to the first kingdom, the ram (the Medes and the Persians) in verse 4, it says,

> "[4]I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward, so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great." Daniel 8:4 (KJV).

He became g dal; he lifted up himself; he exalted himself, this first kingdom here.

But, then in verse 8, when we are dealing with Greece, it says,

> "[8]Therefore the he goat waxed very great: . . ." Daniel 8:8, in part (KJV).

The same word, g al .

The he-goat here [indicating Greece]—he [indicating the Medes and the Persians] was great; he was self-exalted—but, Alexander the Great and the Greeks, they even outdid the Medes and the Persians.

And then the little horn in verse 9—and this is a masculine [symbol]; this is Pagan Rome—it says,

> "[9]And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, . . ." Daniel 8:9, in part (KJV).

Pagan Rome, now; Pagan Rome is going to have to out-do the Greeks, who out-did the Medes and the Persians.

Do you see the progression?

And what is progressing? This self-exaltation.

And what is this self-exaltation? This is the root of Satan's religion. This is what began in Heaven, and he is passing down to the kingdoms of Bible prophecy and we see that it is getting greater and greater.

And you see in verse 9 that Pagan Rome, it is going against earthly powers as it gets exceeding great.

But, look at verse 10.

> "[10]And it"—

Who is that? That is the Woman. That is Papal Rome.

> "[10]And it [PAPAL ROME] waxed great, even to the host of heaven; . . ." Daniel 8:10, in part (KJV).

Pagan Rome exalted to the world; but, Papal Rome even went farther, it exalted to Heaven itself.

So, we see in Daniel 8 a progression that corresponds with the progression of Daniel 2 of self-exaltation, which is the very essence of this counterfeit kingdom. And what does that tell us?

Well, it tells us that after the Papacy exalts itself to the very Heaven, what is the next kingdom? The Protestants. The Protestants, they are going to out-exalt the Papists; and, then when the Protestants go to the world and say the whole world has to come under the umbrella of a One World Government in Revelation 17:17, when the kings of the Earth are going to agree to give their kingdom unto the Papacy, the exaltation of that final kingdom will be the height of this counterfeit religion.

So, we are closing it there. We are going to deal with the Daily in Daniel, chapter 8; but, we have put in place (I hope you see) that Daniel, chapter 8 is a story of the religious manifestations of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy, and that it is a counterfeit religion. It is the same religion from beginning to end. It is Satan's religion.

And going back in your notes, I left off one quote. It popped into my mind. We will close with this one.

The Woman in Revelation 17, she goes to this kingdom (Babylon), to this kingdom (Medo-Persia), to this kingdom (Greece), to this kingdom (Rome), all the way through. And this Woman, she is the church, the MYSTERY BABYLON Church, whose religion is the religion of Satan and his rebellion in Heaven; his self-exalting religion, in contrast with Christ's humbling Himself into the dust, even to the death at the cross.

And from Review and Herald, December 4, 1900, it says,

> "Christ speaks of the church over which Satan presides as the synagogue of Satan. Its members are the children of disobedience. They are those who choose to sin, who labor to make void the holy law of God. It is Satan's work to mingle evil with good, and to remove the distinction between good and evil. Christ would have a church that labors to separate the evil from the good, whose members will not willingly tolerate wrong-doing, but will expel it from the heart and life." Review and Herald, December 4, 1900.

When you see Daniel 8 in the context of Satan's counterfeit kingdom, of his synagogue of Satan, then you have the proper context to begin to consider what the word Daily means in God's Word.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we appreciate the fact that you have shown us that there are two kingdoms that are in controversy here on Planet Earth, and that it is a physical and a spiritual battle between these two kingdoms. And as we proceed in our study in the following presentation to demonstrate that the Daily of Daniel is the symbol of this self-exaltation, the root of Satan's religion, we appreciate that upon Habakkuk's Tables that you have marked that the Daily is taken away right there at the foot of the cross. And we know that we all have this self-exalting root within us that needs to be subdued, removed, through the power of your Holy Spirit, but that this can only be accomplished as we also come to the foot of the cross. We ask that you would let this truth sink into our experience, that we would fulfill the conditions of the Gospel and allow you to remove the Daily from our experience, as we understand what the Daily is in the doctrine of the Bible. We thank you for this in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #77

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together this morning to continue our study of Habakkuk's Tables, and now considering the truths that are represented on the Charts from the Bible alone. As we take up our study this morning, we ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would forgive us for any sins from any transgressions that would be preventing us from hearing your Voice or preventing me from conveying the message that you have for us this morning. We want our understanding open so we fulfill the command in Habakkuk, and pray that you would pour out your Latter Rain upon us now. And as we take up the subject, we ask that you would bless the work that we are doing on LiveStream and DVD recordings and let these things be of such a nature that it would better prepare us to stand and reflect your character and share the message of the hour at this time in Earth's history. And we thank you for these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In this series of Habakkuk's Tables, we are on No. 76 today, and—actually No. 77,[26] because there are a couple along the way that we did not number, that were just reviews. So, it is a long series, and it has taken many months to get this far along.

And last week we took up the task of bringing the Conclusion together. And on Monday's presentation of last week, which was the second in the Conclusion, I talked about William Miller rejecting the Midnight Cry. And, evidently, repeatedly, when I was saying this, I was identifying that Miller rejected the Midnight Cry in the Spring of 1844, but it was actually in the Spring of 1845. It was just a mental glitch that I had going on.

So, I received an email from a friend, and she says,

> "In the latest presentations, in the second presentation, you keep saying that Miller rejected the message in the Spring of 1844. It is the Spring of 1845. The Seventh Month Movement had not even happened in the Spring of 1844. I know you meant it right, but it is there several times wrong."

So, we put that in the record. If you go back four presentations and you will hear me repeatedly saying that. So, I have corrected that one.

I have another quote that a brother wants me to share, but I may or may not get to that at some point in time.

THE DAILY

I do not know how many of you have ever had a disagreement or an argument or a discussion over a verse in the Bible, or a passage in the Bible. I have had several. But more than that, more than just sitting down with a brother or a sister after church service at a fellowship dinner and arguing the difference of a verse, there are times when truths of a verse are argued publicly; and, I have had my share of those, too.

[26] Corrects audio of DVD to correctly reflect #77 of the Notes and #77 of the DVD.

We put into print in 1995 our understanding of the last six verses of Daniel 11; and, from that point on, certain components of that message began to be argued publicly; and, as an example, one of them, :the glorious land." "The glorious land" in Daniel 11, verse 41, represents the United States of America; and, as soon as that message came out, the enemy raised up people to oppose publicly that "the glorious land" was the United States in verse 41; and, it was a point that just could not be left alone, because verse 41 of Daniel 11 is identifying the close of probation for Seventh-day Adventists. So the fact that people were being raised up to undermine the reality of what "the glorious land" is, it was something that had to be responded to. So, that argument went on and on and on. To this very day you will still find a large group of people in Adventism that will teach that "the glorious land" is the Seventh-day Adventist Church, which is absolutely ridiculous. I mean, it is just ridiculous. There is no Biblical support for it, whatsoever; whereas, identifying "the glorious land" as the United States of America, there is abundant Biblical support for it.

The word glorious means in sense of prominence.

The word land means land.

Four verses later, Michael stands up and human probation closes. So, what is the most prominent land in the world just before human probation closes? It is the United States of America.

The Bible is clear that "the glorious holy mountain" in the Scriptures represents God's Church at the end of the world. That is verse 45.

If Daniel wanted us to think that "the glorious land" in verse 41 was the Seventh-day Adventist Church, he would have said, "the glorious holy mountain." But, because he says "the glorious holy mountain" in verse 45 and "the glorious land" in verse 41, you know it I something different. To claim that "the glorious land" is the Church when Daniel uses a completely different illustration of it just four verses later is just poor reasoning, at best.

Sister White of the United States, she says, "The United States is the glory of all the nations."

"Glory of all the nations," "the glorious land": how hard is that one?

There are three promises in the covenant. One is that we can have the mind of Christ; the other is that we can have a glorified body; and, the third is that the Lord would give His people a land. And of those three promises, if you would just tally up which one is mentioned the most in the Bible, the third covenant promise that the Lord would give His people a land to dwell in is mentioned 50:1 more than the mind of Christ or the glorified body at the Second Coming.

And Sister White says all the covenant promises are fulfilled upon the Seventh-day Adventist Church. So, where is the land that was given to the Seventh-day Adventist Church in fulfillment of the covenant?

Where was the Seventh-day Adventist Church raised up?

The Bible teaches that those that would flee the persecution of the Papacy, that would flee from Europe, they would go to the West, and the Lord would establish His people in the West, which is the United States of America.

And there are many more reasons. And I am just telling them to you; I am not proving them to you. There are many more reasons to show that "the glorious land" is the United States of America; but, that is kind of a secondary issue.

The real issue is that when you understand that "the glorious land" is the United States in Daniel 11, verse 41, you understand the next that happens after the collapse of the Soviet Union in that sequence of verses is that probation closes for the Seventh-day Adventist Church. So, that verse becomes very serious.

And, there are even people that—and this is the secondary argument, there are people that want to deny that probation closes for the Adventist Church at The Sunday Law in the United States; and, Sister White repeatedly says that there is a closed door message. She says there is a closed door message in the time of Noah; a closed door message in the time of Abraham concerning Sodom and Gomorrah; a closed door message for the Jews in the time of Christ, destruction of Jerusalem. William Miller brought a closed door message, the end of the world. So, for us to suggest the last six verses of Daniel 11 are a closed door message is consistent with every message in the Scriptures that is prefiguring the Final Warning Message at the end of the world.

So, this controversy that has gone on publicly, it has some severe and serious ramifications.

Let me show you something here. I am going to show you one more thing about this controversy. I will not go deep into it. We will come back to this issue, Lord willing, in a couple of weeks or so.

But, if you identify "the glorious land" as the Seventh-day Adventist Church or if you identify it as the United States of America, it is an argument. It is a public argument that has gone on for years, since 1995.

And the people who believe that it is the Seventh-day Adventist Church: the self-supporting ministries—Hope International, Hartland, Steps to Life, Amazing Facts—the self-supporting ministries that are in good graces with the Conference, or even the General Conference (the Biblical Research men, the Biblical Research Department), they will tell you that "the glorious land" is the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Why would anyone that seeks to be a leader, a spiritual guide of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, accept the doctrine that in Daniel 11, verse 41, long before probation closes, long before Michael stands up—now, really, I am saying before probation closes—if they are saying that "the glorious land" is the Seventh-day Adventist Church, then when it is conquered, it is not marking the close of probation. The close of probation when you take this position is when Michael stands up at the end of the world. So, if you are a leader of the Seventh-day Adventist Church either in self-supporting work or in the General Conference and you have taken this position (and they have!), then that means long before verse 41, long before verse 45 when probation closes, in verse 41 the Catholic Church takes control of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. What kind of message is that, from a leader of the Seventh-day Adventist Church?

Where is it in the Scriptures? Where is your second proof that the Papacy ever takes control of the Seventh-day Adventist Church? It is just not there.

So, if you take this position that "the glorious land" is the Seventh-day Adventist Church, well, the Seventh-day Adventist church "is the apple of God's eye." Okay. That is "the glorious holy mountain." That is His people. That is Zion. Right?

So, the Seventh-day Adventist Church is a Godly power [in taking the position that it is "the glorious land"].

But, if you allow the Bible to define what "the glorious land" is, then you realize that "the glorious land" is the United States of America in the very time period when the United States is forcing the world to worship the Papacy.

Okay. The United States begins as a lamblike nation, but it ends up speaking as the dragon. And when "the glorious land" is conquered in Daniel 11, verse 41, the United States, it is speaking as the dragon. So, it is not a Godly power, is it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is a satanic power.

So, when you look at this argument, you realize that on one side you are saying "the glorious land" is a Godly power; and, the other side, no, "the glorious land" is a satanic power.

Mainly I am trying to talk about public controversies in Biblical truth; but, before I move away from my illustration of public controversies, I want to show you one other thing, because we are dealing with the Daily.

U.S.A. Satanic Power	GLORIOUS LAND	SDA Church Godly power
Paganism	DAILY	Christ's Sanctuary Ministry

The people that are on the wrong side of the view (the same people, the same people: The Hartland Institute, the Biblical Research Institute, Steps to Life, Amazing Facts, these same ministries; and, the General Conference) will tell you that the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry; and, of course, Sister White plainly says that this view came from angels that were expelled from Heaven. She says this view brings darkness and confusion.

But, Sister White says the Pioneers had the correct view, and the Pioneers say that the Daily is Paganism.

So, notice: In the argument of the Daily, it is the same argument as "the glorious land." It is the same argument. Back at the beginning of the 20th Century, the same arguments that come at the end of the 20th Century on two different issues are: (1) Is the Daily a satanic power, or is the Daily a Godly power? (2) Is "the glorious land" a satanic power, or is "the glorious land" a Godly power?

And do not miss this, Brothers and Sisters, that when the Pioneers identified that the Daily was Paganism, they were identifying that Paganism was the power that placed the Papacy on the throne of the Earth.

So, when we are identifying that "the glorious land" is a satanic power (it is the United States) we are also identifying that "the glorious land" is the power that places the Papacy on the throne of the Earth. So, do not miss this controversy; because, these kinds of parallels are not manufactured by humans. This is a prophetic parallel that has to do with the Alpha and Omega Apostasy; because, this false view of the Daily, it came in at the time of the Alpha; and, this false view of "the glorious land," it is what is being argued in the time of the Omega. And, it is the same argument, with different symbols.

So, we will deal with that more as we proceed.

But, I know that people have passages where Sister White says, "In order to present truth, we are to present the truth and not worry about presenting the error." It is not good to present the error, because then you are letting people think about the error and they might stumble over the error. And, she says that repeatedly.

But, she also says repeatedly that when you are going to teach the truth, contrast it with the error. She says that, too; so, you have to take a little bit more of a balanced approach to what she is saying.

You know, if someone is out there teaching error, and the error that they are teaching is going to be beneficial to show the significance of the truth, then go ahead and identify that false teaching; but, what she is saying is, you do not need to go into the details about why that false teacher is a no good nick. But, sometimes to present the truth, it is worthwhile to contrast it with error.

Okay. So, in our last presentation we took time to show that one of the themes of Bible prophecy is the combination of church and state.

And, we took time to show that in Daniel 2 and Revelation 17 there is a progression that is illustrated in the kingdoms of Bible prophecy.

And, we took those two principles into Daniel 7 and 8, and noted that Daniel 7 and 8 were operating upon the principle of repeat and enlarge; and, that Daniel 7 was an illustration of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy in their political manifestation, and that Daniel 8 was the same kingdoms of Bible prophecy in their religious manifestation; and, that the religion (the false religion) that is represented in Daniel 8, has a progression there that is marked by the word g al , self-exaltation; because, each of these kingdoms of Bible prophecy, they g al themselves more than the previous kingdom.

So, we put that in place to lead into our consideration of Daniel 8, verses 9 through 12.

So, I am just reminding you of that.

The Lord willing, we are going to be in the Book of Daniel for a long time. Sometimes we will cover a lot of ground; sometimes we will not. And by "a lot of ground," we may cover a lot of ground, but I mean we are not going to move far away from one verse sometimes. So, that is where we are going to do here today.

Turn with me, if you would—it is in your notes—but to Daniel 11:14; because, we are studying Daniel 8. So, I want to go to Daniel 11, verse 14.

Daniel 11, verse 14, says,

> "[14]And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall." Daniel 11:14 (KJV).

There were controversies in the time of the Millerites. If you go back and read the Millerite publications, the newsletters, the journals that they were publishing, or you go back and you read William Miller's papers that he wrote, you will find that there were certain controversies that the Millerites were having with the Protestants of that time that are part of the record; but, there really is not that many, but they are to be noted; i.e., they were arguing about the millennium.

There were certain arguments, and one of them is this verse. This is a verse (verse 14) that William Miller has in the record. He is elaborating on this verse in response in addressing the false Protestant view.

And the first time I came across this, I was not looking for it and it did not mean much to me. I was reading William Miller, and the part I was reading is in your notes. We will get to it in a moment. And I thought, "That was interesting." I mean, I was familiar with Daniel 11, verse 14; and, I was led to read this by William Miller and I had it in my memory bank. And within a couple of weeks I was in a meeting, a week-long meeting (almost a week-long meeting), where a guy from the General Conference would present his view of the last six verses of Daniel 11 for 45 minutes, and then he would answer questions for an half hour; and, then I would present my views, which were different from his, on the last six verses of Daniel 11, and then I would answer questions for half an hour. And it was a hand-picked audience. There was only one person that forced themselves in, but everyone else was by invitation only; and, it was half General Conference employees and half self-supporting ministries.

So, he would present for 45 minutes on the last six verses of Daniel 11, and then he would answer questions; and, then I did the same; and, it went back and forth through the week.

And he got to Daniel 11:14, and he explained that the "robbers of thy people," this General Conference guy, represents the descendents of Greece, some of the Syrian kings and Antiochus Epiphanes.

And I said, "Whoa!" I had just understood that this was a controversy in the time of the Millerites, but the Millerites got it right. The "robbers of thy people" are Rome. The Millerites were arguing against the Protestants that this "robbers of thy people" in verse 14 represented Rome, and the Protestants were saying it represented Antiochus Epiphanes; and, here is this General Conference man saying that the "robbers of thy people" represent Antiochus Epiphanes.

And I am thinking, "Thank you, Lord, for giving me forewarning that this is still an issue here at the end of the world." Okay? What we had originally come to understand in the Millerite history somehow got turned upside down when we got to the end of the world.

So, I had the ammunition. When I would go up and do my presentation, without trying to be confrontational, I would answer, I would address all of the little glitches that I saw on his presentation, and I had the material in my mind to answer it.

And if you read this—and we do not have to read this. I do not intend to read all these passages; I intend to refer to them—the key point in this verse (and you have it in your notes) is the word also; and William Miller emphasizes the word also.

If you are familiar with Daniel 11, verses 12 and 13, it is talking about the King of the North (the Syrian powers) and their aggression towards Egypt (the King of the South); and, it has been the discussion for a few verses. So, when you get to verse 14, it says, "And in those times there shall many stand up against [Egypt] the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people . . ." The subject has been the King of the North for the previous two verses, and so verse 14 is saying there is going to be other people besides the King of the North that are going to stand up against Egypt, and also the robbers of thy people. So, William Miller's logic (and his logic is correct, and it is grammatically correct) is that whoever these robbers of the people are, they have to be different from the King of the North: ". . . also the robbers of thy people . . ."

And you can read William Miller's logic below.

VISION (C)—PROVERBS 29:18

So, whoever "the robbers of thy people" are can also be defined by the characteristics that are given in the verse: They are the robbers of God's people. They are the power in Bible prophecy that exalts themselves. But more importantly, they are the power that establishes the vision; and this vision here is the ch n vision.

So, what does Proverbs 29:18 say?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "Where there is no vision . . ."

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "[18]Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he. (Proverbs 29:18, KJV)"

And where is there no vision? There is no vision if you do not know who "the robbers of thy people" are; because, "the robbers of thy people" are the ones that establish the vision. That is why Sister White has statements like she says, "The scenes connected with the working of the man of sin are the last features plainly revealed in this earth's history." {2SM 102.1}

Who is the "man of sin"? That is Rome (the King of the North).

Sister White is saying the last scenes in prophetic history have to do with the Papacy (the King of the North, Rome); and, Daniel is saying here, what establishes the vision is Rome. So, they are in agreement with one another.

But, Proverbs says, "Where there is no vision, the people perish," so what Satan does is he says, "I have to corrupt the understanding that 'the robbers of thy people' is Rome; because, if I can do that, then there is no vision and the people perish." Okay?

So, this was a controversy in the Millerite History.

Now, Brothers and Sisters, you may wonder what this has to do with Daniel 8, and you may wonder why we are spending time about arguments; but, I want to point to these two Charts here [the 1843 and the 1850 Charts], these two Charts here. Virtually everything on them has a reference in Bible prophecy.

But, you notice I say virtually.

Okay. Notice here [on the 1843 Chart], "164." There is no reference in the Bible to this. Okay? This is not a Biblical reference. This is a reference to the controversy that went on in the Millerite History. It says, "164, Death of Ant ochus Ep phanes . . ." In Daniel 11, verse 14, the Protestants were arguing that "the robbers of thy people" were Antiochus Epiphanes. This was the issue with the Millerites. So, the Millerites spent a lot of time showing why Antiochus Epiphanes could not be this subject; because, if he is, he destroys the vision.

So, what I am saying, the controversy in the Millerite History was so significant that it is actually put upon this [1843] Chart. And what have we been told about this Chart? That it was directed by the hand of the Lord. So, these controversies are something that the Lord has noted. All right?

It says,

"164, Death of Ant ochus Ep phanes, who of course stoo not up aga nst the Pr nce of Pr nces,"—

Where does anyone stand up against the Prince of princes?

Go to Daniel 8, verse 11, "Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, . . ."

So, the Protestants were saying that Daniel 8:11 is talking about Antiochus Epiphanes standing up against the Prince of the host, the Prince of princes. So, the Millerites are saying—and this is almost sarcastic, but it is not. I am not trying to be negative, but think about it.

"164, Death of Ant ochus Ep phanes,"— who of course stood not up against the Prince of Princes,"—

This is 164 what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: BC.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: BC—164BC, right?

So, how long before Jesus, the Prince of princes, comes into history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 164 years.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, that is their point.

> "164[BC], Death of Ant ochus Ep phanes,"— who of course stood not up against the Prince of Princes, as he had been 164 years dead before the prince of princes was born." 1843 Chart, Published by J. V. Himes.

So, this is a controversy that has no Biblical reference. It is a point on this Table [1843 Chart] about the controversy of that history. All right? There are controversies that are a part of this history, and this history is repeated in our history to the very letter.

Anyway, we have more to say about this. Let us go back to our notes.

EXALT—2 THESSALONIANS 2:3-4; DANIEL 11:36

You see under the word EXALT, 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, verses 3 and 4; because, we want to know who the one that establishes the vision. Whoever he is, is the one that exalts himself in the Scriptures.

And, of course, Antiochus Epiphanes in his lifetime may have exalted himself; but, the Scriptures do not take any time to reference that.

Verse 3,

> "[3]Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed,"—

Who is the man of sin?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the Papacy.

> —"the son of perdition. [4]Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God." 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4 (KJV).

Now, if you bust out the Protestant and even Adventist Commentaries, most of them—many of them—I will not say most of them; but, perhaps it is most—but, many of them will tell you that where Paul is referencing this passage about the man of sin exalting himself is found in Daniel 11:36.

And here is a controversy for you, Brothers and Sisters, that you should wrap your mind around. It is Rome that establishes the vision, and Rome is the one that exalts himself in Bible prophecy.

I am not trying to prove this to you right now. I am giving you the references that do prove it; but, I hope you already understand this.

And, in 2 Thessalonians you have the classic illustration of the Papacy (the man of sin) exalting himself; and, the Bible commentators tell us that Paul is taking Daniel 11:36 and paraphrasing it in verse 4 of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2.

In verse 36 of Daniel 11, when you read it you can see the paraphrasing, the connection to Paul. It says,

> "[36]And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done." Daniel 11:36 (KJV).

Now, the power in Bible prophecy which is "the robbers of thy people," which exalts himself, is the Papacy; but, in the Millerite History there was a controversy, because the Protestants were saying "the robbers of thy people" were the Syrian kings (Antiochus Epiphanes). And, of course, this destroys your ability to understand the vision.

But, when we get into Advent History, what do we find in Advent History over verse 36? We find Uriah Smith saying, "No, this isn't the Papacy. This is Turkey." All right? And Uriah Smith does it by changing one word.

How many words do you have the liberty to change in God's Word?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: None.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: None.

Uriah Smith's reasoning in verse 36 is, "If we can say 'a king,'" but, the verse does not say that. The verse says, "the king"; and, when it says, "the king," it means the king that is being discussed in the previous verses. And even Uriah Smith agrees that the king that is being discussed in the previous verses is the Papacy; but, Uriah Smith wants to change it to a new power. So, he says, "If we could say 'a king,' instead of 'the king,' we could see a new power introduced in the verse; so, he changes it to Turkey.

And what does Sister White say? She says, "All those that become confused on the meaning of antichrist will ultimately end up on the side of antichrist."

So, we need to be clear about who the man of sin is.

But, what I am saying to you is that "the robbers of thy people" in verse 14 is the power in Bible prophecy that exalts themselves, and that is 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4; and, this is derived from Daniel 11:36.

And Daniel 11:36 is also a point of controversy in Advent History; and, this controversy goes back to the Millerite History, and it was such a controversy that it finds itself on these Tables [the 1843 and 1850 Charts] noted, even though there is no Biblical reference for Antiochus Epiphanes.

FALL—REVELATION 14:8; DANIEL 7:26; 8:25; 11:45

Also, the power that establishes the vision is the power that falls.

> "[8]And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the win of the wrath of her fornication." Revelation 14:8 (KJV).

And in Revelation 14:8, who falls?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Babylon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Babylon.

And who is Babylon at the end of the world? The man of sin: the one that exalts himself.

You can look at Daniel 7:26, and 8:25, and 11:45 and you see that Rome (the King of the North) is illustrated as falling.

> "[26]But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end." Daniel 7:26 (KJV).

> "[25]And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand." Daniel 8:25 (KJV).

> "[45]And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in [AND] the glorious holy mountain, yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him." Daniel 11:45 (KJV).

ROME ESTABLISHES THE VISION

So, what I am saying, in Daniel 11:14, all the proof-texts establish that it is Rome that establishes the vision, not Antiochus Epiphanes.

And then you have underneath in your notes the word ROBBERS.

> ROBBERS: Strong's Concordance, H1121—a son H6530—From H6555; violent, that is, a tyrant: - destroyer, ravenous, robber. H6555—A primitive root; to break out (in many applications, direct and indirect, literally and figuratively): - X abroad, (make a) breach, break (away, down, -er, forth, in, up), burst out come (spread) abroad, compel, disperse, grow, increase, open, press, scatter, urge.

It is the destroyer; it is the breaker of God's people, and you can see references. The breakers of God's people in the Scriptures—and breakers is one of the definitions for robbers—that is Rome. Okay?

We are familiar with the fact that the fourth kingdom was going to break and stomp. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It was going to break; it was going to rob. It was the destroyer.

And then underneath [in the notes] you will see William Miller's argument [provided below but not read into the record] about Daniel 11, verse 14.

> "'And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south; also, the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.' The king of the south, in this verse, without any doubt, means king of Egypt; but what the robbers of thy people means remains yet a doubt perhaps to some. That it cannot mean Antiochus, or any king of Syria, it is plain; for the angel had been talking about that nation for a number of verses previous, and now says, 'also the robbers of thy people,' etc., evidently implying some other nation. I will admit that Antiochus did perhaps rob the Jews; but how could this 'establish the vision,' as Antiochus is not spoken of anywhere in the vision as performing any act of that kind; for he belonged to what is called the Grecian kingdom in the vision. Again, 'to establish the vision,' must mean to make sure, complete, or fulfill the same. And if it cannot be shown that the Grecian > kingdom was to rob the people of God, I think it must mean some other nation which would do these acts, to which every word will apply. And to this we need not be at a loss; for at this very time of which the angel is speaking, Rome, the least kingdom in Daniel's vision, did exalt itself, and this kingdom did have the very marks in the vision, and in the events following. This kingdom was to have great iron teeth; it was to break in pieces, and stamp the residue with the feet of it. The vision also says, 'He shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and practice, and shall destroy the mighty and holy people, and that he should magnify himself,' etc., the same as exalt himself, Daniel 7:7, 23; 8:10–12, 24, 25 verses. And it cannot be denied but that the Jews have been robbed of their city and sanctuary by the Romans, and the Christian church has been persecuted and robbed by this dreadful beast, the Roman kingdom." William Miller, W ll a M ller's Works, volume 2, 88.

Now, one of the things about verse 14 that I want you to see, outside of what we have been discussing, is in verses 12 and 13 the King of the North is the subject; so, when you get to verse 14, it says, "And in those times there shall many stand up against [EGYPT] the king of the south: . . ." It has been discussing about the King of the North, and the King of the North in this time period is Greece. It is the final kings of Greece that have come down through history. They have been preparing to take control of Egypt (the King of the South).

And it says in verse 14, "And in those times," at the very end of the Greek time period to be the third kingdom of Bible prophecy, "And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south:"—many powers are going to begin to covet conquering Egypt—"also the robbers of thy people . . ."

So, one of the things that I am going to emphasize here that has not been part of this subject about the Millerite controversy is that when you understand this correctly, this is grammatically telling you that Rome is a different power. It is not a descendent of Greece,—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —". . . also the robbers of thy people . . ."

Miller's logic, he was not trying to make the point I am making, but he supports what I am making here. This verse teaches us that Rome is a different power than Greece. They are not the same power. Keep that in mind. We will get back to that.

Follows is a quote that many of us are familiar with, in this room and on LiveStream. It says, from Manuscript Releases, volume 21, page 444,

> "The grand instruction contained in Daniel and Revelation has been eagerly perused by many in Australia. This book has been the means of bringing many precious souls to a knowledge of the truth. Everything that can be done should be done to circulate Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation. I know of no other book that can take the place of this one. It is God's helping hand."—

Uriah Smith's book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, is to be God's helping hand.

She continues on and says,

> —"Those who have been long in the truth are asleep. They need to be sanctified by the Holy Spirit. The third angel's message is to be proclaimed with a loud voice. Tremendous issues are before us. We have no time to lose. God forbid > that we should allow minor matters to eclipse the light which should be given to the world." Manuscript Releases, volume 21. 444.

Now, if you are reading through the hymnal and you see that one of the authors of many of the songs in the hymnal is Frank Belden that is Ellen White's nephew, who ultimately left Adventism.

But, when I heard what I am going to tell you about here, I was just amazed. He [Frank Belden] had the ability, he would work with an evangelist (an Adventist evangelist), and the Adventist evangelist would begin his sermon.

"Tonight," he would tell the people, "we are going to cover Daniel 2," and he would start into his sermon; and, Frank Belden would take his wife, and he and his wife would go into some other room with a piano, and they would sit down and write a song about Daniel 2. And at the end of that evangelistic presentation, Frank Belden and his wife would come out and play and sing the song about Daniel 2.

So, when you are reading through the hymnals and you see these songs by Frank Belden, that is the guy that did it, and that is the kind of gift he had; but, he walked away from Adventism.

And his aunt was Ellen White.

So, although it does not say it in this next passage, if you will look closely in Ellen White's writings, you will find that it was Frank Belden that asked this question, and he was not asking it—you know, there are different ways people ask questions, and sometimes people ask you a question and maybe it is a dumb question, but you can tell they are honest, they want to know, they do not understand it. But, sometimes you can tell when someone is asking a question that they are just trying to set you up to try to make you look bad, and they do not really care about the answer. They are fighting against the truth. You know, you can tell.

And Belden's question here was not a positive question. He was trying to undermine what Sister White had just said about Uriah Smith's book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation. She said it is God's helping hand.

So, as we read through this next passage, you are going to see a question: "Do you believe that what these Pioneers wrote was inspired?"

Well, when you get to the real question, when it is laid out, not so cloaked as it is in this passage, he was saying to her, "Do you think Uriah Smith is inspired?" you know, with a sarcastic voice.

So, let us read this from The 1888 Materials, page 547:

> "'I am the vine, ye are the branches,' said Jesus. We do not half understand the preciousness of this lesson; we must learn more and more the significance of these words. We need our eyes anointed that we may see the light of truth. We must not think, 'Well, we have all the truth, we understand the main pillars of our faith, and we may rest on this knowledge.' The truth is an advancing truth, and we must walk in the increasing light. A brother asked,"—

And this is Ellen White writing, and she is saying, "A brother asked"; but, the brother that asked was her nephew.

> —"A brother asked, 'Sister White, do you think we must understand the truth for ourselves? Why can we not take the truths that others have gathered together, and believe them because they have investigated the subjects, and then we shall be free to go on without the taxing of the powers of the mind in the investigation of all these subjects? Do you not think that these men who have brought out the truth in the past were inspired of God?'"—

He is setting her up. And when you get to the actual dialogue, he is being specific to Uriah Smith.

Here is what she says:

—"I dare not say they were not led of God, for Christ leads into all truth; but when it comes to inspiration in the fullest sense of the word, I answer, No. I believe that God has given them a work to do, but if they are not fully consecrated to God at all times, they will weave self and their peculiar traits of character into what they are doing, and will put their mold upon the work, and fashion men in religious experience after their own pattern. It is dangerous for us to make flesh our arm. We should lean upon the arm of infinite power. God has been revealing this to us for years. We must have living faith in our hearts, and reach out for larger knowledge and more advanced light.

"Do not trust to the wisdom of any man, or to the investigations of any man. Go to the Scriptures for yourselves, search the inspired word with humble hearts, and lay aside your preconceived opinions; for you will obtain no benefit unless you come as children to the word of God. You should say, 'If God has anything for me, I want it. If God has given evidence from his word to this or that brother that a certain thing is truth, he will give it to me. I can find that evidence if I search the Scriptures with constant prayer, and I can know that I do know what truth is.' You need not preach the truth as the product of another man's mind; you must make it your own. When the woman of Samaria was convinced that Jesus was the Messiah, she hastened to tell her neighbors and townsmen. She said, 'Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? Then they went out of the city, and came unto him. . . . And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did. . . . And many more believed because of his own word; and said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying; for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ.'

"Brethren, we must sink the shaft deep in the mine of truth. You may question matters with yourselves and with one another, if you only do it in the right spirit; but too often self is large, and as soon as investigation begins, an unchristian spirit is manifested. This is just what Satan delights in, but we should come with a humble heart to know for ourselves what truth is. The time is coming"—

This is one of the reasons I went—there are two nice thoughts in the conclusion of this passage. It is not really germane to Uriah Smith. This is one of them.

—"The time is coming when we shall be separated and scattered, and each one of us will have to stand without the privilege of communion with those of like > precious faith; and how can you stand unless God is by your side, and you know that he is leading and guiding you? Whenever we come to investigate Bible truth, the Master of assemblies is with us. The Lord does not leave the ship one moment to be steered by ignorant pilots. We may receive our orders from the Captain of our salvation.

> "We must be able to present the precious truth at the right time. We do not claim that in the doctrines sought out by those who have studied the word of truth, there may not be some error, for no man that lives is infallible; but if God has sent light, we want it; and God has sent light, and let every man be careful how he treats it. As the truth is proclaimed, men will say, 'Be careful now, do not be too zealous, too positive; you want the truth.' Of course we want the truth, and we want it as it is in Jesus.
> "When Nathanael came to Jesus, Jesus exclaimed, 'Behold an Israelite indeed, in who is no guile!' Nathanael said, 'Whence knowest thou me?' Jesus answered, 'When thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee.' And Jesus will see us also in the secret places of prayer, if we seek him for light that we may know what is truth. Our brethren should be willing to investigate in a candid way every point of controversy.
> "If a brother is teaching error, those who are in responsible positions ought to know it; and if he is teaching truth, they ought to take their stand at his side."—

That is the other point I wanted to make sure you see. Too often people have heard this prophetic message and they know it is truth; but, in order to, you know, maybe move up in their realm of influence or maintain friends or avoid controversy, in spite of the fact that they know it is the truth, they decide not to stand with it.

> —"We should all know what is being taught among us, for if it is truth, we need to know it. The Sabbath-school teacher needs to know it, and every Sabbath-school scholar ought to understand it. We are all under obligation to God to know what he sends to us. He has given directions by which we may test every doctrine,—'To the law and to the testimony; if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.' But if it is according to this test, do not be so full of prejudice that you cannot acknowledge a point when it is proved to you,"—

There is a brother, and he has put his papers out on a website now and many of the people that are opposing this message, they send people to his papers. Okay? And he has got credibility because, No. 1, he is a medical doctor which makes him credible in some people's eyes, plus he is the son-in-law of Gerhardt Damsteegt who wrote the book, The Foundations of Seventh-day Adventists' Message an M ss on, which is a book that we recommend about Millerite History. So, he has got this kind of second-hand credibility, too.

And I quit dialoging with the guy. It was a nice dialogue; it was an email dialogue. I still have the emails, so we would not want anyone to say that what I am saying has not been documented. And he came out with a paper and, in the spirit of Christ, he sent it to me.

He says, "You know, I am going to go public with this paper and I thought I needed to share it with you first."

I said, "Thank you," and I went through [it] and said, "Well, what you are saying here is wrong. Here is why, from the Spirit of Prophecy and Bible.

"And what you are saying here is wrong, and here is why from the Bible."

Okay. So, we did this three times; and, every time there were things in there that he was saying that you could not—that were not correct. They just flat were not correct!

So, what he did is he held onto his paper and he removes those things. He removes those things like they are not part of his argument and just maintains the paper. Okay? He never acknowledges that he was building his premise upon this pillar here and that pillar got removed. He just kept his argument and did not say anything about that pillar. And because he did that, because of our dialogue, I determined, "Well, if the guy cannot even acknowledge when he emails back to me, 'Yeah, I see your point. You are right about that,' if he is not even willing to acknowledge that, I never get anything done in a day that I am supposed to do anyway, so why spend any more time with that kind of attitude."

So, what she is saying here,

> —"But if it is according to this test,"—TO THE LAW AND TO THE TESTIMONY—"do not be so full of prejudice that you cannot acknowledge a point when it is proved to you, simply because it does not agree with your ideas. Do not catch at every objection, however small, and make it as large as possible, and preserve it for future use. No one has said that we shall find perfection in any man's investigations, but this I do know, that our churches are dying for the want of teaching on the subject of righteousness by faith in Christ, and for kindred truths.
> "No matter by whom light is sent, we should open our hearts to receive it in the meekness of Christ. But many do not do this. When a controverted point is presented, they pour in question after question without acknowledging, without admitting a point when it is well sustained."—

Have you ever had that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A question from the floor. You answer it and you blow the foolish premise out of the water; and, instead of the person saying, "Oh, I get it," they move to the next question and their next question would only be valid if their first question had been valid. And they just keep rattling them off, and then after a while, that is the reason not to point to that hand any longer.

> —"O may we act as men who want light! May God give us his Spirit day by day, and let the light of his countenance shine upon us, that we may be learners in the school of Christ." The 1888 Materials, 547.

So, what I am saying here is this was a nice passage. I put some points in that are not germane to what we are really looking at.

What we are really look at is that Uriah Smith's book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, have been identified by Sister White as God's helping hand; but, in the same vein, she has let us know that he was not inspired and there are some things that Uriah Smith teaches in that book that are wrong; and, that is an enlightened approach to that book. Okay? But, we are going to refer to that book.

DANIEL 7:7

So, I want you to go to Daniel 7:7 now.

And now I will try to tell you the point I am trying to make here through all this first hour.

In verse 7 of Daniel 7, it says,

> "[7]After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it:"—

What beast is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is Rome.

And what does the next phrase say?

> —"and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns." Daniel 7:7 (KJV).

Okay. Now, here is my point, and I hope I have not gone so far around the mountain that you cannot get my logic.

In Daniel 11, verse 14, where we started, William Miller uses the word also to prove that the "robbers of thy people," Rome, is a different power than Greece. And here in Daniel 7, Rome is diverse from the beasts that were before it. So, upon the testimony of two in the Book of Daniel, we know that Rome, the fourth kingdom, is not a descendent of Greece; it is a different kingdom. Okay?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Are you with me? Maybe that does not mean anything for you, but it should.

Now, I will show you an error at one level. And, I do not think it is an error, and I know I have been saying some of these things here in the recent past and it really causes people trouble!

I have a close friend that the thought I am going to say right here, I do not know if he has gotten through it yet; but, look at here: On this Chart here, this 1850 Chart, this is Daniel 8 [referring to the fourth column from the left reflecting the five beasts] and the Pioneers show the little horn of Daniel 8 coming out of one of the horns of Greece.

Now, go to Daniel 8, verse 8. Daniel 8, verse 8, says,

> "[8]Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven." Daniel 8:8 (KJV).

Here are the four notable ones [indicating the second beast from the top in the fourth column from the left on the 1850 Chart]. Right? And there is going to be a little horn that comes out of one of them [tracing his finger on the horn that extends down in history on the Chart to just before where the 7th Angel is portrayed in the fifth column, from the left].

Now, notice this next verse.

> "[9]And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land." Daniel 8:9 (KJV).

So, my argument is, is that Marcos here, Marcos is a world class graphic artist, if that is the right category.

Is that a correct way to describe your profession?

BROTHER MARCOS: Graphic Illustrator.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Graphic Illustrator. Okay.

So, if you gave Marcos the job assignment, "Illustrate for us verses 8 and 9 at the surface level," he would do this very thing. He would show this horn coming right out of that horn.

But, we know from Daniel 11:14 and Daniel 7:7 that this kingdom of this little horn, that it does not have a direct connection to Greece. It is diverse, ". . . also the robbers of thy people . . . ."

But, for a Graphic Illustrator to portray this, there is no problem there. There is no problem there as I read it. If I had to illustrate it graphically, that is how you would have to do it. Okay?

But, notice even, and this is an error to suggest—I am tell you out front that I will explain why in a moment—it is an error to suggest that the little horn comes from one of the horns of Greece. It is an error. All right?

Uriah Smith makes this error in Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, (God's helping hand), on page 175. He says,

> "The little horn comes forth from one of the horns of the goat."—

He says it. He is wrong.

> —"How, it may be asked, can this be true of Rome? It is unnecessary to remind the reader that earthly governments are not introduced into prophecy till they become in some way connected with the people of God. Rome became connected with the Jews, the people of God at that time, by the famous Jewish League, B.C.161. 1 Maccabees 8; Josephus's Antiquities, book 12, chapter 10, section 6; Prideaux, Volume II, 166. But seven years before this, that is, in B.C.168, Rome had conquered Macedonia, and made that country a part of its empire. Rome is therefore introduced into prophecy just as, from the conquered Macedonian horn of the goat, it is going forth to new conquests in other directions. It therefore appeared to the prophet, or may be properly spoken of in this prophecy, as coming forth from one of the horns of the goat." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 175.

So, let me read something to you from Samuel Pipim's book, Rece v ng the Wor ." PIPIM, PIPIM; It is different than PIPPINGER.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: On a regular basis we get people not within the past month and a half, a brother from Canada called here and got hold of my wife and said, "I have heard that Jeff Pippenger ran off with a young woman."

My wife said, "PIPIM, PIPIM! Okay?"

And I do not know that Pipim ran off with a young woman, but he is the one that had the moral problem, not Pippenger. Okay?

But, this is his book, this is his book. And in this book he is going to define three ways to study the Bible that are in Adventism today.

William Miller's Rules, Pipim is going to say, "We all reject those Rules." But, he is going to tell us what these other two rules are. This is on page 27; beginning, it says,

> The crisis facing contemporary Adventism is not necessarily due to a clash of two cultures--"the church of the West" and "the rest of the church." Rather, it is a crisis over biblical hermeneutics, the appropriate principles for interpreting the Bible. Recently this crisis has spawned much new hermeneutical terminology in our church: casebook vs. codebook, principle vs. literal approach, contextual vs. key text approach, dynamic vs. rigid approach, principle/spirit vs. literal/letter,—

Now, here is the one I want you to hear, because he is saying that the hermeneutics in the church break down into two camps, and he just described those two camps in various ways that they are discussed; but, here is the breakdown of those two camps that I want to put into the record:

> —"the historical critical method vs. historical grammatical method, and perhaps other terms as well. But notice what he says in the next paragraph."
> —"In addressing the issue of biblical interpretation (hermeneutics), Seventh-day Adventists are faced with only two options, the historical Adventist approach to the scriptures which recognizes the Bible is fully inspired, trustworthy, and authoritative; and, two, the contemporary liberal approaches to the Bible which deny the full inspiration liability and authority of the scriptures.
> "Although these two approaches are miles apart, they are both agreed in their rejection of a third approach, namely the proof-text method of interpretation. It may be helpful to explain why." Samuel Pipim, Receiving the Word, 27.

And the proof-text [method] is William Miller's Rules, line upon line.

So, what I want you to see is that when Adventism in the 1920s and '30s was rejecting the Pioneer understanding of the Daily, that they also were reaching out for accreditation in their colleges, first the Medical Colleges and thereafter by just what had to happen, the Theological Departments. They accepted the Biblical hermeneutics of apostate Protestantism, and these hermeneutics of apostate Protestantism break down into two methods: historical-critical method, and historical-grammatical method. Those are at odds with one another.

And the one approach is exemplified by a man by the name of Desmond Ford. Okay?

How many in this room have heard of Desmond Ford?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Show of hands.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And you know that Desmond Ford rejects the Spirit of Prophecy; he rejects the Sanctuary; and, for a time after he left the church (and maybe he still does) he began to worship on Sunday. Maybe he worships on both now. I do not pay attention to Desmond Ford; but, there was a time when he was even worshipping on Sunday. That is where he went with his Biblical approach to hermeneutics, and it caused a crisis in Adventism; but, I do not know a great deal about it, but that crisis was reaching its head right when we were coming into Adventism.

But, I want you to go back to Daniel 8, verses 8 and 9. Whether you understand it or not, the reason that Desmond Ford throws out the Sanctuary and the Spirit of Prophecy in Adventism is because he claims that the little horn of verse 9 is a direct descendent to one of the horns of Greece; and, therefore, he claims the little horn is Antiochus Epiphanes and, therefore, what we teach about the Pope of Rome being the man of sin is swept away because the Bible is not talking about the Pope of Rome; it is talking about Antiochus Epiphanes.

This is the same argument that the Millerites had to deal with. It was such an argument that it is actually enshrined on these sacred Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. And Desmond Ford is the modern man that re-pushes this back into Adventism.

So, because of this, this is the spawning of the Biblical Research Institute. I will not go into the history, but it was because they had accepted these two false approaches to Biblical hermeneutics that some of them realized, "Whoa! If we stand in this camp with Desmond Ford, we sweep away all of Adventism"; and, therefore, those that did not want to be in that camp and were in the other camp that Pipim is speaking about here, they started forming committees that ultimately evolved into the Biblical Research Institute.

THE FOUR WINDS—DANIEL 8:8

HASEL AND SHEA

William Shea, Selected Studies on Prophetic Interpretation, Daniel and Revelation Study Committee, volume 1, 41–43.

G. F. Hasel, Daniel and Revelation Study Committee, volume 2, 387–394.

So, if you go to your notes, you will see two of these men, two theologians that are opposed to Desmond Ford, the champion to the one type of hermeneutics, and they are the champions to the other type of hermeneutics; and, both these hermeneutics reject William Miller's approach to the Scriptures.

And you will see where it says, "The Four Winds of Daniel 8," you will see "Hasel and Shea." These are well known theologians that opposed Desmond Ford.

But, when Desmond Ford brought his argument that this horn right here, the little horn of Daniel 8, verse 9, was a direct descendent from Greece, they knew they were in trouble. So, they started scrambling.

So, what I am doing is I am going to give you references by Shea and Hasel. And Shea and Hasel, they do not have any agreement with what we teach, because we use the proof-text method of William Miller. They are as opposed to us as Desmond Ford would be, but Hasel and Shea want to pretend that their Biblical approach to hermeneutics upholds Adventism, when it destroys it just as well as Desmond Ford does. The Biblical Research Institute is opposed to Desmond Ford, but the Biblical Research Institute rejects our understanding of Islam. It rejects the 2520. It rejects the Daily. It rejects these Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts], too.

Are you following me?

But, it is seeing that Desmond Ford's interpretation was going to sweep all of Adventism away; so, they went to work.

So, if you will go to William Shea's, Selected Studies on Prophetic Interpretation, from the Daniel and Revelation Study Committee, volume 1, pages 41-43; or, if you go to Gerard F. Hasel's from the Daniel and Revelation Study Committee, volume 2, pages 387-394, you will find that both of those men show from the Hebrew of Daniel 8, verses 8 and 9, that this little horn does not come out of the four horns of verse 8; it comes out of the Four Winds.

The reason that they did that homework is because Desmond Ford was destroying Adventism by showing the little horn was Antiochus Epiphanes. Desmond Ford was using the same argument that was used in Millerite History to attack the symbol [Rome] that establishes the vision.

SUMMARY

So, what am I saying? I am saying that we are still in Daniel 8. Right now we are trying to show from the Scriptures that the Daily in the Book of Daniel is Paganism.

In the previous presentation, we showed that the kingdoms of Bible prophecy in Daniel 7 represent the political manifestations of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy, and they are represented by these beasts.

But, Daniel 8 is tied together with Daniel 7 by Daniel in verse 1 of both chapters; they are tied together. And one of the themes in Bible prophecy is the combination of church and state, and in Daniel, chapter 8, it is the same kingdoms of Bible prophecy, but it is their religious manifestation; and, we know this because Daniel uses Sanctuary animals and Sanctuary terms in Daniel 8 to let us know that this chapter is about the religious manifestations. But, every Sanctuary term that Daniel uses in Daniel 8 is a corrupted symbol from the Sanctuary, whether it is the ram or the goat that have these unbalanced horns because the offerings had to be perfect, or whether it is the little horn and in the Bible it is an abomination for the man to dress like a woman and a woman to dress like a man. And this little horn in verses 9, 10, 11, and 12, in one it is a man and in the next it is a woman, and in the next it is a man, and in the next it is a woman. That is an abomination. All the Sanctuary terms in Daniel 8 are corrupted, counterfeit terms, teaching us that this is the religious manifestation of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy and that it is a counterfeit religion that is expressed in the progressive nature of these kingdoms; because, each of these kingdoms g al themselves more than the previous kingdom: it is an escalation of self-exaltation, which is the very root of Satan's religion.

But now, as we begin to analyze verses 9 through 12, the first thing that I wanted to awaken us to, if we will be awakened, is that this passage of Scripture is of such supreme importance to understand that it is here where men that are in the camp of Desmond Ford begin their warfare that sweeps Adventism away and, in so doing, all they are doing is repeating the warfare that took place in the Millerite History as represented on this [1843] Chart. But, in so doing, they demonstrate a difference between two camps of hermeneutics in Adventism, and both camps reject William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation.

So, I want you to understand that as we proceed through Daniel 8 and onward in our study of the Daily that sometimes the controversies over these verses are noted by the Lord; and, therefore, as students of prophecy, as Bereans rightly dividing the Word, we have a responsibility to understand the implications of these controversies and take note of them and understand that there is being an emphasis placed on this passage, from the history of the Millerites and from our own history that requires that we see the seriousness, the importance, the relevance of this passage where we find the Daily. Okay?

All we did today was kind of put some emphasis, I hope, on the following studies as we march through Daniel, chapter 8, and the Daily.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to place ourselves into the history that is unfolding here and understand that this history has been prefigured in past histories, and that some of these controversies that are fighting against the prophetic message today has been prefigured in ages past. We want to understand what that means for us as your people and for us individually. We want to rightly divide the Word of Truth; we want the vision established in our hearts; so, we want to understand clearly and conclusively that "the robbers of thy people" is the man of sin, the antichrist of Bible prophecy. We want to approach our study from that vision, not the counterfeit vision that Satan has selected to undermine the ability for people to have the vision, to prevent them from being lost here at the end. We ask that you continue to bless the production that is going on here, and the LiveStreaming; and, we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #78

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we come before you this morning, we want to thank you for a good night's rest and ask that as we begin our study of your Word, you once again would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would open our understanding to these truths that are so important here at the end of the world. We are trying to come to grips with the Daily and the Book of Daily at this point in this study, and we would ask that you would give us wisdom and discernment in this regard. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us through a revelation from your Word. We ask that you would do that, and we would ask that you would take control of my thoughts and overrule my ideas, and let the words that are conveyed here be from your Throne Room and not from a human being. We ask that you prepare the hearts of not only the Brothers and Sisters in this room but those that are listening on LiveStream and thereafter on DVD. We thank you for the privilege of serving you in this capacity at this time of Earth's history and ask a blessing upon what we are attempting to do for you this day. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The first page [of your notes] is a long quote, really a nice quote. It does not really have anything to do with our presentation this morning, but I referred to it yesterday; so, I thought I would at least give you opportunity to read it for yourself.

From Kress Collection, pages 105 – 106, it reads,

> "Instead of becoming like the world, we are to become more and more distinct from the world. Satan has combined and will continue to combine with the churches in making a masterly effort against the truth of God. Everything that is done by God's people to make inroads upon the world will call forth determined opposition from the powers of darkness. The enemy's last great conflict will be a most determined one. It will be the last battle between the powers of darkness and the powers of light. Every true child of God will fight bravely on the side of Christ. Those who in this great crisis allow themselves to be more on the side of the world than of God, will eventually place themselves wholly on the side of the world."—

And if you would, notice in the first paragraph, the bold face, it says,

> —"Those who become confused in their understanding of the word, who fail to see the meaning of antichrist, will surely place themselves on the side of antichrist."—

So, when you come to verse 14 of Daniel 11 and it is Rome that establishes the vision (the ch n vision), the fact that the Protestants in the Millerite History tried to corrupt that view, among other things it does not just simply destroy the vision, it shows that they do not understand who the antichrist is and they will ultimately end up on the side of antichrist; and, that this controversy was of such a magnitude in the Millerite History that it is portrayed here on this [1843] Chart right here ["164," midway on the Chart], referring to the counterfeit for Rome (Antiochus Epiphanes). So, it is a subject that is even placed upon this Chart that was directed by the hand of the Lord and should not be altered.

And then at the bottom of that paragraph, it is a kind of different subject but a very relevant thought to understand when you are dealing with prophecy.

> —"There is no time now for us to assimilate with the world. Daniel is standing in his lot and in his place. The prophecies of Daniel and of John are to be understood. They interpret each other. They give to the world truths which everyone should understand. These prophecies are to be witness in the world."—

Speaking of prophecy at the end of the world, Ellen White says,

> —"By their fulfillment in these last days, they will explain themselves."—

It is a very nice principle. You know, sometimes people accuse us of being time setters. It is a ridiculous charge; but, the fact that we are identifying 9/11/2001 as a fulfillment of prophecy, they twist what time setting is. Time setting is predicting something that is going to happen in the future, based upon prophetic time. But, looking back at a prophetic fulfillment to say that it took place on a certain day is not time setting; it is time identification.

But, on 9/11 when that took place, once men and women began to look back at what took place on 9/11, they realized that the characteristics that had been fulfilled on 9/11 demonstrated that it was a fulfillment of prophecy.

And that is what Sister White is saying: By the fulfillment of these specific prophecies in the last days, they will explain themselves.

> —"The Lord is about to punish the world for its iniquity. He is about to punish religious bodies for their rejection of the light and truth which has been given them. The great message, combining the first, second, and third angel's messages, is to be given to the world. This is to be the burden of our work. Those who truly believe in Christ will openly conform to the law of Jehovah. The Sabbath is the sign between God and His people, and we are to make visible our conformity to the law of God by observing the Sabbath. It is to be the mark of distinction between God's chosen people and the world. It means much to be true to God. This embraces health reform. It means that our diet must be simple, that we must be temperate in all things. The many varieties of food so often seen on tables is not necessary, but highly injurious. Mind and body are to be preserved in the best condition of health. Only those who have been trained in the knowledge and fear of God should be chosen to take responsibilities. Those who have been long in the truth, yet who cannot distinguish between the pure principles of righteousness and the principles of evil, whose understanding in regard to justice, mercy, and the love of God is beclouded, should be relieved of responsibility.
> "God has important lessons for his people to learn. Had these lessons been learned before, his cause would not be where it is today. One thing must be done. The truth is not to be withheld from ministers or men in positions of responsibility for fear of incurring their displeasure. There are to be connected with our institutions men who with meekness and in wisdom will declare the whole counsel of God. God's wrath is kindled against those who in carnal security and price have shown contempt for his management. They are endangering the prosperity of the cause.

> "Every false way is a deception, and if sustained, will in the end bring destruction. Thus the Lord permits those who maintain false plans to be destroyed. At the very time when praise and adulation is heard, sudden destruction comes. There are those who, notwithstanding they know of the reproof received by others, because of unfaithfulness, turn away from admonition. These are doubly guilty. They knew the Lord's will and did it not. Their punishment will be proportionate to their guilt. They would not take heed to the word of the Lord." Kress Collection, 105–106.

On other quote is one that I referenced yesterday from Selected Messages, book 2, page 102, that I put in here so you could see it for yourself.

> "There are those now living who, in studying the prophecies of Daniel and John, received great light from God as they passed over the ground where special prophecies were in process of fulfillment in their order. They bore the message of time to the people. The truth shone out clearly as the sun at noonday. Historical events, showing the direct fulfillment of prophecy, were set before the people, and the prophecy was seen to be a figurative delineation of events leading down to the close of this earth's history."—

I was saying that when Daniel 11:14 says that "the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves, but they shall fall and establish the vision" that Sister White agrees with that when she says in the middle of this paragraph (the bold face),

> —"The scenes connected with the working of the man of sin are the last features plainly revealed in this earth's history. The people now have a special message to give to the world, the third angel's message. Those who, in their experience, have passed over the ground, and acted a part in the proclamation of the first, second, and third angels' messages, are not so liable to be led into false paths as are those who have not had an experimental knowledge of the people of God." Selected Messages, book 2, 102.

So, Sister White is saying the final scenes of prophecy at the end of the world have to do with Rome, the man of sin. So, she is in agreement with Daniel.

So, those are just a couple of references from yesterday.

THE DAILY

And I have a few pages here from Uriah Smith. We read yesterday that Uriah Smith's book, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, is God's helping hand; but, we also read that not everything that Uriah Smith says is correct because he was simply a human being, subject to human imperfection.

But, I am still looking at Daniel 11:14 in relation to Daniel 8 and 9, because we are going through Daniel 8.

And Daniel 11:14 is introducing where Rome comes into the prophetic history in Daniel 11 (Pagan Rome).

> "[14]And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they hall fall." Daniel 11:14 (KJV).

And, by verses 14, 15, and 16 of Daniel 11, Rome has conquered the world. And in those verses Rome conquers three geographical areas.

And in Daniel 8 and 9, Rome once again conquers the same geographical areas; so, I am still looking at Daniel 11:14 in connection with drawing some of the truths out of that passage, to feed them back into Daniel 8, verses 9, 10, 11, and 12.

So, what you have on five or so pages in your notes are quotes from Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation by Uriah Smith [herewith included in this transcript]; and, I will tell you what parts of these quotes that I am going to dissect out of his passage, and it is right there in the bold face of your notes.

Uriah Smith is going to tell us that in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 23, that the Jews and the Romans formed a political alliance. You will see that in your notes, an alliance with the Jews.

ALLIANCE WITH THE JEWS—B.C. 161 OR 162; B.C. 65 SYRIA;
B.C. 63 JUDEA; B.C. 51–47
GUARDIANSHIP OF EGYPT; B.C. 31 EGYPT AND THE BATTLE OF ACTIUM

"'VERSE 16. [Verse sixteen quoted.]

"Although Egypt could not stand before Antiochus, the king of the north, Antiochus could not stand before the Romans, who now came against him. No kingdoms were longer able to resist this rising power. Syria was conquered, and added to the Roman Empire, when Pompey, B.C.65, deprived Antiochus Asiaticus of his possessions, and reduced Syria to a Roman province.

"The same power was also to stand in the Holy Land, and consume it. Rome became connected with the people of God, the Jews, by alliance, B.C.162, from which date it holds a prominent place in the prophetic calendar. It did not, however, acquire jurisdiction over Judea by actual conquest till B.C.63; and then in the following manner.

"On Pompey's return from his expedition against Mithridates, king of Pontus, two competitors, Hyrcanus and Aristobulus, were struggling for the crown of Judea. Their cause came before Pompey, who soon perceived the injustice of the claims of Aristobulus, but wished to defer decision in the matter till after his long-desired expedition into Arabia, promising then to return, and settle their affairs as should seem just and proper. Aristobulus, fathoming Pompey's real sentiments, hastened back to Judea, armed his subjects, and prepared for a vigorous defense, determined, at all hazards, to keep the crown, which he foresaw would be adjudicated to another. Pompey closely followed the fugitive. As he approached Jerusalem, Aristobulus, beginning to repent of his course, came out to meet him, and endeavored to accommodate matters by promising entire submission and large sums of money. Pompey, accepting this offer, sent Gabinius, at the head of a detachment of soldiers, to receive the money. But when that lieutenant-general arrived at Jerusalem, he found the gates shut against him, and was told from the top of the walls that the city would not stand to the agreement.

"Pompey, not to be deceived in this way with impunity, put Aristobulus, whom he had retained with him, in irons, and immediately marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. The partisans of Aristobulus were for defending the place; those of Hyrcanus, for opening the gates. The latter being in the majority, and prevailing, Pompey was given free entrance into the city. Whereupon the adherents of Aristobulus retired to the mountain of the temple, as fully determined to defend that place as Pompey was to reduce it. At the end of three months a breach was made in the wall sufficient for an assault, and the place was carried at the point of the sword. In the terrible slaughter that ensued, twelve thousand persons were slain. It was an affecting sight, observes the historian, to see the priests, engaged at the time in divine service, with calm hand and steady purpose pursue their accustomed work, apparently unconscious of the wild tumult, though all around them their friends were given to the slaughter, and though often their own blood mingled with that of their sacrifices.

Having put an end to the war, Pompey demolished the walls of Jerusalem, transferred several cities from the jurisdiction of Judea to that of Syria, and imposed tribute on the Jews. Thus for the first time was Jerusalem placed by conquest in the hands of that power which was to hold the 'glorious land' in its iron grasp till it had utterly consumed it.

"'VERSE 17. [Verse seventeen quoted.]

"Bishop Newton furnishes another reading for this verse, which seems more clearly to express the sense, as follows: 'He shall also set his face to enter by force the whole kingdom.' Verse 16 brought us down to the conquest of Syria and Judea by the Romans. Rome had previously conquered Macedon and Thrace. Egypt was now all that remained of the 'whole kingdom' of Alexander, not brought into subjection to the Roman power, which power now set its face to enter by force into that country.

"Ptolemy Auletes died B.C.51. He left the crown and kingdom of Egypt to his eldest son and daughter, Ptolemy and Cleopatra. It was provided in his will that they should marry together, and reign jointly; and because they were young, they were placed under the guardianship of the Romans. The Roman people accepted the charge, and appointed Pompey as guardian of the young heirs of Egypt.

"A quarrel having not long after broken out between Pompey and Caesar, the famous battle of Pharsalia was fought between the two generals. Pompey, being defeated, fled into Egypt. Caesar immediately followed him thither; but before his arrival, Pompey was basely murdered by Ptolemy, whose guardian he had been appointed. Caesar therefore assumed the appointment which had been given to Pompey, as guardian of Ptolemy and Cleopatra. He found Egypt in commotion from internal disturbances, Ptolemy and Cleopatra having become hostile to each other, and she being deprived of her share in the government. Notwithstanding this, he did not hesitate to land at Alexandria with his small force, 800 horse and 3200 foot, take cognizance of the quarrel, and undertake its settlement. The troubles daily increasing, Caesar found his small force insufficient to maintain his position, and being unable to leave Egypt on account of the north wind which blew at that season, he sent into Asia, ordering all the troops he had in that quarter to come to his assistance as soon as possible.

"In the most haughty manner he decreed that Ptolemy and Cleopatra should disband their armies, appear before him for a settlement of their differences, and abide by his decision. Egypt being an independent kingdom, this haughty decree was considered an affront to its royal dignity, at which the Egyptians, highly incensed, flew to arms. Caesar replied that he acted by virtue of the will of their father, Auletes, who had put his children under the guardianship of the senate and people of Rome, the whole authority of which was now vested in his person as consul; and that, as guardian, he had the right to arbitrate between them.

"The matter was finally brought before him, and advocates appointed to plead the cause of the respective parties. Cleopatra, aware of the foible of the great Roman conqueror, judged that the beauty of her presence would be more effectual in securing judgment in her favor than any advocate she could employ. To reach his presence undetected, she had recourse to the following stratagem: Laying herself at full length in a bundle of clothes, Apollodorus, her Sicilian servant, wrapped it up in a cloth, tied it with a thong, and raising it upon his Herculean shoulders, sought the apartments of Caesar. Claiming to have a present for the Roman general, he was admitted through the gate of the citadel, entered into the presence of Caesar, and deposited the burden at his feet. When Caesar had unbound this animated bundle, lo! the beautiful Cleopatra stood before him. He was far from being displeased with the stratagem, and being of a character described in 2 Peter 2:14, the first sight of so beautiful a person, says Rollin, had all the effect upon him she had desired.

"Caesar at length decreed that the brother and sister should occupy the throne jointly, according to the intent of the will. Pothinus, the chief minister of state, having been principally instrumental in expelling Cleopatra from the throne, feared the result of her restoration. He therefore began to excite jealousy and hostility against Caesar, by insinuating among the populace that he designed eventually to give Cleopatra the sole power. Open sedition soon followed. Achillas, at the head of 20,000 men, advanced to drive Caesar from Alexandria. Skillfully disposing his small body of men in the streets and alleys of the city, Caesar found no difficulty in repelling the attack. The Egyptians undertook to destroy his fleet. He retorted by burning theirs. Some of the burning vessels being driven near the quay, several of the buildings of the city took fire, and the famous Alexandrian library, containing nearly 400,000 volumes, was destroyed.

"The war growing more threatening, Caesar sent into all the neighboring countries for help. A large fleet came from Asia Minor to his assistance. Mithridates set out for Egypt with an army raised in Syria and Cilicia. Antipater the Idumean joined him with 3,000 Jews. The Jews, who held the passes into Egypt, permitted the army to pass on without interruption. Without this co-operation on their part, the whole plan must have failed. The arrival of this army decided the contest. A decisive battle was fought near the Nile, resulting in a complete victory for Caesar. Ptolemy, attempting to escape, was drowned in the river. Alexandria and all Egypt then submitted to the victor. Rome had now entered into and absorbed the whole of the original kingdom of Alexander.

"By the 'upright ones' of the text are doubtless meant the Jews, who gave him the assistance already mentioned. Without this, he must have failed; with it, he completely subdued Egypt to his power, B.C.47." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 258–262.

31BC, 161BC

"By verses 23 and 24 we are brought down this side of the league between the Jews and the Romans, B.C. 161, to the time when Rome had acquired universal dominion. The verse now before us brings to view a vigorous campaign against the king of the south, Egypt, and the occurrence of a notable battle between great and mighty armies. Did such events as these transpire in the history of Rome about this time?—They did. This was the war between Egypt and Rome; and the battle was the battle of Actium. Let us take a brief view of the circumstances that led to this conflict. . . .

"The battle was fought September 2, B.C.31, at the mouth of the gulf of Ambracia, near the city of Actium. The world was the stake for which these stern warriors, Antony and Caesar, now played. The contest, long doubtful, was at length decided by the course which Cleopatra pursued; for she, frightened at the din of battle, took to flight when there was no danger, and drew after her the whole Egyptian fleet. Antony, beholding this movement, and lost to everything but his blind passion for her, precipitately followed, and yielded a victory to Caesar, which, had his Egyptian forces proved true to him, and had he proved true to his own manhood, he might have gained.

"This battle doubtless marks the commencement of the 'time' mentioned in verse 24. And as during this 'time' devices were to be forecast from the stronghold, or Rome, we should conclude that at the end of that period western supremacy would cease, or such a change take place in the empire that the city would no longer be considered the seat of government. From B.C.31, a prophetic time, or 360 years, would bring us to A.D.330. And it hence becomes a noteworthy fact that the seat of empire was removed from Rome to Constantinople by Constantine the Great in that very year. (See Encyclopedia Americana, art. Constantinople.)" Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 273–275.

"'VERSE 9. [Verses nine through twelve quoted.]

"A third power is here introduced into the prophecy. In the explanation which the angel gave to Daniel of these symbols, this one is not described in language so definite as that concerning Medo–Persia and Grecia. Hence a flood of wild conjecture is at once let loose. Had not the angel, in language which cannot be misunderstood, stated that Medo–Persia and Grecia were denoted by the ram and the he-goat, it is impossible to tell what applications men would have given us of those symbols. Probably they would have applied them to anything and everything but the right objects. Leave men a moment to their own judgment in the interpretation of prophecy, and we immediately have the most sublime exhibitions of human fancy.

"There are two leading applications of the symbol now under consideration, which are all that need be noticed in these brief thoughts. The first is that the 'little horn' here introduced denotes the Syrian king, Antiochus Epiphanes; the second, that it denotes the Roman power. It is an easy matter to test the claims of these two positions." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 172.

SOUTH, EAST, AND PLEASANT LAND

65BC, 63BC

"4. The little horn waxed great toward the east. This also was true of Rome. Rome conquered Syria B.C.65, and made it a province.

"5. The little horn waxed great toward the pleasant land. So did Rome. Judea is called the pleasant land in many scriptures. The Romans made it a province of their empire, B.C.63, and eventually destroyed the city and the temple, and scattered the Jews over the face of the whole earth." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 176.

"The battle was fought September 2, B.C.31, at the mouth of the gulf of Ambracia, near the city of Actium. Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 275.

And you will notice—and I do not know if it is a typo on the CD-ROM or a typo in Uriah Smith's actual book, or if there is a legitimate reason for marking two dates—but in this passage (and I have noticed this for years) you are going to see in the second paragraph down where you see bold face "B.C.162," where Uriah Smith marks the alliance between Rome and the Jews as 162. But, if you read down further when he mentions it again, he marks it "B.C.161," I do not know if he has a reason for saying the alliance was formed in 162BC and then there was something more significant that happened the next year, or if it is a typo, or if it was simply a typo when it was put in the CD-ROM; but, it is not germane to what we are studying anyway. Daniel 11:23 is marking an alliance between God's people (the Jews) and Rome.[27] That is in these comments by Uriah Smith.

Also in these comments is the fact that Rome conquered Syria in "B.C.65." The point about that, that I want you to see, is when you are in Daniel 11 the power that controls Egypt is the King of the South; the power that controls Syria—and Syria in that time period of history included Babylon—the power that controls Syria is the King of the North. So, when Pagan Rome conquers Syria in "B.C.65," it becomes the King of the North, in the sequence of those verses.

And then in "B.C.63," Pagan Rome conquers the pleasant land, and it conquers Palestine, and it conquers Judah (God's people).

And then it is sometimes missed but it is important to see, you are going to see Uriah Smith's commentary on the fact that in "B.C.51" the head of Egypt died and he left the rulership of Egypt to his son and his daughter. Ptolemy was his son, Cleopatra was his daughter; but, they were young.

So, the Romans came in and took guardianship over Egypt, to watch over Egypt until these two children grew up and they were supposed to get married to one another. But, within a few years, Cleopatra and her brother Ptolemy started fighting with one another.

So, Caesar comes in and attempts to calm things down, and all he does is create a revolution against them, a riot; and he is in big-time trouble because he has few of his army there and the Egyptians are revolting against them; but, Rome has already been placed as the protector over Egypt.

And there are at least a couple of things that you need to note about this, is that at this point Rome is not just really militarily conquering Egypt; it has been given the guardianship of Egypt. So, technically, based upon the Biblical rule of whoever you are overcome by becomes your master, at this point Egypt ceases to be the King of the South; because, if you are going to be a king, you are going to have to be ruling your own country. And when they surrender their country into the guardianship of Rome, they change from being the King of the South to just simply Egypt. Okay? I want you to see that.

And then the other thing is that in here Uriah Smith will tell you that in this revolt that Caesar was dealing with when he went in there and tried to calm down the civil war between Ptolemy and his sister Cleopatra and this revolt is on his hand, that historians say that he would not have prevailed in subduing that revolt if he had not previously had an alliance with the Jews which, therefore, the Jews allowed armies to come across their country, unhindered, to Egypt, to give him backup in this revolt. If the Jews had not been in an alliance and they would have put up a resistance to these armies coming to Egypt to protect him, then they would not have gotten there in time and he would have lost that battle.

So, the point about that is, is this history is repeated at the end of time. In Daniel 10:14, Gabriel comes—let us look at Daniel 10:14—Gabriel comes to Daniel and tells him the purpose of this vision of Daniel 10, 11, and 12 is to show what happens to God's people at the end of the world.

[27] Correcting audible on DVD to text of quote from Uriah Smith in Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation.

If you go to Daniel 10, verse 14, Gabriel says this to Daniel,

> "[14]Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision"—AND THIS IS THE CH N VISION—"for yet the vision is for many days." Daniel 10:14 (KJV).

So, Daniel 10, 11, and 12 is the same vision. There are no two visions or three visions in there. The chapter breaks are arbitrary by the translators. So, Gabriel's purpose in Daniel's last vision is to illustrate what happens to God's people in the last days, and that is illustrated in Daniel 11:40-45.

And in the next chapter, in Daniel 11, verse 14, Daniel is instructed that it is "the robbers of thy people" that exalt themselves and that fall that establishes the vision. That is Rome establishing the vision, and this is the ch n vision again and the vision is about what happens to God's people in the latter days. So, you know from this that verses 14, 15, and 16, when Pagan Rome is taking control of the world that this is an illustration of the end of the world, because that is the purpose of this vision, is to illustrate what happens to God's people in the last days.

Do you follow me? Because, all the prophets are speaking about the last days.

So, the things that you will see in Uriah Smith's commentary over these pages, (1) there is a league formed between the Jews and Rome; and, (2) Rome becomes the King of the North when it conquers Syria in "B.C.65," It conquers the pleasant land in "B.C.63." It becomes the guardian of Egypt from "51 to B.C.47."

And then, once Antony, as a Roman protector of Egypt goes to Egypt thereafter and falls in love with Cleopatra and foments a revolt against the Roman Empire that the Roman Empire has to come and quell, this battle, the Battle of Actium in 31BC, is when Rome fully through military strength takes control of Egypt.

And I say "takes control of Egypt" purposely; because, when they became guardians of Egypt, before that time Ptolemy, the father that died, he was the King of the South, but he dies and he leaves Egypt under the guardianship of Pagan Rome. At that point, if they have a guardian over or a governor over or a protector over them, they are no longer the king. They cease to be the King of the South and become simply Egypt. But then years later, in 31BC with the story of Antony and Cleopatra, you have the Battle of Actium.

So, what I am saying is, if this is illustrating the end of the world (and it is), then in Daniel 11:40-45, you find the King of the North in verse 40 conquering the King of the South; but, in verse 42, the King of the North is conquering Egypt. Okay?

So, in this history here in [verses] 14, 15, and 16, you have the history where the Pagan Rome King of the North, it conquered the King of the South and, thereafter, it conquered Egypt.

And history tells us, when the Soviet Union (and the modern King of the South) was swept away in 1989 that the only way that the King of the North (the Papacy) could accomplish this sweeping away of the Soviet Union was with participation from the United States.

The United States is the glorious land.

So, in this history of [verses] 14, 15, and 16, Uriah Smith will tell you, as you read through this, that the only way that Caesar could prevail in the battle with the King of the South, when he was taking guardianship over it, was that there had previously been an alliance between Rome and the glorious land, and that the glorious land participated in that rebellion and, had they not participated in that rebellion, Rome could not have swept away the King of the South.

So, this is a history that is pointing forward to the Alliance between Ronald Reagan and the Papacy at the end of the world; and, I want you to see that parallel history.

So, everything that I am claiming about these dates and this history is found in your notes.

So in your notes, beneath Uriah Smith's words, you will see the summation of Uriah Smith's comments, and it says,

ALLIANCE WITH THE JEWS: DANIEL 11:23−B.C. 161 OR 162

B.C. 65 SYRIA−KING OF THE NORTH

Pagan Rome becomes the King of the North.

B.C. 63 JUDEA−THE GLORIOUS LAND

Pagan Rome conquers the glorious land (the pleasant land).

B.C. 51−47 GUARDIANSHIP OF EGYPT−THE KING OF THE SOUTH

Pagan Rome becomes the guardian of Egypt between "B.C.51 and 47. The King of the South is swept away.

2 Peter 2:19

And you can look at 2 Peter 2:19—let us look at 2 Peter 2:19, if you are not familiar with this principle.

My daughter is three years older than my son; and, I can remember when they were young, very young, my daughter used to pin him down and make him say, "Uncle," before she would let him get up. And now he is almost 6 foot, 5 inches, and that could not happen! All right?

But, the person that controls the struggles is the King. All right? Even if you had been the king before that person walks in the room, when he walks in the room and pins you to the floor and makes you say, "Uncle," you are no longer the king. That is the principle that I am wanting you to see.

Verse 19—I suppose my son and my daughter will like that story being on tape—of chapter 2 of 2 Peter.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "[19]While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage." 2 Peter 2:19 (KJV).

Okay. So, it may not have been initially a struggle when Ptolemy died and left Egypt to Rome, but over the next four years or so it turned into a struggle and Egypt ceased to be the King of the South.

B.C. 31 EGYPT AND THE BATTLE OF ACTIUM−EGYPT

Egypt was then under the guardianship of Pagan Rome; but, they still were going to be militarily defeated when the rebellion of Antony and Cleopatra arose in 31BC.

THREE OBSTACLES—PAGAN, PAPAL, AND MODERN

Daniel 8:9; 11:14-16; Daniel 7:7, 8, 24; Daniel 11:40-42

So, in this history, if you go back to Daniel 11, verses 14 through 16, you will find that in verse 14 is the first introduction of Pagan Rome into this history.

> "[14]And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall. [15]So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand."—

And verse 15 is still talking about Syria, who has plans for conquering Egypt. But, then in verse 16, Pagan Rome comes back into the narrative and now it is accomplishing its work of taking control of the world. And it says,

> "[16]But he that cometh against him"—

He that comes against Syria (Pagan Rome is going to come against Syria).

> —"[16]But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him:"—

This is the rise of Pagan Rome into history.

> —"and none shall stand before him, for he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed." Daniel 11:14-16 (KJV).

FROM THE AUDIENCE: And it is 161BC.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yeah, I know.

I am getting from the background someone saying that it is 161BC. Yes, I am not arguing that. I am just pointing out that in the passages from Uriah Smith that I am giving you, that he says both; and, I am telling you out front, I do not know if it is a typo in his book or a typo in the CD-ROM. But, we are not arguing that date here at this point.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: I have checked the Rasmussen in German from 1907 and it says 161.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Both places? Because, it says 161 in here, but it also says 162.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It does say 162 here.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, the German translation—and I do not have a whole lot of confidence in the German translations, but it says 161 consistently. All right?

There are places, particularly in Uriah Smith's book, the original translation of Uriah Smith's book into German when it is dealing with the passages that address the Daily that are bad.

But, that is not even germane to what we are discussing here. All right? I am not arguing any date here. I am arguing what took place in these histories of verses 14 and on.

So, on to verse 17,

> "[17]He shall also"—THIS IS PAGAN ROME—"set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom,"—

And the "whole kingdom" is referencing the whole kingdom of Alexander the Great, the whole world. He is going to go into Egypt and conquer Egypt now.

> —"and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him." Daniel 11:17 (KJV).

So, in this passage, from verse 14 through verse 17, actually, when he conquers Egypt, we have a parallel to Daniel 8, verse 9.

So, if you will go to Daniel 8, verse 9, you have a second witness there. In verse 9, remember because the theologians that had accepted this corrupt view of interpreting the Bible in the 1930s, when they realized where these corrupt ideas were heading when Desmond Ford started articulating them in the 1970s, then they had to scramble to try to defend against the conclusion that Desmond Ford was drawing that sweeps away everything of Adventism. So, they did their homework and showed that from the Hebrew this little horn does not come from one of the four horns of Alexander the Great; it comes from one of the Four Winds.

So, in verse 9, it says,

> "[9]And out of one of them"—

Out of one of the Four Winds.

> —"came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great,"—

There is the g al which we have discussed before.

> —"toward the south,"—

There is Pagan Rome conquering Egypt, the South.

> —"and toward the east,"—

There is Pagan Rome conquering Syria.

> —"and toward the pleasant land." Daniel 8:9 KJV).

There is Pagan Rome conquering Israel.

So, you have two witnesses in Daniel 8:9, and Daniel 11:14 through 16, that in order for Pagan Rome to take control of the world, it had to conquer three obstacles.

But, the point here in verse 14 of Daniel 11 is that Rome establishes the vision, and the vision, according to Daniel 10:14, illustrates what is going to befall God's people in the latter days.

And what is going to befall God's people in the latter days in the vision of Daniel 11 is that the King of the North (the modern Papacy) is also going to have to conquer three obstacles: the King of the South, "the glorious land," and Egypt. That is Daniel 11:40, Daniel 11:41, and Daniel 11:42.

So, we are finding that Rome establishes the vision; because, what goes on in Daniel 11:14-17, and Daniel 8:9 is, it is illustrating that when Rome takes control of the world, it has to overcome three obstacles.

And this is also the case with Papal Rome.

If you will, go to Daniel 7, verse 8 and verse 24 of Daniel 7.

Pagan Rome is Daniel 7:7:

> "[7]After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns." Daniel 7:7 (KJV).

And Pagan Rome divides into ten horns in verse 7 of Daniel 7.

And then in verse 8 [of Daniel 7], it says,

> "[8]I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things. . . ."—

And if you go to verse 24 [of Daniel], it says,

> —"[24]And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. . . ." Daniel 7:24 (KJV).

Daniel 11:40-42

So, when Papal Rome takes control of the world, it also has to overcome three kingdoms: the Heruli, the Ostrogoths, and the Vandals.

When Pagan Rome took control of the world, it had to overcome three kingdoms: the East, the South, and "the pleasant land."

And both of these witnesses (Pagan Rome and Papal Rome) are pointing forward to modern Rome that has to overcome three obstacles: the King of the South, "the glorious land," and Egypt in Daniel 11:40, 41, and 42.

> "[40]And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall > overflow and pass over. [41]He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries [PEOPLE] shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. [42]He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape." Daniel 11:40-42 (KJV).

So, what we are saying is that in Daniel 11, verse 14, it is Rome that establishes the vision; and, the vision that is being established is what befalls God's people in the latter days.

HISTORY REPEATED

So, we are talking here about a symbol, of Rome establishing the vision; but, also, we can see that we are talking about the repetition of history.

If the place where we are told that Rome establishes the vision—

And by the way, my Brother came in and he was looking this morning in the bookcase for Ballantine's book about W. W. Prescott; and, of course, this book puts W. W. Prescott in a wonderful light when there is not any light there associated with W. W. Prescott. In that book he will document from the wrong reasoning, from the wrong logic that as Prescott was pushing the false view of the Daily, he also began to publish The Protestant Magazine. And Ballantine will document that although Prescott never mentions in any of the publications of The Protestant Magazine during this history that he believed the Daily was Christ's Sanctuary ministry, he documents that The Protestant Magazine, the whole purpose of it was, is to put the background arguments to prove that the Daily represented Christ's Sanctuary ministry. So, he never said it openly, but he cloaked it in The Protestant Magazine. That was the purpose of that magazine. That was the work that W. W. Prescott was doing.

And my Brother was looking for that book to—I do not know what he wanted to review in it; for his presentations today, I suppose.

But, the point is, what Prescott did, what he wanted to do whether he was doing it purposely or just because he was being led in a direction that he was not understanding, is he took Rome out of the vision. Okay? He presented an Adventist message that was totally emphasizing Christ, as he saw it; but, it took Rome out of the equation. And the Bible, Sister White has a quote where she says it was the voice of Christ from the days of Adam to the closing scenes of time that spoke through Patriarchs and Prophets.

So, when we are talking about Daniel 11:14, it is the voice of Christ that is saying that, and Christ is saying that it is Rome that establishes the vision. So, if I invent a theology, as Prescott did, that is all about Christ but it purposely removes Rome from that vision, then it is a false Christ. It is a false Christ; it is a counterfeit.

So, that is the thing that we need to get settled into about Daniel 11, verse 14, is that if you remove Rome from the ch n vision, Proverbs tells us where there is no vision, the people perish, no matter how much emphasis you put upon Christ and the love of God.

So, dealing with the fact that this is the symbol that establishes the ch n vision, and therefore the principle that these histories that illustrate Rome in the Bible are illustrating what befalls God's people in the latter days, we have a very important quote from Sister White that ties these two concepts together.

In Manuscript Releases, number 13, page 394, it says,

> "We have no time to lose. Troublous times are before us. The world is stirred with the spirit of war. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place. The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel"—[to be continued]

The prophecy where?

You really need to think. This is one of the most important passages in the Spirit of Prophecy for the prophetic understanding. And you may not be aware of it, but you will get all kinds of convoluted human interpretations of what Sister White is saying in this quote. So, we will walk through it a little bit, carefully.

—"The prophecy"—in what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The 11th of Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The 11th of Daniel. So, she is talking about Daniel, chapter 11.

> —"The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment."—

In The Great Controversy, page 356, Ellen White says the Time of the End is 1798; and, Ellen White became a prophet in 1844. So, 1798 came before 1844. So, when Sister White says, "the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment," she knows that 1798 was the Time of the End, and she knows that Daniel 11, verse 40, says, "And at the time of the end." So, she is saying that she understands that the first 39 verses of Daniel 11 are past history. So, when she says, "the eleventh chapter of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment," the fulfillment she is pointing forward to is verses 40 through 45. They are the ones that are still in the future to her. I mean, Daniel 11:40 begins in 1798; but, the verse itself projects all the way to the next verse, and the next verse is The Sunday Law.

So, Sister White is talking about the fulfillment of Daniel 11 beginning in verse 40.

> —"The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated."—

And we have been dealing today and yesterday with the history of Daniel 11, verse 14; and, she is saying, much of the history that has taken place in this chapter will be repeated. And I hope you will see that verses 14 through 17 are definitely one of those histories; because, we see Rome conquering three geographical areas, and sure enough Papal Rome did the very same thing. And we can see three obstacles in verses 40 through 45 that the King of the North (Rome) has to conquer. So, that history is included in this statement.

But, then she says,

> —"In the thirtieth verse a power is spoken of that 'shall be grieved, [Daniel 11:30–36 quoted.]"—

DANIEL 11:30-36

And Sister White quotes Daniel 11:30 to 36.

Go to Daniel 11, verse 30.

> "[30]For the ships of Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved,"—

And that is right where she cuts in and she quotes all the way through verse 36.

> —"[30]For the ships of Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. [31] And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily ~~sacrifice~~, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. [32] And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. [33] And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. [34] Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. [35] And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed. [36] And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done." Daniel 11:30-36 (KJV).

So, she is telling us that the principle that will illustrate the final fulfillment of Daniel 11 is the principle that the histories that are referenced in the previous verses of Daniel 11 (verses 1 through 39) will be repeated in the final verses of Daniel 11. That is what she is teaching us here.

But, after she says much of these histories will be repeated, then she isolates verses 30 to 36. These are the ones that she really wants us to see because she takes the time to quote this history. And after she quotes verses 30 to 36, she says, > —"Conclusion of MR, no. 13, 394 Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place." Manuscript Releases, number 13, 394.

So, she is nailing down that verses 30 to 36 are an illustration of Daniel 11:40 through 45.

And so we are not going to take time with this, but I want to make a point here right off the bat.

Verse 31 says,

> "[31]And arms shall stand on his part,"—

Okay. This is part of the history that is going to be repeated at the end of the world; and, if you grammatically break down verse 31, these arms that stand up for the Papacy, they are going to do three things in this verse, four if you count their standing up. First, they are going to stand up for the Papacy. It says, > —"[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,"—

Okay. That is one of the things they are going to do. They are going to pollute the sanctuary of strength.

> —"and shall take away the daily sacrifice,"—

They are going to take away the daily sacrifice.

And the third thing that they are going to do is,

> —"and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

Now, Brothers and Sisters, right there Sister White is telling you that when the final verses of Daniel 11 begin to unfold in history, that the correct understanding of the Daily becomes Present Truth.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay?

Verse 40 was fulfilled in 1989; and, before that time period, perhaps you could argue that the Daily was simply truth. But, once verse 40 of Daniel 11 was fulfilled with the collapse of the Soviet Union, when the King of the North sweeps away the King of the South in 1989 in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, then this passage of verses 30 to 36 becomes Present Truth; and, part of this passage she says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place." Part of this passage is identifying the history of the Daily; so, how you understand the Daily now after 1989 (is it the Paganism, or is it Christ's Sanctuary ministry?), it becomes important because the whole purpose of Daniel 11, of Daniel's last vision (chapters 10, 11, and 12), according to Gabriel, is to illustrate what will befall God's people in the latter days.

So, if you take a history that has been specifically marked by Inspiration to illustrate what befalls God's people in the last days and you controvert one of those symbols, you are controverting your pattern to understand what befalls God's people in the last days.

And if you do not think it is important to understand what befalls God's people in the last days, then you need to wrap your mind around Daniel, chapter 10; because, Daniel wanted to understand this thing. He was fasting and praying for three weeks; and, finally Gabriel comes to him.

Gabriel came to Daniel and said, "I would have been here the very first prayer that you gave, but I was in a struggle with the prince and the king of the Medes and the Persians. And, this struggle was so important that Michael (Christ) had to come and intercede."

And why does Christ come and intercedes? Well, for one reason, so that Cyrus would go ahead and let the Jews return and rebuild Jerusalem; but, for another reason, it is because he wanted Gabriel to tell Daniel what was going to befall God's people in the latter days. This was important enough that Satan struggled to stop it!

So, if you do not think it is important, you need to wrap your mind around Daniel, chapter 10. What is going to befall God's people in the latter days is important, and what establishes that truth is Rome. So, we have to seek to understand all of the symbols that are given in this sequence of history correctly.

So, we are going to go through some of these characteristics.

GRIEVED—TRUMPETS

Sister White begins by saying Rome is grieved.

And once again, you can read in your notes under "Grieved-Trumpets," the ships of Chittim are representing Carthage; and, there was a warfare that was launched from Carthage that began to bring the Roman Empire to its knees, thus grieving it. And Uriah Smith tells you who was this warfare represented by, and it was the Vandals.

And the Vandals were the Second Trumpet.

> "The prophetic narrative still has reference to the power which has been the subject of the prophecy from the sixteenth verse; namely, Rome. What were the ships of Chittim that came against this power, and when was this movement made? What country or power is meant by Chittim? Dr. A. Clarke, on Isaiah 23:1, has this note: 'From the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. The news of the destruction of Tyre by Nebuchadnezzar is said to be brought to them from Chittim, the islands and coasts of the Mediterranean; for the Tyrians, says Jerome, on verse 6, when they saw they had no other means of escape, fled in their ships, and took refuge in Carthage, and in the islands of the Ionian and AEgean Seas. So also Jochri on the same place.' Kitto gives the same locality to Chittim; namely, the coast and islands of the Mediterranean; and the mind is carried by the testimony of Jerome to a definite and celebrated city situated in that land; that is, Carthage.
> "Was ever a naval warfare with Carthage as a base of operations, waged against the Roman Empire? We have but to think of the terrible onslaught of the Vandals upon Rome under the fierce Genseric, to answer readily in the affirmative. Sallying every spring from the port of Carthage at the head of his numerous and well-disciplined naval forces, he spread consternation through all the Maritime Provinces of the empire. That this is the work brought to view is further evident when we consider that we are brought down in the prophecy to this very time. In verse 29, the transfer of empire to Constantinople we understood to be mentioned. Following in due course of time, as the next remarkable revolution, came the irruptions of the barbarians of the North, prominent among which was the Vandal war already mentioned. The years A.D.428–468 mark the career of Genseric." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 281.

So, in this history that Sister White points to, Pagan Rome, its kingdom is falling apart. And when she introduces verses 30 to 36 and says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place," when the last six verses of Daniel 11 are illustrated and fulfilled, she cuts in to the point where the Second Trumpet is attacking the Empire, and thus lets us know that part of the history that takes place when we understand what is going to befall God's people in the last days is that a Trumpet power is going to be bringing the Empire to its knees. In that day and age it was the Roman Empire, but that history is illustrating the end of the world; and, thus it is saying, when the last six verses of Daniel 11 are fulfilled, a Trumpet power will be bringing the whole world to its knees. Okay?

Revelation, chapters 8 and 9

So, this ties in this reference to it being grieved and to it being the Vandals being the Second Trumpet. What it does is it pulls Revelation 8 and 9 into this history, line upon line. Okay?

> "Chapter 8:1 And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. 2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. 3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. 5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.
> 6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.
> 7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.
> 8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; 9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.
> 10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.
> 12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.
> 13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!
> "Chapter 9:1 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. 2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. 3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. 5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. [6] And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. [7] And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. [8] And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. [9] And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. [10] And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. [11] And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

[12] One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

[13] And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, [14] Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. [15] And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. [16] And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them. [17] And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. [18] By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. [19] For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt. [20] And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: [21] Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts." Revelation 8 and 9 (KJV).

So, just from the one expression, "he shall be grieved," you can pull in two chapters out of the Book of Revelation to add to this story. Okay?

Why am I saying that? I am saying that because as we go through these characteristics of verses 30 to 36, I am going to want you to see, if you will, that Rome is what establishes the vision. This is all about Rome and the dynamics of Rome. And if you do not see that, then you have no vision and you perish.

And the purpose of this is to familiarize us with this Roman history as we go through Daniel 8 more carefully, but also to emphasize how important it is to be clear about the symbols that represent Rome in God's Word.

ARMS—AD496 (CLOVIS)

Revelation 13:2; Daniel 8:12

Okay. Another thing the arms are going to do, they are going to stand up.

Go to Revelation 13:2.

ARMS means military might, economic might. You have to have money to finance an army; so, it is military might, but it is coming from countries that have the economic power to have a military.

In Revelation 13:2, it says,

> "[2]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon"—

And Sister White plainly tells us this beast is the Papacy.

> —"and the dragon"—

And if you go back into chapter 12 of Revelation and you look closely, Revelation, chapters 12 and 13 are not separate, isolated visions. They are the same vision. They are sequentially identifying the role of the dragon, which in The Great Controversy Sister White is saying the dragon in Revelation 12 is Satan, but in a secondary sense it is Pagan Rome. And then it goes into chapter 13 which tells us about the Papacy and the United States. So, Revelation 12 and 13 is telling us about the Dragon, the Beast, and the False Prophet, the three powers in Revelation 16 that lead the world to Armageddon.

And, when it is going to give us some information in verse 2 of Revelation 13 about the Papal power, about the beast, it says the dragon (Pagan Rome in this sense) gave three things to the Papacy. It says, > —"and the dragon gave him his power,"—

And the power that the dragon gave him was his military power, beginning with Clovis in AD496.

So, this is a parallel passage to Daniel 11, verse 31, where it says, "And arms shall stand on his part, . . . " This is the dragon (Pagan Rome) giving military strength to the Papacy.

> —"and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority." Revelation 13:2 (KJV).

Okay. The other thing that Pagan Rome (the dragon) is going to give to the Papacy is his seat—that is when Constantine moved the Empire to Constantinople in the year AD330—and great authority, and that is its civil authority that was given to the Papacy in AD533 by Justinian in the Decree of Justinian.

And Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning.

And I meant to add this, but it is not in there. If you would go really quickly to Revelation 17:17 just for a point of reference, the civil authority was given to the Papacy by Pagan Rome in AD533 by Justinian, and that history is prefiguring when the civil authority of Planet Earth is going to be given into the hands of the Papacy at the end of the world.

And in Revelation 17:17, these Ten Kings represent the civil authority at the end of the world, and it says,

> "[17]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled." Revelation 17:17 (KJV).

So, when Justinian is giving his civil authority to the Papacy in AD533, he is prefiguring when the United Nations turns over its civil authority to the Pope of Rome in fulfillment of Revelation 17:17 in the very near future; because, Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning.

So, when we look at Daniel 11:31 and we see arms standing on his part, we are seeing an illustration of the relationship between two Romes (Pagan Rome and Papal Rome), and that the power that is going to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth is going to bring his military strength into the issue of placing the Papacy on the throne of the Earth; thus, prefiguring, of course, the role of the United States at the end of the world; and, Clovis, beginning in AD496, is prefiguring the work of Ronald Reagan when he formed a secret alliance with the Vatican in order to sweep away the King of the South in 1989.

Go back to Daniel 8:12.

What we are looking at—and if I am giving you too much information in too quick of a fashion, we are looking at Daniel 11:30 to 36, because Sister White says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place," in the final fulfillment of Daniel 11. Scenes similar to verses 30 to 36 will take place in the last six verses of Daniel 11.

We are looking at this for a secondary reason: to identify that it is Rome that establishes the vision. The illustration of Rome is what puts the prophetic message in place.

In Daniel 8:12—we have not yet marched through our study of verses 9, 10, 11, and 12 yet, but we have put in the record that this little horn is a corrupt little horn, because it is a cross-dresser. Sometimes it dresses as a woman, and sometimes it dresses as a man; and, in the Bible, that is an abomination. It may be a Sanctuary symbol because it is a horn, but it is a corrupted symbol.

And in verse 12 you will see that it is "it," which is its feminine manifestation, which means it is Papal Rome in verse 12.

And in verse 12 it says,

> "[12]And an host [AN ARMY] was given him"—

And notice that word him is italicized, meaning it is not in the original.

> "[12]And an host was given him against the daily ~~sacrifice~~ by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered." Daniel 8:12 (KJV).

So, an army is given to the Papacy. Verse 31 of Daniel 11 says, "And arms shall stand on his part," and this military strength then will do three things.

And we are going to explain more about Daniel 8, verse 12, as we proceed; but, I just want you to see that this is a parallel passage to verse 31 of Daniel 11 and Revelation 13:2.

Is everyone with me? Is this too fast for this early in the morning?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Uh-huh.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

THE SANCTUARY OF STRENGTH—AD395 - 538

The other thing they are going to do is they are going to pollute the sanctuary of strength; and, you will see that Uriah Smith plainly tells you that the sanctuary of strength in verse 31—go back to verse 31 of Daniel 11—it says,

"[31]And arms shall stand on his part,"—

They stand up for the Papacy: Clovis in AD496.

—"and they [THE ARMS] shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, . . ."

And Uriah Smith will tell you within page 282 of Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, he quotes from this verse and he says,

"'And they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,' or Rome."—

This word sanctuary is sh . It is not e sh. The Hebrew word that is translated as sanctuary that is sh can be God's Sanctuary or it can be a Pagan sanctuary; and, the City of Rome definitely is not God's Sanctuary.

If it was the Hebrew word e sh—and, in fact, I am not even sure this word sanctuary is sh . That needs to be checked, but it is not e sh.

> —"'And they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,' or Rome. If this applies to the barbarians, it was literally fulfilled; for Rome was sacked by the Goths and Vandals, and the imperial power of the West ceased through the conquest of Rome by Odoacer. Or if it refers to those rulers of the empire who were working in behalf of the papacy against the pagan and all other opposing religions, it would signify the removal of the seat of empire from Rome to Constantinople, which contributed its measure of influence to the downfall of Rome. The passage would then be parallel to Daniel 8:11 and Revelation 13:2." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 282.

It is not God's Sanctuary. The sanctuary of strength is Rome.

Now, you need to see this, because, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place."

We are marching through a study here right now where we are going to show you, the Lord willing, that there was a time prophecy for how long Pagan Rome would rule the world, and it began when the third obstacle was conquered at the Battle of Actium in 31BC, and it ends when Constantine divides the kingdom in two, in AD330. And this is 360 years; and, the Biblical expression would call this 360 years TIME. We will see this in verse 24 of Daniel 11, that Pagan Rome would rule the world supremely for a TIME. It begins in 31BC; it ends 360 years later, a TIME when the Empire is divided in two.

And in conjunction with this, the Papacy, when the third horn was removed in AD538, it ruled the world supremely for 1260 years. And in AD1798, it's TIME to rule ended.

And what I want you to see here is that Uriah Smith tells us that the sanctuary of strength in verse 31 [of Daniel 11] is the City of Rome. What makes Rome strong (and Rome establishes the vision) is the City of Rome; so, we want to understand why this is so.

And from 31BC, Pagan Rome ruled the world; it was invincible. But, when it moved its capitol to Constantinople in the Year AD330, it began to fall apart.

So, when Rome was invincible was when it was ruling from the City of Rome. That was its sanctuary of strength.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is sh [responding to Brother Pippenger's earlier statement his need to verify the term he used].

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. It is sh .

But here [BC31], the ruling began when they conquered the third obstacle at the Battle of Actium (Egypt), the battle with Antony and Cleopatra.

Here the third horn is removed in AD538 when the Goths are driven out of the City of Rome; and, once the Goths are driven out of the City of Rome, the Papacy is controlling the City of Rome and begins to rule for 1260 years.

And what happens in AD1798? The Papacy is taken out of the City of Rome. He is taken captive.

So, when Pagan Rome is ruling supremely is when it is ruling from the City of Rome; and, when Papal Rome is ruling supremely, it is when they are controlling the City of Rome. And for in this sense the sanctuary of strength is the City of Rome, for Rome.

Get it? Do you see it?

Why do you have to see that? Because, Pagan Rome is the power that placed the Papacy on the throne of the world, and they are prefiguring the United States; and, therefore, there is going to be a sanctuary of strength for the United States.

The United States is going to have a sanctuary of strength, and it is going to rule supremely, so to speak, until that sanctuary of strength is gone.

So, what is the sanctuary of strength for the United States?

What came in, in 1787? The Constitution.

When the Constitution is intact, the United States is in place; but, at The Sunday Law, the Constitution is destroyed and it [the United States] no longer rules supremely.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: I thought it was in 1776.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That was the Declaration of Independence, 1776.

Okay. So, you have to know what the sanctuary of strength is, because the sanctuary of strength for Rome is prefiguring what the sanctuary of strength for the United States is.

And why am I saying that? Why am I saying that? Because, Rome establishes the vision.

So, if you want some secondary texts, you go to where we have already been. In Revelation 13, the dragon gave him his power and his seat.

The Dragon moved his seat and his authority to Constantinople in the Year AD330, thus leaving a vacuum in the City of Rome that the Papacy gobbled up. Pagan Rome moved to Constantinople and gave its seat of its Empire, the City of Rome, to the Papacy.

Now, they are not established in it until AD538; but, another parallel passage to that is Daniel 8:11.

Go to Daniel 8:11. We are dealing with the sanctuary of strength here.

And Daniel 8:11, this is the "boy" horn. It says,

> "[11]Yea, he [PAGAN ROME] magnified himself to the prince of the host [TO CHRIST],"—

And Pagan Rome magnified himself to Christ at His birth when they tried to murder Him and he fled into Egypt (when Joseph and Mary fled into Egypt), and Pagan Rome magnified himself to Christ at the crucifixion. So, we can see that Pagan Rome did magnify itself to the Prince of the host.

> —"and by him [BY PAGAN ROME] the daily ~~sacrifice~~ was taken away,"—

We do not want to deal with that right now, because this "taken away" is different than the "taken away" in Daniel 11:31 and Daniel 12:11.

> —"and the place of his sanctuary was cast down." Daniel 8:11 (KJV).

The place of Rome's sanctuary is the City of Rome; because, in the City of Rome the premier temple of Paganism in that history is the Pantheon Temple. So, the place where the temple is, is the City of Rome.

It does not say his TEMPLE was cast down. It says the PLACE of his sanctuary was cast down; and, the place of his sanctuary that was cast down is the capitol of the Empire in the year AD330.

So, what I am saying is, in Daniel 11:31 when it says,

> "[31]And arms shall sand on his part,"—

Clovis's military might comes to the aid of the Papacy.

—"and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,"—

Okay. From AD330 onward, the City of Rome is the subject of warfare because the Trumpet powers begin to decimate the Rome Empire, and the City of Rome gets polluted with this ongoing warfare.

But, Pagan Rome is also going to take away the Daily.

—"and shall take away the daily ~~sacrifice~~, . . ." Daniel 11:31, in part (KJV).

But, we have to deal with the against first. We will deal with the Daily in just a moment.

AGAINST

Daniel 11:24, 27, 29

In Daniel 11:24—go there. We have referred to this already, briefly. It says,

"[24]He shall"—

And this is Pagan Rome, and Uriah Smith is going to confirm that for you if you are not familiar with it.

> —"[24]He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time." Daniel 11:24 (KJV).

Notice this word against: ". . . he shall forecast," Pagan Rome shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time."

What I am saying is, this is the TIME [see Figure 151, Pagan Rome, 360 years = TIME.].

And what Uriah Smith is going to tell you is that this is the TIME.

What is being said here is that Pagan Rome is going to rule the world supremely from the City of Rome for 360 years.

Uriah Smith says this in his Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, page 273:

> "To the latter portion of this verse, Bishop Newton gives the idea of forecasting devices from strongholds,"—

You see, this Hebrew word here that is translated as against can also be translated as from.

And the stronghold for Pagan Rome was the City of Rome. It is saying that he shall control the world from the City of Rome, not against the City of Rome.

> —"Bishop Newton gives the idea of forecasting devices from strongholds, instead of against them. This the Romans did from the strong fortress of their seven-hilled city. 'Even for a time;' doubtless a prophetic time, 360 years. From what point are these years to be dated? Probably from the event brought to view in the following verse." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 273.

And then he goes in to describe the Battle of Actium in 31BC.

So, Smith is teaching you, even if you were unaware of it, that this time in verse 24 of Daniel 11 is the 360 years from 31BC in the Battle of Actium, to the year AD330, when Constantine moved the capitol.

But, I want you to see this Hebrew word that is translated as against can also be understood as from.

If you go into your Strong's Concor anc e, it says that this word that is translated as against in verse 24 can also be translated as from.

> AGAINST: Strong's Concordance,* H5921—Properly the same as H5920 used as a preposition (in the singular or plural, often with prefix, or as conjugation with a particle following); above, over, upon, or against (yet always in this last relation with a downward aspect) in a great variety of applications: - above, according to (-ly), after, (as) against, among, and, X as, at, because of, beside (the rest of), between, beyond the time, X both and, by (reason of), X had the charge of, concerning for, in (that), (forth, out) of, (from) (off), (up-) on, over, than, through (-out), to, touching, X with.

From Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, page 478, for more commentary on this TIME:

> "The first sore and heavy judgment which fell on Western Rome in its downward course, was the war with the Goths under Alaric, who opened the way for later inroads. The death of Theodosius, the Roman emperor, occurred in January, 395, and before the end of the winter the Goths under Alaric were in arms against the empire.
> "The first invasion under Alaric ravaged Thrace, Macedonia, Attica, and the Peloponnesus, but did not reach the city of Rome. On his second invasion, however, the Gothic chieftain crossed the Alps and the Apennines and appeared before the walls of the 'eternal city,' which soon fell a prey to the fury of the barbarians." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 478.

I will show you the references that go along with this.

Go to verse 27 of Daniel 11.

> "[27]And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed." Daniel 11:27 (KJV).

Uriah Smith will tell you that this "time appointed" is the year AD330, in reference to this "time" in verse 24, this 360 years.

Uriah Smith is telling us that this 360-year time prophecy that is set forth in verse 24, the end of it is being marked in verse 27; and, the end of it is being marked in verse 29.

Notice verse 29.

"[29]At the time appointed"—

That is the year AD330.

> —"he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter." Daniel 11:29 (KJV).

So, in Daniel 11, verse 31, it says, "And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength,"—the sanctuary of strength is the City of Rome. And from the year AD330 onward, until AD538, you have first here in the year AD330, what happens to the kingdom? It is divided into East and West, right then and there.

Then what happens? When Constantine moves to Constantinople, what does he do? He further divides the kingdom among his three sons, into three parts.

And what I want you to see here is that the kingdom from AD330 on begins to crumble. When he is ruling from the City of Rome, it is invincible; but, it begins to crumble.

But, right here in this history, we have already referenced what begins to happen? The Trumpets of Revelation 8 begin to blow. The Barbarians out of the North and the Vandals begin to take the kingdom apart.

Whereby, in the year AD476, what has happened? By AD476, what has happened? Pagan Rome has turned into ten nations.

Why did this happen? Why did this happen?

Because, in AD321 Constantine did what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Passed a Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He passed a Sunday Law.

And what is the principle connected with the Sunday Law? National apostasy is followed by national ruin.

The first Sunday Law, AD321; AD330, the kingdom is divided into East and West; then, Constantine divides it among his three sons.

Then, in AD395, the First of the Seven Trumpets begin to blow, taking the kingdom apart, piece by piece, until by AD476, it has turned into ten nations.

In this history here [between AD330 and 538], the Barbarians and the Vandals, what are they after?

Are they trying to conquer China?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Are they trying to conquer Alaska?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: [No audible response.]

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are trying to conquer the City of Rome.

So, in this history [from AD330 to 538] the City of Rome is polluted. The sanctuary of strength is sacked over and over again by these Barbarians. In verse 31 [of Daniel 11] it says, 'And arms shall stand on his part, military strength shall pollute the City of Rome (the sanctuary of strength), and shall take away the daily . . . ."

TAKE AWAY THE DAILY

Daniel 11:31; 12:11

In Daniel 11:31, the Hebrew word that is translated as take away is sur; whereas, in Daniel 8:11, the Hebrew word that is translated as take way is rum. We will deal with this. Modern theologians do not like dealing with this, but we will deal with this later on.

But, in Daniel 11:31, it is identifying that in AD508—and actually in AD507—Clovis defeated the Visigoths, and that removed the last of any Pagan resistance to the rise of the Papacy. By AD508, there was no longer any Pagan resistance to the rise of the Papacy.

> "[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily ~~sacrifice~~, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

And what took away the resistance was the arms, the military strength, of these Pagan kings, beginning with Clovis, that had come into a church/state relationship with the Papacy.

So, arms stand on the Papacy's part; and, the warfare they bring, they are going to destroy the City of Rome over and over again. But these arms, this military strength, is also going to defeat any of the resistance to the rise of the Papacy to power; and, the last resistance was removed in the Battle of Visigoths, AD507-508.

And, therefore, when you go to Daniel 12:11, and it says,

> "[11]And from the time that the daily ~~sacrifice~~, shall be taken away,"—

Here in AD508, because of understanding this history correctly, we have a time prophecy that projects out 1290 years, and also 1335 years.

> —"and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days." Daniel 12:11 (KJV).

PLACE THE ABOMINATION THAT MAKETH DESOLATE

Daniel 12:11; 2 Thessalonians 2:2-8; Zechariah 5:5 -11[28]; Isaiah 23

[28] Corrects cite typo in notes from Zechariah 5:5-1 to 5:5-11.

So, Sister White says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place," and the arms are also going to place the abomination that maketh desolate.

This is part of what is being described in Daniel 12:11 [referring to 1290 years and 1335 years] that in AD508, from the time that the Daily is removed and the abomination of desolation set up—it was set up in AD538. There was a 30-year period in setting it up—the Papacy is placed upon the throne of the Earth (verse 31) in AD538.

2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, verses 2 through 8, go there. We are talking now about the third thing that Pagan Rome (the arms for the Papacy) does in verse 31 of Daniel 31. They are going to place the abomination that maketh desolate, and the abomination that maketh desolate is the Papacy.

And in 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, verse 2, it says—let us begin at verse 3:

> "[3]Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;"—

What is the "falling away first," that the man of sin might be revealed?

Who is the man of sin (the son of perdition)? Who is it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. The Papacy is revealed right here [AD538]. Prophetically, it is revealed right here.

But, before it is revealed, there has to be a falling away. Who is the symbol of the falling away?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the church; but, the symbol of it is Constantine [referring to AD330]. Here in the history of Constantine, Constantine begins to bring Paganism into Christianity, and this creates the "falling away first."

So, 2 Thessalonians 2 is talking about this very same history, is it not, in order to place the man of sin upon the throne of the Earth.

Verse 4 says,

> —"[4]Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God."—

When was he placed in the temple of God? AD538.

2 Thessalonians is talking about this history.

Verse 5:

> —"[5]Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? [6]And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time."—

Who is going to be revealed in his time?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What is his time?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD538.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD538; he is going to be revealed in his time. He is going to be revealed in AD538, but now you know what withholdeth (prevents him) that he might be revealed. Who is it? Pagan Rome.

Okay. Pagan Rome is withholding the Papacy from being revealed in AD538.

Verse 7:

—"[7]For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth"—

And that word [letteth] is better translated restraineth.

> —"only he who now letteth [THE POWER THAT RESTRAINETH THE PAPACY FROM BEING REVEALED IN AD538] will let [WILL CONTINUE TO BE RESTRAINED], until he be"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Taken away.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"taken out of the way."—

And he was taken away (Paganism, the resistance to the rise of the Papacy, was taken away) in AD508.

> —"[8]And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming." 2 Thessalonians 2:2-8 (KJV).

Okay. So, what am I saying? I am saying that Rome establishes the vision. This is about Rome. You take Rome out of this scenario, if you say that the Daily is not representing Pagan Rome, you are destroying so much of the prophetic record that it is just amazing!

Zechariah 5:5-11

Go to Zechariah 5:5-11. We are looking at the fact that the arms are going to place the Papacy, and we are trying to show you that this is a subject throughout God's Word.

Zechariah 5, beginning at verse 5 through 11. Zechariah 5, verse 5, says,

> "[5]Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. [6]And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth."—

What is an ephah?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A basket.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A basket. Okay? He sees a basket that is going forth.

> —"He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth."—

Whatever the basket is, it has manifested itself all over the Earth.

> —"[7]And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah."—

What is a woman?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

So, this basket holds a woman; and, the next verse says,

> —"[8]And he said, This is wickedness."—

Now, if you go look at William Miller's explanation of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, he says this "Wicked"—and he says who this "Wicked" is. We should know who the Wicked one is in the Scriptures. Who is it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy. This is wickedness.

So, this woman in the basket is the Papacy.

> —"And he cast it [HER] into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof."—

Was there a time in history when the Papacy was restrained, that had a lead put over its lid? Well, yeah. That was 1798, right here [see Figure No. 151, Papal Rome]. Okay? So, this is a story about the Papacy here; but, it is also a story about when the Papacy is placed upon the throne of the Earth; because it says in verse 9, > —"[9]Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings;"—

What does that mean? They are fast: "Final movements will be rapid ones."

> —"for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven."—

So, this ephah, that has had a lead put over the top of it, is ultimately going to get lifted up for the whole world to see. The whole word is going to wonder after this ephah.

And verse 10 says,

> —"[10]Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah? [11]And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar:"—

What is "the land of Shinar"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Babylon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Babylon.

—"and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base." Zechariah 5:5-11 (KJV).

Okay. So, this is an illustration of when the Papacy is placed upon the throne of the Earth at the end of the world; but, that history is the same as when she was placed upon the throne of the Earth here [AD538].

And what I am saying is, it is Rome that establishes the vision.

Isaiah 23

If we would go to Isaiah 23 now, we will bind this off.
And we did not get through all of our material. We will continue this on tomorrow.
But, in Isaiah 23, we see the story of the lead weight being put on the basket.
Isaiah 23 says,

"[1] The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them."—

What is "the land of Chittim"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Carthage.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Carthage.

That is a reference to what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Trumpets.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Trumpet powers.

There is something about this chapter that is understood when you understand it in reference with the Trumpets' power.

—"[2] Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. [3] And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations. [4] Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins. [5] As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre. [6] Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle. [7] Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn. [8] Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth? [9] The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth. [10] Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength. [11] He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof. [12] And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest. [13] Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin. [14] Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste."—

Who is Tyre?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Islam.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. If you will drop down to verse 15—of course, this passage here is about Islam, but it is also going to tell us who Tyre is. And it says,

—"[15] And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot."—

Who is it in Bible prophecy that sings as a harlot? The Papacy.

—"[16] Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

"[17] And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire,"—

She has been hired to do something.

—"and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. [18] And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing." Isaiah 23 (KJV).

This is the Papacy.

So, in Zechariah 5, in 1798, the Papacy has a hunk of lead put over the ephah. Okay?

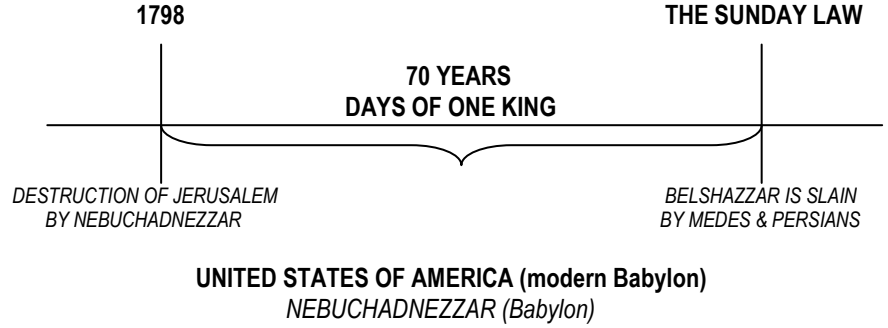

Figure No. 154.

And here in Isaiah 23—how does it say it?—that she will be forgotten 70 years, as the days of one king. But, at the end of these 70 years (and this is the days of one king), she is going to sing as an harlot. This is The Sunday Law.

Okay. The "one king" that rules from 1798 to The Sunday Law is who?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The United States of America.

Has this been prefigured?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

When Jerusalem was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar, it began 70 years of captivity.

And, those 70 years ended when? When the Medes and Persians came under the gates and slew Belshazzar.

See, Babylon ruled from the destruction of Jerusalem, until the destruction of Babylon by the Medes and the Persian—not the destruction, necessarily—but, it was for 70 years, and it was the days of one king in Isaiah 23.

For Ancient Israel, Babylon ruled for this time period, the days of one king (70 years), prefiguring that modern Babylon is going to be captive for 70 years, the days of one king (the United States), until she [the Papacy] is hired once again to sing to the world her harlot's songs.

We will take up the last part of this tomorrow, but let us go to Ezekiel to close this out.

Ezekiel 29; notice beginning at verse 19.

> "[19]Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. [20]I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD." Ezekiel 29:19-20 (KJV).

Babylon is given Egypt as payment for the work that they do. Do you see that?

That is why the King of the North conquers Egypt in Daniel 11, verse 42. He is getting Egypt for the work that the King of the North does.

So, go back to Isaiah 23 so you can see this point, verse 17.

> "[17] And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre,"—

This is the Papacy: this is modern Babylon.

The Lord is going to visit Tyre after this 70 years' captivity while she is stuck in the ephah.

> —"and she shall turn to her hire,"—

He is going to hire her again.

And what is its payment?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Egypt.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Egypt.

What is Egypt?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It's the whole world.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The whole world.

—"and [SHE] shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth." Isaiah 23:17 (KJV).

Now, each one of these little tidbits here could probably be a sermon all in itself. What I am wanting you to see—and we will finish this off tomorrow, the Lord willing—is that it is Rome that establishes the vision. If you remove this history of Rome (and what we are focusing on particularly is the Daily), you may end up with a really lovely sounding crystal logical message about the Love of God and the Faith of Jesus; but, you are going to perish. Because, where there is no vision, the people perish.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we sometimes do not understand why the enemy of God would be the symbol that puts the prophetic message in place for us at the end; but, we trust your wisdom that it is this light that prepares us to see that modern Rome is about to take the world captive once again, and that if we do not have Christ abiding in our experience in an ongoing fashion that we will not be able to stand this testing process that is just ahead of us. We do not want just a message that is simply about Christ; we want the message of Christ that includes His prophetic Word. We would ask that you would make us understand the significance of the role of Rome in Bible prophecy and the significance of the attacks that Satan has made to prevent God's people from seeing this truth from the days of the Millerites to the present time, that we might be benefited by these controversies that have taken place throughout the history of Adventism. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #79

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together once again this morning. We thank you for a good night's sleep. And as we take up our morning worship, we ask that you would grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit. We want to understand the significance of Rome establishing the vision in this study. We want to bring that to a conclusion so we can move further into Daniel, chapter 8. So, we would ask that you would give us wisdom and discernment as we consider these truths. We ask that you would overrule my human thoughts, my humanity. Hide me behind your cross that you can use me as a vessel to convey Light from your Throne Room that has been touched with the coals from off the altar, that it might be purified and cause the effect that you wish it to do. We ask that you also prepare the hearts and minds of those that are listening to these things, whether here on DVDs or LiveStreaming. We ask a blessing upon the production work we are doing here. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. As we begin the section of Habakkuk's Two Tables that we are calling our "Conclusion," last week we started with Isaiah 66, to identify that the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, is also the delusions of Isaiah 66, where the Lord says He will choose our delusions.

And, then we spent some time showing that the delusion of 2 Thessalonians, the delusions of Isaiah 6:66 are the Omega Apostasy and that some of the components of the Alpha Apostasy that prefigure the Omega Apostasy was an attack upon the Foundations and Platform of Adventism. It was a rejection of the authority of the Spirit of Prophecy, and we put that in place.

And, we closed with a quote where Satan was seeking to prevent God's people from standing on their feet.

So, we went from there to Isaiah 37 and showed that it is the second of two messages that come into Adventism at the end of the world that is designed by God to have the bones and muscles stand upon their feet as a mighty army; and, that message is the message of the Four Winds of both Ezekiel 37 and Revelation 7. And, Sister White identifies those Four Winds as the angry horse of Bible prophecy. So, if we are to stand upon the Platform of Truth here [referring to the 1843 Chart], the angry horse of Bible prophecy is Islam.

In the next presentation we looked at William Miller, his role in contributing to the truths on this Chart; and, we closed out by identifying William Miller as the one that identified the Daily as Paganism in that history, and reminded ourselves of previous studies where Sister White placed her endorsement upon Miller's understanding that the Daily is Paganism and that she also identified that those that teach the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry received that teaching from angels that were expelled from Heaven.

Then we considered in the next presentation, we revisited the 2520. And, in connection with Isaiah 66, verse 5, which says, ". . . Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, . . . ," we noted that the only place that Sister White applies that verse in Isaiah 66 is when she is dealing with the disfellowshipping that was going on in the Millerite History; and, we identified that the two primary—there are three, but the two primary reasons that the disfellowshipping was taking place was because of the introduction of this [1843] Chart, which made the Millerites very dogmatic about predicting 1843.

And, then the other teaching that was the real agitation in that history that caused disfellowshipping, that when Sister White comments on it she applies Isaiah 66, verse 5, was after the First Disappointment when they understood that the same evidence that had demonstrated that the 2520 and the 2300 ended in 1843 then demonstrated that it ended in 1844.

And, of course, knowing that the Millerite History repeats at the end of the world, we are suggesting that the ensign that gets lifted up, because it is those that are the Outcasts of Israel that are lifted up as an ensign at The Sunday Law, that they are cast out because they are presenting these two Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts], paralleling the Millerites presenting this [1843] Chart; and, they are cast out because they are placing emphasis on the fact that the 2520 and the 2300 days ended in 1844.

Then we spent some time looking at some of the truths connected with Isaiah 66 a little bit further. I never quite finished everything that I wanted to on that. I am holding in the possibility that we will return to some of those truths before we bring this whole thing to a conclusion.

But, then, we moved into Daniel 8; and, we identified that Daniel 8 is a repetition of Daniel 7, and that Daniel 8 is the identification of the spiritual manifestations of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy as opposed to Daniel 7 which is the political manifestations of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy.

THE DAILY: ESTABLISHING THE VISION

And then from there we went to Daniel 11, verse 14, to spend some time on identifying that Rome establishes the vision; and, that is where we have been, and we began yesterday in placing emphasis on Rome in Bible prophecy. I never quite got through the portion that I wanted to, the passage where Sister White says much of the history in Daniel 11 will be repeated in the fulfillment of Daniel 11. She quotes 30 to 36 of Daniel 11, and says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place."

The part of verses 30 to 36 that we did not finish looking at yesterday—we looked at the fact that the passage that Sister White selects that says will be repeated in Daniel 11:40-45—was the grieving. We noted that the grieving that was marked in verse 30 is the grieving that was taking place against Pagan Rome. Pagan Rome was being warred against by the Vandals, which is the Second Trumpet; therefore, we noted a grieving in that history that was associated with the Trumpet powers.

Then we identified the arms that were to stand on the Papacy's part as AD496, with Clovis standing up for the Papacy.

I did not put AD496 up there [adding to a timeline on the whiteboard]. In AD496 Clovis stands up, the first of the European kings that are going to come to the aid of the Papacy. And the arms in verse 31, other than standing up for the Papacy, they do three things.

They pollute the sanctuary of strength. And, we notice that in the year AD330, once Constantine moves the capitol to Constantinople, that the Trumpets of Revelation 8 begin to blow; and, the sanctuary of strength being the City of Rome is polluted. It is pillaged over and over again throughout this history.

And the arms in verse 31 were also going to take away the Daily. We pointed out that the Battle of the Visigoths, which Clovis won in AD507, he subdued any more Pagan resistance in AD508, onward. The Pagan resistance to the rise of the Papacy was gone.

And then it said they would place the abomination of desolation (the arms in verse 31) and we looked at passages and parallel passages that upheld all these things.

PERSECUTION FOR MANY DAYS

Persecution—Revelation 12:6, 14; Matthew 24:22, 29
Forty-Six Years—Revelation 11:2
Treading Down—Luke 21:24; Daniel 8:13; 12:7
Mouth Speaking Great Things—Daniel 7:25; Revelation 13:5
Space to Repent—Revelation 2:21
Two Witnesses—1 Kings 18:13; Revelation 11:3

Persecution—Revelation 12:6, 14; Matthew 24:22, 29

And, then there was going to be a persecution for "many days" in verses 32 to 35 [of Daniel 11], and that is what we are dealing with here.

What we are dealing with is that Sister White says the history of verses 30 to 36 [of Daniel 11] is going to be repeated in the last six verses [verses 40-45] of Daniel 11; and, the purpose of the last six verses of Daniel 11 is to inform us what will befall God's people in the Latter Days. That is Daniel 10:14.

And, we are making the claim that what allows us to understand what befalls God's people in the Latter Days is the subject of Rome, because Rome establishes the vision, based upon Daniel 11:14.

So, as we are looking at this passage in Daniel 11:30-36, we are also pulling in other passages of Scripture that confirm this truth, not just to confirm this truth but to demonstrate to those that will see that it is a subject of Rome that allows you to bring the Bible testimony together.

So, here in this portion we are going to look at the "many days." Let us go to Daniel 11:32 just to remind ourselves of the persecution.

What I am saying is Sister White quotes 30 to 36 of Daniel 11 and says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place." And after she describes the activity of the arms in verse 31, in verse 32 it says,

> "[32]And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. [33]And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days." Daniel 11:32-33 (KJV).

And what I am saying here is this "many days" is the 1260 years of Papal rule. And it most certainly is.

If you read verse 34, it says,

> "[34]Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help; but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. [35]And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed." Daniel 11:34-35 (KJV).

In verse 31 Pagan Rome has placed the abomination that maketh desolate (the last phrase of verse 31), and that was in AD538, and, then it talks about the persecution that is going to take place at the time of the end, and that is 1798.

So, what I am saying is, Rome establishes the vision; but, the ch n vision is illustrated throughout God's Word. So, other places that we can see the same time period of this many days, I have listed in your notes: Revelation 12:6 and 14.

> "[6]And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days." . . . [14]And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent." Revelation 12:6, 14 (KJV).

It talks about the woman fleeing into the wilderness; so, this is the wilderness time period when the woman flees.

And I am not suggesting that I am identifying every aspect, every characteristic, every truth that is involved with the correct understanding of these passages. I am simply trying to show to you that the subject of Rome is what completely illustrates the picture of Bible prophecy.

I think we are familiar with Revelation 12:6 and 14, when the woman flees into the wilderness; but, go to Matthew 24, verse 22, in Christ's sermon of the end of the world and of the destruction of Jerusalem and of the Dark Ages. In verse 22, it says—let us start in verse 21.

"[21]For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be."—

And, of course, He was talking about the destruction of Jerusalem in AD70, but He was also talking about the Dark Ages, from 538 to 1798. And, up to that point it had been the greatest persecution; but, it is prefiguring the end of the world when THE GREATEST PERSECUTION will take place. But, in each history when it is fulfilled, it is the greatest at that time; so, it is not a denial of truth.

Then in verse 22, it says,

—"[22]And except those days should be shortened,"—

Those days are the "many days" of Daniel 11:35.

—"[22]And except those days should be shortened, there should be no flesh saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." Matthew 24:21-22 (KJV).

And, Sister White tells us those days were shorted about 25 years before 1798; the persecution ended. So, the cutting-off of this time period is a subject of prophecy.

Right in here, those days are shortened [marking the timeline on the whiteboard].

Notice verse 29.

"[29]Immediately after the tribulation of those days"—

So, this history of AD538 to 1798 is also the ushering in of the signs that lead to the Millerite History.

"[29]Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: . . ." Matthew 24:29 (KJV).

So, here we see the Dark Day.

When was the Dark Day? I think I have that.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1780.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1780; I wanted to say that, but I wanted to make sure.

So, you have got the Dark Day marked here [1780]; and, then you have the Falling of the Stars in 1833.

But, what I am wanting you to see is, these signs that are ushering in the Millerite History are connected to the tribulation of "those days," and "those days" are the "many days" of Daniel 11 which are prefiguring the end of the world. But, "those days" are talking about the persecution that is accomplished by Papal Rome. So, Papal Rome is establishing the vision; because, Rome establishes the vision, both Pagan and Papal Rome.

Now, we see these days illustrated in Revelation 11, verse 2. And as I said, I am not arguing that what I am going to say about Revelation, verse 2, is everything that can be gleaned from this verse. I am simply pulling certain thoughts so we can see that the subject of Rome connects Bible prophecy together and turns on many, many lights.

So, still speaking about AD538 to 1798, in Revelation 11, verse 2, it says,

> "[2]But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months." Revelation 11:2 (KJV).

So, what are these 42 months? It is AD538 to 1798.

And, these 42 months is given to whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Gentiles.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Gentiles.

So, what is this time that is given to the Gentiles? This is the "Time of the Gentiles."

Now, if you go to verse 1, it says,

> "[1]And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. [2]But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; . . ." Revelation 11:1-2 (KJV).

So, what is John measuring?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Holy and the Most Holy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Holy and the Most Holy, perhaps. That is not the point of my question.

He is measuring time. Okay? It is clear he is measuring time; because, in verse 2, it says, > —"But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months." Revelation 11:1-2 (KJV).

So, it is saying, "Measure this, but don't measure the history of AD538 to 1798. Leave it out. Just measure the temple."

And when John is given this reed to do the measuring, where is he? Well, if you back up into chapter 10, he has just eaten the Little Book, which was sweet in his mouth in 1840 when the year-day principle was confirmed; but, it became bitter in his stomach in 1844. So, he is standing in 1844, and the Lord says, "Do this measuring, but leave out the Gentile time period of AD538 to 1798." He is measuring the temple.

So, what is the temple? It is the history from 1798 to 1844. That is what we are to be measuring here at the end of the world; because, we are to understand the Millerite History because we have nothing to fear for the future except we forget that history.

So, this here, the AD538 to 1798, is not emphasizing the woman fleeing into the wilderness because of persecution. It is emphasizing the raising up of modern Israel from 1798 to 1844.

But, how can you do that? By using Rome as the prophetic symbol that establishes the vision.

Treading Down—Luke 21:24; Daniel 8:13; 12:7

But that Time of the Gentiles, go to Luke 21.

I am not trying to teach, really, anything here other than the role of Rome in Bible prophecy. So, as I am touching these things, we are leaving lots of lessons on the wayside.

But, in verse 24 of Luke 21, it says,

> "[24]And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." Luke 21:24 (KJV).

When is the Time of the Gentiles fulfilled? 1798. We have already seen that in Revelation 11, verse 2.

But, what is happening to Jerusalem during this time period?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is being measured.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is being troddened down.

So, go to Daniel 8:13.

> "[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice~~, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary"—

Where is the sanctuary located?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jerusalem.

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? Daniel 8:13 (KJV).

Jerusalem was trodden down until the Time of the Gentiles was fulfilled. And here in Daniel 8:13 we have a parallel passage about Jerusalem; but not only Jerusalem but here we understand that Jerusalem, the sanctuary, is going to be troddened down. But, what else is going to be troddened down?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The host.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The host. Okay. Two entities are troddened down.

And what are they troddened down by? By two desolating powers: by the Daily desolating power, and the transgression desolating power.

So, it is from our understanding of Rome that Rome establishes the vision, that we can recognize this time period of 538 to 1798, and this gives us the key to start understanding what is represented by the treading down of the sanctuary and the host, when it starts and when it ends.

Go to Daniel 12:7. Daniel 12:7 says,

> "[7]And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished." Daniel 12:7 (KJV).

Okay. So, what is the "time, times, and an half"? Well, that is this history [538 to 1798], once again.

But, it is telling us here that in 1798 what is accomplished? The scattering of the holy people ends, is accomplished. Right?

And, if we have the ending of the scattering marked in 1798 that tells us there is a beginning, right?

So, this here [538 to 1798] many times is referred to as time, times, and an half time.

And what does this tell us? That this is one-half of seven times.

Of course, if you uphold the Pioneer Charts, you know that in 723BC the Northern Kingdom was carried into captivity, and that 2520 years later in 1798 the 2520 ended; but, in the dead middle of that (in the AD538 time period) you see 1260 years, and 1260 years. This is when Paganism trampled down the sanctuary and the host, and this is where Papalism trampled down the sanctuary and the host for an equal amount of time (1260 and 1260). To think that this is an accident is absolute insanity!

Therefore, this "time, times, and a dividing of time" [1260] is corresponding to this" time, time, and a dividing of time" [1260]. This is the seven times—of what?—of the Gentiles.

Okay. So, we are not doing a study on these things. We are trying to emphasize that Rome establishes the vision. Move Rome out of the vision, and all these things shut down.

Mouth Speaking Great Things—Daniel 7:25; Revelation 13:5

So, in Daniel 7:25, this is not the only thing that is in Daniel 7:25; but, in Daniel 7:25 once of the characteristics of this 1260-year time period is the speaking of the Papacy. And it says,

"[25]And he shall speak great words against the most High,"—

And what does it mean when a power speaks in Bible prophecy? It means an action of its legislative and judicial authority; so, it is identifying that the Papacy is going to pass laws against the Law of God, against God's people.

> —"[25]And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time." Daniel 7:25 (KJV).

And in Revelation 13:5, another illustration of this persecution period that is represented in Daniel 11, verses 32 to 35 that prefigures the end of the world, according to Sister White, and Revelation 13:5 says,

> "[5]And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months." Revelation 13:5 (KJV).

Space to Repent—Revelation 2:21

If you go to Revelation 2, verse 21, we see a different emphasis about this history. This is the history of Thyatira, which is the history of 538 to 1798, the history of the Papacy. And in verse 21, it says,

> "[21]And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not." Revelation 2:21 (KJV).

At one level this period is a period of probationary time for the Papacy, but she does not repent. Okay? You need to see that when you get to a level of prophetic history that we are not going to get to.

Two Witnesses—1 Kings 18:13; Revelation 11:3

In 1 Kings 18, we see this history prefigured in the story of Elijah and Ahab. 1 Kings 18; and, there are many, many things that you can derive from 1 Kings 18, particularly in connection with the Millerite History. I am just going to take you to verse 13, so you can see one easy point.

When Ahab comes to Obadiah, in verse 13 in their discussion, Obadiah says to Ahab,

> "[13]Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD'S prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?" 1 Kings 18:13 (KJV).

Now, this time period, these 1260 years (538 to 1798) is the time 1260 days of the drought of Elijah; and, Obadiah says that he had hid 100 prophets in two caves during that time period.

If you go to Revelation 11, verse 3—I hope you are getting my point here. I am not trying to take time to teach lessons about these stories. I am trying to take time to show you how the subject of Rome ties the whole prophetic testimony from the beginning of the Bible to the end together. In verse 3, it says, speaking of the same history [only in the history of the Papacy and not the 1260 days of drought in the time of Ahab but in the 1260 years of the Dark Ages in the time of Jezebel (the Papacy)], verse 3 says,

> "[3]And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth." Revelation 11:3 (KJV).

Obadiah put 100 prophets, he divided them into two witnesses and he put them in [two] caves to hide them; and, in this history [538 to 1798] we have two witnesses in sackcloth hidden that had been prefigured in the story of Ahab, Obadiah, and Jezebel.

So, really, all I am trying to say is that Rome establishes the vision.

THREE PARTS

In your notes now, just to make a couple of more points, not all the points but to move beyond it, you will see from Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, by Uriah Smith, page 280, that in the year AD330, when Constantine divided the kingdom into the East and West, he immediately—well, not immediately but thereafter divided the kingdom into three parts, among his three sons.

And you can see the reference here; so, if you are not familiar with it, you can get familiar with it.

> "The time appointed is probably the prophetic time of verse 24, which has been previously mentioned. It closed, as already shown, in A.D.330, at which time this power was to return and come again toward the south, but not as on the former occasion, when it went to Egypt, nor as the latter, when it went to Judea. Those were expeditions which resulted in conquest and glory. This one led to demoralization and ruin. The removal of the seat of empire to Constantinople was the signal for the downfall of the empire. Rome then lost its prestige. The western division was exposed to the incursions of foreign enemies. On the death of Constantine, the Roman empire was divided into three parts, between his three sons, Constantius, Constantine II, and Constans. Constantine II and Constans quarreled, and Constans, being victor, gained the supremacy of the whole West. He was soon slain by one of his commanders, who, in turn, was shortly after defeated by the surviving emperor, and in despair ended his own days, A.D.353. The barbarians of the North now began their incursions, and extended their conquests till the imperial power of the West expired in A.D.476." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 280.

I will take the second paragraph, rather than the long one. It says, from Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, page 480,

> "The Roman empire, after Constantine, was divided into three parts; and hence the frequent remark, 'a third part of men,' etc.,"—

". . . the frequent remark"—what?—"'a third part of men,' . . ." If you do not get this, then you—

You know, the Biblical Research Institute, the champion theologians of Adventism, they reject the Pioneer understanding of the Trumpets outright. They say it. So, that is the official stance of our church.

But, the Pioneer understanding of the Trumpets is that Revelation 8 is describing the demise of the Roman Empire. And when you go into Revelation 8, you will see it repeatedly, "a third part of this," "a third part of that," "a third part of this." And Uriah Smith is here saying that in order to understand Revelation 8, then you need to understand that one of the characteristics of Rome in Bible prophecy is that it is divided into three parts.

And in Eastern Rome, Constantine divided his kingdom into three parts, among his three sons. So, when the Trumpets began to take his kingdom apart, when the part of the kingdom that was previously ruled by one of his sons is taken over, then the third part of that kingdom is gone. That is what Revelation 8 is saying. And, when another part of the kingdom that was ruled by one of his sons is taken over, a third part of that kingdom is gone.

> —"The Roman empire, after Constantine, was divided into three parts, and hence the frequent remark, 'a third part of men,' etc., in allusion to the third part of the empire which was under the scourge. This division of the Roman kingdom was made at the death of Constantine, among his three sons, Constantius, Constantine II, and Constans." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 480.

But, also in the Western—that was the Eastern. Constantine moved to the East—But, in the West, in the City of Rome, it was also divided into three parts in the sense it established the threefold type of government that still exists in the world today. This is the Government of the United States. The government of Pagan Rome is the Government of the United States. It is a threefold government. It has an Executive Branch, a Legislative Branch, and a Judicial Branch. But, in Pagan Rome, it was the Caesars, the senators, and the consuls.

Uriah Smith is commenting on this. On page 487 of Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, he says,

> "We understand that this trumpet symbolizes the career of Odoacer, the barbarian monarch who was so intimately connected with the downfall of Western Rome. The symbols sun, moon, and stars—"—

The symbols of the sun, moon, and the stars in Revelation 8, when the Trumpets are taking the Roman Empire apart, > —"The symbols sun, moon, and stars—for they are undoubtedly here used as symbols—evidently denote the great luminaries of the Roman government,—its emperors, senators, and consuls." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 487.

So, in 330, because of 321—what happened in 321?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The first Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The first Sunday Law: National apostasy is followed by national ruin. In 330 the kingdom is divided into East and West; and, in the East, thereafter, it is divided into three parts, among Constantine's three sons; and, the West is divided into three parts, in reference to its form of government. And if you do not recognize these three parts, then you do not recognize in Revelation 8 that when the stars go out, it is talking about one part of the government of Western Rome; and, when the moon goes out, about another part; and, when the sun goes out, another part.

Revelation 16:19, 13

But, in Revelation 16, verse 19—and this is not past history; this is our history—Revelation 16 is talking about modern Babylon (the end-of-the-world Babylon), and verse 19 says,

> "[19]And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath." Revelation 16:19 (KJV).

So, modern Babylon at the end of the world is divided into three parts.

How do you understand those three parts? Well, you go back into the history of what? Of Rome: Rome establishes the vision.

Go to verse 13 [of Revelation 16], so we can understand what the three parts of modern Babylon are; and, it says,

> "[13]And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet." Revelation 16:13 (KJV).

So, the division of modern Rome into three parts is based upon the division of ancient Rome into three parts; therefore, if you remove Rome out of the equation, you are destroying your ability to understand end-time Bible prophecy.

Before I go to 2 Corinthians 2:11—I forgot what I wanted to do. I forgot why I took time to put things on the board.

I want to make an argument here about what I have been saying.

I have been saying that Rome establishes the vision. And based upon the Scriptures that we looked at yesterday and today, in agreement with the Pioneer understanding, we understood that the Battle of Actium was the third obstacle that Pagan Rome conquered, and then it ruled the world supremely for 360 years, until Constantine divided the Empire. [See Figure No. 161 above.]

And we understand that the first Sunday Law is in 321.

We understand that in Daniel 7, Pagan Rome disintegrates into ten nations, and this is accomplished in 476, and it is accomplished by the Trumpets of Revelation 8.

And we understand that in 496 arms stood up: Clovis came to the aid of the Papacy, to put her on the throne of the Earth, to begin the work of removing the three horns. The removal of the third horn is accomplished in 538.

But, in Revelation 13:2 it says that the dragon (Pagan Rome) is going to give three things to the Papacy. It is going to give its power in 496, its seat—it gave the City of Rome to Papal Rome in 330, when it left town and went to Constantinople—and, it gave its civil authority to the Papacy in 533 with the Decree of Justinian, which identified the Pope of Rome as the head of the church and the Corrector of Heretics.

So, all of these subjects, all these prophecies, all these predictions are dealing with Rome; and, it is these histories that are establishing the vision. Okay?

But, also, the arms were going to remove Paganism. The resistance to the rise of the Papacy was coming from Paganism, and that was subdued in 508.

So, this as a starting point has a prophecy that comes to here [1798], the 1290; and, to here [1843] the 1335.

And this [538] has a prophecy that comes to 1798.

We have looked at all the light that is produced by understanding the history of Rome from 538 to 1798—but, we have not looked at all of it, of course.

But, to throw one thing more in here, in 508 to 538 is the preparation time for the Papacy.

The Papacy is placed upon the throne of the Earth in 538; and, three and a half years later, it receives its deadly wound [1798]. The piece of lead is put over the ephah (the basket) and Tyre is forgotten for 70 years, as the days of one king. It is forgotten from 1798 until it conquers the United States at The Sunday Law.

And then the Papacy is going to conquer Egypt [Daniel 11:41; Revelation 17:17]; and then, probation is going to close [Daniel 12:1]; and then, Christ is going to come.

And this history here [from AD508 to Christ's Second Coming]—and I have said what I am going to say now; it is redundant. I have said this at least 20 times where it has been recorded on DVDs—this here is an argument about the Daily that none of the theologians have ever tried to respond to what we are going to say here. They are just dead silent on this one.

Okay. This [the history from AD508 to Christ's Second Coming in Figure No. 162A] is the history of the antichrist, which means "to stand in place of Christ."

This [Figure No. 162B] is the history of Christ. Christ was born, and 30 years later—he had 30 years of preparation—and, 30 years later He was empowered at His baptism when the Dove came down.

And, Christ gave His testimony for 1260 days, and then He received the deadly wound at the cross.

Okay. It is a parallel history.

And then Christ was resurrected as the Papacy is going to be resurrected at The Sunday Law in the United States.

And then Christ ascended as the Papacy is going to ascend to the throne of the Earth when it conquers Egypt, in agreement with Revelation 17:17 when the Ten Kings agree to give their kingdom unto the Beast.

And in the history of Christ, then we have the destruction of Jerusalem in AD70 that is prefiguring the close of probation and the Seven Last Plagues

And then we have the Isle of Patmos in roughly the year 100; and, Ellen White says in the days of the early Christians, Christ came a second time. He came the first time as a baby when He was born in Bethlehem, and He came a second time to the Isle of Patmos. (That is almost word for word.)

> "In the days of the early Christians, Christ came the second time. His first advent was at Bethlehem, when He came as an infant. His second advent was at the Isle of Patmos, when He revealed Himself in glory to John the Revelator, who "fell at His feet as dead" when he saw Him. But Christ strengthened him to endure the sight, and then gave him a message to write to the churches of Asia, the names of which are descriptive of the characteristics of every church. {19MR 40.4} (emphasis added)

Patmos is a symbol of the Second Coming.

So, what I am is that when you maintain the Pioneer understanding of 508 (the Daily) and 30 years of preparation to 538, you are maintaining a prophetic sequence of events of the antichrist [Figure No. 161] that lines up perfectly with the Christ [Figure No. 162] that the antichrist is trying to counterfeit:

- 30 years of preparation for Christ; 30 years of preparation for the Papacy;
- 1260 years of satanic testimony (from 538 to 1798) is a counterfeit of 1260 days of Christ's testimony;
- Both end with a death: the deadly wound of the Papacy; the cross [of Christ];
- The resurrection [for both, of Christ, and of the Papacy when the deadly wound is healed];
- The ascension to the throne of the Earth; the ascension to Heaven;
- The close of probation;
- The Second Coming of Christ.

What puts this in place is the correct understanding of Rome.

SATAN'S DEVICES

2 Corinthians 2:11

Okay. So, go to 2 Corinthians 2:11. I am going to switch gears here.

> "[11]. . . Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices." 2 Corinthians 2:11 KJV).

Of course, this is not true. It should be true. I am not saying the Bible is not true; but, as Laodiceans, we are ignorant of Satan's devices, and Paul is here saying that as Christians we should not be ignorant of Satan's devices.

Notice what Sister White says in Review and Herald, July 6, 1886:

> "We are in constant danger of becoming self-sufficient, relying upon our own wisdom, and not making God our strength. Nothing disturbs Satan so much as our not being ignorant of his devices." Review and Herald, July 6, 1886.

Do you want to disturb Satan? Understand his devices. But, we do not, we do not.

And, of course, what I am saying here is that Satan's devices in connection with this study is the fact that the Bible teaches where there is no vision, the people perish; and, what establishes the vision is Rome. Satan's devices, Satan's work is to destroy our understanding of the role of Rome in Bible prophecy; for, if he does that, we cannot understand the vision and we will perish. And as Christians, we are supposed to understand his devices.

LET ALL WHO READ THESE LINES, TAKE HEED

So, I want to read a passage from Testimonies to Ministers, pages 409 – 411.

Now, remember, actually all these past couple of days is just a little diversion out of Daniel 8 so we can go back in and continue on in Daniel 8; but, one of the things I want to show in Daniel 8 is that the Daily is absolutely part of the Omega Apostasy, the Daily being Paganism. So, I am not quite there yet; but, that is part of the direction that we are heading.

Now, notice this from Testimonies to Ministers, and remember that we are to understand Satan's devices.

> "Unsanctified ministers are arraying themselves against God. They are praising Christ and the god of this world in the same breath."—

Now, Brothers and Sisters, the god of this world is Satan. Are you with me? The god of this world is Satan!

There are many labels that you can use to identify Satan's religion; but, one of them that is a valid description of Satan's religion is Paganism. So, if you take the religion of Paganism, if you take a symbol in the Bible that represents the religion of Paganism and you say that it is Christ's, when you are using that symbol and saying it is Christ, you are praising Christ and the god of this world in the same breath. Okay? So, I want you to see that principle there; because, I am saying that is what we are doing when we identify the Daily as Christ's Sanctuary ministry.

—"Unsanctified ministers are arraying themselves against God. They are praising Christ and the god of this world in the same breath. While professedly they receive Christ, they embrace Barabbas,"—

Who is Barabbas?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Son of the father: he is a false Christ. He is the antichrist.

—"While professedly the receive Christ, they embrace Barabbas, and by their actions say, 'Not this Man, but Barabbas.' Let all who read these lines, take heed. Satan has made his boast of what he can do. He thinks to dissolve the unity which Christ prayed might exist in His church. He says, 'I will go forth and be"—

A what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A lying spirit.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A lying spirit. He is going to lie to God's people about something, and it has something to do with reversing the role of Christ and Satan, according to the context of this paragraph.

—"'I will go forth and be a lying spirit to deceive those that I can, to criticize, and condemn, and falsify.' Let the son of deceit and false witness be entertained by a church that has had great light,"—

Who is the church that has great light in the writings of Ellen White?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventh-day Adventists.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Seventh-day Adventists Church.

—"Let the son of deceit and false witness be entertained by a church that has had great light, great evidence, and that church will discard the message the Lord has sent,"—

Here is the message that the Lord has sent [pointing to the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. They will discard it.

—"and receive the most unreasonable assertions and false suppositions and false theories. Satan laughs at their folly, for he knows what truth is.

Now, notice the next sentence.

"Many will stand in our pulpits with the torch of false prophecy in their hands,"—

This attack by Satan, she is making it clear. She already said in the last paragraph, "Let all who read these lines, take heed." She is making sure that we understand that this attack of lies and falsehoods that come from Satan that somehow places Christ in the position of Satan and Satan in the position of Christ, this lie comes through the prophetic word.

> —"Many will stand in our pulpits with the torch of false prophecy in their hands, kindled from the hellish torch of Satan. If doubts and unbelief are cherished, the faithful ministers will be removed from the people who think they know so much. 'If thou hadst known,' said Christ, 'even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.'"—

Now, Brothers and Sisters, what I am saying is, in the context of this, these [again referring to the 1843 Chart] are "the things which belong unto thy peace!" These are the Foundational Truths.

But, what happens to the Foundational Truths?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They get hidden.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They get hidden. They get covered up with rubbish and tradition. They are hid from your eyes.

Now, notice the next statement.

> —"Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth sure."—

She is now letting us know that what gets covered up and hidden is the Foundation of God.

What is the Foundation of God? Right here [referring to the 1843 Chart]. This is the Foundation and Platform of Adventism.

> —"The Lord knoweth them that are His. The sanctified minister must have no guile in his mouth. He must be open as the day, free from every taint of evil. A sanctified ministry and press will be a power in flashing the light of truth on this untoward generation. Light, brethren, more light we need. Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound an alarm in the holy mountain. Gather the host of the Lord, with sanctified hearts, to hear what the Lord will say unto His people;"—

This is Adventism. This is Adventism. We are the holy mountain.

> —"for He has increased light for all who will hear. Let them be armed and equipped, and come up to the battle—to the help of the Lord against the mighty. God Himself will work for Israel. Every lying tongue will be silenced."

Praise the Lord!

> —"Angels' hands will overthrow the deceptive schemes that are being formed. The bulwarks of Satan will never triumph. Victory will attend the third angel's message. As the Captain of the Lord's host tore down the walls of Jericho, so will the Lord's commandment-keeping people triumph, and all opposing elements be defeated."—

Now, what does she mean by that?

Does she mean that she is using the destruction of Jericho as a symbol God's mighty power, or is she using the destruction of Jericho as a history that parallels our history?

> —"As the Captain of the Lord's host tore down the walls of Jericho, so will the Lord's commandment-keeping people triumph, and all opposing elements be defeated. Let no soul complain of the servants of God who have come to them with a heaven-sent message. Do not any longer pick flaws in them, saying, 'They are too positive; they talk too strongly.' They may talk strongly; but is it not needed? God will make the ears of the hearers"—

What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Tingle.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"tingle if they will not heed His voice or His message."—

If you will not heed his Voice or His Message, your ears are going to tingle.

> —"He will denounce those who resist the word of God."—

Okay. So, evidently, the people's ears that are going to tingle are the people that are resisting the Word of God.

> —"Satan has laid every measure possible that nothing shall come among us as a people to reprove and rebuke us, and exhort us to put away our errors."—

We have errors, evidently, that we need to put away.

> —"But there is a people who will bear the ark of God. Some will go out from among us who will bear the ark no longer. But these cannot make walls to obstruct the truth; for it will go onward and upward to the end. In the past God has raised up men, and He still has men of opportunity waiting, prepared to do His bidding—men who will go through restrictions which are only as walls daubed with untempered mortar. When God puts His Spirit upon men, they will work. They will proclaim the word of the Lord; they will lift up their voice like a trumpet. The truth will not be diminished or lose its power in their hands. They will show the people their transgressions, and the house of Jacob their sins." Testimonies to Ministers, 409–411.

TINGLE

So, there is a message coming that is going to make our ears tingle. I have selected that sentence out of there [Testimonies to Ministers, 409-411, as reflected above]. We are going to look at that a little bit closer.

"God will make the ears of the hearers tingle if they will not heed His voice or His message. He will denounce those who resist the word of God."

There are only three places in the Word of God where people's ears are made to tingle.

1 Samuel 3:11-14

Okay. Go to 1 Samuel 3:11-14. Beginning at verse 11, it says,

> "[11]And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle. [12]In that day I will perform against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end. [13]For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not. [14]And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever." Samuel 3:11-14 (KJV).

So, one place where men's ears are made to tingle is with the message that the Lord is about to overturn the Seventh-day Adventist Church and remove the leadership; because, that is what the story of Eli is all about. It took place when the ark was captured. The ark is a symbol of The Sunday Law. The Philistines captured the ark at the Sunday Law; the Seventh-day Adventist Church is going to be purged from the leadership that is represented by Eli and Hophni and Phinehas, and the glory is going to be pronounced as gone, and the Lord is going to place His Church in the hands of those represented by Samuel. That truth should make our ears tingle.

Notice what Sister White says about this tingling ears in the time of Samuel, from Patriarchs and Prophets, page 582.

> "Samuel was filled with fear and amazement at the thought of having so terrible a message committed to him" Patriarchs and Prophets, 582.

It is a terrible message!

Brothers and Sisters, the Lord is about to spew the Laodiceans in Adventism out of His mouth.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ooh.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is a terrible message! The Lord is about to remove the structure that has been built upon the sand.

She further says in Spirit of Prophecy, volume 1, page 402:

> "The transgressions of Eli's sons were so daring, so insulting to a holy God, that no sacrifice could atone for such willful transgression."—

This is a message about the close of probation: no more remedy for sin.

> —"These sinful priests profaned the sacrifices which typified the Son of God."—

What are they doing? They are taking a symbol of Christ and they are profaning it.

How would you do that? Well, you could take a symbol of Satan and say it is Christ. Oh, that is what we [Adventism] have done with the Daily.

—"These sinful priests profaned the sacrifices which typified the Son of God. And by their blasphemous conduct they were trampling upon the blood of the atonement, from which was derived the virtue of all sacrifices." Spirit of Prophecy, volume 1, 402.

Now, I doubt that you can remember weeks from now when we get to the conclusion and show that the Daily is one of the primary symbols of the Omega Apostasy, which we are heading for; but, what went on in the story of Eli is the symbol of the Omega Apostasy; and, what was going on there is that Christ was being blasphemed.

It is blasphemous to say Paganism is Christ.

Jeremiah 19:1-12; 2 Kings 21:10-15

Okay. Another place in the Bible where you will see ears tingling is in Jeremiah 19. Beginning in verse 1, Jeremiah 19, verse 1, says,

"[1] Thus saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle,"—

When Jeremiah is going to give this message in chapter 19, he first goes and gets a pot. Okay?

—"[1] Thus saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests; [2] And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee, [3] And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle."—

Brothers and Sisters, this is the same pronouncement in Jeremiah's day as Samuel's that was given to Eli; the same pronouncement: "Jerusalem is about to be overturned by Nebuchadnezzar."

Verse 4:

—"[4] Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents; [5] They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind: [6] Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter. [7] And I will make void the counsel of Judah and

> Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. [8] And I will make this city desolate,"—

Just as He did in the story of Samuel.

> —"and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof. [9] And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them. [10] Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee, [11] And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury. [12] Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet: . . ." Jeremiah 19:1-12 (KJV).

This is the same kind of message that Samuel gave to Eli; and, when you hear this message, it causes your ears to tingle.

And a symbol of this is the breaking of this potter's vessel.

There is one other place that the Bible speaks of people's ears tingling, in 2 Kings 21.

Why are we looking at this? Because, Ellen White says we have a message that is going to make Adventists' ears tingle.

2 Kings 21, beginning at verse 10, says,

> "[10] And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying, [11] Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols: [12] Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle."

When you hear the message about the judgment against God's Church, your ears will tingle.

Verse 13:

> —"[13] And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down. [14] And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance,"—

Was Eli and Hophni and Phinehas forsaken?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;"—

Were the Jews in the time of Jeremiah delivered into the hands of their enemies?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; [15] Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day." 2 Kings 21:10-15 (KJV).

So, I want you to see that this judgment message that is in the Bible three times that causes your ears to tingle, here the judgment is illustrated in verse 13 that Judah is going to be punished with the same punishment that Samaria (the Northern Kingdom), the House of Ahab, was punished with; and, the punishment that they were punished with was the 2520.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, in this judgment there is a reference to the 2520 (the seven times). And the Lord says that what He is going to do to Jerusalem is He is going to turn it upside down. The Lord is going to turn Jerusalem upside down; and, you know in the Scriptures that the Lord is constantly contrasting: you know, there is the True Movement and the False Movement; there is the new wine and the old wine that causes the drunkards of Ephraim to be drunk; there are the wise and the foolish virgins. There are always these contrasts that the Lord uses between righteousness and unrighteousness.

And I want you to see here in this judgment that causes the ears to tingle, that here is identified as the same judgment against the Southern Kingdom that took place as the Northern Kingdom, which is this plummet which is the seven times, that the judgment is also the Lord turning Jerusalem upside down. And, I want you to remember that; because, hey, the drunkards of Ephraim, they also are going to turn something upside down.

What does upside down mean? You can see it in your notes.

UPSIDE DOWN: Strong's Concordance, H2017—an upset, that is, (abstractly) perversity.

It means to upset or perversity, or pervert.

Okay. If you are going to turn something upside down, you are going to pervert it.

Brothers and Sisters, an easy one to see that has been turned upside down is right here: AD508 [using the 1843 Chart]. We do not teach that it is 805. We do not turn it upside down like that; but, we pervert it.

The Pioneers say that this [date of AD508] is a symbol of Paganism, a satanic power; and, we have turned it upside down. We say it is a symbol of a godly power: it is Christ's Sanctuary ministry. It has been turned upside down! It has been perverted.

Isaiah 28:14-18, 29:16; Psalm 146:9; Isaiah 24:1

Go to Isaiah 28, beginning at verse 14.

> "[14] Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem."—

These are the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the end of the world. Sister White is clear about this.

> —"[15] Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge,"—

Remember her quote form Testimonies to Ministers.

> —"and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: [16] Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. [17] Judgment also will I lay to the line,"—

This is the same judgment of 2 Kings, the same type of reference.

> —"and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. [18] And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it." Isaiah 28:14-18 (KJV).

What I am saying here is that the judgment of 2 Kings against Manasseh is being referred to here as the judgment against God's people at the end of the world; and, that judgment is what causes their ears to tingle.

But the measurement that is referenced for Manasseh is also referenced here by this "line" and this "plummet," which is the 2520. We have already dealt with this in this presentation.

Go to verse 16 of the next chapter, of Isaiah 29: the same vision, but the Lord is going to identify as one of the problems that the drunkards of Ephraim has accomplished. In Isaiah 29, verse 16,

> "[16] Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay:"—

As what?

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: As potter's clay.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: As potter's clay?

> —"for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? Or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?" Isaiah 29:16 (KJV).

The Lord produced the Millerite Temple from 1798 to 1844; and, there is no way that this [1843] Chart here was not a part of that production; because this Chart here prepared them for the First Disappointment, which was to begin the purging process to produce a group of people that would move by faith into the Most Holy Place. This is part of the Lord's production.

And, the people that were brought forth from this production are part of the production.

So, shall the production say there is no understanding in this? ". . . for shall the work say of him"—that is Adventism—"He made me not?"

Shall we deny this [1843] Chart that made us?

And what is it going to be esteemed as, this attitude? Potter's clay. And the breaking of the pot marks this judgment, and this judgment is caused by God's people turning something upside down.

Go to Psalms 146, verse 9.

Is anybody getting warm in here besides me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "[9]The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down." Psalm 149:9 (KJV).

Okay. The Lord is going to turn something upside down.

What is He going to turn upside down? He is going to turn Jerusalem upside down. He is going to turn the wicked in Jerusalem upside down; but, contrasting this, the wicked in Jerusalem, they are going to turn something upside down. They are going to pervert something.

Isaiah 24, verse 1.

We are almost done, and then we will be prepared to go back into Daniel 8.

"[1] BEHOLD, the Lord maketh the earth empty and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof." Isaiah 24:1 (KJV).

We have just gone through the places in the Bible where upside down is used, other than the New Testament. And here we find the Lord is going to turn Jerusalem upside down, the same way that He turned Samaria upside down: with the plummet of the 2520.

But, here, the Lord is talking about turning the world upside down at the end during the Seven Last Plagues. And what does He do with the inhabitants then? He scatters them. "Turning them upside down" is referencing the scattering.

Okay. That is in place.

A couple of comments on tingling ears from the Spirit of Prophecy.

Signs of the Times, May 17, 1883:

"The preacher himself, must be alive; he must have the earnestness of the Spirit; he must labor through Christ; he must make direct appeals; he must sound the alarm to careless and world-loving professors, though they should be displeased because their ears tingle with the close application of the truth,—'Thou art the man.' It is too late to daub with untempered mortar. There must be plain and faithful dealing. The people must be aroused to do the work which God enjoins upon them, to take up the stumbling-blocks and clear out the rubbish, that the Spirit of God may come in. The guilt as well as the danger of backsliding must be faithfully pointed out." Signs of the Times, May 17, 1883.

Now Sister White has just referenced another Biblical passage that makes your ears tingle; and, what was that? "Thou art the man."

Who is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That's Ahab.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is Ahab.

And who was telling Ahab, "Thou art the man? Elijah.

"You are the one that did," what? That has caused Israel to sin, and you and your wife are going to die for it.

It is the same story as Shiloh with Eli, as Jeremiah and Manasseh.

And, Sister White is saying that we have a message that parallels that at the end of the world.

One more quote, Review and Herald, September 6, 1892:

> "When needed warnings are to be given, sins are to be rebuked, errors and wrongs are to be corrected, not only in the pulpit but personal labor. This is divine work, and although it is not congenial to the natural inclinations, the minister must proclaim the straight truth which will make the ears of them that hear tingle; for they must lay before those who are lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, the dangers and perils that are around them, and the doom that awaits the impenitent." Review and Herald, September 6, 1892.

Okay. So, the Final Warning Message is the message from Samuel to Eli, the message of Jeremiah to the leadership of Jerusalem, the message to Manasseh, the message to Ahab: a message of the close of probation; but, in connection with it, is the judgment, the symbol of the judgment, the 2520.

JERICHO

What about Jericho? We have emphasized it. You may have forgotten it. But, in this quote about unsanctified ministers praising the Christ and the god of this world in the same breath, and standing in the pulpit with torches that were lit from the hellish torch of Satan with false prophecy, she also compared the work that we do with Jericho.

From Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, page 410, she said,

> "Victory will attend the third angel's message. As the Captain of the Lord's host tore down the walls of Jericho, so will the Lord's commandment-keeping people triumph, and all opposing elements be defeated." Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, 410 (1898). {Last Day Events, 52.3}

Now, is she meaning that Jericho is an illustration of the end of the world, or is she just saying that the power that was demonstrated when Jericho was brought down is the power that will be demonstrated in the Third Angel's Message?

For me, what did they do when they brought down Jericho?

They silently marched around Jericho once a day, for how many days?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: For seven days.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: For six days, six days.

But, on the seventh day, what did they do?

They marched around, how many?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seven.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Seven . . . ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Times.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, they did "seven times."

So, what do we see there?

At one level we see the Sabbath, do we not? We see six days, and then an emphasis placed upon the seventh day; but, we also see that it was the seven times that brought the walls of Jericho down.

And what did they do to bring the walls of Jericho down?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Blew the trumpets.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They blew the trumpets. So, if the story of Jericho is an illustration of the end of the world, what Trumpet sounds at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Seventh.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Seventh Trumpet, which is the Third Woe; and, if the First Woe was Islam, and the Second Woe was Islam, then the Third Woe and the Seventh Trumpet is the message of Islam.

So, as they are going around Jericho, they are going to raise the message of Islam in the Third Woe.

And then what did they do? They shouted.

Ah, there is a Loud Cry Message, is it not?

And the walls of Jericho came down.

You know that story, do you not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Now, in Joshua 6:26-27, the conclusion of that story, goes like this:

> "[26]And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it. [27]So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country." Joshua 6:26–27 (KJV).

Now, if we are to address, understand the story of Jericho in that fashion, that it is illustrating the end of the world and that the Loud Cry Message at the end of the world is the message of the Trumpet of the Third Woe, and the message of the seven times, if we are willing to receive that, then in the destruction of Jericho we have the message of Islam and the message of the seven times. When you look at the ruins of Jericho, that is what you see.

But, if you want to cover up that message, if you want to cover up that truth, what do you do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You rebuild Jericho. And if you rebuild Jericho, you are covering up the story of the Seventh Trumpet (the Third Woe, the message of Islam), and you are covering up the message of the seven times.

Do you follow the logic?

Is that too hard of a stretch?

So, who was it, who was it that began to cover up the seven times?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: James White.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It was Elder James White.

Notice from Testimonies, volume 1, pages 102-103"

"In 1860 death stepped over our threshold,"—

How many children did James and Ellen White have?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Four.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Four.

—"In 1860 death stepped over our threshold, and broke the youngest branch of our family tree."—

That is his lastborn.

—"Little Herbert, born September 20, 1860, died December 14 of the same year. When that tender branch was broken, how our hearts did bleed none may know but those who have followed their little ones of promise to the grave."—

That is a curse, to lose a child.

—"But oh, when our noble Henry died, [THE DEATH OF HENRY N. WHITE OCCURRED AT TOPSHAM, MAINE, DECEMBER 8, 1863.]"—

And Henry was their—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Their oldest.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Their firstborn.

—"at the age of sixteen; when our sweet singer was borne to the grave, and we no more heard his early song, ours was a lonely home. Both parents and the two remaining sons felt the blow most keenly. But God comforted us in our bereavements, and with faith and courage we pressed forward in the work He had given us, in bright hope of meeting our children who had been torn from us by death, in that world where sickness and death will never come." Testimonies, volume 1, 102–103.

When did his firstborn die? 1863, 1863.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Notice the next quote.

Do you know why their firstborn died?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because he took a nap. He took a nap on the materials that they were using to produce this chart, and he caught a chill and he got pneumonia—[throwing up both hands] but not this [1850] Chart, and not this [1843] Chart!

What chart did he take a nap on? The 1863 chart they were producing! And the materials that they were using to produce the 1863 chart where they were building Jericho—I mean, they were removing the 2520 out of the Truth for this message—little Henry took a nap upon the backing they were using to print those charts that were damp, and he caught a chill and he caught pneumonia, and he died.

Notice, from Arthur White, Ellen G. White, volume 2, page 70:

> "When on Friday, November 27, [1863] the parents reached Topsham, they found their three sons and Adelia waiting for them at the depot. They were all apparently in good health, except for Henry, who had a cold. But the next Tuesday, December 1, Henry was very ill with pneumonia. Years later Willie, his youngest brother, reconstructed the story:
> 'During the absence of their parents, Henry and Edson, under the supervision of Brother Howland, were busily engaged in mounting the charts" —THE 1863 CHARTS—"on cloth, ready for sale. They worked in a rented store building about a block from the Howland home. At length they had a respite for a few days while they were waiting for charts to be sent from Boston. . . . Returning from a long tramp by the river, he [Henry] thoughtlessly lay down and slept on a few damp cloths used in backing the paper charts. A chilly wind was blowing in from an open window. This indiscretion resulted in a severe cold.'" Arthur White, Ellen G. White, volume 2, 70.

So, the production of the 1863 chart is raising up Jericho. And Jericho gets raised up with the death of the firstborn, and the gates are set with the death of the lastborn; and, both the firstborn and the lastborn of James White die. But, the firstborn died in the very year that the chart that begins the rejection of these Truths [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts] and he died from taking a nap on the very materials that were being used to prepare the 1863 chart.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Whew!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we know that from our human understanding James White is coming up in the resurrection of the Righteous; so, we understand that as we discuss these things about the role that he played in beginning the work of covering up the jewels of the Foundational Truths that his role does not identify him as a lost person but simply as a prophetic symbol that you have left in the Record to give us warning of what is taking place in our day and age, as we are confronted with unsanctified ministers that have torches that have been lit from unholy fire, standing in the pulpits opposing the message of the hour, the message to return to the Foundations. We ask that you continue to bless us as we return to Daniel 8 and understand that the prophetic vision is based upon Rome as a symbol, and that Rome as a symbol is a determined work of Satan to confuse, obscure, and turn upside down, and that he has been attempting this work from the beginning of Adventism. We want to understand his devices that we can be prepared to clearly defend the truth for those that have been taken captive by his devices. We thank you for being with us so far. We ask your continued blessing upon this day as Marco shares with the Latin brethren around the world. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #80

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for another day of life that we might serve you, that we might come to more know you better. As we take up our study this morning, we ask for the presence of your Holy Spirit in our hearts and in our minds that we can understand what you have for us. We ask that you would take control of my words, my thoughts, that they would not be corrupted by humanity, that you purify them with a coal from your altar and that you would also prepare the hearts and minds of the brothers and sisters that are listening to these things. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us at this time; so, we would ask that you would do that by opening our understanding to your Word. We want to understand the significance of the Daily in terms of many things, and we ask that you would help us to come to understand the significance of this truth. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What I have been doing generally is waking up in the morning as I do, and then I will go out and prepare the notes for the morning worship. Sometimes I get them prepared the day before, but usually it is in the morning, and then print them for those of you that are here and send them to Austin so he can put them on the website for those that are watching through DVD or through LiveStream.

And, yesterday, after I had printed the notes, another thought about James White's sons came to me, and I was going to include it in yesterday's presentation; but, it was not in the notes and by the time I got done with yesterday's presentation, it was late. So, I figured I would recap the conclusion of yesterday's and put that in there.

But, when I woke up yesterday, I was reading a quote (and it is in yesterday's quotes), the longest quote we read where Sister White references Jericho; and, that is what led me to consider the curse that was placed upon the man that rebuilt Jericho. And I had remembered that many months ago a sister in Oregon, Tania, had brought up the recognition of James White's sons in connection with Jericho. So, that was not anything that came to me on my own accord. It was initially put in my memory bank by Tania and I had forgotten about it; but, when I went through Jericho yesterday, those things started coming out.

So, after the presentation yesterday, I emailed Tania, who has been watching some of these morning worships and asked her if we were on the same wave length; so, she responded and added some other things.

And there is a sister in Canada that is watching, and she added a nice thought as well; and, the sister in Canada added a nice thought after these notes were printed.

RECAP OF JERICHO

So, I want to recap Jericho before we get back into the Daily; but, I want you to begin—and this is not in your notes—in the Book of Galatians, chapter 2, verse 18.

> "[18]For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor." Galatians 2:18 (KJV).

And, what we are saying is that Jericho was destroyed, but it was rebuilt. And what we are suggesting is that—what I am suggesting, the way I am understanding these things, is that in 1863 the Millerite Movement ended and the Seventh-day Adventist Church began; and, we have been teaching this a long time, this concept that the Movement ends in 1863, the church begins; and then in 1989, the Final Movement begins.

I like it when you come to a conclusion about truth and then, thereafter, the Lord gives added confirmation that what you had understood is true. And this is one of those things.

The Movement ended in 1863 with the formation of the Seventh-day Adventist Church; and, of course, in 1989 at the Time of the End with the collapse of the Soviet Union, the Final Movement begins. And in this history is where we will see manifested the True Movement in contrast with the Omega Movement. So, all Bible prophesy is focusing on these two Movements.

But, if you will notice your notes, then, I want to remind us that when—let us read it, not the first quote, but Joshua 6:26-27, which is in your notes. So, let us read it and put something in place.

It says,

> "[26]And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it. [27]So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country." Joshua 6:26–27 (KJV).

Now, it is worth noting that in this prophecy that Joshua is setting forth that he says he "adjured them."

> ADJURED: Strong's Concordance H7650—A primitive root; properly to be complete, but used only as a denominative from H7651; to seven oneself, that is, swear (as if by repeating a declaration seven times):—adjure, charge (by an oath, with an oath), feed to the full, take an oath, X straitly, (cause to, make to) swear.

And this word adjured is the Hebrew 7650, and it comes from H7651. And if you know these words, if you look up the Hebrew word 7650, what it says is that it comes from the Hebrew word 7651. But, if you look up the Hebrew word 7651, it will tell you that it comes from the Hebrew word 7650. So, these words are so interchangeable that they come from each other in terms of the Hebrew. And, of course, this word is the word that gets translated as seven times in Leviticus 26.

So, Joshua's adjuring them is the same oath in Daniel 9:11, when it is the oath of Moses. That word oath is the same word. He seven times'ed them.

So, we see in this prophecy this word that the modern theologians do not want to grapple with that represents the 2520; and, it talks about the man that is going to rebuild this city (a city being a kingdom in Bible prophecy), that he is going to deal with the foundation and the gates.

Now, drop down to the second quote from the bottom of your notes where it says "The Gate of Heaven." I want to put in place what the gates represent; because, we have gates and foundations."

THE GATE OF HEAVEN

From Testimonies, volume 5, page 491, it says,

> "To the humble, believing soul, the house of God on earth is the gate of heaven. The song of praise, the prayer, the words spoken by Christ's representatives, are God's appointed agencies to prepare a people for the church above, for that loftier worship into which there can enter nothing that defileth." Testimonies, volume 5, 491.

So, if he is going to build the gates and it is going to cost him one of his sons, and the foundations and it is going to cost him one of his sons, well, a gate in Bible prophecy symbolizes the Church.

So, now if you go back up, we will read what we read yesterday about the death of James White's two sons. It says, from Testimonies, volume 1, page 103,

> "In 1860 death stepped over our threshold, and broke the youngest branch of our family tree. Little Herbert, born September 20, 1860, died December 14 of the same year." Testimonies, volume 1, 103.

Then, in 1863, Henry passed away, and his illness was brought about him taking a nap upon the materials that they were using to produce the 1863 charts. So, we dealt with that yesterday.

But, I want to show you something about 1860 down at the bottom of your notes, from Arthur White, Ellen G. White, volume 1, pages 420-421.

> "(1860) INITIAL STEPS IN CHURCH ORGANIZATION
> "While Ellen White had written and published at some length on the need of order in managing the work of the church (see Early Writings, 97–104),"—

And this is Arthur White's biography we are reading from.

> —"and while James White had kept this need before the believers in addresses and Review articles, the church was slow to move. What had been presented in general terms, was well received, but when it came to translating this with something constructive there was resistance and opposition. James White's brief articles in February aroused not a few from complacency, and now a great deal was being said."—

In February of 1860 James White begins to push to start the church.

> —"J. N. Loughborough, working with White in Michigan, was the first to respond. His words were in the affirmative, but on the defensive:

"'Says one, if you organize so as to hold property by law, you will be a part of Babylon. No; I understand there is quite a difference between our being in a position that we can protect our property by law and using the law to protect and enforce our religious views. If it is wrong to protect church property, why is not wrong for individuals to hold any property legally?—RH, March 8, 1860.'

"James White had closed his statement in the Review, laying the matter of the need of organization of the publishing interests before the church with the words 'If any object to our suggestions, will they please write out a plan on which we as a people can act?'—Ibid., February 23, 1860. The first minister laboring out in the field to respond was R. F. Cottrell, a stalwart corresponding editor of the Review. His immediate reaction was decidedly negative:

"'Brother White has asked the brethren to speak in relation to his proposition to secure the property of the church. I do not know precisely what measure he intends in this suggestion, but understand it is to get incorporated as a religious body according to law. For myself, I think it would be wrong to 'make us a name,' since that lies at the foundation of Babylon. I do not think God would approve of it.—Ibid., March 22, 1860." Arthur White, Ellen G. White, volume 1, 420–421.

So, what is my point? My point is, if you go back in your notes to the prophecy of Joshua 6:26-27,[29] it says,

"[26]And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it. [27]So the Lord was with Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country. Joshua 6:26–27 (KJV).

And I am saying the "gates of it" represent the Church; and, I am saying that James White began the discussion to start a church in 1860, which is the year that his youngest son was laid to rest. And that in 1863 his firstborn was laid to rest when the Church was formally started, legally started; but, it was the foundation. It was the point when the Foundations of Adventism began to be covered up.

And, Galatians 2:18 says, "For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor."

There may be a black and white "Thus saith the Lord," but I spent time this morning looking for it and did not find it; but, I am confident by reading the overviews that Sister White wrote about the death of her husband James White, she may have a place where she states like she does of William Miller. Of William Miller, she says something like this, "Angels wait by the grave of that saint, waiting for the resurrection." Okay? So, you know that William Miller is coming up in the Resurrection of the Righteous. And, I did not find a quote like that for James White; but, I found much commentary that leads me to believe that he is coming up in the Resurrection of the Righteous. Okay?

[29] Corrects cite from the Book of Jeremiah to the Book of Joshua 6:26-27.

So, there have been people that have been emailing since yesterday saying, "You know, once again we are portraying James White or some of these Pioneers in a negative way." But, that is not what I am saying.

But, I tell you what, Brothers and Sisters, if you are a parent, if you are a parent, even if you are going to obtain eternal life, you have to know that to lose a child is a curse. There is where if you lose one of your children as a parent, it is a curse to you.

So, even if the curse that we are talking about is not a curse of being eternally lost, there is no way a parent does not feel the pain of losing two children.

So, I am leaving it at that. I think James White is a saved man. I do not know; I am not the judge. But, there may be a place in the Spirit of Prophecy where it is absolutely crystal clear that he is a saved man; but, we are not talking about James White's salvation.

We are talking about the end of a Movement and the beginning of a Church being prefigured by Jericho. And what we are saying is that Jericho represents the message of the Millerites and our message. And in the symbolism of Jericho, we see the Loud Cry or the Midnight Cry: they all shouted.

We see the trumpet, either the Third Trumpet or the Second Trumpet. The trumpet message in 1840 empowered the Millerite message; the Third Trumpet (the Third Woe of 9/11) empowers this Final Warning Message.

We see the Israelites marching around Jericho on the seventh day, seven times. So, what do you see there? You see two seven times. They marched around the city seven times for seven days; but, on the seventh day they marched around seven times. So, you can see in there, just as there was in the Millerite History, an understanding of two 2520s; and, in our history we understand two 2520's.

And you also see in the story of Jericho the emphasis on the Sabbath. Six days they march around the city one time; but, there is something different about that seventh day because they march around seven times.

So, I am saying, the message that empowered the Movement of the Millerites brought down the organized structure of that time period, because they called them out of Babylon, out of the organized churches. But, in the 1860s, the 1863 time period, they built again that which they had—how does Paul say it? "For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. Galatians 2:18 (KJV)"

"But, Brother Pippenger, I can bring many, many quotes from the Spirit of Prophecy where Sister White endorses church organization, endorses the name "Seventh-day Adventists," endorses being organized, councils against being broken into independent atoms."

Yes, I know those quotes, too. But, I also know that in the story of Samuel, Israel wanted a king and Samuel thought he was being rejected, and the Lord says, "No. They are not rejecting you. They are rejecting me; but, go ahead and let them have a king, and I will deal with them in that arrangement as well."

So, the question is, is Ancient Israel typifying modern Israel? From my studies, it is. So, the fact that we entered into a church organization in 1863 and the Lord said, "I will work with this, in spite of my perfect will," is no different from Him saying He would work with Ancient Israel when they wanted a king, in spite of the fact that He had wanted to deal with them under the construction of a theocracy and not a monarchy.

An interesting study.

Here is what I was going to add yesterday that I did not.

The man that finally did build Jericho, in 1 Kings 16:34,

> "[34]In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun. 1 Kings 16:34 (KJV).
> HIEL: Strong's Concordance H2419—living of God*; Chiel, an Israelite: - Hiel.

So, we know that BETHEL means the House of God; so, this Hiel is associated with the House of God, and his name means the living of God.

So, Hiel, the man that built Jericho, he is not portrayed in terms of his name as someone that is outside of God's will; he is portrayed as someone that is working in the Lord's work, as was James White.

> ABIRAM: Strong's Concordance H48—From H1 and H7311; father of height (that is, lofty); Abiram, the name of two Israelites: - Abiram. H1—A primitive word; father in a literal and immediate, or figurative and remote application: - chief, (fore-) father ([-less]), X patrimony, principal. Compare names in "Abi-" H7311—A primitive root; to be high actively to rise or raise (in various applications, literally or figuratively): - bring up, exalt (self), extol, give, go up, haughty, heave (up), (be, lift up on, make on, set up on, too) high (-er, one), hold up, levy, lift (-er) up, (be) lofty, (X a-) loud, mount up, offer (up), + presumptuously, (be) promote (-ion), proud, set up, tall (-er), take (away, off, up), breed worms.

His son, Abiram, means—this is classic Bible symbolism in my mind. In ABIRAM, you can see the breakdown. It means father of height. Abiram is his firstborn. It is from H1, which means father; and H7311, which means, to exalt self.

So, you can read into the name ABIRAM, the firstborn son that gets laid to rest in order to remove the Foundational Truths of the 2520, that his death is because his father was exalting himself, if you want to read it that way.

> SEGUB: H7687—From H7682; aloft; Segub, the name of two Israelites: - Segub. H7682—A primitive root; to be (causatively make) *lofty, especially inaccessible; by implication safe, strong; used literally and figuratively: - defend, exalt, be excellent, (be, set on) high, lofty, be safe, set up (on high), be too strong.

And then the youngest son, Segub, it means aloft, to make lofty, to exalt.

So, the lastborn and the firstborn boys' names contribute to the understanding of what took place with their father which caused them to be laid to rest. There was self-exaltation going on, if you want to read it at the prophetic level. And, of course, we do, do we not?

So, for those of us that are concerned about presenting truths that will allow our enemies to misrepresent our motives and directions, you may be right; but, even if we did not present those truths that the Lord opened up that seemed to be a little bit more straight, the enemies of this Message would still misrepresent our motives and intentions; so, we might as well just present the truth that the Lord opens up to us and move on to the next point, which we are doing at this time.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #81

(Notes for #81 begins contiguously with DVD presentation of #80, and balance of notes for #81 is included in presentation under DVD for #81)

THE DAILY

We are now going back to Daniel 8, to continue our consideration of the Daily.

104 TIMES

> TAMID: Strong's Concordance H8548—From an unused root meaning to stretch; properly continuance (as indefinite extension); but used only (attributively as adjective) constant (or adverbially constantly); elliptically the regular (daily) sacrifice:—alway (-s), continual (employment, -ly), daily, ([n-]) ever (-more), perpetual.

Now, almost everything that we have been doing since we started a week or so ago is drawing from the previous presentations in Habakkuk's Two Tables; and, if I recall right, we put on the website months ago in this Habakkuk's Two Tables a breakdown of the word tamid in the Bible. So, if that is not there and you want it, email us and I will make sure that we put it back on there.

But, in that breakdown it shows you that the word tamid, which is translated as Daily in the Book of Daniel, is found in the Bible 104 times.

And you can see here, we are dealing with tamid here, which is translated as Daily. And if you go into your Concordance, it says TAMID, H8548. And I want to show you something here, not so much about the definition but about the mindset, the Protestant mindset, of the Strong's and almost all the Protestant world, and the theologians of Adventism.

It says, from an unused root meaning to stretch; properly continuance (as indefinite extension); but used only (attributively as adjective) constant (or adverbially constantly). The point here is, even in this definition it says of the 104 times that it is found in the Bible, it is only an adjective or a verb. Okay? But, that is not true; because, in the Book of Daniel, it is a noun, and this breakdown of the Daily will show that.

So, what I am saying is, there is a mindset in the Protestant world that prevents them from recognizing that the Daily in the Book of Daniel was a noun.

Now, if you remember back to Monday, I believe it was—last Monday, not two days ago Monday, but nine days ago Monday—when we dealt with William Miller, we kind of put a little bit of emphasis on William Miller that I like to put on William Miller. When you are reading William Miller's writings and he says something and a thought popped into my mind, after you have studied his relationship with the Angel Gabriel, for me when a thought pops into his mind, it was Gabriel whispering to him. So, I just like to have that added color in his writings.

But, I want to show you something about William Miller. I do not know what his Cru en 's Concor anc e looked like, but this [holding up a book] is the Cruden's Concordance. This is what William Miller used. And it is not like a Strong's. There is no reference in here, whatsoever, to the Hebrew and Greek, period, none. You are not going to learn anything about Hebrew and Greek when you use Cru en 's Concor anc e. And, William Miller, of course, that is what he used was a Cru en 's Concor anc e, which he purchased for $8.00—I believe it was. Correct me, if I am wrong—$8.00 in 1798. I like the fact that he purchased it in 1798, at the Time of the End when the Book of Daniel was unsealed and knowledge was increased.

But, this is William Miller here, from Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, January 6, 1853, speaking of the Daily, and he says,

> "I read on, and could find no other case in which it [the daily] was found, but in Daniel."—

Now, notice, I have in the notes there that first line bold-faced, but I left "[the daily]" not bold-faced because I want to emphasize that. That is what he is saying.

Using this [holds up the Cru en 's Concor anc e], the only place that he could find "the daily" in the Bible was in Daniel. Okay? So, he knew that "the daily" in the Book of Daniel was different than the other 99 times when it is found in the Bible.

So, what I am saying to you, it has always been an amazement to me: How did he know it?

This was all he was using was Cru en 's Concor anc e. How did he come to that conclusion, when every other scholar has assumed the 104 times it occurs in God's Word that it is the same word?

Now we have the Hebrew to prove that he was right, but he was right without the Hebrew. So, how was he right? And I like to think that it was the activity of the Angel Gabriel.

Okay. We have already read this in the past. This is where he comes to his conclusion that it is Pagan Rome that is restraining the Papacy in 2 Thessalonians; and, therefore, the Daily that is taken away in both 2 Thessalonians and in the Book of Daniel must be Paganism.

> —"I then [by the aid of a concordance] took those words which stood in connection with it, 'take away;' he shall take away the daily; 'from the time the daily shall be taken away,' etc. I read on, and thought I should find no light on the text; finally I came to 2 Thessalonians 2:7, 8. 'For the mystery of iniquity doth already work; only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way, and then shall that wicked be revealed,' etc. And when I had come to that text, O, how clear and glorious the truth appeared! There it is! That is the daily! Well, now, what does Paul mean by 'he who now letteth,' or hindereth? By 'the man of sin,' and the 'wicked,' Popery is meant. Well, what is it which hinders Popery from being revealed? Why, it is Paganism; well, then, 'the daily' must mean Paganism.'—William Miller, Second Advent Manual, page 66." Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, January 6, 1853.

Okay. Let me show you one other thing in connection with this.

When we read here on the previous page the Strong's Hebrew definition of TAMID, they suggest that it always an adjective or an adverb; but, it is not, and you can show this also (if you are willing to see) in the Book of Daniel. Because, notice Daniel 8:11.

We are not going to deal with the verse. We are just dealing with the word TAMID to start with, which is translated as daily.

And in verse 11, it says in the middle of the verse, "[11]. . . and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away"; and you will notice that the word sacrifice is in italics, meaning it is an added word.

And then in verse 12 it says, "[12]And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice . . . ," and the word sacrifice is in italics.

And then in verse 13 it says, "[13]. . . How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, . . ." and the word sacrifice is in italics.

And then if you go to Daniel 11, verse 31, verse 31 says, "[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, . . ." and the word sacrifice is in italics.

And then in Daniel 12:11, it says, "[11]And from the time that the daily sacrifice . . . ," and the word sacrifice is in italics.

Why is that word sacrifice in there? Because, the translators of the King James Bible, as good as they were, like the people that put the Strong's Concor anc e together, and the Protestant world, and the modern theologians of Adventism, they did not recognize as William Miller did that the Daily in the Book of Daniel is a noun. They thought it had to be an adverb or an adjective; so, they added the word sacrifice to turn it in to an adverb or an adjective. And of all the added words in God's Word that have been put in there, there is only one in Inspiration that Ellen White comments on.

In Early Writings, pages 74-75, she says,

> "Then I saw in relation to the 'daily' (Daniel 8:12) that the word 'sacrifice' was supplied by man's wisdom, and does not belong to the text, and that the Lord gave the correct view of it to those who gave the judgment hour cry." Early Writings, 74–75.

So, the fact that William Miller could see (and he was using the King James Bible) that the Daily only occurred in the Book of Daniel, that blows my mind; because, that added word was in there. And by adding the word sacrifice, you change it from a noun to an adjective or an adverb.

But, this is so important that Ellen White says, "Make sure, if you are going to be a Berean and rightly divide the Word, that you don't let that word sacrifice stay in there. It doesn't belong there. That was added by human wisdom." And to keep the word sacrifice in there is to mix the sacred with the common, it is to mix the human with the divine; and, that is spiritualism. That is rebellion. That is witchcraft.

So, now we are going to consider in connection with the word the Daily, the continual, the tamid—but, before we do, let me try to go back to Daniel 8 and remind us of one thing.

When the modern theologians argue that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry, they go to the 104 places in the Bible where the word tamid occurs, and they say, "Look at it. Here it means this; here it means this; here it is associated with God's sanctuary; here it is associated with God's Sanctuary."

But, using a verb to define a noun, the illustration I use is that if you have a cradle with a baby in it. Okay? If you are rocking the baby in the cradle, then that is a verb—right?—rocking, the rocking part. Is that not a verb?

But, if you throw a rock at the baby in the cradle, the rock is a noun; and, you cannot mix those. You cannot use the rocking of the cradle to define the rock that is thrown at the baby. Okay?

These modern theologians, they go to all these other places where the word tamid is an adjective or an adverb and it is used in connection with the sanctuary, and they say, "Looky there. The word tamid (Daily) has to represent Christ's Sanctuary ministry." But, it is not an adverb or an adjective in the Book of Daniel. It is a noun.

So, I have had the privilege, responsibility, the experience in this message for 20 years or so; and, before I knew much about this [1843] Chart, when we first started carrying this message, the Lord opened the door for us to go to South America and we spent many, many moons in South America. And this Chart was so important to us that we had it translated into Spanish so when we were in South America the Latin brethren could see it in their own language.

And the reason I was using this Chart is because it was important to me to prove from this Chart that the Daily was Paganism; and, the reason that was important to me was all I was teaching was the last six verses of Daniel 11, and the quote that we read a couple of days ago where Sister White quotes verses 30 to 36 of Daniel 11 and then says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place," it was important to me to make sure that everyone understood the accurate history of verses 30 to 36; because, that is what illustrates verses 40 through 45. And in verse 31, in those sequences of verses, you have the Daily. So, it was important to me to make sure that the brethren that were going to understand the last six verses of Daniel 11 understood that the Daily was Paganism; so, we have had this [1843] Chart for a very long time.

And because of that, I have been argued with about the Daily probably longer than anyone. Virtually everything that I learned about the Daily, I learned because someone that knew a little bit more about the Daily than I did but they were wrong would throw some kind of antagonistic question my way and I would have to figure out, "You know, I never thought about that. What does that mean?" And, I would have to bust out the books, or whatever, and learn another aspect of the Daily.

And after that happens, you become familiar that there are only a certain amount of arguments that are proposed by the modern theologians against the Daily. There are only—you could number them. And after you have had them thrown in your face so many times, you get familiar with what they are.

And then we realized (I realized), a friend of mine came across a document and shared it with me, and I realized that all of those arguments can be pretty much found in this document [holding up a document]. This document is an unpublished article by Leroy Froom, where he goes through and he lists all the reasons why the Pioneer position that the Daily is Paganism is wrong that he could think of. And it is 20 pages long.

But, when this friend of mine handed this off to me and I went through it, I realized, "Well, this is where they get all their arguments from!" But, they never have used all 20 of them—well, I do not know how many there are in here, but they have never used every argument. This argument seems to work for them when they are teaching the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry, so they are familiar with that one. So, when you are in their presence that is what they throw in your face.

But, what works for this brother [gesturing as to another person] is different that works for this broth [gesturing again as to another person], so he uses this other argument. But, over a period of time, you get familiar with all of them.

And they [the arguments] are pretty much all here [holding up the copy of the Froom unpublished document], and this is pretty much all darkness. There is not one of these arguments that cannot be blown out of the water by God's Word. Okay?

So, the brother that found this, Duane Dewey, he also realized when he read this book by Heidi Heikes [holds up the book, Heidi Heiks*[stet]*, 508, 538, 1798, 1843 Source Book (Preliminary), (Knoxville, IL: Hope International, 2005).], that this book—

Now, mind you, when Heidi Heikes is writing this book, he is working at Hartland Institute, and Hartland Institute holds itself up as the great defenders of conservative present truth Adventism. So, this man is working there, but Hartland Institute, if you went and considered their testimony over the past 20 years or more, they do not have any respect for Leroy Froom; because, part of their presentation is that Leroy Froom was one of the main men that brought in *Questions on Doctrine (*the book Questions on Doctrine), and at that point the salvation, the gospel of the Protestant world is incorporated into Adventism. That is one of the primary pillars of Hartland Institute, is they are protecting the good old gospel of salvation that was in place before Questions on Doctrine. So, Hartland Institute, it is not pro-Leroy Froom.

So, he [Heidi Heikes] is working at Hartland, and he prints this book; and, for some reason he does not put anywhere in this book that most of my arguments are derived from this paper. But, Duane Dewey gets on the phone when he reads this book and he calls Heidi Heikes and he says, "Your book, all you are doing is restating Leroy Froom's arguments from his unpublished document in 1940."

And Heidi Heikes says, "That's right. That's right."

But, you cannot be at Hartland Institute and be lifting up Leroy Froom; because, they would have to let you go because they do not have any sympathy for Leroy Froom.

So, maybe he was doing it to keep his job; or, maybe he was just wanting to take the credit for it. But, it does not really matter why he did it. This [referring to the book] is just a modern presentation of this paper [the unpublished document by Froom]; and this [the book] is just as dark as this [the unpublished document by Froom].

But, I want to show you something. I have a reason for doing this.

There is one little punch line on the Daily, there is one little punch line on the Daily, that if you get it, all the other foolishness does not matter. And, it is with two words.

And I have a reason for taking you to this book to make this punch line; but, I want to show it to you before we pull the trigger on this.

TAKE AWAY

Both of these Hebrew words [RUM, and SUR] are translated as take away in the Book of Daniel.

In Daniel 8:11, the word that is translated as take away is rum; and, in Daniel 11:31 and Daniel 12:11, the word that is translated as take away is sur.

SUR*—Daniel 11:31; 12:11

> "[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily ~~sacrifice~~, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

> "[11]And from the time that the daily ~~sacrifice~~ shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days." Daniel 12:11 (KJV).

SUR—Strong's Concordance H5493—A primitive root; to turn off (literally or figuratively): - be [-head], bring, call back, decline, depart, eschew, get [you], go (aside), X grievous, lay away (by), leave undone, be past, pluck away, put (away, down), rebel, remove (to and fro), revolt, X be sour, take (away, off), turn (aside, away, in), withdraw, be without.

SUR basically means to remove. And in Daniel 11:31, the arms stood up for the Papacy; they polluted the sanctuary of strength in the warfare that took place concerning the City of Rome; and, they took away the Daily. At the Battle of the Visigoths, Clovis defeated the Visigoths AD507 to 508, and the resistance of Paganism to the rise of the Papacy was taken away. It was removed.

And from the time that it [Paganism (the Daily)] was taken away in AD508, according to Daniel 12:11, there would be two time prophecies: one, 1290 years; and, one, 1335 years.

In this case, the word translated as take away in connection with the Daily (the Daily taken away) is sur.

RUM—Daniel 8:11

"[11]Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily ~~sacrifice~~ was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down."
Daniel 8:11 (KJV).

RUM—Strong's Concordance H7311—A primitive root; to be high actively to rise or *raise (in various applications, literally or figuratively): - bring up, exalt (self), extol, give, go up, haughty, heave (up), (be, lift up on, make on, set up on, too) high (-er, one), hold up, levy, lift (-er) up, (be) lofty, (X a-) loud, mount up, offer (up), + presumptuously, (be) promote (-ion), proud, set up, tall (-er), take (away, off, up), breed worms.

But, in this case, RUM means to lift up and exalt.

Now, Brothers and Sisters, this distinction in Daniel 8:11, this is a knock-out punch. If you can get this into your head, this is a knock-out punch! It is so much of a knock-out punch that one of the things that is different in Heidi Heikes's book than in Leroy Froom's paper, is Leroy Froom was not confronted with the fact that there had been somebody traveling around the world for many years [tapping the 1843 Chart] making the argument about the Daily.

So, it is not specifically said here, but Heidi Heikes had to deal with the fact that people had been out for 20 years making the distinction between rum and sur; and, right there it blows his whole argument out of the water. So, here is what he says in his appendix. This is pointed towards Future for America. He might not admit that, but the context of this history upholds it. Here is what he says. It is an appendix note from page iii. It says,

"The End of Paganism

"Since the issue of Paganism is dealt with thoroughly in all quotations and references are in the full in my book and exposition of Daniel 8:9-14, I will very briefly cover just a few needed points here.

> "When William Miller began proclaiming that Paganism had ceased in the year 508, all were agreed that the action of the Hebrew word "rum" in Daniel 8:11 meant literally "to take away." The pioneers never once taught or said it meant "to lift up or exalt." That is a new private interpretation that has come on the stage of action many years after the death of Ellen White and is being promoted as historic Adventism. Nothing could be further from the truth." (Heidi Heiks, 508, 538, 1798, 1843 Source Book (Preliminary), Appendix, iii (Knoxville, IL: Hope International, 2005).

Do you get that argument?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He said the Pioneers never recognized or taught that rum meant lift up and exalt; so, these men at the end of the world that are identifying that the Hebrew word RUM in Daniel 8:11 means lift up and exalt, that is an invalid argument because the Pioneers never taught it; and, if the Pioneers never taught it, then we cannot understand what the Hebrew means.

He knows. He knows that this blows him out of the water.

"This is just a private interpretation," the Hebrew definition of rum is just a private interpretation! I do not think so.

Okay. In your notes, you have the definition of SUR. It means, call back, decline, depart, pluck away, remove, take (away), turn (aside), withdraw.

And in Daniel 11:31 and Daniel 12:11, Paganism was taken away. It was removed. It was withdrawn.

But in the word rum in Daniel 8:11, this word means to be high actively to rise or raise: - bring up, exalt (self), (lift up, set up on) high, mount up, offer (up), + presumptuously.

This word [RUM] means to lift up and exalt.

Now, Brothers and Sisters, this settles the case, if you can follow this logic.

But, do you know something? I may have an incorrect logic in what I am going to say here, but I think it is correct. The first place that you look for a definition of the word is not the Hebrew and the Greek. You want to look at the Hebrew and the Greek, but the first place you look is how the person that uses the word understands it, if it is available. You know, the Hebrew may mean this; but, the prophet that is using this Hebrew word may mean something that is just a little bit different than what the perfect Hebrew definition is. So, you have to do it first, if it is available, by the context of what the author says.

So, let us see if Daniel uses the word rum anywhere else in his writings. Does he use it to mean take away as the definition of sur is; or, does he use it to mean lift up and exalt? Because, if he uses it to mean lift up and exalt, then it means he is using it just exactly as the Hebrew is, and it means this is not a private interpretation.

In Daniel 5:20, it says, "[20]But when his heart was lifted up, . . ." and the Hebrew word that is translated in Daniel 5:20 as lifted up is rum; and, that is the definition of rum in the Hebrew. That is one time.

How about verse 23 of the same chapter: "[23]But hast lifted up thyself, . . ."? That word lifted up is rum. So, there are two places when Daniel uses rum that he uses it just as the Hebrew definition is, is to lift up and exalt.

And in Daniel 11:12, he uses the word rum again. Verse 12, he says, "[12]And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; . . ." The lifting up of his heart, that is the Hebrew word that is translated as lifted up is rum.

In verse 36 of the chapter, Daniel 11:36, it says, "[36]And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself [HE SHALL RUM HIMSELF], . . ." The Hebrew word translated as exalt is rum, and rum means to lift up and exalt.

And then in Daniel 12:7, it says, "And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand . . ." The Hebrew word that is translated as held up is rum.

So, that is five places that Daniel uses the Hebrew word in perfect agreement with the definition of rum, which is to lift up and exalt.

All right. Now, here is where it comes to the bottom line on the Daily.

DANIEL 8:11

The sixth place where you can see Daniel using the word rum is in Daniel 8:11.

Now, one time one of the arguments that was thrown at me was, I think it was, about precedent, but that might not be the right word. My grammar has got a lot of weaknesses, but that is one of the main ones.

In your notes, look under "Daniel 8:11," and this is just a quote from verse 11, right from the King James. It says,

> "[11]Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host,"—

Nobody argues that "the prince of the host" is Christ. All right? So, it says,

> "[11]Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down." Daniel 8:11 (KJV).

Do you see that? Do you see that?

Okay. There is an argument, a grammatical argument, that the last subject presented was the prince of the host; therefore, when it says "by him," it has to mean by the prince of the host, grammatically.

Do you see that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And that is true. In grammar it is, you know, "the prince of the host," and "by him." And what is being discussed there, whatever happens "by him" has to happen by "the prince of the host." Do you follow that?

Amen?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

So, when I had that thrown in my face one time in a meeting, I am thinking, "I don't know grammar, but I get it. I get it!"

Because, if that is the case, it really turns this verse upside down; so, I have underneath that verse the actual expression in the Hebrew. Sometimes when they translate the Bible, they will take the verse and they will move it around a little bit to make more sense in the English; but, the way this verse is actually expressed in the Hebrew, it says,

> "Even to the Prince of the host he exalted himself. And from him was lifted up the daily and the place of his sanctuary was cast down." (Actual Hebrew translation of Daniel 8:11.)

So, the one that exalted himself was the one that lifted up the Daily, not "the prince of the host"—do you follow me?—if you are going to follow the absolute structure of the Hebrew.

So, if you go to Daniel 8:9-11, that we have already discussed (I hope you remember this), all these symbols of these kingdoms are corrupted symbols: you know, two horns that are different sizes, a horn that is broken, representing kingdoms of Bible prophecy in their religious manifestations; but, it is a counterfeit religion because of the corrupted offerings.

And, then when we get to the little horn, this is corrupted, too, because it is a cross-dresser. It is a man in one verse, a woman in the next verse, a man in the next verse, and a woman in the next verse. Okay? That is an abomination in the Lord's eyes. And, you can see it in the verses, sort of, not as well as if you understand Hebrew and get into the Hebrew where it is really clear; but, you can see it that in verse 9 when the little horn is being discussed. It is in the masculine. And when it is being discussed in verse 11, it is "Yea, he." It is in the masculine. But, when it is being discussed in the feminine in verses 10 and 12, it is not "he," it is "it." So, the translators saw this variation of masculine to feminine.

And, we know that the whole story is about the combination of church and state.

Where do we find the first illustration of the combination of church and state in God's Word?

BROTHER TRACY: Babylon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: My brother, Tracy, says Babylon. Is that the first illustration of it?

BROTHER TRACY: The snake . . . (indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The snake? Well, that is Isaiah 14.

The first illustration, the first symbol of church and state, like it or not, who was the king of the Earth originally?

BROTHER TRACY: Adam.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Adam. He is the king. He is the civil power?

Who was Eve?

BROTHER TRACY: The church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The church.

Church and state is illustrated by man and woman. Okay? Adam and Eve tells us that.

So, in verses 9, 10, 11, and 12, when the little horn is Rome, when it is the man, who is it? It is Civil Rome (state Rome).

When it is the woman, who is it? It is Papal Rome [the church].

So, with that, if you go into verse 11—we are dealing with verse 11—it says, "Yea, he," which Rome is it? It is masculine Rome; it is Pagan Rome.

But, Heidi Heikes, Leroy Froom, Andrews University, The Biblical Research Institute—I mean, Andrews University, if we get to it today (we will probably get to it tomorrow), there is a quote in here from J. N. Andrews. It is just sad. Okay? It is sad that in the past couple of years the university that is named after J. N. Andrews, commemorating his work as a Bible scholar in the early history of Adventism, that he could write what is in your notes (with which we will probably deal with tomorrow) about the Daily, and that within the past couple of years Andrews University has printed a Bible in which that they put that the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry. At least they should have had the decency to change the name of their university. Or better yet, they should have followed the counsel of Ellen White, "If our schools become like the world, then close them out, close them down, and sell them to the world"; because, that is where we have gone with this.

Those people will teach you that verse 11, the subject of verse 11 is not Pagan Rome, not the man: it is Papal Rome—verse 11, according to this dark idea is Papal Rome.

So, go to verse 11, if you think it is Papal Rome. Heidi Heikes thinks it is Papal Rome.

> "[11]Yea, he [THE PAPACY] magnified himself even o the prince of the host, and by him"—

Now, this is why Heidi Heikes has to put this in the Appendix. This is why he hates it.

> —"and by him [THE PAPACY] the daily ~~sacrifice~~ [CHRIST'S SANCTUARY MINISTRY, ACCORDING TO THE MODERN THEOLOGIANS]"—

". .. by [the Papacy]," the daily ~~sacrifice~~ *[Christ's Sanctuary ministry]*, . . ," they will tell you that it was taken away with the introduction of the Mass. But, that is not what rum says, is it? What rum says is that Christ's Sanctuary ministry was lifted up and exalted, if you are going to identify this as the Papacy.

So, pray tell, when was it that the Papacy lifted up and exalted Christ's Sanctuary ministry?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. This is the knock-out punch for this foolish teaching about the Daily.

When was it that the Papacy lifted up and exalted Christ's Sanctuary ministry? Because, there are five other places in the Book of Daniel where Daniel uses rum in the exact agreement with its definition, and its definition is not take away; it is to lift up and exalt.

"And in verse 11, it says, 'Yea, he [THE PAPACY] magnified himself even to [CHRIST]. . ., and by him [THE PAPACY] . . . [CHRIST'S SANCTUARY MINISTRY] was [LIFTED UP AND EXALTED], and the place of his sanctuary [OF CHRIST'S SANCTUARY] was cast down.'" That is what they will teach you.

Where is Christ's Sanctuary?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Heaven.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Heaven.

Can you give me one other verse in the Scriptures where Heaven was cast down?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is not there.

Now, you may have wondered why over the past two days that I took time to show that Rome establishes the vision. We never studied much, but I just tried to show you the connections in the Scriptures that are made when you understand that the subject is Rome. It is what pulls the whole story together, the subject of Rome. And I want to emphasize that here now; because, when you take this fallen approach to the Daily, the connection with the rest of the Scripture is destroyed. It becomes manmade theories that try to hold it together.

But, notice this. If you identify the little horn in verse 11 as Pagan Rome because it is the masculine manifestation of the little horn, then verse 11 says this,

> "[11]Yea, he [PAGAN ROME] magnified himself even to the prince of the host,"—

Did Pagan Rome ever magnify himself to Christ?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He tried to kill Him when He was born; did kill Him at the cross. That seems to magnify itself to Christ.

> "[11]Yea, he [PAGAN ROME] magnified himself even to the prince of the host,"—
> "[11]Yea, he [PAGAN ROME] magnified himself even to . . . [CHRIST AT HIS BIRTH AND AT HIS DEATH], and . . . [THROUGH] him [PAGAN ROME] . . . [PAGANISM] was . . . [LIFTED UP AND EXALTED],"—

Well, that is in agreement with history, is it not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And how is it that Pagan Rome lifted up and exalted Paganism?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Pantheon . . . (indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ah, my brother says that it is the Pantheon Temple.

The custom of Pagan Rome when it was conquering the world was when it conquered another nation, took control of another nation, if that nation was worshipping Pagan gods that did not then exist in the Roman Empire, they would take the relics from their worship, they would take the priests from their worship, and they would move them back to the City of Rome and they would build them their own special room in the Pantheon Temple, which is the temple of the gods, and they would allow them to continue to practice their Pagan religion. And this was one of the reasons why Pagan Rome is called "Pagan Rome," because it lifted up and exalted the religion of Paganism.

So, verse 11 says, if you were going to hold to the masculine and feminine,

> "[11]Yea, . . . [PAGAN ROME] magnified himself even to . . . [CHRIST AT HIS BIRTH AND AT HIS DEATH], and by . . . [PAGAN ROME] . . . [PAGANISM] was . . . [LIFTED UP AND EXALTED], and the place of . . . [PAGAN ROME'S] sanctuary was cast down."

You know about the Pantheon Temple. Where was the Pantheon Temple located at, Brother Mark?

BROTHER MARK: In Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, the place of Pagan Rome's sanctuary was the City of Rome.

Does the Scripture ever tell us that the City of Rome was cast down?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ah, yes. That is Revelation 13:2; that is Daniel 11:31; that is Daniel 11:24; that is Daniel 11:27; that is Daniel 11:29. The story of Constantine moving the capitol of the Empire from the City of Rome to Constantinople is the story of Constantine casting down the City of Rome as the jewel, the emblem of the Roman Empire.

And in the City of Rome is where this Pagan temple was built.

Let me point out something here. This word that is translated as sanctuary here in verse 11 in your notes, it is sh . You have it in your notes. It says,

> MI D S H: Strong's Concordance H4720—a consecrated thing or place, especially a palace, sanctuary (whether of Jehovah or of idols) or asylum:—chapel, hallowed part, holy place, sanctuary.

It says, a consecrated thing or place, especially a palace or a sanctuary (whether of Jehovah or of idols).

See sh is a Hebrew word that can be translated as sanctuary, but, it can be a Pagan sanctuary.

Whereas, there is a Hebrew word that is translated as sanctuary that only can be God's Sanctuary, whether it is a sanctuary on Earth or a Sanctuary in Heaven.

> D S H: Strong's Concordance H6944—a sacred place or thing; rarely abstractly sanctity: - consecrated (thing), dedicated (thing), hallowed (thing), holiness, (X most) holy (X day, portion, thing), saint, sanctuary.

When the Hebrew word e sh, which you have in your notes, when it is translated as sanctuary, it can only be God's Sanctuary.

Now, does somebody have a watch with a second hand or are we all digital now?

Anyone have a second hand?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Brother Paul has a second hand.

Okay. When you are ready to count the seconds, you tell me to go; and, I am going to read verses 11, 12, 13, and 14 [of Daniel 8]. And you count how many seconds it takes me to read it. You tell me when to go.

BROTHER PAUL: You may begin now.

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: "[11] Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily ~~sacrifice~~ was taken away, and the place of the sanctuary was cast down. [12] And an host was given him against the daily ~~sacrifice~~ by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.
> "[13] Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice,~~ and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? [14] And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." Daniel 8:11-14 (KJV).

How much?

BROTHER PAUL: Thirty-five seconds, or less.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Or less. Okay. Let us say one minute. Okay? We read it in 35 seconds or less, but let us say it took a minute to read that.

When they would come into Ellen White's room in the morning when they got up—Ellen White got up 1 o'clock, 2 o'clock in the morning and she started writing—and when they would come into the room in the morning, what would they find?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A basket.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A basket full of what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Papers.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Papers. She would write, and get that paper and drop it in the basket; she would write, and drop it in the basket; and, they would come in, in the morning, and they would take those papers and go start putting them together.

So, that is the only illustration I know of how long it takes a prophet to write. You may argue that it a prophet has to think about every word for 30 minutes before he writes it down; but, Ellen White was a writing machine, and I do not know of any justification for her to say that Daniel was any different. So, if it takes me a minute to read those four verses, how long did it take Daniel to write those four verses?

How long?

A couple of minutes? Let us say it took him five minutes. Okay? Hebrew seems hard to me. They are going backwards and all, you know.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It took them five minutes. All right?

How is it that in five minutes Daniel could use the word sh for sanctuary in verse 11; but, in verses 13 and 14 he uses e sh for sanctuary?

Why is he using two different Hebrew words for the word sanctuary in four verses, if he does not want us to understand that those two sanctuaries are different? Right? That is how I understand it.

I do not think that in a few minutes time he forgot that in verse 11 he used sh and just went ahead and accidently used e sh in verses 13 and 14. But, he did.

You see, in verse 13 the word sanctuary, towards the bottom of the verse; and, you see in verse 14 the word sanctuary. But in verse 11 you see the word sanctuary, but verse 11 is sh , meaning it could be God's Sanctuary or a pagan sanctuary. But, in verses 13 and 14, it is only God's Sanctuary.

Do you know what that tells me? That tells me that verse 11 is not God's Sanctuary. If Daniel had wanted us to understand that the sanctuary of verse 11 was God's Sanctuary, he would have used the word e sh and removed all doubt. But, he used sh .

Okay. I am going to read this—no, I am not going to read it. You can read it. We are going to end this here. This is J. N. Andrews talking about some of these issues about the Pantheon Temple, and we will take this up tomorrow. But, I want to make sure that when we take it up that we take it up carefully; because, this Pantheon Temple in verse 11, which is the temple of the gods, which in the 6th Century or the 7th Century, in that time period, was easily changed from a Pagan Temple to a Christian Church—a so-called Christian Church. I do not believe the Catholic Church is a Christian Church, but the Catholics turned it into a Church of All Saints. Instead of the temple of the gods, they made it a so-called Christian Church.

J. N. Andrews, The Sanctuary and the 2300 Days, pages 35 - 38.

"It needs no argument to prove that the two grand forms of opposition, by which Satan has desolated the church and trod underfoot the sanctuary of the living God, are none other than paganism and popery. It is also a clear point that the change from one of these desolations to the other did occur under the Roman power. Paganism, from the days of the kings of Assyria, down to the period when it became so far modified that it took the name of popery, had been the daily (or, as Professor Whiting renders it, 'the continual') desolation, by which Satan had stood up against the cause of Jehovah. And, indeed, in its priests, its altars and its sacrifices, it bore resemblance to the Levitical form of Jehovah's worship. When the Christian form of worship took the place of the Levitical, a change in Satan's form of opposition, and counterfeit worship, became necessary, if he would successfully oppose the worship of the great God. And it is in the light of these facts that we are able to understand our Lord's reference to the abomination of desolation in Matthew 24:15. It is evident that he there cites Daniel 9:26, 27. Now, although we do not understand that paganism in the year 70 had given place to popery, we do understand that that same power which then appeared, modified somewhat in name and form, was the very power that should, as the abomination of desolation, wear out the saints of the Most High.

"The language of Paul is to the point: 'For the mystery of iniquity [popery] doth already work; only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.' 2 Thessalonians 2:7, 8. That Paul refers to paganism and popery, none question. And here is direct proof that popery, the abomination of desolation, had in Paul's day already begun to work. Nor was it a very great change of character when Satan transformed his counterfeit worship from paganism to popery. The same temples, altars, incense, priests and worshipers were ready, with little change, to serve as the appendages of the papal abomination. The statute of Jupiter readily changed to that of Peter, the prince of the apostles; and the Pantheon, which had been the temple of all the gods, without difficulty became the sanctuary of all the saints. Thus the same abomination that desolated Jerusalem, in a degree changed and modified, became the wonderful desolater of the saints and martyrs of Jesus. And in its so-called temple of God, it set at naught and trod underfoot the true temple of Jehovah, and he who is its minister, Jesus Christ. The change from paganism to popery is clearly shown in John's view of the transfer of power from the dragon of Revelation 12, to the beast of Revelation 13. And that they are essentially the same thing, is evident from the fact that both the dragon and the beast are represented with the seven heads; thus showing that, in a certain sense, either may be understood to cover the whole time. And in the same sense we understand that either abomination covers all the period. Christ's reference to the abomination of desolation (Matthew 24:15; Luke 21:20) is an absolute demonstration that Rome is the little horn of Daniel 8:9–12. Having shown that there are two desolations, by which the sanctuary and the host are trodden down, we now notice the fact that there are two opposing sanctuaries in Daniel 8.

"To the careful reader this fact will at once appear. They are as follows: First, the sanctuary of the daily desolation. Verse 11; 11:31. Second, the sanctuary which the daily and the transgression of desolation were to tread under foot. Verses 13, 14. The one is the sanctuary of Satan; the other is the sanctuary of the Lord of hosts. The one is the dwelling place of 'all the gods;' the other is the habitation of the only living and true God. If it be said that a sanctuary is never connected with heathen and idolatrous worship, we cite the direct testimony of the Bible. Heathen Moab had a sanctuary. And that sanctuary was a place of prayer and worship for that heathen nation. Isaiah 16:12. The chapel erected by the king of Israel at Bethel, as a rival to the temple of God at Jerusalem (1 Kings 12:27, 31–33) was called his sanctuary. Amos 7:13, margin. And the places in which idolatrous Israel (the ten tribes) worshiped, are called sanctuaries. Amos 7:9. The same is true of idolatrous Tyre. Ezekiel 28:18. Attention is called to the following from Apollos Hale:

"'What can be meant by the "sanctuary" of paganism? Paganism, and error of every kind, have their sanctuaries as well as truth. These are the temples or asylums consecrated to their service. Some particular and renowned temple of paganism may, then, be supposed to be here spoken of. Which of its numerous distinguished temples may it be? One of the most magnificent specimens of classic architecture is called the Pantheon. The name signifies "the temple or asylum of all the gods". The "place" of its location is Rome. The idols of the nations conquered by the Romans were sacredly deposited in some niche or apartment of this temple, and in many cases became objects of worship by the Romans themselves. Could we find a temple of paganism that was more strikingly "his sanctuary"?

"'Was Rome, the city or place of the Pantheon, "cast down" by the authority of the State? Read the following well-known and remarkable facts in history: "The death of the last rival of Constantine had sealed the peace of the empire. Rome was once more the undisputed queen of nations. But, in the hour of elevation and splendor, she had been raised to the edge of a precipice. Her next step was to be downward and irrecoverable. The change of the government to Constantinople still perplexes the historian. Constantine abandoned Rome, the great citadel and throne of the Caesars, for an obscure corner of Thrace, and expended the remainder of his vigorous and ambitious life in the double toil of raising a colony into the capital of his empire, and degrading the capital into the feeble honors and humiliated strength of a colony"'.—Second Advent Manual, page 68.

"And not only did Satan possess himself of a rival to the sanctuary of Jehovah in the period of pagan worship, but, throughout the Christian dispensation, has that arch fiend possessed a rival temple of God. 2 Thessalonians 2:4. Thus much for the rival sanctuary of Satan. The sanctuary of God remains to be noticed at length. Connected with these two sanctuaries." J. N. Andrews, The Sanctuary and the 2300 Days, 35–38.

This Pantheon Temple is right there in the very battleground of the Daily. The Daily's battleground is Daniel 8, verse 11.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now, my European brother that knows more about this Catholic history than I tells us that the only Pagan temple that they changed into a so-called Christian Church is the Pantheon Temple, that even adds some more significance to it.

This church is right there in the battleground of the Daily, Daniel 8:11.

And, I know I give people heartburn that are in this message sometimes when I identify that the Daily is the symbol of the Omega Apostasy. But, we are going to take some time tomorrow to try to draw some of those conclusions here; because, the Alpha Apostasy was Pantheism, and we will show you that the word Pan is a Greek god. I am amazed that it is a Greek god, because what we were talking about is how a false system of education representing the Mystery of Iniquity was introduced in the time of Christ from Greek education and introduced into Adventism in the 1930s through Greek education. And, Pan is a Greek god.

And Pantheism is seeing this god in everything; and, we will show you that the definition of Pantheism is called Paganism. Hmm.

So, when we see this sanctuary, the Pantheon Temple, in verse 11 of Daniel 8, that is a symbol of Pantheism. So, we want to make sure we nail that home well. We will begin, where we leave off today, tomorrow, the Lord willing.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for the history that you have left recorded for us in the time period of 1860 and '63. We want to understand what is going on in that history when Israel cried out that they wanted a king. We want to understand that the work that you have accomplished in bringing down Jericho was rebuilt at that time, the work that had accomplished the work of bringing down Jericho was set aside at that time. We want to understand the role of the false teaching of the Daily in Adventism, what it has done to prepare us to receive the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2; and, the delusions of Isaiah 66. We ask that you would continue to allow us to consider these things throughout this day, that your Holy Spirit might give us further insight into these truths. And we thank you for these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a good night's rest and we thank you for bringing us together to study your Word this morning. We know that next week is a big work in terms of LiveStreaming and recording, and the guests that are going to come. The beginning of those guests are arriving today. We ask for traveling mercies that everyone heading this way for this next week's period will get here safely and that you will ultimately take them home safely. As we take up our study this morning, we ask that you would overrule my thoughts, my understanding, take control of this presentation that it can be clear and concise and that we can understand some more of the significance of Daniel 8, verse 11. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us; so, we would ask that you would open our understanding to these truths and pour your Spirit out upon us. We ask that you prepare the hearts and minds of those that are listening to these things, to understand them as you see fit. In Jesus's name, amen.

THE DAILY

104 TIMES

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We are dealing with the Daily in the Book of Daniel, and we are going through it very slowly, very carefully. We are showing that Daniel 8 is the illustration of the religious manifestations of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy.

We have shown that the root of Satan's religion that is represented in Daniel 8 is represented by the word al that increases as it goes through the various kingdoms of Bible prophecy that are in Daniel 8.

The Medes and the Persians, they became great, al (ed), exalted themselves; but, the Greeks exalted themselves more. The little horn of Pagan Rome exalted itself more than that; and, the Papacy exalted itself even more than Pagan Rome.

And, this self-exaltation that is represented in this word al is the root of Satan's religion that is represented in all these kingdoms of Bible prophecy. We know that Daniel here is telling us that this is a counterfeit religion that is in these kingdoms; because, he uses sanctuary terms, but the terms he uses, they are always corrupted to show that they would not be an offering or they would not be represented in God's sanctuary.

> TAMID: Strong's Concordance H8548—From an unused root meaning to stretch; properly continuance (as indefinite extension); but used only (attributively as adjective) constant (or adverbially constantly); elliptically the regular (daily) sacrifice:—always (-s), continual (employment –ly), daily, ([n-]) even (-more), perpetual.

When it comes to the word tamid that represents the Daily (or is translated as the word Daily in the Book of Daniel), I personally will not, do not, or agree to argue or debate with the theologians when they want to use the 104 times that the word tamid appears in the Bible. I refuse to assent to the idea that tamid is a verb or an adjective that can be used to describe tamid as a noun.

But, there is one way that I will agree to that consideration, and it is in this sense: When the kingdoms of Bible prophecy are represented in the Book of Daniel, chapter 8, the symbols that are used to represent these kingdoms are corrupted symbols, corrupted sanctuary symbols in order to teach the lesson that this is a counterfeit religion that is being introduced here.

So, when we see that 99 times in the Bible the word tamid is an adjective and an adverb, and many, many times this word is used in connection with the sanctuary service (the genuine sanctuary service), then when we see the word tamid in the Book of Daniel as a noun that is identical to seeing the ram with two different sized horns, or a goat with the horn broken and four horns coming up out of it, or a horn that is both a man and a woman. The word tamid here can be studied prophetically in connection with the 104 times that it is found in the Bible, but only in the sense that it is not right in the Book of Daniel. It is a noun when it is supposed to be an adjective and a verb; and, therefore, the fact that it is a noun is also telling us that whatever the Daily represents, it represents a counterfeit. It is a symbol of a counterfeit.

A counterfeit what? We are identifying it [the Daily, tamid] as a counterfeit religion of Paganism, just as the Pioneers did.

TAKE AWAY

> SUR: Daniel 11:31; 12:11—Strong's Concordance H5493—A primitive root; to turn off (literally or figuratively): - be [-head], bring, call back, decline, depart, eschew, get [you], go (aside), X grievous, lay away (by), leave undone, be past, pluck away, put (away, down), rebel, remove (to and fro), revolt, X be sour, take (away, off), turn (aside, away, in), withdraw, be without.
>
> RUM: Daniel 8:11—Strong's Concordance H7311—A primitive root; to be high actively to rise or *raise (in various applications, literally or figuratively): - bring up, exalt (self), extol, give, go up, haughty, heave (up), (be, lift up on, make on, set up on, too) high (-er, one), hold up, levy, lift (-er) up, (be) lofty, (X a-) loud, mount up, offer (up), + presumptuously, (be) promote (-ion), proud, set up, tall (-er), take (away, off, up), breed worms.
> MIQDASH: Strong's Concordance H4720—a consecrated thing or place, especially a palace, sanctuary (whether of Jehovah or of idols) or asylum:— chapel, hallowed part, holy place, sanctuary.
> QODESH: Strong's Concordance H6944—a sacred place or thing; rarely abstractly sanctity: - consecrated (thing), dedicated (thing), hallowed (thing), holiness, (X most) holy (X day, portion, thing), saint, sanctuary.

Now, we touched briefly yesterday on the fact that in verse 11, and in verses 13 and 14, you will find the word sanctuary in each of those three verses; but, in verse 11, the word that is translated as sanctuary is s h. But, in verses 13 and 14, when we as Seventh-day Adventists know that this is God's Sanctuary, the word that is translated as sanctuary in verses 13 and 14 is e sh. When e sh is used in the Bible, it always represents God's sanctuary, either His earthly sanctuary or His Heavenly Sanctuary.

So, in terms of Daniel 8:11, I contend that Daniel 8:11 is the verse that defines the controversy over the Daily, and that this is one of the most profound verses in the Scriptures and that there is more than meets the eye at a surface level here.

So, now I want to read J. N. Andrews, a portion from his article The Sanctuary and the 2300 Days, pages 35 - 38. When he speaks about these two sanctuaries, s h and e sh, he says,

> "It needs no argument to prove that the two grand forms of opposition, by which Satan has desolated the church and trod underfoot the sanctuary of the living God, are none other than paganism and popery. It is also a clear point that the change from one of these desolations to the other did occur under the Roman power. Paganism, from the days of the kings of Assyria, down to the period when it became so far modified that it took the name of popery, had been the daily (or, as Professor Whiting renders it, 'the continual') desolation, by which Satan had stood up against the cause of Jehovah. And, indeed, in its priests, its altars and its sacrifices,"—SPEAKING OF PAGANISM—"it bore resemblance to the Levitical form of Jehovah's worship."—

Andrews is here saying that from the time of Assyria, on through Pagan Rome, these counterfeit Pagan worship shrines, temples were counterfeits of God's sanctuary upon Earth.

> —"When the Christian form of worship took the place of the Levitical,"—

When the earthly sanctuary was set aside and the Heavenly Sanctuary came into play and Christianity started.

> —"When the Christian form of worship took the place of the Levitical, a change in Satan's form of opposition, and counterfeit worship, became necessary, if he would successfully oppose the worship of the great God."—

So, what Andrews is saying here is that through the history where Paganism was the enemy of God, Pagan religion, their temples were a counterfeit of the earthly sanctuary; but, when Christianity comes into history, now Satan is still going to carry on his counterfeit opposition to the true work of God, so he is forced to change his mode of counterfeit worship.

Continuing on:

> —"And it is in the light of these facts that we are able to understand our Lord's reference to the abomination of desolation in Matthew 24:15."—

And if you remember, in Matthew 24:15 Jesus says, "When ye therefore shall see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)" There is more to that, but what I am saying is Jesus specifically references the abomination of desolation in the Book of Daniel and tells us to understand what it means; and, Andrews is going to tell us that Jesus is speaking of Daniel 9:26 and 27, where the abomination of desolation is set forth as two desolating powers, not simply one.

Okay.

> —"It is evident that he"—JESUS—"there cites Daniel 9:26, 27. Now, although we do not understand that paganism in the year 70 had given place to popery, we do understand that that same power which then appeared, modified somewhat in name and form,"—

And the reason he says that is, in verse 26 of Daniel 9 it says that " . . . the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; . . ." so, he is referencing that Jesus is identifying the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet as the abomination of desolation referenced in Daniel 9:26. And in Daniel 9:26 it talks about the [people of the] prince that shall come and destroy the city, and that took place in AD70. So, Andrews is dealing with the context of that.

> —"It is evident that he there cites Daniel 9:26, 27. Now, although we do not understand that paganism in the year 70 had given place to popery, we do understand that that same power which then appeared, modified somewhat in name and form, was the very power that should, as the abomination of desolation, wear out the saints of the Most High.
> "The language of Paul is to the point: 'For the mystery of iniquity [popery] doth already work; only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.' 2 Thessalonians 2:7, 8. That Paul refers to paganism and popery, none question. And here is direct proof that popery, the abomination of desolation, had in Paul's day already begun to work."—

When was Paul living? In the 1st Century. Okay?

But, when is the Papacy going to get placed on the throne of the Earth? AD538, 400 years after that, more than 400 years; but, it was already active 400 years before. That is what he is saying.

> —"And here is direct proof that popery, the abomination of desolation, had in Paul's day already begun to work. Nor was it a very great change of character when Satan transformed his counterfeit worship from paganism to popery. The same temples, altars, incense, priests and worshipers were ready, with little change, to serve as the appendages of the papal abomination. The statue of Jupiter"—

And Jupiter is one of these false gods, but who does Jupiter represent? He does not mention it in here, but who is Jupiter a symbol of in ancient history? It is a symbol of Nimrod, and Nimrod was a Black man.

And the statue of Jupiter in Rome has the features of a Black man, because it is representing Nimrod, who was a Black man.

So, when they changed it to the statue of Peter when Catholicism comes in, suddenly the Apostle Peter is a Black man. If you did not know that, that is kind of curious; but, anyway, that is not what Brother Andrews is dealing with here.

> —"The statue of Jupiter readily changed to that of Peter, the prince of the apostles; and the Pantheon, which had been the temple of all the gods, without difficulty became the sanctuary of all the saints. Thus the same abomination that desolated Jerusalem, in a degree changed and modified, became the wonderful desolater of the saints and martyrs of Jesus. And in its so-called temple of God, it set at naught and trod underfoot the true temple of Jehovah, and he who is its minister, Jesus Christ."—

Now, what I want you to see here, Andrews being very specific, he is saying that Satan set up a counterfeit religious system in the system we call Paganism. And then in the time period of Constantine—Andrews is not saying that—but, in the time period of Constantine, Constantine began to incorporate these Pagan systems into the Christian church. So, when the Papacy is placed upon the throne of the Earth, we have a second counterfeit system that is going to oppose God and His people, and that is part of the story that I want you to see. They are not just counterfeit systems; they are counterfeit systems that are attacking God's people. Both of these systems are going to persecute God's people. They are going to trample down the sanctuary and the host.

Okay. Adventism in its Laodicean condition does not want to understand the implications of this in connection with the 2520, and Andrews is not dealing with that here, but this is part of that story as well.

> —"The change from paganism to popery is clearly shown in John's view of the transfer of power from the dragon of Revelation 12, to the beast of Revelation 13. And that they are essentially the same thing, is evident from the fact that both the dragon and the beast are represented with the seven heads; thus showing that, in a certain sense, either may be understood to cover the whole time. And in the same sense we understand that either abomination covers all the period. Christ's reference to the abomination of desolation (Matthew 24:15; Luke 21:20) is an absolute demonstration that Rome is the little horn of Daniel 8:9–12. Having shown that there are two desolations, by which the sanctuary and the host are trodden down, we now notice the fact that there are two opposing sanctuaries in Daniel 8."—

And, this is what I wanted you to see here, if you will. There are two opposing sanctuaries in Daniel 8. One is s , the other one is e s —all right?—because, Daniel 8 is about the counterfeit religion of these kingdoms of Bible prophecy. So, when you hear me saying that, please understand that I am nobody. J. N. Andrews is somebody in Advent History. He is somebody that they named the premier seminary in Adventism after, and it is an abomination that a couple of years ago that seminary produced a Bible that teaches that the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry, when the person they named that seminary after speaks in these words.

Continuing on:

—"To the careful reader this fact will at once appear. They are as follows: First, the sanctuary of the daily desolation. [DANIEL 8,] Verse 11; 11:31. Second, the sanctuary which the daily and the transgression of desolation were to tread under foot. Verses 13, 14."—

That is e s .

God's sanctuary is going to be tread underfoot by the sanctuary that is in verse 11, the s h.

—"The one is the sanctuary of Satan; the other is the sanctuary of the Lord of hosts. The one is the dwelling place of 'all the gods;' the other is the habitation of the only living and true God. If it be said that a sanctuary is never connected with heathen and idolatrous worship, we cite the direct testimony of the Bible. Heathen Moab had a sanctuary. And that sanctuary was a place of prayer and worship for that heathen nation. Isaiah 16:12. The chapel erected by the king of Israel at Bethel, as a rival to the temple of God at Jerusalem (1 Kings 12:27, 31–33)"—THAT IS JEROBOAM'S TEMPLE—"was called his sanctuary. Amos 7:13, margin. And the places in which idolatrous Israel (the ten tribes) worshiped, are called sanctuaries. Amos 7:9. The same is true of idolatrous Tyre. Ezekiel 28:18. Attention is called to the following from Apollos Hale:

"'What can be meant by the "sanctuary" of paganism? Paganism, and error of every kind, have their sanctuaries as well as truth. These are the temples or asylums consecrated to their service. Some particular and renowned temple of paganism may, then, be supposed to be here spoken of. Which of its numerous distinguished temples may it be? One of the most magnificent specimens of classic architecture is called the Pantheon. The name signifies 'the temple or asylum of all the gods'."—

Now, break the name [PANTHEON] apart here (and we are going to do this in just a minute), but just so you see it: PAN is the name for a Greek god.

What does THEON come from? Theos. Theos is a word for god. Okay?

So, this is where you get PANTHEON, is by bringing these two words together; and, it means the temple of all the gods.

—"The "place" of its location is Rome. The idols of the nations conquered by the Romans were sacredly deposited in some niche or apartment of this temple, and in many cases became objects of worship by the Romans themselves. Could we find a temple of paganism that was more strikingly 'his sanctuary'?"—SPEAKING OF DANIEL 8:11.

—"'Was Rome, the city or place of the Pantheon, "cast down" by the authority of the State? Read the following well-known and remarkable facts in history: "The death of the last rival of Constantine had sealed the peace of the empire. Rome was once more the undisputed queen of nations. But, in the hour of elevation and splendor, she had been raised to the edge of a precipice. Her next step was to be downward and irrecoverable. The change of the government to > Constantinople still perplexes the historian. Constantine abandoned [THE CITY OF] Rome, the great citadel and throne of the Caesars, for an obscure corner of Thrace, and expended the remainder of his vigorous and ambitious life in the double toil of raising a colony into the capital of his empire, and degrading the capital into the feeble honors and humiliated strength of a colony"'.—Second Advent Manual, page 68.

> "And not only did Satan possess himself of a rival to the sanctuary of Jehovah in the period of pagan worship, but, throughout the Christian dispensation, has that arch fiend possessed a rival temple of God. 2 Thessalonians 2:4. Thus much for the rival sanctuary of Satan. The sanctuary of God remains to be noticed at length. Connected with these two sanctuaries." J. N. Andrews, The Sanctuary and the 2300 Days, 35–38.

Okay. So, what I wanted you to see by J. N. Andrews, that was from The Sanctuary and the 2300 Days, pages 35 – 38, is that Daniel 8 is speaking about two rival sanctuaries.

So, this is the Earth made new. We know that Daniel 8 is talking about a counterfeit religion; and, from the beginning of time in Heaven, the rebellion of Satan that began in Heaven, it is going to be repeated at the end of the 1,000 years, when the unrighteous dead are resurrected and Satan is going to rally them to attack the City. Right?

And from the rebellion in Heaven to the Earth made new, Satan's religion is , self-exaltation. Right?

So, when Daniel is going to illustrate this religion in Daniel 8, he does so by showing that these kingdoms of Bible prophecy, each one of them al s themselves more than the previous kingdom.

You see that, right? A progression.

And we have seen a progression in Bible prophecy in Daniel 2 with the various metals, and we have seen the progression in Revelation 17, if you remember; because, this woman that rides on the beast in Revelation 17, where does she sit? She sits upon the heads, and there are seven heads, and those seven heads are the kingdoms of Bible prophecy. So, she sits on Babylon, and then on the Medes and Persians, and then on the Greeks, and then on Pagan Rome, Papal Rome, all down through history. Do you follow me? There is a progression of this Mystery Babylon woman.

And what does a woman represent?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A church. So, there is a religious influence that controls these kingdoms of Bible prophecy all the way through.

And what is that religion? It is al . It is the religion of self-exaltation.

But, in Daniel 8:11, Daniel wants to give us a symbol of what this religion is, and what is the word he uses there?

What gets lifted up and exalted in verse 11 of Daniel 8? The Daily is taken away. Only, that word take away there is not s ; it is . It is Paganism that gets lifted up and exalted.

So, the word for this religion [of self-exaltation] is Paganism; but, the Hebrew word is tamid. And what does tamid mean? Continual. The Daily represents the continual religion of self-exaltation. It is the continual opposition of Satan against God throughout history. And in order to do this, according to Andrews which is absolutely correct, Satan sets up counterfeit temples, counterfeit religions all through history to oppose the true temple and the true religion. This is why Daniel uses the word continual to represent this religion. Do you see this?

Can you get that?

Okay. Let me show you something, if you can get that. This is where it gets tricky.

In your notes—I am passing over right now the definition of Pan, Pantheon, and Pantheism, and dropping down to where it says "By."

BY

> BY: Strong's Concordance H4480—For H4482; properly a part of; hence (prepositionally), from or out of in many senses: - above, after, among, at, because of, by (reason of), from (among), in, X neither, X nor, (out) of, over, since, X then, through, X whether, with. H4482—From an unused rot meaning to apportion; a part; hence a musical chord (as parted into strings): - in [the same]

If you notice in Daniel 8:11, it says this:

> "[11]Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him"—

See that word by? In my Bible it has a marginal reference for that little word by, and it says from.

> —"[FROM] him . . ."—

And I have in here from St on ' s Conco anc e, that this word by means from,

Okay. Are you with me?

You have got to follow this one. This is delicate to convey, but it is worth seeing. Okay?

So, underneath the definition of BY in your notes, defining it as from or through, you have how verse 11 is expressed in the K n 's J a es [B ble]:

> "[11]Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily ~~sacrifice~~ was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down." Daniel 8:11 (KJV).

But, underneath it you have the actual flow of the words in the Hebrew. The Hebrew says,

> "[11]Even to the Prince of the host he exalted himself. And from him was lifted up the daily and the place of his sanctuary was cast down." Hebrew rendition.

Are you with me?

Okay. There is a little bit different flow; it is saying the same thing.

What is it saying? Let us look at the bottom one [the rendition of the Hebrew words].

"[11]Even to the Prince of the host"—

Who is the "Prince of the host"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ.

Are you all with me?

—"[11]Even to the Prince of the host he"—

Who is "he"?

Who is the masculine little horn?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Pagan Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"[11]Even to the Prince of the host [PAGAN ROME]"—

Did what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Exalted himself.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What is exalted? It is this religion [indicating in Figure No. 163 where is marked " : Self-Exaltation]."

Pagan Rome had a counterfeit religion. Paganism was counterfeiting the true religion of the Levitical time period of the Old Testament.

—"[11]Even to the Prince of the host he exalted himself. And from him"—

From whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Pagan Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: From Pagan Rome. From Pagan Rome, Brothers and Sisters, was the Daily lifted up and exalted, taken away.

All right. This is the part that is hardest to convey; so, it would stand to reason that we would have a little bit of a break in thought right when we are trying to convey this. So, I am going to focus us back in.

What we are saying in Daniel 8 is that this is a counterfeit system that Satan has set up throughout history. The root of this religion is al , and the symbol of this religion is the Daily because it represents this continual counterfeit warfare that Satan exercises against God's people.

But, in Daniel 8:11, where the battleground over the Daily really resides, we see Pagan Rome (the masculine little horn) exalting himself to Christ; but, it says, from Pagan Rome, from Paganism (the Daily, Paganism), the religion of Paganism is lifted up and exalted.

All right. What I want you to see here is this: In Daniel 11:31, Paganism is taken away in AD508. Any resistance to the rise of the Papacy is removed at the Battle of the Visigoths. So, here Paganism is removed, not in the sense that it does not exist in history anymore but in the sense that the political strength of the Pagans that are still in the Empire has been subdued where they cannot prevent the rise of the Papacy. It is removed, but Paganism is not gone from history; because, Paganism is about to transcend into Papalism. Okay?

So, in Daniel 11:31, we have this history marked because it says, "And arms shall stand on the part of the Papacy," and those arms are what is going to defeat the political resistance of Paganism to the rise of the Papacy.

And in Daniel 12:11, it says that from the time that Paganism is removed, you have two time prophecies that start. One takes you out here to 1798 (this is the end of the 1290-year time prophecy), and another takes you to 1843 (1335).

But, what I am saying is—and this is what rum does for you—in AD508, in Daniel 8:11, the Daily was not taken away; it was lifted up and exalted.

Okay. From AD508 to 538, you see a preparation period for the Papacy that parallels the birth of Christ and his first 30 years of life.

And, the antichrist here is governed by the History of Christ; and this is a time of preparation [indicating between the Birth of Christ and AD27 in Figure No. 165].

Preparation [indicating between AD508 and 538 in Figure No. 164], setting up, Daniel 12:11 says, "And from the time that the daily ~~sacrifice~~ shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, . . ."

So, in Daniel 8:11, although it is not really there at the grammatical level, it is there in Daniel 8.

What is there? What is there?

What is there in Daniel 8:11 is an illustration of this counterfeit religion. Daniel 8:11 says that Pagan Rome would exalt itself against Christ; but. from Pagan Rome, Paganism would be lifted up and exalted.

And in the true sanctuary service, there were offerings that were lifted up and exalted. They are called wave offerings. The priest would take the wave offering and lift it up before the Lord.

So, in Daniel 8:11, although it is not specifically stated, it is saying that in AD508, when Paganism was taken away, Paganism became the counterfeit sacrificial offering that died and was lifted up from 508 to 538 by the new counterfeit priestcraft called "the Papacy." It was to lift up and exalt Paganism in the new counterfeit religious system of Catholicism.

So, in Daniel 8:11, in the chapter that is (according to Andrews) a chapter that is describing two temples—a true temple and a counterfeit temple—and their warfare against one another, Daniel 8:11 is describing the lifting up of Paganism in this history [Figure No. 164] in order to exalt it in this history.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Do you see it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Now, there is something that goes along with this.

What history is this [referring to a period before AD508 to 538]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Pergamos.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What history is this [referring to AD538 to 1798]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Thyatira.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: [Enters "Thyatira" onto the timeline.]

What happens in this history [of Pergamos] according to Paul in 2 Thessalonians?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: There is a falling away first. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Where does the falling away begin? AD321, with Constantine, you can mark the falling away, the beginning of the incorporation of Paganism into the Christian church. The church begins to fall.

This history [Pergamos] is the history of the falling away first, in order that—what?—the man of sin will be revealed.

Are you with me? Can you hold these two concepts in your head, that the two concepts in Daniel 8:11 were actually seen as not the removing of the Daily (of Paganism); but, in Daniel 8:11 we are seeing the lifting up and exalting of Paganism, and we are seeing it done by the counterfeit worship system of Paganism and Papalism? So, when Paganism is taken away, it has been slain as an offering and now it is being lifted up and exalted in a counterfeit worship service that is going to be carried on for the next 1260 years by the Papacy.

But, along with this, we have another line of prophecy that this [AD321 to 538] is the time period of Pergamos, and this [538 to 1798] is the time period of Thyatira. And, in the time period of Pergamos, there is a falling away first that precedes this [the time period of Thyatira].

And, this falling away precedes the revelation of who the man of sin is, but where is the man of sin?

Go to 2 Thessalonians 2.

Where is the man of sin when it is all accomplished?

Verse 4—well, let us back up to verse 3 so you can see the falling away. 2 Thessalonians 2, verse 3:

> "[3]Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition."—

This [time period of Pergamos] is the falling away, and the Papacy is revealed in AD538. And where is he?

Verse 4:

> —"[4]Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God." 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4 (KJV).

Suddenly in AD538 not only is the Papacy revealed but the new counterfeit temple is put into history. It has replaced the Pagan counterfeit temples and now it has put in a counterfeit so-called Christian temple. Do you see that?

You have got to see that; because, you cannot separate Daniel 8:11 from 2 Thessalonians.

And how could you?! 2 Thessalonians is where William Miller discovers what the Daily is, and the Daily is the heart of Daniel 8:11. How can you separate them? You cannot.

Revelation 17:3, 9-11

But, let us go to Revelation 17, verse 3, and remind ourselves of something that we have already mentioned. Verse 3 says,

> "[3]So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness; and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns." Revelation 17:3 (KJV).

Who is the woman?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy. Okay? She is setting on this beast.

Go to verse 9.

"[9]And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads"—THAT ARE ON THIS BEAST—"The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth."—

So, when the woman is sitting on the beast—she is sitting on the beast; but, where is it that she is sitting on the beast? She is sitting on these mountains.

And, these mountains are what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Kingdoms.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Kingdoms.

The very next verse says,

—"[10]And there are seven kings: five are fallen,"—

What are the five that are fallen? Well, the Book of Revelation is going to agree with the Book of Daniel, and the kingdoms of Bible prophecy are Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome, and Papal Rome.

And in verse 3, John has been carried away to the wilderness; and, in Revelation 12, verses 6 and 14, the wilderness is defined as the 1260 years of Papal rule.

But, when he sees the woman in verses 3, 4, and 5 of Revelation 17, not only is he in the wilderness but he sees the woman drunken with the blood of the saints; therefore, he is at the end of the 1260 years because the persecution has already taken place. You cannot be drunk with the blood, if the blood has not been spilled; and, the end of the persecution period ended just before 1798. So, he sees the woman drunk. You get drunk after you drink.

So, he sees the woman right down there in 1798. The five that are fallen (Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Pagan Rome, and Papal Rome).

—"and one is,"—

The United States [the sixth kingdom].

—"and the other is not yet come;"—

The United Nations [the seventh kingdom].

And the eighth is of the seven:

> —"and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. [11]And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition." Revelation 17:9-10 (KJV).

When the woman is portrayed here, there are several things to learn here. No. 1, she rides each of those heads down through history.

So, when one head is defeated, what is the woman doing? She is crawling onto the next head. Right? That is AD508 to 538. Pagan Rome (Paganism) has been set aside, and now this woman is moving to the next head, Papal Rome.

Do you see it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, in order for that to happen there has to be a falling away first.

But, this history here of AD508, Brothers and Sisters, this history is directly, directly and purposely connected with this history [1335]. And what is that history?

Well, what is this history here [AD1843]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Millerite History and the Second Angel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Millerites and the Second Angel, that is right.

But, it is not the history that I am talking about.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Millerite, Second Angel, that is right; but, it is not the history that I am talking about.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Probably all good answers.

Here is the history that I am speaking about. Right here [the 30 years encompassing AD508 to 538 in Figure No. 166], the woman is getting off the head of Pagan Rome and getting on the head of Papal Rome.

Amen?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Right here [AD1798, Figure No. 166], the woman is getting off the head of Papal Rome and doing what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Getting on the head of the U.S.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Getting on the head of the United States.

Okay. But, notice that this history here, 1798 to 1843, is directly connected to this history [AD508 to 538] by two time prophecies. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what does that tell you, students of prophecy? That Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning. So, what is going on in this history [508 to 538] is an illustration of what is going to be going on in this history [1798 to 1843]. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what was going on in this history [508 to 538]? There was a falling away that allowed Satan, though his earthly representatives, to take control of the temple.

Now, was there a falling away in this history [1798 to 1843]? Sure, Brothers and Sisters. This was the testing time for the Protestants.

The Protestants had been raised up back here, AD1500 or so. Now, they are going to be tested.

Did the Protestants pass the test?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Negative response.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They fell away. They fell away.

1798

Let me show you something. I am passing the long quote at the top. I am going to go back to that.

But, under "1798," I am saying this is what is happening in 1798, this quote here. We have read this several times in Habakkuk's Two Tables. It says,

> "Those who rejected the first message could not be benefited by the second; neither were they benefited by the midnight cry, which was to prepare them to enter with Jesus by faith into the most holy place of the heavenly sanctuary. And by rejecting the two former messages, they have so darkened their understanding that they can see no light in the third angel's message, which shows the way into the most holy place. I saw that as the Jews crucified Jesus, so the nominal churches had crucified these messages, and therefore they have no knowledge of the way into the most holy, and they cannot be benefited by the intercession of Jesus there. Like the Jews, who offered their useless sacrifices, they offer up their useless prayers to the apartment which Jesus has left; and Satan, pleased with the deception, assumes a religious character, and leads the minds of these professed Christians to himself, working with his power, his signs and lying wonders, to fasten them in his snare." Early Writings, 259–261.

Right here [the time period of 1798 to 1843] there is a falling away in order for Satan to come into the temple of God once again.

Do you see the parallel history there?

And, what is going on in this history [AD321 to 508] is Pagan Rome in Daniel 8:11 is being taken away. It is being slain as a counterfeit offering and it is to be lifted up. Paganism is to be lifted up by this priest that is not directly identified in verse 11, but he is there. This counterfeit priest is lifting up the offering of Paganism and is exalting them; therefore, the counterfeit priest is the Pope of Rome [538].

Do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, here [AD508 to 538] we are seeing the same history repeated here [1798 to 1843].

538

Now let us go back to your notes titled "538."

And the first three paragraphs, we will talk about this history. But, we have covered this history but I just want to cover the fourth paragraph from the Acts of the Apostles, pages 265 – 266.

She is just talking about this history in 2 Thessalonians:

> "But before the coming of Christ, important developments in the religious world, foretold in prophecy, were to take place. The apostle declared: 'Be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.'

> "Paul's words were not to be misinterpreted. It was not to be taught that he, by special revelation, had warned the Thessalonians of the immediate coming of Christ. Such a position would cause confusion of faith; for disappointment often leads to unbelief. The apostle therefore cautioned the brethren to receive no such message as coming from him, and he proceeded to emphasize the fact that the papal power, so clearly described by the prophet Daniel, was yet to rise and wage war against God's people. Until this power should have performed its deadly and blasphemous work, it would be in vain for the church to look for the coming of their Lord. 'Remember ye not,' Paul inquired, 'that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?'
> "Terrible were the trials that were to beset the true church. Even at the time when the apostle was writing, the 'mystery of iniquity' had already begun to work. The developments that were to take place in the future were to be 'after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish.'"—

And now she is going to make kind of a summary about this history for you and me here at the end of the world. She says, > —"Especially solemn is the apostle's statement regarding those who should refuse to receive 'the love of the truth.' 'For this cause,' he declared of all who should deliberately reject the messages of truth, 'God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.' Men cannot with impunity reject the warnings that God in mercy sends them. From those who persist in turning from these warnings, God withdraws His Spirit, leaving them to the deceptions that they love." Acts of the Apostles, 265–266.

She is now applying this history here [AD508 to 538] not to 1843 but to the end of the world. And what I am wanting you to see, if you will—I am wanting you to see many things—but the Daily, the word tamid in verse 11 of Daniel 8 is the symbol of this continual warfare by Satan that is accomplished through setting up a counterfeit religion and persecuting the true religion. He does so by setting up a counterfeit temple in opposition to the true temple. Okay?

So, this word continual is the symbol of Satan's religion, and it is the symbol of Satan's warfare against God's truth and His people.

We still have not dealt with the Pantheon Temple; but, therefore, the Daily becomes something very significant.

But, the Daily here in this history [AD508 to 538] that is illustrated in 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, it is the power that is restraining the Papacy [pointing to 538], and it is the power that accomplishes the falling away. So, this history here is illustrating this history [1798 to 1843].

Why is it that the Protestants rejected Miller's message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No response.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is easy, based upon today's presentation: Self-exaltation. They [the Protestants] were too proud to receive it. Self-exaltation. They did not have the humility to accept the message of the hour.

Because, that is what it is all the way through. If you are going to follow Satan's religion, it is going to be the religion of self-exaltation. So, the Daily was active in this history [AD1798 to 1843]. Was it not?

Was it [pointing to 508 on the 1843 Chart]?

Was it a controversy in this history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

Hmm. All of these histories are pointing forward to the end of the world; so, the Daily, representing self-exaltation; representing 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, where the Daily is defined; representing Daniel 8:11, where the sanctuary of the Daily is the Pantheon Temple, it must have a bearing here at the end of the world.

TODAY

Notice in your notes under "Today."

> "In the days of the apostle Paul, the Thessalonian brethren were laboring under the erroneous impression that the Lord would return in their day, and Paul wrote to correct this false impression, stating what events must transpire before the advent could take place. He declared: 'Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.' The man of sin was to arise, and do his work of exaltation and blasphemy, before the brethren could look for the coming of Christ. That great event was to be preceded by a falling away. There would be revealed a form of Antichrist, and the leaven of apostasy was to work with increasing power to the end of time. We are not to be surprised beyond measure to see the widespread declension of faith and piety. I have been bearing my testimony for the last forty years, that there would be those who would fall away from the path cast up for the ransomed of the Lord to walk in. God has been sending warnings, reproofs, and encouragements to his people. He has warned them that some would depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits." Review and Herald, July 31, 1888.

Now, Brothers and Sisters, Sister White is here referencing 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, and the falling away; and, she is saying there was going to be a falling away in Adventism at the end of the world.

Do you see that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, what went on in this history [AD508 to 538] and what went on in the history at the beginning of Adventism [1798 to 1843], it gets repeated at the end of Adventism. And, there is no way to remove this subject of the Daily from this history [508 to 538]; there is no way to remove the subject of the Daily from this history [1798 to 1843]. So, I submit to you that when we are dealing with the Omega Apostasy, which both of these apostasies that are represented by the falling away point forward to that it demands that the Daily be part of that Apostasy.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

—PRIDE

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now, on the next quote, Testimonies, volume 8, pages 126 – 127, it says,

> "Let men become lifted up in pride,"—

Lifted up in pride? What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is rum. That is rum and a l, combined. "Listed up in pride."

> —"Let men become lifted up in pride, and the Lord will not sustain them and keep them from"—WHAT?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Falling.

> BROTHER PIPPENGER: — falling. Let a church become proud and boastful, not depending on God, not exalting His power, and that church will surely be left by the Lord, to be brought down to the ground. Let a people glory in wealth, intellect, knowledge, or in anything but Christ, and they will soon be brought to confusion." Testimonies, volume 8, 126–127.

So, there is the principle for you. If you are lifted up—rum(ed)—with self-exaltation, there comes a falling away; and, that is what Sister White is saying.

Of course, Laodicea meets all of those characteristics, and the Adventist Church is Laodicea.

CONRADI'S DAILY PRODUCES SPIRITUALISM

Now, this next quote we have read before, more than once, in Habakkuk's Two Tables. This is the manuscript from Manuscript Release, volume 20, page 22, where Sister White says that the teaching that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry that Daniells and Prescott was promoting came from angels that were expelled from Heaven.

But, there is something that I want you to see in here, to put into the record for some following presentations.

This is the last paragraph in that manuscript. She says,

> "Yes, it would, but while their minds were thus absorbed I was shown that Brother Daniells and Brother Prescott were weaving into their experience sentiments of a spiritual[istic] appearance and drawing our people to beautiful sentiments that would deceive, if possible, the very elect."—

She is here telling you, if you are willing to see, that their promotion of the false view of the Daily produces spiritualism. Okay? You cannot separate it.

She continues to say,

> —"I have to trace with my pen [the fact] that these brethren would see defects in their delusive ideas that would place the truth in an uncertainty; and [yet] > they [would] stand out as [if they had] great spiritual discernment. Now I am to tell them [that] when I was shown this matter, when Elder Daniells was lifting up his voice like a trumpet in advocating his ideas of the 'Daily,' the after results were presented. Our people were becoming confused."—

All right. I just want to put it in the record one more time that the false view of the Daily produces confusion, but it also produces spiritualism that would—what?—deceive the very elect.

> —"I saw the result, and then there were given me cautions that if Elder Daniells without respect to the outcome should thus be impressed and let himself believe he was under the inspiration of God, skepticism would be sown among our ranks everywhere, and we should be where Satan would carry his messages. Set unbelief and skepticism would be sown in human minds, and strangecrops of evil would take the place of truth.—Ms 67, 1910, 1–8. Manuscript Release, volume 20, 22.

THE LATTER RAIN

All right. Now, "The Latter Rain."

The end of Adventism—this is the beginning of Adventism [AD1798].

What is going on in the beginning of Adventism? Let us remind ourselves.

The woman of Revelation 17, she is getting off the head of Catholicism, and she is getting on the head of the United States.

The United States has not two heads, but it has two horns; and, one of the horns is Republicanism (that is its political side), and the other horn is Protestantism (its religious side). And in this history [AD1798 to 1843], the woman is getting on the horn of Protestantism; because, as this testing time finishes and the Protestants have fallen away, they are praying to Satan and they are in perfect darkness.

It is not till the time of Ronald Reagan that the Papacy gets fully upon the horn of Republicanism; and, now, she is riding the United States fully.

I am not a horse person, but I have seen where people try to get on a horse and the horse does not want them to get on and it takes off running and they have got one foot in the stirrup and they are hanging on for dear life, and they are not quite there and it takes a while with the bucking and running until they finally get on.

Well, from AD1842, when the Protestants began to close their door, until the time 1984 (the time of Ronald Reagan), the woman was struggling to get her foot over into that other stirrup so she could ride the head of the United States.[30]

[30]Corrects audio on DVD from "Papacy" to "United States."

This history, at the beginning of Adventism [AD1798], in the time period of the Midnight Cry, is illustrating our time period, the time period of the Loud Cry, the Latter Rain.

So, in the time period of the Latter Rain, from The 1888 Materials, page 152, Sister White says this—because she is saying this about 1888:

> "Much that has been revealed to me crowds upon my mind, which I hardly know how to express. Yet I cannot hold my peace. The Lord is indignant at men who set themselves up to rule their fellow-men, and to carry out plans which the Holy Spirit has condemned. I am more surprised than I can express at your failure to discern that God has not set up these men."—

She is speaking to the General Conference President during the 1888 Minneapolis Conference, which is where the Lord attempted to pour out the Latter Rain. She is speaking to the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in the time of the Latter Rain; because, all the prophets are speaking more about the end of the world than the days in which they lived. She is speaking to Ted Wilson.

She says,

> —"The new order of things ought to alarm you, for it had not the sanction of heaven.
>
> "The natural heart is not to bring its own tainted, corrupting principles into the work of God. There must be no concealing of the principles of our faith. The third angel's message is to be sounded by God's people. It is to swell to the loud cry. The Lord has a time appointed when he will bind off the work; but when is that time?"—
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Sunday Law.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: My brother says The Sunday Law. Does everyone agree with that?

[31] Corrects the Midnight Cry (M/C) beginning at the Exeter Camp Meeting August 12-17, 1844, to its proper position on the timeline, between 1843 and October 22, 1844, than that shown on the board in the DVD.

I do not agree with that. The time appointed when He is going to bind off the work is 9/11/2001 to The Sunday Law; because, she is referencing the Latter Rain here.

> —"When the truth to be proclaimed for these last days shall go forth as a witness to all nations, then shall the end come."—

Now, notice what she says.

> —"If the power of Satan can come into the very temple of God, and manipulate things as he pleases, the time of preparation will be prolonged."—

Wow!

Right here [AD538], Satan came into the temple of God.

Right here [the Midnight Cry], Satan takes over (at a prophetic level) the temple of God, the Holy Place. The Protestants are praying to him in the Holy Place.

But, now Sister White is speaking to Seventh-day Adventists in the time of the Latter Rain and says there is a way that Satan can actually come into the temple of God of Adventism during the Latter Rain.

How? The same as he has always done, the same as he has always done. There is a falling away first.

> —"Here is the secret of the movements made to oppose"—

She just described about Satan coming into the temple of God, and now she is going to give us some information about it. She says, > —"Here is the secret of the movements made to oppose the men whom God sent with a message of blessing for his people."—

Who was that?

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jones and Waggoner.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: A. T. Jones and E. J. Waggoner.

> —"These men were hated. The men and God's message were despised, as verily as Christ himself was hated and despised at his first advent. Men in responsible positions have manifested the very attributes that Satan has revealed. They have sought to rule minds, to bring their reason and their talents under human jurisdiction. There has been an effort to bring God's servants under the control of men who have not the knowledge and wisdom of God, or an experience under the Holy Spirit's guidance. Principles have been born that should never have seen the light of day. The illegitimate child should have been stifled as soon as it breathed the first breath of life. Finite men have been warring against God and the truth and the Lord's chosen messengers, counterworking them by every means they dared to use. Please consider what virtue there came in the wisdom and plans of those who have slighted God's messages, and, like the scribes and Pharisees, have despised the very men whom God has used to present light and truth which his people needed." The 1888 Materials, 1525.

How does Satan come into the temple of Adventism? He comes in when the men in leadership begin to resist the Latter Rain Message. And when that happens, when that happens it is a repeat of the beginning of Adventism, and it is a repeat of 508 to 538, and it is represented in Daniel 8:11.

The symbol of all those histories, 508 to 538, the Millerite History, or our history is the Daily. So, when we consider the Omega Apostasy in the time of the Latter Rain, I want to submit as one of my arguments that the Daily is a testing truth, that it is the very symbol of the Omega Apostasy, and that it will produce spiritualism within those that accept the premise that a symbol of Satan [referencing the year AD508 on the 1843 Chart] is actually Christ.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we appreciate that on both Charts, in the center of both Charts, is the cross. And, we further appreciate, in the light of this study, that beneath the cross on both Charts you have represented the Daily. And we know that from the fall of Adam and Eve that Satan's religion has been in every human being. The root of his religion being self-exaltation, we all have the ability to exalt and lift ourselves up. But, we know just from these Charts alone that if we would but come to the foot of the cross, humble ourselves before the foot of the cross, that you can remove that al out of us. We ask that you would do that work in us; but, we would ask also that you would make us intelligent to what is going on, on Planet Earth at this time and understand that Satan is now in the time period when he is trying to set up shop in the Seventh-day Adventist Church, as he did in the Protestant church in the Millerite History and as he did in the Christian church in 538. Help us to be wise as serpents and harmless as doves as we navigate through this serious and incredible history. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #82

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for allowing us to awaken this morning and come together to consider your Word once again. We ask that you would allow us to understand the light that you have for us this morning that we can let it impact us in such a way that we would flee away from self-exaltation and spiritualism and not fall away from the truth, the precious truth that you have given us. We want to be among those that take the Little Book out of your hand and eat it, and we know that the eating of the Little Book represents the reception and the comprehension of the message that you have for us. And this morning, the message that you have for us is something that we ask that you would give us an extra measure of your Spirit so that we can comprehend it correctly. We receive it willingly, but we want to comprehend it in a way that will glorify you. We ask that you would hide me behind your cross, that you would overrule my human thinking process and let the words that I present this message be from your Throne Room, touched with a coal from off your altar. And, we would ask that you would prepare the hearts and minds of the brothers and sisters that consider these things that they might receive it as you see fit; and, we want you to continue to pour your Latter Rain out upon us as we study these things. So, we would ask that you would open our understanding at this time. We thank you for these things. In Jesus's name, amen.

THE DAILY (CONTINUED)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We have been in Daniel 8 for a while. The Lord willing, we will be in Daniel 8 for a little while longer.

And in Daniel 8 we have shown that Daniel 8 is an illustration of a counterfeit system of worship that exists from the rebellion in Heaven and then was brought down here to Earth by Satan and that it is manifested in the kingdoms of Bible prophecy as counterfeits to God's true worship. We understand that Daniel is identifying this for us by using sanctuary terms in Daniel 8 that are corrupted sanctuary terms—i.e., the ram offering has two horns that are not of the same size; the goat has a horn that is broken, with four horns that come up from the broken horn; the little horn that comes into play in Daniel 8, verse 9 and onward, is both a woman and a man, thus being an abomination before the Lord—therefore, they would not be allowed in the sanctuary service:

When it comes to our consideration of the Daily, we find that grammatically that the Daily is corrupted in the sense that the only place in the Bible where the Daily is employed as a noun is in the Book of Daniel. Every other place, it is a verb or an adverb.

And from this, we understand there is a counterfeit system that is being illustrated in Daniel, chapter 8.

And, when we get to verse 11 (we have spent time there), we have noticed that the little horn there is the masculine sense of the little horn. Verses 9 through 12, it changes from masculine, feminine, masculine, feminine. And the masculine manifestation of the little horn of Rome is Civil Rome. The feminine manifestation is Papal Rome. Verse 11 is speaking about Civil Rome, and it says that Civil Rome magnified himself to Christ; and, it did so at His birth and at His death when it tried to kill Him and did kill Him at the cross.

And from Pagan Rome, Paganism (the Daily) would be rum(ed). It would not be sur(ed); it would be lifted up and exalted.

And the place of Pagan Rome's sanctuary, which was the City of Rome, where the Pantheon Temple was, was cast down by Constantine in the Year 330. That is verse 11, going through it very simply.

But, in our last presentation we identified that there is also, though it is not spelled out right there on the surface, verse 11 is one of the most complex verses—let us say it this way: verse 11 is a very complex verse. I am not going to say it is the most complex in the Bible, because I do not know which is the most complex in the Bible. But, there are some deep thoughts in verse 11.

And, you can understand in verse 11 that there is a counterfeit offering taking place. It is saying that from Pagan Rome, the religion of Paganism is lifted up and exalted.

So, in this verse you have the temple of Paganism (the Pantheon Temple). You have the offering, which is Pagan Rome being offered; it is being taken away and it is being lifted up and exalted. So, though you do not see a priest there doing this offering service, you can see the components in here that allow you to recognize a counterfeit offering that is being set up here. And you can see this because the context of Daniel, chapter 8, is defining the kingdoms of Bible prophecy in their religious manifestation, and it is identifying this religious manifestation as al . Each of the powers al more than the previous power, and al is self-exaltation. So, the root of their religion is this self-exaltation that Satan manifested in Heaven.

But, the symbol that represents this religion of self-exaltation is the Daily. In the Hebrew it is the continual, representing that this is the religion that began with the rebellion in Heaven and continues all the way through history. It is the continual religion of Satan.

But, here in verse 11, although it is not specifically identified, we see a priest sacrificing Pagan Rome, taking the religion of Pagan Rome (Paganism), and lifting it up and exalting it to the world. And in this verse we see Pagan Rome's temple. We want to look at Pagan Rome's temple now here briefly; because, one of the things that we are doing is identifying that the Daily is the symbol of the Omega Apostasy in Adventism at the end of the world.

The Pantheon Temple that we have already discussed; it was located in the City of Rome. We read a nice passage from J. N. Andrews last time where he dealt with this a little bit. But, Pantheon comes from two Greek words, PAN and THEOS, THEOS meaning god.

PAN, you see in your notes.

> PAN: noun (Greek mythology) the Greek god of fields, woods, shepherds, and flocks; represented as a man with goat's legs, horns, and ears; identified with Roman Sylvanus or Faunus
> Synonyms: goat god. Topic: Greek mythology. Type of Greek deity

It is a Greek god of fields, woods, shepherds, and flocks.

What kind of god do you think of when you think of the god of fields, woods, shepherds, and flocks? Perhaps, Pantheism: God is in everything.

Represented as a man with goat's legs, horns, and ears; identified with Roman Sylvanus or Faunus.

Synonyms: goat god. Topic: Greek mythology. Type of Greek deity.

It is interesting that it is a Greek deity, because it is from the Greek system of education that both the reform time of Christ was corrupted, and it is also from that system of education that Adventism stands in such a corrupted fashion here at the end of the world.

> PANTHEON: 1. temple for all the gods 2. a temple built by Agrippa in Rome in 27, and rebuilt in the 2d century by Hadrian: used since 609 as a Christian Church

So, when we look at the word Pantheon, which is the name of the temple in Rome that represents Paganism, we see that it is made up of two words. Pantheon means a temple for all gods, and it was built by Agrippa in Rome in 27BC, and in AD609 became a Christian church. That is worth noting.

The Pantheon Temple is a temple of all gods. That is how the Romans used it; that is what the name means; and, it was a very simple thing in the 7th Century to change it from a Pagan temple to a Catholic temple, which they call "Christian," and you and I know that the Catholic Church is not Christian.

> PANTHEISM: the belief that all the forces in the universe are God. (noun) An example of pantheism is rejecting the idea that God has an individual personality. YourDictionary definition and usage example. Copyright © 2012 by LoveToKnow Corp. See pantheism in Webster's New World College Dictionary (noun) the doctrine that God is not a personality, but that all laws, forces, manifestations, etc. of the universe are God; the belief that God and the universe are one and the same; the worship, or toleration of worship, of all gods of various cults—Synonyms for pantheism: heathenism, polytheism, animism; see paganism.

But, in our day and age—in Adventism, anyway, not in our day and age, in the history of the beginning of the 20th Century, Kellogg introduces Pantheism through his book, The Living Temple.

So, if you go and look up the definition of Pantheism, it is the belief that all the forces in the universe are God. An example of pantheism is rejecting the idea that God has an individual personality—that was one of Sister White's warnings—the doctrine that God is not a personality, but that all laws, forces, manifestations of the universe are God; the belief that God and the universe are one and the same; the worship—now, notice this!—Pantheism: the worship, or toleration of worship, of all gods of various cults. Pantheism is exactly what the Pantheon Temple represented.

So, when we are speaking about the Daily in Daniel 8, verse 11, being lifted up and exalted, and we are seeing in verse 11, prophetically represented, a priest taking the offering of the slain of Pagan Rome (he has been taken away in AD508), and then he lifts Paganism off the dead body of Pagan Rome; he lifts it up and he exalts it right there, and the background is his temple, the Pantheon Temple, you see the connection between the Daily, Pantheon, and Pantheism, if you are willing to see.

Okay. So, before we go further on through Daniel 8, which we have a long way to go through Daniel 8, I want to do some board work this morning. And I am not so sure that this cannot be illustrated a little bit better. This is the first time I have tried to illustrate this.

So, I am going to point out things that we have been discussing in Habakkuk's Two Tables. They are a matter of the record of this particular series, and some of them are pretty fresh in our mind that have been in worship this past couple of weeks.

In AD321, we see Constantine introducing the first Sunday law, and I am marking that date there—you could probably technically put it even before then—but, I am marking that date as where the Paganism is being brought into Christianity. And from an earlier study in Habakkuk's Two Tables, that is a symbol of the Mystery of Iniquity; and, we are putting this study today in the context of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, where Paul talks about the Mystery of Iniquity already working back here in the 1st Century when Paul wrote it and predicting that there would be a falling away that preceded the Papacy being placed upon the throne in AD538.

So, the Mystery of Iniquity is the combination of truth and error; and, Paul says it is already back there working in his day and age, but I am marking AD321 just as a point of reference for our study here.

And then in AD330, I am saying Civil Rome is cast down. Okay? This is the year that Constantine moved the capitol to Constantinople.

And then when we get to 538, according to Daniel 11:31 and Daniel 12:11, the Daily (Paganism) was removed. It was taken away. In terms of our illustration of a counterfeit sanctuary service, I am going to say that Pagan Rome here is slain, although I know that Pagan Rome still existed; but, we are talking at the prophetic level.

But, right here in AD508 is also where Paganism begins to be lifted up and exalted, in agreement with Daniel 8:11. It is going to get lifted up and exalted, and it is going to reach the height of this exaltation when the Papacy, professing to be a Christian church, is placed upon the throne of the Earth and continues to practice Paganism.

So, according to Daniel 12:11, from 508 to 538, the Papacy is being set up; and, we have already compared this recently with the History of Christ:

- Christ was 30 years in preparation and then He was empowered. The Papacy was 30 years in preparation, and then it was empowered.
- Once Christ was empowered, He gave His testimony of life for 1260 days. Once the Papacy was empowered, it gave its testimony of death for 1260 years.
- Then Christ was crucified, and then the Papacy received the deadly wound.

So, based upon that—and we are leaving lots of components out of that, this period here [508 to 538] is setting up time, the preparation time for the Papacy, paralleling this 30 years of preparation for Christ. In this time period, it is being rum(ed). Paganism is being lifted up and exalted during the time of the falling away but in advance of the man of sin being revealed. We are putting this in the context of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2: ". . . for that day shall not come," by any means, "except there come a falling away first, . . . " (2 Thessalonians 2:3, KJV).

And this Mystery of Iniquity that begins back here in Paul's day and age, represented by bringing Paganism into the church, by the time you get to this history [AD533], the Christian church is so corrupted that it has fallen away. And when it falls away, then the man of sin is going to be revealed.

And where is the man of sin sitting? He is sitting in the Temple of God.

Is he? Is the Papacy in 538 sitting in the Temple of God?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No!

That is how it is expressed in the Bible, but who is the Temple of God in this history? According to Revelation 12, who is the Temple of God? It is the woman.

And what does the woman do here in 538?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: She flees.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: She flees into the wilderness for 1260 years.

So, this is a counterfeit temple of god [wherein the man of sin sits].

So, what temple of god is this? It is the Pantheon Temple, all the way through; because, the Pantheon Temple is the temple that allows any kind of worship to be represented in it.

Right here he [the man of sin] is sitting in the temple of god.

So, the man of sin appears after there is a falling away. And I am marking 533 there because other than the removal of the third horn, this is where everything is in place for the Papacy. This is where it has received the civil authority from Justinian in 533, which is the Decree of Justinian. It is already sitting on the Seat of Rome, and now it has got the civil authority in his hands. What he has to do is just wait for the Goths to be driven out of the City of Rome, and it is in place.

And at the Third Synod of Orleans in May of 538, the Catholic Church passes a Sunday law. The Sunday law is here; the man of sin is revealed.

Does everyone follow me on this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, this is the story of the taking away of the Daily, both taken away here [at AD508] in the sense of Pagan Rome being removed; but, also in Daniel 8:11, this is where the lifting up and exalting the Papacy takes place.

So, the next history that I want to point us to is Sardis.

Now, in previous presentations we have demonstrated a principle that Stephen Haskell agrees with. Stephen Haskell teaches very clearly in The Story of the Seer of Patmos that all of the churches of Revelation repeat in the Church of Laodicea.

You guys are so busy writing this chart, which is okay, but you have got to follow, also. Okay?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Notice this next quote from Stephen N. Haskell from The Story of the Seer of Patmos, pages 75-76.

> "He, who walked among His churches, and who sought diligently for signs of life, searching among the seven stars,-the leaders of the churches, found that, although Sardis claimed to have life, it was dead."—

Which church is Sardis? It is the one that follows Thyatira. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

> —"Strange condition! So quietly had this life been lost, that, looking back upon the activity of the past, and priding itself upon what great things had been done by Protestantism, this church had allowed the very principles of the papacy to twine about it until its life was choked."—

Okay. Now, this is Sardis.

I know some people, maybe most, place Sardis beginning in 1798. I disagree—all right?—and I respectfully disagree for a number of reasons, and we will not go into that now.

But, Sardis is when they are waking up from the Papal tyranny, and the waking up period actually ends before 1798. All right?

So, the next paragraph by Haskell says,

> —"There was a time in the history of Pergamos,"—

That is here [referring to AD330 (see Figure No. 168A re the Church of Pergamos and Civil Rome)].

> —"when Christianity thought Paganism was dead; but in reality, the religion which was apparently vanquished, had conquered. Paganism baptized, stepped into the church. In the days of Sardis this history was repeated."—

So, here in Sardis [Figure No. 168B], what I am saying here is this compromise that is represented by Pergamos up here [Figure No. 168A], it begins in the time period of Sardis, and it is going to reach a falling away here [between 3/22/1844 to 8/17/1844]. Sardis is where the Protestant Reformation takes place.

So, there is a compromise that comes in right at the beginning that ultimately is going to allow the Protestants to reject the message of William Miller. The falling away is going to be the response to that message.

So, here, is what I am saying, in 1798 we have a parallel history, only here in 1798 it is not Civil Rome that is cast down; it is Papal Rome that is cast down, receiving the deadly wound.

In fact in this sacrificial service that is portrayed in Daniel 8:11 [referencing Figure No. 168A], where you have the Pantheon Temple, and you have an offering that is slain and then lifted up and exalted, and by implication you have a priest, Pagan Rome in this history is the offering. Paganism is lifted up from that offering.

But in this history [of the Church of Sardis in Figure No. 164B.], who is the offering? In this history, who is the offering; who gets slain in this history? The Catholic Church is going to get slain; because, the religion from the Catholic Church is going to get lifted up and exalted by whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Protestants of the United States. Okay? It is a parallel history.

So, Stephen Haskell teaches us a truth that we are not taking time to really get it nailed down, but this history, this falling away that began in Pergamos began in Sardis. So, this line here represents the falling away that is going to impact this history down here [tracing the curved line from the time of Sardis to August 17, 1844], just like this falling away that impacted this history down here [tracing the curved line in Figure No. 168A from AD321 to 508], just like it impacted this history down here [in Figure No. 168B].

Are you with me?

So, I am marking 1840 here as the empowerment of the First Angel's Message; because, the falling away, it is going to be produced by a rejection of the message. There is going to be a testing message.

And even in here, if you go into The Great Controversy, pages 49 and 50, in this time period here [from 508 to 538 in Figure No. 168A], the true Christians were realizing that they could not stay in connection with the Church of Rome, if the Church of Rome was going to handle itself—this is where the separation is going on—and those that had their head on straight separated from the Church of Rome and they fled into the wilderness for 1260 years; but, the majority of the Christian church in this time period, they stayed with the Catholic Church.

But my point is, there was a testing message here, and what was the testing message? Sister White tells us what it was. It was 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2. They understood that there was going to be a falling away that preceded the man of sin.

And this is even more nice to recognize: Sister White tells us where this warning message of this history that is based on 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2—where did Paul get that warning message from, according to the Spirit of Prophecy? From the Book of Daniel.

So, the warning message here [the history portrayed in Figure No. 168A] is from the Book of Daniel.

The warning message here [the history portrayed in Figure No. 168B] is from the Book of Daniel.

The warning message here [referring to the board a timeline that will be introduced into this transcript as Figure No. 168D, the Alpha Apostasy] is from the Book of Daniel.

The warning message here [referring again to the board a timeline that will be introduced into this transcript as Figure No. 168E, the Omega Apostasy] is from the Book of Daniel.

Okay? And it is based upon the warning message that the falling away takes place.

> —"Protestantism thought itself free from the principles of the Dark Ages; but the plant was sturdy and long lived, and although Protestantism reared itself aloft like a mighty oak, the rootlets of the papacy were planted with the oak, and soon the vine encircled the tree, and sapped its very life. Protestantism reared the structure, and the papacy is supported by it. 'Be watchful,' says the divine message to Sardis, 'and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.' There was, at the time this message came, some life still in the oak, but unless haste was made to 'strengthen the things which remain,' death would follow.
> "'Remember, therefore, how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent.' The truths already received were indeed life; but a church, as well as an individual, must make constant progress, or they will suffer spiritual death." Stephen Haskell, The Story of the Seer of Patmos, 75–76.

[Skipping to] the next quote in your notes.

This is kind of heavy for early morning, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Subdued laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: From Early Writings, page 238:

> "As the churches refused to receive the first angel's message, they rejected the light from heaven and fell from the favor of God. They trusted to their own strength, and by opposing the first message placed themselves where they could not see the light of the second angel's message. But the beloved of God, who were oppressed, accepted the message, 'Babylon is fallen,' and left the churches." Early Writings, 238.

So, this falling away in here [the period of Fanaticism in Figure No. 168B], what is that based upon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me? What?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, but it is based upon them rejecting the message.

And why did they reject the message?

This is worth noting; because, what we are doing is we are seeing that in these histories here, the subject is the Daily, all the way down to the Omega Apostasy.

How does she say it? "They trusted to their own strength, . . . "

What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Spiritualism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is self-exaltation. You are trusting to your own strength.

It is right here [indicating the period of 1840 to 1844 in Figure No. 168B], this is al .

And what is the symbol of al ? It is the Daily, in the Book of Daniel.

So, here they were holding onto the Daily. They were holding onto the Daily. They refused to have it taken away and, because of that, there came a falling away.

All right. The next quote, from The Great Controversy, page 398.

In this history, in this area here is where fanaticism is marked.

"It was not the proclamation of the second advent"—

What was the proclamation of the Second Advent? That is the First Angel's Message. She is saying, > —"It was not the proclamation of the second advent that created fanaticism and division. These appeared in the summer of 1844,"—

Here is where fanaticism and division appears, in the Summer of 1844.

> —"when Adventists were in a state of doubt and perplexity concerning their real position."—

When did they get into a state of doubt and perplexity?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Right here, the First Disappointment.

So, right in here there was no fanaticism in here [between 1840 and March 22, 1844], with the empowerment of the First Message. But, once 1843 passes, then there is doubt and perplexity and fanaticism begins to come in.

It says,

> —"The preaching of the first angel's message and of the 'midnight cry'"—

Here is the Midnight Cry, down here [indicating between August 17, 1844, and the 1844 waymarks of Figure No. 168B], the preaching of the First Angel's Message and of the Midnight Cry. So, she has isolated this history now, from the First Disappointment [March 22, 1844], until the arrival of the Midnight Cry in August 12 – 17, 1844. In this history fanaticism arrives.

And what is fanaticism? It is the counterfeit Holy Spirit. It is taking a crazy idea and thinking it is of the Lord and pushing it to an extreme. Fanaticism.

> —"The preaching of the first angel's message and of the 'midnight cry' tended directly to repress fanaticism and dissension. Those who participated in these solemn movements were in harmony; their hearts were filled with love for one another, and for Jesus, whom they expected soon to see. The one faith, the one blessed hope, lifted them above the control of any human influence, and proved a shield against the assaults of Satan." The Great Controversy, 398.

What I am wanting you to see here, right here [between March 22, 1844 and August 17, 1844], is fanaticism. And, right here is the falling away.

What goes on right here? What arrives in history right here? I do not have it marked, but you should know what it is. What arrives in the Summer of 1844?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Second Angel's Message.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And what is the Second Angel's Message? Babylon is fallen, is fallen.

Right here is the falling away that is going to precede the revelation of the man of sin.

And we have dealt with this in our last presentation, that right here [the 1844 waymark in Figure No. 168B], the separation of these two classes takes place. And the class that has fallen away, they are directing their prayers to where?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To the Holy Place.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To the Holy Place, and Satan is answering their prayers.

Is this the true Holy Place?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No. This is the Pantheon Temple. It will take any kind of worship and use it to counterfeit God's worship. This is the Pantheon Temple coming all the way down, and the man of sin has appeared. He is in there answering their prayers; because, Satan and the Pope are the man of sin.

Lesson 38

EZEKIEL 8

THE IMAGE OF JEALOUSY—EZEKIEL 8:1, 3-4

You will notice in your notes—we are not going to go through this—but, you will notice in your notes that I have "Ezekiel 8," and right before it I have Lesson 38. We went through Ezekiel 8—this is Lesson No. 82, so something, whatever that would be—44 lessons ago. All right? So, if you are watching this on DVD and you want to refresh yourself on Ezekiel 8, you back up 44 presentations.

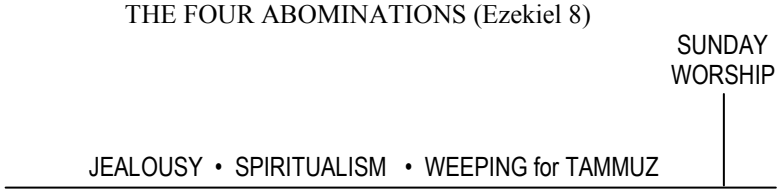

Figure No. 168C.

In Ezekiel 8 we noticed a progressive escalation of abominations that lead to the fourth abomination, which is the 25 leaders of Adventism bowing down to the sun. All right?

But, the first abomination that Ezekiel has shown is the image of jealousy.

And, what does the image of jealousy represent?

Where did it all begin? Where did it begin? In Heaven.

What was it? It was self-exaltation; because, Satan was jealous of Christ, was it not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The first thing, self-exaltation: the image of jealousy is a symbol of self-exaltation. It is a symbol of the Daily.

And you will notice [referencing back to Figure No. 168B], in their self-exaltation in this history [in the time period of the 1843 Chart], they are rejecting the First Angel's Message, and then they go into fanaticism—okay?—a false outpouring of the Spirit.

And, here is the true outpouring of the Spirit, is it not? This is the Midnight Cry.

What did Sister White tell us about that outpouring of the Holy Spirit?

You could not know the answer I am wanting. She says the counterfeit always precedes the true. The Midnight Cry is the true outpouring; but, before the Midnight Cry arrives you have this history here where fanaticism develops.

In this history [Figure No. 168C], you have al , self-exaltation (jealousy, the Daily, in Ezekiel 8), and then it is followed by Spiritualism.

You have it in your notes, from Pamphlets 150, page 21.

> "Warnings have been given me that the publishing house upon the Pacific coast should not, in thought, word, or deed, depreciate the office at Battle Creek, neither should the publishing house at Battle Creek look with envy and jealousy upon the instrumentalities the Lord has established upon the Pacific Coast. Plans should be carefully considered in Battle Creek, that they may in no case militate against the work in Oakland. But the image of jealousy was long ago set up, and has provoked to jealousy, which has grieved the Spirit of God." Pamphlets 150, 21.

THE SECRET CHAMBER—Ezekiel 8:10-12

Ezekiel is taken into the secret chambers, in the second abomination in Ezekiel 8.

And commenting on what secret chambers means when Christ references them in Matthew 24, The Desire of Ages, page 631, it says,

> "As one of the signs of Jerusalem's destruction, Christ had said, 'Many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.' False prophets did rise, deceiving the people, and leading great numbers into the desert. Magicians and sorcerers, claiming miraculous power, drew the people after them into the mountain solitudes. But this prophecy was spoken also for the last days. This sign is given as a sign of the Second Advent. Even now false christs and false prophets are showing signs and wonders to seduce His disciples. Do we not hear the cry, 'Behold, He is in the desert'? Have not thousands gone forth into the desert, hoping to find Christ? And from thousands of gatherings where men profess to hold communion with departed spirits is not the call now heard, 'Behold, He is in the secret chambers'? This is the very claim that spiritism puts forth. But what says Christ? 'Believe it not. For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.'" The Desire of Ages, 631.

The second manifestation in Ezekiel 8 of the abomination is he is taken into the secret chambers, spiritualism. Spiritualism follows the Daily. It follows jealousy.

Here is self-exaltation in this history [see Figure 168B], followed by fanaticism (spiritualism).

WEEPING FOR TAMMUZ—EZEKIEL 8:14

And the third—and this is a nice one; it is not a nice one but it is a nice observation—the third abomination in Ezekiel 8 is that they are weeping for Tammuz.

What is that? From Myths of Babylonia and Assyria, Donald A. MacKenzie, [1915], page 83, at www.sacred-texts.com the weeping ceremony (because, that is what they were doing in Ezekiel 8):

"The weeping ceremony was connected with agricultural rites."—

Tammuz dies in the Winter—right?—but, he comes back to birth in the Spring. That is who this god is, and he is manifested in a lot of mythology. He is a god of resurrection, you know, bringing the plants back to life.

> —"The weeping ceremony was connected with agricultural rites. Corn deities were weeping deities, they shed fertilizing tears; and the sowers simulated the sorrow of divine mourners when they cast seed in the soil 'to die', so that it might spring up as corn. This ancient custom, like many others, contributed to the poetic imagery of the Bible. 'They that sow in tears', David sang, 'shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.' In Egypt the priestesses who acted the parts of Isis and Nepthys, mourned for the slain corn god Osiris." Myths of Babylonia and Assyria, by Donald A. MacKenzie, [1915], page 83, at sacred-texts.com

What I am saying is, what is weeping for Tammuz? It is putting your tears in the ground, because Tammuz died in the Wintertime; but, he has got to come back to life in the Springtime. And what brings the plants back to life in the Springtime?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The rain.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is the false Latter Rain.

SUNDAY WORSHIP—EZEKIEL 8:16

SELF-EXALTATION, SPIRITUALISM, A FALSE LATTER RAIN AND SUNDAY WORSHIP

1860

This is the manifestation here of spiritualism that leads into a counterfeit Latter Rain, that leads to the next abomination, which is Sunday worship; and, we know that Sunday worship the man of sin has revealed, whether you are marking the Pope or the men that receive the mark of the Pope. The man of sin in them is revealed.

We are just putting this in because we have studied it before. It is another line to show the sequences of al (the Daily), followed by spiritualism, and fanaticism (a false revival) that leads to the man of sin being revealed.

We dealt with the bringing down of Jericho, and Brother Noel, who is not here, pointed something out the other day that adds to what we understood about 1860.

If you remember the story of Jericho, there was a prophecy by Joshua that the man that laid the foundation of Jericho would give his first-born son for doing so, and he would give his last-born son for raising the gates. And we went through and showed that the gates represent the church, and the foundations represent the foundations.

And then we went into the history of James White.

> "Without church organization, without appointed responsible leaders, without a creed, the rather loose-knit church was growing more and more unwieldy. Ministers and laymen who had met in Battle Creek in late September, 1860, in response to an invitation signed by four leading brethren and couched in the form of an announcement, set about to form a legal organization to hold the assets and manage the affairs of the publishing work. Out of the meeting came plans for a publishing association—but it could not organize legally until the legislature of the State of Michigan had formulated laws under which they could incorporate. Organizing the publishing work called for the choice of the name Seventh-day Adventists. The action of choosing a name set the field buzzing with the cry that the church was going into Babylon." Arthur White, Ellen G. White Biography, volume 1, 445.

So, in Arthur White's Ellen G. White Biography, volume 1, page 445, something that I had not noticed until Noel shared it with me—and you have it right in here—is, as they were getting ready to organize the church in 1860, not only were they talking about organization but in order to get legal control over the publishing houses that they were developing, in 1860 is when they chose the name Seventh-day Adventists. So that, in 1860, the gates are being marked, and this is the year that James White's youngest son died.

"In 1860 death stepped over our threshold, and broke the youngest branch of our family tree. Little Herbert, born September 20, 1860, died December 14 of the same year." Testimonies, volume 1, 103.

But, in 1863, when they organized into the Seventh-day Adventist Church legally, James White's oldest son died, and he died because he came home on a cool, windy day and took a nap on the materials that were being used to produce the 1863 Chart. And the cloths that were used as backing to produce those charts were damp, and from him taking a nap on the damp backing of the 1863 Chart, where the foundations were being set aside, he developed pneumonia and died in 1863.

"When on Friday, November 27, [1863] the parents reached Topsham, they found their three sons and Adelia waiting for them at the depot. They were all apparently in good health, except for Henry, who had a cold. But the next Tuesday, December 1, Henry was very ill with pneumonia. Years later Willie, his youngest brother, reconstructed the story:

"'During the absence of their parents, Henry and Edson, under the supervision of Brother Howland, were busily engaged in mounting the charts on cloth, ready for sale. They worked in a rented store building about a block from the Howland home. At length they had a respite for a few days while they were waiting for charts to be sent from Boston. . . . Returning from a long tramp by the river, he [Henry] thoughtlessly lay down and slept on a few damp cloths used in backing the paper charts. A chilly wind was blowing in from an open window. This indiscretion resulted in a severe cold.'" Arthur White, Ellen G. White, volume 2, 70.

The story of Jericho was the story of the Seventh Trumpet. They had marched around Jericho for seven days; therefore, they had marched around Jericho seven times in that sense. There is one seven times for you.

But, then on the seventh day they marched around Jericho seven times. So, there are two seven times in the story of Jericho.

Then they blew the trumpet. And if Jericho illustrates the end of the world, that is the Third Woe (the Seventh Trumpet).

Then they did a loud cry which brought the walls down.

And Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning; so, if the end of the world is illustrated by Jericho, then the beginning of Adventism would be illustrated by Jericho, because the beginning is going to illustrate the end of Adventism.

And at the beginning of Adventism, you have two 2520s, one that ends in 1798 and one that ends in 1844.

And right here in this history [see Figure No. 168B], you have the Midnight Cry which typifies the Loud Cry. And what empowers this history is the trumpet message that came to fulfillment in 1840.

So, what happens in this history, right in here in the Summer of 1844 is the Millerites come to understand—they had not planned this—that the organized churches were Babylon.

So, when you come to this history here [Figure No. 168D], and they are going to start organizing themselves into a church, then they are building here [in 1860] what they had torn down here [in 1844]. They are raising up Jericho right here [1860], and it cost the youngest son and the first-born of James White to make that work.

1 Samuel 8:6-8

And here in 1 Samuel 8:6-8—let us go there—we see a principle in God's Word, if you accept the principle that all the Bible is speaking about the end of the world, in connection with the emphasis that it is the story of Ancient Israel that illustrates modern Israel.

In 1 Samuel 8—and I know you all know this story, but I want to remind us of one thing—verse 6:

> "[6]But the thing displeased Samuel,"—

What displeased Samuel? That the people wanted a king.

> —"[6]But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD. [7]And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. [8]According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee." 1 Samuel 8:6-8 (KJV).

In the story of Samuel, what were they rejecting? What were their basic rejection to lead them to want a king?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Samuel's sons.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Samuel's sons were the premise that they used to get a king; but, what they had forgotten and lost sight of was the mighty deliverance out of Egypt. They lost sight of the Movement here [1840 to 1844], the foundational Movement. They forgot the signs and wonders that were done in the Lane of Zoan.

Now, notice from Patriarchs and Prophets, page 604, here is the one thought from Sister White that I want to add to this.

> "The injustice of these judges caused much dissatisfaction, and a pretext was thus furnished for urging the change that had long been secretly desired."—

Okay. Samuel's sons is just a pretext to make this happen.

> —"'All the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah, and said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.' The cases of abuse among the people had not been referred to Samuel. Had the evil course of his sons been known to him, he would have removed them without delay; but this was not what the petitioners desired. Samuel saw that their real motive was discontent and pride, and that their demand was the result of a deliberate and determined purpose. No complaint had been made against Samuel. All acknowledged the integrity and wisdom of his administration; but the aged prophet looked upon the request as a censure upon himself, and a direct effort to set him aside. He did not,"—

Now, here is the part that I want you to see.

> —"He did not, however, reveal his feelings; he uttered no reproach, but carried the matter to the Lord in prayer and sought counsel from Him alone." Patriarchs and Prophets, 604.

"Oh, Brother Jeff, I don't know that Sister White protested them starting a church in 1863. I thought she participated in it. I thought Samuel participated in anointing King Saul and King David."

He did, but the Lord told him, "They have not rejected you; they rejected me and you as well; but, we are going to go with this one, so you just keep your mouth shut." Okay?

So, we have every reason to understand that the prophetess knew what was going on.

So, what I am saying here is, I am saying this is a rejection of the Spirit of Prophecy, as much as anything else.

And, I am saying right here [1860], this is paralleling the Mystery of Iniquity in all these histories, right here it is starting; and, it is going to produce a falling away in this history. It is going to produce a falling away in this history here [Figure No. 168D]; because, this history here, 1888, this is where the Alpha Apostasy begins. I know if you have read books about the Alpha Apostasy, many authors are not going to say this; but, this is.

We know that in 1883 and 1884, first Uriah Smith started teaching at the Adventist College that Sister White's testimonies were not inspired; and, the next year it was followed by the General Conference President doing ten articles where he said there were portions of the Bible that are not inspired. So, in 1883 and 1884 the leadership of the Review and Herald, Uriah Smith, the publishing work—and James White is dead at this time—so, the leader of the publishing work and the leader of the educational work Uriah Smith, and the leader of the General Conference, George Ide Butler, have come out and rejected the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy, which prepares the way for the Conference in 1888 where Sister White is clear that in 1888, in a convention that brings all the leaders together, that they together now reject the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy en masse.

So, here [1888], this begins the problem; because, the Bible is very simple on this one: you reap what you sow.

So, there is an abundant amount of things that you could put in this history to parallel all these.

But, before we get there, I need to back up. I forgot one thing.

When you are coming into this history [Figure No. 168B, the Millerite History], right here [at the 1844 waymark], the Protestants of the United States, they close their doors against the Millerite message. So, they go into darkness, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, it leaves only one Protestant group. Who is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Adventists.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Millerite Adventists; they are the Protestant group. They are the Protestant Movement that is still on Planet Earth.

But, right here in 1863 [Figure No. 168D, Alpha Apostasy timeline], they do the very thing that they defined as Babylon. When they are defining what makes these fallen churches here in this time period [of the Millerite History in Figure No. 168B] part of Babylon, it says that they are organized legally and they have creeds.

So, right here [in 1863] the last Protestant entity, Millerite Adventism, it begins to cease to be Protestant. And here, Protestant USA is cast down.

Up here [Figure No. 168A] Civil Rome was cast down first, then Papal Rome [Figure No. 168B]. This is State Rome, and this is Church Rome.

But, here [Figure No. 168D], "Church United States" is going to be cast down; and, then in the Ronald Reagan years [Figure No. 168E (to be developed later in this transcript as the Omega Apostasy timeline)], "State United States" is going to be cast down.

And remember, Pagan Rome power placed the Papacy on the throne of the Earth and is typifying the United States, the power that places the Papacy on the throne of the Earth. So, there are two casting downs in both of these powers.

And the first one here [Protestant USA] gets cast down when they do the very definition, accomplishes the very definition that they used to identify what it meant to be part of Babylon.

Now, I am not saying that the Seventh-day Adventist Church is Babylon. We are letting prophecy illustrate what was going on, to lead to this history here; and, I am calling this history the Alpha Apostasy

1902

In this book here, this man here [holding up the book], Gilbert Valentine, if you have read his books and you understand the work of Jesuits, then you understand that he accomplishes the same work as Jesuits do. Jesuits work to go back into history and change it. So, when you are reading his books, you have to know—and George Knight, who is his mentor (he is a student of George Knight)—that they rewrite history to suit their own preconceived idea of what that history was. But, nevertheless, there is information in here that helps put this story together.

And in this history here, he thinks that W. W. Prescott was a positive influence on Adventism; and, he thinks wrongly.

The title is, W. W. Prescott, Forgotten Giant of Adventism's Second Generation; and, I agree. Adventism's second generation ends in 1919 when they published Prescott's book, The Doctrine of Christ. And The Doctrine of Christ was to take the Advent message and eliminate all the prophecy out of it and just leave a presentation of Christ.

So, Valentine documents in his book that in this history here [Figure No. 168D]—and I have 1901, because this is when Louis Conradi introduces the old Protestant view of the Daily. The Pioneer view of the Daily, right here, is being taken away, sur; and it is going to be followed by Pantheism of John Harvey Kellogg. And I have got 1902 for the burning down of the publishing house and the sanitarium to mark that history. But, Pantheism you can take back farther. The Daily you can take back, even back to here in 1845 with Crossier. So, I am placing them not where you can really mark their beginnings. I am placing them when a testing message arrives, because it is a testing message that is going to produce a falling away.

Publishing Ministry, pages 170 – 171:

> "Three nights before the Review office burned, I was in an agony that words cannot describe. I could not sleep. I walked the room, praying to God to have mercy upon His people. Then I seemed to be in the Review office with the men who have the management of the institution. I was trying to speak to them and thus to help them. One of authority arose and said, 'You say, The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord are we; therefore, we have authority to do this thing and that thing and the other thing. But the word of God forbids many of the things that you propose to do.' At His first advent, Christ cleansed the Temple. Prior to His second advent He will again cleanse the temple. He was there cleansing the temple. Why? Because commercial work had been brought in, and God had been forgotten. With hurry here and hurry there and hurry somewhere else, there was no time to think of heaven. The principles of God's law were presented, and I heard the question asked, 'How much of the law have you obeyed?' Then the word was spoken, 'God will cleanse and purify His temple in His displeasure.'
> "In the visions of the night I saw a sword of fire hung out over Battle Creek.
> "Brethren, God is in earnest with us. I want to tell you that if after the warnings given in these burnings the leaders of our people go right on, just as they have done in the past, exalting themselves, God will take the bodies next. Just as surely as He lives, He will speak to them in language that they cannot fail to understand.
> "God is watching us to see if we will humble ourselves before Him as little children. I speak these words now that we may come to Him in humility and contrition and find out what He requires of us.' Publishing Ministry, 170–171.

So, in this history, one of the things that should be put in here—and, this, Valentine upholds—is that W. W. Prescott, his whole purpose was to remove the Pioneer position of the Daily,

And, Prescott produced The Protestant Magazine, and if you go to The Protestant Magazine, Valentine will tell in here [his biography of W. W. Prescott] that Prescott never says that the Daily is Christ's sanctuary ministry in that magazine. But, every article is attempting to let you come to that very conclusion, that the Daily is Christ's sanctuary ministry. That is the whole purpose of The Protestant Magazine, even though he never says it once.

So, what is he doing? Prescott is trying to take away the Pioneer position of the Daily; but, in doing so he is bringing to an end genuine Protestantism—(laughter)—and he does it with a tool called The Protestant Magazine!

So, in this history, when you get to 1888, once again do you have a testing message? Yes, they are being tested. The Daily arrives to shake them all the way through this history.

And Pantheism, what is Pantheism? Spiritualism.

The Daily: Jealousy, al .

Pantheism (Spiritualism) is the same sequence of events.

And then there is going to be a falling away.

And why do I have 1915 as the falling away?

We will get to that.

THE LIVING TEMPLE

Let us deal with Pantheism a little bit.

Review and Herald, October 22, 1903:

> "In regard to the faith to be cherished and preserved in these last days, very little light is given in The Living Temple, and this light is so uncertain that it would not help God's people at this stage of their work."—

Now, when I mentioned here just a minute ago—and I did not put an emphasis on it—about Prescott, when he comes out with his book, The Doctrine of Christ, here [in 1919], I am not being just vague. He purposely created an advent message that no longer has the prophetic message in it. He takes it out! He removes it!

So, notice what Sister White says about The Living Temple, because these are a one-two-punch.

Second paragraph,

> —"In the visions of the night this matter was clearly presented to me, before a large number. One of authority was speaking, and he said, 'If the suppositions and statements found in this book were essential, if these statements were pure provender, thoroughly winnowed from the chaff, there would be some decided mention of them in the revelation given by Christ to John to give to the churches. To John the Lord Jesus opened the subjects that he saw would be needed by his people in the last days. The instruction that he gave is found in the book of Revelation. Those who would be co-workers with our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ will show a deep interest in the truths found in the book of Revelation. With pen and voice they will strive to make plain the wonderful things that Christ came from heaven to reveal.'
> "The first chapter of the book of Revelation was then read, with great solemnity."—

Who was reading it? One with great authority is reading it to Ellen White.

—"'The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John: who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.'

"Our Instructor presented the solemn messages that have been given in their order in Revelation, and that are to occupy the first place in the minds of God's people.

"All through the book, The Living Temple, passages of Scripture are used, but in many instances these passages are used in such a way that the right interpretation is not given to them. The message for this time is not, 'The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord are we.'"—

So, what is the message of The Living Temple book? "The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord are we."

—"Whom does the Lord receive as vessels unto honor?—Those who co-operate with Christ; those who believe the truth, who live the truth, who proclaim the truth in all its bearings." Review and Herald, October 22, 1903.

Brothers and Sisters, in this history [of Civil Rome, Figure No. 168A], Pagan Rome is being sacrificed and Paganism is being lifted up and exalted through the Papacy, a Pagan religion that professes to be Christian.

In this history [of the Church of Sardis and of the Millerites, Figure No. 168B], the Papacy is sacrificed, but the same religion, Paganism, is going to be lifted up and exalted by people professing to be Protestants.

In this history [of the Alpha Apostasy, Figure No. 168D], there is something being sacrificed here that is not Pagan Rome or Papal Rome. It is Protestantism.

And the temple here [in Figure No. 168A] is the Temple of God; and, here [in Figure No. 168B], it is the Holy Place; but, here [in Figure No. 168D], it is the Living Temple, which they think is the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, are we.

Notice the next quote from Manuscript Releases, volume 13, page 222.

"These are not the words of Sister White, but the words of the Lord, and His messenger has given them to me to give to you. God calls upon you to no longer work at cross purposes with Him. Much instruction was given in regard to men claiming to be Christian when they are revealing the attributes of Satan, counteracting in spirit, word, and action the advancement of truth, and are surely following the path where Satan is leading them. In their hardness of heart they have grasped authority which in no way belongs to them, and which they should not exercise. Saith the great Teacher, 'I will overturn, overturn, overturn.' Men say in Battle Creek, 'The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord are we' but they are using common fire. Their hearts are not softened and subdued by the grace of God." Manuscript Releases, volume 13, 222.

So, these people that are being brought into this delusion here, Spiritualism, The Living Temple time period, they rejected the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy in 1888. They are going into the Alpha Apostasy. Now, they are lifting themselves up, and they are saying what Sister White said in Early Writings, page 74, that this [1843] Chart was directed by the hand of the Lord and should not be altered; and, "I saw that those that gave the judgment hour cry had the correct view of the Daily." And that was the argument of that history, that very quote. These men who are rejecting the Spirit of Prophecy concerning the Daily here are going into a spiritualistic experience, because Spiritualism is when you put God's Word below man's word. They are taking man's word, and they are going into Spiritualism; and, at the same time they are saying, "We have the authority. We are the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord." And, the symbol of the temple of the Lord that they are erecting here is the living temple, which is just another manifestation of the Pantheon Temple that comes all the way down through these histories.

So, Protestantism is the sacrifice here; because, in The Protestant Magazine, the prophetic message—and in the book that is published in 1919 [The Doctrine of Christ]—the prophetic message which is supposed to consume, be first place in our minds, consume our attention, it is removed. It is removed!

Okay. 1915: Testimonies, volume 5, page 77:

> "The patience of God has an object, but you are defeating it. He is allowing a state of things to come that you would fain see counteracted by and by, but it will be too late. God commanded Elijah to anoint the cruel and deceitful Hazael king over Syria, that he might be a scourge to idolatrous Israel."—

How many people did Elijah anoint?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Three.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Three.

Who were they?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jehu.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jehu. And if you typed Jehu into the CD-ROM, over and over again who does Jehu symbolize? The Pharisees. He is the zealous defender of God's truth; but, his heart is not right with him. He is much too zealous.

Who else did Elijah anoint?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Elisha.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Elisha. He anointed the prophet.

But who is Hazael? She is going to tell you right here. Sister White speaks of Hazael probably about 10 to 15 times; but, here is the definition of who Hazael is.

Why do we need to know that?

Are we to believe that the history of Elijah is actually going to be repeated here at the end of the world? If there is one passage that Sister White repeatedly compares to the end of the world is the story of Elijah. Okay?

So, there are three anointings, and Jehu, that is the Pharisees in Adventism that think they are going to be defending the foundational truths, but they are going to be fighting against the foundational truths. They are "the defenders of the Law"!

Elisha is the prophetic message, but who is Hazael?

—"God commanded Elijah to anoint the cruel and deceitful Hazael king over Syria, that he might be a scourge to idolatrous Israel. Who knows whether God will not give you up to the deceptions you love?"—

What does that remind you of, those that have been studying here for the past couple of weeks? Isaiah 66:4-5. The Lord is going to choose their delusions, and Sister White compares that passage with 2 Thessalonians. He is going to give you up to the deceptions that you love. He is going to give you up to the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians.

And, why does the strong delusion come? "Because they would not receive the love of the truth."

And what is the truth being discussed in 2 Thessalonians? It is the relationship of the Daily and the abomination that maketh desolate that brings the strong delusion.

—"Who knows whether God will not give you up to the deceptions you love? Who knows but that the preachers who are faithful, firm, and true may be the last who shall offer the gospel of peace to our unthankful churches? It may be that the destroyers are already training under the hand of Satan"—

What destroyers? The destroyers that are represented by Hazael that are going to be a scourge to idolatrous Israel.

—"It may be that the destroyers are already training under the hand of Satan and only wait the departure of a few more standard-bearers to take their places, and with the voice of the [DRAGON] cry,"—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The voice of the False Prophet.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: What?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: The voice of the False Prophet.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are going to speak like the False Prophet?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Hazaels are going to speak like the False Prophet? Who is the False Prophet?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: The United States?
BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is apostate Protestantism.

What is going to be a scourge to Adventism are the pastors that are going to carry the message of apostate Protestantism. That is Hazael, and that is W. W. Prescott. That is this book here that removes this message [referring to the 1843 and 1850 Charts] out of the Advent Message and leaves you the peace and safety message of the false prophet of apostate Protestantism.

And when does this come in? When should we expect Hazael to come into history? When those few faithful pastors who were standing in this time period fighting for the faith once delivered to the saints get laid to rest, you can rest assured from here on [1919 on] that the voice of the False Prophet is going to exist in Adventism. And it does! It does.

—"and only wait the departure of a few more standard-bearers to take their places, and with the voice of the false prophet cry, 'Peace, peace,' when the Lord hath not spoken peace. I seldom weep, but now I find my eyes blinded with tears; they are falling upon my paper as I write."—

Notice the next sentence.

—"It may be that erelong all prophesyings among us will be at an end, and the voice which has stirred the people"—

Right there [1915, the year of Ellen White's death]. This [1860 to 1915] is the falling away; it comes right there.

—"and the voice which has stirred the people may no longer disturb their carnal slumbers.

"When God shall work His strange work on the earth, when holy hands bear the ark no longer, woe will be upon the people."—

And, of course, that is something that you need to bring down to this history [Figure No. 168E].

When holy hands no longer bear the ark, He is going to do His strange work, and His strange work is not simply punishing the wicked and the Seven Last Plagues. It is a punishment that comes upon those that are supposed to be carrying the ark of God, but they are no longer carrying it with holy hands.

And when is that period of time? When the Woe is upon the people [indicating 9/11 in Figure No. 168E].

But, here is the falling away. The voice of reproof is silent. The silent ministers are being set aside.

And in 1919 we are going to have a book by Prescott called The Doctrine of Christ [Figure No. 168D]..

I worked with people from Columbia and Venezuela, and they did not mind working with me because they realized that when you give the prophetic message, God's people come under conviction. And they liked to see the people come under conviction, because then they could give them The Doctrine of Christ.

But, when the message got too pointed, they decided that they did not want to carry on with this. They wanted to carry on with W. W. Prescott's message, which is The Doctrine of Christ that has removed the prophetic message out of it. They did not even care what prophetic message that they had. Anyone could come and preach prophecy because they knew it stimulated their audience, and they wanted to deal with their audience in an emotional state so they could give them Prescott's message of The Doctrine of Christ.

But, The Doctrine of Christ, without the message of Daniel and Revelation is what? What is it? It is a false Christ. Right here, [Prescott's book, The Doctrine of Christ] is a false Christ. It is a false Christ!

> —"When God shall work His strange work on the earth, when holy hands bear the ark no longer, woe will be upon the people. Oh, that thou hadst known, even thou, in this thy day, the things that belong unto thy peace! Oh, that our people may, as did Nineveh, repent with all their might and believe with all their heart, that God may turn away His fierce anger from them." Testimonies, volume 5, 77.

Notice the next quote, Review and Herald, December 16, 1890.

> "Men in the highest positions need to realize that they are as dependent upon God as are the humblest of their brethren. The greater their light and the clearer their knowledge of the truth, the greater is their responsibility. If they are clothed with the righteousness of Christ, they will have a humble estimation of themselves. In the worship of God, and in confession of sin, they will be as the lowliest of his creatures, while at the same time they will take the lead and set the example in everything that is pure and noble. They will be despised by many for their piety, humility, and conscientiousness. They will be a by-word and a hissing to those who, while they profess godliness, are not connected with God. But they will be honored by heaven, and by men whose hearts have not been hardened by rejection of light.
> "Brethren, I see your peril, and again I ask, Do you who err make any effort to correct the wrong? Souls may be stumbling along, walking in darkness, because you have not made straight paths for your feet."—

Now, if you notice, if you go back up a couple of passages, in this history she says, "following the path where Satan is leading them." So, this is about this path in this history that I am trying to mark out for us.

> —"because you have not made straight paths for your feet."—

What are the straight paths? The Old Paths [the 1843 and 1850 Charts], if you have rejected these.

> —"If you are in positions of trust, I appeal the more earnestly to you, for your own souls' sake and for the sake of those who look to you as guides, repent before God for every mistake made, and confess your error.
> "If you indulge stubbornness of heart,"—

What is stubbornness of heart? G al ; there is the Daily.

—"and through pride and self-righteousness do not confess your faults, you will be left subject to Satan's temptations."—

That is what went on in here. They would be left to Satan's temptations.

> —"If when the Lord reveals your errors you do not repent or make confession, his providence will bring you over the ground again and again. You will be left to make mistakes of a similar character, you will continue to lack wisdom, and will call sin righteousness, and righteousness sin. The multitude of deceptions"—THERE IS ISAIAH 66 AGAIN—"The multitude of deceptions that will prevail in these last days will encircle you, and"—WHAT?—"you will change leaders, and not know that you have done so." Review and Herald, December 16, 1890.

They changed leaders right here in 1919, and did not know they had done so. They accepted a false Christ.

And, that is what happens here. There is a falling away first, and then what happens? The man of sin is revealed, only now it is talking about the leadership of Adventism that has determined that the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, are we.

And what is this temple of the Lord symbolically represented by the book The Living Temple? It is the Pantheon Temple, all the way through.

What was sacrificed here? Protestantism; Protestantism, as represented in The Protestant Magazine that takes the symbol of Rome out of the prophetic message.

And remember Daniel 11:14 says what? Rome establishes the vision. Take Rome out of the vision, and you have no vision; and when you have no vision, the people perish.

Now, in study 23—for those of you who are watching on DVD, we would have to go back farther—we did a study on Judas.

This will not be long; this will not be long. We are going to add one more line right down here.

But, what I am saying—I skipped this line. I do not know why I did that; because, I am looking at the clock, I suppose—in the 1930s Hermes arrived, hermeneutics. There is a lot of information on that out there now. This is where we [the Seventh-day Adventist Church] accept apostate Protestantism's approach to Biblical interpretation: Hermeneutics, from the name HERMES.

I will not go there.

It begins with the Mystery of Iniquity that is going to impact us here [Figure No. 168E, at the falling away].

This [referring to the arched line in each of the timelines of Figure Nos. 168A, B, C, D, E, and F leading to the time periods of the falling away, at AD533; to fanaticism between March 22, 1844 and August 17, 1844; to the Weeping for Tammuz; to 1915 (the Alpha Apostasy); to the time of strong delusion before The Sunday Law of the Omega Apostasy; and, to the time period before the cross of Christ's crucifixion] is always the Mystery of Iniquity; and the Mystery of Iniquity always causes a falling away first before the man of sin is revealed.

Are you following the parallel lines here, or is this just too much information?

I think it might be too much information for me.

In the 1930s we have a Mystery of Iniquity that is introduced in response to this history [Figure No. 168D], when they changed leaders and do not even know it.

And this starts going through history, and it is in this history [Figure No. 168E] in 1989 when Reagan forms an alliance with the Pope. And now not Protestant USA but Civil USA is being cast down. Okay? This is another line, another thought, but it brings us to 9/11/2001, which parallels 1888 and 1840, and I suggest 508, when there is going to be a testing message once again.

And based upon this history [Figure No. 168A], when there is a testing message about whether you as a Christian is going to stay connected with the Church of Rome that is based upon 2 Thessalonians, according to Sister White, this testing message is causing a separation in this history. And the testing message is 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, the place where William Miller discovers what the true meaning of the Daily is. So, we see the Daily here a part of this testing message.

And then in 1840, what begins to close the doors is this 1843 Chart, and right under the cross on this Chart is the Daily: right here, al .

Then in Ezekiel 8 [Figure No. 168C] we see the first manifestation of the first abomination, which is the Daily, al (jealousy, self-exaltation).

Then in here [Figure No. 168D] we see the Daily (Louis Conradi introducing the false view of the Daily), once again causing this testing process.

So, when we get down here to 9/11 [Figure No. 168E] and these people do not want to hear that the Daily is testing truth, and that the Daily (self-exaltation) is a symbol of the Omega Apostasy, I am sorry, there are too many lines that say otherwise.

These here [referencing the 1843 and 1850 Charts], these are the Old Paths that we are being tested upon; and, in order to step on [walk in] those Old Paths you have to humble yourself and say, "I'm going to do what the Lord instructs me to do, not what men instruct me to do." And that is [in direct opposition to] the very essence of al and self-exaltation.

That is going on right here [indicating the Charts represented on the timeline]. And those people that reject the call to return to the Old Paths and hearken to the sound of the trumpet in Jeremiah 66:16 and 17, they are destined to receive strong delusion just before The Sunday Law, a false revival just before The Sunday Law, that has been prefigured by the celebration that took place at Ellen White's death by those people who had wanted her gone, and they wanted her gone bad enough after 1888 that they exiled her to Australia. And it is documented that after she died, they put her son Willie in exile in the sense that they just left him alone. They did not want to hear no more about it. They were happy about it: strong delusion [Figure No. 168E], strong delusion [1915, Figure No. 168D].

Weeping for Tammuz: strong delusion, a false revival [Figure No. 168C], a false Latter Rain.

Fanaticism right here in the Millerite History comes in right here [Figure No. 168B]; and, of course, the empowerment of the Papacy here [AD533, the Decree of Justinian, in Figure No. 168A].

And this strong delusion [in Figure No. 168E] leads to The Sunday Law; but, the falling away first, that is the falling away of the foolish virgins of Adventism that the man of sin might be revealed.

And according to the prophecies about the Omega Apostasy, in here [between 9/11 and The Sunday Law], the foolish virgins are going to have a Movement that nothing is allowed to stand in the way of; but, storm and tempest will sweep their structure away, and they think their structure is "the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord." But this structure is the parallel to The Living Temple, that is a parallel to the Holy Place, that is a parallel to the false Temple of God. It is the Pantheon Temple; because, the Pantheon Temple will receive any god because it is Satan's temple that he uses to deceive those people that fail the tests right in here [referencing on the board all the periods of falling away in Figure Nos. 168A, B, C, D, E and F].

Do you follow me?

TURNING POINTS

So, along with this we will add one more line, and it is the story of Judas.

Bible Echo, August, 1895:

> "There are lessons to be learned from the history of the past; and attention is called to these, that all may understand that God works on the same lines now that He ever has done."—

He works on the same lines now that He has ever done; the same lines.

> —His hand is seen in His work and among the nations now, just the same as it has been ever since the gospel was first proclaimed to Adam in Eden.
> "There are periods which are turning points in the history of nations and of the church."—

September 11, 2001, was a turning point in the history of the world, in the history of the United States. And September 11, 2001, is when the Seventh-day Adventist Church decided that if you were going to be an ordained pastor in Adventism that you have to take a course in the spiritual teachings of the Jesuits, which was Spiritualism. That was a turning point for Adventism. You have now turned your ministry over to the Jesuit Order.

But, there was a turning point in the life of Judas as well.

I should finish the quote.

> —"There are periods which are turning points in the history of nations and of the church. In the providence of God, when these different crises arrive, the light for that time is given."—

This is when the light of Revelation 18 is given [September 11, 2001, Figure No. 168E].

> —"If it is received, there is spiritual progress; if it is rejected, spiritual declension and shipwreck follow. The Lord in His word has opened up the aggressive work of the gospel as it has been carried on in the past, and will be in the future, even to the closing conflict, when Satanic agencies will make their last wonderful movement." Bible Echo, August 26, 1895.

But, in [the story of] Judas, from The Desire of Ages, page 719, it says,

> "Christ's discourse in the synagogue concerning the bread of life was the turning point in the history of Judas."—

What is the sermon that was the turning point in the history of Judas? It was the sermon about the Bread of Heaven: "You need to eat my flesh and drink my blood." This was the turning point.

And when this Angel comes down on 9/11, the Angel of Revelation 18, He is paralleling when the Angel came down on August 11, 1840. And when the Angel came down on August 11, 1840, He had the Little Book of Daniel open in His hand, and He told John (representing the Millerites and us) to go and take the Little Book and eat it.

So, right here on 9/11, we are to eat the Little Book.

And, right here on 9/11, Judas had the same turning point; and, he refused to eat. The Biblical record shows us then that he went through three tests.

What were the three tests [for Judas]? Three times he covenanted to sell Christ; three times.

And here he fell away [at the cross].

> — He heard the words, 'Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, ye have no life in you.' John 6:53. He saw that Christ was offering spiritual rather than worldly good. He regarded himself as farsighted, and thought he could see that Jesus would have no honor, and that He could bestow no high position upon His followers. He determined not to unite himself so closely to Christ but that he could draw away. He would watch. And he did watch.
> "From that time he expressed doubts that confused the disciples. He introduced controversies and misleading sentiments, repeating the arguments urged by the scribes and Pharisees against the claims of Christ. All the little and large troubles and crosses, the difficulties and the apparent hindrances to the advancement of the gospel, Judas interpreted as evidences against its truthfulness. He would introduce texts of Scripture that had no connection with the truths Christ was presenting. These texts, separated from their connection, perplexed the disciples, and increased the discouragement that was constantly pressing upon them. Yet all this was done by Judas in such a way as to make it appear that he was conscientious. And while the disciples were searching for evidence to confirm the words of the Great Teacher, Judas would lead them almost imperceptibly on another track. Thus in a very religious, and apparently wise, way he was presenting > matters in a different light from that in which Jesus had given them, and attaching to His words a meaning that He had not conveyed. His suggestions were constantly exciting an ambitious desire for temporal preferment, and thus turning the disciples from the important things they should have considered. The dissension as to which of them should be greatest was generally excited by Judas." The Desire of Ages, 719.

FIRST TEST REJECTED

His rebellion, his al begins here [at Test 1] at the foot washing of Mary. At the foot washing of Mary, his al was lifted up, and he goes out and he starts this covenant process. He is going to barter three times with the Jews to sell out His Lord.

But notice when Jesus rebukes him. I am going to cut in the middle of that paragraph. It says,

Youth Instructor, July 12, 1900:

> "The look that Jesus cast upon the selfish Judas convinced him that the Master had penetrated his hypocrisy, and read his base, contemptible character. This was a more direct reproof than Judas had before received. He was provoked by it, and thus a door was opened through which Satan entered to control his thoughts. Instead of repenting, he planned revenge. Stung by the knowledge of his sin, and provoked to madness because his guilt was known,"—

About Mary anointing the feet of Jesus.

> —"he rose from the table, and went to the palace of the high priest, where he found the council assembled."—

Right there [at the first test], that is al . That is the Daily.

And this was the first time that he met with the Sanhedrin; and, when he did it, what did he do? He rose from the table; he left the Tables [referencing the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. Okay? He rose from the table.

> —"He was imbued with the spirit of Satan, and acted like one bereft of reason. The reward promised for the betrayal of his Master was thirty pieces of silver; and for a far less sum than the box of ointment cost he sold the Savior."—

And then in the second paragraph, it says,

> "In spirit and practice many resemble Judas."—

Now, this is Adventism, is it not? It is Judas.

> —"As long as there is silence in regard to the plague-spot in their character, no open enmity is seen; but when they are reproved, bitterness fills their hearts." Youth Instructor, July 12, 1900.

SELF-EXALTATION

His rebellion, the a l begins—and you have it in your notes—at the foot washing of Mary.

The Desire of Ages, page 559:

> "Judas had a high opinion of his own executive ability. As a financier he thought himself greatly superior to his fellow disciples, and he had led them to regard him in the same light. He had gained their confidence, and had a strong influence over them. His professed sympathy for the poor deceived them, and his artful insinuation caused them to look distrustfully upon Mary's devotion. The murmur passed round the table, 'To what purpose is this waste? For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.'" The Desire of Ages, 559.

THE SECOND TEST

Notice the second test. It says, from The Desire of Ages, page 645,

> "Before the Passover Judas had met a second time"—

He has already covenanted a second time to sell our Christ.

> —"with the priests and scribes, and had closed the contract to deliver Jesus into their hands. . . ."—

And at the bottom,

> —"Judas was now offended at Christ's act in washing the feet of His disciples. If Jesus could so humble Himself, he thought, He could not be Israel's king. All hope of worldly honor in a temporal kingdom was destroyed. Judas was satisfied that there was nothing to be gained by following Christ. After seeing Him degrade Himself, as he thought, he was confirmed in his purpose to disown Him, and confess himself deceived. He was possessed by a demon, and he resolved to complete the work he had agreed to do in betraying his Lord." The Desire of Ages, 645.

He was possessed by a demon. So, in here, what was happening to him if he is possessed by a demon? Spiritualism—right?—if you are possessed by a demon, you are into Spiritualism.

First, it is al , when he lifts himself up: "You know, I could take that perfume and make a lot more money for the Lord's work than what she is wasting on His feet." There is al for you.

And now he is becoming demon-possessed.

THE FINAL DECISION

Notice the final decision, The Desire of Ages, pages 653 – 655:

> "In surprise and confusion at the exposure of his purpose, Judas rose hastily to leave the room. 'Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. . . . He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.'"—

It was nighttime, the Midnight Cry.

—"Night it was to the traitor as he turned away from Christ into the outer darkness.

"Until this step was taken, Judas had not passed beyond the possibility of repentance."—

Now, Brothers and Sisters, he is still going to go covenant with them for the third time, where he gets the money; but, when he leaves Jesus right here at the foot washing, his story begins with the foot washing of Mary and ends with the foot washing of the Disciples. He is illustrated from beginning to end as exhibiting al . He is rebelling against foot washing, humility. That is al . That is the Daily.

But, before he covenants the third time, he has already closed his probation. Okay?

When the Adventists receive the strong delusion, it is before The Sunday Law; and, their probation is already closed before The Sunday Law.

And, if you are not receiving the strong delusion and you are a Seventh-day Adventist and you are going to receive the Seal of God, your probation closes before The Sunday Law. The Sunday Law is simply the test where you are going to demonstrate which character you have prepared. And, this is the case with Judas. He has already closed his probation before he goes the third time.

—"Until this step was taken, Judas had not passed beyond the possibility of repentance. But when he left the presence of his Lord and his fellow disciples, the final decision had been made. He had passed the boundary line.

"Wonderful had been the long-suffering of Jesus in His dealing with this tempted soul. Nothing that could be done to save Judas had been left undone. After he had twice covenanted to betray his Lord, Jesus still gave him opportunity for repentance. By reading the secret purpose of the traitor's heart, Christ gave to Judas the final, convincing evidence of His divinity. This was to the false disciple the last call to repentance. No appeal that the divine-human heart of Christ could make had been spared. The waves of mercy, beaten back by stubborn pride, returned in a stronger tide of subduing love. But although surprised and alarmed at the discovery of his guilt, Judas became only the more determined. From the sacramental supper he went out to complete the work of betrayal.

"In pronouncing the woe upon Judas, Christ also had a purpose of mercy toward His disciples. He thus gave them the crowning evidence of His Messiahship. 'I tell you before it come,' He said, 'that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I AM.' Had Jesus remained silent, in apparent ignorance of what was to come upon Him, the disciples might have thought that their Master had not divine foresight, and had been surprised and betrayed into the hands of the murderous mob. A year before, Jesus had told the disciples that He had chosen twelve, and that one was a devil. Now His words to Judas, showing that his treachery was fully known to his Master, would strengthen the faith of Christ's true followers during His humiliation. And when Judas should have come to his dreadful end, they would remember the woe that Jesus had pronounced upon the betrayer." The Desire of Ages, 653–655.

REVEALED IN HIS TIME

So, you have some quotes here about Judas.

"[6]And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. [7]For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. [8]And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming." 2 Thessalonians 2:6–8 (KJV).

THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY DOTH ALREADY WORK

Review and Herald, November 16, 1897:

"But Judas had opened the door of his heart, the chambers of his mind, to the temptations of Satan. And the enemy sowed in his heart and mind the seed which he communicated to his brethren. The questioning doubts which were passed on to the minds of his brethren. This one man, professing to be a follower of Christ, while not bearing the precious fruit revealed in the life of Christ, would be a channel of darkness to the other disciples in the time of test and trial that was soon to come, and that was even then upon them. He presented so much accusation of his brethren that he was counterworking the lessons of Christ. This is why Jesus called Judas a devil." Review and Herald, November 16, 1897.

In here [at the first test] he begins to mix truth and error as he interacts with the Disciples down in this history. That is the Mystery of Iniquity, and this Iniquity leads him to falling away.

A FALLING AWAY FIRST

And you have the quote in there that when he goes out and hangs himself, the branch would not hold him, would it?

The Desire of Ages, pages 718 – 722:

"In falling, his body had been horribly mangled, and dogs were now devouring it. His remains were immediately buried out of sight; but there was less mockery among the throng, and many a pale face revealed the thoughts within. Retribution seemed already visiting those who were guilty of the blood of Jesus." The Desire of Ages, 718–722.

So, he falls away before the cross. Okay? And the cross is here, and then Barabbas, who is a false Christ, is revealed.

THE MAN OF SIN REVEALED

The Desire of Ages, page 738:

"That people who chose Barabbas in the place of Christ were to feel the cruelty of Barabbas as long as time should last." The Desire of Ages, 738.

The Great Controversy, page 43:

"But Judas did not walk in the light so graciously permitted to shine upon him. By indulgence in sin he invited the temptations of Satan. His evil traits of character became predominant. He yielded his mind to the control of the powers of darkness, he became angry when his faults were reproved, and thus he was led to commit the fearful crime of betraying his Master. So do all who cherish evil under a profession of godliness hate those who disturb their peace by condemning their course of sin. When a favorable opportunity is presented, they will, like Judas, betray those who for their good have sought to reprove them." The Great Controversy, 43.

SELF-EXALTATION; SPIRITUALISM, A FALLING AWAY AND A FALSE CHRIST

Selected Messages, book 1, pages 204 – 205:

"The enemy of souls has sought to bring in the supposition that a great reformation was to take place among Seventh-day Adventists, and that this reformation would consist in giving up the doctrines which stand as the pillars of our faith, and engaging in a process of reorganization. Were this reformation to take place, what would result? The principles of truth that God in His wisdom has given to the remnant church, would be discarded. Our religion would be changed. The fundamental principles that have sustained the work for the last fifty years would be accounted as error. A new organization would be established. Books of a new order would be written. A system of intellectual philosophy would be introduced. The founders of this system would go into the cities, and do a wonderful work. The Sabbath of course, would be lightly regarded, as also the God who created it. Nothing would be allowed to stand in the way of the new movement. The leaders would teach that virtue is better than vice, but God being removed, they would place their dependence on human power, which, without God, is worthless. Their foundation would be built on the sand, and storm and tempest would sweep away the structure.

"Who has authority to begin such a movement? We have our Bibles. We have our experience, attested to by the miraculous working of the Holy Spirit. We have a truth that admits of no compromise. Shall we not repudiate everything that is not in harmony with this truth?" Selected Messages, book 1, 204–205.

SUMMARY

Okay. So, what am I saying?

I am saying that Daniel 8:11 opens up an illustration of the work of Satan as he counterfeits the Temple of God through history.

That Satan is here [Figure No. 168A] sacrificing Pagan Rome in order to lift up Paganism.

He is here [Figure No. 168B] sacrificing Papal Rome in order to lift up Paganism.

Here [Figure No. 168D] he is sacrificing Protestantism in order to lift up Paganism.

And, here [Figure No. 168E] he is sacrificing Adventism in order to lift up Paganism.

And these temples that he is portrayed in, in these histories, are nothing more than the Pantheon Temple in that particular place in history.

And the first step towards death for Seventh-day Adventists at the end is represented by the Daily in the Book of Daniel, the self-exaltation that allows someone to place their own human wisdom above a "Thus saith the Lord," whether it occurs in the Bible or in the Spirit of Prophecy; and, that this truth is one of the truths connected with the Daily in the Book of Daniel, whether God's people want to see it or not.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we ask that you awaken us to the crisis that your people are now in, in this testing process that the separation is well underway. We do not want to be like Judas; we want to be like John. We want to be benefited by the light; we do not want to reject the light; we do not want to be hardened by the light. We want to be softened and changed into your image. We thank you for the lines of information that you have given us, but we know that information is worthless if we cannot turn it into an experience that glorifies you; so, we ask that you give us the wisdom to not only understand these wonderful truths but the wisdom on how to allow these truths to change us into your image. We have a busy day today. We have people arriving. We are going to begin a week of presentations with Pastor Emiliano; so, we ask that those people that are traveling here, that you give them traveling mercies and that you would make this coming week a blessing to all involved, that you would watch over and protect the work that we are doing with the LiveStreaming and the DVDs; and, we thank you in advance for doing this. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #83

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for bringing us together this morning. We thank you that you have watched over the many souls that have been traveling here for the beginning of this week of presentations by Pastor Richards. And as we take up the worship this morning, we once again ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would speak to our hearts about the truths that are presented in Daniel, chapter 8. We want to understand these things in a way that allows us to be prepared to give an answer to any man that asks us. We want to understand these things in a way that the Holy Spirit can convict us of the nearness of your return and our need of personal preparation. So, we ask that this time that we spend here this morning would help accomplish that work in us and for us. We ask that you would overrule my humanity; hide me behind your cross and touch my lips with a coal from off the altar that what is presented would be a message designed by you to edify and strengthen your people. We ask a blessing upon the LiveStream and the DVD presentations that we are doing right now and throughout this week. We also pray for the short evangelistic series that we are going to have at the church at the end of this week, that your Holy Spirit will be convicting those in the community that they might attend those meetings. We thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

THE DAILY (CONTINUED)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now, one of the things that I was hoping to do with these morning worships we have pretty much accomplished. I know that some of the presentations that I intend to do for morning worships in concluding Habakkuk's Two Tables are a little bit more complex than others, and I had hoped to have some of the complex ones, if that is the right word, accomplished before Emiliano got here, because we have full days ahead of us for the next five days, lots of presentations; and, it would be easier, no doubt, if I was not burdening our minds with a lot of information the beginning of each day in the morning. But, still, we want to put what we want to study here in the record.

I do not know if you listened to yesterday's presentation No. 82, that presentation, from my experience, is one that has of all kinds of lights that can be turned on further than what we touched yesterday. So, it was one of the more complex ones.

VERSE TWELVE

Now we are going to return back to Daniel 8 and finish off a couple of things and begin a couple of other things.

We have been emphasizing, among other things, that where there is no vision, the people perish; and, that vision is established by the subject of Rome, according to Daniel 11, verse 14. And we have been looking closely at Rome as a subject of Bible prophecy.

We have identified that Daniel 7 and Daniel 8 have been purposely tied together by Inspiration by Daniel. In chapter 7, the first couple of verses, and in chapter 8, the first couple of verses, it is obvious that the vision of Daniel 7 is a complement of the vision of Daniel 8.

We have identified that Bible prophecy deals with the combination of church and state, and that Daniel, chapter 7, are the manifestations of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy in their state manifestations; and, in Daniel, chapter 8, are the kingdoms of Bible prophecy in their religious manifestations.

And we have shown that Daniel uses symbols from the sanctuary to illustrate the kingdoms of Bible prophecy in Daniel 8 in order for us to recognize that these are the religious manifestations of those kingdoms; but, the symbols that he uses are corrupted symbols, whether it is the horns that are corrupted on the animals that were sanctuary animals or whether it is the word tamid that is translated as Daily, and it is only a noun in the Book of Daniel, where everywhere else it is a verb or an adverb, and that itself is a corruption.

And, we have seen that the religion of these kingdoms of Bible prophecy is a counterfeit religion, a corrupted religion all the way through. This would tell you right off the bat that the Daily cannot be Christ's Sanctuary ministry because it is a corrupted symbol and there is no corruption in Christ.

So, we have identified that the Daily, of course, represents an escalation of self-exaltation as illustrated in Daniel 8 with the word a l. Each of the kingdoms became "great," and that word great is al ; and, each of the kingdoms exceeded the previous kingdoms in their al , in their self-exaltation, thus identifying a progression that is also noted in Daniel 2 (in the metals). There is a progression that is marked; and, there is a progression that is marked in Revelation 17.

The Books of Daniel and of Revelation are the same book. So, when you come to the kingdoms of Bible prophecy, there is a progression that is illustrated upon the testimony of two; and then in chapter 8, you have a third witness. And the progression there that is emphasized is this escalation of self-exaltation as illustrated by the word al ; and, therefore, the symbol of this al is the word Daily (Paganism, continual). It means continual. It is the continual religion of Satan from his rebellion in Heaven, until the end of time; and, his rebellion, his religion escalates as history proceeds.

And then we looked, of course, at the illustration of this counterfeit sanctuary service in Daniel 8:11.

And now we want to go back into verses 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 and finish out that thought.

We have not dealt with verse 12 yet; but, in verse 9, we have identified that the little horn there is the masculine little horn, and in verse 10 it is the feminine, and in verse 11 it is the masculine, and in verse 12 it is the feminine. The masculine little horn is Pagan Rome; the feminine little horn is Papal Rome. We walked down through 9, 10, and 11.

And verse 12 says, in your notes,

> "[12]And an host was given him against the daily ~~sacrifice~~ by reason of transgression,"—

The word him is in italics, meaning that it is an added word.

> —"and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered." Daniel 8:12 (KJV).

When we see the word it for the little horn in these verses, it is identifying that it is the little horn in the feminine tense; therefore, verse 12 once again is dealing with Papal Rome. This is the little horn in the feminine.

AGAINST

Verse 12 says, "an host," an army (military strength) was given him "against"—and we have already put in the record, we have already used the next quote from Uriah Smith, where we are dealing with the time prophecy of Daniel 11:24 that identifies that Pagan Rome would rule the world for 360 years, beginning with the Battle of Actium, and ending when Constantine moved the capitol from the City of Rome to Constantinople, that Pagan Rome would rule the world supremely for a time (for 360 years). And when Uriah Smith is addressing that verse, verse 24 of Daniel 11, it says—let us just go there where you can see it and remind ourselves. We have already put this in the record of Habakkuk's Two Tables more than once.

But, the last phrase of verse 24 of Daniel 11 says,

> "[24]. . . he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time." Daniel 11:24, last phrase (KJV).

So, you will see in your notes there, if you will go back to your notes where it says, "Against," it says from Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, page 273,

> "To the latter portion of this verse, Bishop Newton gives the idea of forecasting devices from strongholds, instead of against them."—

What he is doing is he is bringing a well-known Bible commentator to say that this word against in verse 24 can also be understood as from. And, sure enough, if you look at the St on ' s Concordance, that is one of the correct definitions for this word that is translated as against. And this word translated as against in Daniel 11:24 is the same word that is translated as against in Daniel 8:12.

> —"This the Romans did from the strong fortress of their seven-hilled city. 'Even for a time;' doubtless a prophetic time, 360 years. From what point are these years to be dated? Probably from the event brought to view in the following verse." Uriah Smith, Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation, 273.

What I am suggesting to you here is that in verse 12—back to your notes—it says, "And an host [MILITARY STRENGTH] was given him [WAS GIVEN THE PAPACY], [NOT AGAINST THE DAILY, BUT] from the daily . . . ." From these former Pagan kings, beginning with Clovis in AD496, military strength was supplied to the Papacy, "And an host was given him from [Paganism] by reason of transgression, and it [the Papacy] cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered."

VERSE 9

So, I have a breakdown for us, just in passing. Verse 9, the little horn, the male manifestation, is talking about three areas of conquest for Pagan Rome, and you see the dates there:

65BC Syria (the East); 63BC Palestine (the pleasant land); 31BC Egypt (the South).

Syria is the east in the verse; Palestine is the pleasant land in the verse, and Egypt is the south in the verse. And those are the dates of the conquest, 65BC, 63BC, and 31BC.

VERSE 10

First Century to 1798 (waxed great)

Then in verse 10, which is one of the most difficult for me to understand, when I look at Uriah Smith's comments, they are there but this is a difficult one for me, verse 10, in the sense that it says,

"[10]And it"—

The Papacy; it is feminine, if you have your Bibles opened to verse 10.

—"[10]And it [THE PAPACY] waxed great,"—

This is this al getting greater.

> —"even to the host of heaven, and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them." Daniel 8:10 (KJV).

I understand here that the Papacy exalts itself to Heaven. I get that part; but, I do not know how the Papacy actually casts some of the stars of heaven down to the ground.

Now, Uriah Smith tries to tie it in with the persecution of the leadership of God's church during the 1260 years, and that may very well be. I do not have a problem with that, but I do not know how it casts down the host of Heaven. Okay?

So, anyway, there is a thought in there about the persecution, no doubt.

So, for verse 10 the history is from the 1st Century, because Paul tells us that the Mystery of Iniquity "doth already work," and this is the beginning of the Papacy here in the 1st Century. All the way through AD1798 it waxed great. That is the history of verse 10.

Verse 11

Birth of Christ: AD31, 508, 330

Then in verse 11, Pagan Rome magnified itself against Christ, the Prince of the host, at His birth. When they tried to kill him, He had to flee into Egypt; and, at His death at the cross. So, you have those dates there.

And, of course, Paganism was lifted up. Once it was taken away, the religion of Paganism was lifted up from Pagan Rome and exalted unto Heaven, and this process begins in AD508, until the Papacy is placed upon the throne in 538.

And the "place of his sanctuary" was the Pantheon Temple. It was located in the City of Rome. It was cast down in the year AD330.

So, those were the dates that you can tie together with verse 11.

VERSE 12

AD496 (transgression); AD538 through 1798 (practiced and prospered)

Then in verse 12, it says,

> "[12]And an host was given him against the daily ~~sacrifice~~ by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered." Daniel 8:12 (KJV).

"And an host was given [THE PAPACY] from [PAGANISM] by reason of transgression, . . ." And the host (the military strength that came to the aid of the Papacy) began with Clovis in AD496 by reason of transgression, which we are going to discuss.

So, you can see AD496, on through 1798, which it practiced and prospered.

So, that is just a breakdown of what histories are marked in these verses that allow us to go to other verses and get second and third witnesses on them.

SPOKEN OF BY DANIEL THE PROPHET

Matthew 24:15; Daniel 9:26-27

> "[15]When ye therefore shall see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whosoever readeth, let him understand:) . . ." Matthew 24:15 (KJV).

> "[26]And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. [27]And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate [MARGIN: DESOLATOR]." Daniel 9:26-27 (KJV).

Now, we have read this in Habakkuk's Two Tables. This is already part of the record; but, from Damsteegt's Foundations of the Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, page 22, speaking of William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation, he says the fundamental approach to Bible prophecy by the Millerites was that there are two desolating powers in Bible prophecy. Damsteegt says,

> "William Miller, when applying his hermeneutic, noticed in the various apocalyptic passages a recurring theme of controversy between the people of God and their enemies. In his analysis of the persecuting powers of God's people throughout the ages he developed the concept of the two abominations, defined as paganism (the first abomination) symbolizing the persecuting force outside the church, and the papacy (the second abomination) representing the persecuting power within the church. It was the motif of the two abominations that characterized most of his following prophetic interpretations." P. Gerard Damsteegt, Foundations of the Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, 22.

So, what I am saying is we have been instructed to study the same way that William Miller studied, and we have been instructed to use William Miller's Rules of Biblical interpretation; therefore, logic tells us that we, too, should be recognizing two desolating powers in Daniel and Revelation, and those desolating powers are Paganism and Papalism.

REMEMBER DANIEL 11:14

Daniel 7:23-25; 8:9-12, 13-14; 11:30-31; 12:11; Revelation 12 and 13; 2:12-29

Now, we have spent some time on Daniel 11:14, identifying—and this is a big thing. Seventh-day Adventists should understand this, but Seventh-day Adventists do not understand this!—that the "robbers of thy people" in Daniel 11:14 is Rome; and, you need to know that because Rome establishes the vision.

And in the history of the Millerites, this truth was so attacked by the opposition of the Millerite Movement that here [referring to the 1843 Chart] we have a date on this sacred Chart, 164BC, that has no reference to the Bible whatsoever. Okay? What it is the reference to is that the people that were opposing the presentation of the Millerites that what established the vision was Rome were using a counterfeit symbol, a counterfeit argument, to undermine the identification of Rome, and that counterfeit was Antiochus Epiphanes. Therefore, it was such a controversy in their history that it was important for them to put it on this Chart.

And what the 1843 Chart says about 164 is, "Death of Antiochus Epiphanes, who of course, stood not up against the Prince of Princes; as he had been 164 yrs. dead before the Prince of Princes was born."

So, this was such an issue within their history that it is even marked on the [1843] Chart. And what the issue is, is who is going to establish the vision? Is it one of the last of these Greek kings, or is it Rome that establishes the vision?

And, of course, this is the argument of Desmond Ford, is that it is Antiochus Epiphanes; and, of course, the argument of Desmond Ford is what crystallizes the two types of hermeneutics in Adventism today.

Because of the controversy of Desmond Ford, you suddenly can see these two false systems of hermeneutics in Adventism because they had all been pretty much in the same realm of study until Desmond Ford started taking their false hermeneutics to the conclusion that destroyed Adventism.

Then some of those theologians decided, "Oh, no, we can't destroy Adventism. We need to fine-tune our hermeneutics so we can defend against Desmond Ford," and this is what crystallizes these two false hermeneutic practices in Adventism today, the Biblical Research Institute being the line that is opposing Desmond Ford but, in reality, they are just as much in darkness as Desmond Ford; because, the Biblical Research Institute will tell you we no longer believe this portion of the 1843 Chart (the Pioneer teaching of Islam); we no longer believe this portion of the Chart, the 1335 and the 1290 because we no longer believe the Daily in AD508, which is the starting point of these two time prophecies [the 1335 and the 1290]; and, we no longer believe the 2520. Therefore, they do not believe much of it. Okay? They just do not believe much of it, which, of course, means they reject the authority of the Spirit of Prophecy, because Ellen G. White says this Chart was directed by the hand of the Lord and it should not be altered.

Although, they [the Biblical Research Institute] are the champions to oppose Desmond Ford, and Desmond Ford's primary argument is Antiochus Epiphanes.

So, when we remember that Rome establishes the vision, then underneath in your notes you will see in Daniel 7:23-25, that when Rome is presented, there are two phases of Rome: Pagan Rome and Papal Rome.

> "[23]Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. [24]And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. [25]And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time." Daniel 7:23-25 (KJV).

In Daniel 8:9-12, which we are looking at, there are two phases of Rome: Pagan Rome and Papal Rome.

> "[9]And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. [10]And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the starts to the ground, and stamped upon them. [11]Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily ~~sacrifice~~ was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. [12]And an host was given him against the daily ~~sacrifice~~ by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered." Daniel 8:9-12 (KJV).

In verses 13 and 14 of Daniel 8, where we are heading, we will see two phases of Rome: Pagan Rome and Papal Rome.

> "[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice,~~ and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? [14]And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." Daniel 8:13-14 (KJV).

We have already considered more than once Daniel 11:30-31, where arms (Pagan Rome) stand on the part of Papal Rome; so, we see both of these Romes in those verses.

> "[30]For the ships of Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do, he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. [31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily ~~sacrifice,~~ and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:30-31 (KJV).

In Daniel 12:11, we see Paganism (Pagan Rome) being taken away in order to set up the Papacy. There are both phases of Rome in that verse.

"[11]And from the time that the daily ~~sacrifice~~ shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days." Daniel 12:11 (KJV).

In Revelation, chapters 12 and 13, we see the dragon in chapter 12, and the Papacy in chapters 12 and 13; so, we see both these desolating powers in Revelation 12 and 13.

"chapter 12:1 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: 2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. 3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. 4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. 5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days. 7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, 8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. 10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. 12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. 13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. 14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." Revelation 12 (KJV).

""chapter 13:1 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.
2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. 3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. 4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? 5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. [6] And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. [7] And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. [8] And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. [9] If any man have an ear, let him hear. [10] He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. [11] And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. [12] And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. [13] And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, [14] And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. [15] And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

[16] And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: [17] And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. [18] Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six." Revelation 13 (KJV).

In Revelation 2:12-29, we see Pergamos, which is Pagan Rome, followed by Thyatira, which is Papal Rome. So, when we understand that Rome establishes the vision, and we understand the Millerites recognized two desolating powers, we can go into Daniel and Revelation and see that the Millerites were correct. Rome is an illustration of two desolating powers.

"chapter 2:12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges; [13] I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth. [14] But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. [15] So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate. [16] Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. [17] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. [23] And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. [24] But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden. [25] But that which ye have already hold fast till I come. [26] And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: [27] AND HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON; AS THE VESSELS OF A POTTER SHALL THEY BE BROKEN TO SHIVERS: even as I received of my Father. [28] And I will give him the morning star. [29] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches." Revelation 2:12-29 (KJV).

And the dragon in Revelation 12 is Satan, but in a secondary sense it is Pagan Rome.

"The line of prophecy in which these symbols are found begins with Revelation 12, with the dragon that sought to destroy Christ at His birth. The dragon is said to be Satan (Revelation 12:9); he it was that moved upon Herod to put the Saviour to death. But the chief agent of Satan in making war upon Christ and His people during the first centuries of the Christian Era was the Roman Empire, in which paganism was the prevailing religion. Thus while the dragon, primarily, represents Satan, it is, in a secondary sense, a symbol of pagan Rome." The Great Controversy, 439.

THE DAILY AND THE TRANSGRESSION OF DESOLATION

This is J. N. Andrews; and, J. N. Andrews in this brief statement we are going to read is going to quote not only William Miller but Josiah Litch, so it is as much them as it is him. This is from The Sanctuary and the 2300 Days, pages 33 – 34, and it says this:

"THERE ARE TWO 'DESOLATIONS' IN DANIEL 8.—This fact is made so plain by Josiah Litch that we present his words:

"'The daily sacrifice' is the present reading of the English text. But no such thing as sacrifice is found in the original. This is acknowledged on all hands.'"—

So, when you see the Daily in the Book of Daniel, and it says, "the daily sacrifice," what he is saying is just what Sister White says in Early Writings that this word was added by human wisdom and does not belong to the text. Okay? So, when we see the Daily in the Book of Daniel, it should be just "the daily."

—"'This is acknowledged on all hands. It is a gloss or construction put on it by the translators. The true reading is, "the daily and the transgression of desolation," daily and transgression being connected together by "and;" the daily desolation and the transgression of desolation. They are two desolating powers, which were to desolate the sanctuary and the host.'—Prophetic Expositions, Volume 1, page 127.

"It is plain that the sanctuary and the host were to be trodden under foot by the daily and the transgression of desolation. The careful reading of verse 13 [DANIEL 8:13] settles this point. And this fact establishes another, viz.: that these two desolations are the two grand forms under which Satan has attempted to overthrow the worship and the cause of Jehovah. Mr. Miller's remarks on the meaning of these two terms, and the course pursued by himself in ascertaining that meaning, is presented under the following head:

"THE TWO DESOLATIONS ARE PAGANISM AND PAPACY"—

Now, this is William Miller. We have read this more than once. He is going to describe how he comes to understand the Daily is Paganism in 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2; because, it was the power that was holding back the Papacy from rising. Okay?

> —"I read on, and could find no other case in which it [the daily] was found, but in Daniel. I then [by the aid of a concordance] took those words which stood in connection with it, 'take way;' he shall take away, 'the daily;' 'from the time the daily shall be taken away', etc. I read on, and thought I should find no light on the text; finally, I came to 2 Thessalonians 2:7, 8. 'For the mystery of iniquity doth already work; only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way, and then shall that wicked be revealed,' etc. And when I had come to that text, oh! how clear and glorious the truth appeared! There it is! That is 'the daily!' Well now, what does Paul mean by 'he who now letteth,' or hindereth? By 'the man of sin,' and the 'wicked,' popery is meant. Well, what is it which hinders popery from being revealed? Why, it is paganism; well, then, 'the daily' must mean paganism.'—Second Advent Manual, page 66."

J. N. Andrews, The Sanctuary and the 2300 Days, 33–34.

So, there are two desolating powers that are represented by Rome in the Scriptures, and this is the fundamental approach to prophecy of the Millerites.

TRANSGRESSION

But, in verse 12 that we are dealing with, it says,

> "[12]And an host was given him [THE PAPACY] against the daily [FROM PAGANISM] by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practiced, and prospered." Daniel 8:12 (KJV).

So, we want to know what it means "by reason of transgression."

> TRANSGRESSION: Strong's Concordance H6588—From H6586; a revolt (national, moral or religious): - rebellion, sin, transgression, trespassive.

And transgression in the St on ' s means a revolt (national, moral or religious): - rebellion, sin, transgression, trespassive.

So, there was some kind of transgression that took place that allowed the Papacy to assume authority over the military strength of Pagan Rome, and it is worth understanding what that transgression is; because, that transgression is one of the themes of Bible prophecy.

Now, the next verses here that are listed out for you in your notes, so you can easily compare them, are three places where these two desolating powers are illustrated; but, I want you to see a distinction.

In Daniel 8:13, it says,

> "[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice,~~"—

And I have removed the word sacrifice, because Ellen White and everyone, all hands agree it does not belong there.

> —"the daily and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" Daniel 8:13 (KJV).

Okay. Do you see that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is Paganism, and what else?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy.

All right. But, now if you go to Daniel 11:31, it says,

> "[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

Pagan Rome is going to stand up for the Papacy, and those arms are going to "pollute the sanctuary of strength." They are going to destroy the City of Rome over and over again in the warfare that takes place; and shall take away Paganism, "and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate."

Who is the abomination that maketh desolate?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who is the Daily?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Paganism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, here, Daniel is giving us an illustration of Paganism and Papalism, but it is a little bit different than verse 13. In verse 13 the Papacy is not the "abomination that maketh desolate," it is "the transgression of desolation."

Do you see that? Do you see that distinction?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. And then in Daniel 12:11, it says,

> "[11]And from the time that the daily [PAGANISM] shall be taken away [IN AD508], and the abomination that maketh desolate"—

Who is "the abomination that maketh desolate"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Papacy.

—"set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days." Daniel 12:11 (KJV).

So, what am I trying to get you to see here? That when portrayed in connection with the Daily in the Book of Daniel, when the Papacy is portrayed as the second desolating power in the Book of Daniel, the Daily is Paganism but the Papacy is portrayed in two different ways: one time it is "the transgression of desolation" in verse 13 of Daniel 8, and in Daniel 12:11 and 11:31 it is "the abomination that maketh desolate."

So, you see the differences, right?

And you, as students of prophecy, you want to know what the differences represent—do you not?—because, we have been told in the Spirit of Prophecy that every fact has its bearing. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what is the distinction that is being made there?

And the first clue is that in verse 12, which comes right before verse 13 of Daniel 8, it says an army, a host, was given the Papacy from Paganism by reason of transgression. Okay? So, if we can figure out what that transgression was that allowed the Papacy to take control of the military strength of these former Pagan kingdoms, then we might understand why the Papacy is sometimes referred to as "the transgression of desolation."

Do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because, it is the verse before.

TRANSGRESSION OF DESOLATION—COMBINATION OF CHURCH AND STATE

What allowed the Papacy to take control of the military strength of Pagan Rome was the combination of church and state. When Clovis became a Catholic, he dedicated his throne to placing the Papacy upon the throne of the Earth; but, he also came into a church-state alliance, and this is the transgression. "By reason of transgression," this is how the Papacy took control of those armies. The transgression is the combination of church and state.

ABOMINATION THAT MAKETH DESOLATE

But, what is "the abomination that maketh desolate"?

If you look up abomination, it says,

> ABOMINATION: H8251—disgusting*, that is, filthy; especially idolatrous or (concretely) an *idol: - abominable filth (idol, -ation), detestable (thing).

The word abomination in the Bible is associated with idol, I-D-O-L.

So, what I am saying is that the idol that represents the Papacy is the sun—okay?—the idol, the premier idol of the Papacy.

Brother Mark and Tara Marie sent us a YouTube clip last week when we were talking about the Pantheon Temple, and it was a nice little clip. But, in the Pantheon Temple, it purposely has this great big hole, this perfect, perfect hole in the top of the Pantheon. So, when it rains, the rain comes in; so, it is a purposeful hole. The hole in the roof is circular, but this hole is in there, and they give you this speculation about what the purpose of that hole is. The purpose of that hole is they were sun worshippers. It is a symbol of the sun, because that is the premier idol of Paganism and the Papacy; and, an idol is an abomination. So, when the Papacy is portrayed as "the abomination that maketh desolate," it is emphasizing its premier idol which is the sun: Sunday worship.

COMPLEMENT

You will notice in Acts of the Apostles, page 585, it says,

> "In the Revelation all the books of the Bible meet and end."—

That sentence there is a very important sentence. That is an argument that every single word that comes before Revelation is pointing to Revelation and meets its conclusion in Revelation, which tells you, as the Revelation is an illustration of the end of the world, that all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world.

> —"In the Revelation all the books of the Bible meet and end. Here is the complement of the book of Daniel."—

And a complement spelled with an "E" is different than a compliment spelled with an "I."

If I say, "You look nice today," it is a compliment with an "I."

But, the word complement with an "E," you see the definition, it means:

> COMPLEMENT: Fullness; completion; whence, perfection. Webste 's 1828 Dictionary.

So, when Sister White says here, in the Book of Revelation, is the complement of the Book of Daniel, she is saying that the Book of Revelation brings the Book of Daniel to perfection. They are the same book.

> —"One is a prophecy; the other a revelation. The book that was sealed is not the Revelation, but that portion of the prophecy of Daniel relating to the last days. The angel commanded, 'But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end.' Daniel 12:4." Acts of the Apostles, 585.

THE SAME LINE

The next quote, from Manuscript Releases, volume 9, page 8, says,

> "Revelation is a sealed book, but it is also an opened book. It records marvelous events that are to take place in the last days of this earth's history. The teachings of this book [REVELATION] are definite, not mystical and unintelligible. In it [THE BOOK OF THE REVELATION] the same line of prophecy is taken up as in Daniel. Some prophecies God has repeated, thus showing that importance must be given to them. The Lord does not repeat things that are of no great consequence." Manuscript Releases, volume 9, 8.

Okay. So, they are the same book.

So, why did I jump into identifying that Daniel and Revelation are the same book? I did so, because there are two symbols for the Papacy in the Book of Revelation that are premier symbols of the Papacy. One is the image of the beast, and one is the mark of the beast.

And the image of the beast we have dealt with more than once in this presentation is the combination of church and state, and the mark of the beast is The Sunday Law.

So, what I am suggesting to you is because the same line of prophecy taken up in the Book of Revelation as is found in the Book of Daniel that when the Papacy is portrayed as "the transgression of desolation" in Daniel 8:13, it is emphasizing how the Papacy took control of the armies of these Pagan kingdoms, and it did so by the combination of church and state. And in the Book of Revelation, this "transgression of desolation" is identified as the image of the beast—all right?—because, there is only one definition of the image of the beast given in Inspiration: it is the combination of church and state, with the church in control of that relationship.

But, when the Papacy is identified as "the abomination that maketh desolate" in the Book of Daniel—and an abomination is an idol—it is emphasizing its premier idol. And in the Book of Revelation, when it is being represented by John, it is represented as "the mark of the beast." So, the two characteristics of the Papacy in both Daniel and Revelation are the image of the beast and the mark of the beast; or, as Daniel would say, "the transgression of desolation" and "the abomination that maketh desolate."

And you have references for this below your notes that we have looked at previously in these presentations. Now, I am not reading these definitions of the image of the beast and the mark of the beast:

Selected Messages, book 2, page 359:

> "The Protestant world have set up an idol sabbath in the place where God's Sabbath should be, and they are treading in the footsteps of the Papacy." Selected Messages, book 2, 359.

PAPAL SUNDAY LAW—538

Third Synod at Orleans, the seventh of May

Review and Herald, April 29, 1890:

> "No law has ever been made to exalt the idol sabbath but that Satan has taken a leading part in its enactment and its enforcement. Every law for the elevation of Sunday has a direct reference to the fourth commandment. Every move that has been made to enforce its observance, is for the purpose of exalting the man of sin above God and above all that is worshiped. Satan would have us exalt the idol sabbath, but we cannot do it, for it would be disloyalty to God. In the face of Nebuchadnezzar's decree of death, the three Hebrew children refused to bend the knee, preferring to be cast into the fiery furnace rather than bow to the golden image. They declared they were not careful to answer the king, and said, 'If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O King, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.'" Review and Herald, April 29, 1890.

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 977:

"Sundaykeeping is not yet the mark of the beast, and will not be until the decree goes forth causing men to worship this idol sabbath. The time will come when this day will be the test, but that time has not come yet." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 977.

THE MARK AND THE IMAGE OF THE BEAST

The Great Controversy, page 445:

"The 'image to the beast' represents that form of apostate Protestantism which will be developed when the Protestant churches shall seek the aid of the civil power for the enforcement of their dogmas. The 'mark of the beast' still remains to be defined." The Great Controversy, 445.

The Great Controversy, pages 448-449:

"The enforcement of Sundaykeeping on the part of Protestant churches is an enforcement of the worship of the papacy—of the beast. Those who, understanding the claims of the fourth commandment, choose to observe the false instead of the true Sabbath are thereby paying homage to that power by which alone it is commanded. But in the very act of enforcing a religious duty by secular power, the churches would themselves form an image to the beast; hence the enforcement of Sundaykeeping in the United States would be an enforcement of the worship of the beast and his image." The Great Controversy, 448–449.

Do you get my point?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

THE TRAMPLING DOWN?

"[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice,~~ and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" Daniel 8:13 (KJV).

In verse 13 of Daniel 8, where it says "The Trampling Down?" I want you to see something about these three verses that we just looked at, where we see "the transgression of desolation," and "the abomination that maketh desolate," and "the abomination that maketh desolate."

Daniel 8:13, Daniel 11:31, and Daniel 12:11 teach different things about these histories.

THE PLACING—AD538

We will start with "The Placing."

In verse 31 of Daniel 11, it says,

> "[31]And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate." Daniel 11:31 (KJV).

The Papacy (the abomination that maketh desolate) was placed on the throne of the Earth in AD538.

And in May of AD538, if you back up in your notes, you will see a reference that says "Third Synod at Orleans, the seventh of May." In May of 538, they passed a Sunday law.

And in 538 there is also a Sunday law that is marked in history, as was Constantine's in AD321.

THE SETTING UP—AD508

Then in Daniel 12:11, it says,

> "[12]And from the time that the daily [PAGANISM] shall be taken away [IN AD508], and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days." Daniel 12:11 (KJV).

This verse is not emphasizing when the Papacy was placed upon the throne of the Earth; it is pointing up the setting up process that begins in AD508 to 538.

There are different truths about these desolating powers.

So, if you go back up to verse 13 [under the subtitle "The Trampling Down?"] that verse is not emphasizing about these two desolating powers (Paganism and Papalism); it is what they are going to do. They are going to give the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot.

It does not say they are going to trod the sanctuary under foot. It does not say they are going to trod the host under foot. It says they are going to trod both the sanctuary and the host down. Two entities, both of them are going to do it: Paganism is going to do it; Papalism is going to do it. It is going to tread down these two entities.

STUDY 41

TWO VISIONS

THE C N

Daniel 8:1-2, 15-17, 26-27

This is Presentation #83. In Presentation #41 we spent some time to identify that in Daniel 8 there are two visions. In the Book of Daniel there are two visions; although, some people will protest that there are actually three, and there is.

But, in Daniel 8 we have the c n and the mareh; but, we will find that the mareh in chapter 10 of Daniel takes a feminine tense and it adds light to what this represents.

But, in Daniel 8 we are looking at the mareh and the c n , these two visions. And these two Hebrew words that are translated as vision in Daniel, chapter 8, occur 10 times in the chapter. You see the verses where you can see the c n vision, and you can see the verses where you can find the mareh vision.

> C : *Strong's Concordance H2377—From H2372; a sight (mentally), that is, a dream, revelation, or oracle:—vision.

And CH , you see the definition: a dream, a revelation, or oracle:—vision. The c n is a vision, a prophetic dream that a prophet sees, a prophetic vision that they see.

THE MAREH

Daniel 8:26, 14, 16

> MAREH*: *Strong's Concordance H4758—From H7200; a view (the act of seeing); also an appearance (the thing seen), whether (real) a shape (especially if handsome, comeliness; often plural the looks), or (mental) a vision: - X apparently, appearance (-reth), X as soon as beautiful (-ly), countenance, fair, favoured, form, goodly, to look (up) on (to), look [-eth], pattern, to see, seem, sight, visage, vision.

MAREH, the other word that is translated as vision, you see the definition: It is the appearance. It is the act of seeing an appearance. And, you can see the definition of this word illustrated in Daniel, chapter 8.

If you go to Daniel, chapter 8, verse 15, it says in verse 15,

> "[15]And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold there stood before me as the appearance of a man." Daniel 8:15 (KJV).

This word translated as appearance is mareh. In the other places that this word is used in Daniel, chapter 8, it is translated as vision; but, here, the same word mareh is translated as appearance. And this is pretty much the definition of this word, and this is why they did this.

So, these two visions, if you do not make a distinction with them, if you are a real casual surface reader and you see vision 10 times in Daniel and you assume, "Well, it is the same thing every time," then you will miss a great deal of light that can be derived if you make the distinction between these two words.

Okay. We are going to spend some time with these two words over the next several days; but, we are just putting that in place.

VERSE 13

> "[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the [C N] vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice,~~ and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" Daniel 8:13 (KJV).

In verse 13, and that is what we are dealing with now, Daniel 8:13, when he says, "How long shall be the vision concerning the daily and the transgression of desolation?" that word vision there is the c n vision. And the c n vision in the context of Daniel 8 begins in verse 2 and goes all the way at least through verse 13. That is the c n vision. It is the vision of prophetic history that Daniel sees of the kingdoms of Bible prophecy. All right? It is not the appearance. The appearance we will define later.

Okay. You can see Sister White's statement about the word sacrifice not belonging to the text, Early Writings, page 74.

> "Then I saw in relation to the 'daily' (Daniel 8:12) that the word 'sacrifice' was supplied by man's wisdom, and does not belong to the text" Early Writings, 74.

So, we have taken that [the word sacrifice] out.

THAT CERTAIN SAINT

> PALMONI: the wonderful numberer or the numberer of secrets.

Now, drop down to "That Certain Saint."
Daniel 8:13, it says,

> "[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain *saint which spake, How long shall be the [CH N] vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice~~, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" Daniel 8:13 (KJV).

And if you have a marginal reference for "that certain saint," it is Palmoni. It means The Wonderful Numberer, or The Numberer of Secrets." And I think it is Isaiah 9:6, that Christ's name was going to be Wonderful: "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." He is The Wonderful Numberer.

And, we have spent some time here earlier in Habakkuk's Two Tables in identifying that when Christ is portrayed as Michael, it is always a symbol of the Great Controversy. Every time Michael is portrayed, whether it is in the Book of Revelation, the Book of Jude, or the Book of Daniel, He is in confrontation with Satan. Okay? So, when you see Christ portrayed as Michael, it is teaching you that it is a symbol, a story that directly relates to the Great Controversy.

The Lion of the Tribe of Judah, when you see Christ portrayed as The Lion of the Tribe of Judah, it can be representing that He is the King; but, also The Lion of the Tribe of Judah can represent that He is the One that has been given the authority to both close God's Word up to the understanding of His people and to open the Book to His people. When the Book of Daniel is unsealed in 1798, it was The Lion of the Tribe of Judah that did so.

So, what I am saying here is that when words are used to illustrate Christ, we are supposed to understand the implications of those words. And here in Daniel 8:13, Christ is Palmoni, He is The Wonderful Numberer, which teaches you that when you come to verse 13 of Daniel 8, which is the question, and verse 14, which is the answer, that you know that Christ here is telling you that He is the One that numbers the Bible. And there are so many ways that this is manifested that I will not try to illustrate it. But, so you know that verse 13 has something to do with time prophecy.

And you see the quote from Education, page 123:

> "Every principle in the word of God has its place, every fact its bearing. And the complete structure, in design and execution, bears testimony to its Author. Such a structure no mind but that of the Infinite could conceive or fashion." Education, 123.

HOW LONG?

Okay. "How long?"

Now, we are dealing with controversies as we go along; and, when it comes to those people that have the false view of the Daily in Adventism—I am not going to get into explaining their logic why—but, when it comes to verse 13 where it says,

> "[13]. . . "How long shall be the [CH N] vision concerning the daily and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" Daniel 8:13 (KJV).

The answer is in verse 14: "Until 1844."

> "[14]And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." Daniel 8:14 (KJV).

But, because of their misunderstanding about the Daily, they cannot uphold—if you uphold this question "How long?" as representing duration, it destroys their false teaching of the Daily. In fact, this is William Miller's Rule, William Miller's argument. We will show you that as we proceed. If you have the wrong view of the Daily, you destroy the 2300 years, period! You do so!

And in an attempt to undermine that argument of William Miller, they will emphasize that the word that is translated as How long? here in verse 13 actually means when. Okay? Because, if the question is when, then it is talking about the point in time; but, if the question How long?, it is talking about duration.

And, I agree that there are some places in the Scriptures where this word that is translated as How long? has a connotation of when; but, by the context, it is about duration.

And, of course, if you look up the definition, it will tell you that it is duration, too.

> HOW LONG: Strong's Concordance H5704—Properly the same as H5703 (used as a preposition, adverb or conjugation; especially with a preposition); as far (or long, or much) as, whether of space (even unto) or time (during, while, until) or degree (equally with): - against, and, as, at, before, by (that), even (to), for (-as much as), [hither-] to, + how long, into, as long (much) as, (so) that, till, toward, until, when, while, (+ as) yet. H5703—From H5710; properly a (peremptory) terminus, that is, (by implication) duration, in the sense of perpetuity (substantially as a noun, either with or without a preposition): - eternity, ever (-lasting, -more), old, perpetually, + world without end.

> H4970—From an unused root meaning to extend; properly extent (of time); but used only adverbially (especially with other particles prefixed), when (either relative or interrogative): - long, when.

So, I am just giving you that point, that the subject How long? is important. This is part of the arguments of these followers of Antiochus Epiphanes, way back at the beginning of Adventism that are still among us today.

So, by context, you can understand How long? can be duration.

Psalm 74:1-10; Daniel 12:5-7; Zechariah 1:12; Revelation 6:9-10

Go to Psalm 74, beginning in verse 1. All the prophets agree with one another, 1 Corinthians 14:32-33: "And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints."

So, all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world. So, when one prophet is saying, "How long?" if the context is the same context and the other prophet says "How long?" then you know it is the same question.

And in Psalm 74, beginning in verse 1, it says—and this is an important passage.

> "[1] O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture? [2] Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt. [3] Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations;"—

Okay. This is about the desolation of Jerusalem, right? And, that is what Daniel 8:13 is all about, that Paganism and Papalism are going to trample down the sanctuary and the host. This is the same context, and there is going to be a question of "How long?" in here.

> —"[3] Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations, even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary."—

So, this is about the destruction of the sanctuary. It says,

> —"[4] Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs."—

This is what Jesus is quoting from in Matthew 24:15. He says, "When ye therefore shall see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)" And Sister White is clear that when Pagan Rome set their ensign up in the sacred precincts of the sanctuary, that was a sign to the Christians to flee Jerusalem because it was about to be destroyed.

So, here is where Jesus is getting the point of reference for that prophecy. He says,

—"[4] Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs. [5] A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees."—

Thus, referring to Hiram, who cut down the trees for Solomon to build the sanctuary. He was famous for doing so.

Verse 6,

—"[6] But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers."—

This is about the destruction of the sanctuary, AD70; and, also, when Nebuchadnezzar destroyed it.

—"[7] They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. [8] They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land. [9] We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long. [10] O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever? Psalm 74:1-10 (KJV).

Now, this is the same question. It is the same subject, about the trampling down of the sanctuary; and, there is no way here that you are going to interpret this "How long?" as when. This is about how long is this going to keep going on?

So, what I am saying is, in verse 13 of Daniel 8, the context of the Bible tells you that this "How long?" is about duration.

And, of course, this passage corresponds to the passage we are considering.

Go to Daniel 12:5-7.

"[5]Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river,"—

There were two.

Where were they? There was one on this side of the river and the other on that side of the river.

Verse 6,

—"[6]And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river,"—

Who is it that walks upon the waters—and it is not Peter—who is it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ the Lord.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is Christ walking upon the water, with an angel on one side and an angel on the other side.

—"How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?"—

There is the question again: "How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?"

> —"[7]And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river,"—

This is who? Who is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ again.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Try again. Who is this?

This is Palmoni; because, He is going to give us some wonderful numbers right now. All right?

> —"[7] And I heard the man clothed in linen [WHO IS CHRIST] which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished." Daniel 12:5-7 (KJV).

So, what is the "time, times, and an half," particularly in the context of Daniel 12?

Daniel 12, the Book of Daniel is sealed up until the time of the end; and, we know the time of the end is what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1798.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1798.

So, now, Palmoni has raised up His hand and says, ". . . it shall be for a time, times, and an half; . . ." That is the 1260. Okay?

[Marking on the whiteboard.]

And that takes us back to AD538.

What happens here? He accomplishes . . . ? *Accomplishes?

What does that mean, He accomplishes . . . ? Shall be finished?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And the scattering, this here is the scattering and it finishes in 1798, right here.

And what is He scattering?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The power of His people.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The power of God's holy people. Right?

Okay. We have put that in the record. We will have more to say about that later.

In Zechariah 1:12 says,

> "[12]Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years? Zechariah 1:12 (KJV).

What is that? What are the threescore and ten years?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Seventy years.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Seventy years.

At the end of the 70 years—where is the 70 years? That would be way back here, right?

And there is a question, "How long?"

And, I just said these questions are all the same.

God had indignation against the sanctuary and the host in this time period [70 years], had he not? He had destroyed the sanctuary here, or allowed the sanctuary to be destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar, and the host were trampled down and they were carried to Babylon. Correct?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, it is the same history; only, we are looking at Daniel 12 saying that this scattering (this trampling down) ends in 1798. So, we are seeing some prophetic expansion to what this truth means.

And this is a reference we have had in Habakkuk's Two Tables four times so far from Prophets and Kings, page 714.

> "God's church on earth was as verily in captivity during this long period of relentless persecution"—

Right here, these 1260 years.

> —"as were the children of Israel held captive in Babylon during the period of the exile." Prophets and Kings, 714.

So, Sister White just compares these 70 years with these 1260 years. So, this is the same thing, because all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world.

This history [the 70 years] is illustrating this history [of the 1260 years].

And the question is, "How long?"

And if we go to Revelation 6, in the Fifth Seal, beginning in verse 9, it says,

> "[9]And when he had opened the fifth seal,"—

And the Fourth Seal represents this history here, the 1260 years.

> —"[9]And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: [10]And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?" Revelation 6:9-10 (KJV).

At the end of the 70 years, Zechariah asked the question, "How long until you have mercy on Jerusalem?"

At the end of the 1260 years, the martyrs of this 1260 years says, "How long until you judge the Papacy for persecuting us during this time period?"

It is the same question, just broadening the understanding of this history.

But, this history here [the 70 years] and this history here [the 1260 years], it is the same history prophetically—right?—'Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto Palmoni which spake, How long shall be the chazon vision concerning Paganism and Papalism, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?'

Do you see it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, let us add some to this.

Luke 21:20-24; Revelation 11:2-3

Go to Luke 21, beginning in verse 20.

"[20]And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh."—

What is that? What is that?

Where have we read this already?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD70.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You are saying that is AD70.

How many believe that is AD70?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

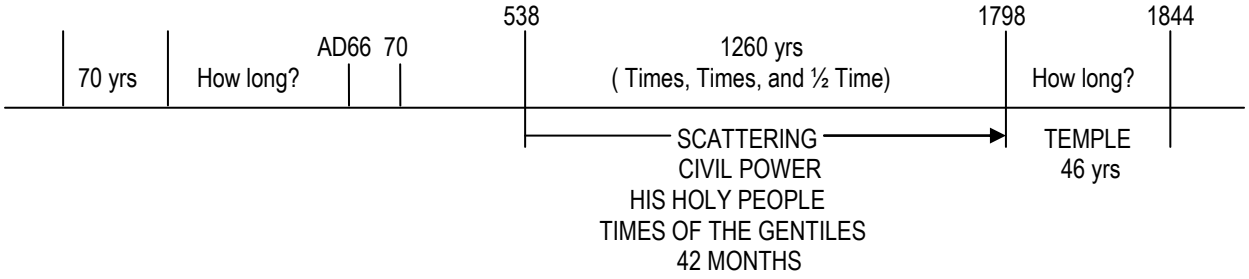

Figure No. 169B.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is AD66; but, you want to put AD70 somewhere in there, too.

But, that is not my point. It was not my question.

Where have we seen this? We have seen this in Psalm 74. Okay? This is the sign. The enemies have set up their ensigns as signs.

In AD66 the sign is set up identifying that Jerusalem is about to be destroyed.

Verse 21:

—"[21]Then let them which are of Judaea flee to the mountains, and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. [22]For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. [23]But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! For there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. [24]And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." Luke 21:20-24 (KJV).

So, Jesus is saying here [AD70] that Jerusalem is going to be trodden down until this Times of the Gentiles is fulfilled.

Now, you might think that that is right here in AD70, but it is not. We are going to show you that it is not.

And I am trying to show you that the scattering and the Times of the Gentiles are interchangeable terms here.

Go to Revelation 11:2-3. This is review for most of us in this room. I do not know that it is for people watching on LiveStream or perhaps on DVD; and, I do not want to weary anyone's mind that is here today because we have four presentations following by Emiliano. But, we are going to go to Revelation 11, verses 2 and 3; and, I want to tell you that we only have a few minutes left. And in the few minutes that we have left, we are going to pull at least one trigger. So, focus in now. Okay?

This is Revelation 11, beginning at verse 2:

"[2]But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months."—

Here is the trampling down of Jerusalem, right? This is Daniel 8:13. And here the Gentiles, the Times of the Gentiles (Luke 21:24), Jerusalem is going to be trodden down until the Times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. And here [in Revelation 11:2] it says, "Leave off the courtyard because it is given to the Gentiles, and they shall tread down the holy city"—that is Jerusalem—"for 42 months.

So, when do the Times of the Gentiles end?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1798.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1798.

So, we have a false teaching in Adventism saying the Time of the Gentiles ends in the Six-Day War in 1967, or whatever. That is based upon Catholic rules of prophetic interpretation, if it is not based upon the Word of God.

The Times of the Gentiles is 42 months.

But, what is John doing in Revelation 11, verses 1, 2 and 3? He is given a rod to measure the temple and the worshippers therein.

It says, "Measure the temple and the worshippers therein, but leave off the 42 months because it is given to the Gentiles."

And, John is told to do this in Revelation 11:1, which comes right after Revelation 10 (verses 8, 9, 10, and 11). And in Revelation 10, verses 8, 9, 10, and 11, John has just eaten the Little Book. It is sweet in his mouth and becomes bitter in his stomach. So, John is standing in October 22, 1844. And in verse 11 He is saying, "You must prophesy again."

And then in chapter 11, verse 1, He says, standing in 1844, "Measure the temple, but leave off the courtyard," which is the 42 months.

So, He is saying, "Measure this history [AD538 to 1798], but leave this off [1798 to 1844]." In other words, the temple here that John is measuring is the 46 years from 1798 to 1844. Right? That is what John is measuring.

> —"[3]And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth." Revelation 11:2-3 (KJV).

In your notes you will see two quotes there that Sister White tells you two things, if you read them carefully.

The first quote, The Desire of Ages, page 630:

> "From the destruction of Jerusalem, Christ passed on rapidly to the greater event, the last link in the chain of this earth's history,—the coming of the Son of God in majesty and glory. Between these two events, there lay open to Christ's view long centuries of darkness, centuries for His church marked with blood and tears and agony. Upon these scenes His disciples could not then endure to look, and Jesus passed them by with a brief mention. 'Then shall be great tribulation,' He said, 'such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.' For more than a thousand years such persecution as the world had never before known was to come upon Christ's followers. Millions upon millions of His faithful witnesses were to be slain. Had not God's hand been stretched out to preserve His people, all would have perished. 'But for the elect's sake,' He said, 'those days shall be shortened.'" The Desire of Ages, 630.

This was talking about the destruction of Jerusalem to the Disciples, that He was portraying the destruction of Jerusalem, AND the terrors of the last days down here when human probation closes, AND the history of the Papacy from AD538 to 1798.

And then in The Great Controversy, page 25, she says,

> "The future was mercifully veiled from the disciples. Had they at that time fully comprehended the two awful facts,—the Redeemer's sufferings and death and the destruction of their city and temple,—they would have been overwhelmed with horror. Christ presented before them an outline of the prominent events to take place before the close of time. His words were not then fully understood; but their meaning was to be unfolded as his people should need the instruction therein given. The prophecy which he uttered was twofold in its meaning: while foreshadowing the destruction of Jerusalem, it prefigured also the terrors of the last great day." The Great Controversy, 25.

He [Christ] is talking about the destruction of Jerusalem and this history [AD538 to 1798]. And line upon line tells you that Jesus is using the history of the destruction of Jerusalem to illustrate the 1260 years of Papal rule, and the time period of the Seven Last Plagues. Okay?

So, you have two references there to show you that.

Now, I want to deal with something that maybe you have not looked at before. I am going to skip over, because of time, the page where it says Daniel 7:25.

Daniel 7:25; 9:26-27; 12:11

> "[25]And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall war out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time." Daniel 7:25 (KJV).

Daniel 7:25 is identifying this time period, the 1260 years of Papal rule.

Daniel 9:26-27:

> "[26]And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. [27]And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week; and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, given until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate [MARGIN: DESOLATOR]." Daniel 9:26-27 (KJV).

Daniel 9:26 and 27 is identifying the two desolating powers. The one is the prince that comes and destroys the city in Daniel 9:26; but, unto the end of the war a flood is going to take place, and Daniel 12:11[32] tells us the flood is this period [the 1260 years].

> "[11]And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days." Daniel 12:11 (KJV).

So, Daniel 9:26-27 is talking about these two desolating powers.
But, I want to go back to Daniel 12:7 to close this study out and spend some time there.
Follow this. This is the one thing to follow. Follow it all, but . . .

> "[7]And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished." Daniel 12:7 (KJV).

Okay. I want to know what the power of His holy people is.

POWER IN THE BOOK OF DANIEL

2:37; 3:27; 4:30; 6:27; 8:6-7, 23-24; 11:6, 25, 43; Leviticus 26:18-19, 33-35

[32] Corrects DVD audio from Revelation 12 to Daniel 12:11.

So, you see "Power in the Book of Daniel" in your notes. In Daniel 2:37—go to Daniel 2:37.

I will just give you a couple of these. We will not read them all.

But, in Daniel 2:37, we are looking at what power means. We want to know what the power of His holy people is. Right? Because, he is going to scatter the power of His holy people.

Daniel 2:37 says,

> "[37]Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory." Daniel 2:37 (KJV).

What I want you to see is, every time that Daniel uses power in his book, it represents the power of a king—okay?—a monarchy, a civil power every single time.

Go to Daniel 3:27.

> "[27]And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them." Daniel 3:27 (KJV).

What happened? They [Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego] had just been thrown into the burning fire by whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: By Nebuchadnezzar.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The king's power had them thrown in the fire. It had no power; the king had no power.

Okay. It does not matter. You go to [Daniel], chapter 4, verse 30,

> "[30]The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty? Daniel 4:30 (KJV).

There is the king's power.

You have got all the references to power there. You look them up. You test it out and see if I am pulling your leg.

Daniel 6:27:

> "[27]He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions." Daniel 6:27 (KJV).

Daniel 8:6-7:

> "[6]And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power. [7]And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand." Daniel 8:6-7 (KJV).

Daniel 8:23-24:

"[23]And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. [24]And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power, and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people." Daniel 8:23-24 (KJV).

Daniel 11:6:

"[6]And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times." Daniel 11:6 (KJV).

Daniel 11:25:

[25]And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him." Daniel 11:25 (KJV).

Daniel 11:43:

"[43]But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps." (Daniel 11:43 (KJV).

Every time power is mentioned in the Book of Daniel, in one way or another it is emphasizing the power of a king. All right?

Are you with me?

So, what does that mean? What does that mean?

Well, if you go back to verse 7 of Daniel 12, which is what we are looking at now, it says, ". . . ; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished." Daniel 12:7 (KJV).

This scattering of this time, times, and an half time, what is being accomplished is that he is dealing with the power of the holy people. He has scattered the power of the holy people; therefore, he has scattered—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —civil power; kings. This is the power of a king that has been scattered, is it not?

By the context of Daniel, power represents the power of a monarchy.

Are you with me?

Okay. Go to Leviticus 26:18-19. Beginning with verse 18, it says,

> "[18]And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. [19]And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass: . . ." Leviticus 26:18-19 (KJV).

Whatever this seven times is, when the seven times comes into—when it is fulfilled because Israel breaks the statutes, one of the things that happens is that He is going to break the pride of their power.

What is their power? It is a monarchy. It is their civil government. He is going to break their civil government as represented by a king; but, not simply their king; it is the pride of their power.

Now, in our last presentation or two we read a quote about Samuel thinking he was rejected when Israel rejected God and wanted a king. And in the quote that we read, which is right at the bottom of your page of notes—no.

While you are still in Leviticus, go to verses 33-35. I want you to see something. I almost passed over that.

Verse 33 is still talking about the curse that takes place when the pride of their power is broken. It says,

> "[33]And I will scatter you"—

He is going to scatter the power of the holy people. And part of the curse is that He is going to break the pride of their power, but He is going to scatter them in verse 33.

> —"[33]Ad I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. [34]Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies; land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths." Leviticus 26:33-34 (KJV).

And on to verse 35; we will not deal with that today.

PRIDE

But now, in our previous quote when we were dealing with Israel rejecting the Lord and wanting a king, Sister White says why they did so.

It says, from Patriarchs and Prophets, page 604,

> "Samuel saw that their real motive was discontent and pride, and that their demand was the result of a deliberate and determined purpose. No complaint had been made against Samuel. All acknowledged the integrity and wisdom of his administration; but the aged prophet looked upon the request as a censure upon himself, and a direct effort to set him aside. He did not, however, reveal his feelings; he uttered no reproach, but carried the matter to the Lord in prayer and sought counsel from Him alone." Patriarchs and Prophets, 604.

It was their pride that wanted them to have a king.

Notice this next quote from Spirit of Prophecy, volume 1, page 355:

> "But the people would not receive the advice of Samuel, and continued to demand a king. 'And the Lord said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee; for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.' Here, God granted to rebellious Israel that which would prove a heavy curse to them, because they would not submit to have the Lord rule over them. They thought that it would be more honorable in the sight of other nations to have it said, The Hebrews have a king. The Lord directed Samuel to anoint Saul as king of Israel. His appearance was noble, such as would suit the pride of the children of Israel. But God gave them an exhibition of his displeasure. It was not a season of the year when they were visited with heavy rains accompanied with thunder. 'So Samuel called unto the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder and rain that day. And all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel. And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the Lord thy God, that we die not; for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king.' Samuel sought to encourage the people, that although they had sinned, yet if they from that time followed the Lord, he would not forsake them, for his great name's sake. 'Moreover, as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you; but I will teach you the good and the right way; only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things he hath done for you. But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king.'" Spirit of Prophecy, volume 1, 355.

When the Lord is going to break the pride of their power, it means He is going to punish their king at the beginning of this seven times. Okay? Because, the power of the holy people is going to be scattered, and the power in the Book of Daniel is only a king.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

Nehemiah 9:32; 2 Chronicles 33:10-12; 2 Kings 21:10-16; 1 Kings 14:20-21; Deuteronomy 7:6; Daniel 8:24

Go to Nehemiah 9:32. We are almost done here.

This is in this history. They have come out of Babylon after the 70 years.

Okay. Nehemiah 9:32. Nehemiah says in Nehemiah 9:32:

> "[32]Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the"—WHAT?—"since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day." Nehemiah 9:32 (KJV).

Well, the problems that had been going on here according to God's Word, according to Nehemiah, started with the kings of Assyria.

The kings of Assyria: of course, we know that in 723BC, the kings of Assyria removed the Northern Kingdom out of history. Right? It scattered them! And, when it did so, it conquered the king of Israel. It broke the pride of Israel. Right?

But, then we know that the Assyrians took Manasseh captive and broke the pride of Judah's power in 677BC.

Now, there is an argument that is brought by the people that want to stay blind; and, they say, "Well, Manasseh repented."

Well, there is no argument there. You have to deal with Nehemiah. Nehemiah says in verse 32 that from the days of the Assyrian kings until this time—way down here [between the end of the 70 years and AD66]—that the kings, the princes, they have been in subjection to these Pagan powers.

So, it is here in this history [from 723BC to 677] where the price of their power was broken and scattered. Get it? It was in this history back here.

But, we are looking at Daniel 12:7, where He is going to finish the scattering of the power of the holy people in AD1798. Right?

So, go to 2 Chronicles 33:10-12. Almost done.

We should know this one. This one is enshrined upon this [1843] Chart, the starting point for the 2520.

But, beginning in verse 10, it says,

> "[10]And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken. [11]Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria,"—

That is what Nehemiah said.

> —"which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. [12]And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers." 2 Chronicles 33:10-12 (KJV).

But, it was too late. The pride of Judah's power had been broken; and, even though he had repented, he was from that point on in subjection to the Pagan kings around them, and they are still in subjection in this history [after the 70 years], when Nehemiah says, "to this very day."

The pride of their power was broken right here [677BC].
Okay. 2 Kings 21—almost finished—2 Kings 21:10-16 says,

> "[10] And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying, [11] Because Manasseh"—

"I thought Manasseh repented" [the argument of the people that want to stay blind]? Just follow along.

> —"[11] Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols: [12] Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle. [13] And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down. [14] And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; [15] Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day. [16] Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD." 2 Kings 21:10-16 (KJV).

Here, the same punishment that came upon the House of Israel, this plummet [in 723BC]—which in Habakkuk's Two Tables we have already let the Bible define as the 2520—this plummet is going to be stretched over Judah. The same punishment that was placed upon the Northern Kingdom (the House of Ahab) is going to be placed upon Manasseh [Judah, the Southern Kingdom].

And the beginning point of either of these plummets is the breaking of the pride of the power.

> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: And the scattering.

So, in 1 Kings—we are almost done [smiling]—14:20-21; 1 Kings 14:20-21 says,

> "[20] And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.
> "[21] And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess." 1 Kings 14:20-21 (KJV).

Now, here we have the story of the separation of the two kingdoms (the Southern Kingdom and the Northern Ten Tribes), and what does it tell us? That the Lord chose Jerusalem. He is choosing Jerusalem. Okay? He is not choosing the Northern Kingdom; He is choosing Jerusalem.

Go to Deuteronomy 7:6.

And you can find this throughout Moses's writings. We are going to look at one reference to make a point in closing, Deuteronomy 7:6.

What I am saying is that the Lord is specific in whom He chose. He chose Judah; He chose Jerusalem. He did not choose Jeroboam; He chose Rehoboam.

Jerusalem is what is being trampled down. It is the chosen city, all the way through.

And, verse 6 of Deuteronomy, chapter 7, says,

> "[6]For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, and all people that are upon the face of the earth." Deuteronomy 7:6 (KJV).

So, the Lord chose Ancient Israel to be what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A special people.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A special people; and, what were they? A holy people.

Now, we need to know this; because, in Daniel 12:7 He scattered the power of the holy people. Okay?

And what is the power of the holy people?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The king.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The king, the king.

So, this time, times and an half time that is accomplished in 1798, what is being emphasized about it is this is the end of the scattering of the holy people and the breaking of the pride of their power.

Go to Daniel 8:24, so you can see how Daniel understands the holy people.

Daniel 8:24, speaking of Rome; and, it says,

> "[24]And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power;"—

Once again, power being associated with a kingdom, a king; Rome.

> "and he shall destroy wonderfully and shall prosper, and practise and shall destroy the mighty and"—

The what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: —"the holy people." Daniel 8:24 (KJV).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Who are the holy people?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Now we are dealing with closing with Daniel 12:7.

Here is Palmoni (The Wonderful Numberer) on the water, lifts up His hand unto Heaven and says when the question is asked, "How long?", "it shall be for a time, times, and the dividing of time," until He has accomplished the scattering of the power of His holy people.

Well, in AD538 to 1798, who was His holy people?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Christian Church.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Christian Church.

Okay. And where was it in Christianity within this history, what was the date, that the Christian Church selected a king?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD538?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They never did. They never did. The Christian Church never had a king.

So, the scattering of the power of the holy people is referencing the beginning of a time prophecy when the holy people (God's people) had a king; therefore, in verse 7 of Daniel 12 what is being referenced is not simply the time, times and an half time but the seven times that begins [723BC and ends in AD1798 for the Northern Kingdom]; and, this one [begins 677BC] and should go to here [ends in AD1844 for the Southern Kingdom].

So, Daniel 12:7, the time, times, and half a time is referencing the seven times when the kings, when the power of their pride, were broken to start the seven times scattering.

So, we are not done with verse 13 of Daniel 8.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to understand that the Books of Daniel and Revelation are the same book and that they are illustrating two desolating powers that are represented by Rome in order that we can understand not only the prophetic history that you used to establish the Millerites at the beginning of Adventism but that this history would prepare us to understand the history that is unfolding on Planet Earth today. In either case, it is Rome that establishes the vision, and we need to understand who modern Rome is. We recently have a new pope placed upon the beast of Revelation 16. We see the United Nations ready to come together with the beast of Revelation 16. The Beast and the Dragon are prepared to strike; and, we see the False Prophet (the United States) preparing to push this threefold union upon the world and, once again, Rome (modern Rome) will be persecuting God's people, as it has done in past ages. We want to understand this past history to rightly divide what is taking place on Planet Earth today. So, we ask that you give us the discernment to come back upon the platform that you established at the beginning of this Movement and rightly divide the Books of Daniel and Revelation that we can be among those that are lifted up as your ensign in the near future to clarify these issues for those of your other children that are still in Babylon. We thank you for these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #84

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you for a night's rest. We ask that you would awaken us now to this initial study this morning, that you would grant us the presence of the Holy Spirit, that you would help us to understand some of the implications of the controversy in Adventism over the true and the false understanding of the Daily, that you help us to better understand Daniel, chapter 8, which represents the foundational truth of Adventism. We know that as human beings we have many things in us that prevent us from conveying the truth and understanding the truth correctly. We would ask that you would overrule all of those limitations, that you would take a coal from off the altar and touch my lips that the words that are conveyed would be not human words, not human ideas but concepts that would prepare your people to stand in these testing times that are just ahead. We know that in the time of the Latter Rain we are to ask for the Latter Rain, and we do so now; that we want the Latter Rain poured out upon us this day. We want our vessels purified that they might receive all that you have for us. So, we would ask that you forgive us of any transgressions, any missteps that we may have made. Make us clean vessels, that as we begin our study this morning you can speak to us. We ask for a continued blessing upon the work we are doing here with the production of the DVDs and the LiveStreaming. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Habakkuk's Two Tables series began long ago, the first part identifying that the Spirit of Prophecy upholds the truths on this [1843] Chart.

And, then we went into a rather long demonstration as Part 2 as how the truths on this [1843] Chart and these [1843 and 1850] Charts are actually typified in God's Word. They are a subject of the prophetic Word.

And now we are in the conclusion, and here we are demonstrating that the truths on these Charts can be defended from God's Word. We started with the Spirit of Prophecy, and then we looked at these Charts and the truths on the Charts typified in God's Word.

And we began by discussing the Daily, as in our conclusion here, as a truth that is sustainable by God's Word. And by "a truth," I mean a truth that agrees with the Pioneer understanding of the Daily.

So, certain things that we have put in place already concerning the Daily, because we are now at the point where we are going to begin moving away from the Daily and take up another truth on this [1843] Chart, which is the 2520; so, I am going to be trying to bind off some of these things that we have already discussed over the past couple of weeks about the Daily, and then maybe get back into Daniel 8 and move into the 2520.

One of the things that we have already looked at here recently, and I am going to give you a second witness to it before, there is much to say about this particular study [referencing timelines of Christ, the Word, and the Antichrist on the whiteboard]. This corner here can easily take three or four hours just to present this.

This pattern of Christ, Tracy, what is the date that Christ was born?

BROTHER TRACY: I don't know.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What do you usually say?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 4.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 4? 4BC?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I will admit on DVD, I do not know; but, we are going to put 4BC here for the birth of Christ. All right?

And He was 30 years in preparation. The Spirit of Prophecy and the Bible say He was 30 years old when He was baptized.

So, what I am saying here, this is the line of Christ up here. All right? And He was 30 years in preparation, and then he was empowered at the baptism. He was anointed. He was empowered, and He gave His testimony for 1260 days; and, after that He was crucified in the midst of the week. After that He was resurrected, and after that He ascended to Heaven.

And then in AD70, Jerusalem was destroyed, which Sister White informs us this is the symbol of the Seven Last Plagues.

And after that in AD100, he appears to John at the Isle of Patmos, and Sister White plainly says in the days of the early Christians, Christ came a second time. His first appearing was at His birth, and His second coming was at the Isle of Patmos when He gave the Revelation to John.

So, that quote in the Spirit of Prophecy tell us that when He came to see John on the Isle of Patmos, that represented the Second Coming, the destruction of Jerusalem as the Seven Last Plagues. His ascension, His resurrection, etc., this is the pattern of Christ in terms of waymarks.

This is about the covenant. And in this history, Hebrews tells us that He came to set aside the old and bring in the new. This is a change of dispensations in this history. It is one of the main teachings about this. Whether it is from the earthly sanctuary to the Heavenly Sanctuary, Old Testament to New Testament, there is a change in dispensations here.

But, it is about the covenant. He came to confirm the covenant with many for one week.

There are two primary components of the covenant in the Bible, and what is that? The covenant is based upon God's Word; but, a covenant has to be ratified with what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ's blood.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, this is the covenant here [the timeline of Christ], the part of the covenant that is ratified by blood.

But, in Revelation 11, in Revelation 11 we all know as Seventh-day Adventists that this is about the Old and New Testaments. It is about the Word.

And who is the Word?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ is the Word.

So, in Revelation 11 we see the Word that confirms the covenant. And in this history of the Word (the Old and New Testaments) runs parallel totally with the pattern of Christ; because, the Word is Christ.

These two lines together [the timelines of Christ and the Word] will give you the Word and the blood that confirms the covenant (these two witnesses).

Okay. So, if you go to Revelation 11, verse 3—we are going to go through this quickly, because we are not even close to our notes yet—Revelation 11:3 says,

"[3]And I will give power unto my two witnesses,"—

So, right here the Old and New Testaments are empowered in the time period of the French Revolution. And that is what this is, in verse 3.

—"[3]And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy"—

How long? 1260 days.

> —"a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth." Revelation 11:3 (KJV).

How long did Christ give His testimony in person? 1260 days.

Okay. And then what happens to the Old and New Testaments in verse 7?

Right on time, it says,

"[7]And when they shall have finished their testimony,"—

And they are going to give their testimony for 1260 days; so, at the end of 1260 days.

> —"[7]And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them." Revelation 11:7 (KJV).

Right here they are crucified, just as Christ was crucified, the same place, same time: no accidents in the Word of God.

Do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And then in verse 11, it says,

> "[11]And after three days"—THEY ARE DEAD—after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them." Revelation 11:11 (KJV).

They were resurrected, just as Christ was resurrected. They are following the pattern of Christ to the very letter.

And then in verse 12, it says,

> "[12]And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them." Revelation 11:12 (KJV).

They ascended, just like Christ ascended.

And where did Christ ascend to?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Heaven.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Heaven.

Where did they ascend to? Heaven. Okay? It is a parallel line, the second witness to the pattern of Christ.

Do you follow me?

And then in verse 13, it says,

> "[13]And the same hour was there a great earthquake,"—

That earthquake is the French Revolution.

> —"and the tenth part of the city"—

And a city in Bible prophecy is a kingdom, and the kingdom that is divided into 10 parts is Pagan Rome, and this earthquake is going to impact one-tenth of the city, because one-tenth of the tenfold division of Pagan Rome is France. And this earthquake is the French Revolution.

And it says,

> —"[13]And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven." Revelation 11:13 (KJV).

This was the French Revolution.

And Sister White tells us that the French Revolution is a symbol of the Seven Last Plagues, just like Sister White tells us that the destruction of Jerusalem is a symbol of the Seven Last Plagues. Okay?

And then in the next verse, verse 14, it says,

> "[14]The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly." Revelation 11:14 (KJV).

And the Third Woe represents the judgments that lead to the Second Coming of Christ.

Do you follow me?

Okay. So, you have got two witnesses here about the covenant of Life: You have got one of them giving the Word. And it is. This is prophetic language, and God's Word is always in prophetic language. The Bible says that God cannot lie. "God cannot lie" means that every word He speaks is going to be fulfilled. Every word He speaks is a prophecy, then.

So, Revelation 11 is God's Word that is confirming this history [of Christ]. It is giving a second witness to this history. And this history is the history of Christ where the blood is shed. So, these two histories are confirming the covenant, both with the Word and with the blood.

But, these two histories give you the pattern of the antichrist.

Antichrist: Paganism is set aside in AD508, right? And this is what this story is about [the history of Christ]. It is a change in dispensations. Jesus is setting aside the old and bringing in the new.

That is what is happening down here [with the timeline of the antichrist]. Paganism is being set aside to bring in Papalism: a change in dispensations. This is a counterfeit of Christ, but it is right on time.

AD508, Paganism is taken away.

Thirty years later, just like Christ, the Papacy is empowered to give its testimony for 1260 days, just like the French Revolution, just like Christ. And at the end of the 1260 days in 1798, the Papacy receives the deadly wound, just like the two witnesses [the Old and the New Testaments], just like Christ.

Then in Revelation 13:11 and Daniel 11:41 (The Sunday Law in the United States), the Papacy is resurrected back to life.

> "[11]And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." Revelation 13:11 (KJV).

> "[41]He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon." Daniel 11:41 (KJV).

And you can find tons of quotes in the Spirit of Prophecy that at The Sunday Law that is when the Papacy is revived and the tyranny is about to begin.

But, after the United States in Daniel 11:42, the Papacy is going to take control of the world.

> "[42]He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape." Daniel 11:42 (KJV).

It is going to ascend to the throne of the Earth. This is Revelation 17:17, when the United Nations (the Ten Kings) agree to give their kingdom unto the Beast (unto the Papacy) for one hour.

> "[17]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled." Revelation 17:17 (KJV).

So, the Papacy is following this history perfectly. And, then as we are following Daniel 11, we get to Daniel 12:1: Michael stands up, and the Seven Last Plagues come, and then the Second Coming of Christ.

> "[1]And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book." Daniel 12:1 (KJV).

So, there are the three witnesses. They are just absolutely simple and air-tight that confirm that there is a transition between Paganism and Papalism in this history [of the antichrist]. And the 30 years from AD508 to 538, it is confirming the Pioneer understanding that the Daily (Paganism) was taken away in 508.

So, this is an argument in support of the Pioneer position of the Daily is Paganism.

Okay. Another argument that we have already put in place: the Alpha Apostasy, Brothers and Sisters. It began in 1888, maybe a little bit before but at least in 1888.

In 1888 the Seventh-day Adventist Church in committee, all the leadership in one place, and they reject the Spirit of Prophecy and they reject the Bible; and, from this point on, they are marching into darkness. Okay?

And there are several issues that take place between 1888 and 1919, that generation; but, one of those issues is a prophetic argument. And the prophetic argument that comes into that history is over the Daily.

The primary movers and shakers to present the new view of the Daily are General Conference President A. G. Daniells, and W. W. Prescott. There are others on their side of the issue. But, they argue that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry, a Godly symbol.

Christ's Sanctuary ministry is Godly, is it not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Of course, Sister White says that teaching came from angels that were expelled from Heaven; but, that is what they are teaching; whereas, the Pioneers say that the Daily represents a satanic power, Paganism.

That is the Alpha Apostasy.

We are now in the Omega Apostasy; and, in the Omega Apostasy, in The Great Controversy Sister White says, "The events connected with the close of probation and the work of preparation for the time of trouble, are clearly presented. But multitudes have no more understanding of these important truths than if they had never been revealed." {GC88 594.1} And the paragraph that she introduces that thought from is she is talking about how the Jews since the time of Christ misunderstood prophecy. It is a paragraph talking about how the Jews misunderstood prophecy and, therefore, participated in the crucifixion of their Messiah because of a misunderstanding of prophecy.

And then she says to us, as a prophetess here at the end of the world, "The events connected with the close of probation . . . ."

Was the time of Christ a close of probation?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. This whole history [of Christ] are events connected with the close of probation; because, in AD70 it is all over for the Jews. Their probation closes officially in AD34; but, actually, when they participated in the crucifixion of the Messiah, their probation is closed. In fact, you can go all the way back when He was 12 years old in the temple. You can go all the way back to His birth and the Jews were beginning to reject the Messiah and, therefore, closed their probation.

So, this is the history with the events connected with the close of probation. Sister White says what caused the Jews, or allowed the Jews to be placed in the position where they would misunderstand what was going on; it was a misunderstanding of prophecy. And then, in the next paragraph, she says the events connected with the close of probation and the need for preparation for the time of trouble, have been clearly revealed.

Where are the events connected with the close of probation? Well, Daniel 11:40 through 45; because, in Daniel 12:1 Michael stands up. There is no clearer illustration of the events connected with the close of probation than the last six verses of Daniel 11. This is what we need to understand at the end of the world, are the events connected with the close of probation.

But, we now are at the end of the world and, therefore, we are in the Omega Apostasy. And in the Alpha Apostasy there was a prophetic argument; and, in the Omega Apostasy, there is a prophetic argument, and the prophetic argument is that the glorious land in Daniel 11:41 is either the United States of America (that is the correct view!) or it is the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

And this is not just a random guess about this. These are the prophetic facts!

In the Omega Apostasy in our day and age, if you understand correctly that the glorious land represents the United States of America at the time when the United States of America is passing The Sunday Law, then you are identifying the glorious land as a satanic power; because, it is going to force the whole world to worship the Beast. The glorious land is the United States, and it is a satanic power.

But, it does not matter whether it is the self-supporting ministries or the BRI [Bible Research Institute] at the General Conference; they teach you that the glorious land is the Seventh-day Adventist Church, a Godly power. It is the same argument!

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They have taken a symbol in the Alpha Apostasy that is a satanic symbol and said, "No, no! It is a Godly symbol."

But, it is more than that. This symbol here, the Daily, represents Paganism and Pagan Rome; and, Pagan Rome was the power that placed the Papacy on the throne of the Earth.

And in our history, this satanic power (the United States) is the power that places the Papacy on the throne of the Earth.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. This puts some significance to the correct understanding of the Daily. Okay? This is about the Alpha and Omega Apostasies.

Okay. When you go into the discussion of the Daily—and we are binding off "The Daily," if you do not know what we are doing. We will deal with this a little bit more—but it really breaks down to when you approach the Book of Daniel, it breaks down this way.

I do not know if people get my point here. I have been making this point for years: If you are on the wrong side of the understanding of the Book of Daniel in terms of the controversy in Adventism, then you think that Daniel is a careless writer. If you are on the right side, you know that Daniel is a careful writer. I will try to explain that to you.

There are two words that are translated as take away in the Book of Daniel. The Daily is sur. It is taken away. The Hebrew word sur is translated as take away. And in Daniel 11:31 when the Daily is taken away, and in Daniel 12:11 when the Daily is taken away, the word is sur, and it means removed. In both of those verses, it means Paganism is removed.

But, not so when the Daily is taken away in Daniel 8:11. When the Daily is taken away in Daniel 8:11, the Hebrew word that is translated as take away is rum. And we showed you that Daniel uses this word rum five other places in his writings, and he always uses it just as it is defined; and, it is defined in the Hebrew as lifting up and exalting. It does not mean take away. It means to lift up and exalt.

And in Daniel 8:11, if you are on the wrong side of the issue, then you insist that rum means the same thing as sur. That is how you teach it: it means take away.

You cannot teach it means lift up and exalt; because, you are saying that verse 11 of Daniel 8 is talking about the activities of the Papacy, and you are also saying that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry. So, if the Daily is taken away in Daniel 8:11, what you are saying is that the Papacy lifted up and exalted Christ's Sanctuary ministry.

"Oh, no, you cannot say that!"

So, you are saying, "Daniel was a careless writer, and really he should have used sur in Daniel 8:11; because, it really means take away. It does not mean lift up and exalt."

Now, there are two words that are translated as sanctuary in the Book of Daniel: s and e s . s is a sanctuary. It can be God's sanctuary; it can be a Pagan sanctuary. It could be a military fortress. Okay? It is a "sanctuary" in a general sense; but, s can also be used for God's sanctuary.

But, e sh, which is also translated as sanctuary in the Book of Daniel, e s in the Bible is only used as God's sanctuary, whether it is His sanctuary on Earth or His Sanctuary in Heaven. When it is e s : NEVER as a Pagan sanctuary.

So, if you are on the wrong side of the issue in Adventism, you are going to say that the sanctuary that is cast down in Daniel 8:11 is God's Sanctuary in Heaven. But, that word there is s .

And two verses later, Daniel talks about God's sanctuary being trampled underfoot by Paganism and Papalism, and he uses the word e s ; and, then in verse 14 he says, ". . . Unto 2300 days; then shall the sanctuary [e s] be cleansed."

In four verses Daniel uses two different Hebrew words that are translated as sanctuary three times. And if you are on the wrong side of the issue, then you insist that s has the same meaning as e sh.

"Well, Daniel should have put e sh in verse 11. He didn't. He is a careless writer, just like he should have put sur in verse 11."

Well, he did not. He put rum.

So, when you are on the wrong side of the issue, you have got to use your expertise in Biblical history and Biblical languages to correct Daniel—all right?—to correct Daniel, because "he is a careless writer."

I do not believe that ["he is a careless writer"] for a moment!

I want to show you Miller's argument now, and then we will start heading into our notes. I like this argument.

MILLER'S ARGUMENT
2300	2300
+ AD31	− 457BC
2331	1843[33]

Yesterday—and you may not remember it; I know yesterday was a long day and our part of the day was at the beginning of the day. But, if you go to Daniel 8, in verse 13, we looked at that not in fullness yesterday but it says,

> "[13]Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake,"—

And that "certain saint" is Palmoni. And when Christ is typified as Palmoni, He is The Wonderful Numberer; and, it is telling us that there is some kind of wonderful revelation about numbers in this passage Okay?

> —"that certain saint which spake, How long concerning the daily ~~sacrifice,~~ and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" Daniel 8:13 (KJV).

And he said, "How long . . . ?" And we took time to show that this means duration. And, I told you that the people that are on the wrong side of the issue says that this Hebrew word that is translated as How long? should be W*hen.* They do not want to deal with the duration; but, it is How long? We showed you that from the context of the Bible.

[33] Applying the fullness of the year as corrected by the Pioneers in the 1850 Chart; it upholds 1844.

Now, you have got to know that because there is a question in verse 13: if it should be "[when] shall be the vision concerning the daily, and the transgression of desolation." And if it is when, then the answer is identifying a point in time; but if it is how long, it is duration and the answer is identifying a period of time instead of a point of time.

But, because those people in Adventism are on the wrong side of the issue, they have got to say "When," and I am going to show you why in a moment. Okay? They have got to say, "When."

And if you can focus in on this, if you have not heard this before, let this settle in. This is Miller's argument.

And whose is Miller's argument? We know where Miller's argument came from? It was Gabriel's argument.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

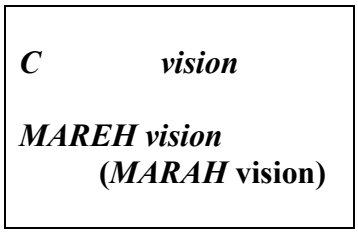

Figure No. 173.

So, let us look at verse 13. It says,

—"How long shall be the [CH N] vision"—

All right. The c n vision is a vision of prophetic history. And we are going to show you that perhaps today. It is in the notes, but we may not get there. It is the prophecy that covers a period of time, the c n vision;—this one here [Figure No. 173]—whereas, the mareh, we discussed there are two words translated as vision in Daniel 8. You will see it 10 times. One of them is the c n vision, which means a period of time, the prophetic history; but, the mareh is the appearance of Christ in the Most Holy Place.

And in chapter 10 we are going to see that there is a variation on mareh, which is the marah vision, which is the looking glass. But, we are not there.

In verse 13 it says, "How long is the c n vision?" the vision of prophetic history, and then it is going to tell us what this vision is about: concerning the Daily (Paganism), and the transgression of desolation (Papalism). And, it tells us what Paganism and Papalism are going to do: "to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot."

So, the controversy is, do we believe in the understanding of the Daily that Sister White said that came from angels that were expelled from Heaven, that the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry, or do we believe that the Daily is Paganism as marked in Daniel, chapter 8? Because, the question is, "How long is the vision?" And that question is asked in Daniel, chapter 8. So, the context of the question is Daniel, chapter 8.

And those of us who have studied this know that the c n vision goes beyond Daniel, chapter 8; but, I am saying, to be technical to this question, you first have to apply it to Daniel, chapter 8.

So, the question is, "How long is the prophetic vision (the c n vision) concerning the Daily, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

Now, watch this: If you believe that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry, when did Christ begin His Sanctuary ministry?

Emiliano spent at least 30 minutes, if you brought it all together, yesterday telling us when Christ began His Sanctuary ministry. When did He begin it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 31AD.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 31AD.

On what day?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: On Pentecost.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: On Pentecost.

So, Christ began His Sanctuary ministry in AD31.

Now, the question is about duration: How long is the vision concerning Christ's Sanctuary ministry and the Papacy (the transgression of desolation)?

So, if the question is about duration, and the question is, "How long is this vision that is identifying the work of Christ in the Sanctuary and the Papacy?" can you start this duration before Christ began His work in the Sanctuary?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You cannot start it before AD31.

Now, if you believe the understanding which Sister White says in Early Writings, page 74, "I was shown that those that gave the judgment hour cry had the correct view of the Daily," if you believe that the Daily is Paganism, well, the Paganism that is illustrated in Daniel, chapter 8, begins in the times of the Medes and the Persians. It does not start with Babylon in chapter 8; it begins in the times of the Medes and the Persians. And, therefore, you have the authority on this vision to go back all the way to 457BC, once you get the direction in Daniel 9 from the going forth of the command to restore and rebuild Jerusalem. Then you can go right back into Daniel, chapter 8, into the times of the Medes and the Persians and you can say 457BC.

So, if you believe that the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry, what is the answer? The answer is verse 14: Unto 2300 days, then shall the sanctuary be cleansed."

So, this is Miller's math [Figure No. 171]. Add 2300 to AD31, and the sanctuary will be cleansed a couple of hundred years from now [in AD2331]! If you believe the Daily is Christ's Sanctuary ministry, you destroy Adventism and prove that Ellen White is a false prophet, all in one swoop.

But, if you believe that the Daily is Paganism, you uphold 1844 [applying the fullness of the year, as corrected by the Pioneers in the 1850 Chart].

So, when you are dealing with this subject, you are dealing with Spiritualism. The people that are pushing this false view have put their word over God's Word, and the Bible plainly says that rebellion is witchcraft, and witchcraft is Spiritualism. And to put your word over God's Word is rebellion; it is witchcraft; it is Spiritualism. And that is why Sister White, when Prescott and Daniells were promoting the false view of the Daily, that she said, "I was shown the results, and they were weaving into their experience spiritualistic sentiments." The false view of the Daily brings upon yourself Spiritualism.

And why would it not? Why would it not, to take a satanic symbol and say, "That is Christ"!

So, this is where some of the thoughts that we have been developing about the significance of the Daily.

Of course, on the other side of the board we had to work up the lines that we will not address.

Let us go to our notes now.

And I am sorry, for those of you that have just showed up the first time today, this is Presentation No. 84; so, there has been a lot of previous—and I have been kind of intemperate on ending my presentations in one hour—so, when this is Presentation No. 84, it does not mean that it was preceded by 83 hours. It was preceded, probably, by 100 hours.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, you are coming in very late in the game.

So, yesterday we dealt with the fact that in Daniel 8 there are two words that are translated as vision. We did not spend much time on pointing them out. We just wanted you to see that the c n vision was this vision in verse 13, the vision of prophetic history.

DAYS

Daniel 8:14

And I want to go to verse 14 now, and it says,

> "[14]And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days shall the sanctuary be cleansed." Daniel 8:14 (KJV).

Yesterday we had a quote from the Spirit of Prophecy in our notes that we have used a few times in Habakkuk's Two Tables, where Sister White says "every fact has its bearing." Okay? So, I am going to give you a fact that will seem a little bit obscure.

In your notes where it says, "Days," at the top of the page,

> EVENING—Strong's Concordance H6153: ereb: dusk: - + day, even (-ing, tide), night.
> MORNING—Strong's Concordance H1242: bôqer: properly dawn (as the break of day); generally morning: - (+) day, early, morning, morrow

> "[27]And the vision [mareh] of the evening [ereb] and the morning [bôqer] which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision [c n]; for it shall be for many days." Daniel 8:26[34] (KJV).

EVENNG is the Hebrew word ereb; and, MORNING IS THE Hebrew word bôqer. So, EVENING and MORNING is ereb and bôqer; and, this is an expression in God's Word that is repeated over and over. You know it is, "And the evening and the morning were the first day," and "the evening and the morning were the second day."

[34] Corrects the cite in the Notes from Daniel 8:27 to Daniel 8:26.

2300 EREB(S) AND B*ÔQER(S)*

Throughout the Scriptures you will find this expression, ereb and bôqer, and it means evening and morning. Okay?

You will even find it in Daniel, chapter 8. Go to verse 26.

"[26]And the vision of the evening and the morning,"—

That is there. That is the mareh vision. That is this one [see Figure No. 173]. That is not the c n vision. That is the mareh vision.

And what does the mareh vision mean? The appearance.

And the mareh vision is the vision of the evening and morning. It is the vision of the ereb and bôqer.

Do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: If you follow me, say, "Amen."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. I was wanting "Amens" from the newbies in the group.

Do you follow me, Sister?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmation.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All right. So, here is the fact (every fact has its bearing): Every time in God's Word where ereb and bôqer is used, it is translated as evening and morning, except for one verse. There is only one verse in God's Word where it is not translated as evening and morning, and according to Ellen White, that verse is the foundation of Adventism.

What verse is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Daniel 8:14.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel 8:14, "Unto 2300 days" is actually "Unto 2300 ereb(s) and bôqer(s). And the fact that that is the one verse where it gets translated differently is a fact that allows a student of prophecy to say, "God wants us to focus in on this verse. There is something there."

And what He is teaching us, one of the things in verse 26, is that Daniel 8:14 is a mareh vision; because, in Daniel 8:26, it says, "The [mareh] vision of the evening and the morning is true." And, the evenings and the mornings are in verse 14; so, we need to understand that Daniel 8:14 is the mareh vision, and in verse 13 where the question is, it says, "How long is the [c n] vision concerning Paganism and Papalism, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?" And the answer is 2300 evenings and mornings; the answer is the mareh vision. Okay? You need to make that distinction.

If you can just understand that, the first time around without understanding what it is going to teach you, that is the first step. Just understand, these two visions are together but they are teaching two different things; and, understand that God has purposely emphasized verse 26 and Daniel 8:14 so we could be forewarned that this is something that we need to wrap our minds around; because, He does not make any accidents. Every fact has its bearing.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

CLEANSED: MADE RIGHT

> CLEANSED: Strong's Concordance H6663—A primitive root; to be (causatively make) *right (in a moral or forensic sense):—cleanse, clear self, (be, do) just (-ice, -ify, -ify self), (be, turn to) righteous (-ness).
> "[8]And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them." Exodus 28:8 (KJV).

So, in verse 14, the sanctuary is going to be cleansed; and, you have that definition of CLEANSED: A primitive root; to be (causatively make) right (in a moral o forensic sense)—this is what happens on the Sanctuary in 1844—cleanse, clear self, justify, righteousness.

So, generally as Adventists, when we think of Daniel 8:14, we think, "Okay. The sanctuary is going to e cleansed. This is the work of Judgment. Christ is going to begin to remove the sins that have been accumulated in the sanctuary, in advance of the Second Coming of Christ." And all that is true, but what I want you to see is that the word that is translated as CLEANSED can also be correctly translated as made right: "Unto 2300 years; then the sanctuary is going to be a e t ."

And another way to say that is, before 1844 arrives, the sanctuary is not right; because, in 1844 there is something that needs to be cleansed and made right about the sanctuary. Okay?

Now, are you with me? Because, I will try to put some meat on these bones now.

MAKE DANIEL UNDERSTAND THE MAREH VISION

Go to verse 15 [of Daniel 8].

> "[15]And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision *[c n], and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. [16]And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision *[mareh]. Daniel 8:15–16 (KJV).

This is the c n vision.

What is the c n vision that Daniel had seen?

You go to verse 2 in Daniel 8. All right? Go to verse 2 in Daniel 8.

Verse 1 is just telling you the place where it happens; but, verse 2 says,

> "[2]And I saw in a vision; and it same to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai." Daniel 8:2 (KJV).

Okay. So, verse 2, Daniel starts seeing this c n vision—this is a c n vision in verse 2—and, from verse 2 and to verse 13 he sees this vision of prophetic history. And verse 13, along with the vision of the sequence of events in prophetic history, in verse 13 it has added this Heavenly dialogue with Palmoni, The Wonderful Numberer, that raises this question, "How long is Paganism and Papalism going to trample down the sanctuary and the host?" That is the c n vision. That is the complete story.

So, in verse 15, it says,

> "[15]And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision *[CHÂZÔN],"—

Have you ever seen a vision?

You have had a dream, right? Sometimes you have had a dream and you woke up and you remembered it or you remembered part of it and you want to remember it at least for maybe 15 minutes it is a significant thought in your life and then it is gone, you know, one of those type of things.

But, sometimes you might have had a dream, no doubt, that you remember for a long time, right?

This is more than a dream. This is a genuine, certified vision that was given to Daniel, the c n vision; but, he does not understand what that means. He wants to understand what means. Okay?

Verse 15,

> —"[15]And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the [CH N] vision [OF VERSES 2 THROUGH 13] and sought for the meaning,"—

He is wanting to understand the meaning of the c n vision.

> —"then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. [16]And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the [mareh] vision. Daniel 8:15–16 (KJV).

Daniel wants to understand the c n vision, and [Palmoni] said, "Gabriel make him to understand the mareh vision."

And I said to my mom when I was a little boy, "I want some candy," she says, "Have an apple."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Daniel wants to understand the c n vision. God says, "Gabriel, make him understand the mareh vision.

What is the mareh vision? It is verse 14, the vision of the ereb(s) and the bôqer(s).

And believe it or not, Brothers and Sisters, if you are not going to make this distinction, you are not going to understand what Gabriel is there teaching. Gabriel is going to teach him about the c n and the mareh; but, his highest priority that comes from the Throne Room in Heaven is, "Make him understand the mareh vision."

Do you see, even if you do not understand it yet, why it is worth making the distinction between these two Hebrew words that are translated as vision? It starts throwing some light into Daniel 8 that you do not see if you just read it at the surface of the English. Right?

THE TIME OF THE END—1798

Okay. So, verse 17:

> "[17]So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face; but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the [CH N] vision." Daniel 8:17 (KJV).

So, he has been told to make him understand the mareh; but, the first thing that he tells him is that the c n vision is at the Time of the End.

And what is the c n vision?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is the events at the Time of the End.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the vision of prophetic history.

And when is it going to be?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Time of the End.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Time of the End.

What does that mean?

Do we have any other references to the Time of the End in the Book of Daniel?

Daniel 11:24, 27, 29, 35, 40; 12:5-9

Go to Daniel 11:24.

Now, some of you—we are not going to spend a lot of time here; but, we have already addressed this more than once. Daniel 11:24, the last phrase, speaking of Pagan Rome, it says,

> "[24]. . . and he shall forecast devices against the strong holds, even for a time." Daniel 11:24, in part (KJV).

This "time," a time in Bible prophecy is a year; a Biblical year is 360 days. Pagan Rome was going to rule the world supremely for 360 years, from the Battle of Actium in 31BC, until Constantine moves the capitol from Rome to Constantinople in AD330. This is a time prophecy, this "time."

And this time prophecy, we have read the quotes from Uriah Smith. It is in the record. This is not something that we are seeing. This is old-time Adventist understanding.

And you go to verse 27; it is still talking about this time prophecy. It is talking about the history of Pagan Rome. And it says,

> "[27]And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed." Daniel 11:27 (KJV).

The end of what? Uriah Smith told us it is the end of this time prophecy. The end of this time prophecy is the Year AD330, and the end of this time prophecy is the "time appointed," the Hebrew word moed. And moed, when you look at the definition, means appointed time. So the translation of "time appointed" is correct.

The end of this 360 years is going to be at the appointed time.

Then, in verse 29, it says,

> "[29]At the time appointed [in the Year AD330] he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter." Daniel 11:29 (KJV).

All I am wanting you to see here is that the end of this time prophecy is called "the time appointed," and "the end" in the Book of Daniel; because, we are dealing with Daniel's terms here, and Gabriel has just come to Daniel with the commission to explain the mareh vision, but the first thing he tells him is the c n is going to be at the "time of the end." Okay? He is trying to settle Daniel's thoughts; because, Daniel just had a c n vision, and he wanted to understand it. And Gabriel comes to him and says, "Look, the c n vision is at the time of the end; but, I need to tell you about the mareh.

Now, that is what is going on here.

And, what I am going to try to show you is what "the Time of the End" is, in connection with the c n , se we can understand that before we move into the mareh, just like Gabriel did with Daniel.

So, go to verse 35 of Daniel 11.

We have already established that in verse 31 of Daniel 11 that Pagan Rome places the Papacy on the throne of the Earth. They shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

When was the Papacy placed upon the throne of the Earth?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD538.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD538.

And the following verses (and we have already dealt with this) describe the persecution of the 1260 years. All right.

This is in the Habakkuk's Two Tables' records. Rewind if you are not familiar with this.

So, once the Papacy is placed on the throne of the Earth in verse 31 of Daniel 11, it begins to persecute God's people; and, in verse 35 it says,

> "[35]And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end:"—

When was the 1260 years over?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1798.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now, notice what he further said.

> —"even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed." Daniel 11:35 (KJV).

See, the end of a prophecy is "the time appointed," and the end of a prophecy is also "the time of the end."

So, when you go back to Daniel 8—I just want you to see something here—in verse 17, when Gabriel is going to tell him about the c n vision, he says—the last half of the verse—

> "[17]. . . Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision." Daniel 8:17, in part (KJV).

The c n vision is going to come on time at the time appointed, at the end of a time prophecy.

Go to verse 40 of Daniel 11 now.

There is no justifiable change from the power that is set on the throne of the Earth in AD538 in verse 31 of Daniel 11, and all the way through the end of the chapter. There is no grammatical or prophetic justification for saying that from verse 31 onward that the King of the North is other than the Papacy.

And in verse 35, the time of the end (1798) is the time appointed; and, when you get to verse 40 [of Daniel 11], the same flow of events that says,

> "[40]And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: . . ." Daniel 11:40, in part (KJV).

In 1798 atheistic France is going to begin a war against the Papacy. That is what verse 40 is all about, and it is 1798 that is the time of the end here.

The c n vision is for the time of the end.

Go to Daniel, chapter 12, beginning at verse 4. Daniel 12, verse 4, says,

> "[4]But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.
> "[5]Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. [6]And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? [7]And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. [8]And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things? [9]And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end." Daniel 12:5-9 (KJV).

The c n vision is sealed up to the time of the end.

So, going back to Daniel 8, according to the verbiage that is employed by Daniel, the time of the end is the c n vision, a vision of prophetic history that is going to be unsealed in 1798. Okay?

So, in verse 17, when Gabriel says,

> "[17]So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end [1798] shall be the [CH N] vision." Daniel 8:17 (KJV).

The revelation of the c n vision, what is it going to be? In the terminology of Daniel 12, it is going to be the increase of knowledge that comes out of the Book of Daniel when it is unsealed. That is why it is for the time appointed.

And, what is it going to do? Daniel 12:10: Many shall be purified by this message. The wise will understand; the wicked will not understand it.

The c n vision is sealed up until 1798 because it is going to produce the Reformatory Movement of the Millerites that develops two classes of worshippers, and prepares one of those classes to move into the Most Holy Place with Christ. The c n vision is going to do that because, if you do not accept that message in the Millerite history, you perish; because, the Bible says "Where there is no vision, the people perish." And that word vision is the c n vision. Okay?

I have been saying chalzone [phonetic]* for so many years; and, you know, only in the past four or five years people have said, "It is khaw-zone [phonetic]. You know, like the Chaldeans that is spelled with a 'C-H,' and the khaw-zone [phonetic] is spelled with a 'C-H'; so, quit saying chalzone [p onet c]."*

It is khaw-zone [phonetic]. It should be easy to remember. I could think "calzone," the Italian sandwich, or whatever; but, I am making the correction now: c n , [khaw-zone, phonetically].

I do not particularly personally worry about the correct pronunciation of Hebrew or Greek words. I worry about what they mean in the prophetic record; but, I stand corrected.

C N VISION SEALED UP UNTIL FOR LATTER DAYS

So, go to Daniel 10:14. We are still dealing with the c n vision being sealed up until the time of the end. Daniel 10:14 says,

> "[14]Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the [CH N] vision is for many days. Daniel 10:14.

So, this c n vision, it not only going to produce a purifying process in the time of the Millerites, it is the vision that is going to allow us to understand what is going to befall you and me at the end of the world, what is going to befall God's people in the Latter Days. So, this is a pretty important vision.

But, one of the characteristics is that it is "for many days." The c n vision, one of its characteristics is that it is for many days.

Daniel 8:26

Notice Daniel 8:26

> "[26]And the [mareh] vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true; wherefore shut thou up"—SEAL UP—"the [CH N] vision; for it shall be for many days." Daniel 8:26 (KJV).

Okay. The reason in Daniel 8 Gabriel tells Daniel to do not be concerned about the c n so much is because it is going to be sealed up until 1798, until it fulfills its purpose.

Are you with me?

Okay. You might think we are done on this, but we are not. I mean, in terms of dealing with c n .

THING

Daniel 10:1; 9:21-23

Go to Daniel 10:1.

This is the smallest amount of notes (three pages) that we have probably done in these presentations—we may have had one smaller—but, we are not going to get through them today. (Laughter.) We are not going to do it.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. We will bring this to a conclusion and try to get some break time in here.

We are at a hard part here now. We are at the hard part; because, what I am wanting to show you in Daniel 8 is that Gabriel came to explain the mareh vision. All right? We are not going to get to that today.

What we are doing is that we are making sure that we understand the c n vision in the context of all these things. And, what we have shown you is that the c n vision in Daniel is the vision that is sealed up to the time of the end. It is the vision that is the long vision. It is the vision that tells us what is going to happen to God's people in the Latter Days. It is the vision that produced the purification process in the time of the Millerites. Okay?

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, it is also in Daniel in a different way—and a lot of people do not see it; and, if you do not see it, then you are missing another component of the c n vision. This is a little bit tricky to where we are going; but, if you follow on, you will get it. If I can get it, you can get it.

Daniel 10:1; this is Daniel's last vision. Daniel 10, 11, and 12 is the same vision. It is important to remember that. There is a whole sector of Adventism that are going to be lost because they refuse to make that distinction. They pretend that Daniel 12 is something that is not connected with Daniel 10 and 11; and, therefore, they claim they have the right to take Daniel 12 and place it at the end of the world and say that those prophecies there are at the end of the world in a day-for-a-day fashion, and they get wrapped up in timesetting and they will be lost for that foolishness. It is fanaticism; it is a delusion. Daniel's last vision is 10, 11, and 12.

They will be lost if they do not repent. I better not be so dogmatic.

Verse 1 of Daniel 10:

> "[1]In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision." Daniel 10:1 (KJV).

Hmm. Let me explain something got you that we have already put in Habakkuk's Two Tables. When a prophet becomes part of the prophecy, he is representing God's people at the end of the world. And Adventists know this.

You know that in Revelation 10, verses 8 through 10, that when John takes the Little Book and eats it, and it is sweet in his mouth and becomes bitter in his stomach, that he represents the Millerites who took the message of Daniel in their history that was sweet in their mouth. But, in October 22, 1844, that message of Daniel became bitter.

And, what I am saying is John in The Revelation, when he is giving that illustration, he has become part of the prophecy. He goes and he takes the Little Book out of the Angel's hand. He eats it. He has that experience.

And that is not John. That is John representing the Millerites, and it is John representing us; and, you can show how that experience is repeated in our history, and you can even show that primarily in Revelation 10:8-10 that he is more representing the 144,000 than he is the Millerites.

But, I will give you one more reference.

And in Habakkuk's Two Tables, we have done this argument over and over again and showed this.

But, go to Zechariah, chapter 4. It comes into my mind because Emiliano mentioned it briefly yesterday.

In verse 1 it says,

> "[1]And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me,"—

This is Zechariah, chapter 4, verse 1.

> "[1]And the angel that talked with me"—

Who is that angel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Gabriel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: If Gabriel talked to John, and Gabriel talked to Daniel, then upon a testimony of two, a thing is established: Gabriel is the Light Bearer. He is the one that replaced Lucifer (which means Light Bearer). He is the one that brings the message to the prophets.

> "[1]And the angel that talked with me"—WITH ZECHARIAH—"came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep." Zechariah 4:1 (KJV).

Zechariah here is representing the foolish virgins at the end of the world. And Sister White tells us in The Great Controversy, page 393, that the parable of the Ten Virgins of Matthew 25 illustrates the experience of the Adventist people.

And in Review and Herald, Sister White says, "I am often referred to the parable of the Ten Virgins, five of whom were wise and five foolish. And this parable has been and will be fulfilled to the very letter."

The parable of the Ten Virgins was fulfilled to the very letter in the history of the Millerites, and it is going to be fulfilled to the very letter in our history.

So, Zechariah here is representing the virgins of both the Millerite History and of our history who are sleeping, and they wake up; because, he is becoming part of the prophecy.

In verse 2 it says,

> "[2]And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof." Zechariah 4:2 (KJV).

What does Zechariah see?

What does he see?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indistinct responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He sees right here, does he not [pointing to the Sanctuary message on the 1850 Chart]?

But, you know what? What are they doing in that history? What is Zechariah doing?

He is participating in rebuilding Jerusalem. They have come out of Babylon and they are building the temple; they are building the city.

So, a prophet that is in that history, when they are rebuilding the Sanctuary, he knows that the seven branched candlestick is, does he not?

Notice verse 3.

> "[3]And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. [4]So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?" Zechariah 4:3-4 (KJV).

Zechariah did not know what the seven branched candlestick is.

And, it is emphasized. Notice the next verse.

> "[5]Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord." Zechariah 4:5 (KJV).

We will not go into it any further, but I am just showing you, Zechariah there is representing the Millerites that woke up at the Midnight Cry in the Summer of 1844 thinking that the Sanctuary was the Earth.

And then when they woke up shortly thereafter, within two months they realized (the ones that were willing to realize) that they really did not know what the Sanctuary was. They thought it was the Earth; but, it was the Heavenly Sanctuary. They did not know what the candlestick was.

But, further on, there is another meaning of the candlestick. The candlestick represents the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the Latter Rain at the end of the world during the wake-up time in Adventism; and, the Adventists are going to wake up and realize they do not know what the candlestick is; they do not know what the Latter Rain is.

So, it hits both histories.

So, that is the testimony of two that when a prophet becomes part of the prophecy, he represents God's people at the end of the world.

Go back to Daniel 10, and notice verse 2. I am saying that Daniel becomes part of the prophecy here.

It says,

> "[2]In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks. [3]I ate no pleasant break, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. [4]And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel; . . ." Daniel 10:2-4 (KJV).

Okay. Who is it—what is Daniel doing? He is fasting.

Who is it that is fasting and afflicting their souls at the end of the world? This is Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world.

And in verse 1—now, I am just trying to show you that Daniel is representing Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world. We will go back to verse 1.

Daniel is representing Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world, and it is emphasized that they understand two things in verse 1. It says,

> "[1]In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing"—

"A thing." What is "a thing" in the Hebrew? It is called b . It means the Word. Jesus is he b . He is the Word.

It says,

> —"a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true,"—[TH B R WAS TRUE]—"and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long;"—

When it comes to the b , to this Word [Jesus Christ], His Word is His prophetic Word. And this particular word, the b , one of its characteristics is that it is long.

Do you know any other vision in the Book of Daniel that is long, that is for many days?

Ah, the b is another word for the c n vision.

See, it says,

> —"and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long; and he understood the thing,"—

It is emphasizing that he understands the b , the c n vision

> —"and had understanding of the [mareh] vision." Daniel 10:1 (KJV).

Daniel here represents Adventists that understand the mareh and the c n at the end of the world during the Day of Atonement.

The b is another word for the c n .

Now, go to Daniel 9, and we will close this out and take it up tomorrow.

Too much information this early in the morning, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is why we are recording it. You can look at it again and again, if you need to, and test it to see if it is incorrect.

Verses 21-23 of Daniel 9,

> "[21]Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. [22]And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding."—

Daniel has been praying in Daniel 9. Why?

Go back to Daniel 8, verse 27. The last verse in Daniel 8, it says,

"[27]And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision,"—

The mareh vision that Gabriel was told to make him understand, he was astonished at it;

—"but, none understood it." Daniel 8:27 (KJV).

Whereas, in Daniel 10:1, now Daniel understands it, in Daniel 10:1.

In Daniel 8, when that is all said and done, he does not yet understand the mareh vision; but, it was so powerful that it made him sick. Okay? It blew his mind!

He knew who the Son of God was. I mean, in chapter 3, when Nebuchadnezzar sees a fourth walking in the furnace that has the appearance of the Son of God, who had taught Nebuchadnezzar who the Son of God was to the extent that he could identify the Son of God in that fiery furnace?

Daniel had. Daniel knew who the Son of God was. But, you know, one of the things that probably blew Daniel's mind in Daniel 8 that he could not wrap his mind around, he realized there that the Son of God was also the High Priest in the Heavenly Sanctuary. It blew his mind That is the mareh vision.

And, at the end of chapter 8, he does not quite understand it; so, in Daniel, chapter 9, he is praying for understanding. He wants to understand this 2300 days and the appearance of Christ in the Most Holy Place as the High Priest.

And, he wants to understand the c n vision.

So, when you get to verse 23 of Daniel 9, it says,

—"Daniel 9: 21-23 (continued) [23]At the beginning of thy supplications [PRAYERS] the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand"—

"Understand" is bîyn [in the Hebrew]. The word that is translated as understand, the meaning of it is to mentally separate.

I can look at the room right now and I can mentally separate the boys and the girls in this room; or, I could ask you all to stand up and put the girls on that side [gesturing to his right] and put the boys at that side [gesturing to his left]. That would be to physically separate you. But, bîyn (to understand) means to mentally separate. Okay?

So, let us go back to verse 23. And, this same word is also translated as consider in the same verse. It says,

—"[23]At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore, understand [MENTALLY SEPARATE] the matter,"—

Do you know what "the matter" is?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is the b .

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is "thing." It is the b . It is the c n vision.

Do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"therefore, understand [MENTALLY SEPARATE] the matter [CH N], and consider [MENTALLY SEPARATE] the [MAREH] vision." Daniel 9:21-23 (KJV).

He is told to make a distinction between these two visions.

And why is he told that? Because, he is going to get the breakdown of the 2300-day prophecy; and, you need to understand the distinction between these two visions. And he did not understand them yet; but, Gabriel is going to give him the breakdown of the 2300-year prophecy here in chapter 9.

And by chapter 10, verse 1, Daniel understands the "thing," the "matter," the c n vision, AND the mareh vision.

How did he understand it? How did he understand it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: By mentally separating them.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: By mentally separating the two. Okay?

So, I am telling you that when we are making the distinction between these two visions in the Book of Daniel that the Book of Daniel tells you, if you want to understand them as Daniel did, in Daniel 10:1, you have to understand there are two visions, and you have to mentally separate them.

And, we will continue this thought tomorrow.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Father in Heaven, we want to be those that are represented in chapter 10 that understand the mareh and the c n , that understand the spiritual and the intellectual that these two visions can do their work of sealing us that we might not be moved. We ask a blessing upon this day of study that we are about to do, and we ask for extra energy as this is going to be another long day. We ask that you would bless our efforts to come to understand you better this day. Allow your Holy Spirit to be poured out freely among us, and we thank you for all these things. And we also now, as we are breaking for the physical food, ask a blessing upon the physical food that we are about to partake of. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #85

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we begin our day of study, we thank you for a good night's rest. We thank you for bringing some other guests here safely. We ask that you would make this day a benefit to us all. We know that Emiliano yesterday was feeling a little bit down, and we ask that you would strengthen him and remove any illness that may be coming upon him, and keep him strong through this week. As we take up our study this morning, we ask that you would pour your Latter Rain out upon us, that you would open our understanding to truths that we need to understand as we take this message, this final message, to the Adventist Church and thereafter to the world. We want our humanity to be humbled in the dust, as was Isaiah's, and John's, and Daniel's when they saw you in the Heavenly Sanctuary. And as we send our prayers into the Most Holy Place at this time, we ask that you would accomplish that work for us and that you would purify us that we can understand the message that you have for us. Eternalize it in a way that will glorify and honor you. And I ask that you take control of the things that I intend to share that they also would glorify and honor you. Please be with us throughout this day. We want the angels from on High, the Heavenly angels to be with us that we might breathe the atmosphere of Heaven throughout this day; and, we ask that you would give them permission to give the distractions away. We thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

THE 2520

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, I am at the point in the Habakkuk's Two Tables series where I am now trying to show the doctrines that are represented on the [1843 and 1850] Charts from the Word of God.

And, we are moving away from the presentation on the Daily, although we will return to it from time to time, and moving into the presentation on the 2520.

MAKE DANIEL UNDERSTAND THE MAREH VISION

> "And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the [MAREH] vision." Daniel 8:16 (KJV).

> CLEANSED: Strong's Concordance H6663—A primitive root; to be (causatively make) *right (in a moral or forensic sense):—cleanse, clear self, (be, do) just (-ice, -ify, -ify self), (be, turn to) righteous (-ness).

Yesterday we were looking at the fact in Daniel 8 that Daniel had seen the c n vision, from Daniel 8, verse 2 through verse 13, the vision of prophetic history, which we had already taken time to describe.

And then in verse 15, after he had seen the c n vision, he sought for meaning of the c n vision; and, we found that Gabriel was appointed to explain to him what the mareh vision was.

The first thing that Gabriel did in verse 17, as he takes up his task to explain the mareh vision to Daniel was to give him some detail about the c n vision; so, we stayed there a little while and we showed that the c n vision is the vision that is sealed. It is the vision of prophetic history. It is the vision that is sealed up until the time of the end. It is the vision that is long.

And, we took it a step further and showed that in Daniel 10:1 the word thing is b ; and, in Daniel 9:23 that b is translated as matter.

So, we showed that in Daniel 10:1 the thing is contrasted with the mareh vision; and, therefore, the b vision and the mareh vision are in Daniel 10:1; and, in Daniel 9:23 we see the matter is also the b and it also is contrasted with the mareh vision.

And then when we looked at what is stated about the b r in verse 1 of Daniel 10, we saw that it also was of a long period of time; so, we identified that the b is simply another expression by Daniel for the c n vision, which is an important vision in terms of Daniel 10, verse 14: Gabriel tells Daniel that he is going to show him what will befall Daniel's people in the Latter Days, and that is illustrated with the c n vision.

And the c n vision is the vision that if you do not understand, the people perish: "Where there is no vision, the people perish."

But, now we are returning to Daniel, chapter 8, and we are beginning to deal with the mareh vision.

So, in Daniel 8:14, we showed yesterday that the vision of the 2300 days is actually, technically in the Hebrew the vision (the mareh vision) of the 2400 evenings and mornings.

And in verse 26, the vision of the evenings and mornings which was told is true.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 2300.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 2300.

Why am I saying 2400?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: I don't know.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Neither do I.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Thank you.

How come he is the only one that caught that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Oh, you caught it, but you just did not have the guts to say anything, huh?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I want you to know that I have been listening to Emiliano, and I have been blessed, and I do not have anything to criticize. And it is not that I do not believe, but I do not understand everything he said the same way that he does. Do you?

I hope you do not understand everything the same way I do. I hope that we are being critical enough in our experience that we are going to go test everything that anyone says from the pulpit and not get the mindset that just because it is said by someone that we think is special for some reason that that makes it so. Okay?

So, let us not change the 2300 to the 2400. Okay?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, it is okay to listen to what I say. All right?

So, we are looking at the 2300 days and that it is the vision of the evenings and the mornings, and it is the mareh vision; and, Gabriel was commanded to make Daniel understand the mareh vision.

And just to give some context to it, if you go to the last verse of Daniel 8, verse 27, it says,

> "[27]And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the [MAREH] vision,"—

The vision of the 2300 days.

> —"but none understood it." Daniel 8:27 (KJV).

So, even though Gabriel had been commanded in chapter 8 to make Daniel understand the mareh vision, Gabriel had not finished his job assignment by the time Daniel 8 comes to a conclusion.

THE LAST END OF THE INDIGNATION: 1844

But, in verse 17, when Gabriel takes up his work of explaining the mareh vision to Daniel—and remember, Daniel was not worried about the mareh vision; he wanted to understand the c n vision; but, Gabriel got a different job assignment—in verse 17, it says,

> "[17]So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the [CH N] vision. [18]Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright. [19]And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be." Daniel 8:17-19 (KJV).

Okay. Verse 19 is the first piece of information that Gabriel is going to give to Daniel so that he can understand the mareh vision.

And what is the mareh vision? It is the vision of the 2300 days that Gabriel is supposed to make Daniel understand.

And what I am saying is this is the first place where Gabriel begins to make Daniel understand 1844 (the 2300 days), the mareh vision.

Why is this important? There are probably so many reasons why this is important that there is no way human beings can explain it; but, a simple one is that Sister White says that the mareh vision is the Foundation of Adventism. She did not say it like that, but she says "the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14 are the foundational pillar of Adventism." So, the mareh vision is the Foundation of Adventism. So, it is important, you would think, if we are Adventists to understand this.

So, the first piece of the puzzle that Gabriel gives to Daniel is verse 19, and he tells him about "the last end of the indignation," and he says it is "at the time appointed."

TIME APPOINTED

And I passed over some notes, so I will pass over them. I am in the middle of page 1 [of the presentation notes].

[Note from Transcriptionist: All notes passed over have been incorporated into the transcription above.]

TIME APPOINTED

> APPOINTED—Strong's Concordance H4150: môw'êd (mo-ade'): From H3259; properly an appointment, that is, a fixed time or season; specifically a festival; conventionally a year; by implication, an assembly (as convened for a definite purpose); technically the congregation; by extension, the place of meeting; also a signal (as appointed beforehand):—appointed (sign, time), (place of, solemn) assembly, congregation, (set, solemn) feast, (appointed, due) season, solemn (-ity), synagogue, (set) time (appointed).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This word translated as time appointed, mean appointed time, just simple and straightforward.

But, what I want you to see, even if you do not understand anything about the last indignation, or if someone did not understand anything about that verse, if they will take the definition of time appointed as it is set forth, it will tell you something to start with.

What will it tell you? That whatever the last indignation is, it has got to be a time prophecy; because, it has an appointed time to end. Okay? You know that right off the bat. Whatever it means, it has an appointed time that it is going to end. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, you can see that right off the bat with the word moed [w'ê], which means an appointment, or a fixed time or season; or a festival.

GOD'S INDIGNATIONS

So, we need to understand what is God's Indignation is; and, there are two types of righteous indignation that God identifies in His Word.

AGAINST THE WICKED

Isaiah 26:20-21; 30:27-33; Zephaniah 3:8; Revelation 14:9-11

> "[20] Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast. [21] For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain." Isaiah 26:20-21 (KJV).

> "[27] Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire: [28] And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. [29] Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel. [30] And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. [31] For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod. [32] And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it. [33] For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it." Isaiah 30:27-33 (KJV).

"[8] Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy." Zephaniah 3:8 (KJV).

"[9]And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, if any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, [10] The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: [11] And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever; and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." Revelation 14:9-11 (KJV).

There is His indignation against the wicked.

I have some references there for you. I never intended to read those references because I think that we understand this fairly well.

Where it says His indignation "Against the Wicked," that is His indignation against the wicked in the Seven Last Plagues. Okay? That is where he is punishing mankind for rejecting the Gospel of Salvation.

AGAINST GOD'S PEOPLE

Lamentations 2:1-9, 17; Ezekiel 22

"[1] How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger! [2] The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof. [3] He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about. [4] He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire. [5] The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increase in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. [6] And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest. [7] The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast. [8] The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament: they languished together. [9] Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD. . . . [17] The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries." Lamentations 2:1-9, 17 (KJV).

"[1] Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [2] Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations. [3] Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself. [4] Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries. [5] Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed. [6] Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood. [7] In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow. [8] Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths. [9] In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness. [10] In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution. [11] And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter. [12] In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord GOD. [13] Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee. [14] Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it. [15] And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee. [16] And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

"[17] And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [18] Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver. [19] Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. [20] As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you. [21] Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof. [22] As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

"[23] And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [24] Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation. [25] There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. [26] Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. [27] Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. [28] And her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken. [29] The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully. [30] And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. [31] Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD." Ezekiel 22 (KJV).

But, He also has an indignation in God's Word that is against His people for them breaking the covenant that He made with Him, that they made with Him.

So, there are two indignations in God's Word, to start with: One against the wicked at the Close of Probation—and if you are not familiar with it, you can read Isaiah 26:20-21; 30:27-33; Zephaniah 3:8; and, of course, Revelation 14:9-11 [the foregoing cites are included above, and then read into the record by Brother Pippenger with comments as follows].

We should understand the Third Angel's Message.

What is He going to do to those people who have the mark of the beast?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He is going to pour out the wrath of His indignation.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is going to pour out the wine of the wrath of . . .

FROM THE AUDIENCE: His indignation (responded in unison).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: . . . His indignation.

Okay. The punishment of the wicked is a subject of prophecy.

But, we want to look at the punishment of God's people, and go to Lamentations.

And Lamentations was penned by Jeremiah. So, if you are not familiar with where it is at, it is the Book right after Jeremiah.

In chapter 2, verse 1, it says this:

"[1] How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!"—

There is God's anger.

—"[2] The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof. [3] He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about. [4] He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his > fury like fire. [5] The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increase in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. [6] And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest. [7] The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast. [8] The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament: they languished together. [9] Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD. . . .”—

And in verse 17, it says,

> —“[17] The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.” Lamentations 2:1-9, 17 (KJV).

So, God’s indignation here is being described, and it is against His people; and, Jeremiah also notes that it was a prophecy from “the days of old.” This was a fulfillment of a prophecy of the days of old.

It says in verse 17, “[17] The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: . . .”

So, God’s indignation is a prophecy against His people that was set forth well before Jeremiah. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Let us go to Ezekiel 22. We want a second witness that God’s indignation represents His righteous indignation against His people.

Verse 1,

> “[1] Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [2] Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations. [3] Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself. [4] Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries. [5] Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed. [6] Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood. [7] In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow. [8] Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths. . . ."—

Notice it says, "sabbaths" in the plural, not simply the Seventh-day Sabbath. We will show you one of the sabbaths that is directly connected to this curse that was of old times ["days of old"] is the Seventh-year Sabbath of the Lord of the land resting.

Drop to verse 15.

—"[15] And I will scatter thee"—

We want to show that God's indignation is also the Scattering.

Verse 15:

—"[15] And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee. [16] And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

"[17] And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [18] Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver. [19] Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem."—

Did He gather them into the midst of Jerusalem? Yeah. He put a siege upon Jerusalem.

—"[20] As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you. [21] Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof. [22] As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

"[23] And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [24] Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of [HIS] indignation. [25] There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. [26] Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths,"—PLURAL—"and I am profaned among them. [27] Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. [28] And her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken. [29] The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully. [30] And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none."—

What is being referred to there?

What did He do? What is He saying He did? Judgment: He passed judgment.

Who is He referring to; where is this illustration coming from?

Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Jews?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is referring to the Jews; but, where is He getting this Biblical illustration?

Do we know of another place that was destroyed and there was a man that was trying to intercede saying, "If there be 50 righteous in there, will you not destroy it?"

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Abraham.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is Abraham. He sought for someone like Abraham; there was not anyone in there.

Verse 31:

—"[31] Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD." Ezekiel 22 (KJV).

So, what I am saying is, Daniel in verse 19 is not dealing with the indignation of God against the wicked when Michael stands up and probation closes. He is dealing with the indignation against God's people because they broke the covenant; and, the indignation that He delivers to them is the scattering, and it is based upon an ancient prophecy.

But, in verse 19, Gabriel tells Daniel it is "the last end of the indignation."

Which means what? Even if you do not know what the indignations are, what does it mean? At minimum, at minimum—you could argue more, but you would be wrong—at minimum it means there are at least indignations against God's people. If there is a last indignation, at minimum there has to be a first. You may argue that there are 10, and the last is the tenth; but, you would be wrong. There are two indignations: One against the Northern Kingdom, and one against the Southern Kingdom.

And in verse 19, Gabriel is telling Daniel, "I'm come to make you understand what will be in the last end of the indignation"; because, it is going to be the time appointed, which means this indignation is a period of time, but means it is a period of time that is based upon an ancient prophecy describing the scattering of God's people.

Do you follow me there? We have covered those arguments.

THE NORTH AND SOUTH

Daniel 11:35-36; Matthew 24:14-15; Daniel 9:26-27; 8:19

"The North and South" is your subtitle.

Go to Daniel 11:36, one of the most, perhaps the most, controversial verse in the Book of Daniel in the history of Adventism. People still stumble there today.

Verse 36 is talking about the Papal power. Everyone, including Uriah Smith, agrees that the Papal power is placed upon the Earth at the end of verse 31, where it says the arms are going to place the abomination that maketh desolate. Everyone agrees that the abomination that maketh desolate was placed, in that verse, on the throne of the Earth in AD538. And then in verses 32, 33, 34 and 35 describe the persecution of the Dark Ages.

Let us start in verse 35. It says,

> "[35] And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end:"—

We have dealt with this.

> —"because it is yet for a time appointed."

The Time of the End there is dealing with the end of the persecution period of the Papacy. That is 1798; it is an appointed time.

The previous verses are talking about the persecution during the Dark Ages.

And then verse 36 says,

> —"[36] And the king"—

And this is where Uriah Smith went astray. We have mentioned this before. Uriah Smith here just changes one word, just changes one word. He said, "If we could say 'a king' instead of 'the king,' we would see a new power introduced into the verse."

But, we cannot say "a king," because the verse does not say "a king." The verse says "the king," which means it is the king in the previous verse. It is the Papacy.

And it says,

> —"[36] And the king [THE PAPACY] shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done." Daniel 11:35-36 (KJV).

The Papacy is going to prosper until the indignation be accomplished.

And, we know, without getting too technical—this is a pretty easy one for us; we have already dealt with it.

When does the Papacy cease to prosper?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD1798 [in unison].

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, did you notice that there is something determined for the Papacy, and it is going to be done, and it is going to be done in 1798?

But, he is going to prosper until the indignation be accomplished.

What does accomplished means in this context?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Finished.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Finished.

So, in 1798 there is an indignation finished, and this is the indignation against God's people (one of [the indignations]).

Go to Matthew 24:15. We have dealt with this before in this series.

Let us start in verse 14.

> "[14] And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. [15] When ye therefore shall see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) . . ." Matthew 24:14-15 (KJV).

Who said that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Jesus.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jesus.

So, what did Jesus just tell you?

We are not dealing with this, but we do not want to pass by this.

What did Jesus just tell you? Because, it is something they do not tell you in Adventism today; it is something they argue about in Adventism today. What did Jesus just tell you in verse 14?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He said, "This is the Gospel."

And in verse 15, He says, "Make sure that you understand the Gospel that is represented by the abomination of desolation in the Book of Daniel." I guess the prophecies of Daniel are the Gospel.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And anyone that tell you otherwise is just following the philosophy of W. W. Prescott that was brought into Adventism in 1919, which consisted of cutting the prophetic message out of the Gospel and creating a false Christ in the history of Adventism. But, that is not what we are dealing with here. We are just taking note of it.

Jesus tells us that we must understand the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet. This is a key verse for the Millerites; because, this takes the Millerites to Daniel 9, verse 26, because, the Millerites, they understand as we do that the abomination that maketh desolate in Daniel 11:31 and Daniel 12:11, and the transgression of desolation in Daniel 8:13, that is the Papacy.

But, the Millerites, they understood the abomination of desolation that Jesus is referring to is not simply the Papacy; it is a general term that represents the two desolating powers of Bible prophecy. And they prove this by going to Daniel 9:26.

So, in some senses, if you remember a few days ago, we have read from Damsteegt where he, in his book The Foundation of Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, on page 22, he tells us that the fundamental approach to Bible prophecy that Miller and the Millerites used was that there were two desolating powers in Bible prophecy. Well, if that is their fundamental approach to Bible prophecy, then their fundamental verse is verse 26 of Daniel 9; because, this is where they show the two desolating powers that they build everything else upon.

And in verse 26, it says,

> "[26]And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary;"—

Who is the prince that comes and destroys the city and the sanctuary?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Rome; Cestius and Titus; destroyed it in AD70.

Okay. So, this is one of the desolating powers; but, notice what the rest of the verse says.

> —"and the end thereof"—

Okay. It is saying that the Jerusalem was destroyed in AD 70; but, it goes on and says "and the end thereof," saying that "It ain't over yet!"

> — "and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations—[IN THE PLURAL]—"are determined." Daniel 9:26 (KJV).

So, we have been into Revelation 12 more than once to prove this verse, and we will not go there. In Revelation 12 you have the dragon; and, Sister White tells us that the dragon in Revelation 12 is Satan, but in a secondary sense it is Pagan Rome. But, by the time you get down to verses 14 and onward, it is no longer Pagan Rome that is persecuting the woman that has fled into the wilderness for 1260 days; it is Papal Rome.

And, let us go there, just so you can see what the symbol of Papal Rome is, if you are not familiar.

The dragon in the first part of Revelation 12 is Pagan Rome; but, by the time you get to verse 15, it says,

> "[15] And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. [16] And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth." Revelation 12:15-16 (KJV).

And, of course, this [the serpent] is Papal Rome. The symbol of Papal persecution is the flood.

So, if you go back to Daniel 9:26, it says, ". . . and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary,"—that is Pagan Rome in AD70—"and the end thereof shall be with a flood,"—that is Papal Rome—"and unto the end of the war desolations are determined." There is a war that is carried out by two desolating powers in the history of Ancient Israel: Paganism and Papalism. That is Daniel 9:26; it is Revelation 12.

But, notice verse 27 [of Daniel]:

> "And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations"—

At the cross, the overspreading of abominations, Ancient Israel has filled up the cup of their iniquity. What is ahead of them is the destruction of Jerusalem.

> —"and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation,"—

What is the consummation? The conclusion.

> —"and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate [DESOLATOR (marginal reference)]." Daniel 9:27 (KJV).

And if you have a marginal reference—do you have a marginal reference for [the last word of the verse] desolate? It is "the desolator."

So, what it is saying is, when you take verse 26 and 27 together, verse 26 is telling you the abomination of desolation that Jesus told us in Matthew 24 that we were to understand, the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet represents two desolating powers: the one destroys the city in AD70; symbolized by the flood, the Papacy is the one that carries out persecution until the end of the war.

And then in verse 27 it says that there is something is determined at the consummation of the war, "and that determined shall be poured upon the desolator"; and, the desolator at the end of the war is Papal Rome. It is determined that the desolator is going to be desolated; and, it will be at the end of the war; it will be at the end of the indignation. Because, we just read Daniel 11:36,

> "[36]And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done." Daniel 11:36 (KJV).

And when the indignation is accomplished, that that is determined shall be done. And what is determined is Daniel 9:27. What is determined is that desolation is going to be poured upon the desolator in 1798.

So, what am I saying? I am saying that when Gabriel is commanded to make Daniel understand the mareh vision, when Gabriel is commanded to make Daniel understand 1844, that in verse 19 he shows Daniel another time prophecy. The "last end of the indignation" will be at a time appointed. When it is a "time appointed," it means it has a marked point where it is going to arrive; therefore, it is a time prophecy. But, this time prophecy is the last of two indignations, and the first indignation is marked by Daniel in Daniel 11:36 and Daniel 9:26-27. It concludes in 1798.

But, the other indignation that ends (the last end of the indignation), it happens to end in 1844.

What does that show you? Well, one of the things that it shows you, if you want to see it, is that Gabriel instructed every prophet that is recorded in the Bible. So, Gabriel knows the rules that are in the Bible. And there is a rule in the Bible that is there—depending on how you approach the rule—it is probably there to 20 or 30 times, at least 20 times; and, the rule is, "upon the testimony of two a thing shall be established."

So, when Gabriel is commanded to make Daniel understand the mareh vision of 1844, the first thing he does is he gives him a second witness. He says, "Here is another time prophecy that also ends in 1844; because, if you are going to establish 1844, you need to have two witnesses to 1844."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And at the end of the last indignation is the second witness to 1844.

And, of course, the men that are fighting this message, they pooh-pooh this truth, and perhaps so (perhaps rightly so) because they think that is what it is all about; and, that is really not what it is all about. That is just a secondary part of it.

Do you remember Daniel 8:13? That is really what we are dealing with, that the Daily and the transgression of desolation are going to do what? Trample down the sanctuary AND the host.

So, in Daniel 8:14, the sanctuary is going to be cleansed, and what does the word cleansed mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Made right.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Made right.

And, if you look at Exodus 25:8, it says,

> "[8] And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them." Exodus 25:8 (KJV).

The purpose of the sanctuary is that God would dwell among His people.

But, in Daniel 8:13, not only is the sanctuary trampled underfoot but the host (the people) is trampled underfoot; therefore, in order to make the sanctuary right in 1844, the sanctuary has to be made right, but a host has to be reestablished.

So, this last [end] of the indignation, it is not dealing with making—well, it is, but it is not—it is not emphasizing the cleansing of the sanctuary so much—I am not saying this right. It is emphasizing the making right of the sanctuary—it is identifying the restoration of the host; because, this indignation is against God's people. It is against the host. This [prior to 1798] is where in this history God's host is scattered, and this [1844] is where they are gathered. He has to gather the host together in 1844 when He is reestablishing the sanctuary to cease the treading down of both of those entities.

If you throw out the 2520, this last [end of the] indignation, then you have a sanctuary in 1844 with no host.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Hmm.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is a purposeless sanctuary; because, the purpose of the sanctuary is that God may dwell among His host.

THE ROD OF HIS INDIGNATION

Isaiah 10:5-6; Matthew 24:15; Daniel 9:26-27; 8:19

The Scriptures tell us, in connection with this indignation, that the Lord uses Pagan powers or powers outside of God's people to accomplish His indignation. So, go to Isaiah 10:5-6.

> "[5] O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand"—

In whose hand?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Assyrian.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Assyrian's hand.

And what is his staff? This is their authority, their power.

> —"[5] O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mind indignation. [6] I will send him [THE ASSYRIAN] against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge,"—

Now, what you need to understand, the Assyrian is a symbol of the King of the North. He is the symbol of those that are going to receive the wrath of God in The Seven Last Plagues. So, this wrath here is not The Seven Last Plagues; this is the wrath against God's people, and the Lord is going to use the Assyrian to be the tool in the Lord's hands to accomplish that indignation.

Verse 6:

> "[6] I will send him [THE ASSYRIAN] against an hypocritical nation,"—

Who is the hypocritical nation?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Israel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Israel (God's people).

> —"and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets." Isaiah 10:5-6 (KJV).

So, when it comes to God's indignation, He uses an exterior power to accomplish that indignation.

Go to Jeremiah 50, verses 1 through 18.

> "[1] The word that the LORD spake against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet. [2] Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces. [3] For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast."—

Who is going to bring down Babylon? A nation out of the North.

Who is the nation out of the North?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

Who brought down Babylon?

BROTHER FROM THE AUDIENCE: The King of the North.

SISTER FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

FROM THE GENERAL AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Babylon was the King of the North.

Who brought down Babylon?

This is a pronouncement against—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Medes and the Persians.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Medes and the Persians. Okay?

And, what do the Medes and the Persians represent? A confederacy, right?

Who brings down modern Babylon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A confederacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A confederacy of Ten Kings are going to burn her with fire and eat her flesh.

In either case, Babylon gets punished, too.

Verse 3:

> —"[3] For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.
> "[4] In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. [5] They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten."—

When Babylon is fallen, they are going to come out of Babylon. Is that right?

When did Babylon fall?

I am not asking for the year; I am not asking for the day. Babylon fell 70 years after Israel fell.

—"[6] My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their restingplace. [7] All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers. [8] Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

"[9] For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations"—

The United Nations, in our day and age.

—"an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain. [10] And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD. [11] Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls; [12] Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. [13] Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. [14] Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD. [15] Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her. [16] Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land."—

Now, here is where we are getting to.

—"[17] Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away:"—

Remember, the indignation is the Scattering.

—"the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones. [18] Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria." Jeremiah 50:1-18 (KJV).

And who is the king of Assyria?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The king of Assyria is the rod of indignation that the Lord uses; but, when He is done using him, He is going to punish him.

But, how many indignations, how many rods are there here? There are two.

Israel is a scattered sheep. First, the king of Assyria came—and we are saying this is 723BC when the Northern Kingdom is scattered and never comes back by the king of Assyria.

Of course, the context here is Nebuchadnezzar, but we have more to say about that.

And, second, the king of Babylon.

What I am wanting you to see here is that there are two rods of indignation, one against the Northern Kingdom, and one against the Southern Kingdom.

And, I am marking Manasseh [at 677BC].

But, Nebuchadnezzar, what do you have? You have (1) Manasseh, (2) Amon, (3) Josiah, (4) Jehoahaz, (5) Jehoiakim, (6) Jehoiachin, and (7) Zedekiah. Here is where Nebuchadnezzar comes: in these last three kings.

So, when he is talking about the king of Babylon here, he is talking about Nebuchadnezzar; but, we are actually going to show that it starts back here in 677BC. But, all I want you to see is that both the Northern and the Southern Kingdoms had a rod of indignation that was used against them.

Zechariah 1:12.

There was a sister that came here on Monday, and she was totally lost by the end of the presentation.

And another sister said, "You know, your sister is totally lost."

So, I said, "Were you?"

She said, "No."

I said, "Well, explain it to her."

But, my point is, part of the reason that she got totally lost, probably, and it may be the reason that you are going to get totally lost here. We are now starting into our study of the 2520. We are still in Daniel 8; but, the only way it makes sense for me to do it is to explain certain principles, get them in place, and then start pulling them together. But, you cannot do that in a few minutes; and, there is no reason for me to hurry now.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is #85, all right? I am going to just keep going at the same speed. All right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, just bear with this. We are entering into the 2520, and I am going to try to slowly and carefully put some things in place before we pull the trigger on everything. So, do not let yourself get lost.

Zechariah 1:12:

> "[12] Then the angel of the LORD answered and aid, O LORD of hosts, how long will thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had"—what?
>
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: Indignation.
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"indignation these threescore and ten years?" Zechariah 1:12 (KJV).

Now, we see that in the threescore and ten years, which is the 70 years, that this is an illustration of God's indignation in a 70-year period. All right?

And, we have read more than once in Habakkuk's Two Tables the next quote, where it says, from Prophets and Kings, page 714,

> "God's church on earth was as verily in captivity during this long period of relentless persecution [1260 YEARS OF PAPAL RULE] as were the children of Israel held captive in Babylon during the period of the exile." Prophets and Kings, 714.

So, this 70 years here [Figure No. 175] is tied together by Sister White with the 1260 years of Papal rule. They are typifying one another; and, we have dealt with this before.

So, this here is a miniature of God's indignation. It is definitely His indignation. It was accomplished; but, it, in itself, is an illustration of the indignation of God.

And you will notice, Jesus illustrates the end from the beginning. Where do these 70 years begin?

I already mentioned it in this presentation. I have mentioned in several times in this series.

Where do these 70 years begin?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: With the destruction of Jerusalem.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: With the destruction of Jerusalem, and the end of Israel as a kingdom.

Where does it end, not date?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the destruction of Babylon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the destruction of Babylon, when the Medes and Persians come under the gates.

So, Jesus begins this prophecy with the removal of a kingdom, and He ends this prophecy with the removal of a kingdom; because, He illustrates the end from the beginning.

And, of course, this has many places that it lines up in prophetic history. This is the time period of Babylon.

And Babylon is how many kingdoms? One; so, this is one king, one kingdom.

So, when you get to Isaiah 23, you are going to see this 70 years used as a symbol of one kingdom. In Isaiah 23 it is not the kingdom of Babylon; it is the kingdom of the United States. So, all I am saying that for at this point is to tell you that this 70 years is a prophetic symbol that produces lots of light from lots of different directions. And what I am saying here is that according to Zechariah 1:12, this 70 years is an illustration of God's indignation; and, we are dealing with God and His indignation against His people, so we want to put this in the record because there is light from the story of the 70 years that is going to contribute to the understanding of the 2520s being God's indignation. And, it is now in the record.

2 Chronicles 36:21; Leviticus 26:28-34

Go to 2 Chronicles 36:21.

Now, maybe someone has got a proof-text. I believe this; but, I do not know if there is a proof-text in the Bible or in the Spirit of Prophecy that says for sure that Ezra is the author of 2 Chronicles. I understand he is; I believe he is. A proof-text would be nice.

But, if it is Ezra that authored this, when did Ezra live?

If you are going to place Ezra in history, where would you place him? Where does he really stand and shine in history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: During the Medo-Persian time period.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the Third Decree. All right. They came out of Babylon under three decrees: Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes. It is in the time period of Artaxerxes and Nehemiah where Ezra is active, right?

So, does he come before or after Daniel?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: After.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: After.

Okay. So, we are going to get into Daniel 9. I thought we were going to get in there tomorrow, but as I look at the clock probably Friday. But, we are going to find out that Daniel understood about this 70 years from the Books of Jeremiah; but, Ezra writes about these 70 years, which is an illustration of God's indignation. He writes about it as well, and we want to put this in the record.

It is in 2 Chronicles 36. And the reason that I could spit out these kings is because when I was reviewing this, this morning, if you go into—you back up in 2 Chronicles and you start in chapter 34 and read down through of 2 Chronicles, it will give you the history of these kings: Manasseh, Amon, Josiah, Jehoahaz, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah.

So, from Manasseh, to the carrying away of captivity, you have seven kings.

And in 2 Chronicles 36:21, Zedekiah (the last of those kings), it is all over. They are getting carried to Babylon. Jerusalem is destroyed. That is right here at the beginning of the 70 years in this time period.

And what does it says in 2 Chronicles 36:21. Let us do verse 20. We have given the context, but that will help us flow into verse 21.

> "[20]And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia" [21]To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years." 2 Chronicles 36:20-21 (KJV).

Okay. They are going to be in Babylon for 70 years, until when?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Until Babylon is destroyed.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: By whom?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Medes and Persians.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Until the kingdom of the Medes and the Persians. That is this 70 years. This is the kingdom of Babylon, and they are destroyed by the Medes and Persians.

But, while they are there, this 70 years is based upon their desecration of the land-resting sabbath. It says so.

And you have got to get this one. This here, this here is a slap in the face to the theologians of Adventism. Okay? This is a righteous indignation slap in the face. Okay? They go back and they say that there is no justification in the Hebrew for William Miller to assign a numerical value to Leviticus 26; after all, he was just a farm boy.

But, Ezra is not a farm boy, and Ezra understands the Hebrew. Okay? So, in verse 21 Ezra is referring to this 70-years captivity and he tells us, unlike the other references in the Bible about these 70 years, that this 70 years is based upon them desecrating letting the land rest, according to the statute. And the words he used is, ". . . until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years." There is only one other place in God's Word where this expression about letting the land rest is found, and it happens to be in the very sequence of verses that William Miller points to, right here [indicating the 7 years noted in the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart], as identifying the 2520. Up here he says, "Leviticus 26:28-34."

Let us go there, Leviticus 26:28-34, and verse 27 just to put it in context.

> "[27]And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;—

"If you break the statutes and covenant that I have given you,"

> —"[28] Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins."—

And the modern theologians say this Hebrew word that is translated as seven times, Miller has no justification for applying a numerical value to this Hebrew word; and, this is where he gets it from. It is right there [again referring to the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart].

But, notice the next verse.

> —"[29] And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. [30] And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you. [31] And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours. [32] And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it. [33] And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. [34] Then"—THEN—"shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths." Leviticus 26:28-34 (KJV).

Go back to 2 Chronicles 36:21: "To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years." The modern theologian, maybe they need to remove Ezra from God's Word, because Ezra just took Leviticus 28 through 34 and applied a numerical value to this curse. He says the land was resting for these 70 years, based upon Leviticus 26, the same passage that Miller uses to derive the numerical value for the 2520; and, they say he is wrong for doing so.

So, what does this mean? If you have 70 years that the land is resting to make up for all the years that the land did not rest, how many years did the land not rest?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 490. In order to calculate it out, the land rested every seventh year. You have to take 70 × 7 to determine—if there are 70 years worth of sabbath years of rest, then it meant it took 490 years to build up that rebellion.

And, do you know what you do if you go back starting here [at the destruction of Jerusalem] 490 years?

What you will do is you will identify how long they had been in rebellion to the statute, and you will arrive right here. What is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: King Saul.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The first king, king Saul, 490 years before.

What did they do then [at that time, of the first king of Israel]? They rejected the Lord.

The Lord said, "Samuel, they haven't rejected you. They have rejected me." And for 490 years they desecrated the statute of Leviticus 25. And Ezra takes the curse of Leviticus 26 that is based upon the statute of Leviticus 25, and he shows that curse is to be understood according to the year-day principle of Bible prophecy, just exactly as William Miller applied it.

So, this 70 years, an illustration of the indignation, it produces a lot of information that we need to put in the record.

We are not done with that, and we will have to return to this tomorrow.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Father in Heaven, we are amazed at the consistency that runs through your Word, the way that over thousands of years you can take a human instrument and lead them to make a prediction based upon your will and that that prediction always come through, but that every other human being that you choose to use in that fashion is in agreement with the other throughout that whole period of time. And, we are amazed that you could use such a one as William Miller coming out of the Dark Ages, a Deist, a farmer from such an ancient time and lead him to such profound understandings, understandings that become the foundation of those people that you are about to lift up as an ensign to Planet Earth here at the end of the world. We thank you for the work that he did. We thank you that you are allowing us to understand these things, that you are recovering the jewels and that you are making them shine ten times brighter than the sun. We ask a blessing upon the work that we are doing here in recording the DVDs and the LiveStreaming, and ask that you continue to watch over and bless that production. And as we break now for physical food, we also ask a blessing upon that. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #86

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, first off, we want to lift up Brother Emiliano who has been taken down with a cold and ask that you would heal him according to your will that he might accomplish the wonderful work that he has begun here the past couple of days. We know that you have been using him in a large way throughout Planet Earth recently, and I am aware personally that that kind of travel has a heavy impact upon the body. We ask that his time here does not bring him down even further; and, that if it is according to your will that you can heal him in a quick fashion. We have been praying for the work that he has been doing here for a long time, and we would like to see that go forward. And as we continue on in Habakkuk's Tables, we ask that you once again grant us the outpouring of your Holy Spirit, that you would send holy angels from on high to be in attendance with us, that they would keep the distractions away. And I ask that you would help me to keep focused on what you wish to present in Habakkuk's Tables but to keep my humanity out of it, that the light that you have for us will be able to come through this weak human vessel. I ask also that you would prepare the hearts and minds of those that are listening, whether here or on LiveStream or on DVD, to receive what you have for us. Please send us your Holy Spirit. Forgive us our sins. Clear our hearts, our minds, and bless us with some Rain from on High. We ask in Jesus's name, amen.

MAKE DANIEL UNDERSTAND THE MAREH VISION

BROTHER PIPPENGER: If you were here this morning, we did [Presentation] #85, and we were dealing with the last end of the indignation in Daniel 8:19. We were identifying that Gabriel had been commanded in Daniel 8 to come and make Daniel understand the mareh vision; and that Gabriel presented the indignation that ends last as a second testimony to 1844. I do not think we have proven that yet. We are still in Daniel 8:19, so to speak; but, what we have been doing is looking at the indignations in God's Word.

If you look at your notes, from Daniel 8:16, we see the command given to Gabriel for Daniel; and, it says,

> "[16]And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the [mareh] vision." Daniel 8:16 (KJV).

And the mareh vision we have already identified: the vision of the evenings and the mornings. It is the vision of 1844, when the sanctuary was going to be cleansed.

And, we have identified that one of the correct definitions of this word that is translated as cleansed is to be made right.

> CLEANSED: Strong's Concordance H6663—A primitive root; to be (causatively make) *right (in a moral or forensic sense):—cleanse, clear self, (be, do) just (-ice, -ify, -ify self), (be, turn to) righteous (-ness).

DANIEL 8:13-14

> "[13] Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily ~~sacrifice,~~ and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? [14] And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days [IN 1844]; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed [MADE RIGHT]." Daniel 8:13-14 (KJV).

And, of course, what we are doing here is addressing the answer of verse 14 to the question in verse 13; and, the question in verse 13 is, "How long is the c n vision of prophetic history concerning Paganism and Papalism that are going to trample down the sanctuary, and they are also going to trample down the host?" And the answer is, in 1844 the sanctuary will be made right.

But, in Exodus 25:8 we are informed that the purpose of the sanctuary is that God may dwell among His people.

> "[8]And let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them." Exodus 25:8 (KJV).

So, in the Scriptures, whenever you find God's sanctuary referenced, it is automatically understood that there is a host connected to God's sanctuary. It is a given that is the purpose of the sanctuary.

So, in verse 13 of Daniel 8, where we see both the sanctuary and the host being trodden underfoot, what we are saying is that Daniel 8:14 is identifying the restoration of the sanctuary to its rightful place on October 22, 1844, but that Gabriel is also giving a second witness to 1844 and, in so doing, he is identifying the prophecy that restores the host in 1844. And that prophecy we are identifying as the seven times of Leviticus 26 that was accomplished against the Southern Kingdom of Judah, beginning in 677BC when Manasseh was carried to Babylon by the Assyrians, as marked by Miller up here [indicating the year 677BC in the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart] as being 2 Chronicles 33:11.

Of course, we can have a certain amount of confidence in William Miller because we know that the same angel that directed Daniel[35] to write the Book of Revelation was the same angel directing Miller to understand the Book of Daniel.

And, we can have a certain amount of confidence in Miller's assessment that the seven times of Leviticus 26 was an expression of the year-day principle; because, we closed out our last presentation by noting that Ezra, in 2 Chronicles 36:21, tied in the 70 years of the captivity of Babylon with Leviticus 26, the same passage that Miller places up here [on the 1843 Chart] for the seven times, Leviticus 26:28-34, which among other things beyond simply identifying the seven times and the scattering of God's people, it identifies the land resting; and, this is where Ezra draws from Moses in Leviticus 26 and Jeremiah's 70 years and he brings them together.

So, we are still looking at God's indignation against His people.

Another characteristic of God's indignation, and the characteristics that we have identified so far, is that there is an indignation against the wicked during The Seven Last Plagues. That is God's righteous indignation. But, there is also an indignation in the Bible against God's people for breaking the covenant. And that was carried out twice: one against the Northern Kingdom and one against the Southern Kingdom.

[35] Corrects audio on DVD on the authorship of the Book of Daniel from John to Daniel.

We identified in our last presentation that the Lord uses Pagan kings to be the instrument that begins both of these indignations (the one against the Northern Kingdom and the one against the Southern Kingdom); but, ultimately, we identified that the Lord will punish the kings that He uses to carry them [His people] into captivity as well.

A SIGN

Deuteronomy 29:1 – 30:7; Deuteronomy 28:45-50; 2 Chronicles 34:18-28

And the next point about the indignation that we want to look at, at to me this is perhaps the most important; and, I will tell you why I think it is the most important. There is no way I could know if is the most important. That is my human evaluation, which is like everyone else's human evaluation. It is flawed because it is human.

But, when it comes to marking the characteristics of the indignation, one of those prophetic characteristics is that it is a sign that must be recognized by God's people; and, we are first just going to deal with it as it is set forth in ancient history. But, the purpose of putting the emphasis on it is to identify that it was a sign that the Millerites had to recognize. They had to understand this indignation, and it is a sign here at the end of the world that Seventh-day Adventists have to understand in order to go back to the Old Paths of Jeremiah 6:16.

So, if we could show that among other things the indignation of God is a sign, and then we can take the principle that all the prophets are speaking more about the end of the world than the days in which they lived, then we see that the 2520 at the end of the world is a sign. And, of course, a sign in prophecy is life or death. If you reject the sign, if you reject the idea that, "Well, I have never seen it rain before, and I really don't know why those animals are getting on the ark; but, I am just going to stay here anyway," you reject that sign, you die in the flood. Signs in the Bible are to be recognized as life or death.

But, let us see if we can demonstrate that. Go to Deuteronomy 29, verse 1.

And I want to say that in terms of the way I was personally trying to do Habakkuk's Two Tables, and I know that there are some people that are thinking that Habakkuk's Two Tables is a never-ending story. Okay? And they have some concern about that. And perhaps it is. I would say that if we are going to study the Scriptures throughout eternity, we are going to be studying these Tables throughout eternity.

So, in terms of "eternity," 100 hours ain't much. Okay?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, I have been trying to go through this to where when I was done the points that I was going to stand upon were in place. So, pretty much, what I have been doing is waking up pretty early in the morning and getting the day's presentation together where I thought I had what I wanted when I come in here.

This is not what we are doing here; so, I am not necessarily so happy about doing this, where I have not put all the ducks in a row that I wanted to have, at least in my head. But, I am trusting that this is the Lord's will, but I am forewarning you, it may be a little bit more—what would you call it?—scattered, scattered, before we gather it together. All right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, Deuteronomy 29, starting at verse 1:

“chapter 29:1 These are the words of the covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

“2 And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land; 3 The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles: 4 Yet the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day. 5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.”—

So, what history is going on here?

We have already read it, but what is happening here?

I will tell you, because you cannot know what I really want you to say.

When the Lord entered into covenant at Sinai when they came out of Egypt, He entered into covenant. But, just before they go into the Promised Land, He reinstitutes the covenant.

And this is worth knowing, because, Sister White has a statement where she says in the last days the Lord renews His covenant with His commandkeeping people, and the Lord entered into covenant with Adventism in the 1844 to 1850 time period, with modern Israel; therefore, before modern Israel goes into the Promised Land, He is going to renew the covenant again with them, and that is in the time period of The Sunday Law.

So, this history here is prefiguring right now. It is right now. This is the renewal of the covenant that was made with Millerite Adventism at the beginning of Adventism. It is being typified here in this story.

Amen?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Verse 6:

—“6 Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God.”—

Does everyone understand what I just said? Yes?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Does it seem to make sense to you? Do you believe that?

Or, are you willing to say you believe that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what does it tell you about the history of Adventism? That they were wandering in the wilderness for almost the entire time, and they were all destined to die because they would not have anything to do with God’s covenant.

So, what does that tell you about today? Where is Adventism today?

Verse 7:

—“7 And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them: 8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the > Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh. [9] Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

>
> "[10] Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel, [11] Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water: [12] That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:"—

That oath is a very significant word.

And Daniel 9:11, that is an easy passage in Daniel to remember: In Daniel 9:11, this oath is referred to. It comes from the same word that is translated as seven times in Leviticus 26.

> —"[13] That he may establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. [14] Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath;"—

I like this part.

> —"[15] But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day:

That is us. We were not there, but this is the covenant that He is making prophetically right now.

> —"[16] (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by; [17] And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:)"—

Have you seen the idols and abominations here in the glorious land?

> —"[18] Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood; [19] And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst: [20] The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven. [21] And the LORD shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law: [22] So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD hath laid upon it; [23] And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath: [24] Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?"—

Now I want you to see, if you will, that the curse was something designed not only for the Jews to recognize but for the whole world to recognize. It was something they had to recognize. That qualifies for defining a sign.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It goes on, it says,

—"[25] Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt: [26] For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he had not given unto them: [27] And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book: [28] And the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Great indignation.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day. [29] The secret things"—

This verse, if you read it, this verse is kind of just like thrown in there. It is out of the flow. And, what it is telling you, the student of prophecy, is that this is a prophetic subject that you need to recognize.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"[29] The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

"chapter 30:1 And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee, [2] And shalt return unto the LORD thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul; [3] That then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee. [4] If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee: [5] And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers. [6] And the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live. [7] And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee." Deuteronomy 29:1 – 30:7 (KJV).

What I am saying is, among other things, this curse, all the curses of Moses were designed to be recognized by the world as a sign of what the Lord had done; but, they are also designed for God's people to recognize. They were to recognize, when they finally woke up out of their Laodicean condition and realized they did not live in Israel anymore, they lived in Babylon and they did not have slaves working for them; they were working as slaves. They were to wake up and realize that "This was not what God intended for me," and then they should go through the repentance process, but they would do it only because they recognized that the curse had been accomplished upon them. And, when they acknowledged the curse that had been accomplished upon them, and then met the requirements of the Gospel (because there are requirements), then the Lord would gather them.

So, I want you to see in here that this scattering, this indignation is a sign.

Go to Deuteronomy 28:45-50.

"[45] Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee: [46] And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever."—

What will be a sign and a wonder upon them forever?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The curses.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The curses. It is a sign and a wonder forever.

What does forever mean? Forever. Okay? It is a sign throughout the Gospel dispensation.

Verse 47:

—"[47] Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things: [48] Therefore shall thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee."—

That is AD70; because, the next verse tells you who is going to destroy them. It says,

—"[49] The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; [50] A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young: . . ." Deuteronomy 28:45-50 (KJV).

The iron nation that is going to put a yoke on them that speaks a different language that is the fierce countenance is Pagan Rome that destroys them in fulfillment of this prophecy in AD70.

And according to this passage, the trampling down that was accomplished upon them is a sign and wonder forever.

Does that mean even now?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indistinct responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Does that mean that the curse of God is the sign for Seventh-day Adventists? That is what this is all prefiguring, is us at the end of the world. So, maybe we should be careful about how we should relate to this doctrine in God's Word.

2 Chronicles 34:18-28. You have an illustration of someone who recognizes the sign for what it is supposed to be.

2 Chronicles 34, beginning at verse 18, is everyone there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "[18] Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. [19] And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes."—

What king is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Josiah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Good king Josiah.

—"[20]And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying, [21] Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book. [22] And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college:) and they spake to her to that effect. [23] And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,"—THAT IS JOSIAH, GOOD KING JOSIAH—"[24] Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah: [25] Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched. [26] And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard; [27] Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD. [28] Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again." 2 Chronicles 34:18-28 (KJV).

So, what we are saying is, this indignation (this curse of Moses) is a sign; and, Josiah represents those that recognize the sign correctly and respond accordingly in his history, but his history is typifying our history.

And in his history, when the curse of Moses was discovered, where did he seek light to understand it from?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: From the prophetess.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: From the prophetess.

Okay. And that is where we started with Habakkuk's Two Tables, is to show that Ellen White fully endorsed the 2520.

And, we took a great deal of time to show that if you are rejecting the truths (the foundational truths) on these [1843 and 1850] Charts, you are simultaneously, whether you do it openly or whether you understand it, you are simultaneously rejecting the Spirit of Prophecy.

And here, good king Josiah is recognizing the discovery of the curse of Moses as a sign, and acting accordingly. We wanted to put that in the record that this curse that we are dealing with, this indignation, this scattering, is a sign. All right?

A GATHERING

Deuteronomy 30:1-3; Jeremiah 30:10-11; Ezekiel 11:17-21; 20:33-42; John 11:49-52; Genesis 49: 1-2, 7, 9-11, 33

Another point we want to put in place is the Gathering.

Deuteronomy 30, verses 1 and 2—Some of you just got here. I trust you understand that Brother Emiliano is sick.

Deuteronomy 30, verses 1 through 3:

> "[1] And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee. [2] And shalt return unto the LORD thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul; [3] That then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee." Deuteronomy 30:1-3 (KJV).

That is good. Did you see the conditions of the Gospel there? It is if you see this curse and you understand your condition, and you turn "with all thine heart, and with all thy soul," then the Lord will gather you. There is a promise of a gathering to the scattering; but, you have to meet the conditions.

Okay. So, we are working in a little different fashion. Let me throw something in here for you. I want to show you that this is a specific command.

What command? A command to meet the conditions of the Gospel.

The reason that I am saying "to meet the conditions of the Gospel" is there has been controversy in Adventism that began in 1888, probably, when we began to reject the light. But, in the Fifties and Sixties it really got enthroned in Adventism that the Gospel is justification by faith; everything is done at the cross; and, you are safe in your sins—okay?—which is, pretty much, the Evangelical Gospel, which Adventism now presents to the world.

So, when you are dealing with that kind of foolish teaching in Adventism, there are places where Sister White says in order to be justified, we have to meet the conditions of Salvation. So, that is why I am emphasizing that phrase. There are conditions that have to be met.

And in this curse it is a sign. Okay? You saw that, it is a sign?

And when you see the sign, you have to respond to the conditions given. And, we have just seen some of the conditions, but I want to show you the conditions in a little bit more detail. It is not in your notes.

Go to Leviticus 26. We have already read down to verse 34 in our last presentation; so, let us start in verse 33. Leviticus 26, starting at verse 33.

You will see what I am getting at in a moment.

Leviticus 26, verse 33, says—and this is starting in the verses that Miller uses to identify the seven times [gesturing to the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart]. Okay. Verse 28 references the seven times.

Verse 33 says,

> "[33] And I will scatter you among the heathen,"—

And we showed that in the last presentation, that God's indignation is the scattering.

> —"[33] And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. [34] Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths."—

We tied that in with the 70 years in 2 Chronicles 36:21.

Verse 35:

> —"[35] As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. [36] And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth. [37] And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies. [38] And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. [39] And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them."—

Now, here are the conditions of the Gospel.

> —"[40] If they shall confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers,"—

There are right there two points. You have got to confess your iniquities and your fathers' iniquities.

—"[40] If they shall confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me,"—

Have you ever had someone do a really dirty deed to you, and you knew they owed you an apology; and, it was such a dirty deed that it needed to be a specific apology, and they come up and just say, "I'm sorry." You know, it is not quite the same as when you say, "I am sorry for doing this, this, this, this."

You need to be specific with your apologies here. That is what it is saying.

—"[40] If they shall confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;"—

Not just your sins, your fathers' sins, what you did, but also go ahead and admit that you turned and walked away from me. Okay?

—"[41] And that I also have walked contrary unto them, "—

And, "You need to admit that during this rebellion, I wasn't leading you. You were being led by Satan."

—"[41] And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies;"—

You have to admit that Laodicea is not God's land. Philadelphia is God's land. You cannot be confessing to be a Philadelphian when you are living the experience of a Laodicean. You have to admit that you are in the enemies' land, captive.

—"have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity: [42] Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. [43] The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes." Leviticus 26:33-43 (KJV).

Okay. Just to put it in the record—I do not want to put a lot of time there—go back to the next chapter, chapter 25, verse 1.

"[1] And the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai saying, [2]Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the LORD." Leviticus 25:1-2 (KJV).

Okay. He just talked about, at the beginning where we read, in verse 34 (we started in verse 33, but in verse 34), and in verse 34 he references the land resting every seventh year; but, he also referenced that they had broken the statutes. So, I want you to understand that the statutes that in context have been broken are the statutes of the land resting. But, keep that in the back of your mind.

Where I want you to go to is Daniel 9—and keep your finger in Leviticus 26, just in case.

You know, there are many wonderful things in Daniel, chapter 9; but, what I want you to see is that when Daniel is praying, he is specifically praying the prayer that is identified, that is outlined in Leviticus 26.

If there is an outline in Leviticus 26 and Daniel prays a prayer that point by point covers that outline, then is Daniel praying that prayer because he understands the curse of Leviticus 26?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: {Affirmations.}

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

Daniel 9, and verse 1.

And what we are talking about is that this indignation, this scattering is among other things is a sign and the Bible is specific, giving us Josiah as an example, that those that recognize the sign are going to be blessed, and it gives us the example or it identifies what we need to do to be blessed, what our response must be, and it gives us an example of this in Daniel, chapter 9.

So, Daniel, chapter 9, verse 1, says,

> "[1] In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans; [2] In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by [a book]"—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Books.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"Books."—

Okay. More than one book.

And, as you read this chapter, he is going to tell you who the books are.

What are the books?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The books of Moses and Jeremiah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Moses and Jeremiah. Okay.

> —"I Daniel understood by books the number of years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet,"—THERE IS ONE BOOK—"that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.'—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 2 Chronicles.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me? No, it could not have been 2 Chronicles.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ezra comes after Daniel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ezra comes a long time after Daniel, if Ezra is the author of 2 Chronicles.

Verse—pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is the book of Moses.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, it is the book of Moses, the Pentateuch; and, the book of Jeremiah; and, perhaps others. But, it is not Chronicles, because Ezra wrote Chronicles after Daniel had been laid to rest. So, Daniel was not studying Ezra.

Verse 3:

> —"[3] And I set my face unto the Lord God, to see by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes: [4] And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments; [5] We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled,"—

He is being pretty specific.

> —"even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments; [6] Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. [7] O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee."

Okay. He is being specific about the sins, and he is acknowledging that they have been scattered to the other countries.

> —"[8] O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of faces,"—

He is acknowledging that they walked contrary to God, and He has walked contrary to them. They are confused; they are in confusion; they are in Babylon.

> —"to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. [9] To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him; [10] Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. [11] Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. [12] And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. [13] As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth. [14] Therefore, hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice. [15] And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly."
> "[16] O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain:

> because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us. [17] Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. [18] O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. [19] O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name." Daniel 9:1-19 (KJV).

Brothers and Sisters, that is Daniel meeting the conditions of Leviticus 26. So, Daniel is praying this prayer because he understands the curse of Leviticus 26.

God's people at the end of the world are supposed to understand the curse of Leviticus 26 because it is a sign; and, you can relate to this sign either as Ahab does in Isaiah, chapter 7, or as Josiah did. And you know this is the prayer of Leviticus 26, because the point in time when you and I were supposed to investigate this curse, this sign at the end of the world was 9/11 [September 11, 2001].

And, if you read Daniel 9:11, it says,

> "[11] Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him."

And that oath is the same word that is translated as seven times in Leviticus 26.

So, what we are dealing with here is that the indignation is a sign and that it has conditions. When you see the sign, you have conditions that you need to meet if you are going to be benefited by the sign as Josiah was.

So, go back to your notes now. Let us go to Jeremiah 30:10-11. We are still looking at the fact that the indignation is a sign.

Jeremiah 30, beginning at verse 10:

> "[10] Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid. [11] For I am with thee, saith the Lord, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished." Jeremiah 30:10-11 (KJV).

You need to look at my notes. The scattering has with it the promise of a gathering; but, you are only going to participate in that gathering if you recognize that the curse is a sign and you respond correctly to the requirements of the sign.

So, now we are looking at the fact that the scattering also promises a gathering. Okay?

Let us go to Ezekiel 11. All we are doing is bringing two or three witnesses to the idea that the indignation that we are considering is a sign.

Ezekiel 11, beginning at verse 17, is everybody there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: "[17] Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered; and I will give you the land of Israel."—

Now, there is more to read about this, but there is no reason not to make some points along the way.

If all the prophets are speaking about the end of the world, if the Lord is going to gather us at the end of the world and renew the covenant with us, what does it mean about the time period just before He gathers us?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: We have been scattered.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Adventism has been scattered; and, he is going to gather us.

Adventism has been scattered? How have we been scattered?

If we are claiming that this is the time when the Lord is gathering us, there is no evidence that Seventh-day Adventists have been physically scattered to the other nations of the world, is there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Spiritually gathered—

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Spiritually scattered.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: —spiritually scattered.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Spiritually gathered and scattered.

Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Also, from the winds of doctrine.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Winds of doctrine.

How did that happen?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The leaders have led us astray.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The leaders have led us astray, but how does it happen?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Old Paths; we left the Old Paths.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Old Paths. We have left the Old Paths.

Why did we leave the Old Paths?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because, it got covered up, covered up over a period of time. All right?

And, counterfeit coins were introduced [referencing William Miller's dream], as the old coins were covered up; and, they were taken out of the casket and scattered. Right?

So, we have been spiritually scattered, according to Inspiration.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: And we have lost sight of the vision.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Sure. You lose sight of the vision.

That is what these jewels [gesturing to the 1843 and 1850 Charts] identify, is the vision. This is the vision: ". . . Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it." [Habakkuk 2:2, in part (KJV)]. This is the vision. You take these jewels, you throw them [away], and there is no vision: "Where there is no vision, the people perish: . . ." (Proverbs 29:18).

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In the light behind us, the Midnight Cry was removed.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Midnight Cry was removed.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: And there was no light to guide the people to Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Why was the Midnight Cry removed?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because we rejected the Midnight Cry as a fulfillment of the Lord.

And that did what? It took us off the path, down to the dark, wicked world below; and, we lost sight of Jesus who was before us, and we were no longer receiving light from His glorious right hand.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: But, there will be a physical scattering.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Oh, yes, there will be a physical scattering, for certain. Sister White says that more than once.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Like the Disciples, they were spiritually scattered before the cross. At the cross, they were physically scattered.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: [Nodding his head in agreement], the Disciples were spiritually scattered before the cross; at the cross they were physically scattered. And the punch line of that study, when you do that, is that if you think you are going to be hanging around with all these spiritual giants that you are hanging around with now when The Sunday Law hits, you are going to be scattered and you are going to have to stand on your own. And you might find out that all these spiritual giants receive the mark of the beast at that time.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible comment.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is wonderful, but I have to pull it back in. Okay? This is getting me going to where we do not need to go.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Ezekiel 17 says,

> —"[17] Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered; and I will give you the land of Israel. [18] And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence. [19] And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh: [20] That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. [21] But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God." Ezekiel 11:17-21 (KJV).

So, this curse is a sign. You must meet the conditions that are set forth in the curse in order to be benefited by this sign; and, if you do, the Lord will be entering into covenant with you and giving you a new heart.

But, if you do not, He is going to do what? Recompense their own way.

What way is that? There are two paths. The people who He is entering into covenant with, they are on the Old Paths. These other people are on the path of destruction.

Ezekiel 20:33-42:

> "[33]As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you:"—

When does the Lord do that?

When does He rule over us with an outstretched arm? Well, He did that in Egypt. He led them out of Egypt with an outstretched arm.

Of course, when they [the children of Israel] came out of Egypt, that is prefiguring 1840 to 1844; and, Ellen White's first vision in 1844 places Christ on a Path that leads to Heaven, with His glorious right hand shedding light all along the way. So, from 1840 to 1844 He was delivering us out of spiritual Babylon, the same way He was delivering Ancient Israel out of Egypt with His right hand stretched out.

> —"[34] And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out. [35] And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face."—

When He brought them out of Egypt, did He plead with them face to face in the wilderness?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Did He do that with the Millerites? Yes.

Is He going to renew the covenant at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, He is going to do it the same way again, right? The same history: the Millerite History is repeated to the very letter, and the Millerite History is illustrated by the history of Ancient Israel.

Verse 36:

> —"[36] Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. [37] And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:"—

This is the covenant that we are entering into right now.

> —"[38] And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD."—

When does He purge out the rebels?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Sunday Law; but, the purging process begins before The Sunday Law, does it not? That is why Sister White says the Church appears to fall, but it does not fall. It remains while—what?—the sinners in Zion are removed. This is a terrible ordeal, but the rebels are going to be purged out.

—"[39] As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols. [40] For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. [41] I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. [42] And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers." Ezekiel 20:33-42 (KJV).

So, there is going to be a gathering at the end of time that is prefigured by these histories.

Before we go to John, go to Zechariah. It is not in your notes.

Zechariah 1, starting at verse 12. I will not read all the way down.

But, in verse 12, in our last presentation, we read where Sister White compares the 70 years with the 1260 years. That is why we put this down here [referring to the whiteboard; see Figure No. 175]. Your notes from this morning has that quote.

So, the 70 years is referenced in verse 12.

And then in verse 16 it says,

"[16] Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. [17] Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the Lord shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem." Zechariah 1:16-17 (KJV).

When He is choosing Jerusalem at the end of this history [the 70 years], He is prefiguring Him choosing Jerusalem at the end of the world and He is going to enter into covenant with those that are gathered out of the places where they have been scattered, put His laws in their hearts; but, if you do not see the sign that allows you to respond to this covenant call, then you are going to be purged out as a rebel of Adventism.

John 11: The scattering has a promise of a gathering.

John 11, starting at verse 49:

"[49] And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all. [50] Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. [51] And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; [52] And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad."

All the prophets are speaking more about the end of the world than the days in which they lived, including John, the author of Revelation. And, there is a promise that He is going to gather all His people at the end of the world into one; because, they have been scattered.

But, in order to be gathered, what do you have to do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Repent.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In the Old Testament you had to admit that you had been scattered.

But, in our time period, what do we have to do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: [Indiscernible response.]

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, we have to admit that we are scattered; but, more importantly, what do we have to do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Meet the conditions.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Meet the conditions; but, what do we have to—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All of you are nailing the details of the paradigm. That is good, but that is not what I am after.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Recognize the sign.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You have to recognize the sign, but what is the sign for us?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is a doctrine. It is a doctrine that was presented here [indicating the 2520 in the upper right-hand corner of the 1843 Chart]. We have to recognize that this is truth, that this is one of the foundational truths. We have to recognize the curse in our day and age and then achieve all of those requirements.

Is that not how you would apply it, if you are going to be gathered?

Genesis 49. And we are talking about the scattering having the promise of the gathering; Genesis 49:7 [correcting notes from Isaiah 49:7]. And the subject of the scattering can be traced back to Genesis 49. What does that mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is the first place that it is mentioned?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the first mentioned perhaps; not really; the first mentioned of God's people. But, in Genesis 11 Babel is scattered.

But, what I wanted to emphasize and point out is that the scattering and gathering is mentioned in Genesis 49 long before Moses is born and puts it into a prophecy in Leviticus 26. So, Moses's prophecy is just a secondary prophecy to Genesis 49.

Genesis 49—and we are talking about the scattering and the gathering, and students of prophecy should pay attention to this chapter; because, this chapter is poetically structured upon the theme of the scattering and the gathering, if you will see it.

Notice verse 1. My notes say differently, but I am going to start in verse 1. I have verse 1 in the notes.

> "[1] And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together . . . ."
> Genesis 49:1, in part [KJV].

Do what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Gather together.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Gather together.

So, the first thing that is mentioned in this prophecy is a gathering.

And notice—go to the last verse of Genesis 49.

—"[33] And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people." Genesis 49:33 (KJV).

So, the first thing that is emphasized in this prophecy, and the last thing, is the gathering.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible comments).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I was not there yet.

When he calls them unto himself, it is JACOB, and they were to hearken unto ISRAEL. So, verse 1, and Jacob called unto his sons, and said,

—"[1] . . . Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days."—

And do you know what Sister White says about this verse? That this is a prophecy for the last days.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is just black and white. You do not need her to tell you that. It says it in verse 1; but, a second witness is good, right? So, this is for us.

Verse 2:

—"[2] Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob, and hearken unto Israel your father." Genesis 48:1-2 (KJV).

Okay. "The sons of JACOB," who is Jacob? The supplanter; the deceiver.

Who is ISRAEL? The overcomer; the victorious one; the prince.

So, "hearken unto the victorious one, not to the deceptive one."

Go to verse 7. I probably ought to back up to verse 5 so you can see the context.

"[5] Simeon and Levi are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations. [6] O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their selfwill they digged down a wall."—

Simeon and Levi, there is a curse pronounced upon them.

In the next verse, it says,

—"[7] Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and will"—what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Scatter them.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"scatter them"—where?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In Israel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"in Israel."—

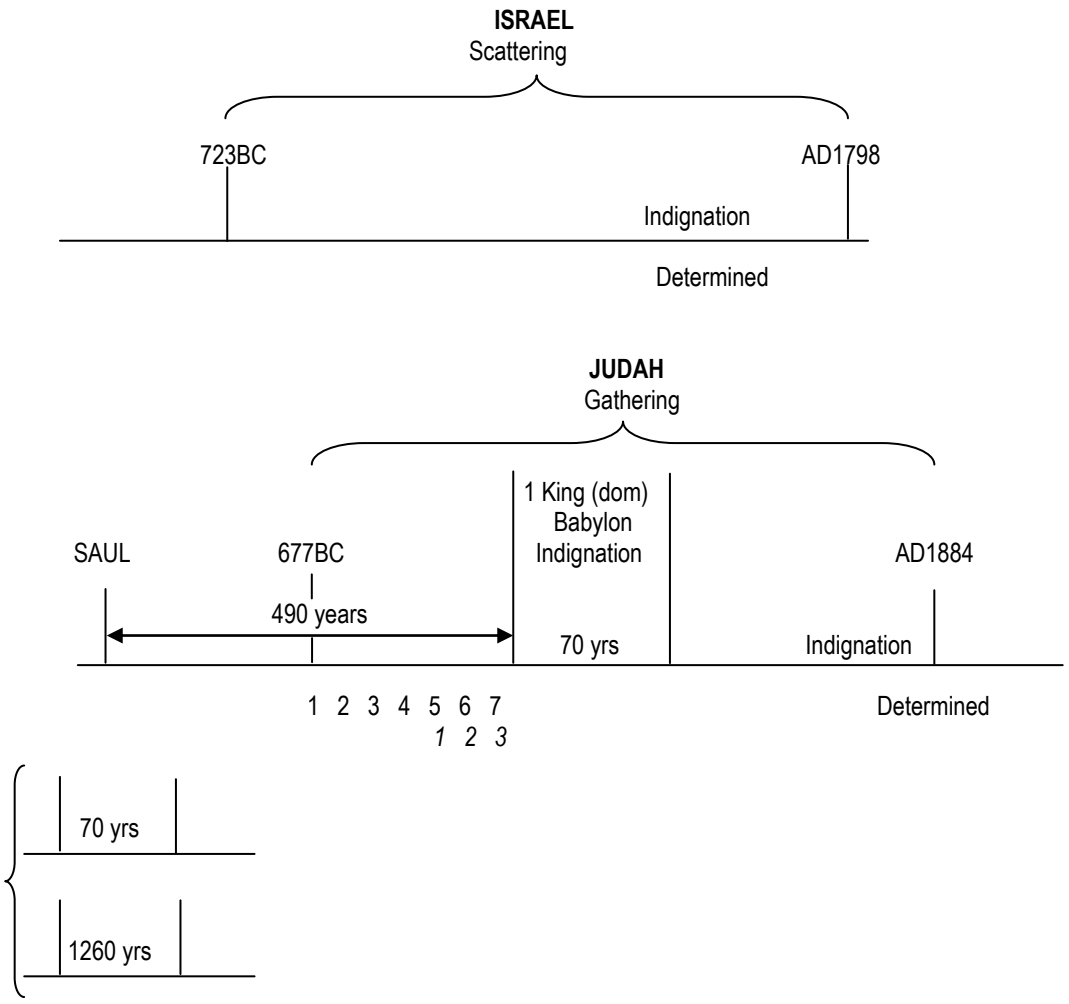

Figure No. 176.

Israel is where the scattering is marked. ISRAEL is the name for the Northern Kingdom; and, this kingdom is where the scattering is going to take place.

Right? Maybe? Do you see it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Now, in verse 8, it says,

> —"[8] Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee. [9] Judah is a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up? [10] The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be."—

Who is Shiloh?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, what tribe is being referenced here?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Judah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Judah, the Southern Kingdom, is the gathering. That is where the gathering is going to be, according to this prophecy, which of course Sister White refers to the last days.

But, speaking of Christ, the fulfillment of this verse, the scepter not departing until Shiloh comes—right? That is Christ—what does it say in verse 11?

> —"[11]Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes:" Genesis 49:5-11 (KJV).

How did He wash His clothes and garments in the blood of grapes? How did He?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the cross.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the cross. He did it at the cross.

So, what is the cross? Well, one thing, it is where He confirms the covenant. This is about the covenant at the end of the world with the people that are going to be gathered, right? And He is going to enter into covenant with them. So, He is going to confirm that covenant with many for one week, and in the midst of the week He is going to be cut off.

What is that one week? It is the 2520. And in the midst of the week, He is cut off.

So, where is He confirming the covenant? Right in the center of the 2520.

And as Emiliano was pointing out within the past couple of days, this 1260 days and this 1260 days, each day had an evening and morning sacrifice, and they continued on even after the cross. So, the first 3-1/2 years there were 2520 sacrifices, and 2520 [sacrifices] after [the second 3-1/2 years]. So, a week is a presentation of the 2520.

But, when He is going to the cross here, when He is going to the cross here to wash His garments in the blood to confirm the covenant, which is in the midst of the 2520, this covenant, when He is doing that (in verse 11) He binds his foal unto the vine.

Who is the vine?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ is the vine.

And his ass's colt unto the choice vine.

When He is going to the cross, what takes Him into Jerusalem to go to the cross?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: An ass; Islam.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Islam is associated with this covenant, from the beginning of the Bible to the end; but, that is another subject.

Verse 33 we have already read:

> "[33] And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people." Genesis 49:33 (KJV).

So, what I am saying is, is that the indignation (the scattering), among other things, is a sign; and, the Bible is not casual about identifying this sign. It tells you what happens to the people that are going to reject the sign. It gives you examples like Josiah, of those that will accept the sign, the blessing that is upon them. It tells you there are conditions, specific prayer conditions, that need to be met if you are going to receive the blessing of this sign; and, then it gives you the example of the prophet Daniel fulfilling those conditions, so you have a second witness to know what you are going to do if you are going to accept this sign. Because, if you are going to accept this sign, you are going to be among those that are gathered out of the spiritual Laodicea where you and I have been scattered; and, the Lord then will enter into covenant with us, and He is going to confirm that covenant right here at the cross in the midst of the 2520.

Therefore, one of the things about this indignation in Daniel 8 and Daniel 11 is that it is a sign that must be understood correctly, and it is from that perspective that we can understand why Adventism is being shaken by these Old Paths' truths right now. The Lord is attempting to gather His people and pour His blood upon them that they might be clean that He might enter into covenant with them.

2300/SANCTUARY 2520/HOST

THE SAME EVENT

The Great Controversy, page 426:

> "The coming of Christ as our high priest to the most holy place, for the cleansing of the sanctuary, brought to view in Daniel 8:14; the coming of the Son of man to the Ancient of Days, as presented in Daniel 7:13; and the coming of the Lord to His temple, foretold by Malachi, are descriptions of the same event; and this is also represented by the coming of the bridegroom to the marriage, described by Christ in the parable of the ten virgins, of Matthew 25." The Great Controversy, 426.

So, I just have a couple of minutes.

With that overview of the indignation, go back to Daniel. I am just going to take a second here to tie this off, in advance of the next presentation.

Verse 15 of Daniel 8, Daniel wants to understand the c n vision; but, in verse 16 Gabriel is told to make him understand the mareh vision.

So, when Gabriel begins his job assignment in verse 19, he tells Daniel that the last [end of the] indignation is at the time appointed, thus telling us that there is at least two indignations.

And, we have identified the other indignation in Daniel 11:36.

But, because both Daniel 11:36 and Daniel 8:19 are at an appointed time, we know then that both of these indignations are time prophecies.

And, we understand that the second time prophecy that is an indignation ends in 1844. We understand that due to the work of William Miller. And with the testimony of Sister White, she says that William Miller's work was correct; therefore, we know that the indignation and the 2520 that ended in 1844 ended at the very same time that the 2300-year prophecy ended.

And the 2300-year prophecy in Daniel 8:14 is the question of verse 13 that says, "How long is the sanctuary and the host going to be trodden underfoot by Paganism and Papalism?"

So, what we are saying is that when Gabriel came to explain the mareh vision of 1844 to Daniel in verse 19, he says, "I'm going to give you a second witness to the Year 1844, because that is when the second indignation ends, the last indignation. But, more importantly, I want you to understand that the indignation is about the scattering of the host of God; but, there is a promise with the scattering that the Lord would gather those that meet the conditions at the end of the scattering time."

> "[27] And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the [MAREH] vision, but none understood it." Daniel 8:27 (KJV).

And from 1798 to 1844 the Lord began to gather a people together that would enter into the Most Holy Place with Christ on October 22, 1844; thus, ending not only the trampling down of the sanctuary but the trampling down of the host. So, Daniel 8:19 is not just simply a witness to 1844, it is answering the question of how long the host is going to be trampled down, and that answer goes with the answer of verse 14 of when the sanctuary would be cleansed. And for the sanctuary to be cleansed, to be made right, both the sanctuary and the host need to be restored.

So, if you do not believe in the 2520 and profess to believe in the Sanctuary in Heaven since 1844, then your understanding is not valid; because, the purpose of the sanctuary is that God may dwell among the people, and you are rejecting the concept of Adventism being God's people.

But that is what he [William Miller] pulled together at that time.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be benefited by the blood of the Atonement that took place in the midst of the 2520 so long ago. And we understand to be benefited by that, we must recognize that we have been scattered, that we have been scattered by our own sins, that we have walked contrary to you; and, we have been scattered by our fathers' sins. We must confess that you have not been guiding us as a people, but we have been guiding ourselves through our own self-exaltation. We ask you to forgive us. We ask you to give us the discernment to understand correctly the sign that has been put in place to mark the gathering of your people that we might meet those conditions and be among those that, in the very near future, are to be lifted up as an ensign and give a final warning to all mankind. We thank you that we can, as certified Laodiceans, participate in such a sacred work; and, we ask that the work that we are doing here will be of benefit to those who are still in the valley of decision, or of those who may not have begun to consider these things at this point. We still lift Pastor Emiliano to you and ask that you would heal him according to your will, and that you would do it quickly. We thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #87

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we ask that once again you would bless us with your presence, that you would grant us the Holy Spirit, and that you would open up our understanding to your Word through the outpouring of the Latter Rain. We want the atmosphere of Heaven to be with us; so, we would ask that you would fill this room with holy angels that they might bring an influence that would be holy and sweet and sanctifying and that they would be given permission to hold off the distractions that sometimes come in to meetings like this. We would ask that you take control of my humanity, overrule it for your glory and your honor that what is conveyed is a message from the Throne upon High; and, we would ask that you would prepare the hearts and minds of those that are hearing these things, to receive it in agreement with your will. We have another long day of service here in this meeting place, and we would ask that you watch over the production that we are doing with the DVDs and the broadcasting in LiveStream. We thank you for all these things in Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Because Emiliano was sick yesterday, we do not know his status yet today. But, I was not very happy about the last two presentations yesterday, so we still have not decided whether we are going to keep those in Habakkuk's Two Tables, although some of the points that I made yesterday are points that I wanted to have in Habakkuk's Two Tables. That is still up in the air.

But, in any case, this presentation is #87, even though the last two presentations yesterday were 87 and 88. We are right now figuring out what we are going to do; but, it is too busy around here to pull the trigger on that decision yet. So, this is #87.

What yesterday did for me is that it brought me into focus. I now see how I can conclude Habakkuk's Tables in a very short fashion and be happy with how I am going to do it; not that it is going to happen right away. But, there is probably not that more presentations left.

CONCLUSION

UNDERSTANDING THE MAREH VISION

Daniel 10:1, 16; Revelation 10:5-7; 11:14-15, 19

So, we are going to start back into Daniel; because, I definitely wanted to finish off Daniel.

And if you remember, as I am sure you do, in Daniel, chapter 8, Gabriel came to make Daniel understand the mareh vision; and, by verse 27 of Daniel 8 at the conclusion of Daniel 8, Daniel tells us that no one understood the mareh vision. So, Gabriel's work was not finished in Daniel, chapter 8. There was more light that had to be brought forth about the mareh vision to bring that to a conclusion.

And, if you go to Daniel 10:1, we are going to start working on bringing that thought to a close.

Daniel 10:1 says,

> "[1] In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision." Daniel 10:1 (KJV).

And, we have already dealt a little bit with this; because, the "thing" here in verse 1 is the b , which is the Word. And b as the Word is a verb; and, of course, Christ is the Word. He is the D b . But, in the context here, this word b is the oracle, the word, meaning a vision.

So, when we understand from the context of Daniel's full testimony that there are two visions that he deals with—primarily in Daniel 8 the mareh and the c n ; and, the mareh is the vision of the appearance of Christ in the Most Holy Place on October 22, 1844; and, the c n is the vision of prophetic history—then we see in verse 1 of Daniel 10 that Daniel has understanding of the mareh vision in that last phrase. He has finally reached an understanding. At the end of chapter 8, he did not yet understand it; but, the first thing that we are told about Daniel in verse 1 of Daniel 10 is that now he has this understanding, but he also understands the b . The b is the thing and the characteristic of the "thing" is that the time appointed for the "thing" was long.

And, in our study of the c n , we realized that one of the characteristics of the c n is that it was going to be shut up for many days (it was long).

So, we are saying the b is simply another expression of Daniel's to identify the c n ; therefore, in Daniel 10:1, Daniel is representing one who understands both the c n vision (the vision of prophetic history) and the mareh vision (the vision of Christ's appearance in the Sanctuary).

And Daniel here is doing what John does in chapter 10, verses 8 through 10, when he takes the Little Book out of the Angel's hand and eats it, and it is sweet in his mouth and bitter in his stomach. Daniel here is becoming part of the prophecy; and, therefore, he is illustrating God's people at the end of the world, therefore he is illustrating the people of God at the end of the world that understand both the c n vision (the vision of prophetic history) and the appearance of Christ in the Most Holy Place [the mareh vision]. So, here, the climax of Daniel's testimony, his last vision in Daniel 10, 11, and 12, the first thing that Daniel is representing is God's people at the end of the world that understand both visions.

But, that is just the starting point. We have already looked at the fact that in the next three verses (2, 3, and 4) Daniel is portrayed as fasting and afflicting his soul, which is evidence that he is representing God's people at the end of the world, but not the Millerites; because, the Millerites were not in the Day of Atonement. He is being specifically applied to you and me here at the end of the world in a time period of the Day of Atonement.

And, we know in the Day of Atonement at the end of the world that the Everlasting Gospel is going to be accomplished, and the Everlasting Gospel is the work of Christ in producing two classes of worshippers, based upon the introduction of a testing prophetic message.

And, therefore, if you go down to verse 7, it says,

> "[7] And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking"—

And if you look that up, a quaking can be a shaking. This is the shaking of Adventism.

> —"but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hid themselves." Daniel 10:7 (KJV).

This is Adventism. There is one class that is going to refuse to see Christ in the Most Holy Place, and the reason they refuse to see Christ in the Most Holy Place is they refuse to enter the Most Holy Place and, they are going to be shaken out; but, at the same time, Daniel is representing those that see Christ in the Most Holy Place.

Now, I am aware that this word in verse 7 is not mareh; it is marah. Okay? It is the feminine of mareh, and we have things to study about this; but, right now, I am just showing the distinction of the two classes being separated by the mareh vision of Christ in the Most Holy Place.

And, you can see in verses 5 and 6 the illustration of the appearance, the mareh, that does the separation. It says,

> "[5] Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz: [6] His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning"—

And that word appearance is mareh.

> —"and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude." Daniel 10:5-6 (KJV).

So, this is an illustration of the appearance of Christ, the mareh.

And in the next verse, verse 7, it talks about the separation, the shaking of Adventism.

Of course, these verses 5 and 6, Sister Ellen G. White tells us this is the same vision that John has in Revelation when he hears a voice behind him and he turns and he sees this pretty much same description of Christ, once again in the Sanctuary because He is there among the golden candlesticks.

Go to verse 16 of Daniel 10. And it says,

> "[16] And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision"—

This is the mareh vision.

> —"my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength." Daniel 10:16 (KJV).

Okay. So, Daniel is giving testimony of what happened to him when he entered into the Most Holy Place experience and sees the appearance of the High Priest (of Jesus Christ).

And if you go to Revelation 10:5-7, we will see when the time came in history where men and women could go into the Most Holy Place.

In Revelation 10, beginning at verse 5, it says,

> "[5] And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, [6] And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer: [7] But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets." Revelation 10:5-7 (KJV).

And then if you go to chapter 11 of Revelation, verses 14 and 15, it says,

> "[14] The second woe is past; and, behold the third woe cometh quickly. [15] And the seventh angel sounded;"—

This is the same angel as verse 7 of chapter 10, the seventh angel, the Seventh Trumpet.

> —"[15] And the seventh angel sounded, and there were great voices in heaven, saying, THE KINGDOMS OF THIS WORLD ARE BECOME THE KINGDOMS OF OUR LORD, AND OF HIS CHRIST; AND HE SHALL REIGN FOR EVER AND EVER." Revelation 11:14-15 (KJV).

Then if you drop down to verse 19, it says,

> "[19] And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament; and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail." Revelation 11:19 (KJV).

The point in history where mankind could move into the Most Holy Place and see the appearance of Christ there is October 22, 1844. And these verses we just read are marking that.

What we are looking at in Daniel 10 is the experience when it happened; but, now I have taken you to the point in time where it could happen for mankind, for the purpose of trying to show you the congruity of the prophets that illustrate this experience.

Notice this next quote from Testimonies, volume 5, page 753:

> "In the visions given to Isaiah, to Ezekiel, and to John we see how closely heaven is connected with the events taking place upon the earth and how great is the care of God for those who are loyal to Him." Testimonies, volume 5, 753.

And if you type in "Isaiah, Ezekiel, and John" into the CD-ROM, Sister White gives you abundant testimony that where they are connected, where they are illustrating the identical vision is in the Most Holy Place.

And in Isaiah 6, when Isaiah is humbled into the dust; and in Ezekiel 2 and 10, when Ezekiel sees the cherubims, with the wheels within the wheels; here in Revelation, where John sees the ark of His testament, these are all the Most Holy Place experiences of these prophets; but, this is the same experience that is being illustrated by Daniel in Daniel, chapter 10.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

Daniel 10:1-6; Revelation 1:10-17

Go back to Daniel 10 now, if you would.

What I am saying is the prophets provide abundant testimony of this experience of the Most Holy Place, and although we have already kind of reviewed it, in Daniel 10:1-6, the first thing we are told—and in the Bible there is a thing of first mentioned. The first time a thing is mentioned is the most important. And Jesus said the Word of God is a . . . ?

Nobody knows that one?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A lamp.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A lamp unto our feet.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A lamp, but that is not what I am looking for.

What is the Word of God? It is a seed, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All right. And a seed has all the genetic information in it that it needs to produce a complete plant; and, the Word of God is a seed, so the first time a subject is mentioned in the Bible, it has the entire story of that subject. That is the Rule of First Mentioned.

The most important time a subject is mentioned in the Bible is the first time; and, the second most important time is the last time. The information in between is all important, but the first and the last is the most important because the Word of God is Jesus, and He is the First and the Last.

So, this principle, it also works in passages of the Bible. Okay? Jesus is the First and the Last, so He illustrates the End from the Beginning; and, the Book of Daniel begins with Babylon conquering Jerusalem, but it ends in Daniel 11:45 where Babylon is attempting to attack Jerusalem but fails. In the beginning Babylon wins; at the end it does not win, but it is the same story at the beginning and the end of the Book of Daniel.

But, also in Daniel's last vision, the first thing that we are told about Daniel's last vision in verse 1 is the most important thing about this vision, is that Daniel is here representing God's people at the end of the world that have the understanding of both the mareh and the c n visions.

All right. Then in verses 2, 3, and 4, he is illustrated as fasting for three weeks, thus telling us that he is representing God's people at the end of the world who are in the Day of Atonement.

Then in verse 5 and 6, he sees Christ (the same Christ that John sees in chapter 1).

And, then in verse 10 of Revelation 1—go to Revelation 1—and we will show you that this is the same vision, the same appearance, to Daniel that John has. In chapter 1 of Revelation, starting at verse 10, it says,

> "[10] I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, [11] Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. [12] And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw even gold candlesticks;"—

So, where is John?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In the Holy Place.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is in the Holy Place.

> —"[13] And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. [14] His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; [15] And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. [16] And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. [17] And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead."—

When John sees this vision, he falls at His feet as dead.

> —"And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not, I am the first and the last: . . ." Revelation 1:10-17 (KJV).

And if you would go back to Daniel 10, verse 5, he says,

> "[5] Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz: [6] His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude." Daniel 10:5-6 (KJV).

And Sister White plainly tells us that this is the same vision for both of these prophets.

So, in Signs of the Times, April 7, 1887—what I am doing, what I am trying to do, is show you that this experience of the mareh, of the appearance of Christ in the Most Holy Place, has been illustrated by several prophets; and, upon those prophetic testimonies (upon the testimony of two or three a thing is established) the truths that are contained in these experiences as they are illustrated in the Word of God become established as the experience that you and I have to have here in the time period of the blotting out of sin in the Investigative Judgment when we move into the Most Holy Place with Christ.

Sister White says in Signs of the Times, April 7, 1887,

> "How many cling with great tenacity to their self-styled dignity, which is only self-esteem."—

What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Self-esteem?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. What is it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: G al .

BROTHER PIPPENGER: G al .

So, what is the symbol of this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Daily.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Daily. Okay? This is the Daily. If you are clinging to your self-righteousness, your self-exaltation, then in the terminology of Daniel 8, it is the Daily. And if you cling to that in the time of the Investigative Judgment, the blotting out of sin, when you are supposed to be humbled in the dust as these prophets are illustrated so that the Lord can take a coal from off the altar and purify you and use you as a tool to finish His work in Righteousness, but you cling to your self-esteem, then the deception that you are under, the Omega deception because this is the last deception before probation closes, that deception is symbolically represented by the Daily in the Book of Daniel.

> —"How many cling with great tenacity to their self-styled dignity, which is only self-esteem. In conversation, more time is spent in talking of self than in exalting the riches of the grace of Christ. These persons seek to honor themselves instead of waiting in humbleness of heart for Christ to honor them. They would teach others how to perfect a Christian character; but they have not such a character themselves. They have not learned of Him who says, 'I am meek and lowly of heart.'
> "Humility is inseparable from holiness of heart. The nearer the soul comes to God, the more completely is it humbled and subdued."—

So, I am hoping you are seeing here now that the two principles is what Sister White is dealing with: the principle of self-exaltation, which is a counterfeit religion that is represented in Daniel 8; and, the principle of humility, which is the true religion. Okay? So, in that context, then she says this:

> —"When Job heard the voice of the Lord out of the whirlwind, he exclaimed, 'I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.' It was when Isaiah saw the glory of the Lord, and heard the cherubim crying, 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts,' that he cried out, 'Woe is me, for I am undone!'"—

Now, prophetically, Sister White just said that this experience of Job parallels the experience of Isaiah. There are the two witnesses about this experience.

But, she goes on and says,

> —"Daniel, when visited by the holy messenger, says, 'My comeliness was turned in me to corruption.'"—

This is Daniel 10. Now we have Job, Isaiah, and Daniel.

—"Paul, after he had been caught up into the third Heaven, and heard things that it was not lawful for a man to utter, spoke of himself as 'less than the least of all saints.'"—

When was Paul caught up into the Third Heaven?

You do not know, do you? There is a good answer, though.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 2 Corinthians, chapter 12.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is where it is set forth in the Bible, but when?

In the 1st Century is the best I can do; in the 1st Century. In the 1st Century Paul was caught up into the Third Heaven; and, when he was there he heard things that it was not lawful for a man to utter.

Now, why what it not lawful for a man to utter these things?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Several responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because, if you go to Revelation 10, Revelation 10 says that John, he sees the same thing. We are going to find this out right now. He sees the same thing. In verse 3, after Christ has set his left foot upon the land and his right foot upon the sea, in verse 3 it says,

> "[3] And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. [4] And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not." Revelation 10:3-4 (KJV).

What was uttered was sealed up. Until when?

Revelation, chapter 22, verse 10, says,

> "[10] And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand. [11] He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: . . ." Revelation 22:10-11, in part (KJV).

The only thing that is sealed up in the Book of Revelation is what the Seven Thunders uttered, and it is sealed up just before the close of human probation. What the Seven Thunders uttered is sealed up until our generation, because probation is about to close.

But, Paul lived in the 1st Century and he heard this history; but, it was not lawful for him to utter it, because he was living in the 1st Century and it was sealed up until our Century.

So, when he was carried to a Third Heaven, Paul was having the identical experience that Job and Isaiah, and Daniel, and John had. And when he was there, one of the things that we are told is that he heard things that were not lawful to be uttered. He heard the history of the Seven Thunders.

So, go back to your quote:

> —" Paul, after he had been caught up into the third Heaven, and heard things that it was not lawful for a man to utter, spoke of himself as 'less than the least of all saints.' It was the beloved John, that leaned on Jesus's breast, and beheld his glory, who fell before the angels as one dead. The more closely and continuously we behold our Savior the less we shall see to approve in ourselves." Signs of the Times, April 7, 1887.

So, this about the distinction between al and true humility; and, this distinction is made in Daniel 10:7 when Daniel sees this vision, and he has this experience, but the men that were with him are shaken out. And the reason they are shaken out is because they are holding onto self-exaltation. Do you see that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And this is the testimony of the prophets about our time period, as they describe their experience that we are to have.

VISION

MARAH: Strong's Concordance, H4759—Feminine of H4758; a vision; also (causatively) a mirror: -looking glass, vision.

Now, mareh is the vision of the appearance; but, marah is the feminine of this same word. And in your notes you will see a definition of marah. It says, feminine of H4758, which is mareh; a vision; also a mirror, a looking glass.

So, the mareh is the vision of Christ in the Most Holy Place; but, when you see Christ in the Most Holy Place, you are to experience the marah, and that experience is the looking-glass experience. Right?

Daniel 10:7-8; Exodus 30:17-21; 1 Corinthians 13:9-13; 2 Corinthians 3:18; James 1:22-25

Look at Daniel 10, verses 7 and 8.

"[7] And I Daniel alone saw the [MARAH, THE FEMININE, THE LOOKING-GLASS] vision: for the men that were with me saw not the [LOOKING-GLASS] vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. [8] Therefore I was left alone,"—

There is the separation between the wheat and the tares, spiritually.

—"and saw this great [MARAH] vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength." Daniel 10:7-8 (KJV).

Go to Exodus 30. We want to look a little bit, briefly; other people have dealt with the marah, so it is already in the record of this message. So, this will be brief.

Beginning at verse 17 of Exodus 30 says,

"[17] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [18] Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water > therein. [19] For Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereat: [20] When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD: [21] So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to his seed throughout their generations." Exodus 30:17-21 (KJV).

Before you go into the Sanctuary, you need to wash yourself in the laver.

And what was used to make the laver? The women's mirrors were taken and turned into this laver. The laver is the looking glass.

1 Corinthians 13:9-13:

> "[9] For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. [10] But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. [11] When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish tings. [12] For now we see through a [LOOKING] glass, darkly;"—

This looking glass we see through, when we come into the Most Holy Place, we are going to see the appearance of Christ, the mareh, but we are going to have to clean ourselves to go in there. We are going to have to look into the looking glass. We are going to have to have our personal marah experience; and, when we do it says, > —"but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of theses is charity." 1 Corinthians 13:9-13 (KJV).

This is the experience of looking face to face with Jesus Christ and being made aware, being made undone as Isaiah says, seeing how worthless that we are, in order that we can be humbled into the position where the Lord can lift us up and use us.

Go to 2 Corinthians 3:18. We are looking at the looking glass, which is the marah vision, the feminine of the mareh.

Verse 18 says,

> "[18] But we all, with open face beholding as in a [LOOKING] glass the glory of the Lord,"—

Is that what Isaiah, and Ezekiel, and Daniel, and John, and Job, and Paul illustrate when they move into the Most Holy Place and see the mareh appearance of Christ?

> —"the glory of the Lord, are changed"—

This experience is going to change us.

> —"into the same image"—

What image? What image is that? The image of Christ.

—"from glory to glory,—"

How is it done?

—"even as by the Spirit of the Lord." 2 Corinthians 3:18 (KJV).

That is the marah vision.

And in James 1, more light on the looking glass, the marah vision, verse 22 says,

"[22] But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only,"—

And this is a common consideration in this Movement, is it not? There are some of us in this Movement that we have the intellectual understanding, but we do not have the experience. Our life does not correspond with what we know. It is all head knowledge. And, it is the marah experience that turns the intellectual understanding into the experience. That is what James is talking about.

—"[22] But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves."—

You just cannot understand this message; you have to allow the Holy Spirit to turn it into an experience.

—"[23] For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a [LOOKING] glass:"—

The marah.

—"[24] For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. [25] But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty,"—

Ah, this marah vision, this looking glass, is not simply the glory of the Lord; it is God's Law.

—"and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed." James 1:22-25 (KJV).

So, when we pull together the marah vision that is illustrated repeatedly by the various prophets, we realize that the mareh vision is the vision of Christ; the marah is our experience when we compare ourselves with Christ and are changed from glory to glory into His image through the Spirit of the Lord, being not a forgetful hearer but an actual doer of the Law of God, in all that it represents.

Notice this next quote from Review and Herald, December 22, 1896.

> "The vision given to Isaiah represents the condition of God's people in the last days. They are privileged to see by faith the work that is going forward in the heavenly sanctuary."—

And what work is going forward in the Heavenly Sanctuary in the Last Days? It is the Investigative Judgment; but, when you take it right down to the very last days, it is the blotting out of sins in the Investigative Judgment in the time of the Judgment of the Living, which is the time of the Latter Rain.

> —"They are privileged to see by faith the work that is going forward in the heavenly sanctuary. 'And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament.'"—

That is why we started there in Revelation 11, is because here Sister White is saying Revelation 11 is Isaiah 6. Okay? She is tying it together, and she does it other places, too.

> —"As they look by faith into the holy of holies, and see the work of Christ in the heavenly sanctuary, they perceive that they are a people of unclean lips,—a people whose lips have often spoken vanity, and whose talents have not been sanctified and employed to the glory of God."—

Now, it is not enough to look into the Heavenly Sanctuary. You must see the work of Christ in the Heavenly Sanctuary. That is what she says; they look by faith into the Heavenly Sanctuary and see by faith the work of Christ in the Heavenly Sanctuary. You have to see the work He is doing. And I mean: You have to see it.

In Early Writings, page 259, the Jews were left in perfect darkness because they rejected the three-step testing message of John the Baptist and Christ that would have led them into the Heavenly Sanctuary. They were led into perfect darkness, with Satan in full control of them; but, what they were not seeing was the work of Christ had changed from the earthly sanctuary to the Heavenly Sanctuary. And then in the very next paragraph, she goes to the Millerite History and says, "Those that rejected the first message could not be benefited by the second message, neither were they benefited by the Midnight Cry that was to prepare them to enter by faith into the Most Holy Place." And there she says Satan began to answer those people's prayers. But, what they did not see was that the work of Christ had moved from the Holy Place to the Most Holy Place.

So, those two histories are pointing to our history, and in our history it is not enough just to look into the Heavenly Sanctuary—all Adventists look into the Heavenly Sanctuary—but we must see the work of Christ. We must see that His work has proceeded from the Judgment of the Dead to the Judgment of the Living. And if we are not correctly passing the three-step testing process in our history that has been prefigured by the three-step testing process in the Millerite History and the History of Christ and all the sacred histories throughout time, if we are not correctly navigating that three-step testing process, then we will not be able to see that Christ has begun the Judgment of the Living. But, we have to see that.

> —"As they look by faith into the holy of holies, and see the work of Christ in the heavenly sanctuary, they perceive that they are a people of unclean lips,—a > people whose lips have often spoken vanity, and whose talents have not been sanctified and employed to the glory of God. Well may they despair as they contrast their own weakness and unworthiness with the purity and loveliness of the glorious character of Christ. But if they, like Isaiah, will receive the impression the Lord designs shall be made upon the heart, if they will humble their souls before God, there is hope for them. The bow of promise is above the throne, and the work done for Isaiah will be performed in them. God will respond to the petitions coming from the contrite heart."—

I received an email last night from a very, very close relative of mine, and he says, "I'm lost! I need to connect with Christ. What do I do?"

So [crying], I sent him an email and tried to convey this truth, "But if they, like Isaiah, will receive the impression the Lord designs shall be made upon the heart, if they will humble their souls before God, there is hope for them."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It continues on.

> "The object of this great and solemn work of God is to gather together the sheaves for the heavenly garner;"—

And I am emphasizing that expression on purpose.

> —"for the earth is to be filled with the glory of the Lord."—

When is the Earth going to be filled with the glory of the Lord?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: September 11th.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: September 11, 2001, when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 comes down.

> —"Then let none be dismayed as they see the prevailing wickedness and hear the language coming from unclean lips. When the powers of darkness set themselves in array against the people of God; when Satan shall muster his forces for the last great conflict, and his power seems to be great and almost overwhelming, the clear view of the divine glory, the throne high and lifted up, arched with the bow of promise, will give comfort, assurance, and peace." Review and Herald, December 22, 1896.

SHEAVES

But, I want you to see that the object of the work that is going on in the Most Holy Place during the blotting out of sins during the Judgment of the Living, during the sprinkling of the Latter Rain, when we enter in and see the mareh and have the marah experience for ourselves, that work is to gather together the sheaves for the heavenly garner.

Notice the next quote, from The Great Controversy, page 341.

> "To John were opened scenes of deep and thrilling interest in the experience of the church. He saw the position, dangers, conflicts, and final deliverance of the people of God. He records the closing messages which are to ripen the harvest of the earth, either as sheaves for the heavenly garner or as fagots for the fires of destruction. Subjects of vast importance were revealed to him, especially for the last church, that those who should turn from error to truth might be instructed concerning the perils and conflicts before them. None need be in darkness in regard to what is coming upon the earth." The Great Controversy, 341.

So, if the work that is going on in the Most Holy Place is to gather the sheaves, we need to understand that the message that is connected with this work is found in the Book of Revelation. It is the prophetic message.

And what is it, in the Biblical narrative, that ripens sheaves or the fagots? It is the Latter Rain.

Therefore, the message that is in the Book of Revelation is the Latter Rain Message that is poured out during the Judgment of the Living and the blotting out of sins. And, if you do not understand that, if you think that the Gospel is the gospel of W. W. Prescott, The Doctrine of Christ, that takes the prophetic message out of Christ, then you are following a false Christ, and you are not going to be in the Most Holy Place receiving the Latter Rain, and your sins are not going to be blotted out, and you are going to die. And, that is where we are at here in Adventism at the end of the world.

Notice the next quote, from Early Writings, page 119.

> "I then saw the third angel. Said my accompanying angel, 'Fearful is his work. Awful is his mission. He is the angel that is to select the wheat from the tares, and seal, or bind, the wheat for the heavenly garner. These things should engross the whole mind, the whole attention.'" Early Writings, 119.

So, now it is getting even more specific about the messages in the Book of Revelation. It is the Third Angel's Message in the Book of Revelation that does this work in the Most Holy Place during the time of the blotting out of sin.

Okay. Notice the next quote, The Desire of Ages, page 392.

> "'Whose fan is in His hand,"—

Whose fan is in His hand?

Who has a fan in His hand?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ . . . Who has a fan in His hand?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Dirt Brush Man.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Dirt Brush Man. This is also the Dirt Brush Man; it is definitely Christ.

But, what does the Dirt Brush Man do? He sweeps out the traditions and customs that have been covering up the jewels—that are represented on this [1843] Chart—and brings in counterfeits.

—"Whose fan is in his hand, and He will throughly purge His floor, and gather His wheat into the garner.' Matthew 3:12. This was one of the times of purging. By the words of truth, the chaff was being separated from the wheat."—

Okay. The Third Angel's Message does this work. It gets done in the Most Holy Place experience; it gets done by the messages of Revelation; it gets done by the Words of Truth, by the Prophetic Word of Truth.

—"Because they were too vain and self-righteous"—

They were what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Too vain and self-righteous.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Self-righteous. The reason they will not receive the Third Angel's Message (the Words of Truth from Revelation) is because of self-exaltation, because of the Daily.

—"Because they were too vain and self-righteous to receive reproof, too world-loving to accept a life of humility, many turned away from Jesus. Many are still doing the same thing. Souls are tested today as were those disciples in the synagogue at Capernaum."—

Okay. Now, when Sister White is talking about the purging of Adventism and the gathering of the sheaves by the Words of Truth, she is comparing it to Capernaum. Right?

Continuing on:

—"When truth is brought home to the heart, they see that their lives are not in accordance with the will of God. They see the need of an entire change in themselves; but they are not willing to take up the self-denying work. Therefore they are angry when their sins are discovered. They go away offended, even as the disciples left Jesus, murmuring, 'This is an hard saying; who can hear it?'" The Desire of Ages, 392.

When did they say that? At His sermon at Capernaum.

CAPERNAUM

Manuscript Releases, volume 16, 106-107:

"One matter burdens my soul: The great lack of the love of God, which has been lost through continued resistance of light and truth, and the influence of those who have been engaged in active labor, who, in the face of evidence piled upon evidence, have exerted an influence to counteract the work of the message God has sent. I point them to the Jewish nation and ask, Must we leave our brethren to pass over the same path of blind resistance, till the very end of probation? If ever a people needed true and faithful watchmen, who will not hold their peace, who will cry day and night, sounding the warnings God has given, it is Seventh-day Adventists. Those who have had great light, blessed opportunities, who, like Capernaum,"—

Now she is comparing Capernaum with you and me.

—"have been exalted to heaven in point of privilege, shall they by non-improvement be left to darkness corresponding to the greatness of the light given?"—

That is scary.

—"I wish to plead with our brethren who shall assemble at the General Conference to heed the message given to the Laodiceans. What a condition of blindness is theirs! This subject has been brought to your notice again and again, but your dissatisfaction with your spiritual condition has not been deep and painful enough to work reform. 'Thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.' The guilt of self-deception is upon our churches. The religious life of many is a lie." Manuscript Releases, volume 16, 106–107.

Of course, the scornful men that ruled the people in Jerusalem in Isaiah 28:14 were told that they hide themselves under falsehood and lies. But here, I am wanting you to see that Capernaum is illustrating the Seventh-day Adventist Church in the time of Laodicea and that at Capernaum Christ gave the message of the manna that came down out of Heaven and said, "You must eat my flesh and drink my blood," and this is where He lost the most of the disciples in John 6:66: they turned "and walked no more with him," illustrating that the majority of Adventism goes out at The Sunday Law, at John 6:66.

HIS OWN CITY

Capernaum was His own city.
The Desire of Ages, page 252:

"At Capernaum Jesus dwelt in the intervals of His journeys to and fro, and it came to be known as 'His own city. It was on the shores of the Sea of Galilee, and near the borders of the beautiful plain of Gennesaret, if not actually upon it." The Desire of Ages, 252.

A city in Bible prophecy, a kingdom, a church—"Babylon is that great city that ruleth." The Seventh-day Adventist Church is a kingdom; it is Christ's City, it is Capernaum.

The next quote, from Review and Herald, August 1, 1893:

"Among the professed children of God, how little patience has been manifested, how many bitter words have been spoken, how much denunciation has been uttered against those not of our faith. Many have looked upon those belonging to other churches as great sinners, when the Lord does not thus regard them. Those who look thus upon the members of other churches, have need to > humble themselves under the mighty hand of God. Those whom they condemn may have had but little light, few opportunities and privileges. If they had had the light that many of the members of our churches have had, they might have advanced at a far greater rate, and have better represented their faith to the world. Of those who boast of their light, and yet fail to walk in it, Christ says, 'But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. And thou, Capernaum [Seventh-day Adventists, who have had great light],"

I did not put that in. What is in brackets was put in by Ellen White. Okay?

> —"and thou, Capernaum [Seventh-day Adventists, who have had great light], which art exalted unto heaven [in point of privilege],"—

She put that in, too.

> —"shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.' At that time Jesus answered and said, 'I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent [in their own estimation], and hast revealed them unto babes.'
> "'And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the Lord, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;"—

What does it mean, He "rises up early"? It means this, Brothers and Sisters: What is going on in Adventism today has been set forth in God's Word a thousand years ago. He rose up early, from the very beginning, and told us what is going to be happening right now.

But, even though He has rose up early, giving us the message, "We want the Gospel. We don't want the Prophecy."

> —"but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not; therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh."—

Now He is comparing what is going to happen to Adventism in the very near future, to Shiloh; and, that brings us to Eli.

> —"And I will cast you out of my sight,"—

He is going to spew them out of His mouth.

> —"as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.'
> "The Lord has established among us institutions of great importance, and they are to be managed, not as worldly institutions are managed, but after God's order. They are to be managed with an eye single to his glory, that by all means perishing souls may be saved. To the people of God the testimonies of the Spirit have come, and yet many have not taken heed to reproofs, warnings, and counsels.

"'Here now this, O foolish people,"—

And who is the "foolish people"? The foolish virgins.

—"and without understanding;"—

What understanding do they not have? They do not understand the increase of knowledge that comes when the Book of Daniel is unsealed in 1989 with the collapse of the Soviet Union.

—"Here now this, O foolish people, and without understanding, which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:"—THERE IS ISAIAH 6— "fear ye not me saith the Lord: will ye not tremble at my presence,"—

"Fear God" does not mean "reverence God." It means fear God!

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You must tremble at God's presence. All the prophets that illustrate this time, this experience, fall into the dust. They do not just reverence God; they fear God! They tremble at His presence.

And, this is the distinction between the wise virgins and the foolish virgins. The wise virgins are those that tremble at His Word.

We will deal with that in the following presentation.

—"fear ye not me saith the Lord: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual degree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? but this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the Lord our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest. Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you. . . . They judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the Lord; shall not my soul be revenged on such a nation as this?'"—

What nation is He talking about?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Adventism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Adventism (Laodicea, Capernaum).

—"Shall the Lord be compelled to say, 'Pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee'? 'Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain. . . . Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?'" Review and Herald, August 1, 1893.

Do you want the Latter Rain? You need to cry, "My Father, You are the guide of my youth!"

What does that mean: "My Father, You are the guide of my youth"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The early days.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The early days.

SHILOAH

1 Samuel 3:15; Isaiah 6:3-13

1 Samuel 3:15.

Is that not what Jeremiah says: "Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find . . ."?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Rest.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Latter Rain, ". . . rest for your souls." (Jeremiah 6:16).

Do you want the Latter Rain? Acknowledge that He is the Father of your youth.

1 Samuel 3:15 says,

> "[15] And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision." 1 Samuel 3:15 (KJV).

What vision was he given? The vision that told Eli that, "You and your sons are going to be removed," that Shiloh is going to be set aside as the place of God's sanctuary, and the Lord was going to choose Jerusalem.

And here, Sister White has just referenced Shiloh with Capernaum (the Seventh-day Adventist Church).

And when Samuel gets this vision, to carry this message to Eli, this is the marah vision. Okay? Right at the beginning, Samuel has the marah vision. He sees himself in the looking glass.

But, what I want you to see is when you go into the Most Holy Place experience in the time of the blotting out of sins and the Latter Rain, to see Christ, the mareh vision, and have the marah looking-glass vision experience for yourself, there are certain components of that experience that are marked by Inspiration. One of them here that we are dealing with is that it is going to be this separating of the sheaves and the fagots in this time period, in that experience. That is accomplished by the words of Revelation, the Third Angel's Message. We have looked at that. And, as that message is accomplishing this separation, as the Dirt Brush Man is sweeping out the traditions and customs that is going on in that history, it is also revealed to those people that are having the experience of Daniel when he saw this vision and all the other men fled away, what Daniel was also seeing is that the Seventh-day Adventist structure was about to be swept away. That is part of the message in there, that Shiloh, and Eli, and Hophni, and Phinehas are going to be removed: "Ichabod: the glory has departed!"

Go to Isaiah 6, in closing; Isaiah 6, beginning at verse 3.

> "[3] And one cried unto another,"—

And Sister White has already compared this experience of Isaiah with the experience of the Most Holy Place that we are dealing with. We do not have to put that in place. This is the same experience of Daniel, John, Paul, Job have all had.

And in verse 3, it says.

> [3] And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory."—

So, where is verse 3? 9/11/2001. The Earth is filled with the glory of the Lord on 9/11, when the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 comes down, and the Earth is lightened with His glory. Sister White says so. You do not need Sister White, but she has a passage where she ties verse 3 of Isaiah 6 in with Revelation 18's Angel that comes down.

So, verse 3, if we are going to approach these verses as a sequence of history, starts at 9/11. Right?

Verse 4:

> —"[4] And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. [5] Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone;"—

He is having the marah, a vision right now. He is being humbled into the dust as he looked at his own self-righteousness.

Sister White, we just read, he here illustrates our condition; and, she further says in another place that he had been—well, she does not say it like this, but she says this—he had been functioning as a prophet before chapter 6. And we understand that holy men of old spake as they were moved by the Holy Spirit; so, for the first five chapters, he is a prophet. He is a holy man.

And when Isaiah goes into the Most Holy Place with Christ here, he realizes that he has the same sins that he has been rebuking. That is why Sister White says he illustrates our condition, because our condition is as Laodiceans; and, that is a beautiful promise. It means that right now, in our condition, you and I, if we want to set aside our own self-righteousness and move into the Most Holy Place with Jesus Christ, He is fully willing and capable of purifying us with a coal from off the altar that we can stand up and carry this message to a stiff-necked people that have ears that will not hear and eyes that will not see.

And as we do that work, we will obtain the experience that we need that is represented by being a hard forehead of diamond, which is the Seal of God. That experience is produced by our receiving the intellectual knowledge and following on and delivering that knowledge to an obstinate people; and, that work changes us into His image—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —and prepares us to stand at The Sunday Law when Shiloh is swept away and every earthly support is cut off.

But, back to verse 5 of Isaiah 6.

> —"[5] Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts."—

Let me drop down in here in the Ellen White Study Bible. From Review and Herald, June 4, 1889, it says, "Isaiah had a wonderful view of God's glory. He saw the manifestation of God's power, . . ." And one of the things that Isaiah is seeing here is the manifestation of God's power.

Sometimes the prophets disagree with each other, right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (A collective, "No.")

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Never!

And Sister White, in The Great Controversy, page 611.1, says, "The advent movement of 1840-44 was a glorious manifestation of the power of God."

And the Advent Movement of 1840-44, that is the Seven Thunders!

And, Paul was lifted up to the Third Heaven and saw the Advent Movement of 1840-44, but he was not allowed to utter it, because he was living in the 1st Century, and it was not going to be unsealed until just before probation closes.

And here, another illustration of the same experience, the mareh/marah experiences in the Most Holy Place, Sister White tells us that Isaiah saw a manifestation of the power of God.

One of the things that you see when you move into the Most Holy Place is the history of the Millerites from 1798 to 1844, with a special emphasis on 1840 – 1844 when the Mighty Angel came down and began to do this work that illustrates the work that He is doing right now.

Going back to verse 6:

> —"[6] Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: [7] And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged."—

And another word for purged there is atoned or blotted out. This is the blotting out of sins.

> —"[8] Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"—

And this is a wonderful question. When was it first asked? When the Plan of Salvation was instituted, the Father asked, "Whom shall I send?" He could not send an angel. All He could send was His Son.

And Jesus said similar to Isaiah but not quite the same if you go look at the record. Isaiah says in verse 8,

> —"Then said I, Here am I; send me."—

"Here am I; send me. Here am I; send me," is what Isaiah said.

When Jesus answered that question, when the Plan of Salvation was first instituted, He said, "Here I am. Send me."

That is showing us that here Isaiah has achieved the perfect reflection of Christ's character. That is what is going on here; because, he is prepared to take this message to Adventism and then the world.

And then he is forewarned. It says in verse 9:

—"[9] And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. [10] Make the heart of this people [OF CAPERNAUM, OF LAODICEA, OF ADVENTISM] fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed. [11] Then said I,"—

Then says Isaiah, "How long? How long do I have to struggle with this rebellious Seventh-day Adventist people?"

—"Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant,"—

What cities? The cities [churches] of Adventism.

Where are they represented? Shiloh.

—"Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, [2] And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land."—

Samuel sees the mareh vision; Isaiah sees the mareh vision; and, among other things, one of the things that both of them see is that the Seventh-day Adventist structure gets swept away at The Sunday Law; and, this is part of the Latter Rain Message.

And verse 13 says,

—"[13] But yet in it"—IN ADVENTISM—"shall be a tenth,"—A SYMBOL OF A REMNANT—"and it shall return,"—TO THE OLD PATHS—

That remnant is going to return to the Old Paths.

—"and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves:"—

They are going to eat this experience when they return to the Old Paths.

—"so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof." Isaiah 6:3-13 (KJV).

And, this is The Sunday Law where the Everlasting Gospel is finished in Adventism, and the Everlasting Gospel of the First Angel is the same gospel that was preached in Eden in Genesis 3:15. Sister White says so in Selected Messages, book 2. And, the Gospel in Genesis 3:15, the first mentioned of the Gospel, says it is the work of Christ putting enmity between the seed of Satan and the seed of Christ. And, here we see this tenth which is the remnant in Adventism that Isaiah is representing: They have the holy seed in them. The Everlasting Gospel has just been accomplished on Adventism.

So, when you move into the Most Holy Place and have the marah experience of looking into the looking glass, not only do you see the Law of God that humbles you in the dust, not only does this experience change you from glory to glory through the Holy Spirit so that you reflect Christ's character perfectly but you are also going to see what cannot be uttered in Paul's day and age, the history of 1840-44; but you are also going to understand that the Seventh-day Adventist Church structure gets swept, like Shiloh did, at The Sunday Law. And the two seeds are there, separated.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we understand that you as the Dirt Brush Man are cleaning house, bringing to light the jewels of our Foundation and bringing other jewels and putting them in place that shine ten times brighter than the glory of 1840-44. We understand that at this time there is a separation going on among your people, and that there is a work that you are calling us to enter into that is part of this separation process in terms of delivering the Third Angel's Message, the messages from the Book of Revelation that prepare us either for fagots prepared for the fire of destruction or sheaves for the heavenly garner. We want to be on the right side of this experience. We want to move into the Most Holy Place, eat that Little Book, be humbled in the dust, see ourselves for what we are, and allow your Holy Spirit to remove all of the Daily (the al , the religion of Satan} from us, that we might stand up as Isaiah did and said, "Send us." Lord, we wish for this experience, and we pray for those in Adventism that do not understand that we are in the final moments, the final opportunity to enter into this experience and be part of that number. We pray that somehow, some way, that those of our relatives, of our friends, and those that we do not know in Adventism would be brought into a position where they can hear this truth and respond the way that Isaiah responded. And we thank you for all these things, and we thank you also for the physical food that you provided that we are going to partake of here in a moment. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #88

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we are beginning to close the series of Habakkuk's Two Tables, we would ask that you help us bind off truths, the principles, the ideas that we have been putting in place for a very long time now. We want to conclude our consideration of Isaiah 66 as it applies here at the end of the world, and we would ask that you would give us discernment and wisdom concerning this chapter during this hour. We ask again that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would allow your angels to come and be present with us so that we might breathe the atmosphere of Heaven and that they might prevent problems in the production and the LiveStreaming and any distractions from coming in. Take control of my thought process, my words, overrule my humanity that this message might be of a benefit to your people and prepare those that are hearing these things to receive them as you see fit. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

ISAIAH 66

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A couple of weeks ago we began to look at Isaiah 66 and put it into the flow of events of bringing this series to a conclusion; and, at that time we were primarily bringing out two verses: the fact that verse 4 talks about the Lord choosing their delusions, and that Sister White ties verse 4 (these delusions that the Lord is going to choose for the unfaithful Adventists) in with the strong delusions of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2. So, this verse 4 is the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2.

And, we also discussed that the brethren in Adventism are going to cast out the brethren in Adventism; thus, verse 5 is identifying the Outcasts of Israel. And, of course, the Outcasts of Israel are those that are lifted up as an ensign, which means that those people that are lifted up as an ensign that receive the Seal of God at The Sunday Law, they will be cast out of Adventism before that time arrives. So, we have dealt with that a little bit already.

Now we are going to just read down through Isaiah 66 and make a couple of comments as we go through. The reason for this is we are heading towards the conclusion of all this entire series, and I have a couple of more prophetic lines that I want to put in place, this being one of them; the Tarrying Time being another one, and then we will be prepared (this is the way I understand that we should be prepared) to illustrate the end of Adventism on the board and bring several other lines that we have already dealt with and show that the rejection of the Foundations is the Omega Apostasy. The symbol of this rejection is the Daily; and, the 2520 is the gathering message, but it is also the scattering message, is what divides these two classes.

So, that is where we are heading.

Let us read Isaiah 66, beginning at verse 1.

> "[1] Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?"—

In the Omega Apostasy there is one class in Adventism that builds their foundation upon the sand, and the other class builds their foundation upon the Rock. This is the parable that Jesus sets forth. And these two houses, the one that is built upon the sand and the one that is built upon the Rock, according to Jesus, are going to be tested by what? By the winds (Islam, the message of Islam), the rains (the message of the Latter Rain), and the floods (the message of the King of the North).

And depending on how you respond to that threefold message of the King of the North, the children of the East, there you have Daniel 11:44. The message that enrages the King of the North in Daniel 11:44 are the tidings out of the East and the North, the tidings of the King of the North in the last six verses of Daniel 11 being the first message for our history, and the tidings of the children of the East (the tidings of Islam) being the second message.

And in the two structures that are built at the end of the world (one upon the sand and one upon the Rock), three tests, according to Christ, will confront them: one being the floods, the floods being the symbol of the Papacy (the King of the North) in the Word of God; the winds being the East winds of Islam, the Latter Rain Message in the Word of God; and, the rains, the argument over the Latter Rain that takes place in connection with these two messages out of the East and the North.

So, in the Omega Apostasy time period, the question is, "Where is the structure that you have built me to stay in here?"

Verse 1:

> "[1] Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?" Isaiah 66:1 (KJV).

There are two houses that are being built, but where is the Lord going to choose to rest?

Because, Sister White, when commenting on the Omega Apostasy here at the end of the world, she says storms and tempests will sweep away the structure of those people that have built upon the sand, that being The Sunday Law that sweeps away the structure of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

But here, in Isaiah He is asking the question, "Where is the place of my rest?"

We have already identified these concepts. We are just reminding ourselves of them.

All the prophets are speaking at the end of the world, and from the Book of Jeremiah we have a clear presentation. We have already put this in the record prior to now, and Sister White confirms what I am going to tell you, if you are listening to this for the first time.

The expression of the Jews—in fact, I think we can tie it in very quickly just from our last presentation. Go to Jeremiah 7.

The one class that is building upon the sand is going to make the proclamation in Jeremiah 7, verse 4.

> "[4] Trust ye not in lying words,"—

What are the lying words?

> —"saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD are these."—

And oftentimes when Sister White quotes this, she changes Jeremiah's words. Speaking of the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, she says they claim, "The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord are we." So, they are putting their confidence in a structure and claiming that it is the structure that we would call the General Conference.

But, the way that we can tie this in without going back to the previous presentations some time ago is if you can just take and go into your mind back to the last presentation. In the last presentation, we tied the message of Shiloh into this time period. Remember?

So, if you read on in verse 5 [of Jeremiah 7], it says,

> —"[5] For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour; [6] If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt: [7] Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.
> "[8]Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit."—

And what are the lying words? They have already been identified in verse 4, "The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these."

Verse 8:

> —"[8]Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. [9] Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; [10] And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name,"—

What house is called by His name? The Seventh-day Adventist Church.

> —"and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? [11] Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes?"—

And when God's church becomes a den of robbers, what does God do? He cleanses it. He comes in and kicks over the money changers' tables.

> —"Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD."—

Now, look at verse 12.

> —"[12] But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel."
> Jeremiah 7:5-12 (KJV).

So, Shiloh is an illustration of the structure that is built on sand at the end of the world, and the men that are believing in that structure, their testimony is, "The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, The temple LORD, are these"—or "we."

REST

Acts 7:47-53

But, go to Acts 7. We are wondering where the Lord is actually going to take His rest.

Acts 7, beginning at verse 47, speaking about the structure of the church, it says beginning in verse 47 of Acts 7,

> "[47] But Solomon built him an house."—

What house did he build?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The temple.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The sanctuary, the temple.

> —"[48] Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, [49] HEAVEN IS MY THRONE"—

Now, what prophet is being quoted here? Isaiah 66, verse 1.

> —"[48] HEAVEN IS MY THRONE, AND EARTH IS MY FOOTSTOOL: WHAT HOUSE WILL YE BUILD ME? SAITH THE LORD: OR WHAT IS THE PLACE OF MY REST? [50] HATH NOT MY HAND MADE ALL THESE THINGS?
> "[51] Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. [52] Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? And they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murders: [53]Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it." Acts 7:47-53 (KJV).

So, what is the place of His rest? Is it the physical structure? The place of His rest is the spiritual house, the temple of the Lord that is our body. Okay? It took Moses 46 days receiving instruction on building the earthly tent sanctuary. The temple of the Millerites, raised up from 1798 to 1844 in 46 years. Herod's remodeling in the time of Christ (John 2:20) took 46 years. But, the temple that He is going to build to dwell in, the temple that He is going to take His rest in here in the Omega Apostasy when two classes are being developed and then demonstrated, the temple that He is going to dwell in that is built upon the Rock is the temple that is made up of 46 chromosomes: it is the human temple.

Verse 2 of Isaiah 66:

> —"[2] For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and"—DO WHAT?—"trembleth at my word." Isaiah 66:2 (KJV).

TREMBLE

Ezra 10:3; Psalm 99:1; Daniel 10:11; Jeremiah 5:20-31

His Holy Spirit is going to dwell with those men and women who tremble at His Word. They tremble at His Word.

Go to Ezra 10, verse 3.

"[3]Now therefore let us make a covenant"—

When He is going to dwell with people, when He is going to take His rest in this temple in the Omega Apostasy with those people that are being cast out by those people that are building their temple upon the sand, and in Ezra 10:3, it says,

> —"[3] Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord,"—

Let us break off from all the Babylonian doctrines that we have accepted here at the end of the world, "Come out of Babylon," in that sense.

> —"according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law." Ezra 10:3 (KJV).

So, in Isaiah 66, verse 2, He is telling us where He is going to take His rest. He is going to take His rest in those that tremble at His Word.

Go to Psalm 99, verse 1.

> "[1] The LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth be moved." Psalm 99:1 (KJV).

Those that are trembling are going to be in the Most Holy Place, where the cherubims are. They are going to tremble at His Word.

And I hope you are remembering that the fact that they are trembling at His Word is to be contrasted with those that are not trembling at His Word. And those that are not trembling at His Word are those that have set their word above His Word. And to set your word above God's Word not only is it Spiritualism but it demonstrates that you are full of self and self-exaltation. Right?

How about Daniel 10:11. We have been dealing with Daniel 10.

We are looking at those that the Lord is going to select as His temple, that He will dwell in, in contrast with those that have "The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD . . . ."

Verse 11 of Daniel, chapter 10, it says,

> "[11] And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling." Daniel 10:11 (KJV).

When Daniel understood the word that he had spoken to him, he stood trembling.

And it says so. It sounds like a dumb question—I will not even make it a question; I will just make it a statement: He stood trembling. Okay? He stood trembling.

When do God's people stand up at the end of the world?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In Ezekiel 37, when the message of the breath of the Four Winds arrives, God's people stand up a mighty army. They stand up on 9/11, and they tremble at His Word.

Jeremiah 5, beginning at verse 20:

> "[20] Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, [21] Hear now this, O foolish people,"—

Who are the foolish people in context with what we have been saying here in this presentation? They are the ones that are building their structure, their foundation on the sand.

> —"Here now this, O foolish people, and without understanding;"—

And what understanding do they not have? The increase of knowledge, when Daniel was unsealed in 1989.

> —:which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not: [22] Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence,"—

The foolish virgins do not tremble at His presence or at His Word.

> —"which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? [23] But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart, they are revolted and gone. [24] Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the Lord our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.
> "[25] Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you. [26] For among my people are found wicked men:"—

Who are the wicked? In the context of Daniel 12, the wise are those that understand the increase of knowledge, but the wicked do not understand. So, you have got three references in here in this passage that let you tie the parable of the Ten Virgins and Daniel 12 right into this passage.

And, one of the things that the foolish virgins are being identified here, beyond not understanding the increase of knowledge from the unsealing of the Book of Daniel in 1989 (they are the wicked), but they do not tremble at God's Word.

Verse 25:

> —"[25] Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you. [26] For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men. [27] As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich."—

Their houses, their houses, we are talking about building of a structure on the sand.

What are their houses? Could it be their churches that are part of the structure? Because, whatever their houses are, even if you want to relate to them as their personal living quarters, what have they become, the foolish virgins' houses? They become a cage full of birds.

And what is the place that has been a cage full of birds?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Babylon.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They have developed the character that has been represented by modern Babylon. It does not mean that they are part of Babylon. The Hebrews, when they were in Babylon for 70 years were not Babylon. They were just captives of Babylon. And these people have developed the character of Babylon because they have prepared to receive the mark of Babylon at The Sunday Law. And we are settled into our character before The Sunday Law, either to receive the mark of the beast or the Seal of God; because, The Sunday Law is simply the test where we will demonstrate the character that we prepared in our previous hours of probation because Sister White often and consistently teaches that character is never developed in a crisis; it is only demonstrated in a crisis.

So, before the crisis of The Sunday Law hits, if I am to receive the mark of the beast, I will have developed the character of Babylon, the character of the beast, and my house will be represented as a cage of unclean and hateful birds, building a structure and a temple upon the sand.

Verse 27:

—"[27] As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich."—

Therefore, they have become what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Great and waxen rich.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: G al , al ! Self-exaltation.

—[28]They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. [29] Shall I not visit for these things? Saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

[30] A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; [31] The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof? Jeremiah 5:20-31 (KJV).

You will watch the structure get swept away by the flood of The Sunday Law. That is 'what you will do in the end thereof.'"

Okay. Back to Isaiah 66.

You know, I have been sitting, listening to Emiliano like you have for the past couple of days, until he got sick. When you listen to these speakers for a while, some of their catch-phrases pop into your head, and he has one about—and I had it. That is what made me think it, and now it is gone, of course, now that I am going to talk about it—where he asks—he does not ask, "Are you with me?" He says something like that, similarly.

Anyway, my point is, is that I was tempted there before I started this off-the-wall thought to say that. And, I thought, "Oh, that is what Emiliano would say."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Then I thought—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: "Are you with me, Friend?"

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Are you with me, Friend?

But, what immediately came into my mind was the fact of the matter is, is this is too simple not to be with me. This message is black and white, and anyone that wants to see it can see it.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It does not take a whole lot of human interpretation. The structure is about to be swept away at The Sunday Law. You have got to want to see it.

And, the testimony is across the board in the Bible. This is not taking one verse and twisting it into this thought; and, anywhere you look, it is there.

So, Isaiah 66, verse 2 again.

> —"[2] For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word. [3] He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations."—

And how many counterfeit offerings does he mention in that verse? Sacrificing a lamb, offering an oblation, burning incense: three. It is a counterfeit Three Angels' Messages in Adventism.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: I believe there are four.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Four?

He that killeth an ox, he that sacrificeth a lamb—yes, that is right—and, he that offereth an oblation, and he that burneth incense. That is four.

So, what does that mean?

If you see three in this context, it is going to be a counterfeit Three Angels' Message.

What is four?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Fourth Angel's Message?

I will tell you what it was before I was going to comment on this verse. I thought it was four and someone said three, and so I went with the Three Angels' Messages. I will stick with the four.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: I think it is worldwide.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is worldwide. This is happening worldwide. This is the four abominations in Ezekiel 8 saying that this takes place not just in Adventism in the United States; it is across the board.

And, I have had this experience that I am responsible to share, that very few people have the experience that I am going to deal with here; but, because I have seen it, then I have the right and probably the responsibility to say it.

When we run into or interact with the brethren that they live in one place and maybe they run shoulders with Adventism in the state where they live, or maybe the state where they live and another state where their family lives, and they are amazed at what has happened to the Adventist Church in those little areas; but, the natural human thought is, "Wow, it is really bad here; but, it probably is not that way everywhere."

But, I am here to tell you, Brothers and Sisters, as I have traveled around the world, it is the same story everywhere, around the world, in Adventism. And, you should not fool yourself that it is in just your own little church family. The same story comes from the faithful brethren, no matter what country they are in, in the world. The cup is almost totally full, if not already slopping over the sides!

Anyway, they are going to choose their own ways, and He is going to choose their delusions.

Notice verse 4.

> —"[4] I also will choose their delusions,"—

We have already dealt with this. Sister White speaks that these delusions are the delusion of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2.

> —"[4] I also will choose their delusions and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.
> "[5] Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake,"—

What happens to those that tremble at His Word?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They get cast out.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They get cast out!

> —"that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified:" Isaiah 66:2-5 (KJV).

While they are doing it, they actually think they are doing the Lord's work. They are casting out their brethren and saying, "Let the Lord be glorified over this action."

It reminds me of Naboth's vineyard.

Ahab is a symbol of the leadership of Israel.

And, everyone knows the story of Naboth's vineyard, right? We do not have to go there.

Ahab is the leadership of the Adventist Church, and he could not take control of Naboth's vineyard because Naboth knew that was his inheritance; and, unlike Esau, Naboth was not willing to sell his inheritance away. He knew he was to keep that inheritance. So, he said, "No," even to the king; and, the king started mourning.

But, then the king's wife comes in and says, "I can get you that vineyard. I know how to deal with Naboth; because, I am Jezebel. I understand the principles of Roman Catholicism. I understand about how to execute an inquisition."

And, sure enough, Naboth gets cast out.

How did they deal with Naboth?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They falsely accused him.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They stoned him.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They stoned him; with false witnesses, but they stoned him.

Keep your finger in Isaiah 66, and go to Revelation, chapter 2, in verse 17, regarding Pergamos. It says,

> "[17] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it." Revelation 2:17 (KJV).

Do you know what that stone is? It is a vote. Look it up.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: What it is called?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A vote. When you cast a stone, you cast a vote.

When Jezebel and Ahab had Naboth stoned with physical stones, it was pointing forward to the time when the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church accepts the principles of Catholicism and begins to disfellowship people over the truth. They are casting a vote. They kick them out of the church. It has been typified by Naboth being stoned.

When you reach that point in time, you know that Catholic principles have been taken under the care and protection not of the United States as Sister White talks about but under the care and protection of Ahab.

But, that is not what we are dealing with.

Go to Isaiah 66, verse 5.

> —"[5] Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word;"—

That is us, I hope.

> —"Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed. [6] A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies."—

How are his enemies recompensed? By three messages; three voices. This is the three-step testing process in this very history where God's people are being disfellowshipped over the message of the Old Paths.

Verse 7:

—"[7] Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. [8] Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. [9] Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God."—

Now, in this series we have referred to more than once the parable of the wheat and tares where Sister White says the wheat and tares and the parable of the net, she says these parables show—and you can type this in; these are the words—that "there is no probation after the judgment."

> "Both the parable of the tares and that of the net plainly teach that there is no time when all the wicked will turn to God. The wheat and the tares grow together until the harvest. The good and the bad fish are together drawn ashore for a final separation
> "Again, these parables teach that there is to be no probation after the judgment. When the work of the gospel is completed, there immediately follows the separation between the good and the evil, and the destiny of each class is forever fixed." {Christ's Object Lessons, 123.1-2} [emphasis added]

By referring to the wheat and tares, Sister White is saying that the parables, the judgment that is illustrated in Christ's parable, is marking the close of probation.

But, in our last presentation, I think, but here recently or here in the near future, we are going to go back to a quote that we have looked at more than once that it is the Third Angel that does the work of separating the wheat from the tares; therefore, it is the Third Angel, which is the Angel of Revelation 14 that is pronouncing judgment upon those that receive the mark of the beast; it is the Third Angel that is the judgment angel; it is the Third Angel that marks the close of probation; it is the Third Angel separating the wheat from the tares.

Therefore, when you get to verse 6, where it says, "A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies," recompence to his enemies is saying where He is going to judge His enemies. He is going to judge His enemies under these three voices. So, this verse is identifying The Sunday Law, when judgment takes place.

Concerning the previous verses where judgment takes place among those that have a worldwide false system of worship, that is casting out their brethren whom they hate and the brethren whom they hate are those that tremble at His Word, and they both build a temple: one is a human structure that is called "Them temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD," and the other is the human temple that has been prepared for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit and the Lord says, "I am going to take my rest with that temple, the human temple. And I am going to sweep that other temple away."

And what I am saying is these verses 1 through 6 have set the context for us to understand the mini-parable that follows in the next three verses. This is about The Sunday Law, and it is saying, "Can a woman have a baby in a day?"

Okay. Let us look at it again, "Before she travailed, she brought forth."

Now, we know, at one level, that the greatest persecution comes from within. Okay? But, we know that at The Sunday Law every human support is cast off. That is the travailing. The persecution of The Sunday Law has been prefigured by the persecution of the 1260 years. Okay? And when Jesus pointed forward to the 1260 years, He said, "This is the greatest time of trouble there will ever be." But, He did not mean that that was the last. He just said, "When you get there, this will be the greatest that has ever been in history; but, the one at the end of the world is even going to be the greatest." And that is The Sunday Law crisis.

So, in verse 7, when it says, "Before she travails," before the persecution of The Sunday Law time arrives, when it arrives you are going to go into travail; the church is going to go in travail, and "she brought forth." Right at The Sunday Law she is going to bring forth.

"Before her pain comes, she is delivered of a man child." There is going to be a man born at The Sunday Law.

"Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such a thing? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day?"

What day? The Sunday Law in the United States.

"Or shall a nation be born at once?"

What nation? The ensign of those that tremble at His Word.

For as soon as Zion travailed (for as soon as the Sunday Law hits), she brought forth her children.

"Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? Shall I bring you to The Sunday Law and not produce the ensign that I am going to lift up? Saith the Lord: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God."

This is a promise, Brothers and Sisters. As we approach this period, if we are among those that tremble at His Word, we are about to have the experience of receiving the outpouring of the Latter Rain without measure and perfectly reflecting the character of Christ to a dying world.

Verse 10:

> —"[10] Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:"—

Who mourns for Jerusalem? Well, those people in Ezekiel 9 sigh and cry for the abominations that are done in Jerusalem. They mourn for Jerusalem.

And what happens to them in Ezekiel 9? They receive the Seal of God. Right?

When does that happen? At The Sunday Law.

Verse 11:

> —"[11] That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory. [12] For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees."—

Do you see how that fits in to what the scenario that we just laid forth, that at The Sunday Law at the separation of the wheat and the tares is verse 6; and, then, there is this mini-parable about before she travails a nation is born?

And then, we rejoice because the Lord is going to bring the milk of the Gentiles in, the final ingathering.

Do you see the sequences right as all the sequences of these events are set forth in the rest of the Scriptures?

COMFORT JERUSALEM

Isaiah 40:1-5; 52:5-11; Zechariah 1:12-17

Notice this next point, verse 13.

—"[13] As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem." Isaiah 66:5-13 (KJV).

Easy one for Seventh-day Adventists: When we are comforted, what does that mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Holy Spirit.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Holy Spirit, He is the Comforter. This is the outpouring of the Latter Rain.

Go to Isaiah 40, beginning at verse 1:

"[1] Comfort ye, comfort ye"—

What does that mean?

When you see an expression or a word repeated twice, it is a marker that is emphasizing that this is a truth that is especially relevant to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the Latter Rain during the Fourth Angel's Message.

—"[1] Comfort ye, comfort ye, my people, saith your God. [2] Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned:"—

When you are being comforted in the terms of Isaiah (because Isaiah 66 is Isaiah, just like Isaiah 40 is Isaiah), both of these places are saying that when we get to The Sunday Law, if we are among those that tremble at His Word that are going to bring in the milk of the Gentiles, our sins have already been pardoned, blotted out, before The Sunday Law.

—"[2] Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD'S hand double for all her sins.

"[3] The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. [4]Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: [5] And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it." Isaiah 40:1-5 (KJV).

So, if you go back to Isaiah 66, verse 13, in the context of what we are identifying, this sequence of events, a nation is brought forth at The Sunday Law, after the wheat and tares of Adventism have been separated. This nation is going to bring in the Gentiles, and then in the repeat-and-enlarge fashion, He says, "This is where you get comforted with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit." Right?

Go to Isaiah 52. Isaiah 52, beginning at verse 5.

> "[5] Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? They that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed."—

They that are ruling over them make them howl, and God's character, His name, is daily blasphemed. That is continually.

The people that are the persecutors here, the brethren that hated you and cast you out of the church continually blaspheme. The symbol of their blasphemy is the word that is translated as Daily in the Book of Daniel; and, this is taking place, to me, in the time period of the Omega Apostasy.

Verse 6:

> "[6] Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.
>
> "[7] How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! [8] Thy watchmen"—IN THIS HISTORY—"Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing:"—

What will they sing? The Song of Moses and the Lamb.

> —"for they shall see eye to eye,"—

At The Sunday Law the wheat and tares are separated and there is a unity that comes into this message that is a subject of Bible prophecy. They are going to see eye to eye,

> —"when the LORD shall bring again"—

And this word we have dealt with in this series that is translated as bring again means reverse.

> —"when the LORD shall bring again [REVERSE THE CAPTIVITY OF] Zion. [9]Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. [10] The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God."—

Now, what are they going to do at this time period? They are going to give the message of good tidings and publish salvation.

Here in verse 11 is the message.

> —"[11] Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD." Isaiah 52:5-11 (KJV).

Come out of Babylon!

The comforting is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit without measure when the Lord separates the wheat and tares of Adventism.

The comforting: go to Zechariah, chapter 1, beginning at verse 12. It says,

> "[12] Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?"—

We have dealt often with this.

These 70 years, Sister White tells us, parallels the 1260 years.

This [70 years] is God's indignation. It is going to say so in the verse that we just read.

Therefore, this [1260 years] is God's indignation; this is the second half of the 2520 against the Northern Kingdom, which was God's indignation.

Both of these truths are prefiguring a 2520 that takes place in Adventism at the end of the world, as illustrated by William Miller's dream.

Verse 13:

> —"[13] And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words. [14] So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. [15] And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction. [16] Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it,"—

Not the temple of the Lord, but the temple that He is going to take His rest in.

> —"my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. [17] Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem." Zechariah 1:12-17 (KJV).

In this history, of course, those of us that are attempting to see God's prophetic word and hear God's prophetic word know that the sealing up of the foundational truths began in 1863. And 126 years later, which equates to 126 tekels, which equates to 2520 gerahs, that in 1989 with the collapse of the Soviet Union, the Time of the End arrived.

But, we know that at the end of the indignation that prefigured this, in 1798 the Time of the End arrived.

The Time of the End is always the end of a prophecy.

And we know that this 70 years, that this was the Time of the End for this history; and, this here [the first waymark] was the starting point for the destruction of Jerusalem.

When they came out of Babylon [the 70 years of captivity], there was the First Decree (Cyrus), the Second Decree (Darius), and the Third Decree (Artaxerxes).

But, when they came out of this captivity [the 1260 years], the First Angel's Message is right here [1798], the Second Angel's Message is right here [aligned with the 2nd Decree] and the Third Angel's Message is right here [aligned with the 3rd Decree].

So, when you came to 1989, there is going to be a threefold testing process that leads you to The Sunday Law right here [at the 3rd test].

And then, just as here [the 3rd test], just as here [the 2nd Angel's Message], and just as here [the 3rd Decree], the Lord is once again going to choose Jerusalem, build Jerusalem, and He is going to comfort it.

Jerusalem is built here [at the 3rd Decree].

And, Jerusalem is built here [at the arrival of the Third Angel's Message]; because, in Revelation 11, verse 1, after the disappointment is illustrated by John in verse 10 of Revelation 10, then he is given a line to measure Jerusalem. So, when we get to The Sunday Law here [at the third of the threefold tests], the Lord is going to comfort His people.

So, when we are talking about this issue, it is not a human conjecture. It is very well established in God's Word. He will choose Jerusalem, to do what? To take His rest.

And how is He going to rest? Through His Spirit. He is going to pour His Spirit into that ensign.

THE SIGN

Isaiah 5:26; 18:3; John 12:31-33

Back to Isaiah 66, let us go to verse 14.

> —"[14] And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies. [15] For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. [16] For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many. [17] They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD."—

What are they eating? They are eating swine's flesh, the abomination, and a mouse.

But, what are God's people eating?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Little Book.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Little Book.

This is the counterfeit Three Angel's Messages that they [those eating swine's flesh, the abomination, and a mouse] are eating.

Verse 18.

—"[18] For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory."—

When do they see His glory?

—"[19] And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, . . ." Isaiah 66:14-19, in part (KJV).

What is the sign that he sets among them? That is the ensign.

Go to Isaiah 5:26. The ensign gets lifted up right here. We are still in Isaiah: chapter 5, verse 26.

We have got to move quickly. We just got the "hi" sign.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Isaiah 5:26:

"[26] And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: . . ." Isaiah 5:26 (KJV).

Isaiah 18, verse 3. He is going to place a sign among them in Isaiah 66. It is the ensign. And Isaiah 18, verse 3, it says,

"[3] All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye." Isaiah 18:3 (KJV).

And in John 12:31-33, it says,

"[31] Now is the judgment of this world:"—

That is what is going on in this history when He is lifting up the ensign. Adventism's probation has already closed. The ensign, the sign that He is setting among God's people at this time period is to call the nations to Him. This is the judgment of the world.

And in verse 31, it says,

> "[31] Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. [32] And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. [33] This he said, signifying what death he should die." John 12:31-33 (KJV).

And Christ is lifted up to draw all men to Himself, thus prefiguring the ensign that is lifted up to draw the nations unto Himself at the end; because, that ensign are those that perfectly reflect the character of Christ.

So, what does that tell you about this history? That it is going to be the greatest bloodbath of all time. That is why Jesus says this is the greatest time of trouble there will ever be. When this ensign is being lifted up, this is paralleling the lifting up of Christ at the cross. These people are perfectly reflecting Christ. This cross is prefiguring this time, and it is going to be a bloodbath.

Underneath those [Scriptural] references in your notes, it says, from Bible Training School, December 1, 1903,

> "The work of the Holy Spirit is to convince the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. The world can only be warned by seeing those who believe the truth sanctified through the truth, acting upon high and holy principles, showing in a high, elevated sense, the line of demarcation between those who keep the commandments of God, and those who trample them under their feet. The sanctification of the Spirit signalizes the difference between those who have the seal of God, and those who keep a spurious rest-day. When the test comes, it will be clearly shown what the mark of the beast is. It is the keeping of Sunday. Those who after having heard the truth, continue to regard this day as holy, bear the signature of the man of sin, who thought to change times and laws. Bible Training School, December 1, 1903.

When you summarize that down into one thought, and it says that the world can ONLY be warned by seeing men and women with the Seal of God. That is the ensign that gets lifted up.

OUTCASTS

Isaiah 11:10-12; 53:2-3

Isaiah 11. We are dealing with Isaiah 66 where it says He is going to place a sign among them; but, Isaiah 11, verses 10 through 12, it says,

> "[10] And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse,"—

Who is the root of Jesse?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Jesus.

Okay. Why is He a root?

We do not have time to go there, but there is another place where Jesus is called a root. He is called a root out of dry ground.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Isaiah 53:2.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, what does that tell you, a root out of dry ground? He is ugly. He is not like a flower.

Okay. And Sister White says that this root of Jesse here, that is us. The world is going to think we are ugly, just like they thought Christ was ugly. There is nothing in us, nothing in them that the world is going to see that it is going to appreciate or desire. In fact, it is going to dislike us so much, just like it disliked Him so much, that there is going to be a bloodbath.

Isaiah 11, beginning at verse 10:

> "[10] And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious."—

Where is His rest going to be?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In the people.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In His people, in Jerusalem which He has chosen; and, the Jerusalem that He chooses here is the temple that consists of 46 chromosomes.

Verse 11:

> —"[11] And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. [12] And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel,"—

How come they are outcasts? Because, their brethren, which hated them, cast them out and said, "Let the Lord be glorified." But, He is going to appear to their shame and to our joy.

> —"and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth." Isaiah 11:10-12 (KJV).

Isaiah 53, verses 2 and 3; we have already referenced it.
We are running out of time here.
Isaiah 53, beginning at verse 2:

> "[2] For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him there is no beauty that we should desire him. [3] He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not." Isaiah 53:2-3 (KJV).

And those people that are lifted up as an ensign are going to perfectly reflect His character, they are going to get the same treatment.

OTHERS

Isaiah 56:8; John 10:16; Ezekiel 20:33-38
Isaiah 30:8-21
Habakkuk 2; Jeremiah 6:16-17

Isaiah 56:8:

> "[8] The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him." Isaiah 56:8 (KJV).

Two gatherings.

John 10:16:

> "[16] And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd." John 10:16 (KJV).

Two gatherings.

Ezekiel 20:33-38:

> "[33] As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you: [34] And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out. [35] And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face. [36] Like as I pleaded with your fathers"—

Now, notice: He is bringing them out of a wilderness. This here [the 1260 years depicted in Figure No. 178] is the wilderness; therefore, this [the 70 years] is the wilderness; and, therefore, this [the 2520 of Adventism] is the wilderness. He is going to bring them out of this wilderness and plead with them.

Verse 36:

> —"[36] Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. [37] And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:"—

When He is bringing us into the bond of covenant, He also is going to do one other thing:

> —"[38] And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD." Ezekiel 20:33-38 (KJV).

Okay. Back to Isaiah 66, and we will finish this off. I will not look at the camera guys; because, I know they are probably doing this [gives a gesture across his neck indicating to bring the presentation to a close].

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Verse 19: In the flow of Isaiah 66, probation is already settled for Adventism. The wheat and tares are separated. He has brought forth a nation in one day. He has comforted that nation with a full outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Now He is talking about the ensign. He says,

> —"[19] And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles. [20] And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. [21] And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD. [22] For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. [23] And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD."—

And we use that proof-text to show that we will still be keeping Sabbath in the Earth made new; therefore, the Sabbath is still valid here in our history. But, in reality, this is emphasizing the rebuke of those Adventists that do not enter into the work of preparation and end up keeping up the Sunday sabbath as opposed to God's Sabbath in this history. This is a pronouncement: It does not change. This is a rebuke on the foolish virgins of Adventism.

And verse 24:

> —"[24] And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh." Isaiah 66:19-24 (KJV).

This is in Habakkuk's Two Tables, this particular study.

I think this is at least the third time that I have got to this last section of notes and realized that I do not have enough time to do it. It is like either the Lord saying, "Don't go there!" or He is saying, "Leave this to the very punch line." I do not know which. But, we will end right there.

> [The following Biblical cites and quote were not read into the record because of time constraints, but have been included within this transcript to complete the notes for this presentation.]

Isaiah 30:8-21:

> "[8] Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever: [9] That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD: [10] Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits: [11] Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. [12] Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon: [13] Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant. [14] And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit. [15] For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not [16] But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. [17] One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill. [18] And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.

"[19] For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee. [20] And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers: [21] And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left." Isaiah 30: 8-21 (KJV).

"[1] I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved. [2] And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. [3] For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

"[4] Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith. [5] Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people: [6] Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay! [7] Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them? [8] Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

"[9] Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil! [10] Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul. [11] For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

"[12] Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity! [13] Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity? [14] For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

"[15] Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness! [16] Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory. [17] For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

"[18] What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols? [19] Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it. [20] But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him." Habakkuk 2 (KJV).

Jeremiah 6:16-17:

"[16] Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. [17] Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken." Jeremiah 6:16-17 (KJV).

From Christian Experience and Teachings of Ellen G. White, page 57:

"They had a bright light set up behind them at the beginning of the path, which an angel told me was the 'midnight cry.' This light shone all along the path, and gave light for their feet, so that they might not stumble.'

"If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the city, they were safe. But soon some grew weary, and said the city was a great way off, and they expected to have entered it before. Then Jesus would encourage them by raising His glorious right arm, and from His arm came a light which waved over the advent band, and they shouted 'Alleluia!' Others rashly denied the light behind them, and said that it was not God that had led them out so far. The light behind them went out, leaving their feet in perfect darkness, and they stumbled and lost sight of the mark and of Jesus, and fell off the path down into the dark and wicked world below." Christian Experience and Teachings of Ellen G. White, 57.

[Continuing verbatim dialogue and benediction by Brother Pippenger:]

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Shall we have a word of prayer?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we want to be the temple that is built upon the Rock that you choose to take your rest in; but, we know there are three voices are sounding in this history, the voice from the cities, the voice from the Lord, and the voice from the temple. And we must tremble at the voice, at your Word, if our house is to be built upon the Rock. We ask for the discernment to hear that voice, understand what it means to us, and have the experience that allows us to be born in the day your nation is lifted up as an ensign to receive the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to call the nations unto yourself. We realize that already we are becoming a root cast out of dry ground, that no man appreciates or sees anything good in. We ask that you give us the forehead of flint, a diamond forehead that this is not an issue, but the only issue is the issue that motivated you to go to the cross because you saw the fruits of your labor. Give us the love for souls that you have that we might have the motivation to stand in this coming crisis, and we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #89

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we begin this study, we once again plead that you would grant us the power and presence of your Holy Spirit, that you would take control of this message, set it forth in a clear and concise package that we can understand and that we can be held accountable for. We want the discernment that only comes from the presence of your Holy Spirit. We ask that you grant us that discernment. I would ask that you would overrule my thinking, my humanity, and use me as a tool that is hid behind your cross to convey a message to your people at this time that would prepare us to share the message with those that we come in contact with. Give us the experience that we need when we come in contact with those people and strengthen us to stand during the coming crisis that is soon to be here, just on the horizon. We ask again that the holy angels would be in attendance, that we would be breathing the atmosphere of Heaven by association with them, that they would prevent the distractions and disruptions that can come in at times and pray that you pour the Latter Rain out upon us and continue to be with us as you have been so far. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I hope you still have your notes from last time. There has been a few times in Habakkuk's Two Tables where I wanted to deal with Isaiah 30:8-21. And I actually believe I dealt with it before in this series, but I wanted to deal with it last time and never got there, obviously.

But, this time, at the beginning of this next presentation, I was going to take a verse out of that sequence of verses and we would have had it already in our memory banks. So, I am thinking that as we go into prayer that I may take up (probably going to take up) the very last part of your previous notes and finish it off—I do not know that I can put it off any further—and then go directly into Presentation #89.

OTHERS (CONTINUED)

Isaiah 30:8-21. This is something that I have often done in the past, so it will be familiar ground with many of you in this room, and perhaps with some of you watching LiveStream.

I will try to move quickly through this.

Beginning in verse 8 of Isaiah 30:

> "[8] Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever:"—

Whatever gets written in this table and book is at the end of the world; because, the "time to come" that is portrayed by all the prophets is the end of the world.

The book that has a table in it is Habakkuk, chapter 2. This book that is referenced here, what is noted in the Book of Habakkuk, is these two tables [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts], Habakkuk's two tables.

> "[8] Now, go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever."—

That it may be for now.

> —"[9] That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:"—

These two tables produce through the testing process the rebels of Adventism.

These two tables are prefigured by the two tables of the Ten Commandments, and the two tables of the Ten Commandments also identify rebellion.

Verse 10: This is how the rebellion is manifested by the foolish virgins in Adventism. It says,

> —"[10] Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits:"—

They are unwilling to hear the prophetic message. It is not about the health message, country living, or basic advent doctrine. They do not want to hear the prophetic message that is derived from the table that is noted in the Book. And because they do not want to walk in those Old Paths, their rebellion is manifested.

Are you following the logic?

In verse 11, it also says,

> —"[11] Get you out of the way,"—

This is the Old Paths.

> —"turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us."—[to be continued]

Now, if you drop down in your notes, the notes from last time [and replicated in this presentation], from Christian Experience and Teachings of Ellen G. White, page 57, it says,

> "They had a bright light set up behind them at the beginning of the path, which an angel told me was the 'midnight cry.' This light shone all along the path, and gave light for their feet, so that they might not stumble.'
> "If they kept their eyes fixed on Jesus, who was just before them, leading them to the city, they were safe. But soon some grew weary, and said the city was a great way off, and they expected to have entered it before. Then Jesus would encourage them by raising His glorious right arm, and from His arm came a light which waved over the advent band, and they shouted 'Alleluia!' Others rashly denied the light behind them,"—

They denied the Midnight Cry.

—'and said that it was not God that had led them out so far. The light behind them went out, leaving their feet in perfect darkness, and they stumbled and lost sight of the mark and of Jesus, and fell off the path down into the dark and wicked world below." Christian Experience and Teachings of Ellen G. White, 57.

So, if you return now to verse 11 of Isaiah 30, these rebels that are being manifested by the rejection of these Tables [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts] noted in the Book of Habakkuk that do not want to hear the prophetic message, they say,

—"[11] Get you out of the way,"—THE OLD PATHS—"Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us."—

On this path in Ellen White's first vision, there was the Midnight Cry behind them, and Jesus was just before them. This is definitely a reference to them wanting to get off the Path to Heaven.

Verse 12:

—"[12] Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word,"—

What word?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No audible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This word [indicating the 1843 and 1850 Charts], the message of the Old Paths.

—"and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon: [13] Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant."—

This is The Sunday Law. Sister White says it comes suddenly and unexpectedly; the final movements will be rapid ones.

Verse 14:

—"[14] And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces;"—

The Sunday Law here is being portrayed as the breaking of the pottery.

—"he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit."—

When The Sunday Law comes, the pieces of the pot that are left will not allow you to take the fire of the Holy Spirit (because, we are told that the fire from the altar represents the Holy Spirit). Probation is closed. You cannot get the Holy Spirit, nor can you get any water with these little small sherds. You cannot get the Holy Spirit because your probation has closed at The Sunday Law.

Verse 15:

> —"[15] For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest"—

If you return to the Old Paths, Jeremiah says, "Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your soul." (Jeremiah 6:16) And the rest is the refreshing, according to Isaiah 28, verse 12, "To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear."

And, Sister White in The Great Controversy, page 611, says the refreshing is the Latter Rain.

So,

> —"In returning and rest shall ye be saved;"—

You shall be saved by returning to the Old Paths and accepting the Latter Rain Message; but, there is a class that have built their house upon the sand that will not receive the Latter Rain Message represented by the Rain, nor will they receive the message of Islam in the Message of the East represented by the wind, nor will they receive the message of Daniel 11:40-45 represented as the floods and, because of that, their structure will be swept away.

Verse 15:

> —"[15] For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved, in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not. [16] But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses;"—

Okay. If you go to verse 1 of Isaiah 31, it says, "[1] Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses,"—These people are going to flee on horses, and Isaiah 31 is going to tell us what they are going to flee on, because they are going to define "horses" for us—"and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD! [2] Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity. [3] Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. . . ."

Now, if you go back up into verse 16 of Isaiah 30, these people that are rejecting the Old Paths, say,

> —"[16] But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses,"—

They are going to flee upon the strong delusion, the false outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

> —"therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. [17] One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one;"—

And on October 22, 1844, the Advent Movement, in the fulfillment of the parable of the Ten Virgins, when the door closed, went from 50,000 down to 50. That is a 1,000:1 ratio. This is identifying the fulfillment of the parable of the Ten Virgins.

It says,

> —"[17] One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one,"—

That says, "I do not have any oil to give you. Go get your own oil."

> —"at the rebuke of five shall ye flee:"—

You are going to flee at the rebuke of the five wise virgins.

> —"till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill."—

At The Sunday Law after the rebuke to the foolish virgins is delivered and they are lifted up as an ensign.

> —"[18] And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him. . . ."—

Okay. Now, this is the one that we are going to refer to in our next set of notes, which we are going to start in a moment; so, I will not say anything about verse 18. We are going to come back to that one.

But, the next presentation is about the Tarrying Time, and you can see the Tarrying Time referenced here in verse 18.

Verse 19:

> —"[19] For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee. [20] And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:"—

The reason that we are doing LiveStreaming here is partially because of this verse. It clicked on me one time when I was saying this, "Hey, the internet is what the Lord has prepared for the world to see the teachers, even if you have been kicked out of the Sabbath School class.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible comments.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The teachers in this verse, the Hebrew word means to flow as water as the rain. So, what message are these teaches going to be teaching? The Latter Rain Message.

Verse 21:

—"[21] And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee,"—

What is the word behind us that we hear?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Midnight Cry.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Midnight Cry, and this word [referring to the 1843 and 1850 Charts] right here. This history is the word behind us that we will hear.

And what is the word behind us going to say? And it says,

> —"[21] And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left." Isaiah 30: 8-17, 19-21 (KJV).

What are we supposed to walk in?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Old Paths.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Old Paths.

And in the break, a sister here who recently has come into this Message (her husband has been into it a little bit longer), she just told a story and I am going to tell her I will not say who she is. I do not want to embarrass her.

She said when her husband was into the Message and she was not, he would come home from a meeting like this [clenching his fists] and would be all excited about this Message, saying, "The Bible has come alive! Do you understand what I mean?"

And she would intellectually say she understood what he meant.

But, now, now that she is following this Message, she really understands what he means. And what he means and what she means, what we all mean, is now that you see the logic of this Message. If your Bible is open like mine to Isaiah, if you turn [the pages] to the right, you are going to see the message of the Old Paths; or, if you turn [the pages] to the left, you are going to see the Message of the Old Paths; because, from beginning to end, it is the Message of the Old Paths.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And that is what this verse is saying, "And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Message of the Bible.

So, the book that have the tables noted in it are Habakkuk 2, and Jeremiah 6:16-17 are the Old Paths.

So, let us go to Notes for Presentation #89.

COMMENCING WITH PRESENTATION #89

TARRYING TIME

Isaiah 30:18; Matthew 25:5; Daniel 12:12; Habakkuk 2:3-4; Exodus 24:14-18; Luke 24:44-52, 36; John 20:17-22

And you will notice that his first reference is Isaiah 30:18. Isaiah 30:18 says,

"[18] And therefore will the LORD wait,'—

And what I am suggesting is that the Lord waited in the Millerite History on March 22, 1844, at the first disappointment and fulfilled the Tarrying Time in the parable of the Ten Virgins. So, all the prophets are identifying the same story, and we know that the Millerite History is going to be repeated to the very letter. So, we, as the Millerites [had], are going to have a Tarrying Time.

Verse 18:

—"[18] And therefore will the LORD wait that he may be gracious unto you,"—

And I submit to you that the word Grace, more often than not, has to do with power of the Holy Spirit. He pours out His Grace upon us. So, I am saying that the Tarrying Time marks the beginning of the outpouring of the Spirit. And, of course, we know that in the Millerite History the Tarrying Time is what leads into the Midnight Cry, where the Holy Spirit is poured out in that history.

—"and therefore will he be exalted,"—

And, it is in the time period in sacred history when God is pouring out His Spirit upon His people where the Lord is exalted.

—"that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment:"—

And, invariably, when the Lord is pouring out His Spirit upon His people, in the sacred Scriptures it is in connection with Him executing judgment upon two classes of worshippers.

And, it says,

—"blessed are all they that wait for him." Isaiah 30:18 (KJV).

Which is a reference to Daniel 12:12, "Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days" which is 1843 which ended on March 21, 1844, which marks the Tarrying Time. Blessed are all those that come to the Tarrying Time which this verse is referencing. And the reason it is a blessing is because it leads you to the threshold of where the Lord is going to pour out His Spirit.

So, Matthew 25:5 talks about the Tarrying Time. It is in your notes. We are familiar with that. This is the parable of the Ten Virgins:

"While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept." Matthew 25:5, (KJV).

Daniel 12:12, I just referenced. We can look at it, in case I did not give the absolute word for word. It says,

> "[12] Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days." Daniel 12:12 (KJV).

Habakkuk 2:3-4.

All these are the same Tarrying Time, and they all should be understood as being fulfilled in Millerite History and in our history.

Beginning at verse 3, it says,

> "[3] For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry." Habakkuk 2:3 (KJV).
> "[4] Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith." Habakkuk 2:3-4 (KJV).

The Tarrying Time marks the point where the two classes of worshippers are going to be developed from that point on. One class of worshippers is going to be lifted up. What does that tell you? That the symbol of those worshippers is al (the Daily). They are lifted up, while the other class is going to live by faith, which Sister White says is simply taking God at His Word.

Exodus 24:14-18. We are looking at the Tarrying Time because we want to be prepared to place that in our history and consider the implications of this. Exodus 24, beginning at verse 14:

> "[14] And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.
> "[15] And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount. [16] And the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days:"—THAT IS SIX DAYS—"and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud. [17] And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel. [18] And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights. Exodus 24:14-18 (KJV).

That is 46 days in total. The first day of the 40 is the seventh day.

But, this manifestation of the power of God, where Moses receives the Law of God and receives the instructions for building the sanctuary, the part that I want to emphasize here is it begins with a Tarrying Time. A Tarrying Time precedes the manifestation of the power of God in this history.

Luke 24:44-52:

> "[44] And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law > of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. [45] Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures. [46] And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: [47]And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. [48] And ye are witnesses of these things.

>
> "[49] And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but"—BUT—"tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high."—

You tarry, and then comes the power afterwards.

Are you seeing that? That is two witnesses to the fact that the power follows the Tarrying Time.

> —"[50] And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. [51] And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. [52] And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: . . ." Luke 24:44-52 (KJV).

Back up before those verses. That is why I had those verses out of sequence to verse 36 in the notes.

Verse 36 of chapter 24 of Luke:

> "[36] And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you." Luke 24:36 (KJV).

"Peace be unto you."

Can you say that with me?

BROTHER JEFF AND AUDIENCE IN UNISON: "Peace be unto you."

BROTHER JEFF: All right.

Okay. And then afterwards He is going to tell them to tarry in Jerusalem, and there is a parallel passage of this in John 20. And the expression, "Peace be unto you," is what allows you to tie these two passages together in a nice package in terms of isolating some of the truth therein.

John 20:17-22:

> "[17] Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. [18] Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.
> "[19] Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. [20] And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. [21] Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. [22] And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: . . ." John 20:17-22 (KJV).

Now, go back to Luke 24. I should have told you to keep your finger there, Luke 24.

Here, Jesus has just resurrected and He tells Mary, "Don't touch me. I have to ascend."

The same day, He comes down out of Heaven, and He breathes upon them.

And in Luke 24, when He comes down out of Heaven, He first says, "Peace be unto you," and then He breathes upon them the Holy Spirit.

And, you have in your notes from Spirit of Prophecy, volume 3, pages 243, and it says,

> "The act of Christ in breathing upon his disciples the Holy Ghost, and in imparting his peace to them, was as a few drops before the plentiful shower to be given on the day of Pentecost." Spirit of Prophecy, volume 3, 243.

So, a sprinkling, a few drops before the plentiful showers of Pentecost (John 20.)

But, if you are in Luke 24, in verse 36 He says, "Peace be unto you." Then notice what He does in verse 45: "Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures."

This sprinkling is the opening of the understanding to God's people of the Scriptures that takes place, when He comes down out of Heaven.

But, then, in this same period, He is telling them to . . . what?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: To tarry.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is the Tarrying Time, the components of the Tarrying Time.

And, we have already seen that in the tarrying of Sinai, which is prefiguring this here [referring to Figure No. 179] in the time of Christ, that when He had the 70 elders tarry on the mount, thereafter is when you have the manifestation of the power of God that prefigures Pentecost over here.

Right? Are y'all with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Notice the next quote, from Review and Herald, July 20, 1886.

> "It is with an earnest longing that I look forward to the time when the events of the day of Pentecost shall be repeated with even greater power than on that occasion. John says, 'I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.' Then, as at the Pentecostal season, the people will hear the truth spoken to them, every man in his own tongue.

"God can"—WHAT?—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Can breathe.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, Sister White just compared this history of Pentecost with Revelation 18. So, when Christ comes down in the history of Pentecost, this is the Angel coming down in Revelation 18.

Do you see it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BOTHER PIPPENGER: But, in this history [of Christ], when He comes down here at this very time, He says to the Disciples, what? "Tarry you here."

So, I am saying that the Tarrying Time is marked when the Angel comes down, and then He breathes upon them which is opening their understanding to His Word. And Sister White says that then every man in the world is going to understand these things in their own tongue.

How? How are they going to do that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is going to be worldwide (among other various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is going to be a worldwide message, but how are they going to understand it in their own tongue? They are going to understand the Rules of Prophetic Understanding adopted by Miller and his associates, and that is going to be the key that opens the Scriptures for them.

—"God can breathe new life into every soul that sincerely desires to serve Him, and can touch the lips with a live coal from off the altar,"—

What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is Isaiah 6 happening right here [His breathing upon the Disciples]. Isaiah 6.

Is that not the story of Isaiah 6?

—"and cause them to become eloquent with His praise. Thousands of voices will be imbued with the power to speak forth the wonderful truths of God's Word. The stammering tongue will be unloosed,"—

What is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Isaiah 28.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Isaiah 28. Go there for a moment.

What I am trying to show you is this Tarrying Time followed by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit is a very large subject that is dealt with a lot in the Bible.

In verse 11 of Isaiah 28, it says, "For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people."

Okay. What people is He going to speak to?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To Adventism, right? He tells you at the end of the next verse who they are, ". . . will he speak to this people. [12] To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear."

This is the people that refuse the refreshing.

Who were the people that refused the refreshing?

And in this verse it identifies that the refreshing is the rest.

And who are the people that refused the rest in Jeremiah 6:16?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The people who refused to return to the Old Paths: "Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls [THE REFRESHING]. Jeremiah 6:16, in part (KJV).

So, here in verse 12, "[12] To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest;"—The "To whom" there is the people that they are speaking to in verse 11, the people that refused to walk in the Old Paths. This is the Judgment Message to these people, and He is going to speak to them with "stammering lips and another tongue."

How is He going to do that in the context of Isaiah 28?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Line upon line.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Line upon line; it is through William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation. Proof-texting is how this message gets conveyed to them. That is the very context of Isaiah 28, ". . . But they said, We will not walk therein, [WE WILL NOT HEAR]." (Jeremiah 6:16, in part), which also tells you in verse 12 of Isaiah 28 that it is about a message, "We will NOT proof-text."

Therefore, it tells you in verse 14—well, let us just read it all, "[13] But the word of the LORD"—THE WORD OF THE LORD, THE TEST TO THEM—"the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and three a little;"—THAT IS MILLER'S RULES—"that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. [14] Wherefore hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem." Isaiah 28:13-14 (KJV): The unwillingness to turn loose of the hermeneutics and the exegesis, the historical grammatical critical foolishness of Babylon that causes them to die, instead of taking the simplicity of God's Word!

And back to our quote, the second paragraph. Let us run it through again.

—"God can breathe new life into every soul"—

He breathes here [see Figure No. 179}, does he not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In John 20 and Luke 24.

And what does He breathe? The Spirit, which Sister White says is a few drops.

But, what is this; what is this?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various comments.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What is the breathing?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is Isaiah 37. This is where He is breathing life into the new bones. This is the message of the Four Winds that Sister White says that the Four Winds that are restrained are represented as an angry horse, seeking to break loose and bring death and destruction in its path. This is the breath [the sprinkling], the Message of Islam, Isaiah 37.

> —"God can breathe new life into ever soul that sincerely desires to serve Him, and can touch the lips with a live coal from off the altar,"—ISAIAH 6—"and cause them to become eloquent with His praise. Thousands of voices will be imbued with the power to speak forth the wonderful truths of God's Word. The stammering tongue will be unloosed,"—THROUGH THE METHOD OF PROOF-TEXTING—" and the timid will be made strong to bear courageous testimony to the truth. May the Lord help His people to cleanse the soul temple from every defilement, and to maintain such a close connection with Him that they may be partakers of the latter rain when it shall be poured out." Review and Herald, July 20, 1886.

The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 984:

> "We must not wait for the latter rain. It is coming upon all who will recognize and appropriate the dew and showers of grace that fall upon us. When we gather up the fragments of light, when we appreciate the sure mercies of God, who loves to have us trust Him, then every promise will be fulfilled. [Isaiah 61:11 quoted.] The whole earth is to be filled with the glory of God." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 984.

In order to receive the Latter Rain, you have to recognize it.

And the word RECOGNIZE means:

> RECOGNIZE: 1. To recollect or recover the knowledge of, either with an avowal of that knowledge or not. We recognize a person at a distance, when we recollect that we have seen him before, or that we have formerly known him. We recognize his features or his voice. Webste 's 1828 c t ona y.

In order to recognize the Latter Rain, we have to have seen it before, and where we have seen it before is in God's prophetic Word. We see it in Ezekiel 37. We see it in John 20. We see it in Luke 24. We see it in Isaiah 6. We see it almost everywhere we look in the Bible. It is illustrated.

But, what we are dealing with here is the sprinkling of the Latter Rain that at the beginning of it, it begins with the Tarrying Time when Islam is restrained; and, it leads to the full outpouring at Pentecost.

And, at this point we receive the Seal of God at Pentecost.

Testimonies, volume 5, pages 214, 216:

> "Not one of us will ever receive the seal of God while our characters have one spot or stain upon them. It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters, to cleanse the soul temple of every defilement."—

I have told this story, and I probably should not tell it, but I will tell it again.

At camp meeting, Hamburg, Germany (just outside of Hamburg, Germany).

Hamburg, Germany, is the birthplace of Louis Conradi. I have a special disdain for Louis Conradi, because he is the tool the Lord allowed to bring in the false view of the Daily in 1901. And he ends up rejecting Adventism; but, still, some Adventists, particularly Germans and European Adventists, hold him in high regard. But, in reality, there was no reason to hold him in high regard during any of that history.

I mean, this man was having children. He was married and he was having children with other women; and, they knew it and they allowed him to maintain his position as a leader in the Adventist Church. And when they tell you the story about him, they never tell you that part. This was just ridiculous that he was allowed to even be a member in the church, let along lead the Germany Community. He pretty much single-handedly brought the schism that creates the Reform Movement.

So, the guy is just—if you believe the word "by their fruit you shall know them."

Okay. We are in Hamburg, Germany; so, I am emphasizing that point because I knew I was in Hamburg, Germany, and I knew I had a different view than Conradi did about the Daily, and I knew that the European Adventists have no respect for the Spirit of Prophecy, whatsoever, and it is worse in Germany more than in almost anywhere else. So, I was probably amplifying that a little bit.

There was a pastor that wanted me to come and speak in his church in Hamburg, Germany, and I said, "You don't want me to do that. You will get in trouble."

"No, no, no, no. Come on, come on!"

I have witnesses. He would to the meetings at the Prophecy School. Three times he plead with me to come and preach in his church on Sabbath.

I finally agreed. I said, "This will cause you a headache."

He says, "No, no. I'll be fine."

I might have told this here just this past week ago.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Afterwards, he got sent to a little church in the Middle East. That is a fun job assignment, leaving modern Hamburg, Germany, to be sent to the Middle East!

So, I think I was right.

The day after we left, he is already forced to write a letter saying how I forced myself in, and this, that, and the other. But, that is just a big story there.

But, what I want to get to is this: A big church in Hamburg! I get there, and he says, "You have 30 minutes to speak."

I am thinking, "What am I going to do? I have got 30 minutes to speak, and it has got to be translated into German." And what I am doing is the study called, "The Time Prophets."

So, I am flying and the German translator that is there with me, we are both flying. We are trying to get through this.

But, we read this quote. We read this quote here that I just read.

It says,

> —"Not one of us will ever receive the seal of God while our characters have one spot of stain upon them. It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters,"—

And there were probably 50 to 60 people up in the balcony in the back of this church; and, at that point they all got up and walked out.

Hmm. They do not believe we are going to remedy the defects of our character, and that is why they walked out.

So, this is a serious issue. It is left to us; and, I said this in a really liberal church in Ventura, California, once, and the elder who was opposing this message there on the Sabbath day with his Hawaiian shirt and his shorts and his sandals, with his group in the back arguing all the way through, he interrupted when I read this quote from the back.

He said, "Did you just say it is left up to us to remedy the defects of our characters?"

I said, "No, Brother. That is what Ellen White says."

Brothers and Sisters, this is a serious quote.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen!

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We have to participate in the work of allowing the Holy Spirit to remove sin from us.

And if you do not believe it, it cannot happen!

And if you do not understand how that this truth here is something that Satan fights every step of the way, then you need to wrap your mind around it. We need to wrap our minds around this.

> —"It is left with us to remedy the defects in our characters, to cleanse the soul temple of every defilement. Then the latter rain will fall upon us as the early rain fell upon the disciples on the Day of Pentecost. . . ."—

If you do not believe that you have to do that, are you going to receive the Latter Rain?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: How did the Latter Rain fall upon the Disciples at Pentecost? How did it do so?

First, with a sprinkling: The act of Christ breathing upon His Disciples was as a few drops before the full outpouring on the Day of Pentecost.

> —"What are you doing, brethren, in the great work of preparation? Those who are uniting with the world are receiving the worldly mold and preparing for the mark of the beast. Those who are distrustful of self, who are humbling themselves before God and purifying their souls by obeying the truth these are receiving the heavenly mold and preparing for the seal of God in their foreheads. When the decree goes forth and the stamp is impressed, their character will remain pure and spotless for eternity." Testimonies, volume 5, 214, 216.

It is up to us to remedy the defects in our character in this history [the Tarrying Time of the sprinkling of the Latter Rain], because it is too late here [at Pentecost with the full outpouring of the Latter Rain]. This is The Sunday Law. It is too late here.

Right?

The next page [of your notes].

Acts of the Apostles, page 38:

> "The Pentecostal outpouring was Heaven's communication that the Redeemer's inauguration was accomplished. According to His promise He had > sent the Holy Spirit from heaven to His followers as a token that He had, as priest and king, received all authority in heaven and on earth, and was the Anointed One over His people." Acts of the Apostles, 38.

Pastor Emiliano dealt with this a few times this week. That is the quote that he is referring to. And he was not addressing the issue that I am going to address here, so it is not that he would not agree with me. He was just making another point than what I am going to make here.

The history of Pentecost here [in the time of Christ] is a fulfillment of the Book of Joel. In Acts 2 and 3, Peter plainly says so. He says, "These men aren't drunk as you suppose, this is a fulfillment of the prophecy of Joel."

But, the Millerite History was a fulfillment of the prophecy of Joel because it is Joel that predicts that the stars were going to fall. Okay? So, Christ's History and the Millerite History are a fulfillment of Joel; but, the perfect fulfillment of Joel is our day and age. Okay? So, all three of those histories are the same history.

And in this history when the Holy Spirit is poured out here [at Pentecost], it is marking that Christ has begun a work in the Heavenly Sanctuary.

In the Millerite History, the Midnight Cry, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at the Midnight Cry is announcing that Christ is beginning a new work in the Heavenly Sanctuary.

Therefore, in our history here [during the Tarrying Time of the sprinkling of the Latter Rain], when the Latter Rain begins to fall, you have to ask yourself, "What new work is Christ beginning in the Heavenly Sanctuary?" And it is the Judgment of the Living.

Now, I want to show you something, so you understand that sometimes the differences are purposeful to make a point.

We just read that the full outpouring here at Pentecost in the time of Christ marked that He began a work right here.

I just said the Midnight Cry, which came before this waymark (this waymark is 1844, October 22nd).

This is Pentecost [in the History of Christ]: a change of dispensation here, and the Spirit comes after this waymark.

A change of dispensation here [8/11/40], and the Spirit is poured out just before this waymark [10/22/1844].

So, those two witnesses tell you that when He is changing dispensations, the Spirit is going to be poured out in that timeframe; but, they tell you by their difference that it is not going to necessarily be at the same point in that history. The Midnight Cry leads us into Him moving from the Holy Place to the Most Holy. The Latter Rain takes place when He begins His work in the Holy Place.

And what we are saying here [9/11/2001] is the work of the Judgment of the Living begins here. There is also going to be a full outpouring here [at The Sunday Law], when a new dispensation is taking place; because, now, the ensign is going to gather the other flock out of Babylon; so, there is a work there, too, but it is still going to be the Judgment of the Living.

The Judgment of the Living, the dispensational change begins right here, at September 11, 2001.

The sprinkling in this history [of the Millerites] begins on August 11, 1840. This begins when He comes down out of Heaven.

He came down out of Heaven here [September 11, 2001]; Sister White said no less the personage than Jesus Christ. The Angel of Revelation 18 comes down right here.

Are you with me?

THE FIRST DISAPPOINTMENT

Spiritual Gifts, volume 1, page 153:

> "Another mighty angel was commissioned to descend to earth. Jesus placed in his hand a writing, and as he came to earth, he cried, Babylon is fallen! is fallen!"—

So, what Angel is this? This is Millerite History.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Second Angel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, this is the Second Angel. Okay?

—"Then I saw the disappointed ones"—

Why was anyone disappointed in the history of the Second Angel's Message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Because of why?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, that is the right answer.

Yes, that is the right answer; but, they were disappointed right here, at the Tarrying Time, March 22, 1844.

And now the Second Angel is going to come down in the Summer of 1844; that is what Sister White says.

This is the Spring [March 22, 1844].

And ultimately, the Second Angel is going to meet its climax in the Midnight Cry on October 22, 1844. Right?

Correct? Do you all follow that logic?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All right. Back to the quote.

> —"Jesus placed in his hand a writing, and as he came to earth, he cried, Babylon is fallen! is fallen!. Then I saw the disappointed ones again look cheerful, and raise their eyes to heaven, looking with faith and hope for their Lord's appearing. But many seemed to remain in a stupid state, as if asleep; yet I could see the trace of deep sorrow upon their countenances. The disappointed ones saw from the Bible that they were in the tarrying time,"—

What does that mean, Brothers and Sisters? This is Millerite History. What does that mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You are not understanding the question.

Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: There are two classes of worshippers.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You are not understanding the question, either.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: [Shakes head negatively.]

The disappointed ones saw that they were in the Tarrying Time. What does that mean to us? It means that we are going to have to see that we are in the Tarrying Time. We have to know when we are in the Tarrying Time. They knew! We are going to know.

How did they know? From the Bible. Okay?

From the Bible they knew that the Tarrying Time had arrived; therefore, from the Bible we are going to have to know when the Tarrying Time arrives.

Do you get my point?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Maybe it is not an important point. Maybe that is why you could not assent to answer that question.

> —"The disappointed ones saw from the Bible that they were in the tarrying time, and that they must patiently wait the fulfillment of the vision. The same evidence which led them to look for their Lord in 1843, led them to expect him in 1844." Spiritual Gifts, volume 1, 153.

So, there are a couple of things that I want to point out here [in Figure No. 181] is that they had to recognize that they were in the Tarrying Time.

And, what do we have to recognize?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: When are in the Tarrying Time.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, that is true. I just taught you that, so you answered correctly.

But, what we have to recognize is that the Latter Rain is falling, and I wanted you to see that connection; because, what I am suggesting is when the Tarrying Time arrives the Latter Rain begins to fall, and we have to recognize both aspects of this, that on 9/11, this is our Tarrying Time.

And, the Tarrying Time marks the beginning of the manifestation of the power of God. It is also marked when the Angel comes down, and then we have to recognize that the sprinkling has begun and that we are in the Tarrying Time.

Now, I am aware that this here [indicating the Summer of 1844 in the Millerite History], how we commonly illustrate this history may throw some of you, but it should not.

It should not; because, in this history of here [in the time of Christ], this history up here where we normally mark the Angel coming down is where?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The baptism.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The baptism over here [indicating to the left of the timeline in the time of Christ]. Okay? That is when the Angel comes down to mark the time of God's visitation, when Christ is anointed; and, you allowed me to show you that the Angel came down here, right after His ascension. You allowed me to use that symbol to define this symbol here at September 11, 2001; and, it is okay. It is okay, if you follow Miller's Rules. Symbols can mean more than one thing in Miller's Rules. Read it.

So, what I am saying here, just like in the history of Christ—I am not denying that on August 11 of 1840 the Angel of Revelation 10 came down, but I am saying that at the Tarrying Time here [March 22, 1844], the quote we just read, in this history [of the Millerites] another Mighty Angel was commissioned to come down to the Earth, and He had a writing in His hand. So, we have an angel coming down in this history, too.

Did you read it? Did you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, in this history [of the Millerites], they recognized they were in the Tarrying Time. And this may be the point that means the most to me, maybe above all this, is they understood that the same evidence that had led them to predict 1843, and it did not come here [March 22, 1844], proved 1844. And, we have already dealt with the fact that this message that they had, that the prophecies of the 2520 and the 2300 days actually ends in 1844, is the message that got them cast out of the churches.

And when Sister White quotes Isaiah 66, the verse that says 'your brethren which hated you and cast you out of the churches,' she quotes that verse [Isaiah 66:5] exclusively when she is identifying the disfellowshipping that took place in the Millerite History.

So, what I am saying, the disfellowshipping that will go in this history [of the 144,000] is going to be, because this history here is going to be given the identical message that got them booted out here; and that is, that the 2520 and the 2300 years are valid prophecies that came to a conclusion in 1844, because the Millerite History is going to be repeated to the very letter.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, it is the same evidence.

Is that part of the Old Path Message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It fits, Brothers and Sisters.

LAZARUS

"Lazarus," another line.

The Desire of Ages, pages 528 – 529:

> "Had Christ been in the sickroom, Lazarus would not have died; for Satan would have had no power over him. Death could not have aimed his dart at Lazarus in the presence of the Life-giver. Therefore Christ remained away. He suffered the enemy to exercise his power, that He might drive him back, a conquered foe. He permitted Lazarus to pass under the dominion of death; and the suffering sisters saw their brother laid in the grave. Christ knew that as they looked on the dead face of their brother their faith in their Redeemer would be severely tried. But He knew that because of the struggle through which they were now passing their faith would shine forth with far greater power. He suffered every pang of sorrow that they endured."—

Drop down to the bottom of that paragraph—you know, the story—because of time.

They come to say, "Lazarus is sick [John 11:3] . . . Lazarus died [spoken by Jesus, John 11:14]."

What did Jesus do?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He tarried.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He tarried. Okay. It was purposeful.

The bottom of that first paragraph:

> "—He loved them no less because He tarried; but He knew that for them, for Lazarus, for Himself, and for His disciples, a victory was to be gained.

"'For your sakes,' 'to the intent ye may believe.' To all who are reaching out to feel the guiding hand of God, the moment of greatest discouragement is the time when divine help is nearest. They will look back with thankfulness upon the darkest part of their way. 'The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly,' 2 Peter 2:9. From every temptation and every trial He will bring them forth with firmer faith and a richer experience.

"In delaying to come to Lazarus, Christ had a purpose of mercy toward those who had not received Him. He tarried, that by raising Lazarus from the dead He might give to His stubborn, unbelieving people another evidence that He was indeed 'the resurrection, and the life.' He was loath to give up all hope of the people, the poor, wandering sheep of the house of Israel. His heart was breaking because of their impenitence. In His mercy He purposed to give them one more evidence that He was the Restorer, the One who alone could bring life and immortality to light. This was to be an evidence that the priests could not misinterpret. This was the reason of His delay in going to Bethany. This crowning miracle, the raising of Lazarus, was to set the seal of God on His work and on His claim to divinity." The Desire of Ages, 528–529.

So, I am telling you that in the story of Lazarus, we also have a Tarrying Time.

But, in the story of Lazarus, what other line of truth is also there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: This is the Sealing Time.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is the Sealing Time. Right?

General Conference Bulletin, February 4, 1893:

"I lay down my pen and lift up my soul in prayer, that the Lord would breathe upon his backslidden people, which are as dry bones, that they may live." General Conference Bulletin, February 4, 1893.

The Breath comes in here. The breathing is what brings them to life.

Selected Messages, book 1, page 121, Sister White says our greatest and our most urgent need is to seek for a revival.

A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work. There must be earnest effort to obtain the blessing of the Lord, not because God is not willing to bestow His blessing upon us, but because we are unprepared to receive it. Our heavenly Father is more willing to give His Holy Spirit to them that ask Him, than are earthly parents to give good gifts to their children. But it is our work, by confession, humiliation, repentance, and earnest prayer, to fulfill the conditions upon which God has promised to grant us His blessing. A revival need be expected only in answer to prayer. While the people are so destitute of God's Holy Spirit, they cannot appreciate the preaching of the Word; but when the Spirit's power touches their hearts, then the discourses given will not be without effect. . . ." {Selected Messages, book 1, 121.1}

And on page 128 she says a revival represents a renewal of spiritual life.

A revival and a reformation must take place, under the ministration of the Holy Spirit. Revival and reformation are two different things. Revival signifies a > renewal of spiritual life, a quickening of the powers of mind and heart, a resurrection from spiritual death. Reformation signifies a reorganization, a change in ideas and theories, habits and practices. Reformation will not bring forth the good fruit of righteousness unless it is connected with the revival of the Spirit. Revival and reformation are to do their appointed work, and in doing this work they must blend.—The Review and Herald, February 25, 1902. {1SM 128.1}

The breathing upon the dry bones represents a revival, a bringing back to life.

The raising of Lazarus represents the revival that takes place at 9/11.

Do you see it?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It represents the beginning of the Sealing Time of the 144,000, and it begins with the Tarrying Time [September 11, 2001]. 9/11 is our Tarrying Time in the parable of the Ten Virgins.

The next quote: Bible Training School, December 1, 1903:

> "The dry bones need to be breathed upon by the Holy Spirit of God, that they may come into action, as by a resurrection from the dead." Bible Training School, December 1, 1903.

Did Lazarus get resurrected right here [pointing to the first waymark in the time of Christ (Figure No. 181)]? This is where the dry bones, this is where Lazarus gets resurrected.

MARTHA

Youth Instructor, May 4, 1899:

> "When the Lord is about to do a work, Satan moves upon someone to object. 'Take ye away the stone.' Christ said. As far as possible, prepare the way for my work. But Martha's positive and ambitious nature asserted itself. Thinking that he wished only to look upon the body of her brother, she said, Lord, the work of corruption had made this impossible. She thought that it would be terrible to reveal the decomposing body to the beholders. Thus she expressed her unbelief."—

Middle of that first paragraph, it says, "Jesus had tarried for four days." Are you there with me?

SISTER FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two days.

BROTHER PIPPINGER: Ah, here it tells us how long He tarried.

> —"She did not realize that Jesus had tarried for two days where he was when he received the message, permitting Lazarus to die, that he might manifest the greatness of his power by raising him, thus giving all who should witness the miracle an evidence that could not be excelled.
> "Christ reproved Martha for her unbelief, but his words were spoken with the utmost gentleness. 'Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?' Why should you doubt my power? You have my word. If you will believe, you shall see the glory of God. Skepticism and unbelief are not humility. Implicit belief in Christ's word is true humility, true self-surrender." Youth Instructor, May 4, 1899.

Hosea 6:1-6

Go to Hosea 6.
How long did He tarry before He resurrected Lazarus?

[Brief intermittently indiscernible discussion among the audience on the length of time Jesus tarried before He resurrected Lazarus.]

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He was resurrected on the fourth?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible comment.)
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Lazarus?

[Discussion ceases.]
Verse 1 of Hosea 6:

> "[1]Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. [2] After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. "[3] Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.
> "[4] O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away. [5] Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth. [6] For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings." Hosea 6:1-6 (KJV).

So, we know, if nothing else, that the First Angel's Message in our history is empowered at 9/11, the First Angel's Message being the message of Daniel 11 that arrived at the time of the end in 1989; and, that in this history here, this being The Sunday Law, that this is our third waymark. And after two days (this is the second test in our history), He is going to raise us up.

So, Lazarus is raised up on the fourth day—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: John 11:39.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —John 11:39—which is not a problem. It is the Fourth Angel's Message, but let us go there.

John 11:39 says,

> "[39] Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days." John 11:39 (KJV).

So, he is being lifted up on the fourth day, which would be in this history [of the 144,000], the Tarrying Time (the waiting), the raising up here [The Sunday Law)] in Hosea is the third day.

But, Lazarus in our history, representing those that are resurrected by the breath of God, is representing the Fourth Angel's Message; our history.

Youth Instructor, February 21, 1901:

> "The afternoon was half spent when Jesus sent his disciples to the village of Bethphage, saying: 'Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.'
> "This was the first time during his life of ministry that Christ had consented to ride, and the disciples interpreted this move to be an indication that he was about to assert his kingly power and authority, and take his position on David's throne." The Youth Instructor, February 21, 1901.

What do we have in this history? A restrained ass. They were told to loose a restrained ass.

And where is He going in this history. This is the history of Lazarus, but where is He going?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Triumphal Entry.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Triumphal Entry.

But, this is also the history of Pentecost. Is this too many lines to have overlaid [referring to Figure No. 181]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Uh-huh.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. This is the history when He comes back from Heaven and He breathes upon His Disciples just a few drops, which leads to the full outpouring at Pentecost. But, because this is the history of Christ, rather than draw a fourth line, I am also, simultaneously marking this as the history of Lazarus.

Jesus tarries to come to Lazarus, marking a Sealing Time. He is going to raise him up, marking the resurrection here, the revival that takes place in this history. He revives him in the fourth day, saying this is the Fourth's Angel's Message.

But, He is going to take Lazarus, and what is He going to do now? He is going to go into Jerusalem and do the Triumphal Entry.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible comment.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is going to lift him up as an ensign, but they are going into Jerusalem and they first unrestrain [let loose] an ass that is restrained.

Of course, in this history here [of the 144,000] we have an ass that is restrained as well; we have a revival taking place, a breathing.

So, are you all with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

SISTER FROM THE AUDIENCE: Sister White said that was a short distance, and that His Disciples were puzzled that He would want to ride an ass such a short distance.

Genesis 49:10-11

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Genesis 49, verses 10 and 11. We referred to this yesterday.

"[10] The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come;"—

Who is Shiloh?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Is He coming into this history when He is going into the Triumphal Entry? Yes.

—"and unto him shall the gathering of the people be."—

This is a gathering time. So, this is a gathering time and a sealing time.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That is the purpose of the gathering.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is the purpose of the gathering.

Verse 11:

—"[11] Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes." Genesis 49:10-11 (KJV).

So, the blood of the vine is going to take place at the cross in the story of Lazarus.

The blood of the cross is lining up with Pentecost.

These are two histories going simultaneously. Right? The story of Lazarus, and the story of the breathing upon the Disciples.

But, in the story of Lazarus, we see a restrained ass; and, in the story of Genesis, which is the initial story of scattering and the gathering, it is a gathering time that is referenced in Genesis 49; and, the blood of the cross is associated with the ass—okay?—with the Triumphal Entry.

We are almost done.

The Desire of Ages, page 572:

"Never before had the world seen such a triumphal procession. It was not like that of the earth's famous conquerors. No train of mourning captives, as trophies of kingly valor, made a feature of that scene. But about the Saviour were the glorious trophies of His labors of love for sinful man. There were the captives whom He had rescued from Satan's power, praising God for their deliverance. The blind whom He had restored to sight were leading the way. The dumb whose tongues He had loosed shouted the loudest hosannas. The cripples whom He had healed bounded with joy, and were the most active in breaking the palm branches and waving them before the Saviour. Widows and orphans were exalting the name of Jesus for His works of mercy to them. The lepers whom He had cleansed spread their untainted garments in His path, and hailed Him as the King of glory. Those whom His voice had awakened from the sleep of death were in that throng. Lazarus, whose body had seen corruption in the grave, but who now rejoiced in the strength of glorious manhood, led the beast on which the Saviour rode." The Desire of Ages, 572.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what is the beast on which the Saviour rode?
FROM THE AUDIENCE: The ass.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The ass.

So, the ass, the message of the ass (the Message of Islam), which is the breath that brings the revival represented by Lazarus, that message is being carried by Lazarus, who is Seventh-day Adventism who have come to life at 9/11, and they are carrying the Message of Christ's Righteousness in connection with the Message of Islam, as He comes as a King.

I am almost done.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

There is this one more component to this history, and we will just take this top paragraph from Spirit of Prophecy, volume 2, page 390.

> "Jesus gazes upon the enchanting scene before him, and the vast multitude hush their shouts, spell-bound by this sudden vision of beauty. All eyes turn instinctively upon the Saviour, expecting to see in his countenance the admiration which they themselves feel. But instead of this they behold a cloud of sorrow gathering upon his countenance. They are surprised and disappointed to see the eyes of the Saviour fill with tears, and his body rock to and fro like a tree before the tempest, while a wail of anguish bursts from his quivering lips as if from the depths of a broken heart. What a sight was this for angels to behold! Their loved Commander in an agony of tears! What a sight was this for that glad throng who had accompanied him with shouts of triumph and waving of palm-branches to that summit overlooking the glorious city where they fondly hoped he would reign! Their acclamations were now silenced, while many tears flowed in sympathy with the grief they could not comprehend." Spirit of Prophecy, volume 2, 390.

Why? What is going on now? He is turning loose of the Seventh-day Adventist Church [referencing the History of the 144,000 between 9/11/2001 and The Sunday Law]. It is breaking His heart; but, that is what is happening in this history.

Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, page 250:

> "The midnight cry was not so much carried by argument, though the Scripture proof was clear and conclusive. There went with it an impelling power that moved the soul. There was no doubt, no questioning. Upon the occasion of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, the people who were assembled from all parts of the land to keep the feast, flocked to the Mount of Olives, and as they joined the throng that were escorting Jesus, they caught the inspiration of the hour, and helped to swell the shout, 'Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord!' [Matthew 21:9.] In like manner did unbelievers who flocked to the Adventist meetings—some from curiosity, some merely to ridicule—feel the convincing power attending the message, 'Behold, the Bridegroom cometh!'" Spirit of Prophecy, volume 4, 250.

What is happening in our history is that at 9/11 the Tarrying Time in the parable of the Ten Virgins has arrived, thus telling us that God is about the manifest His power. At that point He is going to breathe upon us the breath of Islam, the Message of Islam that is going to bring us back to life, as Lazarus was brought back to life.

We are going to begin to proclaim the Message of the Old Paths, with a special emphasis upon the fact that the 2520 and the 2300 are valid prophecies that ended in 1844, just as the Millerites did, and it is this message that is going to get us cast out of the churches by the brethren who hate us, and we are going to become the Outcasts of Israel during this history.

But, this history is a sealing time. Those people that are sighing and crying for this that is going on are the ones that are going to receive the Seal of God, and they are going to be gathered together because they are going to be gathered together because right over here [at The Sunday Law] they are going to be lifted up on the third day as an ensign in fulfillment of Hosea.

And, the weeping of Jerusalem, just partially, represents the weeping that would be going on right now in Heaven by Christ, because He is bringing it all to the end now.

I guess in some sense, if it is okay to be a little bit metaphorical, all the raindrops of the Latter Rain are mixed with His tears.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Shall we pray?

Benediction: Father in Heaven, we want to be awakened as was Lazarus that we might humbly take hold of that rope and lead that message of Islam and your Righteousness, and your blood, and your sacrifice into Jerusalem. We ask that you would allow us to partake in this experience, fully knowing that if we are going to do so we have to come to the foot of the cross and allow you to take the Daily away from us. We ask that you would allow that to happen in each of our lives, and we thank you for being with us so far through this week of presentations and ask for your continued blessing as we continue on. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #90

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we bring this day's presentations to a close, we ask that you would continue to guide the message in such a way that we can be benefited, that we can tie these things together as we bring this series to a conclusion. We again would ask that you would grant us your Holy Spirit to enlighten our minds, to strengthen us, awaken us. We want the Latter Rain poured out upon us. And we know that even though we are living in the time of the Latter Rain, if we do not have clean vessels prepared for the Latter Rain, we do not receive it. We would ask that you forgive us our sins, forgive us the transgressions that may be preventing us from understanding these things and receiving the presence of yourself into this temple where you wish to rest. As we take up this next study, I ask that you would once again take control of my humanity, and also the humanity of those who are hearing these things so that we can hear your voice and understand these things in a way that we can be benefited and have a message to carry to those that we come in contact with. We thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

CONCLUSION

BROTHER PIPPENGER: How many of you were here that we did this presentation [referring to the timelines on the whiteboard]? Raise your hands.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Attendees raise their hands.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: One, two, three, four—okay. Maybe half of you in this room, and who knows how many on the internet; so, I am not going to go—I do not know how far I am going to go through this, but I am going to refer to it briefly to get started.

We looked at the history of the Daily, the taking away of the Daily, in the context of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, where Paul tells us that in the 1st Century "the Mystery of Iniquity doth already work," and that there would be a falling away before the man of sin would be revealed. So, the typical application of that is the history of the Ephesus Church in Paul's day and age. Moving to Smyrna, Pergamos, the exalted church (Constantine), the falling away begins. And Pergamos leads to the complete falling away that leads to Thyatira in AD538, Thyatira being the Papal church.

So, we were looking at that in the context of the history that took place, but also in the context of the Daily; because, in Daniel 11:31 and Daniel 12:11 the Daily is taken away, and that word translated as take away is [the Hebrew word] s , to remove. But, in Daniel 8:11, the word take away is [the Hebrew word] , and it means to lift up and exalt.

So, we identified that in AD508, when Paganism was taken away at the Battle of the Visigoths that it was s (ed), it was removed; but, at this point in time Paganism begins to be lifted up and exalted, (ed), as it is going to be placed upon the throne of the Earth as a counterfeit religion in AD538.

Paganism was a counterfeit religion, also; but, as we have shown repeatedly, the transition from Paganism to Papalism is governed by the transition in Christ's life in the Old Testament to the New Testament, the earthly sanctuary to the Heavenly Sanctuary. These two prophecies line up with one another.

And, so, there are changes of dispensations going on in here from AD508 to AD538, the 30 years of preparation for the Papacy paralleling the 30 years of preparation for Christ, is where the religion of Paganism (Daniel 8:11) is lifted up and exalted; AD533 being the point where the Decree of Justinian actually identifies the Pope of Rome as the head of the churches, but he is not on the throne until the last of the three horns are driven out of the City of Rome.

So, this line here [Figure No. 168A], AD321 that we are marking as the beginning of the falling away, this is where Constantine passes the first Sunday law, Constantine and the Church of Pergamos being the symbol of the compromise between Christianity and Paganism. And this mingling is an element of the Mystery of Iniquity.

The Mystery of Iniquity already works back here in the year AD100 in the time of Paul, but we are marking it here just for a point of illustration.

In the year AD330, Civil Rome is cast down by Constantine. So, we have the Mystery of Iniquity beginning back here [prior to AD100]. Civil Rome is cast down in the year 330; and, the casting down of Civil Rome in this history takes place leading up to AD508.

And what happens in 508 in connection with Daniel 8:11, and this is kind of a really profound insight if you can get it into your memory bank, is that in Daniel 8:11 you are seeing a counterfeit offering happening. You are seeing Paganism being slain in 508, but you are seeing Pagan Rome being slain in 508; therefore, Pagan Rome is the false offering, so to speak. But, the religion of Pagan Rome is Paganism and it, as some of the offerings in the sanctuary are, is going to be lifted up and exalted as a wave offering, but only a satanic wave offering. So, even though it is not specifically there in Daniel 8:11, you can see with enlightened eyes that in Daniel 8:11 there has to be a priest there that is going to life this offering up and exalt it. And, it is the Catholic priest that is going to do this. So, in 508 to 538, in the context of Daniel 8:11, you have this illustration of not only a transition from Paganism to Papalism but a counterfeit offering of Paganism. It does not really change; Paganism is Catholicism.

So, we were looking at this in terms of the Daily, the counterfeit, and in terms of 2 Thessalonians.

Then we showed this history is repeated in the history of the Millerites [Figure No. 168B],

In this history of the Millerites, back in the Dark Ages, you have a combination of truth and error that the Protestant churches are going to hold onto that is going to prevent them from accepting the Millerite message.

So, this line here from the Protestant churches is identifying the falling away that is going to happen. Because, when you come to the time period of 1844, the Protestant churches are going to reject the message and they are going to end up praying to Satan. So, they are going to fall away in order to do that. That is what this line [Figure No. 168B] is all about.

So, we find out in this line here that the same things are going on. Here [Figure No. 168A] Civil Rome was cast down in AD330 (Pagan Rome: Constantine moved the capitol from the City of Rome to Constantinople).

Do you follow me?

But, in this history [Figure No. 168B], the Papacy receives a deadly wound in 1798; of, in this sense Papal Rome is cast down.

And, in this history [Figure No. 168A], the offering is going to be Pagan Rome.

Do you follow my logic?

But, in this history [Figure No. 168B], the offering is going to be Papal Rome.

In this history [Figure No. 168A], the Papacy is going to be the false priest that lifts up this offering.

In this history [Figure No. 168B], Protestantism is going to lift up this offering of here [indicating Sardis prior to 1798]. And, that is what they did: They carried the doctrines of Rome. They would not release the doctrines of Rome, and this we tied in to Revelation 17, how the woman [the church] goes from head to head as she rides the beast.

This is a big study; trying to do it quickly.

Go back and look at it. I think is an important study.

In this [referring to the Temple of God after AD538 in Figure No. 168A], in the story of Daniel 8:11, you have the place of his sanctuary is cast down (and that is the City of Rome cast down) in the year 330; but, his sanctuary was the Pantheon Temple which we identified as the temple of all gods, and that Pantheism is Paganism. Okay?

So, when you are identifying the Daily in the Book of Daniel as Paganism, and the key verse in the Book of Daniel is Daniel 8:11 and right there is the temple of Paganism (the Pantheon Temple), then you realize that this word Pantheon is made of theos, meaning gods; and Pan, a Greek god, pantheos = Pantheon, Pantheism. Okay? Pantheism is directly connected to the Pantheon Temple.

So, in each of these histories [Figure Nos. 168A and B] there is a falling away first in order that the man of sin might be revealed. The man of sin that is revealed in 538 is the Papacy, and 2 Thessalonians says that he is in the Temple of God, telling himself that he is God.

Is he in the Temple of God? No; because, in 538 God's temple (God's church) flees into the wilderness. He [the Papacy] is in the counterfeit Temple of God.

In this history [Figure No. 168B] there is a falling away by the Protestants, and the man of sin is revealed as being in the Holy Place; because, the Protestants are going to continue to pray to the Holy Place, and there is Satan in the Holy Place answering their prayers.

Was he truly in the Holy Place in Heaven?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No; counterfeit.

So, this [the Temple of God in Figure No. 168A] is the Pantheon Temple in this generation; and, this [the Holy Place in Figure No. 168B] is the Pantheon Temple in this generation, because the Pantheon Temple is the temple of gods. And in each of these histories there is going to be a counterfeit temple as a waymark in these histories, but they are all represented by the Pantheon Temple.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I am leaving a lot out. I am leaving lots out, but one of things I have left out is that in here [i.e., 503 to 508; 1840 to 1844; 1888 to 1919; 9/11/2001 to The Sunday Law] there is always a message that produces a falling away. The falling way starts back here [at the beginning of the timelines referenced], but there is a testing message.

Sister White lets us know that the testing message in here [503 to 508] was a message by Paul of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2; and, this is what causes the true Christian church to separate from Rome, as illustrated in The Great Controversy, pages 49 and 50. They would have met on any terms with that corrupt church if they could do it, but they could not do it; so, rather, "Separate and let there be war, if necessary," and they separate.

This message that allowed the Christians at that time period to know who they were dealing with, Sister White tells us this came from 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2. A prophetic warning message tested this generation: "Are you going to see that this Christian church in Rome is not really a Christian church, and you cannot belong to it?" And, the true Christians, based upon 2 Thessalonians, separated; but, Sister White tells us that Paul got his message in 2 Thessalonians from the Book of Daniel. So, there is a prophetic testing message in here that causes the falling away, that causes the separation that reveals the man of sin in the Temple of God that came from the Book of Daniel.

So, when you bring that down to the Millerite History [Figure No. 168B]—and I know I am going fast; but, I am going fast because we have not even started the notes, and it is the last presentation of the day. Okay?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In this history [Figure No. 168B], parallel history, there is a testing message right here that is going to cause Protestants to fall away. And, when it is all said and done, Satan is going to be in the Holy Place, answering the Protestants' (who have fallen) prayers.

See the parallel history?

So, when we get to this history, what we do is we start to put some other details into it; because, all these histories are pointing to our history, and we want to understand our history as much as anyone else's history back there.

So, we notice that in connection with this testing message here [Figure No. 168B] is that this Chart is what starts the process of separation. The [1843] Chart is produced in May of 1842. By June of 1842, they [the Protestants] are closing the door.

Then you have the first disappointment. Before the first disappointment they estimated there were a couple of hundred thousand people, and then it went down to—who knows?—not very many.

But then, in the Second Angel's Message, how many came out of Babylon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 50,000.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 50,000, just like how many that came out of Babylon under the Second Decree, according to Sister White; 50,000 in both of those histories.

So, there is a process of separation that begins with the introduction of the Chart.

And what is the main issue? There are three points of separation in the history of the Millerites: the introduction of the Chart; the Second Angel's Message, "Come out of her my people—and what is the other issue that causes a separation in that history? —It is the message that the 2520 and the 2300 ends in 1844, where they used the same evidence that they thought proved they ended in 1843, to show it ended in 1844; and, it is that message is what starts getting them kicked out of the churches.

So, what we are saying is: Both of these histories [Figure Nos. 168A and B] are the same.

We added briefly into this line [of Figure No. 168C], underneath it [Figure No. 168B], Ezekiel 8 which we are going to deal with in a little more detail here; and, for that reason I wanted to put this context up here.

And in Ezekiel 8 there are four abominations that escalate to The Sunday Law: (1) Jealousy, self-exaltation; (2) Spiritualism, the secret chambers; (3) Weeping for Tammuz, the false Latter Rain; (4) Sunday worship, the man of sin revealed.

In here [Figure No. 168D] we dealt with, of course, Jericho and the prophecy of Heil that when he rebuilt Jericho, it would cost him his youngest son to set up the gates, and his first-born son to set up the foundation.

And, we pointed out that the gates represent the church, and the discussion to begin the Adventist Church was in 1860, and the selection of the "Adventist-day Adventist" name was in 1860. And in 1860 when this discussion began, Ellen and James White's youngest son was laid to rest.

And 1863 when they official became the Seventh-day Adventist Church, their oldest son was laid to rest, and the reason he was laid to rest was because he took a nap upon the cloth backing that they were using to produce the 1863 chart and caught pneumonia and died.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible comments.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, in 1863 their first-born son is laid to rest as they are setting aside the Foundations.

So, we are saying these histories here are marking the time period where the Mystery of Iniquity is beginning. We are beginning to seek for the higher criticism, the hermeneutics of Babylon and begin to set aside the Old Paths.

So, the falling away begins here [1860 to 1919], and it is in here [from 1863] that the Protestants are going to be cast down; Papal Rome was cast down here; and, Civil Rome was cast down here [at this same waymark in these histories]. But, the last of the Protestants is Millerite Adventism.

And when Millerite Adventism was calling the people out of the Protestant churches in this history [Figure No. 168B], here in the Second Angel's Message, their definition what defined Babylon was church organization that had connected with civil authority. And if you had formed a church and got credentialed from the Government, that proved that you were a member of Babylon and you needed to come out of it. It was one of their strongest issues.

And back here [1860 of Figure No. 168D] we read quotes that when James White started pushing in 1860 for a church, when they selected the name "Seventh-day Adventist," some of those early Pioneers said, "If you become a church, you are becoming part of Babylon." Okay?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And what I am saying, if you can follow me, is that here, up before this [1860], Millerite Adventism, was the last Protestant, and it is going to get cast down right here [1863], paralleling this casting down [Figure No. 168B], and this casting down [Figure No. 168A].

So, this takes off through history; and, in 1888, which I am saying parallels 1840 because this is when the Angel comes down in 1840; and, of course, we know that in 1888 was the Latter Rain; therefore, the Mighty Angel of Revelation 18 is coming down here, even if it gets cut off. That is what is going on.

This [waymark] is what marks the beginning of the Alpha Apostasy, 1888; because, in here by an official vote, we [Adventism] reject the Spirit of Prophecy and the Bible's authority. So, from this point on, you reap what you sow; and, then I have some dates in here to show the ever increasing darkness that confronts Adventism.

I have 1901 just to mark the Daily as the first of the tests; because, that is what we are doing. The Daily is the first test. It is always the first test: It is jealousy. Satan's rebellion began in Heaven with his jealousy, and his jealousy is equated to self-exaltation; and self-exaltation in the Book of Daniel is symbolized by the Daily, and the Daily comes into this Alpha history in 1901.

Okay. You can go all the way back to 1845 when Crossier writes the tract that is wrong on the Daily, if you want to really go back in history. But, I do not want to go back in history. I want to deal with the Alpha history that begins in 1888.

And then in 1902 we have the burning down of the Review and Herald [Publishing House] and the Sanitarium; thus emphasizing the Pantheism of John Harvey Kellogg; because, what follows this, what follows jealousy is Spiritualism in Ezekiel 8. They go into the chambers of imagery, and Jesus warned us about the secret chambers, and Sister White in her comments says the secret chambers represent Spiritualism.

And what follows this sequence of, first, self-exaltation (the Daily), and then the Pantheism of John Harvey Kellogg (in the sequence that is nailed down) is that you are going to see a false Christ.

Okay. Here [Figure No. 168C] you have a false Christ in Weeping for Tammuz. Tammuz is a false Christ. He dies in the wintertime; he is going to resurrect in the springtime. And the practice, the counterfeit worship service for the false Christ, of Weeping for Tammuz, the weeping that they are doing represents watering the ground so he [Tammuz] will resurrect. So, the weeping for Tammuz represents the counterfeit Latter Rain.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, here [Figure No. 168E] in our history, the jealousy, the Daily (self-exaltation) lining up with Ezekiel 8.

The Spiritualism of Ezekiel 8; that is Pantheism (John Harvey Kellogg).

The false Christ, that is W. W. Prescott's book. "Books of a new order will be written," but Prescott's book marks the beginning of this next history, books of a new order, when he writes The Doctrine of Christ, where he purposely takes the Advent Message and removes all the prophetic implications out of it, leaving a false Christ to guide Adventism the rest of the way through their history, and he succeeded. So, the false Christ is set up here in 1919.

And the temple for this time is expressed symbolically by the book, The Living Temple. But, in this time period, when Sister White is talking about the apostasy of these men, she repeatedly says that their justification for their apostate acts is that they claim, "The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD are we." So, in this history, the false temple that parallels this false temple [Figure No. 168B], that parallels this false temple [Figure

No. 168A] is represented by the book, The Living Temple and their profession that the Temple of the Lord were them. That is the Alpha Apostasy.

But, we are living in the Omega [Apostasy] (John Harvey Kellogg) [Figure No. 168E.

So, in the 1930s—and this is nineteen thirties; I had to select 1930-31—in that time period we [Adventism] are seeking accreditation for our health work, and then for our theological work, and we accept the hermeneutics of apostate Protestantism. We have set aside now proof-texting officially, and we begin to train people in this darkness.

Then comes 1989 and Civil USA (the United States of America) has two aspects: religious (Protestant) and it began to close its doors in June 1842, and the last Protestants in the United States [Millerite Adventism] closed their doors in 1863.

But, in 1989, what is going to be cast down in this history is the civil aspect of the United States—okay?—i.e., cast down, Civil Rome [Figure No. 168A]; cast down, Religious Rome [Figure No. 168B]; cast down, religious United States [Figure No. 168D]; cast down, Civil United States [Figure No. 168E]: Rome [Figure Nos. 168A and B, the beginning]; modern Rome [Figure No. 168D and E, the ending].

So, this goes on in the Ronald Reagan years [Figure No. 168E]. The Mystery of Iniquity begins in the 1930s. It is what is going to cause the falling away in Adventism, this false technique of studying the Bible.

So, you come to 9/11 which lines up with 1888, which lines up with 1840, which lines up with 508; but, now you are looking at the Omega Apostasy. And now, as in the Millerite History, you do not simply have the 1843 Chart, you have these two Charts [the 1843 and the 1850 Charts], the complete story, of not just the Foundations but the Foundations and the Pillars. And the testing process of Adventism begins.

Therefore, the first test here is the Spirit of Prophecy. There are a lot of ways to express this first test. I am not threatened by any of them; but, the symbol of them that repeatedly comes up is the self-exaltation, the a l (the Daily)—all right?—the Daily. So, those people that do not think the Daily is a test question, it is a test question for a lot of reasons; but, what I want you to understand is ultimately it is the symbol of the Omega Apostasy, and what follows that is the Spiritualism and the strong delusion, the strong delusion being the false revival that meets its climax just before The Sunday Law, as represented by the Weeping for Tammuz.

And here [at The Sunday Law] the false temple is now what we call "the structure" that is going to be swept away at the storm and tempest of The Sunday Law, as Sister White deals with the Omega Apostasy.

Of course, this down here [Figure No. 168F], this is a parallel history of Judas. And Sister White talks about the turning point in the life of Judas is in the message of Christ concerning eating His flesh and drinking His blood; but, we are also told that there are turning points in the history of the nations and the church. And these crises the light for that time is given.

The turning point for the nation and the church, September 11, 2001, that is the turning point of Judas. And, in the story of Judas his turning point was where Jesus was saying, "Now you must eat my flesh and drink my blood." And, now, 9/11, now the test for Adventism, is you must take the Little Book and eat it. Okay?

And this al , this self-exaltation of Judas, it takes one step further after the sermon in John 6 when he is at the foot washing at Simon's house. There is where he determines to go ahead and begin the process of meeting three times [see tests 1, 2, and 3 on the timeline] with the Sanhedrin to sell out the Lord.

And we noted that the beginning of Judas's history is at the foot washing, and the end of Judas's history is at the foot washing of the 12 Disciples.

And what is it that Adventists call the foot washing ceremony?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Communion Service.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ordinance of Humility.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Ordinance of Humility.

So, what Judas is rejecting is humility.

If you are rejecting humility, what are you demonstrating?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: G al .

BROTHER PIPPENGER: G al (the Daily).

Okay. The Daily is always right here [indicating the waymark of 9/11], this self-exaltation.

Of course, as we read through the Spirit of Prophecy, Judas becomes demon-possessed (Spiritualism). Okay?

But, here, before he sells out Christ for the third time, at the foot washing of the Disciples, his probation was still open. Sister White says so. But, when he left the foot washing, he closed his probation; thus, telling Seventh-day Adventists that their probation closes before The Sunday Law; because, The Sunday Law is the cross. Judas closed his probation here; and, before the cross, he hung himself, but the tree would not hold. The branch would not hold and he fell away to the ground, and the dogs finished him off.

And the dogs, the dogs, are identified in the Bible as the civil power. Seventh-day Adventists that think that they are saving themselves a headache by accepting Sunday do not realize that the civil powers that are going to do the persecution in that time period are going to finish them off; because, the dogs, the civil power, are what finished off Judas.

But, that is another story.

This falling away [before the cross] is the falling away of 2 Thessalonians. It is the strong delusion that began back here [in the 1930s] when we accepted the false educational techniques.

And, of course, once Judas fell away, the cross, the man of sin was revealed, the man of sin being Barabbas, a false Christ.

In this history [Figure No. 168D] the false Christ is The Doctrine of Christ by W. W. Prescott; the false Christ here [Figure No. 168C] is Tammuz; and, the false Christ here [Figure No. 168A] is the Pope of Rome; and, here [Figure No. 168B] is Satan in the Holy Place[36].

That is a review of that history.

Let us go to your notes and see if we can finish this off.

STRONG DELUSION

"Strong Delusions."—It is bad to do that in the last presentation of the day when you are already in overload mode, is it not? But, my excuse for doing that, ultimately it is getting on a DVD and you can just pause it, come back when you are refreshed, and start it over again.

Testimonies, volume 8, pages 249-250:

> "One who sees beneath the surface, who reads the hearts of all men, says of those who have had great light:"—

[36] Corrects audio from Most Holy Place to Holy Place.

That is Capernaum. That is Adventism at the end of the world.

> —They are not afflicted and astonished because of their moral and spiritual condition.' Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations. I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before Mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.' 'God shall send them strong delusion,—

This is where Sister White is tying Isaiah 66 and 2 Thessalonians together.

> —"'God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie,' because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved,' 'but had pleasure in unrighteousness.' Isaiah 66:3, 4; 2 Thessalonians 2:11, 10, 12."—(to be continued)

Which means, if all of us in this room are going to receive the strong delusion, then He is going to choose a delusion for me that will be different than that which He chooses for you; because, what I am going to fall over is going to be different than what you are going to fall over, and it is going to be different than you fall over [speaking to each section of the audience], but they all come under the category of 2 Thessalonians' strong delusion. Okay?

Let us go to 2 Thessalonians And there is much that you can say about 2 Thessalonians.

Of course, these timelines are based upon 2 Thessalonians [referring to Figure Nos. 168A, B, C, D, E, and F]. Up here are these lines [up on the whiteboard].

I want to remind you of something here. I know you know this, so it will be very redundant.

But, 2 Thessalonians, chapter, beginning at verse 3,

> "[3] Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first,"—

Do you see that up there? It was not just prior to AD538. There is always a falling away that precedes the revelation of who the man of sin is.

> —"and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition: [4] Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. [5] Remember ye not that, when I was yet with your, I told you these things? [6] And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time."—

"Now you know," Paul says, "Now you know what withholdeth the Papacy—the Papacy is going to be revealed in its time (in AD538)—"but, you know what is holding him back; because, I was with you and I told you before."

Who is holding him back?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Pagan Rome.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pagan Rome. Pagan Rome is holding him back.

—"[7] For the mystery of iniquity"—THERE IS THE PAPACY—"doth already work:"—

But, that is the Papacy's activity back here in the 1st Century that Paul is talking about, the Mystery of Iniquity that is going to lead to this is already at work.

And, what was the Mystery of Iniquity that John dealt with in his ministry more often than anything else? And, if you do not understand this, then you probably do not miss some of the context that the writings of John. What was it that John was dealing with in his writings that was the Mystery of Iniquity that is going to impact here [AD538]? Gnosticism; Gnosticism: spiritualizing the truths of the Bible away; putting metaphorical meanings on them which, of course, is Catholicism.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Is it a form of Pantheism?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes, it is a type of Pantheism.

So, where were we?

Verse 7:

—"[7] For the mystery of iniquity doeth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way."—

And I pretty much say, when I am explaining that verse: "he who restraineth."

And we have a sister that watches these, and she pointed out that although we are not familiar with it here in the United States, the word letteth is actually okay; because—Mark, wherever Mark is he could confirm this—in the British Isles and Great Britain, if you are going to rent a house or rent a car, you let a house, you let a car. It is the English [British] word for renting. She pointed out here that there is a sense here that it is just saying that Paganism was renting a space in history as a kingdom of Bible prophecy until his rent was up—okay?—". . . only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way."

Okay. So, what do we know about this, Brothers and Sisters? What do we know about this verse? This verse is where William Miller came to understand that the Daily is Paganism. When he saw this, "Whoa!" Okay? He is looking for what gets taken away in connection with the Daily in the Book of Daniel, and he is using his [Cruden's] Concordance and he is going through, take away, take away, take away, take away, and he comes to here to this passage and he says, "Ah, I get it! Paganism is the Daily! Pagan Rome is what has been restraining the Papacy."

This is a big understanding, the first time (as I understand it) that anyone truly recognized the truth about the Daily. And, some people may have recognized it, but he is the one the Lord used to put the truth about the Daily into history. Okay?

This is a big verse for us!

Verse 8:

—"[8] And then shall that Wicked be revealed,"—

And Miller commenting on this said, "We know the Wicked' is the Papacy."

> — whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: [9]Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders."—

Christ's coming is after the miracles of Satan.

And then in verse 10, it says,

> —"[10] And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. [11]And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: [12] That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness." 2 Thessalonians 2:3-12 (KJV).

And, what I am saying here, Brothers and Sisters, is as I understand what is going to cause the strong delusion upon Seventh-day Adventists is the general disregard for truth, period.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, in reality, the primary message of this is the truth that is rejected by Seventh-day Adventists that brings upon them the strong delusion is the truth that you will find in this passage. We first have to address and apply the truth in this passage, then we can make our general applications; and, the truth that is in this passage is the truth about the role of Pagan Rome (the Daily). It is not loving that truth that brings the strong delusion.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, when we are realizing that these histories [referring to the whiteboard (being Figure Nos. 168A, B, C, D, E, and F)] are based upon the structure of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, and we are pointing out that in each of these histories there is a testing message that finalizes and climaxes the falling away, and that the rebellion is manifested consistently, and the first part of this rebellion is this self-exaltation of Judas, then it is just not out of context to say that the Daily in the Book of Daniel is the symbol of the Omega Apostasy.

Of course, even if the Daily is the symbol of the Omega Apostasy, those people that do not have the love of this truth will never understand that; so, they are going to respond to a claim like that, "Oh, that is just a bunch of foolishness!" or some other response. And, there is just nothing you can do about that.

There are just too many lines of prophecy. Even if you do not have this [the timelines on the whiteboard], this [the 1843 Chart] is the Foundations, and right there [AD508 reflected on the 1843 Chart] is the Daily; therefore, when the Lord leads His people back to the Old Paths, which these truths are, the Daily becomes a present testing truth, period!

But, if you are going to understand Daniel 11:40-45, Sister White says the history that illustrates those verses is the history of verse 30 to 36 of Daniel 11. She quotes those verses: She says, "Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place."

And, the Daily is in verse 31 of those verses. If you are going to understand the final testing message of Daniel 11, you have to understand the Daily correctly. So, do not tell me that the Daily is not a testing truth. No way is it not testing truth! I can give you several witnesses that it is.

Do not tell me that it was not a shaking incident in the Alpha [Apostasy] time period. It definitely was.

And do not tell me that Sister White says we are not supposed to talk about it! That is just your unwillingness to investigate correctly the historical record. The ones that she was telling to be silent on the subject were the ones that were pushing the wrong view of the Daily that she said "came from angels that were expelled from Heaven!" She was not rebuking those people that were defending the Daily for talking; she was rebuking them for providing a platform for the discussion to continue. She wanted the discussion to end because it was only a minority of people in Adventism that were producing that shaking over this doctrine that came from angels that were expelled from Heaven.

So, when you go into that history where she says on this subject "Silence is golden," and you use that to say you are not supposed to be teaching this, you are not reading the history right. And if you do not get your head on straight, you are going to receive strong delusion.

So, back to our quote, the second paragraph.

> "The heavenly Teacher inquired: 'What stronger delusion can beguile the mind"—

And Sister White is talking about the delusions He is going to pick in Isaiah 66 and saying they are the delusions of 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2.

> —"The heavenly Teacher inquired: 'What stronger delusion can beguile the mind than the pretense that you are building on the right foundation and that God accepts your works, when in reality you are working out many things according to worldly policy and are sinning against Jehovah?"—

Two foundations: one upon the sand; one upon the Rock.

By the way, you know, of course, that Sister White identifies the truths of this [1843] Chart as the Rock of Ages and the Foundation, and the Platform.

Where are you going to build your house?

> —"Oh, it is a great deception, a fascinating delusion, that takes possession of minds when men who have once known the truth, mistake the form of godliness for the spirit and power thereof; when they suppose that they are rich and increased with goods and in need of nothing, while in reality they are in need of everything.'
>
> "God has not changed toward His faithful servants who are keeping their garments spotless. But many are crying, 'Peace and safety,' while sudden destruction is coming upon them. Unless there is thorough repentance, unless men humble their hearts by confession and receive the truth as it is in Jesus, they will never enter heaven. When purification shall take place in our ranks, we shall no longer rest at ease, boasting of being rich and increased with goods, in need of nothing.
> "Who can truthfully say: 'Our gold is tried in the fire; our garments are unspotted by the world'? I saw our Instructor"—CAPITAL "I"— pointing to the garments of so-called righteousness. Stripping them off, He laid bare the defilement beneath. Then He said to me: 'Can you not see how they have pretentiously covered up their defilement and rottenness of character? 'How is > the faithful city become an harlot!' My Father's house is made a house of merchandise, a place whence the divine presence and glory have departed! For this cause there is weakness, and strength is lacking.'" Testimonies, volume 8, 249–250.

The faithful city at the end of the world is the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The question is, is how did it become a harlot?

I did not say it. She says, "My Father's house is made a house of merchandise, a place whence the divine presence and glory have departed!"

That is simply the Laodicean message. If you think that you have Christ within, but you do not, you are deceiving yourself. You still have a Spirit within. Sister White is clear: We are decidedly serving Satan or decidedly serving Christ. If we think that we have Christ within and we are deceiving ourselves, then who are we serving?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Satan.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Satan.

Ezekiel 8 and 9

Let us go to Ezekiel 8 and 9.

Verse 1 of Ezekiel 8, I like this verse. I will say it this way: It is nice, but I am not putting a lot of weight on it. Okay? I am putting the same amount of weight on it that I would put on the fact that in John 6, verse 66, when the majority of the Disciples turned and walked no more with Him that that is identifying The Sunday Law in our time period because it is "666."

And I am putting a kind of weight on it that in Revelation 9:11, where there is a name given for the king of Islam that is Apollyon and Abaddon, which means death and destruction, and we know that a name represents character, I am putting the same kind of weight on it that I find it interesting that it is Revelation 9:11 that emphasizes the character of Islam. So, I am not putting a great deal of weight on it.

It is similar to Daniel 9:11, where the curse of Moses, and the oath—and that [Hebrew] word [translated as] oath is the same [Hebrew] word that is translated as seven times in Leviticus 26. So, it is just something that you notice when you look for those things.

But, I kind of like the idea that verse 1 of Ezekiel 8 says,

> ‹‹Ezekiel 8:1 And it came to pass in the sixth year,"—[HOLDS UP 6 FINGERS]— in the sixth month,"—[HOLDS UP 6 FINGERS]—"in the fifth day"—[HOLDS UP 5 FINGERS]—"of the month,—

That makes it the day before 666. All right? This is right on the verge of The Sunday Law, the day before 666.

And, of course, this chapter is about The Sunday Law. But, that is just . . .

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible comment.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"as* I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me.

> "2 Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber. 3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy. [4] And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

"[5] Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. [6] He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

"[7] And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall. [8] Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door. [9] And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here. [10] So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about. [11] And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up. [12] Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, the LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

"[13] He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do. [14] Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

"[15] Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these. [16] And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

"[17] Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. [18] Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them." Ezekiel 8 (KJV).

Now, the sister [from the audience] points out that this vision here is the marah vision, and the marah vision we talked about this morning—the feminine of mareh—the marah vision of the looking glass. And what she is emphasizing, if we are willing to hear it, is that it occurs 12 times in the Scriptures; and, when it occurs, it occurs in passages—the marah, the feminine of mareh—that are marking the judgment upon the House of God. All right?

It is pretty much marking that when you see marah vision, that the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church has been passed by. In other words, it is saying that as we, as students of Bible prophecy, begin to understand these things, we know that we do not understand them because we are smart; we understand them because the Lion of the Tribe of Judah has determined that it is now time to let them see these truths.

So, now, as we are coming to grips with what the marah represents, it means now that we are understanding the marah, it is now just another of several evidences that teaches that the leadership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is being passed by.

That is not hard for me to follow, because we know that here on 9/11 they passed a rule that if you are going to be an ordained pastor, you have to learn the spiritual exercises of the Jesuits. You have just turned your your shepherds into a priesthood: "How has the faithful city become a harlot?"

Okay. We are in Ezekiel 8. We have already dealt with it a little bit.

There are four abominations; thus, meaning worldwide [referencing Figure No. 168C]. This is Adventism worldwide.

In 1901 and 1903 there were two General Conference Sessions where they tried to reorganize and put the church in a structure that would be able to be accessed by the Lord, to accomplish the Lord's work on Planet Earth. If you have not looked at the 1901 and 1903 General Conference Sessions, you probably do not understand that that is a noted failure in that history. It did not work, and Sister White says so. It was a tragedy.

And, disregarding that [the timelines on the whiteboard for a moment], I bring this up. I just do not get it, and I have said this before. If I ever make it, if I ever make it, if I ever rise through my political expertise, and my money, and my fame, and my power to where I could have a position on the General Conference Committee, what will be my first motion?

What will be my first plan that I submit to the General Conference Committee to be? "Let us go ahead and change what was passed back here in 1901 and 1903. Let us just change it one number, one way or the other. Okay? Let us change it to either 24 or 26, but why do we 25 men on the General Conference Committee when we know that Ezekiel 8 talks about 25 men bowing down to the sun at The Sunday Law?" I think I would change it, if I could.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various reactions.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: G al ,

Four abominations: (1) Jealousy is the first image that is in this history; (2) Spiritualism, the secret chambers—we have dealt with this already—(3) Weeping for Tammuz, the false Latter Rain; (4) Sunday worship, the man of sin revealed.

But, Ezekiel 8 is operating upon the principle of repeat and enlarge.

Okay. From Testimonies, volume 5, page 455:

> "God has called His church in this day, as He called ancient Israel, to stand as a light in the earth. By the mighty cleaver of truth, the messages of the first, second, and third angels, He has separated them from the churches and from the world to bring them into a sacred nearness to Himself. He has made them the depositaries of His law and has committed to them the great truths of prophecy for this time. Like the holy oracles committed to ancient Israel, these are a sacred trust to be communicated to the world. The three angels of Revelation 14 represent the people"—

"Three three angels of Revelation 14 represent the people . . ."

> —"who accept the light of God's messages and go forth as His agents to sound the warning throughout the length and breadth of the earth. Christ declares to His followers: 'Ye are the light of the world.' To every soul that accepts Jesus the cross of Calvary speaks: 'Behold the worth of the soul: "Go ye into all the world, and > preach the gospel to every creature."' Nothing is to be permitted to hinder this work. It is the all-important work for time; it is to be far-reaching as eternity. The love that Jesus manifested for the souls of men in the sacrifice which He made for their redemption, will actuate all His followers." Testimonies volume 5, 455.

And, what I am telling you is that you can probably get six or seven quotes from the Spirit of Prophecy where Sister White says the angels—sometimes she says the angels of Revelation 14 and sometimes she says the angels of Revelation 18; but, she defines the angels as representing the work that the people of God do.

Now, there is a sense that these angels are Christ; because, she says just as the Protestants rejected the First, Second, and Third Angels' Messages in the Millerite History, she says "They have verily crucified these messages as the Jews crucified Christ."

> "Those who rejected the first message could not be benefited by the second, and were not benefited by the midnight cry, which was to prepare them to enter with Jesus by faith into the Most Holy place of the heavenly Sanctuary. And by rejecting the two former messages, they can see no light in the third angel's message, which shows the way into the Most Holy place. I saw that the nominal churches, as the Jews crucified Jesus, had crucified these messages, and therefore they have no knowledge of the move made in heaven, or of the way into the Most Holy, and they cannot be benefited by the intercession of Jesus there. {Spiritual Gifts, volume 1, 171.1}

She is comparing these messages to Christ; and so, they do represent Christ. And, the Angel that came down in Revelation 10 she identifies as Christ. So, symbols can mean more than one thing. Check your Rules of Prophetic Interpretation by William Miller. He says that plainly, and he is correct.

So, at one level, these angels represent the messages, the actual nuts and bolts of what is in the message, "Come out of Babylon," "Fear God, and give Him glory."

At another level, they represent Christ, because they can be crucified; but, at another level, they represent the people of God that do the work of proclaiming His messages, and that is the level that we are going to look at here.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

We have already used this quote before in Habakkuk's Two Tables: Selected Messages, book 2, page 69. It says,

> "Let both tares and wheat grow together until the harvest. Then it is the angels that do the work of separation." Selected Messages, book 2, 69.

So, what I am saying is, we should not separate the tares from the church; but, unfortunately, we kind of corrupt that because we do have a responsibility to separate the open sinners from the church. And, based upon the principle that you are not supposed to separate the tares, we have been afraid to separate the open sinners in the church, so the church is just becoming more and more corrupt. We did not want to fulfill that responsibility, and in fact we have gotten to the point that we sympathize with the sinners, instead of doing our job of separating them.

But, when it comes to wheat and tares, that is a different matter. You cannot tell who the wheat and the tares are. In one place she says we cannot now tell who the wise and the foolish virgins are. They look the same, the wheat and the tares; but, it is the angels that separate them, and the angels that separate them are the Three Angels' Messages. It is these messages that separate them, based upon all these histories [referring to the whiteboard], which causes the separation is a testing message.

In our history, it is the repeat of the Three Angels' Messages, and that is what causes the separation. It is the angels, the messages of the angels, that do the separating; but, how does that message of the angels get conveyed to God's People? Through God's people; because, the angels represent the work that God's people do in proclaiming those messages.

Do you follow me?

The next quote, Manuscript Releases, volume 5, page 425:

> "I then saw the third angel. Said my accompanying angel, 'Fearful is his word, awful is his mission. He is the angel that is to select the wheat from the tares, and seal or bind the wheat for the heavenly garner.' These things should engage the whole mind, the whole attention. Again I was shown the necessity of those who believe we are having the last message of mercy, being separate from those who are daily receiving or imbibing new error. I saw that neither young nor old should attend the assemblies of those who are in error and darkness. Said the angel, 'Let the mind cease to dwell on things of no profit.'" Manuscript Releases, volume 5, 425.

What I want you to see here is what does the separation of the Third Angel.

So, let us go to Ezekiel 9, in bringing this to a conclusion.

Beginning in verse 1:

" Ezekiel, chapter 9:1 He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying,"—

Now, remember, prophecy is governed by repeat and enlarge. We have just seen in chapter 8 the escalating abominations. This abomination [of Jealousy] is bad, but it is not as bad as this one [Spiritualism], and not as bad as this one [Weeping for Tammuz]; but, this one is the worse [Sunday worship]: four escalating abominations, talking about worldwide problems in Adventism, but it is progressively getting worse getting to The Sunday Law.

Now Ezekiel is going to repeat that history, only he is not going to tell us now who is going to get the mark of the beast at The Sunday Law but he is going to tell us who is going to receive the Seal of God.

What causes this separation in Ezekiel 9 here?

This is Ezekiel 8 and 9; because, if you take and you lay chapter 9 over the top here [over the timeline in Figure No. 168C], while this is going on [the four abominations], the class that is going to receive the Seal of God, they are sighing and crying over this. This is the same history.

What is it that is going to separate those two classes here [at Sunday Worship (The Sunday Law)]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You know this. It is a simple question.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is the message that is being delivered.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the message.

You have all of these histories to prove it. When the falling away comes, it comes because it is produced by the introduction of a testing message.

Here [AD508] in the early Christian church, they were recognizing (understanding 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2) the man of sin in the City of Rome.

Here [1840], it is the First Angel's Message empowered.

Here [1888], it is the Latter Rain Message of Jones and Waggoner.

Here [1989], it is the Message of Islam.

So, what is separating in here is a testing message. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And, it is the Message of the Three Angels. Correct?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Chapter 9, repeating and enlarging.

> —"[1] He cried also in mine hears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. [2] And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate,"—

Brother Mark, what does 6 symbolize in Bible prophecy?

BROTHER MARK: The symbol of man.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the symbol of man.

Okay. So, we have 6 here. These destroying angels, they are men.

Ah, this is where Shepherd's Rod determines that they are going to go in and kill all the unfaithful Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world. This is where they get this crazy idea.

But, sometimes crazy ideas that are out there, they are put out there in advance of the truth. There are counterfeits put out in advance of the truth to prevent God's people from seeing the reality.

These are men, these are men. What men?

What men are these? It is the messengers that are proclaiming the Three Angels' Messages; and, in response to those messages, there are some people that are not sighing and crying. They are not getting the mark on their forehead that is going to protect them. This is about the Three Angels' Messages.

> —"Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. 2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar."—

You know this story, do you not? There are seven angels. One of them is going to put a mark on the forehead of those that are sighing and crying, and the other six are going to destroy those that are not.

Now, you know, when Shepherd's Rod is teaching their foolishness, and it is total foolishness, they teach that at The Sunday Law, they have been raised up to kill the unfaithful Seventh-day Adventists. Okay?

And, the Spirit of Prophecy quote that just blows that foolish teaching out of the water is when Sister White is commenting on Ezekiel 9. She says those that are destroyed in Ezekiel 9 do not die until the general destruction at the end of the world.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: She says that. Those are her words.

So, Ellen White specifically lets us know that they do not die here [at The Sunday Law]; they are going to die down here at the Seven Last Plagues time period.

Now, they might die of natural causes or an accident, but in terms of when they prophetically die, she makes sure we know that they do not die at The Sunday Law. So, we know that. All right? This idea of them being marked for death here with these destroying angels is not identifying that they are going to die at The Sunday Law; it is identifying that they close their probation, and they close their probation by making a covenant with death. And the reason that they did so is because the Three Angels' Messages came into Jerusalem, and came into the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and one angel is marking who it is that is receiving the message and responding accordingly, and marking them; and, the other six, representing men that are carrying the Three Angels' Messages, they are going to go through and close the probation for those people that are not sighing and crying. Because, it is by rejecting the light that is brought to you in this history [Figure No. 168E] that you close your probation. That is why they are destroyed, in a spiritual sense.

> —"[3] And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side; [4] And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. [5] And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: [6] Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house. [7] And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.
> "[8] And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem? [9] Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not. [10] And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head. [11] And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me." Ezekiel 9 (KJV).

Brothers and Sisters, these angels that are doing this work in Ezekiel 9 represent you and me, not that we are going to literally kill people, but you and I that have eaten the Little Book and, like Ezekiel and Jeremiah, are commanded to go to the lost house of Israel and present this message to them.

And, as we do so, the Lord promises what for us, among other things? Give us a forehead of flint, a forehead of a diamond.

And what is that? That is a mark on our forehead. That is the Seal of God. If we do not do that, we do not get the Seal.

This message that comes into this history, right here [Figure No. 168E], it is a message that is either going to push us one way or another way, either push onto the foundation of sand or the Foundation of the Rock.

And, when this message starts in Adventism, here in the Omega Apostasy, the first manifestation against this message by those people who refuse the Seal of God is al . It is self-exaltation [Figure No. 168E]; it is self-exaltation [Figure No. 168F]; it is self-exaltation [Figure No. 168B]. They refuse to have the Daily taken away.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we need more of the Spirit that you exhibited as you entered into Jerusalem during the Triumphal Entry and realized that the Seventh-day Adventist Church was about to be swept away by a mighty storm, and the majority of its members were going to be lost for eternity. We need to understand that. We need to have the sympathy, the love and the concern that you have, and we ask that you would do that for us. But, we know that if we are going to have the experience that we need to have to receive the Seal of God that first and foremost we must be obedient to your Word and that you have commanded us to take this warning message to Israel, even though it is stiff-necked and obstinate people with eyes that will not see and ears that will not hear. This job is not a fun job; this work is not a fun work; but, we believe that you have a purpose in this work that will be for our good, so we ask that you would give us courage and wisdom to prosecute this work according to your will. We thank you for blessing the production and the transmission that has been going on here today, and for the message that you have been giving us. And now we ask that you would part with us and bring us back tomorrow morning for the worship at 7:30; and, we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #91

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, we thank you the night's rest and bringing us together again this morning that we might begin our day studying together with you. As we do this, we ask that you would prepare us to hear your Voice. Forgive us of any transgressions that are preventing us from focusing in on what you have for us. We ask that you would pour your Holy Spirit out upon us. We want the atmosphere of Heaven here with us. We ask that you would allow the holy angels to fill this room and give them permission to keep away the distractions and any problems that may arise in the work that we are doing here. Take control of my words and my thoughts, as well as my brothers' and sisters', so that we can share this message and understand it the way you see fit. We continue to pray for Brother Emiliano and remember this morning that this the preparation day, and we would ask that you help us resolve everything that needs to be done before the sacred hours arrive. In Jesus's name, amen.

CONCLUSION (CONTINUED)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: For this series of presentations of Habakkuk's Two Tables, there are several nice subjects scattered throughout it; and, as we are coming to a conclusion, we are trying to gather them together.

And, although it was a long time ago, those of us that have been following may remember that we have taken time to specifically to cover the Book of Daniel from the prophetic approach very well. We went through Daniel 1 and showed that Daniel 1 is the First Angel's Message of Revelation 14, and that Daniel 2 is the Second Angel's Message of Revelation 14, and that Daniel 3 is the Third Angel's Message of Revelation 14.

We showed that Nebuchadnezzar's dream in Daniel, chapter 4, which was his second dream (Nebuchadnezzar's first dream was in Daniel, chapter 2); so, Daniel, chapter 4, is his second dream. We showed that that is typifying William Miller's second dream. William Miller's second dream was the scattering of Adventism, the covering up of the foundational truths.

And Daniel, chapter 4, of course, is Nebuchadnezzar being scattered for seven times. So, we showed that Daniel, chapter 4, is the history of Adventism, from 1863 until 1989, the Time of the End.

And then we showed that Daniel, chapter 5, is representing the end of Adventism; it is being tested by the beginning of Adventism. The beginning of Adventism in the Millerite History is testing the end of Adventism, just like Belshazzar was being tested by his beginning history which was Nebuchadnezzar.

So we have placed chapters, 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of Daniel in the context of present truth here at the end; and, then we also took up Daniel, chapter 6, of Daniel in the lions' den, and showing that this is the persecution during The Sunday Law crisis.

So, we placed earlier on the first six chapters of Daniel in a prophetic setting, which is not typically done in Adventism, bringing in the Present Truth Message for our day and age into those chapters.

And, then we have recently been taking up Daniel 7 in connection with Daniel 8 to show that Daniel 8 is identifying the counterfeit system of worship throughout history, and focusing in on the Daily to show this, also, is prefiguring the testing question here at the end of the world.

We spent a little bit of time in Daniel 9 showing that Daniel's prayer was in response to the requirements set forth in Leviticus 26, of the requirements identifying how you can come out of the scattering of the 2520, if you choose to do so. The instructions in Leviticus 26 of what God's people were to do when they found themselves in the scattering condition are fulfilled in Daniel, chapter 9.

And this, of course, is telling us that Daniel understood the 2520, at least by this point. He begins in verse 2 by saying that he understood by books the number of years they were going to be in captivity; and, the books that he was studying, he references Jeremiah and Moses.

The 70 years of Jeremiah's is connected thereafter by Ezra and 2 Chronicles 36:21 with Leviticus 26 and the resting of the land. We have looked at that.

We have looked at the two visions in Daniel 8, the mareh and the c n , and also identified that those two visions connected with each other and also the "matter" in Daniel 9 and the "thing" in Daniel 10. Those are the c n , in contrast with the mareh.

So, we have seen that the mareh and the c n is also represented as the b in the *c n ; a*nd*,* by the time Daniel gets to verse 1 of chapter 10, that he is representing God's people at the end of the world that understand both the c n and the mareh.

And then we walked down through chapter 10 of Daniel, showing that he is representing God's people in the time of the Investigative Judgment; and, he gets to the point where the separation is taking place in Adventism, based upon God's people's response to the marah vision, the revelation of not simply Christ in the Sanctuary but the revelation of our own condition in relation to Christ in the Sanctuary.

And, we have dealt with Daniel 11:40-45, also, in this series, which is all based upon Daniel 11. Because, we have dealt with much of the history in Daniel 11, that will be repeated; and, we have looked at much of that history, and we have referred to much of that history throughout this presentation. So, we have covered Daniel 11.

DANIEL 12

We still, in order to bring together this one teaching out of Habakkuk's Two Tables to a conclusion, we are dealing with Daniel 12 now. And, in order to deal with Daniel 12, we are going to go back and look at some things that we have already looked at.

I will give you the reason that we are doing it as we start that is not in your notes.

If you will, go to Daniel, chapter 10, verse 1.

We are not going to spend time there. I just want to show you one thing and then we will move away from it, and we have mentioned this before as well, but we are going to remind ourselves of it again.

We have taken time more than once to show that when a prophet becomes part of the vision, he is illustrating God's people at the end of the world, either the Millerites or the 144,000, but generally both.

And, Daniel's last vision being chapters 10, 11, and 12, the first thing that we are told about Daniel in verse 1 of chapter 10 is that he represents God's people at the end of the world that have an understanding of both the c n (the vision of prophetic history), and the mare, (the vision of Christ in the Most Holy Place as the High Priest).

Verse 1 says,

"[1] In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel,"—

That word thing is b . It is another way Daniel expresses the c n vision. You can show this from going back into chapter 9.

—"a thing [B R] was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing"—that is b —"was true, but the time appointed was long:"—

The time appointed for the b allows you to see that this is the c n ; because, when the c n is mentioned, it is the vision that is long because it is the vision of prophetic history.

—"and the thing was true, and the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing [THE B R],"—

He understood the c n here.

—"and had understanding of the [mareh] vision." Daniel 10:1 (KJV).

So, the first thing that Daniel's last vision tells us, and based upon the rule of first mentioned, this is one of the most important things about his last vision, is that he understands both the vision of prophetic history and the mareh.

So, if you go to Daniel 12, verse 7—really starting in verse 6, it says,

"[6] And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river,"—

Who is the man upon the waters?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: Palmoni (Christ).

—"How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?"—

And, I do not want to mislead you. I do not know of any Hebrew justification for me saying in verse 5 that the man on the waters is Palmoni. I am doing that by context; but, it is Christ.

Verse 6:

—""[6] And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? [7] And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. [8] And I heard, but I understood not:"—

The first thing that we are told about this vision is that Daniel has understanding of the c n vision and the mareh vision; but, here in chapter 12, Daniel does not understand this vision. Therefore, Daniel here is not Daniel; he is representing God's people at the end of the world that do not understand this vision. They want to, but they do not.

But, we know, right at the first thing in this vision we are told is that Daniel understands these things.

Do you see the contradiction?

If you are going to insist that this is Daniel, period, from the beginning to the end, then you have found a contradiction in God's Word; and, there are no contradictions in God's Word. This contradiction is eliminated when you understand that when the prophets become part of the prophecy, they are representing God's people at the end of the world. And, this is not just a casual reference; this is emphasized.

Verse 8, and it says,

> —"[8] And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things? [0] And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end." Daniel 8:6-9 (KJV).

Okay. We are going to come back to Daniel 12, the Lord willing, but we are going to take some time now to review things that we have studied before, a little bit more completely, in order to really put a defense down that when a prophet becomes part of the prophecy, he represents God's people at the end of the world.

After we put in a couple of lines to defend that, then we can return and make our arguments about what Daniel is representing here at the end of the world. It is not himself; it is both the Millerites and it is us.

And William Miller, when he started studying the Bible, he did not understand the 2520. And we have already taken the time to show that this reference of the "times, time, and an half" is a reference to the 2520, the scattering of the power of the holy people. Okay? This is not simply the 1260 years of Papal rule; this is the second half of the trampling down of the Northern Kingdom. And when William Miller came upon this in his studies, he did not understand it, but he wanted to.

And furthermore, in this same vision Gabriel told Daniel, in verse 14 of Daniel 11 that his purpose was to make him understand what was going to happen to God's people in the latter days. So, in this chapter 12, where Daniel is representing the William Miller and the Millerites, he also will come to understand the Daily down here in verses 11 and 12; and in so doing, he is going to understand AD508, 538, 1798, and 1843. And 1843 brings you to the first disappointment, the Tarrying Time, in the Millerite History; and, that Tarrying Time, we saw yesterday, is prefiguring the Tarrying Time of September 11, 2001.

So, William Miller, when he was first studying these things, he did not understand them; he wanted to. And it is represented in this chapter that the Millerites came to understand these things.

But, as they are understanding these things, in verse 10 it says,

> "[10] Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand." Daniel 12:10 (KJV).

This is telling us that the understanding of these truths in the Millerite History is the testing messages that produce the two classes of worshippers on October 22, 1844; but, also telling us that at the end of the world (for Daniel is representing God's people at the end of the world) these very same truths (the 2520, the Daily, the Tarrying Time, the Midnight Cry), these truths that are connected to these three time prophecies in Daniel 12, will also be the testing message for God's people at the end of time, as represented on these [1843 and 1850] Charts: "Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried." And, of course, in that statement, purified, you are purified when you come to the foot of the cross. And then you are made white, which is the Righteousness of Christ; and, then you are tried. That is the threefold message, the threefold work of the Holy Spirit to convict of sin (you are purified), and Righteousness (you are made white), and judgment to come (that is John 16:8, and you are tried). That is the First Angel's Message: "Fear God." It is the Second Angel's Message, "Give Him Glory." You give Him glory when you are manifesting Righteousness. "For the hour of His Judgment is come."

So, this threefold testing process is here in verse 10. It is the threefold testing process that confronted the Millerites and confronts us; but, this testing process both in their history and in our history is connected to the prophetic truths that are in Daniel 12, which is the 2520; but, the 2520 is cloaked in Daniel 12. It is "times, time, and an half" of time; so, it is the 1260. It will become a test for Adventists at the end because they will accept the 1260, but they are unwilling to accept that this is an expression of just the second half of the 2520. There is their test over the 2520.

It was a test for Miller because he had to come to understand it and then present it.

And then the Daily, in AD508 down in verse 11, they [the Millerites] were tested because they had to understand that truth and proclaim it. We [Adventism] are tested because, hey, we do not think the Daily is Paganism any more. We think it is Christ's Sanctuary ministry; and, we think it is okay to take a satanic symbol and turn it into a godly symbol; no problem. We are being tested over that one.

And they [the Millerites] were tested over the first disappointment, the Tarrying Time; and, we are going to be tested over our Tarrying Time, which is September 11, 2001.

This testing process is the subject of Daniel 12.

And it is not Daniel that is there in Daniel 12; because, we are told the first thing in this vision that he had an understanding of all these things, but here he is representing people that do not have understanding.

So, we want to go back—well, I just did Daniel 12. We probably do not need to go any further. I was going to go and make my arguments about when a prophet becomes part of the vision, and come back and tell you that very same thing.

Revelation 10:8-11

But, we will go now and make our point. Go to Revelation 10.

And all these things we have said more than once in Habakkuk's Two Tables, and I do not care that we have done this several times. You will have to do it several times, and it is better to approach it from different direction; it starts to settle in.

And I am personally under the conviction that this is truth; so, I want those people that are watching these things to understand that they are truth.

In Revelation 10, verse 8, it says,

> “Chapter 10:8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. 9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. 10 And I took the little book out of the angel’s hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey, and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. 11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.
> “Chapter 11:1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. 2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. 3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.” Revelation 10:8-11; 11:1-3 (KJV).

In The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, page 971, Sister White is going to comment about the Seven Thunders; so, we want to put this in the record here as we investigate these verses here. It says,

> “The mighty angel who instructed John was no less a personage than Jesus Christ. Setting His right foot on the sea, and His left upon the dry land, shows the part which He is acting in the closing scenes of the great controversy with Satan.”—

So, if you go to verse 2 of Revelation 10, this Mighty Angel comes down in verse 1, and it says, “2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth.” Revelation 10:2 (KJV).

Sister White has just explained to us that this is Jesus Christ. And I know that you know this, but we are just putting it in the record; because, she just said the Mighty Angel is “no less a personage than Jesus Christ,” and he set “His right foot on the sea, and His left foot upon the dry land.” So, we know that this Angel that comes down in Revelation 10 is Jesus Christ.

Continuing on from The Bible Commentary, it says,

> —“This position denotes His supreme power and authority over the whole earth. The controversy had waxed stronger and more determined from age to age, and will continue to do so, to the concluding scenes when the masterly working of the powers of darkness shall reach their height. Satan, united with evil men, will deceive the whole world and the churches who receive not the love of the truth.”—

And even the Protestant world is going to receive the strong delusion; but, the strong delusion is a component of Judgment. During the Judgment testing time, those that reject the testing message will receive strong delusion, and the Judgment testing time is progressive, and Judgment begins with the House of God. So, the very first arrival of the strong delusion is in the churches of Adventism.

> —"Satan, united with evil men, will deceive the whole world and the churches who receive not the love of the truth. But the mighty angel demands attention. He cries with a loud voice. He is to show the power and authority of His voice to those who have united with Satan to oppose the truth."—

Now, this next passage where Sister White is quoting from Revelation 10 is very significant, very important.

> —"After these seven thunders uttered their voices,"—

You will notice—go to Revelation 10 again, in verse 3, after Jesus comes down and puts His left] foot on the earth and [His right] foot on the sea, it says, "[3] And cried with a loud voice,"—JESUS DID—"as when a lion roareth:"—

Have you ever stood in the right spot in a canyon and scream out and hear your echo? Okay. That is what is happening here.

He cries with a loud voice—"and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices."

Okay. He does not give the Seven Thunders. He cries and they respond: "[4] And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not." Revelation 10:3-4 (KJV).

Okay. So, whatever the Seven Thunders are, they are sealed up. It is the only thing in the Book of Revelation that is sealed up, except for the book that is sealed with seven seals. But, in chapter 5, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah has prevailed to open that book and He begins to open that book, one seal at a time. So, that book is unsealed in the Book of Revelation. The only thing that is sealed up is the Seven Thunders.

So, if we go back to our notes, the second paragraph, it says,

> —"After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction"—

What does injunction mean? A command.

> —"the injunction comes to John as to Daniel in regard to the little book:"—

So, now, Sister White—this is not myself or any of the people that are presenting this message. Sister White now says the command to seal up the Seven Thunders is the same type of command that Daniel received to seal up his book: "Daniel, seal up your book until the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased." Sister White is here saying that the sealing up of the Seven Thunders is parallel to the sealing up of the Book of Daniel.

> —"After these seven thunders uttered their voices, the injunction comes to John as to Daniel in regard to the little book: 'Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered.' These relate to future"—DOCTRINES.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Future events.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: To future events.

These relate to future events. The Seven Thunders relate to future events.

—"future events which will be disclosed"—RANDOMLY.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In their order.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —"In their order."—

The Seven Thunders represent future events, and they have a specific order in which those events arrive.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, these events are in the future; and, both Sister White and John in The Revelation are speaking more about our time than their time.

So, when John and Sister White are talking about the future, what are they talking about? Our time. Okay?

There is either a stupid or a satanic, or both, argument about that statement there, and I am not even going to say it.

This is about the end of the world.

> —"Daniel shall stand in his lot at the end of the days. John sees the little book unsealed. Then Daniel's prophecies have their proper place in the first, second, and third angels' messages to be given to the world. The unsealing of the little book was the message in relation to time."—

When was Daniel's Little Book unsealed? In 1798,

And, when it was unsealed, what did the Millerites come to understand? The message in relation to time, as represented on this [1843] Chart.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Inaudible comment.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pardon me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The year-day principle.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The year-day principle.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: But, the days are the 2520 days.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, the days are the 2520 days? Explain that.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: That "the end of the days," that is the 2520.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I do not think so.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Really?

BROTHER PIPPENGER: My brother from the audience says "the days" in the statement, "Daniel shall stand in his lot at the end of the days," is the 2520.

Okay. Daniel stands in his lot—in the history of the Millerites, you can show that Sister White places him standing in his lot in different places. Okay? She says he stands in his lot in one place when the message is carried to the world. That means he stands in his lot in 1840.

But, what that expression means, that Daniel is going to stand in his lot at the end of the days (the "days" is plural). It is not plural in the sense that these time prophecies consist of many days; it is plural in the sense that there are many time prophecies. Daniel stands in his lot when all of these time prophecies [indicating the 1843 Chart] are coming to a conclusion: "At the end of the days"; at the end of all of these time prophecies that are meeting their conclusions in this history, and there are several, you know. The 1260 ends in 1798; the 2520 ends in 1798; the Book of Daniel is unsealed, and Daniel is standing in his lot right there in 1798; because, Sister White has a statement where she says that Daniel is standing in his lot ready to fulfill his purpose. To stand in your lot means to fulfill your purpose. And in 1798 the Book of Daniel had a purpose to fulfill; it is going to begin to produce an increase of knowledge. So, Daniel was standing in his lot in 1798.

Daniel was standing in his lot with the collapse of the Ottoman Empire in 1840.

Daniel was standing in his lot at the first disappointment in 1843.

Daniel was standing in his lot at the end of the 2520 and the 2300 in 1844.

Daniel stands in his lot at the history when all these time prophecies come to a conclusion; and, in that history there are seven time prophecies that come to a conclusion, and he stands in his lot at the end of these days. At least that is how I understand it, and it seems to be more congruent with that history and what Sister White says.

> —"Daniel shall stand in his lot at the end of the days. John sees the little book unsealed. Then Daniel's prophecies have their proper place in the first, second, and third angels' messages to be given to the world. The unsealing of the little book was the message in relation to time.
> "The books of Daniel and the Revelation are one. One is a prophecy, the other a revelation; one a book sealed, the other a book opened. John heard the mysteries which the thunders uttered, but he was commanded not to write them."—

Now, this next passage is of supreme importance; because, in the second paragraph that we have read, Sister White has defined that the Seven Thunders represent future events which will be disclosed in their order; but, in this paragraph, she is going to say something different.

> —"The special light given to John which was expressed in the seven thunders was a delineation of events which would transpire under the first and second angels' messages."—

And that has passed.

And what does the word delineation mean in the Webste 's c t ona y of Sister White's day and age? It means to set forth upon a line.

So, the Seven Thunders represent events that are to be set forth upon a line, and they are events that would transpire under the First and Second Angels' Messages.

When did the First Angel's Message arrive?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1798.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1798.

When does the Third Angel's Message arrive?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1844.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1844.

So, when the Third Angel's Message arrives, the Second Angel's Message has finished. So, when Sister White says the Seven Thunders represent a delineation of events that would transpire under the First and the Second Angels' Messages, she is talking about the events that would transpire from 1798 to 1844. But, in this same passage, she says that the Seven Thunders represent future events that will be disclosed in their order. So, the Seven Thunders represent the history of the Millerites and our history; and, there will be specific events that will be repeated in our history that were fulfilled in the Millerite History.

But, notice the next sentence. This is the point that I want to make before we return to Revelation 10. I will start the paragraph over.

> —"The special light given to John which was expressed in the seven thunders was a delineation of events which would transpire under the first and second angels' messages. It was not best for the people to know these things, for their faith must necessarily be tested."—

Had the Millerites understood these events in advance, they would not have been disappointed at the first disappointment, because they would have would not have had 1843 on this Chart. They would not have been disappointed. It was not best for them to understand these things in advance.

So, did they understand them in advance?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. They did not understand them.

> —"In the order of God most wonderful and advanced truths would be proclaimed. The first and second angels' messages were to be proclaimed, but no further light was to be revealed before these messages had done their specific work. This is represented by the angel standing with one foot on the sea, proclaiming with a most solemn oath that time should be no longer." The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, volume 7, 971.

Now, go back to Revelation 10. In verse 8, it says,

> "[8] And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. [7] And I went unto the angel"—

And what is John doing? He is going unto the Angel.

> —"and said unto him, Give me the little book."—

He goes to Christ and said, "Give me the Little Book."

> —"And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey."

And when was it going to be bitter in his belly? October 22, 1844.

It is going to be a little bit bitter on March 22, 1844, too, at the first disappointment. There was some bitterness there, but the reason bitterness is October 22, 1844.

But, it is going to be in his mouth sweet as honey.

When was it sweet as honey?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: August 11, 1840.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: August 11, 1840, they were claiming this message [referring to the 1843 Chart]—the Chart is not here yet, but they are claiming this message—and, they are telling the world that on August 11, 1840, the Ottoman Empire is going to collapse. And, we are saying that based upon the year-day principle of Bible prophecy. And when it was fulfilled to the very letter—the event exactly fulfilled the prediction, Sister White says—then the year-day principle was confirmed and their message was empowered, and it was sweet. The Lord had confirmed what they were preaching right before the world; but, it was going to be bitter in their stomach.

But, what I want you to see, and you have got to see this, is that before John takes the Little Book and eats it, he is told what is going to happen.

He says in verse 9, "Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey." Verse 10, "And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter." He knew in advance what was going to happen. By Christ's Word, he knew in advance what was going to happen.

Did the Millerites know in advance? It was not best for the people of God to know these things.

So, we know that John here is representing the Millerites, and he is; but, he is primarily representing Seventh-day Adventists at the end of the world that are required to understand this history in advance of its repeating. So, John is representing both of these histories.

And you can see a breakdown of what I understand of what seven primary events in this history are.

1. 1798—FIRST MESSAGE ARRIVES

In 1798 the First Message arrives.

2. AUGUST 11, 1840—FIRST MESSAGE EMPOWERED

In 1840, August 11th, the First Message is empowered.

3. MAY 1842—THE 1843 CHART PUBLISHED

1842, in May, this [1843] Chart is produced. This Chart is going to be a waymark that starts the separation testing process, and it is prefiguring these two Charts [the 1843 and the 1850 Charts] that does the very same thing.

4. JUNE 1842—SECOND MESSAGE ARRIVES

In June of 1842, the Second Message arrives. The Protestants begin to close their doors.

5. MARCH 22, 1844—THE TARRYING TIME ARRIVES

March 22, 1844, the Tarrying Time arrives. That is the fifth event.

6. AUGUST 12-17, 1844—SECOND MESSAGE EMPOWERED

August 12 through 17, 1844, the Second Message is empowered by the Midnight Cry. That is the sixth event in this history.

7. OCTOBER 22, 1844—THIRD MESSAGE ARRIVES

October 22, 1844, the Third Angel's Message arrives when the parable of the Ten Virgins' door is closed, and the door is closed into the Holy Place, but is opened in the Most Holy Place.

That delineation of events of the history of the First and Second Angels' Messages is prefiguring future events that will be disclosed in their order.

Life Sketches, page 196:

> "We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teaching in our past history." Life Sketches, 196.

We are the people that are required to know these things. We are the people that have been told in advance that we are going to repeat this same history; but, nevertheless, we are commanded to take that Book and eat it, and it will be sweet in our mouth, but we know there is some bitterness just ahead of us.

Revelation 22:10-11

Okay. Now, another point about this, Sister White says the Seven Thunders were sealed, as was the Book of Daniel,—so, go to Revelation 22, verses 10 and 11—because the Book of Daniel says that at the Time of the End the Book of Daniel would be unsealed. And, Sister White compared the sealing up of the Seven Thunders with the sealing up of the Book of Daniel; and, without saying it directly, that means that we know there will come a time when the Seven Thunders will be unsealed.

And in verse 10 of Revelation 22:

> "[10] And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand. [11] He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still." Revelation 22:10-11 (KJV).

There is a specific time that the prophecy that is sealed up in the Book of Revelation is going to be unsealed.

Okay. There was a specific time when the prophecies of Daniel that had been sealed up were to be unsealed, and the time that the prophecies of Daniel were to be unsealed we call the Time of the End (1798); therefore, when the prophecy in the Book of Revelation that has been sealed up (the Seven Thunders), the specific time that it is to be unsealed is being referenced here. Whatever that time might be, it would be the Time of the End for this generation. And, of course, that was 1989 with the collapse of the Soviet Union, in fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, and was the Time of the End. And, in 1989 the Seven Thunders was unsealed.

Now, when was the Book of Daniel unsealed? 1798.

And the Lord raised up who as His messenger of that history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: William Miller.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And when did William Miller start studying the Bible?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1816.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1816? So, he did not start studying it in 1798. It is 18 years before he takes up his work. So, there is an increase of knowledge.

It is interesting to note, of course, that he bought his Concordance in 1798.

But, it does not mean that at the Time of the End there is suddenly there are going to be people that immediately know what the message of Daniel is that is unsealed.

And, likewise, in 1989, there were not people that had immediately understood that the collapse of the Soviet Union was a fulfillment of Daniel 11, verse 40, and that this was the point in time when the Seven Thunders were to be unsealed.

It is not until 1995 that these verses are going to be publicly published for Adventism to take a look at. But, what I want you to take note of is that when this message of 1989 does get published for the first time, that if you go back and read that magazine, Time of the End, you will find that one of the principles that is identified right from the outset in that first publication of this Message, is that the Millerite History is to be repeated here at the end of the world in the history of the 144,000; therefore, right from the outset the Seven Thunders were unsealed as well, because the Seven Thunders is the truth that the Millerite History is repeated to the very letter in the time period of the 144,000.

So, just dealing with that lightly.

And what I am dealing with is that when John became part of this vision, he is representing God's people at the end of the world.

THE BEGINNING

Where it says "The Beginning," in the Millerite History, in Revelation 10, John has this experience that is typifying the Millerites and our history; but, it does not end in Revelation 10. In fact, after he notes that his belly is bitter in verse 10, then in verse 11, it teaches the principle of the Seven Thunders, and it says:

> ‹‹Chapter 10:11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings." Revelation 10:11 (KJV)

Thus, telling us that the experience of eating the Little Book, and it being sweet and it becoming bitter, is the work of presenting a prophetic message. That is what it is telling you. He described that and then He said, "And you need to do this again." But He tells what this is. He says, "You must prophesy again."

So, in the history of 1840 when the Book was sweet, until 1844 when it became bitter, were the Millerites presenting a prophetic message?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. So, that is what is being described here.

But, what is being told here is this experience will be repeated, "You must prophesy again."

So, right there in verse 11 you can see the principle of the Seven Thunders, the Seven Thunders being the principle that the history of the Millerites is repeated in the history of the 144,000. But, it does not end there.

It says,

> ››Chapter 11:1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, . . ." Revelation 11:1, in part (KJV).

So, that is where we are going to go to next.

But, in this history after October 22, 1844, the Lord gives them a special truth. We are going to look at that special truth. You know what it is. This is not a hard one.

But, sometimes we forget to think, "Well, okay. If in this history that is being illustrated here there is a special truth that is given to the Millerites, then when this history is repeated at the end of the world, there is probably going to be a special truth given to us. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

The Great Controversy, page 409:

> "The scripture which above all others had been both the foundation and central pillar of the Advent faith was the declaration, 'Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.' [Daniel 8:14.]"—

This is the Pillar.

> —"These had been familiar words to all believers in the Lord's soon coming. By the lips of thousands was this prophecy repeated as the watchword of their faith. All felt that upon the events therein foretold depended their brightest expectations and most cherished hopes. These prophetic days had been shown to terminate in the autumn of 1844. In common with the rest of the Christian world, Adventists then held that the earth, or some portion of it, was the sanctuary. They understood that the cleansing of the sanctuary was the purification of the earth by the fires of the last great day, and that this would take place at the second advent. Hence the conclusion that Christ would return to the earth in 1844.
> "But the appointed time had passed, and the Lord had not appeared. The believers knew that God's Word could not fail; their interpretation of the prophecy must be at fault; but where was the mistake? Many rashly cut the knot of difficulty by denying that the 2300 days ended in 1844. No reason could be given for this, except that Christ had not come at the time they expected him. They argued that if the prophetic days had ended in 1844, Christ would then have returned to cleanse the sanctuary by the purification of the earth by fire; and that since he had not come, the days could not have ended." The Great Controversy, 409.

Here is the bitterness that is in the stomach, and here is John going to measure the temple. They [the Millerites] have got to figure out what the true Sanctuary is.

So, we see John measuring the temple because the disappointment is their misunderstanding of the Sanctuary, of the temple. Measuring is a symbol of judgment. They have to intellectually make a judgment call: It is not the Earth that is the sanctuary; it is the Sanctuary in Heaven. So, this is a measuring component. Right? So, they begin to measure it.

Notice the next quote from Early Writings, page 32:

> "The Lord gave me the following view in 1847, while the brethren were assembled on the Sabbath, at Topsham, Maine.

"We felt an unusual spirit of prayer. And as we prayed the Holy Ghost fell upon us. We were very happy. Soon I was lost to earthly things and was wrapped in a vision of God's glory. I saw an angel flying swiftly to me. He quickly carried me from the earth to the Holy City. In the city I saw a temple, which I entered. I passed through a door before I came to the first veil. This veil was raised, and I passed into the holy place. Here I saw the altar of incense, the candlestick with seven lamps, and the table on which was the shewbread. After viewing the glory of the holy, Jesus raised the second veil and I passed into the holy of holies.

"In the holiest I saw an ark; on the top and sides of it was purest gold. On each end of the ark was a lovely cherub, with its wings spread out over it. Their faces were turned toward each other, and they looked downward. Between the angels was a golden censer. Above the ark, where the angels stood, was an exceeding bright glory, that appeared like a throne where God dwelt. Jesus stood by the ark, and as the saints' prayers came up to Him, the incense in the censer would smoke, and He would offer up their prayers with the smoke of the incense to His Father. In the ark was the golden pot of manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of stone which folded together like a book. Jesus opened them, and I saw the Ten Commandments written on them with the finger of God. On one table were four, and on the other six. The four on the first table shone brighter than the other six. But the fourth, the Sabbath commandment, shone above them all; for the Sabbath was set apart to be kept in honor of God's holy name. The holy Sabbath looked glorious—a halo of glory was all around it. I saw that the Sabbath commandment was not nailed to the cross. If it was, the other nine commandments were; and we are at liberty to break them all, as well as to break the fourth. I saw that God had not changed the Sabbath, for He never changes. But the pope had changed it from the seventh to the first day of the week; for he was to change times and laws." Early Writings, 32.

So, the special truth that was given to them is the Sabbath, and what are they understanding here?

When are they going to print this [1850] Chart?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1850.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1850.

When did Sister White get this vision?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 1847.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 1847.

They are going to understand the Third Angel's Message as a Pillar on this Chart; and, in order to understand the Third Angel's Message rightly, you have to understand the difference between Sabbath and Sunday.

The special doctrine that is given to John when he is rising and measuring the temple, is coming to understand that the Sanctuary is not the Earth; it is the Sanctuary in Heaven. There is a special doctrine given at that time, and that doctrine is marked by Inspiration by the fact that it glows above everything else.

THE END

1 Peter 2:5

So, notice this next quote, but first go to 1 Peter 2:5. We have looked at this many times.

> "[5] Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ." 1 Peter 2:5 (KJV).

From 1798 to 1844 the Millerites were built up a spiritual house; but, the Millerites did not investigate that sanctuary in 1844. They had to come to grips with the distinction of the Earth and the Heavenly Sanctuary. But, John is not only representing the Millerites, he is representing God's people at the end of the world; and, God's people at the end of the world, they have to return to the Old Paths; and, the Old Paths were laid down in the history of the First and Second Angels' Messages from 1798 to 1844 where the Lord gathered together a host in order to restore the sanctuary in 1844. And, that host is the temple that was built in the 46 years from 1798 to 1844 (and they were entered into a covenant at that point), paralleling the 46 days that Moses received instructions on how to build the earthly sanctuary when the Lord was entering into covenant with Ancient Israel, paralleling the 46 days that Herod did a remodeling on the temple.

And the remodeling of Herod's temple ended when?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: AD27.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: AD27, the very year that Jesus was baptized and He began to confirm the covenant with many for 2520 days; and, in the midst of that 2520 His blood confirms that covenant.

So, we see these 46 years when He is building a temple; because, Jesus said, "Destroy this temple, and I will raise it up in three days."

And the Jews responded, "This temple took 46 years." These 46 years is 3 days. The 3 days is 1798, the First Angel's Message; 1842, the Second Angel's Message; and, 1844, the Third Angel's Message. That is the 3 days; that is the 46 years that Jesus raised up the temple of the Millerites in order to enter into covenant with them.

And the symbol of the covenant is the Ten Commandments which has 4 laws here [on one tablet of stone] and 6 laws here [on another tablet of stone] [thus, the number 46].

So, all these truths, you and I already understand; but, we understand them because here we are at the end of the world and we have been measuring the temple, but we have not been worrying about the distinction between the Earth and the Heavenly Sanctuary. We have been worrying about returning to the Old Paths where the Millerite temple was raised up in 46 years, from 1798 to 1844.

But, in this history [of the 144,000] there should be a special truth for us.

Notice the next quote from The Southern Watchman, April 4, 1905.

> "Those who commune with God walk in the light of the Sun of Righteousness. They do not dishonor their Redeemer by corrupting their way before God. Heavenly light shines upon them. As they near the close of this earth's history, their knowledge of Christ, and of the prophecies relating to him, greatly increases. They are of infinite worth in God's sight; for they are in unity with his Son. To them the word of God is of surpassing beauty and loveliness. They see its importance. Truth is unfolded to them. The doctrine of the incarnation is invested with a soft radiance."—

Ah, there is a doctrine that is marked out that is glowing in this history, just as the Sabbath was glowing in that history.

And, what is the incarnation? We cannot explain the incarnation, and there are probably several correct answers that give a vague shot at what the incarnation is; but, we know we cannot explain the incarnation.

But at one level, at one level is Christ becoming a human being; and, Christ is the Word of God, and in the beginning was the Word. The incarnation at one level is the Word of God being combined with human beings. And in this passage, Sister White is talking about a group of people at the end of the world that are studying prophecy and, as they do, they come to understand the importance of the Little Book of the Word of God. And as they are drawn into a deep study of God's Word, they are assimilating the Word of God into their experience, and this is typified by the incarnation.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is accomplished through the reception of the Little Book and eating it. Okay?

And, if you understand that, then you see the incarnation here. The doctrine that is invested with a soft radiance not only is the truth for our time but the accomplishment of the incarnation in your life and my life is illustrated in Revelation, chapter 10, right what we are dealing with, when we go and take the Little Book and eat it. This is a symbol of the incarnation.

> —"The doctrine of the incarnation is invested with a soft radiance. They see that the Scripture is the key that unlocks all mysteries and solves all difficulties."—

If the incarnation at one level is accomplished through the Lord drawing willing men and women into a deep study of His prophetic Word in order for them to be sanctified by His Word, in order for them to bring the Living Word together with their human experience—if that is a valid illustration of the incarnation—then that doctrine is of special importance to us here at the end, and it is illustrated in Revelation 10 as eating the Little Book; so, it is in the context of what we are considering.

But, the next sentence really is the mind-blower; because, it says those people will see the Scripture is the key that unlock Scripture. They will see that William Miller's Rules of proof-texting is the key to accomplish the incarnation of Christ in your life. So, it is a pretty powerful statement here.

> —"Those who have been unwilling to receive the light and walk in the light will be unable to understand the mystery of godliness, but those who have not hesitated to take up the cross and follow Jesus, will see light in God's light." The Southern Watchman, April 4, 1905.

Okay. So, we are dealing with the fact that when a prophet becomes a part of the prophecy that he represents God's people at the end of the world. We are trying to put this principle strongly in place so that we can uphold what we are suggesting about Daniel 12 as we close.

And the next argument along this line from Revelation 10 that I am going to deal with has to do with the measuring of the temple; but, it is rather a large subject, so we are going to end this meeting here for the first time a little bit early—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —and come back to this.

And I have a brother with a finger in the air.

How can I help you, my Brother?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Your connection is no small connection when you read Revelation 10. The heart of the matter of prophecy with this point of information that the Mystery of God would be finished. So, this is a connecting link.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. The Brother is adding more to what I was suggesting. And, he is saying that not only in the context of Revelation 10 and the first verses of Revelation do we see John illustrating the Seven Thunders, the events that took place in the First and Second Angels' Messages, and also illustrating future events that will be disclosed in their order, John is here illustrating the Seven Thunders.

And what I am saying is, in the Millerite History there was a special doctrine (the Sabbath for that history) that they found when they began to investigate the Sanctuary.

But in our history, when we begin to investigate the sanctuary for our time, the history of the Millerites (the 46 years), we will discover a special doctrine, too, which is the doctrine of the incarnation.

And what I am saying is that we have been told the way that we will discover this is by finding William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation and begin to eat God's Word, as John does in this very passage when he takes the book out of the Angel's hand.

But, my brother here is saying that when you get to Revelation 10, verse 7—let us read that—this is part of this history. It is at the very heart of this prophecy. It says concerning the incarnation in that history and in our history that—in verse 7, it says,

> "[7] But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets." Revelation 10:7 (KJV).

The mystery of Christ in us, the Hope of Glory, that this chapter is teaching us that in the way that Christ is going to get in us, the way that the doctrine of our incarnation is going to be accomplished in us is by our willingness to take that Little Book and eat it.

And Sister White, we have already read, says the eating of the Little Book represents the glad reception and the comprehension of the message. And the glad reception and the comprehension is identifying the incarnation of Christ into human beings.

We will continue this in our next presentation.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you for the privilege for being allowed to live here in a time when you are going to finish the Mystery of the Incarnation, the Mystery of Godliness in your people. And we understand now that the way that you do that is by drawing these people unto yourself through the prophetic Word; and, this is one of the reasons that the prophetic Word you have made it so interesting, so stimulating, so fascinating. Because, as Laodiceans, we are not willing to take up the effort for a deep study of your Word, and you knew that, so you have provided such an interesting topic in your prophetic Word that you draw us unto yourself. And as we continue to eat this Word and assimilate it unto ourselves, you will accomplish the Incarnation in each of us. We thank you for letting us know that the methodology that needed to accomplish this work is the proof-texting method of William Miller. We thank you that you brought all these things into focus for us here at the end, and we ask that we can be faithful, as John illustrates, to do the work of eating that Book, even though we know there are bitter times ahead. We ask your continued blessing upon the work that we are doing here in the recording and the LiveStreaming, a blessing upon this preparation day that all of here and those listening can be ready for the sacred hours when they arrive; and, we ask a blessing upon the physical food that has been prepared as we are studying here. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #92

CONCLUSION

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Father in Heaven, we thank you for bringing us to the Sabbath day here this evening. We thank you for bringing us through another week. And as we take up our study here, we thank you for the good physical food that you just gave us and now ask that you once again provide us with some spiritual nourishment. We want to understand the message that you are opening to your people at this time. We ask that you grant us the presence of your Holy Spirit and send your holy angels to abide with us here in this place, and that your Holy Spirit will not only open our hearts and minds but open the hearts and minds of those hat are listening either on DVD or LiveStreaming right now that they, also, as we, can hear your Voice, understand your message for us. Please take control of my words, my thoughts that they are simply a message from you from on High. Purify it, Lord, with a coal from off the altar. We thank you for these things in Jesus's name. Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I have noticed personally, from my personal experience, that when you have meetings like this and you are regularly and purposely praying for the outpouring of the Latter Rain that you always see it. If you understand that the Latter Rain is a message, and you understand that we are now in the period of time when the Lord is gathering even the tiniest of jewels and putting them in the casket, then there are lots of nice little nuances that seem to come to light in meetings like this.

And we were closing out the last meeting by emphasizing that the truth that was emphasized and given to the Millerites in their history when they were measuring the temple was the Sabbath truth.

So, we showed that because the Millerite History is the Seven Thunders, and we are the history of Thunders and that we are now in the process of measuring the history of the Millerites, which is the temple, that the Lord has shown us that the special truth for our time is the incarnation, and we see that truth right there in the history of Revelation 10 with the Seven Thunders represented by the eating of the Little Book is what brings the incarnation into our experience and finishes the Mystery of Godliness within us.

And when we broke, if you remember, yesterday—I think it was our last presentation yesterday—we were dealing with Ezekiel 8 where you have six destroying angels and one Angel that goes through Jerusalem and puts the Seal [of God] upon those that are sighing and crying for the abominations done in the land; and the six destroying angels follow after and destroy those that do not have the Seal.

And we pointed out that because Ezekiel 9 is repeating and enlarging upon Ezekiel 8 that this is Adventism leading up to The Sunday Law when the 25 men bow down to the sun; and, that Ezekiel 8 is describing those in Adventism that are those that are going to receive the mark of the beast, and Ezekiel 9 is describing those in Adventism that are going to receive the Seal of God.

But, we know from this study we have repeatedly demonstrated that what separates the wheat from the tares in Adventism leading up to The Sunday Law are the Three Angels' Messages. So, we took the prophetic liberty to identify that these seven men (six destroying angels and one Sealing Angel) represent the Three Angels' Messages; but, the Three Angels' Messages we have been told represent the people of God. So, in one sense these six and one angels represent those people in Adventism that are delivering the Three Angels' Messages. And the distinction between the six and the one is the one is putting a Seal upon those that are receiving the Message in Adventism, whereas the six (which is the number of man) are dealing with those that are going to receive the mark of the beast. And this, of course, would correspond with chapter 8 of Ezekiel because this is about what leads us [Adventism] to bowing down to the sun.

But, we never mentioned it at the end of the day, for whatever reason, but we also know that these six angels with swords in their hands are typified by the Levites who were faithful during Aaron's golden calf incident, and in Jeroboam's golden calves incident; because, both of these are histories that are prefiguring The Sunday Law.

I will not go into detail, but they were bowing down to an image to the beast there in the story of Aaron. And they were to grind that image up and drink it, which is the punishment in Revelation 14.

And with Jeroboam, these two calves at one level can be identified from the places where they were at, Bethel and Dan (Dan meaning judgment; Bethel meaning the church). So, you can see the judgment of the church in this story; but, also, you can see Bethel being the church, and Dan (being judgment) being the state, so these two calves represent the combination of church and state, which is the image of the beast.

But, in both of those histories, the tribe that was faithful was the Levites. The Levites, okay? And so the Levites refused to participate with Jeroboam's worship, so he had to hire the basest of men to be the priests in his worship.

And the Levites are the ones with the swords, in the story of Aaron, that go through and deliver the judgment. So, when we get to Ezekiel 8, in another history that is typifying The Sunday Law—it is just another line that can be laid right over the top—we understand that these destroying angels are represented as Levites; whereas, the Sealing Angel, He is the one with the white robe. This is an illustration of Christ.

So, in this work that is in Ezekiel 9 of God's people being sealed or prepared for the mark of the beast, the six men represent the Levites which are human beings, but the seventh (the Sealing Angel), that represents Christ. So, we see them together representing the incarnation of Christ in His people, those people that deliver the message that separates Adventism into two classes; and, this goes right along with what we studied last time about the special message that is opened up to God's people at the end of time when they begin to investigate the temple.

Okay. That is just one of those little gems that the Dirt Brush Man opened up at the end of the last meeting that I thought might be nice to share.

Let us go back to our notes now.

CONCLUSION (CONTINUED)

DANIEL 12

Revelation 10:8 – 11:3

We are still dealing with Revelation 10 and the Seven Thunders, and what took place in the Millerite History and what takes place in our history. We are doing that to show that when a prophet becomes part of the prophecy that he illustrates God's people at the end of the world, in order to go back into Daniel 12 and bring this thing to a conclusion.

So, John, in verse 1 of Revelation 11, he has just illustrated the history of the Millerites: sweet in their mouth, bitter in their stomach. In verse 11 he is told this has got to happen again, "You must prophesy again."

And then in verse 1 in chapter 11, it says,

> ,,Chapter 11:1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein." Revelation 11:1 (KJV).

We have dealt a little bit with that; but, we want to deal a little bit more with what the measuring represents. And, of course, if you type it in and look in the [Ellen G. White] CD-ROM, the main thing that the measuring represents is that we are in the Investigative Judgment. Sister White expresses this thought in connection with Revelation 11, verse 1, several times. One of them is in your notes.

MEASURING

Testimonies, volume 7, page 219:

> "The time has come when everything is to be shaken that can be shaken, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Every case is coming in review before God; He is measuring the temple and the worshipers therein." Testimonies, volume 7, 219.

So, the measuring of the temple can be the Investigative Judgment, or you could just say it is a judgment, too, because you can see that it is illustrated as a judgment in a generic sense, where it can be used to illustrate various types of judgment in God's Word.

And, certainly, when the bitter disappointment comes to John and he is going to measure the temple, it is marking the beginning of the Investigative Judgment.

But, we want to look at this rod that he is given to measure, and broaden its understanding a little bit.

A MEASURING LINE

Isaiah 34:17; Lamentations 2:8; Ezekiel 40:2-3; Zechariah 2:1

Go to Isaiah 34:17.

(Brief discussion regarding the heating system of the building.)

Verse 17 of Isaiah 34:

> "17 And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line; they shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein." Isaiah 34:17 (KJV).

The casting of lot, the dividing by the line, because the measuring line is one of these expressions that goes along with the measuring rod or the plummet; but, here we see that it is a type of judgment.

Go to Lamentations 2, verse 8:

> "[8] The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together." Lamentations 2:8 (KJV).

This measuring tool, whether it is the rod, the line, or the plummet, in the context of Revelation 10 and 11 Sister White says, more often than not, that it represents the beginning of the Investigative Judgment, which is a type of judgment; but, these measuring tools can represent other types of judgment; i.e., an Executive Judgment against Jerusalem or against Judah.

Ezekiel 40, verses 2 and 3; and, of course, Ezekiel 40 and 41, it has got to be right there in Revelation 11. It is a parallel; because, here, in Ezekiel 40 and 41, what is Ezekiel going to do? He is going to measure the temple in detail.

If you want to get an overview of the measuring of the temple, the most detailed version of it is here in this passage in Ezekiel. We are going to take just a couple of verses out of it to make a point.

Beginning at verse 2 of Ezekiel 40, it says,

> "[2] In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south. [3] And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate." Ezekiel 40:2-3 (KJV).

And from this point on Jerusalem is going to get measured.

And, of course, who is the man that appears as brass?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Christ.

So, there is a measuring going on in here, which would, no doubt, mean there is a type of judgment going on in here.

But, one more point to put in the mix: Zechariah 2. We have looked at this one before, of course.

And if all the prophets are all speaking about the end of the world and they all agree with one another, all of these measurings come together in Revelation 11 where John is measuring the temple, both the temple of Adventism and the temple of the Millerites.

And in Zechariah 2, verse 1, it says,

> "[1] I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand." Zechariah 2:1 (KJV).

So, we understand the measuring, whether it is with a rod, a reed, a line, or a plummet, represents judgment; and, there you can pull out a lot of light from that study.

TINGLE

2 Kings 21:12-15; [1 Samuel 3:9-12; Jeremiah 19:3]
The Lord; [the temple; the city]

But, I want to take one thing to look at as we move forward. Go to 2 Kings 21. I want to focus in on one of the tools that is used to measure.

2 Kings 21, beginning at verse 12:

> "[12] Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle. [13] And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down. [14] And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; [15] Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day." 2 Kings 21:12-15 (KJV).

Have you ever read—I am sure you have read—but, in Early Writings—have you ever read in Early Writings or some of Sister White's early writings that sometimes it seems like she is a little bit more direct than in some of her later writings? And, there are places where she is describing in her earlier writings how the Protestants rejected the Millerite Message, and she will just bluntly say, "It made God angry that they did this." And, you know, sometimes it appears later on that she tones that down a bit.

I am not saying anything one way or another; but, if you have read some of those times when she was dealing with Millerite History, the people that were rejecting the Message, she says that "God was angry at them!" Okay? And, I am not threatened by that. Some people in Adventism are threatened with the idea that we would say that God was ever angry; but, I do not know about righteous indignation.

But, here, when He is measuring Jerusalem in this passage, it seems pretty much that He is angry. And in verse 15 He says, "Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, . . . "

Okay. So, there is a judgment going on here in connection with Manasseh that angers the Lord.

What I am saying, if you are not following me, is that all the prophets agree with one another and they are all speaking about the end of the world; so, this measuring here, in one sense, has to come down to the measuring that takes place in Revelation 11, verses 1 and 2, which is the Millerite History, which is our history, too. It all comes down to here.

And we have already talked about verse 13 (the plummet). We have seen that it only occurs three times in God's Word; and, here it is occurring when Judah is being scattered.

Now, there is something in here that—you know, I have looked. I have looked. You know, there is sometimes that you think you know something that you think you have recognized something in God's Word, so you start scrambling to see if you can find a second witness to back up your premise. I have not found a second witness to backup my premise, but I cannot turn loose of this thought, and I am going to share the thought with you; but, I am open for correction on this thought.

In this passage when He is scattering Judah—and, we have looked at this before, but we have never talked about it—in verse 12 it says, "Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle."

Okay. This tingling of ears happens only three times in the Scriptures. We have pointed it out before. And each of those three times that it is represented, I believe we have the responsibility as students of prophecy to bring it to the end of the world and line them all together; and, they all are telling the same thing.

In 1 Samuel 3:9-12, they are telling the same thing, only it is different.

We are looking at the ears tingling right now, before we finish our thought on the plummet.

1 Samuel 3, verses 9 through 12, we are going to see some ears tingling again. It says,

> "[9] Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. [10] And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.
> "[11] And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle. [12] In that day I will perform against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house when I begin, I will also make an end." 1 Samuel 3:9-12 (KJV).

So, this is identifying that the ark is going to be captured and taken by the Philistines, and Shiloh is going to be set aside as the place of God's dwelling, the House of Eli is going to be removed, and that is to make your ears tingle. Okay?

So, in the story of Manasseh, Judah is being removed. That is supposed to make your ears tingle.

Here, Shiloh is being removed. That will make your ears tingle in those cases.

And, there is one other place where your ears tingle in the Scriptures, and it is Jeremiah 19:3. And it says,

> "[3] And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle."
> Jeremiah 19:3 (KJV).

So, the only times people's ears tingle in the Scriptures are when Shiloh is being destroyed, where Judah is being destroyed, or where Jerusalem is being destroyed; but, it is the judgment of God.

Now, here is the part, here is the part that is my human speculation: When you take all of these three histories down to our day and age, it is going to be fulfilled upon the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Okay? That is a given, based upon all the testimonies. What is not a given is what the tingling means. And when it takes place in Adventism here in our time, I submit to you that Christ is in the Most Holy Place, and we are supposed to hear this Message. And the way that we hear Christ in the Most Holy Place is on the bottom of His garments He has bells and pomegranates that are tingling. So, this Message is coming right from the Most Holy Place, for this time.

I see a hand.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Habakkuk 3, verse 16, is another time but it is not translated as tingle; it is translated as quivered, the same [Hebrew] word.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes. I was going to put that qualification in there.

TINGLE/QUIVERED

H6750: צלל ; צָלַל tsâlal ; tsaw-lal'

A primitive root (rather identical with 6749 through the idea of vibration); to tinkle, that is, rattle together (as the ears in reddening with shame, or the teeth in chattering with fear): - quiver, tingle. (Strong's Concordance)

H6749: צלל ; צָלַל tsâlal ; tsaw-lal'
A primitive root; properly to tumble down, that is, settle by a waving motion: - sink.
Compare 6750 6751 (Strong's Concordance)

H6751
צלל : צָלַל tsâlal ; tsaw-lal'
A primitive root (rather identical with 6749 through the idea of hovering over (compare 6754); to shade, as twilight or an opaque object: - begin to be dark, shadowing.
(Strong's Concordance)

H6754: צלם ; צֶלֶם tselem ; tseh'-lem
From an unused root meaning to shade; a phantom, that is, (figuratively) illusion, resemblance; hence a representative figure, especially an idol: - image, vain shew.
(Strong's Concordance)

I am going strictly by the translation in the King James Bible. I understand there could be other times that these words are expressed. Okay?

And if you do not think that I am going to buy that, if you think I made that up just to save face, you will notice in your notes underneath "TINGLE" that we have "PSALM 12."

PSALM 12

Go to Psalm 12.

So, you have brought up the very point that I needed to make. I realize that there may be other places in the Hebrew or Greek where the tingle is referenced, but it was not translated the same as we find it here. But, I also believe that the Lord was guiding the production of His Word. Okay?

Are you with me?

Okay. In Psalm 12:

"[1] Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men. [2] They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak. [3] The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things:"—

What tongue "speaketh proud things" in the Scriptures?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Papacy.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Papacy speaks great words against the Most High. I am submitting to you that this is the Papacy here.

Verse 4:

—"[4] Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us? [5] For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him."—

When did the Lord arise and begin to deal with the Papacy? Well, it was in the time period of the Protestant Reformation—right?—when they started to understand God's Word.

But, in that time period, the Protestant Reformation, the Lord is going to arise; he is going to start turning things around.

And, you know, I do not have this history in front of me, and I did not intent to share this; so, this is something that popped into my head. And most times when things pop into your head when you are doing public speaking, and you have an outline that you are trying to stay on, it is a bad idea to go there.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, when it comes to the 2520s, if you go back one time [on each line], which would be 360 years, it takes you to AD1438 [and 1484].

In this history, in 1438 you have the first law in France that puts restrictions on the Papacy.

And if you come back 360 years here [the history of 1438 to 1798], you have the birth of the Protestant reformers. This is when they are coming into history.

So, what does that mean?

Well, it means that the 2520 is based upon the statutes of Leviticus 25. In Leviticus 25, it says you work the land for six years, but the seventh year you let the land rest. So, if William Miller is applying the year-day principle to this broken statute, in a 49-year Jubilee cycle there were 2520 days that the land was to rest; and, therefore, a day-for-a-year punishment for the scattering would be 2520 years. But, this punishment, this judgment, is based upon a statute of letting the land rest; so, if this 2520 consists of seven times, and God is going to be consistent with Himself, in the last time, in the last 360 there should be a resting that occurs. And sure enough, when you come back from 1844, you have the birth of the Protestant Reformation right on time. And if you come back 360 years from 1798 [to 1438], you have the first law that begins to put restrictions on the Papal beast.

So, what I am saying is, in this history here [of 1484 to 1844], the Papacy has been speaking great things against the Most High; and, in this time period the Lord begins the Protestant Reformation.

And in Psalm 12, I would submit to you that up to verse 5 this is about the Papacy and that history; but, the Lord says that He is going to deal with him.

And how is He going to deal with him?

How does He deal with the arrogancy of the Papacy in this history [of 1438 to 1798]? He prints the King James Bible.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Various audible responses.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: In verse 6, it says,

> —"[6] The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times."—

In verse 6, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth": It is saying that it is tried and tested by human beings on Planet Earth, "purified seven times." But, that is the starting point.

The most important point is the next verse, for me. It says,

> —"[7] Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. [7] The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted." Psalm 12 (KJV).

He will purify them, but He will keep them from AD1611 forever.

So, yes, I understand there may be Hebrew and Greek words that also could be translated as tingling your ears. I have not looked for that. My brother knows of one that may qualify. But, what I am saying is that at the level of the King James Bible, which is the Bible that has been purified seven times, there are only three times that this word tingle takes place.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

THREE VOICES

2 Kings 21:12-15; Isaiah 28:14-18; Zechariah 4:8-12

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At some point in time yesterday we read from Isaiah 66. And what I am saying is, in 2 Kings—before we move away from "TINGLE" in your notes—in 2 Kings 21:12-15, the pronouncement of the 2520 against Manasseh and the Southern Kingdom, it says it came the Lord, and it caused ears to tingle; but, Samuel is in the temple when he hears this pronouncement against Eli's house; and, Jeremiah is against the City of Jerusalem.

So, what I am saying is, from the passage from Isaiah that we read yesterday, it is a voice from the city (that is Jeremiah's tingling message); a voice from the temple (that is Samuel's tingling message); and, a voice of the Lord (that is Manasseh's tingling message).

And, yesterday we identified this as the Three Angels' Messages that is marking the recompense to God's enemies in Adventism as The Sunday Law. It is the Three Angels' Messages.

And, in this context, these three voices are these three pronouncements: one against Eli's house, one against Judah, and one against Jerusalem, that the structure is going to be swept away at The Sunday Law.

Now, here is the part that I had spent some time on Psalm 12; so, I hope you can see.

> "[6] A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the Lord that rendereth recompense to his enemies." Isaiah 66:6 (KJV).

I forgot to put the reference there [in the notes]. What is the reference?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Isaiah 66:6.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Isaiah 66:6.

Did you get that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I got that. I like that, but that causes some people to stumble. It causes some people to stumble, and fall, and go backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken, according to Isaiah 28.

So, we are dealing with the plummet. And, the plummet is one of the measurements that are found in 2 Kings 21:12-15 when it is dealing with Manasseh; but, it is found in two other places.

Let us go to 2 Kings 21, one more time.

> "[12] Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle."—

The tingling, this is a message that comes when Christ is in the Most Holy Place and you can hear the pomegranates and bells, if you are willing to hear.

> —"[13] And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down. [14] And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; [15] Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day. [16] Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had > filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD." 2 Kings 21:12-15 (KJV).

Samaria and the House of Ahab is the Northern Kingdom of Israel, or "Samaria." There are several ways that it is expressed. And they have already been carried into captivity beginning in 723BC; and, the Lord is saying to Judah, "You are going to get the same punishment that the Northern Kingdom gets," the plummet of Ahab's house.

So, what I am saying is, the judgment of Ahab's house, because the line, the rod, the plummet always has to do with some type of judgment. The judgment of Ahab's house is the 2520. Right?

So, what I am saying is, the plummet is a symbol of the 2520; but, the plummet only occurs three times in the Scriptures.

ISAIAH 28:14-18 AND THE COVENANT OF DEATH

OVERFLOWING SCOURGE

So, the second time [the plummet occurs] is in Isaiah 28:14-18.

And if you are saying to yourself, "Brother Jeff, you went over this before." You are right; but, there are some things you want to conclude on, and we are reaching the conclusion. We are bringing this airplane in for a landing; so, we are going to pick the things that seem important to emphasize as we close out Habakkuk's Two Tables.

Isaiah 28, beginning at verse 14:

> "[14] Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem."—

This is about Jerusalem; whereas, 2 Kings 21 was a message from the Lord. This is a message from the city.

The other place that the plummet is going to be mentioned is in Zachariah 4, and it is a message that comes from the temple.

Just like the tingling ears, it is a message from the city, the temple, and the Lord. This one is about Jerusalem.

Verse 15:

> —"[15] Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: [16] Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. [17] Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. [18] And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it." Isaiah 28:14-18 (KJV)."

Now, it is important to understand what the overflowing scourge is. It is easy to understand; but, sometimes Seventh-day Adventists are a little bit vague on that.

The overflowing scourge is The Sunday Law. But, if it is The Sunday Law (when I say it like that), it seems like it is a point in time. Well, The Sunday Law in Bible prophecy is a point in time in some regards; because, in Bible prophecy how many Sunday laws are noted in Bible prophecy?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Two.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Two. Constantine passed the first Sunday law in AD321, and the Papacy passed a Sunday law in 538. The first Sunday law was passed by the power that is going to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth; the second Sunday law is passed when the Papacy is placed on the throne of the Earth. And, those two Sunday laws of the past are pointing forward to the two Sunday laws of the future, which is The Sunday Law in the United States, the power that is going to place the Papacy on the throne of the Earth; and the Death Decree when the Papacy takes control of the world and begins to spill blood like never before.

So, there are two Sunday laws in Bible prophecy. And, as a student of prophecy, if you are just looking at those singular events, then they are a singular event; but, the reality is that from The Sunday Law in the United States, until Michael stands up, the whole time period is The Sunday Law testing time, and in that sense it is an overflowing scourge that begins in the United States and it is going to sweep all over Planet Earth. It is an overflowing scourge; but, you have to make that distinction.

Drop down here where it says, "Overflowing Scourge," so we can show you that this is how Sister White understands it, from Early Writings, page 49.

> "As I viewed poor souls dying for want of the present truth, and some who professed to believe the truth were letting them die by withholding the necessary means to carry forward the work of God, the sight was too painful, and I begged of the angel to remove it from me. I saw that when the cause of God called for some of their property, like the young man who came to Jesus (Matthew 19:16-22) they went away sorrowful, and that soon the overflowing scourge would pass over and sweep their possessions all away, and then it would be too late to sacrifice earthly goods, and lay up a treasure in heaven." Early Writings, 49.

When is it that a Seventh-day Adventist's worldly goods are no longer useful?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At The Sunday Law.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At The Sunday Law, when you cannot buy or sell. It does not mean anything then.

So, what marks that is the overflowing scourge.

Another reference, Testimonies, volume 6, pages 194 – 195:

> "When the children of Israel were gathered out from among the Egyptians,"—

Now, notice this one. This one will give us a prophetic marker where we can put a waymark and a line to the overflowing scourge.

—"When the children of Israel were gathered out from among the Egyptians, the Lord said: 'For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the Lord.' And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning. For the Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when He seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you. And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons forever.' Exodus 12:12, 22–24. The blood upon the lintel of the door symbolized the blood of Christ, who alone saved the first-born of the Hebrews from the curse. Any one of the children of the Hebrews who was found in an Egyptian habitation was destroyed."—

So, here is an illustration from sacred history of the Passover.

Is this the Passover?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, this is really simple.

This is the Passover. So, when is this in Millerite History?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: October 22, 1844.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: October 22, 1844.

How come? What precedes October 22, 1844?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Midnight Cry.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Was there a cry at Midnight here in this story?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. Midnight Cry [waymark of Passover line]; Midnight Cry [waymark of October 22, 1844 line]: This is where the door closes in the parable of the Ten Virgins at the beginning of Adventism.

Therefore, where the door closes in the parable of the Ten Virgins at the end of Adventism, we have a Sunday Law in the U.S.A.

Do you see it? That is easy to see, really. If you have been studying this Message very long, that is easy to see.

Continuing on to the next paragraph:

> "This experience of the Israelites was written for the instruction of those who should live in the last days."—

That is us.

> —"Before the overflowing scourge shall come upon the dwellers of the earth, the Lord calls upon all who are Israelites indeed to prepare for that event."—

It is an event. The overflowing scourge is an event that we have to prepare for.

And, the history that Sister White is using to illustrate our preparation is what history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Passover.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Passover.

What had to happen? We had to have a mark on our doorway to prevent the destroying angel from coming in.

So, what is that teaching? On this side of the history [preceding The Sunday Law waymark], we have to be in Ezekiel 9, receiving a mark, not in Ezekiel 8 doing worship in a Celebration-style.

So, it is fairly easy to show the overflowing scourge is The Sunday Law, if you are willing to see.

> —"To parents He sends the warning cry: Gather your children into your own houses; gather them away from those who are disregarding the commandments of God, who are teaching and practicing evil. Get out of the large cities as fast as possible. Establish church schools. Give your children the word of God as the foundation of all their education. This is full of beautiful lessons, and if pupils make it their study in the primary grade below, they will be prepared for the higher grade above." Testimonies, volume 6, 194–195.

Let us return to Isaiah 28. I want to finish this passage before we go to 1 Peter. Verse 14; we will start again.

> "[14] Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. [15] Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: [16] Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner > stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. [17] Judgment also will I lay to the line,"—

There is an illustration of a line being a judgment.

> —"and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. [18] And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it." Isaiah 28:14-18 (KJV)."

In this history, on this side of The Sunday Law [preceding The Sunday Law], there is a group of people in Adventism that are hiding under lies and falsehoods who have made a covenant with death; but, they are going to be judged, and judgment is illustrated by the plummet. Okay?

So, when I am saying the plummet represents the 2520, if we understand that the foundation that they have built is the foundation of sand, but the foundation that Christ wants us on is the Foundation that is the Rock of Ages [pointing to the 1843 and 1850 Charts], which Sister White says that the truths on these Charts are the Rock of Ages, then it would be a valid application to say that this judgment contains the teaching of the 2520, the plummet.

Do you follow the logic there?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: But, it would be more significant if we can also let the Spirit of Prophecy tell us that Isaiah 28 and 29 are actually going to be fulfilled, although we know it because all prophecies are going to be fulfilled. So, we are going to look that.

1 Peter 2:3-10

Notice 1 Peter 2, verses 3 through 10; because, when this one group is making a covenant with death, there is going to be a group of people in Adventism that are making a covenant with life.

1 Peter 2, beginning at verse 3:

> "[1] If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious."—

Where does that place you?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: When the Angel comes down with the Little Book open in his hand, does He not?

And this is the Angel of Revelation 10 [Figure No. 183, the line of The Sunday Law]. Right? This is Revelation 10 and 11; but, Revelation 10 and 11 is about the Seven Thunders, so that history is going to be repeated in our history. So, there is going to be an Angel that comes down in our history, which is the Angel of Revelation 18 and He, also, is going to have a Book open in His hand, even though it does not specifically say it in Revelation 18.

So, in this period here [between the Angel of Revelation 18 coming down and The Sunday Law], there are two covenants being made: a covenant of death, and a covenant of life.

Where do you start to enter into the covenant of life?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: 9/11.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: 9/11 is the correct answer, but what I was going to say is when you "taste" the Little Book.

Let us read verse 4.

—"[4] To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, [5] Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house,"—

What is happening in here [between 9/11 and The Sunday Law]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What is happen in here?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: He is building a temple.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He is building a spiritual house.

And what is this spiritual house built upon [those entering in a covenant of life]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Foundation.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A Rock.

So, these people [those entering into a covenant of death] are building a spiritual house on sand.

Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Verse 5:

—"[5] Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ."—

Now he is going to quote from Isaiah 28, where we just were.

—"[6] Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, BEHOLD, I LAY IN SION A CHIEF CORNER STONE, ELECT, PRECIOUS: AND HE THAT BELIEVETH ON HIM SHALL NOT BE CONFOUNDED. [7] Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS DISALLOWED, THE SAME IS MADE THE HEAD OF THE CORNER, [8] AND A STONE OF STUMBLING, AND A ROCK OF OFFENCE, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. [9] But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light;"—

Over here [prior to 9/11/2001], where were we in this history?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: In darkness.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We were certified Laodiceans. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We had been scattered in William Miller's dream, because the foundational truths had been covered up by customs and traditions that had been handed down from generation to generation, and then the Dirt Brush Man comes on the scene and begins to cleans things up and He brings us to this point [9/11/2001] and says, "Now you need to taste." If you taste and follow on, you are going to enter into this covenant [of life] and build your foundation on this Rock.

But, if you are disobedient, you are going to become part of the drunkards of Ephraim, which is what Isaiah 28 is about.

Verse 10:

> —"[10] Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy." 1 Peter 2:3-10 (KJV).

How is it that we can be building on this Rock here, but in times past we were not the people of God?

Who were we, if we were not the people of God?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: We were Gentiles.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We were not Gentiles. We are all members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, Brother.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: We were scattered.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Well, we were scattered, but the whole Adventist Church was scattered.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: We were Laodiceans.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: We were Laodiceans, but everybody are Laodiceans.

This is a hard one for us to conceptualize. I hope I am wrong about this, but I do not think I am because I think it is black and white in the Scriptures on many witnesses. It is not me.

We are the Outcasts of Israel. We get removed. It is the Outcasts that get lifted up at The Sunday Law. Your brethren which hated you cast you out and said, "Let the Lord be glorified." But, He will appear to your joy and to their shame.

In times past, before The Sunday Law, you were not the people of God. You had been cast out; but, now you are the people of God, because He is lifting you up as an ensign.

And you know what? He is going to give you a new name, It says.

VERSE EIGHT

Okay. Let us go back to verse 8, in 1 Peter 2.

These people that stumble over the stone, and we are saying the stone is the foundational truths.

And, we have given in this series the reference from the Spirit of Prophecy repeatedly that the truths on these [1843 and 1850] Charts are the foundational truths; they are the Platform; and, it is the Rock of Ages.

So, in verse 8, it says.

> [8] AND A STONE OF STUMBLING, AND A ROCK OF OFFENCE, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed." 1 Peter 2:8 (KJV).

How do they stumble at the Word?

Isaiah 8:13-18; 28:13

Go to Isaiah 8, beginning at verse 13.

And if you will notice in your notes, although I do not remember right now, I see that verse 18 is in bold face, so there will be something to say about verse 18. And I am telling myself that now. Okay?

Verse 13 of Isaiah 8 says,

> "[13] Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. [14] And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [15] And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken."—

And, when does this take place?

Next verse:

> —"[16] Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples."—

This stumbling, this falling takes place in the sealing time of the 144,000 that begins when the Angel of Revelation 18 comes down at 9/11; so, this is very specific to our day and age.

And then in verse 17, it says,

> —"[17] And I will wait upon the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.:—

When do we wait upon the Lord?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: During the Tarrying Time.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: He tarries. He begins to tarry on 9/11. Remember yesterday. It is in this history of the Tarrying Time. There is a group that are stumbling because they have been appointed to be disobedient at His Word.

And verse 18 says,

> —"[18] Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion." Isaiah 18:13-18 (KJV).

Wow! They are going to stumble over the foundational truths [referencing the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. You can see that, right?

But, verse 18, verse 18 says—something about the stumbling has to do with Isaiah's sons. Hmm.

And someone help me. Which of the sons is first?

The remnant returns in 1844, after the 2520 that is represented by Isaiah's sons, who are identified as signs. The 2520 is a sign.

And Maher-Shalal-Hashbaz represents the captivity of the Northern Kingdom.

What does Maher-Shalal-Hashbaz mean?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Swift to the prey.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Swift to the prey.

Because, shortly after this prophecy is given, the Northern Kingdom is going to be carried into captivity.

So, what I am saying here is, these people here in Isaiah 8 that "shall stumble, and fall [BACKWARD], and be broken, and be snared, and be taken," which is connected with 1 Peter, chapter 2, they are stumbling over the foundational truths, but they are also stumbling over Isaiah's two sons which are symbols of these two 2520 prophecies.

Okay. Let us go to Isaiah 28, verse 13. We are still looking at why they stumble.

Now, keep your finger in Isaiah 28:13 and go back to 1 Peter, chapter 2, verse 8. I want to show you something here.

> [8] AND A STONE OF STUMBLING, AND A ROCK OF OFFENCE, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. 1 Peter 2:8 (KJV).

It is not just they are stumbling over the 2520 or the foundational truths on this [1843] Chart; they are stumbling at His Word.

Do you see that?

So go back now to Isaiah 28:13; because, it is going to also identify why they stumble. It says,

> "[13]But the word of the LORD was unto them"—

What word were they word were they stumbling over?

—"precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken." Isaiah 28:13 (KJV).

What is the word of the Lord that they stumble over? Proof-texting: Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation, which is what allows you to understand these truths [on the 1843 and 1850 Charts] and identify the two 2520s.

Right?

Okay. We are almost done, even though our time is already out.

The last quote, Testimonies to Ministers, page 419.

"Those who are in responsible positions are not to become converted to the self-indulgent, extravagant principles of the world, for they cannot afford it; and if they could, Christlike principles would not allow it. Manifold teaching needs to be given."—

There is my argument for 93 presentations so far.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What does "manifold teaching" mean? Many teachings from different angles, from this direction, that direction to try to let it settle home.

—"Manifold teaching needs to be given. 'Whom shall He teach knowledge? and whom shall He make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.'"—

And she is going to quote all the way down here to Isaiah 28:13,

—"'For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little.' Thus the word of the Lord is patiently to be brought before the children and kept before them, by parents who believe the word of God. 'For with stammering lips and another tongue will He speak to this people. To whom He said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. But the word of the Lord was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.'"—

And, she is going to ask the question, "Why is it that they fall and go backward, and are snared, and taken?"

She says,

—"Why?—because they did not heed the word of the Lord that came unto them.

"This means those who have not received instruction, but have cherished their own wisdom, and have chosen to work themselves according to their own ideas."—

What would that be?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: G al .

BROTHER PIPPENGER: G a l. That is the Daily. Those who are manifesting the principle of g a l, the Daily, in their life cannot accept the teaching of proof-texting, and that is why they are going to be swept away by the overflowing scourge.

Continuing on:

> —"The Lord gives these the test, that they shall either take their position to follow His counsel, or refuse and do according to their own ideas, and then the Lord will leave them to the sure result. In all our ways, in all our service to God, He speaks to us, 'Give Me thine heart.'"—

Where do we give our heart to the Lord?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: At the foot of the cross.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the foot of the cross.

Here is the cross [pointing to the cross on the 1843 Chart]. "I was shown that the Lord directed this Chart."

Did that mean the truths that are on it, or did He structure the very design of this Chart?

Because, it is taken away here; but, in order for our al to be taken away, where do we have to come?

We have to come right here, to the foot of the cross [indicating AD508 located at the foot of the cross on the 1843 Chart], in order for the Daily to be taken away.

> —"It is the submissive, teachable spirit that God wants. That which gives to prayer its excellence is the fact that it is breathed from a loving, obedient heart.
> "God requires certain things of His people; if they say, I will not give up my heart to do this thing, the Lord lets them go on in their supposed wise judgment without heavenly wisdom, until this scripture [Isaiah 28:13] is fulfilled. You are not to say, I will follow the Lord's guidance up to a certain point that is in harmony with my judgment, and then hold fast to your own ideas, refusing to be molded after the Lord's similitude. Let the question be asked, Is this the will of the Lord? not, Is this the opinion or judgment of-----?" Testimonies to Ministers, 419.

"Is this the opinion or judgment of any other man?" Those are my words.

Okay. Another quote, from Battle Creek Letters, pages 123 – 125, Sister White quotes from Isaiah 28 and 29, just what we are dealing with. She starts in verse 9 of Isaiah 29, and she goes all the way down to verse 16.

> "'Stay yourselves, and wonder, cry ye out, and cry; they are drunken but not with wine; they stagger; but not with strong drink. For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes; the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men delivered to one that is learned saying, read this, I pray thee; and he saith, I am not learned.'
> "'Wherefore the Lord saith, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouths, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their hearts afar from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men; therefore, behold, I will proceed to > do a marvelous work, and a wonder for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us, and who knoweth us? Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potters clay; for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not, or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?'"—

Okay. Verses 9 through 16 she quotes.

Now, I am going to take up the last paragraph after she quotes Isaiah 29:9-16. She says,

> —"Some of these words might happen."—
> FROM THE AUDIENCE: No!
> BROTHER PIPPENGER: She says,
> —"Every word of this will be fulfilled."—

And what do these verses say?

Well, in verse 14 of Isaiah 28, it identifies who it is speaking to. It says, ". . . ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem."

And in verse 1 of Isaiah 28, it says, "Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, . . ."

So, where she is quoting from is the same vision in Isaiah 29, verse 9. She is going to tell us what the drunkenness is. She says,

> —"[9] Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. [10] For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. [11] And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed."—

What book is sealed? The Book of Daniel. And we have read today that the Book of Daniel and the Book of Revelation are one book. The prophecies of Daniel and Revelation are sealed to the drunkards of Ephraim.

Verse 11,

> "[11] And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that"—HAS BEEN EDUCATED AT ANDREWS UNIVERSITY—"to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and the [THE ANDREWS GRADUATE] saith, I cannot, for it is sealed."—
>
> But, then it says,
> — "[12] And the book is delivered to him that is not learned,"—THAT IS THOSE OF US IN THIS ROOM, THE LAY PEOPLE—"saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned."—

In other words, the lay people cannot understand unless it is taught to them by a priest; but, the priest has accepted the hermeneutics that seals up the Word of God to his understanding. So, they are in what the world calls a "Catch-22"; there is no way to know.

This is not simply identifying a false methodology of studying the Bible. This is identifying that when you accept a false methodology of studying the Bible, you automatically by caveat accept a priesthood to teach you the Bible. The learned are the ones that are going to teach you, although they cannot teach you because the message they need to understand is sealed up because of the hermeneutics that they received in the 1930s.

Verse 13, after describing their drunkenness, the Lord is going to make a pronouncement:

> —"[13] Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men: [14] Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. [15] Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? And who knoweth us? [16] Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay:"—

Brothers and Sisters, we have shown repeatedly that the first manifestation of rebellion in this testing process is self-exaltation. It is al . That is the first thing. From a variety of lines, it is the Daily!

The Daily is a satanic power. If you turn it upside down and say that it is a Godly power, you have fulfilled this verse:

> "[16] Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? Or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?" Isaiah 29:9-16 (KJV).

Sister White quotes those verses, 9 through 16, and then she says, "Every word of this will be fulfilled."

> —"There are those who do not humble their hearts before God,"—

What is that? That is about self-exaltation. That is about the Daily.

> —"and who will not walk uprightly. They hide their true purposes, and keep in fellowship with the fallen angel, who loveth and maketh a lie. The enemy puts spirit upon the men whom he can use to deceive those who are partially in the dark. Some are becoming imbued with the darkness that prevails, and are setting the truth aside for error. The day pointed out by prophecy is come. Jesus Christ is not understood."—

Jesus Christ is not understood! If you are calling a satanic symbol Christ, you do not understand Jesus Christ.

> —"Jesus Christ is to them a fable."—

The teaching that the Daily represents Christ's Sanctuary ministry is a fable from the pit of Satan!

> —"At this stage of the earth's history, many act like drunken men."—

And again, then she quotes from Isaiah 29:

> —"'Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry; they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes. The prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered.'"—

And then she says,

> —"A spiritual drunkenness is upon many who suppose they are the people who shall be exalted. Their religious faith is just as is represented in this Scripture. Under its influence, they cannot walk straight. They make crooked paths in their course of action. One and then another, they reel to and fro. They are looked upon by the Lord with great pity. The way of truth they have not known."—

What is the "way of truth"?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Old Paths.
BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Old Paths.

> —"They are scientific schemers, and those who could and should have helped, because of a clear spiritual eyesight, are themselves deceived, and are sustaining an evil work.
> "The developments of these last days will soon become decided. When these spiritualistic deceptions are revealed to be what they really are—the secret workings of evil spirits,—"—

And, Brothers and Sisters, we have shown repeatedly that after the al , the Daily, is marked, then comes Kellogg's Pantheism, the spiritual manifestation. That is Ezekiel's first image of jealousy and then the secret chambers. Then comes the Spiritualism. She is marching right down this exact sequence because, hey, all of the prophets are subject to the prophets. She is being directed by the Holy Spirit, just like Ezekiel was.

> —"\those who have acted a part in them will become as men who have lost their minds."—

Then she quotes from Isaiah 29 again in the next paragraph.

—"'Wherefore the Lord saith, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their hearts far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men therefore, behold I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark, and they say, who seeth us, and who knoweth us? Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay; for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it. He had no understanding?'"—

And then in the next paragraph it says,

—"It is presented to me that in our experience we have been and are meeting this very condition of things. Men who have had great light and wonderful privileges have taken the word of leaders who think themselves wise, who have been greatly favored and blessed by the Lord, but who have taken themselves out of the hands of God and placed themselves in the ranks of the enemy. The world is to be flooded with specious fallacies. One human mind, accepting these fallacies, will work upon other human minds, who have been turning the precious evidence of God's truth into a lie. These men will be deceived by fallen angels, when they should have stood as faithful guardians, watching for souls, as they that must give an account. They have laid down the weapons of their warfare, and have given heed to seducing spirits. They make of no effect the counsel of God and set aside his warnings and reproofs, and are positively on Satan's side, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils."—

I challenge you to read this again. The first thing she emphasizes is their self-exaltation that makes them drunk, and then she emphasizes that they go into Spiritualism.

—"Spiritual drunkenness is now upon men who ought not to be staggering as men under the influence of strong drink. Crimes and irregularities, fraud, deceit, and unfair dealing fill the world, in accordance with the teaching of the leader who rebelled in the heavenly courts.

"History is to be repeated. I could specify what will be in the near future, but the time is not yet. The forms of the dead will appear, through the cunning device of Satan, and many will link up with the one who loveth and maketh a lie. I warn our people that right among us some will turn away from the faith, and give heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, and by them the truth will be evil spoken of." Battle Creek Letters, 123–125.

What I am doing here is preparing to go back into Daniel 12.

We looked at Revelation 10 and 11 to show when a prophet becomes part of the prophecy he is illustrating God's people at the end of the world, both the Millerites and our history.

And in so doing, while we were there, we noticed that John was measuring the temple and showed that that was judgment.

We took time to show that one of the tools of building the city, one of the measuring tools that represent judgment, is the plummet, and have made our case; but, we have one more argument, that the plummet represents the 2520, one of the testing truths when we return to the Old Paths.

And we brought it down right to Adventism here in this passage of Isaiah 28 and 29, saying, what they are going to stumble over is not just the Old Paths, not just the 2520. They are not just going to be drunk with their self-exaltation, but they are going to stumble over the methodology of studying the Bible. Part of their test is William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation.

So, when we come back, we will go into the third place where the plummet is mentioned and bring this to a conclusion.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Father in Heaven, we pray for those among us in Adventism that are walking like drunken men and ask that you could somehow, some way sober them up in time to prepare for the close of probation which is coming with rapid speed. But, Lord, you told us, you told Jeremiah and Ezekiel that this work will be a difficult work—You told Isaiah. It was that way in the days of Christ on Earth—that we are dealing with a people that will not see and will not hear; but, Father, we know that there are some souls there that still have a heart that is soft and can hear your Voice. We would ask that you would make divine appointments that those of us that are understanding these things can be in contact with these people, that we will know how to give an intelligent, winning word in due season and pull them out of this escalating Spiritualism that is going on in your church that culminates into strong delusion that is just on the horizon. We pray that what we are doing here as far as LiveStreaming and recording can be a blessing for this work, that you can put your seal of approval upon it and pray that you would give us some refreshment now as we take a break before the next meeting. In Jesus's name, amen.

Habakkuk's Two Tables #93

Presented by Jeff Pippenger

Invocation by Brother Jeff Pippenger: Heavenly Father, as we bring Habakkuk's Two Tables to a conclusion, we ask that you would watch over the production and make sure that it gets finished according to your will. We ask a blessing upon the production of the DVDs and the LiveStreaming, and we ask that you would allow the Holy Spirit to be with us now and abide with us all, both that what I say would be according to your will and what the Brothers and the Sisters that are here would be received in the fashion that you have designed. We know that Emiliano is on his way home. We ask that you would give him traveling mercies all the way there and continue to mend him. And we ask that all those that are beginning to break from this encampment and travel that they would be granted traveling mercies. We ask that you would send your angels to fill this room that we might breathe the atmosphere of Heaven and that they might be empowered to keep the distractions away. And I ask that you would let me make all the points that I have been thinking about to bring this to a conclusion, as we put the capstone on this study. In Jesus's name, amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. For those of you that were watching last Friday, you saw us do the conclusion of Habakkuk's Two Tables; but, then we found that our brother that was doing the recording forgot to turn on the audio part of the recording for the first 20 minutes of that study; and, of course, that was a little bit of a stumbling block for some of us because we have been dealing with these 95 presentations for quite some time. But, it was not so much a stumbling block for me in one sense, because on Friday my energy level was down and at that point I knew that I had not said everything that I had been fanaticizing that I would say to bring it to a conclusion.

So, we began to struggle on how we were going to fix it, either go onto the Web and grab some of the LiveStreaming that was out there and cut the audio out of that and paste it to the DVDs; but, that corrupts the audio and it is not the same. And my son-in-law who manages these things is a perfectionist, and he was not really happy about trying to do that.

So, it came it me: I was going to do this presentation one more time as that will relieve the stress on my son-in-law.

And you do not understand what these meetings this week—this is not so much about Habakkuk's Two Tables; but, when you have a meeting like this, and you know probably for eight or nine months that Emiliano is going to be here this week and, as it approaches, the sisters in the ministry six weeks before they are ordering and gathering food and preparing food; and, the brethren here, they are making sure the grounds here (the 10 acres here and the 13 acres at the school) look nice and neat, so when the people that come to visit see it nice and neat. There is a lot of work that goes into it, and then you have up to 35 to 40 people here sometimes eating breakfast and lunch for a week long, and you have the expense of flying your speakers in and paying for the LiveStreaming, it is a big deal. It is a big work, especially when we only have a handful of people with this ministry.

So, when it all comes to pass and Emiliano gets sick, you have got to wonder why did he get sick. And I am here this morning praising the Lord that he got sick.

I will explain myself. I am not happy that he is sick. Do not misunderstand me. I see the Lord's hand in this, and I am going to explain why.

We have a brother here that has been helping us from Scotland. He has been an Adventist Christian for four years, and it was just a couple of weeks ago that we were walking across the property, and he was telling me how since he has been an Adventist Christian, he has been zealous to try to understand it all. He has gone to Uchee Pines and places like that to learn the Health Message, to learn how to do the Health Message. He is very consistent in his health practices.

And he told me, he says, "Since I have become an Adventist, I haven't been sick once."

And, I am thinking, "Hmm, that is kind of a prophecy that you were sitting out there for the Lord that you might get challenged on."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Particularly when I see sicknesses in these kinds of things, sometimes not exclusively because of the breaking of the Health Message but because Satan is doing everything he can to disrupt things.

So, when Emiliano got sick, this brother lives—this brother could throw a baseball from his front door and hit the front door where Emiliano was staying, and the first night he is the one that gave a massage to Emiliano. He is the one that got the job assignment of taking care of Emiliano. And he is sick now. Okay?

Because Emiliano is staying in a travel trailer, it is nice enough; but, I counted up this morning in the shower and there were 16 people that were not in church yesterday, one way or another because of this sickness. This is not just Emiliano. This has been running through this camp.

Brother Leo is here. He may get to take it home with him, when he goes home, the way things work.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: All right?

That is kind of what Brother Mark said. All right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: At the end of last week when Emiliano saw that he was not going to be able to arouse himself and speak at all, he started asking for me to come over and see him; because, he was wanting to share some stuff.

Early on when he was speaking, he was letting us know, if you were reading between the lines, that he really had a nice little piece of information he wanted to share. So, he started asking me to come over because he wanted to share this information, and I was not really inclined to go into that little space with him. I mean, the people that are sick, they are sick! This is not just a mild cold. You are sick and down and hurting.

But, I came home early from—not early. I did not stay for fellowship dinner after church. I brought him some food, because he wanted to talk and I was going to go ahead and put in my time.

And when I got there, he was writing some emails, and he said, "Come back in a minute."

And, I gave him his lunch.

Before I got back there, people came and we spent the afternoon. And I thought, "Praise the Lord! The Lord has provided providentially a reason why I do not have to go sit in the miasma of the atmosphere of that little trailer with Emiliano."

But, he emailed, and he called. So, I went over last night.

My wife and I still had to go into town and get food for breakfast here today. So, before we went into town, I went over there and sat down with him.

He pleaded with me, "Give me five minutes!"

So, I kept Kathy in the car and I gave him his five minutes.

When I came back to the car, Kathy said, "That wasn't 5 minutes. That was 20 minutes."

But, I was in there making sure that it got done fast.

And this morning, it all came together why Emiliano got sick, for me. I could be wrong. I have been wrong lots of times before.

Early on in Habakkuk's Two Tables, for some reason it came into my head that the reason why I putting this together was an argument for those people in Adventism that are fighting it, where I was going to touch enough of the truths and put them in there so where I could look them in the eye and say, "Hey, you know, this isn't about me, a human being; this isn't about the messengers. If you think what we are teaching is error, then you sit down and you expose why the truths in this series are error."

And, I was viewing it early on like Martin Luther walking up with his 95 theses and nailing it on the door.

So, early on I could see that it was going to be a lot, and I had it in my head, "Well, maybe I will end it with 95 presentations." But, I was not thinking about any of that this week, because it was still a long ways off.

And then Emiliano got sick, and then I started realizing I knew the logic to bring it to an end, but also I realized that I could not go on much longer because it started to be redundant. You know, I might be making this point, but I would pull this point, and this point, and this point to prove it, and we had already gone over those three points several times in this series. It was starting to be more than just good teaching practices of repeating things. It was starting to be redundant, at least for me.

And, I realized, "Hey, this is really going to come in at 95 presentations," and it started really blowing my mind.

So, we are on #93. This is the last one; but, there are two of them in there that are two parts that come to 95.

So, I see the hand of the Lord in the fact that he sat Emiliano down and forced me, instead of doing one worship per morning, to go into crash mode to cover for Emiliano's time period while everyone was here. And it ends at 95.

But, the Lord did not want what we had on Friday to be the ending. The Lord wanted to give another argument about for Habakkuk's Tables; not a theological argument but kind of a capstone in the sense that those of us that are studying these foundational truths, we also know that not only do we return to the Foundations and accept, for instance, the 2300 days as we understand it but, if what we are saying is true, then the Lion of the Tribe of Judah is even going to expand the light on truths such as the 2300 days. Okay?

So, I like the idea that the Lord set Emiliano down because Emiliano is the type of person that could discover one of these gems; and, though he wanted to share it, that was secondary to the fact that he wanted it to be shared. So, he handed it off to me last night. And what it does is it puts a capstone on the study because it shows that we are not just talking about the foundational truths; we are talking about the Lion of the Tribe of Judah adding light to things that Adventism thinks are true, but Adventism thinks that that is all there is to it.

So, I do not know exactly how to explain it, but if you look at your notes now under Emiliano's discovery, this is from Gerard Damsteegt's Foundations of Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, page 92.

> "Although the Karaite reckoning which indicated the end of the Jewish year at the new moon on April 17, 1844, was favored in the major Millerite periodicals, the majority of believers looked to March 21, 1844 as the time for Christ's return. Outside the Millerite movement March 21 was well known and there was 'a very general expectation of an entire overthrow of the whole system of Adventism' on that date. Immediately after it passed, Miller wrote that 'the time, as I have calculated it, is now filled up; and I expect every moment to see the Savior descend from heaven. I have now nothing to look for but this glorious hope.' The disappointment was very real and acknowledged by many (including Miller), who frankly confessed their error. Yet, many remained faithful to the imminent expectancy of Christ's return, and the leaders could state that 'our faith is unwavering respecting the reality of those events being already to burst upon us at any moment. And this we can never give up.' Not only Millerites, but also the English 'Millerites' experienced a disappointment when the Second Advent did not occur in the spring of 1844." Gerard Damsteegt, Foundations of Seventh-day Adventist Message and Mission, 92.

And what he says in here is that William Miller believed the Karaite year ended in March 21st, 1844; so, the disappointment arrived on March 22nd, 1844. This is how we teach it. This is true; but, Damsteegt is telling us here that most of the Millerite publications, and a good number of Millerites, did not agree with Miller. They believed that the year actually ended on April 17th, 1844.

But, it does not matter. Everything that we have taught about March 22nd, 1844, is correct; because, on March 22nd, 1844, the disappointment settled in. And even though there were some in the Millerite Movement that were still holding out hope for April 17th, it never came either. All right?

So, it is not so much of a —for me, when I look at March 22nd, I knew about April 17th; but, I use William Miller for a number of reasons, so I went with William Miller and I never really cared about who was right between March 22nd and April 17th.

Are you with me?

So, Damsteegt claims this in this chapter.

But, when we begin the 2300-year prophecy, we do so from the Third Decree in Ezra, chapter 7; and, if you look in your notes there we have Ezra, chapter 7, and I have 1 through 10; but, I am just going to pull out verse 9 there. I do not know why I have 1 through10, actually. It is just one verse that I want you to look at, and this is what Brother Emiliano discovered, and this is more than a gem in some regards.

As Ezra is coming back from Babylon to implement the Third Decree, where we start the 2300 days that leads us to the Fall of 1844, the 10th day of the 7th month—do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: —it says in verse 9,

> "[9] For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him." Ezra 7:9 (KJV).

So, those are only the two days that are referenced, and this is the beginning of the 2300-day prophecy—right?—the Third Decree.

But, we know that Samuel Snow comes to the conclusion that October 22, 1844, is the end of the 2300 days, based upon Daniel 8:14, the 2300 years; and, also, he comes to understand the Day of Atonement in Leviticus, that it was going to take place on the 10th day of the 7th month, in the Fall of the year that the Decree goes forth. So, that locks him in to October 22, 1844. Correct?

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations).

10TH DAY OF THE SEVENTH MONTH

190 Days; 70 Days

April 17th, 1844—The First Disappointment

August 14th, 1844: The Midnight Cry.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, what Emiliano has discovered is that if you go to October 22nd, 1844, the end of the 2300 days, this is the 10th day of the 7th month; but, there are two other days referenced. There is one back here that is the 1st day of the 1st month, and one that is the 1st day of the 5th month. Right? We just read it.

Ooh, man! This just blows your mind.

So, if you—it is easy to do. The 10th day of the 7th month, all you have to do is do some subtraction.

And if you go back to the 1st day of the 5th month, it brings you to August 14, 1844, which is the Midnight Cry.

And if you go back to the 1st day of the 1st month, it brings you to April 17, 1844, which is the first disappointment, technically in that history, which means Ezra is confirming the Millerite History to the very letter and placing an emphasis upon the importance of this foundational history that has never been recognized before and is confirming the validity of going back and studying the history of the Millerites in this time period. All right?

This is a confirmation of Habakkuk's Tables that nobody expected; but, it is new light on NOT the 2520 but upon the 2300 days.

So, why is it, why is it that the Lord is providing this new light on the Foundational Pillar of Adventism here at the end of the world, and according to the leadership of the Adventist Church, He is giving this new light to the people that they are claim are in darkness?

Figure that one out for you.

Why is this not coming out of the General Conference?

Why is this not coming out of the Hartland Institute?

Why is not Vance Ferrell teaching this?

So, for me, I am praising the Lord that Emiliano got sick; but, I am not. I do not want him to be sick, but I have seen the Lord's hand in this.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I see the Lord's hand in this. He was putting a capstone on this particular study on Habakkuk's Tables, to make sure that those people that do want to argue this have no reason not to see the Lord's hand in this. This is the Foundation of Adventism. This is the 2300 days; this is not the 2520.

Pretty cool, huh?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Pretty cool.

Okay. Now, we are going to bring our conclusion. We are going to bring the 95 theses of Habakkuk's Two Tables in for a landing, and we are going to nail it on the wall of the Internet, that if anyone wants to read and challenge it can feel free to do so.

So, we are going to back over a little bit of what we did on Friday. But, I am sorry: That was the Lord's hand both in not recording the audio, bringing sickness into this camp, and making sure that the person that He gave this truth to had enough humility to be willing to share it; because, sometimes when you come across these truths, you are tempted, "I am not telling anybody until I have opportunity to put it in the public record." All right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And I tell you, I have told this story many times. And if my wife was in her, she could give a second testimony to it.

There has been many times where I said, "Kathy, you won't believe what I just recognized. This is a mind blower! When it gets out there, it is just going to contribute to this," and I would explain it to her.

So, what I am saying is, you recognize these things when you come across them, and Emiliano recognized this.

That is why Emiliano was pleading with me, "Come over! I have got to share this with you. I have got to share this with you."

Anyway.

Also, in honor, so to speak, of Emiliano, I will tell you up front this will be a little bit long today because of this introduction. So, it is kind of honoring Emiliano, because he generally goes a little bit long. All right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

CONCLUSION (CONTINUED)

DANIEL 12

Zechariah 1:1-6 – Joel
Zechariah 1:7-11 – Babylon Punished; Isaiah 14:1-7
Zechariah 1:12-17

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, we are dealing with Daniel, chapter 12. We are dealing with the principle that when the prophets become part of the prophecy, they are representing God's people at the end of the world.

Now, we have spent a fair amount of time in Revelation, chapter 10; and, now we are going to through Zechariah. And the way I did Zechariah Friday, I am going to do a little bit quicker but a little more in detail. I am not going to spend time reading the verses. I am going to show you some things about the structure of the first six verses of Zechariah and combine it in with the argument about when the prophets become part of the prophecy.

Okay. In Zechariah 1, verses 1 through 6, if you read it, I would submit to you that this is a connection to Joel.

> "[1] In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, [2] The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers. [3] Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. [4] Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD. [5] Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever? [6] But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us." Zechariah 1:1-6 (KJV).

The beginning of the Book of Joel is talking about '. . . ye old men, have you seen this in your generation? Tell your children and their children, and their children':

> "[2] Here this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? [3]Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation." Joel 1:2-3 (KJV).

It is raising up a question about four generations and about the responsibility of the fathers to remember things.

In verses 1 through 6 of Zechariah, I submit to you that this is a connection there.

Look at verse 4, just as an example. I do not intend to dissect all these verses. I intend to dissect the structure in the Book of Zechariah, just so you can see the structure. All right?

Verse 4 is an example:

"[4] Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD. [5] Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live for ever? " Zechariah 1:4 (KJV).

The beginning of Joel is about the fathers; it is also about a call to return.

So, all the prophets agree with one another; but, I am saying that in Zechariah 1:1-6 that this is a specific connection with the Book of Joel, and I am saying that because the Book of Joel was fulfilled in the time of Christ, but it was also fulfilled in the time of the Millerites, and it is also fulfilled at the end of the world. I am wanting you to see that Zechariah, chapter 1, verses 1 through 6, is an illustration of the Millerites and it is an illustration of us. So, I am saying that the starting point that ties that together, among other things, is its connection with the Book of Joel.

Are you with me?

And I am telling you out front that I do not intend to do a deep Bible study on this. I just want you to see the structure.

So you can see this structure, go to chapter 7 of Zechariah, verse 1. Verse 1 of Zechariah 7 says,

"[1] And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu; . . ." Zechariah 7:1, in part (KJV).

The point being here, in verse 1 of chapter 7 you have a new revelation.

Chapters 1 through 6 is the same vision. It is the same vision, and it ends here with Zechariah now introducing us to the fourth year of king Darius.

So, I want you to see, if we are going to look at the structure, that chapters 1 through 6 of Zechariah is one vision. All right? And I am wanting you to see that God's prophetic word operates on repeat and enlarge; so, we are going to see some repeat and enlarge in here.

So, in Zechariah, chapter 1, verses 7 through 11—verses 1 through 6 [of Zechariah 1] connects with Joel—verses 7 through 11 are the Four Seals of Revelation. All right?

"[7] Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, [8] I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom, and > behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white. [9] Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And he angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be. [10] And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. [11] And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and from through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest." Zechariah 1:7-11 (KJV).

This is in the public record. We have already explained this.

But, if you remember, in the Book of Revelation the Seven Churches are followed by Seven Seals that are then followed by Seven Trumpets; and, the Pioneers correctly understood that the [Seven] Churches were the history of the Christian church, in sequential order; but, there is a 4 / 3 division in the Churches, in the Seals, and in the Trumpets. Okay?

The last three Trumpets are Three Woes

The last three Seals are not represented by a horse, where the first four Seals are represented by a horse of a various color.

And the last three Churches, they all occur simultaneously. In the Millerite History, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea were all contemporaries; and, here at the end of the world, once again, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea are all contemporaries in Adventism.

So, there is a 4 / 3 breakup in the Seven Churches, the Seven Seals, and the Seven Trumpets.

I am not trying to prove this to you. It has been proven in previous presentations.

But, the first church, Ephesus, is covering the same history of the First Seal; the second church, Smyrna, is covering the Second Seal; third Church, third Seal; fourth Church, fourth seal.

So, when you get to the Fifth Seal, you have the martyrs that have been killed during the history of the Fourth Seal, which is the history of Thyatira. You have the martyrs of the Dark Ages, from AD538 to 1798 in the Fifth Seal, that cry out, "How long, O Lord, until you punish the Papacy for murdering us during the Dark Ages?" That is their question in the Fifth Seal.

So, when we come to Zechariah, verses 7 through 11, we are going to see these horses; because, the First Seal, Second Seal, Third Seal, and Fourth Seal are symbolized by four horses. And Zechariah is symbolizing these same four horses.

And when you get to verse 12—after verse 11 [referring to the structure line of Zechariah in Figure No. 186)]—when you get to verse 12, it says,

> "[12] Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years? [13] And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words. [14] So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. [15] And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction. [16] Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem." Zechariah 12-17 (KJV).

Okay. This question here, "How long?" in verse 12 is the same question that is raised in the Fifth Seal. So, you can take the history of these horses here in Zechariah and identify that it is a parallel to the history that concludes in 1798.

Now, look at verse 11. I will give you one proof-text on this. In verse 11, at the end of these horses in Zechariah—are you with me?—[pause]—and it says,

> "[11] And they answered the angel of the Lord that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest." Zechariah 1:11 (KJV).

And what I am saying is, this is the end of the Fourth Seal; and, Zechariah is giving a parallel testimony to the Four Seals in the Book of Revelation.

And when you get to the end of the work of these horses in Revelation, the Earth is still and is at rest.

And if you will, keep your finger in Zechariah and go to Isaiah 14. Isaiah 14 tells us what it means that the Earth is made still.

Isaiah 14, beginning at verse 1 says,

> "[1] For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel,"—

And we are going to find in Zechariah, chapter 1, that it is about the Lord choosing Jerusalem once again; so, this is a parallel here.

> —"and will yet choose Israel and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob."—

And verse 2 of Isaiah 14:

> —"[2] And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. [3] And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give them rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve. [4] That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! The golden city ceased! [5] The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the scepter of the rulers. [6] He who smote the people in wrath with a continual [TAMID] stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth. [7] The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing." Isaiah 14:1-7 (KJV).

What I am saying is when the whole Earth is at rest, it means that Babylon has been brought to a conclusion; and, this passage in Isaiah is talking about the end of literal Babylon oppressing God's people, but spiritual Babylon ceases to oppress God's people in 1798 when the Church of Thyatira ends, when the Fourth Seal ends.

Now, when you go back to Zechariah, once you get to the end of these horses in Zechariah, in verse 11, it says, ". . . all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest." That means that the persecution of Babylon has ceased (that is the Fourth Seal). The Fifth Seal, those that have been persecuted in the 1260 years in the Fifth Seal of Revelation, they say, "How long, O Lord God, just and true, do you not avenge [our blood] on the Papacy for what they have done?"

But, here in Zechariah in verse 12, it says,

> "12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?" Zechariah 1:12 (KJV).

Now, we have dealt with this often here. What we have dealt with often is that these 70 years that Zachariah and other prophets reference are the 1260 years.

So, Zechariah, he is asking how long after the 70 years of Babylonian captivity; and, in the Fifth Seal, they are asking how long after the 1260 years captivity. They are parallel histories.

And then the quote that we have used several times is in your notes, from Prophets and Kings, page 714:

> "God's church on earth was as verily in captivity during this long period of relentless persecution as were the children of Israel held captive in Babylon during the period of the exile." Prophets and Kings, 714.

So, what am I saying? I am saying the structure of Zechariah[37] is talking about the Millerite History and it is talking about our history; because, this here [70 years], Ancient Israel was scattered to Babylon, was it not?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: And this 1260 years is simply the second half of the scattering of Leviticus 26 [from AD538 until 1798].

And, of course, from 1863 until 1989, William Miller's scattering took place in Adventism.

So, what I am saying is that Zechariah is dealing with the Millerite and our history. We have a scattering that we come out of as well.

Like I said, we are not going to do this in detail. We are just going to put it in the record.

Revelation 6:9-11
Zechariah 1:18-21
Zechariah 2:1-13

I like that in the Fifth Seal where the martyrs cry "How long?" that you find that in Revelation 6:9-11.

And here, this "How long?" has to do with these 70 years.

And here, "How long?" is expressed by Isaiah, chapter 6.

Go to Isaiah 6 just so you can see the "How long?" that connects with our generation.

Sister White we have read in this study. In Isaiah 6, verse 3, she applies verse 3 to Revelation 18, where it says,

> "[3] And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory." Isaiah 6:3 (KJV).

You do not need Sister White for that. That is Revelation 18 when the Earth was lightened with His glory.

And then Isaiah is prepared to give a message, and then he is told in verses 9 and 10 that the message he is going to give is to a Laodicean people that refuse to hear him; and, it so overwhelming to Isaiah in verse 11.

So, here in Isaiah 6, verses 9 – 11, you have a piece of information.

Okay? I like that, too.

For, in verse 11, Isaiah says,

> "[11] Then said, I, Lord, how long?" And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, . . ." Isaiah 6:11, in part (KJV).

Okay. That is the question right here [referring to the scattering of Adventism in Figure No. 187], and this question takes place in Isaiah 6:9-11; but, we know it is Revelation 18, which is 9/11 [September 11, 2001].

So, you have got 9:11, 9-11, and 9/11 [with the Millerite History and the history of the 144,000].

[37] Corrects DVD audio from the structure of Joel to the structure of Zechariah.

But, we are not dealing with that right now. We are dealing with that at the end of these scattering time periods, we always see the question "How long?" raised.

Are you with me?

This is just in passing—go back to Zechariah—this is just in passing, because I want you to understand that the claims I am making here can be soundly defended; but, I am not going to try to defend them. I want you to see the structure in the first six chapters of Zechariah.

So, in chapter 1 of Zechariah again, from verses 18 to 21—still in chapter 1—we see,

> "[18] Then lifted I mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns. [19] And I said unto the angel"—

Now, in these verses 11-17 [referring to Figure No. 186], He is going to choose Jerusalem again—I am going to put "Zion"—He is going to choose Zion.

Okay. This [verses 7-11 of Figure No. 186] is the Four Seals, the scattering. All right?

Here [verses 11-17 of Zechariah 1] He is going to choose Zion.

Did He choose Zion here [Ancient Israel, Figure No. 187] when they came out of Babylon?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Was He choosing Zion in the Millerite History [see Figure No. 187, 1798 onward]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Yes.

And, He is choosing Zion here at the end of the world [1989 onward, Figure No. 187].

Notice how it is all connected.

But, in [verses] 18 through 11, Zechariah sees four horns; and, in verse 19, he says,

> —"[19] And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."—

So, now the Lord is telling us, confirming, that there was a scattering, a scattering, a scattering [Figure No. 187], and that it was these four horns that accomplished that.

And in verse 20 it says,

> —"[20] And the LORD shewed me four carpenters."—

What is a carpenter? What is a carpenter?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: A builder.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: A builder; close.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: I am saying "What" and it is throwing you off, and I am doing it on purpose.

Who is the carpenter?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: This is Christ. He is the one that is going to build the temple of the Lord, is He not?

Okay. So, now he is going to explain who the carpenter is.
Verse 21:

—"[21] Then said I, What come these to do?—THESE CARPENTERS—"And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these [FOUR CARPENTERS] are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it." Zechariah 1:18-21 (KJV.)

There is a scattering in here [with Adventism, Figure No. 187]; and, in each of these histories there are going to be four carpenters that destroy the scattering: Cyrus [First Decree], Darius [Second Decree], Artaxerxes [Third Decree], and then the Fourth Decree in the time of Nehemiah. There are your four carpenters, the 3:1 combination.

In Millerite History, it is the First Angel's Message that begins here in 1798, the Second Angel's Message in 1842, the Third Angel's Message in 1844, and the Fourth Angel's Message on September 11, 2001. Those are the four carpenters, the 3:1 combination.

But, we know in our history, from 1989, that this history [the Millerite History beginning in 1798] is going to be repeated and we are going to repeat a 3:1 combination in our history. The first test is empowered on 9/11; thereafter, our second test, our third test (The Sunday Law), and then the Loud Cry when the Fourth Angel goes to the eleventh hour workers outside of Adventism.

So, in each of these scattering histories, there are four carpenters that come and end the scattering.

Okay. We are not going in depth here.

Now, chapter 2 [of Zechariah]:

STRUCTURE OF ZECHARIAH, Chapters, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6

Temple built	Investigative Judgment	Millerites 144,000	Scroll	Deadly Wound	Four Seals	Repetition of Millerite History
Zech 2	Zech 3	Zech 4	Zech 5:1-4	Zech 5:5-11	Zech 6:1-8	Zech 6:9-15

I am just wanting you to see the flow of things: verses 1 through 13 [of Zechariah 2].
So, what was this? This is the 3:1 combination.
Okay? Is that a valid title for that history?
Verses 1 through 13, and that is the entire chapter 2; and, this is the measuring.

"[1] I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. [2] Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. [3] And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, [4] And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein: [5] For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

"[6] Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD. [7] Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. [8] For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. [9] For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

"[10] Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD. [11] And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee. [12] And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again."—

And, we have been dealing with the measuring. Okay? This is the judgment. This is the building of the temple.

So, when was the temple of Adventism built?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (No response.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: From 1798 to 1844, in 46 years.

When was the temple of the Babylonian captivity built? Well, it was built from the time they came out, and the temple was built before the Third Decree, the same history.

Okay. The temple [of the Millerites] was built just before 1844. There was not anyone making decisions to move into the Most Holy Place. They just made that decision on October 21, 1844. They had already been established before October 22, 1844.

Do you follow me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is why we were told that the temple was completed before the Third Decree. The Third Decree is the one that finishes the work that is the rebuilding of the streets and the walls during troublous times [Fourth Decree].

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: So, the building of the temple, which is chapter 2, where they are measuring it. The line over Jerusalem has to do with building the temple, from the Time of the End until the door closes. Right? And that is why the last verse of chapter 2 says, —"[13] Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation." Zechariah 2 (KJV).

In 1844 the Lord was raised up out of his holy habitation [October 22, 1844, with the arrival of the Third Angel's Message], and He moved into the Most Holy Place. Okay? It had been accomplished. From 1798 to 1844 Jerusalem had been built, and then the Lord moved into the Most Holy Place: the temple had been built.

ZECHARIAH 3

Now, just to look at another structure here—please bear with me—chapter 3.

This [chapter 2 (working on Figure No. 188 on the whiteboard] is "Temple built."

Right after the temple is built, let all the Earth be silent because the Lord has risen up. He has moved into the Most Holy Place. Now, chapter 3 is going to emphasize the Investigative Judgment.

> "[1] And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. [2] And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? [3] Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel. [4] And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment. [5] And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by. [6] And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying, [7] Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by. [8] Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH. [9] For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. [10] In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree." Zechariah 2 (KJV).

And, you have a quote here from Prophets and Kings, page 587, where Sister White says,

> "Zechariah's vision of Joshua and the Angel applies with peculiar force to the experience of God's people in the closing scenes of the great day of atonement."—

So, she is applying Zechariah, chapter 3, to the Investigative Judgment; but, she is placing the main emphasis of it upon the closing work, which is the blotting out of sin.

> —"The remnant church will then be brought into great trial and distress. Those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus will feel the ire of the dragon and his hosts. Satan numbers the world as his subjects; he has gained control even of many professing Christians. But here is a little company who are resisting his supremacy. If he could blot them from the earth, his triumph would be complete. As he influenced the heathen nations to destroy Israel, so in the near future he will stir up the wicked powers of earth to destroy the people of God. Men will be required to render obedience to human edicts in violation of the divine law." Prophets and Kings, 587.

All right. So, chapter 3 is the Investigative Judgment. Right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: You have a quizzical look on your face. Are you following me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Oh, yeah.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay.

ZECHARIAH 4

Haggai 2:20-23

Manuscript Releases, volume 7, page 202:

> "Please consider the words of Zechariah, 'And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.' The very same adversary is here presented as standing between Christ and Peter. 'And the Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee; is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.'
> "Satan was charging the people of God with all his attributes, and presenting before them the sins he had instigated them to commit. Satan clothed their characters with his own filthy garments of sin, and nothing was lost in his reckoning of their misdeeds. But these souls who were represented as wearing the black robes of Satan's weaving in his hellish loom, were not an appropriate representation; for they had repented of their transgressions. The Lord who searcheth the heart and understandeth the imagination of the thoughts, had set their sins before them, and had given them the promise: 'If thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him he will cast thee off forever.' The Lord, the everlasting God, is ever present to observe, inspect, and examine all things. The hearts of all are read as an open book. 'The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth.' Manuscript Releases, volume 7, 202.

Zechariah, chapter 4, has to do with Zerubbabel; but, it has to do with Millerite History; it has to do with our history.

The point that we are trying to glean out of here is when the prophet becomes part of the prophecy, he represents God's people at the end of the world.

So, in verse 1, for some reason, we need to know that Zechariah was asleep; because, it isn't Zechariah. This is the Millerites, the parable of the Ten Virgins. They are all sleeping. This is us at the end of the world: the parable of the Ten Virgins. We are all sleeping.

> "[1] And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep."—

And, then an angel comes and awakens us out of our sleep. What angel is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: It is Christ, the Fourth Angel.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: It is the Second Angel, because it is the Second Angel that other angels come and join with him that is the Midnight Cry; and, it is at the Midnight Cry that they are awakened. The Midnight Cry is simply the empowerment of the Second Angel. That is what Sister White says repeatedly. When the Second Angel's Message is empowered at the Midnight Cry, that is when the virgins wake up, both in the Millerite History and in our history. Right? There was a cry at Midnight.

So, Zechariah is waking up here.

—“[2] And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top there: [3] And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. [4] So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? [5] Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.”—

And in verses 2, 3, and 4 he sees a golden candlestick and he does not know what it is, which is crazy because Zechariah would know what a seven golden candlestick is in the sanctuary; because, he was a prophet functioning in the time that they were rebuilding the temple, but he does not what it is because he is not Zechariah. He is the Millerites, who woke up at the Midnight Cry in 1844 and carried the message into the Great Disappointment, only to realize that they did not know what the sanctuary was. They did not know what the seven-branch candlestick was. Zechariah is representing the Millerites in this history.

But, Zechariah is representing us, today, who do not understand that the seven-branch candlestick also represents the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

And in Adventism today, we do not understand the Latter Rain. We think it is a super natural empowering that overrules our sinful nature in The Sunday Law crisis and takes us to Heaven. And, that is such a great deception. It is the same deception that the Jews fell into and allowed them to participate in the crucifixion of their Messiah.

Only those that are receiving the Early Rain will partake of the Latter Rain.

So, Zechariah here is representing both the Millerites and us. That is why in verse 6 of Zechariah 4, when Zechariah is still saying, “I don’t understand what the seven-branch candlestick is,” in verse 6 the angel Gabriel says,

—“[6] Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD.”—

The seven-branch candlestick is the Word of the Lord. The oil that comes from the Most Holy Place is the Word of the Lord.

And, what is the Word of the Lord?

—“This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.”—

The Word of the Lord is His Spirit, the outpouring of His Spirit, and we do not understand that.

And ZERUBBABEL is the name of the governor that laid the foundation of the temple and the capstone on the temple. Sister White says so. And his name is offspring, ZERUB; of Babylon, BABEL. ZERUBBABEL.

The offspring of Babylon, meaning, “Come out of Babylon!”

And, in the Millerite History, when the Holy Spirit was poured out in the Midnight Cry, that is the Second Angel’s Message, which is, “Come out of Babylon!” The Holy Spirit was poured out for the Millerites with the Message, “Zerubbabel”: “Come out of Babylon!”

And, the Holy Spirit is poured out in Revelation 18 in this history [of the 144,000] with the Message, “Zerubbabel”: “Come out of Babylon!”

And this [the Millerite History] is the foundation of our work; and, this [the history of the 144,000] is the capstone of our work; because, Zerubbabel is going to lay the foundation and the capstone.

Verse 7.

> —"[7] Who art thou, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it."—

Verse 8.

> —"[8] Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [9] The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you."—

Pastor Emiliano points out that the hands that laid the foundation are the same hands that are going to lay the capstone. And the hands that laid the foundation was William Miller. William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation laid the foundation. William Miller's Rules of Prophetic Interpretation are going to put the capstone on this work. So, if Zerubbabel represents the Second Angel's Message, it represents proof-texting here at the end of the world.

Verse 10 says—and in this history here, in this history here [the 70 years in Figure No. 187], they are in captivity for 70 years. When they come out of Babylon—in this history here, if you are looking—when they come out of Babylon and they begin in the time period of First Decree—

And, by the way, it is in the history of the First Decree when the foundation [of the temple] is laid. The temple is built in the history of the Second [Decree]; but, the foundation is laid in the First Decree, as was the Foundation of Adventism was laid in the time of the First Angel's Message. It is always in the first waymark that the foundation is laid.

So, they come out of Babylon. They had been in Babylon for 70 years. When they were carried to Babylon, there were some young men that had seen the temple before it was destroyed. They come out of Babylon old men in their eighties or nineties, and they see the work that is going on as they start to build the temple, and they are weeping and moaning because they remember what the temple used to look like and they can tell this is going to be a cheap facsimile in their minds. So, they are represented as those—when this history comes to pass, whether it is this history [of the Babylonian captivity], or this history [of the Millerites, beginning in 1798], or this history [of the 144,000]—they are representing those that are despising the day of small things. They are despising this beginning work, which is represented here at the end of the world, those men in Adventism that despise the day of small things, when the foundations were laid [referencing the 1843 and 1850 Charts as the "small things"].

But, who are they? Who are they?

You know, if you want to bring another line into this, who are these old guys here, with an emphasis upon old?

How does the Bible call an old guy sometimes?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Ancient.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Oh, these are the ancient men.

Well, that brings the testimony of Ezekiel 8 and 9, the ancient men that were to be the guardians of the trust given to God's people are the first to feel the stroke of God's wrath. It is the leadership, the ancient men, that are despising the day of small things here.

> —"[10] For who hath despised the day of small things? For they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth."—

We have spent a great deal of time showing that the plummet is the 2520. And sure enough, the Millerites recognized the 2520. It was the first time prophecy that William Miller discovered. And it is simple logic: We are told that he began at the beginning of the Bible and went towards the end. He is going to come to the 2520 long before he comes to the 2300 years in Daniel. Leviticus comes way before that.

And when the Lord leads His people back to the Old Paths at 9/11, the first covered up jewel of the foundations that He reveals to them is the plummet, a measurement of judgment; because, this is what He is going to judge us by is by the Old Paths.

And, we looked at that in our last presentation about the judgment coming upon those that have made a covenant with death, and that judgment has to do with the plummet, with the 2520. And they have rejected the 2520.

Of course, this history here, the 70 years [Figure No. 187], Ezra ties it in with the 2520. He says plainly that Jeremiah's 70 years are connected with the land resting in Leviticus 26. So, this scattering is the 2520. That is what they dealing with here, when they are measuring Jerusalem.

This scattering is the 2520 [the 1260 years being the second half of the 2520] against the Northern Kingdom; Miller discovers the 2520 against the Southern Kingdom.

And here we are at the end of the world. The plummet has been discovered, and some of us are going to rejoice over this plummet, which is in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven.

What is in the hand of Zerubbabel? Those seven. And that word seven is the same word that is translated as seven times in Leviticus 26.

But, all the prophets agree with one another. So, some of God's people are going to rejoice when they see the 2520 in the hand of Zerubbabel. Right?

But, the prophets agree with one another. So, if you remember, using repeat and enlarge, in Ezekiel 37 there are two messages, one that brings the bone and flesh together (that is Daniel 11:40-45), and then a message that brings the breath into the bones and raises them up as a living army, and that breath is the breath that is associated with the Four Winds. And Sister White says those Four Winds are represented as an angry horse seeking to break loose and bring death and destruction in its path. So, that second message in our history is Islam being restrained on 9/11.

And then in verse 14 of Ezekiel 37, Ezekiel is going to repeat and enlarge. And what does he say? He says, "Ezekiel, stand before God's people and take a stick for the Northern Kingdom and a stick for the Southern Kingdom and join them before God's people. And they are going to ask you what that means, and what this means is that you are to rejoice when you seen this stick in the hand of Zerubbabel; because, it is the understanding that there are 2520s.

But, in 1844, these two 2520s, ending in 1798 and 1844, are the prophecies that the Lord gathers together a host to come into the Most Holy Place with Christ so that the sanctuary can be made right, it can be cleansed.

And, there is a group of people that when they see plummet (the 2520) in the hand of Zerubbabel, in the hand of Ezekiel, in the hand of God's preachers at the end of the world, they are going to rejoice, and they are contrasted with those ancient men that stood before the temple and said, "We will not walk therein."

So, Zechariah, chapter 4 is about Millerite History and our history. And it continues on in verse 11 by talking about the two olive branches, olive trees.

> —"[11] Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? [12] And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? [13] And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. [14] Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth." Zechariah 4 (KJV).

For Zechariah it was the Law and the Prophets; for the Millerites it was the Old and New Testaments; and, for us here at the end of the world, it is the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy.

And these men, these ancient men that stand before the temple and despise the day of small things, they have set aside the Spirit of Prophecy. They do not see these two pipes. All they see . . .

I remember dealing with these leaders in a special meeting in Germany one time. And this may sound unkind or un-Christlike, but it is really the best adjective that comes into my mind to give you an understanding of what they were. These pompous men that were throwing questions about this message, leaders of the Adventist university over there, leaders of the Conference, pastors, do you know what their argument was continuously?

"Sola scriptura, Brother! Sola scriptura! Show it to me from the Bible. I don't want to hear the Spirit of Prophecy!"

Okay. All right. So, I stopped about a couple of presentations in and said, "Okay, fine. We will do it right from the Bible."

That did not change a thing. It did not change a thing.

But, that is what this is saying here. At the end of the world, if you are going to walk this narrow Path, you have to understand what the two pipes are for you at the end of the world, and it is not simply sola scriptura. It is the Bible AND the Spirit of Prophecy at the end of the world.

So, Zechariah 4 is Millerite History and our history.

I want to add one thing to Zechariah 4. Go to Haggai, the book right before Zechariah. The last verse in Haggai.

What I am saying is Zerubbabel represents the beginning of Adventism and the end of Adventism; the Second Angel's Message and the Fourth Angel's Message. His hands represent the proof-texting message of William Miller. He is the one that lays the foundational work. He is the one that lays the capstone to the work.

And what I am going to show you is that this is a sealing. The Millerites were sealed when they moved into the Most Holy Place in 1844; because, you do not move into the Most Holy Place unless you have overcome known sin. These are sins that have been revealed to you.

I am aware that many of them did not understand the Sabbath at that time period, but a sealing process is illustrated there, prefiguring the sealing of the 144,000.

And sure enough, Zerubbabel, the foundation and the capstone is a signet in the hand of the Lord, and a signet is a seal.

Notice, beginning at verse 20 of Haggai 2:

> "[20] And again the word of the LORD came into Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying, [21] Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;"—

And, of course, what is one of the passages in the Spirit of Prophecy that brings this message into clarity? How does it go? "Some people said a tidal wave was going to hit New York. This I have never said. I have said that what terrible scenes would take place when the Lord shall arise and shake terribly the earth"—this is a bad paraphrase. It is not popping into my mind—"when the great buildings of New York City are thrown down. Then Revelation 18, verses 1 through 3, will be fulfilled."

> "Now comes the word that I have declared that New York is to be swept away by a tidal wave. This I have never said. I have said, as I looked at the great buildings going up there, story after story: 'What terrible scenes will take place when the Lord shall arise to shake terribly the earth! Then the words of Revelation 18:1-3 will be fulfilled.'" . . . {LS 411.5}

And what I wanted you to see there in that passage, Sister White says that is when He shakes terribly these nations.

And, that is what it is saying here in verse 21.

> —"[21] Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;"—THAT IS 9/11—"[22] And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen;"—

Was the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen—was the beginning of bringing their strength down at 9/11? Oh, yeah. The think the stock markets are high right now, and some of them think, "Oh, everything is fine."

Yeah, everything is fine; but, why are those animals getting on the ark. All right?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Laughter.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Sister White says they are struggling in vain to put business operations on a more secure basis.

> —"[22] And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother. [23] In that day,"—9/11—"saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet [MAKE THEE AS A SEAL]: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts." Haggai 2:20-23 (KJV).

The sealing process begins as He arises to shake terribly the Earth, when the great buildings of New York City are thrown down.

This here, Zechariah 4, is about the work of Zerubbabel in Millerite History and in our history.

ZECHARIAH 5

And then in chapter 5, there is a flying scroll.

> "[1] Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked and behold a flying roll. [2] And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. [3] Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it. [4] I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof." Zechariah 5:1-4 (KJV).

You can look at two quotes from the Spirit of Prophecy.

The New York Indicator, February 7, 1906:

> "The Spirit who asked Zechariah, 'What seest thou?' to which he answered, 'I see a flying roll,' also caused an angel to fly in the midst of heaven, 'having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him [let no glory be given to erring, sinful men]; for the hour of his judgment is come.' Many indeed will not understand, but will stumble at the words contained in the roll." The New York Indicator, February 7, 1906.

Signs of the Times, June 2, 1890:

> "'Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll. And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth; for everyone that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and everyone that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it. I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name; and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.'
> "The angel is represented as flying through the midst of heaven with a roll in his hand, on which are written the deeds of our daily life. God bears long with the children of men, but there is a time coming when he will cease to bear with them. God wants them to get under the cover of his wings. Jesus is pleading his blood in our behalf, but Satan is standing at his right hand, resisting every effort in our behalf. May God help us to humble our hearts, before it shall be forever too late to make wrongs right." Signs of the Times, June 2, 1890.

This scroll goes out over the whole Earth. It is the Three Angels' Messages. According to Sister White, it is the Law of God; but, it is going to test the eleventh hour workers, and it is going to test Adventism.

And, have you ever seen a flying carpet in some old-time movie, you know, there is a flying carpet?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: No.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No?

Well, let us just turn it so we can understand the visual part of it.

Have you ever seen an airplane?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Affirmations.)

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Okay. So, Zechariah here sees a flying scroll in the heavens.

Does he hear it? No, he does not hear it.

See, judgment begins with the House of God.

This is the House of God [Adventism], and then it goes to the 11th Hour Workers. And one of the components of the testing process for both these houses (God's sheep, and God's other sheep) is a visual test. Okay? It is a visual test.

And this scroll is representing a visual test.

The visual test for Adventism are these two Charts [the 1843 and 1850 Charts]. The visual test for the eleventh hour workers is the ensign that is lifted up at The Sunday Law.

So, this scroll, this scroll for Adventism that goes around the whole world, are these two Charts.

The scroll that goes to the eleventh hour workers are those people at The Sunday Law that are lifted up as an ensign because they are perfectly reflecting the character of Christ.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: They are the jewels.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: They are the jewels of the temple.

All we are doing is—

FROM THE AUDIENCE: You were in chapter 5.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: What did I say 5 was [filling in Figure No.188 on the whiteboard]?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Chapter 5 was the flying scroll.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Verses 1-4, the scroll [in chapter 5 of Zechariah].

And Zechariah 5, verses 5 through 11.

Verses 5 through 11 of Zechariah 5:

> "[5] Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. [6] And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah"—THIS IS A BASKET—"that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance"—

So, initially, it is a basket, but then he tells us it is many baskets; because, this is their resemblance. Of course, this basket: the Catholic Church. It is all over the world, many Catholic Churches, many baskets. This is easy to see, by the way.

> —"This is their resemblance through all the earth."—THEY ALL LOOK THE SAME—"[7] And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah. [8] And he said, This is wickedness."—

Wickedness, according to William Miller, on 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, represents the Papacy. This is wicked. Okay?

> —"This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah;"—

Now, the Papacy is cast into the basket.

> —"and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof."—

The Papacy receives a deadly wound here in 1798. It is locked as a church only, not as a political power.

And then it says,

> —"[9] Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women,"—

Spiritualism and Apostate Protestantism (the Dragon and the False Prophet), two churches, two women, and they are going to do something.

> —"and the wind was in their wings;"—

The reason they are making this move that is going to lift the Papacy up between Heaven and Earth and put her on their place in Babylon, the reason that they are going to do is that the wind is carrying them, and the wind that is carrying them is the East Wind of Islam of Bible prophecy.

> —"[9] Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind"—9/11—"was in their wings, for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven."—

Between Heaven and Earth, between Heaven and Earth. Heaven is where Christ is, and Christ is giving the Final Warning Message;; and, this ephah of the Catholic Church that is being lifted up by the Dragon power of the United Nations and the False Prophet (the United States);

Apostate Protestantism and Spiritualism. And this ephah is standing between Heaven and Earth. Earth is the intended receiver of the Final Warning Message, and the Catholic Church is trying to block that Message. It is lifted up between Heaven and Earth just as the Catholic Church is trying to block the Final Warning Message in Daniel 11:40-45, when a message from the East and the North comes out of the glorious holy mountain, intended for the people of the world to see, and the Papacy places itself in the middle of it to block the message. Once again we see the Papacy doing the same thing.

Verse 10:

> —"[10] Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah? [11] And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar [BABYLON]: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base." Zechariah 5:5-11 (KJV).

So, this is the story of the deadly wound.

Are you with me?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

ZECHARIAH 6

Zechariah 6:1-8

Zechariah 6:9-15

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Then in chapter 6, verses 1 through 8, is a repeat of the first four Seals.

> "[1] And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. [2] In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses; [3] And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses. [4] Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord? [5] And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the LORD of all the earth. [6] The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country. [7] And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth."—

Notice verse 8, after he once again sees these horses representing the first four Seals. In verse 8, it says about these horses,

> —"[8] Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country." Zechariah 6:1-8 (KJV).

Okay. When the Spirit has quieted the north country, the trampling down time is finished. The scattering is finished.

And this here [the 1260 from AD538 to 1798] is dealing with this scattering here; but, more importantly, it is dealing with this scattering here [Adventism]. It gets finished in 1989. The Dirt Brush Man now moves into history and begins to sweep away the traditions and customs that have been covered up the truths.

And in verses 9 through 15 [of Zechariah 6], is a repeat of all of this.

This [verses 1-8 of Zechariah, chapter 6] is the "Four Seals."

And this [verses 9-15 of Zechariah, chapter 6] is the "Repetition of Millerite History," and then it ends. And then it ends.

Notice this passage in verse 9.

> "[9] And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [10] Take of them of the captivity,"—

What is the captivity? It is Babylon. Take some people out of Babylon.

The Millerites came out of Babylon. They came out after 1798.

After what? After the Fourth Seal; so, it is right in context.

> —"even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon,"—

Who are the three messengers that come from Babylon? This is the Three Angels' Messages coming out of Babylon.

> —"and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;"—

What house are they going into? Josiah's. They are going into the Most Holy Place in 1844.

> —"[11] Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest;"—

Okay. They come out of Babylon, these three people come out of Babylon. In 1844 they go into the Most Holy Place with the High Priest. Is that Millerite History or is it not?

Verse 12:

> —"[12] And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH;"—

You go into the Most Holy Place to see the High Priest: "Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH."

Who is that?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Christ.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is Christ. Okay?

So, all this is in agreement with correct Adventist understanding.

> —"and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall"—DO WHAT?—"build the temple of the LORD:"—

And He built the temple of the Lord from 1798 to 1844, in agreement with this history that is right here being set forth that follows the four Seals.

> —"[13] Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both."—

Now, notice this. There is going to be a little curve ball here; and, if you do not look for the curve ball, you are going to swing and miss.

> —"[14] And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah,"—

What happened there?

There are still three guys here, but they have some different names.

In other words, at the beginning of Adventism, you have three guys; but, at the end of Adventism, when this history is being repeated, we are to understand that it is being repeated because these guys have different names.

Of course, if you get into the names, which of course we are not going to do, they all contribute to this story. This is a repetition of the Millerite History here; and, the same thing is going to happen to us at the end of the four Seals scattering that comes to a conclusion in 1989, the same process. And, we are going to have to move into the Most Holy Place with Christ, only we are not going to move into the Judgment of the Dead; we are going to move into the Judgment of the Living. It is the same history.

> —"[14] And the crowns shall be to Helem,"—

Who at the beginning of Adventism was Heldai (in verse 10).

> —"and to Tobijah,"—

Which was the same; because, the Second and Fourth Angels' Messages are the same.

> —"and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah,"—

Which was formerly Jedaiah in verse 10.

> —"for a memorial in the temple of the LORD. [15] And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD,"—

Who is going to build the temple of the Lord?

Who is going to build the final perfect temple of the Lord?

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The Outcasts.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: The Outcasts, yes, that is a correct answer.

FROM THE AUDIENCE: (Indiscernible).

BROTHER PIPPENGER: Based upon the verse, who is going to do it? "They that are far off."

FROM THE AUDIENCE: The eleventh hour workers.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: No, no, no, no.

In Zechariah's day, who was the farthest off from Zechariah? The 144,000, they that are far off.

This is not Millerite History. These are those that were used to build the temple of the Lord that are the farthest off in history. This is the 144,000. "They that are far off." That is you and me, Brothers and Sisters.

> —"shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God." Zechariah 6:9-15 (KJV).

Period. End of vision.

Chapters 1 through 6, it is all the same testimony about the repetition of the Millerite History in our day, based upon this history in this day [of the Babylonian captivity].

And when Zechariah became part of the prophecy, he represented God's people at the end of the world.

So, now I want to go to Daniel 12 and bring this to a close and nail it upon the wall of the Internet.

We know that in Daniel 10:1 we are told that Daniel has the understanding of the b and the mareh vision.

We have demonstrated that the b is simply another way that Daniel is identifying the c n vision.

So, in Daniel 10:1, when Daniel becomes part of the vision, he is representing God's people at the end of the world that understand both the mareh and the c n vision. And we know that he is illustrating God's people at the end of the world because he immediately, in verse 2 and onward, goes into a fast, which we are to do in the Day of Atonement, and then ultimately he sees a vision of Jesus Christ and he is humbled into the dust; but, he is the only one that sees the marah vision. The men that were with him fled; thus, identifying the separation of Adventism, the shaking out of those who refused to walk in the Old Paths.

But, when we get to the end of this vision in chapter 12, we see something very curious, perhaps a contradiction in verse 5 [of chapter 12 of Daniel]. It says,

> "[5] Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. [6] And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? [7] And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. "[8]And I heard, but I understood not: . . ." Daniel 12:5-8, in part (KJV).

This cannot be Daniel. The very first thing that we are told about this vision is he understands. This cannot be Daniel. This has to be the Millerites; it has to be us.

And, we have already shown that verse 7, the "time, times, and an half" is referencing the 2520. This is not just the 1260 years of Papal rule; because, we are told this is the end of the scattering of the holy people, and the holy people—Ancient Israel is the holy people. We looked at it in Deuteronomy. They are the holy people that get scattered.

And their power we looked at. The pride of their power, according to Leviticus 26, that was to be broken was their desiring a king. And the power is broken when the national sovereignty is removed and the scattering begins. And for the Northern Kingdom it was 723BC and for the Southern Kingdom it was 677BC.

The terms here in verse 7 allow you to see that the scattering that is being discussed is in connection with breaking the power of the holy people, and that is referencing Leviticus 26 when the pride of their power is swept away.

And William Miller is here illustrated. He begins studying the Bible in the Millerite History, and the first thing that he comes to is the scattering of the holy people, Leviticus 26.

And when he first sees it, "I saw, but I understood not."

But, the same angel that is instructing Daniel, we are told, is instructing William Miller; so, this angel opens up the 2520 to William Miller.

But, here at the end of the world, it also represents God's people who come to 9/11, and the 2520 is opened up and we understood not, and then we have the choice of returning to the Old Paths and understanding, or refusing to walk therein and not understanding.

So, what you can bring on this argument, Brothers and Sisters, if you can follow this here, is in Isaiah 6, when Isaiah is illustrating God's people who are going to carry the Final Warning Message, once he has been prepared, humbled into the dust, purified with the coal, warned about the mentality of Adventism, and then instructed that he has to do this work until The Sunday Law, then in chapter 7 of Isaiah, the message of the waters of Siloam, which is the Latter Rain Message, the message that Isaiah is given to carry to Ahaz, is the message that marks the beginning of both 2520s.

So, the first message that Isaiah is given in his history is the 2520, in that illustration in Isaiah 7.

And in Ezekiel 37, we see the two-step message of the First and Second Angels' Messages, that brings the bones together (the First Angel's Message), that brings them to life (the Second Angel's Message).

Then, Ezekiel repeats and enlarges, and he is going to tell us what his first message is. He says, "Go stand before God's people and show them the two 2520s, and let them know that in 1844 spiritual Israel is one nation.

So, with Isaiah, the message he is given first off is the 2520.

With Ezekiel, the message he is given first off is the 2520.

And here in Daniel 12, the message that William Miller is given first off is the 2520.

And at 9/11, the first message that confronts those that are going to be tested by these things is the 2520.

But, in Daniel 12, Miller also (Daniel, representing Miller and us) has to come to understand the Daily, the truth that has been turned upside down, the truth that the Daily represents Paganism, which we [Adventism] now believe is Christ's Sanctuary ministry.

And Miller comes to understand it correctly through the guidance of the angel Gabriel. And in so doing, he not only has a confirmation about 1798 and the Papacy and how the Papacy is set up over the 30-year period but he has a revelation about 1843, "Blessed is he who cometh to the first disappointment," because there you are getting prepared to participate in the Midnight Cry which will lead you into the Most Holy Place.

And in our day and age, we have to come to understand the 2520 just like William Miller did, and then we have to get our head straight on about the Daily because it has been turned upside down in the history of Adventism.

And then we have got to realize that the bright light behind us that cast light all the way along the road is the 1335, which marks the dynamics associated with the Midnight Cry.

It is the same history. Daniel is here representing both the Millerites and us at the end of the world.

Powerful stuff!

I wish I had the ability to convey it the way it needs to be conveyed; but, it does not matter. It is still powerful stuff.

And what Brother Emiliano came across, powerful stuff! For the first time in Advent History, we can see connected with the 2300-day prophecy point blank the first disappointment and the Midnight Cry. Wow!

FROM THE AUDIENCE: Amen.

BROTHER PIPPENGER: That is confirming the emphasis of the Millerite History. It is shining light on the very doctrine that Adventism says it understands and does not!

The Lion of the Tribe of Judah is not just recovering jewels that have been covered up with customs and traditions, He is taking some of them that were still there and polishing them, polishing them like they have never been polished before; thus showing, if you are willing to see, where the light is coming from here at the end of the world. It is not coming from the ancient men that despises the day of small things. It is coming from people that are being the Outcasts of Israel.

Shall we pray?

Benediction: Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have brought this series to a conclusion. I thank you for that; but, we thank you for the fact that you are continuing to open light before us. You are raising your glorious right hand, and the light on the Path in front of us is bright and profound, and the light that is behind us, the Midnight Cry, grows brighter and brighter. We ask that you give us the willingness, the consecration, the dedication to stay on that Path; because, we know that in the near future that Path is going to get very narrow, very difficult. But, if we will only stay on that Path, we are going to come to that cord and swing over to the Earth made new. We want that to happen with each and every one of us. We want these truths to be the truths that are recognized by the students of prophecy at the end of the world that allow them to take into themselves that the Incarnation can be accomplished in their experience. We continue to ask for traveling mercies for those that are heading home from these meetings, and we continue to ask for healing for those that have been confronted with the sickness that has been pushed into this work here. And we thank you for all these things in Jesus's name. Amen.
